Why is it that the papers always say "pretty girls" are selected to sell tickets for charity socials, when everybody knows we have no others?

Just now much is being said that might safely be left unsaid pro and con on "brutal journalism," by which term is designated a too ready aptitude in parading the arrest with sensational alleged details of persons charged with crime. No doubt harmful coloring is at times thrown in under the freedom accorded the press, but the only scourge a certain class dreads is publicity. Arrest, conviction, jail, prison, is little dreaded, if only the press is silent.

Unconscious wrong is often done to both dead and living by constant assertion of a half-truth. The late Dr. Burdette was not like "Yarick," a "fellow of infinite jest." While possessing rare good nature, and a most charming companion, he had his sober moments, and what rational man of genius has not.

Alas for the rarity of the charity of genius, for the poor fellows who attempt to write verse, as Dr. Frank Crane has turned them down as being shy of grey matter. Dear exalted doctor, shall we order a "hanging of the Crane" in revenge? Prose in your hands becomes poetry of highest class. Please let us live to manufacture a few innocent rhymes, as they are a great help in memorizing gain, brain, Crane, etc.

Recently elected members of general assemblies of several states begin to realize that, like Othello, a big part of their "occupation" is gone—taken rudely away by the people—who themselves have taken the job of electing United States senators by direct vote. This eliminates for all time a disturbing factor, over which much time is often lost and members can at once get down to business.

It takes a good deal of courage to say it, but here goes: The presence of any great calamity appeals to the best within us, and there is more or less of good in all, but there is no disguising the fact that in all cases from war to earthquake and shipwreck, occasion is made for great frontage of some over others, often mere advertising without due regard for merit, while the best talent is often generous in tendering their professional services for charity, it is in evidence that all is not the best, and cheap performances get a footing over the charity route that could never get in otherwise.

When Gen. Ben Butler was sent as military governor of New Orleans, he did not go to shoot up the town unless it became necessary to do so, but he did go to "clear up the town," and it has ever since remained so. From a pestilential place only inhabited by "yellow jack" and those that could not get away, it became a health resort and habitable all the year 'round.

Wonder if all the multitude of people made sad by Bob Burdette's transfer who really loved him and will so much miss him out of their lives, ever took pains to tell him so while he could hear them. To have done so then would have cheered and comforted. He does not need it now.

"When a woman, old or young, ignoring good taste, comfort, convenience, deliberately dresses to attract attention, and gets it, she invariably gets the worst of it when she calls a policeman, unless she wants to see her name in print."

LIVERY BARN BURNED THANKSGIVING EVENING

CITIZEN OF GLENDALE IS A HEAVY LOSER IN BLAZE OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN AT SAN FERNANDO

The J. O. Jenifer livery barn at San Fernando was completely destroyed by fire early Thursday evening while Mr. Jenifer was spending Thanksgiving with his family in Glendale at their Glendale residence, 216 Orange street.

Mr. Jenifer was called by telephone about 7 o'clock and informed that his barn was on fire. Rushing to the scene of conflagration he arrived only to find the building a mass of smoking ashes. Although the horses were saved, much of the livery equipment and two hundred tons of hay were consumed—a loss amounting to over $5000. Besides

