7 Of the Golden number.

He Golden number is so called, because it was written in the Kalender with letters of Gold, right at that day whereon the Moone changed, and it is the space of xix. yeeres, in the which the Moone returneth to the selfe same day of the yeere of the Sunne: and therefore it is also called the Cycle of the Moone, in the which the Solstices and Equinoctials, doe returne to all one point in the Zodiaque.

To finde it enery yeere, you must adde one yeere to the yeere of Christ (for Christ was borne one yeere of the 19. already past) then divide the whole by 19. and that which resteth, is the Golden number for that yeere: if there be no surplusage, it is then 19.

Note that the Golden number and Dominical letter doth change every yere the first day of Ianuary. And the Epact the first of March for ever. Note also that the yeere of our Lord beginneth the xxv. day of March, the same day supposed to be the first day vpon which the world was created, & the day when Christ was conceived in the wombe of the Virgin Mary.

ANTERINGUES CONTROLLES Ianuary hath xxxj.dayes.

The order how the rest of holy Scripture besides the Psalter, is appointed to be read.

He Old Testament is appointed for the first Lessons at Morning and Euening prayer, and shall bee read through euery yeere once, except certaine Bookes and Chapters which be least edifying, and might best be spared, and therefore are lest vnread.

The New Testament is appointed for the second Lessons at Morning and Euening prayer, and shalbe read ouer orderly euery yeere thrise beside the Epistles and Gospels: Except the Reuelation, out of the which there bee onely certaine Lessons appointed vpon divers proper Feasts.

And to know what Lessons shalbe read every day: Find the day of the moneth in the Kalender going before, and there yee shall perceive the Books and Chapters that shalbe read for the Lessons both at Morning and Evening prayer.

And here is to bee noted, that when soeuer there be any proper Psalmes or Lessons appointed for the Sundayes, or for any Feast moueable or vnmoueable: then the Psalmes and Lessons appointed in the Kalender, shalbe omitted for that time.

Ye must note also that the Collect, Epistle and Gospel appointed for the Sunday, shall serue all the weeke after, except there fall some Feast that hath his proper.

THE

BOOKE OF COMMON PRAYER, AND ADMINIstration of the Sacraments.

The order where Morning and Euening prayer shall be ysed and said.

He Morning and Enening Prayer shalbe vsed in the accustomed place of the Church, Chapppel, or Chancell, except it shall be otherwise determined by the Ordinary of the place, and the Chancels shall remaine as they have done in times past.

And here is to be encted, that the Minister at the time of the Communion, and at all other times in his ministration, shall vse such Ornaments in the Church, as were in vse by Authoritie of Parliament, in the second yeere of the Reigne of Edward the sixt, according to the Acte of Parliamentt in that case made and provided:

An order for Morning prayer dayly throughout the yeere.

T the beginning both of Morning Prayer, and likewise of Evening Prayer, the Minister shall reade Mwith a lowd voice some one of these Sentences of the Scriptures that follow. And then hee shall say that which is written after the said Sentences.

Ezec. 18. Psalme sr. Psalme 51. Psalme 51.

Daniel 9.

T what time soeuer a sinner doeth repent him of his sinne from the bottome of his heart, I will put all his wickednesse out of my remembrance, saith the Lord. I doe know mine owne wickednesse, and my sirine is alway against me.

Turnethy face away from our sinnes, O Lord, and blot out all our offences.

A sorowfull spirit is a sacrifice to God: despise not, O Lord, humble and contrite hearts.

Rent your heats, and not your garments, and turne to the Lord your God, because he is gentle and mercifull, he is patient, and of much mercy, and such a one that is sory for your afflictions.

To thee, O Lord God, belongeth mercy and forgiuenesse, for we have gone away from thee, and have not hearkened to thy voice, wherby we might walke in thy Lawes which thou hast appointed for vs. Ieremie 10. Correct vs, O Lord, and yet in thy judgement, not in thy fury, lest we should be consumed and brought to nothing.

Matth. 3. Amend your lives, for the kingdome of God is at hand.

I will goe to my Father, and say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and against thee: I amno Luke 15. more worthy to be called thy sonne.

Psalme 143. Enter not into judgement with thy servants, O Lord: for no sless is righteous in thy sight. I. lohn I. If we say, that we have no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and there is no true thin vs.

Earely beloued brethren, the Scripture mooueth vs in lundry places, to acknowledge & confesse our manifolde finnes and wickednes, and that we should not dissemble nor cloake them before the face of Almightie God our heavenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtaine forgiuenesse of the same, by his infinite goodnesse and mercie. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sinnes before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to doe, when we assemble and meete together, to render thankes for the great benefits that wee haue received at his hands, to set foorth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy word and to aske those things which be requisite and necessary, aswell for the body as the foule. Wherefore I pray and befeech you as mas ny as be here present, to accompany mee with a pure heart and humble voice, vnto the throne of the heavenly grace, faying after me.

A generall confession to bee said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, kneeling.

Lmighty and most mercifull Father, wee have erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheepe: we have followed too much the detires and defires of our owne hearts: we have offended against thy holy Lawes: we haue left vindone thole things which wee ought to haue done, and we have done those things which wee ought not to haue done: and there is no health in vs, but thou, O Lord, haue mercie vpon vs milerable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faults: Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankinde in Christ Iesu our Lord: and grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that wee may hereaster line a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The absolution or remission of sinnesto be pronounced by the Mi-

Lmighty God, the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that hee may turne from his wickednesse and liue, and hath given power and commaundement to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sinnes, hee pardoneth and absolueth all them which truely repent, and vntainedly beleeue his holy Gospel. Wherefore wee beseech him to grant vs true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which wee doe at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternallioy, through lesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answere.

Then shall the Minister beginne the Lords prayer with a loude voyce.

Vr Father which art in heauen, halowed bee thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give vs this day our dayly bread. And forgiue vs our trespalles, as we forgiue them that trespasse against vs. And leade vs not into temptation: But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say.

O Lord open thou our lippes.

Answere. And our mouth shall shew forth thy prayle.

Minister.

O God make speed to saue vs.

O Lord make haste to helpe vs.

Prayse ye the Lord. Then shall be faid or sising this Psalme following.

Come, let vs sing vnto the Lord: let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation.

Let vs come before his presence with thankesgiuing: and shew our sclues glad in him with Psalmes.

the Ascension, Pentecost, S. Iohn Baptist, S. Iames, S. Bartholomew, S. Matthew, S. Simon and Iude, S. Andrew, and Trinitie Sunday, shall be sung or said immediatly after Benedictus, this confession of our Christian faith.

Hosoeuer will be saucd: before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholike faith.

Which faith, except euery one doe keepe holy and vndefiled: without doubt he shall perish euerlaitingly.

And the Catholike faith is this: that wee worship one God in Trinitie, and Trinitie in Vnitie.

Neither confounding the persons: nor duiding the sub-

For there is one person of the Father, another of the Sonne: and another of the holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost, is all one: the glory equal, the Mais sty coeternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne: and such is the holy Ghost.

The Father vicreate, the Sonne vicreate: and the holy Ghost vicreate.

The Father incomprehensible, the Sonne incomprehensible: and the holy Ghost imcomprehensible.

The Father eternall, the Sonne eternall: and the holy Chost eternall.

And yet they are not three eternals: but one eternall.

As also there be not three incomprehensibles, nor three

As also there be not three incomprehensibles, northree vncreated: but one vncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Sonne Almighty:

And yet they are not three almightics: but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Sonne is God: and the holy Ghost is God.

And yet they are not three Gods: but one God.

So likewise the Father is Lord, the Sonne Lord: and the holy Ghost Lord.

And yet not three Lords: but one Lord.

For like as we bee compelled by the Christian veritie: to acknowledge enery person by himselfe to be God and Lord.
So are wee forbidden by the Catholike Religion: to say there be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is made of none: neither created nor begotte.
The Sonne is of the Father alone: not made, nor created,

The holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Sonne: neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers, one Sonne, not three Sonnes: one holy Ghost, not three holy Ghosts.

And in this Trinitie none is afore or after other: none is greater or lesse then another.

But the whole three persons be coeternall together: and

So that in all things as is aforesaid: the Vnitie in Trinitie, and the Trinitie in Vnitie is to be worshipped.

He therefore that wil be faued: must thus thinke of the Trinitie.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting saluation: that he also believe rightly in the incarnation of our Lord Iesus Christ.

For the right faith is, that we beleeue and confesse: that our Lord lelus Christ, the Sonne of God, is God and man.

God of the substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds: and man of the substance of his mother, borne in the world.

Perfect God and perfect man: of a reasonable soule, and humane flesh subsisting.

Equal to the Father as touching his Godhead: and inferiour to the Father touching his manhood.

Who although he be God and man: yet he is not two, but one Christ.

One, not by conversion of the Godhead into sless : but by taking of the manhood into God.

One altogether, not by confusion of substance: but by v-nitic of person.

For as the reasonable soule and sless is one man: so God and man is one Christ.

Who suffered for our saluation, descended into hell: rose agains the third day from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty: from whence he shall come to iudge the quicke and the dead.

At whose comming all men shalrise againe with their bodies: and shall give account of their owne works.

And they that have done good, shall goe into life euerlasting: and they that have done euil, into euerlasting fire.

This is the Catholike faith: which except a man beleeue faithfully, he cannot be saued.

Glory be to the Father, and to the &c. As it was in the beginning, is now &c.

Thus endeth the order of Morning and Euening prayer throughout the whole yeare.

Here followeth the Letany, to be vsed vpon Sundayes, Wednesdayes, and

2. Cor. 13.

God heauenly Father, which by thy Sonne lesus Christ hast promised to all them that seeke thy kingdome and the righteousnes thereof, all things necessary to their bodily sustenance, send vs we beseech thee, in this our necessitie, such moderate raine and showres, that wee may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to thy honour, through lesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord God which for the sinne of man diddest once drowne all the world, except eight persons, and afterward of thy great mercy diddest promise neuer to destroy it so againe: we humbly beseech thee, that although we for our iniquities have worthily deserved this plague of taine and waters, yet vpon our true repentance thou wilt send vs such weather, whereby we may receive the fruits of the earth in due season, and searne both by thy punishment to amend our lives, and for thy elemency to give thee praise and glory, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God heavenly Father, whose gift it is that the raine doeth fall, the earth is fruitfull, beasts increase, and sistered on multiply: behold, we beseech thee, the afflictions of thy people, and graunt that the scarcitie, and dearth (which we do now most justly suffer for our iniquitie) may through thy goodnes be mercitully turned into cheappels and plentie, for the love of Iesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the holy Ghost, be all honour, &c.

Almighty God, King of all kings, and gouernour of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners, and to be mercifull vnto them that truely repent: saue and deliuer vs (wee humbly beseech thee) from the hands of our enemies, abate their pride, asswage their malice, and confound their deuices, that we being assmed with thy desence, may be preserved evermore from all perils, to gloriste thee which art the onely giver of all victory, through the merits of thy only Sonne lesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, which in thy wrath in the time of king David, didst slay with the plague of pestilence three-score and ten thousand, & yet remembring thy mercy, diddest saue the rest: have pitic vpon vs miserable sinners, that now are visited with great sickness and mortalitie, that like as thou diddest then command thine Angel to cease from punishing; so it may now please thee to withdraw from vs this plague and grieuous sicknes, through Iesus Christour Lord. Amen.

God, whose nature and propertie is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions: and though wee be tied and bound with the chaine of our sinnes, yet let the pitifulnes of thy great mercy loose vs, for the honour of lesus Christes sake, our Mediatour and Aduocate. Amen.

I Athankesgiving for raine.

God our heavenly Father, who by thy gracious providence, doest cause the former and the later Raine to descend upon the easth, that it may bring forth fruit for the vse of man: wee give thee numble thankes, that it hath pleafed thee in our greatest necessity, to send vs at the last a joyfull raine vpon thine inheritance, and to refresh it when it was dry, to the great comfort of vs thy vnworthy servants, and to the glory of thy holy Name, through thy mercies in Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord God, who hast justly humbled vs by thy late plague of immoderate raine and waters, and in thy mercy hast relicued and comforted our soules by this seasonable and blessed change of weather, we praise and glorise thy holy Name for this thy mercie: and will alwayes declare thy louing kindnes from generation to generation, through Iesus Christ our Lord Amen.

Most mercifull Father, which of thy gracious goodnes, hast heard the deuout prayers of thy Church, and bountie, beseching thee to continue this thy louing kindnesse , to thy glory and our comfort, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, which are a strong tower of defence vnto thy servants, against the face of their enemies: we yeeld thee praise and thankesgiving for our deliuerance from those great and apparant dangers, wherewith we were compassed: we acknowledge it thy goodnesse, that we were not delivered over as a pray vnto them, beseeching thee still to continue such thy mercies towards vs, that all the world may know that thou are our Saviour and mighty deliverer, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A thankesgiving for deliverance from

Lord God, which hast wounded vs for our sinnes, and consumed vs for our transgressions by thy late heavy and dreadfull visitation, and now in the middest of indgement remembring mercy, hast redeemed our soules from the iawes of death: we offer vnto thy Fatherly goodnesse, our soules and bodies, which thou hast dealinered, to be a lining sacrifice vnto thee, alwayes praysing and magnifying thy mercies in the middest of the Congregation, through session the middest of the Congregation, through session the Lord. Amen

The humbly acknowledge before thee (O most mercifull Father) that all the punishments which are threatned in thy Law, might justly have fallen upon vs, by reason of our manifold transgressions and hardnesse of heart: yet seeing it hath pleased thee of thy tender mercy, upon our weake and unworthy humiliation, to asswage the noysome pestilence, wherewith we lately have bene fore afflicted, and to restore the voice of joy and health into our dwellings: Wee offer unto thy divine Maiestie the sacrifice of praise and thankesgiving, lauding and magnifying thy glorious Name for such thy preservation and providence over vs, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HE ORDER FOR THE ADML

nistration of the Lords Supper, or holy Communion.

O many as intend to be partakers of the holy Communion, Shall signific their names to the Curate ouer night, or els in the morning before the beginning of Morning prayer, or immediatly after. And if any of those be an open and notorious enill liner, so that the Congregation by him is offended, or have done any wrong to his neighbours by word or deed: the Curate having knowledge thereof, shall call him, and aduertise him in any wise not to presume to the Lords Table, untill hee have openly declared himse feto have truely repented and amended his former naughty life, that the Congregation may thereby be satisfied, which afore were offended, and that he have recompensed the parties whom he hath done wrong vnto, or at the least, declare himselfe to be in full purpose so to doe, as soone as he conucniently may.

The same order shall the Curate vse with those betwixt whom he perceiveth malice and hatred to reigne. not suffering them to be partakers of the Lords Table, untill he know them to be reconciled. And if one of the parties soat variance, bee content to forgive from the bottome of his heart, all that the other hath trespassed against him, and to make amends for that he himselfe hath offended, and the other partie will not be persuaded to a godly unity, but remaine still in his frowardnesse and malice: the Minister in that case ought to admit the penitent person to the holy Communion, and not him that is obstinate.

The Table at the Communion time, having afaire white linnen cloth vponit, shall stand in the body of the Church, or in the Chancell, where Morning prayer, and Euening prayer be appointed to be said. And the Priest standing at the North side of the Table, Shall say the Lords prayer with this Collect following.

THE COMMUNION.

Lmightie God, vnto whom alli hearts bee open, all desires knowen, and from bee open, all desires knowen, and from whome no secrets are hid, cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, that we may perfectly loue thee and worthily magnifie thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord.Amen.

Then shall the Minister rehearfe distinctly all the tenne Com-mandements, and the people kneeling shall after every Commun. dement, aske God mercy for their transgression of the same, after this fort.

Then shall follow the Collect of the day, with one of these two Collests following for the King, the Minister standing vp, co faying.

Let vs pray. Lmightie God, whose kingdome is euerlasting, and power infinite, haue mercie vpon the whole Congregation, and so rule the heart of thy chosen seruant lames, our King and gouernour, that hee (knowing whose minister he is) may aboue all things seeke thy honour and glory, and that we his subjects (duely considering whose authority he hath) may faithfully serue, honour, and humbly obey him in thee and for thee, according to thy bleffed word and ordinance, through Iesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the holy Ghost, liueth and reigneth, euer one God, world without end, Amen.

Lmightie and euerlasting God, we be taught by thy holy word, that the hearts of kings are in thy rule and gouernance, and that thou doest dispose & turne them as it seemeth best to thy godly wisedome: we humbly beseech thee so to dispose and gouerne the heart of lames thy servant our King & governour, that in all his thoughts, words and workes, he may euer feeke thy honour and glory, and studie to preserve the people comitted to his charge, in wealth, peace, & godlinesse: Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy deare sonnes sake Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen. Immediatly after the Collect's , the Minister shall read the Epistle, beginning thus.

The Epistle written in the Chapter of And the Epistle ended , he shall say the Gospel, beginning thus. The Goffel written in the

And the Spiftle and Gospel being ended, shall be said the Creed.

Beleeue in one God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth, and of all things visible and invisible: and in one Lord lesus Christ the onely begotten Sonne of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made, who for vs men, and for our faluation, came downe from heauen, and was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgine Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for vs vnder Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose againe according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the the right hand of the Father. And he shall come againe with glorie, to judge both the quicke and the dead: whose kingdome shall have none end. And I beleeve in the holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Sonne, who with the Father and the Sonne together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the Prophets. And I beleeue one Catholike and Apostolike Church. I acknowledge one Baptilme for the remission of sinnes. And I looke for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come, Amen.

After the Creed, if there be no Sermon, shall follow one of the Homilies already set foorth, or hereafter to be set forth by common au-thoritie.

After such Sermon, Homilie, or exhortation, the Curate shall declare vnto the people, whether there bee any holy dayes or fasting dayes the weeke following, and earnestly exhort them to remember the poore, saying one or moe of these sentences following , as he thinketh most consenient by his discretion.

Then Shall the Church wardens, or some other by them appointed, gather the denotions of the people, and put the same into the poore mans boxe, and upon the offering dayes appointed, every man and woman shall fay to the Curate the due and accustomed offerings. After which done, the Priest shall say.

Let vs pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth.

Lmightie and euerliuing God, which by thy holy Apostle hast taught vs to make prayers and supplications, and to give thankes for all men: we humbly be-If there be no seech thee most mercifully (to accept our almes, and) to receive these our prayers, which we offer into thy divine Maiestie, befeeching thee to inspire cotinually the vniuerfall Church with the spirit of trueth, vnitie, and concord : and grant that all they that doe confesse thy holy Name, may agree in the trueth of thy holy word, and line in vnitie and godly lone. We beleech thee also to saue & defend all Christian kings, princes, and gouernours, and specially thy servant lames, our King, that vnder him we may be godly and quietly gouerned : and grant vnto his whole Counfell, & to all that be put in authoritie under him, that they may truely and indifferently minister iustice, to the punishment of wickednesse and vice, and to the maintenance of Gods true religion & vertue. Giue grace (O heauenly Father) to all Bishops, Pa-Rors, and Curates, that they may both by their life and do-Arine, set foorth thy true and lively word, and rightly and duely administer thy holy Sacraments: and to all thy people give thy heavenly grace, and specially to this congregation here present, that with meeke heart and due reuerence, they may heare and receive thy holy word, truely feruing thee in holinesse and righteousnesse all the dayes of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodnesse, O Lord, to comfort and succour all them which in this tranfitory life be in trouble, forow, need, fickenesse, or any other aduersitie: grant this, O Father, for lesus Christs sake our onely mediatour and aduocate. Amen.

