Handwritten notes in a cursive script, possibly a shorthand or a specific dialect. The text is arranged in several lines, starting with a large initial character that resembles a 'C' or 'G'. The characters are fluid and interconnected.

A second block of handwritten notes, continuing the cursive script. It begins with a character that looks like a '6' or 'g'. The writing is consistent in style with the first block.

A third block of handwritten notes, separated by a horizontal line. It starts with a checkmark-like character followed by a long horizontal stroke. The script remains consistent.
