Demands previously referred to the finance committee were reported back approved.

Report of the city marshal for July was received and filed. A communication was received from the Progressive league of Eagle Rock valley in regard to electric lights; referred to the light committee.

An ordinance declaring intention to change and establish the grade of the west side of Glendale avenue from the north line of Sixth street to a point 136 feet southerly therefrom, was taken up and passed finally.

The city marshal was instructed to enforce the present dog ordinance.

The city engineer was instructed to prepare an ordinance changing and establishing the grade of Fourth street between Adams street and Verdugo Road.

The police committee was instructed to see that the mains of the water companies are connected so as to provide fire protection when reservoirs are being cleaned.

FOREST AND BRUSH FIRES AND A FREQUENT CAUSE.

A large extent of territory was burned over Wednesday afternoon last between Eagle Rock valley and the Arroyo Seco west of Pasadena. We have not yet learned the extent of the damage but it was probably confined to the burning out of the undergrowth as there is not much timber on the area covered. It is said, however, that a few orchards at the edge of the fire were damaged. On Thursday afternoon a fire started on the north side of Mr. Woodberry's hill adjoining the northeast boundary of Glendale and spread over considerable territory before it was checked, causing considerable damage. While the causes of these particular fires are unknown to us, there is one very common cause, and that is the cigarette fiend. He passes along the road and throws the stumps of the pesky little things into the dry grass or leaves along the road and the mischief is begun. Within the past few days brush fires have been started mysteriously along the streets of Glendale, where piles of tree trimmings had accumulated, which did no particular damage but might have resulted seriously. The city marshal should be on the alert for the man or boy who cannot separate himself from a cigarette long enough to take a long breath.

IMPORTANT TRANSFER OF WATER COMPANY.

The Independent Water company has bought out the interests of L. C. Brand in the Miradero Water company as far as delivering water within Glendale city limits is concerned, and is now in control of the water situation in that part of town heretofore supplied by the Miradero company. It is presumed that Mr. Brand did not dispose of any water rights, but merely gave up the territory alluded to, to the Independent company, of which Messrs. Glassell and Griswold are the principal owners and which already supplies a considerable portion of the city. It is understood that among the improvements contemplated is the laying of a ten-inch main from First and Glendale avenue to the western side of town. The Independent company not only controls a large portion of Verdugo Canyon water, but also has an excellent well above the city with the Glassell and Griswold wells at Tropic to draw upon if needed.

WORK ON THE GOOD ROADS.

In the opinion of the editor of the Southwest Contractor all of the high-ways contemplated by the highway commission will be completed with a large surplus left over. On contracts already let there has been a saving of $30,000 made as compared with the original estimates. A rock crushing plant is to be established at Pacoima where the commission has purchased quarries. The contractor on the surfacing of the El Monte road has been delayed by inability to secure material and has been granted more time by the supervisors. No work has yet been done on the San Fernando road nor the Verdugo Canyon road except that a bridge over the Verdugo wash, a reinforced bridge structure, is about completed. The plan for the San Fernando road contemplates four pile bridges, aggregating half a mile in length, over the Tejuca wash.

OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC.

As agreed upon at the meeting held last year this picnic will take place next Saturday (21st) at Echo Park. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance, as the meetings heretofore have been very enjoyable.

Remember that new settlers are included and even the stranger in our midst. Bring your luncheon. Come early. Pacific Electric cars take you to the grounds.

J. C. SHERER, Chairman.

REDONDO.

The Country Editors Visit that Growing Port.

The Los Angeles County Weekly Press association visited Redondo last Monday as guests of the Chamber of Commerce of that growing city. Being met by a committee of citizens headed by Mr. C. H. Burnett of that great Boosters' organization, the Redondo Chamber of Commerce, they were taken down to Clifton-by-the-Sea, a suburb of Redondo, and permitted to admire the scenery—and they did admire it, for the bluffs at that point afford a splendid site from which to view the circular sweep of Redondo Bay and the limitless stretch of ocean. The residences of H. E. Huntington, Robert Burdette, Myron Hunt, and others stand there as the undoubted forerunners of many a fine home that will adorn the heights in the not distant future. After strolling on the scenery and hearing a speech from Mr. Burnett the visitors were escorted to the plant of the Pacific Light and Power company, through which immense establishment they were shown by the manager. This is about the second largest electricity producing plant west of the Mississippi. The claim is made for it that it is the most efficient plant of the kind in the world—which means that it wastes no energy. It cost a million and a half and employs 75 men. There is used here every 24 hours and converted into electric energy, 500 barrels of oil costing the company probably about 75 cents a barrel. The output per barrel of oil consumed is 261 kilowatts of electric energy. It is claimed that the output of energy is twice that supplied by the Kern river plant. This plant supplies the electricity for the Huntington electric car system radiating from Los Angeles and for a portion of the Pacific Electric system as well. The oil that supplies the plant is pumped from the vessels as they lie at the wharf, a mile away, through a large pipe line.

