DRAMATIC VAUDEVILLE THEATRICAL MINSTREL BURLESQUE OPERA

ONE-NIGHT STANDS.

Al. G. Field, who is probably as well acquainted with the one-night stands throughout the country as any other manager, has a good word to say in favor of the man who manages the one-nighters and what criticisms he makes are against the evils and abuses that can be easily corrected. Mr. Field says the personnel of men who manage one-night stand theatres has improved a great deal in the past few years and the business in these theatres is attended to in many respects with the same promptitude and expedition as in many of the so-called week stands.

"There are few bad features in the management of the theatres in the one-night stands," said Mr. Field, "which can easily be corrected and one of the gravest is the manner in which the attraction is billed. Many of the one-night stand managers control their own billposting plants and often it is the only one in their respective city. Naturally they have a large amount of commercial billing to attend to and in many instances they give up all the best space on their billboards to the commercial people and work an injustice to the attraction and to the theatre.

"Another injustice is that some of the one-night stand managers endeavor to pay for their billboard space by giving tickets to the show. The unfairness of this is obvious. It places on the visiting company the burden of paying the manager's bills. The company has to pay for its paper and the manager should see that it is posted to the very best advantage without further burdening the attraction. This evil can be remedied by traveling managers positively cutting off the free list except to the press. Owners of billboards do not exact groceries, drugs, merchandise and the like from men who post commercial paper and it is preposterous that a theatrical company should be held up for tickets. The theatrical billing should have precedence over everything else as it was the show billposting that started the business and all the commercial houses have simply followed the example of the traveling show.

"Another detrimental feature of the one-night stand theatres is the custom of putting the tickets for an evening's performance in a rack that is so placed in the box office or where the sale is progressing that anyone can see exactly how many seats have been sold. The result of this is that when the sale is open and a few of the most desirable seats have been sold patrons are apt to call and not being able to secure just the seats they desire they spread the rumor on the streets that all the good seats are sold. Often this seriously affects the sale. Johnny promises to take his girl to the show. He glances at the rack, sees that some of the choice seats are sold, tells his girl that there isn't a good seat left and then plays his money in the slot machine. The tickets should not be kept in view of the purchaser and if he desires to know the locality of a seat a diagram should be kept at hand in order to indicate to him just where that seat is. That is a simple matter and the abuse can be remedied as easily as the difficulty of properly billposting an attraction."

WEBER & HELD.

Joseph Weber, of the erstwhile firm of Weber and Fields, and Florenz Ziegfeld, manager of Anna Held, have entered into a contract whereby the famous comedian and the Parisian nightingale will appear together next season in the theatre formerly known as Weber and Fields' Music Hall.

The new company will be known as the Weber and Ziegfeld Stock Company and the house will be known as Weber's Broadway Music Hall.

The house opens about September 1, and Weber and Held will assume leading roles. The supporting company has not been formed, but it is probable that Charles Bigelow, who was previously engaged to support Miss Held in her next season's tour, will have a leading part.

Edgar Smith, who supplied the librettos for Weber and Fields' Company, has been engaged to act in a like capacity for the new organization.

SOUSA HONORED.

The French Government has again honored John Philip Sousa, the March King, by conferring upon him the title of Officer de Instruction Publique. Three years ago, in recognition of his services at the Paris Exposition, Sousa received the title of Officer d'Academie Française. A few days ago Mr. Sousa was notified of the higher honor, in a letter from M. Paul Lacombes, Secrétaire Particulier du Ministre de l'Instruction Publique et des Beaux-Arts, now at St. Louis.

ENGAGEMENTS.

Fred W. Peters has been engaged to play the court jester in Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall next season.

COMPANIES CLOSING.

The Southerners has closed its engagement at the New York Theatre in New York City.

Manager Baldwin has closed the season of the Baldwin-Melville Stock Company on account of trouble with the union.

OBITUARY.

Celia Logan Connelly, author and play-wright, died, June 18, at the German hospital in New York City. She was born in 1831 in Philadelphia, Pa., and was married, in 1872, to James A. Connelly, then editor of the James S. Watson publication. Mrs. Connelly was the author of An American Marriage, renamed that Man, in which Agnes Booth played. For several years preceding the suspension of the publication of Belford's Magazine Mrs. Connelly was the assistant editor.

Mrs. Frank Rice, (Mamie Bard) died Tuesday, June 22, at the home of her mother at Reading, Pa., of heart trouble. Deceased was the wife of Frank M. Rice, of the well known firm of Zeh, Zarrow, Schrock and Rice, and was a sister of the famous Bird Bros. Mr. Rice was playing at the Avenue Theatre, Pittsburgh, Pa., when he received word of his wife's death, and he immediately left for Reading where the funeral took place, Saturday, June 25. Mr. and Mrs. Rice were married, June 24, 1903.

George Gagner committed suicide at the Morton House, New York City, by shooting himself through the head. Little is known of the reason for the rash act, but it is supposed that financial difficulties in connection with falling health brought on a temporary mental aberration during which he committed the deed. Mr. Wagner was for many years a prominent resident of Bridgeport, Conn. Wagner's Hotel was for a long time a landmark of the city, and the summer garden in the rear of the hotel was famous for its meritorious vaudeville bills. He was 56 years of age. He leaves besides his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Rapp, wife of the proprietor of the Hoffman House in Derby, Conn.

MARRIAGES.

Miss Dolly Jordan, who was recently a prominent member of A Chinese Honeymoon Company, was married to Edward Madden, a song writer, in Baltimore, Md., last week.

The announcement has been made that Beatrice Gilbert, a member of The Wizard of Oz Company, now playing in Chicago, was married recently, in that city, to Guy Bestwick, a Harvard graduate, whose parents live in Boston, Mass.

The Sires of Virgile, which ran for a whole season at the Theatre de Varietes, Paris, will be the principal Fisher & Ryley production for next year.

W. Webb, of Louisville, Ky., will be Marie Wainwright's leading man next season and will play Maboollo in her production of Twelfth Night.

Al. Beasley, formerly with the Marie Fountain Company, is organizing at Cedar Falls, Iowa, a company to go out in a comedy drama entitled the Runaway Banker.

Miss Janyler, of Vivian's Pappas Company, sprained her ankle while visiting the races at Chicago recently and Margaret Malcolm appeared in her stead for a time.

Mme. Bernhardt, it is reported, has decided to make a spectacular production of a five-act version of Stenckewicz's novel By Fire and Sword, adapted by her son, Maurice.

John D. O'Hara, who has been with the Play-ers' Stock Company the past season, has retired from that organization and next season will have a theatre of his own on the West Side.

The suit of Louis James against a Texas hotel man for $10,000 damages for unjustly accusing the actor of purloining pillowslips, has been decided in favor of Mr. James.

Wright Lorimer will retain the members of his original company for next season. His company will play a season of forty weeks in a few of the larger cities.

Elliot and Courtenay's Stock Company opened its summer engagement at the Lyceum Theatre, Duluth, Minn., June 13, with Miss, Estelle Bennett in the leading part.

Sweet Kitty Bellairs has closed a record breaking season. Miss Henrietta Crossman will re-open her season in the same play in September.

Justin H. McCarty, author of If I Were King and The Proud Prince, has just completed a dramatic costume play to be presented by Miss Mary Manning.

C. H. Kagle, author of The Queen of the Woods, has dramatized the book and it will shortly be staged with an excellent company coming out from Hartford, Mich.

The Backman Comedy Company writes from Colorado: "Considering existing circumstances, incident to strikes, etc., we are enjoying a most wonderful business."

"Pearsons" for June contains a very interesting interview with David Belasco, illustrated with photographs. The contribution is from Frank J. March.

Miss Edythe Ketchum is receiving the highest praise for her work as leading lady of the Huntley-Moore Stock Company of Atlantic City, N. J.

The Dictator is nearing its 100th performance at the Criterion Theatre in New York City. Mr. Collier is likely to have a long hot weather run.

CLAUDE FITZPATRICK.
Acting Manager, Grand Opera House, Helena, Ark.

Forbes Robertson and Gertrude Elliott have scored a hit in London with Miss Margaret Young's new play, The Edge of the Storm. The scenes are laid in the time of the Hungarian Revolution of 1848.

Manager Fred Niblo, of The Four Cohans Company, which closed, June 18, has returned to New York to make arrangements for the early production of The Leading Lady, in which he is to star Miss Josephine Coban next season.

Miss Annie Irish is to shine in stellar ranks next season and will be featured in The Triumph of Love, the new play by Martha Morton.

The new piece by Chapin and Steeley, who wrote The Storm, is to be given its premiere, July 2. Among the prominent members of the cast will be Joseph Herbert, W. H. Clarke, Miss Alma Youlin, Miss Ethel Johnson and Miss Mamie Ryan.

Will M. Carroll, who has been the leading comedian with the North Bros.' Comedy Company the past three seasons, is resting at his home at Jacksonville, Ill., and has not signed for next season.

George and Lynda Earle, who have closed with the Kennedy Stock Company at Duluth, Minn., have gone East, and after a short visit in New York, will spend the summer at their home in Roseland, Mass.

It is reported by a Crawfordville, Ind., paper, that the Misses Hall, Jessie Mae and Blanche, both actresses, have come into possession of 600 acres of fine land in Indian Territory through aboriginal ancestors.

It is reported that Wright Lorimer is considering the advisability of sending out two Shepherd King companies next season to accommodate out of town managers who are desirous of booking the attraction.

Clarence Bennett, of the well known firm of managers, Gordon and Bennett, is at Estherville, Iowa, where he is superintending the construction of the scenic equipment of the two Holly City shows that the firm will put out next season.

Marlon Manolis, who retired from the stage some time ago, has written to A. Milo Bennett, stating her intention to return to the footlights the coming season.

Walton Bradford, who was with the Eleanor Robson Company, will be the acting manager of the Kyrle Bellow Company for the coming season, and Sam McL. Weller, who had charge of The Eternal City advance, work last year, will serve in the same capacity with the Kyrle Bellow company.

The Priuurse Path, a tale of Boston in the colonial days, written by Estelle Clayton, is being played by her sister, Isabelle Evenson, in Providence, and is said to have made a pleasant impression.

William Gillette is to appear in London, commencing in April, 1905, in a new comedy, which is to have a production here previous to the European engagement. It will be Mr. Gillette's first play since Sherlock Holmes, to be written by himself.

Max Figman, Mrs. Fiske's former stage manager, was engaged by Uns Abell Iringer to stage Hedda Gabler for the two special matinee performances given at the West End Theatre in New York City. Mr. Figman also took the character of Brack.

Amelia Bligham announces that next fall she will adopt the plan of Richard Mansfield and go on tour with an extensive repertoire. Already she has engaged a company, including Joseph Kilgour, now playing in Tit for Tat, and Forest Robinson. Carlotta Nilsson has been offered a position with the company.

Edward E. Kidder has about completed a new play, Weatherbeaten Benson, for Ezra Kendall's use next year. The scenes are laid along the Delaware coast, the title role embracing a line of work different from that in which Mr. Kendall has heretofore been seen. Mr. Kendall will open in the play at the Park Theatre, Boston, Mass., September 5.

George Dance, the author of A Chinese Honeymoon, which has been played in London for two years, and who is now busy re-writing Mme. Sherry, is expected to visit New York in the fall, purely for recreation. Mr. Dance says that the market is not very good for new productions, and he wants a rest, which he thinks he can find in this country.

Jules Murray has made his final arrangements for the production of The Marriage of Kitty next season. This piece in which Marie Tempest was seen last season will be sent out on the road next season by Mr. Murray, with Bettina Gerard in the principal part—that play by Miss Tourist. The company starts at Atlantic City, September 1.

J. H. Stoddard will produce The Bonnie Briv Bush again next season. He is spending his summer at his country home at Sewaren, N. J.

Frederick Berger will have four companies on the road next season, and all will start out early. Mr. Berger's enterprises will consist of The Liberty Bells, which opens in Norfolk, Va., in September; Daredevil Dorothy, The Worst Woman in London and two companies playing The Sign of the Cross.

Signor Commendatore Ermete Novelli, the great Italian actor, is to make his first tour of America the coming season. He will play the larger South American cities during three months and then enter upon his tour in this country early in January, his contract calling for a season of twelve weeks in only the larger cities. He will bring his own en re company with him.

George Tyler, who has been in Paris for several weeks, has just started for Monte Carlo and Nice in his new French motor car, which he decided to purchase outright when he heard the terms demanded for its rental. Frank Field, who is accompanying Tyler on his European trip, goes in the motor car also, and Nat Goodwin's car will make the trip at the same time. William H. Post, accompanying Nat, has a two motor cars and their occupants expect to have a swift time of it on the road to Monte Carlo.

Bertha Galland's press agent sends the following report to "The Billboard": "Miss Bertha Galland has a fad warranted to be something entirely new. No other actress ever has such an original fad as this latest hobby of Miss Galland's. It is nothing more or less than wireless telegraphy. Miss Galland's cottage, The Flag Ship, at Siscoonset, on the Isle of Nantucket, occupies a position seaward on the hill at the very southern-most point of the island. The hill happened to be the best location for the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Station, and last year Miss Galland gave Mr. Marconi permission to have his mast erected in her yard. Ever since that time all dispatches from passing steamships have been received upon Miss Galland's grounds. Naturally, the actress has been much interested in the proceedings. Several weeks ago, after the close of her tour in Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall, she returned to her cottage to find a new shed and an elaborate telegraph office almost adjoining her domicile. So many dispatches are now received, that the snapper sound of the sparks from the machine, at first frightened her very much. But the electric current, which travels 2,000 miles through space to her cottage, isn't dangerous. The receiving instruments make a continuous sparkling noise, however. After several days Miss Galland conquered her timidity enough to have the attendants explain the workings of the instruments. Then she learned the telegraph alphabet. Then one of the operators permitted her to send a dispatch. Out across the broad Atlantic Ocean, Miss Galland flashed these words as her first message: "Dorothy Vernon, Dorothy Vernon, Dorothy Vernon." Whether the dispatch reached Dorothy Vernon or not, Miss Galland doesn't know, but about two hours after sending the dispatch the operator called to her excitedly. "We've just got into communication with the Campana, 500 miles East," he said, "they have something to say to you." Miss Galland rushed to the instrument excitedly, and the operator read off this message: "No Dorothy Vernon on board. Julia Vernon and Alice Vernon, both of Philadelphia, returning home on Campana. Any message for them?" Miss Galland has now decided to let the operators send all messages hereafter.

PLAYHOUSES.

From all indications the New York theatres will open earlier this year than usual. A new theatre is to be erected at Colorado Springs, Col., called the Empire.

The Billboard

America's Leading Theatrical Weekly

We wish to introduce to the readers of The Billboard our new headline for the title page. While the De Vinne title has served its purpose well, we believe that a new heading of a more modern style will enhance the value of The Billboard, both for the readers and advertisers. It is our intention to have the heading remain on this page for a short time so that our readers will become thoroughly acquainted with it before transposing the title to its proper place.

Summer stock will be given a trial at the Grand Theatre, Anderson, Ind. The contract has been let for a new opera house at Wapakonetta, Ohio. The Longes Opera House at Meyersdale, Pa., is nearing completion. Elk City's (Okla.) new opera house opened recently.

T. A. Lambert has sold his opera house at Mardin, Okla., and Mr. G. M. Warinner will be local manager henceforth.

W. H. Hoyt is the new manager of the Thirty-first Street Theatre, just opened in Chicago, Ill.

Henderson, Ky., will have two new playhouses next season. One is below built and the old one is being remodeled.

F. X. Johnson, of Bedford, Ind., has leased the new Jasonville opera house and will manage the same next season.

Mr. J. C. Parks, manager of Chestnut Street Opera House, Suisun, Pa., is remodeling the house inside and repainting it.

The new theatre at Appleton, Wis., will be renovated and the season opens, July 20, by William Owen.

The theatre at Eldridge Park, Elmira, N. Y., is to be opened, June 27, as a vaudeville house under the management of Enoch Little.

It is probable that a new opera house may be erected at Findlay, O., before fall. If present plans carry a company representing $125,000 will be incorporated for that purpose.

With a record of forty-five weeks of continuous business, the West End Theatre in New York City closed its season last week.

Contracts have been let for the improvements to be made upon the Grand Opera House at Groesbeurg, Ind.

Manager Winter, of the Crystal Theatre at Milwaukee, Wis., will enlarge his house so as to seat 1,100 people.

A new advertising drop curtain and other improvements are additions to Manager W. P. Turner's opera house at Salma, Mo.

Cedar Falls, Iowa is looking for a promoter to build a new playhouse in that city and is holding out excellent substantial offers to the man who will take hold of the enterprise.

Col. Hopkins was in Louisville, Ky., this week, and states that he will open his new house September 4, with a new line of vaudeville attractions.

The Firemen's Opera House Company, of Ellsworth, Wis., was recently incorporated by A. G. Foss, George Thompson, Chas. M. Hansen, F. D. Lord and A. Swahn.

A new pressed brick front is being put in Chesterton's Opera House at Springfield, Ill. Other improvements will make a total cost of $12,000.

The building of the Elks' Theatre at Parsons, Kan., is being very much delayed by wet weather, but strenuous efforts will be made to have it ready for the coming season.

Frank Hurt, of Toledo, Ohio, recently called for Europe for a year's tour. He was accompanied by Mr. Ward, of the team of Ward and Vokes.

Work on the New Park Theatre at Buffalo, N. Y., has been seriously delayed on account of labor difficulties.

Eugene Kernan, treasurer of the Lafayette Theatre at Washington, D. C., will spend the warm season at Ashbury Park, N. J.

Frank Shimer, treasurer of the Avenue Theatre, Louisville, Ky., has been elected secretary of the Louisville Baseball Club.

Judge McGregor, manager of the opera house at Brazil, Ind., will either increase the size of his house or build a new house before next season.

Frank Kelsor, formerly manager of the opera house at Princeton, Ind., was shot recently while returning to his home. He is at the St. Charles Hotel.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lyceum Theatre Company in Rochester, N. Y., held last week, Martin E. Wolff was re-elected manager.

It is announced that Ellsworth and Todd, proprietors of the Novelty Grand Vaudeville Theatre at Sacramento, Cal., have sold that house to the Graman Circuit people.

H. S. Barnett, formerly resident manager of the Star Theatre at Oakland, Cal., has become manager of the Novelty Theatre at Fresno. Mr. Barnett is well known to the profession.

The Gallipolis Theatre at Gallipolis, O., will be fitted out with steam heat and a new asbestos curtain before next season. Mr. Kaufman has some of the best attractions booked. He is also remodeling his Pomeroy Opera House.

J. F. Given, manager of Powers' Grand Opera House at Decatur, Ill., recently left for a month's visit to New York. He will book attractions for his house and otherwise look after his interests.

Elmira, N. Y., which recently lost its two theatres by fire, is without a winter theatre, excepting one small vaudeville house. Elmira is a city of 50,000 population with thickly settled suburbs to draw from and the erection of one or two modern theatres there would prove a profitable investment.

The Arch Street Theatre, Philadelphia, Pa., will open, August 6, under the management of M. D. Schlessinger, who will represent Chas. E. Blaney, the owner. The house will play melodramatic attractions with a few musical comedies.

When Lew Fields' Theatre, New York, opens its doors next November the first piece presented will be a burlesque on Sweet Kitty Bellairs, entitled Sweet Kitty Beware, by Edgar T. Smith.

A catastrophe was averted at the American Theatre, recently, by the orchestra striking up Dixie. An alarm of fire raised the audience to its feet but the popular air prevented personal injury.

Harry Burns, America's bag puncher champion, writes from Peoria, Ill., that he visited the Gentry Bros' Show, Saturday, June 18, of which he speaks very highly. He wishes to thank Mr. Jack Beck, manager, and others for their kindness.

The Empire Theatre at Cleveland, Ohio, has passed into the hands of Michael Shea and John Kretzner, of Buffalo, N. Y. The deal was completed June 16. The same prices will prevail next season as last. The orchestra will be greatly augmented.

