THIRD BIENNIAL SESSIONS.

The Pan-African Congress is an attempt to unite in periodical conference representatives of the main groups of peoples of African descent for purposes of information and co-operation. It aims to be an open forum of opinion, and it has no connection expressed or implied with other organizations beyond its general object.

The Pan-African Congress held its first meeting in Paris in 1919; its second meeting, in 1921, held sessions in London, Brussels and Paris. The present sessions will take place Wednesday and Thursday, November 7 and 8, at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m., at Denison House, London, W. 1.

A second session will be held in Lisbon, Portugal, the week beginning November 25.

The Programme in London is as follows:
