Back To Blue Laws In New Jersey, Is Threat

BAN ON AUTO AND MUSIC LOOMS IN CRUSADE

Many Thousands to Face Indictment; Clash Over Strict Enforcement

By JACK CARBERRY
For International News Service
JERSEY CITY, N. J., March 11.—Twentieth century New Jersey today faced the threat of returning to all but the old stocks and pillory of 1789.

Edward S. Ransom, Jr., president of the Sunday League of New Jersey, announced he would appear before the city commission and demand that:

- 1 All automobile traffic be suspended on Sunday.
- 2 The playing of phonographs, radio receiving and broadcasting and the holding of parties be declared illegal.

Ransom said he would act under the statute passed in 1798 and never repealed.

Pastor States Views

"It is my opinion that this move is but an effort to bring public disfavor on the legitimate efforts of sincere clergymen to enforce that portion of the law relating to the operation of theatres on Sunday," declared Rev. James Fraker, pastor of the second United Presbyterian church and a leader in the Sunday closing fight.

Twenty thousand violations were found in the county. Names of these were given to the grand jury today. Wholesale indictments are expected.

Many persons were openly hostile to the "blue law crusade." Others laughed.

No Joke, Says Chief

But Police Chief Richard B. Battersby of Jersey City declared the affair was no joke.

"Wait until next Sunday and see," he said, explaining that if Ransom's plea to the grand jury was effective, police would report every motorist, radio and phonograph user, every boy and girl playing at games and all persons attending parties.

Ransom said that if his motion to the city commission was carried, only three things would be legal next Sunday. These, he said, were:

- 1 For people either to walk to church or go there by carriage, but not by automobile.
- 2 Stay home and read the newspapers—newspapers can be printed and vended under the blue laws.
- 3 Get out of the state Saturday night and return Monday.

"If we're going to have blue laws," Ransom declared, "let's have them all the way—just the way they are written on the statute books."

SINCLAIR READY TO CONTEST SUIT

Oil Magnate, With Battery Of Legal Talent, Will Fight for Leases

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Mar. 11.—Harry F. Sinclair, accompanied by a battery of lawyers, is expected to arrive here late today to prepare a vigorous contest against the federal government's proposed legal steps, which will be initiated here Thursday, to secure annulment of the lease of the famous Teapot dome oil structure which former Secretary of the Interior A. B. Fall made with Sinclair.

To Ask Injunction

Atlee Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts, special government counsel appointed by President Coolidge to handle the case against Sinclair, are expected here tomorrow to seek recovery of the naval fuel reserves from Sinclair. In addition to the annulment suits it is expected the government attorneys will ask for an injunction restraining the Sinclair interests from extracting further oil from the Wyoming reserve.

A. B. Cass, Phone Company Executive, Found Dead In Bed

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Financial circles of this city were shocked today to learn of the death of A. B. Cass, president of the Southern California Telephone company. The death of Mr. Cass, which occurred some time during the night, was not discovered until this morning when he was found dead in his bed in his home in Fair Oaks avenue, South Pasadena.

Mr. Cass had been in excellent health, it was stated, and his death was a complete surprise.

WOMAN TELLS GERMANY'S PLIGHT

Mark's Condition Indicates Early Stabilization, Says Mrs. Kayser

Conditions in republican Germany are discussed with candor and insight by Mrs. Carl F. Kayser, now a guest with her brother and family, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Eble of 226 South Louise street.

Recently returned from her seventh trip to the land formerly dominated by the Hohenzollerns, Mrs. Kayser is well qualified to speak on the subject.

Better for Germans

"The mark has reached the bottom," she says. "This is good. It means a general stabilization, which is what the people need. While travel in Germany may not now be as favorable for foreigners, because dollars and pounds will not buy as much as they bought a year ago, life in the country is better for Germans."

"There is little actual poverty, no downright hunger. Many stories that seep into the American papers are grossly exaggerated. Fantastically distorted. One might gather that Germany had gone entirely to the dogs. This is far from so. While it is true that the great middle classes, the

F. B. SILVERWOOD SUFFERS STROKE

Prominent L. A. Merchant Close to Death From Paralysis, Unconscious

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—F. B. Silverwood, widely known Los Angeles merchant, philanthropist, song writer and clubman, is near death as the result of two strokes of paralysis suffered on Sunday, it was learned today.

"He has a fighting chance for recovery," Dr. Ross Moore, his physician, said today. "Mr. Silverwood suffered a slight stroke Sunday morning. He was unable to converse with his friends at that time. On Sunday afternoon he suffered a more severe stroke and has been unconscious since that time."

McCormack's Wife and Daughter In Crash

LYONS, France, March 11.—Mrs. John McCormack, wife of the Irish-American singer, and her 15-year-old daughter, Gwen, are in the hospital here today, suffering from cuts and bruises sustained in the wreck of the Galois Mediterranean express.

Their condition is not serious and they will be able to leave in four or five days.

Four persons were killed and twenty injured in the disaster, but the McCormacks were the only American victims.

Mrs. McCormack and her daughter were on the way to Monte Carlo from London. Their sleeping car was derailed and the daughter was tossed a considerable distance. Both were cut by flying glass and splinters of wood. They were removed to a hospital.

FRUIT CROPS RUINED BY STORMS

Cloudburst Strikes Florida Damaging Wide Area Around Orlando

ORLANDO, Fla., March 11.—A cloudburst, followed by a terrific gale, has caused considerable damage to fruit crops in this section, according to messages drifting into Orlando today from growers over this section.

The damage, it was said, resulted in those sections where the fruit had been unpicked. In some quarters, the reports said, three-fourths of the unpicked fruit had been destroyed.

Damage Is Heavy

Official figures have it that between seven and eight million boxes of fruit, mostly grapefruit, were damaged in the groves near here at the time of the cloudburst Sunday. The heavy rain was followed by a strong gale yesterday which has been sweeping across this section.

The wind brushed unpicked fruit to the ground where most of it will perish before it can be shipped, growers agreed. Although the exact damage has not been determined, it was generally conceded that in some sections as much as three-fourths of the fruit was lost.

Gale Hits Gotham

NEW YORK, March 11.—A terrific sleet and windstorm which raged along the Atlantic coast from Hatteras to Nantucket, enveloped New York today, delaying traffic, causing considerable damage and resulting in one death and injuries to scores.

Max Notkin, 32, was killed by an automobile when a blinding rain caused him to walk into the path of the car.

Scores of other accidents were reported to police.

In Grip of Storm

WASHINGTON, March 11.—All hopes of an early spring were dissipated along the Atlantic seaboard today under a torrent of cold rain and snow. A storm which centered off the Virginia capes last night moved northward this morning, accompanied by shifting gales and leaving havoc in its wake.

'Not Guilty' Is Plea Of Indiana Governor

INDIANAPOLIS, Mar. 11.—Governor Warren T. McCray entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of violating the national banking laws, when arraigned before Federal Judge Albert B. Anderson today. Amos D. Morris, cashier of the Kentland Discount and Deposit bank, of which Governor McCray was president until shortly before it was closed, pleaded guilty to the same charge.

LATEST NEWS

Lenroot Quits!

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, resigned this afternoon as chairman of the public lands committee, which for several months has been conducting an investigation of the naval oil leases. Lenroot sent his resignation from Southern Pines, N. C., where he went a week ago to recuperate, he said, from nervous exhaustion brought about by his labors in the oil investigation. His resignation as chairman of the investigating committee, carries with it his resignation as a member of the committee. Senator Ladd, Republican, of North Dakota, automatically succeeds the Wisconsin senator as chairman.

Bank Robbery!

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Four men, heavily armed, held up the Antelope Valley bank at Lancaster shortly before noon, locked four employees and a customer in a vault, and escaped with $2800 in cash, according to a report flashed to the sheriff's office here. Two of the bandits are said to have carried out the robbery while their two companions guarded the door. After closing the vault with the five persons inside, the men are reported to have scooped up the money and fled. A posse of deputy sheriffs are scouring the countryside for the men.

Full Publicity Is Promised By Senate Jury At Hearing For Attorney General

Full publicity. That is the plan decided on by the jury of senators sitting in judgment on Harry M. Daugherty, attorney-general of the United States, who is accused of malfeasance in office. The investigation will at all times be under the full control of the committee. Counsel of Daugherty will be allowed to be present at the hearing, but will not be given wide powers of cross examination, nor authority to summon witnesses, except those who are proved to the committee to be necessary.

OPERATIONS ON TEAPOT CONTINUE

Work Will Not Stop While Litigation Is Under Way, Say U. S. Counsel

CHICAGO, March 11.—Operations on Teapot Dome lease will not be stopped during the litigation testing their validity, Senator Atlee Pomerene, special government counsel, declared today on his arrival here with Owen J. Roberts, his co-worker, en route to Cheyenne, where legal proceedings open Thursday.

The party, of which Mrs. Pomerene was a member, remained in Chicago hardly an hour.

Will Not Be Stopped

"We shall file a bill in equity for the government at Cheyenne Thursday," Senator Pomerene said. "We shall also ask for the appointment of a receiver to protect the government interests during the litigation and for an injunction to prevent the drilling of new wells. Operations already under way will not be stopped."

"It looks now as if all civil proceedings will be instituted in Cheyenne and all criminal action, if any, at Washington. Details of just what the government will ask in its civil suits will be determined by what we find in Cheyenne."

Get Little Information

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The Senate committee investigating the oil scandal today decided not to make any more telegrams public for the present, but later summoned John F. Major, Edward B. McLean's confidential agent, to the witness stand.

Major was questioned about the trip made with McLean in December to Atlantic City, to see former Secretary Fall, but the committee got little from him.

Major repeatedly professed ignorance of what transpired in the conference, finally shouting: "I don't know what they did. I don't suppose McLean went there to talk about the weather with Fall. My inference is they talked about the loan. He didn't go there to say how do you do?"

Rail Magnate's Widow In Record Train Run

CHICAGO, March 11.—After a record-breaking run from Los Angeles in 49 hours and 15 minutes, a special train bearing Mrs. Alfred H. Smith, widow of the president of the New York Central lines, killed in a fall from a horse in New York, left Chicago at 3:45 a. m. today. The running time, Los Angeles to Chicago, is 68 hours.

Mrs. Smith expected to arrive at her home at Chappaqua, West Chester county, New York, at 9 p. m., making a record coast-to-coast run.

Convict, Freed by Wife's Plea, Dies As Liberty Dawns

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Death's shadow, which a few hours before had obtained his release from San Quentin prison, settled today over John E. Weller.

Weller, dead here today, was released yesterday from the prison, where he was serving seven years for embezzlement of $170,000 from a Fort Bragg bank, after frantic appeals to members of the state prison board by his wife.

Half-conscious, he was rushed by Mrs. Weller to the outside world, but death closed in almost before his eyes caught a final fleeting glance of the outside world.

REPORT AGED DOCTOR IS MISSING

Police Start Search for Dr. William Greene, Who Left Sanitarium

Complete mystery surrounds the whereabouts and disappearance of Dr. William Greene, who walked away from a sanitarium conducted at 2301 Sierra avenue by Mrs. L. W. Chohe, yesterday morning.

Although the local police were notified yesterday afternoon and relatives in Los Angeles summoned to assist in the search, no trace of the missing man had been found up to a late hour today.

Cared for Flowers

Dr. Greene, who is 76 years of age, worked around the yard of the sanitarium yesterday morning, as is his custom. He turned on the water to sprinkle the lawn and tended to a flower bed which has been his special care for some time past. He was seen by hospital attendants walking toward a small house in the front of the grounds where it had been his custom to take a "sun bath" on pleasant mornings.

He was not missed until a friend of Mrs. Chohe, who is looking after the sanitarium while Mrs. Chohe made a short trip to the country, went to take him the morning paper.

Alarm Given

His absence from his usual haunt gave no cause for immediate alarm, and it was not until some time later that the alarm was given when his friends were worried over his failure to return.

According to reports at the sanitarium, he has walked away before, but has usually been found before getting very far. On account of his advanced age some apprehension is felt for his safety. He is described as having a shuffling gait, and walks with a cane. His clothes, in the description afforded the police, were described as "rather shabby."

Another Missing

Ralph Grabill, 398 West Wilson avenue, reported to the police last yesterday the disappearance of George Bowen, who has been missing from that address since March 7.

He was employed by the Glendale Creamery company. He is described as being 20 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches in height, of light complexion, and light hair.

SILK MILL FIRE TAKES 100 LIVES

Women Trapped In Shanghai Plant by Screens on Factory Windows

SHANGHAI, Mar. 11.—Revised estimates late this afternoon placed the number of dead in a fire which swept a four-story silk factory in the heart of the city today at 100.

Early this afternoon 51 bodies had been recovered from the ruins of the building. The dead include a score of Russian refugees, who, destitute, were working in the factory. (Continued on page 3)

PRESIDENT'S PLEA COMES IN SPECIAL MESSAGE

Congressional Leaders Do Not Look With Favor On His Request

WASHINGTON, March 11.—President Coolidge sent a special message to Congress today asking that a special resolution be enacted before March 15 (Saturday) permitting a 25 per cent horizontal reduction in 1923 income tax—but the word traveled back to the White House from congressional leaders within a hour that the outlook for such action was exceedingly dark.

President Coolidge in his special message to the sixty-eighth Congress urged that it enact once a separate resolution which will provide a reduction of 25 per cent in federal income taxes, applying to 1923 incomes.

Meets Opposition

The transmission of the message today followed speedily upon the death of Republican leader in Congress yesterday in turning down this selfsame resolution. They contend that inasmuch as the 25 per cent reduction was contained in the general tax bill there was no occasion for passing a special resolution at this time.

Democrats and insurgent Republicans are also opposed to it, fearing what it will presage to the way for President Coolidge to veto the general tax bill, once the 2 per cent is made to apply to current taxes.

Text of Message

The text of the president's message follows:

"It has been my earnest hope that a 25 per centum reduction in taxes to be paid for the current year may be provided by law before the 15th of March in current year. Many people have been expecting that such would be the case and deferred their tax payments accordingly."

"It is a matter of prime importance that I have no hesitation in recommending that the public welfare would be much advanced by temporarily laying aside all other legislation and enacting a resolution for this purpose, consented to be by unanimous consent. The taxpayers, the business interests, agriculture, industry, finance; in fact, all the elements that go to make up the economic welfare of the people of America."

RECOVER EIGHTY BURNED BODIES

Utah Mine Main Tunnel Is Penetrated, May Call For Relief Fund

CASTLE GATE, Utah, March 11.—With rescue workers having succeeded in penetrating the entire depth of the main tunnel, eighty blackened and burned bodies had been removed from mine No. 2 of the Utah Fuel company at 10 o'clock today, where a series of blasts last Saturday imprisoned 171 coal miners.

Government mine rescue officials had finished exploring the main tunnel at this hour and found no signs of life, ending all hope that any of the victims would be taken out alive.

It was said today that 868 widows and children are left without bread-winners as a result of the catastrophe. The state of Utah, as well as the nation, probably will be called upon today through proclamation by Governor Charles R. Mabey to raise a relief fund for the surviving relatives of the mine victims.

Earth Tremors Felt For More Than Hour

WASHINGTON, Mar. 11.—A severe earthquake occurred about 2,000 miles south of Washington this morning, according to records on the seismograph at Georgetown university.

