Germans Agree to Deliver Coal But Want Concessions

Say They Will Deliver 2,000,000 Tons Monthly But Ask Allies to Accept Certain Conditions; Allied Premiers Hold Discussion; No Announcement.

Spa, July 15.—(Associated Press)—The Germans have agreed to the Allied demand for delivery of 2,000,000 tons of coal monthly, with three new conditions, it is announced.

It is announced that the German acceptance is embodied in a note which was laid before the Allied Premiers this noon by Premier Lloyd George. The conditions were these:

First—The German Government to have the distribution of the Silesian coal or be allotted 1,600,000 tons monthly for Northern Germany instead of the present allotment of 1,200,000 tons.

Second—A mixed commission to be sent to Essen to examine food and housing conditions.

Third—The Allies are asked to advance money or provide credit for importing additional food for the entire German population.

Foreign Minister Simons sent word to Premier Lloyd George about an hour before the Allied representatives met to-day that Germany would accede to the Allied demand and that a written note would be forwarded immediately. The Foreign Minister said that by this means he wished to prevent the Allies from forwarding the proposed ultimatum to Germany.

The Allied Ministers, up to shortly after noon, had not yet announced whether the conditions were acceptable.

Raw Materials. These included a stipulation that Germany must receive raw materials.

Herr Simons said this morning that the German Ministry, in its decision on the coal question had gone to the utmost limit, and could do nothing more so that if the Allied military leaders, Marshal Foch and Field Marshal Wilson, still wanted an invasion of Germany, they must have it.

A letter. In a personal letter to Premier Lloyd George the Foreign Minister, it is understood, set forth the German position in detail.

Knowing the attitude of Premier Lloyd George and Millerand, he begged them to help Germany fulfill her obligations by doing three things:

First—By allowing Germany the cash difference between the price of coal at the pit mouth in Germany, and the price of coal on the world's market.

Second—By making a generous arrangement with regard to shipping.

Third—By giving Germany some security or insurance against the menace of invasion if she should at any time be a little behind in her deliveries.

Herr Simons added in his letter: "These are not conditions, but simply an expression of our hopes."

Premiers Met. Taking up the German communication at once, the Allied Premiers discussed it for two hours and a quarter and then took a recess until 2.30 p. m.

No announcement was made as to the Allied attitude with regard to the German conditions, but it was understood the chief question was whether Germany should receive the difference in cash between the price of coal at the pit mouth in Germany and the world market price which the French delegates, it appeared, opposed.

Lipton's Sloop Won Contest After Other Met With Accident

British Challenger For America's Cup Crossed Finish Line Off Sandy Hook This Afternoon After Throat Halyards of American Craft Had Parted.

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 15.—Shamrock IV, British challenger for the America's Cup, to-day won the first race of the 1920 regatta, sailing across the finish line at 4.25.30 p. m., unofficial time, after the Resolute had been withdrawn because of a mishap to her rigging.

After the Resolute had led the Lipton sloop to within half a mile of the turning mark in the 30-mile race, her throat halyards parted. The American craft continued for a time but was forced to withdraw and Shamrock completed the race.

The Resolute's tender took her in tow at 3.25.

ARE NOW SHOOTING FOR KING'S PRIZE

Some Leading Canadian Scores at Bisley Rifle Meeting

Bisley Camp, Eng., July 15.—(Canadian Associated Press)—In the second stage of the King's Prize competition to-day ten shots at each of the 200, 500 and 600-yard ranges, the silver medal for the best aggregate was won by a marksman with the score of 49, 48 and 47. Total, 144. Two competitors made a score of 141. One of 139, five of 138, ten of 137 and two of 135, and nine of 135.

From the score it was apparent that the Shamrock had made a poor start, not crossing the line until after the handicap whistle had been blown. The yachts crossed the line on the starboard tack.

Bad Luck. Shamrock was over the line at the starting signal, and her skipper, Captain William P. Burton, had to recross. Meanwhile, Resolute slipped over in first place. Shamrock recrossed on seconds after Resolute, and immediately took after the American boat 200 yards astern.

According to yachtsmen, Shamrock's start to-day was the worst ever made by a Lipton boat.

Forging ahead on the starboard tack, the yacht carried mainmast, staysails, foresails and baby jib topsails. Three minutes after crossing, Resolute tacked to port and headed toward the Jersey shore, while the challenger stood seaward on the starboard tack.

Time Allowance. Before the start of the race it was announced officially that the time allowance would be six minutes and forty seconds, due to a change in measurement of the Shamrock's sails. The advantage of the start lay distinctly with the American boat because of the faulty timing on the Lipton craft.

Mrs. Burton, wife of the Shamrock's skipper, the first woman ever to sail on a cup yacht, had been designated to hold the time watch on the Shamrock. Whether she was on board to call the time of to-day's race was not known when the yacht started.

Shamrock at 12.05 was seemingly unable to catch Resolute.

Rain Squall. At 12.10 a rain squall drenched both yachts and nearly killed the breeze. Resolute pointed higher, but Shamrock footed a trifle faster.

One downpour succeeded another. The yachts apparently were making poor time.

Vivid lightning flashed in the sky. At 1 o'clock rain was falling with the intensity of a cloudburst and visibility at sea was limited to a few cable lengths, making it dangerous for the racers should they be close together.

Heavy Squall. With the last downpour came a heavy squall of wind from the west, which caused the yachts to stagger in the sudden blow.

Some yachtsmen believed the race committee might call to-day's contest off in view of conditions.

At 1.05 p. m., with both yachts standing off shore on the starboard tack, Resolute was more than half a mile in the lead, and slightly to windward. The wind breezed up again to six knots at this point.

At 1.30 o'clock the sloops had covered six miles, and were a mile and a half off Seabright, N. J.

Regulls Gained. The American sloop slowly but steadily increased her lead.

At 1.42 p. m., after a short port tack Shamrock came about again on the starboard tack, and followed in the wake of Resolute, which slid along a little faster than the challenger.

By Half a Mile. Resolute led Shamrock half a mile after two hours of sailing, when the yacht had covered ten miles of their thirty-mile course.

The wind had hauled to the westward, letting the yacht up so they nearly pointed for the turning mark. It turned out to be a typical cup race day after all, with a flat sea and (Concluded on page 4.)

Mrs. L. J. P. Surprised Her Guests. Her name is withheld at her request. Mrs. P. had guests for supper on Tuesday. They had a vegetable salad. On Wednesday two of the ladies called up for her salad dressing recipe. Mrs. P. gave it, of course. She says the only secret is that she uses Pacific Milk in an otherwise very ordinary dressing—and gets a delightful flavor.

REGISTRATION EXTENDED.

Under the original arrangement to-day was to have been the last day upon which the qualified voter could gain admission to the new electoral roll now in course of compilation. In response to representations from numerous sources, however, the Government has decided to extend the period until the end of the present month. The weeks' extension should ensure a full registration of the qualified electorate in this Province. No argument should be required to emphasize the obligation devolving upon every adult British Columbian. It is the plain duty of every eligible person to see that his and her name is included in the new lists. But it must be done before the various offices throughout the Province have closed on the evening of July 31. Those who fail to register on or before that date will be debarred from exercising their franchise when the prohibition plebiscite is submitted to the people.

MINISTERS COMING.

Several Cabinet Ministers from Ottawa will visit Victoria during the summer, among them the Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways and Canals, and the Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries. Presumably our various public bodies will impress upon them the desirability of certain things being done by the Government at this port. Our morning contemporary emphasizes some of them, including the establishment of a free port area and the utilization of the ocean piers in co-ordination with the development of the national railway terminals. It might be well to remind the Ministers, particularly the Minister of Railways and Canals, that in these representations they are hearing nothing new. It is more than two years since the Board of Trade urged these matters upon both Hon. Dr. Reid and D. B. Hanna, head of the Canadian National Railways, and left the conference with the impression that everything would be all right. It is three years since the Hon. Dr. Reid, then Minister of Customs, announced that the Government was preparing to establish a steamship service between British Columbia and the Canadian Atlantic ports by way of the Panama Canal and the West Indies. This was to be a sort of recompense for the refusal of the Government to place a Canadian Customs officer in New York to facilitate freight shipments from Eastern Canada to this Province. Further, we ought to have from one or both of the Ministers some further information concerning the drydock. Indeed, the opportunity for a very interesting heart-to-heart talk with the two departmental heads on many subjects will be too inviting to be missed.

THE WINNIPEG TEST.

Mr. A. E. Parker, editor of Canadian Finance, regards the recent election in Winnipeg as an "absolute triumph for the advocates of proportional representation." In his journal Mr. Parker, who is an authority on this system of electoral selection, claims that the following lessons are to be drawn from the Winnipeg experiment:

(1) Candidates now know that it is dangerous to risk an election deposit under the proportional representation system if they are not sure of reasonable support from the electors. (2) Voters know that the figure 1 is not sufficient on a ballot and realize that their choices should be equal under ordinary conditions to at least the number of the candidates to be elected. (3) Voters know that proportional representation is practicable and produces equitable results.

Proportional representation was used in Winnipeg only, in the provincial election, the contests in the remainder of the Province being conducted under the old system. The whole of the Winnipeg area was grouped into one constituency and ten seats in the Legislature were allotted to it. Forty-one candidates were nominated, consisting of 10 Liberals, 10 Conservatives, 10 Labor nominees and 11 Independents. This superabundance of candidates was the cause of considerable trouble to the election officials and the counting staff, and turned out to be somewhat costly to those candidates who lost their deposits. The Manitoba Election Act provides that any defeated candidate who received first choices less in number than 25 per cent. of the quota shall lose his or her deposit of $200. Under this regulation 25 candidates lost their deposits, and the Government profited to the extent of $5,000, the candidates who suffered being divided as follows: Independents, 8; Liberals, 5; Labor nominees, 5; Conservatives, 7.

Under the proportional representation system the voter has only one vote, but that vote is transferable. When marking the ballot the voter places the figure 1 opposite the name of the candidate whom he wishes to see elected. That figure 1 is called his first choice. He continues to place numbers opposite the names of candidates he favors, the figure 2 against one, the figure 3 against another, and so on. The figure 2 denotes his second choice, the figure 3 his third choice, etc.

When the first count was completed it was found that 47,427 good ballots had been cast. The quota was then ascertained by dividing this number by one more than the number of seats to be filled, adding one to the result.

