foreword

A year in retrospect. Fall begins a new school year with new faces; autumn leaves of red, gold, and brown turn the campus into a riot of color. Days pass quickly and soon a blanket of snow transforms our campus into a winter wonderland. As spring makes its late debut, we realize that our year is almost completed. Then it's graduation, a final good-bye, and only moments to remember. In pictorial review we present this year at Appalachian State Teachers College—1960—truly a wonderful year.

It was a wonderful summer, but it's really great to be back. You meet new faces, new professors, new classes; you see the beauty of the surrounding mountains; then it's football games, homecoming, parallel reading and term papers. Finally it's home for the holidays and . . .

you return to a land of ice and snow.

Winter

It is the beginning of a new quarter, the process of registration, the annual debut of fabulous Boone wind—sleet, snow, and more snow, heavy coats, red faces, and fur-lined boots—holidays, and a variety of activities. Then it's time for exams again and you realize that . . .

suddenly, even in boone, it's spring!

Spring

The days are numbered and that lazy feeling engulfs you as you realize that spring is here to stay. You concentrate on day-dreaming, lying in the sun, and making excuses, then there's the maze of final exams, packing to go home, graduation—a diploma, a degree—then suddenly it's a reality . . .

and another teacher goes forward.

in memoriam

ROBERT "BOB" BROOME

Head football coach. Classroom teacher.

Spirit of fair play and sportsmanship.

Friend of Appalachian.

w e h o n o r

His interests in the students and his untiring efforts to serve the students, the faculty, and the college have often been observed.

For his many years of service we dedicate the 1960 RHODODENDRON to our head librarian, MR. LEONARD EURY.

BOB BREITENSTEIN
Head Coach

With the coming of autumn came another fine season of football at Appalachian. Spectators saw little difference in the opening games, but many missed the familiar figure of the late Bob Broome pacing the sidelines.

The spirit of fair play and sportsmanship, for which Coach Broome stood, lived in the minds of App coaches and players. Coach Bob Breitenstein, former part-time assistant to Coach Broome, became head coach this year. With Coach Breitenstein's experience on the gridiron, the Fighting Mountaineers had a very successful season.

Co-Captains

Cal Bureson, an end from Barium Springs, has been co-captain for two of his three years on the team. An academic scholarship student, he has been elected to the All-Conference team for the past two years.

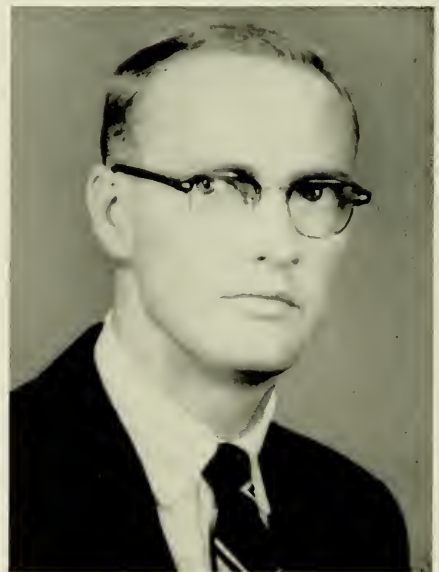

Jack White, co-captain for two years, is a guard. The Lexington native has played for four seasons and made the All-Conference team two years. Last fall he was awarded the Bob Broome Memorial Scholarship.

All the sweat, blood, and tears that went so far toward making football the autumn King of the Campus pushed the 1959 squad into second place in the North State Conference. They boast an overall record of six wins against four losses.

Freezing weather on game nights, faithful spectators, energetic cheerleaders, and a spirited band reflect this season's events. The hours spent in skull practice and scrimmages in the mud reflected the Mountaineers' determination to win.

The Religious Council is composed of the presidents and two other members from each of the church affiliated groups, the YMCA, and the YWCA. The function of the council is to bring closer harmony among all religious organizations on campus.