Heavy winds interfered with the instrument's making reliable records, but Father Tondorf, the observer, estimated that the quake started at 5:52 a. m. and continued until 7 a. m. It was most severe between 5:57 a. m. and 6:01 a. m.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Clinic Speaker
"Home Problems" will be discussed Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the Maids and Young Matrons' department of the Tuesday Afternoon club, by a representative of the Anita Baldwin clinic at the California Lutheran hospital.

Music for the afternoon will be given by Mrs. D. F. Reichard and Mrs. A. L. Ferguson. Mrs. Paul E. Webb will be the accompanist.

Mrs. Reichard will sing "Whisper, I Shall Hear" (Piccolomini), with violin obligato by Mrs. Ferguson. Mrs. Ferguson's violin number will be Beethoven's "Minuet."

Mrs. C. G. Putnam, curator, will be in charge of the meeting beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

Birthday Party
To assist in the celebration of his birthday anniversary, B. H. Fellows was given an old-fashioned surprise party of a coterie of congenial friends Saturday night at his home, 421 East Windsor road.

A pleasing program of music and games was presented during the evening, including vocal selections by Miss Florence Johnson, L. Grattias and F. Meiding. Miss B. Sutton gave a delightful Spanish dance and F. Meiding created a number of laughs with his impersonation of "A Genial Fellow from Arizona."

Several games were played, including "Going Up," the old Chinese game, "Oh-wah-ta-go Siam," and others. A part of the evening's diversion was the playing of progressive five hundred, at which Mrs. L. D. Johnson and B. L. Sutton were awarded prizes for high score and Mrs. F. Meiding and L. D. Johnson were given the consolation prizes.

Music for the dancing, which included some of the old fashioned dances, was furnished by Mrs. Thomas Weatherford, Miss Sutton and Mrs. B. H. Fellows.

At a late hour delicious refreshments were served. At this time Mr. Fellows was presented with a number of lovely gifts as birthday reminders, including a large basket filled with Heinz famous 57 varieties of good things, cigars and a beautiful silver and gold inlaid B. P. O. E. receipt holder.

Those who enjoyed the affair were Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Johnson and Miss Florence Johnson of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. F. Beckler of Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Zell of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. F. Meiding, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weatherford, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Joliffe, Miss Margie Joliffe, Miss B. Sutton, Miss Lillian Sutton, W. H. Evans, W. Conrad, and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Fellows and little Miss Georgia Fellows, all of Glendale.

Plan For Concert
Madrigal club members are preparing to give a sacred concert April 4 at the First Congregational church. It was announced at the weekly rehearsal yesterday at the church. Mrs. Charles A. Parker, director, was in charge.

On Thursday of this week the club members will be received at the home of Mrs. H. L. Bullinger at 205 North Central avenue for a St. Patrick's party. Mrs. MacMullin's team, which lost in the membership drive early in the club year, will be hostesses.

Hear Mrs. Evans
Mrs. W. E. Evans was in charge of the program yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Parliamentary Law department of the Tuesday Afternoon club. The lesson was "Subsidiary, Privileged and Incidental Motions."

The meeting was preceded by a 12 o'clock luncheon.

Mrs. C. A. Brandstater, curator, opened the afternoon meeting and Mrs. P. S. McNatt, former parliamentary of the club, was among those participating in the drill led by Mrs. Evans.

Church Dinner
Women of the Broadway Methodist church have planned to give another of their popular dinners on Thursday night in the Sunday school room beginning at 6:30 o'clock. A large attendance with a general good time is anticipated.

ACACIA FATHERS GIVE PROGRAM
Entertainment at Glendale Avenue School Judged Best by Club

With over 600 guests present the entertainment given last night by the Acacia Avenue Fathers club at the Glendale avenue school auditorium will be recorded in the annals of that organization as the most successful enterprise ever attempted by this energetic body of men who are setting the standard for other similar organizations in the city.

Appearing on the program were the Glendale Union High school orchestra; the three Sutton sisters in songs and dances; Miss Beatrice Sasse in vocal selections; Miss Campbell of the Little Players' studio in readings and impersonations; Miss Mildred E. Hughey, supervisor of music at the Glendale avenue school, in vocal numbers, accompanied by Miss Gladys Sharpe, vice-principal.

Forty New Members
Following the excellent program, a short talk on the duties of the members of the club was given by A. E. Bryan, chairman of the entertainment committee who was in charge of the evening. Following his address, forty new members were taken into the club. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to conclude the entertainment.

The Acacia Avenue Fathers' club, of which H. A. Miller is president, now has 85 members, and has been of valuable assistance to Miss L. May Cornwall, the principal, and the teachers, in instructing the residents of that section in the school work.

Welfare Chest Plans For Second Payment
The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Glendale Welfare Chest was held yesterday afternoon, and the treasurer was instructed to pay the second quarterly instalments of the allotments made to the various organizations, so far as funds will permit.

There is now outstanding in pledges due, a sum sufficient to pay the remainder of the second instalment and contributors whose payments are due are earnestly requested to send in their payments and relieve the chest organization of the expense of sending out another statement.

"Being our first attempt to put the Chest plan into operation here, many have been overlooked, and if there are those who desire to make subscriptions to the Chest or increase their pledges already made, their co-operation will be greatly appreciated by the officers of the Glendale Welfare Chest, and the participating organizations, which are very much in need of funds to 'carry on,'" says Burton McGinnis, the secretary.

George Person First To Occupy Mausoleum
The first body to be committed at the mausoleum at Grand View cemetery will be that of George Leroy Person, whose death occurred last October, the committal services to take place tomorrow, Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. W. E. Edmonds will officiate.

Mr. Person is survived by his wife, Violet Person, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Person.

The L. G. Scovern Undertaking company, directors.

Report on Broadway Fathers' Show Indicate Profit Despite Storm

At the business meeting held last night by the members of the executive board of the Fathers' auxiliary of the Broadway Parent-Teacher association, at the home of the treasurer, Grover Loftus, 1241 East Orange Grove avenue, reports were given relative to the recent vaudeville show given under the auspices of the auxiliary.

The treasurer reported the gross receipts amounted to $571.00. The committee in charge of the affair reported an expense account of $60.00 for rent of the auditorium and an equal amount for advertising and printing of tickets and also a nominal sum was paid to several of those taking part in the affair, leaving a substantial amount to be added to the treasury fund.

In view of the fact that the Broadway district barely escaped from the flood, the committee members were very well satisfied with the results of the affair.

Meet on March 21
During the session a committee was appointed for looking into the matter of the purchasing of a mimeograph for the school.

It was also announced that the next meeting would be a joint affair of the Fathers' auxiliary and the Parent-Teacher association, and would be held at the schoolhouse on Friday night, March 21, at 8 o'clock, for a social time.

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, which would regularly be held on Thursday afternoon, will be postponed is announced. However, the executive board meeting will be held as usual Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, with Mrs. Mary Reese, president, in charge.

CLUB MEMBERS TO HONOR PRESIDENT
Special Musical Program Is Planned for Friday Afternoon Event

With St. Patrick's birthday but a few days off it is most fitting that on Friday afternoon the music department of the Tuesday Afternoon club should honor the club president, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, who claims as her birthplace "The Emerald Isle."

Mrs. Warren Roberts, curator of the section, has chosen Mrs. Alexander Mitchell as chairman of the program, and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Nathan Risdon and Mrs. E. W. Hayward.

The program will be given by Flora Kilpatrick, soprano; Katherine Jackson, harpist, and Eunice Prosser, violinist.

Announcement Program
Included in the program will be: "Why Weep Thee by the Tide Lade," "Ballad of My Lament," Miss Kilpatrick, accompanied by Mrs. Grant; "Annie Laurie," by Miss Kilpatrick, Irish dance, "Killarney," by Miss Kilpatrick, with harp obligato by Miss Jackson; "Barney O'Hea," by Miss Kilpatrick, "Last Rose of Summer" and "Believe Me," harp solos by Miss Jackson; "Macush-la" by Miss Kilpatrick.

The department meeting will begin at 2:30 o'clock and all club members are invited to attend.

Scout Captains
Girl Scout Captains of the Glendale district met Monday night for their regular monthly discussion of Scout problems and enjoyed an instructive and entertaining talk by Miss Gertrude Hovey, of Hollywood, who is assistant to Miss Vaal Stark of Palo Alto, regional director for Girl Scouts of California.

Mrs. F. A. Beach, Scout commissioner, was chairman of the meeting, other members present included Miss Gladys Sharpe, Mrs. Mable Horner, Mrs. J. E. Buie, Mrs. W. R. Wichart, Mrs. W. E. Rout, Miss Margaret Sharpe, Mrs. Emsley.

Lecture Tonight
Miss Winifred Rouzee, Bible student and teacher, is to speak tonight at the Tuesday Afternoon club under the auspices of the Bible department of which Mrs. C. H. Temple is curator.

The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock and Mrs. Temple emphasizes that Miss Rouzee will present phase of her recent trip to the Holy Land that she has not yet given in Glendale.

There will be no admission charge, and all Glendaleans interested are invited to attend.

MONTROSE ENTERS RACE FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEE

C. J. Reinhard Is Candidate For Union District on March 28th

Backed by the local civic organizations C. J. Reinhard, local business man, is to run as candidate from this entire district as trustee for the Glendale Union High school district. Mr. Reinhard is thoroughly conversant with school work, being principal of one of the large Los Angeles City schools on Vernon avenue. The elections, which will take place March 28, will be to provide trustees and two members of the High school board. So far, this valley has not, it is understood, had a local man on the board and the consensus of opinion seems to be the right man is C. J. Reinhard.

The regular weekly community sings are becoming more popular, each one being better attended than its predecessor. The last sing was no exception and a well pleased audience listened to Director Prosper give a most dramatic interpretation of the great Aria from "Lucia." Mr. Prosper was very well received, as was Mrs. Edwards, also, the latter having a charming voice of rare sweetness. This Thursday sing will be held in the Montrose school house when Miss Eleanor Clark, daughter of Mr. Clark of Ocean View, will sing for the assembly. Miss Clark is said to possess a beautiful voice of great natural depth of tone, one that has been well cultivated.

Mrs. A. F. Hopkins announces Director Prosper needs a few more tenor and bass voices in his concert chorus for the big affair he is planning. Any who care to take part in the concert, will please leave their names and address and range of voice with Director Prosper on Thursday night at the sing. Come and bring your neighbor—it is whispered that Clyde Sanderson may play for the sing, which will be a treat, as Mr. Sanderson has studied abroad for a number of years.

Will Teach Children

Of particular interest to mothers with kiddies of kindergarten age, is the announcement that Mrs. Nielson has turned over her kindergarten to Mrs. F. D. Eichbauer, who will conduct it on the newest lines. Mrs. Eichbauer will give particular time and attention to the upbuilding of the body as well as the mind, and will also give folk dances, which she is particularly adapted to, as she has had several years' study abroad specializing in her line. Mrs. Eichbauer will conduct the kindergarten at her home at 624 Glendale avenue.

The first of the dances to be given by the American Legion, Verdugo Hills Post No. 238, was held on Saturday night at the Sparr Heights Community house—a splendid crowd testified to the popularity of the "Buddies" by turning out in full force. The fun of the evening began when the cast from "Si Sloum's Counting Store" entered, still in costume and time. The tramps and Tilly were immediately questioned to give their dance, which they did while Hiram Plunket and the rest of the cast gave the auto trip, both numbers being heartily applauded. Punch and cake were served and everything was done just right. The boys are looking forward to building a club house some time in the future, when funds permit.

Brother Arrives

Theo Belanger is very happy over the arrival of his brother Dr. Belanger, of Detroit. The doctor will make a visit of some length and Mrs. Belanger's three sisters are also expected very shortly, to visit the Belanger home in Sparr Heights.

In an interview Mr. Hatch, superintendent of the Glendale & Montrose Railroad stated that the railroad does not intend to add any more families to the three now in the railroad settlement on Montrose avenue, where the company has retained four or five acres of their original holdings. "In fact," said Mr. Hatch, "we intend to put a high fence around the three sides of the settlement, leaving it open only on the railroad side for entrance. I am sorry to think the wrong impression was given the property owners by the petition presented for their signatures during the past few days, but far from moving in a new colony we are going to insist that those who are there now keep in the settlement, all their live stock and also keep everything up in A-1 shape."

Members of Cat Club Hold Regular Meeting

The Glendale Cat club held its regular business meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Walter Ross, 1017 San Rafael. Dr. Libbie Ashcroft, president, presided over the meeting.

At this time the committee in charge of the recent cat show, announced a complete report could not be given as all returns were not in.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Maude Durrford, 1313 Manzanita street, Los Angeles.

SUPREME COURT RECESS

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The supreme court of the United States announced today it would take a recess from March 17 to April 7.

COMMENT That's All Standing Here, and There Gone, the Good Old Days Few Philosophers Today World Enjoying a Spruce

Los Angeles has reason to feel anything but proud of its law enforcement agencies. One headline reads "High Police Officials Linked to Crime Ring," while another tells of the "Love Murder of Detective Lieutenant."

And there is no need of permitting the policemen to bear the burden alone. Former deputy sheriffs, former prohibition officers, former attorneys and many other agencies of law and order are implicated in the present plethora of muckraking which has become the habit in these United States.

Also, there is no need to rush forth and declare that the only remedy is the Ku Klux Klan, or some similar order, for we find Edward Young Clarke, former imperial wizard of the nightgown order, pleading guilty in Houston, Tex., to a Mann act charge.

The so-called crime commission in Los Angeles also has had a thorough airing recently and Major Tuller was sent to Washington. Time was when Walt practicing law for a living, but no doubt he liked the job of being the professional target for Los Angeles muckrakers.

It would appear that "Gus" Vollmer, the scientific chief of police in our neighboring metropolis, is ready to retire, otherwise why should he have permitted his photographic likeness in uniform to be printed last week?—the same fatal mistake, as we find in the case of the late Mayor of Los Angeles, and the wonderful album for the files of the invisible government.

Sitting on the sidelines, watching the daily doings, is a privilege granted Glendale people. Whenever the show downtown gets dull to pour oil on the troubled waters in Washington, or drag a dead cat around Glendale, or do something equally devilish.

For instance, a Los Angeles paper threatened to expose vice conditions in Mexicali and Tia Juana. It was a false alarm. Another paper said it would tell the truth about Los Angeles' past. One sheet hammers McAdoo, another Johnson, and betwixt and between, California doesn't seem to have a show outside of the Mission Play or some theatrical attraction.

As the stump speaker once said, "We stand here today." "We stand there tomorrow."

Meanwhile, we have no standing at all. Not any more, thank you.

There was a day when a policeman, for instance, had a standing. He could stand at the back door of a saloon and have as good a view of the world as any other gentleman. Why, we lived in a little town where the lone patrolman used to collect two bits every afternoon for standing around a night. That town, march had had time to sleep, go to church and otherwise act human. Of late years he has been hounded by the county hotel for wife beaters, forgers and other petty criminals.

Yes, there was a day when a deputy sheriff in this Golden state was a riding, sun-fighting hero, who was "law and order." Now they are cake eaters with chauffeurs to see them safely home, it would seem, although some of the old school are still in harness.

