NEW ORLEANS:
TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 10, 1868.

OUR DEFEAT EFFECTED BY FRAUD.

In commenting upon the result of the Presidential election, a few days ago, we characterized Gen. Grant's majority as an "overwhelming" one. Of course, we did not mean that an overwhelming majority of the American people were in favor of his election, but that on the basis on which the contest was fought, the defeat of his antagonist was a crushing and overpowering defeat. The Democracy went into the fight very much like a man with his right hand tied behind his back: without the South the party was in too crippled a condition to engage the compact, united, unscrupulous masses of their Republican adversaries. The advantages were all with the latter, with the exception that the just cause was on the side of the Democracy, and it is not always that a just cause is victorious. The Democracy knew when they engaged their antagonism that three of the Southern States would not be allowed to participate in the election, and that by the diafranchisements, manipulations and frauds effected by Congress and its agents in the others, there could be no full, fair and free election.

The table we publish to-day and the comments made thereon show that in a fair election Seymour might easily have been successful.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

Of General Grant's votes, forty four have been given him by fraud in the Southern States. With a free election, no Southern State would have voted for him. The twenty-three votes not cast should be added to Mr. Seymour's vote, which, with Alabama and Arkansas, and the other States of the South, would give him one hundred and fifty-seven and elect him. If justice were done, Mr. Seymour should be declared elected.

By conceding 44 votes from Grant, for the Southern States, which we claim would have voted for Seymour, but for the manipulation of Congress, you have 152 votes for Grant. Add these 44 votes to Seymour's vote, with that of the 4 yet doubtful States, (Alabama, Arkansas, Oregon and California,) and that of the 3 States not voting, and you have 165 for Seymour, thus:

For Seymour, 7 States	77 votes.
Doubtful, four States	21 "
Not voting, three	23 "
Take from Grant six Southern States	44 "

By conceding California to Grant, Seymour would still have a majority of 3 votes.

It is the figuring of the Republican that is "very bad," not ours. It is too soon to credit Grant with California and Oregon, as the Republican, in its calculation, has done.

Let it try again!

We learn that His Grace, the Archbishop of this diocese, left the city yesterday on the steamboat "Nina Simmes," accompanied by the Rev. Abbé Chaloo, on a visiting tour to a portion of his episcopate—we believe to the parishes of Feliciana and Pointe Coupée and that section of the State. On account of the Archbishop's weakness and bad health, Mr. Chaloo will relieve him of the heavier part of the labor attendant upon these ministrations.

THE OPERA TROUPE.—The Transatlantic Company's steamship Darien arrived at this port on Sunday evening, having on board Mr E. Calabresi and the artists lately engaged by him in Paris. They are in excellent condition to undertake their professional labors.

THE ONE PER CENT SPECIAL TAX — We are requested to call the attention of the members of the Real Estate Owners Association to the resolution adopted at a meeting held last night, instructing the Committee on Laws, Finance and Taxation, to employ counsel to contest the legality of the one per cent. special State Tax. This resolution will be found in our advertising columns accompanied by a notice to those members who have been served with notice of the tax, to exhibit the same at the office of the Association immediately.

See announcement of Mr. Sam. Flower, Secretary of the Association.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

The following table shows the result of the election as nearly as it can be made up, from the returns so far received.

Of Gen. Grant's votes, forty four have been given him by fraud in the Southern States. With a free election no Southern State would have voted for him. The twenty-three votes not cast should be added to Mr. Seymour's vote, which, with Alabama and Arkansas, and the other States of the South, would give him one hundred and fifty-seven and elect him. AMUSEMENTS.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—" Under the Gas Light" was given last night most admirably before a crowded audience. The same piece is to be repeated this evening.

