More Interesting.

Much interest is being taken in the contest for the Piano and other prizes to be given away by the CAMPBELL INTERURBAN PRESS. There is yet time for others to enter and stand an equal opportunity of earning these gifts. Send the PRESS to your eastern friends and relatives, or have them subscribe and let the credits be applied to the one desired. Let us see how many new subscriptions can come in this week. How they stand:

...THIS IS THE PIANO....

Some Young Lady Will Get.

Given Away by the "Interurban Press."

READ! ON MARCH 4, 1905, the day the President will be inaugurated, we propose to give absolutely FREE OF COST to the lady who secures for us the largest amount of money for subscriptions or advertising to the CAMPBELL INTERURBAN PRESS a beautiful Golden Oak Curtaz Piano, costing $325.00, now on exhibition in our show window. It must be seen to be appreciated.

To the young man or lady, boy or girl, who brings in the second largest amount we will give a $50.00 Scholarship Course in the Pacific Coast Business College.

To the young man or lady, boy or girl, who brings in the third largest amount we will give a beautiful solid Silver Hair Brush and Comb in a neat case.

To the young man or lady, boy or girl, who brings in the fourth largest amount we will give a fine French Plate Hand Mirror.

WHO WILL WIN THE

Now As to the Plan

Every subscription to the PRESS of $1 will count as 100 credits, and you can subscribe for as many years as you wish and have 100 credits for each subscription placed to the credit of any of the young lady contestants. Every advertisement secured for the paper will be governed by the same rule. A dollar a month ad. will count for 100 credits; a two dollar ad. 200 credits, etc. Paid locals will count the same. Credits given for every penny turned into this office between now and March 4th, '05. We want young men and young ladies in the outlying districts to go to work for the PRESS, as well as in town. How can you earn such valuable premiums more easily? An hour or two a day from now on may do it. The contest will be conducted in a perfectly honest and honorable manner and all parties going to work can depend on it that they will be treated absolutely fair. Come in and get the necessary information. Let us explain the plan to you.

NOTE--Those who have paid anything since the PRESS started either for back subscriptions or in advance, or for advertising, are entitled to come in and have their credits counted.

A land of wonders, social, political, and natural, as told by Hon. T. W. GLOVER. The great economic reforms accomplished in New Zealand have been an example to the whole civilized world. It is a government governed by laboring men in the interest of the whole people. Government ownership of railroads and telegraph, strikes eliminated by compulsory arbitration, a genuine eight hour system for everybody, an elective franchise broad and free. Every laboring man, every capitalist, every good citizen ought to know about the practical reforms of New Zealand as told by Mr. Glover, a speaker of wit, power and intense earnestness. Y. M. C. A. PRESS NOTES

Two cases of scarlet fever are reported, showing that the disease has not yet been stamped out.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strong are again domiciled in their own residence on Central Avenue.

Mrs. John Strong, and little daughter, spent last week visiting in Watsonville and Corralitos.

I tender my resignation as Instructor of the Campbell Band. Thankful for past favors, Charles Pannell.

The four lower grades of the Grammar school are preparing a fine program to be given the Friday afternoon before Christmas.

The Press has been nearly swamped this week with work, incident to getting out two papers in one week—the Oriole special Christmas number being the cause, beside job work that is always in a rush.

Mrs. Mary Tuttle, wife of Thos. Tuttle, and mother of Mrs. Thompson, of San Tomas Road, died suddenly, Tuesday morning, aged 81 years. The body was taken to Cypress Lawn Cemetery Thursday for interment.

The book committee of the Book Club met Monday to choose books for the coming year. The club is entering upon its fourth year, retaining largely the same membership each year, and enriching the library by the presentation of most of its books after the year's reading.

The Interurban short line to Los Gatos has been in operation since last Thursday, and leave San Jose Broad Gauge depot on the hour. Cars coming from Los Gatos leave Campbell 16 minutes past the hour; the "flyer" reaches Campbell on its way to San Jose at 8:25 a. m.

The mens' supper at the Congregational Church last night was a grand success both as to the quality of food presented and the financial results. There were rumors circulated that the men did not cook with their own fair hands all the viands, sundry baked beans, etc., using the work of their other halves. But there are probably false reports set in motion by envious feminine creatures.

This week Thomas W. Lawson, the author of "Frenzied Finance," has been turning the financial world upside down by squeezing the water out of stocks, Amalgamated copper in particular. His threats were laughed at by the great financiers but a few days of real work on his part proved his power to make good his words. His policy of taking the public into his confidence, so far from the usual quiet methods of stock brokers, is rapidly educating the people in matters financial and if carried on long enough will probably make impossible in the future the gigantic swindles carried on in connection with almost every great enterprise.

Lawson Did It

C. H. Whitman has a new and marvellous lamp on exhibition at his store. It gives a pure white flame from the common "Standard Oil" product. When questioned how he managed to produce such a beautiful white flame with anything sold by the Standard Oil Co., he replied: "Lawson did it."

Sunnyside Tract

Presents a busy scene this week. Mr. Stratton has number of men at work laying sidewalks, putting in water pipes, etc. The tract from the Santa Clara road to the railroads has been opened, the trees having been removed and preparations are maturing for grading same. A. W. Smith secured the contract for laying the pipe. Messrs. Warner, Miller, Reid and Sawyer are at work on the new cement walks, and it is certain that a first class walk will be laid. Mr. Stratton's four horse team has been hard at work hauling gravel for the walks and streets. Hugh McNitt is handling this part of the work.

On the corner of Kennedy Avenue and the Santa Clara road the cement foundation is being laid for E. C. Hurlbert's new cottage. Messrs. Dunham and Hartmann have the contract for this new dwelling, and as soon as completed these gentlemen will erect two dwellings on lots owned by them.

Other purchasers of lots are soon to build on the tract. Lots are being constantly sold and we may expect to see the new tract rapidly present a pleasing appearance. Judging from the way lots are selling the remaining lots will soon be gone.

CORRESPONDENCE

BEING THE "SCHOOLMARM."

EDITOR INTERURBAN PRESS:—

How full each day was of interesting experiences and how good and faithful the children were! It was hard to realize amid such restful surrounds that in the outside world the bustle and stir of the outside world was going on. We were so far from any reliable time piece that every one just kept the time that suited him best. A difference of half an hour between two watches wasn't considered anything serious at all,—one doesn't have to be so particular as to the time-table in catching pack trains, as in catching railroad trains. There were always at least two watches in every gathering that differed widely, and yet their owners were prepared to swear that each was right—even that they regulated the sun.

We kept adding touches to our school-room until our many visitors were flattering enough to say that it was the daintiest little room in camp, and even whispered that it was a pity that some one couldn't persuade the schoolmarm to put a cook stove into it.

One fellow said that a sure way to tell whether a camp was dead or not was to look around, and if you saw a couple of men playing horseshoes, and another one or two dozing over a game of solitaire, you could just make up your mind that all the camp was waiting for was burial. The others declared that he was mistaken, and continued to play horseshoes through the long autumn evenings. When there was no one around, Willard gave me a number of lessons, and I became familiar with "ringers," "leaners," etc., though I never became very expert in throwing them.

One Sunday afternoon, Willard and Grover arranged to take me to the big Mountain Boomer gold mine as I had never been through one. Did I tell you that Sanday means very little here, and the mines run seven days in the week. The men often lose track of time when they are out in the mountains, and when they come in, will ask casually what day of the week it is. We started out alone, but one of the men who had been staying at the house just happened to remember that he had important business at the mine, whistled to his dog and joined us; and two men who had come down to the store on business decided that it was time to go home; so counting the pack mule that we were driving ahead and the two dogs, we made quite a family party as we climbed the mountain.

The president showed me all through the mine. The tunnels were dripping with water, and we splashed along through the mud by the light of flickering candles. Off from the main tunnel are side tunnels called "slopes," which run at an angle, and in these the men were working taking out ore. "I would like for you to see the veins of quartz, but its a terrible climb; do you think you can do it?" said my guide, but I convinced him that I was willing to try. It would be a shame for one to come so far after experience (and incidentally a little cash) and then stop because of a muddy bank, so I climbed and crawled up after my companion and got some idea of what a miner's lot is.

When we came to a particularly dark corner, some one spoke to me, and I answered and called the speaker "M. P." as I thought I recognized the voice. He replied, but added, "It's all right this time, but don't call me Mr. P. again." O horror of horrors! it was a different fellow altogether. I apologized in my best style, and retreated down the slope. When I told his partner about it, he said that I was fortunate to get out with my life—it seems that it wasn't a compliment to be taken for Mr. P. When I finally finished my tour of the mine and reached daylight again, I was literally covered with mud, but I felt that the trip was worth it, and heard the president murmur something about somebody's being a brick, so that was encouraging.

The man who went up with us came down too, and so far as I could see the same business brought him down that took him up—but then maybe I was prejudiced. That evening the fellow whom I called Mr. P. left camp for a visit to his brother down the river; and several rushed in to tell me that I was the whole cause of it, that the disgrace was so great that he couldn't stay to live it down. This happened to be one of our "panoche" evenings, and when he stopped in later, I passed him candy generously in the hope that he could bury his wounded feelings in it. He seemed to be able to, for from all appearances I was forgiven.

Maybe you are under the impression that it isn't quite an important position to be the only white girl for miles and miles. Disillusion yourself at once. Everybody is interested in everything that you do and more than interested to know which fellow is inclined to want to call on you. Let any poor unlucky fellow but look your way, and he is the subject of all the jokes for days. A conversation like this was audible from the store porch as one fellow came out as if to go home, "What, Sankfield, going home so early? Thought you had business at the house?" "I haven't gone yet," was the answer as the fellow deliberately walked up to the house. Talk about bravery! Even Lee would have quailed before such an ordeal. It was worthy of a better cause.

One Saturday the boys were going fishing down in Eagle Creek six miles from home, and said that I could go too. They saddled up one of the mules for me, and they walked. I wonder if any of my friends would have recognized me had they met me rounding a point between the pines, behind the waving ears of a mule and with two guns and a sack of lunch across the saddle. Unfortunately when we reached the river, we found that the fish had either all breakfasted or had lost their appetites entirely, so we had very poor success as fishermen, but did splendidly as waders. Why did we wade? To get across the creek, of course. At first I held up my skirts gingerly and looked for rocks to step on, but one was just a little more slippery than even a wet rock ought to be, and down I went into the water, gun and all. After that I saved my nerves and splashed right through.

I felt quite important one evening after school when I took a piece of venison and rode about a mile over a mountain to deliver it to an old lady, but when I mentioned it proudly in letters to my friends they all wrote me terrible stories of schoolmarm who had been eaten by bears and lions, and other animals. As if our animals were not better trained! the idea!

One of the men brought me in the horns of one of the deer that he killed (in season of course) and I will have them to show to convince people that I really did go to Trinity County. I also have several pieces of quartz. It is surprising how interested one will get in "quartz ledges" and "pay dirt" when they hear so much about them.

I lost my identity almost entirely and was just "the teacher," but Mrs. Ladd says that that isn't a disadvantage always, for if things are said outside camp, it is much pleasanter to have them said about you with your name tacked on.

This is wash day, so I'll close as the Irishman did by saying, "'cuse writin' and splin'," and tell you about institute experiences next time. S. N. S. '04.

Teachers' Institute

San Jose, Cal., December 1, 1904.

In accordance with Sections 1543, Sub. 6, 1562 and 1563, of the School Law, the Teachers' Institute of Santa Clara County, for the school year ending June 30, 1905, will be held at the State Normal School Hall, San Jose, commencing at 10 a. m. of Tuesday, December 27, 1904, and continuing four days, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday a. m.

The Institute will be called to order in the Normal Hall promptly at 10 a. m. of Tuesday, Dec. 27th, for organization, and again in this hall at 11 a. m. of Friday, Dec. 30th, for concluding business, handing in attendance cards, and adjournment.

I hope the teachers will come prepared to take advantage of the many good things to be presented by the State Teachers' Association.

The teachers of Santa Clara County will tender a reception to the members of the State Association on Tuesday evening.

A cordial invitation to attend the Institute is hereby extended to all teachers, school trustees, representatives of the press, and other friends of education.

Certain discussion of especial interest to trustees will be given, at which it is hoped that every school district in Santa Clara County will be represented. Many trustees have already expressed their intention of being present.

Neither a Board of School Trustees nor the County Superintendent has power, under the law, to excuse a teacher from attendance upon the Institute. The Superintendent must report to the County Board the name of every teacher who does not attend the sessions regularly, and it must deal with the absentees.

Sickness so great that a teacher can not attend school if it were in session is a valid excuse for absence from the Institute.

A teacher who fails to attend any session of the Institute and is excused by the County Board is not entitled to any pay during the time of absence.

Your active support is most earnestly solicited. Sincerely yours,

D. T. BATEMAN,

County Superintendent of Schools

High School Lecture Course

The high school lecture course was opened Thursday evening by the lecture of Lieutenant-Colonel Alex. M. Lochwitzky; a Siberian exile. It was an exceedingly interesting and instructive lecture, coming as it did from a former prominent officer of St. Petersburg. He portrayed fully his experiences both in St. Petersburg and the island of Saghalien where he was imprisoned for four years. One gets a pretty good insight into the barbarous methods of Russia by hearing a person who is qualified to speak as is Col. Lochwitzky. For three hours he told his startling experience and the large audience at the close voted it an evening well spent and many took the opportu-ity of personally meeting the visitor.

He had great difficulty in escaping from Vladivostock to Japan, and even then he was pursued by Russian Gendarmes, but having reached America, he feels that he can have liberty of speech and as he told the writer, he feels that Russia is a very good country to get away from.