> Then shall follow this exhortation, at certaine times, when the Curate shall see the people negligent to come to the holy Communion. 7 E be come together at this time (dearely beloued brethren) to feede at the Lords supper, vnto the which in Gods behalfe I bid you all that be here present, and beseech you for the Lord Iesus Christs fake that ye will not refuse to come thereto, being so louingly called and bidden of God himselse. Yee know how grieuous and vnkind a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feast, decked his table with all kind of prouision, so that there lacketh nothing but the ghests to sit downe, and yet they which bee called (without any cause) most vnthankefully refuse to come. Which of you in such a case would not be mooned? Who would not thinke a great iniurie & wrong done vnto him? Wherefore most dearly beloued in Christ, take yee good heed, lest yee withdrawing your selues from this holy Supper, prouoke Gods indignation against you. It is an easie matter for a man to say, I will not communicate, because I am otherwise letted with worldly bufinesses but such excuses bee not so easily accepted and allowed before God. If any man say, I am a grieuous sinner, and therefore am afraid to come: Wherefore then doe ye not repent and amend? When God calleth you, be you not ashamed to fay, you will not come? When you should returne to God, wil you excuse your selfe, and say that you not ready? Consider earnestly with your selues, how little such falned excuses shall availe before God. They that refused the feast in the Gospel, because they had bought a Farme, or would trie their yokes of oxen, or because they were married, were not so excused, but counted vnworthy of the heauenly feast. I for my part am here present, and according ro mine office, I bid you in the Name of God, I call you in Christs behalfe, I exhort you as you loue your owne saluation, that yee will be partakers of this holy Communion. And as the Sonne of God did vouchsafe to yeelde up his soule by death upon the crosse for your health: even so it is your duetie to receiue the Communion together in the remembrance of his death, as he himselfe commanded. Now, if you will in no wife thus doe, confider with your sclues how great iniurie you doe vnto God, and how fore punishment hangeth ouer your heads for the same. And whereas you offend God so sore in refusing this holy banquet, I admonish, exhort, and beseech you, that vnto this kindnesse ye will not adde any more: which thing yee shall doe, if yee stand by as gazers and lookers on them that doe communicate, and be not partakers of the same your selues. For what thing can this bee accounted else, then a further contempt and vnkindnesse vnto God? Truely, it is a great vnthankefulnesse to fay nay when ye be called: but the fault is much greater, when men stand by, and yet will neither eate nor drinke this holy Communion with other. I pray you, what can this be els, but euen to haue the mysteries of Christ in derission? It is said vnto all, Take yee, and eate, take and drinke ye all of this, doe this in remembrance of me. With what face then, or with what countenance shall yee heare these words? What will this be else, but a neglecting, a despising, and mocking of the Testament of Christ & Wherfore rather then yee should so doe, depart you hence, and give placeto them that bee godly disposed. But when you depart, l beseech you ponder with your selues, from whom yee depart, ye depart from the Lords table, ye depart from your brethren, and from the banquet of most heauenly foode-These things if ye earnestly consider, ye shall by Gods grace returne to a better minde. For the obtaining whereof, wee shall make our humble petitions, while we shall receive the holy Communion.

And sometime shall this be said also, at the discretion of the Cu-

Earely beloued, for as much as our duety is to render to Almightie God our heavenly Father most hearty thankes, for that he hath given his Sonne our Sauiour Iesus Christ, not only to die for vs, but also to be our spirituall food and sustenance, as it is declared vnto vs, aswell by Gods word, as by the holy Sacrament of his bleffed body and blood, the which being so comfortable a thing to them which receive it worthily, and so dangerous to them that will presume to receive it viworthily: my duetic is to exhort you to consider the dignitie of the holy mysterie, and the great perill of the vnworthie receiving thereof, and so to search and examine your owne consciences, as you should come holy and cleane to a most godly and heauenly feast, so that in no wise you come but in the mariage garment required of God in holy Scriptures, and so come and be received, as worthy partakers of such a heavenly table. The way and meanes thereto, is: First to examine your liues and conversation by the rule of Gods comandements, and wherein soquer yee shall perceive your selves to almes giuen to the poore, inen shall the words (of accepting our almes) be left out vusaid.

haue offended, either by will, word, or deed, there bewaile your owne sinfull lines, and confesse your selues to almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life. And if yee shall perceiue your offences to be such, as bee not onely agahist God; but also against your neighbours: then ye shall reconcile your selues vnto them, ready to make restitution and satisfaction, according to the vttermost of your powers, for all iniuries and wrongs done by you to any other, and likewise being ready to forgiue other that have offended you, as you would have forgiuenesse of your offences at Godshand: For otherwise the receiuing of the holy Communion, doeth nothing else but increase your damnation. And because it is requisite that no man should come to the holy Communion, but with a full trust in Gods mercy, and with a quiet conscience: therefore if there bee any of you, which by the meanes aforesaid, cannot quiet his owne conscience, but requireth surther comfort or counsell, then let him come to mee, or some other discreete and learned minister of Gods word, and open his griefe, that hee may receiue such ghostly counsell, aduice, and comfort, as his conscience may be relieued, and that by the ministerie of Gods word he may receive comfort, and the benefite of absolution, to the quieting of his conscience, and anoyding of all scruple and doubtfulnesse.

I hen shall the Minister say this exhortation. Earely beloued in the Lord, yee that minde to come to the holy Communion of the body and blood of our Sauiour Christ, must consider what S. Paul writeth to the Corinthians, how hee exhorteth all persons diligently to try and examine themselves, before they presume to eate of that bread, and drinke of that cup. For as the benefite is great, if with a true penitent heart and linely faith we receive that holy Sacrament: (For then wee spiritually eate the flesh of Christ, and drinke his blood, then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in vs, we be one with Christ, and Christ with vs:) So is the danger great, if wee receive the same vnworthily. For then wee be guiltie of the body and blood of Christ our Sauiour, wee eate and drinke our owne damnation, not confidering the Lords body: Wee kindle Gods wrath against vs: wee prouoke kim to plague vs with divers diseases, and sundry kinds of death. Therefore if any of you bee a blasphemer of God, an hinderer or flanderer of his word, an adulterer, or be in malice, or enuie, or in any other grieuous crime, bewaile your finnes, and come not to this holy Table, lest after the taking of that holy Sacrament, the deuill enter into you, as he entred into Iudas, and fill you full of all iniquities, and bring you to destruction both of body and soule. Iudge therfore your selues (brethren) that ye be not judged of the Lord. Repent you truely for your sinnes past: have a lively and stedfast faith in Christ our Saujour. Amend your lives and be in perfect charitie with all men, so shall ye be meet partakers of those holy mysteries. And aboue all things, yee must give most humble and heartie thankes to God the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, for the redemption of the world, by the death and passion of our Saulour Christ both God & man; who did humble himselfe even to the death vpon the crosse for vs miserable sinners, which lay in darkenesse and shadow of death, that he might make vs the children of God; and exalt vs to enerlasting life. And to the end that wed should alway remember the exceeding great loue of our master and onely Saujour Iesus Christ, thus dying for vs, and the innumerable benefits which by his precious bloodshedding he hath obtained to vs: he hath instituted and ordained holy misterics, as pledges of his love, and continuall remembrance of his death, to our great and endlesse comfort. To him therefore, with the Father and the holy Ghost, let vs giue (as wee are most bounden) continuall thankes, submitting our selues wholly to his holy will and pleasure, audstudying to serue him in true holinesse and righteousnesse all the dayes of our life. Amen.

Then shall the Minister say to them that come to receive the holy Communion.

Ou that doe truely and earnestly repent you of your sinnes, and be in loue and charity with your neighbours, & intend to lead a new life, following the commandements of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy wayes: draw necre, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort, make your humble confession to Almightie God, before this Congregation here gathered together in his holy Name, meckely kneeling vpon your knees.

Then shall this generall confession be made, in the name of all those that are minded to receive the holy Communion, either by one of them, or else by the Minister himselfe, all kneeling humbly upon their knees.

Lmightie God, Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all men, we knowledge and bewaile our manifold sinnes and wickednesse, which wee from time to time most grieuously haue committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine Maiestie, prouoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against vs: wee doe earnestly repent, and bee heartily sorie for these our misdoings, the remembrance of them is grieuous vnto vs: the burden of them is intollerable. Haue mercy vpon vs, haue mercie vpon vs, most merciful Father, for thy Sonne our Lord Iesus Christs sake, forgive vs all that is past, and graunt that wee may ener hereaster serve and please thee in newnesse of life, to the honour and glorie of thy Name, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister or the Bishop (being present) stand up, and turning himselfe to the people, say thus.

Lmightie God our heauenly father, who of his great mercie hath promised forgiuenesse of sinnes to all them which with heartie repentance and true faith turne vnto him: haue mercie vpon you, pardon and deliuer you from all your sinnes, consirme and strengthen you in all goodnesse, and bring you to enerlasting life, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister also say.

Heare what comfortable wordes our Saujour Christ saith to all that truely turne to him, and I will refresh you. * So God loued the world, that hee John 3.16.

gaue his onely begotten Sonne, to the end that all that beleeue in him should not perish, but haue life euerlasting.

Heare also what Saint Paul saith.

*This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to beere. I. Tim, I. 132 ceiued, that I clus Christ came into the world to saue sin.

Heare also what Saint Iohn saith.

* If any man sinne, we have an advocate with the Father 1. Ioh. 2.1, 2.

Iesus Christ the rightcous, and he is the propiniation for our sinnes.

After which the Minister shall proceede, saying. Lift vp your hearts.

We lift them vp vnto the Lord.

Minister.

Let vs giue thankes vnto our Lord God.

Answere.

It is meet and right so to doe.

Minister.

It is very meete, right, and our bounden duetie, that wee should at all times, and in all places give thankes vnto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almightic everlasting God.

Heere shall follow the proper Preface, according to the time, if there be any specially appointed: or else immediatly shall follow, Therefore with Angels and Archangels, &c.

Proper Prefaces.

Ecause thou diddest give lesus Christ thine onely Son to be borne as this day for vs, who by the operation of the holy Ghost was made very man, of the substance of the Virgine Mary his Mother, and that without spot of sinne, to make vs cleane from all sinne. Therefore with Angels, &c.

Vt chiefly are we bound to praise thee, for the glorious resurrection of thy Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord: for he is the very Paschall Lambe, which was offered for vs, and hath taken away the sinne of the world, who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life againe, hath restored to vs euerlasting life. Therefore with Angels,&c.

Hrough thy most deare beloued Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord, who after his most glorious Resurrection manifestly appeared to all his Apostles, and in their sight ascended vp into heaven, to prepare a place for vs, that where he is, thither might we also ascend, and reigne with him in glory. Therefore with Angels, &c.

Hrough lesus Christ our Lord, according to whose most true promise the holy Ghost came downe this day from heaven, with a sudden great sound, as it had beene a mighty winde in the likenesse of siery tongues lighting vpon the Apostles, to teach them and to leade them to all trueth, giving them both the gift of divers languages, and also boldnesse with feruent zeale constantly to preach the Gospel vnto all nations, whereby wee are brought out of darkenesse and errour, into the cleare light, and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Sonne Iesus Christ. Therefore with Angels, &c.

T is very meete, right, and our bounden duetie, that wee should at all times, and in all places give thanks to thee, O Lord, Almightie, and euerlasting God, which art one God, one Lord, not one onely person, but three persons in one substance. For that which wee believe of the glory of the Father, the same wee believe of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost, without any difference or inequalitie. Therefore with Angels, &c.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, wee laude and magnific thy glorious Name, ever more praising thee, and saying, Holy, holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glorie be to thee, O Lord most High.

Then shall the Minister kneeling downe at Gods board, say in the name of all them that shall receive the Communion this prayer following.

Ee doe not presume to come to this Table (O merciful Lord) trusting in our owne righteousnesse, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We be not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbes under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose propertie is alway to have mercie: grant us therefore gracious Lord, so to eate the slesh of thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ, and to drinke his blood, that our sinnefull bodies may bee made cleane by his bodie, and our soules washed through his most precious blood, and that we may ever more dwel in him, and he in us. Amen.

Then the Minister standing up, shall say as followeth. Lmightie God our heauenly Father, which of thy tender mercie diddest giue thy onely Sonne Iesus Christ, to suffer death vpon the crosse for our redemtion, who made there (by his one oblation of himselfe once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sinnes of the whole world, and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command vs to continue a perpetuall memorie of that his precious death, vntill his comming againe: Héare vs, O mercifull Father, wee beseech thee, and graunt that wee receiving these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Sonne our Sauiour Iesus Christs holie institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed body & blood, who in the same night that hee was betrayed, tooke bread, and when he had given thankes, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples saying, Take, eate, this is my bodie, which is giuen for you, doe this in remembrance of me. Likewise after supper he tooke the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gaue it to them, saying, Drinke yeall of this, for this is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for you and for manie for the remission of sinnes: doe this as oft as yee shall drinke it, in remembrance of me.

Then shall the Minister first receive the Communion, in both kinds himselfe, and next deliver it to other Ministers (if any be there present) that they may helpe the chiefe Minister, and after to the people in their handes, kneeling. And when hee delineresh the bread, he shall say.

The bodie of our Lord Iesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy bodie and soule into everlasting life: and take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thine heart by faith with thankes-giving.

The blood of our Lord Iesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy bodie and soule into everlasting life: and drinke this in remembrance that Christs blood was shed for thee, and be thankefull.

Thenshall the Minister say the Lords prayer, the people repeating after him every petition. After shalbe said as followeth.

Lord and heauenly Father, weethy humble feruants entirely defire thy Fatherly goodnesse, mercifully to accept this our facrifice of praise and thankel-giving, most humbly beseeching thee to graunt, that by the merits and death of thy Sonne lesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we (and all thy whole Church) may obtaine remillion of our linnes, and all other benefits of his passion. And here wee offer and present vnto thee, O Lord, our selues, our soules and bodies to be a reasonable, holy, and lively facrifice vnto thee, humbly befeeching thee, that all we which bee partakers of this holy Communion, may bee fulfilled with thy grace and heauenly benediction. And although we be vnworthie, through our manifold sinnes, to offer vnro thee any sacrifice: yet wee beseech thee to accept this our bounden duetie & seruice, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Iesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom, in the vnitie of the holy Ghost, all honour and glorie bee vnto thee, O Father almightie, world without end, Amen.

Or this. Lmighty & euerliuing God, we most heartily thanke thee, for that thou doest vouchsafe to seed vs, which haue duely received these holy mysteries, with the spirituall food of the most precious bodie and blood of thy Sonne our Sauionr lesus Christ, and doest assure vs thereby of thy fauour and goodnesse toward vs, and that we be very members interporate in thy mysticall body, which is the blessed companie of all faithfull people, and bee also heires through hope of thy euerlasting kingdome, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of thy deare Sonne: we now most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist vs with thy grace, that wee may continue in that holy fellowship, and doe all such good workes as thou hast prepared for vs to walke in, through Iesus Christ our Lorde, to whom with thee and the holy Ghost, bee all honour and glorie, world without end, Amen,

Lorie be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will toward men. We praise thee, we blesse thee, we worship thee, we glorise thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glorie, O Lord God heavenly King, God the Father almightie, O Lord the onely begotten Sonne Iesus Christ, O Lord God, Lambe of God, Sonne of the Father, that takest away the sinnes of the world, have mercie vpon vs. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy vpon vs. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy vpon vs. Thou that takest away the sinnes of the world, receive our prayers. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercie vpon vs: for thou onely art holy, thou onely art the Lord, thou onely, O Christ, with the holie Ghost, art most high in the glorie of God the Father, Amen.

Then the Minister or the Bishop, if he be present, shall let them depart with this blessing.

He peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, keepe your hearts and mindes in the knowledge and loue of God, and of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God almightie, the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remaine with you alwayes, Amen.

anion, every such day one. And the same may be said also as oft as occasion shall serve, after the Collects either of Morning & Euconing prayer, Communion, or Letanie, by the discretions of the Minister.

Publique Baptisme.

Shift vs mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy servants toward the attainment of euerlasting salvation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortall life, they may ever be desended by thy most gracious & ready helpes through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty Lord and everliving God, vouchsafe wee beseech thee, to direct, sanctific and governe both our hearts and bodies in the wayes of thy lawes, and in the works of thy commandements, that through thy most mightic protection, both here and ever, we may be eprescrued in body and soulc, through our Lord and Saujour Iesus Christ,

Amen.

Raunt we beseech thee Almighty God, that the words which wee haue heard this day with our outward eares, may through thy grace bees so graffed inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring foorth in vs the fruit of liuing, to the honour and prayse of thy Name, through lesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

PReuent vs, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious fauour, and further vs with thy continuals helpe, that in all our workes begun, continued, and ended in thee, wee may glorifie thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtains euerlasting life, through Icsus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Lmighty God, the fountaine of all wisedome, which knowest our necessities before we aske, and our ignorance in asking, we beseech thee to have compassion vpon our infirmities, and those things which for our vnworthinesse we dare not, and for our blindnesse we cannot aske, vouchsafe to give vs, for the worthinesse of thy Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lmighty God, which hast promised to heare the petitions of them that aske in thy Sonnes Name, we beteech thee mercifully to encline thine eares to vs, that have made now our prayers & supplications vnto thee, and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually bec obtained, to the reliefe of our necessitie, and to the secting foorth of thy glorie, through lesus Christ our Lord.

That is appointed at the Communion, untill the end of the Homilie, concluding with the generall prayer (for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth) and one or moe of these Collects before rehearsed, as occasion shall serve.

And there shall bee no celebration of the Lords Supper, except there be a good number to communicate with the Minister, according to his discretion.

And if there bee not aboue twenty persons in the Parish, of discretion to receive the Communion, yet there shall be no Communion, except source or three at the least communicate with the Minister.

And in Cathedrall and Collegiat Churches, where be many Minifters, and Deacons, they shall all receive the Communion with the Minister every Sunday at the least, except they have a reasonable cause to the contrary.

And to take away the superstition, which any person hath or might have in the bread and wine: it shall suffice that the bread be such as is usuall to be eaten at the table with other meates, but the best and purest wheate bread that conneniently may be gotten. And if any of the bread and wine remaine, the Curatoshall have it to his owner use.

The bread and wine for the Communion, shall be provided by the Curate and Church-wardens, at the charges of the Parish, and the Parish shall be discharged of such summes of money for other dueties, which hitherto they have payed for the same by order of their houses every Sunday.

