GET DR. WAUGH'S.
The day was young and not far spent,
As through the busy streets they went
A youth (as yet unknown to fame),
Dearing aloft the well-known name—
"DR. WAUGH'S!"
His eyes were bright, his form upright;
He held his banner to the light;
His banner there, to advertise
The Powder famed for Cakes and Pie—
"DR. WAUGH'S!"
Nor now, nor then, were seen about,
As loudly they did shout the word
"If Baking Powder you would choose,
And not know which the best to use,
GET DR. WAUGH'S!"
"Oh stay!" a maiden said, "Oh stay!
And tell me, when I cook to-day,
What Baking Powder shall I try?"
The youth he answered with a cry—
"GET DR. WAUGH'S!"
"Listen, friend," an old man said,
"My wife she does not make good bread,
The 'may powder' she doth use."
The youth said,—"Prepared had you chosen
The youth repeats with his 'good night'—
"GET DR. WAUGH'S!"
Then for a last good bye he said,
"When using Powder for your bread,
I hope you will take my advice,
For DR. WAUGH'S makes all things nice."
"GET DR. WAUGH'S!"
ALWAYS THE PUREST AND BEST.