Manager T. W. Barbydt, of the Grand Opera House at Terre Haute, Ind., is taking his summer vacation visiting friends and relatives in Illinois. He announces that there will be no change made in the opera house force next season.

Theatrical reforms appear to hatch out in New Orleans, La. At the recent session of the Louisiana Legislature a bill was introduced making it a misdemeanor for a person to go to a seat in a theatre after the rise of the curtain.

A movement is on foot in Chicago to reduce, somewhat, the strict requirements of the lately passed theatre building ordinance.

A change of the building plans by the building inspector of Philadelphia, Pa., may delay the opening of the Girard Avenue Theatre in that city until November. They required the re-building of the proscenium wall and this will mean a hold back of all other work.

In a recent case brought against the Ironopolis Theatre management and Messrs. Klaw and Erlanger, it was decided that the Chicago courts have no jurisdiction over Klaw and Erlanger and the service of the summons on their representative was quashed.

Klaw and Erlanger have transferred all their bookings from Young's Pier, Atlantic City, to the Savoy Theatre owned by Huntley and Moore. They are now making the theatre 25 feet wider and adding 40 feet to the stage in length. They open about August 20, with the Yankee Consul.

Holabird and Roche have made plans for alterations in the Academy of Music at Chicago so as to conform the new theatre building ordinance. The improvements will cost between twenty and thirty thousand dollars and will be completed by Sept. 1.

The Barbydt Theatre Company of Terre Haute, Ind., was recently incorporated at Charleston, W. Va. The incorporators were T. W. Barbydt, Henrietta Barbydt, Shannon P. Katsenbach and Samuel Hamill, of Terre Haute, Ind., and D. Lavina Schultheis, of Quincy, Ill.

ing to the ground and the lumber is now being carted away. It was on April 21, 1879, that the Tivoli was opened, the first performance being given by the Vienna Ladies' orchestra. On November 24, 1903 the Tivoli closed with the performance in aid of the Verd monument fund. In all the 24 years that elapsed the Tivoli had never been dark, unless the few days for repairs and the occasions of national mourning are taken into account.

Professor George F. McDonald, owner and manager of McDonald's Theatre, Montgomery, Ala., has leased his house to Jake Wells and will retire after a successful career of forty-nine years in Montgomery. The McDonald Theatre, which was built in 1881 by Prof. McDonald, will be re-christened the Bijou Theatre. Mr. Wells will expend about $5,000 in improving the theatre, which will open in September with one of the Wells' companies. Professor McDonald is well known, and is a personal friend of many of the most famous actors and actresses of the last half-century. His face will be missed at the door of the popular Bix Street playhouse.

VAUDEVILLE.

Burtino and Walters have signed with the Fay Foster Company for next season.

Harry L. Willard, musical artist, is visiting at his home in Milford, Mass.

Chapin and Adams, comedians, are meeting with great success in their new act.

Williams and Melburn are said to be making a hit in the Ohio park circuit in their act.

Lester and Keltett are making good on J. W. Gorman's Park Circuit.

Nan Patterson in was is the latest addition to Eden Musee in New York City.

The Three Diamonds write that they are booked solid until the last week in October, when they close in New Orleans.

Claude and Fannie Fisher report that they are making a big hit in the leading eastern parks and are booked solid until October.

Gus Kiralfi writes from Salt Lake City, Utah, that the show business is booming on the coast. New vaudeville houses are opening up every week and the weather is cool.

Lynn Pratt, who is assisting Rose Coghlan in vaudeville, has signed with her for the balance of the summer engagements.

Gray and Graham write that they are a hit at Proctor's 231 Street and have booked return dates at many houses.

Clarence Day and Mildred Potts, have joined hands and will enter vaudeville the coming season.

Hammond and Forest are meeting with great success in their act for uring Big Indian Chief in Indian costume.

CORRESPONDENCE

NOTICE.—The Billboard desires a correspondent in every city and town in the United States which is not here represented.

NEW YORK.

Hot weather has arrived at last. An average attendance of 100,000 per day is reported from Coney Island. Only three regular theatres are now open and the attendance is well not so many. The Roof Gardens are doing finely.

Criterion Theatre (Chas. Frohman, Mgr.) William Collier and his sure enough hit, The Dictator, will soon reach the 100th performance.

Casino Theatre (Lee Shubert, Mgr.) Piff, Paff, Poff, excellent entertainment is doing very well.

Broadway Theatre (A. W. Daywall, Mgr.) The Yankee Consul draws steadily.

Aerial Gardens (Klaw & Erlanger, Mgrs.) A novelty, and a really interesting one at that, is the distinctively Parisian skit which was added to the bill Monday night, June 20. It is incorporated into the classic A Little of Everything, and takes the place of much less worthy material. If for nothing else it is delightful because of the reminiscences of the melodic genius of Offenbach, for excerpts from the score of several of his wonderfully successful and tuneful opera bouffe are sung in the progress of the skit. Fay Templeton was exceedingly happy both in what she was upon to say and to sing, and she did it all with an artistic finish that pleased, and George A. Schiller was amusing in some character hits. Mr. Dalley—Peter F.—has none of the atmosphere of Paris nor of Offenbach, but he made the audience laugh.

Madison Square Garden (London G. Charlton, Mgr.) Duss and his splendid orchestra continue to big business nightly. New vocal soloists appear each week.

New York Theatre (Klaw & Erlanger, Mgrs.) The Southerners closed its present engagement at the New York Theatre on Saturday night last week. Manager Lederer having decided to lay the production off during the hottest part of the summer. The piece will reopen the New York Theatre in August.

Hammerstein's Paradise Roof Garden (Oscar Hammerstein, Mgr.) To stop selling tickets and to turn away droves of amusee seekers is an almost nightly occurrence. All the strong acts in last week's bill have been retained and Tchow's wonderful Cats added.

New York Roof Garden (Wayburn & Anderson, Mgrs.) The latest star to appear here is Datus, the Human Encyclopedia. His memory is marvelous; being able to answer without the slightest hesitation any question of date as to the occurrence of events in the world's history. Others of importance comprising the bill are: Guerrero the beautiful Spanish danseuse; Johnson, Davenport and Lorella, Emma Carr, Bedini and Arthur, Gianini's Royal Marine Band, Metzetti Acrobats, Gillett's Musical Dogs, Herbert Brooks, Nayson's Birds and Ned Wayburn's Girls.

Keith's Theatre (E. F. Albee, Mgr.) The headliners for week of June 27, are Gilmore and Leonard, after an absence of seven years from the vaudeville stage; Dolan and Lenhart, in A High Toned Burglar; Harry La Rose and company in The Sailor and the Horse; Shenk Bros., wonderful acrobats; Stanley and Wilson, in The German Professor; Exposition Four, musical comedians; Spencer Kelly, baritone; Goldsmith and Hoppe, eccentric comedy; Al. Lawrence, mimic and comedian; Hayward and Hayward, comedy sketch; Lydell and Butterworth, songs and dances; Alpha Trio, comedy act; Watson and Reynolds, Dutch comedians, and the biograph.

Proctor's Theatre (F. F. Proctor, Mgr.) At the Twenty-third Street the chief attraction this week is the first appearance in New York of Dorothy Russell, daughter of Miss Lillian Russell, who made her debut at Proctor's Newark theatre last week with emphatic success. Miss Russell inherits from her gifted mother a voice of exceptional range and sympathy, which under the guidance of the best teachers of this country and Europe has been developed into one of the finest lyrical sopranos heard here in some time. Her repertoire of songs will be selected with a view to exploiting to the fullest the excellence of her vocal attainments, and her debut will be made a matter of moment not alone because of her accomplishments but because of the possibilities suggested by a daughter of the singer who has during her career held the undisputed title of queen of comic opera. Another promising attraction is Carlton Macy and Mand Edna Hill in a pretty farcical comedy Lord Dopey's Finish. Kittle Rooney in a dainty monologue; Mason and Francis in a rural sketch An Old Man's Darling; Charles B. Lawler and daughters in a unique singing specialty; Richard Raven, instrumentalist; Fred Ward, talking specialty; Myers and Rosa, juggling act, and half a dozen other capable specialties. Fifth Avenue Theatre. Jameson Lee Finney is the leading attraction this week. He is seen in a clever sketch of purely farcical nature which affords him opportunity for the display of those qualities which have kept him so prominently to the fore on the metropolitan stage for many seasons. He also appears at the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre. The Great Unknown is presented by the stock company. In the vaudeville section Leroy and Woodford offer a very clever conversational comedy; Marsh and Sartella, refined duettists, offer a pleasant singing sketch; Dorsh and Russell present an extremely clever musical specialty which possesses the merit of novelty in addition to its musical excellence; Fred Ward appears here in conjunction with his appearance at the Twenty-third Street Theatre and the program also includes the Red Sisters, buck dancers; Flossie Allen, soubrette, and Fred Dunworth, a clever coin manipulator. 125th Street Theatre—Coon Hollow, one of the best Southern melodramas yet presented, is offered by the stock company. The vaudeville section is stronger than usual this week; Emerson and Stone, coin jugglers and bag punchers; Charlotte Ravenscroft, soprano; The Musical Bells, and Barney Reynolds, Irish comedian, complete the bill.

Tony Pastor's Theatre (Harry Sanderson, Mgr.) One of the best bills of the year for week of June 27, is made up of the following star turns: J. Royer West and Ida Van Sclen, in The Musical Gymnasium; Searl and Violet Allen, presenting The Sign Painter; Casey and LeClair, in The East Side Tenants; The Dancing Mitchells, Marvelous Le Pages, jumping act; Misses Alexander and Hoffman; Gray and Graham, musical comedians; The Fraser Trio, character dancers; Eber Sisters, singers and dancers; Marville and Gleason, in Brother Tom's Friend; Byrne and West, singing and dancing, and the American vivograph. As an extra attraction, Elvira Francell and Tom Lewis, in The Ballyhoo.

Joseph M. Weber and Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr. have signed a partnership agreement and will open the Broadway Music Hall the end of September with Anna Held as Lillian Russell's successor. Ziegfeld steps into the place. Lew Fields vacated. The little music hall will continue under the same policy that won it fame. Edgar Smith, who for years furnished the travesties and burlesques for Weber and Fields will redress the current successes for the house. It will be known as Weber's Broadway Music Hall and in the company will be Weber and Ziegfeld's All-Star Stock Company. Charles A. Bigelow will probably be the leading comedian. He has been engaged for Anna Held's company for next season. Mr. Ziegfeld will start immediately for Europe with his wife, Anna Held, to obtain several novelties for the music hall. While he is away Mr. Weber will superintend the extensive improvements being made at the theatre. It required only fifteen minutes for the two managers to come to terms. Mr. Ziegfeld gets a half interest.

John Philip Sousa, the conductor, has received notice of his promotion to Officier de L'Academie Francaise to Officier de l'Instruction Publique of France. The new distinction gives Mr. Sousa the golden palms and rosette of the French Academy. He is the only American who has received this decoration. He is also a member of the Royal Victorian Order of England, having been decorated by King Edward VII., three years ago.

"Rex." Mrs. "Jack" Gardner's famous pet lion, died at Bostock's emergency hospital, Dreamland, following an operation performed a few days ago.

Spadoni, the juggler, who is performing at Hammerstein's Roof Garden, came within an ace of accidentally killing his assistant Wednesday evening, June 22. Spadoni does a spectacular trick with three cannon balls. These he raises in three cups attached to a long pole. The assistant knocks the pole away and Spadoni catches the balls. Last night the pole fell the wrong way and struck the assistant on the head. He was knocked senseless and bled freely from an ugly cut. He was carried to his dressing room and patched up by a doctor. The accident put an end to Spadoni's act for the night.

The Williams and Walker Company were passengers on the Anrania, which arrived, June 23. Their next American tour will begin at the Grand Opera House, New York, on August 27.

Sam S. Shubert received a cablegram from his brother Lee, in London, stating that he had just obtained the signature of Ada Behan to a contract whereby she will star under their management for five years in a repertoire of Shakespearean plays. It was reported some weeks ago that Behan had signed with them, but until Lee Shubert met her in London nothing had been done. She is to appear at the head of a company the selection of which has been left to her.

Wagenhals and Kemper have secured for Blanche Walsh the English rights to Jacob Gordin's dramatization of Tolstol's The Kreutzer Sonata, which was presented in Yiddish at the Thalia Theatre. Miss Walsh will assume the role created in the original play by Bertha Kallisch. Professor Clayton, of Columbia University, aided Mr. Gordin in making the English adaptation. Miss Walsh's first appearance in The Kreutzer Sonata will be in Chicago next December.

J. E. Dodson has purchased the dramatic rights to The King of Beasts, which he intends to produce when his engagement with The Two Orphans ends next season.

Otis Harlan, the comedian, is the happy father of a fine daughter, which the stork brought to the Herlan Cottage at Long Branch one day last week. The Theatrical Trust staff wired: "Would like to book the new Harlan production for the year 1922."

Emma Carus had a difference of opinion with Oscar Hammerstein and closed her engagement at the Roof Garden abruptly, Saturday, June 18. She was immediately engaged by Wayburn and Anderson and appeared at the New York Roof, Monday night following.

The opening attraction next season at the Knickerbocker Theatre will be Lulu Glaser, presented by Charles R. Dillzham, in a new comic opera, A Madcap Princess, on Labor Day, September 5. The opera is by Ludwig Englander and Harry B. Smith and the libretto is based on Charles Major's romance When Knighthood Was in Flower.

Charles Cartwright, an actor, well known on the London stage, has been secured by Harrison Grey Fluke for the stock company which is to appear at the Manhattan Theatre next season.

Henry Morris has been engaged to be the stage side partner of Joe Weber in the production which is to open Weber's Music Hall the latter part of next September. Aubrey Bonclesant will be the leading man in light comedy roles of the organization.

The Pearl and the Pumpkin is the title of a book of pictures by W. W. Denalov, the Father Goose man, and Paul West. Advance sheets of this book came under the eyes of Klaw and Erlanger and they decided to make a musical comedy of it and to produce it on an elaborate scale at a Broadway Theatre next season. The first act will be in a Vermont village, which accounts for the pumpkin in the title. The characters all go to Bermuda in the third and last act. Where they will be in the second act is a secret which neither managers nor authors will divulge, but it is said to be a funny land where wonderful things happen to them. John W. Bratton is to write the music for the new fairy extravaganza.

H. CLAY LAMBERT.

CHICAGO.

The Republican Convention added considerable gaiety to the city and had a great deal to do with the increased box office receipts at the theatres. The Young Men's Blaine Club, of Cincinnati, Ohio, accompanied by Weber's excellent band, held a reception at the Knits Reminder restaurant, 21, and in the party were several senators, congressmen and other political dignitaries from Ohio. An ovation, vociferous and continued for fifteen minutes greeted Mayor Fleischman when he came in, wearing a Panama hat, and a smile denoting contentment.

There is nothing new at the theatres and the only changes offered are at the vaudeville houses.

The Wizard of Oz continues at the Grand Opera House with the same popularity and crowded houses. The production could easily duplicate its long run of two summers ago, but the company need rest and the vacation season give them their first recuperation since the play was first presented.

There is every indication that Viviana's Pappa will stay with us at Powers' theatre throughout the summer months. The attendance has been large. The company, including Leo Dittichenstein, Blanche Ring and Harry Conor, is one of the best seen in farce comedy and deserves the highest endorsement.

The Maid and the Mummy, reconstructed and almost entirely re-written is now a very diverting musical comedy, and the audience that saw the opening performance at the Garrick recently, will find the revised version almost new with much to commend. Miss Margaret McKinney and Miss May Boley are seen to advantage in the roles vacated by Miss Pearl Andrews and Miss Violet Dale. Fred Lennor is also succeeded by Richard F. Carroll.

The Tenderfoot continues at the Illinois to good houses, and Richard Carle, William Rack, Edmond Stanley, Henry Norman and Ethel Johnson score individual hits. Preparations are under way for the presentation of the new comic opera, The Forbidden Land, to succeed The Tenderfoot at the Illinois early next month. Mamie Ryan, the clever ingenue, for several years with the Dearborn Stock Company, has been assigned an important part in the piece. Mr. Tillotson, the manager of both companies of The Tenderfoot next season.

York State Folks had another week of large business at the Great Northern, where this rural play will in two weeks be followed by another domestic comedy drama, entitled Our New Minister, which will be the attraction until the regular season opens with Bester Brown.

The Royal Chef continues at the La Salle to capacity houses. This play will in all probability be taken to New York next season and placed in a Broadway theatre.

The Peoples Theatre, which has for the last three years been the home of the May Hammer Stock Company, and under the management of Millie Willard Nelson, passed into new hands last week, owing to a disagreement between Miss Nelson and Chas. Clark and the same policy as heretofore will be maintained with a new stock company. The opera company gave an excellent revival of The Chimera of Normandy to crowded houses. Miss Olive Vall scored a well deserved hit and Ben Lodge, Fred Hattman and James Durand shared the applause.

The bill at Cleveland's is headed by the Radium Dancers. Others are Favor and Sinclair, Wm. De Onso, George Stewart, Mayme Gehane and Katherine Nugent.

The Chicago Opera House bevy consists of the Champagne Dancers from The Silver Slipper, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins Fisher, Jack Norworth, Giffitt's monkeys, Mignonne and Kokin, Morrissey and Rich, Bravo, Alton Brothers and Elliott and Harrison.

At San Sorel Park the vaudeville portion includes the Holloway Trio, Montgomery and Pearl, The Four Nelsons and Irene Franklin.

Burlesque by the stock company at Jack's draws large attendance and the company at the Trocadero enjoys prosperity with burlesque. Gentry Bros.' Shows drew immense audiences on the North Side, where they exhibited the fore part of the week, and moved to the West Side again for the balance of their stay. The following managers are busily engaged in negotiations for next season.

Daniel McCoy, E. J. Carpenter, George Samuels, Wm. Gill, Hampton and Hopkins, Joe Pilgrim and Louis Elliott, Harry Gordon, Thomas Dewey, Ben Lewis, Rawland and Clifford, Meonley and Patton, Harry Emery, Chas. W. Burnham, E. P. Fritz, P. D. McGregor and Raymond Stevens, Gagnon and Pollak, Bert Whitney, James McCabe and Lincoln J. Carter. FRANK WIESBERG.

PHILADELPHIA.

The extremely cool weather in Philadelphia in the evenings has made theatre going very popular with our people and therefore the four theatres now open have done very well this week. Of course matinees are not large but the night houses more than make up for the lack of attendance in the day time. It looks now as if the Park Theatre would only close for a few weeks as the summer run of opera has made a decided hit. The attraction for week of 29, was an excellent production of Erwin and announced for 27, is the Prince's Bonnie. This will be continued for at least two weeks and possibly longer. At Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, McIntyre and Heath are the headliners with a strong supporting bill and capacity business is being done. Vaudeville will continue to be the bill all summer at this house. At Keith's Bijou Theatre the stock company is doing well. The bill for this week is The Cow Boy and the Lady and announced for week of 27, is An American Citizen. Vaudeville will be resumed at this house starting early in September. The Lyceum is doing well with stock burlesque and will continue this as long as profitable. This comprises the list of the open theatres, not a very formidable one, but possibly enough to take care of all the theatre goers should it turn warm.

The parks are not doing much as yet. Warm afternoons bring out fair sized crowds but the evenings do not draw well. The city is making one band in the smaller parks and one large band in Fairmount Park. The latter is headed by a number of vocalists and a large chorus, and this novelty is drawing big crowds. It is estimated that 25,000 people attended one of these concerts one evening this week. BOB WATT.

WASHINGTON.

Notwithstanding the weather has been unusually warm for the last few days, those houses which are still open, are having good audiences, though not so good as last week.

Columbia Theatre—Edwin Arden and company in His Excellency the Governor, are in their last week at the Columbia and that they have given entire satisfaction to the patrons of the theatre there is not a doubt. The entire company is good, unusually so, and well deserve the patronage it has received and esteem in which the members are held by the theatre-goers. Next week.—Closed.