And note that every Parishioner shall communicate at the least three times in the yeere, of which Easter to be one, and shall also receive the Sacraments, and other rites; according to the order in this booke appointed. And yerely at Easter, every Parishioner shalreckon with his Parson, Vicar, Curate, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, and pay to them or him all Ecclesiasticall duties, accounts on ably due then and at that time to be payed.

THE MINISTRATION OF BAPtisme to be vsed in the Church.

Tappeareth by ancient writers that the Sacrament of Baptisme in the old time was not commonly by ministred, but at two times in the yeere: At Easter and Whitsuntide. At which times it was openly ministred in the presence of all the Congregation. Which custome now being growen out of vie (although it cannot for many considerations be well restored againe) it is thought good to follow the same, as neere as conveniently may be. Wherefore the people are to be admonished, that it is most convenient that Baptisme should not bee ministred but upon Sundayes and other Holy dayes, when the most number of people may come together, as well for that the congregation there present may testise the receiving of them that be newly baptized into the number of Christs Church, as also because in the Baptisme of Infants, every man present may be put in remembrance of his owne prosession made to God in his baptisme. For which cause also it is expedient that Baptisme be ministred in the English tongue. Neverthelesse (if necessities or require) children may at all times be baptized at home.

When there are children to be baptized upon the Sunday or Holy day, the Parents shall give knowledge over night, or in the Morning before the beginning of Morning prayer, to the Curate. And then the Godfathers, Godmothers, and people, with the children, must be ready at the Font, either immediatly after the last Lesson at Morning prayer, or else immediatly after the last Lesson at Evening prayer, as the Curate by his discretion shall appoint.

And then standing there, the Minister shall aske whether the children bee baptized, or no. If they answere, No: then shall the Minister say thus.

Earely beloued, for a smuch as all men be conceived and borne in sinne, and that our Sauiour Christ saith, None can enter into the kingdome of God, except hee be regenerate and borne anew of water and the holy Ghost: I befeech you to call vpon God the Father, through our Lord lesus Christ, that of his bounteous mercy he will graunt to these children that thing, which by nature they cannot have, that they may be baptized with water and the holy Ghost, and be received into Christ's holy Churchy and be made lively members of the same.

Then shall the Minister say:

Let vs pray.

Lmighty and everlasting God, which of thy great mercie diddest save Noe and his samily in the Arke from perishing by water, and also diddest safely leade the children of Israel thy people through the red sea, signifing thereby thy holy Baptisme, and by the Baptisme of thy welbeloued Sonne lesus Christ, diddest sanctifie the flood Iordan, and also ther waters; to the mysticall washing away of sinne: Wee beseech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wile mercifully looke vpon these children, sanctifie them, and wash them with the holy Ghost, that they being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the Arke of Christs Church, & being stedsast in faith, joyfull through hope, and rooted in charitie, may so passe the waves of this troubles croublesome world, that finally they may come to the land of euerlasting life, there to reigne with thee world without end, through lesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lmightie and immortall God, the ayde of all that neede, the helper of all that flee to thee for succour, the life of them that beleeue, & the resurrection of the dead: we cal vpon thee for these Infants, that they comming to thy holy Baptisme, may receive remission of their sinnes by spirituall regeneration. Receive them (O Lord) as thou hast promised by thy welbeloued Sonne, saying, Aske, and you shall have, seeke, and you shall finde, knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you. So give now vnto vs that aske: let vs that seeke, sinde: open the gate vnto vs that knocke, that these Infants may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternall kingdome, which thou hast promised by Christour Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister say.

Heare the words of the Gospell written by

S. Marke in the tenth Chapter.

Mar.10.13.

Ta certaine time they brought children to Christ that hee should touch them. And his Disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when lesus saw it, he was displeased, and said vnto them, Suffer little children to come vnto mee, and forbid them not, for to such belongeth the kingdome of God. Verily I say vnto you, who soe uer doeth not receive the kingdome of God as a little child, hee shall not enter therein. And when hee had taken them vp in his armes, hee put his hands vpon them, and blessed them.

After the Gospelis read, the Minister shall make this briefe exhortation upon the words of the Gospel.

Riends you heare in this Golpel the words of our Sauiour Christ, that hee commanded the children to bee brought vnto him: how he blamed those that would haue kept them fro him: how he exhorted all men to follow their innocencie. Ye perceive how by his outward gesture and deede, he declared his good will toward them. For hee embraced them in his armes, he laid his hands upon them, and blefled them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earneftly beleeue that he will likewise fauourably receive these present Infants, that hee will embrace them with the armes of his mercie, that hee will give yoto them the bleffing of eternall life, and make them partakers of his euerlasting kingdome. Wherefore, we being thus perfuaded of the good will of our heauenly Father toward these Infants, declared by his Son Iefus Christ, and nothing doubting but that hee fauourably alloweth this charitable worke of ours, in bringing these children to his holy Baptilme: let vs faithfully and deuoutly give thankes vnto him, and fay.

Lmightie and euerlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thankes, that thou hast vouch-safed to call vs to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirme this faith in vs euermore: give thy holy Spirit to these Insants, that they may be borne againe, and be made heires of euerlasting saluation, through our Lord Iesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Spirit, now and for euer. Amen.

Then the Minister shall speake vnto the Godfathers and Godmon thers on this wife.

dren here to be baptized, yee haue prayed that our Lord lesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive them, to lay his hands upon them, to blesse them, to release them of their sinnes, to give them the kingdome of heaven, and everlasting life. Yee have heard also that our Lord Iesus Christ hath promised in his Gospel, to graunt all these things that yee have prayed for: which promise hee for his part will most surely keepe and performe. Wherefore after this promise made by Christ, these Insants must also faithfully for their part promise by you that be their surries, that they will forsake the deuill and all his workes, and constantly believe Gods holy word, and obediently keepe his commaundements.

Then shall the Mmister demaund of the Godfathers and Godmothers these questions following.

Doest thou forsake the deuill and all his workes, the vaine pompe and glorie of the world, with all couetous desires of the same, the carnall desires of the slesh, so that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them?

Answere.

I forfake them all.

Minister.

Doest thou beleeue in God the Father almightie, maker of heaven and earth? And in Iesus Christ his onely begotten Sonne our Lord? And that hee was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Marie, that hee suffered vnder Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, that hee went downe into hell, and also did rise agains the third day, that he ascended into heaven, and streth at the right hand of God the Father Almightie, and from thence shall come agains at the end of the world to judge the quicke and the dead? And doest thou believe in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholike Church, the Communion of Saints, the remission of sinnes, the resurrection of the flesh, and everlasting life after death?

Answere.
All this I stedsassly beleeve.

Minister. Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?

That is my defire.

Then jhail the Minister say.

Mercifull God, graunt that the olde Adam in these children may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in them. Amen.

Answere.

Grant that all carnall affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the spirit, may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and strength to have victorie, and to triumph against the deuill, the world and the slesh. Amen.

Grant that who so ever is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministerie, may also be endued with heavenly vertues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O bleffed Lord God, who doest live and governe all things world without end. Amen.

Lmightie euerliuing God, whose most dearely beloued Sonne Iesus Christ, for the forgiuenesse of our sinnes, did shed out of his most precious side both water & blood, and gaue commaundement to his disciples that they should goe teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father, the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost: regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation, and grant that all thy servants which shall be baptized in this water, may receive the sulnesse of thy grace, and ever remaine in the number of thy faithfull and elect children, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister take the childe in his hands, and aske the name: And naming the child, shall dip it in the water, so it bee discreetly and warily done, saying.

I Baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And if the childe be weake, it shall suffice to powre water vponit

I Baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen

Then the Ministershall make a crosse vpon the childes forehead,

Ereceiue this childe into the Congregation of Christs flocke, and do signe him with the signe of the crosse, in token that hereaster he shall not be ashamed to cosesse the faith of Christ crucissed, & manfully to sight under his banner, against sinne, the world, and the deuill, and to continue Christs faithfull souldier and seruant unto his lines end, Amen.

Then

Priuate Baptisme.

Then shall the Minister say. Eeing now, dearely beloued brethren, that these children be regenerate, & grafted into the bodie of Christs congregation, let vs give thankes vnto God for these benefits, and with one accorde make our prayers vnto Almightie God, that they may leade the rest of their life according to this beginning.

Then shalbe said. TOur Father which art in heaven & c.

Then shall the Minister say. Ee yeeld thee heartie thankes, most mercifull Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy holy spirit, to receive him for thine owne childe by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy congregation: And humbly wee befeech thee to graunt, that he being dead vnto finne, and living vnto righteousnesse, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucifie the old man, and vtterly abolish the whole bodie of sinne, that as he is made partaker of the death of thy Sonne, so hee may be partaker of his refurrection: so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Congregation, he may be inheritour of thine euerlasting kingdome, through Christ our

At the last end the Minister calling the Godfathers and Godmo. thers together, shall say this exhortation following.

Orasmuch as these children haue promised by you to forsake the deuill and all his workes, to beleeue in God; and to serue him: you must remember that it is your parts and dueties to see that these Infants bee taught, so soone as they shall be able to learne, what a solemne vowe, promise, and profession they have made by you. And that they may know these things the better, yee shall call vpon them to heare Sermons, and chiefly you shall provide that they may learne the Creede, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commaundements in the English tongue, and all other things which a Christian man ought to know and beleeue to his foules health, and that these children may bee vertuously brought vp to leade a godly and a Christian life, remembring alwayes that Baptisme doth represent vnto vs our profession, which is, to follow the example of our Sauiour Christ, and to be made like vnto him, that as hee died; and rose againe for vs, so should wee which are baptized, die from finne, and rife againe vnto righteousnesse, continually mortifying all our cuill and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godlinesse of living.

The Minister shall command that the children bee brought to the Bishop, to be confirmed of him, so soone as they can say in their vulgar tongue, the Articles of the faith, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandements, and be further instructed in the Catech: sme set forth for that purpose, according as it is there expressed.

THEM THAT ARE TO

Baptized in private houses in time of necessitie, by the Minister of the Parish, or any other lawfull Minister, that can be procured.

He Pastors and Curates shall often admonish the people, that they deferre not the Baptisme of Infants any longer then the Sunday or other holy day next after the Childbe borne, vnlesse vpon a great and reasonable cause declared to the Curate, and by him approved.

And also they shall warne them, that without great cause and necessitie, they procure not their children to bee baptized at home in their houses. And when great need shall compell them so to doe, then Baptisme shalbe administred on this fashion.

First, let the lawfull Minister, and them that be present, call upon God for his grace, and say the Lords prayer, if the time will suffer. And then the child being named by some one that is present, the said lawfull, Minister shall dip it in water, or powre water upon it, saying these words.

bap ized?

Baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And let them not doubt but that the childe so baptized, is lawfully and sufficiently baptized, and ought not to bee baptized againe. But yet ne-merthelesse, if the childe which is after this sort Baptized, doe afterward line, it is expedient that it bee brought into the Church, to the intent that if the Priest or Minister of the same Parish did himselfe haptize that child, the Congregation may bee certified of the true forme of Baptisme by him privately before vsed. Or if the child were baptized by any other lawfull Minister, that then the Minister of the Parish, where the child was borne or christened, shall examine and trie, whether the child bee lawfully baptized or no. In which case if those that bring any childe to the Church, doe answere that the same childe is already bapzized, then shall the Minister examine them further, saying, By whom was this childe baptized?

Who was present when the childe was baptized? And because some things, essentiall to this Sacrament may happen to be omitted through feare or haste in such times of extremitie: therefore I demaund further of you. With what matter was the childebaptized? With what words was the childe baptized? Whether thinke you the childe to lawfully and perfectly

And if the Minister shall finde by the answeres of such as bring the childe, that all things were done as they ought to bee: then shall he not christen the childe againe, but shall receive him as one of the flocke of the true Christian people, saying thus.

Certific you, that in this case all is well done, and according vnto due order, concerning the baptizing of this childe, which being borne in originall sinne, and in the wrath of God, is now by the lauer of regeneration in Baptisme, received into the number of the children of God, and heires of euerlasting life. For our Lord Icsus Christ doeth not denie his grace and mercie vnto such infants, but most louingly doeth call them vnto him, as the holy Gospel doeth witnesse to our comforton this wise.

Ta certaine time they brought children to Christ Mar, 10, 13. that hee should touch them. And his disciples rebuked tkose that brought them. But when lesus fawit, hee was displeased, and sayd vnto them, Suffer little children to come vnto me, and forbid them not, for to such belongeth the kingdom of God. Verely I say vnto you, who. soeuer doeth not receiue the kingdome of God as a little childe, hee shall not enter therein And when he had taken them vp in his armes, he put his hands vnon them, and blesfed them.

of After the Gossel is read, the Minister shall make this exhartation on upon the words of the Goffel.

Friends

Private Baptisme.

Riends, you heare in this Gospel the words of our Sauiour Christ, that hee commaunded the children to bee brought vnto him: how hee blamed those that would have kept them from him, how he exhorted all men to follow their innocencie. Yee perceive how by his outward gesture and deed, hee declared his good will toward them. For he imbraced them in his armes, he laid his hands vpon them, and blessed them. Doubt yee not therefore, but earnestly beleeve that hee hath likewise favourably received this present infant, that hee hath embraced him with the armes of his mercie, that hee hath given ynto him the bleffing of eternall life, & made him partaker of his everlasting kingdome. Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heavenly Father, declared by his Sonne lesus Christ toward this infant, let vs faithfully and deuoutly give thankes vnto him, and say the prayer which the Lord himselfe taught, and in declaration of our faith, let vs recite the Articles contained in our Creed.

Here the Minister with the Godfathers and Godmothers shall say,

Then shall the Priest demand the name of the childe, which being by the Godfathers and Godmothers pronounced, the Minister Doest thou in the name of this child forsake the deuill & all his workes, the vaine pompe and glory of the world, with all the couetous desires of the same, the carnal desires of the slesh, and not to follow and be led by them?

I forsake them all.

Minister.

Doest thou in the name of this childe professe this faith, to believe in God the Father Almightie, maker of heaven and earth? And in Icsus Christ his only begotten Sonne our Lord? And that he was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgine Marie, that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, that hee went downe into hell, and also did rise againe the third day, that he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almightie, and from thence he shall come againe at the end of the world to judge the quicke and the dead? And do you in his name believe in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholike Church, the Communion of Saints, the remission of sinnes, resurrection, and everlasting life after death?

Answere.
All this I stedsastly beleeue.

Let vs pray.

Lmightie and euerlasting God, heauenly Father, wee give thee humble thankes, for that thou hast vouch-safed to call vs to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirme this faith in vs euermore, give thy holy Spirit to this infant, that he being borne againe, and being made heire of euerlasting saluation through our Lord Iesus Chsist, may continue thy servant, and attaine thy promise, through the same our Lord Iesus Christ thy Sonne, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the vnitie of the same holy Spirit euerlastingly, Amen.

Then shall the Minister make this exhortation to the Godfathers and Godmothers.

Orasimuch as this child hath promised by you to forsake the deuill and all his workes, to beleeue in God and to setue him: you must remember that it is your part and duetie to see that this infant bee taught, so soone as he shall be able to learne, what a solemne vow, promise, and profession hee hath made by you. And that hee may know these things the better, ye shall call vpon him to heare Sermons, and chiefly ye shall prouide that hee may learne the Creed, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandements in the English tongue, and all other things which a Christian man ought to know and beleeue to his foules health, and that this childe may be vertuously brought vp, to leade a godly and a Christian life, remembring alway that Baptisme doth represent vnto vs our profession, which is to follow the example of our Sauiour Christ, and bee made like vnto him, that as he died and rose againe for vs, so should we which are baptized, die from sinne, and rise againe vnto righteousnelle, continually mortifying all our euill and corrupt affections, and dayly proceeding in all vertue and godlinesse of living. And so foorth as in Publike Baptisme.

But if they which bring the Infants to the Church, doe make such uncertaine answeres to the Priests questions, as that it cannot appeare that the childe was baptized with water, In the name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost, (which are essentiall parts of Baptisme) then let the Priest baptize it in forme about written, concerning publike Baptisme, sauing that at the dipping of the childein the Font, he shall use this forme of wordes.

If thou be not already baptized, N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost, Amen.

THE ORDER OF CONFIRMATION, or laying on of hands vpon children baptized, and able to render an account of their faith, according to the Catechisme following.

O the end that Confirmation may be eministred to the more edifying of such as shall receive it (according to S. Pauls doctrine, who teacheth that all things should be done in the Church to the edification of the same) it is thought good, that none hereafter shalbe Confirmed, but such as can say in their mother tongue the Articles of the faith, the Lords Prayer, and the tenne Commaundements, and can also answere to such questions of this short Catechisme, as the Bishop (or such as hee shall appoint) shall by his discretion appose him in. And this order is most convenient to be observed, for divers considerations.

First, because that when children come to the yeeres of discretion, and have learned what their Godfa. thers and Godmothers promised for them in Baptisme, they may then themselves with their owne mouth, and with their owne consent, openly before the Church, ratific and confirme the same: and also promise that by the grace of God, they will evermore endeuour themselves faithfully to observe and keepe such things as they by their owne mouth and confession have assented unto.

Secondly, for a smuch as Confirmation is ministred to them that be baptized, that by imposition of hands and prayer, they may receive strength and defence against all temptations to sinne and the assaults of the world and the deuil, it is most meet to be ministred when children come to that age, that partly by the fraulty of their owne flesh, partly by the assaults of the world and the deuill, they begin to be in danger to fal into sundry kinds of sinne.

Thirdly, for that it is agreeable with the vsage of the Church in times past: whereby it was ordained that Confirmation

The Catechisme.

Confirmation should be ministred to them that were of perfect age, that they being instructed in Christs Keligion, should openly professe their owne faith, and promise to be obedient unto the will of God.

And that no man shall thinke that any detriment shall come to children by deferring of their Confirmation, he shall know for trueth, that it is certaine by Gods word, that children being baptized, have all things necessarie for their saluation, and be undoubtedly saued.

A Catechisme, that is to say, An instruction to be learned of euery child, before he be brought to be Confirmed by the Bishop.

Question. Hat is your name? Answere. N. or M.

Who gaue you this name? Answere.

My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptisme, wherein I was made a member of Christ, the childe of God, and an inheritour of the kingdome of heauen.

Question.

What did your Godfathers & Godmothers then for you? Answere.

They did promise and vow three things in my name. First, that I should for take the deuill and all his works, the pomps, and vanities of the wicked world, and all the finfull luftes of the flesh. Secondly, that I should beleeve all the Articles of the Christian faith. And thirdly, that I should keepe Gods holy will and commandements, and walke in the same all the dayes of my life.

Doest thou not thinke that thou are bound to beleeue, and to doe as they have promifed for thee?

Yes verily: and by Gods helpe to I will. And I heartily thanke our heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this state of saluation, through Iclus Christ our Sausour. And I pray God to give me his grace, that I may continue in the same vnto my liues end.

