DOING GOOD WORK

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM OUR BEAUTIFUL FOOTHILL SECTION

The county employees on the road work in Casa Verdugo are doing good work in several sections of the community clearing the noxious weeds off from the roads. Now if the non-resident property owners and owners of vacant property that reside here could see the necessity for cleaning up the vacant lots and have them cleaned up, the residing property owners would appreciate the effort, and the stranger within our gates would be more anxious to come again. Let's get busy.

Mrs. T. W. Sampson of 1659 Ruth street entertained as her guests at a daintily appointed luncheon Thursday Mrs. Joseph Seymour and children of El Centro, who are spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Orta Eldridge of West Second street, Los Angeles, who also was Mrs. Sampson's guest.

Mrs. L. C. Leeds of 900 Dryden street entertained at an informal luncheon Thursday afternoon. The table was beautifully decorated with low bowls of pansies, with ferns intermingled, and certainly was very lovely in appearance. A four-course luncheon was served by the charming hostess. Among the guests were Mrs. Dutton and small son, Master Elton Dutton; Mrs. Vannorman, Mrs. Raymer and Mrs. Leeds' mother and sister, Mrs. Willard Bott and Miss T. M. Bott, all of Los Angeles.

Mrs. F. Dutcher and children of Los Angeles, former residents of North Glendale, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Larkey of North Central avenue recently. Mrs. Dutcher spending several days in this vicinity visiting old friends and neighbors and enjoying a most delightful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Nestlerod, with Mr. Judson Edwards, Mr. Richard Edwards and Miss Virginia Edwards of Kenneth road and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Fryer of 1424 North Pacific avenue, motored to San Pedro this morning and will have the pleasure of viewing the Missourian, which is the first ship passing through the Panama canal to visit this port, and which has invited the inspection of all who are interested. A buffet luncheon will be served on board ship and an official reception will be held during the day.

Miss Grace Wadsworth of Los Angeles is the house guest of her cousin, Miss Ruth Wadsworth, of 1017 Fairview avenue for the week.

Mrs. Clara Robinson of 1528 Lorraine street entertained at a prettily appointed dinner last Wednesday evening Miss Mary Pierce of Los Angeles and Rev. M. K. Stone of Pasadena, who has the pastorate of the Casa Verdugo First M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilbur of 1105 San Rafael street were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stanton of Arden avenue last evening.

Mrs. T. D. Osborn and son, Master Meroweth, of 1029 San Rafael street, returned home last Wednesday after spending several days at Long Beach as guests of Mrs. Osborn's uncle, Mr. T. A. Stephens and family of 1602 East Second street.

George P. Rueter of 930 Fairview avenue, who is the private secretary to Mayor Rose of Los Angeles, received word Thursday that the mayor would return home at once from the Howard Springs, where he went for his health, being as is well known a sufferer from rheumatism. It is understood the mayor's condition is very serious and while he will be home, he will not attempt to return to his official business for several weeks at least.

Miss Lucille Pittman and sister, Miss Idelle Pittman, returned home Thursday from San Francisco, where they had a delightful three weeks' outing, making the trip both ways by boat.

A merry party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Meagher and Miss Geraldine Meagher of Tenth street and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ryker and Miss Arley Ryker of Los Angeles, left this week for an outing at Cataline Island, where they will meet another group of friends and enjoy a cruise on Mr. Ryker's launch, "Lorraine."

Mrs. Oliver J. Merrill and little daughter Gwendolyn of West Tropic avenue left for St. John, Michigan, to join Mr. Merrill, who has been there for the past month.

THEY'RE COMING HOME

VACATIONISTS ARE RETURNING FROM SEASHORE AND MOUNTAIN CAMP

No matter how we tarry, Old Father Time sprints along just the same, and he carries memories of a joyous vacation—a vacation that is rapidly drawing to a close. At first cities and suburban towns resented the fact that "the dear old summer time" was hurrying mountains and beaches into popularity, but things have changed since June, you know, and now the happy truant are struggling homeward, one by one, to mentally live over again the glorious days that are theirs no more. Among those who are expected home the end of this month are Mrs. A. L. Bryant and family of 421 South Jackson street and Mrs. E. U. Emery and family of 117 South Kenwood street, who are at Santa Monica; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell and family of Ard-E'evin, North Glendale, who are enjoying the waves at Coronado; Mr. and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones and daughter, Miss Winifred Jones of 106 Orange street, now resting at Hermosa Beach; the Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds of 421 Cedar street, who with their family motored to Camp Baldy for a week; the Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford and daughter, Miss Carol Willisford of 231 Orange street, who have been revelling in three weeks of camp life at Switzer's, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Toll of 1635 Kenneth road, who, it is understood, will return today from Lake Tahoe, where they have been enjoying a splendid outing with their three young sons.

