London, Feb. 4.—The secretary of the Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, to which the engine drivers belong, announced at noon to-day that all the engineers on the railway lines having electric systems in London were being called out. He declared that if a settlement were not reached within a few hours a national strike involving all the railways would be called.

London, Feb. 4.—Profiting by its experience yesterday, when the city awoke to find transportation hampered by the strike of the employees of the tube railways, London started early to work to-day. By daybreak the streets were filled with men and women walking from the suburbs, and the busses, when they started at 7 o'clock, were

London, Feb. 4.—(Canadian PressDispatch from Reuter's.)—The President of the Board of Trade has issued a statement regarding the strike of the employees of the London tube railways. He recalls that under the arrangement made in December last the Government granted railwaymenan eight-hour day, excluding mealtime, and that this was accepted by the unions concerned. The unions then submitted further demands, including increased wages and improved conditions of service apart from the eight-hour day. These matters were to be considered at a meeting next week between the members of the railway executive committee and the men's unions. Meanwhile ,the existing conditions of service, apart from the eight-hour day, were to remain

Mr. Ackerman, accompanied by Mrs. Ackerman, reached Victoria this merning from the Far East on board the C. P. O. S. liner Empress of Japan. For the past three months he has been with the Allied forces on the Siberian front and penetrated as far as Cheliabinsk and Ekaterinburg.

Conditions Very Bad.

In the opinion of Mr. Ackerman the conditions in Siberia at the present time could not be much worse. The Kolchak Government and the Bolsheviki are preparing for a fight next spring, and if the Czecho-Slovaks get out—and according to Mr. Ackerman they are eager to leave Siberia—he argues that every indication points to the defeat of the small Allied force.

The great mass of the Russian people, he says, have no confidence in the Kolchak Dictatorship, the only party supporting the Dictatorship being the Cossacks.

supporting the Dictatorship being the Cossacks.

Not Representative.

"The Kolchak Government does not represent the Russian people," said Mr. Ackerman. "In fact it is difficult to say what Government does represent the Russian masses."

When Mr. Ackerman left Ekaterinburg, about the middle of December, there were only about 1,800 British and French troops in that sector.

According to the famous war correspondent, there are approximately 70,000 men, exclusive of the Russian Troops, in the Alijed forces in Siberia. These are made up as follows: Czecho-Slovaks, 28,000; British 1,000; American, 7,000; Canadian, 4,000; French, 1,200; Italian, 1,200; Japanese, 20,009, and Chinese, 600.

Mr. Ackerman passed the first Canadian the prison at Lincoln to the Evening News.

"Owing to the conflict between the Poles and Czechs at Teschen, resulting in the occupation of the Ostrau-Karwin mining district and the railroad from Oderburg to Teschen and Jablunkau by the Czechs, the great powers have declared it necessary to remind the nationalities who have agree to submit territorial questions to the Peace Conference that they must refrain from occupying contested territories."

Mr. Wilson demands broad and impartial regulations of all colonial questions, but the Allies are seeking to impose-the will of stronger nations without taking into account the rights of Germany,

When the strike hour arrives Thursday, labor leaders predicted, the street car men will run their cars to the barns, the passenger automobiles will go off their aprons, the waiters will take off their aprons, the carpenters will lay down their tools, the longshoremen will stop work, the linotype operators and printers will leave the printing plants and all other union men likewise will stop work.

Toronto, Feb. 4.—Major-General E. C. Ashton, C. M. G., the Adjutant-General, was in Toronto yesterday and was enthusiastic about the new dispersal system for returning soldlers, which was first tried out with the men who reached the British Columbia Coast recently on the steamship Empress of Asia and which will shortly be put into general effect.

Under the new scheme, all the soldiers' papers will be filled out overseas and their paybooks balanced. This is a lengthy procedure, involving medical boards and much clerical work which previously was done on this side. On the transport this work will be checked, any complaints recorded and temporary adjustments made.

On arrival at the district demobilization centre the men will march from the train to the demobilization centre the men discharged with the first instalment of the war gratuity paid. Even the returned soldiers' button will be given immediately.

Archangel, Feb. 3. — (Associated Press).—Advices to the Allied intelligence department reveals some of the methods by which the Bolshevists have been able to organize their army.

Men who were Staff officers in the old Russian army are compelled to serve the Bolshevists, who hold their families as hostages.

Former Russian officers in the Soviet army occupy posts as commanding officers and are trusted in all technical matters, but in regard to everything else are under constant suspicion and are controlled by Bolshevist commissioners, who are permanently attached to the army and even control the carrying out of operations. The military experts who have been forced to serve the Bolshevists include some of the best men in field tactics, engineering and ordnance to be found in Central Russia.

General motilization of soldiers in all districts is being vigorously carried out and all attempts to avoid service with fifty to 130 cars a day during the greater part of 1917.

It is held in some quarters that there may be no need to treat specifically such subjects as freedom of the seas, use of submarines in warfare, location of buffer states, or even delimitation of national boundaries with reference to their defensive possibilities. The idea is that there would be no necessity to consider the question of defence against a neighbor whose good behavior was assured.

Other Nations.

Some questions, however, do require immediate consideration, it seems generally agreed. There are subjects such as assessment of the damages caused by the war, responsibility for the war, regulation of the use of international waterways and railways, difficulties presented by the present state of chaos in treaty relations between the nations as one result of the war, and treatment of the labor question by international accord.

One way of solving these problems which may be adopted would be through the creation of various commissions to work after the final adjustment of the Peace Conference, with full powers to enforce execution of their decrees.

Discrimanchisement of deserters is practically certain, as it is recognized that there would be a demand for it by a majority of the members of the House. Steps afready have been taken by some Provincial Legislatures to deprive deserters of the right of the franchise.