"Revenooers" of bygone days walked unarmed into the nests of the moonshiners and made them come to court because it saved trouble for all parties concerned. Now the prohibition agents are recruited from those who desire to learn the hi-jacking profession, or do they take that method to obtain all the liquor they crave? Izzy Einstein, for instance, drinks more liquor, it is said, than any bartender who ever lived. He takes a pride in seeing how quickly he can get a drink.

Montana Triumphs in War on Grasshoppers

HELENA, Mont., Mar. 11.—Although the cost of Montana's campaign during 1923 to combat the grasshopper menace was $125,000, the saving of grain crops within the state due to this campaign was about $15,000,000. The campaign was waged by the United States bureau of entomology, and the results were gleaned from a report prepared by Stewart Lockwood, the entomologist, who directed the war on the pests. The peak of the menace in Montana is past, it is believed; but it is recommended that a similar campaign must be carried on in 1924 in that part of the state west of the Rocky mountains.

Will Honor Memory Of Orville Kimble

The Glendale Taxi Service offices at 111 South Maryland avenue will be closed tomorrow, Wednesday, March 12, from 3 till 5 o'clock, in respect to the memory of Orville Kimble, who passed away March 10, 1924, at his home, 109 West Chestnut street. Mr. Kimble had been connected with the Glendale Taxi Service for the past two years.

Funeral services will be held at the Little Church of the Flowers at Forest Lawn Memorial park tomorrow, Wednesday, March 12, at 3 o'clock.

TUJUNGA JUNIOR HIGH UP FOR DISCUSSION School Trustees to Submit Question at Tujunga P.-T. A. Meeting

Trustees of the Tujunga school will present the Junior High school question to the parents of school children at a "Fathers' Night" to be held by the Parent-Teacher association March 19, in the Tujunga school auditorium. There will be entertainment and refreshments, but the business of the evening will be to get the opinions of the parents on the high school problem. This question has been up for consideration of the Glendale High school district for some time and the trustees of the Tujunga district voted to present the various phases of the situation to the patrons of the school and ask for an expression of opinion as to the wisdom of asking the high school trustees to organize a junior high school at this time.

Tujunga is assured of plenty of water by the resources of the Haines Canyon Water company, which has wells that have always given an abundant supply. Water is obtainable at a shallow depth in most sections along the lower slopes of the valley.

More Temptations

Professor Clifton of Monrovia recently stated in an address before the Tujunga Community Church Men's Brotherhood that the young people of today are not worse than the young people of the past, but that they have more temptations today. A record attendance was present for the regular dinner and program given by the Brotherhood.

The incorporation fever has settled down to a steady simmer and citizens are biding their time until their views may be expressed by a ballot. Many different views have been expressed. There is opposition to including farm or orchard lands in the proposed limits; there is opposition to having any part of the valley excluded from the area; there is opposition to having a small part of the valley incorporated and trying to work out its destiny without the view of all sections. Some hold the view that it would be better to annex to Los Angeles than to have a small area incorporated; others maintain that anything is better than annexing to a larger city.

A musical program will be a feature of the next meeting of the Tujunga Women's club at the Fine Arts Guild studio on Michigan street, March 3.

George Aiken of Tujunga has taken a position on the staff of the Stewart Motor company of Montrose.

Friends of Mrs. Ed Miller surprised her recently with a birthday party at her home.

George Baraby and Fred Sutter are building a residence in the Gem of Tujunga tract.

Mrs. F. C. Scoville has planned a three-months' trip to Hawaii. Her son, Loren, will reside with relatives in Pasadena and complete his studies in the Glendale High school.

Will Conduct Inn

The former residence of Captain Hatch on Monte Vista boulevard has been leased by Mrs. Myer and Mrs. Nicholson, who will conduct an inn for the accommodation of transient guests.

Mrs. Emma G. Mingay, wife of Captain H. M. Mingay and mother of Mrs. W. E. Perry, died at her home on East Michigan avenue, Thursday morning, February 28.

Funeral services were held at the Glendale chapel of Kiefer & Eye-rick, Mrs. Mingay was born August 14, 1846. She came to Tujunga with her husband two years ago and had been confined to her home during their residence here.

Walden Fink of La Verne and his fiancée, Miss Ruth Douglas of San Juan Capistrano, were weekend guests of Tujunga relatives.

Finishing Touches

In the rear of the main building a mixing machine is chugging away eight hours a day mixing the contents of what will eventually be the floor in the ice plant, and other parts of the basement in that section of the structure. The buildings are daily passing through that development that will change them some day soon into a completely finished product. Men with wheelbarrows are hauling out load after load of debris, and the main building is being cleaned up so that only a short space on the first floor has the appearance of a structure still in the process of completion.

The rooms on the second and third floors have all been finished, and only a few rooms on the first floor on the west side of the structure remain to be painted. These will be finished in the next day or two. Men are gathering up waste paper, superfluous pieces of wood, and broken bricks, and shavings, and disposing of them. The eliminative process, as far as the main building is concerned, will be a thing of the past within the next few days.

RUSH FINAL WORK ON NEW HOSPITAL HOLD COMMUNITY SING AT BEACH Furniture Being Installed In Rooms; Send Carpets Here by Express Glendalians Make Trip In Special Train, Appear In Auditorium

Exquisite furniture, made of walnut and mahogany frames, and finished with cushion seats that seem to extend a cordial invitation to all to rest comfortably on them, is now being placed in the parlor of the new Glendale Sanitarium. The beautiful velvet carpet has been laid, and the women in charge of arranging the furniture are placing it with the one thought in mind of making it as artistic as possible.

In the collection are davenport, settees that will accommodate three persons, settees for two, rockers, easy chairs, and straight back chairs. All of them have the cushion seats, some of which are covered with corduroy, while others have been covered with materials that are in keeping with the excellent woodwork, and artistic finish.

Many of the pieces have cane backs that are covered with cushion material. The davenports and settees will have beautifully covered fanny pillows on them. The pillow covers are decorated to imitate different leaves of trees, and are vari-colored. At different points in the parlor are being placed library tables, and when the chandeliers are hung, they will have every appearance of home-likeness, and the patients will find a subdued tone that will make it pleasant, restful and peaceful. Although the whole structure will be a beauty spot, both inside and out, yet the parlor, no doubt, will stand prominently above all other rooms in the efforts that are being put forth by the management to make the institution a place where health and comfort are offered as inducements.

Of course, it will be in the treatment rooms where the science of health will be applied by skilled scientists, but it will be in the parlor where men and women can have every environment that they would have in an ideal home. They have gone through the medical course that will be necessary to restore them to health. Every effort is being put forth to put the rooms in shape for the opening on Sunday, March 23. Up on the third floor, practically all of the rooms have been carpeted. Some of the rooms have been finished as sample rooms, and they certainly give the invitation to come in and stay awhile.

Carpets by Express

This week, the hall carpets will be laid on the third floor. They were shipped through by express from the manufacturers in Chicago in order that they might be laid before the opening day. Electricians are now busy laying wires for the vacuum cleaning system that will be placed in operation to keep the carpets in the hall and in the rooms clean. When these wires are laid then the hall carpet will be put down.

All through the institution, labor-saving devices have been or are yet to be installed. Every thought has been given to the question of making the institutional work as efficient as human devices can make it.

Glendale and Long Beach, "two of the fastest growing cities in the United States," gave each other the glad hand last night in the Long Beach municipal auditorium, where over 3200 persons were gathered for a big community "sing" with a delegation of 100 Glendalians and a Glendale program as features.

Under Community Service the Glendale delegation journeyed to the beach city in a special Pacific Electric train and automobiles. They were met at Long Beach by S. L. DuRee, superintendent of recreation, and conducted to the big auditorium, where A. L. Baird of Glendale was introduced.

Mr. Baird gave greetings from Glendale and then presented J. Arthur Myers, leader of the Choral club, to whom much credit is due for the club successes.

Mr. Myers had a surprise in store for the beach folks, for when the stage curtain was raised the entire Glendale delegation stood on the platform and sang Glendale's greeting to Long Beach. Tucker being sung to the tune of "Johnny Comes Marching Home."

Male Quartet Sings

After some live community singing led by Mr. Myers, R. Ernest Tucker was introduced as master of ceremonies and he announced the program.

Miss Marie Gilby sang "An Open Secret" (Woodman), and "Will You Remember?" from the opera "Maytime" (Romberg); selections were given by the male quartet including Dr. P. O. Lucas, Dr. C. D. Lusby, Frank and Paul Butterfield, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Butterfield; and the Glendale booster song by Mrs. S. S. Gilby was sung by Miss Doris Horning.

Much consternation reigned among the Glendale folks when Mayor Spencer Robinson could not be found to open the program, however he was located later in the evening and after a short speech as mayor of "The Fastest Growing City in the United States," he sang "I Love Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." After much applause he returned to present his talented daughter, Miss Julia Robinson, who sang "Today" (Charles Herter), and "Love Is in My Heart" (H. Huntington Woodman).

Choral Club Heard

Miss Hazel Linkugel, violinist, also entertained, playing "Cocorito" (De Berliot), and "By the Water of Minnetonka" (Lieurance).

Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, chairman of the Choral club, was then introduced and in turn presented the club, which, directed by J. Arthur Myers, sang selections from "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" (Coleridge-Taylor). Dr. Joseph Marple gave the tenor solo, Mrs. Gertrude Erb was accompanist.

After the program a social hour with refreshments was enjoyed in the service men's club at the end of the pier.

Glendale is to have another community "sing" Thursday night at 7:45 o'clock at the Harvard High school. Special guests will be members of the Community Service chorus from Arroyo Seco.

ATTEMPT TO KILL TROTZKY FOILED Russian Leader, Wounded By Assassin, Surrounded By Augmented Guard

BERLIN, March 11.—From a reliable source it was learned this afternoon that an attempt was made on February 26 to assassinate Leon Trozky, head of the Russian army, at the health resort of Eileishen, Caucasus, where he is living.

Trozky was said to be suffering from a wound in the thigh. The attack was reported to have been made by a Caucasian Men shevik named Ovarilich, who fired three shots at Trozky.

According to the report, Trozky is still confined to his bed and extra precautions have been taken to guard him.

Ill at 90, He Calls Doctor for First Time

OTTAWA, O., March 11.—In all his life, Frederick Huffman, 90-year-old farmer, residing near Vaughnsville, never found it necessary to send for a doctor until recently, when he became ill with bronchial pneumonia.

"I don't really think I need him," Huffman said. "But I guess it's better to be safe than sorry."

Seek Messenger With Funds In Small Boat

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—George Lister, 34, American Railway Express company messenger, who, police claim, embezzled $14,000 yesterday from the company's Sausalito office, is believed today to be sailing the Pacific in a small fishing schooner. Lister, police said, took flight in the boat after he had made off with the money which had been shipped from the San Francisco office of the Wells-Fargo Nevada National bank to the Bank of Sausalito. Lister's wife is believed to have accompanied him. The authorities could not locate her today.

DEATH OF GLENDALE MAN IS POISONED

W. Stevenson Rushes To Coalinga to Victim Of Botulinus

Warren W. Stevenson of 330 West Broadway took the stage this morning for Bakersfield, en route to Coalinga, following a long distance phone call from his son, Earl Stevenson, to the effect that another son, F. L. Stevenson, one of the victims of the botulinus poisoning at the fatal Growers' club dinner in that city a week ago Saturday night, is very ill.

Mrs. F. L. Stevenson is also reported among the victims, others suffering with the mysterious malady are Mrs. Jacob Yang, Mrs. Frank Cheney and Mrs. Ruth Oiler, of Coalinga; and Mrs. Robert McCormick, of Fresno. The second victim to die of the poisoning is Mrs. Burton Boyle, wife of the mayor of the oil city. The first fatality was O. D. Canady, Coalinga banker.

Mother Is Advised

While Warren W. Stevenson rushes to the bedside of his stricken son, the wife of the former in Kansas, where she went with the body of her deceased mother, Mrs. Whitehead. She has been informed by wire of her son's critical condition.

Dr. K. J. Stanford of Fresno, who performed the autopsy on the body of O. D. Canady, confirms the theory that the death resulted from botulinus poisoning. G. T. Mountford of Coalinga tends hope for recovery of the victims who still live, although it points out that the malady sometimes takes an unexpected turn.

Probe Poison Source

President B. E. Whitney of the growers' club states that the fatal menu comprised chicken sandwiches, pickles, olives, lettuce and coffee. Director E. J. Lee of food and drugs, State Board of Health, has arrived in Coalinga to make investigation of food sources, and Harry C. Moore, food and drug inspector of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is also in the oil city trying to trace the read germ of botulinus to its source.

New Method Is Aid to Blinded Cripples

ROME, Mar. 11.—At the orthodox congress in Rome, just closed to an end, Professor Galeazzi brought forward an apparatus by means of which the blind who have lost their hands are enabled to read by means of the Braille system. Up to now, for the blind who have suffered also the loss of the hands the Braille system has been impracticable, of course. Professor Galeazzi's invention consists of a die or cube of ivory, furnished with six points of electric contact, fixed to the stump of the arm. The electric contacts, by means of conducting wires, can be made to touch certain points on the thorax. The operator moves the die attached to the stump of his arm over the Braille characters and the electric contacts impress themselves on the thorax, which is sensible of a slight and instantaneous feeling of heat. So every time that the blind touches with the die, the characters he feels on the thorax impressions which in their distribution correspond with the raised points which stand for the separate letters. In this manner he quickly learns to distinguish between these and to connect them with syllables and phrases.

New St. Patrick Tale Is Heard in Ireland

BELFAST, March 11.—An interesting story is woven around the relics of Saint Patrick now being exhibited in the sacristy of the Pro-Cathedral of Saint Patrick in this city. The relics are of a hand and a jaw and are enshrined in the shrine of Saint Patrick's Hand and the Shrine of Saint Patrick's Jaw. The jaw is large, and only one double tooth remains. It appears that many years ago there were five teeth in the jaw, which then belonged to the Cullen family, living at Dernagh, near Belfast. Three members of the family, it is said, each took a tooth when migrating to the United States, while a fourth was deposited under the altar of the chapel at Dernagh in 1797. The jaw was in the custody of the Cullen family for many generations, and it appears that many years ago the water in which the jaw was immersed was given to persons afflicted with epilepsy and was also used as an antidote for cattle diseases.

Bottle Cast on Water Returns in Many Days

HONOLULU, March 11.—Hon. Gerrit P. Wilder, member of the Territorial House of Representatives, tossed a bottle overboard last September while on his way home to Honolulu from a visit to Australia. Inside the bottle was a note written by Mr. Wilder, requesting that if the bottle was ever picked up it should be returned to him here. Just the other day the bottle arrived. With it was a note signed by T. Johnston, of Noumea, New Caledonia, and dated December 24, 1923. The note explained the bottle had been found by a native fisherman on Mato Island, south of New Caledonia, a distance of about 800 miles. It is estimated that the bottle traveled this distance in about three and one-half months. Wilder requested it be explained that it was a soda pop bottle.

GERMANY PLIGHT TOD BY VISITOR

Stories in American Papers Exaggerated Is Claim Of Mrs. Kayser

(Continued from page 1) bourgeoisie, the pensioners, have been hard hit, owing to the decline in the mark value, their life's savings away and melting to nothing the little pensions the government paid them, with the working classes things have taken a decided turn for the better.