ST. CHARLES THEATRE.—We were sorry to see that Mr. Mark Smith did not have such a house last night as his merits deserved. To night will be the last of his engagement. Taylor's fine comedy "Nine Points of the Law," with song by Mr. Smith "Old Sparkling Ale," DeBar in Toodles, and the extravaganza Jenny Lind, are the features of the programme.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The young Spanish tragedian Ariane M'lle. Millie Tourneur fairly electrified an audience which filled the Academy last night from top to dome. Her merits as an artiste are such that it would be impossible to speak of them in terms of exaggeration She is but fourteen years of age and as beautiful as she is daring. The feats of all male artists we have seen "pale in insignificance" in comparison with her's. She stands on tiptoe on the trapeze, swinging backwards and forwards and from right to left, and around in a circle, and dropping and catching herself with a nerve and dexterity that make her a human marvel and place her performances beyond conception. She could not seem more etherial and elegant were we to imagine her "a fairy poised on the mist of a waterfall."

ARMS' CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE.—This exhibition continues to be finely patronized. The celebrated equestrienne, Miss Lucille Watson, appeared last evening and will appear again to-night. She is a superb rider.

SHERMAN ON GRANT.—A gentleman who spent two hours with Gen. Sherman recently, says that he expressed the belief at the time Gen. Grant's administration of the Executive office will disappoint the extremists of both parties it being Grant's intention, if elected, to select men of moderate and conservative views for the Cabinet and initiate such a policy as will harmonize conflicting interests and restore peace to the entire country. Grant and Sherman recently spent several days together.

The Lecquet Institute.

We were agreeably surprised a few evenings ago, whilst making a call at the above Institution for Young Ladies, of which Miss M A. Burr is the able and accomplished Principal, to find ourselves fairly captured by a detachment of her fair wards, who had gotten up a little private entertainment of their own for the benefit of their relatives and friends. As "Barkis was willin,' however, we succumbed at once, and very unexpectedly found ourselves among members of our own craft, who fill with much credit to themselves, as well as immense gratification to their readers, the highly responsible posts of editress, reporter ess and critic ess of the Lecquet Journal, whose circulation—though extensive—and whose influence—though great—are both necessarily and unfortunately confined within the walls of the Lecquet Institute.

One of the many advantages which the fair editorial trio have over their less fortunate brethren of the press is, that in any controversy which might in ordinary circumstances call for a resort to "pistols and coffee," they could bring to bear upon the enemy such an artillery of killing glances as would at once put to flight the stoutest adversaries.

Our time honored, though ever youthful friend Eugene Prevost, was of course present to encourage the highly creditable performances of his pupils of the Lecquet Institute. We hope Miss M. G——, whose magnificent voice and superb singing of the grand scena of Lucia, excited such general admiration and applause, and Misses Kate J. and Annie G., who played on the piano two highly difficult selections from Rossini and Auber, with unbounded satisfaction to the audience, will not begrudge us the pleasure of complimenting them on their musical taste and ability—particularly as one of them is "a sister of the quill," and holds in the newspaper above alluded to, a somewhat corresponding position to ours in this journal.

Tribute of Respect to the Late Hon. P. A. Rost, A. M. Buchanan, and E. Warren Moise.—At a meeting of the bar of New Orleans in the Supreme Court room yesterday, Judge J. H. Illsley was called to the Chair and Judge Alexander Walker acted as Secretary.

On motion Messrs Jas B Eustis, Harry T. Hays, Henry M Hyams and W. A. Rhoare were appointed a Committee to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the bar at the loss from their midst of the worthy deceased. They accordingly pre ented the following resolutions which were read by Judge Illsley, approved and ordered to be spread upon the minutes of the court:

1. Resolved, That the bar of New Orleans, deeply impressed with the loss they have sustained by the death of the Hon. P. A. Rost, Hon A M Buchanan, and Hon. E. Warren Moise, sincerely deplore the decree of Providence by which they have been withdrawn from their midst.

2. Resolved, That the services of the Hon P. A. Rost as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court during a period of eight years were of incalculable benefit to our jurisprudence, having adorned that honorable position by valued professional learning, sterling integrity and fearless independence.

3. Resolved, That the Hon. A M Buchanan, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, discharged his duties with eminent ability, great learning, untiring industry and firmness, and purity of character.

4. Resolved, That we cherish an affectionate remembrance of the many virtues of the Hon. E Warren Moise, as a late Attorney General, so long known to the profession for his exalted legal accomplishments and private worth.