That the Federal franchise measure will be productive of a big debate in Parliament also is certain. The Liberals in the past have stood for the acceptance of the Provincial voters! Whenever Old Conceptions and New International Ideas Clash, Latter Win

Paris, Feb. 4.-(Special Cable from John W. Dafoe).—Developments of the Feace Conference to date justify the hopes of the peoples of the world that it will make an enduring peace, based upon the new international order of things, but the spirit of the old diplonacy which made the furthering of national ambitions the governing principle of statesmen is not absent from the atmosphere of the Conference, and there has been some support for the cynical view that the new international organization would be really the old system in disguise.

It is becoming more apparent, however, that whenever the old and the new conceptions of international relations class at sessions of the Conference ence the idealism of the future will conquer the politics of the past. No nation will take the responsibility of making the Conference sterile by insisting upon the acceptance of its own view as to its rights.

The decision of the great powers to the League of Nations might allot enemy territory to Allied Powers under a scheme which will vest the League with the ultimate powers of supervision sets the keynote for the whole conference. Applications of this acceptance will affect the decisions of the Conference will affect the decisions of the Conference upon every problem which will come up for solution, because it gives the general interest of the whole world the right of way over the particular interest of even the most insistent ration.

Some Discontent.

It was ineyitable that this action of the great powers should occasion discontent among elements in each nation who are opposed to any application of international control.

A certain section of the Paris press is hostile and openly laments that the British delegates by their unreserved support of the principle made its acceptance unavoidable.

A PRODUCTIVE WORK.

According to the special representative of the Repatriation Committee, who is now in the city, the Domimon Government is going to expend $80,-000,000 on productive works to assist in the solution of the unemployment problem, and it is not improbable that this sum will be greatly exceeded. It has been generally known that the Federal authorities were contemplating considerable expenditure under this head, several Ministers having referred publicly to the plan, but no information of details has been received.

A meetings of representatives of the various public bodies of Victoria and the surrounding distriet is being held this afternoon for the purpose of promoting the movement for the construction of a drydock at Esquimalt, for which Messrs. Tolmie and McIntosh, the south Island members of Parliament, have been vigorously pressing at Ottawa. The announcement of the Dominion Government's programme of expenditure on public works gives the promoters of this movement an opportunity of presenting an exceptionally strong case and we may assume they will make the utmost of it.

We doubt if the Ottawa programme contains a single provision for expenditure on a public work that would be more productive than the construction of a new drydock at Esquimalt. It must be a very astigmatic vision, indeed, that fails to see the connection between such an establishment and the numerous activities appertaining to shipbuilding and ship repairing evident in growing volume on this coast. The Dominion Government has begun the development of a national mercantile marine at a cost of $60,000,000, many of the vessels of which will ply across the Pacific. Surely it is not so blind or stupid that it cannot realize that a Government dock at one of the terminii of one of its principal maritime trade routes must be a natural complement of its programme!

The Minister of Naval Affairs has declared that Canada will provide its own naval defence in cooperation with the other Dominions. Is she going to provide everything except a Government dock? Incidentally, it might be pointed out to the Government that there are just as many opportunities for the development of productive public enterprises on this coast as there are, for instance, on the Atlantic seaboard, and some day the demand for them will be even greater.

CEUTA FOR GIBRALTAR.

A London dispatch a few days ago quotes an unnamed prominent British statesman as saying that Spain had made a "tempting offer" to Great Britain regarding Gibraltar but that it had not been entertained. At first glance it might be difficult to imagine what kind of an offer Spain could make for Gibraltar that would be "tempting," but it is understood she desired to exchange Ceuta, across the strait on the African side, for the Rock, and prominent military authorities declare that in the light of modern developments, warlike and other, Ceuta is preferable to Gibraltar. Major-General Sir Charles Callwell supports this view on various grounds in an article in The Nimteenth Century, pointing out that if Britain were to start afresh and had to choose between the two places nobody would dream of selecting Gibraltar. Gibraltar, however, possesses traditions and associations which the British authorities could not disregard, and British sentiment would not permit the entertainment of the Spanish offer in any case.

"FREE SPEECH."

The adoption by the City Council of Alderman Patrick's resolution urging the public authorities to prevent the holding of gatherings and the making of statements calculated to undermine constitutional government and to encourage sedition and discontent, and to prosecute those responsible for them, expresses the will of the overwhelming majority of the community. At the same time, it should not be necessary for outside pressure to. be exercised upon the authorities to take such action. The activities specified in the resolution are prohibited by the law of the land and not long ago the Dominion Government appointed an official whose special duty was to deal with this and other propaganda and movements directed against the public safety.

The question of freedom of speech, as hitherto known, is not involved and the best demonstration of this was furnished by the band of noisy interruptors at the meeting last night. Apparently the only freedom of speech they want is for themselves. a very small minority of the population of this city. They appeared to resent Aldeman Patrick's statement of fact that free speech did not mean that wrong track.

people could say what they like, when, where and | SAW CANADIANS how they liked.

About ten years ago on this coast some I. W W.'s thought they saw in certain unsettled industrial conditions a golden opportunity for the application of their anarchical ideas and practices, red flag and all. They soon were roughly disillusioned. They found they could not say what they liked or do what they liked and quickly and sensibly subsided. It is unnecessary to have a war censorship to suppress sedition or movements calculated to disrupt law and order. The law which permits the use of public speech and statement also prohibits its abuse, and it is important to bear both facts in mind.

There is room for only one flag in this country, and it is not the red flag. Anybody doubting the accuracy of that assertion can easily test it by trying to parade along our streets with the emblem of

GOING DOWN!

The Toronto Globe sees every indication of a fall in the prices of commodities of all kinds, food, clothing, metals and machinery. Steel, the trade barometer, dropped at the beginning of the year, and Mr. Charles M. Schwab, the greatest expert in the manufacture of steel and also the greatest salesman of it, is pessimistic as to the future. Copper declined during the past week. There was a break in cotton in New York, and a general decline in foodstuffs in Chicago.

Canada may not feel the change to any great extent until it has gone on across the boundary line for some time, but that it will do is as inevit able as the process of the sun, moon and stars. There has been an overproduction of many commodities and the law of supply and demand will do the rest. These indications should be borne in mind by both capital and labor, for they will have a strong bearing upon future economic conditions. Incidentally, The Globe points out that the present time is most inopportune for the Railway Commission to grant the application of the express companies for an increase in rates. Pre mier Oliver offers a similar remonstrance. To this everybody in British Columbia says "hear, hear."

