May Lead to Bloodshed

Italian Consul at New York Asked to Refrain From Employing Spies.

Letter Addressed to Giovanni Branchi By Committee of Anarchists.

(Associated Press.)

New York, June 20.—The Italian consul, Giovanni Branchi, has received the following letter from a committee of English-speaking anarchists, who held a meeting on Tuesday afternoon in the home of an uptown physician.

"To the Italian Consul: Knowing the temper of the Paterson courages, we, the English-speaking anarchists of New York and vicinity, would earnestly request you to desist from employing spies any further. We fear that if persisted in this may lead to bloodshed, which we deplore. The Committee, New York, June 18th."

Tuesday's meeting was attended by leading members of the anarchist group in Philadelphia, Providence and Boston. Four of the nine men at the meeting are physicians. The meeting was called because of threats made at a meeting of Paterson anarchists held on Monday night. It was decided to send a letter to the consul-general. The English-speaking anarchists had made an arrangement with the anarchists in Paterson by which the latter were to commit no act of violence for several days. When that period has elapsed it will be known whether the Italian consul has decided to abandon the system which it is said, has been in Paterson since Breese assassinated King Humbert.

When the Italian consul was seen at his office, he said: "It is anonymous. Nobody pays attention to anonymous letters." He declined to give any interview.

When asked if he feared any violence he laughed, but said nothing.

COLD WEATHER.

Wheat Crop in France Has Been Ruined—English Farmers Also Suffer.

(Associated Press.)

London, June 20.—June, which began in western and southern Europe with premature August-like heat, has become in the past week abnormally cold. Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria and Italy alike have suffered. Some nights have been frosty. The thermometer at Greenwich on Tuesday registered 28 degrees. There were similar temperatures in parts of France and Italy, while snow was common in Austria and Hungary. The weather has had the worst effect on the crops everywhere. It is stated that the wheat crop in France has been ruined. The almost unbroken drought in England during the month has destroyed the hay crop and seriously checked other crops. The temperature rose slightly on Wednesday, and there was some rain.

Mr. Turner's Opinion

Several Matters Which Should Remain Under Direction of Dominion Government.

(Special to the Times.)

Vancouver, June 20.—Robert Bruce McSwane, son of a justice of peace, and a prominent citizen of Chilliwack, was killed in a peculiar accident yesterday afternoon. A large crowd had turned out to witness horse races, young McSwane being one of the riders. He mounted in a trial heat and the horse bolted. The horse ran along in front of the crowd and collided with a tree; the young rider being killed instantly from a fracture of the skull.

Finance Minister Turner left this afternoon for Toronto. Discussing the question of salmon fisheries control this morning, Mr. Turner said he had not been strongly in favor of provincial control, and as a member did not agree with it altogether. The latest telegrams received by the government at Victoria from Ottawa were that the Dominion would this year collect all revenue and then give the province its proportion, the matter in later years being settled by treaty made in the courts or by arbitration. In any event, if provincial control were arranged, he considered the Dominion should exercise the right of making regulations as to the size of the mesh of nets and other matters which did not come under provincial control properly, in any event.

TRIAL OF EARL RUSSELL.

(Associated Press.)

New York, June 20.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: "The lawyers who have looked up the Carrigan case assert that the prosecuting authorities will not find it easy to convict Earl Russell or bigamy. If he is indicted by the grand jury and tried by the House of Lords the prosecuting authorities have the delicate business of arranging the indictment of Earl Russell under terms which will permit them to provide precise evidence respecting his divorce and marriage in Nevada without the risk of variance when Peers are judges and juries. The Nevada records show how delicate the establishment of identity will be."

FIRE IN SADDLERY.

(Associated Press.)

St. Louis, Mo., June 20.—A fire which originated in the establishment of the J. B. Squires Saddlery Co. early this morning consumed the property and stock, valued at almost $200,000. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Very Slim Attendance

Only Two Labor Leaders at Meeting of Strikers in Toronto Last Night.

(Associated Press.)

Toronto, June 20.—The fact that although the leading labor men in Toronto were invited to the striking trackmen's meeting last night, only two, Messrs. Armstrong and Sanderson, attended, and that Armstrong attacked the strike on the grounds that it was illegal and contrary to the principles of Trades Unionism for men employed by the C. P. R. to strike, seeing that the C. P. R. has all along been paying its trackmen higher wages than the Grand Trunk and Intercolonial, is much commented on by strikers this morning. Mr. Wilson, head of the trackmen's order, evidently expected a big turnout of labor leaders, and it is believed that his sudden departure for the east at 10 o'clock last night was due to disappointment.

The Globe has been suggesting that the strike should be settled by arbitration of the labor bureau at Ottawa.

The Mail and Empire this morning has an editorial on the subject, in which it approves the withdrawal of the grievance committee of the strikers that the C. P. R. has all along been paying higher wages than any other Canadian road, that is to say, than the Grand Trunk or Intercolonial, and says that this being the case the Dominion government, which owns and operates the Intercolonial, is scarcely in a position to act as arbitrator on a demand that still higher wages should be paid by the C. P. R.

Message From Calgary.

Calgary, N. W. T., June 20.—The striking C. P. R. section men here have sent a message to the grievance committee at Montreal to accept the company's terms. The feeling is that the company has acted fairly with the men and that opportunity should now be given to let the advanced and new conditions conceded by the company become effective.

Letter From the President.

Montreal, June 19.—The following letter has been issued by President Shaughnessy, of the C. P. R.:

Montreal, 18th June, 1901.