Labor Well Paid

"Labor is well paid in Germany today and the working people have everything they want," Stines, get the great factories of Germany under way once more.

"Foreigners who jumped in while the mark was falling and bought up German property have been badly squeezed. Castles on the Rhine can today be obtained three and four times as cheap as when Americans, English and Scandinavians were scrambling for them a couple of years ago. I know of one instance where a woman bought a piece of city property in Berlin, worth the equivalent of $8000 in normal times, for $700 in American dollars. Today that same piece of property would not bring over $200 in American dollars.

Rubbish in Streets

"Germany is not as clean a country as it once was. Under Emperor William, its spotlessness was known around the world. There were no slums, no dirty streets, no refuse to be seen anywhere in the empire. Today the German republic presents a sorry sight. Filth and debris clutter up the streets and the parks are littered with bits of paper and rubbish.

Watch France's Fall

"Everything is used, in present-day Germany. When one receives a letter, the common practice is to steam open the envelope, fold it inside out and use it again. Every scrap of paper is utilized or consumed. Nothing is wasted. Households are living on a mere fraction of what an American family would throw away. It is saddening, pathetic, yet somehow gravely inspiring, to see a people that will never say die.

Good Time to Invest

"We find a large movement of people into the state looking for new locations to conduct fruit growing, livestock raising or other agricultural activities," said Hecke. "Farm values in our state are now such that the present landholders are justified in remaining on the land, and this seems to be a good time for agricultural land investments of a substantial character."

Fire Protection for Old Churches Ordered

NEW HAVEN, Ct., March 11.—Ancient New Haven quivered to its foundations when officials of the city told the heads of three old churches on the Green they must put fire escapes outside the buildings, cut rear doors and side doors for extra exits and remove the little doors from the pews within.

Hawaiian Japanese to Avoid Dual Citizenship

HONOLULU, March 11.—Hawaiian-born youths of Japanese parentage are freeing themselves in noticeably large numbers from allegiance to the Empire of Japan under the "dual citizenship" status, according to figures at the local Japanese consulate.

Japanese Emperor's Condition 'No Worse'

TOKIO, Mar. 11.—Because His Majesty the Emperor of Japan was unable to attend the recent wedding of the Prince Regent, various reports of the approaching end of the Emperor have been revived in Tokio. It has been stated with some authority, however, that His Majesty is really in good health as he has been for many months.

TO CURE INSOMNIA

Insomnia victims have found strange cures, such as counting imaginary sheep passing through a gate, but an innkeeper in Europe, when she discovers one of her guests has not slept well, turns his bed so that it will face in another direction. She maintains from her long experience in catering to the comfort of travelers that some are "East and Westers" while others are "North and Southerners" or "West and Easters" when it comes to sleeping.

BETROTHALS TOO EASY SAYS CRITIC

Not Easy Divorce, But More Difficult Engagements To Better Morals

By CHESTER B. BAHN For International News Service. SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 11.—The cure of matrimonial unhappiness is outlined by the Rev. C. Bertram Runnalls, rector of Cavalry Episcopal church, of this city, a distinguished authority upon sociological problems.

Dr. Runnalls believes a new type of womanhood is necessary.

"The young women of today are degenerated. Things today have reached a pass where it is exceptional to find a modest, refined and quiet-speaking girl.

"The hand-painted girl, the cigarette-smoking girl, the girl who dresses in man's clothes, apes man's habits and exceeds man's ill manners is everywhere to be seen.

"The brainless flapper, the high-headed co-ed, the unbalanced society debutante, in their various degrees abound in every small village and every large city in the country.

Can't Find Bride

"As a young Dartmouth graduate said to me just last week: 'Father, I want to get married, but I declare there isn't a girl I know that I'd care to live with. They are good as toys, but useless as wives!'

"We all see it criticized in a way, and we see our lecturers trying to suggest reforms which seem not to reform, but to merely advertise the speakers.

Teach Morals Early

"A child should be reared from infancy in a religious atmosphere, where the laws of God in morals and faith are taught.

"Parents should take time to see that boys and girls learn the relationship of all life, all customs in the habits of life as conforming to God's great plan.

FERBER'S

FERBER'S

VOLUME SALE

Before Mr. Ferber left on his Eastern trip, we had a meeting and we promised him to do a certain amount of business; whether it is because of lack of RAIN or ELECTION Year or "DULL times," or people investing in "REAL ESTATE," we don't know. We DO know that Mr. Ferber is on his way back home AND we haven't got our allotment AND we never fell down yet on a promise. AND we are not going to fail on this one. We therefore decided to stage a NO PROFIT SALE and we will give to the people of Glendale this opportunity to buy at regular wholesale cost to us. We can only list a few items here—there will be many throughout the store. Because some of the quantities are limited and will sell out in a few minutes, we urge that you come as early in the morning as possible. Every dollar you spend here tomorrow will bring you dollars in dividends.

LOCAL POST OF, LEGION TO GIVE BIG STAR SHOW

Hollywood to Send Large Delegation to Benefit Here, March 19

What is claimed to be the greatest constellation of silver sheet, legitimate stage and vaudeville stars ever gathered together in Glendale will appear at the monster benefit to be given by the local post of the American Legion at the Broadway High school auditorium Wednesday night, March 19.

A list of the celebrities to appear reads like a chapter out of—

Electric eel, most powerful of electric fishes found in the fresh water of South America, is said to give an electric shock sufficiently great to temporarily paralyze a man.

DESIGNATE NEXT WEEK AS PERIOD OF REGISTRATION

Members of All Parties in New League Formed to Assist in Work

Arrangements are being made for Registration Week to extend from March 15 to 22 inclusive, by a newly organized body composed of members of all political parties. The purpose of the drive is to secure a 100 per cent registration of voters before April 5.

Representatives of all labor, civic and commercial organizations of Los Angeles met Friday, March 7, at the Clark hotel in Los Angeles and perfected plans for a body which will have charge of Registration Week. This organization is known as the 100 Per Cent Register and Vote League.

James H. Cannon, chairman of the Rotarian Committee California Idea Register and Vote, was elected chairman of the executive committee of the new body. Other members of this committee are: Mrs. F. D. Noel, of the Central Labor Council; Mrs. C. M. Roberts, president of the Parent-Teachers' Federation; William Lacy, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; John Horn, secretary of the Labor Council; Mrs. Arthur Hineman, president of the League of Women Voters, and Mrs. Margaret D. Yale, committee chairman of the Federation of Women's Clubs. Charles H. Toll was named chairman of the finance committee, and Edward Owen executive secretary.

For Tentative Plans

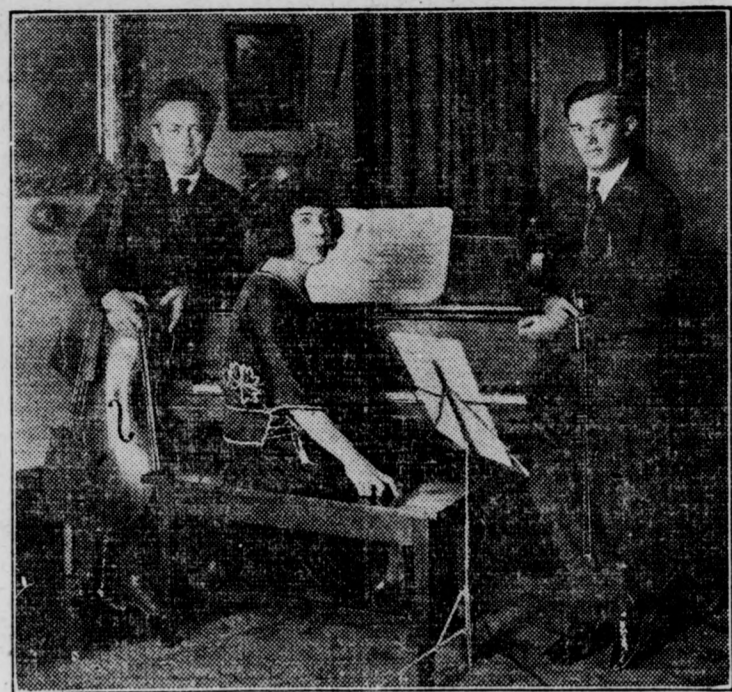

Immediately following the meeting members of the committee met and formed tentative plans for registration week. In calling the Friday meeting John B. Elliott, chairman of the Democratic County committee; Harold H. Story, organizer of the Socialist party; John C. Bell, chairman of the Prohibition party in Southern California, and Ralph Arnold, chairman of the Republican Central committee, issued the following statement:

"The growth of Southern California has been a series of marvelous phenomena. It is the subject of comment throughout the—

TRIO WILL PRESENT PROGRAM

Glendale Music Club Plans Entertainment

The Los Angeles Trio, including May McDonald Hope, pianist; Calmon Lubovski, violinist; and Ilya Bronson, violoncellist, who will give a program of music Friday night at the meeting of the Glendale Music club at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

Musical entertainment by the Los Angeles Trio, including May McDonald Hope, pianist; Calmon Lubovski, violinist; and Ilya Bronson, violoncellist; will be the feature Friday night at the meeting of the Glendale Music club in the auditorium of the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse at North Central avenue and West Lexington drive.

Music lovers are well acquainted with these three artists. They will recall that during the past seven years May McDonald Hope, pianist and founder of the trio, has pioneered unrelentingly for the noblest of all musical arts, that of chamber music. She and Mr. Lubovski and Mr. Bronson are talented artists and will receive a hearty welcome in Glendale.

Their program of chamber music Friday night will include: "Trio in D Minor, Op. 49" (Mendelssohn-Bartholdy). "Allegro de Agitato." "Andante con Moto."

"Scherzo."

By the Trio
 Cello solo, "Nocturne" (Popper).
 By Ilya Bronson

 By Calmon Lubovski
 "Rondo, G Major" (Hayden).
 "Elegie Adagio."
 "Final, Allegro non Troppo" (Arensky) (from trio in D Minor, Op. 32).
 By the Trio
 Music club members will be admitted by club cards and the general public will be admitted at one dollar each.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION TO HOLD MEETING

Glendale to Have Delegation at Annual Conference Last of Week

Glendale Daughters of the American Revolution, led by their regent, Mrs. C. W. Houston, are especially interested in the sixteenth annual conference of the Daughters of California in Pasadena Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, for General Richard Gridley chapter of Glendale will give a tea Saturday afternoon at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse honoring Mrs. Booth of Pasadena, vice president general of the national organization and the retiring and incoming state officers.

Local Delegation

Mrs. Houston, Miss Ida D. Myers and Mrs. S. C. Leppelman will officially represent the Glendale chapter at the Pasadena conference. Besides these there will be many of the chapter members in attendance.

The sessions of the conference proper will be in the chapel of the Presbyterian church, while the two social events will be the dinner Thursday night in the ballroom at the Huntington hotel, and the tea Saturday afternoon in Glendale.

Some of the features of the conference program are Mrs. Stella Atwood, who will speak on Indian welfare; Miss Alice Maurer, deaconess at Angel Island, will discuss some of the needs of the newly arrived alien; Mrs. Sterrett will discuss better films; James Hoffman Batten, director of regional service for Pomona college, will speak Friday night on "Our American Democracy, a Prophecy and a Purpose"; Dr. Charles A. Martin of the economics department of the University of California, will speak on "Restrictive Immigration"; Mrs. George C. Squires, past state regent of Minnesota, will talk on a new plan for the care of disabled soldiers.

Mrs. Lyman B. Stooker of Los Angeles, present state regent, will preside over the sessions of the conference.

Community Service Officials Will Hold Quarterly Meeting

The regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors of Community Service has been called by the executive board for 12 o'clock noon of March 24, at the Egyptian Village, announces R. E. Tucker, director.

The organization is desirous of having a full representation on that date, as some very interesting new developments will be brought out, Mr. Tucker states.

Community Service is finding a more and more prominent place in the life of the city with each passing month, feel those who are sponsoring the organization, and the quarterly meeting announced above will furnish a review of past accomplishments and plans for the future.

Following are the members of the executive board of Community Service:

A. L. Baird, president; Mrs. J. R. Case, vice-president and social recreation; Col. J. D. Fraser, vice-president; George U. Moyle, vice-president; Dr. Jessie A. Russell, secretary; C. C. Cooper, treasurer; R. D. White, program; V. M. Hollister, music; Mrs. Max L. Green, drama and pageantry; Albert C. Cornwell, athletics; Rev. C. M. Calderwood, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, L. T. Rowley.

K. C. GATHERING CONFERS HONORS ON CANDIDATE

Jesse Smith Is Toastmaster at Banquet; Plan for Pasadena Meeting

Glendale Knights of Columbus participated Sunday with Manchester council of Los Angeles, the conferring of degrees and big banquet in Los Angeles.

The degrees were conferred over fifty candidates at the K. C. building in Los Angeles. Glendale and Manchester councils conferred the second degree a Judge Thomas P. White, assisted by Murray Brennan of San Pedro the third degree.

Present Program

After the banquet at a popular room, Jesse Smith, a grand knight of Glendale council, served as toastmaster. Bud Minier gave a piano solo and solos were sung by J. G. McGargle of Long Beach and E. J. Albright of Glendale. Speakers were Thomas K. Adkins, grand knight of Manchester council; District Deputy Stoll of Whittier; Peter L. Ferry, district deputy of Glendale; Hugh Bryan Glendale, who addressed the candidates of the day; T. J. Kerrig of Anaheim; Rev. Patrick Veasey of the Holy Family Catholic church of Glendale; Rev. C. M. of Manchester council; R. Dunn of Los Angeles; Judge Thomas P. White, district deputy of Los Angeles; Murray Brennan, district deputy of San Pedro, a William Aglier of Los Angeles.

To Attend Meeting

Glendale council is to send a delegation Wednesday night to the Knights of Columbus meeting in Pasadena. The Glendale people will leave the clubhouse at 8 East Lomita avenue at 7 o'clock.

On Monday night, March 17, Glendale Knights will have a St. Patrick's celebration at the clubhouse.

Two More Burglaries Reported to Police

Belated reports of burglaries committed over the week-end still continue to filter into police headquarters.

W. R. Patton, 1543 Tenth street, reported last night that his home had been robbed Saturday evening. Two suits of clothes, some women's wearing apparel, jewelry and about $4 in currency were taken. Sergeant Henderson investigated the theft.

C. A. Redmond's home at 331 West Harvard street was entered by burglars who pried off a rear screen and forced the window. Evidently the thieves were frightened away as nothing of value was reported missing.

Wheel Without Owner Is at Police Station

Several days ago a party called Desk Sergeant John D. Cole at a police station and informed that a bicycle had been stolen from his garage.

Sergeant Cole took his name and wrote it down on a piece of paper. Now he has lost the paper and the bicycle has been found. He asked The Glendale Evening News to assist him in locating the owner of the bicycle. His property awaits him at police headquarters in the City Hall.

VISITING AT PARKERS

Mrs. Lawrence Parker and daughter Katherine Alida of Cincinnati, Ohio, are in Glendale for a brief stay with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie M. Parker of 135 North Louise street. Mr. Parker junior, is moving to Kansas where he will be in charge of the federal vocational training under the Smith-Hughes act after May 1.