Rehearse the Articles of thy beliefe.

Answere.

Beleeve in God the Father-Almightie, maker of heaven and earth. And in Iclus Christ his only Sonne our Lord, which was conceived by the holy Ghost; borne of the virgine Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into hell, the third day hee rose againe from the dead, he ascended into heaven, & sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almightie: from thence hee shall come to judge the quicke and the dead. I beleeve in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholike Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiuenesse of sinnes, the resurrection of the body, and the life euerlasting. Amen.

What doest thou chiefly learne in these Articles of thy beliefe?

Answere.

First, I learne to beleeve in God the Father, who hath made me and all the world.

Secondly in God the Sonne, who hath redeemed me and all mankinde.

Thirdly, in God the holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the elect people of God.

Question. You faid that your Godfathers and Godmothers did promile for you, that you should keepe Gods commandements. Tell me how many there be?

Answere.

Tenne.

Answere.

What is thy duety towards God? Answere.

My duety towards Godi, to beleeue in him, to feare him, and to loue him wirh all my heart, with all my minde, with all my foule, and with all my strength. hatred in my heart. To keepe my hands from picking and stealing, and my tongue from euill speaking, lying and slandering. To keepe my bodie in temperance, sobernesse and chastitie. Not to couet nor desire other mens goods, but to learne and labour truely to get mine owne liuing, and to doe my ducty in that state of lite, vnto the which it shall please God to call me.

Question

My good childe, know this, that thou art not able to doe these things of thy selfe, nor to walke in the commaundements of God, and to serue him, without his special grace, which thou must learne at all times to call for by diligent prayer. Let me heare therefore if thou canst say the Lords prayer.

Answere.

I desire my Lord God our heauenly Father, who is the giver of all goodnesse, to send his grace vnto me, and to all people, that we may worship him, serve him, and obey him as we ought to doe. And I pray vnto God, that he will send vs all things that be needful both for our soules and bodies. And that hee will be mercifull vnto vs, and forgive vs our sinnes, and that it will please him to save and desend vs in all dangers, ghostly and bodily, and that he will keepe vs from all sinne and wickednesse, and from our ghostly enemic, and from everlasting death. And this I trust hee will doe of his mercie and goodnesse, through our Lord lesus Christ. And therefore I say Amen. So be it.

I So soone as the children can say in their mother tongue the Articles of the faith, the Lords prayer, the tenne Commandements, and also can answere to such questions of this short Catechisme, as the Bishop (or such as hee shall appoint) shall by his discretion appose them in: then shall they bee brought to the Bishoppe by one that shall bee his God father or God-mother, that every childe may have a witnesse of his consirmation. and vnderstanding, the spirit of Countaile and ghostly strength, the spirit of Knowledge and true godlinesse, and fulfill them (O Lord) with the spirit of thy holy searce. Amen.

Then the Bishop shall lay his hand vpon enery childe senerally, Defend, O Lord, this childe with thy heauenly grace, that he may continue thine for euer, and daily increase in thy holy Spirit more and more; vnitill hee come vnto thy euerlasting kingdome. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop say.

Let vs pray.

A Lmightie and eucrliving God, which makest vs both to will, and to doe those things that be good and acceptable vnto thy Maiestie, wee make our humble supplications vnto thee for these children, vpon whom (aster the example of the holy Apostles) wee have laid our hands, to certific them (by this Signe) of thy favour and gracious goodnesse toward them: let thy farherly hand, wee besech thee, euer be over them: let thy holy Spirit ever be with them, and so leade them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that in the ende they may obtaine the Everlasting life, through our Lord Iesus Christ, who with thee and the holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth one God, world without end. Amen.

Then the Bishop shall blesse the duldren, saying thus.

He blessing of God Almightie, the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, be voon you, and remaine with you for euer. Amen.

The Curate of enery Paeish, or some other at his appointment, shall diligently upon Sundayes and Holy dayes, halfe an houre before Eucning prayer, openly in the Church, instruct and examine so many children of his Parish sent unto him, as the time will serve, and as he shall thinke convenient, in some part of this Catechisme.

And all Fathers, Mothers, Masters, and Dames, shall cause their children, servants and prentises (which have not learned their Catechisme) to come to the Church at the time appointed, and obediently to heare, and bee ordered by the Curate, untill such time as they have learned all that is appointed for them to learne.

And when soewer the Bishop shall give knowledge for children to be brought before him to any convenient place for their Confirma. tion, then shall the Curate of every Parish, either bring or send in writing the names of all those children of his Parish, which can say the Articles of the faith, the Lords prayer, and the ton Commundements, and also how many of them can answere to the other questions conteined in this Catechisme.

And there shall none be admitted to the holy Communion, untill such time as he can say the Catechisme, and be confirmed.

The forme of solemnization of Matrimonie.

First, the Banes must be asked three severall Sundayes, or Holy dayes, in the time of Service, the people being present, after the accustomed manner.

And if the persons that should be married, dwellin divers Parishes, the Banes must be asked in both Parishes: and the Curate of the one Parish, Shall not solemnize Matrimonie betwixt them, without a Certificate of the Banes being thrice asked, from the Curate of the other Parish.

At the day appointed for solemnization of Matrimonie, the persons to be maried, shall come into the body of the Church, with their friends and neighbours, and there the Minister shall say thus.

Earely beloued friends, wee are gathered together heere in the fight of God, and in the face of his Congregation, to 10 yne together this man and this woman in holy Matrimonie, which is an honourable estate, instituted of God in Paradise, in the time of mans innocencie, signifying ynto vs the mysticall vnion that is betwixt Christ & his Church: which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galile, and is commended of S. Paul to be honourable among all men, and therefore is not to be enterprifed nor taken in hand vnaduiledly, lightly, or wantonly, to fatisfie mens carnal lusts and appetites, like bruit beasts that have no vnderstanding, but reverently, discreetly, aduitedly, soberly, and in the feare of God, duly confidering the causes for which Matrimonie was ordeined. One was the procreation of children, to be brought vp in the feare and nurture of the Lord, and praile of God. Secondly, it was ordeined for a remedie against sinne, and to avoid fornication, that such persons as haue not the gift of continencie, might marrie, and keepe themselues undefiled members of Christs body. Thirdly, for the mutuall societie, helpe & comfort that the one ought to haue of the other, both in prosperitie and aduersitie, into the which holy estate these two persons present come nowe to be joyned. Therfore if any man can shew any just cause why they may not lawfully be ioyned together, let him now speake, or els hereaster sor euer hold his peace.

And also speaking to the persons that shall be maried, he shall say.

Require and charge you, (as you will answere at the dreadfull day of indgment, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed) that if either of you doe knowe any impediment why you may not be lawfully ioyned together in Matrimonic, that ye confesse it. For be ye well assured, that so many as be coupled together otherwise then Gods word doeth allow, are not joyned together by God, neither is their Matrimonie lawfull.

At which day of marriage, if any man doe alledge and declare any impediment, why they may not be coupled together in Matrimonie by Gods Lawe or the Lawes of this Realme, and will be bound, and sufficient sureties with him to the parties, or els put in a caution to the full value of such charges as the persons to bee married doe susteine, to prooue his allegation, then the solemnization must be descreed unto such time as the trueth bee tried. If no impediment bee alledged, then shall the Curate say unto the man

Wilt thou have this woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after Gods ordinance, in the holy enfrate of Matrimonie? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour, and keepe her in sicknesse and in health? and forsaking all other, keepe thee onely ynto her, so long as you both shall live?

The manshall answere.

I will.

Then shall the Minster say to the woman.

Wilt thou have this man to thy wedded husband, to live together after Gods ordinance, in the holy enflate of Matrimonie? wilt thou obey him, and serve him, love, honour, and keepe him in sicknesse and in health, and forsaking all other, keepe thee onely vnto him, so long as you both shall live?

The woman shall answere.

I will.

Then shall the Minister say.

Who giveth this woman to be maried to this man?

And the Minister receiving the woman at her fathers or friends hands, shall cause the man to take the woman by the right hand, and so either to give their troth to other, the man first saying.

I N. Take thee N. to my wedded wife, to have and to holde, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickenesse and in health, to love and to cherish, till death vs depart, according to Gods holy or dinance: and thereto I plight thee my troth.

Then shall they loofe their hands, and the woman taking againe the man by the right hand, shall say.

I N. Take thee N. to my wedded husband, to have and to holde, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickenesse and in health, to loue, cherish, and to obey, till death vs depart, according to Gods holy ordinance: and thereto I give thee my troth.

Then shall they againe loofe their hands, and the man shall give vnto the woman a king, laying the same vpon the booke, with the accustomed duety to the Minister and Clerke. And the Miuister taking the Ring, shall deliver it vnto the man to put it vpon the fourth finger of the womans left hand. And the man taught by the Minister shall say.

With this Ring I thee wedde, with my body I thee worthip, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow: In the name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

Then the man leaving the Ring voon the fourth singer of the womans left hand, the Minister shall say.

Let vs pray. Eternall God, creator and preseruer of all mankind, giver of all spirituall grace, the author of everlasting life, fend thy blefling vpon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bleffe in thy Name, that as Isahac and Rebecca lived faithfully together, so these perfons may furely performe and keepe the vow and couenant betwixt them made (whereof this Ring giuen and received is a token and pledge) and may euer remaine in perfect loue and peace together, and liue according to thy Lawes, through lesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister loyne their right hands together, and say. Those whome God hath ioyned together, let no man put asunder.

Then shall the Minister speake unto the people.

Forasmuch as N. and N. haue consented together in holy wedlocke, and have witnessed the same before God and this companie, and thereto haue giuen and pledged their troth either to other, and have declared the same by giving and receiuing of a Ring, and by ioyning of hands, I pronounce that they be man and wife together. In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And the Minister shall adde this blessing. Od the Father, God the Sonne, God the holy Ghost, I bleffe, preserue, and keepe you, the Lord mercifully with his fauour looke vpon you, and so fill you with all spirituall benediction and grace, that you may so liue together in this life, that in the world to come ye may have life euerlasting, Amen,

Then the Minister or Clerkes going to the Lords Table, shall say or sing this Psalme following.

O Lord heare our prayer.

And let our crie come vnto thee.

God of Abraham, God of Isahac, God of Iacob, blesse these thy servants, and sowe the seede of eternall life in their mindes, that whatfoeuer in thy holy word they shall profitably learne, they may indeed fulfil the same. Looke, O Lord, mercifully vpon them from heaven, and bleffe them. And as thou diddeft fend thy bleffing vpon Abraham, and Sara, to their great comfort: so youchfafe to fend thy bleffing upon these thy servants, that they obeying thy will, and alwayes being in safetie under thy protection, may abide in thy loue vnto their liues ende, through lesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

This prayer next following, shall be omitted, where the woman is past childbirth.

Mercifull Lord, and heauenly Father, by whose gracious gift mankinde is increased: wee beseech thee affift with thy bleffing these two persons, that they may both be fruitfull in procreation of children, and also liue together so long in godly loue and honestie, that they may see their childrens children, vnto the third and fourth generation, vnto thy prayle & honour, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

God, which by thy mighty power hast made all things of nought, which allo (after other things let in order) diddest appoint that out of man (created after thine owne image and similitude) woman should take her beginning, and knitting them together, diddest teach, that it should neuer be lawfull to put asunder those, whom thou by Matrimonie hast made one.

O God, which hast consecrated the state of Matrimonie to fuch an excellent mysterie, that in it is signified and represented the spiritual marriage and vnitie betwixt Christ and his Church: looke mercifully vpon these thy seruaunts, that both this man may loue his wife, according to thy word, as Christ did loue his spouse the Church, who gaue himselfe for it, louing & cherishing it cuen as his owne flesh: and also that this woman may be louing and amiable to her husband as Rachel, wise as Rebecca, faithfull and obedient as Sara, and in all quietnesse, sobrietie and peace, be a follower of holy and godly matrons. O Lord bleffe them both, and grant them to inherite thy euerlasting kingdome, through Iesus Christour Lord, Amen.

Then Shall the Minister fay.

Lmightie God, which at the beginning did create our first parents Adam and Eue, and did sanctifie and ioine them together in mariage, powre vpon you the riches of his grace, sanctifie and blesse you, that yee may please him both in bodie and soule, and liue together in holy loue vnto your liues end, Amen.

Then shall begin the Communion. And after the Gospel shall be said a Sermon, wherein ordinarily (so oft as there is any mariage) the office of a man and wife shall be declared, according to holy Scripture. Or if there be no Sermon, the Minister shall read this that followeth.

Ll yee which be married, or which intend to take the holy state of Matrimonie vpon you, heare what holy Scripture doth fay as touching the duety of husbands toward their wines, and wines toward their husbands.

S. Paul in his Epistle to the Ephesians the fifth Chapter, doeth give this commandement to all married men. Yee husbands, loue your wives, even as Christ loved the Church, and hath giuen himselse for it, to sanctifie it, purging it in the fountaine of water, through the word, that hee might make it vnto himselfe a glorious congregation, not hauing spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holyand blamelesse. So men are bound to loue their owne wives as their owne bodies. Hee that loueth his owne wife, loueth himselse: For neuer did any man hate his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lorde doeth the Congregation, for wee are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shall be joyned vnto his wife, and they two shall be one fleth. This mysterie is great, but I speake of Christ, and of the Congregation. Neuerthelesse, let euery one of you so loue his owne wife, euen as himselfe.

Likewise the same Saint Paul writing to the Coloslians, Col. 3. 19. speaketh thus to all men that be maried: Ye men, loue your wines, and be not bitter vnto them.

Heare also what S. Peter the Apostle of Christ, which 1.Pct. 3.7. was himselfe a married man, saith vnto all men that are maried: Yee husbands, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giuing honour vnto the wife, as vnto the weaker vessell, and as heires together of the grace of life, so that your prayers be not hindered.

Hitherto ye have heard the ducty of the husband toward the wife. Now likewise ye wines, heare and learne your duetie toward your husbands, euen as it is plainely let foorth in holy Scripture.

S. Paul (in the forenamed Epistle to the Ephesians) tea- Ephes, 5.21. cheth you thus: Yee women, submit your selues vnto your to verse 25. owne husbands, as vnto the Lord. For the husband is the wives head, even as Christ is the head of the Church, and he is also the Saujour of the whole bodic.

Therefore as the Church or Congregation is subject vnto Christ: so likewise let the wives also be in subjection vnto their owne husbands in all things. And againe he fayth, Let the wife reuerence her husband. And (in his Epistle to the Colossians) S. Paul giueth you this short lesson: Yee Col.3.18. wives, submit your selves vnto your owne husbands, as it is convenient in the Lord. Saint Peter also doeth instruct you very godly, thus say- 2. Pet. 3. v. ing, Let wives be subject to their owne husbands, so that if any obey not the Word, they may be wonne without the Word, by the conuerfation of the wines, while they behold your chaste convertation coupled with feare: Whose apparell let it not be outward, with braided haire, and trimming about with gold, either in putting on of gorgeous apparell: but let the hidde man which is in the heart, be without all corruption, so that the spirit be milde and quiet, which is a precious thing in the fight of God. For after this maner (in the old time) did the holy wome which trusted in God, apparell themselves, being subject to their owne husbands, as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord, whose daughters ye are made, doing well, and not being dismaied with any feare.

The new maried persons (the same day of their mariage) must receive the holy Communion.

The Order for the visitation of the sicke.

The Minister entring into the sicke persons house, shall say, Peace be in this house, and to all that dwell in it.

When he commeth into the sicke mans presence, he shall say, kneeling downe.

Emember not Lord our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers. Spare vs good Lord, spare thy people, whome thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and bee not angry with vs for euer.

Send him helpe from thy holy place. Answere.

From the face of his enemie. Minister.

Lord heare our prayers.

Answere.

And let our crie come ynto thee. Minister.

Lord looke downe from heaven, behold, visit and relieue this thy seruant. Looke vpon him with the eies of thy mercie, give him comfort and sure confidence in thee, defend him from the danger of the enemie, and keepe him in perpetuall peace and fafetie, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Eare vs Almightie and most mercifull God and Sauiour, extend thy accustomed goodnesse to this thy feruant, which is grieued with sickenesse: visite him, O Lord, as thou didst visit Peters wines mother, and the captaines seruant. So visite and restore vnto this sicke person his former health (if it bee thy will) or els giue him grace so to take thy visitation, that after this painefull life ended, he may dwell with thee in life euerlasting, Amen.

Then shall the Minister exhort the sicke person after this forme, or other like.

Ephel. 5.20.

Earely beloued, know this, that Almightie God is the Lorde of life and death, and ouer all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weaknesse, and sickenesse: Wherefore, whatsoeuer your sickenesse is, know you certainly that it is Gods visitation. And for what cause soeuer this sicknesse is sent vnto you, whether it be to trie your patience for the example of other, and that your faith may be found in the day of the Lord, laudable, glorious, and honourable, to the increase of glory and endlesse felicitie, or else it besent vnto you to correct and amend in you whatsoeuer doeth offend the eyes of your heauenly Father: Know you certainly, that if you truely repent you of your sinnes, and beare your sickenesse patiently, trusting in Gods mercy, for his deare Sonne Iesus Christes sake, and render vnto him humble thankes for his fatherly visitation, submitting your selfe wholly to his will, it shall turne to your profite, and helpe you forward in the right way that leadeth vnto euerlasting life.

If the person visited be very sicke, then the Curate may ende his exhortation in this place.

Take therefore in good worth the chastisement of the Lord: For whom the Lord loueth, hee chastiseth: yea, as S. Paul sayth, hee scourgeth euery sonne which he receiueth. If ye endure chastisement, he offereth himselfe vnto you, as vnto his owne children. What sonne is hee that the Father chastiseth not? If yee be not under correction (whereof all true children are partakers) then are yee bastards and not children. Therefore, seeing that when our carnall fathers doe correct vs, we reuerently obey them: shall we not now much rather bee obedient to our spirituall Father, and so liue? And they for a fewe dayes doe chastise vs, after their owne pleasure: but he doeth chastise vs for our profite, to the intent he may make vs partakers of his holinesse. These wordes (good brother) are Gods wordes, and written in holy Scripture for our comfort and instruction, that wee should patiently and with thankesgiuing, beare our heauenly Fathers correction, whenfoeuer by any manner of aduersitie it shall please his gracious goodnesseto visite vs. And there should be no greater comfort to Christian persons, then to bee made like vnto Christ, by suffering patiently aduersities, troubles, and sickenesses. For hee himselfe went not vp to ioy, but first he suffered paine, hee entred not into his glory, before hee was crucified: So truely our way to eternall ioy is, to suffer here with Christ, and our doore to enter into eternall life is, gladly to die with Christ, that we may rise againe from death, and dwell with him in cuerlasting life. Now therefore, taking your sickenesse, which is thus profitable for you, patiently, I exhort you in the Name of God, to remember the profession which you made vnto God in your baptisme. And for as much as after this life there is a count to be given vnto the righteous Iudge, of whom all must be iudged without respect of persons: I require you to examine your selfe, and your state, both toward God and man, so that accusing and condemning your selfe for your owne faults, you may finde mercie at your heavenly Fathers hand for Christs sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearefull judgement. Therfore I shall shortly rehearse the Articles of our faith, that you may knowe whether you doe beleeue as a Christian man should, or no.