Men in Maintenance of Way Department, Who Are at Work, or Who Have Suspended Work:

I have seen the circular issued by the operating officers to the trackmen this afternoon, and therefore feel it a duty to urge the men, many of whom have been in the company's service for several years, to consider the situation carefully before finally abandoning their occupation. The committee have interviewed with me at which I heard and gave the greatest attention to everything advanced in the interests of their fellow workmen. Had there been the slightest margin for concessions beyond those already made by the company's officers, I should not have been compelled to reach a neuter stage. Men charged with the administration of the company's affairs are justified in according to employees the highest pay prevailing on neighboring railways, and the greatest consideration in other respects, that the circumstances will permit. If they go beyond this they are open to the accusation of incompetency or extravagance. The company has no quarrel with the men in the maintenance of way department. There is no desire to show resentment because of what has occurred. On the contrary, it is hoped that, having given the committee all promised support, every man will return to his work promptly so as to obtain the advantage of the concessions, representing a very large amount of money, that the company feel justified in making, and to give to the company and its officers the same loyal service and support that has characterized every branch of the service from the beginning. In dealing with your committee, the company was not governed by petty or selfish considerations. From the time the discussion commenced the only question was as to what should properly be done in the direction of meeting you, and as soon as this was determined it was put into effect immediately. The moderators and good sense that you have displayed on nearly every section of the system since the trouble commenced yesterday morning bears testimony to your work as employees, and makes the company the more anxious to return your services if at all possible. Apart from a judicial consideration, I would be sincerely sorry if any of the old employees should leave us to accept other service without the certainty of improving their position.

(Signed) T. G. SHAUGHNESSY,
President.

Caught After Many Days

Another Oriental Was Charged With Attempted Chicken Stealing.

A rather convincing illustration of an unrelenting Nemesis and the inevitable apprehension of the erring was brought to light in the police court this morning. Ah Lee was charged with the theft of two pairs of rubbers from Sam Reid and thereby hangs—not a queue—but a tale.

Eight or nine months ago this product of the East was apprehended by Special Constable Johnson. The guardian of the peace was bringing his prize to the lockup when the prisoner suddenly, with a celerity only equalled by his deftness, twisted himself free from his coat and flew toward Chinatown, leaving the garment in the constable's hands. The latter pursued, but the proverbial nimble in the haystack is more easily found than a fugitive in Chinatown, so for a time the bland Celestial triumphed.

Nemesis was after him, however. Ah Lee imagined that his little escapade had been forgotten by the officers of the law, and his confidence was so great that he walked about the streets with his bequeathed top-piece as high in the air as any other Chinaman's. But yesterday he received a shock. He met Mr. Johnson face to face, and before he had time to fly the constable pounced upon him. This morning he was charged with the offence committed many months ago, and was remanded until to-morrow. It is understood that the case against him is a good one.

Another culprit this morning was Mary, a Pure Robert Klonowka. Mary had been indulging—a fact that was indisputable—and she had to pay the penalty. She was fined $7.50 and $1 (costs or 15 days' imprisonment. This is not Mary's first experience in police court circles, and she met her punishment with a stolidness, becomingly characteristic of a race. Louise, a half breed, was troubled with the same weakness. This being her first offence she was only fined $2.50.

Charles, a Chinaman, was charged with being on private premises for unlawful purposes. Last night shortly after midnight a rather unique procession found its way to the police station. The van-guard consisted of a Chinaman in bare feet with short trousers, and the rear guard firmly grasping the Celestial by the groin was an Assyrian clad in lurid mementoes and a cap. The grotesque embellishments being crowned by a Turkish fez. The Chinaman was charged with having entered the Assyrian's chicken house to steal chickens.

The men, whose names is Paohy, had been mixing chi-kens for several nights past and suspecting some Chinese in the vicinity prepared for them. Last night he heard a noise in the chicken-house and caught the Celestial in the act. The latter struggled to escape, but unsuccessfully, and he was driven to the station in the above manner. The case was remanded until to-morrow.

The case of Chang, charged with spouting water from his mouth in contravention of the Wash House By-Law, was also called. The accused, not appearing, a warrant was issued for his arrest.

David Gowley was fined $10 or 30 days for ill-treating his horse. The case was conducted by the S. P. C. A. through President Dailain and their counsel, Lindley Creese. Several witnesses were examined, who gave evidence regarding the affair, the details of which have already been published.

Trackmen's Strike

President Wilson Appeals to the Men to Stand by Him—No Developments.

Montreal, June 19.—No important developments took place to-day in connection with the strike on the C. P. R. President Wilson left for Toronto this morning to attend a mass meeting called to meet there this evening.

Mr. McNeill, the general manager of the C. P. R., states that several track foremen throughout the system have returned to work and have taken their men with them. The strike committee, on the other hand, state that men are not returning, but all reiterate their determination to remain out until their demands are granted.

Meeting at Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., June 19.—A meeting of striking trackmen was addressed in Forum hall, Yonge street, to-night, by J. T. Wilson, of St. Louis, Mo., head of the order, of whom were 75 persons present, all strikers.

Mr. Wilson spoke for over an hour and left for Montreal at 10 p. m. He read messages showing the number of men who were out at different points along the C. P. R., together with the correspondence that passed between the committee and Mr. Shughnessy. He also gave an account of the progress of the trackmen's strike on the Maine coast. He appealed earnestly to the strikers to stand by him, and not go back to work. He admitted that the C. P. R. had paid and was paying its trackmen higher wages than the Grand Trunk or Intercolonial, but said it had nothing to do with the question, and that the C. P. R. should be compelled to advance the rate still further to $1.50 per day, to every laborer they employed.

Mr. Sanderson, of the Loughborough Union, who followed, urged the men to stand together. Mr. Armstrong, a former president of the Typographical Union of the United States and Canada, pointed out in strong terms that the public mind was prejudiced against the strike by the fact that the C. P. R. was actually treating its men better in regard to wages than the Grand Trunk and the Dominion government railway system. If, he said, a builder in Toronto paid his men 25 or 30 per cent. more wages than other builders, it would be very difficult indeed to make people understand why his men should go on strike while the men employed by those who paid lower rates remained at work. He did not wish to discourage the strikers, but warned them that this feature of the case would require a good deal of explaining.

Victoria Dispatches and Statements.

Winnipeg, June 19.—General Superintendent Leonard of the C. P. R. was interviewed this morning in regard to any new developments in the C. P. R. trackmen's strike. He stated that he had received reports from Superintendents Milstone and Niblock, who informed him that their men were still at work and had made no move to go out.