A round of the wharves after luncheon disclosed some interesting facts in regard to the shipping interests of this port. We were fortunate enough to meet Mr. Charles Sheldrick, collector of the port, from whom we obtained much valuable information.

The imports for July were as follows: 2,891,996 feet of lumber, 176,783 railroad ties, 4,050,000 shingles, 1000 bundles lath, 300 tons pig iron, 2731 tons merchandise, 35,000 barrels oil. Exports, 6400 barrels oil, 628 tons merchandise. Arrivals, forty-nine steamers, two schooners, with net tonnage of 59,746, 1232 passengers. Departures, forty-eight steamers, 1736 passengers.

The business of importing railroad ties from Japan and Hawaii has grown to considerable proportions, the shipments so far being consigned principally to the Santa Fe company. These ties are of oak and are said to have good lasting qualities and to possess the quality of hardness which makes rail plates unnecessary. They cost laid down in Redondo 62 cents, as against 67c for redwood ties from Northern California. A steamer unloader is now on the way here from Japan with 100,000 ties. The import duty on them is 20 per cent ad valorem or about seven cents a tie. Ties are also coming in from the Sandwich Islands where the Japanese are said to control a very large supply of the finest oak timber. The firm of Myt Sui and Co., a multi-millionaire concern having branches in many of the important shipping ports of the world, supplies these ties. They are said to control millions of acres of timber land.

Redondo's water front is all controlled by H. E. Huntington, and the principal improvements that have been made along the frontage are to be credited to him. It looks very much as if he had large plans for the town and however much he may resemble a monopolist, we fancy that there might be a lot of worse things happen to a place than to be dependent to a considerable extent upon a beneficent monopolist such as Mr. Huntington has thus far proved to be. It is remembered and should be mentioned to his credit that when the financial stringency occurred two years ago, Mr. Huntington gave orders to keep his men at work. There are now 200 men employed by him on the three piers at Redondo. The new bathhouse is one of Mr. Huntington's pet creations. It is said to be the largest hot water bath house in the world. The water is constantly being changed and so kept fresh, and the temperature can always be depended on. It certainly seems to be sanitary in every respect. The city has lately completed a series of septic tanks for the treatment of sewage. Many miles of streets have been improved. A commodious High School building occupies a commanding situation. It is one of the most popular fishing places on the coast and at all times the wharves are well patronized by patient Isaac Waltons. We have drawn a line on a fixed star and will return to Redondo shortly to see how it has grown.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY.

The NEWS job office has just turned out for the Pacific (Sunset) Telephone company a new directory which is creditable to Manager Deal, who is responsible for it, and valuable to the general public as it contains the addresses of every person and firm under the local system who uses the telephone service of the company.

The conditions are perfect for the manufacture of flour in Pasadena. The Pasadena Milling Co.'s "Best" flour is guaranteed better for family use than any eastern flour. Why not try a sack and be convinced?

MR. AND MRS. PACK HEARD FROM.

Letters received from Mr. and Mrs. Pack announce their arrival in Liverpool July 31st, from which point they proceeded direct to London, where they were to meet Mr. Pack's relatives whom he had not seen for fourteen years. They remained several days at Seattle visiting the exposition which they report as not being large in regard to the number of exhibits, but thoroughly artistic in its details and altogether attractive. Stopping at Toronto and Montreal they visited Mrs. Pack's father and other relatives and many friends, thence down the St. Lawrence and out to the ocean. Their journey and voyage over sea has been thoroughly enjoyable and they look forward with pleasant anticipations to the remainder of their tour, sending back to Glendale their kind regards to all inquiring friends.

SOCIALIST DEPARTMENT.

(Contributed)

Frances E. Willard a Socialist.

