ADVERTISING FOR GLENDALE WILL BE SOUGHT

Chamber of Commerce Hears Suggestions Offered by Committee

By RALPH A. LIND
 Of The Evening News Staff

SUGGESTIONS for advertising Glendale and for bringing this city and its advantages before the people of the rest of the state and of the country in general were contained in the report that was submitted to the directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce by the publicity and advertising committee, consisting of W. L. Twining, chairman, H. S. McCormick and W. E. Reeves, at the regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon, and these suggestions were adopted by the directors as offering excellent methods of keeping Glendale in the public eye.

It was urged by the committee that name plates for automobiles be secured, bearing the name of this city, and that these be shown on all Glendale cars. The committee has already written to manufacturers of these plates, asking for quotations on them in large quantities, and Jesse E. Smith, Ford dealer, and president of the Chamber of Commerce, has already sent in his order for 1000 name plates, to be distributed free to Ford owners in and around Glendale.

Will Form Policy It is also planned by the committee to address a letter to every member of the Chamber of (Continued on Page 2)

C. D. Gulick and Glendale's Representatives Confer On Proposed System

An informal discussion on the relationship between bus transportation and the development of the community followed a banquet last night in the Citizens' building at which C. D. Gulick, promoter of the Glendale Motor Bus company, was host to the City Council.

Rev. E. L. Shaw of Los Angeles was the speaker of the occasion and mentioned a number of desirable features of bus transportation.

Lantern slides depicting various types of busses now in operation in different cities of the United States were thrown on a small screen. Mr. Gulick stated that the busses he has in mind for local and interurban traffic are much finer than any other type now on the market.

Stockholders' Interest Denied was made by Mr. Gulick that he desired to sell stock in the new company. He stated that three financial houses had expressed a desire to take the entire stock issue, but that it was felt more desirable to allow each employe to become a stockholder in order that he might take more interest in his work. He said that it was desirable, also, to sell stock to as many patrons of the company as possible in order that they might have a friendly feeling toward it.

Tells of Plans Mr. Gulick asserted that the contemplated plans provided for a bus line through Sycamore canyon. Councilman A. H. Lapham raised the question as to when the first busses would be in operation in Glendale. Mr. Gulick replied that he hoped to have some in service within four months. Other members of the city administration were Councilmen S. A. Davis, Dwight W. Stephenson and City Manager W. H. Reeves.

U. S. Fails to Find Russian Crown Gems In Soldier's Grave

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The grave of James Jones, sailor, reported to contain the Russian crown jewels, worth $4,000,000, was opened today. No jewels were found.

No one was allowed to witness the disinterment except government officials. An official report made to the newspapermen waiting outside the National cemetery in Brooklyn, where the body was buried, said that only the body of Jones was found when the coffin was opened.

The guard of soldiers which had watched the grave ever since the report was first circulated, was immediately withdrawn. An official announcement of the results of the investigation was made by Colonel Hugh Gallagher, in command of the army base, Brooklyn. He said: "A thorough examination of the grave, casket, body and clothes of James Jones has been made. No jewels were found.

The lining of the casket, the pillows and Jones' clothes were thoroughly examined." The casket was copper-lined and enclosed in the regulation wooden box. The body was badly decomposed. Following the minute examination of the casket, the coffin and again lowered into the grave.

The opening of Jones' grave finally sets at rest the rumors that have been current for more than a year.

THREAT TO SHOOT LOCAL MERCHANT

George E. Williams Returns Home in Time to Prevent Burglary; Is Warned

The unexpected return to his home at 455 Riverdale drive by George E. Williams about 7 o'clock last night interfered considerably with the robbery of the place. In fact, it sort of "crabbed the act."

Mr. Williams, who is the proprietor of a dry goods store at 103 North Brand boulevard, drove into his garage last night and observed three men come out of the back door of his residence. Two of them ran down the street a few yards and jumped into a waiting automobile. The third man stayed behind and told Mr. Williams that, if he came any closer he would be shot. With this warning, he followed his companions and the automobile sped south on Pacific avenue.

The police department was notified immediately and Officers A. Kerns, George M. Booth and Harry Williams searched the neighborhood, but could find no trace of the automobile or its passengers.

MAY BLOCKADE COAST

BERLIN, Feb. 14.—France may blockade the German coast to enforce obedience in the Rhineland and Ruhr, according to reports.

Uncle John Says:

I see that Fred Deal says he takes visitors up on top of the telephone building and gives 'em a bird's eye view of Glendale. Mary says it's a wonder some of these enterprisers' real estate men didn't think of that long ago. Any one that sees Glendale all at once like that in her settin' of green hills and so many pretty homes and other buildin's, how could they help bein' converted then and there in case they needed convertin', which they probably didn't?

FREIGHT BUSINESS STEADILY GROWS ON S. P. LINE

Total of 2300 Cars Arrive in Past Year; New Station Is One of Big Needs

By GIL A. COWAN
 Of The Evening News Staff
TWENTY-THREE HUNDRED carloads of freight were received at the Southern Pacific station in Southern Glendale during 1922, according to an approximate estimate made today by C. L. Thedaker, agent.

More than 700 cars of products were shipped from Glendale manufacturers during the year and business is getting better and better day by day. In fact, it is remarked that the cause of delay in Glendale's new station plans are due to an official declaring them not comprehensive enough for the Southern Pacific's freight and passenger business here.

Upwards of 200 carloads of clay, lumber, cement and plaster, structural steel, oil, automobiles, salt, wheat and household goods are received each month. Shipments from here are comprised principally of carload lots of sewer pipe, fruit baskets and beverages. Some live stock is shipped both in and out of the Glendale station.

The business of the local office, which does not maintain a district passenger agent and does not include the ticket business done by the Pacific Electric station uptown, totals more than $400,000 for the year, including freight and passenger tariff collections. Looking into the future, Mr. Thedaker states that when better station facilities are provided for the eighteen trains a day stopping here, the Glendale office will get considerable ticket business from Los Angeles, Hollywood, Burbank, Eagle Rock, Pasadena and other nearby points as more than one hour is saved travelers alighting or departing here.

CHURCH CHANGES CITY'S SKY LINE

Tower of New Presbyterian Building Will Reach 115 Feet in Air

Glendale will have a new skyline with the completion of the tower of the new Presbyterian church. The progress of the construction of this house of worship is the subject of favorable comment yesterday afternoon by Rev. W. E. Edmonds.

The tower, which is being built up brick by brick, will rise to a height of 115 feet. "That is as high as a nine-story building," remarked Rev. Edmonds. "It will be the tallest point in Glendale. The tower will be twenty feet square with two rooms just below the clock."

Building Permanent The Sunday school department, which will have a capacity of 2100 students, is being given special attention by Robert Bird, foreman of construction. Its first floor has been roofed already and work is in progress on its second story.

Nothing is likely to disturb this structure when it has been completed, according to Rev. Edmonds. He called attention to the steel girders, the steel reinforcement and the durable materials being used in its construction. It is his opinion that the building is being put up to stay. A large block of granite weighing over a thousand pounds today is being hoisted to a place over one of the entrances to the Sunday school.

Senator Lodge Asks Non-Partisan Votes For Debt Agreement

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Non-partisan support of the British debt agreement was asked in the senate this afternoon by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican leader.

"Settlement of this debt is not a political issue," Lodge said. "The debts were incurred by both parties and should be settled by both parties." Lodge praised the terms agreed upon by the American commission, declaring the United States "cannot be too harsh upon the British government for most of the burden of paying the debt falls upon the middle classes in England."

"This settlement between the only two solvent nations of the world will have the greatest possible effect for good of the business of the world," Lodge declared. "If we ratify this agreement, we will take a step toward security of peace, establishment of good will and benefit of mankind as has not been taken since the signing of the armistice."

Referring to proposals for increasing the membership of the debt commission, Lodge said he favored adding two members—Democrats—to represent the senate and house.

Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, Nebraska, offered an amendment to the bill striking out the provision which would require Great Britain during the first five years to pay only one-half of the interest.

"This will, in effect," he said, "add $295,000,000 to the principal of the debt."

SEWER DISTRICT POMEROY'S PLAN

Experts Meet to Confer on Bill Providing for Disposal of Sewage

The sewer committee of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce met on Monday with Representative Hugh Pomeroy at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to participate in the conference of engineers, sewer experts, health officers and attorneys that had been summoned to consider the provisions of the bill providing for the establishment of a metropolitan sewer area that has already been introduced in the state legislature by Representative Pomeroy.

The Glendale representatives were W. E. Hewitt, chairman, Peter L. Ferry, and Secretary James M. Rhodes. Commissioner Whitnall of the Los Angeles Planning Commission was also present at the conference.

Following Mr. Pomeroy's explanation of the bill that has already been introduced in the legislature, the engineers and attorneys and other experts went into conference to consider carefully every provision of the measure and on the result of their deliberations will be based an amended bill that will be drafted and presented to the legislature when it re-assembles. The legal points in the formation of the proposed area will be carefully considered, and the engineering problems will also be settled, so that the passage of the measure may be assured.

Solve Problems It is planned to form a system of sewage disposal that will permit all of the cities in that particular section of the state to cooperate in the handling of this problem in a manner that will allow of the linking up of the systems of the various municipalities into one practical system that will go far toward solving the difficulties that now confront them.

Mr. Hewitt and Secretary Rhodes presented their report at the meeting of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday afternoon, and on the completion of the survey to be made by the engineers and other experts the matter will be taken up in further detail.