"There are no men out west of Brandon," said Mr. Leonard, "or north of Portage la Prairie. There are 165 gangs in Superintendent James's division only 36 men out. These men can have until to-morrow to reconsider their intention of striking and will be taken back. If they do not, I have no doubt but that I can fill their places. The section foremen on the C. P. R. are getting now more money than on any of the other roads and should not have any grounds for complaint. I have received notices that no men west of Toronto are out."

Situation in Maine.

Brownville, Me., June 19.—Some of the trackmen who went on strike on the Maine Central railroad, and whose places have been filled by that company, are endeavoring to get employment from the C. P. R. on its line through Maine. The C. P. R. has given its men until to-day to return to work before replacing them with others, and many of the men are taking advantage of the opportunity. General Manager Evans, of the Maine Central railroad, says that the trackmen's strike on that road is a thing of the past. The last opportunity was given several days ago to the men to return to work, and nearly all the places are filled now.

THREE MEN LYNCHED.

LaGrange, N. C., June 19.—D. B. Jones, the negro preacher, who is alleged to have attempted to assault Mrs. Noah Davis near LaGrange yesterday, was taken from the guard here last night, and lynched.

In Spite of Denials.

Shreveport, La., June 19.—Frank, better known as "Prophet" Smith, and F. C. McClure, held at Benton for complicity in the Foster murder, were hanged by a mob to-night. The lynching occurred on the Arkansas road about 13 miles from the jail. Both made statements before death, denying that they had anything to do with the killing.

POLICE ON DUTY.

Authorities Had Difficulty in Keeping Order at a Pro-Boer Meeting.

London, June 19.—Thousands of people began collecting outside of Queen's hall two hours before the advertised time of the pro-Boer meeting held there to-night. When the doors were finally opened the pressure of the surging mob was so great that many people fainted. In spite of the vigilance of the promoters of the meeting, many jingoists gained an entrance to the hall. Mr. Henry Labouchere presided.

During the meeting fully ten thousand jingoists who were outside Queen's hall, blocked traffic and necessitated re-plays of police to keep order. Several men mounted the parapet of the Langham hotel, and waving Union Jacks, proposed resolutions against the pro-Boer agitation, which they declared would be adopted, unless the meeting in Queen's hall terminated. The usual speeches were made, and the usual resolutions were carried amid much commotion and excitement.

The resolutions included an amendment in favor of the complete independence of the Boer republics, and the banishment of the Radicals, which did not meet with the approval of the Labouchere party. The meeting ended with the singing of the Marseillais. Several collisions occurred between the crowd outside the hall and the police and in the street. The general difficulty in handling the assemblage. No casualties were reported.

RIOTERS KILLED.

Two Persons Dead and Twenty Wounded As Result of Cavalry Charge.

Rio de Janeiro, June 19.—Great indignation and excitement have been aroused here by the charging of increased fare on the San Christoval street railway. Some cars were burned by rioters Monday night, and on Tuesday further violence was fomented by the disgruntled elements of the population. The police and cavalry charged at Ovarra in the business district, killing four persons and wounding twenty.

The disturbances continued to-day, and several persons were wounded, but the excitement is abating as the dispatch is sent. There is no political significance in the rioting.

CANADIAN BUILDING.

At the Pan-American Exposition to be Formally Opened on Dominion Day.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 19.—It has been decided to formally open the Canadian building at the Pan-American grounds on Dominion Day, July 1st. Prominent men from Canada and Canada residing in the United States will be invited to speak and participate in the ceremonies in other ways. The very large Canadian population of this city will be well represented. Plans for an elaborate display of fireworks are being formulated. The attendance is expected to be the largest since the opening of the exposition.

COMMUTING PUNISHMENT.

St. Petersburg, June 19.—Prof. Ott's bulletin says the condition of the Emperor and his child is entirely satisfactory.

The czar has signalled the birth of his daughter by issuing a decree commencing punishment of the riotous students. Some of them are exempted from further military service and others are credited with their period of punishment as part of their regular military service.

Mrs. Jas. Lafferty, aged about 70, was struck by a G. T. R. engine at Guelph yesterday and instantly killed.

How many mothers realize that when the baby's advent is expected, they need strength for vigorous action? Women are weak, just as able to drag around, and themselves confronted with coming maternity. They have no strength enough for themselves, how can they have strength to give a child? We don't look for the birth of strong children from weak mothers. Why should we expect the birth of strong children from weak mothers?

The way to ensure health and strength to mother and child is to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as a preparative for motherhood. It brings the mother's strength up to the requirements of nature, so that she has strength to give her child. It nourishes the nerves and quiets them. It encourages a natural appetite and induces refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I wish to let you know the great benefit my wife derived through taking your 'Favorite Prescription,' writes Mr. Robert Harden, of Brandon, Manitoba, Box 28. 'It was when her baby came. We had heard so much of your medicine that my wife decided to try it. I may say my wife's age was thirty-three and this was her first child. She commenced to take 'Favorite Prescription' five months before her child was born. We have a healthy girl, and we believe that this was mainly owing to the 'Favorite Prescription' taken according to directions. We shall certainly recommend it wherever we can.'"

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 3¢ one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Peace of Europe

Emperor William Says It Is Assured For Long Years to Come.

Interesting Speech By the Kaiser In Which He Poses As A Prophet.

Cuxhaven, June 19.—At the conclusion of the regatta held yesterday on the Lower Elbe, a dinner was given on board the Hamburg-American yacht Victoria Louise, at which Emperor William made a speech. His Majesty told his hearers that he deduced from recent events in China the guarantee that peace of Europe was assured for long years to come. Because of the mutual esteem and spirit of comradeship created by the united action of the allied contingents. His Majesty, in reply to the burgomaster's toast, said:

"I express to all of you, comrades on the water, my delight that it has been granted to me once more to participate with you in the regatta of the North German regatta club. The burgomaster, in his brief, pithy speech, has given us a picture of the progress made by our Fatherland in the domain of aquatic sports."