VAN VLECK EDDINGS OF NORTH GLENDALE TAKES BRIDE—OTHER NEWS ITEMS

At the home of Mrs. Martha Shaw, 409 East Twenty-eighth street, in Los Angeles, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, occurred a quiet but beautiful wedding when her granddaughter, Miss Gargatha Van Lounen, became the bride of Mr. Van Vleck Eddings, son of Mrs. G. C. Eddings of 1025 Fairview, North Glendale. The young couple stood beneath a bower of palms and smilax, while white and yellow chrysanthemums mingled with greenery lent their beauty to the scene. The bride was charming in a beautiful white lace gown with bridal veil of tulle held in place with orange blossoms. This veil was worn by the groom's mother and by his two sisters. Only the immediate relatives of the happy couple and a few friends of the bride witnessed the pretty ceremony performed by Rev. T. C. Horton, assisted by Rev. Harry Hill, both of the Bible Institute. Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. Mrs. Eddings is a graduate nurse, being most proficient in her profession. Her husband has been engaged in missionary work in South America the past year and recently came home for his bride, who will accompany him on his return the first of the year to the mission field at Victoria, Venezuela. The good wishes and prayers of many friends will follow Mr. Eddings and his bride to their far-away home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Marsh of 1643 Ruth street entertained Thursday at dinner. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. Poinsettias were used in the living-room and roses and smilax in the dining-room. Covers were laid for fourteen and the center piece for the table was of roses and smilax. A four-course Thanksgiving dinner was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Hervert Shaw and son, Mr. Chas. Shaw, and daughter, Miss Hattie Shaw, all of Santa Ana; Miss Ida Martin, who is the house guest of Miss Shaw and is from Grinnell, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilbur of Rancho La Solano, San Gabriel, and Mr. Delos Wilbur of Hotel Antlers, Los Angeles. Members of the immediate family who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Marsh, Mr. George Marsh, Master Ben, Master Jack and Master Frank.

Mrs. Oliver E. Wright was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, at Sawtelle Thursday evening. While there she attended a pleasing performance of Queen Esther at the Woman's club house.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckles of 920 North Central avenue and the doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eckles of York, Neb., who are spending the winter in Glendale, are enjoying the annual field meet of the Los Angeles School of Osteopathy at Long Beach today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Wilson of 1020 Stocker street were among a number of guests who enjoyed the beautifully appointed Thanksgiving dinner party given by Mrs. Cedric Hall at her attractive home in Los Angeles Thursday evening.

Recent guests of Mrs. Blanche Coughran of 1620 Ruth street were Mrs. M. K. Vivven and daughter Kathleen of Los Angeles; also Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brunett of Sunland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parnell of 1636 Ruth street entertained as their dinner guests Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards and children; also Mr. and Mrs. James Wells and daughter of Rockdale, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Rueter of 930 Fairview avenue motored to Los Angeles Thursday afternoon and enjoyed having dinner at the Hotel Angelus in the evening.

G. U. H. S. BASKETBALL SEASON SOON STARTS

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK'S EVENTS AT THE GLENDALE UNION HIGH SCHOOL—FRESHMEN GIVE PARTY—NEW MACHINERY IS INSTALLED—TENNIS TOURNAMENT ON

Glendale Union high school was unable to play any kind of football this past season on account of building material which occupied the old athletic field. However, the fact that one game cannot be played does not stop all athletics in a school, and Coach Wight has turned his attention towards the developing of a pennant-winning basketball team.

Glendale is not going to be satisfied with one team, but the local school is going to enter a lightweight team in the race for a place in the lightweight division of Southern California "prep" basketball.

With two teams taking nightly attention, Prof. Wight has been a busy man, but the practices of the past few weeks of work has shown wonderful results, especially was this noticed in Tuesday night's game at Los Angeles high school on the hill. The first team played a practice game with the hilltoppers and beat them 32 to 20. Of course the city boys have not quite cooled off from their rugby season, but notwithstanding, the Glendale boys showed class enough to place them in ship-shape running order for the local championship. There are many places undoubtedly where the local boys can improve, but this will presumably come about with the starting of the league games Dec. 5th, when Glendale plays at Monrovia.

Among those who are out for regular positions on the varsity and those who played in Tuesday evening's exhibition game, is Hasty Bidwell, Glendale's all-around athlete, who played rings around Tad Wieman, Los Angeles high school "phenom." Hasty was after the ball every minute. He was in the game, but he was forced to retire after spraining his thumb.

Benj. Nichols, who had been playing forward, replaced Bidwell at center and played a fine game. He has developed some fast arm work and is proving quite valuable with his hands. As soon as he gets a bit faster he'll be a star performer.

Monty Coole played forward most of the game, but was replaced by Fuzzy Livingston, while Monty took Nichols' place when Ben went in to center. Monty has developed considerable ability shooting baskets and in the last part of the game buckled down and made a couple of the prettiest baskets of the game. Fuzzy Livingston played a fast game, and will be a strong factor in the teams of the next three seasons, Fuzzy being the sophomore offering towards the team.

