

Ms. A. 1. 2. 30. 58

will be back for some time & I would not ~~be~~ be a
 shade on the Bon ~~funer~~
 summer (Mason's
 about 1845 or 1846)
 I was ~~in~~
 led in
 don't ~~know~~
 you
 scratch of the ~~re~~

letter of yesterday
 last night to like
 Edmund's song of Mary Ambree. I
 "very much com-
 -mend you for what you have done" - Friday is
 the day when Wendell
 speaks at the state

I am sure I feel as if I do as he does.

house, but shall
come in in the
early train to hear
him & come out
in the last train.
In your letter of
Thursday (tomorrow)
you can make
your last arrange-
-ment. If you decide to come at 3. ^{P.M.} please shall be in atten-
-dance - Mary will
be satisfied as
soon as the matter
of June is arranged.

Tell Annie the
worst snow storm
of the season
came off yesterday
these reports a
bank 8 feet high
at the gate. I perhaps it is no new & no letters. Did you
send "Pop" to Rome
Ma was quite encouraged about
Mary when she heard
that she was able to
to take charge of

A prophetic vision of the future of the world. I have not read it.

the household,
which is the polite
way of translating
my statement,
"on the sumpage"
Ma is on another
bed of guilt.

ever yours D.W.

found

A book came to you
from Sumner, the
marginal reports
of Sec's of navys, states.
It came yesterday. The Herald, so Tribune I think remarks upon Sumner's return sailing at Washington, where so short a time ago they were suff'uff. To see Sumner in the Committee of foreign affairs where Mason presided, it, is a sight. Mason, I suppose