There the Minister shall rehearse the Articles of the faith, saying thus.

Does thou believe in God the Father Almicheia?

Doest thou beleeue in God the Father Almightie?

(And so foorth as it is in Baptisme.)

Then shall the Minister examine whether he be incharitie with all the world, exhorting him to forgine from the bottome of his heart all persons that have offended him, and if hee have offended other, to aske them forginenesse, and where he hath done injurie or wrong to any man, that hee make amends to the vittermost of his power. And if hee have not afore disposed his goods, let him then make his will, and also declare his debts, what hee oweth, and what is owing vnto him, for discharging of his conscience, and quietnesse of his executours. But men must bee oft admonished that they set an order for their temporall goods and lands, when they be in health.

These words before rehearsed, may be said before the Minister begin his prayer, as he shall see cause.

The Minister may not forget, nor omit to mooue the sicke person (and that most earnestly) to liberalitie toward the poore.

Here shall the sicke person make a speciall confession if he feele his conscience troubled with any weightie matter. After which confession, the Minister shall absolue him after this sort.

Vr Lord Lord lesus Christ, who hath lest power to his Church, to absolue all sinners which truely repent and believe in him, of his great mercie forgive thee thine offences, and by his authoritie committed to me, I absolue thee from all thy sinnes, in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And then the Minister shall say the Collect following.

Let vs pray. Most mercifull God, which according to the multitude of thy mercies doest so put away the sinnes of those which truely repent, that thou remembrest them no more, open thine eye of mercie vpon this thy feruant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgiuenesse. Renue in him (most louing Father) whatsoeuer hath bene decayed by the fraud and malice of the deuill, or by his owne carnall will and frailenesse: preserue and continue this sicke member in the vnitie of the Church, consider his contrition, accept his teares, asswage his paine, as shall bee seene to thee most expedient for him. And forasmuch as he putteth his full trust onely in thy mercie, impute not vnto him his former finnes, but take him vnto thy fauour, through the merits of thymost dearely beloued Sonne Iesus Christ, Amen.

Then shall the Minister say this Psalme.

N thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let me neuerbee In te Domine put to confusion: but rid me and deliuer me in thy righteousnesse, encline thine eare vnto me, and saue me.

Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to helpe mee, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand of the vngodly: out of the hand of the vnrighteous and cruell man.

For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, even from my youth.

Through thee haue I beene holden vp euer since I was borne: thou art he that took me out of my mothers wombe, my prayse shall be alway of thee.

I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

O let my mouth bee filled with thy prayse: (that I may fing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

Cast mee not away in the time of age: for sake mee not when my strength faileth me.

For mine enemies speake against me, and they that lay wait for my soule, take their counsell together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliuer him.

Goe not farre from me, O God: my God haste thee to helpe me.

Let them be confounded and perish, that are against my soule: let them be couered with shame and dishonour, that seeke to doe me euill.

As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will prayle thee more and more.

My mouth shall davly speake of thy righteousnesse and saluation: for I know no end thereof.

I will goe foorth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousnesse onely.

Thou, O God, hast taught mee from my youth vp vntill now: therefore will I tell of thy wonderous workes.

For sake me not, O God, in mine olde age, when I am gray headed: vntill I have shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteousnesse, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vn-to thee?

O what great troubles and aduerfities hast thoushewed me, and yet diddeft thou turne and refresh mee: yea, and broughtest me from the deepe of the earth againe.

Thou hast brought me to great honour: and comforted me on euery side.

Therefore wil I praise thee and thy faithfulnesse (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musicke: vnto thee will I fing vpon the Harpe, O thou holy one of Israel.

Saujour of the world, saue vs, which by thy crosse and precious blood hast redeemed vs, helpe vs wee befeech thee, O God.

Then Shall she Minister Say.

Amen.

The Communion of the Sicke.

Torasmuch as all mortall men be subiect to many sudden perils, diseases, and sicknesses, and ever uncerteine I what time they shall depart out of this life: therefore to the intent they may bee alwayes in a readine seto die when soener it shall please Almightie God to call them, the Curates shall diligently from time to time, but specially in the plague time, exhort their Parishioners to the oft receiving (in the Church) of the holy Communion of the body and blood of our Sauiour Christ: which if they doe, they shall have no cause in their sudden visitation to be unquiet for lacke of the same. But if the sicke person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house, then he must give knowledge over night, or else early in the Morning, to the Curate, signifying also how many bee appointed to communicate with him: And having a convenient place in the sicke mans house, wherethe Curate may reverently minister, and a good number to receive the Communion with the sicke person, with all things necessarie for the same, hee shall there minister the holy Communion.

The Collect.

Lmightie and euerliuing God, maker of mankinde, which doest correct those whome thou doest loue, and chastisest euery one whome thou doest receiue: we beseech thee to have mercie vpon this thy feruant, visited with thy hand, and to graunt that hee may take his fickenesse patiently, and recouer his bodily health (if it be thy gracious will) and whensoeuer his foule shall depart from the bodie, it may bee without spot presented voto thee, through lesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

But if a man either by reason of extremitie of sickenesse, or for want of warning in due time to the Curate, or for lacke of companie to receive with him, or by any other inst impediment, doe not receive the Sacrament of Christes body and blood: then the Curate shall instruct him, that if hee doctruely repent him of his sinnes, and stedfastly beleeve that Iesus Christ hath suffered death upon the Crosse for him, and shed his blood for his redemption, earnestly remembring the benefites hee hath thereby, and giving him heartie thankes therefore, hee doeth ease and drinke the body and blood of our Sausour Christ profitably to his soules health, although he doe not receive the Sacrament with his mouth.

When the sicke person is visited, and receiveth the holy Communion all at one time, then the Priest for more expedition, shall cut off the forme of the risitation at the Psalme, (In thec, O Lord, haue I put my trust) and goe straight to the Communion.

In the time of Plague, Sweat, or fuch other like contagious times offickenesses, or difeases, when none of the Parish or neighbours can bee gotten to communicate with the ficke in their huses, for feare of the infection, upon speciall request of the diseased, the Minister may alonely communicate with him.

The order for the buriall of the dead.

The Minister meeting the corps at the Church stile, shall say, or else the Minister and Clerkes shall sing, and so goe either into the Church, or toward the graue.

Am the refurrection and the life (layth the Lord) heethat beleeueth in mee, yea, though he were dead, yet shall he liue. And whosoeuer liueth, and beleeueth in me, shall not die for euer.

Then while the earth shall be cast voon the body, by some standing by, the minister shall say.

Then shall follow this Lesson taken out of the 15. Chapter to the r.Cor. 15.20.

Hrist is risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that sleepe. For by a man came death, and by a man came the resurrection of the dead. For as by Adam all die, euen so by Christishal all be made aliue, but every man in his owne order. The first is Christ, then they that are Christs at his comming. Then commeth the ende, when he hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God the Father, when he hath put downe all rule, and all authoritie and power. For hee must reigne till he put all his enemies vnder his feete. The last enemy that shall bee destroyed, is death. For he hath put allthings vnder his feete. But when he saith, All things are put vnder him, it is manifest that hee is excepted which did put all things vnderhim. When all things are subdued vnto him, then shall the sonne also himselfe be subiest vnto him that put all things vnder him, that God may bee all in all. Else what doe they which are baptized ouer the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized ouer them? yea, and why stand we alway then in ieopardie? By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die dayly. That I haue fought with beafts at Ephesus after the maner of men, what aduantageth it me, if the dead rise not againe? Let vs cate and drinke, for to morow we shall die. Be not yee deceiued, euill words corrupt good maners. Awake truely out of sleepe, and sinne not. For some have not the knowledge of God. Ispeake this to your shame. But some man will say, How rise the dead? With what body shall they come? Thou foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickned except it die. And what sowest thou? thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare corne, as of wheate or some other: but God giueth it a body at his pleafure, to euery seede his owne body. All flesh is not one maner of flesh: but there is one maner of flesh of men, another maner of flesh of beasts, another of fishes, another of birds. There are also celestiall bodies, and there are bodies terrestriall. But the glory of the celestiall is one, and the glorie of the terrestriall is another. There is one maner of glory of the Sunne, another glory of the Moone, and another glorie of the Starres. For one Starre differeth from another in glory: So is the resurrection of the dead. It is sowen in corruption, it riseth againe in incorruption: it is sowen in dishonour, it riseth againe in honour: it is sowen in weaknesse, it riseth againe in power: it is sowen a naturall body, it riseth againe a spirituall body. There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body: as it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule, and the last Adam was made a quickning spirit. Howbeit, that is not first which is spirituall, but that which is naturall, and then that which is spirituall. The first man is of the earth earthie: The second man is the Lord from heaven, heavenly. As is the earthie, fuch are they that be earthie. And as is the heauenly, fuch are they that are heauenly. And as wee haue borne the image of the earthie, so shall wee beare the image of the heauenly. This say I brethren, that sless and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mysterie. We shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed, and that in a moment, in the twinckling of an eye, by the last trumpe. For the trumpe shall blow, and the dead shall rise incorruptible, and wee shall be changed: for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortalitie. When this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie, then shalbe brought to passe the saying that is writte, Death is swallowed vp into victorie: Death where is thy tting? Hell where is thy victorie? The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the law: but thanks be vnto God, which hath given vs victory through our Lord Iesus Christ. Therefore my deare brethren, bee ye stedfast and unmoueable, alwayes rich in the worke of the Lord, for a smuch as yee know how that your labour is not in vaine in the Lord.

The Lesson ended, the minister shall say.

Minister.

Lmighty God, with whom do liste the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and in who the soules of them that be elected, after they be delivered from the burden of the flesh, be in icy and selicitie: We give thee hearty thanks for that it hath pleased thee to deliuer this N. our brother out of the miseries of this finfull world, beseeching thee, that it may please thee of thy gracious goodnes, shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdom, that we with this our brother, and all other departed in the true faith of thy holy Name, may have our perfect consummation and bliffe both in body and soule, in thy eternall and everlasting glory. Amen.

The Collect. Mercifull God, the father of our Lord lesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life, in whom whosoeuer beleeueth, shall liue though he die, and whosoeuer liueth, and beleeueth in him, shall not die eternally, who also taught vs (by his holy Apostle Paul) not to be sory as men without hope, for them that sleepe in him: wee meekely beseech thee, O Father, to raile vs from the death of sinne vnto the life of righteousnesse, that when we shall depart this life, wee may rest in him, as our hope is this our brother doeth: and that at the generall resurrection in the last day we may be found acceptable in thy sight, & receive that bleffing which thy welbeloued Sonne shall then pronounce to all that loue and feare thee, saying, Come ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdome prepared for you from the beginning of the world: Grant this, wee beseech thee, O mercifull Father, through Iesus Christ our mediatour and redeemer. Amen.

I After Morning prayer', the people being called together by the ringing of a Bell, and affembled in the Church, the English Letanie shall be said after the accustomed maner: which ended, the Minister shall goe into the Pulpit, and say thus.

Rethren, in the Primitive Church there was a godly discipline, that at the beginning of Lent such persons as were notorious sinners, were put to open pe-nance, and punished in this world, that their soules might bee saued in the day of the Lord: and that other admonished by their example, might be the more afraid to offend. In the stead whereof, vntill the said discipline may bee restored againe (which thing is much to bee wished) it is thought good, that at this time (in your presence) should be read the generall sentences of Gods cursing against impenitent sinners, gathered out of the 27. Chapter of Deuteronomie, and other places of Scripture: and that yee should answere to every sentence, Amen: to the intent that you being admonished of the great indignation of God against sinners, may the rather bee called to earnest and true repentance, and may walke more warily in these dangerous dayes, fleeing from such vices, for the which yee affirme with your owne mouthes the curse of God to be due.

Thus if we doe, Christ will deliuer vs from the curle of the Law, and from the extreme malediction which shall light vpon them that shall bee set on Marth.25.33, the left hand, and he will fet vs on his * right hand, and give vs the bleffed benediction of his Father, commanding vs to take possession of his glorious kingdome, vnto the which hee vouchsafe to bring vs all for his infinite mercie. Amen.

Then shall they all kneele upon their knees, and the Minister and Clearks kneeling (where they are accustomed to say the Letanie) shall say this Psalme.

Miserere mei

Aue mercie vpon me, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies doe away mine offences.

Wash me throughly from my wickednesse: and clense me from my finne.

For I acknowledge my faults: & my fin is cuer before me. Against thee onely have I sinned, and done this cuill in thy fight: that thou mightest be iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art judged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceived me.

But loe, thou requirest trueth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisedome secretly.

Thou shalt purge me with hysope, and I shall bee cleane: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter then snow.

Thou shalt make me heare of ioy and gladnesse: that the bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

Turne thy face from my finnes: and put out all my mif. deedes.

Make me a cleane heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirit from me.

O giue me the comfort of thy helpe againe: and stablish me with thy free spirit.

Then shall I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted vnto thee.

Deliuer me from bloodguiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shalling of thy righteoulnesse.

Thou shalt open my lippes (O Lord:) my mouth shall thew thy praise.

For thou defirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The facrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and a contrite heart (O God) wilt thou not despite.

O be fauourable and gracious vnto Sion: build thou the walles of Hierusalem.

Then shalt thou bee pleased with the sacrifice of righteoulnesse, with the burnt offerings and oblations: then shall they offer yong bullockes upon thine altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the &c. As it was in the beginning, &c. Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Christ haue mercie vpon vs. Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Our Father which art in heauen,&c. And leade vs not into temptation.

Answere. But deliuer vs from euill, Amen. Minister.

O Lord saue thy servants.

Answere. Which put their trust in thee.

Send them helpe from aboue.

Answete. And euermore mightily defend them.

Minister. Helpe vs, O God, our Sauiour.

Answere. And for the glory of thy names sake deliuer vs, be mercifull vnto vs sinners for thy Names sake.

Minister.

O Lord heare our prayers.

And let our crie come vnto thee,

Let vs pray. Lord we beseech thee mercifully heare our prayers, and spare all those which confesse their sinnes vnto thee, that they, whose consciences by sinne are accused, by thy mercifull pardon may bee absolued through Christour Lord, Amen.

Most mightie God, and mercifull Father, which hast compassion of all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, which wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that hee should rather turne from sinne, and bee saued: mercifully forgiue vs out trespasses, receiue and comfort vs, which be grieued & wearied with the burden of our fins: thy propertie is to have mercy, to thee onely it appertameth to forgiue sins. Spare vs therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whome thou hast redeemed: enter not into iudgement with thy servants, which be vile earth, and miserable sinners: but so turne thine ire from vs, which meekly knowledge our vilenesse, and truly repent vs of our faults: so make haste to helpe vs in this world, that we may euer liue with thee in the world to come, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Then shall the people say this that followeth, after the Minister:

Vrne thou vs, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned: be fauourable, O Lord, be fauourable to thy people, which turne to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying: for thou art a mercifull God, full of compassion, long suffering, & of great pitie. Thou sparest when we deserue punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest vpon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Heare vs, O Lord, for thy mercie is great, & after the multitude of thy mercies looke vpon vs.

ENDE.

THE PSALMES OF DA-VID, OF THAT TRANSLA-

TION, WHICH IS COMMONLY VSED IN THE CHVRCH.

Beatusvir qui non abyt. Psal. 1.

Deal as of que non ao

Lessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsell of the vigodly, nor stand in the way of sinners: and hath not sit in the seate of the scoreful.

2 But his delight is in the Law of the Lord: and in his Law will he exercise himselfe day and night.

3 And he shall bee like a tree planted by the water side:

that will bring foorth his fruit in due season.

4 His lease also shall not wither: and looke whatsoeuer he doeth, it shall prosper.

5 As for the vngodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaffe which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the vngodly shall not bee able to stand in the Iudgement: neither the sinners in the Congregation of the righteous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the vngodly thall perish.

Quare fremuerunt? Pfal. 2.

Hy doe the heathen so furiously rage together: and why doe the people imagine a vaine thing?

The kings of the earth stand vp, and the rulers take countaile together; against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3 Let vs breake their bonds asunder: and cast away their cords from vs.

4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall augh them to scorne:

the Lord shall have therein design.

the Lord shall have them in derision.

Then shall hee speake vnto them in his wrath: and vexe them in his fore displeasure.

6 Yet haue I set my King: vpon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will preach the Lawe whereof the Lord hath sayd vnto mee: thou art my sonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

8 Defire of mee, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the vitermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of yron: & breake them in pieces like a potters vessell.

10 Be wise now therefore, O yee Kings: bee learned yee that are judges of the earth.

11 Serue the Lord in feare: and rejoyce vnto him with reuerence.

12 Kisse the Sonne, lest hee be angrie, and so yee perish from the right way: if his wrath be kindled (yea but a little) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Donine quid? Pfal.3.

Ord how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me.

2 Many a one there be that fay of my soule: there is no helpe for him in his God

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter vp of my head.

4 I did cal vpon the Lord with my voice: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I laide mee downe and slept, and rose vp againe: for the Lord sustained me.

6 I will not bee afraid for ten thousands of people: that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Vp Lord and helpe nie, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enemies vpon the cheeke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the yngodly.

8 Saluation belongeth vnto the Lord: and thy bleffing is vpon the people.

Cuminuocarem. Psal.4.

Eare mee when I call, O God of my righteousnesse: or thou hast set me at libertie when I was in trouble, naue mercy vpon me, and hearken vnto my prayer.

2 O yee sonnes of men, how long will yee blaspheme mine honour; and haue such pleasure in vanitie, and seeke after leasing?

3 Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himselfe the man that is godly: when I call vpon the Lord, hee will heare mee.

4 Stand in awe, and sinne not: commune with your owne heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousnesse: and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that fay: who will shew vs any good?
7 Lord lift thou vp: the light of thy countenance vp-on vs.

8 Thou hast put gladnesse in my heart: since the time that their come and wine and oyle increased.

9 I will lay me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it thou Lord onely that makest me dwell in safetie.

Perbamea auribus. Pfal.5.

Ponder my wordes, O Lord: confider my meditation.

2 O hearken thou voto the voice of my calling, my King and my God: for voto thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voice shalt thou heare betimes, O Lord early in the morning will I direct my prayer vnto thee, and will looke vp.

4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wicken sse: neither shall any euill dwell with the e.

5 Such as bee foolish shall not stand in thy sight: for thou hatest all them that worke vanitie.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speake leasing: the Lord will abhorre both the blood thirstee and deceitfullman.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house, even vpon the mulatude of thy mercie: and in thy seare will I worship toward thy holy Temple.