The following from the lips of Frances E. Willard, the most honored and beloved temperance and prohibition leader America ever knew, is a part of the thrilling address she delivered at the National Convention of the W. C. T. U. of 1897, which was the last before her death:

"Look about you; the products of labor are on every hand; you could not maintain for a moment a well ordered life without them; every object in your room has in it for discerning eyes, the mark of ingenious tools and the pressure of labor's hand. But is it not the cruelest injustice for the wealthy, whose lives are surrounded and embellished by labor's work, to have a super-abundance of the money which represents the aggregate of labor in any country, while the laborer himself is kept so steadily at work that he has no time to acquire the education and refinements of life that would make him and his family agreeable companions to the rich and cultured? The reason why I am a Socialist grows in just here.

"I would take, not by force, but by the slow process of lawful acquisition through better legislation as the outcome of a wiser ballot in the hands of men and women, the entire plant that we call civilization, all that has been achieved on this continent in the 400 years since Columbus wended his way hither, and make it the common property of all the people, requiring all to work enough with their hands to give them the finest physical development, but not to become burdensome in any case, and permitting all to share alike the advantages of education and refinement. I BELIEVE THIS TO BE PERFECTLY PRACTICABLE, indeed, that any other method is simply a relic of barbarism.

"I BELIEVE THAT COMPETITION IS DOOMED. The trusts, whose single object is to abolish competition, have proved that we are better without than with it, and the moment corporations control the supply of any product they combine. What the Socialists desire is that the corporation of humanity should control all production. Beloved comrades, this is the frictionless way, it is the higher way; IT ELIMINATES THE MOTIVES FOR A SELFISH LIFE; it enacts into our everyday living the ethics of Christ's gospel. NOTHING ELSE WILL DO IT; nothing else can bring the glad day of universal Brotherhood.

"Oh, that I were young again, and it should have my life! It is God's way out of the wilderness and into the promised land. It is the very marrow of Christ's gospel. It is Christianity applied."

CAPT. WELLS HEARD FROM.

From the Minook (Ill.) Gazette, we clip the following:

Capt. James M. Wells of Glendale, Cal., who is visiting at the home of David Filger, will give a lecture on "Libby Prison" Friday evening, August 6th, at 8 p. m., at the social given by the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church on Mr. Filger's lawn. If the weather should prove unfavorable the lecture will be given in the church and refreshments served in the basement after the lecture.

This lecture should be heard by all who can avail themselves of the opportunity, as Mr. Wells was one of the prisoners who helped dig the tunnel with clam shells and case knives, that led to the escape of the soldiers from Libby Prison, and can tell of many stirring events of the war and frontier times, not as he has read them, but from a personal experience, which adds much to the zest of what is told.

Mr. Wells is also the author of a book entitled "With Touch of Elbows" which contains a most interesting and historically valuable account of the events of the great Civil War, and the years immediately following it, as he saw them during his three years' service as cavalry man.

Banker entertained informally a part of the new members of the church at the home of Mrs. Bryan, 218 Glendale avenue, which all present enjoyed very much. Judging from the remarks of the pastor on this occasion he looks forward to our city's growth with a degree of enthusiasm, and hence the importance of the church realizing this fact and preparing for newcomers and enlisting them in the work.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH.

The service at this church at 11 o'clock will be the usual celebration of the Lord's supper held on the first and third Lord's days of each month. A short address will be given by the Rev. The school will join in the picnic at Long Beach, Friday, August 20, and tickets can be bought of the teachers of each class.

COUNTRY CLUB NOTES.

Mrs. R. E. Chase will act as hostess on Monday afternoon at their "third Monday" and will be assisted by her friend, Miss Lella Butler of Los Angeles.

The ladies of the Glendale Country Club will give an ice cream social this Saturday evening (August 14th). The members are privileged to bring guests. Mrs. R. E. Chase and Mrs. V. Price Brown are in charge of the evening. The affair is to be entirely informal. It is understood that a prize will be given to the gentleman eating the most ice cream and that every one of them who appears in a dress suit will be called upon to make a speech.

The Monday evening meetings continue to be thoroughly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be present. Members should not miss them as they are one of the most attractive features of the club privileges. Good fellowship prevails and the time passes all too quickly.

A GOOD ONE ON THE CONDUCTOR.

The conductors of the Los Angeles Railway company on the Eagle Rock line are not all perfect in their conduct toward the patrons of that road, especially in regard to the Glendale contingent. Hence the following is told with a sense of appropriate appreciation. A resident of Glendale, an attorney, travels daily to and fro between Glendale and Los Angeles. The other day having some odd pennies in his pocket, he tendered five of them to the conductor in payment of his fare. The conductor accepted them reluctantly, then taking a dime he handed it with a magnificent gesture and expression of contempt to the passenger, saying, "Here take this, you might need it some time." The passenger smiled serenely, accepted the dime in the most matter of fact manner possible, put it in his pocket and said, "Thank you, maybe I will." It is said, "The conductor who tells the story."

