

Orange May 18. 1833

Friend Richard,

I had hoped to see you this summer but begin to think I shall not, as my business keeps me pretty much engaged. I therefore write to get the dates, amts & amounts on notes ~~by~~ against my late Father's estate. I shall have to ascertain if I pay them now & wish you to favor me if you think you can. I though I must, in justice to you say that you have indulged the estate, & saved it Costs, though its situation is such you could not now collect it. if the amt. is not too much for my credit I may be able to raise the money & pay you now. I have got data sufficient to get pretty near the amt, but cannot determine sufficiently accurate.

Your patience & indulgence in this matter has my thanks -

Yours truly
Joseph Hunt
