

Dedicated with her permission to
MRS. HELEN M. GOUGAR,
PRESIDENT OF THE INDIANA
SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

AMERICAN CITIZENS

WHO CANNOT VOTE.

Song
and Chorus.

The Indian the Chinaman,
The Idiot and the Woman.

WORDS & MUSIC BY

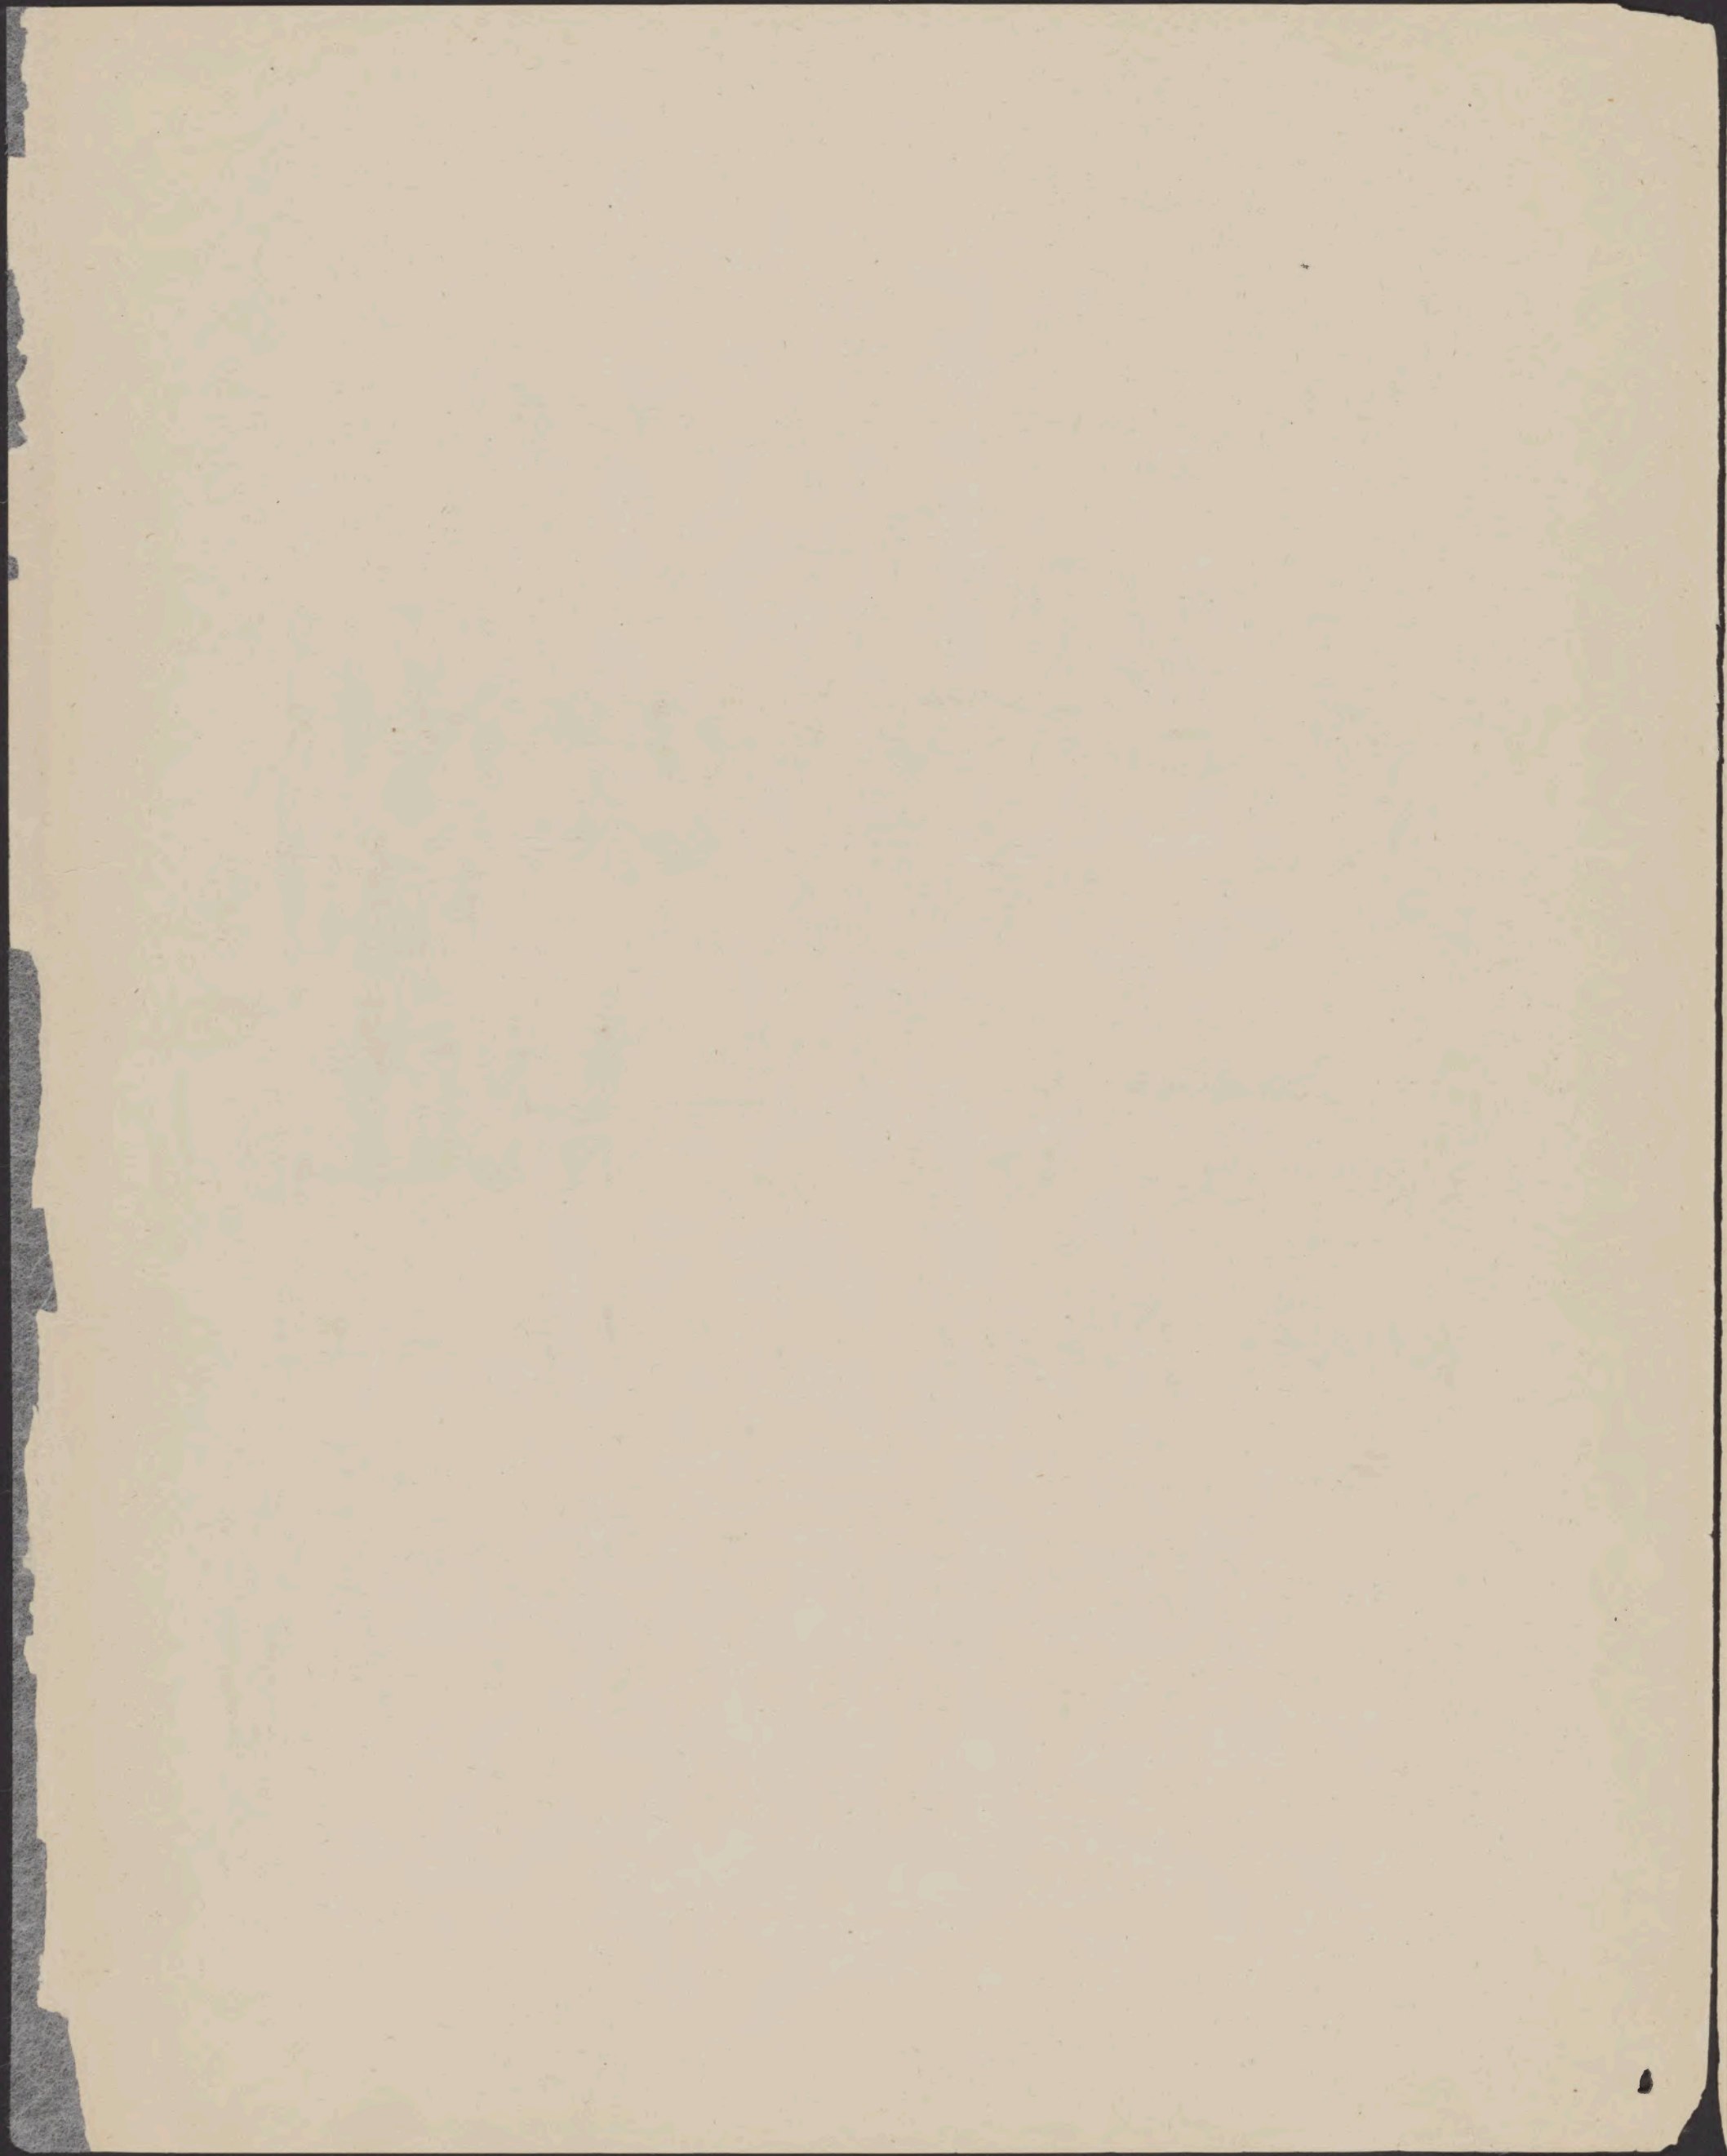

Nettie Bacon Christian.

Published by
THE THOMPSON MUSIC CO.
CHICAGO.