FIVE HUNDRED ENTERTAINS

In honor of Miss Alice Saunders of San Francisco and the Misses Ellen and Blanche Unfrug of Los Angeles, a charming one o'clock luncheon was given by Miss Katherine Wells on Friday.

The reception room was beautiful and inviting with its profusion of roses, while the dining room in which a bevy of merry girls found themselves presented a dainty picture with its pink and white decorations. On the table for center piece was an exquisite arrangement of flowers and ferns drooping over the edge of the bowl in an effort to catch its reflection in the mirror beneath.

Hand-painted place cards, the work of the clever hostess, marked each guest's place.

After luncheon five hundred was the game of the hour.

Many complaints are being heard in the valley from the disturbance made at night by the Eagle Rock Water Co.'s pumping plant being run continually.

Fire Warden G. D. Baker of Eagle Rock, assisted by a number of men from his own town and Glendale, strove in vain to check the progress of the fiery wave.

Four thousand acres were destroyed, including 700 acres of Mr. H. E. Huntington's.

Items of Interest

We are going to close out our line of rent shot guns regardless of price. If you want a real bargain, see the Glendale Hardware Co., Fourth and Glendale avenue.

The NEWS office is still in possession of a stray set of false teeth which one of our citizens picked up on the street. If the owner will call and prove property we promise not to ask any embarrassing questions. We also have a Yale lock key found by Robert Haskell. A bunch of keys advertised two or three months ago is still unclaimed.

Dave Carney, the shoe man, at 536 Fourth street, Glendale, has been appointed agent for the Royal Tailors of Chicago, the largest merchant tailoring house in the world. Mr. Carney is in position now to show you 500 fine all-wool samples, to take your measure for a suit or overcoat, and guarantee a perfect fit. Try him for your next suit.

The city trustees have been holding daily sessions this week, being engaged in doing things to the tax roll, principally in the way of raising assessments. A general raise all along the line will probably be the result. After this is done notice will be given and taxpayers be given a chance to appear and show cause why a raise should not be made in cases where such action has been taken.

If you want a flour made near home you will find no better flour than the Pasadena Milling Co.'s "Best." It is made of the choicest California and eastern wheats scientifically blended. For sale by the leading grocers of Glendale.

GLENDAL, CAL., AUGUST 14, 1909

An Arkansas town has adopted a curfew ordinance for adults who must give an account of themselves when caught out on the street at night! "The world do move." What a good place this Arkansas town would be in which to take the rest cure!

The grave diggers of Sweden are on a strike. The death rate in that country will no doubt show a gratifying decrease, as the canny Swedes are not going to die while there is any doubt about their having a thoroughly satisfactory funeral.

Last week we chronicled the heroic action of Ida Lewis, the 64-year-old heroine of Lime Lighthouse; now we hear of the sprightly lady of 80 years who is the champion swimmer on her part of the New England coast, and Chicago has just elected a woman 64 years old to be principal of the schools of that city. The youngsters had better get back from their vacations and commence to do things or the old folks will have them beaten by several lengths.

Just at present Uncle Sam is conducting one of the most extensive lotteries known to history, in parceling out reservation lands in the northwest. The transaction makes the Louisiana lottery of malodorous memory look small. Yet probably a very large proportion of the people who are taking the chances on drawing a farm, would scrupulously refrain from the common forms of gambling. We do not call attention to this matter for the purpose of criticizing the act of our government, but simply to remark that perfect consistency is a rare jewel and that even the sin of gambling is only relative.

CLEAN UP.

