

...Contract of Marriage... between his most noble majesty
Charles V King of Castile and miss Laura Whalen

Upon completion of the said marriage ceremony to be held May 15th of the year 2022, the said lady miss Whalen will be coronated as Queen consort of Castile and anointed as such as well as invested with the following titles; Countess Thornleigh, Marquess of Dorset, and Duchess of Suffolk in her own right. These titles all excepting the Consort of Castile to be held for life and in her own right, that of Castile to be held for the duration of the King's lifetime. The King of Castile promises to be a most loving supportive guiding companion consort and friend to his consort and companion, never forsaking her company, always ready with loving advice and a listening ear. When needed he will step in to render assistance with arms or with support, with all of his means he will be ready in defence, protection, guidance and does promise to guard protect and grow the Queen's finances and income, the chief of which shall be drawn from the Duchy of Newfoundland reserves for her royal maintenance and dowry. All in the King's possession material financial and spiritual are at the said Queen his good wife's disposal for the duration of his life and beyond he promises to be a loving guiding light of support and encouragement, inspiring and comforting, sending signs, gifts, love tokens, whenever energetically possible. He swears from the day of his marriage on to hold love protect and companion his most noble Queen and spouse in Christ. The said Queen in turn promises to pray for and with her most loving companion and spouse, to trust him with her innermost thoughts and feelings and unhesitatingly to seek his light and guidance, under which noble patronage and as a friend and consort to become all that goodness and truth embody.

May this spiritual union be blessed by God. Signed this May 15_2022