Lafayette Theatre—The Aborn Company is still giving excellent performances and drawing good audiences. This week it is giving possibly the best performance given, The Bell of New York. The Bell is too well known to make comment necessary, and as for the company, suffice it to say that it is the best stock company of its kind seen in this city for years. Next week.—Same company in Jack and The Beanstalk.

Lyceum Theatre—The Henry Burlesque in conjunction with the Lyceum Stock Company, has given most excellent performances. The manager, Mr. Kernan, has invariably offered the patrons of this theatre the best obtainable, and in this experiment of summer stock company he is giving even more than he promised or was anticipated. Next week.—The Innocent Beauties.

Academy of Music—The Academy Stock Company is giving a most excellent production of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. The principal role is assumed by Ben F. Wilson, who gives a very excellent production of the dual character. While the audiences have not been so large, as the play is one not calculated to draw extensively during the summer season, the performance is exceptionally good. Next week.—Academy Stock Company in A Man of Mystery.

Grand Theatre—This is the last week of the season at Chase's Grand Theatre and a very good bill has been offered the patrons, and the patrons themselves have liberally indicated their desire to give the theatre the hearty support they have given it in the last few years. It is understood that Mr. Chase contemplates some very extensive improvements being made before the opening of the next season.

KANSAS CITY

The Auditorium (The Woodward and Burgess Amusement Co., Mgr.) Considering the weather, excellent business ruled at this house week of 19. Guy Woodward's stock company was seen to advantage in Bartley Campbell's strong drama, Divorce. Guy Woodward, Walter Marshall, Eva Lang and Vaasie Farrell won unstinted applause by their portrayal of the leading roles, and the balance of the company were cast in roles well suited to their individual talents. Next: The Octopus.

Forest Park (George Sellinger, Mgr.) Business at this resort is steadily on the increase and week of 19, witnessed the best crowds of the summer. James J. Corbett, in tale of his travels, justly received prominence in the billing, while the Juggling Polots also were in high favor. Others whose services met with hearty approval were, Clara Ballerini, trapezist; Mayme Shockey, operatic soloist; Snyder and Buckley, musical comedy, and Arthur Ballerini's dogs. Herr Granada and Miss Fedora in a wire act full of genuine thrills, and Dr. Miller's Pneumathophone, were the free acts. Next feature: Eva Medge.

Electric Park (Sam Benjamin, Mgr.) Week of 19, hottest of the season thus far witnessed the best crowds. The farewell week of Liberator's band and Barnes' diving acts, probably attracted some of the increased attendance, for both attractions were warmly welcomed, as were also the living art studios in the electric fountain. Vandeville in the German village included, Martin Van Bergen, a baritone of more than ordinary ability; Annette Moore, soprano soloist; three Conley Sisters, singers and dancers, and Gilliban and Murray, blackface comedians (return engagement). Next big feature, Wm. Jack Daly's FAMOUS NEW YORK Minstrels, and Rockless Harry Russell, bicyclist.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Woodward are enjoying a two weeks' stay in St. Louis. William Warren, business manager of Woodward's Under Two Flags Company, is spending the summer in Wisconsin.

The carnival business in the surrounding territory should be very good this season as Ted Sparks, the local booking agent, has calls for more Fourth of July acts than he can fill.

Ben Rosenthal, the energetic advertising agent of the Grand, who has been with the Otto Floto Shows, has resigned from that attraction and is now connected with the executive staff of Forest Park.

Helen Lewison and Lottie Salsberg, two promising child artists of this city, made a most favorable impression with their specialties at the Auditorium, week of 19.

Thus far no action has been taken by the city fathers regarding the remodeling of the theatres here and managers are delaying their vacations until a satisfactory ordinance is passed.

Lloyd Brown, who so successfully managed Forest Park, this and last season, resigned suddenly, 18, and with Mrs. Brown left for St. Louis. The employees of the park presented Mr. Brown with a magnificent diamond ring before his departure. His place was taken by George Sellinger, who has been active in the park management since its beginning.

CHARLES M. SMAILL.

LEXINGTON, KY.—Sells & Downs' Circus, June 18, to capacity crowds; the show is a good one and worthy of the excellent patronage; the acts are now select and well appearing; the general make-up of the entire organization suggests good and successful management.

Manager George Worsham, of Knoxville, Tenn., will use the stage of the Lexington Opera House for rehearsal of his new opera company; Manager Worsham anticipates a novelty in his chorna girls, not one of which, he states, will exceed five feet in height, and tip the scales at more than 100 pounds.

BROOKLYN.

All the amusements at the beaches and various resorts are now fully opened. The warm weather has driven thousands of people to these resorts. De Wolf Hopper in Wang, Palmer's Fire Works, Herman the Great and Shannon's Military Band are the attractions at Manhattan Beach which are drawing thousands of people. At the Brighton Beach Music Hall an excellent vaudeville bill is given. Every place of amusement at the beaches are drawing big crowds, but Coney Island is the greatest of them all. It is estimated that over 225,000 people visited Coney Island Sunday. It is expected that July 4 will break all previous records as far as attendance is concerned. Luna Park and Dreamland get the bulk of the crowd, but the other attractions such as Steeplechase Park, Johnston's Flood, Mount Pelee and Galveston Flood get their share. All the shows are doing well, and people owning concessions are doing a good business. Bergen Beach was one of the last resorts to open, and the amusements are under the management of Percy G. Williams. Brooklyn's popular theatrical manager, and no doubt will have large crowds.

Manhattan Beach Theatre (E. R. Reynolds, Mgr.) De Wolf Hopper and his opera company are seen in the production of Wang. The cast and the chorus as characterized the Manhattan show, and the same cast in scenery, costumes and properties that prevailed during the long New York run of the opera is noticeable. Business has been to capacity during the engagement. In the afternoon, Shannon's Military Band plays, and several solo selections are given. Palmer's great spectacular "The Great Escape" opened at the amphitheatre Thursday night to enormous crowds. The spectacle is the best that Mr. Palmer has ever given, the fireworks being very beautiful. Orpheum Theatre (Percy G. Williams, Mgr.) For the fifth and last week of the summer opera season at this house, a splendid presentation of "The Boy" was given by the Orpheum Opera Company. The piece was handsomely staged and costumed and was perfectly rendered. Estelle Wentworth headed the cast, and the leading comedian was J. K. Murray. Business was to capacity all the week. The Orpheum closed one of the most successful seasons in the history of this house on Saturday, June 25. The vaudeville season will open as early as usual at this house, and Manager Williams will continue the policy of the house "Always a good show" and has booked a large number of the strongest European acts as well as some of the very best artists and acts appearing in this country. The Gotham and Novelty theatres, which are under the management of Mr. Williams, will open the coming season as early as usual with the very best popular price attractions.

Luna Park (Thompson and Dundy, Owners). "All roads lead to Luna Park" and fully 150,000 people were in Luna Park on Sunday. All of Thompson and Dundy's people worked over time. The Durbar and Fire and Flames were given quickly as an audience could leave and another enter. Even the big elephants with all their strength were tired after their day's work of shooting the Chutes. The Trip to the Moon, War in Hell and 20,000 Leagues under the Sea, were packed at each performance. Thompson and Dundy's mid-air three ring continuous free circus was enjoyed by thousands. The artists appearing this week are as follows: Ring No. 1, Robert Steikney, Jack dog and pony, Miss Louise De Mott, Miss Vindel, Miss Josie Ashton, Miss Alexandrine, Sam Spessard, Mr. Will Hill, The Five Flying Herlerts, Ring No. 2, Nasado, Kittamura's Japanese Troupe, Carlos and Silverton, Zelardo, The Zeellers; Ring No. 3, Senor Domingo, Kittamura's Japanese Troupe, George Bernad, La Nole Brothers. No showman or person visiting New York City can afford to miss Thompson and Dundy's India spectacular, The Durbar. The Evening Star, which is printed daily in Luna Park and edited by W. E. Johnson, has become very popular. It contains all the up-to-date news especially interesting to showmen.

Watson's Theatre (W. B. Watson, Mgr.) Notwithstanding the local theatrical season has practically come to an end, the quality of the entertainment offered by Manager Watson at the popular burlesque house continues to draw full houses at every performance. The burlesque given this week was one of Harry Montague's latest productions, entitled "Upide Down" in which W. B. Watson, Elmer Tenney, Casey Grant, Edward B. Adams, Harry Montague, Caroline Duncan and Nellie Sylvester and the entire stock company, were seen. Miss Sylvester's new songs won much applause. The vaudeville part of the bill was as follows: The Messenger Boy's Trio, The Gordon Sisters, Whitley and Bell. The Sunday night concert was well patronized.

Steeplechase Park (George Tilyou, Mgr.) This popular Coney Island amusement resort draws large crowds daily. The park has many attractions and is greatly improved. A number of societies and lodges are having their outings there.

Bergen Beach—The popular priced pleasure place is the motto of Bergen Beach this season. This beach opened on Sunday, and there are many new and clean shows at this resort. At the Casino is a high class vaudeville show, and at the Pier a ladies' band gives concerts. On the board walk several shows are found, such as Fossilish House, Mount Pelee, Palace of Illusions, etc. The car fare to Bergen Beach is but five cents and it is the finest trolley ride in Brooklyn.

Henderson's Music Hall (F. B. Henderson, Mgr.) An excellent vaudeville bill was given as follows: Mosher, Houghton and Mosher, Karsner's myophone, Hubert Deveau, Scott and Wilson, Three Marceaus, May Curtis, Carter and Pollard, Dick Ford, Majestic Musical Four, Whangdongie Comedy Four, The Tanaka, Gray and Graham, Johnnie Carroll, Dawson and White, Morris and Bowen, Mamie Barnish, Toledo and Price. Business was excellent all the week.

Dreamland is entertaining thousands of visitors daily. It is full of attractions and it is hard to see them all in a day and a night. There is a fire spectacle, an open air circus and theatre. In addition to Bostock's Animal show; all sorts of queer rides and shows from a trip in the Sowers of Paris to a visit to Pompeii with Vesuvius in eruption. A special engagement for the Midget City Circus this week is that of Mme. Hansl Andra, the smallest bareback rider in the world. The free open air vaudeville on the Dreamland plaza has become popular. There will be a change of bill this week, the following artists appearing: Flora, The Yaeger Troupe, Texarkanna, The Golden Quintette, La Belle, The Barlows and The Howard Sisters. Helene Gerard, The Four Linkens and Howard, the principal features of the open air circus will remain for the season. All the shows and attractions in Dreamland are fully opened and are doing big business. The line of steamers from New York to Dreamland are carrying thousands of passengers daily.

Bostock's Animal Arena (Frank C. Bostock, Mgr.) Mr. Frank C. Bostock The Animal King, arrived from Paris last week where his wild animal arena has astonished the gay residents of the French capitol during the past winter. Mr. Bostock brought with him many of the principal acts of his Paris show, such as Mme. Morelli and her leopards, Weedon and his mixed troupe of lions, tigers, bears and hyenas, Prof. Miller and his nine man-eating Bengal tigers. Aside from these acts Bonavita appears daily with his 27 lions, and Toubillion rides the circle of death over a large cage of African lions. There are also many other thrilling acts. Business is to capacity daily.

The New Electro Scenograph Mount Pelee at Coney Island opened on June 25, to tremendous crowds. The scenic effects are novel and unique, entirely original and cost $100,000. This attraction is one of the best at Coney Island and is under the same management as the Johnstown Flood.

Brighton Beach Music Hall (Wm. T. Grover, Mgr.) The management of this music hall presented an excellent bill this week as follows: Charles Hawtrey was the headliner and was seen in his laughable sketch Time is Money and made a big hit; the other artists who helped make up the attractive bill were Girard and Gardner, Fisher and Carroll, Stein, Eretto Family, Jessie Bradbury, John Zimmer, Ralph Diamond and The Vitograph. Business was excellent all the week. The headliner for next week: Miss Jessie Willard.

Johnstown Flood (H. A. Bradwell, Mgr.) This attraction is doing a wonderful business and no one can afford to miss it. This attraction has been at Coney Island for several seasons and it is without a doubt the best educational exhibition located at this resort.

Mr. Percy G. Williams, Brooklyn's most popular manager is now one of the busiest men in Brooklyn. Aside from his many theatres he is now at the head of Bergen Beach. Mr. Williams is the possessor of a fine automobile and he makes good use of it in visiting Coney Island and Bergen Beach.

The Galveston Flood seems to draw big crowds to Coney Island. The attraction is first-class in all respects. Hartig and Seamon's new vaudeville bill is nearly completed. It is located at Arverne by the Sea, between the Colonial and Arverne hotels and will accommodate an audience of fifteen hundred people. The pier will open on July 2, with a strong vaudeville bill.

The Jamaica Bay Development and Amusement Company was recently incorporated in Brooklyn. The capital is said to be $100,000. The new company will erect a number of amusement buildings in addition to a casino, theatre, ball-room, circus and menagerie on the water front south of Jamaica.

The O. J. Gude Company have recently completed their contract with the Dreamland company of Coney Island. Their new banners and signs attract much attention as they are very distinctive and plain.

Percy J. Williams' Circus Theatre in Manhattan closed a very successful season on Saturday, June 18, 1904.

W. B. Watson, the popular manager and owner of the Cozy Corner Theatre, has received several offers for the sale of his Oriental Burlesques. The manager that gets this attraction will certainly get a box office winner. Manager Watson also has several good melodramas for sale.

The Midget City at Dreamland, Coney Island, has proven to be very popular and is one of the leading attractions of Dreamland. Mr. J. J. Rodrigues is manager of this novel enterprise.

The Four Linkens have made such a hit at the open air circus in Dreamland that they have been engaged for the entire season. At the close of the season at Dreamland they go to London, where they will open at The Empire, Oct. 31.

About twenty-five members of the Forepaugh and Sells Show visited their friends on Sunday at Luna Park and Coney Island. The Forepaugh and Sells Brothers were showing near New York, so it gave the performers an excellent chance to visit the two great outdoor amusement enterprises.

W. G. Orr, of Toronto, Canada, was at Coney Island last week looking for acts for the Great Toronto Fair. Richard Warner, of London, England was also there looking acts. One of the biggest acts Mr. Warner booked was the Four Linkens.

The largest bathing beach in the world is located at Dreamland, Coney Island and is now fully opened. The Dreamland Co. are the first people to supply life preservers in their life savers boat, which can be thrown to persons in danger. Many other improvements are being made at this popular resort.

PITTSBURG.

Despite some very warm weather during the past week, the attendance at the few play houses now open, seems to keep up, and prospects are good for a continuance as the attractions are of the best in their respective lines. The warm weather has had the desired effect so far as the parks are concerned and the crowds at each of the four parks, particularly Kenneywood, last Sunday were remarkably able.

Avenue (Vaudeville: Harry Davis, Mgr.)—Mr. Stevens, well known as a leading man on the big circuit, surprised his many friends with his ability as a monologist. Mr. Stevens' sketch, A Night Out, in the hands of this capable actor, shines brilliantly. The Roscoe Midgelys, familiar to the patrons, presented some new features. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in their pretty sketch When Two Hearts Are Won; Seliger Sisters, formerly of King Dodo Company, in Concert Duets; Zeb and Zarrow, in trick bicycling; Louise Brehany, vocalist; Sisters

Lecky, singing specialties, Drawee, the juggler; Marlow, Plunkett and Company, in a novel travesty, and the Three Jacksons, comedy acrobats.

Box (P. J. McNulty, Mgr.)—Two big audiences greeted The Road To Ruin, 21. The performance winds up with some clever boxing by Joe Gans the champion lightweight. Mike Tunney, a local boxer tried it out with Gans and the rounds were fierce and swift. Next: The Bowers After Dark.

This is the second week of the Labor Carnival, under the management of Mr. J. S. Berger, and it promises to have larger business than last week, which was very satisfactory. All runs very smoothly with the exception of the accident that happened to Tony Tonnelli and his attempt to Loop the Loop. While his fall only bruised him, it however, created considerable excitement amongst the spectators. The same accident happened again the following night, but Mr. Tonnelli has shown up each night, and is now doing the turn without a slip. Mr. Berger will be married, 22, at the grounds in the presence of those who will be able to get anywhere near the ceremony. The Aerodrome and numerous other attractions go to make the carnival a very interesting affair. This is the final week. Next week Ferreri Brothers' Carnival of 100 shows, under the auspices of The Building Trades Council, commencing 27, and closing July 9.

The vaudeville bills at both Kenneywood and Southern Parks, opened, 21, for the week to appreciative audiences. At Kenneywood the Aerial Laconaa, ride bicycles on wires stretched between the dome of the Steeple Chase and Casino Buildings. Lavardo does an exciting turn on the wire, and the Martini brothers do an acrobatic act. The bill in the theatre building included the Electric Comedy Four, Brooke Eitryn, vocalist; M. Forber, juggler and Frank and Ida Adams, in a musical turn. At Southern Park the Dixie Troubadours, a colored organization of singers and dancers, have a very funny musical comedietta as a first part of their show entitled Emancipation; in an olio are Carter and Blinford, Alice Brown, Thomas Craig, Davis and Walker and the Coovvile Band. PUBLISHERS' CORNER.

We believe our readers will be interested in a brief mention of the material welfare and progress of "The Billboard." The growth of the paper has been wonderful. It is doubtful if any class publication in America has ever equaled its record. Certainly no amusement paper ever met with such popular favor in so short a time. The paper is not yet ten years old and has outstripped all its rivals. It has secured the largest circulation of any paper in its class and is growing faster today than it ever has.

On Tuesday, November 1 next, "The Billboard" will be ten years old. We are going to celebrate the event by bringing out the largest and handsomest special edition we have ever issued. It will consist of one hundred pages all handsomely illustrated, many in colors. The cover will be lithographed in twelve colors and will also be beautifully embossed and ornamented in gold and silver. In this beautiful special edition we propose to tell at great length in detail, the wonderful story of "The Billboard." In the meanwhile the following facts and figures may prove of more or less interest.

The first issue of "The Billboard" was brought out on the first day of November, 1894. The projectors were Jas. H. Hennegan and W. H. Donaldson. It was a monthly in those days and the first issue consisted of eight pages. Contrast that with this issue which consists of forty-four pages; and every page is needed; none of them are padded. This indicates a growth in ten years of 450 per cent per year. It is a noticeable fact that this is about the percentage of increase that shows in all departments.

Not one dollar—not one cent of capital was ever put into the paper by either of the publishers. One of them used to keep the books and set the type after night. The other edited it and kept the books, the printing, binding and paper were furnished by a single printing house and their bills were hung up and stood off by partial payments or put off altogether as exigencies demanded. At the end of the first year the publishers found themselves pretty deeply in debt, but for all that their assets increased and they estimated their net worth at about $775.00. Today the net assets of The Billboard Publishing Co. exceeds $30,000.00 with no liabilities to speak of beyond current bills, and its financial standing and credit is of the very highest.

Not a half page of paid advertising appeared in the first issue of the paper. We are now regularly printing from twelve to sixteen pages and the demand for space is increasing every week. We have over two thousand testimonial letters from advertisers all expressing the most pronounced satisfaction with the returns they have received from "The Billboard."

The first issue of "The Billboard" consisted of 500 copies and was almost entirely forced circulation, that is to say, sent out in the shape of unsolicited sample copies. We are printing of this issue fifteen thousand copies, which is as nearly as we can gauge it, the actual and legitimate demand. A paper that sells at ten cents a copy is rightly entitled to estimate that it has five readers for every copy printed. We know "The Billboard" has. We have proven it time and again. Even the returns from the news companies are checked, thumb marked and dog-eared, which proves that they have been read and read and read again. This being the case we can rightly and legitimately claim 75,000 readers. At the rate that we are now increasing we confidently expect to reach the 100,000 mark before the end of the year. AND THE ADVERTISING RATE OF "THE BILLBOARD" IS 10 CENTS A LINE—WHY PAY MORE?

At 10 cents a line for 75,000 readers your advertising costs you but two fifteenths of a cent per line per thousand readers. There is not another class publication in the world that offers as low a rate.