Harold (Sonny) Latter is one of Glendale's stockiest in years, and he showed his ability to tackle the biggest Dutchman in Los Angeles.

"Sonny" is right there when it comes to a spill or rough and tumble, and if he isn't on top he has the horsehide underneath with him.

Wallace Cramer went in the last half for Kolts at guard and played a first-class game; in fact, his work was superb and he was the party to a number of commendable team plays.

Bob Kolts got a tryout at guard in the first half and played a good defensive game. Being light, he was stepped on, sat upon, tramped over, etc., but he was always able to get up with a smile and get in the game again.

Other men who are working in regular basketball practices are Balthis, Shea, Hagan, Nyman, Padelford, West, Renshaw and McNutt.

The schedule for the 1914-15 season for Glendale is as follows: Dec. 5, with Monrovia at Monrovia. Dec. 12, open. Dec. 19, with Harvard at Glendale. Jan. 9, with Compton at Compton. Jan. 16, with Alhambra at Alhambra.

Jan. 23, with Covina at Glendale. Jan. 30, with South Pasadena at Glendale.

LAKE—MILBURN
H. M. Lake of Lake's confectionery on Broadway near Brand made a little trip to Los Angeles Tuesday and returned with a wife. The lady was Miss Myra J. Milburn of Los Angeles and she became Mrs. Lake at 4 o'clock that day at the parsonage of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Meyers. Mr. and Mrs. Lake will reside in Glendale, where the groom has recently established himself in business.

Mrs. C. R. Tower of Tower, Ind., is expected to arrive in Glendale tomorrow to spend the winter with her son, Mr. A. W. Tower of 885 Damasco court.

Freshmen vs. juniors, freshmen won.

Sophomores vs. freshmen, sophomores won.

Seniors vs. juniors, seniors won.

The sophomore and senior teams are the only two undefeated to date.

Debating Jubilee
A debating jubilee was held at the high school Tuesday morning. Its purpose was a double one, first to celebrate the victory of last Friday evening, and second, to announce the coming debate, Jan. 15, when Glendale debates Pomona and Long Beach on some question dealing with government ownership.

New Machinery Installed
The mechanical arts building is presenting a busy appearance these days with the installation of many new and heavy pieces of machinery to be used by the departments under the direction of Profs. Oliver and Hildebrand. Among the new pieces recently installed are: A two-ton lathe, just unloaded; five smaller lathes, two drill presses, and a shaper that has been ordered and is on the way. This will equip Glendale high with one of the most complete mechanical art departments on the coast and with the installation of the foundry it will be no idle boast to say that the local school is as complete as any on the western coast.

Freshmen Give Party
Fifty-two little innocent freshmen made up one of the happiest parties 'round about the high school for some time. The gym had been painstakingly decorated for their affair of Wednesday night and presented a delightfully fresh appearance with its profusion of green pepper berries. After a round of games and other amusements delightful refreshments were served by three boys dressed as well, we won't tell how they were dressed, but they certainly served delicious chocolate and cake, supplemented by pickles. The chaperones of this event were Prof. Howe, Mrs. Hagan and Mrs. V. Price Brown.

Music Department Concert
The music department, under the direction of Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, director of music in the Glendale Union high school, on Wednesday afternoon gave an excellent program that was worthy of more than passing mention.

The numbers by the orchestra were well received and organization is becoming stronger each year. The boys' glee club gave a couple of very pleasing numbers and answered a hearty encore to the tune of "Tipperary," the English marching song, which has become so popular since the war began.

Mr. Orley Bond, the accomplished young pianist, who is taking a post graduate course in harmony, gave an excellent rendition of "Ventienne," Fourth Barcarolle, by Gordan, which received an appreciative encore.

"My Heart is Singing" was sang very prettily by Miss Dorothy Hobbs. This song was an original composition by Miss Pauline Thorpe, a local student.