"My whole task in the future will be to assure that such a low-sown shall spring up in peace and security. Notwithstanding the fact that we as yet have not a navy such as we should have, we have won for ourselves a place in the sunshine, and it will now be my task to take care this place remains in our undisputed possession so that the our undivided and unshaken influence over our trade and intercourse abroad and industry and agriculture at home, and also on the yachting on our waters, for our future lies on the water. The more Germans go on the water, the better it is for us. It is only a matter of time before we shall cross the river in yacht races or on motor boats. Our navy flag, the better it is for us, for once the German has learned to keep an eye on the far horizon the perils surrounding him in his daily life disappear. If man wants to get his bread and higher view of the Hansa's tone. We have drawn our conclusions from what Emperor William the Great and the great man whose monument we have just unveiled, left us as their creation. Those conclusions consist in this: That we must be ready to meet the challenge of the Hanseatic world, because it lacks the power of the Empire. May it, therefore, now be the task of my house, in profound peace, to promote and protect trade and commerce for long years to come.

"I believe in the events of which (China has been the scene, and of which the present return of the troops marks the close, a guarantee that European peace is assured for long years to come, for the service performed by the individual contingents have called forth an appreciation, based on mutual esteem and comradeship, which can only continue to the satisfaction of all. Trust that profiting by this peace our Hansa towns will flourish and that our new Hansa will mark out a path for winning and retaining new trade outlets."

"As the supreme head of the Empire, I can only rejoice over every Hansa man who goes forth with fearless gaze, seeking new points where we can knock in nails on which to hang our armor."

Emperor William concluded with an eulogy of the director general of the Hamburg-American line, Herr Albert Ballin, who "had gone out as a bold adventurer to make a pearl of which whose fruits our grandchildren will reap."

CAPE MEN OF AFRICA.

Sir Henry Johnston Tells of His Recent Discoveries in Uganda.

London, June 17.—Sir Henry Johnston, special commissioner for the Uganda Protectorate, has returned to London after an absence of five years.

He brings stories of Uganda rivaling Henry M. Stanley's description of Dark Africa. Sir Henry relates that the country surrounding Mombasa is largely depopulated as a result of tribal wars, and is consequently marvelously stocked with big game that are as tame as English park deer. Zebras and antelopes can be approached to within ten yards, and there is no sport in killing them. Elephants and rhinoceros are abundant, according to Sir Henry. Lions in Uganda are too busy eating harebait to notice a passing caravan.

The prehistoric giraffe has been discovered in this country by the commissioner, who proposes to maintain the region referred to as a national park. He has discovered a new species of gorilla in the Congo forest, differing entirely from Stanley's gorillas, and secured phonograph records of their language and music. He says that twelve varieties of rubber trees are found in this country in inexhaustible supply.

CANADIAN NOTES.

Dr. Wm. Irving died at St. Mary's, Ont., yesterday, after a brief illness. He was a brother of T. G. Irving, Toronto, and brother-in-law of Rev. Dr. Fletcher Hamilton.

Norman Thompson, 15 years old, while out shooting ground hogs at Holland Landing, Ont., accidentally shot himself in the chest on Tuesday afternoon and died shortly afterwards.

According to the opinion of Miss Ravehill, of England, who was sent to the United States by the English educational department to investigate the system of teaching domestic science on this side of the water, and who is in Hamilton at present, England is about 100 or 15 years ahead of America in this connection.

William Hodgkinson, a well known trapper and farmer, residing near St. Catharines, ended his life by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun. He had taken off one shoe and torn a hole in the sock so that the great toe protruded. Then placing the muzzle of the gun in his mouth he put his toe on the trigger, shooting himself in the mouth and blowing off the top of his head. He leaves a widow, five sons and two daughters.

Water Is Being Steadily Drained Off the Valleys Without Any Rush.

Masons Propose to Erect Hall in Dawson—The Stewart River District.

(Special Correspondence of the Times). Dawson, Yukon, June 11.—This is emphatically a backward season, and there is plenty of snow to come down in water from the high hills yet, in spite of some pretty hot days at intervals. Perhaps it is better not to gamble, for had it been an early, warm spring, Dawson streets would almost certainly have been somewhat under the waters of the muddy Yukon. As it now is, the water is being drained off steadily from the valleys without any rush, and although the Yukon is nearly brimming full it has done no harm yet, while the high water has been good for steamboating. This was emphasized by the trip of the Ora up the Indian river, the first time such a thing has been attempted by any steamer.

Advice from Lake Laberge state that there is not much hope for an opening across the lake until about the tenth, or the latest of records. This lake will always be an impediment to heavy navigation of the Yukon or Lewis, until the railway line is completed past it and strikes the river below Thirty Mile river somewhere. A mail goes out on Monday, but it is probable that it will have to be transferred at Laberge to get horses or canoes to get it through to White Horse.

T. G. Wilson, the Victoria wholesale grocer, has a gang of men excavating for the foundations of his new brick warehouse on Third avenue. Its cost will be near $40,000 when completed, and it will put others here into the shade in that line. Mr. Wilson has secured a profitable business in his line in Dawson.

A mail arrived by canoe from up the river a couple of days ago, but the dates are back about the middle of April. Nothing very late is expected until the first through boats from White Horse. Only for the telegraph line to Lynn Canal, we would be six weeks behind the times. We are anxiously awaiting the connection of the Ashcroft and Atlin telegraph line, promised for July.

And gambling in Dawson, where the order would be extended or annulled. The last games played in public were played last night. Now the fraternity are preparing for parties new, or for new employment, as they realize that once the foremen of the wisewares who add the order would be extended or annulled. The last games played in public were played last night. Now the fraternity are preparing for parties new, or for new employment, as they realize that once the foremen of the wisewares who add the order would be extended or annulled.