CLUB WOMEN SEE INTERPRETATION OF 'DISRAELI'

Arthur Kachel Gives Clear Characterization of Noted English Diplomat

By KATHERINE V. SINKS
 Of The Evening News Staff

TO many of the Tuesday Afternoon Club women George Arliss was the only synonym for Louis Parker's drama, "Disraeli," but yesterday afternoon after their reception of Arthur Kachel, master play reader, they are unanimous in their recognition of a synonymous trio, "Disraeli," Arliss and Kachel.

In hearing Mr. Kachel yesterday in the presentation of "Disraeli," the club members found talent and personality that afforded them a kaleidoscopic view of one of the greatest modern plays, and also witnessed a clever and masterful interpretation of Benjamin Disraeli, great diplomat of Great Britain and prominent historical figure.

To George Arliss goes the highest honor for his creation of the part of "Disraeli" through wonderful dramatic ability. And to Arthur Kachel should go highest honor for his interpretation of the great statesman and also of the other ten members of the cast.

Real Artistry The interpretation of the character of "Disraeli" is indeed a piece of real artistry, but the presentation of this part and of the other supporting parts in the cast is a true accomplishment and has brought Mr. Kachel well deserved praise wherever he has appeared.

An added attainment of Mr. Kachel is his clever shortening of the three acts by giving just the important dialogues and sketching the more unimportant so that his hearers follow the entire action of the play.

Mr. Kachel possesses a pleasing stage presence and magnetism that holds his audience from his first appearance to the final scene and his interpretation of the various male and female characters is supremely done.

The dramatic personae of the play includes the Duke of Glastonbury, Duchess of Glastonbury, Clarissa, Lady Pevensey, Charles, Viscount Desford, The Rt. Hon. Benjamin Disraeli, Mrs. Noel Travers, Sir Michael Probert, Bart., Mr. Hugh Myers, Mr. Lum- (Continued on Page 9)

Decision Is 'Irrevocable,' Claim; Struggle Between French and German Forces Is Growing In Intensity, Report

BULLETIN

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The Turkish government at Angora has reaffirmed the decision to close the ports of Smyrna and Ismid and has renewed the demand that all foreign warships must leave, according to a dispatch from Constantinople this afternoon quoting advice received there from Angora.

The message quoted the Angora government as announcing that the decision was "irrevocable."

The entry of Greek ships into Turkish ports has been forbidden.

BULLETIN LONDON, Feb. 14.—A French destroyer is reported to have been sunk by gun fire from Turkish forts at Smyrna, said a Constantinople dispatch to the Daily News this afternoon. The dispatch did not give any details. Earlier in the day a dispatch from Constantinople said that the Turkish government refused to revoke its order that all foreign warships must depart from Smyrna and Ismid harbors.

The admiralty was without any information regarding the report of the sinking and discredited it.

Up to 6 o'clock tonight the foreign office had not received any confirmation of the reported sinking of the French ship.

ESSEN, Feb. 14.—The struggle between French military and German resistance grew in intensity today in the Rhineland. The French arrested Acting Mayor Schaefer of Essen and Director Bussman of the Rheinisch electrical works.

German workmen at Ruhrot sank a barge in the Rhine-Herne canal, blocking the passage way.

This was one of the most important canals in the Westphalian industrial zone for coal traffic.

TAKE OVER ELECTRICAL WORKS Three French armored cars and three motor trucks filled with French infantry surrounded and took over the Rheinisch electrical works which supplies with power the entire Rheinisch industrial district as far as Bonn.

Up to this afternoon the French had not found it feasible to carry out their ultimatum of yesterday threatening reprisals against the strike of German electrical workers.

Arrest of German police for refusing to salute the French colors is reported. Banks throughout the Ruhr are refusing to change French money.

Five hundred telephone girls in the Dusseldorf exchange went on strike in protest against French supervision.

Five towns in the Ruhr are now without mayors, owing to the arrest of those officials by the French.

RHINE STATE IS PLAN OF FRANCE

Political Expert Predicts New Commonwealth in Invaded District

By FRANK E. MASON
 For International News Service
 PARIS, Feb. 14.—Despite Premier Poincare's assurances in the chamber of deputies to the contrary, the Petit Parisien today declared the logical result of the whole Franco-Belgian plan would be to detach the Rhineland from Germany and make it a separate state.

Phillipe Millet, well informed political writer, said in the Petit Parisien: "The logic of the whole system will compel us ultimately to create Rhineland currency, Rhineland police and a Rhineland administration composed of Rhinelanders. It is not certain the Rhinelanders would refuse if encouraged to institute a new state. The Rhineland is as big as Belgium, having ten million population. A Rhineland state would be militarily neutral and independent of both France and Germany."

Thirty-two Germans have been arrested at Gelsenkirchen as the result of the shooting of two French soldiers by German policemen on Monday, the foreign office was advised. Officials there said no change in administration was contemplated. Premier Poincare is expected to address the chamber in a few days, giving a circumstantial account of Rhineland and Ruhr conditions and telling of the achievements of occupation.

The luck which brought him through so many combats with German airmen prevailed yesterday when he escaped uninjured after an automobile in which he was riding skidded off the highway near Canterbury, Ore., and turned completely over.

"Just a little variation of the old aerial loop-the-loop," Rickenbacker stated in commenting on the incident here where he addressed a class in auto mechanics.

GERMANS PLUNGE ESSEN IN GLOOM

Political Expert Predicts Situation Tense as French Take Severe Measures To Quell Crowds

By S. D. WEYER
 For International News Service
 ESSEN, Feb. 14.—Acting Mayor Schaefer of Essen was arrested today upon orders from General Fournier, the French commandant. Strong squads of French soldiers have occupied the municipal power plant, but so far have been unable to master the intricate mechanism. Machine guns have been planted about the building.

The trouble began when German electricians turned off the lights in the Kaiserhof, French military headquarters. General Fournier sent an ultimatum to the German municipal authorities demanding that power be restored on penalty of seizure of the plant by the French. The ultimatum was ignored and occupation of the plant followed.

French officers were compelled to dress and eat breakfast this morning by candle light.

A tense situation exists here. Germans are growing more truculent in their resistance to the French and the French troops are adopting vigorous measures to deal with unruly crowds. The atmosphere of the whole Ruhr district is surcharged with sullen animosity.

ROBBERS PLUNDER DRUG STORE IN EAGLE ROCK

Pohlman Emporium Looted Of Merchandise Valued At Over $500

The Pohlman drug store at the corner of Fifty-fifth and York boulevard, Eagle Rock, was entered Monday night and merchandise to the value of $500 taken. Albert Pohlman made the discovery when he opened the store Tuesday morning.

The burglars gained entrance by way of the front door, using a "jimmy" to force the lock. They ransacked the show cases and shelves and carried away a large number of clocks, watches, safety razors, purses and other articles of value that were not of a bulky nature. Several boxes of cigars and cartons of cigarettes were also missing.

It is evident that the robbers departed before the job was completed, as many articles of value that might have been taken, were left un molested. The robbers left no clue.

Mr. Pohlman's home was entered while the family were away a year ago and several hundred dollars' worth of articles taken.

Chamber of Commerce Hears Suggestions Offered by Committee

Commerce, asking for his ideas on the best methods of advertising the city, and from the replies received it is expected that a number of practical suggestions can be gathered that will aid materially in bringing Glendale before the notice of the people of the state.

Through the local newspapers the residents of Glendale, whether they are members of the Chamber of Commerce or not, will be invited to submit their ideas on the subject, and from the various suggestions received it is anticipated that a definite advertising policy can be shaped that will be of great benefit to the city.

Another plan favored by the committee is the employment of a publicity expert who can furnish the metropolitan newspapers and magazines of the country with articles dealing with Glendale and its activities and advantages, and this matter will be taken up by the board at an early date and a decision rendered on it.

The board also approved the selection of the committee to have charge of the work of the Merchants' Industrial Exposition, to be held here from May 25 to June 3, and which is composed of H. S. McCormick, chairman, Lloyd Wilson, Frank R. Pilling, secretary of the Glendale Credit Association, with Col. James E. Everington as secretary.

CLUB CONSIDERS PLANS FOR HOME

Committee Reports Several Sites Available for New Building

Enthusiastic support of tentative plans for a new club home for the Glendale Business and Professional Women's club was given last night at the meeting of fifty of the members at the clubhouse, where they heard a report from Dr. Jessie A. Russell, chairman of the committee on the clubhouse project.

Dr. Russell submitted the project at a recent club council meeting and since that time the club women have pledged themselves as heartily in favor of carrying it out. Mrs. C. H. Kirkman and Mrs. G. U. Moyse have served with Dr. Russell and the report she gave last night was regarding their investigations in the proposition.

Dr. Russell reported that several lots on prominent business property have been offered as prospective sites, and that within two weeks the committee hopes to make a definite report.

THEY WILL APPEAR IN THE ARABIAN LOVE PLAY
From left to right are Almema Bullock, Dorothy Woods and Elaine Buttrud. Reclining is Nell Few. The play, presented by the Glendale Community Players, is awaited with considerable interest and it is predicted that it will be greeted with a crowded house tomorrow night.

SCHOOL FACULTY IS STRENGTHENED

Addition of Prof. Burlage to Science Department Is Told by Board

Henry Matthew Burlage of 904 East Maple street last night was appointed by the board of trustees as an instructor in the science department at Glendale Union high school.

The addition of Mr. Burlage to the faculty is regarded with favor by the school. The board has called attention to the fact that Mr. Burlage held a bachelor's degree from the University of Indiana, had taken post-graduate work at Harvard university and had held a fellowship at Harvard and Purdue universities. He said that Mr. Burlage had done some important chemical research work for the government during the war.

Program Approved

The construction progress of the new high school plans was commented upon favorably by the board of trustees.

