Chapel Hill

. . . A little town somewhere in the country, with nothing much in it but the college. An old town, with traces of buildings that have been standing since the 1790's, and new modern buildings that substantially serve the several sciences and arts. A nice town, with four thousand students who manage to find a way of life for themselves in the verdant grace of old trees and new courses and hundreds of outside activities. A new town, where honest progress and valid learning is spreading out to the state and the region. But, for our memories and nostalgic senior recollections, call it just Chapel Hill, a little town somewhere in the country, with nothing much in it but the college.

PREFACE

In this book we wish to present a picturization of life in Chapel Hill. To each student may this annual serve as a permanent tie to the experiences of the past years, and keep alive the Carolina Spirit which was his because he was a part of it.

To others who read this book, may they gain a panoramic sketch of Carolina and all sides of the academic and social life at Chapel Hill. May it serve to give them an insight into the significance of the University and the part that it plays in the development of the state.

The University of North Carolina is widely known throughout the economically and politically conservative South, as well as in the allegedly more enlightened North, for its liberalism. The term and the school are as inevitable associated in the Southern Mind as are breakfast grits and bacon. To friendly critics, liberalism connotes a grasp of the changing needs of men in a changing world. . . . It came into being simultaneously with the pronouncement of the doctrine of the Rights of Man and the Declaration of Independence on this side of the Atlantic, and with the French Revolution—created in part by these doctrines—on the other side of the ocean . . .

There are tangible achievements which are measurable by experts in the field of education. The intangible achievements of the University are perhaps greater. They lie in an unremitting and successful struggle for academic freedom in an area where the weight of lethargy, as well as the dynamics of industrial opposition and inherited prejudices, operates against academic freedom. They consist in teaching students the truth about the South even when the truth hurts. They are composed of precepts and standards which have made the name of Chapel Hill respected throughout the nation, and which more than once have caused men's eyes to turn toward the South in delighted surprise.

—DAVID COHN.

DEDICATION

Goethe once wrote, "A teacher who can arouse a feeling for one single good action, for one single good poem, accomplishes more than he who fills our memory with rows on rows of natural objects classified with name and form."

Horace Williams was a great teacher—mainly because he was all teacher. He knew what the teaching act was. He knew what education was. And he taught like a man who knew what he was doing. Never was a man's life more completely identified with his work than Horace's was with teaching. He identified his life with the University. He helped young men to find themselves, stimulated them to the cultivation and expression of their talents, showed them how to grow up to lives of beauty and success.

That he possessed the genius of teaching is the unanimous testimony of all those who came into his classes during the fifty years that he taught. He did not deal with information. "I did not ask my students to learn about Plato. I invited them into the Platonic experience. Stand on the mountain and see what Plato saw." Equivocating theories about the real meaning of things had no place in his classroom. He put boys in touch with what was meaningful and vital in their lives. He saw the relation between education and reality.

"There is no abstract knowledge. There are no abstract birds. Why should there be an abstract man? When a speaker begins with 'assumptions' and 'abstractions' I always escape and go with my horse into the woods. I have a noble group of pines that I call my temple. I love the music that comes from the swaying tops. It is not an assumption. 'I am come that ye might have Life.' If Jesus had said, 'I am come that ye might make assumptions, deal with abstractions, what a hero he had been.'"

Because he was in every way the teacher; because he so beautifully exemplified the aims and spirit of the University, this yearbook of his last senior class is dedicated to that spirit—in his name.

THE UNIVERSITY AND NATIONAL DEFENSE

The development of the whole life of each student is part of the development of the whole life of the University and is a part of the program of the total defense of the freedom and democracy which gave birth to our University and our nation. In our conception of national defense as total defense, we hold that every student, every citizen, every farm, industry, business, institution, and agency of the people's life can make their best contribution to national defense by being their optimum selves. The universities can make their maximum contributions by being the best possible universities. To train thoroughly soldiers, sailors, and aviators, and fail to train thoroughly scientists, technologists, dietitians, social workers, nurses, doctors, journalists, masters of language, draftsmen, accountants, artists, philosophers, professional experts, and agricultural, industrial, political, civic, educational, and religious leaders, is to develop a lopsided defense and disorganize the nation for collapse behind the lines.

As a part of total defense we hold that American democracy would preserve the precious liberties of worship, assembly, speech, the press, suffrage, and lawful process for person and property, regardless of creed, race, color, or economic position, and would preserve the freedom to study and discuss all sides of all questions. Wherein we believe that American democracy would enlarge the historic Bill of Rights to include, as basic to all: provision for more equal educational opportunity of all the children in all the states; provision for farmers as equal partners in our now lopsided economic society; for equality of bargaining power through the organization of workers, the cooperation of farmers, and the information of consumers; for the right to work and decent terms and conditions of the working life; for higher levels of social security to lift the levels of human liberty against the hazards of modern society; for intelligent production as a way of abundance and decent consumption as a way of life; and for a more abundant distribution of the good life for all people.

For this fairer hope the men and women of this old, yet young, University will do well their day's work, hold dearer than their lives the American dream of freedom and democracy in the eternal adventure toward the Kingdom of God.

DR. FRANK P. GRAHAM

Robert Burton House

TO THE CLASS OF 1941:

During your four years at Carolina you have seen new important buildings added both to the campus and to the town. Strange, stark, and foreign though they seemed at first, they have gradually absorbed into the pattern of hill, tree, and sky which is characteristic of the beauty of Chapel Hill.

During this same time the faculty has increased and the student population has swelled enormously, making more complex the manner of association and of organization for work and play. But these new elements have absorbed into the tone of informal friendship and democracy which characterizes our living together in the University.

And in your under-graduate days forces which have involved individual and institution throughout the world have played their disrupting part, all the more disconcerting as you have increased in perception and sensitivity. But you have maintained yourselves in integrity of brain and character; you have added to and enriched the life of the place. You represent the permanency which dominates conflict and change. You represent a generation as well abreast of its problems as any class ever to graduate. We wish you Godspeed with sincere affection, with high hope, and with sure confidence.

ROBERT B. HOUSE

Francis Foster Bradshaw

In September, 1937, with the coming of the class of Forty-one, the University and the country moved into expanding days. The paralyzing depression and fear of 1932 were succeeded by recovery and reform. The shocks of budget cutting, falling enrollment, and consolidation had given way to restorations, climbing attendance, new departments such as Art and Physical Education, and developing programs such as the General College and the School of Public Health.

You have remained to witness a new crisis abroad and at home. World War, National Defense, booming production, and the third term are its marks in the nation. The Naval R.O.T.C., compulsory physical education for sophomores, juniors and seniors, registration for the draft, and the Latin-American summer school are among its marks on the campus.

Whether in calm or crisis, progress or recession, the University has striven to help you while here to develop stable health, an intelligent way of solving problems, and a sensitivity to the external values of truth, justice, and beauty. She welcomes your entry on maturer responsibilities with confidence in your worthiness of citizenship, with good wishes for your enjoyment of life, and with the faith that you will return often to Chapel Hill. The University relies on you ever to cherish her life and defend her freedom to educate without fear and serve without special favors the democratic way of the common wealth and welfare.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Officers 1940-41: Fred I. Sutton, Kinston, President; Lenoir Chambers, Norfolk, Va., First Vice-President; W. A. Dees, Goldsboro, Second Vice-President; George Watts Hill, Durham, Treasurer; Charles W. Tillett, Charlotte, Past President; J. Maryon Saunders, Chapel Hill, Executive Secretary.

When a student leaves the University of North Carolina his name is put upon the alumni roster, maintained in the Alumni Office in the Carolina Inn at Chapel Hill. Henceforth this name and mailing address become the connecting link between the former student and the University.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Office maintains several complete lists of all former students. First, there is a master alphabetical file, which is an all-University alumni directory where any former student can be quickly identified or located by reference to his data card. Lists are maintained also by classes, and geographically, by states, counties, cities, and towns. If, for example, the alumni club of Greensboro or New York wishes to arrange an alumni meeting, its officers secure an up-to-date mailing list for their city from the Alumni Office to issue their

Thus it is that one's correct address, maintained in the files of the Alumni Office, constitutes a constant and continuing tie between alumni and the University and between alumni and each other. Records of some 25,000 living former students thus are kept.

invitations. When the Athletic Association wishes to mail football reservation cards to all alumni, it gets the Alumni Office to address envelopes to everyone on its address roster. When a class is arranging for one of its periodic reunions, the address lists maintained in the Alumni Office are available for ready use.

The Alumni Association sponsors and assists with class reunions, local club meetings, and such public occasions as Commencement, Homecoming, and University Day. The Alumni Office carries on correspondence with thousands of alumni, receiving requests for assistance ranging from personal inquiries to projects concerning the entire University.

Membership in the Alumni Association is limited to those alumni who pay annual dues. Members receive gratis the Association's monthly magazine,

The Alumni Review, and through its columns are enabled to keep up with the affairs on the campus, in the University, and in the big alumni family. Members also are the only alumni entitled to vote in the annual elections of the Association.

General in its service to the University and personal in its relationship to former students, the Alumni Association constantly fosters a program endeavoring to link the Past with the Present for the Future of Alma Mater.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student government at Carolina has by its rapid advance and development established itself not only as a student organization, but also as an institution. This institution, made to function successfully by the cooperation and interest of every student, is a powerful and effective form of democratic government.

This form of student democracy has not always existed at Carolina. It is, rather, the result of the efforts of an energetic student body plus the help of a cooperative faculty. Our government here at Carolina has thus risen from the students, themselves; today it takes its place among the most progressive in the nation.

The judicial and executive powers and duties of student government are in the hands of the

DAVE MORRISON

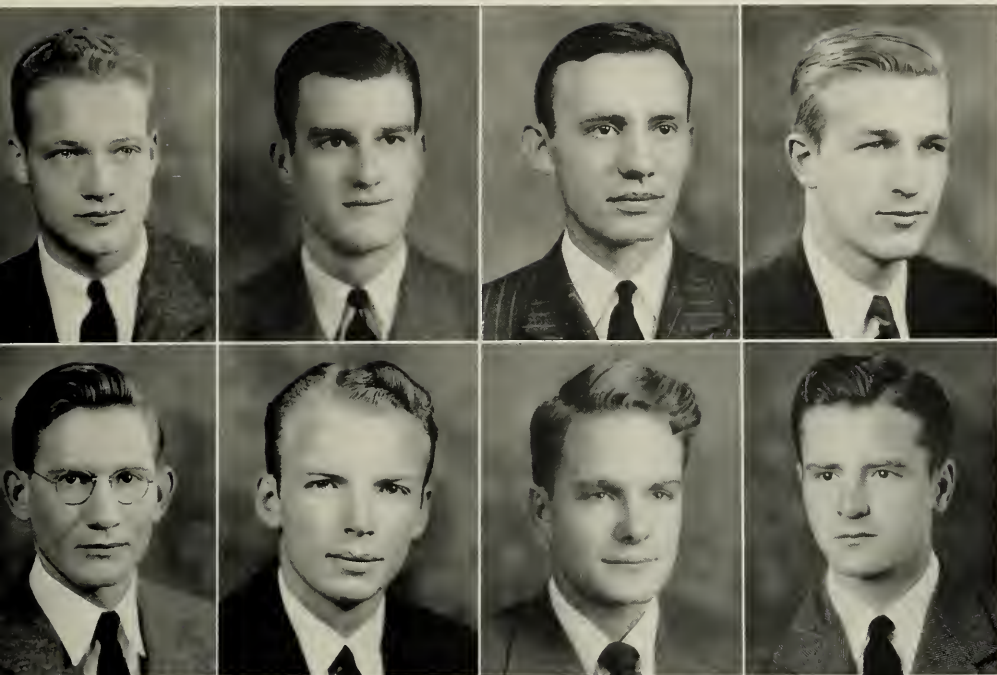

GATES KIMBALL

BILL SHUFORD

Student Council. This body, elected by the students at large, formerly exercised legislative powers as well. Two years ago, however, that power was vested in a newly created organization known as the Student Legislature. The two groups, the most important units of student government, are assisted by a number of other organizations, notably the four class honor councils, the Interdormitory and Interfraternity Councils, and the Publications Union Board.

The term "governmental" should not be confused or misinterpreted. The students at the University are not actually "governed" as the term would immediately imply. They have but two requirements to meet. First, a student is on his honor not to lie, cheat, or steal—a simple rule which necessarily puts every student on his personal honor and in part explains our Honor System. Second, a student is asked to conduct himself at all times as a gentleman. It is under these two general statements that Carolina students find the freedom every collegiate student body seeks.

