“They did not regard them as Traitors, but as unfortunate sufferers in the noble cause of civil Liberty, prostrated by the Restoration, and again lost and overwhelmed in the return and irresistible inundation of Tyranny.”

THE DEPOSICON

JOHN LONDON

of Windsor in Connecticutt Apr. 20, 1678.

[N. Y. Colonial MSS., Vol. xxix, Secretary's Office,
Albany, N. Y.]

John London of Winfor neare Hartford in the Colony of Conecticut in New England, aged about fifty yeares, depofeth That Joseph Bull Sen'r (comonly called Capt Bull,) of Hartford, hath for severall yeares past (& for ought hee knowes still doth) kept privately Coll Goffe, at his owne house there, or his sons, hee goeing by the name of Mr Cooke; And that Whaley lived & dyed at Hadley in those parts, & was buryed in the buryeing place there. That being certified of the above Goffes aboade, in the month of May laſt, hee the deponent, together with Robert Howard of Winſor aforeſd (who profeſſeth phifick) went to the houſe of the ſaid Bull, where they ſaw him & having formerly knowne him in England the deponent was well ſatisfyde that hee was the ſame man which ſd Dr. Howard did alſo affirme to him, as hee had done afore, hee being the firſt diſcoverer of his being there unto him.

That the ſaid Dr Howard did alſo informe him the deponent, that the Trade driven by ſd Bull or his Children, in Goods or Merchandize, was on the behalfe of ſd Goffe, & that Mr. James Richards of Hartford, brought over a good cargoe for the use of sd Goffe about two yeares agoe.

That the deponent being so assured of ye said Goffes aboade as before, in the same month of May, thinking it his duty, hee did call about & contrive which way to apprehend him, reasonably supposing by Mr Richards acting for him, being a member of the Independent Church & a principall Magistrate there; that the authority would not countenance him, but the discovery to them would rather tend to his Ruine. The deponent therefore thought it convenient to advise wth & haue assistance of some other persons to seize vpon & bring the said Goffe to this place & so disclosed the same to one Thomas Powell his neighbour, who promist to assist the deponent therein, but no sooner had the deponent discovered his knowledge & resolucon to the sd Powell, but hee privily went downe to Hartford upon a Saturday & gave informacon agnft him, to Major Talcott & Capt Allen. That hee the deponent was goeing away to New Yorke having his horse ready, on Monday following, but intended to surprize Coll. Goffe & carry him away with him. That the night following the sd Powell returned to Winfor with the Marshall Graves who about breake of day came to the depts house & knock't & called to him to arife.

The sd dept knowing the Marshallss voice askt' him what hee would have & what was the matter. The Marshall answer'd that the dept must gett up, for the Gent. at Hartford had sent to speake with him: Whereupon the deponent arose & went with them to Hartford, where when they arrived, they went first to Major Talcotts, & from thence together to Capt Allens.

At the deponents coming there Capt Allen ask't him when hee went to New York. The dept replied, hee did not know but if hee had any buisnesse to comand him, & would pay him for it, hee was ready to goe presently Capt Allen said not hee but demanded him, if hee the dept had not appointed to goe thither on Monday, upon the depts saying hee knew nothing of it, Powell was call'd in then a paper was taken off the Table which Capt Allen said hee woulde reade to him, if hee would hear it. The deponent replyde that hee came to heare what they had to alleadge agst him having sent for him upon ye Sabbath day, fetching him out of his house, as a Traytor or Malefactor.

Then Capt Allen read the paper or charge given in agst the dept by Thom: Powell relating what the dept had sd unto him. Whereupon the dept put them upon the prooffe of it Powells charge being alleadged. The dept replyde hee was but a single Testimony, & likewise was an idle drunken fellow, & no heed to be given to what hee sd, & the depon being in passion threatened the said Powell that if hee could not have his remedy at Law agst him hee would take his owne satisfaction.

Thereupon the depon being dismissed' he returned home.

Not long after Majr Talcott & Capt Allen came to Windsor to seeke for other Informacon agst the dept but finding none lett the matter fall, yet charged the dept not to depart out of the County without a speciall Licence.

That at the same time when the sd Major Talcott & Capt Allen were then there the deponent told the sd Major Talcott & Capt Allen & others prest publickely, that hee the deponent knew that they kept & concealed Coll: Goffe amongst them, & that hee could when hee pleased lay his hand on his shoul-der; To which they replyde the dept was mistaken, for Goffe was long since dead, & charged the dept to bee a Traytor to their Colony & deserved to bee hanged for conspiring agst them.

That afterwards the deponent made a ship to goe off to Boston under pretence of taking a horse to sell there, from thence hee ship't himselfe for Maryland to his brother Major Ambrose London living at Annemeffick, in Somersett County & there gave this Informacon upon oath to his sd brother, Collonell Stevenfon, & Collonell Colburne, desiring it might bee sent into Engl'd, which they promis't. From thence the deponent came to the Whorekill, & so hither. And further saith not.

Sworne before mee by the aforesd John London, in New Yorke, the 20th day of Apr 1680:

REPLY TO ANDROSS'S LETTER.

Hartford, June 11th, 1680:

Hon'ble Sr :--Although we must acknowledg o'r engagement vnto your Honor for giuing vs intimation of what had been offerd to your selfe respecting his Maties seruice (we should haue taken it well had your Honor been pleased to haue giuen vs an acco't. of the names of the informers (which yet we desire you would be pleased to doe speedily) & we doubt not but to giue you sufficient satisfaction, to clear it vp that we are much abused by those falls reports, concerning the good people of this place. For the present we know not how to acknowledg any thanks to the informers, who (by the effect) seem to haue acted under gross mistakes (possibly) to delude your Honor & cast reproach upon orselues of this place, for that we being upon a solemne occasion together when we receiued your letter, and information therein, we forthwith dispatcht a speciall warrant to our constables & marshall, to make a dilligent search after the person mentioned, whoe being upon oath, returned they had with all care & dilligence made the sayd searck but could find no such person as was mentioned, nor any stranger that in the least could be suspected to be any such person: After the searck o'r people were amused that any such thing could be suspected at Hartford: But the father of lyes is o'r enemie & doth instigate his instruments to maligne this poore Colony, but we hope the Father of lights will vindicate vs in his due time, & we pray your Honors neighbourly charatie in the meane space, with due witness bearing against all that endeavoure to abuse with falls news & stories, as is done by o'rselues in such case, otherwise enough of such matters had not been wanting against neighbours to rays bad blood by ill persons betwixt such as desire to mayn-taine good correspondency with o'r professed freinds that are neerly scituate to vs in this wilderneffe, we haue not to ad but o'r respects to your Honor & that we are Hono'ble Sr.

Your affectionate freinds & humble seruant, The Governor & Assists present,

p their order signed