The violin selections by Mr. Cecil Crandall, who always delights, drew forth hearty applause and Mr. Crandall and his accompanist, Miss Dorothy Lee, responded with a very pleasing little encore.

The girls' glee club sang "Forever and a Day" and "Honey," which were well received. The program was concluded with a march composed by Marian Carmichael, a student in the Glendale high. The program was a great success in every detail and the work of the music department should attract more attention from the patrons of the school.

Senior Vaudeville
The senior class of the high school will stage a society vaudeville the evening of Friday, Dec. 4. The Wallis School of Dramatic Art will have charge of the program. Committees are busy arranging the details of this show, which promises to be a great success.

CHRISTMAS SOUVENIRS
Many people have asked the Glendale Evening News to save copies of the anniversary number for them to send to friends for Christmas souvenirs. The demand is so great that we cannot guarantee to save copies.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Parker and son, Lawrence Parker and wife of Los Angeles, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Billings at their home, "Tranquility ranch," at Arcadia, leaving here Wednesday evening and staying until Thursday evening at the ranch, where they attended the family reunion and Thanksgiving dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Billings. Mrs. Billings is Mrs. Parker's sister.

FOR A NEAT CITY

MEN AND WOMEN ARE CARELESS IN LITTERING STREETS OF OUR CITY

The practice of carelessly throwing waste paper on the sidewalks and streets is one that causes the streets and vacant lots of the city of Glendale to have an untidy appearance. The careless habit has gotten so firm a hold on some otherwise seemingly well-meaning citizens that they seem to think there is no harm done when they scatter papers about on the streets.

This act of carelessness is not alone confined to men, but ladies have the bad habit of dropping paper sacks and newspapers on the sidewalks. Only a few days ago a schoolgirl whose dress would indicate that she is desirous of keeping in touch with the latest rules of etiquette, dropped a large paper sack at her feet on the sidewalk near the Evening News office. Should the 1500 pupils in the Glendale schools be equally careless there would be 1500 paper bags or newspapers cast upon our streets daily.

It is not uncommon to see a man raise a car window as the car is passing up Brand boulevard or Broadway and thrust a 24-page city paper through the opening to the street, where by the action of the wind the sheets are separated and the half dozen parts go tumbling over the smooth streets until a lodging place is found in the shelter of a building or wrapped around weeds in a vacant lot. Boys and girls, men and women, if we would have Glendale appear beautiful, we must discontinue throwing newspapers, paper bags and scraps of paper on the streets in a promiscuous manner.

IN MEMORY OF JACK

Jack, the little fox terrier belonging to Chief George H. Herald and the enthusiastic little mascot of the fire department, is no more. His end came suddenly Wednesday evening when the truck was returning from a practice run. Jack was running beside the truck barking joyously when in turning to back into the fire station his little life was crushed out beneath the wheels of the heavy machine. The happy little fellow will be missed around the fire station, where he was very much at home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Parker of 311 South Louise street entertained Tuesday evening the vestry of St. Mark's church and their wives at a very pretty informal affair. Light refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. C. Irving Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson D. White, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. C. Crampton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Read, all of Glendale, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith of Tropic.

THRILLING CONCERT AT HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT

BRILLIANT ARRAY OF PROFESSIONALS TO APPEAR IN GREAT BENEFIT FOR BELGIANS AND GENERAL RELIEF WORK OF SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE

The Glendale high school auditorium will be the scene of one of the largest and most distinguished audiences ever assembled in the San Fernando valley this evening. It will be the occasion of the first public social function of the Sons and Daughters of the British Empire. This society has been formed out of interests which bind together those whose hearts and minds blend in common feeling for those who suffer as a result of the world war. It is a distinctively British society, but it is not the purpose to exclude any whose blood-ties and interests are favorable to the good work of the society. Already over fourteen large sacks of wearing apparel have been received at headquarters and over two hundred dollars in cash raised for the benefit of Belgian and British sufferers. At the grand concert this evening a collection will be lifted to further help along the worthy cause. Rev. Edmonds, one of Glendale's prominent British-born clergymen, will make the appeal, and Mayor Lane will preside. Mrs. Dan Campbell, who heads the committee on social work, is justly proud to present the following program:

AN EXCLUSIVE CLUB

TEN YOUNG GLENDALE LADIES FORM ORGANIZATION KNOWN AS THE ROBINETTE CLUB

Glendale should be proud of the club that some of her talented daughters have made a reality. This is the "Robinette club" and is composed of ten earnest young singers with excellent voices, who are going to make of four-part singing an exquisite accomplishment. The club has for its directress Madame Norma Rockhold Robbins, the Los Angeles contralto and teacher who spent many years in Europe in operatic work and is well qualified to give success to any musical undertaking.

On Christmas morning the club will give its voices in singing some of the old English carols at the Los Angeles and Glendale hospitals, and in January will give its initial concert, to which the public will be invited.

The personnel of the club is given below:

- First sopranos, Zettie Duncan, Emma Frances Legge and Mattie Belle Provolt.
- Second sopranos, Gladys G. Sherman and Helen Wright.
- First altos, Katherine Lewis and Rachel McClure.
- Second altos, Riffa N. Leighton and Myrtle Pulliam.
- Accompanist, Maude Machesney Snow.
- Rehearsals are held at Madame Robbins' residence, 911 Lomita avenue.

GLENDALE PEOPLE GENEROUS

The ladies of the philanthropic section of the Tuesday Afternoon club wish to publicly thank all those who so generously contributed to the Belgian relief fund, and wish to especially thank the school children, who answered so nobly to our call, sending all sorts of good things for the poor children across the seas. We would like to express gratitude individually to all who contributed, but that is impossible, as donations came in so thick and fast and some of them without names. We also appreciate the assistance rendered by Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. Freeman Kelley and Mr. E. H. Kerker. We sent to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce 2018 pounds, consisting of flour, beans, rice, dried fruit, etc., and 477 cans of milk, vegetables, fruit and fish; also 54 packages such as shredded wheat, macaroni, pancake flour, etc. The $14.70 given in money was spent for foodstuffs.

SEEDLESS LEMONS

A. S. Blackburn, an Alhambra man, is exhibiting some seedless lemons. The tree on which the fruit was grown was brought from Sicily and is believed to be the only one of its kind in this country.

LAWLESS GALL
The voters of California announced by the state on Jan. 1, 1915, more prizefights than any other state in the world. The prizefights would be the result of the election was decided in Thursday's session.

his report reveals some interesting tendencies of the average laborer. Prominent among his discoveries was the revelation that nine men in every ten laborers occupy a large amount of their spare time in reading the newspapers, and that this number of them are subscribers to their local publications.

Next to the time spent with his family, the American laborer divides his spare moments in visiting friends and in reading newspapers.

Of the thousand men investigated, 29 nationalities and 164 occupations were represented, and 300 of them belonged to trade unions. There were 580 church members, while 420 did not profess religion. Six men in every ten are regular patrons of the picture shows and only three in ten used intoxicants in any form.

Taking the one thousand men investigated as fair examples of the average laborer, the American workman reveals the strongest social spirit of that of any civilized nation on the globe.

CORONA WINNERS

Eddie Pullen, victorious driver in the Corona race Thursday, not only won the race, but broke the world's race record at 86.5 miles an hour. The former record was 78.72 established by Teddy Tetzlaff at Santa Monica in 1912. Pullen won the prize of $4000 and $2000 additional for making a new world's record. The other winners were:

- Eddie O'Donnell, Duesenberg, second; time, 3:29:18—$2500.
Barney Oldfield, Maxwell, third; time, 3:29:58—$1500.
Ralph DePalma, Mercedes, fourth; time, 3:31:51—$1000.
Huntley Gordon, Gordon Special, fifth; time, 3:48:29—$700.
William Carlson, Jr., Maxwell, sixth; time, 3:52:10—$300.