The Alaska Exploration Co. and the Alaska Commercial Co. are no more since last night, but in their place rises the new Northern Commercial Co., with two branches at present in the stores of the two defunct companies. Captain Hanson counts on both the Northern Commercial Co. and the Northern Navigation Co. with its fleet of five river steamers.

With a rapidly swelling bank account, the newly formed office of F. W. Mason is now looking around for a suitable site to purchase the object of erecting a Masone hall thereon. A central site is favored, where the lower story could be rented for business purposes. Had the trip not been so long and the expense so great, a formal invitation would have been extended to the Grand Master of the Yukon Hotel to visit Dawson this summer. It is likely that such an invitation will be extended next season.

The Scotsmen, feeling that they are superior to the A. C. Co. of our team, against whom they pulled on the 24th May, issued a challenge to the latter for the first week of July for $2,000 a side. The A. C. Co. men declined the challenge, saying that as the company had ceased to be, the team was also going out of existence.

Some parties have come from far up the Stewart river, where they have been trapping and hunting. While not important, they say that the prospectors who are working there seem to be very well satisfied with their prospects. They also report that there is plenty of good quartz up that country, and think that they may develop some new mines upon that of place mining. Weldon C. Young is down from Clear Creek, where he is mining. He has nothing much to report as Clear is a summer proposition entirely, and this season will determine its value as a placer prospect. He is taking out a couple of men with a grizzly are taking out high wages on one of the Stewart river bars below the mouth of Clear creek. One of the mosquito fleet of steamers went up the river as far as Fraser Falls last week and has returned. She took up some prospectors and supplies.

Christopher Sockelson, one of the best known of the Yukon pioneers, died suddenly this week from heart disease, after an hour's illness. He was engaged in the packing and freighting business on the creeks, and had after extensive farm on Stewart river, which he was making a success. He was a Dane by birth, but has lived long in Yukon, also making some trips into the neighboring territory of Alaska. He leaves a widow and family, also a fortune estimated at about $50,000. The funeral was in charge of the Yukon Order of Pioneers.

No more cases of rabies among dogs have been reported for some time, as the stringent order to tie the animals up, and the destruction of a large number of vagrant animals soon brought the disease under control.

The Yukon Trust Co. has been successfully launched here, with B. B. Young, late of the Imperial Bank, Winnipeg, as manager. The new company has secured rooms at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and is in the field for business in its line.

A new road having been promised on Hunker creek, the survey for the route from the mouth of Bonanza is being prosecuted by the government engineer, in preparation for active work at an early date.

Miners' Unions. Dawson, June 2.—A number of government officials in various offices here are going out this month for a visit to the East, on business in some cases, and for their health in two or three instances. Most of these will return this fall.

Supt. Bates, of the C. D. Co. mail contract, leaves to-day to spend the summer at his old home in Peterboro, Ont. He will return in the autumn. At a meeting of miners held in Grand Forks on Saturday evening a labor union was formed, with officers, and a constitution will be adopted at an early date. HENRY J. WOODSIDE.

INCREASING CAPITAL.

London, June 19.—Vickers, Sons & Maxim inform the Associated Press that the increase in the firm's capital by a million pounds in ordinary shares has absolutely nothing to do with the American amalgamation. The measure is purely of internal finance, and was adopted necessary for the needs of the English company.

MONTHLY COAL REPORT.

The following is the report of the San Francisco coal market for the week ending June 15th, issued by J. W. Harrison, the coal and metal broker:

During the week there have been six arrivals of coal from Washington, 15,022 tons, two from Oregon, 1,940 tons, three from Australia, 11,559 tons, from Baltimore, 2,655 tons, total, 34,086 tons.

Most of our largest consumers have modified their machinery to enable them to utilize oil as fuel substitute for coal, yet it is barely perceptible that there is any diminution in the coal output. It may safely be estimated that 750,000 tons of coal will be displaced this year by the fuel oil production in California, and this amount will be increased to one million tons in 1902, provided low oil values prevail.

At the same time our colliery proprietors in Washington and British Columbia are finding sale for their entire output, which is unquestioned evidence that the fuel demand for steam energy mainly is increasing immensely.

FIRST NOME SHIPS.

Although beaten to Nome by the steamer Jeanie, the same vessel which was the first to penetrate the great ice fields of Behring Sea last year, the steamer Nome City has led all rival craft in the return to Seattle from that camp.

HAPPILY WEDDED.

Two Popular Young Victorians Were United in Matrimonial Bonds Last Evening - Very Pretty Event.

The services of Rev. Elliott S. Rowe were called into requisition last evening in the interests of one of those happy events which produce a halo around the month of June and make it stand out the most distinguished of the twelve.

The contracting parties were Mr. A. Huxtable, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Huxtable, and Miss Rose Mathew, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Mathew.

The principals stood under a flower bell in which were harmoniously blended carnations, roses and blossoms, and which was suspended from an arch of intertwined ivy and evergreens.

The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by Miss Ella Whitehead, while the bridegroom was supported by Mr. Geo. Harris.

They left this morning for the mainland, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will make their future home on Fernwood road.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVALS.

Three Entertainments of Same Nature Take Place at City Churches Last Evening.

Now that the strawberries have made their appearance the usual number of strawberry entertainments are being held. Last evening was perhaps an exception, but if the same record was kept up daily it is safe to say that the supply of strawberries on the market would hardly meet the demand.

Last night at least three entertainments at which strawberries and cream were dispensed with liberal hands were held in the city.

At the St. Andrew's Presbyterian church the occasion celebrated in this manner was the anniversary of the seventh year since the induction at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church of the Rev. W. Leslie Clay, P. A.

The entertainment was a decided success, the members turning out in large numbers to make the occasion as enjoyable as possible.

Piano selection, J. G. Burnett; song, Miss Miller; speech by Rev. Dr. Reid; song, Mrs. Burnett; violin selection, B. Bantley; speech by Rev. Alex. Fraser; song by Mr. J. G. Brown, and an address by Rev. Mr. Gray.

Perhaps the feature of the evening, however, which was hailed with the most enthusiasm, was the dispensing of strawberries and cream by the young ladies of the church.

