C-PRO. 95

- 1. ANNOUNCER: "Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers"
- 2. ORCHESTRA: QUARTET: Ranger Song.
- 3. ALHOUNCER: The work of United States Forest Rangers, protecting,
- 4. managing and developing our National Forests for Public
- 5. use is not only interesting and varied, but also extremely exacting.
- 6. Entrusted with the administration of millions of acres of valuable
- 7. public lands and a wealth of national resources the Rangers carry a
- 8. heavy burden of responsibility. A good job of administering the
- 6. forests requires not only untiring effort but devotion to the highest
- 10. ideals of public service. And these are the things men of the U. S.
- 11. Forest Service take pride in standing for. One thing demanded of
- 12. forest rangers is ability to sope directly and independently with
- 13. all sorts of problems big and small. People living in and near the
- 14. National Forests as well as those who come to the forests for
- 15. recration or business have learned to depend on the rangers for advice
- 16, and assistance in all kinds of trouble. And the rangers take real
- 17. satisfaction in rendering whatever assistance they can -- both in
- 19. their official capacity as members of the United States Forest
- 19. Service and as citizens of the Communities in which they live.
- 20. Well, now to Winding Greek and the Pine Cone National
- 21. Forest. As we look in at the Ranger Station today we find Ranger
- 22. Jim Robbins at the desk in his office checking some timber sale figures
- 23. Jerry Quick, who has been helping him has just stepped outside for
- 24. another chunk of wood to keep the fire going in the big fireplace,
- 25. Hare's Jim at work in the office now.

- 1. JIM: (TO HIMSELF) Twelve, seventeen, twenty-six, ---
- Umm. Dawgenit, Off again.
- 3. SOUND OF STOMPING ON PORCH OF MIKE.
- 4. JERRY: (SHOUTING OFF MIKE) May Jim. Open the door.
- 5. SOUND OF CHAIR SCUFFING ON FLOOR,
- 6. Just a minute.
- 7. SOUND OF DOOR BEING THROWN OPEN.
- 8. JERRY: (SLIGHTLY OFF MIKE) Quick, Jim, grab hold there
- g. will you? She's about to get away from me.
- 10. JIM: (SLIGHTLY OFF MIKE) Uh. There. By gosh, Jerry,
- 11. that piece of wood ought to burn for a week.
- 12. JERRY: (COMING ON) I'm gettin' tired of packin' in little
- 13. pieces every five minutes. I figured I'd get one this
- 14. time that would last awhile.
- 15. JIM: Well you did all right. Push that chair out of the
- 16. way, Jerry. We'll give this log a swing end to as it
- 17. right in on the fire.
- 18. SOUND OF CHAIR BEING PUSHED ASIDE.
- 19. JERRY: There. You ready?
- 20. JIN: Okay. Let's go.
- 21. SOUND OF HEAVY LOG DROPPED ON FIRE IN FIREPLACE.
- 22. JERRY: Ah-h boy! Thought it was going to break my back
- 23. before I got it in here.

door, son.

- 24. JIM: (CHUCKLES) Next time maybe you won't try to carry
- the whole woodpile all at once..., Better close the

JERRY: I'll say. SOUND OF DOOR GLOSING. That wind feels like it's getting pretty cold outside, 310 & TME Did you look at the termometer? 2 (0 Yeah. I looked at the thermometer on the way out JERRY: w G to the wood pile. It's down to four below. JIM: Homen. Looks like we're in for another cold enap. Yeah, Anyhow, tomorrow's Saturday, and we won't 100 JERRY: have to go out on the forest over the week-end. That's = 2 10, a help 1.1. JAM: Uh hah. But you better not count your chickens .8. before they're hatched, son. When the weaher's . 3. the worst around here things seem to come our way the .4. fastest. . 3 g SOUND OF TELEPHONE WINGING That's right ... Hey, I wonder who's calling on the .6. JERRY: : 7 . phone at this hour? It's almost quitting time. I'll enswer it. (SOUND OF RECEIVER BEING LIFTED) .8. JIM: .9. Helle. ?O. MARY: (FILTER MIKE) (QUICKLM) Hello. Carry? 31. 37111 (CHUCKLES) Just a minute, Mary, Jerry's right here, 32. JERFY: Who Nary? Calling for me? Here, let me aca HOS. MARY: (HASMILY THROUGH FILTER MIKE) Oh, you'll do just as well, Mr. Robbins. Don't bother Jerry.