REAL ESTATE IS ACTIVE

J. A. Endicott, realtor with offices at 116 South Brand boulevard, states that February was comparatively the largest month in the history of his business and that the real estate market is very active. Mr. Endicott is noted not only for his optimism, but his foresight in seeing North Brand boulevard as a coming business district.

CHICAGO BUYER HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson and small son of Chicago, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie M. Parker, 135 North Louise street, while Mr. Wilson is attending to the needs of customers on this coast for Carson, Pirie, Scott company, is one of their buyers.

South Brand Blvd.

It does not take a genius to recognize the safety and profit possibilities of well located close in business and income properties. It does take some courage and common sense to take advantage of the present situation. Shrewd investors buy when the public want to sell, and sell when the public want to buy.

Opportunity is here. The profits large. Some courage, some cash, and Glendale will do the rest. Consider these—

- 50x155, Corner Brand and Windsor Road—$35,000.
- 100x150, on West Side, South of Palmer. Priced to Sell.
- 37 1/2 x 90, Near Maple, $15,000. Think of it!!

EXTRA! GLENDALE NIGHT LIFE BARED

Yeah! It's So Bare That Even a Flat Wheel Sounds Sweetly

By GIL A. COWAN
 Of The Evening News Staff

"Night Life in Glendale"—a wonderful title for a blank film! Such is an assignment any reporter would be called upon to use a fertile imagination to make three paragraphs worth reading. Being privileged to write what the writer wishes, it is a pleasure to self-impose a task one would ask no one else to do.

Cars that pass in the night, speaking in vehicular terms, may as well serve the purpose of one paragraph in this expose of Glendale at its worst as anything else. The last Pacific Electric car comes in from Los Angeles at 1 o'clock, returning at 1:25 with the two or three owl passengers, those who have been so kind as to escort some fair lady home from the theatre, we surmise. The last car of the Glendale & Montrose line is put away shortly before 1 a. m., while a flat-wheeled express car may wend its weary way to and from Glendale. It is sweet music, we'll say.

Other Sounds Heard

An occasional motorcar roars through the streets at the quiet night lending magnitude to its every rattle. The clank of horses' shod hoofs on the pavements give proof to the guess that the milkman is making his morning rounds. San Fernando road has its plodding trucks and fleeting busses and hurrying tourists, to be sure, but for Glendale proper almost every moving soul is mentally catalogued by the policeman on their beat.

The all-night restaurant with its stragglers, a couple of janitors, the policemen getting their lunch between 2 and 3 in the morning while the night man wields a wicked mop—that is the most of the story—but wait—

Tragics Sometimes

There is a death and the gray wagon is called from the mortuary, or there is a drunken man found in the gutter, or there is a wreck of a motorcar, or once in a great while a fire, or a reported robbery—those are the little things in life which break the monotony until 4:30 o'clock in the morning.

At that early hour the newsboys begin to gather on the corners awaiting the "paper car" which arrives at 4:45. The youngsters and their managers are out in force. Another day is dawning. The sleeping city stirs. And Glendale is itself again.

Arraign Ten Charged as Rum Ring Members

LOS ANGELES, March 11.—Ten members of an asserted "rum ring," including Francis C. Neal, former dry agent, and his wife, Anna Neal, have appeared in federal court for a hearing on indictments returned against the ten by the federal grand jury for conspiring to violate the national prohibition laws. They will enter a plea on Thursday.

The indictments were returned as the result of the capture of the launch Ernie off Santa Monica some time ago. The Ernie, when captured, is said to have had 1050 gallons of whiskey aboard. Mrs. Neal was caught signaling the boat at the time of the capture.

"Common Cent" Introduces Himself

"I am 'Common Cent.' I am just a tiny disk of copper, measuring only three-quarters of an inch across my middle. But mistake not to despise me for my littleness, I am a member of the family of 'Common Cents.' Alone I may seem quite feeble, but in company with my fellows I perform miracles for those who know best how to use me. Whenever you look upon me, think of what Franklin said: 'Take care of the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves.'"

Every man, woman or child has in his or her heart a cherished ambition.

To the lad it may be a hoped-for pair of skates, a bicycle, a radio set. To the man, a motorcar, a business of his own, security in old age. To the woman, a wanted bit of furniture, a home, university training for her children.

Of these ambitions seem well-nigh impossible of attainment—a mirage always luring on, but ever out of reach. But not to him who has learned the lesson. To you a dollar may seem poor in purchasing power, but in spare dollars laid aside is the achievement of your dreams.

We invite you today to start to turn your hazy ambitions into tangible, actual fact. A tiny sum deposited with us opens your account. A stated bit each week will make it grow and work for you, earning for you at 4 per cent interest; ever mounting up. Drop in and let's talk the matter over. Begin now.

LOSES IN RACE FOR NOMINATION

Fails to Win Indorsement in His Home State

Senator James A. Reed

Returns from the various township and ward polls throughout Missouri indicate that United States Senator James A. Reed, formerly looked upon as staunch political timber in the race for the Democratic nomination for president, has been left by the roadside, according to supporters of William G. McAdoo.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE TAIL HOLE
Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggily was sitting in his hollow stump bungalow, eating his breakfast of maple sugar on carrot pancakes, some jolly voices called: "Come on out, Uncle Wiggily! Come with us and have some fun! It's Saturday and there is no school!"

Oh, Uncle Wiggily! parted Buddy.

10 Years Ago Today

From Evening News Files

Ground was broken this morning for the new Odd Fellows building at the corner of Third and Isabel streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Salo Desky, formerly of 1511 West Second street, have moved into their beautiful new home at 139 South Kenwood street.

The grand worthy matron of the state of California, Order of the Eastern Star, will visit Glen Eyrice chapter in joint session with the Highland Park chapter at the Masonic hall, 340 1/2 South Brand boulevard, tonight.

Tomorrow's Evening News will consist of eight pages teeming full of reading matter and advertising from the live merchants of Glendale.

RESIGNATION
Why, why repine, my penive friend
At pleasures slipp'd away?
Some stern Fates will never lend,
And all refuse to stay.

I see the rainbow in the sky,
The dew upon the grass;
I see them, and I ask not why
They glimmer or they pass.

With folded arms I linger not
To call them back; 'twere vain:
In this, or in some other spot,
I know they'll shine again.
—Walter Savage Landor.

BRINGING UP FATHER
Of all the family, father is apt to be the most careless of a cough or cold, and it is the duty of mother or the girls to see that he takes FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND at the first sign of a cough, cold or hoarseness. After he once tries it, finds out how effective and pleasant it is to take, he will not hesitate to use it always. Contains no opiates. Safe and sure. Has served three generations.

PARIS, March 11.—Wanted: Happiness. How and where is it to be found? This is the subject of an interesting questionnaire now being published in the "Paris Soir." Movie stars, men of letters, scientists, writers, artists, politicians and dressmakers—even one well-known American resident of Paris—have sent in their replies.

"Happiness," writes Mrs. Havemeyer, one of the popular American colony here, "is to be found in elimination. This means elimination of all the unimportant details which hinder the richest and fullest expression of health and joy. Love life, and make every moment of it the happiest possible."

Gaston Menier, Senator of the Seine-et-Marne Department, is more practical in his ideas and affirms that work is what constitutes happiness—work, with an ideal, both social and moral.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

LEGION TO GIVE BIG STAR SHOW

Movie Folk from Hollywood Will Be In Attendance at Benefit Performance

(Continued from page 1) "Who's Who in Hollywood," and the committee in charge predict that the entertainment will surpass even that given last year for the benefit of the families of the two men who lost their lives fighting the fire in the San Rafael Mills.

Big Stars Coming Among those who have positively accepted the invitation to be present and assist with the program are:

Will Rogers, Anita Stewart of Cosmopolitan, Lew Cody, Herbert Rawlinson of Universal, Harry Tighe, Shannon Day, who has just finished a picture for Cecil de Mille; Bennie Lyon, who registered his greatest hit in Potash & Perlmutter; Bill Desmond of Universal, Lewis Lane, Robert De Costa, Constance Talmadge, Crawford Kent, Priscilla Dean, Florence Vidor, Sheldon Lewis.

William Farnum, Mae Murray and Eugene O'Brien will also appear if they are able to arrange their production work to make it possible. They will let the committee know definitely this week.

The proceeds from the entertainment will go toward the fund being established to care for disabled veterans of the world war and a share of it will be placed in the building fund. Members of Post No. 127 hope to be able to start work on their own home before January 1, 1925.

Prominent Is War Work

The affair is sponsored by Mrs. Howard Verbeck, president of the southern California Women's Press club, a literary woman of national prominence. Her assistant is Miss Virginia Pearson, who during the war was prominent in war work, and since the signing of the armistice, has been tireless in her efforts to help in caring for the wounded veterans. Only recently she aided the local post in their mass meeting for the presentation of the features of the adjusted compensation bill, passage of which is urged by the Legion.

Associated with them will be Rowlin Edwards, leading motion picture director and Mrs. Edwards, club and social worker. Mr. Edwards will have charge of the presentation of the program and will act as chairman of the entertainment.

A. E. Bryan, chairman of the publicity committee and Commander Joseph A. Wilson are very enthusiastic over the willingness of the movie stars to participate in the program.

Get Your Tickets! "We are putting this show on for an admission price of $1, with reserved seats at $1.50. This I believe, is absolutely the cheapest entertainment of this kind ever staged in southern California. It is easily a $5 show. There will be at least a dozen separate and distinct acts, headed by Will Rogers, a great friend of the ex-service man. Already the demand for tickets is alarmingly great, and I would advise every one who intends going to get theirs early, as the high school auditorium will seat only slightly over 2,000. The place and date of the reserved seat sale will be announced later."

E. E. McVain, adjutant of the post, is arranging the ticket sale. He expects that they will all be gone long before the date of the show, despite the increased seating capacity available in the new high school. All of the stars are volunteering their services and the Legion should net a good sum as the result of their efforts.

DESIGNATE WEEK OF REGISTRATION

Members of All Parties in New League Formed to Assist in Work

(Continued from page 1) entire country. However, the proportionate growth in influence commensurate with our great growth in numbers will not be felt unless our true status is expressed by our registration of voters, and the subsequent vote cast at the polls.

"On May 6 every voter in this state will be afforded an opportunity to express their preference for the candidates to be nominated for the presidency of the United States.

All Should Register "No citizen of the community eligible to exercise the right to vote should neglect to fulfill this very simple, yet all important, duty.

"Our government is, after all, simply the whole of the nation, and when the people fail to exercise their individual rights the government ceases to function to the extent of this failure.

"The registration of voters is not a partisan matter, but a civic and patriotic duty. "In order to vote at the presidential primaries every citizen must register before April 5, as all 1922 and 1923 registrations became invalid on January 1, 1924. Party affiliations must be stated at time of registration in order to vote for delegates to national conventions."

It is expected that the movement of the leaders of the four political parties in Los Angeles county will be followed in other sections of Southern California. Already a number of communities outside of Los Angeles county have organized committees to work during registration week.

Forming Speakers' Bureau Southern California communities will be served by a Coolidge Speakers' Bureau of more than 100 persons, it is announced. The second meeting of the bureau will take place Wednesday, March 12, in the Angelus hotel, when definite plans for the part which the bureau will play during the campaign are to be formed.

Vernon W. Hunt, member of the senior class of the University of Southern California, has been selected as secretary of the speaking bureau and the Coolidge College Club, of which Henry P. Barbour, president of the California Real Estate Association, is the president. The club is sponsoring the work of the bureau. Mr. Hunt is a former resident of Spokane and Seattle, and for three years was a student at the University of California. He is widely known in local school circles.

The first meeting of the bureau was held Monday night, March 3, at the Los Angeles headquarters. At that time John Clymer, chairman of the state speaking bureau, addressed the members of the Southern California body. He outlined the means that had been taken to form the bureau which is now active in the northern part of the state. Frank G. Tyrrell, prominent local attorney, presided at this meeting.

Speakers may be secured through the organization department of the Los Angeles headquarters, it is announced.

Dates Announced Important dates in the political campaign are: March 18—North Dakota primary. March 20—Last day to file nomination papers with verification deputies in county clerk's office. March 25—South Dakota primary. April 1—Wisconsin primary. April 1—Last day to file candidates' affidavits with secretary

Favors Goat Island For U. S. Naval Base

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The government could make greater use for naval activities of Yerba Buena or Goat island in San Francisco bay at comparatively little expense, Captain Leonard M. Cox, naval engineer, told the House naval affairs committee, in continued opposition to the selection of the Alameda site for a naval base.

Captain Cox explained the nature and character of present military and other governmental activities on Goat Island, which is largely government owned, and said there was space on the south-east end of the island for piers and wharves for destroyers and submarines.

LOCAL MEN ON FEDERAL JURIES

Crowded Docket May Cause U. S. Court to Forego Summer Vacation

Glendale is well represented this term on the federal petit juries in the United States district court in Los Angeles. Delos H. Smith, vice-president and manager of the Brand boulevard branch, Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings bank; Archie Parker, retired grocer, and Hal Davenport, real estate broker, reported today in Judge Paul J. McCormack's department for the second trial.

It has been two weeks since Judge McCormack took office, succeeding the late Oscar A. Trippe, who died two years ago. Some of the cases have been delayed that period of time and out of eighteen cases called this term only one appeared for trial—a colored man charged with dope smuggling. It took him but three minutes to establish an alibi on which the jury acquitted him, it is stated.

Forfeit $20,000 Bond Other defendants who failed to show up for their deferred trials forfeited approximately $20,000 in bail money which will pay for the operation of the court this year, it is estimated. The lone defendant who went to trial did not have bondsmen and he passed six months in jail awaiting to be freed of the charges against him, which gives the average citizen an idea that efficiency found in federal courts is almost as low as that in the county superior courts.

In an effort to clear the docket which has been crowded by booze and dope cases, the federal judges will forego their vacations this year and the petit jurors will serve from now until September, it is said, which will hereafter explain the reason why many people cannot "see their banker."

Other Local Jurors R. F. Kitterman, manager of the Security Trust and Savings bank here, also is a petit juror in Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe's court as is Frank Booth, another real estate dealer. In odd moments it is expected that the versatile Mr. Booth will draw cartoons of the honorable court and submit verdicts in poetry, provided, of course, the eminent Mr. Bledsoe does not frown on the procedure.

SOURCE OF PEACE IS SERMON TOPIC

Occult Science Preacher Pleads for Surrender to Divine Will

Last Sunday evening at the Occult Science of Christ church, 113 South Orange street, Mrs. Mabel Moore delivered a sermon on "The Source of Peace," taking her text from Isaiah 26:3. As the keynote of her sermon Mrs. Moore told the congregation that peace of heart and mind are to be found "in surrendering thyself with all thy heart to the divine will," and upon this statement of what she said was definite and verifiable fact, she built the structure of her address. Mrs. Moore said in part:

How Peace Comes "True peace is not of the body, it is not the result of pleasant and harmonious surroundings that cause one to be physically contented and satisfied. True peace is of the mind; it is the direct result of a sensitive manifestation of a positive and constructive attitude of mind. It is only when one can meet the difficulties and hardships of life with a positive, creative and serene mental attitude, and the constructive attitude attained true peace. One virtue which must surely form a definite part of our mental equipment, so to speak, is that of patience. It is through the portal of patience that one must pass to gain entrance to the temple of peace. The attainment of this virtue is not easy. However, the attainment of this quality is worthy of the very definite effort it necessitates, as upon its accomplishment, and not before, one has passed the first great milestone on the path that leads to peace. When one has attained a 'patience sweet that nought can ruffle,' he is in a position to manifest the knowledge and to express the power that lie dormant within him, for then the instrument of this manifestation and expression, the mind, is calm, receptive and open to the ideals and thoughts of power that come from the self within.