On nearly every street of our city there are to be found stretches of unimproved parkways covered with dried up grass and weeds, and vacant lots which are by the same prodigality of unrestrained nature, made unsightly. These lots in many cases belong to non-residents, but not all of them have title excuse for their unsightliness. Some of them are owned by residents of Glendale who have bought them as an investment, but spend nothing on them except the amount of taxes taken from them by process of law. As far as these latter owners are concerned we hope that they will arise to the necessities of the situation and see that their property is not allowed to remain a public nuisance, remembering that ownership implies other responsibilities besides the payment of taxes. The non-resident owners are a harder proposition, but we believe that the most of them would be willing to contribute the small sum necessary to pay for cleaning up their property, if properly appealed to. The responsibility for looking after details of this kind unfortunately rests upon no one in particular. It would seem to be entirely practicable for the residents on a street or even on a block to band themselves together as small improvement societies for the special purpose of cleaning up the neglected lots and parkways in their immediate neighborhood. A very little systematic work along this line would produce very satisfactory results. In many cases a whole block of an improved street is spoiled by one or two lot fronts the weeds on which encroach on the sidewalk. It should be an easy matter for the residents on such a street to go to work without any formality whatever and clean up such neglected lots. The appearance of our city could be greatly improved by a very small proportion of effort properly applied.

THE TARIFF.

President Taft did not secure all that he desired in the tariff bill, but yet did a great deal. He compelled congress to do at least partial justice to the Philippines and reduce very materially the duty on the products of our Pacific islands. He dealt a hard blow to the stocking and glove trusts and secured a material reduction on certain raw products. Like a wise man and good politician he did not attempt to do the impossible but accepted the situation with a spirit of thankfulness for a partial victory. A tariff system cannot and should not be overturned in a day nor even during the period of one congressional session. The interests involved are varied in extent and any action affecting them is far reaching in its influence. But the work of securing a tariff based upon true economic principles and dictated by a spirit of loyalty to the nation as a whole, with the welfare of the entire people as its first object, is well under way and must be accomplished in the near future. A respectable portion of the people are insisting upon it now; a majority of them will demand it later. A campaign of education has begun which will result in the people at large giving more intelligent attention to the subject and insisting that their representatives no longer use it for mere purposes of traffic. When the United States has a tariff system built upon true economic principles, there will be no room in it for an import duty upon such articles as sugar, rice and such cured fruit products as we cannot produce in quantities sufficient to supply the demand. California will not then in its selfish shortsightedness rejoice over an increased duty on lemons over the ample one formerly existing, nor in a similar increase on dried figs when the home product is inferior in quality and infinitesimal in quantity; nor be willing that all the people shall be taxed in order that the beet sugar trust may profit at their expense.

The fact that ten members of the senate had the courage to stand out against the majority of their political associates and make a strenuous fight for a revision of the tariff downward, means the ultimate success of the principle for which they struggled. Taft is not renominated to succeed himself the name of the next president of the United States will be found among the list of the ten insurgents.

THE CASE OF LUTHER BURBANK.

The Pasadena Gardeners association last week passed a resolution condemning the "nature faking methods and exploitations of alleged but false new creations by Luther Burbank" and deploring the fact that a false impression has been given concerning his work. The meeting was a lively one but there does not seem to have been any particular opposition to the passing of the resolution. The man who has been investigating Mr. Burbank and his work, is Mr. P. D. Barnhart of Los Angeles, former curator of the botanical museum of the University of Southern California. Mr. Barnhart visited Mr. Burbank's place a few weeks ago and his reception seems to have had the effect of arousing a prejudice in his mind against the "wizard."

His report is therefore tinged with some evidences of personal feeling and should be discounted accordingly. He is particularly severe in denouncing the "wonder-berry." He admits that the plants he saw in Burbank's garden at Santa Rosa had berries on them, but says that he never saw berries on similar plants anywhere else. He states further that plant men of the East assert that Mr. Burbank went into the highways and gathered the seed of the nightshade, which he sold for "wonder-berry" seed, intimating that the two plants are identical. This statement to the writer's personal knowledge is entirely untrue in its inference. The wonderberry resembles the nightshade only remotely; the former is a low growing weedy bush, while the latter is tall and woody in its habit of growth. The writer has on his grounds in Glendale a number of wonderberry plants, well filled with berries not yet mature.

The report of Mr. Barnhart does not appear therefore to be reliable and we can only wonder whether Mr. Burbank did say to him that he was "doing more than all the government bureaus and all the private stations in the world put together to produce new fruits and flowers," or that he has 300,000 new varieties of stone fruits on his place and has 50,000 fruiting! If he really said these things he is certainly a striking example of genius gone mad. And the adulation that he has been the object of, his secluded life, the over-taxing of one particular section of his brain cells, all these things make it quite possible that Luther Burbank's useful years are at an end. We never have been among those who believed that he has accomplished much more than a great many other workers in the same field, who have not been exploited in the magazines and newspapers.

