

Mulligan, J. Hiller (?)

Letter only.

[We are getting up a fine work for the Young Men's League of the Church of the Holy Trinity, in which will be a few cards-- no two of any kind--if you secure space, we will insert no other,
Coin Dealer or Numismatist's card.]

Philadelphia, October 24, 1903

Henry Chapman, Esq.

Dear Sir:-

We are getting up a fine work for The Young Men's League of the Church of the Holy Trinity, in which will be a few cards--no two of any line--if you secure space, we will insert no other Coin Dealer or Numismatist's card in the same.

This League embraces in its membership the elite and the aristocracy; the most exclusive and wealthiest families of Philadelphia, purchasers of everything in the way of fads etc.

The cards will be printed in gold, and bound in a heavy gold-mounted Morocco binder, in which will be placed a finely illustrated imported weekly paper. This being the finest illustrated paper it will command the attention of all the members weekly. They cannot open the binder to see the paper without seeing your card and seeing it regularly your name and business would in a short time become thoroughly impressed upon each member's mind.

As the spaces are limited there will be no conflicting cards; we have your name from a prominent member, and give you first refusal.

If you wish space, please sign and return enclosed order; if you do not wish it, please let us know of receipt of this letter. Awaiting your reply before seeing any other Coin Dealer or Numismatist, we are Very truly yours,

P. O. Box 140

Handwritten text in the top right corner, possibly a date or page number, including the number '17'.