5. Resolved That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days

6 Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be transmitted to the respective families of the deceased; communicating also, the deep and sincere sympathy felt by the members of the bar in their affliction.

Supreme Court.—The Court met yesterday pursuant to adjournment. Present, Associate Justices Taliaferro, Howell, Howe and Wylly. Absent, Judge Chief Justice Merrick. Several applications for rehearing were denied and cases fixed.

Personal.—A carriage and two horses arrived on Sunday, per steamer Legal Tender, from Louisville, consigned to Gen. Longstreet. As the gallant Confederate General of that name, and are we to have him as a citizen of New Orleans?

Hope Hook and Ladder Co No. 3.—Mr. William Ewan, Foreman of this Company, informs us that George Deno, whose name was accidentally connected with the unfortunate shooting affair last Saturday on Orleans street, was not a member of the Company, as stated in our report.

Concert.—Mr. Leo Wheat, a Southern pianist of high character, will give his debut concert in this city Thursday, 12th inst., at Odd Fellows' Hall. He will be assisted by Mr. Henry Farmer, a flutist of fine reputation, and by the best artistic and amateur talent of the city, including the full orchestra of the French Opera troupe.

Accident.—About 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon a young man named Theo Heller was accidentally cut in the wrist with a knife by Lawrence Cronan, on Claiborne street, between Bienville and Conti. The young men were playing with the knife when the accident occurred. The wounded man was taken to his residence, No. 309 Conti street, and a physician called in. He is not considered danger ously injured, although the wound is very severe.

Shooting Affray.—An altercation took place Sunday afternoon, on the corner of Crape and Esplanade streets, between two colored men, in which Benjamin Washington was shot and wounded in the head by Joseph Lafoux The assailant was arrested and the wounded man taken to his residence.

Died of his Injuries.—The colored man Joseph Punch, recently shot in the head in a difficulty with one of his race, died Sunday, at the Charity Hospital, from the effect of his wound. The coroner was notified, held an inquest, returned a verdict in accordance with the facts

Distressing.—Sunday, a woman came to the office of Deputy Coroner Espinola with a child in her arms who had been dead three days. She said she had no residence, that the child had lately arrived from Germany, and that a landlord with whom she was stopping ordered to leave the house the day the child was born. She said she had had nothing to eat for some time, except what Mr. Espinola kindly provided.

The Accidental Killing at Miss Lavelle's.—The inquest into the causes of the killing of this lady Saturday evening on Orleans street, while she was casually passing where some shooting occurred, was concluded Sunday, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts which were substantially detailed by us in our report published in the Bee of Sunday morning, that the deceased was shot and wounded fatally in the leg, below the knee, as stated, and that the pistol, when fired, was in the hands of Charles Stevens, while cleaning it. Charley Stevens, while cleaning at George Deno, on Orleans, between Burgundy and Dauphin streets

An affidavit was thereupon made by Mr Espinola, charging Calistano Estevano, as principal, and John Toby, alias Tobey, and George Deno as accessories to the killing of Miss Adele Lavelle.

An affidavit was made at the same time by Deno against Annie Hamilton, charging her with stabbing him with intent to kill, just after the shooting.

It is not believed that any surgical attention could have saved Miss Lavelle, as she died very quickly after she was so unfortunately wounded, and that no blame attaches to the officers of the station.

Shooting Affray Between Boys.—Two boys named Sandy Haus and Barney Doyle engaged in a quarrel Sunday, on the Eighth Street Canal, which resulted in the former receiving a stab in the left side. The wound is not, however, considered dangerous Tne wounded boy was taken to his residence, on St. Louis street, between Second and Third, and a physician called in.

Boy Drowned.—A boy named James Thomas was drowned last river Sunday, at the foot of Jackson street, said river at the time was about seven years of age, and resided close by City Mortality.—There were 113 deaths in the cemeteries of New Orleans, during the week ending Sunday morning, November 8th, as reported to Dr. G W. Dimmyer, Secretary of the Board of Health. Three died of wounds, one of hydrophobia, one was accidentally killed, 17 of still births, and 15 of fever. No epidemic of any kind.