It is safe to say that everyone who attended the social last evening in St. Andrew's church spent a thoroughly enjoyable time.

Another social of the same nature was given at the First Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of that church.

HANDWRITING TO-DAY.

In the business world we are no longer entirely dependent upon penmanship. In fact, penmanship is almost a lost art in commercial correspondence and in many of the professions, the typewriter having largely supplanted it.

It was stated in the town of P. during my earlier ministry, and was profoundly impressed upon what I saw that I ought to preach against the rebellion against God's law. I selected for a text Isaiah, I, 2: "I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me."

THE DUEL IN ENGLAND.

Our hot-blooded youth nowadays find an outlet for their superfluous energy in the many new forms of sport that have sprung up since the sixties, and are content to exhaust at cricket or on the river or in the football field those "angry passions" which are the heritage of a strong humanity. However, may occasionally "go bareback" to-day, just as their Viking ancestors did long ago; but they do it now between the goal-posts. Quarrels that were once so plentiful as blackberries in autumn do not arise, or at all events do not seem to demand such instant satisfaction.

The last fatal duel in England was fought between two Frenchmen, when M. Barthelmy shot M. de Courmet through the heart at forty paces in 1852, near Windsor.

Englishmen had settled their differences in the same way up till a very recent date. The famous duel between of Wellington fought Lord Winchelsea in Patterson's field about a letter published in the Standard, and it was after Queen Victoria's accession that Lord Londonderry fired into the air over the head of Grattan. The Prince Consort was easily able to put down the habit of fashion, partly because public opinion was thoroughly against the absurd inadequacy of pistols, and partly owing to the fortunate popularity of boxing among the upper classes.

MUNICIPAL ATROPHY.

An influential element in the population of Victoria believes in pursuing a municipal policy of drift. It complains that our progress is not satisfactory, and yet it is unwilling that works shall be undertaken calculated to keep the city in some degree modern and up-to-date.

Mr. Turner will not leave for the scene of his future labors on behalf of the province until after the first of October and the departure of the heir to the throne of Great and Greater Britain for his home in England.

We should like to see all Victorians filled with the faith which the street railway company shows it possesses in regard to the future of the city.

the doors had been closed by the Governor-General, who was an austere man and of the wrong faith. For Mr. Turner's own sake he should be advised and take possession of that office and get firmly fixed in the official chair lest a worse thing happen to him.

C. P. R. AND ITS EMPLOYEES.

The Times has had occasion in what it believed to be the interests of the country to criticize the policy of the C. P. R., but it has never questioned the ability with which its business has been conducted nor the benefit which it has conferred upon the Dominion as a whole.

The Mail and Empire does not see how a government which pays lower wages on the line which it operates than those which there is a dispute, can consistently attempt to intervene between the C. P. R. and its employees.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.
To-Day's and Yesterday's Sessions of the Society—Mrs. Davis Gives Address To-Night.

This morning's session of the King's Daughters was devoted almost entirely to the reading and adoption of the constitution of the order. The session was opened as usual at 11 o'clock in the morning by Rev. Mr. Blyth by prayers. Last evening Mrs. Davis, the visiting member of the society, gave an address on Christian love towards the world at large. She dealt with some of the problems of life in an intelligent as well as interesting manner. Those who attended her lecture last evening were certainly well repaid for their trouble. Mrs. Davis showed herself to be a gifted speaker and thoroughly deserves the almost universal reputation she has gained throughout the United States and Canada as a lecturer of exceptional abilities. This evening she will again give an address in the Sunday school of Christ Church Cathedral. She will take for her topic "Ideal Life."

Yesterday's session of the convention was opened by the Rev. Leslie Clay, B. A., by prayers and reading. The roll was then called, after which the report of the "What's Ever" Circle of Chilfren was read by Mrs. De Wolf. Mrs. Davis then spoke of the necessity for religious exercises in all meetings of the King's Daughters. Mrs. Herbert Kent addressed the convention upon her experience of work among the newboys, the question of a newboys' union having been brought up by Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Davis gave some suggestions as to how to work among the newboys. She told how this work was practised in cities such as New York. She also spoke against indiscriminate charity. She stated that it was not right to steal manhood or womanhood, and that it was better to give that which would build up character. Personally she would never give a dollar unless she received the equivalent, except to old age, childhood or sickness. True help, she held, was that which made people help themselves. She then went on to speak of work in prisons, speaking more particularly of what the King's Daughters had done in the way of work among the prisoners. The sessions closed with questions and answers by the question drauer.

Students Of Biology
Renfrew.
Will Spend a Month on the West Coast in Interests of Science.

They arrived on the Charrm last night from the Mainland a party of 20 who are on their way to Port Renfrew. The party, which is staying at the Dominion, is composed of professors and students from various colleges of Minnesota, North Dakota and Colorado; who are en route to the station, which has been established at Port Renfrew for the study of botany and zoology. The party is composed of the following: Prof. Conway McMillan, wife and child; T. O. Kilgus, of St. Paul; Prof. Ballard, of Moorhead Normal school; Misses L. W. and M. G. Fanning, of St. Paul; Raymond Osborne and L. R. Waldron, of Fargo, N. D.; Prof. Francis Ramaley, of the University of Colorado; E. A. Cuzner, Miss Clara K. Leowith, Miss Josephine E. Tilden, Mrs. Henry Tilden, Miss Emily F. Janney, Miss Caroline W. Cross, F. C. Patterson, R. H. Butcher, E. J. Elshard and wife, Sumner Moser, Miss Eloise Butler, Miss Jessie Polley and Miss Bertha E. Asely, of Minneapolis, Minn.

At Port Renfrew two log houses have been built, which are to accommodate the party. These will be fitted up with the necessary apparatus used in the study of biology, including a full equipment of microscopes. The excursion to that point is as yet a private one, but it is expected that in the near future Port Renfrew station will be established in connection with the university of Minnesota. The students will remain at the station about four weeks, after which they will return by way of Glacier and Field. On the way out they spent a time at submarine, botanical and zoological specimens of flowers, but the season was found too early for the best work. True help, she held, was that which made people help themselves. She then went on to speak of work in prisons, speaking more particularly of what the King's Daughters had done in the way of work among the prisoners.

