Extract from the act of incorporation.

4. Be it further enacted, That the owners of lots situated in the State of Louisiana, and who possessions thereof, shall be the only persons entitled to subscribe, and shares to be subscribed, shall be transferable only to such owners until after four years, when they shall be transferable to any owner of real estate in the state, whether citizen or not, provided, however, that to secure the capital or interest of said bank, no share shall be given to the amount of four millions of dollars on property situated in the city of New Orleans and its suburbs.

8. Be it further enacted, &c. That to secure the payment of the capital and interest of said bonds, the subscribers shall be bound to give mortgage to the direction of the direction on property to be in all cases equal to the amount of their respective stock, which mortgages may bear on cultivated lands and on lots with buildings or other edifices yielding a rent. That such said mortgages may also be created on lands not cultivated but susceptible of cultivation, vacant lots; Provided, that no more than one half the stock of each stockholder may be secured by mortgage on unimproved lands not included in the town, and on vacant lots in the city and suburbs of New Orleans. No mortgage on slaves alone shall be received. That when a mortgage shall be offered on lands and slaves the value of the land shall be equal to two thirds of the stock for which the mortgage is given. That houses and other buildings erected to the bank, shall always be insured against risk of fire, and the policy of insurance transferred to said institution, but it shall not be necessary to insure buildings on plantations.

No mortgage shall be received on a brick or other brick buildings for more than one half their value; and on a frame house for more than one third its value. That no one shall be permitted to subscribe until he shall deliver to the commissioners a good act of sale, or patents or certificates of confirmation from the said commissioners of the United States or partition sales and adjudications by a decree of a court of justice verified according to law, or such other evidence of title to the property proposed as a security to the bank, as may be deemed satisfactory by the commissioners or directors. That property already mortgaged may be received as guarantee; Provided, that the direction shall first deduct from the whole value of the property at least twice the amount of the mortgages, and then grant such only on the estimate remaining after such deduction; Provided, however, that the mortgage existing on said property shall not prevent the board of said bank from receiving them as security for stock when the sum to be loaned is to be secured in the extraordinary payment of said mortgages.