This meant that to secure election at this stage of the proceedings, a candidate had to have at least 4,312 votes. Two candidates were elected on the first count and a third candidate was elected on the second count. The fourth candidate was not elected until the 31st count, the fifth was elected on the 32nd count, the sixth and seventh on the 33rd count and the remaining three on the 37th count.

The final result demonstrates the fairness of proportional representation as a method of elections. Mr. Parker asserts. The Labor vote represented a little more than 40 per cent. of the total vote and Labor elected 40 per cent. of the members. The Liberal vote represented nearly 40 per cent. of the total vote and the Liberals elected 40 per cent. of the members. The Conservatives were supported by voters representing a little less than 20 per cent. of the total vote and they elected 20 per cent. of the members.

HELPING THE TUBERCULOUS.

When the Board of Tuberculosis Consultants attached to the Department of Soldiers Civil Re-establishment visited Tranquille yesterday an opportunity was provided for its consideration of a proposal to establish government industrial plants and colony farms with village centres as a means towards solving the problem of post-sanitarium life for tuberculous war veterans. The plan in general comprehends the case of the former patient whose condition is "arrested" or "apparently cured" to the extent that he is discharged from the institution and environment in which he has made good progress only to resume his employment more often than not under circumstances inimical to his physical condition.

Under the provisions of the proposal, however, the former sanitarium patient would remain in the locality, enter into employment best calculated to enable him to restore his impaired vitality, and generally work out his cure while engaged in employment which would permit him to earn sufficient upon which to live without reducing his chances for complete recovery and final release from the essentially institutional environment. Such trades as the manufacture of light furniture, basketry, leather goods and pottery are mentioned as profitable lines for whose production the Government might establish facilities under the management of a competent official, to whom also would fall the task of finding a market for the product.

There is a great deal of detail in the scheme which cannot be elaborated here; its fundamental provisions, however, are along the right lines. Much valuable treatment is given at Tranquille; but there is nothing to hold the former sufferer once he has been pronounced as an "arrested" case. And even the layman knows that the danger of a return of the malady is always there. The way to prevent a recurrence, therefore, is one of regulation in every sense of the term. The State owes health to the tuberculous subject; if it can give it with an even break by the introduction of what may be termed an industrial novelty the argument takes on double weight.

BIG EVENT PROMISED.

The combination of the Home Products Fair with the exhibition of the British Columbia Agricultural Association at the Willows in September, as announced by Alderman Sangster on Tuesday, will ensure for Victoria a show which should surpass anything of the kind ever held here. The Home Products Fair has been developed, on its own base, to a point of exceptional excellence. It has become an annual industrial event of outstanding importance. The extension of the agricultural industry on Vancouver Island under the encouragement of both Dominion and Provincial Departments of Agriculture, provides the British Columbia Agricultural Association with an opportunity of making a more comprehensive display of farm products under all heads than ever has marked an exhibition of this character here before. The combination of the two fairs, which means, also, the combination of the organizing talent of Alderman Sangster and George I. Warren, is a happy arrangement and one which should result in marked practical benefit to the community.

NOTE AND COMMENT

At Philadelphia yesterday two youthful lovers of sixteen summers were united in matrimony at Mount Carmel Church. Truly this is an age of youth.

That historic dual residence about half way down Piccadilly and known to every sightseer as Devonshire House is about to be demolished to make room for a super-movie establishment. What a shock to nearby Mayfair!

It is to be hoped that there will be no occasion to employ the five thousand Cossack gendarmes against the Soviet forces which have planted themselves in Northern Persia. The negotiations now going on between Moscow and London should hasten a retirement of the Bolsheviks from the Shah's domain.

OTHER NEWSPAPERS' VIEWS

MELODY AND FORM
 (From Ralph Waldo Emerson's Essay on "Poetry and Imagination")

Music and rhyme are among the earliest pleasures of the child, and in the history of literature, poetry precedes prose. Everyone may see, as he rides on the highway through an uninteresting landscape, how a little water instantly relieves the monotony, no matter what objects are near it—a grey rock, a grass patch, an alder bush, a stake—they become beautiful by being related to the ear. Shadows please us as still finer of rhyme to the ear. Architecture gives the like pleasure by the repetition of equal parts in a colonnade, in a row of windows, or in wings; gauded by the symmetric contrasts of the beds and walks.

FRENCH FLAG IN BERLIN REMOVED

But Another Was Hoisted Yesterday Over the French Embassy

Berlin, July 15.—An unknown person removed the French flag hoisted yesterday over the French Embassy in honor of the anniversary of the taking of the Bastille.

M. Demareilly, French Charge d'Affaires in Berlin, formally protested to the German Government. The French flag was raised during the morning. Several mobs which gathered were easily dispersed, but shortly after noon a mob entered the Embassy, climbed to the roof, removed the flag and disappeared with it.

Another flag was raised and there was no further incident.

OARSMEN ARE ALL SET FOR TITANIC STRUGGLE

 man freight and Shawnigan Lake will undoubtedly have the merriest time in its history.

The Portland oarsmen seem to have an unlimited supply of pep. Immediately after their arrival here yesterday afternoon, they went hunting for a swimming hole, but they were soon tipped off to one by Albert Wyde. With a rip and a roar and a cry "Let's go up the lake," they plunged in from the landing stage and it took the dinner gong to get them out again. They thought the water of the Shawnigan Lake was the best yet. They missed the crude oil which floats about on the Willamette River.

A big Teddy Bear is among the property brought here by the Portland Club. It is the rightful property of either the Victoria or Vancouver Club. At the regatta held at Indian River, Vancouver, last year the Portland boys lifted this mascot and have brought it back to show the Canucks that they did get their "bear" if not their "goat." The Rose City rowers plan to hide the Teddy Bear and make the British Columbian find it. A fair visitor from Victoria almost romped off with Teddy last evening when she thought it looked lonely on a register.

A noticeable feature of the regatta is the number of new faces in rowing togs. All the clubs have a number of new men in their boats. This is known as the rejuvenating year. All clubs were crippled during the war, and are now getting back to a pre-war basis. The new material looks good in the shells, and augurs well for a brilliant season next year.

In the glory of the regatta the work of the Victoria Life Club has been lost sight of. The members of this club have been working like a bunch of Trojans. Last night they finished the work on the grandstand which will provide seating accommodation for the visitors at a point where they can witness the finish of the races. The boys are working long hours to make the regatta success. They have elaborately decorated the club house with flags and pennants.

The coaches turned their men in to bed early last night, and they were up with the lark this morning. The weather is glorious and everyone is feeling fit for the battle.

TORONTO DEALER CHARGED $22 FOR A PAIR OF SHOES

Toronto, July 15.—K. Saba, a shoe dealer of this city, was accused under the Excess Profits Act of having charged $22 for a $14 pair of shoes, was convicted by Magistrate Kingsford, but the magistrate considered it an absurd case to bring under the act and did not impose a penalty.

Victoria is faced with a serious Coal shortage next Fall and Winter, and the man who stocks Coal now will not only save a good deal of money, but will have the satisfaction of knowing that, no matter how serious the Coal shortage is; he is prepared.

FAILS TO FORESEE MENACE IN GROWTH OF MODERN JAPAN

Some Views of P. J. Stutchbury on Return Yesterday From Orient

An enthusiast for the position of Japan in the Eastern Asiatic world is P. J. Stutchbury, who arrived on the Puchimi Maru yesterday.

Mr. Stutchbury, who is visiting his brother W. T. Stutchbury in this city, was in Victoria for some time early this year. Crossing the Pacific he renewed acquaintance with men and places he has known for a number of years during which he has seen Japan emerge from Oriental slumber to be the first power in Eastern Asia.

Turning to the question of Japan's expansion, Mr. Stutchbury stated to The Times last evening that it was inevitable that she should reach out into Manchuria, Mongolia, Eastern Siberia, and Shantung to extend her influence. "You cannot expect," he said, "that the country which is limited by nature to an area not unlike that of the British Isles with an increasing population now over 60,000,000 can be for ever confined within the limits of those islands. The expansion in Formosa, Korea, and now in countries till recently regarded as within the sphere of Chinese dominion has been the natural result of her development, and the most remarkable expansion in history is bound to find its overflow overseas. I maintain that she is better fitted to carry on the development of Manchuria, Mongolia, and Shantung than China. Little as the last named transfer will be acceptable to Chinese sentiment and feeling, there will be seen great railway development, industrial progress and improved conditions in Shantung from the transfer. Some of the inhabitants will prosper from the new conditions, as they have across the Gulf."

Mr. Stutchbury, while stating that many of the ideals of modern Germany have been inculcated in Japan, does not consider Japanese are an aggressive people, and he declared that such development is attributed to imperialism designs which menace other peoples in Asia and America. That in his opinion is a misapprehension. After a brief stay here he will proceed to London, England.

License By-Law
 Nanaimo—Nanaimo's new License By-Law came into force to-day, after which it will be illegal for hotels to sell near beer without paying a license of $200 a year and shops selling near beer but which is not drunk on the premises a license of $50 a year. The above regulations are contained in a by-law which was finally adopted by the City Council at Monday night's meeting, a special meeting having been held last Friday evening for the purpose of considering the by-law in Committee and preparing it for final adoption.

resident of Nanaimo for thirty years, and a brother of Mrs. Thomas Gordon, of the Lotus Cafe. Having been absent from Bevan two weeks, and the cabin found empty, a search resulted in finding his body on Tuesday a short distance from the cabin. Mr. Swanson was a native of Wick, Scotland, aged fifty-three years. He is survived by one son, Charles, and two daughters, Mrs. Bull, of Duncan, and Mrs. Polson, of Vancouver, also by two brothers, Robert, in Vancouver, and Sinclair, of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. Truedell, of Cedar, and Mrs. Gordon, of Nanaimo. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Lewis conducting the service.

On and after Thursday hotels must remain closed until 7 o'clock and the following morning except on Saturdays when they must close at 11 o'clock and remain closed until 7 o'clock Monday morning.

 Nanaimo.—A wedding of considerable interest took place at 7.30, Tuesday morning, at St. Paul's Church when Miss May Jackson, eldest daughter of Mrs. C. Jackson, 339 Kennedy Street, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph H. Piper, second son of Mr. J. E. Piper, of this city. Miss Elsie Jackson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while Mr. William Jackson supported the groom. The bride, attired in cream serge suit with leghorn hat, trimmed with pink, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations, was given away by her mother. The bridesmaid's dress was of pink net, getting over champagne, with picture hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

After the ceremony the happy couple left by auto for Victoria for their honeymoon, after which they will return to their camp at the Lagoon.—Nanaimo Free Press.