All breaches of the Honor System and of the Campus Code are handled by the Student Council. This group strives in every way to be constructively corrective rather than punitive. It is the desired objective of the council to guide the students to a higher concept of honor, to further interest in student government, and to give every student the privilege of taking part in a genuinely democratic program.

THE WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION

JANE McMASTERS

The officers of the Woman's Association are: Jane McMaster, President; Ann Williams, Vice-President; Sara Sawyer, Secretary; and Mary Velna Winslow, Treasurer. Mrs. M. H. Stacy, the Dean of Women, acts as adviser to the organization.

The Woman's Association, an organization which includes every woman student enrolled at the University, is the governing body of the women students. The Association was organized in 1917 "to enable the women students to keep in closer touch with one another, to create a spirit of loyalty to the college, and to further the interests of women students at the University." Its specific purpose has become two-fold: to provide self-government for the women students, and to promote women's activities on the campus.

A general meeting of the Women's Student Body is held at least once a quarter at which any student has a right to put before the Association any proposal which she feels might be of interest to the women students. Through legislation in this body policies are formed and women's activities are promoted.

The Woman's Council, the executive body, has judicial and quasi-legislative powers. It has jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to the Honor System, the Campus Code, and social regulations for women. The Council attempts to put the individual first always, realizing the rehabilitation of the individual is of prime importance to the welfare of the entire group of women students, and to the student body as a whole.

ANNE WILLIAMS

SARAH SAWYER

The Council is composed of 12 representatives: the four officers of the Woman's Association, the House-President of each of the dormitories, a Graduate Representative elected at large, the President of the Town Women Students, and the Junior Representative.

The Woman's Association promotes women's activities in comprising the Athletic Association, the Y.M.C.A., the Interdormitory Council, and The Valkyries. It contributes to the campus social calendar in providing the annual May Day pageant, alumnae Homecoming program, and the Woman's Association Dance.

This is the first year of the Interdormitory Council, an honorary service organization which fosters better inter- and intra-dormitory relations. It aids in the orientation of new students and serves them as a guidance, advisory group throughout the year.

There are three national women's fraternities: Alpha Delta Pi, Chi Omega, and Pi Beta Phi. Each has its own residence home. The Woman's Pan Hellenic Council, composed of representatives of the fraternities, governs and regulates their activities.

The Valkyries, a local honorary fraternity, fosters high ideals and standards by recognizing women excelling in leadership, scholarship, and character.

Since the admission of a few women students into the graduate school in 1897, the enrollment has grown so that now women are admitted into all fields of scholarship. Their widespread interests range from the realm of the fine arts to politics, from social life and participation in campus activities to distinguished scholastic work and professions.

With a membership of over six hundred women the Woman's Association is growing year by year. Entering wholeheartedly into the life at the University which they have done much to create, the women realize that Carolina expects of each woman student something positive and creative in preserving and adding to her traditions.

STUDENT LEGISLATURE

Officers: Bill Cochrane, Speaker; Johnny French, Parliamentarian; Ridley Whitaker, Reading Clerk; George Hayes, Sergeant-At-Arms.

The Student Legislature rounds out its first year under the new constitution adopted for it by the student body in the spring of 1940. The broad powers granted to it were exercised to their fullest extent during the fall quarter, when a vigorous campaign by campus leaders to solve the perennial humor magazine problem culminated in legislative abolition of the Carolina Buccaneer. Six weeks later Tar an' Feathers was born, and began its career under a charter which dedicated the new publication to clean humor.

Overshadowed perhaps by the agitation about the Buccaneer question, but of major significance as an unprecedented attempt to organize and ascertain student opinion on recurring campus problems, was the Campus Organization Bill, sponsored in its passage through the legislature by a special committee of student leaders.

Less sensational from the standpoint of Tar Heel headlines, and less fun for the lawmakers, were the numerous finance bills passed by the legislature, as it exercised its new function of mandatory review over the budgets of all campus-wide fee-collecting organizations. As a new departure in student government, however, budget review proved its value as a means of more complete student supervision over fees collected and funds appropriated.

The judicious exercise of its plenary powers during its three years of existence indicates that the legislature, as the modern counterpart of the ancient Di-Phi society system of student government, is well on its way toward becoming traditional.

A TRIBUTE TO CHAPEL HILL

By President Frank Graham

In Chapel Hill among a friendly folk, this old University, the first state University to open its doors, stands on a hill set in the midst of beautiful forests under the skies that give their color and their charm to the life of youth gathered here. Traditions grow here with the ivy on the historic buildings and the moss on the ancient oaks. Friendships form here for the human pilgrimage. There is music in the air of the place. To the artist's touch flowers grow beautifully from the soil and plays come simply from the life of the people. Above the traffic of the hour, church spires reach toward the life of the spirit. Into this life, with its ideals, failures, and high courage, comes youth with his body and his mind, his hopes and his dreams. Scholars muster here the intellectual and spiritual resources of the race for the development of the whole personality of the poorest boy, and would make the University of North Carolina a stronghold of liberal learning with outposts of research along all frontiers of the world. Great teachers on this hill kindle the fires that burn for him and light up the heavens of the commonwealth with the hopes of light and liberty for all mankind.

Dwayne Irwin, President; J. Carter Watkins, Vice-President; Edward Hamlet, Secretary - Treasurer; W. K. Lewis, Student Legislature; Ray Alexander Kiser, Student Council; Edwin Fuller, N.C.P.A. President; Blanche Burrus, N.C.P.A. Vice-President.

The school year 1940-41 began with orientation of the new prospective pharmacists to campus life, and by the time upper-classmen arrived operations were in full swing. However it was not long until bright eyes assumed a mystified look, and there followed a series of misfortunes.

But even after taking into account all the confusion brought on by influenza, imposed physical exercise, and the draft bill, the School of Pharmacy now in its 44th year of operation finds itself with 135 members. For a while it looked as though operations would have to be suspended due to low attendance. However a few students of sound constitution under the guidance of able professors held the fort until the crisis passed.

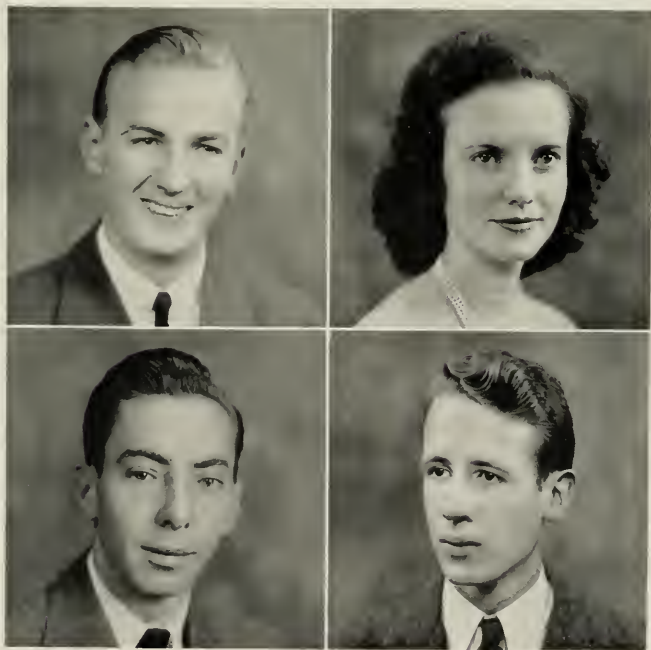

Dr. E. A. Brecht is successfully carrying on the duties assumed here last year, and Dr. Jacob's load has been lessened by the invaluable assistance of South Carolina's contribution to organic chemistry—C. K. "Bert" Wheeler.

Dean Beard is back on duty after a long rest, Dr. Rose is catching up on his golf, and Dr. Burlage is concentrating on "pop" quizzes.

As for social highlights of the year we recall speeches on Pharmacy and Public Health, a weiner roast in Battle Park, "Fish" Worley's party, the trip to Indianapolis, the dances, and the camaraderie enjoyed by all through the visit of the N.C.P.A. convention to our campus.

Our well-known student organizations such as the student N.C.P.A., and Rho Chi are still flourishing; and the Pharmacy Senate organized last year has attracted much student interest and is serving a good purpose by enabling students to express their opinions on all phases of Pharmacy in open forum discussion.

This year as every year in the past, the Buccaneer was the problem child of the Publications Board. However campus reformers took the matter out of the hands of the P. U. Board by abolishing the humor magazine. To replace the Buccaneer the P. U. Board ordained a successor called Tar an' Feathers. After the November issue campus reformers again tried to step in, but Editor Witten complied with their wishes by putting out a clean but unhumorous humor publication.

The legislature set up the new Tar an' Feathers with a censor board of five editors who were to pass on all material that was to be used—an editor for each department whose duty was to keep his section clean, or something. Editor Witten was to choose these editors and invest in them his council; but it availed nothing. To quote the editor, "I'm the only censor around here."

This year the "humor mag" presented campus life in a new way. Lots of snapshots and picture stories were used. The written features took a turn toward satire. Campus policies and institutions were hit, taking the place of the fiction of previous years. The cartoons this year come out of the gutter and, leaving sex behind, encompassed a more cosmopolitan field.

The policy of this new publication can be summed up in the words of Sound & Fury: "Not funny—but clean!"

The DAILY TAR HEEL

"Common sense liberalism," the Daily Tar Heel terms its editorial policy. It is liberal within reason; thus, neither reactionaries nor radicals will countenance us. But honest, rational, thinking people usually either agree with us or at least give us credit for thinking about the things that happen around us.

This "common sense liberalism" permits the Tar Heel to uphold the right of a free student press, yet oppose a dirty humor magazine; to believe that America should not enter the war, yet allow the expression of the opposing viewpoints in its public column; to spearhead the demands of students for better dormitory furniture, yet insist that they must accept responsibility for protection of that which they have; to defend the right of alleged "super-liberal" faculty members to have their say, yet impress upon them the necessity of exercising a little common sense also; to advocate greater student participation in affairs of curriculum, readmissions, athletics, and student welfare, yet constantly remind them of responsibilities that accompany power.

On the news end of the paper the purpose has been to present all the news, in proportion to its news worthiness, with fairness to every organization and shade of opinion. We have sought to dig out and present the truth, yet not intentionally hurt individuals. The series of stories on the action of the North Carolina Board of Education in rejecting for text and supplementary use the fifth grade history book of Professors Albert Newsome and Hugh Lefler, was the best bit of work done by the Tar Heel. The work of the editorial staff in behalf of a course on the history of the University should some day prove to be its most noteworthy achievement.

This year we raised a few eyebrows, dented the armor of a few old-timers and fell victims of the modern passion for stream-lining by changing our name from Magazine to "Mag". This was of course a superficial part of a policy to offer a neater literary and journalistic package to the campus. We were helped by the additions of a two-color cover and cartoons. Our contributions, although never reaching the point of swamping us and usually the children of several rewrites, attempted to deal with important matters in a way which would be of interest to the student body at large. And we tried to augment our liberal principles by including fewer of them in a publication that offered a readable variety.

The Carolina Mag has consistently gained national recognition for the absolute freedom which every editor has had, without faculty or alumni censorship, editors have always been able to preserve an honest and courageous publication. And throughout the country, wherever the Mag is recognized, the university has maintained its just reputation for liberalism. In past years this recognition has more often been off of the campus than on it. This year we have attempted to retain the old principles and enhance our campus standing. If future editors will keep alive a variety of interests and, most important, a sense of humor, the Carolina Mag may eventually become the accepted tag that its inherent purpose commands.

YACK

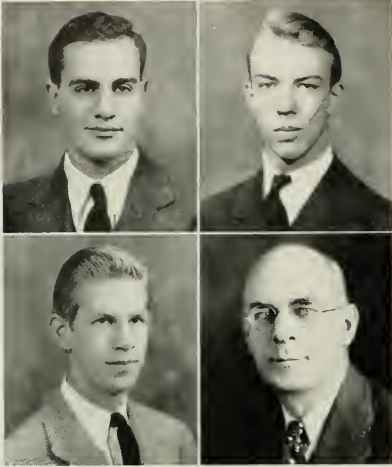

Although an annual only has one edition, the tears and toil of accumulating together the mass of material, photographs, writeups begin in September and do not end until the book is out in May. The annual goes to press by sections and not a week passes during the year in which there is not some type of "deadline" to meet.

This year's YACKETY YACK was built around the obvious theme of "Chapel Hill, 1941." Besides the formal and orthodox parts of the annual, the staff has tried to build up as complete a picture of the University and its life here and now on the campus in an informal manner.

With the cooperation of the Publications Union Board, the quality of the annual has been improved so that it is not only the largest YACKETY YACK ever printed, but also color has been added in design and kodachrome engravings.

Much credit for this year's book goes to the fine cooperation of the staff without whose help, the 1941 YACKETY YACK would never become a reality.

LEAR

The Officers of the 1940-41 P.U. Board are: Leonard Lobred, President; Andrew Gennett, Secretary; William Seeman, Treasurer; George F. Horner, Faculty Member; Earl H. Hartsell, Faculty Member; and J. M. Lear, Faculty Adviser.

With complete financial control of the four student publications—the Daily Tar Heel, YACKETY YACK, Tar an' Feathers, and the Carolina Magazine—the Publications Union Board promotes cooperation among publications without influencing their policies.

The Board appoints and fixes the salaries of all paid workers except the elected editors; makes contracts for printing and engraving; and controls the expenditure of all publications funds. Although the fee may be raised only by campus vote, the Board may lower it; this was done this spring.

There are five men on the Board. Three students are elected by campus-wide vote of the Publications Union, which is composed of every student at the University. The Dean of Administration appoints the two faculty members for staggered two-year terms. A financial adviser from the faculty also sits with the Board but has no vote.

The University Club is composed of a junior-class representative from each men's dormitory and fraternity and a senior-class representative from each girls' dormitory and sorority. Having direct contact with almost every undergraduate on the campus it, therefore, is a most representative group.

The Club is primarily a service organization and all of its functions are carried through in the interest of the student body and the University. The motto of the Club—for the University—is self-explanatory of the purposes of the Club.

The functions of the Club are many and varied. Through its cooperation with the Athletic Association, the Club seeks to promote and maintain enthusiasm and good sportsmanship in all University events and contests by sponsoring pep rallies, entertaining visiting teams, etc. In cooperation with the General Alumni Office, the Club tries to maintain alumni interest. In addition, the Club seeks to interest prospective students in the University, it seeks to improve intra-school relations, and it assists other organizations in carrying out projects which will benefit the student body and the University.

The Interfraternity Council has as its function the governing of all the men's Greek letter organizations on the campus. The Presidents of each House make up the membership of the group. This Council has the power to try breaches of its by-laws and to punish such breaches by fines or other means which it may deem wise.

The Council enforces a plan whereby each House is to see that there are no violations of the coed-fraternity agreement rather than leaving the execution of the plan up to the individual coed. Fraternities are held responsible to the Interfraternity Council rather than to the administration of any other body. Permission for House Parties or other social functions comes directly from the President of the Council.

The Council controls rushing regulations and all other matters which pertain to the fraternities as a group. This year the Council took a definite forward step by abolishing the objectionable practices of the so-called Hell Week. This Governing body works closely with the Dean of Students, the Faculty Committee on Fraternities, and the Student Council.

This year the Council sent two delegates, Chris Siewers and Bill Broadfoot, to the National Interfraternity Conference in New York City.

For the first time the Council is publishing and sending to incoming freshmen a booklet on fraternities at the University. The organization also donates several scholarships to boys each year and contributes to worthy campus organizations.

KAPPA PSI

WATKINS

Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical fraternity was founded at the Medical College of Virginia on December 15, 1879. The organization was the first Greek-letter society established in the colleges of Pharmacy in the United States. It is the one and only strictly Pharmaceutical fraternity which limits its chapters to colleges of Pharmacy holding membership in the American Association of colleges of Pharmacy.

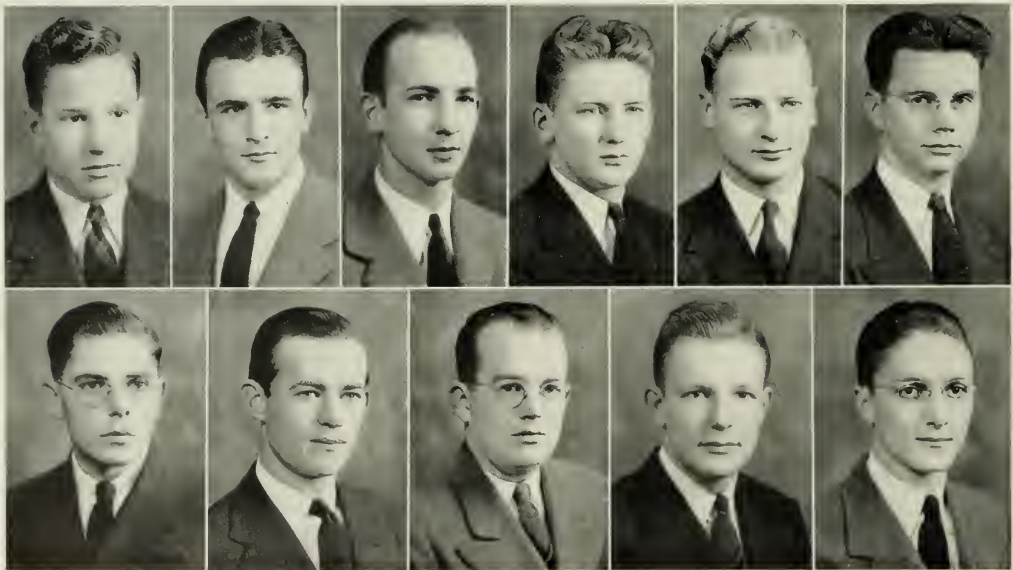

This, the Beta Xi chapter, was established at the University of North Carolina in 1915, embodying the following charter members: Dean J. G. Beard, R. A. McDuffie, E. D. Kyser, R. H. Andrews, J. L. Beach, F. N. Patterson, R. H. Mann, G. G. Blackwelder.

Kappa Psi, since its origin, has sought to attain the highest ideals in the profession of Pharmacy, and surrounds its members in an atmosphere of companionship, congeniality, and integrity.

CAROLINA POLITICAL UNION

The Carolina Political Union is an organization of twenty-five students who bring to the campus outstanding representatives of varying political and social viewpoints in an effort to stimulate student thinking. The Union itself is a non-partisan group, although it includes within its ranks members of all major political parties.

During the past year the Union presented to the campus a number of outstanding political leaders. Included on its programs were: Senator Claude Pepper and Rev. A. J. Muste in the fall quarter; Speaker Sam Rayburn, Senator Gerald Nye, and Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones, Major George Fielding Elliot, and National Democratic Chairman Ed Flynn.

The officers of the Union elected last spring are William Joslin, Chairman; Edward Kantrowitz, Vice-Chairman; Arthur Dixon, Secretary; Charles Tillett, Treasurer.

The members of the Carolina Political Union are: Bill Cochrane, Lucille Darvin, Arthur Dixon, Charlotte Fitz, Lee Gravely, Jim Gray, Louis Harris, Jabie Heyward, Truman Hobbs, Bill Joslin, Ed Kantrowitz, Maury Kershaw, Mac McLendon, Helen Milan, George Peabody, Richard Railey, Norma Slatoff, Bill Snider, Norman Stockton, Ferebee Taylor, Ike Taylor, Ridley Whitaker, Lee Wiggins, Frank Williams, Kenan Williams, and Dr. E. Since the completion and occupation of the new dormitory for graduate and professional women, this group of students has developed a unity and significance heretofore non-existent on this campus. Indicative of this growing unification of spirit is the desire of the group to have recognition as a centralized body. Through its organization of dormitory officers and its widespread activities it has taken its place in University life. During the past year, the graduate co-eds have participated in the plans and celebration for Homecoming, Student-Faculty Day, the dorm's various formal social activities, as well as being valuable in both their scholarly and collegiate activities.

DEBATE COUNCIL

The University's Debate Council is organized to promote forensic activity on the Carolina campus, and in such a role it has entered several fields of activity.

In its most important work, that of debating proper, it has met in Chapel Hill, Randolph-Macon College for Men, Randolph-Macon Women's College, the University of Pennsylvania, the College of William and Mary, Erskine College, Tulane University, the University of Vermont, Swarthmore College, Haverford College, Carnegie Tech, New York University, and Cornell University.

On March the 7th or 8th a team traveled to Charlottesville, Washington, and Baltimore to meet the University of Virginia, George Washington University, and Loyola College in Baltimore.

Then during the Spring Holidays most of the teams were debated at Chapel Hill that had been previously met elsewhere. Also it is hoped to include Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth, and possibly McGill University in Montreal.

Particular emphasis has been put on Freshman work for the first time this year. They had two debates with Wake Forest there and one with Emory University here.

It has long been the policy to have men debate questions according to their beliefs. In other words an attempt is made to eliminate the sophistry which would result from debating against one's own convictions.

This year also marked the first time that there has been active work on the squad from coeds. The first debate in which a coed participated was with the University of Pennsylvania when Elsie Lyon and Graham Carlton represented Carolina.

In addition to the debating work, the Council has fostered other types of speech activity on the campus through its contributions to the Carolina Political Union, the International Relations Club, and the Di and the Phi.

The International Relations Club is a non-partisan and non-political organization composed of forty students who endeavor to study current international affairs and to promote the interest of the students of the University in international relations. The IRC fulfills its purpose by a threefold program.

The first phase of Club work is the heated and constructive "bull sessions" held every business meeting. These discussions are open to all the students and a good time is had by all attending. These programs are generally held in Gerrard Hall and are of a all student, all faculty, or student and faculty nature, and are presented by the IRC in the hopes of stimulating student interest in the international field. The third phase of IRC work is the presentation of famed ambassadors and distinguished statesmen to speak before the University, state, and the nation on the vital happenings in the international scene. In fulfillment of this phase of IRC work, many distinguished internationalists have appeared here this past school year, including such men as Assistant United States Secretary of State Adolph A. Berle, Civil Aviation Chairman Oswald Ryan, and former United States Ambassador to France William C. Bullitt. Mr. Bullitt's address was broadcast over a nation wide hookup and later shortwaved to London and the rest of the world. His appearance here filled the spacious Memorial Hall to its capacity.

It is a unit in a national organization devoted to cultural and religious work among Jewish students in some sixty American colleges and universities.

Religious services are held weekly in both Orthodox and Reform rituals. There is an extensive cultural program designed to stimulate and educate. The Foundation also offers a medium of cooperating with other religious and campus groups.

All organizational activities of the Foundation are carried out by a cabinet which includes a nucleus of interested students from which a smaller group will be selected in the spring.

The Dialectic Senate holds the unique position of being the oldest organization on the campus of the University having been organized June 3, 1795. For a continuous period since that time, the "Di" has offered valuable training in democratic parliamentary law, Dialecticism, and public speaking.

Dialecticism—the training of minds in constructive, logical reasoning is one of the most important functions of the Senate. It encourages free, yet intelligent and thorough discussion on important questions of the day; and it offers to any individual the privilege of expressing his views on the floor.

But the members of the "Di" believe that they should be of service to the people at large and consequently it sponsors inter-campus debates, panel discussions, and is the co-sponsor for the North Carolina High School debate tournament held every spring at Chapel Hill. The Senate is looking forward to a well balanced program of work—balanced on the one hand by training its members in public speaking and service, and on the other by offering to the campus and public its services and good will.

The social life of the Senate is not neglected, the "Di" sponsoring intermittently socials, receptions, and an annual banquet.

It is an organization established "To maintain on a high plane fraternity life and inter-fraternity relationship, to cooperate with college authorities in their effort to maintain high social and scholastic standards throughout the whole college, and to be a forum for the discussions of questions of interest to the college and the fraternity world."

It has been the work of the present Pan Hellenic to organize a new system of rushing, to formulate a policy governing the rules of admission of both national and local sororities, and to sponsor for the first time an all-sorority dance in honor of its new officers. It has endeavored to emphasize Pan Hellenic values by showing its worth to the fraternity through inter-fraternity relationships and mutual appreciation, and to foster a spirit of cooperation and interest in college activities for the common good of fraternity and non-fraternity women.

FOOTBALL

Carolina's football team did not win as many games as usual last fall, in spite of pre-season dope that the 1940 eleven was the best in years. Bad luck dogged the squad all season, as Coach Wolf's men lost two games by one point.

CAROLINA 56, APPALACHIAN 6

The first appearance of Coach Wolf's eleven saw tiny Appalachian buried under a 56-6 score. After holding the Tar Heels scoreless during the first quarter, the Mountaineers yielded to superior power, and Carolina led by 28-0 at half time. Four more touchdowns in the last quarter completed the rout, but Appalachian was able to score a lone tally in the last quarter on Safrit's pass into the end zone.