8 Leade me, O Lord, in thy rightcousnes because of mine enemies: make thy way plaine before my tace.

9 For

9 For there is no faithfulnesse in his mouth: their inward parts are very wickednesse.

10 Their throate is an open sepulchre: they flatter with their tongue.

11 Destroy thou them, O God, let them perish through their owne imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their vngodlinesse, for they have rebelled against thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in thee, reioyce: they shall euer be giuing of thanks, because thou defendest them, they that loue thy Name shall be joyfull in thee.

13 For thou Lord wilt give thy bleffing vnto the righteous: and with thy fauourable kindnesse wilt thou defend him, as with a shield.

Euening prayer.

Domine ne in furore. Psal.6.

Lord rebuke me not in thine indignation: neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2 Haue mercy vpo me, o Lord, for I am weake: O Lord heale me, for my bones are vexed.

My foule is also fore troubled: but Lord how long wilt thou punish me?

4. Turne thee, O Lord, and deliuer my soule: Oh saue me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who will give thee thanks in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groning, euery night wash I my bed:

and water my couch with my teares. 7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worne away because of all mine enemies. 8 Away from me all ye that worke vanitie: for the Lord hath heard the voyce of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receiue my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded and sore vexed: they shall be turned backe, and put to shame suddenly. Domine Deus meus. Psal.7.

Lord my God, in thee haue I put my trust: saue me from all them that persecute me, and deliuer me.

2 Lest he deuoure my soule like a Lion, and teare it in pieces: while there is none to helpe.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done any such thing: or if there be any wickednesse in my hands.

If I have rewarded cuill vnto him that dealt friendly with me : yea, I have delivered him that without any cause is mine enemie.

5 Then let mine enemie persecute my soule, and take me: yea, let him tread my life downe vpon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Stand vp, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift vp thy felfe: because of the indignation of mine enemies, arise vp for me in the judgement that thou hast commanded.

7 And so shall the congregation of the people come about thee: for their fakes therefore lift vp thy felfe againe.

8 The Lord shall judge the people, give sentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteousnesse, and according to the innocencie that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickednesse of the vngodly come to an end: but guide thou the just.

10 For the righteous God: trieth the very hearts and 11 My helpe commeth of God: which preserueth them that are true of heart.

12 God is a righteous Iudge, strong and patient: and God is prouoked enery day.

13 If a man will not turne, he will whet his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

14 He hath prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordeineth his arrowes against the persecutors. 15 Behold, he trauaileth with mischiese: he hath con-ceiued forrow, and brought forth vngodlinesse. 16 He hath grauen and digged vp a pit:and is fallen himfelfe into the destruction that he made for other.

17 For his trauaile shall come vpon his owne head: and his wickednesse shall fall on his owne pate.

18 I will give thanks vnto the Lord, according to his righteousnesse: and will prayse the Name of the Lord the most High.

Domine Dominus. Psal. 8.

Lord our gouernour, how excellent is thy Name in all the world: thou that hast set thy glory aboue the heauens!

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordeined strength, because of thine enemies: that thou mightest still the enemie and the auenger.

3 For I will consider the heavens, even the works of thy fingers: the Moone and the starres which thou hast ordeined.

What is man that thou art mindfull of him: and the Sonne of man that thou visitest him?

5 Thou madest him lower then the Angels: to crowne him with glory and worship.

6 Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet.

7 All sheepe and oxen: yea, and the beasts of the field.

2 I will be glad and reioyce in thee: yea, my fongs will I make of thy Name, O thou most Highest.

3 While mine enemies are driuen backe: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou halt mainteined my right, and my cause: thou art set in the throne that judgest right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the vngodly: thou hast put out their name for euer and euer. O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetuall end: euen as the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memoriall is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for euer: he hath also prepared his seate for judgement.

8 For he shall judge the world in righteousnesse: and minister true sudgement vnto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed euen a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name, will put their trust in thee: for thou Lord hast neuer failed them that seeke thee.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaint of the poore.

13 Haue mercy vpon nie, O Lord, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me: thou that liftest me vp from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I will reioyce in thy saluation.

15 The heathen are sunke downe in the pit that they made: in the same net which they had privily, is their foote taken.

16 The Lord is knowen to execute judgement: the vngodly is trapped in the works of his owne hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.

18 For the poore shall not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meeke shall not perish for euer.

Elpe me Lord, for there is not one godly man left: for the faithful are minished from among the children of men.

Owlong wilt thou forget me(O Lord) for euer: how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shal I seeke counsell in my soule, and be so vexed in my heart: how long shall mine enemies triumph ouer me?

Dixit insipiens. Psal. 14.

He foole hath said in his heart: There is no God. 2 They are corrupt and become abominable in their doings: there is not one that doeth good, (no not one.)

3 The Lord looked downe from heaven vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that would understand and seeke after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is none that docth good, no not one. 5 Their throte is an open sepulchre, with their tongues haue they deceived: the poylon of Aspes is under their lippes. 6 Their mouth is full of curfing and bitternesse: their feet are swift to shed blood. 7 Destruction and vnhappinesse is in their wayes, and the way of peace have they not knowen: there is no feare of God before their eyes.

8 Haue they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of mischiefe: eating vp my people as it were bread?

9 And call not vpon the Lord, there were they brought in great feare (euen where no feare was:) for God is in the generation of the righteous.

3 Hee that hath vsed no deceit in his tongue, nor done enill to his neighbour: and hee that hath not flandered his neighbours.

4 He that setteth not by himselfe, but is lowly in his owne eyes: and maketh much of them that feare the Lord.

5 He that sweareth vnto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not though it were to his owne hinderance.

6 He that hath not given his money vpon vsurie: nor taken reward against the innocent.

7 Who so doeth these things: shal neuer fall. Conseruame. Psal.16.

Referue me, O God: for in thee haue I put my trust. 2 O my foule, thou half faid vnto the Lord: thou art my God, my goods are nothing vnto thee.

3 All my delight is upon the faints that are in the earth: and vpon such as excell in vertue.

4 But they that runne after another god: shall haug great trouble. 5 Their drinke offerings of blood will I not offer: neither make mention of their names within my lips.

6 The Lord himselfe is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou shalt maintaine my lot.

7 The lot is fallen vnto me in a faire ground: yea, I haue a goodly heritage.

8 I will thanke the Lord for giuing mee warning: my reines also chasten me in the night season.

9 I have set God alwayes before me: for hee is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory reioyred: my Hesh also shall rest in hope.

II For why?thou shalt not leave my soule in hell: neither shalt thou suffer thine Holy one to see corruption.

12 Thou shalt shew me the path of life, in thy presence is the sulnesse of ioy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for euermore.

Exaudi Domine iustitiam. Psal. 17.

Eare the right, O Lord, consider my complaint: and hearken vnto my prayer that goeth not out of fained lippes.

Let my sentence come foorth from thy presence: and let thine eyes looke vpon the thing that is equal.

3 Thou hast prooued and visited mine heart in the night season, thou hast tried mee, and shalt find no wickednesse in mee: for I am veterly purposed, that my mouth shall not offend.

4 Because of mens workes that are done against the words of my lips: I have kept me from the wayes of the destroyer.

5 O hold thou vp my goings in thy paths: that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called vpon thee, O God, for thou shalt heare mee: encline thine eare to me, and hearken vnto my wordes.

7 Shew thy marueilous louing kindnesse, thou that art the Sauiour of them which put their trust in thee: from such as resist thy right hand.

8 Keepe me as the apple of an eye: hide mee vnder the shadow of thy wings.

Euening

prayer.

9 From the vngodly that trouble mee: mine enemies compasse me round about, to take away my soule.

They are inclosed in their owne fat: and their mouth speaketh proud things.

They lie waiting in our way on every side: turning their eyes downe to the ground.

12 Like as a Lion that is greedy of his pray: and as it were a Lions whelpe lurking in secret places.

13 Vp Lord, disappoint him, and cast him downe: deliuer my soule from the vngodly, which is a sword of thine.

14 From the men of thy hand, O Lord, from the men, I say, and from the euill world: which have their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid treasure.

15 They have children at their desire: and leave the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold thy presence in rightcousnesse: and when I awake vp after thy likenesse, I shalbe satisfied with it.

Will loue thee (O Lord) my strength, the Lord is my stonie rocke and my defence: my Sauiour, my God, and my might, in whome I will trust, my buckler, the horne also of my saluation, and my refuge.

2 I will call vpon the Lord, which is worthy to be prayfed: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The forrowes of death compassed mee: and the ouerflowings of vngodlinesse made me afraid

4 The paines of hell came about me: the snares of death ouertooke me.

5 In my trouble I wil call vpon the Lord: and complaine vnto my God.

6 So shall he heare my voice out of his holy Temple: and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter eucn into his eares.

7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations also of the hilles shooke and were removued, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence: and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coales were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also and came downe: and it was darke under his scete.

10 He rode vpon the Cherubims, and did flie: he came flying vpon the wings of the wind.

13 The Lord also thundred out of heauen, and the highest gaue his thunder: hailestones and coales of fire.

14 Heesent out his arrowes, and scattered them: hee cast foorth lightnings and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seene, and the foundations of the tound world were discouered at thy chiding, O Lord: at the blassing of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 Hee shall send downe from the high to setch mee: and shall take me out of many waters.

17 Hee shall deliuer mee from my strongest enemie, and from them which hate mee: for they are too mighty for mee.

18 They preuented mee in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my vpholder.

19 Hee brought mee foorth also into a place of libertie: hee brought mee foorth, euen because he had a fauour vnto mee.

20 The Lord shall reward mee after my righteous dealing: according to the cleannesse of my hands shall hee recompense me.

21 Because I have kept the wayes of the Lord: and have not for saken my God as the wicked doeth.

26 With the cleane thou shalt be cleane: and with the froward thou shalt learne frowardnesse.

27 For thou shalt saue the people that are in adversitie: and shalt bring downe the high lookes of the proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle: the Lord my God shall make my darkenesse to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discomfite an hoste of men: and with the helpe of my God I shall leape ouer the wall.

30 The way of God is an undefiled way: the word of the Lord also is tried in the fire, he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

31 For who is God but the Lord: or who hath any strength except our God?

Leade thou my cause, O Lord, with them that striue with mee: and fight them that strine with mee: and fight thou against them that fight against me,

2 Lay hand vpon the snield and buckler:

and stand vp to helpe me. 3 Bring forth the speare, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seeke after my foule: let them be turned backe, and brought to consusion, that imagine mischete for me.

5 Let them be as the dust before the winde: and the Angel of the Lord scattering them.

6 Let their way be darke and slipperie: and let the Angel of the Lord persecute them.

For they have privily laid their net to destroy mee without a cause: yea, euen without a cause haue they made a pit for my soule.

8 Let a sudden destruction come vpon him vnawarcs, and his net that he hath laid privily catch himselfe: that he may fall into his owne mischiefe.

And my soule, be joyfull in the Lord: it shall rejoyce in his faluation.

10 All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like vnto thee, which deliuerest the poore from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poore and him that is in miserie, from him that spoileth him.

11 False witnesse did rise vp: they laide to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me euill for good: to the great difcomfort of my soule.

13 Neuerthelesse, when they were sicke, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my foule with fasting; and my prayer shall turne into mine owne bosome.

14 Ibehaued my selse as though it had bene my friend, or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou looke vpon this: O deliver my foule from the calamities which they bring on mee, and my dearling from the Lions.

18 So wil I give thee thanks in the great Congregation:

I will praise thee among much people.

19 Oler not them that are mine enemies triumph ouer me vngodly: neither let them winke with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitfull wordes against them that are quiet in the land:

21 They gaped on me with their mouthes, and said: Fie on thee, he on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast seene, O Lord: hold not thy tongue then, goe not farre from me, O Lord.

23 Awake and stand up to judge my quarrell: auenge thou my cause, my God, and my Lord.

24 Judge mee, O Lord my God, according to thy righte-

27 Let them be glad and reioyce that fauour my righteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, blessed bee the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prosperitie of his seruant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shall be talking of thy righteousnesse: and of thy praise all the day long.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. 36.

Y heart sheweth me the wickednesse of the vngodly: that there is no feare of God before his eyes. 2 For he flattereth himselse in his owne fight:

vntill his abominable sinne be found out.

3 The words of his mouth are vnrighteous, and full of deceit : he hath left off to behaue himselfe wisely, and to doe good.

4 He imagineth mischiefe vpon his bedde, and hath set himselse in no good way: neither doeth hee abhorre any thing that is euill.

5 Thy mercie (O Lord) reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy faithfulnesse vnto the cloudes.

6 Thy righteousnesse standeth like the strong mountaines: thy judgements are like the great deepe.

7 Thou Lord shalt saue both man and beast, how excellent is thy mercie, O God: and the children of menshal put their trust vnder the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be satisfied with the plenteousnesse of thy house: and thou shalt give them drinke of thy pleasures, as out of the river.

9 For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue foorth thy louing kindenesse vnto them that know thee: and thy righteousnesse vnto them that are true of heart.

11 Olet not the foot of pride come against me: and let not the hand of the vngodly cast me downe.

12 There are they fallen (all) that worke wickednesse; they are cast downe, and shall not be able to stand.

Noli: amulari. Psal. 37. Retnot thy selfe, because of the vngodly: Euening Si neither bee thou enuious against the euill prayer.

2 For they shal soone be cut downe like the graffe: and bee withered cuen as the greene herbe.

3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and bee doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the Lord: and he shall give thee thy hearts desire.

5 Commit thy way vnto the Lord, and put thy trust in him: and he shall bring it to passe.

He shall make thy righteousnes as cleare as the light; and thy iust dealing, as the noone day.

7 Hold thee still in the Lord, and abide patiently vpon him: but grieue not thy selfe at him whose way doeth prosper, against the man that doeth after cuill counsailes.

8 Leaue off from wrath, and let go displeasure: fret not thy felfe, else shalt thou be moved to doe evill.

9 Wicked doers shall be rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherit the land.

10. Yet a little while, & the vngodly shalbe cleane gone: thou shalt looke after his place, and he shall be away.

11 But the mecke spirited shall possesse the earth! and shalbe refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The vngodly seeketh counsaile against the just: and gnatheth vpon him with his teeth.

13 The Lord shall augh him to scorne: for he hath seene that his day his comming.

14. The vngodly hath drawen out the sword, and haue bent their bowe : to cast downe the poore and needie, and to flay such as be of a right conversation.

15 Their sword shall goe through their owne heart: and their bowe shalbe broken.

16 A small thing that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of the vngodly.

17 For the armes of the vngodly shalbe broken: and the Lord vpholdeth the rightcous.

- 35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keepe his way, and hee shall promote thee, that thou shalt possesse the land: when the vngodly shall perish, thou shalt see it.

16 Be not thou afraid though one be made rich: or if the glory of his house be increased.

17 For hee shall carre nothing away with him when hee dieth: neither shall his pompe follow him.

18 For while he liued, he counted himselfe an happy man: and so long as thou doest well vnto thy selfe, men will speake good of thec.

19 Hee shall follow the generation of his fathers: and shall neuer see light.

Morning

prayer.

20 Man being in honour, hath no vnderstanding: but is compared ynto the beafts that perilh.

Deus deorum. Psal.50.

He Lord, euen the most mightie God hath spoken : and called the world, from the rifing vp of the sunne, vnto the going downe thereof.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauties

3 Our Godshall come, and shal not keepe silence: there shall goe before him a consuming fire, and a mightie tempest shalbe stirred vp round about him.

4 He shall call the heaven from aboue : and the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my Saints together vnto me: those that haue made a couenant with me, with facrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousnesse: for God is judge himselfe.

7 Heare, O my people, and I will speake: I my selfe will testifie against thee, O Israel, for I am God, euen thy God.

8 I will not reprodue thee because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt offerings: because they were not alway be-

9 I will take no bullocke out of thine house: nor hee goats out of thy foldes.

10 For all the beaftes of the forest are mine: and so are the cattels vpon a thousand hilles. II I know all the foules vpon the mountaines: and the wilde beafts of the field are in my fight. 12 If I be hungrie, I wil not tell thee: for the whole world is mine, and all that is therein. 13 Thinkest thou that I will eate bulles slesh: and drinke the blood of goats? 14 Offer vnto God thankesgiuing: and pay thy vowes vnto the most Highest. 15 And call vpon me in the time of trouble: so wil I heare thee, and thou shalt praise me.

16 But vnto the vngodly said God: Why doest thou preach my lawes, and takelt my couenant in thy mouth?

17 Whereas thou hatest to bee reformed: and hast cast my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thiefe, thou consented t vnto him: and hast bene partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speake wickednes: and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

20 Thou satest and spakest against thy brother: yea, and hast slandered thine owne mothers sonne.

21 These things hast thou done, and I helde my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly that I am even such a one as thy selfe: but I will reprodue thee, and set before thee the things that thou hast done.

22 O consider this ye that forget God: lest I plucke you away, and there be none to deliuer you.

23 Who so offereth me thanks and praise, he honoureth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation right, will I thew the faluation of God.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal 51.

Aue mercie vpon me, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine oftences.

2 Wash me throughly from my wickednes: and cleanse me from my finne.

3 For I knowledge my faults: and my finne is ever before me.

Against thee onely have I sinned, and done this cuill in thy fight: that thou mightest bee justified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art judged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceived me.

6 But loe, thou requirest trueth in the inward parts: & shalt make me to vnderstand wisedome secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hysope, and I shalbe cleane: thou shalt wash me, and I shalbe whiter then snow.

8 Thou shalt make me heare of joy and gladnesse: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.

9 Turne thy face from my finnes: and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make me a cleane heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 O giue me the comfort of thy helpe againe: and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

13 Then shall I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and finners shall be converted vnto thee.

14 Deliuer me from bloodguiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteoutnesse.

15 Thou shalt open my lips (O Lord:) and my mouth shall shew thy praise.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, els would I giue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offerings.

17 The factifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart (O God) shalt thou not despise.

18 Obe fauourable and gracious vnto Sion: build thou the walles of Hierusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousnesse, with the buint offerings and oblations: then shal they offer yong bullocks vpon thine altar.

Quid gloriaris. Psal.52. 7 Hy boastest thouthy selfe, thou tyrant: that thou canst doe mischiefe?

Whereas the goodnesse of God: endureth yet dayly.

3 Thy mouth imagineth wickednes: and with lies thou cuttest like a sharpe rator.

4 Thou hast loued vnrighteousnesse more then goodnesse: and to talke of lies more then right cousnesse.

5 Thou hast loued to speake all wordes that may doe hurt: O thou false tongue.

6 Therefore shall God destroy thee for ever: heeshall take thee, and plucke thee out of thy dwelling, and roote thee out of the land of the living.

7 The righteous also shall see this, and seare: and shall laugh him to scorne.

8 Loc, this is the man that took not God for his strength: but trusted vnto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himselfe in his wickednesse.

- 9 As for me, I am like a greene Oliue tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercy of God for euer
- 10 I will alwayes give thankes vnto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy Name, for thy Saints like it well.

Euening prayer.