A shooting affray occurred at Sooke last Saturday, which, although it was undoubtedly an accident, yet has about it a strong suggestion of being intentional. D. Burnett, of Sooke, was walking home on Saturday evening, about 8:30 o'clock, when he was fired at by a party who was on one side of a fence when he heard the crack of a rifle not far distant on the other side. At the time he had his left hand against his face, and just as the rifle exploded let it drop. The bullet took a finger completely off his hand. Mr. Burnett did not see the man who fired the shot, but he heard somebody running away.

RETAIL QUOTATIONS.

Strawberries Have Fallen to 15c. a Box and 25c. for Two Boxes.

The market report this week shows a distinct rise in potatoes and a fall in the price of strawberries, which are at present the most popular fruit on the market.

Old potatoes were last week $2 per sack. The price has increased twenty-five cents, making the price $2.25 per sack. New potatoes are going at seven quanta for twenty-five cents.

Strawberries were last week 20c. to 25c. per box, while this week the prices have gone down to 15c. per box or two boxes for 25c. Local dealers state that this year strawberries will not be plentiful. They hardly expect the berries to go down much lower than they are at present. The cold weather caused the berries to remain unripened and the sudden advent of hot weather has had the effect of drying them up.

Personal.
F. J. Pearson, the well known Mount Sicker miner, is a guest at the Victoria hotel. Mr. Pearson, speaking of the two strikes reported to have been made in the near vicinity of Mount Sicker and on Richard mountain, by Richard Ross, stated that the reports were undoubtedly true. He stated that the Mount Sicker belt of ore ran all through that country, and it was nothing surprising if ore similar to that being mined at Mount Sicker was found. The statement made by a Mount Sicker miner in the Times a few days ago to the effect that he traced the Mount Sicker belt for 17 miles, Mr. Pearson said was not only possible but undoubtedly true. Mr. Pearson came to the city for a holiday, as his health is not very good.

The tourist travel through this city has picked up wonderfully during the past few days. The season is very promising, and the hotel proprietors anticipate a year of very brisk travel. The many friends of the Misses Phair, Goldstream, will be pleased to know of their graduation with honors from the Annie Wright seminary, Tacoma, which they have attended for the last four years. Miss Phair, having taken special honors in music, contemplates finishing in Germany.

Among the visitors to this city yesterday was Hon. Joseph Cannon, of Danville, Ill., who was for twenty-six years a representative in Congress. He has been re-elected to the new Congress, which meets in December.

NEGROES LYNCHED.
Evidence Said to Have Been Discovered Establishing Guilt of the Two Men.
(Associated Press.)
New Orleans, La., June 20.—The lynching of two negroes last night near Shreveport created a sensation to-day, as, with the excitement dying out, it was thought their lives would be spared at least until the capture of Prince Edwards, who killed J. G. Foster on the Foster plantation. A special from Shreveport, however, says that evidence was discovered so clearly establishing the guilt of Smith and Meland as enemies to the whites and a dangerous element to be left at large among the negroes, that the people of Bosscher regarded their execution as essential to the preservation of order in the parish.

A CASE FOR THE S. P. C. A.

The above cut is a representation of the horse, which it is charged was ill-treated by David Gowdy on Rock Bay bridge last week. The incident was observed by President Dallain, of the S. P. C. A., who interfered, much to the wrath of the owner of the horse, who is alleged, forcibly resisted the efforts of the president to protect the animal. The swelling over the eye was caused by blows from a club. In the picture Mr. Dallain is standing beside the horse.

STAMPING OUT REBELLION.
Messages From Capital of Columbia Say Rebels Have No Strength in Panama City.
(Associated Press.)
Washington, June 20.—Dr. Marquis Sotelo, the minister from Columbia, has received dispatches from the capital of Columbia which he regards as setting at rest the reports that the Columbian revolutionists are again in strong force around Panama. The minister's dispatches state that the uprising has been stamped out with the exception of a few small and scattered bands operating in the neighborhood of Panama. The bands are said to have no strength in Panama City.

WILD CAT IN CAPTIVITY.

We know what our domestic ones are during the day, indeed, they are quiet and often somnolent, but at night their activities begin, and it is by many considered cruel to confine them then to the house. What would it be considered—what would it be to keep them day and night, year out, year in, in a barrel, a trough, a meat safe? Yet a domestic cat, if one may judge both by appearance and likelihood, is a very motinuk, a thing of low vitality compared to this wild one. It is pitious to see it. It utters continually a sound between a moan and a snarl—a striding sound eloquent of fierce suffering—and seems devoured equally by rage and wretchedness. It sits fiercely at those who come near it and presents, indeed, a lively picture of what one might imagine the sufferings of such an animal, so imprisoned, would be. Those who stop as they pass by it grin, just spitefully, and if a savage beast, suppose it would like to get at them, and so forth. You may wait there long—very long—before you hear a word said in pity or sympathy. Well may you see the kind of foundation upon which such abuse rest. So passes the weary day for this poor creature. What must its sensations at night be when all its nature prompts it to pounce, seize its prey, seek its kind? Its life's energies are tingling in those supple, nervous limbs. Retire for it—and for a public daily brutalized by bolding it—were they as dead and pulsing as the wood and wire that so cruelly constrain them.—The Spectator.

If girls had less of a smattering of high-sounding knowledge, and were better grounded in the practical lessons of living, it would be infinitely better for their future happiness.—June Ladies' Home Journal.

AN OFFICER'S EXPERIENCES.

Twenty odd years ago, I was sent with a troop of Mounted Infantry to wander about the north of the Vaal in the neighborhood of Christiana and Bloemfont, to show the British flag to the Boer squatters in these parts who did not believe that Sir Theophilus Shepstone had taken over the country, and to let the Komans and Batallians in the neighborhood know that a change of masters had taken place.