Johnny Pecora, sophomore tailback, scored for Carolina on the first play of his varsity career, a 34 yard run. His ball-carrying throughout the day was excellent, along with the running of Roy Conner and Don Baker. Jim Lalanne and Frank O'Hare divided the quarterbacking, and scored two touchdowns apiece. Paul Severin and Baker gained much yardage on end-arounds, and Pinky Elliott scored on a similar play. Horace Benton, reserve center, intercepted an Appalachian aerial, and ran the ball over for a score.

The defensive leaders were Bill Faircloth and Carl Suntheimer, who were ably backed by the entire first string line.

THE CAROLINA TAR HEELS

WAKE FOREST 12-CAROLINA 0

KIMBALL

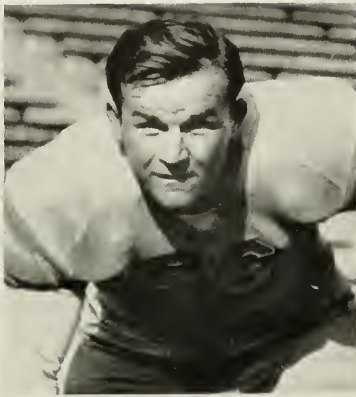

The widely-heralded Tar Heels hit their first snag when Wake Forest's inspired Demon Deacons outplayed Carolina, to win 12-0 in Kenan Stadium. Led by quarterback Pruitt, the Deacs kept the Carolina attack throttled all afternoon, while their own offense gained 331 yards on the ground with a running attack that was unstoppable.

Early in the second quarter Wake recovered a blocked punt and carried the ball to the two-yard line, where a gallant Carolina line held for four downs. The visitors recovered a fumble on the UNC fourteen yard line seconds later, and scored on a fourth-down pass to Jett. The second score came at the end of a 99-yard march, Pruitt and John Polanski moving the ball to the Carolina 22, from where Tony Gallovich went around end for the tally.

Carolina's lone scoring threat came late in the first half on a long pass to Severin, but a pass flurry failed as the half ended. It was the first Wake Forest victory over the Tar Heels since 1927, and Carolina was never able to get started, in spite of the fine line play of Severin, Kimball and Suntheimer. The Deacons guarded their lead carefully, for Carolina was unable to pass the Wake Forest 46-yard line in the last half.

PECORA SKIRTS RIGHT END AGAINST WAKE FOREST

MARSHALL

CAROLINA 27 - DAVIDSON 7

A spirited Davidson football team held the faltering Carolina attack in check for the first half, but found the Tar Heel power too much over the stretch, losing 27-7 in a ragged game at Winston-Salem.

In the first quarter Carolina lost two scoring chances when the officials called back a 64-yard dash by Johnny Pecora and when Carolina fumbled on the Davidson 5-yard line. Davidson's little Davey Spencer returned a Carolina punt 42 yards through a broken field to put the Wildcats ahead, but before the half was over Frank O'Hare led a 40-yard advance and plunged through the line to tie the score.

CAROLINA TAKES BALL AGAINST DAVIDSON

The Tar Heels got under way in the next quarter when Pecora intercepted a Davidson pass and dashed 21 yards for a touchdown. He set up another score a few minutes later by intercepting another pass; this time O'Hare pushed the ball over. The 'Cats were too tired to stop Pinky Elliott from scoring on an end-around at the climax of a 75-yard drive near the game's end.

NOBODY HURT

DON BAKER DOWN THE SIDELINES FOR CAROLINA'S SECOND TOUCHDOWN

CAROLINA 21—TEXAS CHRISTIAN 14

Flashing an unstoppable attack led by Jim Lalanne, Carolina came out of the doldrums and won a convincing 21-14 victory over the Horned Frogs of T.C.U. In the second quarter the Tar Heel line blocked as never before and paved the way for three quick touchdowns that put the game on ice.

After a first quarter which seemed mainly for warming up, Lalanne brought the crowd to its feet by faking to the right and then scooting 59 yards around left end for a touchdown. Dunkle kicked the extra point. Several minutes later Don Baker took the ball on a reverse and dashed 70 yards down the left sidelines behind perfect blocking to cross the goal line standing up. The third Carolina score was not as spectacular, coming after a 37 yard drive following Co-Captain Kimball's recovery of a T.C.U. fumble. Lalanne directed the attack down to within a yard of the goal line and then plunged over for the score.

As the second half began T.C.U.'s Kyle Gillespie and Rusty Cowart put on a passing exhibition that scared many a Tar Heel roofer. The Frogs scored after only four minutes, and their low, bullet passes netted them another touchdown in the last quarter. With the T.C.U. aerial game as hot as it was, the final whistle came none too soon for the Tar Heel team.

LALANNE PLUNGES OVER THE LINE FOR A TOUCHDOWN

CAROLINA 13—N. C. STATE 7

Carolina's Tar Heels suffered a temporary relapse against N. C. State over in Raleigh and barely eked out a 13-7 victory against the Wolfpack. State came close to tying the score late in the fourth quarter on a spectacular play: Fehley, State fullback, passed from behind his goal line on a fake kick to Dick Watts, who ran about 30 yards and then lateraled back to Fehley. Had it not been for Jim Lalanne, who broke through the interference to stop Fehley on the Tar Heel 16-yard line, the victory might have belonged to the Wolfpack.

Lalanne and Sid Sadoff sparked two Carolina drives of over 50 yards for the Tar Heel scores. Blocking back Harry Dunkle booted the extra point after Lalanne plunged over the first time. Severin carried the ball on the second touchdown play. Rainy weather kept the Tar Heel passing game under cover, and Carolina made its yardage along the ground. State's score came on a pass from Watts to Huckabee after a State punt had touched a Carolina backer and been recovered by the Wolfpack.

TULANE 14—CAROLINA 13

With victory for Carolina almost a certainty, a Tulane lineman broke through about two minutes from the end of the game and blocked Harry Dunkle's kick. End Al Bodney picked the ball up and raced 45 yards for a touchdown, and the successful conversion of the extra point gave the Green Wave a 14-13 advantage.

SMITH

DUNKLE

Both teams displayed crushing attacks, with a total of 24 first downs. The Green Wave was unstopable at midfield but often bogged down in Carolina territory. Tulane scored first when Grush covered a team mate's fumble in the Carolina end zone. Carolina passed its way down the field for its first touchdown, Severin tallying on a heave from Lalanne. Later Carolina recovered a Tulane fumble and Lalanne plunged over to score three plays later. Carolina seemed to have the game sewed up until the blocked punt near the end of the game turned the tables.

The Tar Heels, outweighed by more than 10 pounds per man, were unable to cope with the powerful Green Wave offense, and Tulane found just as much trouble in halting the diversified Carolina attack. The Tar Heels might have won the game anyway if any one of several passes from the Tulane 7-yard line had connected.

SEVERIN PICKS UP TEN YARDS ON AN END-AROUND

CAROLINA 0 —FORDHAM 14

Carolina suffered its first defeat in five games in New York City when Fordham's Rams, headed for the Cotton Bowl, pushed over two quick first-period touchdowns and then held the Tar Heel offense in check on the rain-soaked turf of the Polo Grounds to win 14-0.

FAIRCLOTH

The Rams had a touchdown after two minutes of play when Blumenstock scampered 28 yards around his left end for the score. A 72 yard drive later in the period was climaxed when Filipowicz passed to Dennery in the end zone. Fordham did not threaten after the first quarter.

The closest Carolina came was to Fordham's 15, where Howard Hodges recovered a fumble with four minutes of play remaining. A pass interception on the next play killed the only serious Tar Heel threat of the day. Two drives ended on the Ram 27-yard line—one sparked by Johnny Pecora, sophomore tailback who ran and passed Carolina from its own thirty-one, the other led by Jim Lalanne, who ran for 23 yards and then passed to Severin for 14.

FOOTBALL SEASON

From the hot Saturdays of September to somber November week-ends Carolina students and alumni thrilled to the deeds of a Carolina football team that will be hard to forget. Head managers for the Tar Heels last fall were Tom Wright and Jim Gray. Assisting them down on the field every afternoon were Cy Hogue, Buck Brown, and North Hinkle, juniors, and sophomores, Graham Carlton, Cam Rodman, Dan Thomason, and Joe Conger. There were losses, bitter losses, but even more victories . . . We watched in shirt-sleeves as valiant little Appalachian was over-run in the opener . . . Then came the first great blow when an inspired Wake Forest team won a deserved victory, despite sparkling play by Kimball, Severin, Suntheimer and Pecora . . . The natural let-down the next week against scrappy Davidson, O'Hare leading the Tar Heels to a last-half victory . . . Texas Christian defeated, 21-14, in the biggest game of the early season, with Jim Lalanne and Don Baker bringing the crowd to its feet with two long touchdown dashes . . . Another close call from State with Nowell, Sadoff, and Dunkle sharing honors . . . A Homecoming gathering seeing Tulane grab a last-minute one-point victory in a story-book finish . . . Fordham, destined for the Cotton Bowl, disappointing a thousand Carolina visitors to New York by turning back the Tar Heels . . . "It's darkest before the dawn"—the fiasco at Richmond bringing two Duke dollars for one . . . That glorious day: the Devils prohibitive favorites, U. N. Richmond University provided the biggest upset of the season in handing Carolina its third straight defeat and second by one point, winning 14-13 before an astonished Richmond City Stadium crowd.

Arthur Jones gave the inspired and vastly underrated Spiders their margin of victory when he passed fifteen yards to Dick Humbert and then kicked the deciding extra point. Jones passed to Erickson in the first quarter for the initial touch-down of the game, and added the point after.

Frank O'Hare and Sid Sadoff alternated in carrying the ball in an 83-yard march that brought Carolina to within one point at the half. O'Hare ran it over from the nine.

In the third period the Tar Heels went ahead 13-7 with a 76-yard drive that saw Sid Sadoff and end John Miller bear most of the burden. Sadoff scored from the three, Dunkle kicking the point.

Carolina had three regulars out of the game, and before the contest was over two others were out with injuries. Jim Lalanne, Paul Severin and Carl Suntheimer didn't play at all, and Fred Marshall and Bill Faircloth were removed with hurts.

Carolina and Virginia both tallied their touchdowns early in the second period, the Tar Heels on the end of a 66 yard advance and the Cavaliers topping off a 55 yard march. For Carolina, Johnny Pecora scored from the one foot line after three successive first downs, while Bill Dudley's 14 yard pass to Nick Gianakos accounted for Virginia's score.

Six Tar Heels played the entire game, and substitutions were made only for injured players. Lalanne, Co-Captains Gates Kimball and Paul Severin, Bob Smith, and Sid Sadoff all gave valiant performances in their last appearance against the Blue Devils.

BASKETBALL

The toast of the Southern Conference for two months, the basketball team that was destined to be Carolina's greatest cage combination of a long line of champions came to grief in the opening round of the loop tournament. The White Phantoms, led by Carolina's greatest basketball player, All-American George Glamack, won fourteen of fifteen conference games, thirteen of them in a row, only to be detoured by Duke when the blue chips were down. Often winners by from fifteen to twenty points, the White Phantoms led the circuit the entire winter and captured the Big Five title.

In 28 contests, including tournaments and four pre-season affairs, Carolina was the loser only nine times, and five of these defeats were by one point. The one point jinx set in early in the season, Fordham and St. Joseph's winning by identical 42-41 scores. In the opener, Glamack dropped in 33 points as Lehigh was defeated 62-58 in a thriller. furnished the first conference wins, W. & L. falling 42-39, and VMI 55-30. Glamack went wild again, nearly single handedly drubbing Wake Forest 61-45, as he got 32 points.

A capacity crowd saw sharp-shooting New York University end the Tar Heel's win streak, 53-49. The score was knotted at 24-all at half time, but NYU spurted in the final minute and a half to win. Glamack with 22 points, and Smith with 10, were Carolina's scoring leaders. Back in the conference, State and Maryland fell, 47-26 and 55-36. Navy then handed Carolina its worst defeat of the season, a 42-36 setback suffered at Annapolis. Glamack was held to 17 points. Wake Forest caught the Phantoms in the same slump, but were defeated in the last minute 43-40, when Co-Captain Jimmy Howard connected with three quick long shots. Three more victories against mediocre opposition followed, Virginia Tech falling 60-35, Maryland 44-29, and Davidson 38-30. Unprophectic of things to come, the first Duke game saw Carolina in its best form of the season, smothering the Blue Devils 51-33. Ahead by 28-17 at the half, the Phantoms won going away before 6,000 fans. Glamack got 22; Howard, 10.