OMAHA.

Boyd Theatre (Woodward and Burgess, Mgrs.) Well, summer is upon us and the summer stocks are doing excellent to their particular patrons. Dick Ferris' strong and capable stock company is receiving even more of prominence and patronage than ever before. The Diamond Robbery, 5-9, played to record business as the audience were well pleased with the production. The rollicking comedy, All the Comforts of Home, 9-12, pleased immensely to packed houses.

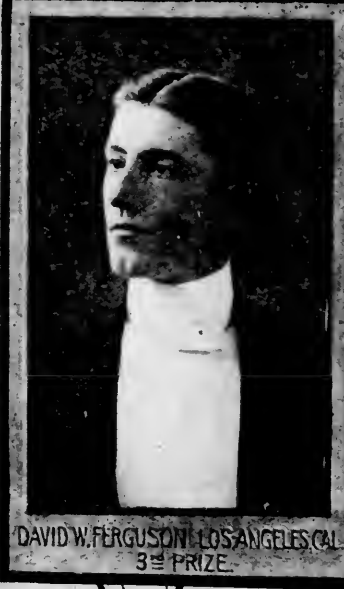

W. P. (Billy) Byrne, the popular treasurer of the Orpheum, is now managing the Lake Manawa resort at Council Bluffs. Manawa has been greatly improved since last year and a number of new launches and steel row boats have been added. Nordin's Band is a permanent fixture. The Casino is taking well with its high-class vaudeville. Nialde Liljens gives her famous fire dive on the pier. Lake Manawa is one of the most popular of western resorts.

Courtland Beach is getting a full share of the patronage this summer. The star attraction, 5-18, was the perilous dive given by Harry Russell, the one-legged bicycle wonder. All the summer resort attractions are in full swing. Krug Park resort on its side is again an attractive spot for leisure hunters. The park is becoming famous for its abundance of shade, excellent attractions and ease of access.

The Auditorium, with Innes and his band, is enjoying top-notch melody and the people are turning out in good numbers. The opening, 7, was a magnificent ball long to be remembered for its gathering of beautiful women. Inness is king.

DANVILLE, ILL.—Grand Opera House (W. L. Keller, Res. Mgr.) The season will open, August 2, for weekly repertoire companies for a short time, to be followed by the best of the one night stands. The stage is being refitted, wings greatly extended and some new seats added.

Way Show Park Theatre (Matt. Kussell, Prop., Syd. Sylvester, Res. Mgr.) Recently opened and is doing an immense business. Ellmore Sisters' Comedy Company, week June 19, in Devils Lane; The Dashing Widow, Finnegan Alley, and A Jolly Tramp more than met every one's hopes and expectations. This new park theatre is bound to be a winning card.

THE CONTEST.

On the opposite page are reprinted the winners in this year's contest for the Brom Emblem and the minor prizes distributed annually by "The Billboard" among its most efficient correspondents.

This year's contest has been waged vigorously and each of the winners may justly feel proud of his achievement.

Only one person can win the capital prize in "The Billboard's" contest.

This grand prize is a maltese cross of pure gold and costly jewels, handsomely embossed and appropriately engraved.

The consolation prizes are as follows:

Second Prize$50
Third Prize 40
Fourth Prize 30
Fifth Prize 20
Sixth Prize 10

PERCY S. EWING.

Mr. Percy S. Ewing, the winner of the Brom Emblem in "The Billboard's" contest for superiority in correspondence, is the correspondent of "That Cincinnati Paper" at Decatur, a town of twenty thousand inhabitants in Central Illinois. Although living in a town which supports only one opera house and which has not so much as a cheap circus killed for this season, Mr. Ewing is one of the most widely known dramatic correspondents in this country. His surroundings being so noticeably void of dramatic environments, he made up this deficiency in real genuine push and zeal. And it is through his untiring energy, natural wit and strenuous efforts that he has succeeded in capturing the much coveted, richly jeweled and priceless emblem. His methods were purely original and unique. When he allied himself with "The Billboard" Mr. Ewing was utterly unknown as a newspaper man.

As above stated Mr. Ewing was born in Decatur, in which place he has ever since resided with the exception of a period of one year, and where he has established himself in business. Six months, during the winter preceding the World's Fair of 1903, the successful contestant passed in Chicago. The remaining six months were spent as a volunteer in Uncle Sam's army during the Spanish-American War.

Mr. Ewing has always been given to literary pursuits. A good education obtained in the schools of his home city was greatly extended and broadened by diligent private study and observation. Mr. Ewing's correspondence reveals clearly the traits of an ambitious and studious writer.

The manner in which Mr. Ewing won the capital prize offered by "The Billboard" is interesting. Scarcely a mail was received at the office of "The Billboard" that did not contain a letter bearing either some item of interest to the profession, copy for an ad., a route or photograph or sketch of some one in the show or theatrical business. There never was a person, however slightly connected with the profession, that passed through Decatur, but what was personally interviewed by Mr. Ewing. Many have been the instances in which the successful correspondent has helped an unfortunate thespian or given material assistance to a showman in hard luck.

Strenuous was the keynote to the good work which Mr. Ewing did for "The Billboard." He went at his work in a manner to accomplish a definite end. About two thousand little souvenir mirrors were given out to members of traveling companies, showmen and agents. He had printed cards which he gave personally to all those whom he met. He used his own route cards which enabled him to keep track of his host of friends. These he had printed at his own expense. Furthermore he kept himself well supplied with advertising matter from the office of "The Billboard" and this he used with good judgment.

Mr. Ewing never failed to contribute a weekly letter for the correspondence department of "The Billboard." He sent in more sketches and routes than did any two men in the field. He was prompt, commanded a good position in the paper and got it. He did his work quietly, himself a very unostentatious man, and succeeded in making scores of friends.

With the Brom Emblem in his possession, Mr. Ewing has an asset that, from a literary standpoint, is priceless. It testifies to his worth, his integrity and industry. He is to be congratulated upon his success as a correspondent and "The Billboard" takes this opportunity of extending to him its most cordial thanks for the work he did during his two years as a member of our staff.

Though the correspondents' contest has been carried on with considerable vigor among the participants during the past year, and though many have striven openly for a prize, some consistently and continuously, others in a desultory manner, it has not been distressingly difficult for the editors of "The Billboard" to select those who are worthy of substantial recognition according to their degree of efficiency, judged entirely by the services rendered.

The contestants went about their work knowing what they had to do and realizing that conditions were one of the foremost considerations of the judges.

Every advantage and disadvantage was taken into account and all were summed up together in the final reckoning. The men in the small towns were given an equal chance, according to the rules of the contest, with the representatives in the largest cities.

This is further exemplified in the fact that the winner of the Brom Emblem, Mr. Percy Ewing, was cast to labor in a field that offers many disadvantages and few advantages. Decatur, Marion County, Ill., has a population of 20,754 and boasts of only one theatre and one summer amusement resort.

Undaunted by the appalling limitations of his field, Mr. Ewing went in for a prize last July and he now finds himself successful, perhaps even beyond his hopes, for he has come out first in the race.

He was an easy winner. He took the lead from the start. His letters came promptly and not one during the entire fifty-two weeks failed to recount a new victory in one line or another. Now it was a subscription from a man who had long stood proof against our energetic and persistent representative's solicitations; again it was the copy of an advertisement from an advertiser who had seemed invulnerable to Mr. Ewing's argument in favor of the publication he represents.

Not content with one subscription Mr. Ewing would question the new subscriber as to whether he was pleased with the paper and upon his reply which was invariably in the affirmative, would ask him to suggest the name of a personal or business friend who was not an subscriber but who might be induced to become one. This method of procedure constituted the effect of an endless chain system and worked admirably.

The same plan was followed with the advertisers. Having gained the inevitable testimonial of results obtained by the advertisement Mr. Ewing would use this as an argument that seldom failed to enlist proselytes who were moreover the very best kind of canvassers and solicitors.

But he did not stop with advertisements and subscriptions. He never lost an opportunity to advertise "The Billboard" and by the most effective methods. Many unique and useful or entertaining advertising novelties were originated by him and placed in the hands of those whom he thought would be most benefited by them. In this as in his work of soliciting advertisements and subscriptions he did not confine himself to the meagre possibilities offered by Decatur, but used the mails unsparsingly.

From Mr. Ewing's account as well as from the testimony of actors and managers and from the items contained in his letters we assume that our Decatur representative seldom if ever missed an opportunity of interviewing professional people who visited that town and of placing in their hands sample copies of his paper and the advertising novelties before mentioned and consisting of mirrors on the back of which the advertisement of "The Billboard" is printed, printed cards in various forms, etc. (which must be seen to be appreciated) and which have worked much good.

In addition to this work Mr. Ewing contributed the photographs of nearly one hundred professional people, more or less celebrated in their respective lines and many of which have been reproduced in the columns of this journal.

There was never a week when his intimate success could have been doubted provided he kept up his standard of excellence.

He has won the emerald by hard, conscientious and consistent work and it is with pleasure and congratulations that "The Billboard" awards him first place in a most interesting and edifying contest.

GEO. H. HAKES.

Mr. George Harrison Hakes, "The Billboard's" Brooklyn, N. Y., correspondent, has been successful in taking the fifty dollar, or second prize, offered by "The Billboard" for faithful work. Mr. Hakes was born, October 12, 1874, on a small farm near Belvidere, Ill., where he spent ten years of his boyhood preceding his parents' removal to Belvidere.

At an early age Mr. Hakes developed a liking for newspaper work and printing, and while at school he purchased a small printing outfit, with which he did small jobs. His business increased and he purchased a larger machine and began to publish a small amateur paper. After leaving school he was connected with several daily papers in his home city. At the age of nineteen he secured a position with a large manufacturing concern, a position which finally led to a special New York representativeness. For the past five years Mr. Hakes has represented his firm in the metropolis.

During his New York residence Mr. Hakes has taken advantage of his desires along theatrical lines and has manifested a deep interest in the profession and out-door amusements.

Mr. Hakes has been awarded the second prize, consisting of $50 in cash, in recognition of his efficient work during the past season. He entered into the contest with a spirit that, added to his natural energy and enterprise, was sure to place him among the first contestants.

His field of labor offered comparatively great opportunities, and he made the best of them. His missionary work among the news dealers of Brooklyn, Coney Island and Gotham, may be mentioned first, as it represents the most valuable part of his services to "The Billboard." He made it his business to interview all newsmen in localities where "The Billboard" was likely to be in demand, and to see that they gave us the best representation and display. He also took advantage of the opportunities offered by the great New York press, and every week contributed a bunch of clippings from papers purchased at his own expense and reviewed by himself. All this takes a great deal of time, but Mr. Hakes was most faithful. With him it was a labor of love. Feeling that his services were appreciated, he worked on most indefatigably, never overlooking an opportunity to procure an advertisement or to interview advertisers. Mr. Hakes has contributed largely, both to our news and advertising columns. During the time that we were without a representative in New York City, he volunteered to take up the work in that city without recompense or other substantial consideration, until we could procure a man to work permanently and consistently in the field. It is with great pleasure that "The Billboard" awards Mr. Hakes the second prize.

DAVID WALTER FERGUSON.

The winner of the third prize of forty dollars is David Walter Ferguson, for several years correspondent for "The Billboard" at Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Ferguson was born at Clinton, Iowa, and from the time he was ten years old he has been an ardent supporter of out-door amusements. In the course of his parents' removal across the continent they reached Los Angeles, became enamored of its beauties and decided to make that place their permanent home.

The winner of the third prize has always followed the out door amusement business and has served in numerous capacities with different organizations. At present Mr. Ferguson is assistant manager of Chutes Park, one of the best known resorts in California. As assistant manager Mr. Ferguson has a most responsible position and important matters are entrusted to him by the manager. Mr. Ferguson is planning an eastern trip which will include St. Louis and the leading cities of the middle west and east. The purpose of this trip is to obtain information concerning the management of eastern resorts and the remarkable perceptive qualities of the young manager will prove of great advantage to him.

Mr. Ferguson succeeded in capturing one of the prizes in last year's contest and he has always been a faithful worker for "The Billboard."

In connection with his work as representative of this journal, Mr. Ferguson says:

"Correspondents for 'The Billboard' have fewer difficulties to overcome than most representatives, because of the sterling qualities of the paper which speak for themselves. A few years ago in Los Angeles it would be a rarity to find a copy of 'The Billboard' on a newsstand, now it is complete without it and newsdealers tell me that they have difficulty in supplying the large demands.

This is no doubt due in a measure to the larger influx of Eastern show people to this far west to whom the paper is a necessity, but principally due, in my mind, to the merits of the paper itself.

As "The Billboard" has become more widely known and talked of in this city, it has of course become easier for the correspondent to interest the managers of the different show-houses. The difficulty that had to be overcome in the first place was their ignorance of the extent of the circulation of "That Cincinnati Paper" and also the wide interest of its outlook embracing, as it does, everything of interest to the show business. When they at last discovered its value nothing could exceed their courtesy in imparting information of any nature that would be of interest to "The Billboard's" readers until now I consider it a great honor to represent such a paper and the work of correspondent has become a pleasure when all are so anxious to assist and further its interests."

It will be recalled that Mr. Ferguson won the second prize in last year's correspondent's contest. He has succeeded again this season, entirely on his merits and without consideration of his former victory. Mr. Ferguson is indeed a hustler. His rapid rise in business influence indicates this. His work for "The Billboard" is a more direct manifestation to us of those sterling and energetic qualities which go to make a man successful in all of the contests of life. Judged from a purely impersonal standpoint, Mr. Ferguson has, therefore, won third place in the race. Not once in the fifty-two weeks since the awarding of last year's prize has he failed to contribute an interesting and exhaustive news letter. His work in the advertising field has also been of the most intelligent and energetic nature. Persistence, perhaps, is the secret of success with the advertiser. Mr. Ferguson has extended his acquaintance among the professional people, and from all sides we hear of his intelligence and enterprise. He never fails to interview actors and performers that are at all approachable. It is evident that he devoted a large part of each day to the interest of "The Billboard." It is, therefore, with extreme pleasure that we announce him winner of the third prize.

FRANK E. FOSTER.

Frank E. Foster, the correspondent for "The Billboard" at Iowa Falls, Iowa, was the winner of the fourth prize of thirty dollars. Mr. Foster was born at Iowa Falls, March 30, 1866, and has spent his entire life at the home of his birth. After his graduation from the high school he entered the postal service and was for five years assistant postmaster at Iowa Falls. Leaving the post office he accepted the office of cashier of the Home Savings Bank of his city, resigning that position to engage in the real estate business. In addition to his other duties, Mr. Foster is city clerk of Iowa Falls, secretary of the Electric Light and Power Company, secretary of the Commercial Club of Iowa Falls and superintendent of the Union Cemetery, besides holding several other positions of minor importance.

A lover of newspaper work, a considerable portion of his spare time was devoted to work on local papers. Last year he became correspondent for "The Billboard" and has labored earnestly to give the paper the best possible service. Mr. Foster enjoys a wide acquaintance among members of the profession and his picture gallery contains the photographs of almost all the well known actors of both sexes.

During the year that has just past, Mr. Foster has made it his business to devote a good deal of time to the interests of "The Billboard." His weekly letters were of the most interesting nature, and his work among the professional people is spoken of in the highest terms; nor has there been anything desultory or intermittent about his efforts. He has worked earnestly and consistently. Therefore in appreciation of his efforts, we announce him winner of the fourth prize.

WILLIAM INGRAM.

Mr. W. D. Ingram, of Monongahela, Pa., has won the fifth prize of $20. Mr. Ingram's success in this contest is based on two instances that are worthy of publication. Having entered into the contest and assured himself further by correspondence that limitations and advantages were to be taken into consideration, he started to work to procure the subscriptions of the only two possible subscribers in his town, namely the billposter and opera house manager. These persons were not acquainted with the merits of "The Billboard" and for a long time were heedless of his arguments. Mr. Ingram advised us of his progress from week to week, and at last failing to impress them to any appreciable degree, he boldly forwarded $8 to "The Billboard" and instructed us to send the paper for one year to each of the gentlemen mentioned. We may add that it was only a few weeks until they remitted personally the amount due, expressing at the same time their appreciation of the news value of "The Billboard" and stating that they would continue as permanent subscribers. Mr. Ingram made the very best of his opportunities.

CHARLES H. SMALL.

Mr. Charles H. Small, the winner of the sixth prize of ten dollars, is the correspondent for "The Billboard" at Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Small is a disciple of Blackstone and is connected with the firm of Gage, Ladd and Sm-ll, one of the oldest and most widely known law firms in Missouri.

At an early age the winner of this prize displayed much ability as a writer and later was on the staffs of the Philadelphia North American and Kansas City Journal. He also did special work for the New York Herald and the New York Telegraph, besides contributing to various other magazines, articles on theatrical and advertising topics, some of which were widely copied. The winner of this prize attended the University of Pennsylvania and is a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Mr. Small has been a close student of the drama and literature and has a wide acquaintance among theatrical people. He is a booster for "The Billboard" and has done valuable work since he enlisted in the ranks of the thousands of correspondents which "The Billboard" has on its list. This is the second prize Mr. Small has won in "The Billboard's" contests, he being one of the winners last year.

Mr. Small is the winner of the sixth and last prize of $10.00. He captured the third prize of $40 in last year's contest. His work has been as good this year, but others have outstripped him. Still great credit is due our Kansas City correspondent, engrossed as he must be, in his law practice, to have won any prize in a contest that has been waged so vigorously. Mr. Small's letters have always been very interesting and have been received regularly every week. In addition to this he has done some good work in the advertising and subscription fields.

A FEW OF THE INSTRUCTIONS TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Never say anything in your report that might prove detrimental to anyone. In other words, if you can't boast don't knock.

Write facts only and do not exaggerate.

Never require courtesies of a manager when an attraction is playing to capacity. Wait until an "off-night."

Never ask admittance for two unless the manager proffers it.

The South and especially the Southeast seems to be in better condition than any other part of the country. Reports from touring attractions in those sections indicate uniformly good business.

The lumber business is bad in Oregon, Washington and the Puget Sound country. The mills are closing down rapidly and it behooves traveling managers to exercise great care in routing through that region as business is bound to be seriously affected.

The middle-west ought to be good. Crop conditions are good, even promising, and manufacturing plants have not been as seriously affected as the railroad showings would indicate. But there is no telling to what extent the World's Fair at St. Louis will affect theatrical business. Pretty soon every returning visitor will be a booster in his home town and his boosting will result in two of his fellow citizens making the trip. When they get back they will send four more and so on. Every man and woman that makes the trip to St. Louis will feel poor, too poor to go to shows for several months after his or her return. Then, too, the campaign will cut some ice right up to November. Considerable care should be exercised in routing through the middle-west.

Business throughout Colorado is in awful shape. Conditions are simply deplorable. Owing to the strikes and militarism, trade, manufacturing and milling are almost at an absolute standstill. Independent of the deportation of strikers, there has been a wholesale exodus of the working classes, who, unable to make a living, have sought other fields. Then, too, tourists, travelers, investors and home seekers are avoiding the state, and much money which they formerly left in that region, is wanting this year. Three thousand nine hundred residences are vacant in Denver alone to say nothing of business blocks and stores. A few shows may be able to get living business in Colorado this fall, but it will only stand a very, very few.

CHARACTER SKETCH OF DAVID BELASCO.

From an interview with Mr. David Belasco by Frank J. Mureh published in the June "Pearsons" we take the following excerpt:

"The characteristic that strikes one most forcibly in a talk with Mr. Belasco is his absolute simplicity of thought and manner. Here is a man who can boast of a wonderfully successful quarter-century as a stage director and playwright.

"I seem as if I were only now at the beginning of my career," he said. "There are so many new plans that fascinate me. As a young man, of course my head was full of dreams and ambitious desires. But as I grew older, I desired more. As I advance in years and experience, I dream more."