"However, there are other qualities, other aspects of character, that one must make part and parcel of his being before he can be said to be prepared to go forth into the world with a peaceful heart and mind. The candidate for the attainment of this supreme possession must not 'entangle himself with things not committed unto him'; in other words, it is his affairs, his concerns, and his alone, with which he must engage and concern himself. There must be no interference, in word or deed, with the actions and affairs of others. One's relatives and one's friends, in fact, all who come within the scope of one's life, must be allowed the utmost freedom with which to work out the purposes of their lives, for each life, however humble, has a purpose and a mission, and the one who desires peace or serenity must willingly grant this freedom of conduct and belief to those with whom he is associated, and it must be granted without criticism."

ADVENTIST MEET OPENS IN FRESNO

Glendale Church Leaders to Assist in Quadrennial Convention

Seventh Day Adventists of Glendale will be more than ordinarily interested in the daily proceedings of the quadrennial convention of the Pacific Union conference, which begins in the Fresno denominational church today, and which will bring together the leading clergymen of the church on the Pacific coast for the next ten days.

The union conference has its headquarters in Glendale, and therefore this city is the center for all the church work that is done throughout California, Utah, Arizona and Nevada. Elder J. L. McElhany, the president of the union, and who will be chairman of the convention, has his office here, as also do B. M. Emerson, the secretary-treasurer; T. E. Copeland, the auditor, who has just recently accepted the position of treasurer for the new sanitarium; Elders W. F. Martin, the religious liberty secretary; W. W. Ruble, the educational and young people's secretary; David Voth, the home missionary secretary, and F. E. Painter, the publishing secretary. All of these will take a prominent part in the Fresno convention.

Not only will these men be there, but they will establish their offices in Fresno for the nonce.

Woman Reports Loss Of Diamond Brooch

Mrs. Robert S. Jensen, 616 North Central avenue, reported to police headquarters this morning at 3:30 o'clock that she had lost a diamond brooch at the Green Mill in Los Angeles during the evening.

It contained eleven large and six small stones and was valued at $600.

Meanest Man Steals Battery From Auto

L. C. Small of 649 Myrtle street says he has a candidate for "the meanest man on earth." The chap in question stole Small's storage battery out of his car while it was parked on Wilson avenue between Brand and Maryland last night.

The leaders from the general conference in Washington, D. C., who will take part in the convention, are also well known among the adherents of Glendale. These include Elders A. G. Daniels, Meade MacGuire and R. D. Quinn.

All of these leaders will come to Glendale immediately at the close of the convention in Fresno to be present at the opening exercises of the new sanitarium on Sunday, March 23. Elders McElhany and Daniels will take part in the program.

FINISH ADDITION TO TILE FACTORY

Increasing Flood of Orders Makes Necessary More Floor Space

Announcement was made today that the Concrete Brick and Tile Company has just completed an addition to its plant at 440 South San Fernando road. This addition, became necessary to care for the increasing flood of orders for the company's well-mixed poured concrete hollow tile now known under the trade name of Stone-Tile.

Robert E. Johnston, president of the Concrete Brick and Tile company today extended a general invitation to all architects, builders and contractors, as well as the general public, to visit the plant and see for themselves how Stone-Tile is made.

Use Plastic Cement "In making Stone-Tile," said Mr. Johnston, "we use the master mold system and utilize only wet mix poured or plastic concrete. It is this plastic concrete which is the secret of the great strength and load carrying qualities of Stone-Tile."

The concrete brick or tile thus made come in such standard sizes that it is said they are rapidly laid by masons and lend themselves to a variety of decorative effects. Each tile contains two insulating openings so placed that in the completed wall long vertical columns of insulating air

Shrine Club to Hear Speech By Irving C. Norwood Wednesday Night

"Present business conditions in Southern California" will form the subject of an address to be delivered by Irving C. Norwood at a dinner to be given by the Shrine Club of Glendale at the Egyptian Village Wednesday night, March 12, at 6:30 o'clock, according to an announcement by P. J. Hayselden, the president of the club, who states that Mr. Norwood is one of the best posted men on this theme in the southwest today.

In addition to the principal speaker there will be a program that will embrace a large number of other features designed to add to the enjoyment of the club members and their guests, including musical numbers and speeches on various topics.

It is expected, Mr. Hayselden states, that practically the entire membership of the club will be on hand at the dinner to hear Mr. Norwood's address. space are formed, to preserve even temperatures and keep out moisture. Mr. Johnston said that the demand for this class of material for Glendale's structures is increasing so fast that it soon may be necessary to again enlarge his plant.

NATIONAL CAGE TOURNAMENT APRIL 1 TO 6, CHICAGO

Teams Throughout Country In Stiff Competition to Enter Contests

By GRAY STUBBS
For International News Service.
CHICAGO, March 11.—With state basketball tournaments in practically every one of the 48 states scheduled to get under way within the next fortnight, these squads in all parts of the nation are beginning to figure their chances of getting into the national interscholastic tourney, to be held April 1 to 6 at the University of Chicago.

Winners of the state high school championships will be invited to contend for the national supremacy. A few other prep teams with exceptional records will be asked also.

Competition for bids to the interscholastic has run the strongest among the Illinois teams, where Galesburg and Athens both claim practically clear records and have indicated their desire to enter if possible. Athens high school claims a record that few other schools, if any, can boast of, having won five successive state tournaments and having 24 picked men on all-star teams.

Other contenders
Porthmouth, Vt., and Manchester, N. H., have signified their readiness to participate in the nation-wide event. Both of these quintets have good records and stand a fine chance to win their state tournament.

The strongest contender so far in the southern states is the Simpson high school of Birmingham.

Preparations are being made against the coming of the prep stars by the Chicago university, under whose auspices the tourney is held. The teams are required to defray their own traveling expenses, but while in Chicago they will be guests of the university and fraternities. A banquet for all contestants and coaches will be given on March 31, at which time officials will address them regarding the rules of the tournament.

A consolation tournament will be one of the new features this year. On account of the great distance that many of the teams are forced to travel this consolation tournament has been planned so that the losers of the first round will have another chance to display their skill.

Prizes Provided
A number of handsome prizes have been provided for the winning teams and the individual stars. The team prizes for the major tournament are: First, regular size heavy gold-plated basketball; second, regular size heavy silver-plated basketball; third, regular size gold-bronze basketball; fourth, regular size bronze basketball.

These prizes are mounted on pedestals and the names of the respective place winners will be etched on the trophies.

Individual prizes: First, 10-karat gold-plated charms; second, gold-plated charms; third, sterling silver basketball charms; fourth, sterling silver basketball charms.

Consolation tournament team prizes—first, second, third and fourth—will be attractive shields with mahogany boards and gold-bronze figures. The individual prizes will be gold, silver and bronze watches.

The prizes will be awarded by Coach A. A. Stagg, immediately after the finals, April 5.

To Broadcast Results
Arrangements have been made with the leading radio broadcasting stations of the city to have an announcer at the gymnasium to broadcast the results of the games and items of interest in connection with the tournament. Motion picture weeklies will take movies of the teams in action and group pictures will be taken of the players and coaches.

The winning teams of the interscholastic last year were:
First—Kansas City, Kan., champions of Kansas and national champions.

Second—Rockford, Ill., runner-up Illinois champions.
Third—Charleston, S. C., champions of South Carolina.
Fourth—Muskegon, Mich., champions of Michigan.

Announce Schedule of 1924 Rowing Program
Regatta dates of prominence for the 1924 shell season include the cream of the rowing matches of the East into the short space of three weeks, with preliminary and semi-important water contests early in the season. The schedule follows:

April 12—Washington vs. California on Lake Washington, Seattle.
May 3—Columbia, Yale and Pennsylvania triangular regatta on the Severn, Annapolis.
May 10—Harvard, Columbia and Pennsylvania on the Charles river at Cambridge.
May 17—Princeton, Yale and Cornell triangular regatta, Lake Carnegie, Princeton, N. J.
May 24—Harvard vs. Cornell, Lake Cayuga, New York.

May 31—Princeton, Columbia and Pennsylvania, Schuylkill river, Philadelphia.
June 13 and 14—Olympic tryouts, Schuylkill river, Philadelphia.
June 15—Intercollegiate regatta, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Syracuse, Wisconsin, Washington over three miles at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., on Hudson.
June 2—Harvard-Yale regatta on Thames river, New London, Conn.

Rumors, Denials, Alibis

By F. A. GRAHAM

Reports of developments in the Angel training camp at Recreation park, Long Beach, indicate that Beck, the young infielder who has played in semi-pro ranks in the Southern California Baseball Managers' Association, is going to give Flea McAuley an argument for the short field job this year. Beck is fast on his feet and covers plenty of ground, but he is not nearly weak on hitting. This fault has kept him out of a regular berth for some time. If he can overcome it there will be plenty of work for him.

Jacobs is another youngster who aspires to the shortstop position. He is much superior to Beck in hitting, but does not come up to him in fielding. Jake is trying hard to overcome his fielding faults. Both will be given thorough tryouts this year by Manager Marty Krug.

Krug believes that his pitching staff will be far above that of last year, whether Ray Creanding joins the team or not. Doc Keadall has been praising the work of pitcher Payne, who comes from Oklahoma City. Praise from Doc is praise indeed.

The holdout tactics of Babe Twombly are not bothering the Angels' management to any great extent. There are a flock of youngsters who could fill in if the Babe actually does carry out the holdout thing. While he is considered one of the best outfielders in the Pacific Coast League, the league will not fall if he does not play.

Pitcher Wayne Wright is the cause of some worry to the Angels just now. His wife is ill at their home in Virginia and Wright cannot leave her. The Angels have offered to bring her here at the club's expense and place her in the care of nurses at Catalina for the summer, in order to assure themselves of the services of Wright, who is said to be a high class pitcher.

Durst, from Texas, Wally Hood and Babe Twombly will probably form the Angel outfield, with Durst in center and Twombly in right. Durst is fast and clouts around the 300 mark. If Twombly stays out, then one of the recruits may get a chance at fly chasing.

The prospective infield lineup is Golvin, 1st base; Whaley or Gunther, 2nd base; Beck or McAuley, short; Krug, 3rd base. Golvin is not expected to fill the batting shoes of Art Griggs, who will not be with the Angels this year, but his fielding is said to be much faster.

Doc and Arnold Crandall, Payne, Wright, will form the nucleus around which the pitching staff will be built. Payne uses a screw ball with good results. Wright has been offered the Angels by the Cleveland Indians. This deal has not been completed, but would come under the regulations of the draft.

Cecil Cruze of the Vernon Bengals boosted his stock considerably Wednesday when he stopped the White King Soap nine in the last three innings of the game played at Washington park, Los Angeles. Cruze went in at the beginning of the seventh inning and allowed two hits and no runs, where his two predecessors, Reppy and File, had allowed between them thirteen hits and eight runs. If Cecil keeps up the good work after the season opens there is a strong possibility that the citizens of San Fernando will change the name of the town to Cruze in honor of the city's illustrious son.

But oh, my brethren, what a changing of names will take place if Cecil begins to bestow hits and runs upon the enemy. Verily, the name of a pig and other sweet epithets will be but mild monikers when this happens.

Sam Crawford the venerable sweat artist of yesterday, will lead and follow the Bengals from U. S. C. against the Browns as soon as the said Bengals feel lucky again after the soaping the White Kings slumped them. Sam is Professor of Charley Horses and Boots at the education factory.

There is one pitcher on the Vernon staff who is not going to get much hot up over what the fans call him. Gerald Wear is the name and he neither talks nor listens, being deaf and dumb. All of his conversation is carried on with the ears and elbows, the eyebrows furnishing punctuation. They say Wear is right smart of a pitcher and he will get a tryout to make good. So if you crave to call him names, practice wagging your ears.

Wayward thought—Isn't it odd how great minds run in the same channel. For instance, "I am taking things easy," said Dempsey, following his recent surgical operation in New York. Strange, but those are the very words uttered by the burglar as he ransacked the rich man's house. How come?

But umpires have their uses as well as abuses. An artist of Paris, Mo., desired to startle the dumfounded universe

BEAR CREW WILL PASS UP REGATTA

Coach Ebright Feels Year Needed to Master New Conibeat Stroke

By COPELAND C. BURG
For International News Service
SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—The Golden Bear of the University of California will not be represented this year by a crew in any eastern regatta.

That's the edict of Ky Ebright, new coach of the Blue and Gold. Ebright figures that California has no chance to beat Washington in the dual race, April 12, in Seattle and he is determined not to accept invitations to enter the Poughkeepsie regatta or the Olympic tryout.

Introduction to California of the Conibeat stroke, made famous at Washington by Hiram Conibeat and later by the means that brought victory to Yale through Coach Ed Leader, a disciple of Conibeat, will take some time.

May Take All Year
"It may be that I will not be able to fully install the Conibeat stroke at California until next year," says Ebright. "Of course this year we will use the Conibeat stroke but it may be impossible to adapt it fully and use it in all its effectiveness until 1925."

Coach Ebright only smiled when asked what he thought about reports sent out from Seattle that Washington had a poor crew this season. As a matter of fact the purple and gold institution has practically intact the crew which last year won at Poughkeepsie, defeating the Navy and four other shells. Ebright figures Washington will win on the Pacific and has a good chance to repeat in the east.

A feature of the 1924 rowing program in the east is crowding of all the shell classic in addition to the Olympic tryouts into the short space of three weeks.

Eastern Regattas
Columbia, Princeton and Pennsylvania will race May 31 and June 13 and 14 the Olympic tests will be held on the Schuylkill at Philadelphia. Three days later the shells of Columbia, Syracuse, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Washington will meet on the Poughkeepsie.

Owing to complaints from several colleges, it may be that the Olympic tryouts will be cancelled and the winner of the Poughkeepsie race selected to represent the United States at Paris.

Climaxing the eastern rowing season will be the annual Harvard-Yale regatta on the Thames at New London, Conn., June 20, when Coach Leader of the Eli shell will attempt to repeat his sensational victory of last year.

Not every college boy makes a good football player, but any number of them develop into wonderful parlor athletes.

with a masterpiece and decided to paint a picture and call it "Friendless." An umpire proved to be the perfect subject for this work of art, posing au naturel.

Just by way of giving the poor pup a rest, let us arise to remark that this Paul Berlenbach, light heavyweight with twenty-six knockouts in his credit in as many starts, will bear watching. Even admitting that the men he has met have not been top-notchers, it is no small feat to stop twenty-four in succession, even though they be set-ups. A set-up is never a dead stop. Sending a man against a set-up is not the safest pastime in the world, for set-ups have been known to refuse to "set." He may be one before the battle, but occasionally he gets a bright idea after he finds that he can reach the gent who picked him as such and he suddenly imbued with a keen desire to win the battle. This is not always accomplished, but the set-up frequently makes a showing on his sudden ambition and confidence that gives the career of the picker a severe setback. Berlenbach is being hailed by some as a second manly Ketchel. However that may be, he is due to show the boys something before he is through with them.