Glamack set a new conference scoring record and came near a world's record when he hooked in 45 points as Carolina routed Clemson, 76-53. Scoring 26 points in the first Glamack continued his rampage against State with 31 markers as the Tar Heels doubled the score at 60-30. In the last game in Woolen Gym, Glamack scored 30 points to bring his season total to 500 as W. & L. was routed 65-32. Bobby Gersten held Dick Pinck, former high-score holder, scoreless for the first time in twelve years.

From that date on the Phantoms seemed to decline. Duke handed them their first defeat in twenty conference starts over a two year period, and ruined an undefeated loop record by winning 35-33 in Durham. Ahead when Glamack fouled out, Carolina failed to score without him and lost when the Devils successfully froze the ball the last two minutes. Davidson lost, 39-31, in an anti-climax. At the

Despite their untimely end, the Phantoms were selected from teams over twelve southeastern states to compete in the NCAA championship play-offs at Madison, Wisconsin. On fourteen occasions he went over 20 points, and six times he got 30 or more. Bob Rose was second in scoring, and was elected captain for 1942. The Tar Heel bats awoke with full vengeance against W. & L. and V.M.I., those two falling 18-1 and 14-2. Cheshire turned in a two-hitter in the first game. Davidson was Cheshire's next victim, 7-2, and then Coach

Bunn Hearn's charges mopped up Virginia, 6-3, Maryland, 2-0, and Navy 2-1, on a northern tour.

Three days later Carolina shattered the Wake Forest-Lefty Byrne myth with a thrilling 4-1 win featuring Cheshire's six-hitter, and a batting outburst that shelled Byrne from the mound in three innings. Jim Mallory's big bat knocked in three runs to insure the win, and a day later he singled in the ninth to best State, 5-4. Virginia, State, and Davidson all were defeated for the second time to run the UNC win streak to a dozen, Cheshire pitching all three of the victories. Clemson fell beneath a 20-hit assault and Cheshire's hurling, 10-4, for the last triumph of the string before Wake Forest stopped Carolina, 6-3, on three-hit pitching by Jim Denning.

A CAROLINA HIT AGAINST THE BLUE DEVILS

Carolina came back to end a Duke reign over UNC baseball teams that had run uninterrupted for 10 games, raking six Duke hurlers for 17 hits and 20 walks to drub the Devils by a record 26-3 count. Cheshire limited the Methodists to three hits and struck out 10. Carolina continued its record of never having won a night game from Duke, however, when the Devils came from behind to count five runs in the eighth inning to win, 6-3, at Greensboro.

The Tar Heels wrapped up a tie for the state title by easily turning back the Blue Devils 8-2, when Cheshire, pitching his third game in five days, limited the Dukes to four hits before 3,500 spectators.

In the pitching department Cheshire won nine, lost three; Horace Benton won four, lost one; George Ralston won three, lost none. Stirnweiss led in runs scored, extra-base hits, stolen bases, and was second to Mallory in runs-batted-in. George Radman led the hitters with an even .400.

TRACK

The 1940 Carolina track team upheld the tradition of Tar Heel cinder squads by winning the Southern Conference Championship for the third consecutive year, and triumphing in five of six dual meets. Carolina defeated Princeton, Virginia, Duke and Georgia, and won the AAU meet. A loss to Navy was the first defeat in a dual meet since the first meet of the 1938 season.

Harry March, the one-man track team, led the individual scoring with 78 points for five meets. He performed in the high and low hurdles, and broad and high jumps, won the 400-meter hurdles at the Penn relays, and was undefeated in hurdles all season. Sophomore Warren Mengel finished second in the scorers' parade with 34 points garnered from the high and low hurdles, broad jump, and discus. Tom Crockett, distance man, finished first in every one of his races, save the mile against Duke when he finished behind Jim Davis. He had 31 points, while Norman McLeod took fourth with 25 points in the pole vault. Fred Hardy, Chuck Slagle and Jim Davis were the only others to score over twenty points.

The opening meet with Princeton was a severe test, but the Tar Heels squeezed by, winning 66 2/3 to 59 1/3. Virginia was left far behind the next week, 75-51. March beat Frank Fuller in the hurdles, and other old reliables who won were Julian Lane, Randy Partridge, Royce Jennings. Co-Captain Fred Hardy, Crockett, and Davis.

The streak was continued with a sound trouncing of Duke, 72 1/2 to 58 1/2, but Carolina lost the services of Co-Captain Davis for the remainder of the season following a foot infection. March scored 15 1/2 points, and Dave Morrison took the half mile run. The Tar Heels next won the AAU meet going away, rolling up 73 1/2 points to Duke's 63, followed by several other teams.

Navy took a clear-cut decision 77-49, ending the three-year win streak. Hampered by the loss of Davis and soggy track, the Tar Heels clearly lost to a better team. In the last dual meet of the year Carolina had little trouble in felling Georgia, 82 1/2 to 43 1/2.

The all-round strength of Coach Fetzer's squad won the conference meet for the third time in as many years. Carolina scored 65 points, to 57 for Maryland and 41 for Duke. March won the high and low hurdles and broad jump, and McLeod vaulted 13 feet to tie for first in that event. Winning second places were Richardson, Morrison, Mengel, Crockett, and Slagle.

INDOOR TRACK

Trailing Duke by three points before the mile relay, last event on the program, Carolina's relay team of Wise, Groves, Cathey, and Morrison outfought a strong Maryland quartet to score the points that won the Southern Conference Indoor meet.

Though Duke took six first places out of twelve events, the all-round strength of the Tar Heel team enabled it to score 40 $\frac{1}{3}$ points to the Blue Devil's 38 $\frac{1}{6}$.

Dave Morrison won the half-mile and Mike Mangum the high hurdles for the only Carolina individual crowns. Warren Mengel took two seconds and a fourth in the hurdles events and the broad jump for seven points. Gardiner pulled a surprise by taking second in the high jump and third in the high hurdles. Mike Wise ran second in the quarter-mile event, while Henry Branch in the 880 yard run and Van Wagoner in the mile captured medals for finishing third.

In winning the meet in the last event Carolina provided the most stirring finish since the meet was inaugurated twelve years ago.

Carolina's 1940 tennis team upheld the almost miraculous record of past Tar Heel court squads by going through a tough schedule undefeated last spring. Coach John Kenfield's team smothered all southern competition and then invaded the northern tennis strongholds, defeating some of the nation's best talent on the tour. At the end of the season Coach Kenfield could look back on 171 victories by his teams since 1929, as compared with only four losses.

The Tar Heels gave future opponents warning of a brilliant team the previous fall, when, led by Co-Captain Bill Rawlings, they dominated the Middle Atlantic College tournament. Later, on Thanksgiving day, Carolina blasted Virginia's netters off the courts 9-0.

A number of prominent northern squads, including Haverford College, Colby, Dartmouth, and Williams, came South early in April to give the Tar Heels their first tests. The invaders found the Carolina racqueteers poor hosts, however, and departed without winning a single individual match, as Carolina blanked each team, and Williams twice.

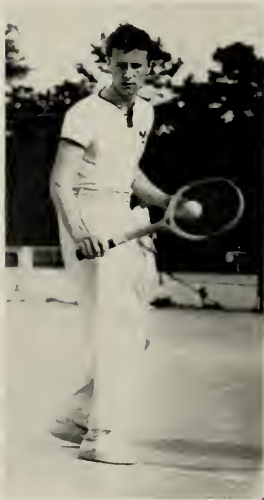

Cornell drew first blood when the Ithacans' Randall defeated both Carolina's Co-Captains, Charlie Rider and Rawlings, in a two-day series that the Tar Heels won, 8-1 and 6-3.

ment at Pinehurst in mid-April. Graduate Archie Henderson defeated Rider in the singles, and Harris Everett teamed with Martin Buxby, of Florida, to cop the doubles title from Henderson and Alec Guerry. About forty Carolina racqueteers participated in the tourney. A week later Don Buffington led Duke in putting up a stiff battle before succumbing, 6-3, to the victorious Carolina players.

Playing in characteristic fashion, the Tar Heels next took two easy breathers against N. C. State and Washington & Lee, smothering both teams by a score of 9-0.

Early in May a strong Presbyterian College team came to Chapel Hill and almost broke the long Carolina string of victories. Everett and Ham Anthony each won their singles matches and then teamed in a doubles victory for three points. Zan Carver blasted his opponent and, with Walt Meserole as a partner, pulled an upset over the number one P. C. doubles combination to clinch the match, 5-4.

After this close shave the Carolina team, with Blair Rice as alternate, went on the annual northern tour. Virginia fell first, 8-1, before Carolina barely nosed out a strong Yale squad, 5-4, in a thrill-packed match.

Princeton took two matches out of nine from the Tar Heels the following day, and then the team stopped at Annapolis for a match with Navy. There Carolina sank the Middies, 8-1, but only after Navy's Joe Hunt, one of the best half dozen players in the country, had given the visitors a lesson in trimming Rider, 6-0, 6-2.

Back on home courts once again, Carolina's racqueteers swept all the honors at the Southern Conference net tourney in Raleigh. Harris Everett won the singles title from Zan Carver in a terrific five-set all-afternoon encounter that left both players near collapse. The next day Carver lost another heart-breaker when he and Meserole bowed to Rider and Rawlings in a gruelling five-set match for the doubles crown.

After the season was over Coach Kenfield looked forward to a 1941 season without the services of Rider, Rawlings, and Meserole, and with no great wealth of coming reserves and freshmen. It would be hard to duplicate the 1940 record this spring.

Second in the conference, automatic State Champions, and possessor of two conference champs, Carolina's mitt team had its most successful year in recent times.

Coach Mike Ronman's pupils defeated Penn State for the first time in history and tagged Virginia with a defeat for the initial Carolina win over the Cavaliers in a decade. They gained an even break in a hard six match schedule. Co-Captains Andy Gennett, 127, and Eldon Sanders, 165, both won loop titles in the tournament, the Tar Heels finishing second.

Carolina was slow getting started, and dropped the opener to Virginia Tech, 4 to 3. Redemption came the next week, however, when the Tar Heels swatted Virginia 5-3. Gennett, Bob Farris, and Morris Moskow won, and Sanders won a grudge battle to insure at least a tie. Kimball KO'd Rathburn in the second round to insure the victory.

With Farris and Kimball unable to compete Carolina lost to Maryland 4½ to 3½. Gennett, Moskow, and Sanders registered TKO's, and Walston drew.

The last dual match saw Carolina upset The Citadel, also by 4½ to 3½. Gennett, Moskow, Bobbitt, and Kimball won, and Sanders was held to a draw.

GOLF

Playing through a short schedule which allowed them to reach their peak only at the end of the season, Carolina's golf team won three matches last year and tied in two of the other three.

The squad took its first real workout at the Southern Intercollegiate tournament, coming out in sixth position. Frosty Snow and Al Carr led the links team to an $8\frac{1}{2}$ - $1\frac{1}{2}$ victory over Maryland, before Virginia tied Carolina, $4\frac{1}{2}$ - $4\frac{1}{2}$ in a match won only by rain and darkness. Navy was the next Tar Heel victim.

Carolina reached its best form in defeating Georgia on the home links. Duke's crack team won over Coach Erickson's fighting squad by a score of $10\frac{1}{2}$ - $7\frac{1}{2}$, after which the 9-all stalemate with Davidson was just an anticlimax.

Duke again proved the nemesis of the Carolina golfers when they led the second place Tar Heels by 15 strokes in the conference meet at Sedgfield.

Hudson Boyd, Neal Herring, and Carr are not back for the 1941 team, but Snow and Charlie Diffendal form the nucleus of a promising squad which is out to beat its perennial conqueror, Duke.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Carolina cross country team went through the fall of 1940 undefeated and finished the season by winning the Southern Conference Championship.

Coach Dale Ransom's squad opened the season by out-running Maryland's crack Terrapins, 22-35. Individual honors went to veteran Tommy Fields of Maryland, who covered the five mile course in 27.33. He was closely followed by Tar Heels Dave Morrison in second place; Wise in fourth; and Captain Wimpy Lewis in fifth.

Morrison led the Carolina harriers to a convincing 18-42 victory over Duke's Blue Devils. Morrison led the field across the finish line in 26.26. Wise was second while Lewis, Branch, and Van Wagoner tied for fourth place.