"I asked him what he considered his first success?" "Hearts of Oak, in the writing of which I collaborated with James A. Herne, was the greatest success among my earlier productions. I suppose La Belle Russe was my first real success. I had been trying for years to get into New York with a play. When I wrote that one, I planned it carefully to fit Wallack's company. It was produced and scored at San Francisco and attracted the attention of Mr. Wallack, who finally produced it at his theatre. So my little scheme was not vain."

THE FABLE OF FOUR MEN.

"I got off a street car this morning," said a doctor to me, "and being in no hurry, I began moralizing on the actions and probable character of three men who had alighted just ahead of me. The first one was even then halfway down the block and was going on with such rapid strides that he had already put a couple of hundred yards between himself and the next man. 'There,' thought I, 'goes a hunter—a man who's bound to succeed in life.' The second man was walking rather slower, and impressed me as one who would do fairly well, perhaps, in this world. But the last fellow was just dawdling along in the most shiftless sort of way. I very quickly set him down for a loafer. 'Just then another idea came home to me. All three were ahead of me!'—Hubert McBeau Johnston, in July "Success."

TENT SHOWS CIRCUS · WILD WEST MUSEUM · MENAGERIE

SEATS COLLAPSED.

And Many People Were Injured at London's Show in Chicago.

During a performance of London's Circus in Chicago, last week, a section of seats collapsed. About 2,000 people were gathered under the tent, and a panic followed, which was intensified by two performing horses plunging into the struggling crowd. It is supposed that the accident was due to the removal of the back props outside the tent by mischievous boys. The injuries consisted mainly in broken arms and legs. Six women and one man were reported seriously injured and many others are supposed to have received minor injuries.

PERSONALITY OF SHOWMEN.

The Brattleboro (Vt.) "Reformer" recently published the following article:

The announcement that the Walter L. Main circus is to play a few dates in Vernon this year reminds me of the difference between the old and the new circus regime. The Main show, while smaller, is rated with the big one this year and is run on the modern lines. Mr. Main is a polite and dignified business man and looks like a millionaire, talks like a bank president, and, in a high silk hat and Prince Albert, sets the pace for a staff of employees who are up a par with the keenest, smoothest, most courteous of the big Ringlings, 4-laws or B. & B. shows. The decorous quiet of an opera house reigns about the big tents. It's the Main personality that makes it. The other side:

Sig Sautelle is an old-timer. He told me last year that his idea of circus comfort was to make the town by wagon. "You get up when you're ready," said Sig, "hitch onto your rubber-tired buggy with a team of trotters and make the next town cool and nice. That's the fun of the circus business." But the pressure of competition and a growing show has forced Sig to the railroad. He has a smooth and finished press agent, one of the best, but he himself is always the old-timer. His press agent took me to dinner in the "governor's tent." Sig did the entertaining. "I don't allow no one to be sweet or light on the job," said Sig, "this is gold to be a respectable show if I get to be a regular every day. I intimated that the boys sometimes warned things up getting the big wagons to the lot mornings. 'They do?' queried Sig anxiously. 'Say, I've broke my hands all to on those people, but I can't seem to keep 'em decent.' Personality again."

But, personally or no personally, I intend to take in every tent show that comes my way. For life, seething, natural life, life with the frills removed, life without hypocrisy, give me a circus crowd on circus day. They're a better show than the animals and performers."

Yours obediently,
H. L. HINDLEY.

MAMMOTH HIPPODROME

Planned at New York by Thompson and Dundy. With the arrival of the new year there will be opened by Thompson and Dundy at Sixth Avenue and Forty-second Street, New York City, the largest hippodrome in the world. Work on which will be commenced at once. A contract was closed recently by the managers of Luna Park, for the erection of a building 200x200x110 feet, to be built entirely of fire-proof material. Plans for the structure have been filed with the Building Department. Mr. Thompson said that the building would seat 5,400 persons, have a stage 200 feet from wall to wall, and 110 feet deep. In the center of the building will be a lake 100 feet long and 50 feet wide for aquatic sports. The entrance will be on Sixth Avenue, and there will be a promenade from one end of the building to the other, with smoking rooms, foyers and proscenium boxes in each corner of the auditorium. "The building will be four times larger than the London Hippodrome," said Mr. Thompson, "and the scale of prices will be from 25 cents for general admission to 50 cents for reserved seats and $1 for box seats. The deal was made for us by the United States Realty and Improvement Company. It is the present intention to run a two-ring circus the entire year, and we shall have the first performance on New Year's night. The building will cost nearly $500,000.

THREE MEN SHOT.

Three men were shot in a quarrel by Zach Mulhall, live-stock agent of the St. Louis & San Francisco, at the World's Fair grounds, June 18. Frank Reed, 50, boss hostler of "Camin's" Wild West was shot in the arm and right side. Johnny Murrah, 35, cowboy, shot in the abdomen. Ernest Morgan, 18, a bystander, was also shot in the abdomen. They were cared for at the Emergency Hospital on the grounds, and the doctors say Morgan will die. This is the culmination of trouble between Mulhall and Reed over a question of authority. After a bitter quarrel the day before, in which Mulhall threatened to shoot Reed, he met him at the conclusion of the Wild West performance as Reed was emerging from the tent, and shot report excellent business. While the Pike was thronged with people, Mulhall pulled his gun, and Murrah attempted to take it away. In the scuffle which followed, the weapon was discharged, wounding Murrah. Mulhall then emptied the revolver, firing point blank at Reed. Two of the shots struck Reed, the others going wild. Mulhall was locked up, and bail was refused.

QUAINT CIRCUS POSTER.

A quaint relief was found recently while tearing down the old Stuart building on State Street at Belvidere, Ill., in the shape of a circus poster. The poster was found in the building which was erected in the fall of 1857, and on it was the advertisement of North's National Circus. The circus was to appear in Belvidere, June 24, 1857. The poster was well preserved. The printing was legible and the ink had not faded.

HARRIS NICKEL PLATE IN WRECK.

The Harris Nickel Plate Show was in a wreck at Alexandria, Va., June 20. No one was injured and the damage to the show property was slight. The outfit was delayed twelve hours in getting into Fredericksburg, opening with a night show instead of matinee.

OBITUARY.

Frank Rose, familiarly known among the members of the profession throughout the country as "Kid" Rose, died, June 21, at the residence of his brother, Leroy H. Rose, assistant city clerk, 729 Oakwood Ave., Columbus, O., after a few weeks' illness of quick consumption. The deceased was a single man, aged about 38 years. During a period of 15 years he was employed with the Harrod and Bailey, Sells Bros., Robinson and Forepaugh shows as advance agent. During the past year and a half he had charge of the circulation of the Eagle Messenger for the states of Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia. He was a charter member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles No. 257 of Columbus, and the funeral was held under the auspices of the Eagles.

MARRIAGES.

Geo. Stumpf, trainmaster of the John Robinson Circus, was married to Miss Mertle Karns, also a member of the circus, June 20 at Limestone, N. Y.

CIRCUS GOSSIP.

Lucky Bill's show was unable to exhibit at Parsons, Kan., June 20, on account of rain.

Bonavita Bosto's great lion trainer, is now working 32 lions in his act.

The Van Woelfimer circus is reported to have disbanded at Fort Recovery, Ind.

population of Janesville is 16,000.

There was a lively opposition fight between the Forepaugh-Sells and Pawnee Bill advance forces down in Main last week.

Warren A. Patrick is Chicago representative of "The Billboard" now and Clay Lambert represents us in New York.

The Midget City, S. J. Rodrigues, manager, located at Dreamland, Coney Island, N. Y., is looking midget performers for the Midget Circus given with the attraction.

May Stewart, recently with the Wallace Shows, has been engaged at the World's Fair with Tompkin's Exhibition of American Riders at old St. Louis Arena on the Pike.

Ed. Cullen is in bad health and has been compelled to give up his position with the Hargrave Shows and return to his home. He was very popular with the show and regret was general when he left.

The week of the thirteenth, instead of a hoodoo as customary, proved the banner week thus far with Forepaugh and Sells Bros.' Show throughout Connecticut and Rhode Island, in matter of attendance, weather and opposition.

E. L. Brannan writes from the Van Amberg Shows: "Business in Nebraska has been big. We are making some big jumps into South Dakota.

Messrs. J. G. Pullan and D. M. Hutton, editors of the Harrodsburg, Ky., "Herald," write that Harrodsburg wants a good circus and that the light show could get in easy and be met cordially.

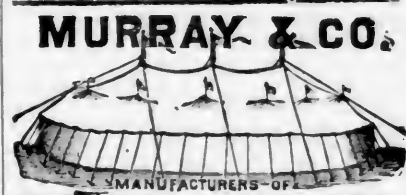

The Knight and Smith Circus had a swell reception at Cardington, Ohio. New seats had to be placed in position after the crowd had gathered to accommodate them.

Thomas Loring, member of the B. R. T. and train master for the past four years with Sells and Downs Show is requested to communicate with R. Glasgow, Leasport, Ind.

Dan Ryan, Bob Stockney and The Four Londons, were a few of the Forepaugh-Sells Bros.' performers who visited their friends at Coney Island, N. Y., last Sunday.

Several of the leading showmen who have visited Thompson and Dundy's Luna Park, Coney Island, N. Y., have pronounced their large herd of elephants to be one of the finest

ST. PAUL.
 Metropolitan Opera House (L. N. Scott, Mgr.) Richard Mansfield was well received, 13-15, by crowded houses. His productions were Old Heidelberg, Ivan the Terrible and Beau Brummel. The plays are all mounted on the lavish scale that characterizes the Mansfield productions. The Four Cohans, 16-18, in Running For Office are sure of a good welcome on their return. This is their first appearance here and they well deserved the applause bestowed. The Four Cohans themselves are always good and are well supported this year. The chorus and musical numbers are excellent. This attraction closes the house for the season. Mr. L. N. Scott, the manager, returned from New York last week and announces a number of good attractions for the early fall.
 Grand Opera House (Theo. L. Hays, Mgr.) Faucett Stock Company, 12, in Tribly. The leading parts were well taken by Miss Percy Haswell and George Faucett. The company is a capable one and is well balanced. Next: Molha and The Great Unknown.
 Star Theatre—Dainty Paroe Company week of 12. One of the Burlesques, The Wrong Mr. Corbett, being original and very funny. In the moving pictures the Great Train Robbery is exceptionally fine. Next: Blue Ribbon Girls.
 Orpheum (Chas. Frecker, Mgr.) This house will not open until June 18. High-class burlesque and vaudeville will be the bill. This is a new theatre and represents an investment of $50,000.
 The Four Cohans have some of the most striking and attractive paper seen here this season.
 The Star Theatre closes with the Blue Ribbon Girls.
 Work is progressing on the New Criterion Theatre at Ninth and Robert Streets and will open about September 1, as a popular price house.
 Manager Barnet at Wildwood, reports business ahead of last year. The new attractions are a roller coaster, Laughing Gallery and the Kattenjammer Castle. This resort opened five-ation Day to the biggest crowd in its history.
 Ringling Bros.' Show will here 28. Paper on boards and newspaper staff running.
 JAS. J. McMAHAN.

STREET FAIRS & EXPOSITIONS

ON THE PIKE AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Baby Incubator—This is one of the most scientific concessions on the Pike, and is an exhibition of man's progress in caring for the young of his kind.

THE PROMOTER.

The true promoter is a man of high ideals and innate ability. He has the faculty of forecasting events and of preparing for them.

TO INSURE FAIRS.

A mutual insurance company for the protection of Ontario, Can. agricultural societies against financial loss from rain during the fall fairs is a possibility of the not distant future.

FAIR NOTES.

Capt. Paul Boyton's Circus open this week on the Pike. The Chautauqua at Kingfisher, Okla., offered the public a treat in the shape of good speeches and a general good time.

A. C. Falson and Frank S. Regan, superintendent and secretary, respectively, of the Rockford, Ill. Chautauqua Assembly, are planning to hold a winter chautauqua at Blount, Miss.

Col. Zach Mulhall, who has been connected with the Cummins' Indian Congress on the Pike, last Saturday, in a dispute shot and wounded three people.

At a recent meeting of the Clabornes Fair Association at Homer, Ia., several changes were proposed and adopted as to the manner of conducting the coming fair.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

The Fourth of July will be celebrated with befitting ceremonies at the World's Exposition grounds. Hagenbeck's Animal Paradise has been increasing in attendance with each performance.

The illustration above represents the act of The "2" Hewitts, who are this season with the Hatch-Adams Carnival Company.

Mrs. McGee enjoys the distinction of being the only woman who owns a concession on the Pike. Her Egyptian Temple, opposite Creation, will be filled with artists of various countries.

and saw that every state delegation headquarters and every hotel lobby was deluged with an avalanche of World's Fair literature and World's Fair pictures.

Street Fairs & Carnivals

MANLEY AND STACEY CARNIVAL COMPANY.

Mr. P. Fontaine has withdrawn from the Fontaine-Manley Carnival Company and the new company takes the name of the Manley and Stacey Carnival Company.

STREET FAIR NOTES.

The street fair and carnival held at Madison, Ind., June 6-11, drew well, and the Dixie Carnival Company had good business. Fury, Nease, Regally, has exclusive novelty privilege with the Hoss and Smith Carnival Company.

ment Company, writes that they could not take care of the crowds at Grand Lodge, Mich. The merry-go-round, and Ferris wheel did big business.

The Manley and Stacey Carnival Company is reported to be making good all through Canada. The shows now with the company are James Gibbon's Electric Theatre with "Location" Johnny on the front; Zora's big palace of illusions; Spelman's dog and pony show; A Trip to the Moon; Dr. Lynn's big museum, Ired Riding Hood, The Statue Turns to Life, The Stadium, The Old Plantation, The Texas Maiden Burlesque Show, with 14 people; M. Eberstein's lady minstrels, Gibbon's new Ferris wheel and merry-go-round.

The Hoss and Smith Carnival Company brought out the people at Belding, Mich., and the K. of P.'s will realize $1,000 in round numbers from the receipts. The local papers of Belding were perfectly free in praising the merits of Hoss and Smith's enterprises and spoke in the highest terms of the various attractions.

The St. Joseph (Mo.) "Gazette" published the following, June 13: "The success of the Red Men's Carnival has given reasonable assurance that the $65,000 necessary for the entertainment of the Great Council of America which meets in St. Joseph during the month of September will be raised.

Notes from the Parker Amusement Company: To rise from a position of janitor of a court house, and a driller of wells, in a half-dozen years, to the owner of the largest and best organized amusement organization in the carnival field is a record of which a man should be proud.

Interesting gleanings from the Fernal Bros. Carnival Company: Since opening, May 9, at Hamilton, Ohio, traversing the cities of Richmond, Marion, Anderson, Ind., Zanesville, O., Wheeling, W. Va., and at present in Canton, O., has been one glorious outburst of realization, to the end that it is a pleasure to be identified and associated with such an aggregation.

BILLPOSTERS DISTRIBUTORS COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS

THE COMING CONVENTION.

Interest in the coming big convention, the thirteenth event of its kind in the history of the association, increases as the date draws near. This interest has waxed exceedingly since Mr. Chas. Bernard sent out the official announcement of the convention last April. The main Assembly Hall at St. Louis will be taxed to its capacity for the different district associations give promise of sending many additional representatives besides the two elected delegates. The district conventions have been held with the St. Louis Convention in view and a concise review of these various meetings will not be inopportune.

The Kentucky billposters and distributors started the ball rolling in a rousing meeting at Seelbach's Hotel, Louisville, May 2. As usual with a growing organization many new members were admitted into membership. Perhaps the most salient point brought up was the Circus Agreement. It was unanimously voted that the same was unjust and that it be brought up at the St. Louis Convention. Messrs. T. A. Pedley and Ramsey Washington were elected delegates to the national convention.

The semi-annual convention of the New York State billposters and distributors was held at Powers' Hotel, Rochester, May 10. Mr. Hood's resignation was accepted as he had disposed of his billposting interests. A resolution was unanimously adopted expressing the sincere appreciation of Mr. Hood's administration. The delegates elected to the national convention were Edward A. Stahlbrodt, of Rochester and F. E. Pritch, of Albany.

The Southwestern States association was also held May 10. The convention was called to order at Armon Hall, Guthrie, Okla. The meeting revealed the growing vigor and size of this association.

The Wisconsin convention followed. This meeting was held in the parlors of the Athearn Hotel at Oshkosh, May 11. A large number of towns were represented. Messrs. P. H. Haber, of Fond du Lac and E. A. Hartman, of Madison were elected to represent Wisconsin at the July convention.

The Indiana Association met in annual convention in the office of the Indianapolis Billposting Company at Indianapolis. The proceedings were carried through with dispatch and the reports showed a material increase in business over the preceding year.

The Southeastern States convention was a most important one and it was held, May 16-17 at Lookout Inn, Chattanooga, Tenn. An important item was the reading of a communication from Chas. Bernard, regarding the proposed withdrawal of the members of the states of Virginia and North Carolina and the formation of a new organization. After due discussion the Executive Committee retired and soon presented a report favoring the formation of the new association, which was readily adopted by the association. Messrs. J. B. Stewart, of Atlanta and W. S. Burton, of Richmond, Va., were chosen to represent the association at the national convention.

The semi-annual convention of the Rocky Mountain association was held at Trinidad, Colo., May 21. The entire day was spent in hard work. Reports showed a material increase in power over that of last year. The St. Louis delegates were chosen as follows: Messrs. C. H. Eastman, J. A. Quinn, Reed and Swartz. The Texas convention was held at Galveston, May 23. The meeting was short, but to the point. The election of officers resulted in the unanimous reinstatement of the entire ticket of last year. Texas will be represented in the national convention by Messrs. Alf. A. E. Edwards, of Edwards and Company of Waco, and J. E. Howard, of Galveston.

The Iowa convention was held at Marshalltown, Thursday, May 26. Perfect harmony characterized the entire proceedings of this meeting. A large number of delegates were present. President C. W. Nichols, having disposed of his plant, handed in his resignation. The Circus Agreement was discussed and the general sentiment was in favor of the same. It was decided that a permanent adoption would be universally beneficial. Minor changes, however, were recommended for consideration at the national convention. The convention pledged itself to support the present officials for reelection and elected Messrs. Elbert Payton, of Centerville and Al. Bnshy, of Marshalltown as delegates to the St. Louis gathering.

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania association was held at Allentown, Pa., May 26-27. Several matters of importance came before the meeting and were settled. Several complaints were entered on account of a violation of the circus agreement. Reports proved the financial prosperity of the organization. After the election of officers the national delegates were chosen as follows: Messrs. J. D. Miahler and C. A. Yecker. The meeting was conceded to be the most successful ever held.

The New Jersey convention was held at the office of President O'Mealla in Jersey City, N. J., Monday, June 6. The principal topic of discussion was the bill proposed to be passed by the state and taxing billboards at the rate of $5 per square foot. Eight new members were admitted, voted to establish a Law Committee and Barney Link was endorsed for reelection.

The Michigan billposters and distributors met in annual convention, June 7, at the Academy of Music, Saginaw. Business was disposed of systematically, and several franchises were granted. The election of officers was closed by a single nomination, which proposed the reelection of the then present incumbents. The motion was voted that the welfare of the Association had been well looked after in the Circus Agreement. President Barney Link and Chas. Bernard were endorsed for reelection. J. C. Falow and Harry Walker were elected as delegates to the July convention.

The Buckeye convention was held at Zanesville, Ohio, June 14 and 15. A large number of delegates were present and a rousing meeting was held. The administration of Barney Link was highly complimented. The by-laws were amended to conform more closely to those of the National Association.

From the above recapitulation it is evident that the three days convention at St. Louis will be of great interest. The election of officers in an organization of such magnitude as this is exceedingly important. The recent court decisions at Chicago and Atlantic City will undoubtedly arouse their quota of comment and discussion. The Circus Agreement is sure to come up as is also the matter of granting a charter to the district association formed from the redistricting of the Southeastern States Association and which came up before the Board of Directors at San Francisco and met the approval of the Southeastern States Convention which was held at Chattanooga, Tenn. The Association will be known as the Middle Atlantic States Billposters and Distributors' Association. The meeting will be productive of good results and the largest convention of billposters and distributors ever assembled will be the coming event. Every preparation has been made for the entertainment of visiting delegates and those that attend will be more than paid for the expense of the trip, besides a pleasant visit to the World's Exposition.