Dixit insipiens. Psales 3. He foolish bodie hath said in his heart: there is no God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickednesse: there is also none that doeth good.

3 God looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to fee if there were any that would vnderstand and seeke after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is also none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Are not they without vnderstanding that worke wickednesse: eating vp my people as if they would eate bread? they have not called vpon God.

6 They were afraid where no feare was: for God hath broken the bones of them that besieged thee, thou hait put them to confusion, because God hath despised them

7 Oh that the saluation were given vnto Israel out of Sion : oh that the Lord would deliuer his people out of captiuitie.

8 Then should Iacob reioyce: and Israel should bee

Deus in nomine. Psal. 54.

Aue me, O God, for thy Names take: and auenge me in thy strength.

2 Heare my prayer, O God: and hearken vnto the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen vp against mee: and tyrants (which have not God before their eies) seeke after my soule.

4 Behold, God is my helper: the Lord is with them that vphold my foule.

5 Hee shall reward cuill vnto mine enemies: destroy thou them in thy trueth.

6 An offering of a free heart will I give thee, and praise thy Name (O Lord:) because it is so comfortable.

7 For he hath deliuered me out of all my trouble: and mine eye hath seene his desire vpon mine enemies. Exaudi Deus. Psal.55.

Eare my prayer, O God: and hide nor thy selfe from my petition.

Take heede vnro mee, and heare mee: how I mourne in my prayer, and am vexed.

3 The enemie cryeth so, and the vngodly commeth on so fast: for they are minded to doe me some mischiese, so maliciously are they set against me.

4 My heart is disquieted within mee: and the seare of death is fallen vpon me.

5 Fearefulnesse and trembling are come vpon me: and an horrible dread hath ouerwhelmed me.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a doue: for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Loe then would I get me away farre off: and remaine in the wildernesse.

8 I would make haste to escape: because of the stormie winde and tempest.

9 Destroy their tongues (O Lord) and divide them: for I have spied vnrighteousnesse and strife in the citie.

10 Day and night they go about within the walles thereof: mischiese also and sorow are in the mids of it.

11 Wickednesse is therein: deceit and guile goe not out of their streets.

12 For it is not an open enemie that hath done me this dishonour: for then I could have borne it.

13 Neither was it mine aduersary that did magnifie himselse against me : for then (peraduenture) I would have hid my selte from him.

14 But it was euen thou my companion: my guide and mine owne familiar friend.

15 We tooke sweete counsel together: and walked in the house of God as friends.

16 Let death come hastily vpon them, and let them goe downe quicke into hell: for wickednes is in their dwellings, and among them.

17 As for me, I will call vpon God: and the Lord shall saue me.

18 In the eucning and morning, and at noone day will I pray, and that instantly: and he shall heare my voyce.

19 It is he that hath deliuered my soule in peace, from the battell that was against me: for there were many with 21 He laid his hands vpon fuch as be at peace with him: and he brake his couenant.

22 The words of his mouth were lofter then butter, hauing warre in his heart: his words were Imoother then oyle, and yet be they very lwords.

23 O cast thy burthen vpon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee: and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for euer.

24 And as for them: thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.

25 The bloodthirstie and deceitfull men shall not line out halfe their dayes: neuerthelesse, my trust shalbe in thee, O Lord.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal.46.

2 Mine enemies are dayly in hand to swallow me vp : for they be many that fight against me, O thou most Highest.

3 Neuerthelesse, though I am sometime afraid : yet put I my trust in thee.

4 I will praise Godbecause of his word: I haue put my trust in God, and will not feate what flesh can doe vnto me.

5 They dayly mistake my words all that they imagine is to doe me euill.

6 They hold altogether, and keepe themselues close: and marke my steps, when they lay wait for my soule.

7 Shall they escape for their wickednes: thou (O God) in thy displeasure shalt cast them downe.

8. Thou tellest my flittings, put my teares into thy bottell: are not these things noted in thy booke?

9 Whensoeuer I call vpon thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight: this I know, for God is on my side.

10 In Gods word will I reioyce: in the Lords word will I

11 Yea, in God haue I put my trust: I will not be a fraide what man can doe ynto me.

12 Vnto thee (O God) will I pay my vowes: vnto thee will I giue thanks.

r3 For thou hast deliuered my soule from death, and my fect from falling: that I may walke before God in the light of the liuing.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal.57.

E mercifull vnto me, O God, be mercifull vnto mee, for my soule trusteth in thee: and vnder the shadowe of thy wings shall be my refuge, vntill this tyrannie be querpast.

2 I wil call vnto the most high God: euen vnto the God that shall performe the cause which I have in hand.

3 Heshall send from heauen: and saue me from the reproofe of him that would cat'me vp.

4 Godshall send forth his mercie and trueth: my soule is among Lyons.

5 And I lie euen among the children of men (that are set on fire:) whose teeth are speares and arrowes, and their tongue a sharpe sword.

6 Set vp thy selfe, O God, aboue the heauens: and thy glory aboue all the earth.

7 They have laid a net for my feet, and pressed downe my soule: they have digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the middes of it themselues.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will ling and giuc praise.

9 Awaks

cause of the widowes: euen God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the priloners out of captivitie: but letteth the runnagates continue in scarcenesse.

7 O God, when thou wentest foorth before the people:

when thou wentest through the wildernesse.

8 The earth shooke, and the heavens dropped at the presence of God: cuen as Sinai also was moved at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious raine vpon thine inheritance: and refreshedst it when it was wearie.

To Thy congregation shall dwell therein: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodnesse prepared for the poore.

II The Lord gaue the word: great was the companie of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee and were discomfited: and they of the houshold divided the spoile.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall yee be as the wings of a Doue: that is couered with filuer wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the Almightic scattered Kings for their sake: then were they as white as snow in Salmon.

15 As the hill of Basan, so is Gods hill: euen an hie hill, as the hill of Balan.

16 Why hop ye so ye high hilles? this is Gods hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell: yea, the Lord will abide in 17 The charets of God are twentie thousand, euen thousands of Angels: and the Lord is among them as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone vp on high, thou hast ledde captiuitie captine, and received giftes for men: yea, even for thy enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

19 Praised be the Lord daily: euen the God which helpeth vs, and powreth his benefites vpon vs.

20 He is our God, even the God of whom commeth saluation: God is the Lord by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies: and the hairie scalpe of such a one as goeth on still in his wickednesse.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people againe, as I did from Basan: mine owne will I bring againe, as I did fometime from the deepe of the sea.

23 That thy foote may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogges may be redde through the same.

24 It is well seene, O God, how thou goest: how thou my God and King goelt in the Sanctuarie.

25 The fingers goe before, the Minstrels followe after: in the middest are the Damosels playing with the timbrels.

26 Giue thankes, O Israel, vnto God the Lord in the congregations: from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Beniamin their ruler, and the Princes of Juda their counsaile: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nephtali.

28 Thy God hath sent foorth strength for thee: stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in vs.

29 For thy temples sake at Ierusalem: so shall kings bring

- presents vnto thee. 30 When the company of the spearemen, and multitude of the mightie, are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people (so that they humbly bring pieces of silucr:) and when hee hath scattered the people that delight in warre.
- 31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt: the Morians land shall soone stretch out her hands vnto God.

32 Sing vnto God, O ye kingdomes of the earth: O fing praises vnto the Lord.

- 33 Which sitteth in the heatiens ouer all from the beginning: loe, he doeth send out his voice, yea, and that a mightie voice.
- 34 Ascribe ye the power to God ouer Israel: his worship and itrength is in the clouds.
- 35 O God, wonderfull art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, hee will give strength and power vnto his people, bleffed be God.

Saluum me fac. Psal.69.

Aue me, O God: for the waters are come Euening in, euen vnto my foule.

2 Isticke fast in the deepe myre where no ground is: I am come into deepe waters, so that the floods runne ouer me.

3 I am weary of crying, my throte is dry: my fight faileth me for waiting so long vpon my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause, are moe then the haires of my head: they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guiltlesse, are mightie.

5 I paied them the things that I neuer tooke: God thou knowest my simplenes, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee, bee confounded through me, O Lord God of Israel.

7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.

8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an aliant vnto my mothers children.

9 For the zeale of thy house hath even eaten me: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.

10 I wept and chastened my selfe with fasting: and that was turned to my reproofe.

II I put on a sackcloth also: and they iested vpon me. -12 They that fit in the gate speake against me: and the drunkards make fongs vpon me.

13 But Lord; I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable time.

14 Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercie: euen in the trueth of thy faluation.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sinke not: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe waters.

16 Let not the water flood drowne mee: neither let the deepe swallow me vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.

17 Heare me, O Lord, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, and heare me.

19 Draw nigh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast knowen my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

21. Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heauinesse: I looked for some to haue pitie on mee, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gaue me gall to cate: and when I was thirstie; they gaue me vineger to drinke.

23 Let their table bee made a snare to take themselues withall: and let the things (that should have beene for their wealth) be vnto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they see not: and euer bow downe their backs.

25 Powre out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be void: and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talke how they may vexe them who thou hast wounded

28 Let them fall from one wickednesse to another: and not come into thy rightcousnesse.

29 Let them be wiped out of the booke of the living: and not be written among the rightcous.

30 As for me, when I am poore and in heauinesse: thy helpe (O God) shall lift me vp.

31 I will praise the Name of God with a song: and magnific it with thankelgiuing.

32 This also shal please the Lord : better then a bullocke, that hath hornes and hoofes.

33. The humble shall consider this, and be glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shall live.

34 For the Lord heareth the poore; and despileth not his prisoners.

35 Let heauen and earth praise him: the sea, and all that mooueth therein.

36 For God will saue Sion, and build the cities of Iuda: that men may dwell there, and haue it in possession.

37 The posteritie also of his servants shall inherite it: and they that loue his Name, shall dwell therein.

Deus in adiutorium. Psal.70.

Aste thee, O God, to deliuer mee: make haste to helpe me, O Lord.

2 Let them bee ashamed and confounded that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backward and put to confusion, that wish me euill.

3 Let them (for their reward) bee soone brought to ihame: that cry ouer me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seeke thee, be joyfull and glad in thee: and let all such as delight in thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

5 As for me, lam poore and in miserie: halte thee vnto me (O God.)

6 Thou art my helper and my redeemer: O Lord, make no long tarying.

In te Domine speraui. Psal.71.

Morning

prayer.

N thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let mee neuer be put to confusion: but ridde me and deliuer me in thy righteousnes, encline thine eare vnto me, and saue me.

2 Be thou my firong holde, whereunto I may alway refort: thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou art my house of defence, and my caltle.

Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand of the vngodly: out of the hand of the vnrighteous and cruell man.

For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, even from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I beene holden vp euersince I was borne: thou art hee that tooke me out of my mothers wombe, my praise shalbe alway of thee.

6 I am become as it were a moniter vnto many: but my fure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: (that I may fing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

Cast me not away in the time of age: for sake me not when my strength faileth me. 9 For mine enemies speake against mee, and they that lay wait for my soule, take their counsaile together, saying: God hath for taken him, perfecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliuer him. 10 Goe not farre from me, O God: my God haste thee to helpe me. 11 Let them be confounded and perish, that are against my foule: let them be couered with shame and dishonour, that seeke to doe me euill.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and wil praise thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall daily speake of thy righteousnesse and saluation: for I know no end thereof. 14 I will goe forth in the strength of the Lord God; and and will make mention of thy righteoulnelle onely.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth vp vntill now: therefore wall I tell of thy wonderous workes.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine olde age, when I'am gray headed: vntill I have shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy rightcousnesse, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vnto thee? 18 O what great troubles and aduerfities haft thou shewed me, and yet diddest thou turne and retreth me: yea, and broughtest me from the deepe of the earth againe.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honour: and comforted me on euery side.

20 Therefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulnesse (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musicke: vntophee will I sing vpon the harpe, O thou holy One of Israel.

21 My lips wil be faine when I fing vnto thee: and so will my foule, whom thou hast deliuered.

22 My tongue also shall talke of thy righteousnesse all the day long: for they are confounded and brought unto shame that seeke to doe me euill.

Deus iudicium. Psal 72.

2 Then shall he judge the people according vnto right: and defend the poore.

The mountaines also shall bring peace: and the litle hilles righteousnesse vnto the people.

4 He shall keepe the simple solke by their right: defend the children of the poore, and punish the wrong doer.

They shall feare thee as long as the Sunne & Moone endureth: from one generation to another.

6 He shall come downe like the raine into a sleece of wooll: euen as the drops that water the earth.

7 In his time shal the righteous flourish: yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the Moone endureth. 8 His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other: and from the flood vnto the worlds end. 9 They that dwell in the wildernesse's shall kneele before him: his enemies shall licke the dust. 10 The kings of Tharsis and of the Isles shall give prefents: the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

II All kings shal fall downe before him: all nations shal doe him service.

12 For he shall deliuer the poore when hee crieth: the needie also, and him that hath no helper.

14 He shall deliuer their foules from falshood & wrong: and deare shall their blood be in his fight.

15 He shall live, and vnto him shall be given of the gold of Arabia: prayer shall be made euer vnto him, and dayly thall he be praised.

16 There shall be an heape of corne in the earth high vpon the hils: his fruit shall shake like Libanus, and shall be greene in the citie, like grasse vpon the earth.

17 His Name shall endure for euer, his Name shall remaine under the Sunne among the posterities: which shall be bleffed through him, and all the heathen shal praise him.

18 Blessed be the Lord GOD, euen the God of Israel: which onely doeth wonderous things.

19 And blefsed be the Name of his maiestie for euer: and all the earth shall be filled with his Maiestie, Amen. Amen.

Quam bonus Ifrael. Pfal. 73.

Ruely God is louing vnto Israel: euen vnto Euening fuch as are of a cleane heart.

2 Neuertheles my feet were almost gone: my treadings had welnigh slipt.

3 And why ? I was grieued at the wicked: I doe also see the vngodly in such prosperitie. 4 For they are in no perill of death: but are lustie and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folke: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they be so holden with pride: and ouerwhelmed with crueltie.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they do euen what they luft. 8. They corrupt other, and speake of wicked blasphe-mie: their talking is against the most Highest. 9 For they stretch forth their mouth vnto the heauen:

and their tongue goeth through the world. 10 Therefore fall the people vnto them: and thereout sucke they no small advantage. 11 Tush (say they) how should God perceiue it: is there knowledge in the most Highest? 12 Loe, these are the vngodly, these prosper in the world, and these haue riches in possession and Isaid, then haue I clensed my heart in vaine, and washed my handes in innocencie.

13 All the day long haue I bene punished: and chastened euery morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost said euen as they: but loe, then should I have condemned the generation of thy children.

15 Then

15 Then thought I to vnderstand this: but it was too hard for me.

16 Vntill I went into the sanctuarie of God: then vnderstood I the end of these men.

17 Namely, how thou doest set them in slipperie places: and castest them downe, and destroyest them.

18 Oh how suddenly doe they consume: perish, and come to a fearefullend?

19 Yea, euen like as a dreame when one awaketh: so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the citie.

20 Thus my heart was gricued: and it went euen through my reines.

21 So foolish was I and ignorant : euen as it were a beast before thee.

22 Neuerthelesse I am alway by thee: for thou hast holden me by my right hand.

den me by my right hand.

23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel: and after that,

receiue me with glory.

24 Whom haue I in heauen but thee: and there is none vpon earth that I desire in comparison of thee.

25 My sless and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for euer.

26 For loe, they that forfake thee, shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornication against thee.

27 But it is good for me to holde mee fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speake of all thy workes in the gates of the daughter of Sion.

God, wherfore art thou absent from vs so long: why is thy wrath so hote against the sheepe of thy pasture?

2 O thinke vpon thy Congregation: whome thou hast purchased and redeemed of old.

3 Thinke vpon the tribe of thine inheritance: & mount Sion wherein thou half dwelt

Sion wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift vp thy feet, that thou mayest veterly destroy every enemie: which hath done euill in thy Sanctuarie.

Thine aduerlaries roare in the middest of thy congregations: and let vp their banners for tokens.

6 Hee that hewed timber afore out of the thicke trees:
was knowen to bring it to an excellent worke.

Attendite popule. Psal.78.

Eare my Law, O my people: encline your cares when the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of olde.

3 Which we have heard and knowen: and such as our fathers have tolde ys.

4 That wee should not hide them from the children of the generations to come; but to shewe the honour of the Lord, his mightie and woonderfull workes that hee hath done.

5 Hee made a couenant with Iacob, and gaue Israel a Law: which hee commanded our forefathers to teach their children.

6 That their posteritie might know it: and the children which were yet vnborne.

7 To the intent that when they came vp: they might shew their children the same.

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the works of God, but to keepe his commandements.

9 And not to bee as their forefathers, a faithlesse and stubborne generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaueth not stedsastly vnto God.

nessed and carying bowes, turned themselues backe in the day of battell.

It They kept not the couenant of God: and would not walke in his Law.

12 But forgate what hee had done: and the woonderfull worke that he had shewed for them.

13 Marueilous things did hee in the fight of our forefathers in the land of Egypt: euen in the field of Zoan.

14 Hee divided the Sea, and let them goe through: hee made the waters to stand on an heape.

15 In the day time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night through with a light of hre.

16 Hee claue the hard rockes in the wildernesse: and gaue them drinke thereof, as it had beene out of the great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the stonie rocke: so that it gushed out like the rivers.

18 Yet for all this they sinned more against him: and prouoked the most Highest in the wildernesse.

19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meat for their lust.

20 They spake against God also, saying: shall God prepare a table in the wildernesse?

21 Hee smote the stonie rocke in deede, that the water gushed out, and the streames flowed withall: but can hee give bread also, or provide sless flowed bread?

22 When the Lord heard this, hee was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Iacob, and there came vp heavie displeasure against Israel.

23 Because they beleeved not in God: and put not their trust in his helpe.

24 So he commanded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heaven.

25 He rained downe Manna also ypon them for to eat: and gaue them food from heauen.

26 So man did eate Angels food: for he sent them meat ynough.

27 He caused the East winde to blow under heauen: and through his power he brought in the South-west winde.

28 Herained flesh vpon them as thicke as dust: and feathered foules like as the sand of the sea.

129 He let it fall among their tents: euen round about their habitation.

30 So they did eate and were well filled, for hee gaue them their owne desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

31 But while the meat was yet in their mouthes, the heauie wrath of God came vpon them, and flew the wealthiest of them: yea, and smote downe the chosen men that were in Israel.

32 But for all this they finned yet more: and beleeued not his wonderous works.

33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in vanitie: and their yeeres in trouble.

34 When he flewe them, they fought him: and turned them earely, and enquired after God them earely, and enquired after God.

35 And they remembred that God was their strength:

and that the high God was their redcemer.

36 Neuerthelesse, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and diffembled with him in their tongue.

37 For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they stedfast in his couenant.

38 But he was so mercifull, that hee forgaue their misdeeds: and destroyed them not.

39 Yea many a time turned he his wrath away: & would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.

40 For he considered that they were but sless and that they were even a winde that passeth away, and commeth not againe.

41 Many a time did they prouoke him in the wildernes:

and grieued him in the desert.