Carolina won the forty-seventh annual Southern Conference cross country meet from a field composed of Virginia, Maryland, Duke, and VMI entries. In the closest conference finish since 1925, Maryland's Fields edged out Morrison to finish first in 26.06. Morrison was second, and Van Wagoner pulled the surprise of the meet by placing third. Captain Lewis came in sixth, and other Carolina scorers were Wise, in tenth place, and Branch, in eleventh.

A Carolina Blue Dolphin swimming team that is just three years old retained honors for the second straight year by winning eight of nine dual meets, capturing the Southern Conference, Big Five, and Carolinas AAU championships.

The Dolphins knocked off William and Mary, Virginia, VMI, Washington and Lee, Virginia Tech, Duke, Georgia Tech, and N. C. State, and were beaten only by Navy. The six victories over conference foes extended the Carolina record to 12 consecutive triumphs over loops squads.

Captain Jim Barclay and George Coxhead were awarded the Coach Dick Jamerson trophies as being most valuable, and were named co-captains for the 1942 season. In the backstroke Roy Gibson and Louis Scheinman were the No. 1 and 2 men all season, while Southern Conference Champion Bob Ousley was tops in breaststroke. Whit Lees was the outstanding sprint man, and Don Nicholson and John Feuchtenberger were the regular divers. Other dependables included Andy Weiss, Bob Rose, Buzz Mitchell, and Henry Gross.

Coach Chuck Quinlan's 1941 wrestling team gave the best varsity mat performance in recent years, winning the Big Five title and scoring two major upsets over heralded opponents.

After an easy 19-11 win over Davidson, the Carolina grapplers were handed their only loss when Navy won over the Tar Heels 24-8. Duke fell next 28-6, before Carolina fought VMI to a 14-14 tie for the Cadet's first close call since 1934. Co-Captain Don Torrey's win pulled the Tar Heels up in the last bout.

W. & L. suffered its first conference loss in eleven years when Carolina captured all the heavier bouts to win 15-12. The next week the Tar Heels won over VPI 25-6, and then defeated State 18-6.

Bill Somervell won the 145 pound championship, and Hobart McKeever and Roger Weil took runner-up honors as Carolina took third in the Southern Conference meet.

The Carolina team failed to live up to expectations in the South Atlantic fencing tournament and finished midway in a nine-team field.

The Carolina fencers enjoyed a good season last winter, losing only two matches, both to the strongest teams in the North.

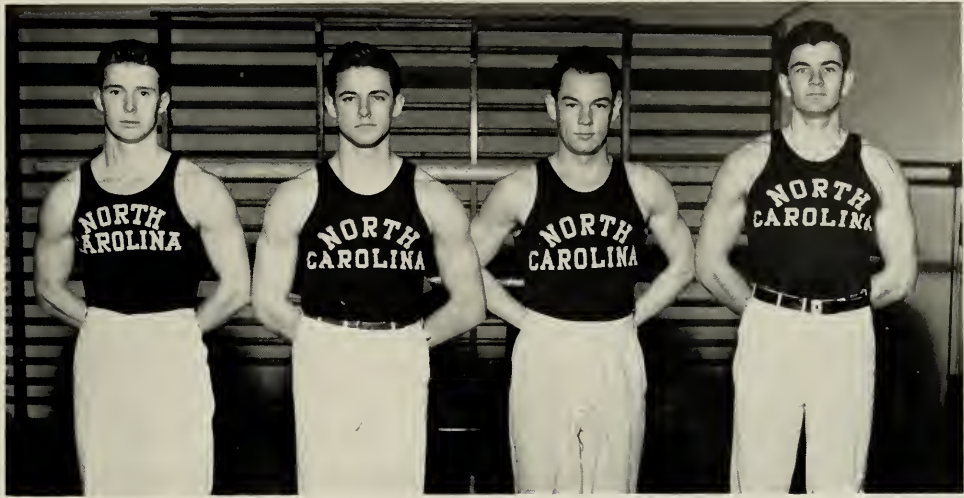

Coach Robert Lawson's squad opened the season with a 17-7 win over W. & L. The Tar Heel foil men started with three consecutive wins, and victories in the epee and saber events gave Carolina a comfortable lead.

Virginia fell next to the Tar Heel swordsmen 20-7. The Carolina epee squad lost only one match out of nine in leading the team against the Cavaliers.

Against the Winston-Salem YMCA fencers the Tar Heel foilists barely came up ahead, but the saber and epee men ran the score up to 18½-8½ for a decisive victory. In the closest match of the year the Carolina squad barely eked out a 14-13 decision over a strong William and Mary squad.

Taking on two teams in one day, Carolina defeated South Carolina in the morning 14-3, and then turned back VMI 17-10 that same afternoon.

Seton Hall's Eastern Intercollegiate champions racked up their 55th consecutive victory in defeating Carolina 20½-6½. The City College of New York swordsmen made it two in a row for the Yankees in winning a decisive victory over the Tar Heels.

GYMNASTICS

The Carolina gymnasts have been working out intermittently all year in preparation for a meet this spring. Star of the muscle-men, coached by Dr. R. B. Lawson, is Ed Winstead, who is one of the outstanding all-around gym men in the East. Duke and Davidson were defeated by the Carolina team in a short meet.

LACROSSE

Lacrosse at Carolina, although only recently organized and still not recognized as an official sport, last year developed the most improved team in the Dixie League.

Coach Al Cornsweet's ten won victories over Duke, 5-4; W. & L., 6-3; and Virginia, 8-3 and 12-4. Losses were to the Washington Lacrosse club, 9-4; Duke, 15-8; Loyola, 15-3; and W. & L., 6-4.

With Co-Captain Coleman Finkle leading a host of returning regulars, the Indians are expecting a banner year in 1941.

The officers of the Monogram Club for the year 1940-41 were: Sid Sadoff, President; Billy Groves, Vice-President; Frosty Snow, Secretary; Steve Forrest, Treasurer; and Stewart Richardson, Representative to the Athletic Council.

The Carolina Monogram Club is composed of varsity lettermen. Its purpose is to further athletic interest and fellowship on the campus and among its members. This year aside from its usual activities the club has taken another step forward. The added feature is the new club room into which the Fetzer Field house has been converted. It will serve for some of the social activities and will be available to Monogram alumni as well as members.

The club year started with the "Know Your Coaches" freshman smoker last fall, in which the freshmen met the Carolina coaches and prominent monogram men. The gridgraph of the Fordham game from New York was sponsored by the lettermen. At the end of the winter, members and their dates were entertained at a banquet. Monogram awards were made at the end of each quarter.

CHEERLEADERS

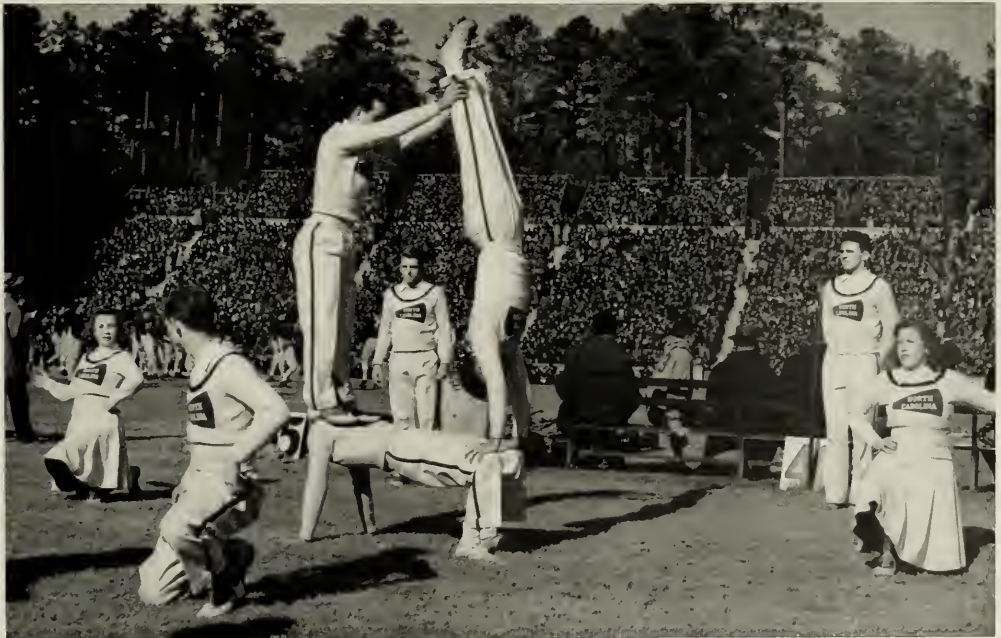

In 1940-41 came a new era in cheerleading on the Carolina campus as co-ed cheerleaders helped arouse Carolina spirit for the first time in the University's history. Head rabble-rousers Charlie Nelson and Jane Rumsey did a fine job of whooping it up at athletic events during the season, ably backed up by Jeanne Connell, George Coxhead, Tom Avera, Frank Alspaugh, Johnny Feuchtenberger, and Herschel Snuggs.

Acrobatic yells played an important part in the success of this year's cheerleaders. Alspaugh and Feuchtenberger kept the crowd entertained during dull moments with their gymnastics. The yells "Ah Rameses" and "Blue and White" featured acrobatics.

Card displays were used at several football games. "Yackety Yack", originated by Kay Kyser, was revived and became a great favorite of the student body. The new locomotive yell vied for popularity with the old "Let's Go, Carolina" standby.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Winner of only one game of five and possessing hardly a half-dozen players capable of developing into varsity material by next fall, Carolina's 1940 freshman football team was definitely not up to the standard set by yearling elevens of the past.

A late start, numerous injuries and an undermanned squad contributed much to the spotty Tar Baby record, and at the end of the season the unit was showing its best form of the year.

Some of the most outstanding performers were John Sadlik, fullback; Emil Serlich, blocking back; Hugh Cox and Leo LeBlanc, tailbacks; Clay Croom and Jack Emack, wingbacks; Jack Hussy, Craven Turner, and Lovick Corn, ends; Tom Byrum and Frank Clement, tackles; Vance McGirt and Charlie Gordon, guards; and John Wood, and Dick Bates, centers.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Coach Doc Siewert's freshman basketball squad outdid all expectations this winter and went through a tough 12 game schedule with only two defeats. Dubbed "green" as the season started, the Tar Babies smothered Fayetteville High 53-9 and went on to take victories from such strong fives as Campbell College and the State and Duke freshmen.

In defeating the vaunted Duke squad the Tar Babies came from behind to take a thrilling 44-40 victory. Carolina also won victories over the Wake Forest and Davidson freshmen, Chattanooga, Oak Ridge, and Durham high school. The only losses came at the hands of State and a revengeful Blue Imp team.

Don Wilson led the scoring with 120 points in the 12 games. Captain Freedman, Hayworth, Andrews, White, and Chambers were the other leaders on the squad.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

Coaches Jim Tatum and Hammond Strayhorn put out one of the best freshman baseball teams in years last spring, winning the state championship hands down.

The Tar Babies won eight games and lost three, with Joe Nelson and Charlie Moore pitching seven of the wins. State and Duke were defeated twice, while the losses occurred at the hands of Oak Ridge and Raleigh High.

Several promising men were uncovered for future varsity use, including Nelson and Moore; Jack Roberts, outfield batting leader; Bob Miller, outfield; and Bob Saunders, Bill Honan, and Johnny Pecora, infielders.

The main yearling weapon was a powerful batting attack, although the defense improved as the season progressed.

FRESHMAN GOLF

Coach Chuck Erickson's freshman golfers went undefeated in a two-meet season, blanking the Davidson yearlings, 18-0, and turning back Durham High, 10½ to 7½. Dave Rumph, Mike Nolan, Graydon Liles, and Larry Neese were the quartet that stood out. Liles was medalist against Davidson, and shared honors with Rumph against Durham.

FRESHMAN CROSS COUNTRY

Undefeated in two dual meets and a three-team meet, the freshman cross country had a perfect slate for 1940. Jack Milne, elected captain after the season closed, came in first in all three races. Carolina defeated Duke three times, twice in dual meets, and once in a meet with Jefferson High of Roanoke.

FRESHMAN WRESTLING

The Freshman wrestlers enjoyed only mediocre success this winter, winning but two matches out of five. The Tar Baby grapplers started out the season with a decisive 23-9 win over Davidson. They next took a close match with W. & L., as Shapiro pinned his opponent in the last contest for an 18-16 Carolina win. The V.M.I. freshmen defeated the Tar Babies 26-6, and the next week Carolina's only winner was Stockton against V.P.I. State won the last match of the season, 22-8.