COL. WINSBY MADE SUPERINTENDENT OF CITY SCHOOLS

ly appointed principal of the Victoria High School in succession to Alexander C. Smith, who has become head of a private school.

Trustees also read and passed on generous testimonials that are to be presented to Mr. Paul and Mr. Smith by the Board.

T. W. Cornett, one of the present instructors at the Victoria High School, was the only one who was put up against Col. Winsby in the voting. Col. Winsby got five votes and Mr. Cornett one.

One trustee refused to vote. Names that were put in nomination for the office were: Col. Winsby, T. W. Cornett, H. J. McLean, J. Hamilton Smith, J. H. Cunningham and J. H. Hogg.

Increase Russell's Salary. Trustees did not get down to choosing their superintendent until 10:45 o'clock. This is after they had wrangled over the wording of the minutes for a long time, and talked over increasing the salary of Professor E. Howard Russell, just appointed to the Victoria college staff from the University of B. C.

It was finally decided to increase the salary of Professor Russell from $3,000 to $3,250 as trustees declared that he was the finest mathematical professor in the province.

Trustees were notified that Professor F. G. C. Wood cannot see his way to accept an appointment to the staff of the new college. Professor Wood was recently appointed to the head of the English department.

Miss Cann Landed. In connection with this intimation to the trustees, Mr. Paul informed the Board that Miss Jeanette A. Cann is eminently qualified to head the English and philosophy department.

"I need not dwell on the services Miss Cann has rendered the Board for the last sixteen years," stated Mr. Paul. He enclosed a glowing testimonial from Dr. Sedgwick, head of the English department of the University of B. C.

"It is practically impossible to secure a person who is so singularly well equipped to teach such a combination of subjects," stated Dr. Sedgwick.

A statement from Samuel J. Willis, Provincial Superintendent of Education, that "Miss Cann's appointment would give great satisfaction," was quoted.

Before the appointment of the new superintendent was made a letter was presented from the Parent-Teachers' Association of the Central School urging the trustees to appoint a local man in preference to an outsider.

Wanted Some Thought. The G. W. V. A. urged the appointment of Col. Winsby, because of his war record.

When it was proposed after the Board had been in session for more than two and one-half hours that the appointment of the new municipal inspector be put through without further delay, Trustees Dr. Raynor proposed that the trustees spend a couple of hours talking over the qualifications of the applicants, so that they could learn something about them.

Trustee Beckwith urged that the Board adjourn so that they could talk things over outside.

"I don't think it fair that when someone has moved a motion that someone else should butt in and move a motion to adjourn just to suit a few," said Trustee Mrs. Condy-Johnson.

Debate Adjournment. "If we were to discuss these men around here until to-morrow morning we would not know anything more about them," said Trustee Mrs. Andrews. "It is too late in the day now."

Trustees then started in and for five minutes debated the second motion of Trustee Beckwith to adjourn, while he continued to protest that a motion to adjourn is not debatable.

"This is all camouflage," said Trustee Aitken. "Everyone has come here prepared to vote for a certain party, and I am prepared to prove it."

Finally trustees were quietened sufficiently for a vote to be taken. It turned out three to three. Chairman Peter Riddell cast his vote in favor of going ahead with the appointment without further consideration.

Trustee Dr. Raynor said he could not properly vote on the appointment without adequate discussion.

Fathers' School Growth. The trustees in their testimonial to Mr. Paul says:

"In accepting your resignation as municipal inspector, the trustees desire to record their appreciation of the splendid services rendered by you in that office. Your ever courteous manner and just and impartial administration of office, have endeared you alike to teachers and trustees, and the public of Victoria will have much difficulty in forgetting that you are no longer the one to consult on matters connected with the schools."

"The number of school centres has increased from ten to twenty, and the school population from 2,326 to 5,335, since you took office in 1909, and under your efficient guidance during that time many educational problems have been solved and the Victoria schools have occupied a high position, if not the premier place among the other schools of the Province."

"We believe that your superior scholarly attainments will have greater scope in the position of principal of Victoria College and sincerely trust that you may be spared for many years to institute and carry on the new work in which you are about to engage and for which you evidently have such deep attachment."

Lauds Administration. To Mr. Smith they say: "The Victoria School Board cannot allow you to leave its service without placing on record the high appreciation which your administration of the Victoria High School has so well merited. The rapid growth of the school since August, 1914, the date on which you assumed the duties of principal, has called forth much additional organization work and you have undoubtedly succeeded in fully maintaining the standard which this school has enjoyed for a number of years."

"Your resignation came as a complete surprise to the trustees and occasioned general regret."

In conclusion, the Board wishes to express the hope that your new field of work will prove satisfactory to you in every way and that the future holds in store for yourself, Mrs. Smith and family, an abundant measure of success and happiness."

PAULIST CHOIR AT WILLOWS TO-NIGHT

Famous Aggregate of Boy Singers to Give Big Programme

To-night at the Willows Arena, the Paulist Chorists, the most famous male choir in the world, will give their long-anticipated concert of sacred and secular music.

The critics of America and Europe are unanimous in their conviction that the young Paulist sopranos and counter-tenors have the most perfectly trained voices of this century.

In sixteen years they have sung two thousand concerts, and have sung almost every type of music, from the most intricate polyphonic masses of the Middle Ages to the simplest folk-songs.

Father Finn founded the Paulist Choir, and is still the director and conductor.

A great chorus of tenors and basses will accompany the boys on their tour, for much of their programme calls for the lyric notes of real tenors and the deep resonance of profound basses.

The organization has chosen a most careful programme for its concert here.

There is something on the programme for every taste, from Palestrina and Bach to the sob-songs of small boys.

The grounds were thronged throughout the proceedings, their national charms being greatly enhanced by the glorious weather. During the afternoon Mrs. R. S. Day was presented with a beautiful bouquet of pink roses and pink carnations, by the members of the Association in token of their appreciation of the kindness displayed by the popular hostess on behalf of the returned organizations.

MRS. PRIOR OPENED FETE YESTERDAY

Robert Valentine Harvey Chapter's Enjoyable Function at "Shuhum"

Another success was added to the long list of enjoyable Summer functions yesterday afternoon when the Robert Valentine Harvey Chapter, I. O. D. E. held a fete in the lovely gardens at the home of Mr. and Miss Agnew, Rockland Avenue. The weather was ideal and the setting perfect, and throughout the afternoon the salesladies at the many attractive booths were kept busily attending to the wants of the many patrons.

Mrs. Prior, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor, opened the fete shortly after three o'clock. On her arrival with the Governor's secretary, H. J. Musket, she was greeted by Miss Grimmer, Mrs. W. B. Yarrow, the Chapter's regent, and Mrs. J. C. Barnack, honorary regent, and accompanied by them made a tour of the various booths, congratulating the conveners upon the artistic array and making numerous purchases.

Mrs. Sayer, the regent, worked indefatigably during the whole afternoon in her role of general convenor of the various booths which were as follows:

VICTORIA DRAMATIC CLUB REORGANIZED

At a meeting held last night at 723 Courtenay Street, the reorganization of the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Club took place. Officers were elected as follows: Chairman, James Hunter; committee, Messrs. S. Clark, A. M. Fairbairn, Allwood, R. R. Webb, Herbert Kent and Mrs. Bellby; secretary, D. H. H. Barris. It was decided to incorporate under the Benevolent Societies Act, but to maintain the present name. The committee will draw up a programme for the club and the social evenings will be continued.

Various entertainments arranged by Mrs. Bellby followed the business meeting. The following took part in the entertaining: Miss Dorothy Stuart Robertson, Messrs. Clark, Allwood, Webb, Hankey, Fairbairn and McCredy. The two latter gave an excellent exhibition of ballroom dances, including the Argentine tango; Miss Robertson gave a character song; Messrs. Clark and Allwood presented a sketch; Mr. Hankey recited and Messrs. Webb and Hunter rendered solos.

The story is told of a dowager whose wealth and education were of exceedingly recent acquisition. According to her accounts, the trip round the world that she had completed had been most successful. Some of her friends were questioning her about the places of interest she had visited. "Did you see the Dardanelles?" asked one. "And the Himalayas?" inquired another. "Why, certainly," replied the dowager. "I dined with both of them in Paris."

EIGHT OUNCES DAILY RELISHED BY BOYS

Pupils Made Brighter and Heavier by Lactal Prescriptions

Experiments with eight ounces of milk on eighty boys each lunch hour at the Boys' Central School have proved great successes, Miss Muriel Grimmer, special nurse, informed the School Board last night.

Some of the boys have become so fond of their daily eight ounces of milk that they are to receive it at their homes during the Summer.

Trustees wanted to know why eight ounces had been picked on as the quantity of fluid to serve young boys with.

"Eight ounces is a very popular thing just now," said Trustee Beck with. "Will you confine them to eight ounces?"

"I feel sure that the boys benefited mentally as well as physically," Miss Grimmer said.

BETTER BABIES SHOW AT COLWOOD YESTERDAY

Mrs. Alfred Watt, M.B.E., formally opened the eleventh annual flower show of the Colwood Women's Institute, yesterday afternoon, in the presence of about one hundred visitors and residents of the district.

A novel feature was the holding of a Better Babies clinic, under the general direction of Mrs. J. S. MacLachlan, provincial secretary of the Women's Institutes. There were nineteen entries, each of the little ones being subjected to a medical examination by Dr. E. A. Price, Medical Officer for Victoria, who was ably assisted by Miss Jessie Forshaw, provincial organizer of the Victorian Order of Nurses. Miss Gawley, district nurse for Colwood, was much in evidence taking a keen interest in the babies. Baby Hutchinson secured the most points in her class, while Baby Mann also made an excellent showing.

Mrs. Watt in a few well-chosen words congratulated the organizers of the show upon its successful and profitable contribution to the bonny babies assembled for the clinic. She referred to the excellent work accomplished by Mrs. Hutchinson, who has been particularly fortunate until her recent retirement. Mrs. Watt, also spoke of the work accomplished in the Women's Institutes in England and Belgium, along the lines of baby welfare and home industries.

WILLOWS GARDEN PARTY

Funds of Our Lady of Lourdes Church Augmented Yesterday by $150.
The garden party which was held yesterday afternoon at Glebe House, the parish house of Our Lady of Lourdes, Willows, turned out to be a great success, over $150 being realized for the church funds. A large number of people were attracted by the pretty gardens and decorated stalls. Many persons called in for afternoon tea and others came for high tea, which was served under the direction of the Girls' Sodality of the Church. Other sections of the undertaking were a well-stocked refreshment booth, kept by Mrs. T. W. Paterson and Mrs. Gourney. Mrs. Sere and Miss W. Howard kept up a brisk business at their home cooking stall. Others who assisted in the undertaking were Mrs. H. A. Goward and Mrs. Oates, and the rector, Rev. Father Buckley.

The affair, which opened with the first arrival, closed at 3 o'clock with the departure of the last guests.
A REASONABLE DESIRE.
Frisbiey is one of the politest men you ever met.
One day he was cycling along a broad road, when he espied ahead a lady, also cycling, who was wide of figure and uncertain as to steering. Fearing an accident he rang his bell. The lady promptly wobbled frantically and eventually dismounted, with more speed than grace.
Frisbiey hurried to her assistance to be met with a spiteful remark: "Do you want all the road?"
"No, madame," replied Frisbiey courteously. "I am a female selfishness. I was simply desirous of being permitted to make use of the small portion which you were not using!"—Tit-Bits.

MEN OF THE ISLANDS FRANZ LEEMLE HERE

Mr. Rockefeller Meets the Vanderbilts With Their Arms Full of Parcels

BOTH PARTIES WILL VISIT UP-ISLAND POINTS

John D. Rockefeller, Jr. told The Times he has decided to leave the Coast and in Victoria and why he is going to stay here four or five days. "I believe in this country," said the son of the richest man in the world. "My father believed in this country. When I was young I was taken all over this continent before I ever went abroad. Mrs. Rockefeller and I are now doing the same thing for our children. We want them to know this country first, as we believe in it."

"We have heard a lot about Victoria and that is why we have come to see it. I think I was here once before, but that is a long time ago. Do you also believe it is time like this here? From our first taste of Victoria, it is delightful. But we ran into an awful soaking in Seattle and Tacoma."

Mr. Rockefeller does not say much; he does not become enthusiastic.

Introduced to Mrs. Vanderbilt.

Shortly before noon, Mr. Rockefeller met the Vanderbilts for the first time since they have been at the Empress Hotel. Mr. Rockefeller was coming in with his twelve-year-old son, Nelson Aldrich, and his tennis racket, when Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr. and his bride, Rachael Lyttleton Vanderbilt, came out of the elevator.

Mr. Vanderbilt, who was carrying a number of parcels, recognized Mr. Rockefeller. He stopped, turned and shook hands with him. Then he called back to his wife who had gone on and introduced Mr. Rockefeller to her. They talked a few minutes.

Start Up-Island.

Then the Vanderbilts picked up their belongings and went outside to their car. The load of belongings that Mr. Vanderbilt and his bride were carrying consisted of grips, outing and sports bags, and, of course, Mr. Vanderbilt's golf bag.

Mrs. Vanderbilt very carefully carried what appeared to be a picnic basket. She explained, however, that her little son was baby "Pom." To prove that there was nothing else she opened the basket and pulled out the dog.

Piloted by a Victoria driver, Mrs. and Mr. Vanderbilt, accompanied only by their valet, started up the island by car to-day. They will go to Great Central Lake, by Jones, and then into Cowichan Lake on the way back. They hope to return to Victoria by Tuesday. Mr. Vanderbilt expects to spend most of the time he is not in the automobile writing articles for the newspapers for which he is correspondent. They plan to tour right into the roughest logging districts.

To Canoe the Cowichan.

The Rockefellers will remain in Victoria for four or five days. Mr. Rockefeller told The Times he expects to see a good deal of the southern part of Vancouver Island. Tomorrow Mr. Rockefeller and the more robust members of the party will go to Cowichan Lake. Indian canoes and Indian braves have been hired and taken to the lake to bring the party down the river and through the rapids to Duncan.

About five o'clock yesterday afternoon after the family had become settled in their eight rooms on the second floor of the Empress Hotel, they went out for a short automobile ride. They were back for dinner at the hotel before seven o'clock.

On his way up to Victoria, Mr. Rockefeller sent a telegram of congratulations to his father, the head and founder of the Standard Oil Company. He explained that it was his father's eighty-first birthday. His father is still hale and as keen as ever on golf.

Must Speak French.

Only three of the six Rockefeller children are in Victoria. They are: John D. III, 14; Nelson Aldrich, 12; and Laurence, 10. Miss Abby, 14, with the family on the tour, but remained over in Seattle.

The Rockefeller children are with their parents practically all the time. They are forever on the move and have explored everything of interest in the hotel.

With them is a governess, Miss Schenberg. When they talk with their parents they speak in English. When they are with or speak to Miss Schenberg they are allowed to use French, but never. They chatter away in French as if they were born on the Seine.

TO BECOME CANADIANS

Henry Siebenbaum, of 1105 Catherine Street, who was born in Schleswig-Holstein and Martha Joubin in Normandy.

Henry Siebenbaum, of 1105 Catherine Street, who was born in Schleswig-Holstein, in 1855, applied to Judge Lampan to-day to become a Canadian. He was once naturalized in the United States.

Mr. Siebenbaum came to Victoria in 1882, and has been here most of the time since.

Martha Jeanne Joubin, of Glen-Gessing Avenue, Gordon Head, is also applying for naturalization. She was born at Falaise, Galvados, Normandy in 1884. She came to Canada from Seattle and from 1912 to 1917 was in Vancouver. Since then she has been in Victoria.

Both these applications will be heard publicly by Judge Lampan on November 1. Oswald Barton, registrar in charge of naturalizations, announced to-day.

It was washing-day, but Bridget did not seem to be moving very fast downstairs. So down went the mistress to investigate.

"Imagine her surprise when she found in the kitchen Bridget's favorite policeman 'regaling himself' with the remains of last night's dinner. Looking at her erring servant, the mistress demanded, angrily: "What are you supposed to be doing?"

"Filling up the copper, ma'am," was the reply.

GUESTS OF MR. BUTCHART

As guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, the members of the Spanish Council were invited to Banquet to-day. The visit to Brentwood was timed to follow an inspection of the hard surfaced portion of the Island Highway recently opened from Craigflower to Parson's Bridge.

TEACHERS RESIGN; TWO TO LEAVE CITY

Trustees Fail in Efforts to Induce Miss McCulloch to Remain

Two teachers last night informed the School Trustees that they will no longer teach in Victoria, but go elsewhere, as they can get better conditions. A number of others, chiefly young girls, resigned, most of them planning to marry.

Miss Rena Brynjolfsen is leaving here to teach elsewhere.

Miss McCulloch sent in her resignation some time ago. Trustees, however, thought she was too good a teacher to let go and made overtures to her. Last night the Trustees learned these overtures were too late and that Miss McCulloch was on her way elsewhere.

Miss Jennie Thompson, who has been vice-principal of the Margaret Jenkins School, resigned. She informed the Board that she is giving up the profession of school teaching for more appealing work.

Miss Eleanor B. Nicholson, who has been in charge of classes of little boys in the primary department of the Central School, also resigned.

Six Thrilling Reels Taken by Shipwrecked Men Sent to Orient by Universal

NEW GUINEA SCENES OBTAINED BY CHANCE

Remarkable moving pictures of cannibals, their life and customs, are included in six thrilling reels taken in New Guinea by Edward Laemmle and William F. Alder, two camera men sent to the Orient by the Universal Film Manufacturing Company in co-operation with the Southern California Academy of Sciences.

The pictures are called "Shipwrecked Among Cannibals" and shows actual experiences of the two white men marooned in the land of the head-hunters.

Several times Laemmle and Alder were on the brink of the cannibal chief's broiling pot. Night after night, for four months, they alternated guard with riot gun. A plentiful supply of tobacco, tin cans, issued daily, helped to preserve the friendship of the savages until a Dutch searching party located the adventurers.

With no written signs and little language, the Ki Kias have no art except the decoration of their bodies, and no craft except the manufacture of weapons.

Pictures Obtained by Accident.

Mr. Laemmle is the nephew of Carl Laemmle, president of Universal. Mr. Alder is an expert camera man. The pair started out to film scenes and customs in Japan, China, Java, Siam and other parts of the Dutch East Indies.

The cannibal pictures were obtained by an accident that all-but cost the life of the two explorers. After cruising around Java and its vicinity they obtained permission from the Dutch government to visit certain islands inhabited by semi-civilized tribes. They put to sea in a small vessel, chartered from the colonial government.

Several days out they were caught in a storm and driven upon reefs off the coast of New Guinea. They got their equipment ashore and watched their boat sink. They had been wrecked 300 miles from civilization on a wild part of the New Guinea coast.

Included in the six-reel feature are several other scenes taken in Java and its vicinity. Another thrilling chapter in their travels is a tiger hunt in Siam, showing the tiger as he is brought down.

They put to sea in a small vessel, chartered from the colonial government.

Several days out they were caught in a storm and driven upon reefs off the coast of New Guinea. They got their equipment ashore and watched their boat sink. They had been wrecked 300 miles from civilization on a wild part of the New Guinea coast.

Included in the six-reel feature are several other scenes taken in Java and its vicinity. Another thrilling chapter in their travels is a tiger hunt in Siam, showing the tiger as he is brought down.

NEW GUINEA SCENES OBTAINED BY CHANCE

Several times Laemmle and Alder were on the brink of the cannibal chief's broiling pot. Night after night, for four months, they alternated guard with riot gun. A plentiful supply of tobacco, tin cans, issued daily, helped to preserve the friendship of the savages until a Dutch searching party located the adventurers.

With no written signs and little language, the Ki Kias have no art except the decoration of their bodies, and no craft except the manufacture of weapons.

Pictures Obtained by Accident.

Mr. Laemmle is the nephew of Carl Laemmle, president of Universal. Mr. Alder is an expert camera man. The pair started out to film scenes and customs in Japan, China, Java, Siam and other parts of the Dutch East Indies.

The cannibal pictures were obtained by an accident that all-but cost the life of the two explorers. After cruising around Java and its vicinity they obtained permission from the Dutch government to visit certain islands inhabited by semi-civilized tribes. They put to sea in a small vessel, chartered from the colonial government.