CANADA'S WEALTH.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics estimates the national wealth of Canada at $17,000,000,000 or thereabouts and the national income at $2,500,-000,000. These are surprising totals, but the Bureau publishes statistics in table form in support of its conclusions and as they are based upon painstaking research they can be accepted as reasonably

The expression "national wealth" denotes all the activities of the country in terms of dollars. It covers agricultural production, manufactures, fisheries, mines, shipping, railways, canals, telegraphs, telephones, real estate, coin and bullion, imported merchandise in store and so forth. National income means the total income derived by the Canadian people from these activities.

Estimates of this kind, of course, are subject to the fluctuations of value as determined by market price. The cost of everything except real estate is much higher than it was a few years ago and even if our total production were much less now than it was then our wealth would be just as great on the present level of prices. Before long there will be a decline of prices and the Bureau of Statistics will have to revise its tables.

Engineers Attitude.

London, Feb. 4.—The executive council of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers yesterday considered the situation created by various unoshicial strikes are connection with the latest grievances arising out of the introduction of the demand for a forty-seven bour week.

The council issued a statement disaproving of all unofficial strikes and urging its members to resume work immediately and thus enable responsible trade union executives immediately and thus enable responsible trade union executives immediately. Statistics will have to revise its tables,

The Bureau's table actually estimates the total wealth at more than $19,000,000,000, but it has diswealth at more than $19,000,000,000, but it has discovered duplication in certain products for which an allowance of over $2,000,000 is made. In any case the aggregate is sufficient to reassure those who have been shaking their heads over the ability of Canada to bear the burden of debt which has been so largely increased by war expenditure.

I take the interests of the trade union movement a firm stand neuts now have been so largely increased by war expenditure.

TEACHING CHILDREN.

(Saturday Evening Post.)

Make a boy think he is really doing something, really getting a grip on the world about him—and there will be no more complaint of laziness. It is a very familiar fact that if a grammar-school boy once gets into the real creative world of industry he can hardly be dragooned back to textbooks and school routine. The big thing in education is so to link up the school with the visible, bustling world as to keep the child's workmanlike instincts engaged. The fairly common pedagogic—and parental—complaint that children are lazy is entirely wrong. Anybody, teacher or parent, who thinks that is on the wrong track.

The departure of the Czecho-Slovaks from Siberla, according to Mr. Ackerman, would mean civil waithroughout the whole of Russia. There is a tentative understanding, however, that the Czecho-Slovaks have agreed to remain on the Siberian front until after the sessions of the Peace Conference.

THREAT OF RAILWAY STRIKE NATION-WIDE IN UNITED-KINGDOM

Brighton Railways took it upon themselves to strike and demand that meallime shall now be included in the eight-hour day. This demand, if granted, would mean that these men would work only seven or seven and a half hours daily, and if-this arrangement should be extended to other railways, it would reduce the working day to as low as six and a half hours in some cases.

It is quite clear the statement says, that what is now demanded by the small section of men who are on strike is contrary to what was agreed to with the unions, and it is greatly to be regretted that this sectional disturbance which so seriously intereferes with the trayeling public, and for which there can be no possible justification, should have occurred.

The two resolutions to be moved by Mr. Hanes ask, in effect, that both Mr. Tate and the Leader of the Opposition be gently persuaded, through the medium of a warrant from the Speaker, to appear before the House, tell their respective tales, and submit to such admonition as the House might think fit to mete out.

J. H. Hawthornthwaite to Introduce Bill for Forty-Five-Hour Week

Legislative Press Gallery. At to-morrow afternoon's sitting of Socialist member for Newcastle, intends to introduce a bill to regulat the hours of labor in all industries the hours of labor in all industries. The general design of the measure is to secure a forty-five hour week.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite gives his-opinion that the time has arrived when a sensible adjustment in the hours of labor should be reached in order that strife from this fundamental bone of contention may be avoided. He considers that only by an acknowledgment on the part of employers of labor, that the employee is entitled to a reasonable amount of recreation in order that he may look to his physical needs, will the basis for harmonious co-operation be secured.

The contemplated measure takes no cognizance of wages, because the member for Newcastle realizes that only current market conditions may determine the complex question of rates of pay.

POOLEY CONTINUES

Vancouver, and now apparently Independent Soldier member for the same constituency.

Two Per Cent. Now.

Neither Mr. Pooley nor Mr. Hanes were present at any of the sittings of the 1918 Parliament; the former was unavoidably absent through a serious illness which necessitated a lengthy soldier in California. Mr. Pooley may be expected to bring the fruits of many days' serious contemplation to aid him in his first speech in the House since the days of August, 1917, when he pleaded long and earnestly in behalf of that almost extinct race known as purveyors of "real" beer. On that occasion the member for Esquimalt played a lone hand with all the sporting instincts of a good Britisher.

Jumped in Yesterday.

Mr. Hanes was not in the House last year, for the simple reason that he was in France "doing his bit" with the Canadian Engineers. His address this afternoon is expected to contain no small amount of "live" matter directly associated with the ordinary functions of Government, as well as to give some inkling as to what the Independent Soldier faction in the House is planning by way of a programme for its newly formed party.

The member for North Vancouver startled the House yesterday afternoon with the trite suggestion that the figurative head of D'Arey Tate, K. C. be delivered to the Bar of the Legislative Chamber on the proverbial charger. Disappointment, however, added fuel to the flame, and now Mr. Hanes would also add Mr. Bowser's depper anatomy to the same P. G. E. "Ost."

Municipal Act.

It is the intention of the Hon J. W. deB. Farris, Attorney-General and Minister of Labor, to introduce to the Legislature this afternoon the Bill to greplace the existing Municipal Act. The incorporation Act, the Municipal Elections Act and the Local Improvement Act, several extended references to which have already been made in these columns.

Moreover, the party had nor liquor interests, nor was any gentleman who had such interests allowed to hold office.

Col. Prior strongly endorsed these sentiments and remarked that the probabilitionists were willing to go the limit

An amendment to the Soldiers' Land Act, which became the law of the province at the 1918 session of the province at the 1918 session of the Legislature, will be introduced by the Legislature, will be introduced by the Legislature, will be introduced by the Legislature. The present statute authorizes the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to draw from the Consolidated Revenue Fund a sum not exceeding $40,000 for the purchase of land for the purposes of the Act. No power was included in the 1918 Act, however, to undertake any development work on such lamds purchased for soldier settlement. The amendment gives authority to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council through the Department of Lands, to erect, execute and carry on all undertakings and works necessary or conducive to the improvement, likewise fitting of the lands for occupation and use.

Authority is also provided by the amending 'Bill to intersperse soldier settlement with other settlement, although it is not the intention that this shall be exercised unless the situation demands. Powers to transfer to the Dominion Government such terms visable—any of the areas under the Act for the purposes of soldier settlement are given by the amendment and conditions as may be deemed advisable—any of the areas under the Act for the purposes of soldier settlement are given by the amendment and permission taken to pay for all construction works, carried out under the Act, by moneys appropriated by the Legislature.

Then I bound them are with stripe for a from an old them up with strips torn from an old sheet, and now he's actually asleep! Could you believe it? "What does conciliation mean?" asked Alderman Sargent at the City Counell meeting last night when it was proposed that the schedule of salaries submitted by the Civic Employees' Protective Association should be submitted to Alderman Andros.

DEPARTMENT REFUSES TO PAVE THOROUGHFARE

The Department of Militia and Defence has refused to pave the Esquimalt Road, as was recently suggested by the Esquimalt Council, according to a letter from J. C. McIntosh, M. P., read at the meeting of the Council last night. Mr. McIntosh stated that Major-Gen. Mewburn, Minister of Militia, and declined to take the proposed course, for he feared that a precedent would be created, particularly in view of the fact that many municipalities were situated in the same way as Esquimalt. The member for Nanaimo, however, was of the opinion that the matter should be pursued further, as other Federal departments were concerned. He will accordingly be requested to take the question, up with the Ministers personally immediately upon his arrival at the Capital.

The Council learned from the Engineer, in answer to an inquiry, that the capacity of the lighting system was 277 iamps, and that now 177 were in use. In answer to a letter from the secretary, H. W. Hart, a letter was received from Mayor R. J. Porter, which stated that he had taken the matter up with the City Solicitor and he informed him that the Council had not the authority to investigate and report on the evidence furnished regarding the home. This letter was before the general joint committee last evening.

It was pointed out by the chairman, E. G. B. Bagshawe, that the Mayor did not state that the Council would be unable to receive a deputation. One of the strong points they would be able to make was that as the Council had no jurisdiction over a home in its own municipality it was time that it did. If they could get the Council to select a man to be one of the deputation to meet the Provincial Government, as a representative of the Council, it would strengthen their hand considerably.

Difficulty of Audience.

The Secretary reported that he had been in commerciation with Premier. Difficulty of Audience.

The Secretary reported that he had been in communication with Premier John Oliver. Mr. Oliver had pointed out that the present was a very difficult time to receive a delegation, as there were many delegations already waiting an audience. The Premier asked if they would be content to submit the evidence and leave the matter to the Previousle Government. No de-

The general proposal of G. G. Mc-Geer, M. P. for Richmond, that the police systems of British Columbia municipalities should be conducted in a unified fashion, was endorsed by the Council. Mr. McGer will be forwarded information as to the condition of Esquimalt in this connection.

The Council agreed that the Pound by-law should be amended to include poultry.

According to figures compiled by Prohibition Commissioner Sciater from returns received from the two Government liquor stores, January sales in Victoria amounted to $11,808.55, as compared with $12,908.20 for the month of December. Drydock Project—A meeting of all parties interested in the early construction of a drydock at Esquimalt was convened in the City Council Chamber late this afternoon, when the matter was discussed from all angles. It is proposed that a monster petition should be circulated throughout the Island and that every means shall be taken to strengthen the hands of Dr. S. F. Tolmie, M. P., and J. C. McIntosh, M. SENATORS ASSURE THEIR LEAD IN AMATEUR RACE AFTER OVERTIME PLAY

Foundation Rooters Out in Large Numbers to Witness Keen Tussle in City Hockey League

The lead in the Amateur Hockey race was made secure last night for the Senators by their win over the Foundation Company in a battle which had the largest crowd of fans yet seen at an amateur game rooting continuously through the whole of the last period, and the greater part of the second spell of hard hockey. Manager Thompson, of the Foundation Company, had invited the heads of the departments and their wives as his guests at the match, and the employees of the shipyards were out in big numbers to see their favorites. Overwhelm-shipyards were out in big numbers ing numbers of Foundation fans, several of whom were armed with megaphones, completely drowned the supporters of the Senators, and excitement was high as the shipbuilders and George Straith's boys fought to the limit in twenty minutes of overtime play, before a decision could be arrived at. Smith skated from past his own blue line, and easily eluding the only man to check and splendidly working his way to a good position to shoot one in from the right, placed the puck past Charlie Burnett for the winning counter. It was the first time the Senators' supporters could make themselves heard above the leather-lunged supsporters of the Foundation family.

Absentees.

The champions were without the services of Quinn, who is a big part of the team in the center position, but the Foundation Company had a strengthened side with Sid Elmer and Gerald Tobin, who make a good defence pair. Glazon registered the first goal for the Senators when the second period was five minutes old, and Smith equalized when another five minutes play had gone. For the rest of the period, and to the effd of the last period no side was able to find the net. Skinner Poulin ordered extra time to decide the contest.

The Foundation Company were pressing for the greater part of the time. George Straith, Irwin and Cook lined the front of Watson's goal, and held the hardworking shipbuilders well in check, although they got in several good shots at Percy Watson. Watson was in good form and handled them safely.

