

1. Please specify for your program

2. Ideas for evaluation

Changes beyond the target group (impact)	Wikimedia projects are considered a valid platform for knowledge sharing by a range of institutions, and volunteer efforts are widely recognised in society. — Access to free knowledge has economic and civic impact on society.	New successful initiatives for free knowledge come from a range of organisations.
Change in condition/ situation	Increased quality and coverage of content and diverse topics are accessible on Wikimedia projects, and free licenses are increasingly becoming the norm. Institutions have established routines and policies for how to contribute as an organisation.	Monitoring policy changes. Number of new free resources
Change in action	Educators return with new classes and new Wikipedia assignments. Individuals take initiatives to further free knowledge. Institutions systematically engage more of their staff in contributing.	Surveys Formation of new partnerships and long term commitments
Change in skills, knowledge or motivation	Participants learn about free knowledge and how to contribute to Wikimedia content. Participants feel motivated and empowered to make a difference and advance free knowledge.	Surveys Glamorous/Glamorgan Program and Events Dashboard
Satisfaction	Subject experts contribute a minimum of 1 productive edit. 25 new resources on Wikimedia projects. 15 organisations clearly license their resources under free license. Relevant network is extended with 10 new major direct contacts.	Survey conducted Program and Events Dashboard Event pages and templates Tracking
Participation	A minimum of 150 identified subject experts and minimum of 15 classes in the Education Program. Attending 10 new major events and conferences. Wikipedians in Resident	Wikimetrics and Quarry Tracking on-wiki listings Program and Events Dashboard Wikipedia Social Search
Activity	Outreach, Workshops, meetings, themed edit-a-thons, offline and online training, conferences, support by resources, consultations and batch uploads.	Tracked and recorded in continuous operational reports on-wiki.
Inputs/ Resources	Staff time, volunteers' time, community time, financial resources, merchandising.	Tracking in on- and off-wiki-tables.

Access

Target group(s): GLAMs, Educators, Scholars and Faculty members, Research institutions, Government agencies , Policy makers and politicians.