CHINAMAN CALLED ON PERJURY CHARGE

Immigration Officials Seek Committal to Higher Court of Lee Gim Young

Lee Gim Young, alias Lee Yong, was charged with perjury to-day in the City Police Court on information laid by the Immigration authorities, in connection with some affidavits that he is alleged to have signed in 1918.

J. A. Russell, of Vancouver, appeared for the defendant, while the prosecution was conducted by R. L. Reid, K. C., of Bowser, Reid & Wallbridge.

Commissioner Joffe, of the Immigration department, testified to the appearance of the accused before the department in connection with his entry into the country as a boy.

Sidney Child, barrister, testified to his own signature on the documents in question, on which the charge of perjury is based.

Mr. Reid contended that the accused had been in possession of his naturalization papers as a Canadian citizen in 1918.

For the Defence.

Mr. Russell, in defence, held that there had been no evidence submitted to show that the accused had signed the affidavits in question, stating that it was a common practice among the Chinese to pass these documents around, and as the boy would have been only twelve years of age at that time, had he signed the affidavits, he could not morally be held responsible to have a thorough knowledge of what the statements made by him implied. Mr. Russell entered an objection to the written evidence taken by the Immigration authorities, stating that the accused

BOARD OF TRADE DELEGATES TOO EARLY

Some confusion as to the interpretation of the notice summoning them to the meeting of the Associated Island Boards of Trade caused the Victoria delegation a fruitless run to Duncan yesterday, and finally broke up the proposed gathering.

The typewritten notices stated that the meeting was to be held in Duncan at 1 p. m., but it was intended to convey the time of the meeting as ordered at 5 p. m. In consequence of this, when President J. L. Beckwith, Vice-President J. H. Beatty, accompanied by Messrs. E. W. McMullen and G. I. Warren arrived in Duncan by motor car, in time for the one o'clock meeting, there was nobody else on hand. After waiting for a little while the party returned to this city, disappointed in their quest. It was stated subsequently by the secretary of the local Board of Trade that the meeting of the Associated Boards was called off, being postponed until some time in the Fall, the date to be fixed later.

IS NOW ORGANIZING ISLAND CAMPAIGN

S. H. Anschell Is Operating Up-Island; Office to Close on July 31

On Wednesday S. H. Anschell, Campaign Director of the Victoria and District Jewish Relief Committee, proceeded to Nanaimo to complete his plans for carrying on a canvass for funds in that city, it being his intention to organize in Ladysmith and Duncan before returning to Victoria. The campaign will end definitely on July 31, when the office at 1517 Government Street will be closed.

In the meantime there is a steady flow of donations from those who have been reached by letter and through the columns of the daily papers, the total amount being nearly $12,000, which sum should be very considerably augmented by the up-island campaign.

The young people of the James Bay Methodist Church made a donation as the result of a collection, and several other groups of children are working to the same end, for they say that their sympathies go out to their fellow children in Eastern Europe who cannot even procure a crust of bread while the happy children here are enjoying all the pleasures of the holidays in camp, at the sea shore, in the country or in their comfortable, well provided homes, according to a statement issued to-day by George G. Bushby, Island chairman.

TOO MANY DINING ON SCHOOL GARDENS

Visits to Plots Instead of Grocery Stores, Annoy Trustees

With vegetable prices still high and the schools in a holiday state, so many persons are dropping in on the cultivated school gardens for part of the family dinner on their way home instead of to the corner grocery store, that School Trustees began to talk about the police last night.

Trustee Altken, chairman of the building and grounds committee, told of the generous way in which people are helping themselves to the vegetables, just as if they had been given on a scale of socialist plan. He protested against the way in which school property at George Jay and Kingston Street Schools had been marauded "by unknown persons."

It seems to me that if the city of Victoria has got a police force it is time they did something," said Trustee Beckwith. "It is time the people of Victoria had some protection from this police force."

The Board was also told about the damage that has been done at the High School.

It was explained that the boys who look after the gardens are now off on their holidays and so people think they are free to help themselves.

Lifeboat Was Used As Makeshift Rudder

Ingenuity Displayed By Captain MacFarlane, of Power Schooner Bonilla, Resulted in Vessel Arriving Back in Port Safely.

Clever handling by Captain MacFarlane after the rudder had carried away in the Straits brought the power schooner Bonilla safely back to port from the point of breakdown off Port Renfrew. When the Bonilla was on her last trip from this port to Nitinat with a big scow in tow her rudder became unshipped off Port Renfrew, leaving the craft helpless. Captain MacFarlane conceived the idea of utilizing a lifeboat, which was utilized as a makeshift rudder.

Boat Was Flooded.

The lifeboat was dropped astern, flooded and lashed with tackle to the port and starboard quarter, and with the crew manning the lines the vessel was put about and headed back to Victoria with the aid of this ingenious contrivance.

The master decided that it would be unwise to attempt to cross the Nitinat bar with the steering gear out of commission, and especially in view of the fact that the Bonilla had a scow in tow. A fresh breeze was blowing up and had the Bonilla become unmanageable the barge would have had to be set adrift.

Barge Cumberbome.

Guided by the partly submerged lifeboat operated from the stern the Bonilla made fairly good time up the Straits. The navigation of the entrance to the Inner Harbor was made difficult by the cumberbome barge astern. Finally Captain MacFarlane succeeded in safely mooring his vessel at her berth in the harbor. She was moored close in and as the tide receded the stern was left high out of the water, enabling the crew to adjust the rudder, which had been retained by the attachment of a safety chain.

Defective Welding.

Defective welding is said to have been responsible for the mishap. The Bonilla is operated regularly between Victoria and Nitinat.

SUWA MARU WILL OMIT ONE VOYAGE

September Sailing Cancelled to Permit Repairs at Nagasaki.

As a result of the fire which broke out aboard the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Suwa Maru at Seattle, the next voyage of the big Japanese liner has been cancelled and she will terminate her present trans-Pacific voyage at Nagasaki, at which port she will be laid up for permanent repairs. The liner is due at Nagasaki July 26. The voyage of the Suwa Maru scheduled to start from Victoria September 11, has been cancelled, and it is announced that the liner Kashima Maru will sail from this port October 5, will go only as far as Kobe, returning from that port to Victoria and Seattle via Yokohama.

The cancelling of the voyage of the Suwa Maru will not have a sailing from Victoria for ports in the Orient from August 27, when the Tamima Maru will sail until October 5, when the Kashima Maru will get away.

The Fushimi Maru, which left here at 6 o'clock last night for Seattle, is posted to sail for the Orient July 30. The next boat of the company's fleet to arrive from the Orient will be the Katori Maru, due here August 3.

NEWINGTON'S MEN WANT MORE MONEY

Crews Strikes to Get Scale Paid on B. C. Coastwise Vessels

Demanding the same scale of wages now prevailing on coastwise vessels, the crew of the Dominion Government lighthouse tender Newington have gone on strike. The Newington is now tied up at the marine station at Digby Island with her officers standing by.

The lighthouse tender Estevan is now on her way south after completing several weeks' work, unless the dispute is settled in the meantime it is likely that trouble will develop aboard when she again makes this port. On her way here the Estevan will go to Triangle Island to pick up the men who have been dismantling the lighthouse there.

The steamer Leebro is not affected by the dispute, as the vessel is chartered by the Dominion Government and the crews paid the prevailing scale of wages by her owners.

Light Breeze.
Ten miles covered, the race little more than a drifting match with the advantage lying with the defender. This caused a surprise to yachtsmen because of Shamrock's reputation as a sloop in light air. Bow for bow, the American footed faster than the challenger.

In passing Shrewsbury Gas Buoy, nine minutes from the start, and six from the turning point, Resolute was four minutes and thirty-five seconds ahead. The tack taken by Shamrock in shore cost her fully half a mile.

Resolute parted her throat halyards half a mile from the turn while leading Shamrock.

Resolute was standing for the mark on the port tack when the throat halyards parted and the gaff came half-way down the mast. Skipper Adams kept on sailing.

The accident was too great to be overcome, however, and Resolute was forced to withdraw from the race.

Shamrock IV, continued, crossing the finish line at 25.30 p. m., an official time, and winning the race.

An Armada.
Sandy Hook, N. J., July 15.—A yachting armada gathered off the Hook to-day for the first America's Cup race in seventeen years.

The United States—Shamrock IV, challenger, with sleek green sides, and Resolute, defender, dazling in her coat of white.

Aboard them were Captain William P. Burton and his crew of British tars, and Captain Charles Francis Adams II, of Boston, with his Yankee sailormen.

A test-knot breeze from the south-west and a smooth sea were the favorable conditions at 8.30 o'clock.

Windward and Leeward.
The rival skippers knew that the rules called for a windward and leeward course of thirty miles, but by the decision of the wind alone would be the course charted.

Both skippers were hopeful of bringing the races to a brisk and decisive close, with three straight victories, but both were prepared to sail four races and start all over again another day if a race was declared off because the yachts failed to finish within the six-hour limit.

Opinion Divided.
With the Shamrock IV, because of her great sail area, giving the defender a handicap of six minutes and forty seconds, yachtsmen still were divided on the question of whether it was more blessed to give or receive time.

In her almost barren hold the Shamrock had stored her masts, comprising the wooden American eagle, the steel masts of the victorious yacht America, and boxes of four-leaved clovers from Ireland and the United States.

Sir Thomas Lipton, making his fourth attempt to lift the bottomless pewter mug, emblematic of sailing supremacy of the sea, cast his eye to the weather and remarked: "If the wind will hold its present strength, I'll say nothing better for my Irish challenger, The Shamrock IV, is a fine boat and I hope to win."

Sails Hoisted.
Covers were removed from the defender's mainmast and head sails and edged their way up the stays.

"We should have no complaint to make of this weather," said Captain Adams, "and I believe Resolute will give a good account of herself."

The American chief on Sir Thomas's steam yacht Victoria was not dismayed this morning by shamrocks from the Irish stores in the hold of the challenger for good luck.

"That won't help any," he said, as he wagered a five-dollar bill with Sir Thomas's valet, who put up a pair of trousers, his employer's cast-off trousers.

Larger.
With the starting time set for 12 o'clock, Shamrock was the first to get up her mainsail. It was a fine piece of cloth and seemed visibly larger than Resolute's mainsail, which was hoisted shortly after.