The Burbank plum, one of his best known productions, is one of the least shuntable of the plum family. The crimson rhubarb and spineless cactus, one valuable and the other yet to be proved, seem both to have been not creations, but importations. Some of his achievements in producing new varieties of flowers are of value but no more wonderful than the work of Mrs. Shepherd at Ventura. Altogether we think that Luther Burbank has been greatly over rated, but do not believe that he is a "fakir." If he is the egotist that he appears to be by Mr. Barnhart's report, a hero-worshipping public must have at least a portion of the responsibility for the wreck of a fine intellect.

Bank of Glendale

We want to furnish you with the best there is in banking. A good majority of the people of this community are depositors in this bank. A few thoughtlessly forget that they owe anything to their home institutions, and are depositors in the Los Angeles banks. We want at least our share of them, too, and we are fully able to take care of them.

In the four years since the organization of this bank, we have lost less than one account per year except in case of removal to other fields. We expect to continue this record.

We sell the American Bankers' Association's form of guaranteed money orders at an average price of half that asked by the postoffice and express company.

On the 21st the Old Settlers have their annual picnic at Echo Park, to which everybody is invited and a good crowd will no doubt be in attendance as that place is so accessible. Both these affairs cover the district embracing Tropic, Burbank and Eagle Rock.

THE CITY ENGINEER'S OFFICE—AN EXCELLENT RECORD.

The city of Glendale has received on account of street work during the fiscal year just ended, $2342.18 and on account of work done by private contract $57.50, making total receipts from this source $2399.68. The expenses of the engineer's office have been $2379.10, leaving a net balance to the credit of that office of $20.58. In addition to this creditable and economical showing, the incidental expense of the street work has been reduced about two per cent.

Mr. E. W. Sanderson, a capitalist of Los Angeles who also has large interests in the San Fernando valley and Glendale, spent a portion of Wednesday in noting the growth and improvements in this section. Mr. Sanderson is an enthusiast on the subject of Glendale and thinks that no place he is acquainted with in the United States has such a bright future. He is the owner of the old Burlingham place and some acreage at corner of San Fernando road and Fourth street.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

(Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)
Paul's Third Missionary Journey—Ephesus. Lesson Acts xviii:23 to xix:22.

Golden Text—The name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Acts xix:17.

Verse 23—Is a systematic "follow up system," as essential in Christian work as it is to successful business?

Are any so strong that we cannot derive "strengthening" from the prayers and the experience of others, and are any so weak that we may not "strengthen" others?

Verse 24-26—What is the minimum of knowledge necessary in order that one may be a true child of God?

What are the minimum qualities essential to become a preacher of the gospel?

What good qualities for a preacher did this man Apollos possess?

What did "the baptism of John" include and what did it lack of full orbed Christianity?

What percentage of present day preachers will exceed Apollos (1) in their zeal and ability, (2) in their Christian knowledge, i. e., personal experience of Christ's gospel?

If Apollos had been conceded or anything less than a man of God, would he have submitted to teaching from a layman and his wife?

Verse 27—Should laymen use the pen more frequently to help preachers, when they know who are going to other towns?

Verse 28—Why is it that God has conditioned all human progress and betterment, including a knowledge of the gospel, upon the zeal, ability and goodness of those who already enjoy its benefits?

Chap. xix:1-7—Were these twelve persons whom Paul found at Ephesus, actually the reconverted children of God at this time?

What proportion, of present day Christians, have practically the same experience as these twelve disciples had, when Paul met them?

Is the Holy Spirit, as spoken of in this lesson, generally received at or subsequent to conversion?

If it is now the privilege of every Christian to receive the Holy Spirit, and to walk in Him thereafter, how may He be received?

Was the gift of tongues and prophesying then, or is it now, a necessary accompaniment of the baptism of the Holy Spirit? (See I Cor. 12:4-11; 29, 30.)

Is there anything necessarily implied in receiving the Holy Spirit, other than the constant realization that God dwells in us, to keep us holy, to guide us in all things, and to give us necessary power and wisdom to carry out God's purposes concerning us?

Verse 8—Why ought, or ought not, the pulpit now, as Paul did then, to "dispute," or argue, and bring convincing proofs, compelling men's reasons, by powerful evidence, of the truths of Christianity, and not be content with simple declamation as is now so common? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 9-12—Apart from the miraculous power that Paul had, what was the secret of his success?

Verse 13-17—Why do some to-day blaspheme the name of God, and dare the power of God; are they possessed with the devil?

Verse 18-22—Does conversion always imply restitution, and the forsaking of every evil way?