Copyright - 1895 - the Thompson Music Co

M1665

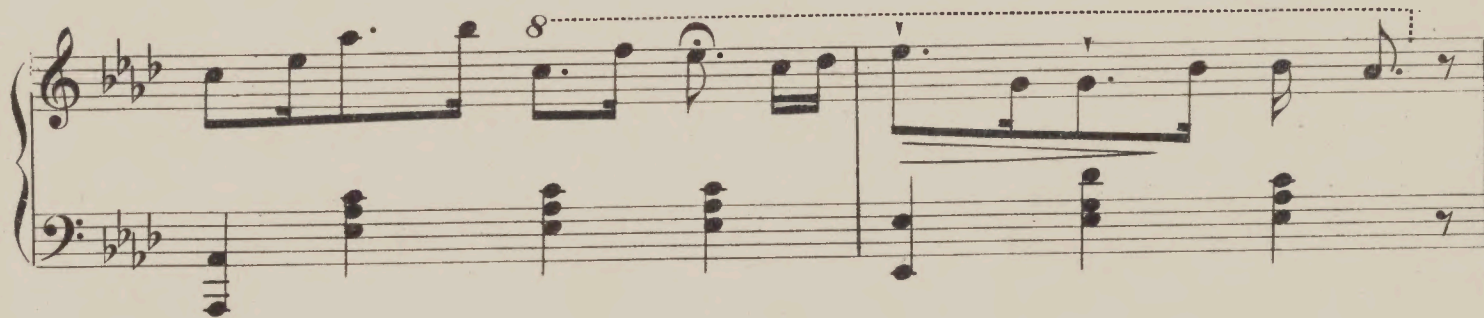

BW8C
Copy 1

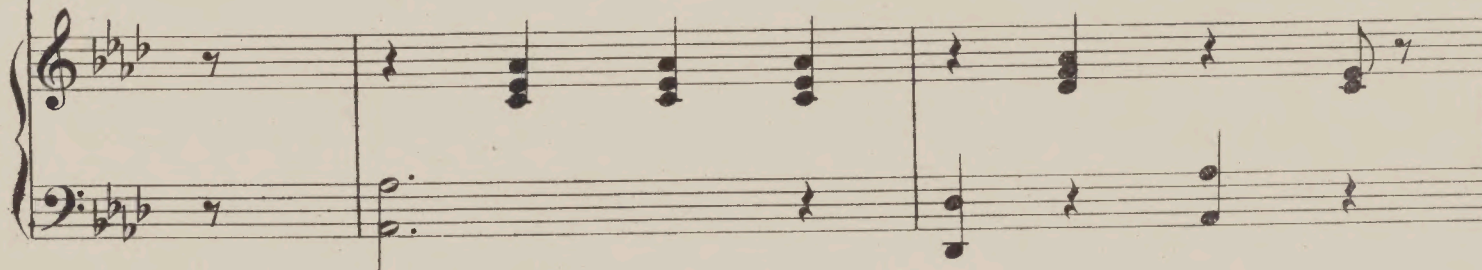

AMERICAN CITIZENS WHO CAN NOT VOTE.

WORDS & MUSIC

by NETTIE BACON CHRISTIAN.

- | | | | |
|----|-------|--|-----|
| 1. | I | dreamt it was e - lec - tion day, in this our Yankee Nation, | And |
| 2. | The | can - di - date was shak - ing hands, with one and then an - oth - er; | He |
| 3. | I | turned to some one, standing near, to seek an ex - pla - na - tion, | Why |
| 4. | Just | then I woke; I was at home; this vis - ion long I pondered; | But |
| 5. | She's | in the Pul - pit, at the bar, She's in the School and College; | Her |

I a stran - ger on these shores, stood by for ob - ser - va - tion; I smiled on eve - ry one he met, he loved them like a brother! — Save a these four per - sons did not vote, in this en - franchised Nation? 'The could not solve the prob - lem quite, as si - lent - ly I wondered, Why voice and pen in - cite the world to vir - tue, truth, and knowledge; She's the saw the voters come and go, the mill - ion - are, the hackman, And be - group, that stood outside the crowd, who no - ticed were, by no man; 'Twas the red man is too sav - age yet, the cool - ey scarce more human; The does the father, husband, son, vote as an hon - est Yoeman, While the dear com - panion of your home, and you must own, my brother, That side the man who could not read, came the Auth - or, and the black - man.

 In - di - an, the Chi - na - man, the Id - iot, and the wo - man feeble mind - ed" (here he smiled;) But what a - bout the wo - man?
 mother, wife, and daughter, stands out - side be - cause a wo - man?
 which no man will e'er de - ny, she's eve - ry vo - ters moth - er!

Chorus.

SOP.
Yes, one and all went to the polls, To vote as hon - est Yoe - men,

ALTO.
Yes, one and all went to the polls, To vote as hon - est Yoe - men,

TENOR.
Yes, one and all went to the polls, To vote as hon - est Yoe - men,

BASS.
And yet they all went to the polls,

the Id - iot, and the wo - man.

the Chi - na - man, and the wo - man.

But the In - di - an,

