

W. H. HOWELL & BRO.,

Wholesale and Retail Druggists,

221 ELM STREET,

$15⁷²

Dallas, Texas, April 12 1894

SIR. Mr. Carlisle:-

Dear Sir:

We enclose you, as you may perceive, that which has been tried in the fire - a ten dollar gold piece, and just within a five dollar gold piece and the silver mass was two silver dollars and a half dollars in silver. Making $17⁵⁰, now if you can be so kind as to send us a check for that amount we shall be greatly obliged and will hope you can do so or very nearly so.
 As Uncle Sam wants gold and we want silver and more of it in Texas, as you know from our Senators Coke & Mills and Congressman Abbott so you see we will be glad to exchange our gold for silver.

Yours truly,
 W. H. Howell & Bro