The outstanding wrestlers on the squad appeared to be John Robinson, John Tillett, Bob Richards, and Sylvan Shapiro.

FRESHMAN SWIMMING

The 1941 freshman swimming team had a very successful season this winter in winning all of its meets and establishing numerous new records.

Coach Ralph Casey's squad took wins over such prominent prep school teams as Staunton Military Academy, and defeated all the freshmen and high school talent in the state.

Denmand Hammond established several local and national records in the backstroke, and Jack Eshelman turned in consistently fast performances in the freestyle sprints. Ed Shumate was outstanding in the sprints and the breaststroke. These three won the National Junior 150 yard medley relay.

Third Row: MANAGERS CAMPBELL, BLADES, COHN, MASTEN, AND SILVERMAN.

FRESHMAN TRACK

The yearling track team showed that it possessed some potential varsity material by breaking even in two dual meets and winning the Junior AAU meet by a wide margin. The Tar Babies beat Duke, 64-62, lost to Navy 90 1/3 to 26 2/3, and breezed into the AAU title with 66 2/3 points, almost double their nearest competitor.

Outstanding in this meet were Mike Mangum and Joe Taylor, who each won two first places, and Vernon Drewry. Going into the last event against Duke, Carolina needed a second place, worth three points, to win, and Mike Mangum came through with the needed points. Drewry and Mangum gained the only first places against Navy, as the Plebes dominated in every event.

FRESHMAN TENNIS

The freshman tennis team extended the record of Carolina's first year racqueteers, who have not lost a match in about a decade, by completely overwhelming every opponent last spring. Among the losing teams, who did not win a single point all season, were college freshman teams and several prominent northern prep school squads.

None of the players were extremely outstanding, but playing consistently on the first six were Manchester, Evenson, Wadden, Markham, Hendrix, and Hobbs. Also given a chance to make good some day on the varsity were Salzberg, Marks, Tuttle, Witkin, Cohen, and Antolini.

FRESHMAN BOXING

Coach Dan Desich's freshman boxing team had a limited but rigorous 1941 season. The three meets scheduled were packed full of competition and the freshmen had ample opportunity to show their abilities.

The first meet with V.P.I. resulted in a disheartening 4-3 loss. Through a technicality Thompson's fight at 120 and Sherman's at 145 were drawn in the first round. At 127 White decisioned Wisnan, and Tech's Wingfield crowded Boyle to win the 135 class. James drew Spital in the 165, and Palmer drew Diggs at 175. At heavyweight, Harding won over Bell.

Carolina outpointed Virginia 5 1/2 to 2 1/2. Thompson decisioned Stevens at 120, and at 127 White won over McIver. Sherman drew Brooks at 145. Brown decisioned Semler, 155. James outboxed Camblos, 165, as did Palmer against McNeal at 175. Heavyweight Parker lost a good fight to Parlow.

The third match, scheduled to be with the strong Staunton Military Academy, was not held.

The officers of the Women's Athletic Association are: Marjorie Johnston, President; Ann Williams, Vice-President; Jean Lindsay, Secretary; Caroline Dalton, Treasurer; and Mrs. J. B. Beard, Advisor.

During the past school year the Women's Athletic Association has greatly expanded its activities in its effort to give the Carolina Co-ed a healthy, well-rounded program.

During Orientation week a "Truth and Consequences" party for the new coeds was sponsored, as an introduction to the WAA and its place in the Carolina girl's life.

Seated: DALTON, WILLIAMS, PRES. JOHNSTON, LINDSAY, MRS. BEARD.
Standing: MEBANE, RUARK, JACKSON, MOORE, MRS. MCINTOSH, KELLY, BREAZEALE, STEINBACH, STEELE, GIBSON, NEE.

HIGH DIVERS WHO CLIMBED DOWN

The fall quarter was especially active with tennis, archery, swimming, hockey, dancing, golf, and fencing ranking high in popularity. During this quarter there were several "play nights" in the Tin Can, as well as a swimming party with the varsity team. These mixed parties proved so popular that they were continued with the cooperation of the Monogram Club throughout the winter and spring quarters.

In the winter the Red and Blue Leagues participated in a basketball tournament, and enjoyed fencing. During the spring the Co-eds held tournaments in softball, tennis, and badminton, besides playing golf, swimming, and archery.

In mid-April the WAA played host to the three-day State Conference of the Athletic Federation of College Women here on the campus. At the end of each quarter banquets were given in honor of All Carolina Co-ed teams and individual awards.

MAY DAY at the

Carolina's coeds ruled the campus the day when Louise Hudson was crowned queen of May amid her court of fifteen coed beauties in a Mexican fete held in the arboretum.

Gracing the scene were the queen's court chosen by the women students as their most beautiful coeds. Bobbie Winton was the queen's maid of honor and Melville Corbett and Bobbie Burroughs served as the princesses of the court. Jeanne Herrman, Janice Cobb, Helen Ann Jacobs, Susan Fountain, Ruth Curtis Robeson, and Barbara Liscomb served as the senior court; and Jane Putnam, Marjorie Johnston, Elinor Mayer, Rose Wintner, Frances Buchalew, and Alice Murdock made up the junior and graduate court.

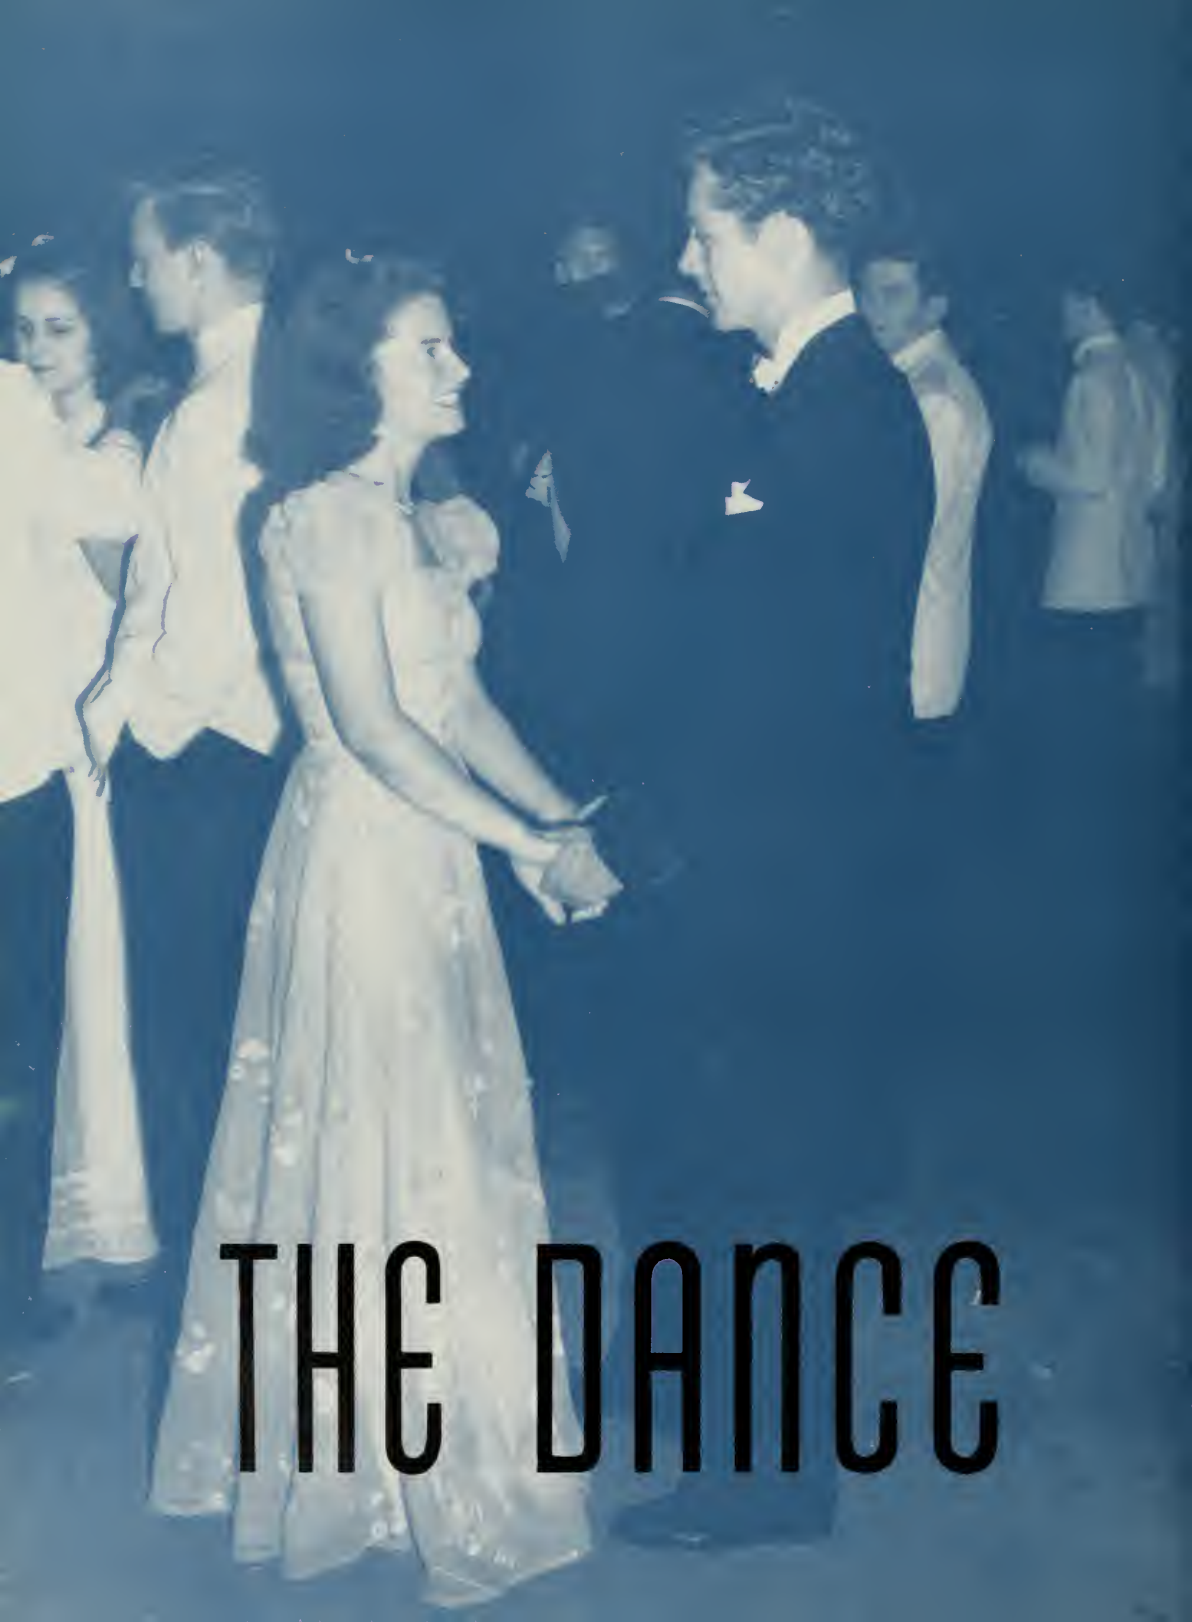

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Continuing the custom of an annual pageant presented by the women students for the entire university, the coeds presented a musical fiesta, "Mexicana", written by Sanford Stein with a musical score by Jack Page and Jim Byrd.

The fiesta was sponsored by Alpha Kappa Gamma, now Valkeries, honorary women's organization which has directed the program for the last four years.

Only once a year do the coeds come out whole-heartedly for the purpose of display of their beauty and the entertainment of the campus, but when they do shine—they really shine.