TROPICO

N. C. Burch and family are having a few days' outing at Hermosa Beach.

Miss Faith Sence of Burbank, spent part of the week with Miss Blanche Davenport on Glendale avenue.

Dr. E. K. Tholen of Tropic, hereby gives notice that his number on Sunset phone has been changed to 2701.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lyman of Los Angeles visited their daughter, Mrs. Joseph H. Webster of "Ivy Nook" during the week.

Mrs. Alfred Engelhardt and Miss Hilda Engelhardt have returned from a visit to Mrs. E. J. Higgins and daughters at Wilmar.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Arnold, the latter formerly Miss Dorothy Harding, have gone to Redlands, where they will reside indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Blythe of Los Angeles were the week-end guests of Mrs. Blythe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Botts, of San Fernando road.

Miss Clella Thorne of Long Beach, has been spending several days this week with the Misses Lila and Lola Webster at their Parke Avenue home.

Mrs. Jackson of Edendale, and her mother, Mrs. Enyardt, spent Thursday, the 12th, in Tropic, with Rev. and Mrs. Goodsell at their home on Palmer avenue.

Mrs. J. H. Webster will entertain Miss Ollie Swisher of Cherokee, Ia., and Miss Nola Lyman of Los Angeles at her home on Parke avenue over the week end.

Mrs. Charles L. Snyder of Bridgeport, Conn., sister of Dr. Selden Ford, of Chicago, formerly of Glendale, is the week-end guest of Mrs. W. C. Watters of Glendale avenue.

Miss Nola Lyman of Los Angeles, accompanied by her house guest, Miss Ollie Swisher of Cherokee, Iowa, are the week-end guests of Mrs. Joseph H. Webster of "Ivy Nook."

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Richardson of San Fernando road joined the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce on the recent jaunt to Seattle and are now enjoying the exposition in that northern city.

Mrs. J. E. Hopkins entertained the Sunshine Society at her home on Glendale avenue Wednesday. A most interesting session was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held at the residence of the president, Mrs. A. M. Watson, on Brand boulevard.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church gave an old-fashioned hot dinner in the G. A. R. hall last night. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and was one of those fine affairs for which the ladies of this church are noted. The proceeds of the event will be used for the church.

Thanks are due Mr. O. A. Gallup, proprietor of the Tropic Mercantile Company, for the kindness extended in sending one crate of melons donated by Mrs. L. C. Rice, and boxes of peaches and plums, donated by Mrs. D. H. Emier, to the King's Daughters Nursery in Los Angeles.

Miss Blanche Davenport was hostess at a pretty little party at her home on Glendale avenue, Tuesday evening. Games and musical selections made the hours pass altogether too rapidly. The guests included Misses Evalena Ayers, May Cornwell, Miss Faith Sence of Burbank, Messrs. Albert Cornwell, Wilbur McFadden, Albert Marple and Ray Borthick.

Dwight Stevenson returned Tuesday evening from a several days' trip to Laguna Beach, where he was the guest of John A. Logan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Logan returned yesterday afternoon from Laguna Beach, where they have been spending their vacation for the past two weeks. Miss Mary Logan and Miss Dorothy Hobbs were with Mr. and Mrs. Logan during their stay by the seashore.

The Consolidated Water company of the valley has distributed pipes which will soon be laid from the Griswold pumping plant, which the company purchased some time ago, to Tropic reservoirs, to which place the water will be pumped. The pipes will run from the pumping plant to Cypress street, along Cypress to Glendale avenue, then north to Ninth street, where it will turn east and run along to the company's plant.

James Wells, Jr., and Ray Morrow were about the first to get into the "firing line" when the brush fire started near Woodberry's hill on Thursday. City Marshal Miller and two or three volunteers were soon on the ground from Glendale, and Constable Gault of Burbank was there with a few others whom he requisitioned. Sycamore canyon, in which there are a large number of houses and many acres of orchard, was in serious danger, but a good force of citizens of that locality turned out and about sunset the fire was under control. At one time it threatened to sweep over Verdugo Canyon and the surrounding hills, but was fortunately subdued before spreading over a very great area.

ENTERTAINS TENNESSEE FRIENDS.

Mrs. Joseph Griffin entertained a number of Tennessee friends very delightfully at her home on Central avenue, just north of Parke, last Sunday afternoon. At 5 o'clock a very uniquely-appointed luncheon was served by the hostess beneath the spreading trees at the rear of the house. The visitors were delighted with our little town.