Tonight will undoubtedly see another large attendance at the Glendale theater to see the pictures of the third of the "Lucile Love" series. This is one of the most interesting and entertaining picture plays ever shown anywhere, and this series is regarded by many as being the best of the whole production. "Lucile Love" is known as the "girl of mystery" and everyone who has so far seen her agree that she certainly is.

This two-reel feature does not compose the whole program, as there is also a one-reel romance entitled "Susanne" and two exceedingly funny comedies.

Messrs. Hal McNutt and Joseph Wilson proved themselves most hospitable of hosts Thursday evening when they entertained the following at a moonlight picnic at Griffith park: The Misses Margaret Hancock, Eloise Seaman, Bertha Thayer, Lila Shea, Lynn McNutt, Ethel Stoddard, Messrs. Dwight Stephenson, Ferdinand Rigall, Maddison McNutt, Robert Oliver, James Shea and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Seaman, who fulfilled the duties of chaperones.

A delicious late supper which was cooked in the open, besides games and stories, were among the features of entertainment.

Among the good times that will go down in the history of the White Star Patrol, Glendale Elks, No. 1289, no doubt the dance planned for next Thursday evening, September 3, will be among the best. This popular drill team has managed many very brilliant and happy social affairs in the past and this dance promises to be equal to former occasions if not just a little bit better than anything ever given before.

Remember the date, evening of September 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar S. Richardson and daughter, Miss Grace, of 315 South Louise street, Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Richardson and family of Tropic, returned to their respective homes Thursday evening from San Diego and Coronado, to which places they motored a week ago.

Mrs. W. A. Huff and family of Central avenue, together with her niece, Miss Bessie Waters, of Pasadena, Miss Dorothy Hobbs and Mr. and Mrs. Gorman and family of Tropic, are enjoying a picnic at Griffith park today.

Mrs. V. S. Frazier of Omaha, Neb., is visiting in Glendale as a house guest of her brother, Mr. J. O. Elliott of 1508 Ivy street.

LECTURE ON MEXICO

LATE UNITED STATES DEPUTY CONSUL-GENERAL TELLS OF HIS LIFE IN MEXICO

John C. Allen, late United States deputy consul-general of Mexico, delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture Thursday evening, to which the audience listened with rapt attention from the first sentence to the last word. The title of his lecture was "Why the Mexicans Have Been Fighting." He drew a vivid contrast between the Latin American people, across our southern border, and ourselves, showing how necessarily these differences of customs and ways of doing things obtain, on account of racial distinction and social environment, but in nothing to the discredit of either the Saxon or the Latin.

After a brief sketch of the history of Mexico, he dwelt at some length on the long administration of Porfirio Diaz, which led directly to the conditions which caused the long and cruel war among the followers of the Diaz policy, and the common people who fought for their homes, their families and their freedom, which was guaranteed them under the Mexican constitution, but which Diaz flouted and spurned for twenty-seven years.

During the greater part of this period Mr. Allen was occupied with various duties in twenty-four different states of Mexico, which afforded him a thorough knowledge of the different classes of the people, and it required all those years, for they are not a people easily understood, nor quick to learn, and their deepest and best thoughts. In his lecture he condemned no one, neither did he praise any, but gave the facts, as he saw them, and the reasons why they have been what they have been.

Mr. Allen was a New York native, born in 1888 at the age of three until last spring, the terrible experiences of himself and his wife while self-imprisoned for safety in a stone house during the siege of the Constitutionalists against the Federals at Monterey, is thrilling. His expedition in charge of a caravan across the desert from Torreon to Saltillo, with 270 Americans to a place of protection and safety is as fascinating as an Arabian Nights tale. One part of the journey led through a country occupied by Federals, another part by the Rebels, and a third—a sort of "no man's land"—was infested with marauding bandits. The whole train was arrested once. Again the train was stopped and commanded not to move. By calm and patient parleying, he saved the lives of four of his men, whom the soldiers were ordered to take out and shoot. After further parlying (thanks to his familiarity with their native tongue), the officer in charge of the troops commanded Mr. Allen to go with him, leaving the caravan where it had been ordered to remain. After long waiting, he returned, and they took up their dreary journey to the consulate at Saltillo.

The publicity committee of the Glendale chamber of commerce ordered 5000 twenty-two-page art folders from the Van Ornum Colorprint Company, Los Angeles. These folders are works of art, sixteen pages being devoted to pictures of residences and business buildings and six pages to descriptive matter pertaining to the city of Glendale. The folders are now ready for delivery. Boys and girls are wanted to sell them on a liberal commission. Apply at the Evening News office.