, u	2 I.4 3	It's no bother, Mary, Since he found out it was you
4. 6.4.p		I can't keep him off the line. (CHUCKLES) Here
ery Si		Jerry, I wouldn't want to be accused of beating
42 5		your time.
≕. _{ge}	FIRRY:	(TO HIM) Phocey? (TO TELEPHONE) Hello, Mary,
ه د		what's up?
e)	DARLY :	(FILTER - HURT) Jerry, that certainly wasn't a very
2		nice thing to say.
30	JERRY:	Huh? What do you mean? All I said was "hollo",
10.	ZARY:	(FINTER) Now don't try to get out of it, Jerry.
4. E		I heard you, When Mr. Robbins told you I was calling,
1.20		you said "phocey", If you think
230	JEFFE.	(GUTTING IN DISGUSTEDLY) Aw, you're all mixed up;
14 E		Mary. I was kidding. That is, I was saying "phocoy"
le Di.		to Jim.
15,	MARY:	(FINTER) That's just the point. And you didn't
E Programme		want me to hear it, did you? If you think I'm
is.		calling you up and making a nuisance of myself
18"	JERRY:	(DESPERATELN) No. Listen. Good gosh, Mary.
20.		Don't be gilly.
710	MARY:	(FILTER) I am not silly. I heard you
32,	JEFRY:	(QUECKLY) No youre not sally. I didn't say
83,		you were silly. All I said was I didn't say
r 16		"phoosy". I mean Aw shucks
5.9	JUMS	(CHUCKLING) Stay with it, Jerry.

2 2	MERY:	Look, Nary. Jim was kidding me about you calling
43	Control of the contro	and I said "phooey" to him because he was kidding
10 2		me, see? I didn't say "phooey" because you called.
6.9	MARK	(FILTER) Well, why didn't you say so?
$1 g	JERRY:	(EXASPERATED) I did say so. That's what I tried to
6.		tell you right at the beginning.
f _d 3	MARY:	(FILTER) On all right, Jerry. I'm sorry. I
€,		misunderstood. But I'm all at my nerves end. I'm oo
9,		set deaqu
10.	JERRY:	Upset? Why? What? What's wrong?
2.60	MORE :	(FILTER) Well, Ed Wilson's down in bed with a bad
2126		cold, and
1.30	JERRY:	Ed Wilson? You mean the Janitor over at school?
140	* YEAR	(FILTER) Yes. And I'm afraid the plumbing will
15.		freeze up and break over the weekend like it did
1.6.		once before when he was away. I'm just worried
17.		sick. It's below zero now and they say it's
18.		getting colder all the time. I just don't know what
7.9%		to do.
200	JERRY:	Aw, now. Don't go getting all upset over a little
21.0		thing like that, Mary. Why don't you call some one
600		on the school board Dick Franks down at the
230		lumber yard, or Andy Goodman or somebody like that
24.		and let them take care of 1t?

7.0	MARY.	(FILTER) But that's just the trouble. They're
30		all out of town. They want to some kind of a
30		business men's meeting down in Willow Glen and
4.		won't be back until tomorrow night some time,
5.	JERRY:	H-m-m. What does Ed generally do? Does he keep
6.		the fire going over the week-end?
70	MARY:	(FILTER) No. The school board won't allow that
8.		because it takes too much fuel. I think that Mr.
9.		Wilson usually does when it's real cold like this is
10,		to drain the water out of all the pipes.
1.10	JEBFX:	Well shucks, that's simple. I can do that.
12.	MARY:	(FILTER) Do you think you could? If you could Jerry
1.30		I'd never be able to thank you enough. Can you do it
140		pretty soon?
15.	JERRY:	Sure. Right now if you want me to. Have you got the
16.		keys to the school house or is it open?
17.	MARY:	(FILTER) The door's loded but I've got a key. I'll
18.		meet you at the schoolhouse and open the door for you,
19.	JERRY:	Okay. It'll take me about ten minutes to get there.
20.		I'll start right now.
21.	MARY:	(FILTER) Oh, Jerry, that's wonderful. You don't
22.		know how relieved I'll be. And Jerry, you
23,		you're not mad at me for what I said, are you? I
24,		didn't mean to to
25 3	JEREY:	On no, forget it. I understand,

