Compromise?

OF 1963

Wonder what prof has attracted Lyn's attention?

Class jackets ... no lights out ... realization of being an upperclassman ... rat day as fun day ... the joys of United States History ... dreams of transferring to Chapel Hill ... yet loyal we remain and purpose comes into view

"The British are coming!"

I'd do anything to get in Mr. Jones' class!

Is this one of those new-fangled abstracts?

Food for thought?

Good morning, Rats!

Rat Day is fun — for Sophomores.

Cindy and Juniors help their "Freshman Sisters."

Hannah, Cissie, Peggy — Junior Show's a hit! Thanks.

OF 1962

Say you're "taking" the laundry to the basement?

One more meaningful year... class rings, the Junior Show, a diamond... at last our purpose is made manifest... the reasons for—are righted
...we stand on the threshold of insecurity—independence.

A different hand, a different finger
but still it's our ring.

We do too study!

Artist? No, just 101!

Jane seems to have all the attention.

JUNIOR HOUSE PRESIDENTS

THE DUTY OF THE Junior House Presidents and Counselors, together with her house officers, is to be responsible for the administration of the house.

Junior House Presidents are elected each spring from the rising Junior Class. It is their task to offer sympathy and understanding to their Freshman charges. The House Counselor does much to make a dreary dorm more homelike.

SENIOR HOUSE PRESIDENTS

THE UPPERCLASSMAN house requires less individual guidance and attention than the freshman houses, but the president and counselors of these dormitories have a great responsibility that they perform lovingly and diligently. They must direct, instruct, and reprimand. They are the Chiefs of the Tribes who must show by their leadership the manner in which a citizen should conduct herself in a college or world community.

1961 PINE NEEDLES

To you, the students of Woman's College, we present the 1961 Pine Needles. This is your story, dedicated to you, the women, who make up the largest residence woman's college in the world. Many long hours have gone into making this a new, and we hope, enjoyable, edition of Pine Needles. We have attempted to do away with tradition to an extent, and instead, bring to you the present and future of our campus.

THE 1961 Pine Needles has endeavored to portray that cross-section of humanity known as W.C. girls. A W.C. girl is a girl of many facets. She is ever searching for knowledge, leadership, identification, creativity, religion, and social success. We have shown the individual student in these various roles. These roles form the mold and make the Woman's College graduate the success she eventually becomes. A recent study based on a ten year period showed that W.C. graduates excel in a wide range of vocations. Among these are teachers, social workers, artists, chemists, secretaries, lawyers, nurses and graduate students. The largest per cent, 30 in fact, are homemakers and about half this group combine a career with marriage.

Woman's College draws students from all over the world and it is not uncommon to spot the familiar W.C. jacket or class ring anywhere U.S.A., from Up the Creek, N. C., to Nome, Alaska. In the preceding pages of the Pine Needles you have seen part of this representation of Americana from debutantes to just plain Jane. We hope you have enjoyed it and can appreciate our WOMAN'S WORLD in years to come.