Instructions were issued to Irving H. Oliver, business agent for the school, to re-advertise for bids for the electric wiring, and the installation of telephones, loud speakers and electric clocks. These bids will be opened at 2 o'clock p. m. March 2.

Local Talent to Produce Artistic Show Directed By Nanno Woods

"The Hand of the Prophet"—An Arabian Love Story—is to be the colorful presentation Thursday night at the Glendale Theatre by the Glendale Community Players. Those who have witnessed the rehearsals of the one-act sketch state that it is one of the most artistic and dramatic productions ever offered the Glendale public.

The love story of the beautiful Halima and the romantic young desert sheik, Sindbad, surrounded by the pomp and Oriental splendor of Arabian wedding festivities cannot but entertain the spectators. This premier of the local players shows a smoothness and artistry of finish remarkable for amateur efforts. The earnest study and faithful rehearsals given by the actors to this play and the joyful co-operation with which all have worked together to form a harmonious whole, are factors which have resulted in a highly beautiful play.

Combines Three Arts

The director, Nanno Woods, is fortunate to have been able to combine three arts, singing, dancing and acting in this production. Almema Bullock, who has sung at Grauman's theatre, has a sweet silvery voice which shows to advantage in the two Arabian songs. Dorothy Patterson, for many years a pupil of Belcher and Kathleen Woods, late of the Orpheum and Pantages circuits, provide the three dancing numbers in a finished, professional style.

Clarence Edwards, assistant plumbing inspector for the city of Glendale, makes good use of the dramatic opportunities afforded him as the wealthy, middle-aged bridegroom, who resents the attention shown by Sindbad, the romantic lover, to his young bride, Halima.

The play is in one act with three short scenes. Those who love the beautiful and romantic, those who are interested in good dramatic efforts should not miss this opportunity given by the community players.

RELIEF WORK IS PICTURE'S THEME

Admission to Showing at Wilson School Today Is Can of Milk

The Near East relief commission presents its three-reel motion picture, "Seeing Is Believing," at the Wilson Intermediate school this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

This picture carries with it an admission price of one or more large cans of evaporated milk, and is for the children of the Wilson, Colorado and Pacific schools.

It is a picture showing the educational and vocational work being done by this commission in Armenia and is said to contain scenes with 17,000 children visible to the eye at one time.

should be used by the Chamber of Commerce in gaining a station equal to the Sixteenth street station in Oakland.

The Owl, Lark and Sacramento limited trains are the only ones not stopping here now and when traffic demands make it feasible there is no question but what Glendale will get these trains also on its time card in Mr. Theaker's opinion.

For the accommodation of passengers on the evening trains the Southern Pacific station has been well lighted and a ticket agent remains on duty until 10:30 p. m. He is ready to serve travelers with Pullman reservations.

Depot Necessary
Until the Southern Pacific officials can determine on a program, in keeping with the growth of this section of the metropolitan area, improvements are not probable, but the day is not far off, in the agent's opinion, when a fitting depot will be found between Glendale and Los Feliz boulevards in the southern section of the city, accessible to the Pacific Electric, the bus lines, and doing a lion's share of the residential passenger business.

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce has had the subject of transportation and a new depot well in hand for the last two years, but it appears that now is the time to make a concerted effort in showing the Southern Pacific the advisability of building—and building big.

'Last Chance' Dance Is Complete Success

The "Last Chance" dance held last night at the K. C. hall, is considered one of the most successful affairs given by the Knights in a long while.

"Last Chance," of course, means final opportunity to dance before the beginning of the Lenten season, which started today. Perhaps that had something to do with the gaiety of the affair.

Perhaps Jerry Parker's seven-piece high school orchestra had something to do with it. Every-one agreed Jerry was to be congratulated on his music, and that was 150 couples.

At any rate, the affair was a sure-fire success, from the grand march to "Home Sweet Home."

Grand Knight Harry Girard, as usual, sprung a surprise—this time something even more unique than usual. Discovering a diamond ring on a certain tell-tale finger of Miss Caroline Brehme's left hand, and learning that Herman Penser was the young man who had put it there, he enticed them up on the platform, then gave away their secret and allowed them an opportunity to say when the big day would be. They refused to commit themselves on this point but admitted it would be some time in the summer.

Something Stirring Here
—By Gil A. Cowan—

RELENTLESS law brings Phil Alguin, notorious criminal, back to Los Angeles to face his accusers in the courts of justice for the murder of a policeman.

In view of the banditry which is rife in the southland's metropolis the next few events in "Little Phil's" life may be rather harsh, but certainly not more cruel than the "speak easy" which silenced Detective Fitzgerald's voice forever.

When robbers can grab $30,000 from a store, using a Maxim silencer on their revolvers; when more robbers can kill and steal in a barrage of buckshot nothing less than $100,000—and all in broad daylight—it is time for the public to be alert!

At the same time it may not be amiss to suggest that Southern California should organize a highly paid criminal investigation department to protect its wealth. It should not be the duty of Los Angeles alone to do all the work. Each municipality and county should pay its share in the maintenance of an efficient organization of trained sleuths.

From Peking comes the report that "China's busted," to put the news in the vernacular of the street.

The crash has been imminent ever since the overthrow of the old empire and without doubt China has more right to be broke than any nation.

In another dispatch a far-seeing oriental sees the extinction of the yellow race by the motor-car. Now what do you think of that?

From observations of the Chinese in this country there is no question but what the peoples of their provinces will have to undergo a mental and psychological revolution.

Just watch the un-Americanized Chinese walking along the street. He cannot accustom himself to the speed of the Occident. He cannot get away from his careful steps and cautious consideration of all things new.

For in its 4,000 years or more of civilization China and Chinese have learned not to stub toes. They have learned not to be overjoyed. They will not accept new ideas without upsetting their legion of ancestral traditions.

Why not a new Southern Pacific station?

That is something this city may as well go after as any other improvement—and stand some likelihood of getting it.

The Southern Pacific is an enterprising railroad. Some of its San Joaquin valley stations are not alone objects of civic pride, but befit the surrounding town.

Now there is nothing in this world like asking, "The Bible says: 'Ask and ye shall receive,' or words to that effect. Anyway, the idea is a good one and works.

Every time we see a snowstorm reported in Chicago we know it is uncomfortable in the place from which we migrated.

No wonder so many Suckers are to be found hibernating in Southern California and basking in its sunshine.

And after they get acclimated to the Golden West there is no need for the appellation of "Sucker." In fact, they are the ones who are doing here what God forgot. They are making the greatest man-made country, with the aid of other eastern enthusiasts, that the world has ever known.

We could name a half dozen from Illinois who are actually doing things here today. But it is the co-operation of all that really puts the promotion across.

A California man, former manager of the Ambassador hotel in Los Angeles, has been named by lumber interests to father the new town of Longview in Southwestern Washington.

If he doesn't get washed out and panned by the gold diggers too thoroughly, we are betting on his ability, although we never met the gentleman.

Anyone who can successfully conduct a high class hotel would be a suitable member of the committee on arrangements in heaven.

Luck to you Dave Boice, but we'll bet you're back in the southland 'ere many moons have passed.

15 Counties in State Free of Indebtedness

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 14.—Fifteen California counties are clear of indebtedness, according to their annual statements just filed with a state Controlled Ray L. Riley.

The total indebtedness of all California counties for 1922 was fixed at $119,221,295 of which San Francisco county is charged with $71,117,200.

The following counties are the ones which reported no indebtedness: Calaveras, Amador, Humboldt, Inyo, Mariposa, Mono, Nevada, Placer, Tuolumne, Trinity, Siskiyou, Sierra, Shasta, Marin and Madera.

Educators' Junketing Journeys Are Denied

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 14.—President E. P. Clarke of the state board of education, in a letter received at the governor's office, enters emphatic denial of charges made by Governor Richardson that the educational body has engaged "in junketing trips to summer resorts" at the state's expense.

'The Steadfast Princess' to Be Staged Thursday in H. S. Auditorium

"The Steadfast Princess" will make her personal appearance Thursday afternoon and evening at the Glendale Union high school auditorium under the promptings of a cast from the Glendale Avenue Intermediate school.

The presentation of this two act spectacular juvenile play by Cornelia Meigs, which won first prize in 1915 of the National Drama League, is expected by those who have been attending rehearsals to be quite worth while. Profit will be put in the treasury for the school's athletic association.

Helen White and Francis Wilkinson will be seen as Hans and Gretchen. Victor Dupuy has the character part and will play the role of an old gardener. The MUCKER
 by Edgar Rice Burroughs
 Copyright 1921 by Edgar Rice Burroughs

"Hey, Jose!" cried one of the vaqueros from El Orobo Rancho; "you oldascal, what are you doing here?"

Jose looked around upon them. He knew them all—they represented the Mexican contingent of the riders of El Orobo. Jose wondered what they were all doing here in Cuivaca at one time. Even upon a day it never had been the rule of El Orobo to allow more than four men at a time to come to town.

"Oh, Jose, come to buy coffee and tobacco," he replied. He looked about searchingly. "Where are the others?" he asked, "—the g-migos?"

"They have ridden after Esteban," explained one of the vaqueros. "He has run off with Senorita Harding."

Jose raised his eyebrows as though this was all news. "And Senor Grayson has gone with them?" he asked. "He was very fond of the senorita."

"Senor Grayson has run away," went on the other speaker. "The other gringos wished to hang him for it is said he has bribed Esteban to do this thing."

Again Jose raised his eyebrows. "Impossible!" he ejaculated. "And who then guards the ranch?" he asked presently.

"Senor Harding, two Mexican house servants, and a Chinaman," and the vaquero laughed.

"I must be going," Jose announced after a moment. "It is a long ride for an old man from my poor home to Cuivaca and back again."

The vaqueros were paying no further attention to him, and the Indian passed out and sought his pony; but when he had mounted and ridden from town he took a strange direction for one whose path lies to the east, since he turned his pony's head toward the northwest.

Jose had ridden far that day, since Billy had left his humble hut. He had gone to the west to the little ranch of one of Pesta's adherents who had dispatched a boy to carry word to the bandit that his Captain Byrne had escaped the Villistas, and then Jose had ridden into Cuivaca by a circuitous route which had brought him up from the east side of the town.

Now he was riding once again for Pesta; but this time he would bear the information himself. He found the chief in camp and after begging tobacco and a cigar he paper the Indian finally reached the purpose of his visit.

"Jose has just come from Cuivaca," he said, "and there he drank with all the Mexican vaqueros of El Orobo Rancho—all, my general, you understand. It seems that Esteban has carried off the beautiful senorita of El Orobo Rancho, and the vaqueros tell Jose that all the American vaqueros have ridden in search of her. In such times of danger it is odd that the gringos should leave El Orobo unguarded thusly. Only the rich Senor Harding, two house servants and a Chinaman remain."

A man lay stretched upon his blankets in a tent next to that occupied by the speaker. At the sound of the speaker's voice, low though it was, he raised his head and listened. He heard every word, and a scowl settled upon his brow. Barbara stolen! Mr. Harding practically alone upon the ranch! And Pesta in possession of this information!

Bridge arose to his feet. He buckled his cartridge belt about his waist and picked up his carbine, then he crawled and walked the rear wall of his tent and his pocket in the direction of the sly little line where the horses were tethered.

"Ah, Senor Bridge," said a pleasant voice in his ear: "where to?"

Bridge turned quickly to look into the smiling, evil face of Rozales.

"Oh," he replied. "I'm going out to see if I can't find some shooting. It's awfully dull sitting around here doing nothing."

"Si, Senor," agreed Rozales; "I too, find it so. Let us go together—I know where the shooting is best."

"I don't doubt it," thought Bridge; "probably in the back; but aloud he said: "Certainly, that will be fine." For he guessed that Rozales had been set to watch his movements and prevent his escape, and, perchance, to be the sole witness of some unhappy event which should carry Senor Bridge to the arms of his father.

Rozales called a soldier to saddle and bridle their horses and shortly after the two were riding abreast down the trail out of the hills. Where it was necessary that they ride in single file Bridge was careful to see that Rozales rode ahead, and the Mexican graciously permitted the American to fall behind.

When he was inspired by any other motive than simple espionage he was evidently content to bide his time until chance gave him the opening he desired, and it was equally evident that he felt as sure in front of the American as behind him.

At a point where a ravine down which they had ridden debouched upon a mesa Rozales suggested that they ride to the north, which was not at all the direction in which Bridge intended going. The American demurred.

"But there is no shooting down in the valley," urged Rozales. "I think there will be," was Bridge's enigmatical reply, and then, with a sudden exclamation of surprise he pointed over Rozales's shoulder. "What's that?" he cried in a voice tense with excitement.

The Mexican turned his head quickly in the direction Bridge's index finger indicated.

"I see nothing," said Rozales after a moment.

"You do now," Bridge replied. "I am in the direction of his companion he was forced to admit that he did see something—the dismal, hollow eye of a six-shooter looking him straight in the face."

"Senor Bridge!" exclaimed Rozales. "What are you doing?"

"I mean," said Bridge, "that if you are at all solicitous of your health you'll climb down off that pony, not forgetting to keep your hands above your head when you reach the ground. Now climb!"

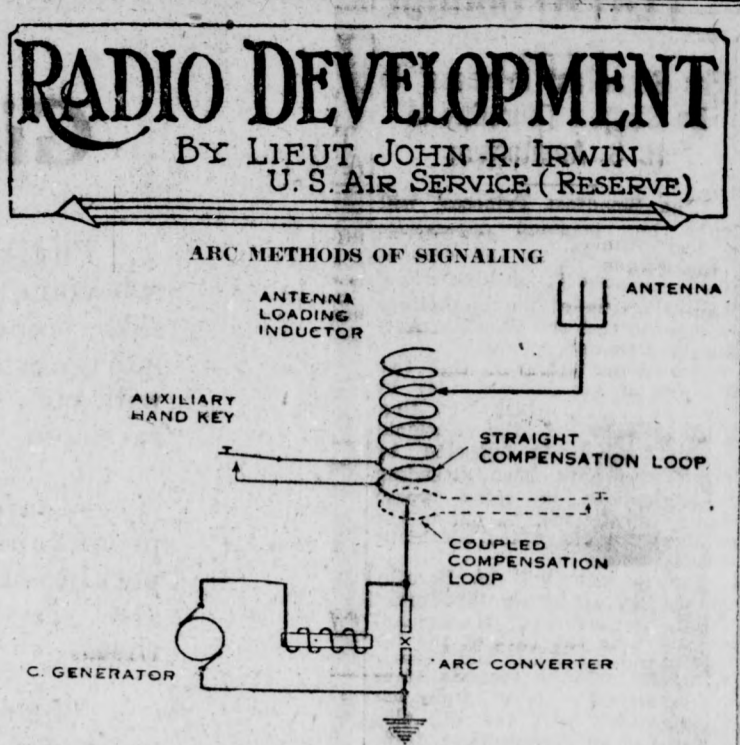

Rozales dismounted.

"Turn your back toward me," commanded the American, and Bridge dismounted and removed the man's weapons from his belt. "Now you may go," Rozales said, "and should you ever have an American in your power again remember that I spared your life when I might easily have taken it—when it would have been infinitely safer for me to have done it."

The Mexican made no reply, but the black scowl that clouded his face boded ill for the next gringo who should be so unfortunate as to fall into his hands. Slowly he wheeled about and started back up the trail in the direction of the Pesta camp.

"I'll be half way to El Orobo," thought Bridge, "before he gets a chance to tell Pesta what happened to him," and then he remounted and rode on down into the valley, leading Rozales's horse behind him.

Federal Arc Radio Transmitter, showing straight and coupled compensation methods of signaling

A "compensation" method of signaling is furnished with small pots for use in case trouble with regular signaling system is encountered. In transmitting signals by the "compensation" method the length of the radiated wave from the transmitter is caused to vary.

The dotted lines in the illustration show the "coupled compensation" method of signaling. In this the auxiliary hand key is connected to a loop which is inductively coupled with the antenna loading inductor rather than being connected directly to it.

When the auxiliary hand key is closed the loop becomes closed, thereby making a short circuited loop around the lower part of the antenna loading inductor. This action decreases the inductance of the antenna circuit, and shortens the length of the emitted wave. This is accomplished by introducing mutual inductance between the short circuited loop and the antenna loading inductor, giving the same result as though connection was made directly in the antenna circuit. It has the advantage that the auxiliary hand key is insulated from the antenna circuit, thereby minimizing danger to the operator, and has the further advantage that sparking at the key contacts is reduced.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories
 BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S ALARM CLOCK

Bob Cat was afraid to go in all alone and nibble the bunny's ears then. He wanted to wait until daylight and get the Fox and Wolf to help him.

Early the next morning, before 7 o'clock the Bob Cat with the alarm clock sneaked over to the den of the Fox and Wolf.

"Come and help me nibble Uncle Wiggily's ears," invited the Bob Cat. "He will be sleeping soundly, for I have taken away his alarm clock."

"We'll come," growled the Fox and Wolf.

But, as it happened, a Blue Jay bird, whom Uncle Wiggily had been feeding all that winter outside the bungalow door, heard what the bad animals said, and the Blue Jay saw the Bob Cat sneak off with the alarm clock.

"Ha! I'll fool those chaps!" whispered the Blue Jay. "I'll be the alarm clock for Uncle Wiggily. I'll wake him up at 7. Then the Blue Jay flew off ahead of the Bob Cat, Wolf and Fox to the bungalow. Perching himself on the sill of the bunny's open window, the Jay cried:

"Hey! Hey! Hurray! Hurray! Wake up! Wake up! Wake up!"

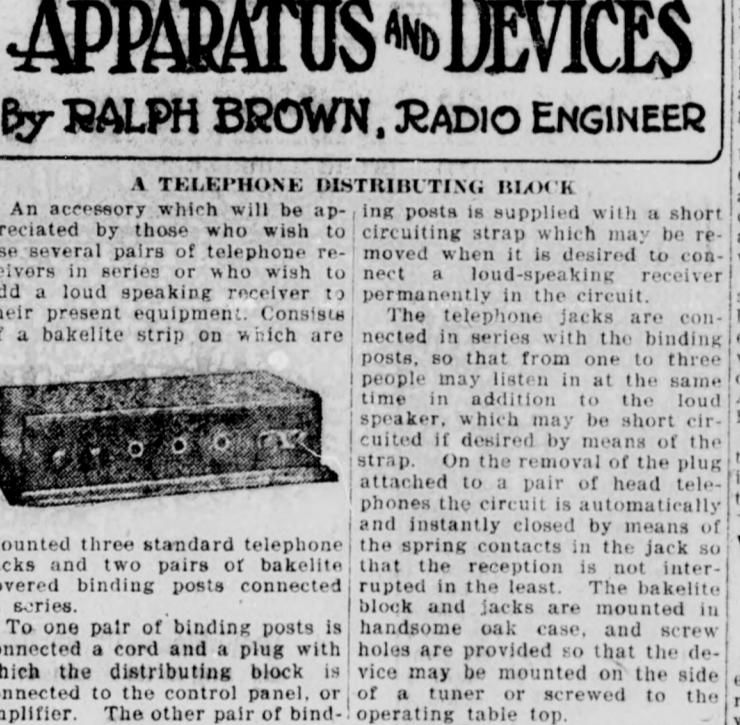

Uncle Wiggily sat up in bed, rubbing his eyes.

"What a funny alarm clock!" he said. "I didn't ring a bell at all!"

"Well, you'll feel funny if the Bob Cat, Fox and Wolf nibble your ears," screeched the Blue Jay, and then he told Uncle Wiggily all that had happened. The Bunny thanked the bird and called in a Policeman Dog, who arrested the bad animals as they snaked along, soon afterward. And the Policeman Dog took the alarm clock away from the Bob Cat.

So the bunny was saved by the kind Blue Jay, and Nurse Jane said it was a wonderful adventure. "I think so myself, don't you? And if the rag doll's sun-bonnet doesn't shine in the middle of the night and wake up the milk bottle, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the farmers."

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The transgressor's way is hard. Such has often been preached and generally is credited. There are stumblingblocks also in the path of the non-transgressor.

The dizzy district, or "Roarin' Porties," offers many places to eat. The question is how to eat without drinking. Some New York restaurateurs will not concede that a patron may be hungry and not thirsty.

Two newspapermen meet to eat. They could not possibly be mistaken for affluent visitors looking for hilarity, or tired business men, or—heaven forbid—Broadwayites.

"I want a steak with peppers," says one.

"I know the best place in town to get it," says the other. "That is, this place was highly recommended to me by somebody or other, I forget who. Just leave it to the headwaiter, he said."

It's around the corner of Broadway and Thirty-some-odd. The place is attractive. The table is quiet. The headwaiter is summoned and is told that a friend said that the steak and peppers there were the best in the city.

The headwaiter smiles and inquires: "Who recommended us, please?"

"Thompson of the World," is as easy an answer as any.

In a moment the proprietor saunters up. The pre-meal talk is halted when he asks: "What sort of looking fellow is this Thompson?"

"What Thompson?"

"Thompson of the World, who sent you here?"

"Oh, Thompson! Well, sort of medium height, medium build, with kind of brown hair and medium eyes," is the answer, designed to avoid any controversy over an entirely fictitious character.

The proprietor turns to the headwaiter.

"These boys are all right," is his verdict. In this tacit language he makes clear what had not been thought of before, so help me, that with the food may be ordered anything from old-style lager to the newest mode in gin.

Again, after a table d'hoie, it is suggested that the waiter bring coffee in tall glasses, as at an adjoining table.

"You have eaten here before?" he prompts, with uplifting eyebrows.

"No," is the frank answer.

"I will tell the proprietor that you have dined here with friends and that you got it then," is his diplomatic idea. And who would stay him? Or who would suspect that cognac went with the coffee? Who, indeed?

Of course, when an inquiry is directed for a worth-while place to eat, somewhere downtown, the New Yorker may be pardoned for believing that the questioner is looking for "information." So he brings out a card and with it gives the instructions: "If you have any trouble at this place just mention my name. The food isn't so good, but you can get anything

REDS' PLANTED SLEUTH
In Burns' Ranks, Claim

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The counter charge that Albert Balaban had been "planted" by radicals in the ranks of Burns detective agents was made by W. Whether or not café owners believe it, the question of thirst is not always paramount. As in the old table, "You've got to eat sometime!" But toward the purely hungry these café men seem to have adopted a skeptical attitude. They say, without putting it in words: "Why didn't you stay at the boarding house, or go to the Automat?"

We offer this suggestion to Izzy Einstein, the versatile dry agent, who now bobs up as an itinerant musician, now as a snow shoveler, now as a peddler, but always as a drug agent, that if he wants a disguise that will open all café cellars to him, just let him go out looking hungry.

YOUTH FREED BY JURY

Will Study Painting

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Never again will Charles Holmes, 17, ride break beams, "hobo," travel in circuses and carnivals. The federal grand jury which was asked to indict him for a postal robbery felt sorry for him and not only refused to indict him, but gave him $56 for a "stake" and helped him find a home where he might develop his life-long ambition, that of becoming an oil painter.

Shortly before Christmas of last year Holmes was charged with having cut open a mail sack, but did not take anything after he had become conscience stricken.

When the facts were presented before the grand jury they sympathized with him and took up a personal collection. A woman was also found who was anxious to educate him along art lines.

Nervous Stomach CAUSES GAS

Gas in the stomach and bowels doesn't always result from dyspepsia, improper diet or the fermentation of food. In most cases it is due to a highly sensitive condition of the stomach nerves.

To get rid of the trouble, you must build up and strengthen these weak, irritated nerves of the stomach. Taking artificial digesters, such as pepsin or bismuth, only makes the stomach weaker than ever. It is like using dope to deaden a pain—the relief given is deceptive and harmful.

Baalmann's Gas Tablets act directly upon the affected nerves and gradually assist in restoring them to their natural, healthy state. Gas and bloating will quickly disappear, and you will no longer be bothered with pain around your heart, palpitation, shortness of breath, yawning at the pit of the stomach or distress after eating, due to gas.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY

WHILE the celebration of St. Valentine's day is a pagan festival, it is a pretty custom, centuries old, which never loses its popularity, especially among the young. St. Valentine was a Christian Saint, but somebody, centuries ago, gave his name to Love's holiday and now his worship is accompanied by singing Cupids and mystical arrows instead of choristers and preceptors.

What fun it is to select these dainty and pretty missives in the stores where they are displayed so lavishly in all their wonderful glory of paper lace, colored ribbons, flowers, birds and Cupids with the inevitable love message hidden within. What fun to imagine the surprise of the recipient; what pleasure when the Valentine box at school is opened or when the postman comes on Valentine day; what joy to send these love messages as well as receive them.

Cupid has right faithful allies in the stores of Glendale, judging from the gorgeous displays of valentines, some elaborately fashioned and decorated, others simple and pretty and dainty. And the youngsters, and some not so young, are already making their selections of these pretty symbols of love to carry their messages on St. Valentine's day.

And older lovers who are not too wise to despise old legends, but who scorn the little paper missives as too frivolous, send candy or flowers to loved ones in commemoration of St. Valentine, and it is said that there are many women, old and young, married and single, who are not averse that the festival of St. Valentine should be observed in this way. And so, in league with these women, the candy dealers and flower stores are prepared to make it easy for lovers to so commemorate the day.

Some years ago it was the custom to pay off a grudge by sending a comic valentine, a horrible picture supposed to be a caricature of the person to whom it was sent. It is a good sign that such an offensive custom has disappeared, and that only the pretty valentines are used now. There can surely be no harm in celebrating a pagan festival by setting aside one day in the year to the little God of Love.

I wonder if it would not be possible to form a mothers' and fathers' protective association.

Think it would be a wonderful thing if it could be done.

Protective against whom?

Against you guess?

Against their sons and daughters, of course.

I sat in the other day on a conversation between two mothers of growing up children. One had a daughter 17, the other had a son 19.

They were discussing the license that the children of the present day expect. The mother of the son contended that the girls were at the root of the matter and that they led the boys on, while the mother of the daughter said the girls had to go in for all the fast stuff because, if they didn't, the boys wouldn't pay any attention to them.

But on one thing they both agreed with a sigh.

"You Have to Let Them"

"It seems," said one of them, "terrific to think of young boys and girls still at school, dancing until 4 o'clock, and then going to someone's house to breakfast."

"I know," said the other, "fancy our parents allowing it."

"But you have to let them or else they won't be invited anywhere," said the first.

And the second one solemnly agreed. "No, there doesn't seem to be any other way."

Now, there, of course, is where the mothers' and fathers' protective association comes in. If all the mothers and fathers in that set banded together and agreed that they would all stand firm for a little more reason, a little more moderation in things like this, couldn't they pull it across?

They're All Afraid

No one father or mother dares to stand alone for fear of social ostracism for the child. But if they stood together all the children couldn't be socially ostracized if there wasn't anyone left outside to do it.

Do you remember, in one of the recent novels, how the father is horrified at his son's party when he finds the youngsters of 19 or 20 all have their hip pocket flasks and that some are half drunk. He wants to protest and his wife says: "But you wouldn't want our son left out of everything."

A friend of mine has an engaged daughter who wants to sit up until outrageous hours of the night with her fiancé. When her mother protests she says: "Well, if we can't sit up here we'll go over to Rose's. Her mother lets them sit up as late as they want and we'll stay there."

"Or Be Forever Slaves"

Such cases as these the mothers' and fathers' protective association could manage very handily.

In union there is strength.

How about it mothers and fathers? With that whip lash of what the other mothers and fathers allow constantly applied to you, you have been driven to permit things against which your strongest instincts revolted. Can't you manage somehow to get together and wrest that weapon away from your young tyrants?

BEAUTY CHATS

Sometimes I am so cross with the women who pay too much attention to the fronts of themselves and too little to their backs! This is one of the cross moods. It was started by seeing a young girl get out of a taxi, her face showing the result of an hour's concentrated line in back and to stay in place. Shoes should be polished well from all sides, and should be sent to the shoemaker often to keep the heels straight. Stockings should never be put on without examination for a weak spot or a hole at the heel or up the back of the calf.

Hair must be seen from all sides when it is dressed. For this you need no more than your hand mirror and the mirror above your dressing table. It's easy enough to arrange it around the face but to make it look pretty in back is what takes thought and practice.

M. A. T.—I do not think that an application of witch hazel would do much toward cleansing the skin of blackheads. If you wish such a formula, I will mail you one on receipt of a s. a. e. In using peroxide to bleach the hair on the arms, wash and dry the hair and then moisten it with the peroxide. Give several applications at a time. In using oil for the hair it should only go on the scalp and in such cases the hair is separated into numerous strands and will be needed to go over the whole head. An easy way to do this is to massage a few drops of oil into the part between each strand of hair. This may be done with the finger tips so that none of the oil will get through the hair itself. Vaseline or olive oil will do for this.

Tomorrow—A Suggestion

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Dry Sleuths Involve U. S. in Diplomatic Row

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Prohibition enforcement agents apparently have involved the state department in another set of international complications.

Angered by what they regard as unfair discrimination against a sister republic, Latin-American diplomats, it was learned today, have launched a "campaign of information" among the people of the Latin-American countries. It is calculated to apprise them of the facts in the case of the Cuban yacht Miguel Ferrer, seized by American authorities and held at Jacksonville, Florida.

The reason some men never win a great victory is because they waste too much energy feeling good about a small one.

Scout Murder, Suicide Theory in Two Deaths

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Theories of murder, or suicide as possible causes for the death of pretty Margarita Serrano, 18, and her young husband, Alalido Serrano, in a hotel at Avalon, where they were on their honeymoon, were scouted by authorities who conducted an inquest and investigation. It is thought their deaths were accidental, due to fumes from a gas heater, which was found burning in their airtight room. Serrano's home is in Whittier.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

My Dear Followers:

When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose two cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

Miss B.—Yes, I think your ankles will be improved by the ice skating. There is no doubt that your under-nutrition causes a general muscular weakness and probably when that condition is improved your ankles will improve with it. The ice skating is an excellent exercise for that because it is not too strenuous.

You can do some special foot exercises which would strengthen your ankles also. Every day for a few minutes walk toeing in as far as possible. Rising on your toes 50 to 100 times night and morning is good. If you do not walk with your feet straight ahead you must learn to do so for that is the correct position for walking. Toeing out or in is not right.

Be sure to see that your shoes are well fitted and large enough to allow for your growth while you are wearing them.

How about your general posture. Do you slump over? If so, you should take some special corrective exercises for the chest and your posture. Don't use a pillow.

Nervous Lady.—There are some books that will help your nervous condition. If you will send a s. a. s. e. we will send you a list of their titles.

Yours is a case undoubtedly that could be helped by repeating the Cove formula. "Day by day, in every way, I am getting better and better."

THEATRES

The GLENDALE The T. D. & L.

Silver shades of the whimsical Laurette Taylor, in her tender and sympathetic portrayal of "Peg" in "Peg of My Heart," now reel off daily on the screen of the Glendale theatre. A great story in which Miss Taylor played the stellar role 6008 times in the United States alone, and in England, Australia, Africa, Italy, France, Hawaii and many other countries, is now within reach of all peoples, the world over.

In the spoken drama, due to the limitations of the stage, the adorable character of "Peg" was never fully developed. But in the celluloid version Miss Taylor has swept aside all limitations and given a characterization that will warm the hearts of the millions.

King Vidor directed the great Metro classic.

Richard Barthelmess' latest picture, "Fury," showing today at the T. D. & L. theatre for the last times, is one of the very few sea-film which can truly be said to have been made before the mast. In order that everything should be accurate, and that the full spirit of the old sailing ships should be infused into the production, "Dick" Barthelmess, Dorothy Gish and other members of the cast, went to sea in a windjammer of the old type, taking most of the story's footage during a four-weeks' cruise along the Atlantic coast.

Starting tomorrow (Thursday) a new Thomas Meighan picture will be shown at the T. D. & L.

MRS. HART PLANS DIVORCE ACTION

Wife of Film Favorite to Charge Husband With Cruelty in Suit

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Hope for a reconciliation said to be lost, friends of Winifred Westover, the pretty blonde wife of William S. Hart, were discussing today a statement credited to her that she will sue for divorce within a week, and that not even their little baby boy, "Bill" Hart, Jr., can bridge the break between them.

Several months ago Hollywood motion picture circles were surprised to learn that the Harts were separated, but later when "Bill" Jr. was born, it was thought that all differences between the two would be forgotten and a happy reconciliation effected. But this has failed, according to well founded reports today.

In Mrs. Hart's claim for divorce, it is understood she will allege cruelty. A contract of agreement, drawn up between the two when they separated several months ago, will play an important part when the case comes up for settlement in the divorce court, it was learned. What financial terms they have agreed upon is unknown, but it is believed part of the agreement prohibits Mrs. Hart from appearing on the screen again.

LEGION TEAM IN BATTLE TONIGHT

Quintet From Glendale Post To Meet Huntington Park Basketeers
The American Legion basketball team will tonight meet the Huntington Park Legionnaires at the U. S. C. gymnasium, as a preliminary to the play-off between Pasadena and Santa Monica for the championship of the southern California Legion league.
These will be fine exhibitions and the Glendale bunch want a big turn-out of loyal rooters. Transportation will be furnished from the Legion hall, 610 East Broadway, starting for Los Angeles from 6:30 to 7 o'clock, so as to be on hand early.
Thrills Promised
Santa Monica has ten straight wins to its credit, while Pasadena had to play only four games to put her in the same class as the tide-water boys, Glendale administering her only defeat. This deciding game should be replete with thrills.
Second only in interest will be the "curtain raiser" between Glendale and Huntington Park, for second place in the league, Glendale having won her last seven games in a row.

FIGHT RESULTS

At New York—Jack Bernstein, Yonkers, got decision over Gene Delmont, Memphis, twelve rounds. Joe Baker, Canada, got decision over Sammy Greenstald, New York, ten rounds.
At Wallingford, Conn.—Charles Pitkington, New York, defeated Dutch Brandt, Brooklyn, in twelve rounds.

TRACK MEET FOR GRADE STUDENTS

Three Schools Participate In Events Scheduled for Thursday
The first grammar school track meet of the season will be held at Columbus school tomorrow afternoon between the boys of Central, Columbus and Grand View schools.
Monday afternoon the girls of these three schools will have their track meet at Columbus.
According to A. H. Blanford, supervisor of physical education in the grammar school system, a strong interest is being shown this term in track athletics and each school is expected to try hard for the championship of the city league.
Although Central girls and Central boys won first places last week, Mr. Blanford stated that it was impossible to make any prediction yet.
The point system, similar to that used at all college meets, is used to calculate the score. First place means five points; second place, three; third, one. The team winning the relay race adds five points to its school's score.
Classify Entrants
Entrants are being divided into four classes:
Juniors, under 13 years of age, and under 4 feet 8 inches in height.
Intermediates, under 13 years of age, between 4 feet 8 inches and 4 feet 10 inches in height.
Seniors, under 13 years of age, between 4 feet 10 inches and 5 feet 5 inches in height.
Special class, over 13 years of age or over 5 feet 5 inches in height.
Boys' events include two dashes, a high jump and broad jump, a soccer kick, a baseball throw, and a relay race.
Girls' events include two dashes, a volley ball serve, a basketball throw, a baseball throw and a relay race.
Arrange Schedules
Girls' track meets have been arranged to occur on the next school day to the boys' meets. The schedule for the boys is as follows:
February 15, Central, Columbus and Grand View, at Columbus; February 20, Doran and Broadway, at Doran; February 22, Pacific and Colorado, at Pacific; February 27, Accacia and Cerritos, at Cerritos; March 5, Accacia and Broadway, at Broadway; March 7, Central, Doran and Grand View, at Central; March 12, Pacific and Cerritos, at Cerritos; March 15—Columbus and Colorado, at Colorado.

League Head to Settle Status of Southpaw

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The status of "Rube" Benton, left handed pitcher, who is seeking reinstatement into organized baseball, was in doubt when representatives of the National League unanimously voted to refer the matter to the league president, John A. Heydler. Heydler was frank in declaring whatever finding he would make would depend upon recommendations of High Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis, who has been appealed to by the St. Paul club to establish the status of the left hander. Benton is charged with having guilty knowledge of the 1919 framed series between the Chicago White Sox and the Cincinnati Reds.
Copies of resolutions passed by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and by the City Council, endorsing the policy of installing motor busses in and around Glendale, were presented to the Glendale Credit Association at its regular weekly meeting this week, with the request from C. D. Gulick, manager of the Southern Pacific Motor Bus Company, that the Credit Association adopt and pass a similar resolution, if the members could see their way clear to doing so.
Before taking any action in the matter, the association named a transportation committee consisting of Ed N. Radke, chairman, A. T. Cowan, C. C. Sherrerd, Harry E. White and Harry A. Kent, to investigate the matter and to report at the next meeting.
Warnings
Warnings that had been received dealing with the activities of several check artists who have been victimizing adjacent communities, were submitted to the association, and it developed that one of the men described in the circular had already made his presence felt in Glendale, according to one merchant, who declared that the description of the crook coincided with that of a man who had passed a bad check on him.
During the course of the meeting Ed Radke related the particulars of a visit he had paid to the old home of Abraham Lincoln, describing the things that remain today just as they were during the life of the martyred president.
Other members also paid tributes to the memory of the great war executive.

Indians Tangle With Santa Rita on Sunday

The Glendale "Indians" will meet the Santa Rita baseballers at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, at Park avenue and San Fernando road, announces Manager Sam Bell of the local team.
The Indians have been much strengthened by the acquisition of two additional first-class ball players and a fast game is expected.
A big turn-out will be appreciated as the local boys want to show a lot of Glendalians that their team is worth supporting.
Flyweight Champ Wins From Mason in Fifth
BOSTON, Feb. 14.—It required only five rounds for Pancho Villa, flyweight champion, to take the measure of Frankie Mason here last night. The diminutive Filipino knocked out the Hoosier farmer in the fifth stanza, the second time Mason had been forced to the floor.

The World Over By FRANKLIN B. MORSE PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Miss Marion Hollins and Mrs. F. E. Letts, Jr., the eastern women golf experts who are visiting the Pacific coast, have been playing excellent golf during their visit and have made a fine impression. Miss Hollins was the national champion in 1921 and is the first player to have her name engraved on a golfing shield emblematic of the Pebble Beach women's championship which is to be an annual feature hereafter in California golf.
One writer on boxing topics calls attention to the fact that while the exorbitant purses and high prices for seats are all in connection with heavyweight championship matches, the fact remains that within the last decade these selfsame matches among the men mountains have been the poorest. He calls to mind the Jeffries Johnson battle merely served to make a spectacle out of the finished Jeffries; that the Johnson-Willard fight in Cuba was a drab and dismal affair; that the Willard Dempsey match at Toledo was simply a massacre with Willard as the victim and, lastly, the Dempsey Carpentier affair was no match at all, so much superior was Dempsey.
Had these battles been paid for in proportion to their worth the purses would have been insignificant and the seats sold at popular prices with $3.00 the maximum for ringside, and even then

"If they put a club in Rochester I'll place International league teams in Pittsburgh and Brooklyn and grab the customers," quoth George.
Jack Dunn of Baltimore, was equally unimpressed.
"What do I care?" he remarked.
Another doubter from the minor league field suggested that the majors place clubs in all the big minor league cities such as Baltimore, San Francisco, Minneapolis, Buffalo and other points and have the players travel by airplane. They seemed to look upon the idea as the day's best joke, and pointed to the fact that it violated the fundamental principle of baseball law, the invasion of territorial rights.
Even with this feature waived, it was the general impression that the proposed circuit lacked credibility.

The Sport Crucible By Davis J. Walsh International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Just by way of rattling the sword, it is proposed to form a new eight club circuit to be known as the Inter-Allied league, with teams in Brooklyn, Washington, Baltimore, Toronto, Montreal, Buffalo, Newark and Providence, but it is our information that the man behind the project is none other than our old friend John J. Hersey. John is an active soul, but seldom makes good on his promises.
The details of the alleged scheme seem rather obscure, dealing only with the proposal to invade the territory of several non-draft minor leagues in reprisal for the latter's failure to accept the draft.
Major league men admitted today that they had "heard" of the proposed venture but seemed to lack specific information. The minors were openly incredulous. George Stallings, owner and manager of the Rochester club of the

DEATHS, FUNERALS

JACOB J. MUEHLEMAN
(Contributed)
In the passing of Jacob J. Muhleman, who was laid to rest in Forest Lawn cemetery on Monday, February 12, 1923, his family and friends lost one who will long be remembered in loving affection. He possessed many sterling qualities, not the least of which was his faithfulness in friendships formed all through a long life. Ties formed when he lived in his native state of Ohio were never severed and in his old age, separated by many miles, he often spoke of and corresponded with the associates of his youth and middle age.

He was ever the interesting companion of his sons and daughters and his warm heart kept its warmest corner for his little grandchildren.

He cared for the things which last, and are worthwhile, and valued a friend more than wealth, was a good neighbor and excellent citizen of every community in which he lived. He was especially interested in all civic and national affairs.

He was a life-long Methodist and a consistent Christian, unconsciously applying the Golden Rule each day as he lived it. Until his 65th year he lived on a farm, enjoying all the freedom and fullness of country life. To this, and to his temperate habits, are attributed his longevity, for he was Lincolnlike in his simplicity.

After leaving his farm he and his wife lived near Cincinnati, Ohio, surrounded there as he was here, by most of their children. The failing health of his beloved wife induced the family to come to California, where she lived but a short time. Later he built a home on Maple street, near Brand boulevard, in Glendale, where he lived until three years ago, when, with two of his daughters, he moved to Cabazon, in Riverside county, where the dry air and mild winters proved very beneficial and no doubt lengthened his days till he was called at the age of 89 years, 1 month, 13 days, more than seventeen years of which were spent in California.

Six of his children were present at his bedside. He leaves eight children, Randall G. Chobe of Glendale and thirteen grandchildren, all living in California; also two brothers, both octogenarians, living in the east.

GLENDALE FOURTH IN TAX PAYMENT

Three Cities in L. A. County Paying More to State, Controller Shows

Glendale stands fourth in the list of Los Angeles county cities from the standpoint of taxes paid. Hoovray for Glendale.

It is exceeded only by Los Angeles, Long Beach and Pasadena, nosing out Santa Monica by six hundred and some odd dollars.

The average cost to each resident in Los Angeles county will be $46.87 in taxes for the year 1922-23. The county's total tax bill for the year amounts to $49,903,849.67.

These are figures announced today by Ray L. Riley, state controller. He estimates the population of Los Angeles county at 1,066,159 in arriving at the per capita cost.

Sources of Taxes

According to Riley, the tax levy includes the general county levy of $3,747,640 and a special district county levy of $16,827,251.22. The balance is made up of taxes for the city of Alhambra, amounting to $216,626.85; Arcadia, $80,206.77; Avalon, $56,372.40; Azusa, $34,242.17; Beverly Hills, $72,724.50; Burbank, $60,313.86; Claremont, $22,297.32; Compton, $32,749.52; Covina, $24,065.08; Culver City, $31,393.07; Eagle Rock, $56,704.48; El Monte, $17,597.72; El Segundo, $77,000.78; Glendale, $338,673; Henderson, $30,896.48; Hermosa Beach, $51,599.03; Huntington Park, $62,177.85; Hyde Park, $10,380.80; Inglewood, $65,227.73; La Verne, $21,015.39; Long Beach, $1,180,781.01; Los Angeles, $9,592,337.39; Lynwood, $7,163.77; Manhattan Beach, $45,701.40; Monrovia, $102,128.10; Montebello, $67,706.22; Monterey Park, $20,445.67; Pasadena, $1,027,897.79; Pomona, $213,089.51; Redondo, $87,217.19; San Fernando, $33,225.56; San Gabriel, $26,645.86; San Marino, $3,500; Santa Monica, $383,107.20; Sierra Madre, $46,203.27; South Pasadena, $146,404.46; Torrance, $47,953.80; Venice, $139,724.26; Vernon, $52,702.63; Watts, $23,131.11; Whittier, $169,883.45.

Receipts Increased

These amounts, according to Controller Riley, will be augmented by certain other receipts from different county sources and from moneys distributed to the different political subdivisions by the state, such as school moneys at the rate of $30 per pupil; motor vehicle moneys collected in the county, one-half of which is returned for use on highways.

CARBON BRIQUET FUEL IS TESTED

Research Department Makes Exhaustive Experiments to Prove Merits

That carbon briquets have been thoroughly tested and have made good under the severest tryouts, is the declaration of Champ S. Vance, vice-president of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric corporation, distributors of the solid fuel.

After a season in which every conceivable demonstration has been made, the research department has conducted its experiments and the briquet has been pronounced equal to any fuel now on the market.

Used in the open fireplace, or in the inclosed stove of any make, or in the kitchen stove, they have made good and have been found easy to ignite and capable of a heat that is not excelled by any other fuel now in use. The briquets are being handled direct from the gas corporation to the consumer, without a middleman.

Prices Are Low
This means that it is possible to purchase the briquet in Glendale at a price never before possible. The supply is equal to the demand, though the demand has exceeded the highest hopes of the briquet department, where R. B. Moore is in charge and where trucks and men are kept busy from early morning until night sacking and delivering the cylindrical fuel which is so easy to handle and so profitable to use.

"When the public desired to know just what the carbon briquet would do," said Mr. Vance, "we ordered our research department to make tests which took our men to the high Sierras, and compelled us to burn the briquets under the severest of conditions. We did not hesitate at anything. There was no net proposition and no easy demonstration."

Engineers' Test
"Engineers who know how to get the best out of a fuel, given to them undertook to make the completest of tests, and as a result, we do not hesitate to recommend the carbon briquet as the best solid fuel now on the market. That is why our sales have been so remarkable and that is why we do not hesitate to say we have a fuel the equal of which is hard to find.

"Those who burn our briquets, whether it be in the kitchen stove, the brooder house, or the orchard heater, will learn to know they have a dependable fuel which can be trusted at all times to deliver the goods. I am pleased with the demonstrations made and with the campaign of handling the briquets ourselves. There is no possibility of anybody overcharging the public and we are enabled to deal fairly with our consumers."

SOCIAL EVENT

Valentine Lunch

Another pleasant Valentine affair was an informal luncheon given today by Mrs. W. A. Tanner at her home, 400 North Louise street, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. P. J. Schwab.

Red roses and Valentines decorated the luncheon table about which were seated the hosts, honoree and six guests.

During the afternoon the women enjoyed needlework and visiting.

Mrs. Tanner's guests were Mesdames Schwab, Marion Streight, W. E. Woodside, John Dieterich, R. M. Brown, J. K. Hill and V. M. Hollister.

Birthday Affair

Val M. Hollister was born on Valentine day and in celebration of his birthday this year Mrs. Hollister and Mrs. W. A. Tanner were joint hostesses last night at a delightful Valentine dinner and bridge party at the Hollister home at 416 North Louise street.

The Valentine colors, red and white, predominated in the table decorations. A large basket of red roses was the centerpiece, while clever miniature Valentines marked the places and the individual nut baskets were tied with red tulle. Red candles lighted the table.

Chicken was the piece de resistance of the dinner, which was followed by games of Bridge.

Guests at the Hollister home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nisle, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brown, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Hattie Halvorsen and Mrs. J. K. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollister and Mr. and Mrs. Tanner completed the company.

Married Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. McGee of 126 South Isabel street are in receipt of an announcement of the marriage of their son, Lewis W. McGee, to Miss Nina Eva Strecher of Vienna, Austria, at Poitiers, France, on January 26. The ceremony, which was postponed several times prior to the time when their residence was established, was performed by the mayor of the French city.

Mr. McGee, who formerly attended the Glendale Union High school, joined the United States navy in 1913. Since that time he has not had a chance to visit his parents, being stationed at the Philippine Islands, Turkey, Austria and other foreign countries. He is now stationed at Poitiers, where he is attached to the United States Naval Communication Service as a radio operator.

Mrs. McGee first met her bride while stationed in Vienna two years ago. There engagement was announced several months ago.

Children's Party

Anna Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Randall of 703 East Maple avenue, was hostess to a number of her school chums Tuesday afternoon at a daintily arranged Valentine party. The youthful hostess was assisted by her mother in entertaining her friends.

The house was attractively decorated in the usual Valentine colors of red and white, flowers and streamers transforming the room into a unique playhouse. Favors consisted of Valentines and tiny colored candy hearts.

The afternoon was enjoyed in games, contests and musical numbers. The guests included Lillian Kilgannon, Janet Phillips, Francis Budworth, Teddy Budworth, Sonnie Budworth, Gordon Graham and David Howton.

Community Party

Mrs. St. Clair Whytock and her team of Community Service enthusiasts had charge of the entertainment Monday night at the second monthly community party in the gymnasium of the Glendale Union High school.

Members of the team are Mrs. E. B. Moore, Mrs. L. Alcholz, Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Brown, Mrs. Essa T. Nickell, Mrs. R. C. Horner, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harwood, Miss Marie Gifford.

These informal gatherings are held once a month with the programs arranged by one of the various teams. Mrs. Whytock and her assistants were highly complimented for their program Monday night.

Games of various kinds were enjoyed and later in the evening a group of those attending the music institute joined the company. Mrs. A. A. Barton led in singing. In Vienna, Austria, C. C. Larson and his team will have charge of the entertainment for the March gathering.

At Burbank Club

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones and Mrs. J. G. Huntley, Tuesday afternoon club members of Glendale, were among the honored guests yesterday at Burbank when the Women's club of that city entertained in celebration of reciprocity day.

A beautifully appointed luncheon, with the Valentine motif carried out in the appointments and menu, was served to 200 guests and club members.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette was the principal speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Mattison Jones followed with an interesting talk.

A program, composed of vocal and instrumental music, and readings, following the five-minute talks by the district officers and members of the board, closed the very enjoyable day. Mrs. W. C. Mabry, who was expected to represent the Thursday Afternoon club, was unable to attend, owing to her serious illness.

Ministers' Recital

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hill, 1839 East Vassar, was the scene of an enjoyable affair Saturday afternoon, February 10, when their daughter, Louise, was presented in a piano recital by her teacher, Miss Lois Price.

Mr. Hill's mother, Mrs. J. H. Hill, and sister, Miss Margaret Hill, assisted Mrs. D. H. Hill in receiving the guests and in serving the refreshments which consisted of cake, ice cream and chocolate.

The guests were Mrs. Sudlow, daughter Marjorie and son Donald; Mrs. Harris, daughter Frances and son Malcolm; Merle Franklin and Robert Perry.

Prayer on Friday

Local observance of the national day of prayer is to be a joint all-day meeting Friday of the local W. C. T. U. and the missionary societies of all the Glendale churches at the First Baptist church. The morning service will begin at 10 o'clock and after the lunch hour at noon an afternoon service will be held. Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, president of the local W. C. T. U., invites all interested to attend.

Valentine Cake

A pleasant surprise today at the luncheon hour of the all-day meeting of Chapter 1, P. E. O. with Mrs. Charles Farnham at 316 North Louise street, was a huge Valentine cake, a gift from Mr. Farnham.

The cake was a real piece of art, fashioned by Mrs. Bert Woodard of 214 North Maryland avenue. An artistic icing design of yellow jonquils, purple violets and white hearts decorated the cake.

ATTY. GENERAL'S CONDITION GRAVE

Daugherty Suffering From General Breakdown, Says Physician

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Attorney-General Harry M. Daugherty is "a very sick man," according to word reaching some of his closest friends here today.

The attorney-general is confined to his apartment, seeing no one and transacting no official business. Dr. C. E. Sawyer, the White House physician, and a trained nurse are attending him. The attorney-general is said to be suffering from a general breakdown, brought on by overwork and abnormally high blood pressure. He is 63 years old. Since his advent into the cabinet, he has led an exceptionally active life.

Quiet and a long rest are the main remedies for such a condition, according to physicians. The expectation prevails that the attorney-general will go to Florida with the President and Mrs. Harding soon after March 4, if he is able to travel at that time.

Dr. Sawyer said today Mr. Daugherty was showing steady improvement.

Automobiles Slightly Damaged in Collision

Automobiles driven by W. C. Michael of 343 North Pacific avenue and Charles S. Mann of Hollywood were slightly damaged about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a collision at the intersection of Brand boulevard and Gardena avenue.

Closing tomorrow the Glendale demonstration of the Doble steam motor car at the Studebaker show room, corner Colorado and Brand boulevard, has proved to be one of the most successful of its kind ever staged in this city. Great interest has attached itself to the production of Doble steam motor cars and as the demonstrators point out, there are more orders than the factory can fill in three years until financed. Every one seems convinced that Abner Doble has hit upon the right thing in steam-driven motors which are more durable and economical in operation, according to a compilation of costs, than any gasoline automobile now manufactured.

Free rides are a feature of the hourly demonstrations during the afternoon and evening. The public is invited to see the car which the inventor claims will revolutionize the motor industry.

Finding of Mutilated Body Puzzles Police

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Police today followed three theories in an effort to solve the mysterious murder of a man whose nude and mutilated body was found deep in a dense grove near Geneva, Ill. last night. The victim had been shot twice and hacked to death. The police clues were:

That the death plot may have been the result of a clash between booze runners; that the slayer might have been an outraged husband; that the dead man was a member of a robber band and was killed by his companions.

The body was found by Robert Johnson, a farm hand. The face had been charred beyond recognition.

Held Guilty by Jury Of Transporting Liquor

A jury in Judge F. H. Lowe's court yesterday afternoon found Robert Weede of Los Angeles guilty of having transported liquor through Glendale. Sentence will be passed at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Weede was arrested November 19 while driving through the city. As a passenger with him was Tony Circleback of Los Angeles who forfeited his bail of $50 for failure to appear in court on a charge of being intoxicated.

The case was prosecuted by Ray Morrow, assistant city attorney, under the Wright Act. The fine, when paid, will go into the city treasury.

Iowa People to Meet Washington's Birthday

The call has gone out through all the west for Iowans to meet all day Thursday, February 22, in Lincoln park, Los Angeles, under the auspices of the Iowa Association of Southern California, for the mammoth annual winter picnic reunion.

Ninety-nine separate county headquarters and registers open all day long; silk souvenir badges to cover expenses; a popular program; two or three college reunions in the afternoon. Col. A. B. Shaw, state president of 1922 will preside.

Free Seeds Defeated When House Vote Ties

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Permanent legislation providing free garden seed to members of congress for distribution among their constituents was defeated in the house agricultural committee by a tie vote.

Representative Langley, Republican, Kentucky, proposed that congress appropriate annually $500,000 to purchase seed. He introduced the bill after the house had defeated an item of $350,000 for a similar purpose in an appropriation bill.

Wage Pacts Eliminate Fear of Coal Strike

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The paralyzing coal strike of last year will not be repeated this year because wage agreements between bituminous coal operators and miners in nearly all of the soft coal fields of the country have been signed, it was announced today by the United Mine Workers. The agreements, conforming with the basic scale adopted by the general joint conference of operators and miners in New York, assures for another year continuous production of bituminous coal.

OMAHA SWEPT BY $750,000 BLAZE

Zero Temperature Hampers Battle With Flames in Packing Plant

OMAHA, Feb. 14.—A fire which is still burning has destroyed twenty-two buildings here and caused damage estimated at $750,000. It is believed another building is doomed. Firemen are concentrating their efforts on saving the main packing building, a nine-story structure, directly in the path of the flames.

Work of the department is hampered by sub-zero temperature, freezing hose lines and a high wind, which is carrying the blaze against the walls of the main plant.

One reason why a dollar goes faster now is because it has to in order to keep the pace we set.

4 CHILDREN DIE IN FLAMING HOME

Mother Leaps From Window With Baby in Arms; Both May Die

PINE CITY, Minn., Feb. 14.—Four small children were burned to death here early today when fire destroyed the farm house of Mrs. George Gibbs.

The mother saved herself and a 4-year-old child by leaping from a second-story window.

Both were burned and their death is feared.

Medical attention was cut off by the blizzard sweeping over Minnesota.

An overheated stove caused the blaze.

Wife Watches Husband Die Under Wrecked Car

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—An inquest was held over the body of Charles Pfeifer of Tacoma, Wash., who was killed near Chalk Hills, on the Ventura highway when his automobile overturned.

Mrs. Pfeifer, who was with her husband at the time of the accident, tried for over an hour to free her husband from beneath the wrecked machine, but, being unable to do so, was forced to sit down beside him and see him die.

Money Subscribed to Purchase Belleau Wood

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Purchase of Belleau Wood, where the American second division won fame, and its consecration as an American shrine is assured, it was announced. The last $16,000 necessary to acquire the site has been subscribed. The money will purchase the cemetery, where many American soldiers are buried and enough adjoining land to make a small park.