And now, just by way of parting, let us slip another chink of baseball over the keyboard. This, in baseball parlance, is called "mixing them up." This expression does not mean the same thing it did before when it was used to picture a man there such a person as one who does not know his own name and nicknames of the various ball clubs most important to fans on the coast, let him paste the following list in his hat and forever after refuse to check the hat:

Pacific Coast League
Los Angeles—Angels or Seraphs.
Vernon—Tigers or Bengals.
San Francisco—Seals.
Sacramento—Senators or Solons.
Stockton—Indians or Acorns.
Seattle—Indians or Swallows.
Portland—Ducks or Beavers.
Salt Lake—Bees.

New York—Giants.
Brooklyn—Dodgers.
Cincinnati—Reds.
Boston—Braves.
St. Louis—Cardinals.
Chicago—Cubs.
Pittsburgh—Pirates.
Philadelphia—Phillies.

American League
St. Louis—Browns.
Boston—Red Sox.
Philadelphia—Athletics.
Washington—Senators.
Cleveland—Tigers.
Chicago—White Sox.
New York—Yankees.
The names, be it understood, are not the only ones that will be applied to the teams before October arrives again.

FIVE BOUTS FOR FIGHT FANS HERE

Hot Menu to Be Dished Up Thurs. Night; Ex-Champs May Be Present

Eddie Byrd vs. Ad Anderson.
Cecil Taylor vs. George Lavoy.
Jimmy Racer vs. Jimmy Gordon.
Ted Rose vs. Eddie Richards.
Eddie Kelly vs. Jack Turner.

Fans who attend the regular boxing card arranged by the Glendale Athletic club for Thursday night at 327 North Brand, will probably have a chance to see two former world's champions, Jess Willard got a great kick out of the last show and seemed to enjoy it as much as any one there. Unfortunately he had been allotted a seat behind one of the ring corners and the post obstructed his view. Jess took a good workout during the evening twisting his neck to see what was going on. However, that will undoubtedly not stop him from being there this week.

Jeffries May Appear
Jim Jeffries, from his bailiwick at Burbank will probably accompany his newest protegee, Tommy Richards, next to watch the Byrd-Anderson, as Tommy is scheduled to fight the winner of this bout two weeks hence. Jim Jeffries, like all ex-champions are apt to be, is very fond of Richards, and thinks he has a coming contender. Jess and Jim ought to have a great reunion if they get together at the swat feast.

Byrd and Anderson are both announced to be in good shape for the main event. The heavy-weight scrap was such a fizzle last card that Matchmaker Pete Essick wants to give the fans a run for their money this time, if he can.

Fists Will Fly
A new Taylor and George Lavoy, a Cecil Byrd in these parts, fight the semi-windup. Cecil is always popular with the local fans, some think too popular. The judges were handed a very large raspberry for the decision they awarded him last week.

Three other cards, with a curtain raiser go to make up the night's card.

In the curtain raiser Pete claims that he has a new colored boy who is a whirlwind. He refuses to divulge his identity, but has billed him as the champion hot black of Glendale. Although never appearing on a local card he is supposed to have lots of stuff for a novice, and promises to get the fans in good feeling for the fights that follow.

Meusel to Start for Yanks' Camp Thursday
Great consternation was caused in the ranks of the Yankee fans in New York when a report that gained wide credence was circulated to the effect that Bob Meusel, star outfielder and world's series hero, would not be able to play ball this year, due to injuries to his arm as a result of an automobile accident near San Diego a short time ago. The accident was killed. The fear was aggravated due to the fact that Bob is still in Los Angeles and has not reported for spring training.

The Yankee business office kept the wires hot to Los Angeles and finally obtained a denial from Meusel, in which he said that he had not suffered any permanent injury. He announced last night that he would leave Thursday for New Orleans, where he will join the champions.

Meusel stated that he did hurt his shoulder in the crash, but asserted that the injury was not serious and that as the result of careful treatment his arm was in good shape.

FALK WON'T PITCH
WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 11.—Bib Falk has taken unkindly to the talk to give him a fling at pitching, instead of outfielding. He says he won't pitch. Johnny Evers has been giving the decisions as to the availability of White Sox recruits.

ROOKY'S HARD LUCK
TAMPA, Fla., March 11.—Misfortune has robbed little "Chick" Cagnon, former Holy Cross star, of his opportunity to land a regular berth in the majors. He probably will be one of the first rookies cut adrift as the result of an injury to an old football knee.

VETERANS LOOK GOOD
LAKELAND, Fla., March 11.—Three veteran pitchers, Stan Coveleskie, George Uhle and Sherry Smith of the Cleveland Indians, showed good condition in the first practice at training camp here.

ARM LIMBERS UP
AVALON, Cal., March 11.—Examination has proved that nothing is wrong with Vic Keen's arm and its stiffness is passing. Bill Killefer, Cub manager, was cheered by the report.

ROOKIES FACE TEST
LEESBURG, Fla., March 11.—Manager Fletcher divided his squad of Phillies into two groups today—regulars and rookies. The rookies will be given the acid test from now on.

TIGERS PLAY TODAY
AUGUSTA, Ga., March 11.—Having been frozen out of the first game of the year yesterday, the game is on for today between the Tiger regulars and yannigans.

Says Sisler Will Produce Winner Playing or Idle

Marty McManus, Browns' second sacker, gets rid of an interesting view on the Sisler situation. It is still undecided whether Sisler will be able to play first for, as well as manager, the Browns. His loss at first would be a sad blow to the team, everyone realizes. "But he can't play the pep and vim into the team from the bench that he passes along at first," says McManus. "And he can direct the play. We'll be right up there, even if he can't play."

Colgate Faces Hard Season in Baseball

HAMILTON, N. Y., March 11.—With three of his best infielders missing and Paul Kinney, hurling ace graduated, Coach Bill Reid, of Colgate, has a real job on his hands in constructing a nine to approach the team that represented the Maroon on the diamond last year. Captain Ab Hermann, star third sacker and super-hitter with a batting average of over .400 for his college course; "Okie" O'Connor, star shortstop and better than a 300 hitter, and Jack Reddall, elongated first baseman, who could also hit them, will be missing on this year's team.

The work of the Maroon nine will be watched with a great deal of interest this year because of the remarkable record the team made in the Spring of 1923. Starting in 1922, the Colgate team ran its string of victories up to twenty-five straight before being dented. At the close of the year Bill Reid's team had the best record of any team in the East.

Three problems confront Coach Reid. He must bolster up the pitching staff, that has only one letter man remaining from last year as a nucleus; then he must rebuild the infield, with Captain Chet Sanford at the second sack; after that is done he must turn his attention to the outfield, which was not strong in some departments last year.

Reid undoubtedly will devote a great deal of attention to the pitching staff. Willie Fitzgerald, who turned in some good games last year, will be the hurling ace this season. Jack Amey, former Cornell Free Academy star, is expected to come through. Amey won several games last year, and added experience should make him a winning moundsman.

Eddie Tryon, the football star, will make his debut as a moundsman this spring. Tryon was considered a good pitcher at Suffolk; but he could not arrange his track work so that he could go out last year. Other promising men are Stanton, Strack, Finn and Stanton, from last season's squad, and Hopkins, Scholtz and Hart from the freshman class. Hopkins starred at Dean Academy, and Scholtz went good at Williston Seminary.

Colgate faces the hardest schedule in years, with Cross, Cornell, Syracuse, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, Yale and St. Bonaventure as the leading teams.

WHITE SOX HEAD WILL MOVE HERE

Carl Sawyer Turns Down Job With Wichita Team To Stay on Coast

Carl Sawyer, scrappy new leader of the White Sox, expects to move to Glendale this week and make this city his future home. Carl is in the rock and gravel business, and now that he has definitely decided not to go to Wichita this year, wants to be near the scene of his diamond efforts.

In a long conference with Eddie Maier and Bill Essick of Vernon, he explained to them why he could not play in the Western league. As long as he was in the Coast league and could keep one eye on his business interests here while the Tigers were at home, he could manage to get by. But he told them that it would be impossible for him to keep in touch with it and be away all summer. Carl uses his head for something else than a knot to keep his spine from unraveling, and, although he is not old, realizes that a good business is not to be neglected for a career in the minors. He knows that at best his years at baseball are numbered, and does not want to sacrifice business for baseball.

Will Write Landis
He has nothing but the kindest of words for the Tiger management, and states that there was no salary difference. He is going to explain the matter to Judge Landis by letter, and hopes that the judge will not frown upon him too severely if he should want to play in the Coast league again.

Carl has made a hit with the fans for the fighting spirit he has injected into the team. Sunday afternoon the youngsters were out there trying all the time, as is evidenced by the way they snatched the victory in the ninth inning. Mayer's hit, following a smack by Bedell, another youngster, brought in the winning run. On and off the diamond Carl is a very fine chap, and is extremely popular with the local fans.

He expects to decide on his location here in the very near future.

THEATRES

THE GLENDALE
The wonderfully dramatic possibilities of mother love, utilized innumerable times in motion picture plots but always new when presented from a fresh angle, is the dominating theme of "Judgment of the Storm," the Palmer Photoplay corporation's strong film now showing at the Glendale theater, with a cast headed by Myrtle Stedman.

The idea of having a young, beautiful mother use her charms as a gambling adventuress for the sake of a grown son has seldom been seen. That is just one of the emotional punches in "Judgment of the Storm," and the producers are confident that this big dramatic highlight, brought out by Miss Stedman's fine histrionic art, will give those who see it a new idea of the familiar theme of mother love.

BALDNESS—No. 2

Yesterday I gave you an illustration and told you something of the skin and the hair, preparatory to telling you about baldness. I told you about the hair follicles, with their little nodule-like projections (the hair papillae) at the bottom, from which the hair grows.

When hairs are pulled or fall out, the hair follicle with its papilla, remains, and grows a new hair if it is virile enough to grow new hair. So the whole question of retaining the hair depends upon keeping the hair follicles in a virile state.

The little papilla over which the hair root fits like a cap, and the whole hair follicle are liberally supplied with nerves and a network of blood vessels. If the hair follicles are given their due share of healthy blood they are going to continue on their job of making hair. Some hairs are being shed all the time and new hairs should take their place—and they will, as I said, if the hair follicles are given a fair chance to do their work.

Most men who are bald try to blame it on inheritance. "It runs in the family," they say. Now the authorities say it is true that baldness does seem to be inherited and there probably is no doubt that there is some basis for this belief. However, I believe that belief in the inheritance of baldness, just as in the inheritance of fat, has been too long made the scapegoat for a lack of care of the scalp and general nutrition. I believe that if the scalp is given proper attention from childhood, baldness can be prevented, or at least delayed many years.

Last week, I gave you directions for the general care of the scalp. I will review them briefly. Every day, best beginning in childhood, the scalp should be thoroughly cleansed by a brisk brushing with a scrubbing motion. The loss of dandruff scales, of which there is a normal accumulation every day, are thus dislodged and do not accumulate to clog the hair follicles and to furnish a breeding ground for germs.

This brushing of the scalp should be accompanied by a thorough brushing of the hair afterwards, and a massage of the scalp wards and the good circulation to the hair papillae—from which the hair grows, remember—and to stimulate the nerves.

Pulling the hair is also a good exercise for the scalp. It is best accomplished by running the fingers through the hair and then closing the fingers and clenching the fist. This gives exercise to those important hair follicles with their little hair papillae at the bottom.

KISS ON DARE CAUSES TROUBLE

Results In Demand For Teacher To Resign

Miss Margarette Pratt

KANSAS CITY, Kan., March 11.—The kiss, after all, was a mere brush on the cheek. You can take the word of Miss Margarette Pratt, the recipient, for that.

Wagging tongues which made something out of nothing, Miss Pratt believes, were responsible for the "kiss investigation" in a local high school which resulted in the resignation of E. E. Damon, an instructor.

Miss Pratt, 17-year-old senior in the high school, who was kissed by Damon on a dare, referred to the affair as a "trivial little incident."

"It was nothing more than a brush on the cheek," she said. "I thought no more about it until I was questioned by the principal concerning the matter."

She said that about a half dozen of her companions and herself were standing in the hall of the school and, being in a prankish mood, had been teasing whoever passed by them.

When Damon passed the girls "kidded" him and grabbed his pencil and handkerchief. He made a grab back at them and happened to catch Miss Pratt by the arm.

"I wonder what I ought to do to you girls for teasing me this way," he said, Miss Pratt explained.

One of the girls then spoke up jokingly. "You've caught Margarette. I dare you to kiss her."

Miss Pratt attempted to jerk away, but before she could do so Damon's lips had brushed her cheek.

The girls who witnessed it made so much of the incident that it reached the ears of the principal and an investigation followed.

BEAUTY CHATS

ANSWERED LETTERS

Betty S., Ellen T., John S.—The little bags, to be used in washing the face in place of soap, are made from thin cheesecloth. The mixture for filling is a cup of oatmeal, two tablespoonfuls of shaved castile soap, and a pinch of powdered tincture of benzoin. Into each bag put a heaping teaspoonful of the mixture. You can omit the benzoin if you do not have enlarged pores.

Send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the eyelash formula. Albert—Crude oil is only used where there is a tendency to dandruff and when the scalp is very dry. If your scalp is healthy it does not need any special treatment.

As you are about seventy pounds overweight it should take at least a year for you to reduce to normal. This should be exercised as your doctor will prescribe for you. You can get this attention at any of the gymnasia. If you reduce in this healthful way you will not have any sagging of the facial muscles.

Marie E. D.—The articles you mention are all trade preparations so I do not know what they contain. Any depilatory acts as a shave, removing only the surface hair and causing the new hair to grow in coarser. As long as peroxide keeps this hair from being noticed, continue with it. When it gets too noticeable have a electric needle treatment.

Blanche—Gum arabic water is only used on the brows for a short time to get the hairs trained so they may be brushed into a perfect line more easily. After a little training these should stay in place, and only the isolated ones will need dampening with the gum, if they grow out of line. Ordinarily, the brows need nothing but brushing to keep them in place.

Mrs. P. R. W.—Consult the doctor about the itching and very dry skin.

Mrs. I. K.—There is nothing so effective for ridding yourself of fleshiness in parts of the body as exercising, or massage which is also another form of exercise. I am sorry but I cannot give you names of specialists.

Blonde S. O. S.—You can keep your light hair from turning to a drab shade if you use lemon juice and bicarbonate of soda in the final rinse after shampooing. To about two quarts of water, add the juice of half a lemon and a scant half of a teaspoonful of the soda. If you send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the eyelash formula I will mail you one that is excellent. There is no way for you to curl your lashes.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

POEMS That LIVE

TO HELENE
(On a Gift-ring Carelessly Lost)

I sent a ring—a little band
Of emerald and ruby stone
And bade it, sparkling on thy hand,
Tell thee sweet tales of one
Whose constant memory
Was full of loveliness, and Thee.

A shell was graven on its gold—
"Twas Cupid fix'd without his wings—
To Helene once it would have told
More than was ever told by rings;
But now all's past and gone,
Her love is buried with that stone.