્ય .→ છ	MARY:	(FILTER) All right, Jerry. Goodbye.
6.5	JURRY:	Goodbye, Mary.
500	SOUND OF RECE	IVER ON HOOK.
100 m	JERRY:	Whooey! She sure is on edge tonight, to a	JIII	(CHUCKLES) You did seem to he having a little
Ç,		trouble, Jerry. What's bothering Mary now?
) is	JERRY:	Aw, Ed Wilson's down with a cold and Mary's all
8.		steamed up for fear the plumbing at the school
80		house is going to freeze up and bust. Wants me
20.		to come over and drain it Say, these women
1.1.0		have a terrible time. By gosh sometimes I get
100		to wondering about this business of getting
1.50		married to one of 'em.
1.40	BESS:	(CALLING, OFF STAGE) Just wait till I tell Mary
1.5.		Halloway that, Jerry Quick, and your ears will burn
1.00		for sure.
270	JEK FY:	Well, I'll be darned. Say, you weren't supposed to be
28.		listening to all this, Mrs. Robbins.
190	BESS:	(COMING ON - LAUGHING) You men are just as bad as the
20.		women folks, Jerry. I ought to know, living with Jim
5 2 6		there for the last twenty-six years,
22.	41.118	Well now, I sure like that.
23.	SESS:	But you don't need to worry, Jerry. I won't tell Mary.
640		I couldn't help hearing you, sitting out there in the 250		living room. You said something about Ed Wilson being slok. Is he very bad off?

10	CEARY:	No, just a cold, I guess, Mrs. Robbins.
26	BESS:	Ed's such a frail little man. It wouldn't take much
20		to put him to bed for good.
, co	SERRI:	It's okay if I welk out on you now and go on over and in G		get this job done before it gets too dark, isn't it.
E a		Jam?
7° · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	JIM:	Sure, Jerry. Go ahead. I can finish up checking
8.		these figures Say, you better take a couple of
5.		those pipe wrenches with you. You may need 6em.
10 a	JERRY:	Aw, I won't need any tools just to drain the pipes,
13,		Jim. That ought to be simple just turning a few
1.2 ,		faucets.
15.		Well, if it was me I'd take some wrenches along and
1.40		be prepared. But suit yourself. The best way to
156		learn is by doing.
16.	JERRY:	I don't figure on learning much this tip, but here I
17.		go. Anything you want from the store, Mrs. Robbins?
183	BESS:	No, Jerry. There's nothing I think of. But why
19.		don't you ask Mary over for supper and then we can all
20.		have a game of pinochle this evening?
21.5	JERRY:	Well, I'm still a little bit sore at her for jumping
82.		on me like she did, but I'll ask herthat is if you
23,		promise not to say anything.
24.	BESS:	(LAUGHING) I promise, Jerry. But I think a little 250		relaxation is just what Mary needs after teaching those kide all week.

- 1. JERRY: Okay ... I won't ask her ... I'll just bring her.
- 2. You can set another plate and we'll be right back.
- SOUND OF DOOR OPENING.
- 4. JIM: (CALLING) You better take those wrenches along,
- 5. SOUND OF DOOR CLOSING.
- 6. AUSIC UP AND OUT
- 7. SOUND OF HAMBERING ON WATER PIPE.
- E. MARY: (FADING IN) Goodness, it s dirty down here in the
- furnace room. No wonder there's dust on the deska
- 10. every morning.
- 11. JERRY: I'm getting all the dust down my neck this time.
- 12. MORE POUNDING.
- 13. MARY: I just don't know what I'd do if I didn't have you and
- 14. Mr. Robbins to call on when I'm in trouble, Jerry.
- 15. And I know there's a lot of other people feel the came
- 16. Hay.
- 7. JERRY: Uh. Darn 1t anyhou.
- 18. MOHE POUNDING.
- 19. HARY: Shat's the matter, Jerry? Is that faucet on the het
- 20. water tank stuck?
- Sl. JERRY: Naw. The faucet turns all right. But there's something
- 22. in the pipe....some rust or something. H-h-m. Let's
- ee. If I just had a wrench....
- c4. MARY: Well if