The defender kited her largest club topsail, while the Irish sloop also sent up a club topsail of large area.

Wind Dropped.
The wind dropped out as the motion and momentum came in a fitful puff from the southwest about six knots in strength.

Resolute, disdaining a tow, broke out her head sails at 10.22 o'clock, cast off her mainsail, and toward the Sandy Hook spit, where she made a turn and headed away to the eastward for the starting line.

Shamrock followed her within less than a minute, bringing up her head sails and standing away to the starting line, a half mile or more astern of the American sloop.

Many Spectators.
The race committee boat, the ocean tug Birmingham, came up to the Ambrose Lightship and took her position at the starting line at 10.45 o'clock.

gave British press representatives here the following message:
"On the eve of my four attempt to capture the America's Cup, I feel strongly that this time I have a boat that will prove a winner. The Shamrock IV, and her crew are in a first class fettle, and everything possible has been done to bring her to the starting line a worthy representative of the Old Country."
"If the gods wishes I have received from all over the world during the past few days could insure success, the ambition of my life will be accomplished."

WOODWARD "SNUB" STILL AGITATES SCHOOL TRUSTEES

Labor Men Claim Explanation of School Board Fails to Satisfy

The noise that Eugene S. Woodward, president of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council, made more than a month ago when he hurriedly left the School Board office, slammed the door on the trustees in session, and declared that he had been insulted, is still reverberating in the Board room.

The question comes up at every meeting now and popped up again last night when trustees tried to justify their action in view of the criticism that has been levelled at them by certain labor men.

"Woodward is still dissatisfied with the action of the Board," said Trustee Aitken. "He still has an exception to the way in which he was treated."

Trustee Aitken demanded that the letter of apology and explanation sent to Mr. Woodward be read so that the Trustees might hear what it was like, as Christian Siverts had objected to it.

Trustee Aitken then abandoned their regular business to go over the letter to Mr. Woodward paragraph by paragraph.

"I think this is all ridiculous," said Trustee Beckwith. "Why not tell Christian Siverts what took place?"

"We have, but he says it is not right," replied Trustee Aitken. "I am sorry they have not come to me about this," said Trustee Beckwith. "I am disposed to take the statement of the secretary of the School Board."

"I think the matter is closed," said Chairman Riddell.

"Absolutely," added Trustee Beckwith. "Mr. Woodward broke into the discussion of the Board."

"I am telling you he came up and whispered into your ear," said Trustee Aitken to Chairman Riddell.

"The matter's closed," said the Chairman. "Well, I have done my duty," said Trustee Aitken.

"What has happened to this Woodward injunction against appointing a staff for the college?" asked Trustee Beckwith.

Secretary Pope explained that the only conclusion was that it had been dropped.

SAY NEW WOODEN SCHOOL WOULD MAKE NORTH WARD "SORE"

Brick Men Protest to Trustees Against Proposed Impermanent Structure

Brick-makers and brick-builders last night protested to the School Board against proposals to erect the new North Park School as a wooden building at the site of the present brick building.

The brick men headed by William Loney and Capt. T. J. Goodlake, secretary of the Victoria Brick and Tile Manufacturers Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, told the Trustees that it would be a disgrace to erect only a wooden building at North Park.

"You can build a magnificent school for $46,000," said James Baker. "Brick has gone up but it has gone up below what it should have. We certainly feel sure to think that you would erect a wooden building in that part of the city. It seems to me there is something wrong when you attempt to build a wooden building in that part of the city. It would be surprising if there is not an injunction to stop you. Someone will give you hell Columbia in the newspapers," said Annot Parfitt.

"I think the limit has been reached in wooden buildings," said Annot Parfitt. "A school of this kind should be made of a more permanent character. The public is entitled to some explanation. We are not only interested in brick-making but in brick-building."

"My understanding is that we have not got the means to do it with unless we put another by-law before the people," said Trustee Dr. Rayner.

Trustee Mrs. Andrews declared that it is no fault of this Board that we have not the money in our capital account to build a permanent school there.

Chairman Peter Riddell said the best thing to do would be to call tenders for both kinds of buildings and then see what they will cost.

H. F. Shade, resident of the district, protested against the delay in the building of the school.

"Indirectly I have heard that the Board has used part of the $46,000 voted for other purposes," stated Mr. Shade.

Mr. Shade will be informed as to how the Council forced the Trustees to consolidate their funds.

LOST AMERICA'S CUP RACE TO-DAY; RESOLUTE

The American sloop defending the America's Cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's sloop Shamrock IV, was leading the latter by half a mile in the race this afternoon when her throat halyards parted, causing her to withdraw from the race. The Cup series is the best three out of five.

REES WATSON EXPLAINS STAND

Tells of Motives For Sudden Withdrawal From Meeting Yesterday

Reeve Watson, of Saanich, to-day made clear his motives in refusing to sit at the meeting of the Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee yesterday afternoon. The Reeve, it will be recalled, merely appeared for a moment at the door of Mayor Porter's office, in which the meeting was in progress, and then withdrew hurriedly without a word.

Discussing the matter with a representative of The Times this afternoon Mr. Watson stated that he had received no notice of a meeting of the joint committee. The letter on the subject which he had received from Alderman Todd, Chairman of the Victoria Section of the Committee, he said, had called a "meeting of the Victoria part of the Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee and of the Elk Lake Committee." Alderman Todd's communication, said the Reeve, had added, "At this meeting I anticipate that matters will be discussed which I believe will be of interest to you and, therefore, extend an invitation to you to be present, and trust that it may be convenient for you to attend."

On account of the wording of this letter, the Reeve explained, he took it for granted that there would be no attempt to hold a meeting of the joint committee and that the Saanich members would attend more in the role of onlookers than as participants. Indeed, the Reeve pointed out a resolution now appearing on the minutes of the Saanich Council preventing its members from taking part in the work of the Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee. "And in the face of that resolution they hold a meeting of that committee!" exclaimed the Reeve. "Of course anything done by such a meeting would be irregular and not official. I am perfectly ready to settle the trouble with the city, no one is more willing, but I wish to see it done in an official and regular manner. Consequently when I saw that the members present yesterday were trying to hold a meeting of the joint committee I retired, as I would not sit at such a meeting, which had not been called in the notices sent out, and at which Saanich councillors could not regularly sit with the resolution I mentioned still remaining on the records of the Saanich Council."

FACTS, PLEASE!

To the Editor:—In your issue of the 14th inst. is a letter from Mr. R. M. Thompson, Secretary of the People's Prohibition Association, in which he says:

"In the meantime we are not surprised at the tactics of the opponents and empty threats, nor are we thinking public deceived. The interests which make ballots with the names of our heroic dead, who fell in freedom's cause are capable of anything."

As one who has come back from "over there," I should like to ask Mr. Thompson exactly what he means by the statement above quoted. I have been appointed a Commissioner for taking affidavits for registration in Victoria City, at the request of the Great War Veterans' Association, and as Mr. Thompson asserts that ballots are marked with the names of our heroic dead, then it is his duty to explain and place proof of same before the Associations whose concern it is to hold sacred the loving memory of those we left there who died.

Let Mr. Thompson explain what he means by "poison gas," "proven falsehoods," and "veiled threats," and who the parties are who have made them.

The public are entitled to know and if Mr. Thompson states truly his statement is untrue.

TAXING THE BONDHOLDER.

To the Editor:—Mr. Walter Foster's reply to a letter of mine that appeared recently in your columns concerning the above subject contains two parts, namely, some personal criticism of myself and some argument relating to the matter in question.

Let me deal first with the personalities. Mr. Foster makes two puns relating to my name and place of residence. Because I live at Mission, B. C., he says I am a missionary with a mission. That is the first pun. Then, because of my name of Philibert, he represents his argument as a "nut" for me to crack. That is the second. Dr. Johnson said that "the man who will make a pun will pick a pocket," and whatever may be our opinion concerning the dictum, we may admit that the making of bad puns with reference to a correspondent's name and place of residence is not either witty or in good taste; nor is it of any real use in any serious debate.

Now, what are Mr. Foster's arguments in reply to my suggestion of taxing the bondholder. They consist chiefly of some statements of his personal opinions not based on any general statistics. He says that there are thousands of bondholders among the working classes," and he suggests that my plan would cause a hardship to them. But he ignores the fact that no one, outside the Ottawa-Government knows exactly who the bondholders are for the Government at Ottawa, although asked for the information, has refused to publish any list of the bondholders' names. Therefore, his suggestion that there are many bondholders among the working classes is mere assumption which he cannot prove to be true. Actually, such facts as are available suggest that Canadian bonds are held chiefly by members of the wealthier class of society and that the taxing of them therefore would fall on people the least able to pay.

Mr. Foster's other remarks are similarly his personal opinions rather than utterances based on general facts. He says that if the Government had raised its revenue solely by taxation without borrowing any of it, that could be done only for the first year, and that in the second year "there would be no taxes and no taxpayers and no capital for industries." That statement is not founded on any appeal to financial statistics, but is sheer assumption. If the revenue had been raised by taxation without the floating of any loans, there would be, practically as much wealth left in the possession of the public in the one case as in the other (except as regards the yearly payment of interest), because the Government made no immediate repayment of the principal. Therefore, Mr. Foster's picture of the nation's impoverishment through taxation is merely fanciful and fictitious.

His remarks concerning the cause of the high cost of living are also mere expressions of his personal opinions regarding "limitations of hours of work and so forth, without any reference to general and reliable evidence. The fact is the Government, by its huge expenditure of public money, drew thousands of people from ordinary productive vocations by employing them in occupations not directly productive of goods and commodities, thereby reducing production, while also the Government caused an artificial inflation of the currency by its lavish issue of paper money and public bonds. These acts of governmental decrease of production with inflation of the currency may be regarded as the chief causes of the high cost of living that has occurred.

If Mr. Foster wishes to discuss and understand this question, I would suggest that he should avoid offensive personalities and should give attention to facts and public statistics rather than to any fanciful opinion that he may have formed through the influence of his own personal prejudices and imaginations.