THE DANCE

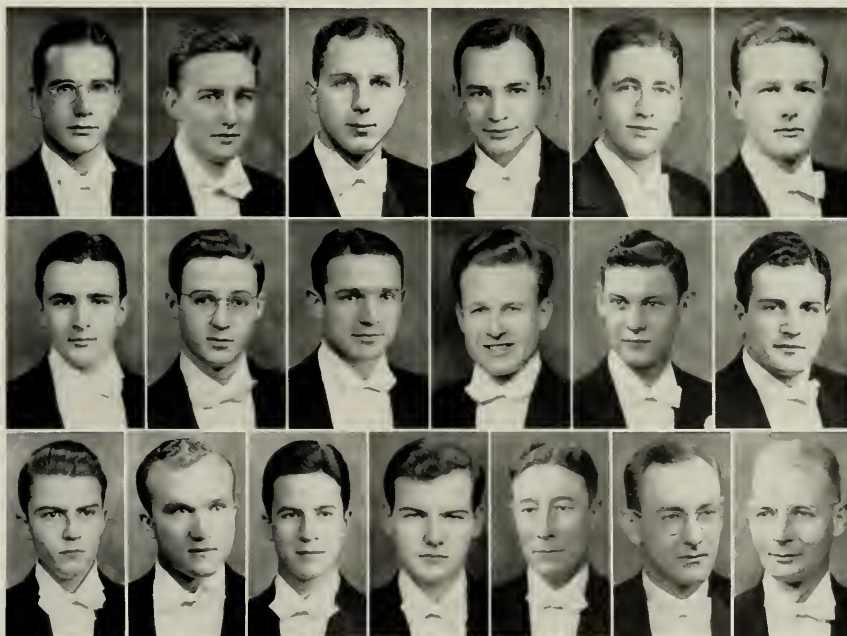

UNIVERSITY DANCE COMMITTEE

In 1925 dances at the University were suspended by the Executive Committee of the Faculty because of their rough character. Several members of the faculty, seeing the injustice of this, sought to inaugurate some method of continuing dances. As a result of their efforts a dance committee was formed, composed of fifteen students and three faculty members. Dr. W. S. Bernard was asked by President Chase to head this committee. In order to accept this position, which he deemed a high honor, Dr. Bernard resigned from the Executive Committee of the Faculty. President Chase thus granted the University Dance Committee its charter with the provisions that the Executive Committee of the Faculty and the Student Council should have no jurisdiction over it.

The main object of this committee was, and is, to maintain order at all University dances and see that they are conducted on the highest possible level.

At present the committee consists of sixteen students and three faculty members. Those student members are George Coxhead, Edmund Erickson, Leon Galloway, Sam Gambill, James Garland, I. B. Grainger, Henry Greene, Thomas Heath, Charlie Idol, Red Meehan, Bob Rose, Sid Sadoff, Sam Teague, Jack Towell, Joe Welborn, and Tom Wright. The members of the faculty committee on dances are Dr. E. L. Mackie, Chairman; Dr. H. K. Russell, and Herman Schnell.

Today the University Dance Committee is one of the most representative organizations on the campus as well as one of the most successful. Its members are elected by the various organizations to represent them on the committee.

GERMAN CLUB

GRAINGER

The German Club is the organization responsible for the three main dance sets of the year—Fall Germans, Mid-Winters, and Finals. Having undergone a reorganization this last year, the Club was able to select better bands for better dances and not fear going into the red. The new officers every year are installed at the last dance of Finals with due ceremony.

This year the Club should be commended on the fine week-ends for which they are responsible. For Fall Germans we tripped the light fantastic to melodies of Bob Chester at Homecoming. The drab winter quarter was brightened up with an influx of imports and coeds to participate in the Mid-Winter dances. Jack Teagarden rendered harmonious inspiration to the gala occasion. As every Finals is dear to the heart of every parting senior, the German Club does its part in making our exit a glorious one.

For this year the officers of the German Club were: I. B. Grainger, President; James Garland, Vice-President; Frank Robinson, Secretary; John Diffendal, Treasurer, and Tom Wright, Chairman of the Executive Committee.

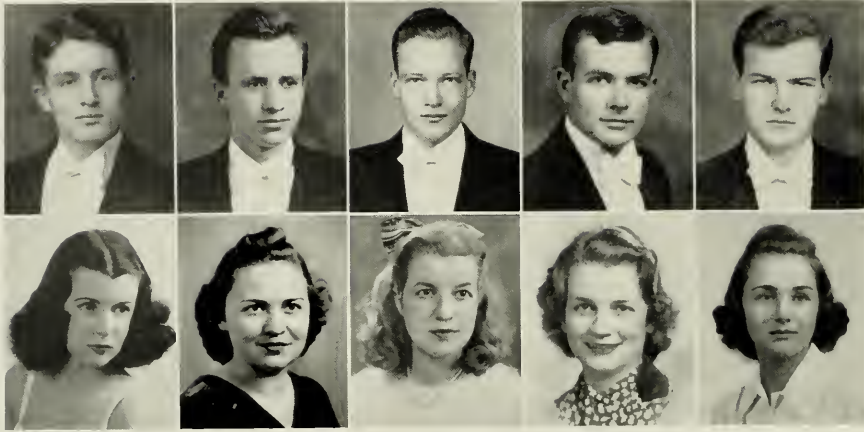

The members of the Executive Committee are Bill Dees, Clark Bartlett, Britton Beasley, Henry Gross, Bill Vogler, and Tom Long.

MIDWINTERS

Midwinters in the icy air of the Tin Can have become as much a part of the Carolina Tradition as Rameses and the Old Well; this year was certainly no exception. But, as usual, the attractive pride of the South came to Chapel Hill in furs and sleeved evening gowns to enjoy a whirling week-end with Jack Teagarden and the man of their choice.

In the Friday night figure the leaders were: Henry Burgwyn with Miss Margaret Burgwyn; Billy Peete with Miss Laura Ellis; Emmett Barnes with Miss Claire McKenzie; Billy Webb with Miss Bobbie Williams; Holstein Harvey with Miss Dagmar Cooke; Ike Wright with Miss Betty Winborne; Emmett Sebrell with Miss Millie Brenizer; Wade Reynolds with Miss Helen McGhee; Charlie Tucker with Miss Betsy Rodwell; Bill Looke with Miss Deedee Murray.

Those participating Saturday night were: Ike Grainger with Miss Martha Anne Speight; Thomas H. Wright, Jr., with Miss Louise Bennett; James Garland with Miss Ruth Applewhite; Frank Robinson with Miss Frances Ravenel; Bill Dees with Miss Marjorie Johnston, Bill Davenport with Miss Helen Byrd Harris; Britt Beasley with Miss Emily Smith; Clark Bartlett with Miss Fairfax Bates; and William Hines with Miss Margaret Taylor.

MAY FROLICS

May Frolics in May is an unheard of thing—but this year “we done it.” On the first week-end in May Tommy Dorsey returned to Chapel Hill to play for Carolina’s favorite set of dances. All the customary breakfasts, beer parties, champagne dinners, and open houses were held with all the customary frolic-icking. Hats off to the committee of Larry Ferling, Tom Hackney, Sam Means, Bill Bruner, Sonny Lambeth, Billy Hand, and Joseph Jenrette, and all those beautiful gals again making May Frolics one of the better dance sets of the year.

FINALS

Finals — when the old order changeth, yielding place to the new. The traditional German Club figure and sash ceremony marked the induction of new officers. More important to every senior however, was the fact that he was dancing the last set as a Carolina student. No tear-jerker, the dance did serve, however as a bon voyage to many a student.

The old order with their escorts were Godfrey Cheshire with Miss Winifred Vass, Stuart Ficklen with Miss Louise Dibrell, Louis Sutton with Miss Sarah Sutton, Lynch

Murphy with Miss Helen Redfern, Warren Smith with Miss Bette Orr, Tom Wright with Miss Louise Bennett, Jimmie Ross with Miss Mary Power Frazier, Sam McPherson with Miss Helen McDuffie, and Julian Coghill, Charles Diffendal, and Dave Morrison.

The incoming German Club leaders were Ike Grainger with Miss Margaret Taylor, James Garland with Miss Caroline Miller, Henry Gross with Miss Ellen Lambeth, George Millaway with Miss Gerry White, Bill Bogler with Miss Frances Manning, Tom Long with Miss Margaret Johnson, Bill Dees with Miss Ozella Woodward, Bill Davenport with Miss Helen Harris, and Clark Bartlett and Britton Beasley.

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE COMMITTEES

Climaxing a week of Senior hilarity, the Juniors joined forces with the Seniors and put over a highly successful Junior-Senior Week-end. Tony Pastor and his boys were on the band stand surrounded by the usual crowd of swing fans and footsore lotharios. Many a Senior drank to the dregs his last formal dance before final examinations and long after the band had packed and gone, groups lingered around the hat check booth talking of the good times they had.

The elected leaders for both the Junior and Senior class were Bill Alexander, Charles Barrett, Robert Lee Bobbitt, Ottway Burton, Hugh Byrd, Elwood Dunn, Bill Faircloth, George Foote, Herbert Hardy, Luther Hodges, Robert Hutchison, John Jordan, John McCormick, Ed McGoogan, Aubrey Moore, Stewart Shaw Richardson, Remus Turner, and Allen Wills.

INTERDORMITORY DANCES

Interdorms this year were probably the best ever held at Carolina. An unusually large bevy of beauties descended on Chapel Hill to trip the light fantastic with Jimmy Lunsford patting out the rhythm. Rounding out the week-end program was an open house held by Graham Memorial and several parties given by fraternities for the dormitories.

Those participating in the figure were Miss Janice Cobb with Edward Taylor, Ellen Wimberly with Bill Wall, Margaret Merrill with Pick Hamlin, Katherin Traynham with George Hayes, Catherine Gray with Buck Timberlake, Jo Baker with Sam Gambill, Blanche Burrus with Ben Tillet, Jane Legrant with Frank Reynolds, and Elsie Harrison with Elwood Dunn.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

The social season of the Spring Quarter was ushered in by the annual Sophomore week-end. As typical it rained. The rain and orchestra mix-up, however, did not dampen the spirits at the crowded dances. The set was held in Woollen gym on the week-end of April 4th and 5th which was begun by a tea dance on the Friday afternoon which was followed Friday night by a formal dance. The music was furnished by Freddie Johnson and his band.

Saturday night the Grail gave the dance honoring the Sophomores and their dates. Enoch Lite rendered the harmony for the occasion.

FRESHMAN DANCES

Competing with the characteristic week-end drizzle, Dean Hudson and his Florida Clubmen started off the freshman dance set with a concert open to the campus. The week-end as a whole was composed of the usual concert, Friday night dance, Saturday afternoon tea dance and night dance. The Saturday night dance was jointly sponsored by the Grail and Freshman class.

Those who strolled nonchalantly through the figure were Miss Norris Snow with E. K. Powe, Miss Frances Clark with Hanson Hall, Miss Estelle Darrow with Mike Carr, and Miss Anne Sheridan with Fred Sheridan.

Committee chairmen and members of the dance committee who took part in the festivities were Miss Dot Brogden with Charlie Harris, Miss Mary Alice King with Joe Ferguson, Miss Mary Anne Wynne with Stuart Campbell, Miss Janet Browning with Bob Cowan, Miss Tay Muller with Dewey Dorsett, Miss Ann Mills with Hugh Cox, Miss Sebie Midgett with Bobby Stockton, and Miss Gloria Boney with Jim Pritchett.

FINIS

With this, we put a finis on the 1941 YACKETY YACK. You will find that in some ways it is only another routine annual. We hope, although, that you will find enough individuality in the book to mean more than just another edition.

Believing in giving credit where credit is due, we feel that we should give recognition to some of those who have contributed to whatever success this book will have. Publishing a yearbook, even though it only comes out once a year, is no easy job and requires concentrated work the entire school year.

Of course the most indispensable group is the staff itself without whose help, oftentimes unrewarded, the YACKETY YACK would never become a reality. We would like to particularly mention a few names whose services have been most valuable as John Thorp, Charlie Tillett, Billy Peete, G. I. Kimball, Hugh Morton, Dave Reid, Louis Stephens, Babnson Gray, and Frances Gibson. We could mention other names which would include not only the section heads but also the underclassmen staff members.

The 1941 YACKETY YACK would also like to express its deep appreciation to Raymond Bailey and Buck Shelton of the Charlotte Engraving Company along with Mr. Frank Fleming of the Lassiter Press and the whole staff of Wootten-Moulton. Their cooperation has been more than we could ask for and their services have meant much to the success of the book.

We would like to mention Fred Weaver for his fine dedication to Horace Williams and Sam Hood of Raleigh for the last pictures taken of Mr. Williams.

We hope you like the book. We hope that it will mean something to you as you leave Chapel Hill, some for the last time. We hope that this book can serve to help perpetuate those things which Horace Williams and the University of North Carolina are. We hope that in future years you will not just have a tie that recalls a few memories of college, but also that you will have a publication through which a way of life at the University of North Carolina can again become a reality.