The guests included: Mrs. William Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Overhiser, Mrs. Ray Simpson, Miss Virginia Boring and Misses Leola and Beale Simpson.

COYOTES STEAL CHICKENS.

The ranchers living along the foothills at the eastern part of Tropic report that during the early part of this week coyotes have carried off almost a hundred chickens from their yards.

J. W. Utter tells us that after the coyotes had made several visits to the neighborhood, he purchased a rifle and waited for the beasts to appear. Before daybreak Wednesday morning he went to the hills and waited for some time. Finally his patience was rewarded and a bank of six coyotes came over the hill, headed directly toward him. When the beasts were close enough for him to see them distinctly he fired at the largest in the band, killing it in its tracks. Mr. Utter shot at several others as they ran but because of the subdued light was unable to hit them. He claims that this coyote is the largest he has ever killed, although he has been hunting them hundreds of times during the last thirty years.

Monday evening fifty chickens belonging to Mrs. Davee were taken and a number belonging to Mr. Utter are missing. The hills close to these homes are literally covered with feathers from the fowl.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

The regular preaching service will be held at this church next Sunday morning, and the pastor will deliver the discourse. In the evening the seventh of the series of union meetings being held between the Methodist and this church will be held in our edifice on Sunday evening. These meetings are proving very interesting and everyone should make a special effort to attend. At next Sunday evening's service Rev. J. H. Henry, pastor of the Methodist church, will deliver the sermon. There will be special music on this occasion.

The regular weekly prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brown on Walnut street Thursday evening. This, as was the meeting a week previous, was very well attended, about twenty-five people being present.

The ladies of the Aid of this church wish it announced that their society will meet every Wednesday afternoon from this time until Christmas. The reason for these weekly meetings is to complete the elaborate arrangements planned for the bazaar which the society will give just before the holidays. Mr. Shoemaker is making many improvements to the grounds surrounding his new little home at the corner of Blanche avenue and Cypress street. He has laid out flower beds and walks and is filling in the walks. Many beautiful plants and flowers will be planted soon.

TROPICOITES HAVE NARROW ESCAPE.

While on their way between this place and Ocean Park last Sunday morning the members of a party which were in Hal Davenport's auto narrowly escaped being killed, when the machine collided with a street car on Hoover street in Los Angeles. The accident happened at 9:45 in the morning and had it not been that fortune favored them the occupants of the machine would have at least been severely injured.

The machine, with Mr. Davenport at the wheel, was going down Hoover street at a moderate rate of speed, when at the junction of Hoover and Adams the driver saw a University car coming down Adams street at a terrific rate. Although the machine was just a few feet from the tracks Mr. Davenport saw that he would not be able to make the crossing and still escape colliding with the street car, so he immediately put on the brakes, but could not stop until the front part of the machine was on the tracks.

When the collision occurred the machine was knocked about thirty feet into the gutter. The right front wheel was torn off and the radiator was shattered. The strange thing about the accident was that no one in the car was hurt. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Balentine were in the machine. The Davenport auto was taken to a "Auto hospital" for repairs, and until the machine is fixed Mr. Davenport is using a Ford machine.

TROPICO IMPROVEMENT MEETING.
Although the meeting of the Tropic Improvement Association was poorly attended Monday evening, those who did attend showed much interest and the meeting was not without consequence.

The matter of voting this place into an electric lighting district to be known as the Tropic Lighting District, was brought before the meeting and received lengthy discussion. An election has been called by the supervisors for this purpose and at the meeting Monday evening citizens expressed themselves as being in favor of the proposition. If the voters declare themselves in favor of forming this district at the polls on the 25th of this month, electric lights will be installed in this place in the near future and all the property in the district will be equally assessed to pay for this improvement.

In the storm water proposition the whole matter amounts to just this: The people in North Glendale in the neighborhood of the wash have asked the supervisors to establish a "storm water district," and in this district the whole of Tropic has been included. If this district is formed the property in the entire district will be assessed equally to pay for the work of improving the wash so that the winter's storm water will be unable to do any damage to this valley. As the matter appears to the people of Tropic at this time, the people of North Glendale have included the people at this end of the valley in this district so that they must assist in paying for the improving of the wash, although they will never receive any benefit from the improvement. A committee composed of Charles Murray, W. A. Watson, Mr. Shney, W. C. Watters, F. C. Richardson and Henderson C. Shoemaker was appointed to confer with the upper-valley people to see why this place was included in this storm water district.