Announcements

The Columbus avenue Parent-Teacher association has chosen the evening of December 18th as the time for their evening meeting at the school. This will be a father's as well as a mother's meeting. An interesting program is being prepared, which will be announced later. Refreshments will be served by the losing side in the membership contest.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The thought of praise and thanksgiving is to be carried out during the different services at the Presbyterian church Sabbath, Nov. 29, beginning with the Sabbath school, the first service of the day. You are planning to attend the 11 o'clock hour of worship, when special music under Prof. L. C. Peckham's direction will be rendered and Miss Katherine Wambold, a former Los Angeles girl, will tell of her work in Seoul, Korea.

TO LECTURE HERE ON WHITE SLAVERY

Dr. F. H. Essert, president of the International Anti-White Slave association, will speak here next week as follows:

Sunday, Nov. 29, at 3 p. m., in the high school auditorium. Men only. Subject, "A National Peril, the Taxpayers' Burden—How It Affects Glendale."

Monday, Nov. 30, at 3 p. m., in the Christian church. Women only. Subject, "The Scarlet Man."

Monday at 7:30 in the high school a union mass meeting for all. Subject, "The Blackest Crime in History, White Slavery."
Dr. Essert has some startling facts and he hurls them with telling effect. He is a forceful, eloquent speaker, but he clothes his lectures in language that does not offend the most modest. He was for several years general superintendent of the Bethel hospital at Colorado Springs and he gained many inside facts there. Large crowds are expected as these lectures are all free.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? $25

With the opening of the doors of the handsome new theater on Brand boulevard, Monday evening, November 30, will begin the contest for the christening or selecting of an appropriate name for the beautiful structure. Such an imposing edifice is deserving of the best, prettiest and most attractive appellation that can be bestowed upon it and one that is symbolic of the nature of the amusement house. It is hoped that every resident of Glendale will take a personal interest in suggesting a name for this pretty theater. The contest will begin with the opening of the doors on schedule time and close Saturday evening, December 5. Every person attending any of the performances during the week will be requested to drop a suggestion in the box, which will be provided and placed just inside the theater. Write your suggestion on the outside of an envelope with your name and address on the inside. The envelope must be sealed. Every person may submit a suggestion each time they attend the performance. A reward of twenty-five dollars in gold will be given for the best name suggested and selected. Let everyone in Glendale feel a personal interest in the christening of this attractive picture-house.

Another attraction is to be added to the already pleasing program. Miss Jessica Dixon, a well-known singer of Los Angeles, has been secured as a special artist and she will render selections at each performance. Miss Dixon possesses a voice of rare sweetness, with great beauty of tone and caringly appealing. She has been heard with charming effect in concert work in Los Angeles and elsewhere and she has but to be heard in Glendale to receive welcome applause. She has been soloist at the San Francisco hotel and Techau Tavern in San Francisco and her ability and talent are known in every city of the coast. The new theater management is most fortunate in being able to secure the services of Miss Dixon.

Forbach, Germany, is said to have the most profitable town forest known. It yields an annual net gain of $12.14 an acre.

BELGIUM (By Samuel Parker) Oh, human hive of industry; Oh, realm with everyone employed; You have our keenest sympathy; Your happy homes for naught destroyed. Where reigned the hum of busy life Activity is now erased. Result of this inhuman strife, Your gardens made a barren waste. Rich heritage—a thousand years Of highest type of art was yours; In vast cathedral it appears— And lavishly its blessing pours. In royal painting sacred fane The sun ne'er saw of these more fair; Surely e'en vandals will refrain And all these sacred treasures spare. Not so with accuracy trained The guns emit incessant roar, Until cathedrals are profaned And art destroyed that all deplore. How cruel to despoil the land And wrest their all from their control; More base to spoil with ruthless hand The shrines and temples of the soul. Despoiled of home and heritage, Your teeming fields now brown and bare; Behind you gloomy thoughts engage Before you darkness and despair! See Rachel holding while she weeps Her starving children by the hand, While waste and desolation sweeps In war-wild tempest through the land. Oh, little hive of industry, We offer friendship warm and true; And in your abject misery We come with timely aid for you. Look up—a rift is in the sky— Behold a world-wide brotherhood Has heard across the deep your cry, And haste to timely bring you food. —Glendale, Nov. 27, 1914.