ROTARIANS SEE AND HEAR ABOUT POULTRY RAISING

Visit Rockside Poultry Farm As Guests of Mr. Rylands

Interesting and astonishing sidelights on scientific poultry farming were afforded Victoria Rotarians to-day when the Rotary Club enjoyed one of the most pleasant luncheons of the year at the celebrated Rockside Poultry Farm, on Gorge Road. As the guests of Joseph Rylands, proprietor of the farm, the Rotarians, sitting about in the garden, first of all partook of liberal quantities of delicious Rockside poultry and then, after a business matters, learned how chickens are killed scientifically and painlessly. Three of Mr. Rylands' sons demonstrated to the amazement of the visitors that a fowl can be killed and plucked in twenty seconds, while Mr. Rylands showed how dressing and preparation for the oven can be accomplished in almost the same time. A large number of fowls were dispatched to show the speed that is obtainable. The chickens were first bled by their legs; in quicker time than is required to describe the operation a small knife was thrust into the birds' mouth, penetrating their brain and causing instant insensibility. As the chicken then seals no pain and does not contract its skin, the feathers can be pulled out in almost an incredibly short time. The bird is then ready for dressing.

The entrails are removed in a few seconds and then, after the head and legs have been cut off, the body is skinned and is ready to be placed in the oven.

Extent of Business.

Describing some features of the poultry business, Mr. Rylands spoke in part, as follows:

"The estimated number of chickens raised on Vancouver Island during the past few months was 290,000 and turkeys and geese about 10,000. The value of this poultry is estimated at $500,000.

"Hundreds of returned men and others have gone into the poultry industry, which is proof in itself that the reputation of Vancouver Island climate is becoming known all over Canada as an ideal spot for poultry raising.

"There is a steady market at all times of the year for poultry, and during the past few weeks we have supplied steamers arriving in Victoria with well over four tons per week, and as this output will continue until the end of September, you can see there is a ready market for all that can be produced. The majority of poultry killed have been chickens hatched this year, the price of eggs keeping the older birds from being sent in.

"In every household, no matter how economical the housewife may be there is a large quantity of table scraps and kitchen waste which had feeding value, but which if not fed finds its way into the garbage pail.

"Now poultry are the only class of birds which is suitable for converting this waste material right where it is produced in the city, into wholesome and nutritious food in the form of eggs and poultry meat.

"Each hen in her pullet year should produce at least 150 eggs; allowing for an average household flock of say ten birds, they should produce 100 dozen of eggs and at an average price of fifty cents per dozen, would yield over $50; thus by keeping a small flock a family would help to reduce the high cost of living.

"We have on this island some of the finest ranches that can be found in matter where you travel. I am at this present time of the year receiving at our warehouse thousands of birds, weekly from Duncan and district.

"In 1919 we killed over 100,000 birds and expect to exceed this number before the end of the present season of 1920. As I have said, there is always a ready sale for all that can be produced here, as the C. P. R. and the Grand Trunk Pacific Companies prefer to buy their poultry supplies here in Victoria in preference to Seattle and Vancouver, providing they can be sure their needs being filled, quality being considered.

The Egg Act.

"There is one black spot which is injurious to the large producer on the island, and that is the B. C. Egg Act. Until this is altered the producer here does not receive as much as he should for his eggs. The Act as it reads does not protect him from eggs being shipped here in other parts of the Province from the United States and all Eastern points, and, as you gentlemen must be aware, there are thousands of cases of eggs shipped in here from the United States and other provinces of Canada, but nowhere do you see any mark upon the eggs as to where they are produced. I ask you, don't you think it is only fair for the producer here to have this put a stop to, and the only way to remedy this as I should suggest is for all eggs imported to be stamped with the name of the province or state they come from; this would throw the expense on the exporter and they would then be sold for what they really are and not B. C. eggs."

Mr. Rylands emphasized that poultry was an economical food. Indeed, he said, chickens were cheaper than beef on the retail market.

During the course of the luncheon a half dozen fine fowls, dressed and with all bones removed, were auctioned off for the benefit of the Jewish Relief Fund. The Rotarians bid high on the birds, which were contributed by Mr. Rylands, and as a result about $45 was raised.

Moving pictures of the killing and dressing processes were taken by W. B. Young, the way, moving photographer, who secured some very interesting views.

Police Sports Draw Crowds to Witness Fine Contests

Vancouver Heavyweights Pull Cup From Local Tug-o-War Men, But Victoria Shows Well In Track Events.

Bringing to the occasion of their annual sports a determination to please everybody, and displaying an aptitude for detail instilled by their profession, the Victoria Police yesterday carried the heights of success with a well-managed, cleanly run and excellent field day. Aiding their energetic efforts in a degree that was unusual, the weather god smiled and looked down upon gathering of about 1,000 who had gathered to witness the yearly contests under the auspices of the local bluecoats. That the regulation "hobbie" can be a good deal of a boy, when he is off duty, was clearly in evidence from the light-hearted manner in which quite terrifying disciplines entered into the races, and the willingness they displayed to lend a hand with the thousand and one little details and fatigues that are consequent to such an event as an annual inter-city sports day.

The affair was held under the patronage of the Victoria Police Commissioners, by the Victoria Police Mutual Benefit Association. Mr. Justice Gregory, had signified his intention of being present, but was unable at the last minute by reason of indisposition. The judges were Mayor Porter, Magistrate Jay and David Spencer, who were assisted by a number of able committees of officials, detailed to handle the various items. Sgt. Fry headed a large force of the local "hobbies" who stage managed the field events, while Arthur Manson was seen busily at work with the jumpers and weight-puffers in the interior of the oval.

The piece-de-resistance of the day was, of course, the tug-o-war between the police of Vancouver and this city. The Victoria Force fielded a lighter team than usual, who, however, pulled to the last ounce of strength in their bodies to withhold the handkerchief from crossing the mark in favor of the heavier Vancouver team. The Vancouver bluecoats sent over their picked team, and all honor must be given to them for the capable manner in which they worked to success in two straight pulls, winning The Times Cup and individual medals.

Probably next in outstanding interest was the exceptionally good time made in some of the track events. In the 100 yards open, P. C. Jardine led a large field with the remarkable time of 16 and 1-5 seconds, on the unprepared Willows track. This time was duplicated in the returned soldier 100 yards dash, when W. Riley nosed out his former conqueror in the same time. Both these men were of the G. W. V. A. branch at Vancouver, and captured their laurels with clean and brilliant running. Brooke Vaino and Eric McCullum, of this city, secured third in either event respectively, and ably sustained the prestige of the local athletes with a sportsmanlike exhibition of "stick-to-it-ness" and determination right up to the final tape.

In the high jump, D. Johnson started for Victoria with some remarkably pretty jumps, winning handsily from his nearest rival, P. C. Jardine. Vancouver, with a clean jump 5 feet 6 inches, Jardine being one inch less, while Eric McCullum had hard luck and closed out at 5 feet 4 inches. Tommy Peden won from a large field in the one-mile bicycle race, having retained his lead all the way through, although he was called upon to extend himself to draw ahead of a very eager and

Victoria Makes it Three Straight Over Vancouver With Thundering Wallops

Capitals Tucked Yesterday's Game Away Before Beavers Got Started; Capitals Play With Vancouver Here To-night.

Victoria, 9; Vancouver, 2.

Victoria made it three straight over the Beavers, yesterday. Frank Rapp, who usually serves up deceptive slants, left all he possessed in the clubhouse and when he ascended the mound at the start of hostilities all he had left was his big mitt. The first two balls he fired into the ribs of the first men to face him and then along came Bill Leard with a two-ply wallop which sent them both over. Starting with two runs in the opening chapter, the Bees came through with more superior walloping of the spheroid in the next two rounds and before the home forces realized it the Victoria outfit had the game tucked away. Rapp was yanked in the third and Johnson rushed into action, but it was too late to halt the visitors. They continued to bounce base hits around the Fifth Avenue lot, and although Vancouver batters cashed in a couple of runs they were far in the rear at the finish. The final count was 9 to 2.

There was some smart fielding on top and as in the preceding games, the Bees had all the breaks. They made permanent connections with the ball when hits were needed in the run-getting and in fielding, they continued to cut off hits and clean the runways when the Beavers looked good for a few counters. Patterson and Purcell played in form that gave the local fans a chance to enthuse. Although ordered by the club physician to remain out of the game as the result of a fractured rib, Patterson donned the armor and caught in brilliant form. His pegging to bases was an outstanding feature. Five times he cut runners off at the second station with beautiful throws. Purcell played bang-up ball around the short field.

Ready For To-night.
The Capitals are at home now, all ready for to-night's game with Vancouver at the Stadium at ten minutes past six. The Victoria boys now have but nine games to play away from home and thirty-eight at home, so that they should have quite an advantage over all other teams, none of which has more than twenty-eight to play at home.

ERRORS CAUSE KNIGHTS' FALL

Collieries - Vets Strengthen Lead in Amateur Ball Race

Numerous errors caused the defeat of the Knights of Columbus in their tangle with the Collieries-Vets at the Stadium last night. The final tally was seven to two. Pete McQuade, captain of the Knights, had "Babe" Fortin on deck to do the heavy, and if everybody had done as well as he the result of the game would have been different. The great trouble with the Knights, however, was their continual errors, six of the runs by the Collieries-Vets being direct results.

Dick Rosson for the victors fanned ten men and generally hurled a nice game of ball.

REMARKABLE AQUATIC EXHIBITION IN LEAD

TO-DAY'S AMUSEMENTS
Princess Theatre—"My Irish Cinderella."
Royal Victoria—"Wings of the Morning."
Pantages—Vaudeville.
Dominion—"Mary's Ankle."
Variety—"Girl of the Sea."
Columbia—"The Hoodlum."

ROYAL VICTORIA

The Dyaks, notorious head hunters of the South Seas, are seen on the screen in all their aboriginal ferocity in "Wings of the Morning," the new feature in which William Fox will present William Farnum to-night at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

During the course of the story Captain Robert Anstruther, played by William Farnum, and Iris Deane played by Louise Lovely, are shipwrecked on a lonely lake in the South Seas. There they are attacked by Dyaks. Help arrives in the form of a British gunboat just in the nick of time. The scenes in which the Dyaks appear are said to be the most exciting recently seen upon the screen. The Dyaks are unique—not to say spectacular—in their attire. The original and still prevailing costume consists of a waistcloth, generally of blue cotton, brass rings and armbands, necklaces of black and white beads, and large crescent-shaped earrings. The men usually carry a betel nut pouch in addition to a curved sword and long spear.