Glazen, Smith, Newitt and Dudley were hardworking Senators who had a big hand in the victory. In Smith especially the Senators have secured the services of a speedy skater who is always dangerous to the net guardian. Ham starred for the Foundation Company, and Hughle Burnett worked as hard and effectively as he has done in the other games this season.

The experienced Senators hand out a lot of thanks to Dubble Kerr for the help he has given in getting them into shape. The Aristocrat has been showing the boys a lot of things about hockey that he is so able to show them and they have not been slow to take advantage of any of the inside work that the experienced player has been demonstrating to them.

The Two Jacks failed again to record a win, and were unable to hang up one counter against the two the Elks recorded. But for Gravlin's work; in, goal the Two Jacks boys would have been completely swamped. The Elks put in all their highest speed from the start, and the Two Jacks were unable to stand the strain. ANOTHER BIG TURN OUT FOR BOXING LESSONS

Six instructors of the Vancouver Island Athletic Association were busy last night at the Duck Building giving lessons to about forty pupils who availed themselves of the open invitation for free boxing lessons. Harry Boyd, Billy Davies, Stoker Yates, Stoker Gordon Charlie Martin and Harry Picca donned the gloves to show points to the novices, but found many among those who came to meet them who had enough working knowledge of the art to keep them busy. A feature of the classes is the number of youngsters anxious to become proficient ring men.

The score was 5-2 By virtue of their victory, the Millionaires are today in second place, half a game behind Victoria in the race for titular honors and the same distance in front of the Mets, who, for the first time in many moons, are viewing the activities of their opponents from the cellar.

Complaints have been made by a number of the fans who were following the exciting hockey battle last night between the Senators and the Foundation players at the reception accorded one of the Senators. Having already won many haurels for speed and distance swimming, Miss Edna Curry, the clever young local swimmer, carried off honors in another direction when she entered the competition for a gold cup offered by Manager Jamieson of Pantages Theatre. The prize was for the competitor who could come nearest to duplicating in the glass tank on the stage of the theatre the feats of Odiva. Representing a fish, a mermaid in prayer, kneeling under the water and on the water and marching on the surface of the water were some of the difficult feats set by the artist, all of which Miss Curry emulated in a way that won her rounds of applause.

Training the Invalided Soldier

WHEN the first Canadian casualties were announced every heart in Canada thrilled with the thought-"What will the country do to help these men overcome the handicaps they have suffered?"

Since that day Canada has been quietly developing a wonderful organization to help restore the strength and earning capacity of her invalided soldiers.

This work is in the charge of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment. It is divided into three classes.

Ward Occupations.

Soldiers who, on account of their injuries, are confined to wards or to their beds in hospitals are taught handicraft work of various kinds. This work is not meant to train a man in work by which he could earn a living. It is encouraged rather because it diverts the soldier's mind from his disability, and gives him light exercise. In this way it assists wonderfully in the soldier's recovery.

Occupational Therapy.

This work is conducted in hospitals. is intended mainly to help in the cure of the patient. . But it often serves as the ground-work for a course in Industrial Re-training. The following gives some idea of the breadth and scope of the subjects taught in these classes:-Mechanical drawing, woodworking, boot and shoe repairing, machine shop practice, gardening, poultry raising, civil service instruction, book-keeping, stenography, telegraphy.

Industrial Re-Training.

When a man is so injured by war service that he cannot follow the occupation or trade that he worked at before enlisting, the Department trains him for a new occupation.

For this work, use is made of Technical Schools and Universities at fourteen centres throughout the Dominion. Here primary training is given by specially planned courses. This helps a man begin his actual re-training work intelligently.

Most of the re-training is given in actual factories and shops. Hundreds of large and small concerns have co-operated whole-heartedly in this work-placing at the disposal of the Department, without charge, their equipment and the services of many of their staffs.

Ninety-five per cent of those who have been granted "Industrial Re-training" courses by the Department have been successful in becoming self-supporting in a new trade or occupation.

These benefits are given by the Department to ex-members of the Canadian, British and Allied forces living in Canada, who come within the classes for which these benefits are provided. THE RESIDENCE OF

During the period a man is being "Re-trained" he and his dependents are granted adequate pay and allowances.

To any one interested in the work of this Department information will be gladily given on application to—

Former Victorian Robbed.—C. L. Kirk, of Vancouver, formerly of Victoria and a member of the firm of Kirk toria and a member of the firm of Kirk & Co., coal merchants, was the victim of a daring burghary at his home, 1649 Haro Street, on Sunday evening. While the family were downstairs at supper, a "second story" man ransacted the bedrooms, a considerable sum of money and some $3,000 worth of jewelry being taken. On going upstairs after supper, Mrs. Kirk noticed her sealskin coat lying at the top of the stairs. She called to her husband that some person was in the house. On examination, it was found that the coat had been torn by the burgiar in taking Mrs. Kirk's silver purse from a small pocket.

Variety—Dr. Zell Hunt, hypnetist, and Norma Talmadge in "The Children in the House." Royal Victoria—Theda Bara in When a Woman Sins." Dominion-"The Caillaux Case," William Fox production.

winning his respect, she is about to take her life. He forgives her, and she begins a new life as a settlement worker, and also as his wife.

Charlie Chaplin will also he seen in one of his best comedies "Work." This is one of Chaplin's best pictures and is worth seeing again.

Scene after scene of absorbing dra-natic interest makes up the thrilling oleturization of the famous "Calilaus Jase," of France and America, which began a week's run at the Dominion began a week's run at the Dominion yesterday.

g. William Fox, the producer, does not content himself merely with filming the events of this notorious affair which have been recorded in the public press, but he goes far into the personal history of the characters who compose the "Caillaux ring," and also exposes the various private scandals and "shady" episodes in their careers.

The action of the picture is based largely on the unscrupulous ambition of Mme. Henriette Caillaux, who leaves her first husband to marry the Minister of Finance and gain a place of influbetraying France for German gold

The drama is unusually well con-tructed, and an all-star cast of noted creen players does full justice to the many big scenes. Fatty Arbuckle is also seen in "The Sheriff," his new comedy.