The free giving spirit that people of the United States have in the instance donating to the Belgian sufferers is indeed to be commended.

Purity in Foods is Essential There is a vast difference in provisions that are sold these days. Some manufacturers use processes that are in some respects more advantageous and superior to others. That's why some brands are regarded as more delectable and desirable than others. There is nothing that tends more toward a person's longevity than the consumption of food that is absolutely pure. "Quality" grocers have given a new meaning to the word "quality." You can depend upon them to supply the purest of food. TROPICO MERCANTILE CO. supply abundance of hardtack; the boat is never coming back—no, no, not for Joe or "Capt." either.

The association of the turkey with Thanksgiving has never been satisfactorily explained to an inquiring mind. The barnyard chicken, the common goose or duck are equally inviting and toothsome, when properly "done up."

Pa reading, boy dressing: "Say, pa, any more ships sunk?" "Yes, Johnny, three sunk yesterday." Boy—"Say, pa, where will they sink the ships when they fill up the ocean?" Pa—"You man, it's school time."

MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSION KILLS 736

The British navy Thursday suffered a loss of 736 officers and men and the battleship Bulwark in a mysterious way. The ship was blown up in the estuary of the Thames only thirty-five miles from London while officers and crew were about their ordinary duties and three minutes later the hulk had disappeared beneath the surface. Of the entire ship's company only fourteen were saved. No attempt has been made to explain the explosion unless it was caused by the accidental discharge of ammunition that was being loaded on the ship.

Pending an investigation and detailed report by the admiralty, there is unquestionably a fear in the minds of many that the Bulwark was a further victim of the stealthy under-sea strategy of the Germans. The conjecture may be utterly unwarranted, possibly is, since the Thames is so completely mined at the mouth that it would be difficult for a mackerel to slip through without a knowledge of the safe passages. But the notion persists and will be held until the government is able to remove it by an acceptable report.

Accidents of the character of the explosion in the Bulwark are uncommon in the British navy or in any navy for that matter, and in wartime particularly there is extraordinary care displayed in the handling of explosives and the safeguarding of ships' magazines.

FOR THE GOOD OF PLANTS

Editor News: In your very excellent article in Monday's issue, "Potted Plants for the Living-room," there occurs in the section headed "ferns" the following erroneous advice, which I think must be a typographical error: "They should be watered sparingly, but should be kept moist, especially keeping the plant soaked at all times; improper watering," etc. The line beginning "especially" is in the wrong place; change it so as to read "but should be kept moist at all times. Improper watering, especially keeping the plant soaked at all times, or permitting it to get dry," etc., would be the correct reading and might save some person from ruining their plants by keeping them soaked.

Yours for the good of plants.
FREEMAN M. KELLEY.

"IMPORTANT IF TRUE"

Italy may serve as a reminder that a secret or published understanding among the governments of nations is not worth the paper it is written on unless the people, at the time for action on the understanding, wish it to be worth something. And where the "understanding" is a verbal one it is not worth the breath given to it. This is, of course, concerning nations where public opinion is informed and controls.

Professor Usher's positive statements that the United States was made a party to the triple entente by an understanding entered into in 1897, during the McKinley administration, could not conceivably have more than academic importance. Whatever American "diplomats" of seventeen years ago, or of the next seventeen years, might consider of a situation, their consideration would be valueless except as it reflected the public's considerations at the time for proposed action.

Although Italy was definitely and publicly made a party to the triple alliance by an hereditary government or dynasty, it was not in fact a party to the triple alliance when the pinch came. The people did not wish it to be so. Toward the declaration or belief that a secret council got the American people into any sort of an "entangling alliance," the attitude of the American people will be that it is "important if true." Or perhaps "I should worry" would be more expressively up to date.—Kansas City Times.

Perseverance is a great element of success. If you only knock long enough and loud enough at the gate you are sure to wake up somebody.—Longfellow.

GRAND JURY REPORTS

After nearly eleven months' work, the grand jury of Los Angeles county submitted their report Wednesday. County Clerk H. J. Leland is severely criticized for carelessness and extravagance. Auditor Lewis also came in for a share of criticism for some of the methods employed in his office.