POSTING WITHOUT LICENSE.

A very important and far-reaching decision was recently handed down by the Supreme Court of the State of Georgia in the case of Rogers vs. the City of Sandersville. Rogers represents a New York baking powder company and went to Sandersville for the purpose of selling his wares. He posted bills representing and advertising his wares and was arrested by order of the mayor of the city for posting bills without a license. He was tried and fined $50.00 and costs for violating the city ordinance. Rogers appealed his case to the Supreme Court, which held that Rogers had a right to advertise his wares without paying the fee required by billposters. Rogers is now considering whether or not to bring suit against the city for false imprisonment.

DAUBS.

The City of Chicago appealed the case which the Gunning people won in the Appellate court. Mr. F. H. Beebe, billposter and distributor of Rockford, Iowa, is sending out a unique post card descriptive of his plant and town. It is a good ad.

Niagara Falls will invite the Associated Billposters and Distributors to hold its 1905 convention in that city.

The SECOND ANNUAL REVIEW of the work and progress of the NATIONAL ALLIANCE of BILLPOSTERS and BILLERS of AMERICA will be a very handsome publication. 20,000 copies will be printed, which gives an estimated circulation of 100,000 readers. For advertising rates, Address:

Chas. Joseph, P. O. Box 616, Pittsburg, Pa.

merchants in Muskegon and several other Michigan towns to buy and use commercial posters.

J. H. Simpson has retired from the management of the billposting department of Lord & Thomas and is contemplating taking a position with a well-known poster printing house as poster salesman.

R. C. Campbell met Mrs. Campbell and the children in New York on their return from a long visit in Germany. The "Twentieth Century Limited" was promptly boarded and they hastened home to prepare for the visit to St. Louis and the Billposters' Convention.

A. B. Beall, the owner of the Sioux City, Iowa billposting franchise, treasurer of the Associated Billposters and Distributors, manager of theatres in Ft. Dodge, Norfolk, Yankton, and elsewhere is also a large owner of real estate in Sioux City, one of his holdings being a twenty acre tract of rich river land set with cherry and other fruit trees.

A. Lister, billposter of Newton, Iowa, reports as follows: "Have posted for Sterling Remedy Company, 88 sheets; Mabin Adg. Company, 40 Gold Dnat seats; United Cigar Mfgs., Wornhond's (Local) 6 9-sheets; Iowa Merchants Company (gen. mdse.), 3 8-sheets. Have also tacked 25 3x8-signs for Henry George Cigars."

The issuing of permits to traveling distributors, sign tackers and wall sign painters has been abolished in Savannah, Ga. The city license, with outdoor advertising in all forms including wall and bulletin sign painting is $100.00, and those who attempt to advertise that city without paying the license or patronize those who do pay it are promptly invited to interview the city Recorder.

A. E. Temple, of Blinton, Ohio, reports as follows: Have posted through Associated Billposters and Distributors' Company for Rockport, 5 8-sheets Malta Vita, and same for Blinton, Barnum and Balley, Lima and Findlay, 22 6-sheets show paper. The adoption of the new rates and rates for tent show billing is first-rate.

A Van Benren and Company, of New York City, report that they have placed 24 and 8-sheets in 1,200 of the largest cities and towns promptly covered with painted bulletin signs for local merchants; then a few of the "old fogey" merchants, who are not progressive enough to advertise their own business and jealous of their competitors who prosper by using progressive methods, got busy and tried to influence the city council to compel the removal of the advertising fence, but the contractor stood pat and produced a permit which he had secured from the Streets and Lawns Committee of Council and declared his rights to the use of a fence and his intention to protect his contract with the Bernard Advertising Service.

J. T. Cameron, Sunbury, Pa., reports that he has posted for the Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., 3 24-Sheets and 6 8-sheets; Zeno Gum Company, Chicago, Ill., 50 2-sheets; Mabin Advertising Company, Chicago, Ill., 9 8-sheets Gold Dnat; American Posting Service, Chicago, Ill., 5 24-sheets; Libby Food Products; Moxie Nerve Food, Boston, Mass., 17 12-sheets; A. Van Benren and Company, New York City, 7 8-sheets and 1 24-sheet; Mansfield Chewing Gum, Associated Billposters Protective Company, New York City, 5 18-sheets; Adams and Beeman Chewing Gum, Walker and Company, Detroit, Mich., three months showing Headlight Overalls. Posted through local dealers, Walk-over Shoes, Queen Quality Shoes, Brown and Company wooten displays, Douglas Shoes and distributed 2,000 circulars.

R. G. Curren, manager of the Curren Billposting Company, of Greensburg, Pa., writes that business in good in his territory. He has posted 200 one-sheets and 30 three-sheets for Oakland Park; 25 eight-sheets for Ely Brothers' Dry Goods; 30 three and 15 eight-sheets for Brinkers' Cutlery; 100 one-sheets for Johnston races; 400 one-sheets for Evening Star; five 16 and 22 eight-sheets for Malta Vita; three 24 and 11 eight-sheets for Mansfield Chewing Gum; 35 three-sheets for the Fair Store; 25 eight-sheets for Sion's Liniment and 15 eight-sheets for Hood Light Overalls.

The following excerpt from a Shelbyville, (Ill.) daily newspaper, reflects the popular sentiment in that little city with regard to billboards: "Those Chicago folks who are threatening war on the billboard should take a run down to Shelbyville before they decide on a policy of annihilation. Since Colonel Gowdy put on his cascade paper a revolution in sentiment here is anticipated. Possibly the sweetest paper ever put on a billboard has just been issued by the cascade people. Colonel Gowdy's terse and characteristic comment on the posters (when applied to his billboards) is: 'Well, it can not be denied that his boards are a great improvement over some of the unsightly holes and dilapidated walls which they conceal from public view.'"

Mr. A. H. Jones, Manager of the Jones Billposting and Adv. Company, reports as follows: Business with us is good. We have on our boards at this writing the following paper: Mennen's Toilet Powder, Hick's Capoline, S. W. P. Patent, Douglas Shows, Miller's Bear, Bull Durham, Pepsi-Cola, and Wine of Cardou.

A correspondent in St. Louis writes that The Anheuser-Busch Co., of that city will, beginning January 1, 1905, inaugurate the biggest poster campaign ever essayed by a commercial house in America. They purpose spending $250,000 per year for three years and according to our correspondent are negotiating with W. H. Gardner, of the Barnum & Bailey shows to take charge of the new department and direct the campaign. Woodward and Tiersan, of St. Louis are said to have the contract for the printing.

NATIONAL ALLIANCE NOTES.

Jersey City Local No. 30 held its first picnic at Pohlman's Pavilion, June 20, and was the largest success, being attended by the largest crowd seen at the pavilion this season. Many of the brethren from New York, Brooklyn, and other locals, who happened to be in the city, attended. Good reports are received every day from members on the road.

The road members of Albany Local 21, billposters and billers, are requested to correspond with their secretary, W. B. Horn, 104 Green street, Albany, N. Y., as he has business of great importance to communicate.

Notes from Local No. 24, Buffalo, N. Y.: At our regular meeting held Sunday, June 12, at Swarley's Hall we had a very large attendance and splendid meeting. We took in two new members, Bro. Rob. Bealain and Bro. Chas. Walker. The Local is in good shape in every way. Bro. Chas. Howe and Joe Lynd left last week for St. Louis, to spend their vacation. Bro. Howerd C. Hirtel and his men are very busy at the new Athletic Park. Bro. L. C. Taylor, business agent for Local No. 21, is very busy. Bro. Philip Wolf of the Atlantic Club has taken charge of the Kenworth track work. Will all the out of town men please send their addresses at once to Chas. L. Vincent, Secy., 149 Penn St., Buffalo, N. Y.

tising manager and director of privileges, respectively, of the Norris and Rowe Shows, will inaugurate the tour of Lewis and Browns' Megatherian Ten Nights in a Bar Room, at San Jose, Cal., in December, and have three months of choice coast time booked solid.

Prof. D. C. Smith, for four seasons hand master for Norris and Rowe, will have charge of the musical contingent of 24 pieces. The Pullman sleeper "Carrie" and the combination diner "Angelica" will be occupied by the company.

"Funch" Wheeler writes as follows from Meadville, Pa.: "John Robinson is the first and only circus owner to secure and add to his institution an entire wild west outfit. On June 20 at Bradford, Pa., Chief Little Cloud and his band of Sioux warriors, and Chief One Feather, with Fourteen Cheyenne braves, joined the Ten Big, as an extra parade feature and they will be seen also in the races. These Indians, 48 altogether, braves, squaws and papooses, with two interpreters, create much enthusiasm, and they all think circus life is the most wonderful proposition ever invented.

CIRCUS GOSSIP.

Otome, a female Japanese rope walker, with the Gentry Bros. Show, fell from her rope to the ground, a distance of thirty-five feet, at Peoria, Ill., recently, and sustained severe bruises.

While Barnum and Bailey were exhibiting at Ann Arbor, Mich., the giant in the show came near discovering an equal in a man who reached the roll of money held in the hand of the giant and offered to any one who could reach it. Ralph Rose was the man's name.

Fred Bussey, for many years a prominent agent for Forepangh-Sella Bros.' Circus, is enjoying a visit in New York.

ATLANTIC CITY.

Ponce de Leon Casino (Mr. Jake Wells, Lessee). The Wonderful Faya drew a full house at every performance. Mrs. Fay, who, by-the-way, is a most beautiful woman, was the center of attraction with her work in Thaumaturgy.

CLEVELAND.

Colonial Theatre—Under the Red Robe this week by the Vaughan Glaser Stock Company. Business keeps up tremendous. Hot weather seems to keep nobody away. The show is a good one, neatly staged and has beautiful scenery.

Prospect Theatre—Fablo Romani, one of Marie Corelli's dramatizations is being carried out by the Baldwin-Melville Stock Company here this week. This is a good show, handsomely staged, and carried through very capably.

Euclid Avenue Garden Theatre—The second week of the summer season for this house, with a good vaudeville bill on foot. Crescy and Dayne in a beautiful sketch, Grasping an opportunity; Howard and Bland, Bertha Waltzinger and a host of others complete the bill. Business is good.

Haltnorth's Garden Theatre—The Garden Theatre Comic Opera Company is one of the finest aggregations of players and singers in this line seen in Cleveland in stock for some time. They opened this week with the Queen's Lace Handkerchief, a play very well known to theatre goers. Business is splendid.

NOTES.

The management of the Euclid Avenue Garden Theatre presented a rose to each lady attending the Monday evening performance.

The Vaughan Glaser Stock Company, playing at the Colonial Theatre this city, have decided to produce comedy one week and plays of a more serious nature the next week, alternating in this way for the rest of the season. This is one of the most successful stock companies in the country, and is making good.

WINNIPEG.

Auditorium Summer Garden—The Willis Stock Company has played to very fair audiences since the opening of this popular resort three weeks ago. They put up a nice, clean, light show, and their specialties are clever and appreciated. Their bill for this week was The Private Secretary.

Edison Unique Theatre—Nash & Brown, proprietors of this house continue to give the public good entertainment at popular prices. Their house is continually packed. Good care is exercised in getting attractions. Their feature this week was the Fairchild's in their comedy sketch act, Mr. Naskin's First Trip to New York.

The Swiss Entertainers (Tent Show) J. Griese, Prop.—Are now closing their fourth week with us. Their repertoire includes some real good plays and while the attendance has not been as large as desired, it was due to the location secured, undesirable. They intend removing to another part of the city next week. Their bill for last week was Kathleen Mavourneen and was nicely put on.

River Park Theatre—National Stock Company is now concluding its fifth week's engagement in Winnipeg. The company has satisfied the public, and large crowds journeyed out to the park to see the plays. A Family Affair was the last bill.

NOTES.

The Dominion Exposition opens at Winnipeg, Man., July 25 for two weeks. Expect a grand attendance this year and the management promises us something fine in the way of attractions. The racing events are fifty-five in number and of a good class.

The Winnipeg Theatre is now closed, undergoing alterations to comply with the law. It is expected everything will be in readiness by July 25.

The Italian Marine Band, which has been playing in Winnipeg for the past few weeks, has been left by its management, with no provision for its future. Some of the members have secured positions locally.

The Winnipeg City Band held a Benefit concert on Sunday, June 12 for the stranded Marine Band. It was a success and the proceeds have helped the band somewhat.

A. C. YOUNG.

LOS ANGELES.

Mason Opera House (H. C. Wyatt, Lessee and Mgr.) Maude Adams in The Little Minister, practically closed the season at this theatre last week. A few other stars are promised but they will not appear for some time.

Barbark Theatre (Oliver Morosco, Lessee and Mgr.) The Baker Theatre Company week of June 19, followed by a traveling company playing farce entitled Brown's in Town. The Baker company, a clever organization, did not meet with pecuniary success, but Brown's in Town packed the house first night to capacity and called forth the heartiest applause. It is to run all week and will doubtless entertain big audiences.

Grand Opera House (Winfield Hogoboom, Mgr.) The Ulrich Stock Company is seen to advantage in Uncle Tom's Cabin. It is several decades too late to say anything new of this play but it seems to be never too late for this dramatization to break out in unexpected places and make entertainment for large crowds of the melodramatically inclined. The play is meeting with good success.

Casino Theatre (Wyatt & Morosco, Mgrs.) The Olympia Opera Company appear in Jack and the Beanstalk. It requires the full strength of the company and there is considerable fine solo singing in the production. Jack and the Beanstalk was a rather ambitious effort for a stock company, but the Olympians made good in it and should draw big houses all week.

Orpheum (Clarence Drown, Mgr.) Marcel's living art studies leads the new turna this week. Truly Shattuck is also on the new bill. She returns after an absence of four years in Europe with all her old power to charm and a box car full of new gowns. The Avon Comedy Four have a lively sketch. Lead Russell, the Yiddish comber in her Hebrew character delineation is popular and the holdovers are the best of the old bill of last week.

Chutes Park and Theatre (Henry Koch, Mgr.) Gault's Orchestra renders popular programs every afternoon and evening. The sham battle in water shoes on the lake is always well received, while King Baxter's daring ride down the chutes on a bicycle wins loud applause. An interesting vaudeville program in the theatre draws the crowds and all the other concessions are punning to good business.

NOTES.

A production of Parsifal will be given in Simpson Auditorium, June 26, and on June 29 the same event will be given at the opening number of the musical festival at Long Beach.

Both productions are in the hands of Mrs. Mary Fairweather of San Francisco.

D. W. FERGUSON.

DENVER.

The summer season is fully upon us. Last week all places of amusement made money. The gardens and Manhattan Beach were more popular than ever; the Broadway had full houses, and the Minor Theatres did exceptionally well.

Broadway Theatre (Peter McCourt, Mgr.) Charley's Aunt is the offering this week by the stock company. Mr. Walter Thomas is seen in the title role in which he scores a big hit. Mr. Spottiswood Alken as Spettiam, Miss Janet Ford as Amy Spettigue, and Miss Katherine Grey as Kitty Verdon, are very good. Coming: Hearts Affaire.

Elitch Gardens (Mrs. Mary Elitch-Long, Mgr.) Miss Amelia Blingham supported by the Bellows Stock Company, are presenting The Frisky Mrs. Johnson. Miss Blingham in title role, Mr. Bruce McRae as Jim Morley, Mr. Henry Woodruff as Lord Heathcote, Mr. Grant Stewart, Mr. Edward Mackey, and Miss Helen Tracy were very good. Coming: A Modern Magdalen.

Manhattan Beach (T. H. Lawrence, Mgr.) This resort continues to keep crowd. Eltery's great band is proving a drawing feature; Phil and Nettie Peters, comedians; Leon, Swan and Bombard, sketch team; Carleton and Ferris, musical team; Connelly and Cline, sketch team, and the bioscope.

Crystal Theatre (Geo. I. Adam, Mgr.) Good business at this house. Howard and Campbell, gymnasts; Adams and Mack, magicians; Powers and Freed, musicians; the Lippincotts, Charles Chester, equilibrist; Charles Evans, illustrated songs.

Alr-A-Dome (John D. Glass, Mgr.) Big business is the report from this resort. Latriano and his band are the headliners, LaBard and Reyerson, sketch team; Hingha and Kenton, music and song; Hyde and Wilson, comedians; Leon and Leon, ring artists; Miss Beatie Burton, illustrated songs.

Novelty Theatre (Henry Lubelski, Mgr.) Crowded houses continue. Erne and Monzegar, jugglers; Lane and Keefer, sketch team; Russell and O'Neill, sketch team; Heath and Excells, jugglers; James A. Goff, Miss Emma O'Neil, singer; James Ingersoll, moving pictures; Sara Lubelski, illustrated songs.

Alcazar Theatre (Frank Kippel, Mgr.) Harry DeVoy's comedy, The Hidden Panel is produced as a curtain riser; Lottie Goldora, Virginia Hayden, Lillian Thompson, Dons, Stone, May Crawford, The Macks, comedy sketch; Thelma Kingsley, Lottie Nelson, Emily Temple, Lillian Weston, Sefton and May Degle, sketch. Business is good.

Manhattan Beach opened with the largest crowd that has ever attended that resort in years, the different attractions all proved a success and prospects look very bright.

Two concerts will be given by the Swedish students of Lund University of Sweden. The World's Fair Chorus of this city will give a benefit concert at the Orpheum, June 24.

JUD. MCGINNIS.

BUTTE MONT.—Broadway Theatre (Dick P. Sutton, Mgr.) House dark week of June 12. Grand Opera House (Dick P. Sutton, Mgr.) For week of June 19 the bill is one of the biggest and best ever seen in the city for the money. The olio, which pleased a packed house at the opening performance is made up of Happy Zarrow and company, presenting a musical first part with Cliff Trainor and Eddie Collins as comedians; Tom Burton and Mahle Leslie as soloists, and Happy Zarrow as interlocutor; Mr. Dooley Jr., presents twenty child artists in musical extravaganza, entitled A May Day Festival, or the Rebellion of the Irish Dances; the funny man Jackson, and the famous Junior Trio. A new line of moving pictures bring the performance to a close.

Empire theatre (Dick P. Sutton, Mgr.) An excellent bill is the attraction for week of June 19. A large and enthusiastic audience witnessed the opening performance, and the applause which greeted the close of each act, is proof that the show is a go.

Family Theatre (L. E. Alsop, Mgr.) Week of 13, to S. R. O. The olio is made up of the Alhons in sketch, entitled The Irishman's Revenge, M. A. Snow, in new illustrated songs; Curtain and Blossom, clever acrobats, dancers and singers; J. Turner Hall, the Hawaiian comedian; James T. Dervina, ventriloquist and mimic of rare ability, and The Expedition Four, marvels on musical instruments. The bill closes with an interesting series of moving pictures. Nora and Rowe Circus will show here, July 9.

LOUISIANA MO.—Park's Theatre Musical performance by Aerle Eagles No. 639, was attended by a large crowd, June 20. The specialties were above the average.

BENTON HARBOR, MD.—Bell Opera House (Fred Felton, Mgr.) The house was dark last week, except that Lincoln J. Carter's Remember the Maine Company played a testimonial to J. A. Simons. The Flints, Hypnotists, 20; Metropolitan Opera Company, 27.

NOTES.

Barnum and Bailey Circus, 20, to good business.

Silver Beach opens, 25. Hyman's Michigan Park opened 18. Mahle Strickland, Ethel Strickland, E. I. Kimbal and wife and daughter Clara, in fact all our show people, with the exception of Mr. Geo. Mack, Mr. Jack Edwards and Robert Conner and wife, Helen Strickland, are home for the summer. Mr. Joe Fox and wife, Julia, left, 21, for their new home in New York.

VORMA BAILEY FITZGERALD.