COLUMBIA

Heredity may be responsible for the acting ability displayed by Earle Williams, who is featured in the part of John Strangeway in "In the Balance," the Greater Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature, which will be the attraction at the Columbia to-day. His mother's brother, James Paget, was a famous actor a generation ago. However, his entry into the screened drama was merely the result of a desire to kill time that hung heavily on his hands during the summer. He applied for work with the Vitagraph Company as an extra, but his natural qualifications soon carried him to the top. In this photoplay, an adaptation, from the novel, "The Hillman," by E. Phillips Oppenheim, Mr. Williams plays the part of a puritanical hillman who wins the heart of an actress through the strength and integrity of his character. He is supported by Grace D'Armond, Miriam Miles, Denton Vane, Julia Swayne Gordon, Robert Gaillard and Templar Saxe.

ROMANO

Fanny Ward's popular success in "Innocent" and "The Yellow Ticket," she is certain, will be surpassed by "A Japanese Nightingale," the first of the Pathe Extra-Selected Photoplays, which will be shown at the Romano to-day. Some of the scenes are of surpassing beauty and the romance, based on Onato Watana's widely read novel, is unfolded with rare skill and feeling.

nover, is unfolded with rare skill and feeling.

It is a simple love story, lyrical in its unfolding and prodigal in color and feeling. In beholding it, and, with the developments of the world war in mind, one naturally asks the question, which Onato Watana, so thoroughly answers; for this talented woman is a complete refutation of Kipling's much quoted pronouncement—in her the East and the West harmoniously meet, and are one.

VARIETY

Dr. Zell Hunt, the well-known psychic toarvel, opened his engagement at the Variety last night. He amazed and amused the audience with his clever demonstrations of mental powers. The telepathy tests were original and convincing. In these tests he was assisted by Miss Nell Burke, a beautiful young lady with a keen mental perception.

Dr. Hunt also used a score of local people in the audience and on the stage, and the results obtained con-vinced the most sceptical. There will be new faces, new feats and new fun to-night. It is safe to say that a large be new faces, new feats and new funto-night. It is safe to say that a large percentage of those present last night will go again to-night, and it will be well to go early to get a good seat.

As a special attraction Dr. Hunt will hypnotize a young lady at five o'clock in the window of the Variety Theatre.
This hypnotized girl will be awakened on the stage to-night at $.30.

Some of the most decided novelties in feminine adornment ever portrayed in pictures are represented as features of "The Children of the House," a Triangle-Fine Arts drama which is showing at the Variety all week.

Jewel Carmen, a young actress who was last seen in an ingenue role in the De Wolf Hopper play, "Sunshine Dad," blossoms forth in "The Children of the House" as a full-fledged siren of the screen. In the part of Jane Courtenay, a cabaret dancer, she lures a foolish husband, played by Eugene Pallette, to his destruction. As aids to his ruination, she bedecks herself in vampirical attire remarkable for its extreme uniqueness.

CHAUTAUQUA PROJECT RECEIVES SUPPORT

Well-Known Speakers on National Topics to Assist in Programme

With the arrangements for a Chautauqua at Victoria early in July near-ing completion, specific knowledge on the nature of the undertaking will pratory, education, music and enterrequestion, music and enter-tainment as successful as it has proved to be in more than 7,000 cities and fowns throughout Canada, the States, Alaska, New Zealand and Aus-tralia.

Glowing Reports.

V. I. Shepherd, the Chautauqua representative here has submitted editorial and press reports, which in their entirety, claiming conclusively to substantiate the integrity of the undertaking and its unqualified success throughout the Dominion.

"Everybody was glad that the Chautauqua was here," comments a Swift. Current paper and goes on to say, "The inspirational value cannot be computed in dollars and cents. Let us broaden the scope of Chautauqua here and carry its influence to everybody within a radius of fifty miles."

This testimonial is borne out by similar comments, from The Lethbridge Herald, Calgary Canadian, Edmonton, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon and other papers. The success of the Chautauqua at Regina may be noted from The Daily Post of that city. It says: "The outstanding feature of the Regina Chautauqua is that it is a complete success in every way—financially, artistically, and educationally. The attendance has been excellent. By a standing vote the audience unanimously declared its desire for a permanent Chautauqua again next year. It is significant that the citizens of the most important organizations of the city have backed the Chautauqua this year and have resubscribed their names to bring it ganizations of the city have backed the Chautauqua this year and have resubscribed their names to bring it back again next year. Artistically the Chautauqua has brought to Regina this year a group of talent such as has never before been seen in the city in any brief space of time."

Speakers From Ottawa.

The Dominion Chautauquas are negotiating now with the Canadian Repatriation Bureau of Speakers at Ottawa, for a representative man to speak at Chautauquas throughout the Dominion on the nationalization of education in Canada. This should help to develop the same national spirit in Canada that has marked the operation of Chautauquas in the United States for the last half century.

Other subjects of national and international interest to be discussed will be: "The Labor Question," by I. M. Tarbell, now at the Paris Peace Conference on the committee adjusting international labor difficulties; "The Menace of Bolshevism," by the Rev. Dr. Clare, of England, who was in Petrograd on a mission from the British Government, when the Czar was deposed, and who witnessed the formation and operation of the Soviet Government; "Community and National Service," by Edward F. Trefs, of the United States Chambers of Commerce, who was heard throughout Canada last year on Food Coutrol: "The Truth About Mexico," by Dr. W. L. Mellinger, who spent five years in that country during its interminable series of revolutions; also ("Two Years in Hell and Back with a Smile," by Private Peat; "Worlds in the Making," by Dr. A. D. Carpenter, noted astronomer and secretary to the late Percival Lowell, of the Flagstaff Observatory, and "The Mission of the Anglo-Saxon Race." by Elliot A. Boyd, of Chicago.

Elliot A. Boyd, of Chicago.

Local Support.

Preceding all of these speakers at each assembly, afternoon and evening, will appear entertainers and concert companies of classical, popular and humorous appeal.