Thou shalt not see the tears that start
From eyes by thoughts like these beguiled;
Thou shalt not know the beating heart,
Ever a victim and a child:
Yet Helene love, believe
The heart that never could deceive.

I'll hear thy voice of melody
In the sweet whispers of the air;
I'll see the brightness of thine eyes,
In the blue evening's dewy star;
In crystal streams thy purity;
And look on Heaven to look on thee.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

TOO CONVENTIONAL

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Is it correct for eight young people of 16 and over to go automobiling in the evening alone? I am having a crowd of boys and girls at my home sometime soon and one of the boys whom I invited said that he would take us all out for a spin and then come home and dance. I think it is a good idea because it breaks the monotony of our parties and then too we all know each other very well. One of the young men, however, said he didn't think it was proper for us to go out without a chaperone. This young man is very well principled, but I think at times he is a little too conventional. I think it is all right to take care of one's reputation, but when harm would be to take a ride with seven schoolmates.

R. A. M.

There would probably not be any harm if you took the ride, but only too often the young people who go on such rides spoon and act in such a way that they compromise themselves. If you give up the perfectly safe you will give up the very fond of our party might criticize your party if you broke the monotony in that way. Night rides for young people are on the black list.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl, 17 years old, and a senior in high school. Last winter I met a boy, very fond of our party, I like him. I cannot tell whether he likes me or not. If I see him when I am alone, he is very friendly and talkative, but when I am with my friend he doesn't seem to pay any attention to me, but talks to her instead. I am sure she doesn't know how this hurts me because I treat him like a boy. How should I treat him the next time I see him if she is with me? I love him dearly and hate to lose him, but I will have to if he doesn't care for me.

I met another boy and I like him quite well because he always tries to give me a good time, but I will be more satisfied if I knew what to do about the other one. Please advise me what to do to win his love. WORDS.

Probably your interest in the young man makes you self-conscious when you meet him. On the occasions when you are alone he naturally talks to you and you respond. But when your girl friend is along, you are at a disadvantage because you care. It

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY, ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.—Advertisement.

REPORT ON GUARD REORGANIZATION

Adjutant Gen. Mittelstaedt Coming Southland to Add New Units

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—Excellent progress is being made in the reorganization of the National Guard according to Adjutant-General R. E. Mittelstaedt.

The cities of Chico, Yuba City and Maxwell now have companies ready for mustering in. They will form part of the 134th Infantry. Hanford and Visalia are organizing companies for the same regiment. San Jose is to the front with two companies and Richmond, Palo Alto and Hayward are securing recruits for one company each. San Leandro is already represented and Salinas is organizing a light tank company. Stockton is ready with two batteries for the 143rd Artillery and Lodi is represented by one battery. Oakland is recruiting a service battery for the same regiment and two new batteries in San Francisco are reaching completion.

Need Better Standing
General Mittelstaedt will leave for southern California in the near future and begin organization of the 185th Infantry, units of which will be located in cities south of Tehachapi.

Under the War Department program, the guard is 36 per cent complete. New units to be added will bring the standing of California to 50 per cent of federal requirements, with 5000 troops in all branches. The state has until June 30, 1926, to complete the reorganization program.

VALLEY NEWS

PREDICT RECORD CROPS OF FRUIT

Packing Company Preparing To Handle 4700 Tons During Season

A canvass of valley packing houses indicates that there will be record crops of peaches, apricots and tomatoes this season. The Van Nuys Packing company, states its manager, C. M. Gannon, is preparing to handle a pack of 4700 tons of these goods, at a figure that will enable growers to utilize available water to advantage.

Indications are that there will be three operating canneries this year in the San Fernando valley—the Van Nuys Packing company, the San Fernando Packing company and the Libby, McNeil & Libby company plant at Burbank, and as a consequence the ability of these three concerns to handle the bulk of the output will tax them to capacity.

The contract price on tomatoes this year is $18 per ton as compared with $15 last year, which is an indication of better times for the grower. The Van Nuys Packing company will be able to handle 1500 tons of tomatoes this year.

Removes Drone Hens
Elimination on non-producing hens from San Fernando valley flocks will increase egg production at last 20 per cent, declares A. C. Henry, who has recently been very successful in culling hens.

In the flock of 576 birds culled for L. C. Dast, Van Nuys, the removal of 198 birds is said to have increased the average egg production 20 per cent within a very short time. Mr. Henry has lately been culling flocks in the Rummiede colony and "considerable numbers of 'burnt-out' hens have been replaced by producers.

"Burnt-out" hens, according to Mr. Henry, are caused by artificial light forced feed and fat. The latter will even cause death, at certain seasons, he states.

No Trade Show
Lankershim merchants have abandoned the idea of a trade show this year. The original dates set were March 8 to 21 but it was found impossible to get the affair ready and the Huffer garage, where it was to have been held, was not available at a later date.

E. Hopper, chairman of the project, and sixteen merchants interested, met together and decided to call off the trade show. They will seek to obtain the same results in other ways, urging co-operation on the part of residents to continue the marked development the community has enjoyed in recent months.

The reality market in Lankershim is reported active, following the plentiful rains ushering in the month of March. A canvass indicates that most dealers are enjoying renewed activity and a number of substantial sales have been made in the past few days.

Bumper Apricot Crop
Throughout the San Fernando valley the apricots are now in bloom and evidences on every hand indicate a bumper crop. The rains came just at the crucial time and some growers have gone so far as to irrigate, in anticipation of doing a big business with the canneries.

A few years ago, residents point out, the valley depended largely on its fruit crops for prosperity. Today a bumper apricot crop is satisfying to contemplate but no more than a detail in the valley's life, which has many community and industrial as well as farm interests.

BURBANK HOSPITAL PLANS FOR MORE SPACE

Three-Story Addition Will Cost $100,000; Ready By End of Summer

A three-story addition to the Burbank hospital, larger than the original building and entailing an investment of $100,000, will be started within three weeks, it is announced by officials of the institution. It is believed that when completed the hospital will be one of the finest in the San Fernando valley, drawing patients from as far north as Santa Barbara and as far south as the Imperial valley.

It will require six months to complete the addition and remodel the original building, the officials state.

In making the old building and the addition into one unit, complete in plan and appearance, the south wall of the present structure will be torn out and the addition constructed as a portion of the completed building. The entrance will be in the new part, while the remodeling of the old will include an entire change in its front.

The emergency department will be on the first floor, it is stated, where it will be easy and quick of access to the ambulance driveway. On this floor will also be the laboratory, X-ray and hydrotherapy departments.

The second floor will be largely taken up with private rooms, each having a bath and toilet. The third floor will contain the main operating room.

Big Building Week
Building permits for the first week in March approximated $90,000, reports William Coywell, building inspector. The biggest item on this list was a single permit for $35,000, for a new camp court located on Scott road, between Central avenue and San Fernando road.

The Southern Pacific railroad is backing a project to draw industries to the San Fernando valley by fixing a maximum price of $3000 an acre on a 300-acre tract a mile west of San Fernando. Merrick & Ruddick, real estate men of the city, are said to be interested with the railroad in the project. Experts have been retained to make a complete survey of the district, according to C. R. Smurr, industrial agent for the S. P.

Three light automobiles of a popular make tangled in a spectacular three-cornered smash-up on Pioneer drive last Thursday night. W. E. Smith, a deputy marshal, arrested George L. Koehler, driver of one of the trio of "puddlehoppers," on a charge of alleged alcoholism. In court, Koehler pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving and paid $100 in a choice between that and fifty days in jail. Koehler's machine was of the so-called "racing" variety.

Runaway Boy Caught By Glendale Police

Quick action was obtained by the local police on Peter Basquez, 15-year-old boy of San Francisco who ran away from his home three days ago.

He was apprehended by Detective Sergeant Charles P. Blake and Officer J. J. Claxton last night. He is being held here awaiting the answer to a telegram sent his father last night.

EAGLE ROCK PLAN SOCIAL TO HELP CLUB FUNDS

St. Patrick's Ball Will Be Big Event of Season In Eagle Rock

On Saturday night the Women's Club will resound to the venerable strains, "Wearin' o' the Green," and there will in addition be optical evidence of the same, no less than St. Patrick's ball being scheduled for that date, under auspices of the local chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

A four-piece orchestra from Santa Monica will furnish the music, and appropriate favors will add to the verdant atmosphere, according to Mrs. W. R. Denman, chairman of the committee in charge, who states that each woman is requested to bring a luncheon box for two, these to be sold to their escorts, to swell the funds raised.

Besides Mrs. Denman, the hostesses include: Mrs. R. J. Tepper, Mrs. A. E. Rose, Mrs. C. E. Spencer, Mrs. A. D. Tate and Mrs. Wilmore Walz.

A Gallant Soldier
In the year 1817 when 75,000 soldiers for "three months' service," Oscar Davis, who passed away February 20, 1924, aged 81 years, was one of those to respond. He threw down his school books and went to the front at 19 years of age. He came home, and there was a call for 400,000 more men. He responded for the second time for three years, which time he served.

He was honorably discharged on account of expiration of term of service. He enlisted in Company D, 15th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He belonged to the 1st Brigade, 3rd division, 4th Army Corps, Army of the Cumberland, was engaged in the battles of Shiloh, Tenn., under General Buell; Corinth, Miss., under General Halleck; Stone River, under General Rosecrans; two days at Liberty Gap, under General Wilcox; battle of Chickamauga, Georgia, under General Rosecrans and Pat Tanner; Mission Ridge, under General Grant. He marched with General Sherman to Atlanta, where his time expired. He was also in the battle of Kennesaw Mountain, Georgia. The deceased was born at Annapolis, Crawford county, Ohio, March 12, 1842.

C. of C. Booklet Out
The new advertising booklet issued by the Chamber of Commerce is now out, reports Chairman H. G. Warren of the committee that has had this difficult work in hand. Copies may be obtained at the C. of C. headquarters in the local City Hall. In this booklet there are thirty-five different cuts of residential and business property. A competent committee of organizers and artists has combined to make the book one of the most presentable and effective advertisements ever arranged for Eagle Rock.

The work being undertaken in the east end of Eagle Rock by the Los Angeles water department will be completed in two weeks, according to E. C. Eckert, local representative.

EVANS EXPLAINS DEATH OF JESUS

Tragedy on Calvary Is Most Striking Event In All Human History

Emphasizing the fact that the death of Jesus on the cross was the death of Christ as well and that the crucifixion had a relation to the sins of mankind, Dr. William G. Evans told a large gathering at the Glendale Presbyterian church last night that the event at Calvary is the most unique and extraordinary in all human history.

He said in part: "The death of Jesus Christ on Calvary is the most unique and extraordinary fact in all human history. When I refer to the death of Jesus as being unique, I do not refer in a specific and particular sense to the physical sufferings and death He endured. I am thinking tonight of the unusualness of the fact that Jesus died at all. That is one of the most astounding facts in all history, that Jesus died.

"What is death? Who can tell? We are prone to think of it as the separation of the soul from the body. But that is not death in its deepest sense. That is what happens to an animal when it dies. But, to man, death is more, much more than physical; it is ethical, moral, spiritual. When, therefore, we refer to the death of Jesus we mean something more than the mere separation of soul and body.

"Death, in the Bible sense of the word, is the separation of the spirit of man from the spirit of God. It is more than the separation of soul from body. Death is the wages of sin. Death is the separation of the spirit of man from God, from light, from hope, from purity, from the glories of God, from heaven. And it was that death that Christ tasted for every man.

"Jesus did not need to have submitted to death. He could have delivered himself from those who executed him. But he did not do that. Nor should we forget that it was Christ that Jesus Christ. Not Jesus merely, but Jesus Christ. Not until we see that fact shall we be able to understand the wonderfulness of the death on Calvary. It is the death of a sinless one, who did not need to die, but who took upon Himself the sins of his creatures and made atonement for them by sacrificial death. We have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of our sins.

Dr. Evans will speak again tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Ask Daugherty Give Congressmen Trial

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The House judiciary committee has recommended that Attorney General Daugherty should proceed with the prosecution of the two congressmen under suspicion in connection with the veterans' bureau expose and that no prosecution should be undertaken by the House itself.

A minority report was made, however, by Representative Dominick, Democrat of South Carolina, who urged that the House prosecute the offending members, under its constitutional right to deal with members of congress "for disorderly behavior."

Only Two Officials In Oil Stock Deals

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Attorney-General Daugherty and Senator Elkins appeared to be the only government officials who have dealt in Sinclair Oil stock, it was announced yesterday afternoon by Senator Walsh of the Senate oil investigating committee.

Walsh said that a search of stock brokers' records by expert accountants had revealed no record of transactions by officials other than Daugherty and Elkins, both of whom have admitted their operations in Sinclair stock.

An eight-inch main will then be laid along Colorado boulevard. This main will serve the west part of Eagle Rock and the district north of the boulevard, where the water shortage has been definitely felt for many months past. It will, according to Mr. Eckert, greatly alleviate any possible summer shortage.

CHRISTIAN HOME MILLIKAN'S TOPIC

Methodist Preacher Praises Parents Who Instruct Children Right

"The Christian Home" was the subject of the morning sermon by Rev. L. J. Millikan, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, Sunday. Taking for his text Genesis 18:19, he paid an eloquent tribute to parents who make their homes Christian homes, and showed the necessity for such homes if the nation would be preserved. He said in part:

"God had sent angels down to earth to destroy a wicked city; He sent them direct to the home of His servant Abraham. When they were ready to leave, as was the custom in that day, Abraham walked and talked with them. God then said, 'Shall I hide this thing from Abraham?' He was willing to give consideration to Abraham's loyalty, which proves the value to a city or community of a god-fearing, God-serving man. It is marvelous for God to say of a man as He did of Abraham, 'He is my friend.' Every Christian home is based on God's divine law of love. Matrimony is the first essential to be considered in planning and building a Christian home, as it is the foundation. The influence of the home reaches far out into the years of the future, for with perhaps very few exceptions, every man and woman out of the home just what home has made of him or her

Where Love Rules
"Can you picture anything holy, so sacred, as a real Christian home, where only love reigns? Such a home is loved very close to heaven, for there nothing in all the world can be to it. It is plainly written in His holy Scriptures that has constituted the man to be head of the home, though it is nothing to indicate that was to be the 'boss.' That 'boss' is an ugly word, and tired out of harmony with word 'home.' When God placed upon him the dignified honor and responsibility of fatherhood, with the command to his wife as God loves his child and to be willing, if need be, to pour out his life's blood for 'That man whose life is a example before his children, the people of his community, wonderful power, hence, the importance to the nation of Christian parents and Christian home. Oh, how delightful, this country in their responsibility! It is pitiful the way so parents neglect the training their children in the name 'kindness,' which is misplaced misguided. Never is it need to whip your child cruelly in the fear of God, control a child. Oh, how delightful, heavenlike is the ideal Christian home, based on God's law of love. Will J. Myers sang most effectively 'I Know He's Mine. Elks avoid swamps and places, preferring solid ground and frequent baths during weather.

PREDICT RECORD CROPS OF FRUIT

Packing Company Preparing To Handle 4700 Tons During Season

A canvass of valley packing houses indicates that there will be record crops of peaches, apricots and tomatoes this season. The Van Nuys Packing company, states its manager, C. M.