42 They turned backe and tempted God: and mooued the Holy One in Israel.

43 They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he deliuered them from the hand of the enemie.

44 How he had wrought his miracles in Egypt: and his wonders in the field of Zoan.

45 He turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drinke of the rivers.

46 He sent lice among them, and denoured them vp: and frogs to destroy them.

47 He gaue their fruit vnto the Caterpiller: and their labour vnto the Grashopper.

48 He destroyed their Vines with hailestones: and their mulberie trees with the frost.

49 He smote their cattel also with hailestones: and their slocks with hot thunderbolts.

50 He cast vpon them the suriousnesse of his wrath, anger, displeasure, and trouble: and sent euill angels among them.

51 Hee made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soule from death: but gaue their life ouer to the pestilence.

52 And smote all the first borne in Egypt: the most principall and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.

fixed them in the wildernesse like a flocke.

54 Hee brought them out safely that they should not feare: and ouerwhelmed their enemics with the sea.

55 And brought them within the borders of his Sanctuarie: euen to his mountaine, which hee purchased with his right hand.

56 He cast out the heathen also before them: caused their land to be divided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

57 So they tempted and displeased the most High God: and kept not his testimonies.

58 Butturned their backes, and fell away like their forefathers: starting aside like a broken bow.

59 For they grieued him with their hill altars: and prouoked him to displeasure with their images.

60 When God heard this, he was wroth: and tooke fore displeasure at Israel.

61 So that he forfooke the tabernacle in Silo: even the tent that he had pitched among them.

62 He deliuered their power into captiuitie: and their beautie into the enemies hand.

63 He gaue his people ouer also vnto the sword: and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their yong men: and their maidens were not given to marriage. 65 Their Priests were slaine with the sword: and there were no widowes to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord awaked as one out of sleepe: and like a Giant refreshed with wine.

67 Hee smote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetual! shame.

68 Heerefuled the tabernacle of loseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.

69 But chose the tribe of Iuda: euen the hill of Sion, which he loued.

70 And there hee builded his temple on high: and laide the foundation of it like the ground which hee hath made from the sheepfolds. 72 As hee was following the Ewes great with yong ones; he tooke him: that he might feede lacob his people, and If. rael his inheritance.

71 He chose Dauid also his seruant: and tooke him away

73 So hee fed them with a faithfull and true heart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.

9 Helpe vs, O God of our faluation, for the glory of thy Name: O desiuer vs, and bee mercifull vnto our sinnes for thy Names sake.

10 Wherefore doe the Heathen say: Where is nowe their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy servants blood that is shed: be openly shewed vpon the heathen in our sight.

and our enemies laugh vs to fcorne. 7 Turne vs againe thou God of hostes: shew the light 12 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast layd the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is.

13 Thou hast made the North and the South: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoyce in thy Name.

14 Thou hast a mightie arme: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

15 Righteousnesse and equitie is the habitation of thy stee: mercie and trueth shall goe before thy face.

16 Blessed is the people (O Lord) that can rejoyce in the other shall walke in the light of thy countenance.

17 Their delight shall be dayly in thy Name: and in thy righteousnesse shall they make their boast.

18 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy louing kindnesse thou shalt lift vp our hornes.

19 For the Lord is our defence: the Holy one of Israel is our King.

20 Thou spakest sometimes in visions vnto thy Saints, and saydest. I have layd helps upon one that is mighty. I and saydest: I have layd helpe vpon one that is mighty, I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

21 I haue found Dauid my seruant: with my holy oyle haue I anointed him.

22 My hand shall holde him fast: and my arme shall strengthen him.

23 The enemie shall not bee able to doe him violence: the sonne of wickednesse shall not hurt him.

24 I shall smite downe his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

25 My trueth also and my mercie shall be with him: and in my Name shall his horne be exalted.

26 I will fet his dominion also in the sea: and his right hand in the floods.

27 He shall call me, Thou art my Father: my God and my strong saluation.

28 And I will make him my first borne: higher then the Kings of the earth.

29 My mercie will I keepe for him for euermore: and my couenant shall stand fast with him.

30 His seede also will I make to endure for euer : and his throne as the dayes of heauen.

31 But if his children for sake my Lawe: and walke not in my judgements.

32 If they breake my statutes, and keepe not my commandements: I will visite their offences with the rodde, and their sinne with scourges.

33 Neuerthelesse, my louing kindnesse will I not vtterly take from him: nor suffer my trueth to faile.

34 My couenant will I not breake, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: I have sworne once by my Holinesse, that I will not faile Dauid.

35 His seede shal endure for euer: and his seate is like as the sunne before me.

36 He shall stand fast for euermore as the moone: and as the faithfull witnesse in heaven.

37 But thou hast abhorred and forsaken thine anointed: and art displeased athim.

38 Thou hast broken the couenant of thy servant: and cast his crowne to the ground.

39 Thou hast ouerthrowen all his hedges: and broken downe his strong holds.

40 All they that goe by spoyle him: and he is become a rebuke vnto his neighbours.

41 Thou hast set vp the right hand of his enemies: and made all his aduersaries to reioice.

42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his sworde: and givest him not victorie in the battell.

43 Thou hast put out his glorie: and cast his throne downe to the ground.

44 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortened: and co-uered him with dishonour.

49 Remember (Lord) the rebuke that thy seruants haue: and how I doe beare in my bosome the rebukes of many people.

Domine, refugium. Psal. 90.

Ord, thou hast beene our refuge: from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountaines were brought foorth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from euerlasting, and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction: againe thou sayes, Come againe yee children of men.

4 For a thousand yeeres in thy fight, are but as yesterday: leeing that is palt as a watch in the night.

5 As soone as thou scatterest them, they are euen as a fleepe: and fade away suddenly like the graffe.

6 In the morning it is greene, and groweth vp: but in the euening it is cut downe, dried vp and withered.

7 For wee consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathfull indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeedes before thee: and our secret sinnes in the sight of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angrie, all our dayes are gone: we bring our yeeres to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The dayes of our age are threescore yeeres and ten, and though men bee so strong that they come to sourcescore yeeres: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soone passeth it away, and we are gone.

II But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for euen thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teach vs to number our dayes: that wee may apply our hearts vnto wiledome.

13 Turne thee againe (O Lord) at the last: and bee gracious vnto thy feruants.

14 O satisfie vs with thy mercie, and that soone: so shall we reloyce and be glad all the dayes of our life.

15 Comfort vs againe now after the time that thou hast plagued vs: and for the yeeres wherein we have suffered aduersitie.

16 Shew thy servants thy worke: and their children thy glorie.

17 And the glorious maiestie of the Lord our God be vpon vs: prosper thou the worke of our hands vpon vs,O prosper thou our handy worke.

Qui habitat. Psal. 91. Ho so dwelleth under the desence of the most High:shal abide under the shadow of y Almighty. 2 I will say vnto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong hold: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For he shall deliuer thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noylome pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee vnder his wings: and thou shalt be late under his feathers: his faithfulnes and trueth shalbe thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terrour by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in the darknesse: nor for the licknesse that destroyeth in the noone day.

7 A thouland shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the vngodly.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall none euill happen vnto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For hee shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keepe thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shall beare thee in their handes: that thou hurt not thy foote against a stone.

13 Thoushalt goe vpon the Lion and Adder: the yong Lion and the Dragon shalt thou treade vnder thy feete.

14 Because he hath set his love vponme, therfore shall I deliuer him: I shall set him vp, because hee hath knowen my Name.

15 He shal call vpon mee, and I wil heare him: yea, I am with him in trouble, I wil deliuer him, & bring him to honor.

16 With long life will I satisfie him: and shew him my laluation.

Bonum est confiteri. Psal.92. T is a good thing to give thankes vnto the Lord; and to sing praises vnto thy Name, O most highest.

4 For thou Lord hast made me glad through thy works: and I will reloyce in gluing praise for the operations of thy hands.

5 O Lorde, how glorious are thy workes: and thy thoughts are very deepe.

6 An vnwise man doeth not well consider this: and a foole doeth not understand it.

7 When the vngodly are greene as the graffe, and when all the workers of wickednesse doc flourish: then shall they be destroyed for euer, but thou Lord art the most higheit for euermore.

8 For loe, thine enemies (O Lord) loe thine enemies shall perish: and all the workers of wickednesse shall bee destroyed.

9 But my horne shall bee exalted like the horne of an Vnicorne: for I am anointed with fresh oyle.

10 Mine eye also shall see his lust of mine enemies: and mine eareshall heare his desire of the wicked that rise vp against mee.

11 The righteous shall flourish like a Palme tree: and shall spread abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as bee planted in the house of the Lorde: shall flourish in the courts of the house of our God.

13 They also shall bring foorth more fruit in their age: and shall be fat and well liking.

23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Iacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people exceedingly: and made them stronger then their enemies.
25 Whose heart turned so that they hated his people: and dealt vntruely with his servants.

26 Then sent he Moses his servant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and woneders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darknesse, and it was darke: and they were not obedient onto his word.

29 Hee turned their waters into blood: and slewe their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogges: yea, euen in their kings chambers.

31 He spake the word, and there came all maner of fliest and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gaue them hailestones for raine: and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and sigge trees: and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.

34 Hee spake the word, and the grashoppers came, and caterpillars innumerable: and did cat vp all the grasse in their land, and decoursed the fruit of their grassed.

35 Hee smote all the first borne in their land: even the chiefe of all their strength.

36 Hee brought them foorth also with silver and gold: there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraid of them.

38 Hee spread out a cloud to bee a couering: and fire to give light in the night season, 39 At their desire he brought quailes: and he silled them with the bread of heaven.

42 And hee brought foorth his people with ioy : and his Chosen with gladnesse.

43 And gaue them the lands of the Heathen: and they tooke the labours of the people in possession.

44 I hat they might keepe his statutes: and observe his Lawes.

Consitemini Domino. Psal. 106. Give thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

> 2 Who can expresse the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise?

3 Bleffed are they that alway keepe judgment: and do righteousnesses.

4 Remember me, O Lord, according to the fauour that thou bearest vnto thy people: O visit me with thy saluation.

5 That I may see the felicitie of thy Chosen: and reioyce in the gladnesse of thy people, and give thankes with thine inheritance.

6. Wee haue sinned with our fathers: wee haue done amisse, and dealt wickedly.

7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodnesse in remembrance; but were disobedient at the Sea, euen at the Red sea.

8 Neuerthelesse, hee helped them for his Names sake: that he might make his power to be knowen.

9 He rebuked the Redsea also, and it was dried vp: so he led them thorow the deepe, as thorow a wildernesse. 4

10 And hee saued them from the aduersaries hand: and deliuered them from the hand of the enemie.

11 As for those that troubled them, the waters ouer. whelmed them: there was not one of them left.

12 Then beleeued they his words: and fung praise vnto

13 But within a while they forgat his workes: and would not abide his counsaile.

14 But lust came vpon them in the wildernes: and they tempted God in the defart.

15 And hee gaue them their desire : and sent leannesse withall into their foule.

16 They angred Moses also in the tents: and Aaron the Saint of the Lord. 17 So the earth opened, and swallowed vp Dathan: and couered the congregation of Abiram. 18 And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt vp the vngodly. 19 They made a calfe in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image, 20 Thus they turned their glory: into the similitude of a calfe that eateth hay. 21 And they forgat God their Saujour: which had done so great things in Egypt. 22 Wonderous workes in the land of Ham: and fearefull things by the Red sea. 23 So hee said hee would have destroyed them, had not Moses his Chosen stand before him in the gap: to turne away his wrathfull indignation, left hee should destroy them.

24 Yea, they thought scorne of that pleasant land: and gaue no credence vnto his word.

25 But murmured in their tents: and hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lord.

26 Then lift he vp his hand against them: to ouerthrow them in the wildernesse.

27 To cast out their seed among the nations: and to scarter them in the lands.

28 They joyned themselues vnto Baal-Peor: and ate the offerings of the dead.

29 Thus they prouoked him vnto anger with their owne inuentions: and the plague was great among them.

30 Then stood vp Phinees, and prayed: and so the plague

31 And that was counted vnto him for righteousnesse: among all posterities for euermore.

32 They angred him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moses for their sakes.

33 Because they prouoked his spirit: so that hee spake vnaduisedly with his lips.

34 Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commaunded them.

35 But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their works.

36 Insomuch that they worshipped their idoles, which turned to their owne decay: yea, they offered their sonnes and daughters vnto deuils.

37 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their fonnes and of their daughters: whom they offred vnto the idoles of Canaan, and the land was defiled with blood.

38. Thus were they stained with their owne workes: and went a whoring with their owne inventions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: infomuch that hee abhorred his owne inhem-

40 And hee gaue them ouer into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them, were lords ouer them.

41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subjection.

42 Many a time did he deliuer them: but they rebelled against him with their owne inuentions, and were brought downe in their wickednesse.

43 Neuerthelesse, when he saw their aduersitie: he heard their complaint, 44 He thought vpon his couenant, and pitied them according to the multitude of his mercies: yea, he made all those that had led them away captine, to pitie them.

2-45 Deliuer vs (O Lord our God) and gather vs from amomg the heathen: that we may give thankes vnto thy holy Name, and make our boast of thy prayse.

Confitemini Domino. Psal.107. Giue thankes vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: Morning and his mercie endureth for euer. 2 Let them give thankes, whom the Lord hathredeemed: and deliuered from the hand of the enemie.

And gathered them out of the lands, from the East and from the West: from the North, and from the South.

4 They went aftray in the wildernesse out of the way: and found no citie to dwell in.

Hungrie and thirstie: their soule fainted in them. 6 So they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: and he deliuered them from their distresse.

7 He led them forth by the right way: that they might goe to the citie where they dwelt.

8 Othat men would therefore prayse the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

9 For hee satisfieth the emptie soule: and filleth the hungrie soule with goodnesse. 10 Such as sit in darkenesse and in the shadow of death:

being fast bound in miserie and yron. 11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord:

and lightly regarded the counsell of the most High. 12 Hee also brought downe their heart through heauinesse: they fell downe, and there was none to helpe

13 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

14 For he brought them out of darknesse, and out of the shadow of death: and brake their bonds in sunder.

15 Othat men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men. 16 For he hath broken the gates of brasse: and smitten the barres of yron in sunder.

17 Foolish men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickednesse.

18 Their soule abhorred all maner of meate: and they were euen at deaths doore.

19 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

20 He tent his word and healed them: and they were taued from their destruction.

21 Othat men would therefore praise the Lordsfor his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that hee doeth for the children of men.

22 That they would offer vnto him the facrifice of thanksgiving: and tell out his workes with gladnesse.

23 They that goe downe to the sea in ships: and occupie their businesse in great waters.

24 These men see the workes of the Lord: and his wonders in the deepe.

25 For at his word the stormie wind ariseth: which lifteth vp the waves thereof.

26 They are caried up to the heauen, and downe againe to the deepe: their soule melteth away because of the trouble. 27 They recle to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.

28 So when they crie vnto the Lord in their trouble: hee deliuereth them out of their distresse.

29 For he maketh the storme to cease: so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad, because they be at rest: and so hee bringerh them vnto the hauen where they would be.

31 O that men would therefore prasse the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that hee doeth for the children of men.

32 That they would exalt him also in the Congregation of the people: and praise him in the seate of the Elders.

33 Which turneth the floods into a wildernesse: and drieth vp the water iprings.

34 A fruitfull land maketh he barren: for the wickednesse of them that dwell therein. 35 Againe hee maketh the wildernesse a standing water: and water iprings of a drie ground.

36 And there he setteth the hungrie: that they may build them a citie to dwell in.

37 That they may sowe their land, and plant vineyards: to yeeld them fruits of increase.

38 He blefleth them, so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattell to decrease.

39 And againe, when they are minished and brought low: through oppression, through any plague or trouble.

40 Though he suffer them to bee euill intreated through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wildernesse.

41 Yet helpeth he the poore out of miserie: and maketh him housholds like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous will consider this, and reioyce: and the mouth of all wickednesse shall be stopped.

43 Who so is wise, will ponder these things: and they shall vnderstand the louing kindnesse of the Lord.

Domine probasti. Psal. 139.

2 Thouart about my path, and about my bed: and spiest out all my wayes. 3 For loe, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind and before: and laid thine hand vpon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderfull and excellent for me: I cannot attaine vnto it. 6 Whither shall I goe then from thy Spirit: or whither shall I goe then from thy presence?

If I climbe vp into heaven, thou art there: if I goe downe into hell, thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning: and remaine in the vttermoit parts of the lea.

9 Euen there also shall thy hand leade me: and thy right hand shall hold me.

10 If Isay, Peraduenture the darkenesse shall couer me: then shall my night beturned to day.

11 Yea, the darkenesse is no darkenesse with thee, but the night is as cleare as the day: the darknes and light (to thee) are both alike.

12 For my reines are thine: thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.

13 I will give thankes vnto thee, for I am fearefully and wonderfully made: marucilous are thy works, and that my foule knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee: though I be made fecretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect: and in thy booke were all my members written.

16 Which day by day were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17 How deare are thy counsels vnto me, O God: O how great is the summe of them? 18 If I tell them, they are moe in number then the fand:

when I wake vp,I am present with thee:

19 Wilt not thou flay the wicked, O God: depart from me ye blood-thirstie men.

20 For they speake vnrighteously against thee: and thine enemies take thy Name in vaine. 21 Doe not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I grieued with those that rise vp against thee? 22 Yea, I hate them right fore: euen as though they were mine enemies. 23 Try me, O God, and seeke the ground of my heart: proue me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Looke well if there be any way of wickednesse in me: and leade me in the way euerlasting.

Eripe me Domine. Psal. 140. Eliuer me, O Lord, from the eurl man: and preserue me from the wicked man. 2 Which imagine mischiefe in their hearts: and stirre vp strife all the day long.

7 O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast couered my head in the day of battell.

8 Let not the vngodly haue his desire, O Lord: let not his mischieuous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud. 9 Let the mischiese of their owne lippes fall ypon the head of them: that compasse me about.

Domine clamaui. Psal. 141.

Ord, I call vpon thee, haste thee vnto me: and consider my voice, when I cry vnto thee.

Let my prayer be set soorth in thy sight, as the incense: and let the listing vp of my hands be an evening sacrisice.

3 Set a watch (O Lord) before my mouth: and keepe the doore of my lips.

4 Olet not mine heart bee inclined to any euill thing: let me not be occupied in vingodly workes, with the men that worke wickednesse, lest I cate of such things as please them.

Cryed vnto the Lord with my voice: yea, euen vnto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I powred out my complaints before him: and showed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heauinesse, thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked, have they printly laid a snare for me.

4 I looked also vpon my right hand: and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee vnto: and no man cared for my foule.

6 I crycd unto thee, O Lord, and faid: Thou art my hope and my portion in the land of the liuing.