I was paymaster, and doctor, and commissariat officer, and chaplain to my troop, as well as commanding it, and my orders were not to get into trouble, to join Sir Owen Layton, who was campaigning from Kimberley, with my men, to be wanted me, and to keep my horses and men well fed and in condition.
I bought food as I could, but no squatter Boer would put pen to paper to sign a receipt—for he thought that meant signing away his farm—and a Kaffir asked to make his mark declined to have anything to say to this new witchcraft. This was the sowing of the storm which came a year or more afterwards in a request to pay up to a substantial large sum of money for bills for food and forage unsupported by vouchers.
It looked to me as if I should be compelled to pay, and have, as my only satisfaction, the knowledge that I had fed at my own expense fifty men and horses for many weeks.

Luckily, an old soldier came to my aid. "This is only clerical work," he said, when he read the thunderous epistle; "send an answer which will necessitate its being put before the head of the department. Then, when you are called on to explain, tell your story as you really see it, and as possible."
I did as was advised; the matter was disposed of at once, and not only did I not have to pay up the money, but I got a little pay on the back for the work I had done.—Correspondent of the London Sketch.

THE JOCKEY'S PERIL.

The boogie of a jockey's life is "taking on flesh." He dreads this as a beauty dreads to lose her charms, and his whole thought from the age of sixteen to twenty-five is to avoid the catastrophe. This is the perilous feature of the life, and distinguishes it as a healthful sport from boxing or from football, in which the physical being is developed according to the laws of nature, and is not outraged or balked. In order to reduce his weight, a jockey takes a Turkish bath, eating nothing whatever. When he reaches the track he is so weak that a stimulant was necessary. The one drink of whiskey he took so demoralized his faculties that he could scarcely keep his seat in the saddle. Such a violation of physical development, at the age when a boy should be most rapidly maturing, makes it difficult for a jockey ever to become robust. Moreover, the more riding of a race is a terrible drain on the nerve force of a jockey. A boy may lose a pound of weight in a hard race.—Almeida's Magazine.

UNIFORMS OF ENGLISH OFFICERS.

As to extravagance in the English army, that is due to the fact that commanding officers do not do their duty, and general officers turn their blind eye to what goes on. It only wants a little honesty of purpose to put an end to it. But that is just the most difficult thing to obtain. The dress of officers is unduly expensive, in some cases ridiculously so. There seems to be little doubt that, even for peace purposes, it would be possible to devise a less costly form of costume, while for work and war the future uniforms will be khaki. Recent alterations are not to be commended. The red serge of the infantry officer is a constant source of expense; it is easily soiled, and must be replaced; the blue serge, which is his working dress, is constructed after the fashion of the garment worn by the shabbiest beggar.—The British officer is the worst dressed man of his class in Europe. The old frock-coat was comfortable and looked well, and was, in the long run, far more economical. It was abolished and replaced by the palm jacket, and the latter by the present hideous garb. Fortunately for its inventor, he had not the temerity to clothe the Guards' officers in it. Had he been so rash he would probably have been hanged in Trafalgar Square from the statue of his late Majesty George IV. A hundred years ago the British uniform which were elegant and essentially British, now we have replaced them by costumes which are bad copies of foreign models. The greatest source of expense with uniform, however, is the constant and needless changes which are perpetually being made to it. To give one instance, a few years ago the infantry sword blade was changed; this was followed by a change in the pattern of the belt. The expense was considerable, and the infantry officer now walks about in peace time in a sword admirably adapted for use in the melee of a medieval tournament, but of no utility to a man who, in all probability, will never engage in a hand-to-hand encounter.—The Contemporary Review.

THE OLD STOCK ACTOR.

Very often rough and uncouth, the old stock actor acted in queer places—sometimes a deserted chapel, a barn or school, a big room over a slaughter-house or over an inn. It did not matter to him if the rat crept over the stage with his paws' feet in his mouth, that the sparrow twittered in the flies, or the snow beat in between the tropical borders. He had queer people—the proverbial eight-day clock that struck eleven while being lowered into Ophelia's grave when doing duty for a coffin, while on the Danish tombstone close by the scene painter had scrawled the names of his enemies, commencing with Serjeant Murrarity, R. I. C. He resented being called an artist. He savored to him of a poet. He was a broad-and-butter actor, not a crutch-and-toothpick toff. He would undertake the longest part with one night's study. He would "keep in the picture" of the most elaborate scene with only one rehearsal. When his words failed him, he pouted. When he appeared by accident in the wrong scene, he soliloquized, addressed heaven, and made an exit. Text he despised, context he ignored, the script he had returned to the prompter; but he knew his business, which was part of the business, and he was a good actor, especially authors and managers, learn theirs. He and his comrades, however, had acquired a simplicity of style, a roundness of voice and gesture, that we nowadays often look for in vain. The stock season, with its varied experience, gave our older actors, while yet young and available, technique, resource, and self-possession. In this way they acquired spontaneity, versatility, directness, and unselfishness. In this way, too, was learned that softness and simplicity which is the accompaniment of all first-rate work, without which the elaborate elegance of the most ingenious moderns is of little avail—the unselfishness which does not make capital out of the mannerisms of a limited personality, but rather extends its own individuality, by identifying it with the universal.—The Nineteenth Century.

A PLEASANT CALLER.

"What is that dreadful noise in the hall, Mary?"
"Only a gentleman, mum, who come in 'cos he felt he was going to have a fit."

Professor Gerzang, of Vienna, suggests the injection of a mixture of paraffin melting at a temperature slightly above the normal temperature of the body as a means of removing the effects of loss or absence of supporting tissue in surgical operations. Some of his results are apparently successful, the material remaining where injected and causing no irritation. It is not, however, advisable for those whose personal first-rate work, without which the elaborate elegance of the most ingenious moderns is of little avail—the unselfishness which does not make capital out of the mannerisms of a limited personality, but rather extends its own individuality, by identifying it with the universal.—The Nineteenth Century.