EVANSVILLE, IND.—Oak Summit Park (Wm. Merrill, Mgr.) Business at this park is phenomenal as immense crowds greet the high-class entertainers engaged by the manager of this popular park. Castlett and Hall present an excellent comedy sketch by Geo. Cahlan; Vontella and Nina do marvelous work on rings; Daring Dan Reklaw the trick cyclist; Bonnie Gaylord in songs and dances, and Sutton's kinodrome. Next week: Bonnie May, Eddie Lelele, Leo Chapman, Mlle. Carle and Sutton's kinodrome.

Cook's Park—This park has again taken up vaudeville after several weeks of combination stock companies. This week's bill includes Milo Vazee, Violet McMillin, Clinton and Wilson. West Heights Park has closed on account of poor business.

CHANUTE, KAN.—Metric Theatre (Geo. H. Johnson, Mgr.) Moving pictures and musical entertainment (local), 16, to good house. Was She To Blame, 18, to fair business, considering the very warm weather.

The spring races commence tomorrow, but weather is very rainy and they may have to be called off. It. L. GRIGGS.

DES MOINES, IA.—Ingersoll Park (Fred Buchanan, Mgr.) This week's bill continues to pack the people in. Lewis and Ryan head the bill; Keno, Walsh and Melrose never fall to draw; Harris and Walters, Hugh Stanton and company, and Ollie Young and Bro., formerly of the Al. G. Field's Minstrels. Next week: Robt. Fulgora, Artie Hall.

NOTES.

R. M. Harvey, advance man of the Barnum and Bailey Shows, was in town visiting friends, June 19.

Manager Buchanan says that so far, Ingersoll Park has had better crowds than any season since the park was opened.

JOHN LOVERIDGE, JR.

VINCENNES, IND.—Electric Park opened Sunday, 19, to a large crowd. The theatre not being completed the vaudeville attractions were held in the club house. Mr. Breling and Hindnot the owners and Mr. Ben S. Kellogg the manager, are very much delighted and are assured of a grand success. The same attractions are running all week, two performances daily. They have a big open-air free act, the Marvellous Meville, late of Barnum & Bailey's. They also have a merry-go-round, confectionary stand, picture machines, electric piano and other attractions.

BRADFORD, PA.—The John Robinson Circus was here, 19 and 20. The 19th being Sunday, most everyone had a holiday. Big crowds were at hand waiting the unloading and the pitching of tents. Monday the people had the pleasure of witnessing one of the best circus parades ever given in the city. The afternoon and evening performance took place on scheduled time and both were well patronized. The Robinson Circus is receiving well merited local press notices. It is the only circus on the road with a band of Indians.

JOHN NELSON.

CONCORD, N. C.—The Peters Company playing at the Latta Park Auditorium is giving good satisfaction. On July 2 there will be a big celebration at Gastonia, N. C., including a big display of fireworks at night. The National Stock Company is billed for next week.

H. M. BARROW.

MAYSVILLE, KY.—Sun Brothers' Circus gave two performances, June 20, to small crowds, owing to the fact that the people, at present, are surfeited with out door amusement, having been entertained the week previous with the Red Men's Carnival and Bow Wow.

ASHLAND, WIS.—Grand Opera House (W. T. Seeger, Mgr.) Kennedy Stock Company, May 20-31, fair business; Florence Stone, 4, in Charity Ball, good house; Columbia Opera Company, 6, to good house; McFadden's Flats, 7, to good business; Mahara Minstrels, 11, to full house. No dates ahead at present.

READING, PA.—Carson's Park Theatre (P. D. Lanman, Mgr.) Bryant and Saville's Minstrels, 6-11, to good business; Jno. E. Leslie's Vaudeville Stars, 15-18; Pain's Burning of Rome 13 and 14, was a big attraction. Fully 10,000 people witnessed each performance. Week of 20, Wright Carnival Company.

H. J. SCHAD.

DES MOINES, IA.—Ingersoll Park (Fred Buchanan, Mgr.) The bill opened 5, to an audience of about 2,500 people. It is headed by the Nichol Sisters, who are always good; Genaro and Bally, Snyder and Ruckley, Millon and Correll and The Rexos. Next week's bill is headed by Hal Davis, Inez McAnley and Company, Four Nelson Comiques, Leo and Chapman and Irene Franklin.

Wallace Big Shows turned people away, 6. Gentry Bros.' Dog and Pony Show, 3 and 4, did good business.

Harry Von Tiller's place All Aboard for Dreamland, introduced here by Miss Maxine Geborne, made a big hit. Everyone seems to be wishing it.

JOHN LOVERIDGE, JR.

MAYSVILLE, KY.—This city recently witnessed the greatest and most stupendous carnival ever presented within her gates. Mr. Dan R. Robinson is furnishing the various entertainments. Wrandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. R. M., under whose auspices the festivities were held, were wildly enthusiastic in their praise of the Dan R. Robinson Carnival Company, and well they may be, as every exhibition can be visited by the most fastidious lady in the land, without fear of seeing or hearing anything objectionable. At the same time the shows are very entertaining.

R. B. L.

GOMGOMERY ALA.—Pleasant Springs Casino (Amusement Traction Co.) Last week the Helmsen Stock Company presented Beano, She Loved Him So and The Lady of Lyons. They were both well presented and the large audience showed their appreciation with hearty applause. New specialties were introduced which are clever and entertaining. This company remains at the Casino until August 1.

H. C. C.

CEDAR RAPIDS, IA.—Auditorium (Chas. A. Berkable, Mgr.) This house will open the summer vaudeville season, 27, with the following program: Don and Thomas, comedy sketch artists; the Great Andrews comedy mule act; Miss Hardy Langdon; Tony Pastor's Favorite Gown Show; the Solie Polscope Company and Edison's Moving Pictures.

The Opera House being closed for the summer, high-class vaudeville playing at 10 cents to all parts of the house, will be well patronized, and the seating capacity of 2,500 will accommodate all.

I. W. SCOTT.

ST. JOHN N. B., CAN.—Opera House (A. O. Skinner, Mgr.) Robert B. Mantell's initial engagement in St. John proved a success, 30, June 4, and he shall doubtless play return dates. Coming: Grimes' Collar Door, 9-11; Rentfrow Company, 13-19; Joe McAnley, 20-25; Shealey and Young, 27-30; Town Tones, July 1-2; American Vitagraph, 4-9; Arc von A Mason, 11-16; Gardie, Condit and Mack, 25-29; Robt. B. Mantell (return), 8-13; Katherine Lober, 15-27; Volunteer Organist, 29-31; Kelly & Bates, Sept. 5-7; Way Down East, 8-10; Flisko Stock (return), 12-24.

MARION, ILL.—The Grace Lyall Stock Company under the management of Darrell H. Lyall will open a show at the Electric Park, 13, and show for one week, closing with the first play A True Kentuckian.

O. W. J.

CINCINNATI.

One of the largest crowds that ever gathered at an outdoor amusement resort, or 'n-door for that matter, was that which attended Chester Park, June 21, the event being the Street Railway employes' outing. It is said that 35,000 people visited Chester that day. The Japanese war balloon at the Lagoon was a big sensation. The entire amusement business was splendid Sunday and no complaints can be entered by either managers or concessionaries. The excursions from many points to Cincinnati materially increased the galaxy of amusement seekers and sight seers.

At Chester Park, the opera company in this week presenting Mabelle Gillman's bit, The Mocking Bird to audiences such as give the players an added zest for their work. Miss Amy Leslie was warmly received by the critical audience. Miss Marion Stanley, in the role portrayed by Miss Mabelle Gillman, is generously applauded for her clever work. The entire company shows up good. Next: El Capitlan. In the vaudeville pavilion, a crowd of such size assembled to witness the free vaudeville performance, that standing room was in great demand—and the bill deserved the crowd. Although the Four Nelson comiques headed the program with a clever comedy acrobatic turn, they are closely pushed for honors by Milo Vazee in a haz punching act, the equal of which has never been witnessed in a local stage. Naomi Ethardo, equilibrist, May Walsh, comedienne, and Ferguson and Tassmore, song and dance artists. All "topliners" go to make up one of the best bills presented this season at Chester Park.

Owing to the dislocation of his collar bone last week, Prof. Ritchie failed to make his bicycle drive.

Coney Island, with its many attractive features and pleasant places, captured a large portion of amusement seekers Sunday. On the vaudeville pavilion a funny sketch, called Mamma's Baby, pleased the older as well as the juvenile portion of the audience. The remaining portion of the bill was up to the standard. The Queen and Avalon as well as the traction cars were taxed to their capacity. Several outtings will be held at Coney this week. Hon. Michael Mullen will take his constituents to the island Wednesday and the inmates of an orphan's asylum will be given a pleasant trip to the resort on the island Queen. Manager Clark is making a big success out of his enterprise this year, and the best time is to come.

The Lagoon had a big day Sunday. Mr. Hutchinson's Japanese war balloon drew strongly and the aerial trip was accomplished without accident. Boating was splendid and the boats and launches were in constant demand. The play by the stock company is called Home Comforts. The presentation of this play was met with hearty applause on the part of the audience. Manager Noonan made his first appearance as a leading man of his company and was heartily received. He will be seen in the leading role all summer.

The Zoo was visited by large crowds which came to applaud John C. Weber's Band. Weber has returned for a week and the various renditions Sunday were greatly enjoyed by music lovers of this city.

The Manhattan Batting Beach reports that its Sunday business was great.

NOTES.

A welcome visitor Sunday* was Mr. Lorenz Hagenbeck, of Hamburg, Germany, and a son of the well-known animal emperor. Mr. Hagenbeck stopped over, enroute from St. Louis to New York City, and spent a pleasant time at the Zoo, the guest of Superintendent Sol Stephan. The visitor was highly pleased with his reception and praised the gardens in glowing terms. While in New York City Mr. Hagenbeck will receive a large shipment of animals consigned to Hagenbeck's Animal World at St. Louis.

Ritchie sustained severe injuries to his back at Chester last week and was forced to stay at his hotel for several days.

Exclusive preparations are being made for the coming Elks convention. Thirty-seven blocks in the business center of the city will be lighted with brilliant electric displays and the whole city from the river front to the hills will be decorated and clothed in the official colors—white and purple, and the American flag. The big electric flag over government square has been tested and it has been pronounced satisfactory.

PHILADELPHIA.

The weather keeps cool and in consequence, the parks and all out-door amusements are suffering greatly. The theatres that are open are doing a nice business and at times Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre is crowded to the doors. At the Park Theatre Ermine has had a very successful week and will be continued week of June 20. On June 27, Princeess Bonnie will be the bill. At Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre business keeps up to the top notch and if the houses keep on growing they will soon be larger than the winter houses. The bills of vaudeville are immense and people are always pleased. McIntyre and Heath are to play a two weeks' engagement at this house, starting June 20, and this is announced as their last appearance in vaudeville. They go under the management of Klaw and Erlanger next season. At Keith's Bijou Theatre the stock company is this week giving an excellent rendition of The Lottery of Love and for week of June 20, they will announce The Cowboy and The Lady. At the green-streak burlesque is doing nicely. The house will be kept open as long as patronage proves profitable. The Troscero closed suddenly last Saturday night, so the above is now the list of open theatres. At the parks the same bands continue as noted in last week's letter, but business is far from encouraging. At Chestnut Hill Park vaudeville is being given with fair degree of success. BOB WATT.

CUMBERLAND, MD.—The Margaret Neville Company, of which Wm. L. McCraw is manager, is being put in shape here, and will open in Bellaire, Ohio early in September. Everything is ready for the Seaman-Milham Carnival Company which shows here 27-July 2. Mr. Matt Kennedy and wife are spending the summer with Mr. Kennedy's parents, Capt. and Mrs. Kent, Park Street, this city. Milham Bros. have their enormous billboard plant covered with carnival paper announcing Veribest, Malta Vita, Bulling Tobacco and Coco-Cola.

THEATRICAL.

Rose Stahl, who played Mary Manning's role in Jangle, Meridith last season, will appear at Proctor's in New York in a one-act comedy by James Forbes, The Chorus Lady.

Charles Hawtree begins a summer engagement in the Chicago Opera House, commencing July 4. This will be Mr. Hawtree's first appearance in vaudeville in the windy city.

The Five Dordona have just finished a five weeks' engagement at Dreamland, Coney Island, N. Y., and have opened at Forest Park, Kansas City, Mo.

Kelsey and Shannon are to be under the management of Sam Shulert next season and will be featured in a new German military play entitled Taps, to open the season September 1.

Mr. Richard Warner, of London, Eng., recently booked the four Lukenas to open at the Empire, London, October 31. The four Lukenas are now playing at Dreamland, Coney Island, N. Y.

The Amalia and Manolo Family, recently finished 36 weeks in the West and northwest on the Goldsmith and Long Circuits. They go East, July 17, and open on the Spellman Circuit.

Oscar Eagle and wife, Miss Esther Lyons, are spending a few days at his home near Gallipolis, Ohio. Mr. Eagle was stage manager last season in Mrs. Wlgs's of the Cabbage Patch.

Harry Fuldman and Jack Ball, singers and dancers, write that they are in their sixth week with the Irving French Company, and are making a big hit through the middle west.

Have Flynn, the comedian, (K7), is comedien, is resting at home after 40 weeks on the road. He has had a very successful season, and has several good offers for next season, one being a part in The Minister from Dahomey.

The Lees, kuffe and battle-ax throwers, have closed with Dr. C. M. Wells' Show and are running their own vaudeville show under a 4x60 canvas. The company is playing through eastern Tennessee and Georgia. They report big business.

La Clair & West are on the Crystal Circuit. Their rapid fire talking act is a great success as is Miss West's singing. They have spent one week seeing the Fair at St. Louis, and report that they are booked solid until 1905 over the eastern circuits.

The Miller Bros. bicycle experts, were put on third on the bill at the Farm, Zaneville, Ohio, week of June 13. After the first performance, their act was such a success that Manager Kelly had them to close the performance thereafter.

Vice and Viola opened, June 19, at Coney Island, Cincinnati, Ohio, and met with their usual success. They play Family Theatre, Logansport, Ind., weeks of June 27 and July 4, where they will present their latest novelty sketch entitled The Tramp The Hat and Her.

Harry Martin, of Ft. Dodge, Iowa, is putting out a vaudeville company that will play week stands at summer parks in the northwest. The opening date is June 27, at Ft. Dodge, to be followed by other Iowa dates. This company will furnish the attractions for the carnival to be held at Gowrie, Ia., June 22-24.

Louis A. Hamey, one of the managers at the Casino Theatre, West Side Park, Muncie, Ind., has sold his interest to H. T. Yates and Hamey and Doane will resume their summer dates on the Park Circuit, opening in Chattanooga, Tenn., Olympia Park, June 27 for two weeks, with Nashville, Tenn. and other good work to follow.

Gillen and Gillen, formerly of the Gillen Trio, write that they will return east after they finish their California dates, stopping at Salt Lake City and Ogden, Utah, and St. Louis, Mo. Sadie Gillen, formerly known as Sallie Bradley, is making a big hit in California as a comedy juggler.

Edward Van Wyck, the juggling and sporting goods manufacturer of Cincinnati, sends the following unsolicited testimonial:

"The Billboard," Cincinnati, O., June 2, '04. City.

Gentlemen:— In the past few weeks I have noticed with pleasure how your paper has been spreading. In fact it has been spreading out fast.

The reason I know this is from the amount of mail I now receive from different parts of the country, that I have never before received mail from, through your paper. My ad is certainly paying me.

Yours respectfully, Edw. Van Wyck, 1665 and 1667 Pullan Ave., Cincinnati, O.

Leonio, bicycle trick rider, was injured recently at Olympia Park, Chattanooga, Tenn. The accident is a mystery. The wheel was badly broken and the cyclist was rendered unconscious for a time. Several days were cancelled at the park, but from last reports Mr. Leonio is again in good condition.

Lattimore and Leigh report a very successful engagement, week of June 20, at the Chicago Opera House. The team will rest the weeks of June 27 and July 4. Bert Leigh will go to New York and Ernest Lattimore to Virginia. They resume vaudeville engagements at Ramona Park, Grand Rapids, Mich., the week of July 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Al G. Belford write that they are making a grand success out of their new act, The Irish Politician, and are now on the New York State Park Circuit. They will open shortly on the Goldsmith Circuit in Hutto, Mont.

The latest addition to vaudeville steller ranks announced by F. P. Proctor is Jameson Lee Finney, who last week was the chief attraction at the Fifth Avenue and the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre in New York City. Mr. Finney was for several years the leading comedian of Daniel Fishman's Lyceum Theatre stock company.

Datas, known in England as a marvel of memory, has opened an engagement on the New York Roof Gardens. Datas has been a sensation in the London music halls for two years. His entertainment consists in answering accurately every possible question in reference to the notable events and characters in the world's history.

The roster of James Family, bell ringers, is as follows: Ned James and Tang Loo, singers; Powell, Hindoo, mind reader; Harry Stafford, comedian; Olivette and Benella, musical artists; Prof. Jules Van, ventriloquist wonder; Ole Bradish, America's Samson; Billy Powell, trapeze and perch; Leona Blake, pianist and vocalist.

Tony Loo, juggler; Ned James and his famous dogs, band and orchestra, Dick Hohn and five assistants look after the canvas.

MUSICAL.

Anna Held will spend a few weeks at her log cabin in Maine. Edmond and Reske is to make a concert tour of the United States next season.

The Wizard of Oz entered on its third year, June 16. Mr. Montgomery, of the musical comedy team of Montgomery and Pearl, is a brother of David Montgomery, of Wizard of Oz fame.

Boyd Trousdale, a well known western artist, is to be starred the coming season in a musical comedy entitled Papa's Boy.

Brooke's Chicago Marine Band will open the regular summer concert season at the Coliseum in Chicago, Ill., July 4.

The Enchanted Isle, Victor Herbert and Frank Pixley's new opera will be produced in Boston, Mass., August 15.

The Rule of Three is the name of a new musical comedy by R. Melville Baker, the author of Girls Will Be Girls.

The Wizard of Oz will make an extended tour of this country next season, visiting every city of importance on the Pacific coast.

Leoncavallo has arrived in Berlin with the manuscript of the opera Boland of Berlin, which Emperor William commissioned him to compose some years ago.

One of next season's attractions will be a piece entitled Queen of the Jungles, in which Madame Flower, generally advertised as The Bronze Melba, will be starred.

Mrs. Puff, Puff has entered upon its twelfth week at the Casino Theatre, New York City. Mr. Whitney has ordered a large number of hot weather costumes for the company.

Messrs. Rush and Weber open Madison Square Garden Saturday, July 2, when the musical spectacle called, Paris By Night will be presented. The cast will be composed of a score of principals and a chorus of some sixty people.

George Edwards, of London, is to bring the Henry Hamilton and Ivan Caryll comic opera, The Dutchess of Dantzig, to New York next January. Holbrook Blinn, as Napoleon, is an American who heads the cast. The piece is a musical version of Sardou's Mme. Sans Gene.

Manager George Worsham, of Knoxville, Tenn., will rehearse his new opera company at the Louisville, Ky., Opera House. Mr. Worsham states that he will have a novelty in his chorus girls, not one of whom will exceed five feet in height, or weigh more than 110 pounds.

A Hungarian prodigy has stirred up London and is preparing to come to America on a tour of conquest next season. Franz Von Vessey is the lad's name, and he is now 11 years old. There seems to be no question as to his extraordinary genius.

Phil Rollson has organized an opera company for the summer season at Bay City, Saginaw and Grand Rapids, Mich. Among the principals are Frank Rutherford, Herbert Sears, J. K. Murray, Clara Lane, Edith Valmasola and J. D. Cantor. In August Mr. Rollson will resume the management of the Harry Beresford Company.

The following German musicians have been engaged for a tour of the United States next season: Joseph Hoffman, pianist; Fritz Kreisler, Austrian violinist; and Anton Hekking, cellist. Madam Kirkby Lynn has been engaged for five months to sing Kundry in the English production of Parsifal.