١٠	JERRY:	Oh, it's nothing serious, Mary. I'll get it all sight.
		I'm an old hand at this plumbing business. H-m-m.
		You don't know if there's any old wire around here do
i c		you?
136	MARY:	No, I don't Jerry. I don't know much of anything
5		about this part of the shool house. Mr. Wilson
(e		tends to everything down here.
86	JERRY:	U-m-m. What I need is something to poke up in that
9,		drain pipe to clean it out. It wouldn't have to be a
10.		wary long piece of wire.
1).	MARY:	Would a piece of wood or stick do?
122	JERRY:	No, 11's got to be something I can bend. A please of
3.3%		Number 9 wire would be just the thing. A piece of
7.42		wire or a wrench.
750	MAXS	Maybe I could run over and get a wrench and a piece of
16.		wire from Mr. Robbins while you're opening same of the
17.		other faucets, Jerry.
16.	JERRY:	(QUICKLY) Naw. No. I don't want to bother Jim.
1.5%		I'll figure it out somehow.
20%	MORE POUNDING	e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e
23.5	JERRY:	You'd think I could jar the thing loose with this
22.		poker. H-m-m. Let's see. If it wasn't for this
23.		board in the way I could get my arm down there and
24.		stick my finger up in the pipe.
35%	MARY:	Maybe I could do it. My hand is smaller than yours

.le	JERRY:	Aw, no. There's no use for you to get all over dial.
20		Mary. You haven't got enough strength in your fingers
74 to 120		to do any good anyway.
Gr.	MARY:	Can't you move the board? It doesn't look like it's
20 C		doing any good there anyway.
6.	JERRY:	It isn't doing much good but it'd be pretty herd to
70		get loose. Wait a minute. If I get down on my
2.0		knees I think I can bend my arm so I can get a finger
5) 0		up there all right.
3 .0 •	MARY:	BE careful, Jerry. Don't hurt yourself.
11.	JERRY:	I wonftUnU-m-m-m
12.	MARY:	Oh you're getting all over coal dust, Jerry.
.13.		Why don't you let me go and get a wrench?
14.	JEHRY:	(GRUNTS) There. I got my finger up in there all right
1.5 ,		and I can feel the rust that's clogging it up.
1.6.	MARY:	(LAUGHS) I can't help laughing, Jerry. You look so
27.		funny in that position.
1.8.	JERRY:	Huh! I don't see anything funny. It's darned
1.9,		uncomfortableM-m-m-m. Ouch!
20.	MARX:	What's the trouble? Can't you poke the rust out?
21.	JERRY:	Yeah! I got the rust out. But now I got my finger
22,		caught up there. Uh! Gosh! That sa heck of a
23.		situation.
24.	MARY:	You mean you you're stuck there? And can't get
25,		looge?

#1 13m 10	JERRY:	(LAUGHS HALF HEARTEDLY) That seems to be the size
20		of it, I can't seem to move my finger at all and
3.		with this board in the way and my arm bent under it
E o	MARX:	Whatere you going to do? What can I do? Can I help
5.		you pull?
6.	JEARY:	Aw, shucks. Jim told me I should have brought a
7.		wrench. Maybe someday I'll learn to listen to him.
8.	MARY:	Pull hard Jerry. Give your finger a yank. Here, I'll
9.		help.
10.	JERRY:	(YELPS) Ouch, O-c-c. Don't do that, Mary.
1.1 _e		My finger's almost yeaked off now.
12.	MARX:	Oh, I'm sorry, Jerry
15.	SOUND OF SIRE	OFF MIKE IN DISTANCE
1.4.	JERRY:	(SUDDENEY) Listen, What's that?
15.	MAR Y :	It it sounds like the fire siren.
16,	JERRY:	That's what it is. Somebody's house must be on fire.
17.		(FRANTIC) What 11 I do? I'm supposed to be the
18,		leader for the volunteer department, and here I am
19,		with my finger caught in a pipe. (SOUND OF POUNDING
20,		ON BOARD WITH FIST) Dawgone this board here anyway.
21.	(REPEAT SOUND	OF FIRE SIREN)
22.	MARY:	Oh, Jarry ?
23.	JERRY:	What?
24.	MARY:	Jerry! Do you sipose it could be the school house
25,		here on fire?

in O	JERRY:	Good gosh, Mary. And me stuck here like this!