Burglaries.—The residence of Joseph Nip pert, on the corner of Bienville and Claiborne streets, was entered during his colored lying, and robbed of a quantity of silver ware. The robbers effected an entrance through one of the windows, and escaped in the same way.

The military store of Hall & Marcus, No. 52 Chartres street, was burglariously entered at a late hour Saturday night, and robbed of goods to the value of about $1000. The burglars effected an entrance through the second story by climbing upon the gallery fronting on the street from the adjoining building. The windows of the second story of the store were open at the time and was occupied by the family, who left them open on account of the heat of the night. Officer Hundley, on the night watch, discovered the house arrest, subsequently saw the burglars throw some of the goods under one of the iron crossings of the street, and succeeded in capturing one of the thieves named Frank O'Hara, the others escaping while he was struggling to hold O'Brien.

Sorrowful Hurt.—A man named Louis Coldwear, Bull Run, is shot at 12 o'clock yesterday, corner of Felicity and New Levee streets, and was seriously hurt. He was taken to his residence corner of Josephine and Bousseau streets

Drowned.—An unknown man fell off the ferry-boat "Campbell," while in the middle of the river yesterday, and was drowned, despite all efforts to save him. His body has not been recovered. He is supposed to be Hugh Niblo's bar-keeper in Algiers. His hat and small box are at the Third precinct station.

Subsequently the friends of the man identified the hat and small box as belonging to Victor Abadie, who kept a coffee house and restaurant on Orleans street, between Marais and Villere streets, opposite Tremé market, where his wife resides. They are of the opinion he committed suicide. He was a native of France. He has for some time been complaining that his business did not pay, and expressed a determination to take his life on account of his financial embarrassments.

Furious Driving.—Allen Collins, colored, was arrested yesterday, charged by P Murphy, special agent for the City Railroad Company, with furiously driving his wagon into one of the cars, and endangering the lives of passengers.

Larceny.—Thomas Kay, colored, was arrested last evening on the levee, charged with stealing a double barreled gun, a gold watch, a revolver, $60 in money, and a carpet bag. He will be arraigned to day before Recorder Becker.

Mary Sheridan was arrested last evening on Bolivar street, First District, charged by Catherine Horan with stealing $102 25 from her. The case will be examined to-day by Recorder Becker.

Fatal Fall.—An inquest was held yesterday by Coroner Arilla, on the body of John Chaswell, 32 years old, native of Nova Scotia, found dead on the American ship Gettysburg from New York. Death resulted from the effects of a fall from the topsail yard of the vessel while at sea the 8th inst.

First District Court.—The case of special officer Dumas, charged with two others, of robbing Mrs. Hinsforne, who keeps a fruit stand in the Magazine Market, of a $20 bill and $2 50 in gold, was tried yesterday. Dumas was convicted of larceny, and the others acquitted. Dumas professed to have taken the money as a detective, to see if it was counterfeit, but kept it. The excuse for the search is that Batafora himself had been suspected of having counterfeit sketches in his possession.

Washington Correspondence.

The Richmond Dispatch, of Wednesday last, has the following

WASHINGTON, November 2, 1868.

The impression has prevailed in some quarters that General Grant would resign his military office to-day, but there have been no indications at any time to warrant the belief; and in reality there is no good reason why he should resign obsolete, for until the very date of his inauguration as President, in case of election; and it is also the best presumption to say that he will not give up his military office just now In case he is elected President, there will be no change whatever in the organization of headquarters here That change would come after Grant went into the White House, and the present probability is that Sherman would be appointed General in his place Some have imagined that if the Republicans elect their ticket to-morrow, their President, content to remain in the high office he now occupies, would resign the Presidency in favor of Mr. Colfax; and no doubt hopes of such a consummation are devoutly held even now. But this year, there will be no such event to mark the history of the Republican party.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

Washington, Nov. 9—Grant is attending to the routine of his duty. Many visitors call, but Grant don't seem to encourage conversation regarding his future action.

Only two Congressmen and three Senators are here.