The jury reported that they had secured for the county an adequate system of accounting and control, through the state board of control, thus saving the county from $15,000 to $20,000, which it would have been necessary to pay to have the work done under private contract.

The jury also was instrumental in collecting certain sums from corporations holding franchises granted by the supervisors.

Recommendations were made in regard to inferior court trust funds, court reporters and auditor's methods. The statement was made that extravagance exists in the maintenance of Los Angeles city schools.

In regard to the county clerk, the grand jury report says:

We do not think we should close our report without making mention of certain acts of the county clerk. We feel that he should be criticized for the careless manner in which he handles the state fish and game funds received by him, and also the funds received on account of naturalization.

Our auditor was unable to find a complete record of these funds and could not make a satisfactory audit of same. In checking up these accounts the county clerk was not able to produce cancelled checks showing how the funds had been disbursed, neither could he produce his check stubs, claiming that he had either lost or destroyed these, not considering it necessary to keep them.

We look with disfavor upon the practice of the county clerk in giving his personal obligation, either by note or otherwise, to his deputies in payment for services rendered.

We also look with disfavor upon his borrowing money from his deputies, and using money for investment or speculation, which we found he had done in several instances. This practice is embarrassing to the deputies, who are dependent upon him for their positions, especially when repayment is long deferred, which has been the case in this instance.

FOREST NOTES

The state school of forestry at, Botineau, North Dakota, announces it will have one million trees for distribution to the citizens of the state during 1915.

Apple wood, used almost exclusively for saw handles, also furnishes the material for some so-called briar-wood pipes and particularly for the large wooden type used in printing signs and posters.

One of the most expensive woods used regularly in an established industry in the United States is boxwood, the favorite material for wood engraving. It has been quoted at four cents a cubic inch and about $1300 by the thousand board feet.

What is supposed to be record speed in getting men to a forest fire is reported from Oregon, where on one of the national forests a ranger went to town, hired ten men and got this force to the fire twelve miles away within 48 minutes after he was notified by telephone.

MASON AND DIXON LINE

In 1763, 151 years ago today, two English surveyors, Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon, began the surveying of what came to be known as the Mason and Dixon line between the states of Pennsylvania and Maryland. This line afterward became famous as the supposed boundary between the North and the South or between the free and the slave holding states.

The line was surveyed at the instance of William Penn and Lord Baltimore. The surveyors were three years in making the survey from the northeast corner to the foot of Savage mountain. In 1767 the work was finished from the latter point to Virginia, now West Virginia. The line is said to have cost $300,000 and the surveyors employed an army of 100 axmen and a road thirty feet wide was cut through the dense forest.

A mixture of sand and limestones of light brown-grayish color was brought over from England to mark the line and these stones were set up at intervals of a mile wherever it was possible to erect them. They weighed 500 pounds each and were 4 1/2 feet high. On some parts of the line the country was so rugged that mounds of dirt and rock had to be substituted for these stones.

Today the Mason and Dixon line has been re-surveyed and re-marked and divested of its chief erroneous traditions. In 1849 a revision of the line was made by a joint commission from Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, and it was then found that changes involved by the correction amounted to less than two acres, which were added to Maryland. In 1903 Pennsylvania and Maryland each appropriated $5000 for the restoration of the line.

Many of the peculiar English stones disappeared and the commission made an extensive and exhaustive search for them. The identification was an easy mark, for on breaking them the stones emitted a sulphurous odor. So thorough was the search that some were found in the curbing of the streets and in people's cellars.

One was taken from the wall of an old church, where it had done service for many years. In the places of those that could not be found new stones of marble were set up.

On every fifth stone the coat of arms of William Penn was cut on the Pennsylvania side and on the Maryland side the escutcheon of Lord Baltimore was placed. On the others the monogram "P. and M." was cut. The stones are now set so near one another, even in the mountain regions, that the traveler may stand at a stone and see the next one.

It is not criminal or irreligious to smile and be cheerful in spirit.