Sponsoring an annual Religious Emphasis Week, this group invites widely-known speakers to the campus. "The Christian Collegian" was the theme for this annual event.

Group of Religious Council members chat with Dr. Jones.

We are all collegians. The question the Religious Council asked was "Are We Christian Collegians?" This week we attempted to find out what a Christian Collegian is; what he stands for; what his beliefs are concerning cheating, love, courtship, marriage, and other problems facing the college student today; and how he "rates" on campus.

Dr. Charles Jones of Chapel Hill was the main speaker. Helping to make this annual event a success were the Appalachian College Choir, the Girls' Chorus, the Modern Dance Club, the College Chorale, and the playwrighters of Western Carolina who presented the play, Everyman.

The Mountaineers boasted a season record of sixteen wins against six losses. Catawba was the only team we did not defeat. The Apps lost in the Spindale Tournament to Lenoir Rhyne. In the North State Tourney, the Mountaineers advanced to the semi-finals but were defeated by Catawba.

The 1959-60 basketball season at Appalachian was a successful one due to the team and their Coaches and the good spirit displayed by the students.

The 1959 baseball season at Appalachian was handicapped, as usual, by bad weather. The team was composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores with little experience. Although the team won only three games, they showed great determination. If the breaks had gone their way, the season would have been much more successful.

Jim Parker catches a grounder.

Dellinger hits ball and runs.

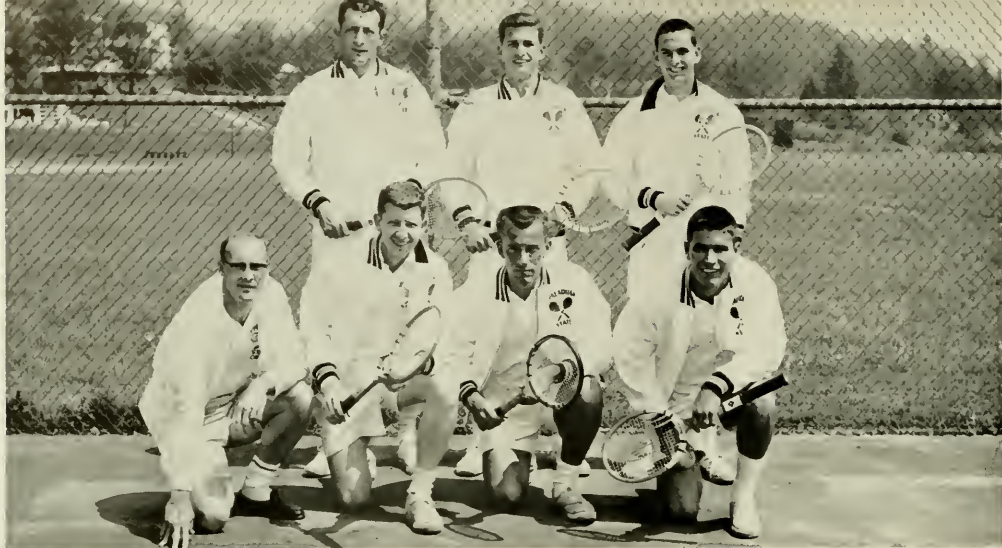

Kinney throws to Riggs.

Catch that foul ball!

On the basis of service, citizenship, extra-curricular activity, scholarship, and promise of future usefulness, thirty students from Appalachian State Teachers College are listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. This book is published to provide an incentive for who's who among students in american universities and colleges students to get the most out of college and to recognize those who have been outstanding. Tapped in recognition of leadership and character, students are nationally honored by this organization and benefit from its student placement service.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — When you have a good time at the movies.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — When you laugh and cry at things you see on the screen.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — That youngsters have come to know and love the movies as a very special treat.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — That Hollywood is constantly searching for new ideas and bringing them to life.

IT IS OUR PLEASURE — That we have a part in the entertaining of the students of Appalachian State Teachers College.
