

out Boston dinners of the 7th Commanment & in a few days I hopes to be with him. He ~~is~~ ^{is} gone as before

With due respect & in great haste. Yr brother

J R M Dowall

Rev James A Phelps
No 16 Orange St
Boston
Mass

1834

New York March 5-

J. R. M. Dowall

New York March 5. 1834

Br Phelps

My business will not allow me to visit you at this early part of the month. Perhaps I may come on to Boston in about two weeks or ten days by the way of New Haven Hartford &c stopping a day in each place to see if some money can be raised to carry on the investigations.

The Point, Book &c. &c. mystery of iniquity is the all important point to which strict & universal attention should be given & one vast exposure of every thing appertaining thereto be made at one & the same time. But more of this hereafter. Persecutions are trifles compared to the other & I do hope you & your friends will regard it in that light.

I send you a man, Mr J. L. Burrows who is capable of writing