Head hunting is essentially a religious practice with the Dyaks; such seeking a consecration for every important part of his life by the acquisition of one or more skulls. But, if Heaven depends on enemy skulls, the Dyaks who attacked William Farnum and Iris Deane in "Morning" are doomed to perdition, for both Farnum and his leading lady escaped unscathed.

DOMINION

However harmoniously they work together in "Mary's Ankle," the photoplay in which they are being starred at the Dominion Theatre this week by Thomas H. Ince, Douglas MacLean and Doris May are intense rivals off the screen. It seems that in an ill guarded moment, Mr. MacLean averred that he was "some cook." And cooking is the one thing upon which William May prides herself especially. She defined him to prove it. Doug did. He brought to the studio a marvelous concoction which he announced as a new way to cook spaghetti. Miss May countered with a luscious example of her way of baking beans. Now, nearly every day sees a new culinary triumph of either Douglas or Miss May's at the Ince studio. The studio staff are the judges, and they are hoping that the contest keeps up forever.

VARIETY

The Submarine Film Corporation are the sole producers of the submarine or undersea pictures, and the apparatus they use was invented by Ernest and George Williamson, of Norfolk, Va., who showed the first pictures ever taken by a moving picture camera underneath the ocean. Their latest production, "Girl of the Sea," will be the attraction of the week. "Girl of the Sea" is an exclusive feature picture—it is not only a different picture, it is an exclusive picture. The only other pictures made under the sea were also made by its producers. The pictures were taken with a view of showing an incredible world that it was possible, after a man to descend to the bottom of the ocean and in perfect comfort take photographic impressions of the marvelous things Nature has created there. None of these pictures could have ever been taken had it not been for the devices of the Williamson. The camera man descends into a long tube, let down from the bottom of the vessel. At the bottom of this tube is a large chamber with a glass front. Strong lights are thrown through this glass, and by this means the undersea life is photographed. To claim thrills new to the screen is one thing; to actually give them to the public is another, but it is accomplished in "Girl of the Sea," which features beautiful Betty Hilburn, the sixteen-year-old child actress.

COLUMBIA

It takes a far more versatile person to be happy in a tenement district than it does on Riverside Drive. Amy Burke, played by Mary Pickford, discovers this in "The Hoodlum," her second picture produced in her own studios, released by First National Exhibitors' Circuit and which will be seen beginning today at the Columbia Theatre.

As Amy Burke, Miss Pickford is the granddaughter of a financial power, a victim of all the ills of rich children and the recipient of all luxuries within the power of purchase. But all of Amy's relatives are not as successful in matters of finance as her grandfather. Her father, for instance, is a sociological writer and lecturer, of whom she has not heard for years. Her life of luxury is suddenly ended when her father returns, penniless, and she decides to forsake her grandfather and live with her father. In the East Side district, where she shoots craps with the street ruffians, dances to the music of the burdy-gurdies and engages in numerous pranks with the most reckless of her associates. Amy makes several close friends in her life among the poor, among them being an artist whom she finds out was sent up for a term in the penitentiary on account of a crooked deal perpetrated by her own grandfather. She determined to aid the man she loves and whom her grandfather has caused to suffer. Her plan leads her into what appears to the police to be a criminal act. Then comes the big surprise enjoyable to the audience although rather difficult for the star.

profession might well be called an all-star cast, practically all of whom have taken the "lead" in Mr. Hincok's well-known and admirable productions. The play is directed by Major Prideaux, who has produced this particular comedy many times, and thus the public is assured of a play which is not only full of interest, but will be staged in a manner not often found in amateur productions. Both Major and Mrs. Prideaux have played their roles numerous times, and care has been taken to stage it as a real domestic scene, and not with the ordinary stage properties. The furniture is all the personal property of Major Prideaux, and much of it is as familiar with the footlights as Major and Mrs. Prideaux themselves.

MY IRISH CINDERELLA DELIGHTS AT PRINCESS

In "My Irish Cinderella" the Mildred Page Players add yet another charming comedy to their lengthy repertoire. Mildred Page in the title role of "Peggy" sustains the main action of the piece with charming realism, and affects the difficult Irish brogue with a facility that lends their appeal to the intriguing plot. The story is very much after the style of the original Cinderella, with a touch of the spirit of "Peg o' My Heart" and similar productions dealing with the quaint charm of the Irish.

A Big Lively Cabaret

CRITERION

"Paddy" is left a simple legacy by her sole relative her grandfather which consisted apparently of a small cottage and an arca chair. Other relations, of the more worldly and sinister persuasion of social "climbers" make a swoop on the little household, bringing with them much that is capable of excellent comedy and much that is farcical. Byron Aldenn, as "Shorty Long," an American stocky of words, adds another accomplished role to his popular representations, and gains a distinct ovation with the leading lady, Miss Pags, King Gulliver. Miss the secret wife of the jockey, in the assumed role of the "yes-yes" daughter of the "climber," plays a difficult part with a touch of quaint vividness that makes her work very effective and popular with the audience. George Cleveland, as a country vicar, and Thomas Sullivan as the squire, add realism to their parts, which are carried with distinction and admirable restraint. Genevieve Berkeley, as Mrs. Chesterton, the "climber" in more financial straits, acts a difficult part with becoming vividness. A clever denouement lends excitement to the piece, which ends in a charming climax, bringing happiness to all. The play is simple in plot, but effective in action, conveying humor with pathos in a manner that foretells considerable ability and experience on the part of the actors who carry the main roles. In "My Irish Cinderella" the Princess Players render yet another exposition of their talents and are thoroughly delightful for their clever representation.

The Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Club will on Monday and Tuesday next, July 19 and 20, offer their season's initial production at the Pantages Theatre under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club in aid of the Jubilee Hospital Building Fund. "Dandy Dick" is one of the best of Pinero's earlier comedies, and is a play brimful of dramatic situations, centering round the fortunes of a racehorse by the name of Dandy Dick. The cast has been particularly selected out of the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Club, which numbers over eighty members, comprising such well-known talent as Herbert Kent, whose abilities are no less known in the musical world; Lieut. Webb, Reg. Ward, Major Hendy, Stewart Clark, and among the ladies are Miss Mabel Hickman, Miss Gubbe Butler, and Miss Bobbie Stephens. This aggregation forms what in the wages are good. Men will not leave their homes to work for low wages or to rub shoulders with inferior immigrants from Southern Europe under bad working conditions, but with satisfactory conditions and with good living assured then, I think, Great Britain can supply all the laborers Canada needs.

Col. Taylor, who recently completed a tour of thirty of the largest cities in England, speaking on Canada and its possibilities, said that he had found the most intense interest among all classes in the advantages of this western country. He himself had lived for ten years in Toronto and has travelled across the continent many times. The Salvation Army, he said was not carrying on as active a campaign for immigration as had been the case before the war. At the same time there were large numbers of farm workers who wished to come to this country and who would make good settlers. The Salvation Army had settled satisfactorily in Canada some 100,000 men and the percentage of failures has been less than one-half of one per cent, a record of which the Army is justly proud.

LT.-COL. TAYLOR ON IMMIGRATION ISSUE

Was Here in Spring Regarding British Women's Emigration

Lieut.-Col. C. A. Taylor, of the Salvation Army, London, England, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. Last March Col. Taylor was in the city with regard to the immigration of women ready to work on the land or in domestic service, but the project, when presented to the Government, fell through.

In an interview Col. Taylor stated: "Great Britain is prosperous and

PEACE REIGNS BETWEEN CITY AND SAANICH

Reeve Watson's Attitude Fails to Stay Settlement of Differences

Peace was declared between Victoria and Saanich yesterday afternoon, when members of the Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee met for the first time since the fight over the Elk Lake sale and expressed official regret over their estrangement—that is to say, a majority of the new Saanich Committee did, but Reeve Watson, the chairman called at the meeting, looked in, and went away.

There were present at yesterday afternoon's meeting, Alderman George Sangster and Alderman Todd for the city, the Mayor being unable to attend, and Councillors Henderson and Pim and Clerk Cowper for Saanich. In the absence of the Committee Chairman, Reeve Watson, Councillor Henderson was elected to take the chair. Secretary Kathleen O'Toole had just finished reading the minutes of the previous meeting—the last meeting before the inter-municipal squabble—when Reeve Watson appeared, looked in, and left at once.

A few minutes later Alderman Todd went to the outer offices to see if he could find the Reeve. He returned shortly, however, and announced, "He's gone."

"He might have stayed," ventured Alderman Sangster. "There was nothing to be afraid of."

It was suggested that the Reeve had been mistaken about the place of meeting. "I know all right," affirmed Clerk Cowper, who thought that in regard to the notice of meeting the Reeve might have pumped to a conclusion he had no business to. Clerk Cowper felt that if the meeting merely served to make peace between Victoria and Saanich the time would have been well spent. The other members agreed with this idea and Councillor Henderson suggested that a resolution on the subject be passed. This resolution, he urged, should express regret that a break had occurred and the determination that by-gones should be by-gones, the decision that business in future should be transacted in a business-like way. "There were faults on both sides," said Councillor Henderson. "Saanich felt it had been grossly insulted, and doubtless you gentlemen did, too."

A Motion to Pacify. To bring the matter to a head Alderman Todd moved that "in the interests of the public of Victoria and Saanich, the members here present be it is to the general interest that whatever differences of opinion may have existed in the past should be forgotten, that by-gones should be by-gones and that the joint committee should hold a meeting as soon as possible."

Seconded by Councillor Pim, this resolution was passed. "I wish the Reeve had been present to hear Alderman Todd move that resolution," remarked Councillor Henderson. "It would have solved the whole matter." The Councillor urged strongly that a phrase be inserted in the resolution to the effect that both municipalities regretted the break which occurred. The Committee agreed with this idea, but turned down a suggestion by Clerk Cowper that the resolution should state that words had been said in the heat of the moment that should not have been said.

Some argument took place about the original report which upset the Committee before and it looked for a few moments as if another dispute was about to break out. However, the meeting was guided successfully over these troublesome waters and proceeded to discuss Elk Lake as a source of water for Saanich. Alderman Sangster held that there was not sufficient water in the Lake to irrigate more than one large Saanich farm, but the Saanich members viewed the matter more hopefully. After some further informal discussion, the meeting passed a resolution requesting the Chairman, Reeve Watson, to call a meeting of the joint Committee for Friday, July 23. Formal business will be transacted at this session.
