The I have took up the act amending the act making combination to Messers. Trastour, Carpenter and Forshey, and after debating the same in Committee or the Whole, on motion of Mr. Boudousquit the Committee one. Mr. Carter then offered a substitute to giving each of these centlemen an equal sum, which was juded insulmissible, and the bill was laid on the was juded inadmissible, and the bill was laid on the table subject to call.

In motion of Mr. Winchester the House took up to be bill to smend the activalsive to the banks. The bill permit took banks which have not accepted the feet increase their currency under certain restrictions. It met with much opposition from Mears. Ratiff and Canon, and was supported warnly and ably by Mr. Winchester. An smendeent, confining it soperation to the Union Bank, was rejected. Mr. Baylies effere la previous rendering the bill confermable to the original bank bill, which was adopted. Mr. Baylies effere la previous rendering the bill confermable to the original bank bill, which was adopted. The discussion on the merits of the bill was then reasoned, Mr. Carno opposing it with his usual veheramene, and Gen'i Thomas sustained with pertinency and effect. The first section of the bill was then address, yeas 19, nays 14; and the bill was engrossed jor its final passage to morrow at 12 o'clock.