Miss Henrietta Crossman, who recently closed a record breaking season at the Belasco Theatre, will spend the summer quietly at her cottage at Lake Senapee, New Hampshire. At odd times Miss Crossman will study a Shakespearean character in which she will appear season after next.

The Provincial Court at Munich, Germany, has dismissed the appeal of Herr Conrad, a Munich writer, from the decision rendered against him in a libel suit brought by Heinrich Conrad, Director of the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, because of an attack made by the writer on the Director as a result of his production of Parsifal.

The new opera in which Fritz Scheff is to be presented next season, and for which Stanislaus Stange will write the music, is to be called The Queen of Hearts instead of The Two Roses, as it was originally intended. The latter title was that of a play in which Sir Henry Irving made his first great London success in 1870.

Miss Mabel Tallafiero has recovered from her recent affliction of the eyes. The Wizard of Oz will make an extended tour of this country next season. Every city of importance on the Pacific coast will be visited and San Francisco will enjoy a two weeks' sojourn of the entrancing extravaganza.

The company will be as large an organization as that seen in New York during its long run when all records were broken and all previous metropolitan successes eclipsed.

Mme. Gadski called to her New York representative that all negotiations between her and Colonel Savage relative to her appearance in the English production of Parsifal were at an end. It is impossible to come to terms. Mme. Gadski wanted to sing the role only on certain occasions, but Colonel Savage wanted her to appear in all the performances. Heinrich Conrad is to be in Berlin next week. If Mme. Gadski falls to come to an understanding with him she will return here for a long concert tour.

Collin Davis and Frank M. Wiltmark have placed their new musical comedy, The Lucky Stone, with Fischer's Theatre, San Francisco, for production next month. When Mr. Fisher was in Chicago about two months ago he was so impressed with the work of these two young men that no time was lost in completing the arrangements. Mr. Wiltmark is the composer of the popular Zenda waltzes and other successes, and Mr. Davis has played with R. C. Whitney, of Detroit, Mich., a comic opera, with music by Howard Whitney.

In their musical appreciation the Germans are still the most cosmopolitan of all nations. During the first three years of the present century the opera houses of Germany gave 2,002 performances of living foreign and 1,800 of living German composers. Of the foreign Massenet had 743 performances (all of Cavalleria Rusticana) Leoncavallo 551, Saint-Saens 228, Chabrier 170, Massenet 121, Puccini 79, Fama 60. Of the Germans, Hindemith had 549, Zolner 244, Kiesel 197, Wolf 188, Goldmark 170, Albert 129, Brill 121, Kaakel 100, Blech 74.

R. Strauss 59, Thuille 43, Selgfried Wagner 27, etc.

Mr. Paderewski sailed from Marseilles on his visit to the antipodes on May 27, and early in July will give the first of thirty-six Australian concerts in Melbourne. After the tour through Australia and New Zealand he will go to India, stopping on the way at Ceylon for one or two recitals. Thereafter there will follow recitals in Calcutta, Bombay, Madras and other East Indian cities. Cairo and Constantinople being taken in on the way back to Europe. Arrangements made before the Russo-Japanese war for six concerts in Hongkong, Shanghai, Yokohama and Tokio and three in Singapore have been cancelled. According to Mr. Paderewski's present plans, America will hear him again in the season 1905-'06.

MINSTRELS.

The following singers have been engaged for John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels: Harry Leighton, Karl Gath, Geo. W. Kerr, Thos. Merrick, L. Gardner, Fred Long, Edmond Batz, Chas. Stutsman, Fred Varin, F. V. Jumps, Jas. R. Purvis and Master Newton See, the wonderful Aeolian voiced child soprano, which constitutes the largest singing contingent ever carried by a similar organization, the vocal portion of the entertainment will be under the direction of Mr. Harry Leighton. Rehearsals will begin at Columbus, Ohio, about August 1, and the opening performance will be given about two weeks later.

FOREIGN.

Sarah Bernhardt received the highest praises from King Edward who attended the performance at His Majesty's Theatre. A report from London says that Alice Nielsen scored another success at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden, as Suzanne in Nozze de Figaro.

Maxim Gorki, the famous Russian author, has just finished a new play, Summer Guests, which will be performed in the Theatre of Artists at Moscow. It deals with the life of the Russian professional classes.

Massenet and Catulle Mendes, of Paris, have been working for several months on a new opera to be called Ariane (Ariadne). It will be presented at the National Academy of Music. After this opera is finished the authors intend to compose together Le Pays de Tendre.

The Gaitle has put on Cyrano again in Paris, with the elder Coquelin in the title role. This run includes the eight hundredth performance of Bostand's success, Miss Moreno, ex-pensionaire of the Comedie Francaise, plays Roxane.

The Theatre des Varietes, at Paris, France, is inseparably associated with boulevard life which it has so effectively portrayed, will change its name, beginning with next season, to the Operette Francaise. Henceforward the theatre will be devoted exclusively to comic opera and opera bouffe in the style of Offenbach, Lecocq, Piauquette, Audran and Herve.

All arrangements have now been completed for the Rejane American tour, which will be inaugurated at the Lyric Theatre, New York, November 6 next, where she will play a four weeks' engagement. The repertoire selected for her is very large and will include all her great Parisian successes, such as La Montaner, Herouse, Zara, La Course aux Flambeaux, La Passerelle, Ma Colonne, Le Robe Rouge, Amour-ense, Decore, Divorceans, Un Spectacle Compe, etc.

To show that theatrical conditions in England are not very different from those here the following is reproduced from the "London Athenaeum": "The comments of Mme. Guilbert, which appeared in the 'Morning Post,' upon the vapidly of our play-wrights and the childishness of our entertainment, are well merited. It is lamentable to have to admit that the Anglo-Saxon public is now among the most ignorant and that under existing influences acting must shortly become a lost art. The evils which afflict our stage are not, however, to be discussed or dismissed in the paragraph. They strike at the very root of histrionic and dramatic art."

Mme. Pauline Viardot, of Paris, a former singer of distinction, has just completed an opera entitled Cendillon. Mme. Viardot retired some time ago from the stage when at the height of her triumph. Since then her home has been the rendezvous of artists and celebrities in all her descriptions. It was at a recent mention in her salon that Cendillon was introduced. It is said to have all the elements which make for success in libretto and music.

Massenet, of Paris, France, is composing a new opera entitled Amic, which will be sung at Monte Carlo next January. The scene is laid in the Piedmont.

ODDS AND ENDS.

An Elks' Lodge was established at Dunkirk, N. Y., recently with 28 charter members. Elmira, N. Y., Elks are to hold a big indoor circus in October.

The Elks, of Waterloo, Iowa, will rebuild their lodge home which was recently destroyed by fire. It will be a three story building to cost $15,000.

Leo Dittschelstein is under contract to furnish for production at the opening of next season, a new farce comedy which will be put out by Rich and Harris.

Paul Hall teams from the Ermine Company and Dumont's Minstrels played a game of ball for charity in Philadelphia, June 17, which was very successful.

Ellis D. Robb, the well known dramatic press correspondent at Elkhart, Iowa, was honored by appointment as assistant sergeant at arms in the Republican National Convention in Chicago, Ill.

Frank Dallam a member of the New York "Telegraph" staff, has in press a volume that will be known as Who's Who on the Stage. The work will be a comprehensive one and will embrace short sketches of 5,000 prominent members of the theatrical profession.

The new Club home of the Elks at Iowa City, Iowa, one of the finest in the country, will be formally dedicated, June 27. Several hundred members of the order of national and state reputation, will attend, including Grand Exalted Ruler Joseph T. Fauling, of Indianapolis, Ind., and C. E. Pickett, past exalted ruler, of Waterloo, Iowa.

FARCE COMEDY.

Some desirable changes and an introduction of new and bright features has been added to A Little of Everything, now being presented at the New Amsterdam Aerial Theatre and Gardens in New York City. Frequent changes are promised by Messrs. Klaw and Erlanger.

BURLESQUE.

The Blue Ribbon Girls closed their season at St. Paul, Minn., June 23, after a season of 47 weeks.

STREET FAIR NOTES.

talked to a deaf ear, owing to the fact that our time is booked almost solid until August. Beyond the magnificent hand carved gold front, which is a master piece of art and which represents ingenuity, brains and unlimited capital, is presented the most wonderful performing wild animal exhibition this or any other country has as yet ever produced.

Through their bustling proclivities, untiring patience, and ceaseless vigilance they were able to present to the citizens of Richmond, Ind., the greatest sight possible in the animal kingdom; the only hybrids of the kind the world has ever produced. The father, a magnificent specimen of the black maned Nubian lion, being one of the largest in captivity, and the mother a well spotted and faithful type of the leopardess. This cross has been attempted not less than 1,000 times and just so often has it failed. Naturally Ferari Bros. are much elated over their success. Two European offers coming to hand, about the same time, for these wonderful specimens, one from Europe's greatest wild animal exporter and the other from one of the largest zoological gardens in Berlin, fabulous sums were quoted, but both offers Ferari Bros. promptly refused. Almost daily surprises for the edification of the public are happening with Ferari Brothers' Carnival Company. No longer ago than last evening a wedding transpired in the big seventeen tau arena. The new master-piece Creation is meeting with overwhelming success. This attraction, like all others, stands back beyond one of the most magnificent, hand carved, gold processum fronts ever opened to the public.

PARK NOTES.

Will Ricton the Great, please address D. D. D., care "The Billboard."

The Mysterious Face scored a hit at the New York Paradise Roof Gardens.

It is said that fully 15,000 people visited Lakeview Park at Terre Haute, Ind., Sunday, June 13. Banda Rossa was a big attraction.

Arrange for a Harvest Home celebration. It is one of the biggest money getters in the park business.

The Massillon, Ohio Park Association was recently incorporated at a capital of $3,500. A new park will be opened at Massillon, but the exact location has not been made public.

Coney Island's oldest fire-fighting machine, an antiquated two wheeled horse carriage, is now an active part of Luna Park's thrilling spectacle, Fire and Flames.

Two firemen engaged in the Fighting the Flames spectacle at Dreamland, Coney Island, sustained severe injuries last week during the performance of that act.

A detachment of United States cavalry and a military band will be detailed to attend the Central Texas Fair to be held at Bryan, Aug. 18-21.

The Jackson Amusement Company has opened a new theatre at Wolf Lake, Jackson, Mich., which will be devoted exclusively to high class vaudeville.

The owners of the scenic railroad at Walbridge Park, Toledo, O., have plans prepared for a roof, garden and dancing pavilion which will be built on the top of the present structure. The floor of the dance hall will be 50x80 feet.

Al. Dolson, press agent of Palace's Last Days of Pompeii has been transferred to Palu's Burning of Rome, as general business representative. G. E. Raymond, has also been transferred to the Rome spectacle as manager.

Century Park at Lorain, Ohio, has been leased for a period of five years by S. A. Ault and M. A. Grant, who will shortly take charge of and improve the grounds. Mr. W. C. Hochstein's lease has expired and it is said that he will open up a new park.

Berlin and Borgman, managers of Elmhurst Park, Connersville, Ind., write that they expect a big crowd on the Fourth. Profs. Newman and Landis will make double balloon ascensions, and they will have a grand display of fireworks at night.

Hartig and Seamon will open up a summer vaudeville pier at Arverne-by-the-Sea, July 2. The structure will accommodate an audience of 1,500. Popular prices will prevail and matinees will be given every Saturday and Sunday.

The Bay City Amusement Company was recently incorporated under the laws of Michigan. The partners were F. E. Button, $12,000; S. S. Roby, $12,000; J. De Motte Button, $1,000; total, $25,000. The capital is all paid in. The purposes are the operation of a roller railway at Wenona Beach Park, Bay City. The partnership is formed for 20 years and the offices will be in Saginaw.

The authorities of Philadelphia are stopping all Sunday amusements at Woodside Park, which is within the city limits. At first they arrested the concessionaires, but as those parties were satisfied to pay the small fines imposed and still keep open new tactics have now been adopted. Policemen are stationed at all the amusement places and people are warned not to get on any of the merry-go-rounds or other amusements. This is sufficient to keep people away.

The Chickasaw Park Association was recently organized at Ardmore, I. T., with the following officers: H. R. Bracey, president; W. H. Byrd, vice president; E. L. Evans, secretary, and W. M. Bonner, treasurer. The object of the association is to promote baseball and other entertainments. The new park will be located just southwest of the Santa Fe Union Depot, in the heart of the city.

Adelphi from Australia announce the engagement of Maud Jeffries and James W. Osborne, both are members of Mr. Beethoven Tree's Australian Touring Company.
Miss Vesta Tilley states that she was offered £525 a week to stay in America.
Henry Irving will retire in two years.

NEW HAVEN, CONN.—The summer season of theatricals at the Hyperion Theatre proved a frost after a two weeks' trial. The drama in the Eden City never draws after the grass grows and the sea shore resorts are open. At the Hyperion, 16, grand concert by the Swedish Student Chorus from the University of Lund, Sweden.
Poll's Theatre closed for the season, and re-opens Labor Day. Manager Poll is figuring on opening a similar house in New London.
Brennell's Grand Opera House closed. Will open next season with many of the leading high-priced attractions.
Forsyburgh-Bells Bros. Opera, 15, to immense business. Business in the shops and stores was virtually suspended, reminding one of the old-time "Barnum Day." The weather has been imprudent for amusements at Savin Rock, both the White City and the theatre suffering in consequence. Beginning with week of 20, and for the balance of the season the entertainment at the Savin Rock Theatre will be strictly vaudeville. At the Bijou Theatre in the White City week of 13, forty minutes of vaudeville and an option joint that is the real thing. Free shows: Shellcock, the diving ferrier; Sig Guillenette, the balancing acrobat and Prof. Hoer, the sleight of hand. Free fireworks every Tuesday and Friday night. Excursions for 85,000 people have been arranged for by the Consolidated Railroad and Manager Blake and the loss of the concessions are praying for the "hot time" that is long delayed.
CHARLES H. DAY.

Manchester, Eng. (From our Special Correspondent.)
Theatre Royal (Oscar Barrett, Mgr.) An old favorite, Dion Boucicault's Shanghaum occupies the stage, being presented by Mr. Keunedy Miller's capable company. It is meeting with a good reception.
Prince's (Oscar Barrett, Mgr.) A new farcical play Too Many Cooks, by Walter Lounew, achieves success. Presented by Messrs. Weaver and Rowson's Company.
Gaiety (Oscar Barrett, Mgr.) An old time farcical play, Our Boys, is received with delight by its admirers. Produced by Mr. Thomas Thorne and company.
Jueun's—Richard Flanagan's production Old Manchester when James I. was King is attracting excellent houses.
Oshborne—The Sins of a City.
Grand Junction—The Sins of Her Childhood.
Victoria Broughton—I Defy the World.
Palace—A strong program is contributed to by Fred Karno's company with the screaming sketches The Early Birds and Illlarity. The olio comprises Drew and Alders, Charles Milldare, Amy Russell, Kilsbey, Arthur Gilbert, the Palace pictures, Charles Paator and Leo Dryden. This continues to draw crowds in spite of many counter attractions.
Tivoli—Excellent program is provided. Miss Harriet Vernon, a favorite burlesque actress is accorded a warm welcome. Fred Earle scores in his funny songs. Other turns by Charles Norton, Tina Reiff, Childie Stuart, Walter Purvis, Allee Ormonde, Oswald and De Voy and Fredricks.
Grand—Harry Gray in sketches from Ilfo, The Musical Avolus and The Carty Bros., with others provided a good program at this cosy establishment.
Hippodrome—(Queen's Park). Ada Alexandra's Merry Duet Girls and The Loma Troupe are featured here.
Hippodrome—(Salford). Tom Davis Trio Whirling The Whirl on cycles, and varieties.
Hippodrome—(Hulme). Luma's Octeroons in plantation songs and dances. The Mason Family in minstrel acrobatics, and Elliott in feats of strength are making hits.

The above is a portrait of Edwin Booth; he was born on November 13, 1833. In 1849, Edwin made his first appearance as Tresselt. Then in 1851, the Elder Booth, while playing in New York became suddenly ill, and Edwin Booth was sent to assume his role, in Richard, in which he made a great success. Edwin Booth's brilliant career began in California, he acted Hamlet and Iago for the first time, and received great applause. He was married to Mary Devlin on July 7, 1850 and soon afterwards sailed for Europe. After filling a short engagement, he returned to America, when, on February 21, 1863, Mrs. Booth died. In 1867, Booth's Theatre was erected on Twenty-first Street in New York, which opened, February 3, 1868, where he made his appearance as Romeo to Juliet of Mary McVicker, whom he married on June 7, 1870. The second Mrs. Booth died on November 13, 1881. The great actor made his last appearance on the stage as Hamlet at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, April 4, 1891. His health began to fail, and on June 8, 1893, the great tragedian passed away.

The above will give you an idea of the Portrait and Sketch just as it will appear in The Billboard.

STEER CLEAR OF COUNTERFEITS

IF YOU WANT TO GET THE RIGHT KIND OF GOODS AND TO GET THE GOODS WHEN YOU WANT THEM

Several of these Counterfeit Houses sprung up within the last fifteen months like mushrooms after rain—when the light strikes them they wilt, they fade, they fail, and YOU WILL FAIL WITH THEM.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT THESE "PARASITES" DO?

They simply feed on the product of the labor of others. They take our catalogue, PHOTOGRAPH THE PAGES, possibly cut a price here and there (ignorantly, of course), for as they have no stock on hand they don't know the value of the goods. They send you the catalogue—it may result that you send them an order, but will you get the goods? No, indeed not; especially the goods they cut the price of—those articles they are sure to be out of.

DO YOU SEE THE POINT? If not, wipe out the cobwebs from your eyes, and you will avoid disappointments in the future. Time is money to you—you want the goods when you can sell them.

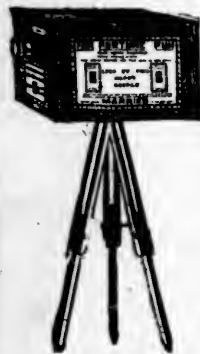

And now, If You Want the RIGHT KIND OF GOODS AT THE RIGHT KIND OF PRICES, and Get Them Promptly, Send to

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT! TO OUR READERS!

Through the courtesy of Messrs. LIEBLER & CO. and THE CENTURY CO. we are enabled to offer a copy of the famous book

MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH

together with a year's subscription to

THE BILLBOARD.

The story is pathetically humorous, and made the authoress, Mrs. ALICE HEGAN RICE, famous at a bound. But this is not all we have to offer. There is a sequel to this book entitled and this will be included in the offer. The books make a handsome gift, and if you do not wish them for your family's use, you can delight some friend by presenting him with a set. The books are elegantly bound. Lovey Mary alone contains 18 finely executed illustrations. More than 150,000 copies of this second work have already been sold.

Here is the proposition:

Mrs. Wiggs of The Cabbage Patch retailing at	$1.50
Lovey Mary retailing at	1.50
The Billboard rate per year	4.00
	$7.00
Our offer: ALL for	$4.00

No attention will be paid to subscriptions unless accompanied by remittance.

THE BILLBOARD PUB. CO., Cincinnati, O.

Enclosed please find $4.00, for which send me THE BILLBOARD until further orders, and the two books as per your Premium Offer number 4, to the following address:

CARNIVAL CO. WANTED

BY THE

Sistersville Fire Department.

For One Week, Beginning September 12th,

SISTERSVILLE, W. VA.

The Fire Department, composed of four companies, 130 men, will hold a Carnival September 12th to 17th inclusive, and desire to correspond with a FIRST-CLASS CARNIVAL COMPANY—none but the best need apply. In connection with the Carnival will be held at the same time the Annual Convention of the West Virginia and Ohio Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association, bringing to the city more than 500 Delegates.

Sistersville is in the heart of the oil country, containing a population of 7,000, with a thickly settled country to back it—rich farmers and plenty of money; connected with New Martinsville, a city of 5,000, by street car service, and in close proximity to several smaller towns. The best show town on earth, and the larger the company the more money will be made. Write at once, stating terms, etc., to