Reasonable co-operation on the part of sixty or more citizens makes possible the arrangement for selling season tickets. These tickets entitle the holder to all programmes, including the Junior Chautauqua for the children held each morning.

The programmes are held in a huge

MYSTERY FEATURE

LeRoy, Talma and Bosco Headliners in Exceptionally Entertaining Bill

Mystery is the engrossing feature in a splendid bill of vaudeville offering this week at the Pantages Theatre. "Original Mysteries," as presented by LeRoy, Talma and Bosco easily constitutes the most mystifying and spectacular act that has been routed over the Pantages circuit in years. Those who witness the clever work of these illusionists will have to admit they are wizards in this particular line of entertainment. Servais LeRoy springs something of a sensation when he stages his vanishing canary trick. He causes the bird and cage mysteriously to disappear while holding it in full view of the audience, and utilizing none of the paraphernalia usually associated with magical features of this variety.

In order to satisfy the skeptically inclined, LeRoy requests that anyone to bring along his own bird and cake and he will even go as far as inwiting people on the stage to hold the subject of his magical powers. It makes no difference. The bird and cage vanishes anyhow.

The trunk trick presented by this company differs from the average. A pierrot is bound and then locked and lashed inside a truffic, and the magical neaves his audience gasping when he produces from the trunk a dainty pierrette.

Mile Talma tantalizes the crowd by producing genuine coins apparently from the atmosphere. This is a very

The big feature of the act, however, is the disappearance and reappearance of a whole flock of ducks in the twinkl-of an eye. In order to further mistify his audience LeRoy pours water into an empty tub and instantly a large flock of ducks emerge and scatter across the stage.

Most of the comedy is provided by Bosco, who presents a laughtable feature involving the mysterious disappearance of Amelia. It all seems so easy to LeRoy and his associates, but those in front of the footlights are left as mystified as ever.

An unusual and attractive singing and dancing turn entitled "The Love Girl," is put on by Gertrude van Dyck poses gracefully, and her singing and dancing is of a high order. The "Love Song of Italy" and the "Cave Man's Love" are the outstanding hits of her repertoire.

onsiderable ability who renders in trumental solos in an acceptable man

Will Stanton, who is appearing with his company in "His Last Drop," is the principal fun purveyor in the current bill. The scene depicts a roof cabarat in any large city. The antica of the inebriate makes a riot of laughter.

Francis and Wilson appear in a knockabout comedy act which makes a good opening turn. They display exceptional athletic ability, and conclude the act by a thrilling somersault from an elevated platform. The film serial, "A Fight For Millions," still holds attention as the big screen feature.

A SLUGGISH LIVER CAUSED SEVERE HEADACHES

The duty of the liver is to prepare nd secrete bile and serve as a filter the blood, cleansing it of all imprintes and poisons.

Healthy bile in sufficient quantity is Nature's provision to secure regular action of the bowels, and when the liver is sluggish it is not working properly; and does not manufacture enough bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products from the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, constipation sets in, followed by sick and billious headaches, coated tongue, bad breath; hearthurn, water brash, bad taste in the mouth in the morning, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

"Trevention of war is not the concern of governmental power alone. It is in the interest of humanity itself. A sovereign state is not organized with a view to, exerting a restraining influence over its own action toward other states. If war is to be prevented, or its likelihood diminished, success can be attained only by the existence somewhere, if not a power that will control, at least an influence which will restrain the absolute sovereignty of organized states in dealing with each other.

"Whence is that power or influence to be derived if not from the people inhabiting the different states, whose every interest demands the suppression of war? The weak point in all the plans so far discussed is that the action of states is to be controlled, restrained or influenced in conferences of those states themselves, to the exclusion of other peoples who are to be affected by the decisions reached. It must be remembered that it is not merely the peoples of the states immediately concerned who are affected by war, but all mankind.

The world's people will act through their representatives democratically elected for that purpose by popular vote, would not prejudically affect the powers to be exercised by the states under any other plan proposed. Moreover, within the body itself each state would find legitimate protection in adequate representation therein, of its own people. If the plan should be adopted, we could look forward as has been said, to a system

Backed by Peoples.

"We should be assured that behind the co-operation of states and holding them firmly to it, were the world's peoples speaking and acting by and through their duly chosen representatives.

"The most important function of the suggested representative body would be to exercise in times of peace, a constant influence upon states in their relations with each other, tending to keep them from those differes, which give rise to conflict and make war immient. It would perform that work of investigation, discussion, deliberation and legislation which would take the form of the adoption of recommendations addressed to the individual states."

M. Deschanel opened the sitting with a short but eloquent speech of welcome, to which President Wilson replied in English, an interpreter translating it into French. President Wilson said in part:

An Honor.

I am keenly aware of the unusual and distinguished honor you are paying me by permitting me to meet you in this place and to address you from this historic platform. Indeed, sir, as day has followed day, and week has followed week, in this hospitable land of France, I have felt the sense of commadeship ever become more and more intimate, and it has seemed to me that the making of history was becoming "We knew before this war began that France and the United States were united in affection. We knew the cocasions which drew the two nations together in those years, which now seem so far away, when the world was first beginning to thrill with the impulse of human liberty, when the soldiers of France came to help the struggling little republic of the United States to get on its feet and proclaim one of the first victories of freedom. We have never forgotten that, but we did not see the full meaning of it. A hundred years and more went by and the spindles were slowly weaving the web of history.

In that far-off day, when France came to the assistance of the United States, the United States was fighting Great Britain, but now she is linked as closely with Great Britain as she is with France. We see now how these apparently diverging lines of history are coming together. The nations which stood in battle array against one another are now shoulder to shoulder, fighting a common enemy.

"It was a long time before we saw that, and in the last four years something happened that was unprecedented in the history of mankind. It is nothing less than this—that bodies of men on both sides of the sea and in all parts of the world came to realize their comradeship of freedom."

(By Burdick Bros. & Brett, Ltd.) (By Burdick Bros. & Brett, Ltd.)

