WASHINGTON, D. C.

Office, No. 501 Seventh street, between D and E, one square south of City Post Office.

THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1856.

Our paper is crowded this week with political matters, but the reader must remember that all the parties are now organizing for campaign.

We respectfully request of all our friends who are in a position to extend the circulation of the Era, to exert themselves for that purpose.

At a meeting of the Republican Association of Washington City, held on the evening of May 25th, the following named persons were appointed delegates to attend the National Convention.

MR. SUMNER.

Mr. Sumner is improving as fast as could be reasonably expected, after the very severe cold which he has recently recovered from.

While this struggle is watched with profound solicitude by the Slave-Propagandists of Northern California, who have thus far been defeated in their attempts to divide State, or single Slavery into its lower half, only by the force of the Naive vote.

CONGRESS.

Congress has been adjourning from time to time, without transacting any business since last Thursday week.

At a meeting of the Republican Association of Washington City, held on the evening of May 25th, the following named persons were appointed delegates to attend the National Convention.

TUESDAY IN CONGRESS.

In the Senate, after the reading of the Journal, Mr. Thompson, of Kentucky, called attention to the reading of the Journal.

MR. SEWARD CONCERNED IN THE VIEW THAT MR. STUART SHOULD BE EJECTED TO RETAIN THE OFFICE.

Mr. Seward concurred in the view that Mr. Stuart should be ejected to retain the office.

WHERE RESTS THE RESPONSIBILITY?

We record in another place the doings of the Cincinnati Convention. It is not readily considered the strange spectacle presented by that assemblage? Three years ago, the whole of the vast region originally known as Louisiana Territory, above the line of 36° 30', repudiated the sanction of a solemn compact.

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

Next Tuesday at Philadelphia, will assemble a National Convention of delegates, chosen by the People without distinction of party, to nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, on the issues growing out of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and other acts of like character.

THE CINCINNATI NOMINATIONS.

A few weeks ago it was the prevailing opinion among the people of this State, that the Cincinnati Convention would elect its President and Vice President, and also its delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

THE WAR IN KANSAS.

The correspondence of the Missouri Republican, writing from Independence, May 26th, reports that General Harney is to supersede Col. Sumner, in command of the troops in Kansas.

SLAVERY IS AGAINST NATURAL RIGHT, AND THEREFORE EVERY PROVISION IN RELATION TO IT IN THE CONSTITUTION MUST BE CONSIDERED STRICTLY.

It can exist only by positive enactment, which has no force beyond the jurisdiction of the enacting power. Slavery entering a free State, by the action or consent of its masters, becomes free. The Federal Constitution always regards slaves as persons, not as property.

THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION. Last week we printed the report of the first day's proceedings of this Convention.

Second Day.—John E. Ward, of Georgia, was elected permanent President of the Convention...

Third Day.—Mr. Hallett, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported a platform, broad enough to hold all sorts of slaveholders and serviles.

And whereas, since the foregoing declaration of independence, the people of this country have been united in National Conventions, an adverse political and religious test has been secretly organized...

Resolved, That, claiming fellowship with and desiring the co-operation of all who regard the preservation of the Union, and who insist that the rights of the States should be maintained...

Resolved, That, in view of the condition of the country, and the danger of sectional agitation, combined with the attempt to enforce civil and religious disabilities against the people...

Resolved, That, in view of the condition of the country, and the danger of sectional agitation, combined with the attempt to enforce civil and religious disabilities against the people...

Resolved, That our geographical and political position, and the interests of this State, and of this continent, no less than the interests of our growing commerce and the development of our growing population...

Resolved, That our geographical and political position, and the interests of this State, and of this continent, no less than the interests of our growing commerce and the development of our growing population...

Resolved, That our geographical and political position, and the interests of this State, and of this continent, no less than the interests of our growing commerce and the development of our growing population...

Mr. Salisbury, of Delaware, declared his opposition to the resolution, and that he was unwilling that any resolutions should be introduced into the platform, upon which a Democratic could stand.