Rollins decides that liquor dealers in making wines must draw off into regular barrels what may be in their stand casks, for proper gauging and stamping.

State Department advices indicate but little real progress in the Alabama Claims. Seward, it is understood, is in condition to Johnson's proposed settlement, and there is a dead lock.

The Dyer Ordnance Court, comprising Generals Terry, Hancock, Thomas and others, convened to-day.

Gen. Hancock visited the President to-day.

McCulloch decides that imported tobacco, snuff and cigars intended to escape revenue stamps unless withdrawn from the Customhouse for consumption or sale in the United States.

At Belvidere, Ohio, Gen. Grant addressed a Republican procession, saying: "Gentlemen, I see many of you in uniforms; you laid them off when the war ended, and you can now lay them off again, and we will have peace. Good night."

MISCELLANEOUS INTELLIGENCE.

St. Louis, Nov. 9—Heavy rains check business.

New York, Nov. 9.—The Gen. Meade had a hole knocked in herbow.

New York, Nov. 9.— The Franklin, the flagship of Admiral Farragut, has arrived from Europe.

Charleston, Nov. 9.— The Daily News has nearly complete returns from every county in South Carolina, giving a Republican majority of 7800. A majority of 32 500 from the election for the new Constitution in April last.

Tallahassee, Fla, Nov. 8—Nothing of importance has transpired since the report of Saturday. Considerable excitement exists on the subject of the Governor's election.

Fire and in consideration of them and many other crimes and misdemeanors which have come to my knowledge, I ask at the hands of the Assembly the impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors, of Harrison Reed, Governor of Florida.

HORATIO JENKINS, Jr.,
Executive Secretary.

Gov. Reed refuses to recognize the action of the Legislature, and declares it illegal. Lieut. Gov. Gleason this morning demanded the office of the Executive, and was refused by Gov. Reed, who has brought suit against Gleason and Aldon, Secretary of State, before the Circuit Judge, for conspiring against the government, and they are now under arrest. This case will be sent up to the Supreme Court. The general impression seems to be that Reed is in the right.

The vote of Gov. Reed against Lieut Gov. Gleason and Secretary Aldon, before Judge Cole, this afternoon, was put over till Friday next.

The following proclamations has been issued

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
Tallahassee, Fla., Nov 6, 1868.

Whereas, The Assembly of Florida, as duly organized in extraordinary session, held by virtue of a proclamation issued by the Governor of Florida on the 3d day of November, A. D. 1868, have impeached Harrison Reed, Governor of the State, for high crimes and misdemeanors in office; and,

Whereas, Under the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Florida, the said Harrison Reed, Governor of Florida, is debarred from exercising the functions of the Executive office of the State, and the administration thereof devolves upon the Lieutenant Governor.

Now, therefore, I, Wm. H Gleason, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Florida, do issue this my proclamation, taking possession of the Executive Department of the government of the said State. I hereby call upon all citizens of the State to support the government, obey the laws of the State and preserve the public peace.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed, this 6th day of November, A. D. 1868

(Signed) W. H. GLEASON,
Acting Lieutenant Governor.
Attest—GEO. J ALDEN, Secretary.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Tallahassee, Florida, Nov. 7, 1868.

To the Sheriff of Leon county, State of Florida:

Sir: I am, under the Constitution and laws of the State, an eligible Governor elected, and shall continue to exercise the power and authority, and discharge all the duties belonging to the office of Governor. Executive Department, and the judicial tribunals of the State shall obey this order without question. To the determination of the judiciary I will, like any other good citizen, yield peaceful and immediate obedience.

(Signed) HARRISON REED,
Governor.

Governor Reed occupies the Executive rooms in the capitol, and therefore. He guard at the capital at one o'clock this morning, or at half past seven to night The citizens apparently indifferent to night, but as no one could profit by it, hope soon to be.

London, Nov. 8.—Dispatches from Italy report the Papal army depleted by increasing desertions.

The Liberal party estimate their majority in the next House over one hundred. The female suffrage was argued before the grand length in the Court of Common Pleas A full bench decision given on Monday. Much interest.