Neb. York, Feb. 4 — The market was strong and active in the first half-hour, but the buying power was spent against the selling by the professional crowd who continue bearish tactics. Dullness set in and trading was confined to a few issues, the market as a whole showing firm tendencies. Oil shares were well taken and the railroads exhibited a better tone than for some time. Advances and declines followed one another in an irregular manner and quotations finally finished at about the opening figures.

A letter from the Board of Trade strongly recommending the appointment and a substantial appropriation for carrying on the work was read.

After a stormy passage from the Orient the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services liner Empress of Japan, Capt. W. Dixon Hoperaft, R.N.R., arrived in port at $3.0 o'clock this morning with one hundred passengers in the saloon, and a large list of Chinese in the steerage.

The Empress of Japan sailed from Yokohama January 23 and encountered fair weather until after she had crossed the 180th meridian, when she ran into a series of heavy storms.

Despite the inclement conditions marking the latter stages of the trip the Japan crossed from Yokohama in twelve days.

Among the first class passengers on the Japan was Capt. A. Netolicky, a Czecho-Slovak front in Siberia.

Capt. Netolicky could speak but little English but he gave his interrogator to understand that he was on a mission from General Galda to Prague. He wore the uniform of the Czecho-Slovak front in Siberia.

DOMINION BANK'S FINANCIAL SHOWING

Annual Statement Shows Substantial Gains in Assets During the Last Year

Soundness and strength is one of the outstanding features of the banks of Canada, and it is significant that this fact is recognized abroad as well as at home. Among the score of chartered banks which carry on business within the boundaries of this country probably none has contributed to a greater extent in the establishment of this reputation than the Dominion Bank. This bank has just completed the forty-cight year of its existence, and during, all that time the continuous policy of its management has been in accordance with the soundest of banking principles. As a result its progress has been both steady and substantial. Never has it run the risk of imparting its strength by attempting inordinate growth—like the oak tree it has increased in strength as ference.

During the course of his remarks seconding the motion to adopt the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, at this afternoon's sitting of the House, F. A. Pauline, Liberal member for Saanich, again strongly emphasized the necessity to take action towards establishing an iron and steel that with seventy-six per cent. of the known deposits of iron or on the Pacific Coast located in British Columbia, there existed every reason to persist in en-spetic efforts to make use of such valuable resources.

The lack of iron production, declared the member for Saanich, had been British Columbia's fax-wbeck for many years and never more than to-day did there exist the urgent necessity to expand manufacturing enterprise by providing the industrial fabric with an essentially solid foundation.

Collective Effort.

"It is of prime importance that this industry should be brought into existence." continued Mr. Pauline, "and if it is beyond the reach of individual effort to do so, then the collective rower of the projec of the provinces with the meagre population. Soldier Members Welcomed.

Soldier Members Welcomed.

Mr. Pauline's opening observations had specific and feeling reference to the memory of Canada's manhood, whose lives had been given in the great cause of Empire. He agreed with the mover of the Acdress that honorable members of the Legislature should view with pride and thankfulness the part taken by British Columbians. Their record on sea, on land and in the air ranked second to none. It was a source of gratification to the member for Saanich that the 1919 session of the Legislature had convened with the dark clouds of war dispersed and the cause of right and justice triumphant.

Mr. Pauline echoed the sentiments of the member for Kamloops in warmly welcoming the two soldier representatives elected since the House last met, while he was none the less sincer in his gratification at seeing the Land Sattlement.

Legislative Press Gallery,
February 3.

As announced in these columns under this date, the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, introduced a bill this afternoon to amend the Settlers' Rights Act of 1904 legislation extending the provisions of which was passed at the 1917 session of which was passed at the 1917 session of the Legislature and disallowed last summer by the Federal Parliament. The bill was given its first reading and placed on the corder paper for second reading at the next sitting of the Dunesttion, oh:

He understead the His Honor the Lleutenant-Governor, thanking His Honor for his present session.

"We concur gratefully in the expression of thanks to Almighty God for the victory granted to the arms of Great Cessful settlement. Traversed by vood the sentiments expressed by those discassing of the House.

In passing, Mr. Pauline also saying the conference now in session to determine the conference now in sessi ed the sentiments expressed by those advocates of agricultural development who favored the utilization of the unused rections of Indian Feserves in the province. He was fully aware that the subject was one of Federal jurisdiction; at the same time, many thousands of the most fertile lands of British Columbia should not be allowed to remain idle for the sake of some representation that might result in action of the right kind, suggested the member for Saanich.

given its first reading and placed on the order paper for second reading at the next sitting of the House.

The Leader of the Upposition objected to the bringing in of bills on message before the Speech from the Throne had been disposed of. He agreed that constitutional usage relaxed on the day of opening in this particular connection, but the fast growing practice of following up immediately with other measures was a divergence from the constitutional practice of the House.

Premier Oliver declared in reply to the Leader of the Opposition that there were doubtless a thousand ways of doing business that were obsolete. Nevertheless the members of the Legislature were there to do business and he felt that they, as well as the people of the country, would be behind him in the stand that it was the duty of the House to get down to business rather than to discuss frivolities or to transact its affairs in a manner that existed in some former dark age.

Mr. Bowser replied that he was merely desirous of seeking to uphold the recognized constitutional procedure of the House, of which the members of the House, of which the members thereof had always been justly proud Dominion for her from and solics.

The doleful report of the British Columbia Committee for Scientific and Industrial Research, recently mentioned in these columns, provided the speaker with an opportunity to note with satisfaction the energy of the Minister of Mines in endeavoring to discover the authors of the report in question and to know just why so pessimistic an outlook suggested itself to them

Rehabilitation.

Passing on to the question of rehabilitation, Mr. Pauline emphasized the fact that many members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force would be coming back to this province with a broader and clearer vision. They would be eager to find themselves once more in their homeland and keen to participate in its development. "In the months and years they have been away they have had opportunities of comparing their own with other lands," continued the member for Saanich. "The comparison has always confirmed their opinion that their own country was the best."