Mrs. L. B. Simons of Vine street, together with her niece and house guest, Miss Georgia Higley, who is visiting here from Chicago, were the guests one day this week of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Farrell, 123 East Broadway, who planned an automobile trip to the various beaches as the day's pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodwin of Central avenue, together with Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Clotworthy of West Tenth street and Mrs. Goodwin's sister, Miss Eva Callaghan, of Los Angeles, left this morning by auto for Riverside, where they will spend the week-end.

The Rev. and Mrs. George Eley, who for the past month have been visiting in the North, are at present in Seattle, from which place they will start the first of September for their home, 1210 Lomita avenue.

TENNIS TOMORROW

Remember the triangle tournament will begin finals at 1:30 tomorrow on the Arden avenue and Browne courts. All interested are cordially invited to witness some splendid games.

RETURNS FROM NORTH

Miss Edith Foss, who for the past two months has been visiting in San Francisco, Yosemite and other points in Northern California, has returned to Glendale and for the present will make her home with her brother, Mr. Charles S. Foss and family of 131 Elrose avenue.

THE BEST OIL

There is nothing connected with a sewing machine that better illustrates the proverb that "the best is the cheapest" than the small but important item, OIL. Knowing from many years' experience the great importance of good oil, we sell at all our shops an extra quality of oil, specially prepared for Singer machines.

Beware of scented compounds advertised as equally good for lubricating and for polishing; such a mixture cannot be best for both purposes; it is a chemical impossibility.

Use nothing but Singer oil for all purposes requiring a fine lubricant. Warranted not to gum. 1020 West Broadway. Phone 656W. E. J. Upham. 1113

TROPICO

Mrs. William Van Hazelen left for Hemet Thursday morning, where she will spend a few weeks at their ranch home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis of Huntington Beach came up this morning to attend the all-day meeting of N. P. Banks Post and Corps.

Mrs. J. R. Chadwick and Miss Florence Chadwick, who have been visiting at Long Beach the past few days, returned home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. O. M. Carpenter of Central avenue, who was spending a few days in Santa Barbara with Mr. Carpenter, who was in that city on business, was summoned home owing to the illness of their son Oliver, who was stricken with typhoid pneumonia. Young Oliver is improving slowly, though still a sick lad.

Budde Schien, who but recently returned from a mining trip in Arizona, is ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schen on Central avenue.

Many invitations have been accepted by the society folks of Glendale and Tropico for the dancing party to be given at Masonic hall Saturday evening, September 29th.

BUYS NEW AUTO

Miss Helen Holmes, now being featured in a series of pictures entitled "The Hazards of Helen," has added a new "pet" to her varied collection, this new acquisition being a made-to-order Mitchell roadster that looks like a great monster as it rambles up and down the public thoroughfare.

SURPRISE AFTERNOON AFFAIR

Mrs. Earl Kimzell of Ivy street was surprised to find herself the complimented guest at an informal neighborhood party given by Mrs. Harry Wolfe in her Central avenue home last Wednesday afternoon.

Everything throughout was in pink and white. That of course includes the attractive decorations and dainty refreshments.

Those present besides the hostess and the honored guest were Mrs. S. A. Merriken, Miss Merriken, Mrs. C. A. Wilkinson, Mrs. C. J. Wolfe, Mrs. J. O. Elliott, Mrs. M. E. Sanders of Glendale and Mrs. W. Stitchee of Yates Center, Kans., who is a guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. C. A. Wilkinson.

LUNCHEON GUESTS

Mrs. Mary V. Colburn of 110 Cedar street entertained as luncheon guests in her home today Mrs. W. L. Wheeler, Mrs. Gus H. Pulliam and Mrs.

William S. Althouse of Glendale. Pink roses and fern graced the table and the afternoon was spent in needle work and chatter.

VISITOR FROM SALT LAKE

Dr. and Mrs. William C. Mabry of 115 East Acacia street, together with their little daughter Janet and house guest, Miss Mary Wayne, who is visiting in their home from Salt Lake City, were dinner guests Thursday of Mrs. John Hobbs, 600 North Central avenue, Tropic.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS AT DINNER

A delightful informal dinner was enjoyed in the home of Mrs. Ruth Head, 124 North Louise street, on Thursday evening when in compliment to Mr. James Charles of Los Angeles, recently returned from Mrs. Head's former home in Kenosha, Wisconsin, that gracious hostess very charmingly entertained. Coreopsis were used in adorning the home, a huge brown basket of which reposed in the center of the board, about which Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mr. Roy Harrod, Mr. Charles, Mrs. Head, Miss Elizabeth Head and Charles Head, Jr., were gathered.
