

Movement Strategy Prioritization Reporting Template

There are many great initiatives in the Movement Strategy recommendations. Prioritization is meant as a reflection exercise for you and your group to identify what is important for implementation in 2021. Reflection can begin more generally at the level of the recommendations and lead to specific actions and changes. Discuss what will make a difference for you as a group and respond to your needs.

Part 1 of 2 - General Information

Name of your group
Time and date of the event
Who attended?	Numbers:
	Optional: name or usernames
	Optional: gender breakdown, project representation, editing experience, age, ...
Who facilitated?
Who took notes?

Part 2 of 2 - Prioritization

Group name:
1. Which recommendations will respond to your community's needs?
Think of the work you're already doing in your community and what else you want to do. At the same time, think of the whole Wikimedia movement and what we should prioritize globally to face the future.
There are 10 awesome recommendations to choose from (LINK)
Choose Your Top Priorities	Why is it prioritized?
Example: recommendation 2, improve user experience	Example: Having a more engaging interface will excite more people from our community to want to contribute to Wikimedia projects.
Example, knowledge management is important for the global movement (recommendation 7)	Example: As a movement, we need to better document our work to create opportunities for learning.
1.
2.
3.

2. From the recommendations, which specific actions and changes would you want prioritized in 2021? Think about the initiatives that will respond to your community's needs.

Each of the 10 recommendations has multiple changes and actions or initiatives. There are 45 all together (LINK).

Choose Your Top Priorities	Why is it prioritized?
Example: recommendation 2, improve user experience	Example: Having a more engaging interface will excite more people from our community to want to contribute to Wikimedia projects.
Example: under allocation of resources (recommendation 4), we are interested in “the Movement should play a guiding role in resource allocation.”	Example: A flexible resource allocation framework will allow us to respond to our needs and be able to lead work relating to movement strategy.
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

3. What human capacity and / or financial resources do you need to work on implementation?

Think of your existing resources, the movement's vast resources, and the support infrastructure you may need for moving ideas forward.

4. Which initiatives do you think should be the top focus for global coordination?

Think global, movement-wide changes needed.