THE VALLEY HAD A FRIEND IN COURT. Demanding that the great San Fernando and Antelope Valleys be not entirely ignored by the Lissner element which controls progressive Republican affairs, Assemblyman Randall of this district appeared before the convention of Sixty-first and Sixty-seventh Assembly district delegates called to choose a senatorial candidate to succeed Senator Bell, who will resign to accept the congressional nomination. Mr. Randall pointed out that of the candidates so far nominated, assemblyman, supervisor and congressman, not one of them comes from the great empire on the North which contains more than half a dozen flourishing cities. He said that this territory will be expected to assist in electing the man already nominated from the Pasadena and Los Angeles portions of the district. He declared that this vacant senatorship now gave an opportunity to recognize these flourishing communities. Mr. Randall also pointed out that Pasadena had had the senatorial office for more than ten years and it was time for the other half of the district to have a term. But few delegates were present, however, and they were from Pasadena. The selection long ago announced by the Lissner committee of fifteen was rushed through, his name being W. J. Carr, the city attorney of Pasadena.
