Minamisakurai-Mura, Kitakatsushika-Gun
Saitama Prefecture.
Code No. 34-33 The First Military Arsenal Omiya Factory. No.1 Shimoka-machi, Omiya-shi Saitama Prefecture.

(3) List designated reparation machinery and equipment to be moved and used.
(Stated in annexed sheet)

(4) Necessity for movement and use of machinery and equipment.
Considered and classified the manufacture of fountain pens and propelling pencils as "The Peace Industry" in Japan during the war-time, their productive equipments had become very inferior, by being prohibited to improve and newly place their equipments. In addition to this, we have got to lose 60% equipments of our factory by the air-raid of The Allied Power's Air Forces in the instance of our company.

With the reopening of the foreign trade after the war, we are at present taking a great deal of demands for our products from our pre-war agencies and customers in every part of the world, and consequently, in order that we are able to comply with their demands and make our products competitive against ones of every country and territory in the markets of the world, it is keely necessary for our company to measure the rationalization of the production by the improvement, enlargement and mechanical power of the productive equipments.

On considering the present economical standing of Japan and difficult position to newly manufacture those machinery, it should be emphasized by all means that we are promptly able to complete our schemes if we shall use the repatriation machinery.

Re: Request for Preferential Loan of Machines designated for Reparation

Fountain Pens occupied the majority of the total amount of the exports of Japanese stationery in pre-war days and the actual results thereof have a tendency to increase gradually after the great War. It is also expected that the exports of Japanese fountain pens to the markets in the Far East, the Southern countries, Africa and the Central and South America will be promoted more and more in the near future.

The manufacturers of stationery in Japan, however, were not permitted to increase or improve their equipments during the War for the only reason that they were engaged in the so-called peace industry in spite of the mass production of superior merchandises by mechanical power being keenly required in such an industry as fountain pen making at present.

Especially the producing capacity of the under-mentioned company scarcely comes to half of the output in pre-war days owing to over 60 % of its plant being burnt down by air-raids during the War and the remaining machines being entirely superannuated. As it seems to be an urgent need for promotion of the exports of Japanese fountain pens to complete the equipments of Shimura factory and increase those of newly established Hiratsuka factory of the said company, I hereby ask you will preferentially lend the company the machines designated for reparation the list of which was stated by the said company in the accompanying document.

Remarks:

1. There will be no change in the number of Nissan to be produced but the number of Datsun to be produced is expected to be increased monthly.

2. The appearance and performance of both of Nissan and Datsun will be changed gradually into their new model in 1950, and the company will pay full attention to promote the export of the products to the foreign market.

3. In regard to the rebuilding job of U.S. Army vehicles, the company has hitherto been handling only the passenger cars, but it is expected that a new P/D will be issued in the near future for rebuilding a number of 6-ton trailor trucks. Three of these heavy trucks are now being rebuilt in our plant for trial.

4. About 2,500 productive machines are in operation in our plant, but most of the machines are obsolete. They have been used for more than 20 years and they are the causes of high cost and lowering the precision of our products.

5. Incase this application is approved by the authorities concerned, we want to transfer These machines to our plant. A part of these machines will be used for the rebuilding of U.S. Army vehicles and the rest for manufacturing Nissan and Datsun replacing the old machines with those new machines to be borrowed, so that the company may elevate the precision of our products and lower the production cost.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775013

(2) The reason for submitting this petition.

1. Our products, one of the very important commodities which are produsedin Japan, contribute toward the industrial rehabilitation, assist the transportation business in Japan, and are also to improve the balance of the foreign trade with the growing export of the same in future. As the matter of foct, the result of the same in either case will be held a very important position in the reconstruction of the Japaness economics. However strengthening of the superannuated facilities being operated in our plants at the present, bettering of quarity of our products and deducting of their cost are driven by necessity for achieving the above-mentioned purpose.

2 Obtaining of high precise and efficient production machines, which are needed in order to achieve the said purposes, in markets both at home and abroad is a matter of considerable difficulty. The reasons are as follows.
The domestic makers have no-capacity to manufact production machines; and the machines of the superior type to be discovered in the domestic market at the present are impossible to used for automobile production. We also have scarcely any room to expect to obtain such a great amount of foreign money under the present circumstances. In addition the quality of private factory-facilities designated as reparation is likely to the same with machines in market. There is no way materialiging strengening of the precise and composite production facilities being operated by Nissan Motor Company Ltd, but to be permitted to use the excelent facilities equiped in the ex-military factories designated as reparation.

3 U.S. Army rebuilding works to be expected to enlarge in the near future is also necessary to use the machines equiped in the ex-military facilities designated as reparation under the same reason.

(3) Regarding the removal of the machines equiped in the ex-Military facties.
At the time this petition is approved, we will remove those machines to the following factories and use tham with the machines being operated in each factory at the present.