It may be that he will locate in California and have his family come here, whom he has not been permitted to hear from since March last.

It may be possible that professorship at Stanford will be offered him, and judging from his ability he could fill the same acceptably.

Job printing done on short notice at the PRESS office.

Deed Annulled on the Ground of Fraud

Judge Hyland Wednesday evening declared null and void a deed made by Carl Granstrom to his wife, Lella on the 13th of January last, on the ground of cajolery and fraud. The Mercury in reporting the case said:

Granstrom, a widower with two young daughters, employed a widow, Mrs. Lena Palmer, in November of last year as housekeeper. On the 13th of the following month he married her. On the 13th of January, at her solicitation, he deeded to her one-half of his ten-acre orchard near Campbell, and that, too, the half on which stood his dwelling and other improvements. Then her ardor cooled and in place of love she expressed hatred and disgust. Then he discovered that she was negotiating a loan on the property with the design of using the proceeds to buy a lodging house.

It was apparent to all who listened to the testimony that Granstrom is a simple-minded toiler with little knowledge of the ways of the world, and that his wife was the opposite in all these important particulars. By her own testimony she accompanied her former husband for fourteen years on the racing circuit, and that after his death she managed his horses for several years, and that since she had kept rooming houses in various mining towns.

Judge Hyland in summing up the case touched on all these matters. He said he did not think that when she first married Granstrom she had the purpose to acquire his property, but that after the marriage she realized that life with him was not agreeable to her and that she then resolved to get out with whatever she could obtain.

When Granstrom realized that the verdict was really in his favor he burst into tears and immediately proceeded to thank the court, the bailiff and his attorneys, F. B. Brown and John E. Richards appeared for the plaintiff, and Oneal and Richardson and T. R. Dougherty for the defendant.

Congregational Church Notes

Next Sunday morning the Pastor will begin a series of five morning sermons on the general theme: "The Secret of Bright Christians." The evening subject will be: "Christ, His Wonderful Personality," a thought especially for young people.

A recent issue of The Pacific, the Pacific Coast Congregational paper, was practically a Campbell issue, containing a cut of the church with a short sketch of the church life work, and the statement of his theological belief, which the Pastor made to the Installing Council recently held in Campbell.

At a recent business meeting of the Christian Endeavor the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Miss Gertrude Smith, President; Mr. Geo. Righter, Vice-President; Miss Ruth Wakeman, Secretary; Mr. Stanley Smith, Treasurer; Mr. Geo. Schuyler, Lookout Com.; Miss Shepherd, Prayermeeting Com.; Miss May Cooper, Missionary Com.; Miss Vera Fablinger, Social Com.; Miss Mildred Duncan, Flower Com.; Miss Mildred Keesling, Music Com.; Misses Allie Hutton and Grace Townsend, Organists.

CAMPBELL

(THE ORCHARD CITY)

Lies 50 miles south of San Francisco on the Santa Cruz division of the Southern Pacific Railway, 5 miles from San Jose, in the famous Santa Clara Valley, the garden spot of the State. Campbell is also connected with San Jose, Los Gatos, and Saratoga by a new Interurban electric car line.

SCENERY SUPERB

With the Santa Cruz Mountains to the west and south and the Coast Range on the east, a majestic amphitheatre is formed, the beauty of which can not be excelled anywhere. Campbell has an altitude of 195 feet. The cool breezes from San Francisco bay at the north insure an even and comfortable temperature throughout the summer months, while the winters are warm and pleasant. Flowers bloom out of doors the year around.

EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES

Campbell has a population of about 600. It maintains a (third class) post-office which distributes mail to 3,000 patrons, covering over 30 square miles of orchard homes. There are two churches—Methodist and Congregational—a first class High School and Graded School, and within a few miles are two Universities, two Colleges, a State Normal School and several Business Colleges and private schools.

The Stanford University with its marvelous architecture is only 20 miles away.

NO SALOONS

Campbell has a complete water system of its own. It has electric lights and power for mechanical purposes, which is distributed throughout the orchard district. A telephone exchange serves over 40,000 people. A prohibitory clause in all deeds to property within the town limits, prevents the saloon from being established.

MINERAL SPRINGS

The hot springs of Alum Rock Canyon and Congress Mineral Springs are within two hours' drive, giving a panoramic view of the entire valley.

The Almaden Quicksilver Mines, the largest in the world are within easy access by rail or team.

The largest seed farms in the world only 10 miles distant.

FINE ROADS AND RESORTS

The Santa Clara Valley boasts of the finest roads to be found in the State. It has over 350 miles of sprinkled rural highways. In attractions for tourists the Santa Clara Valley can not be surpassed. Thirty-two miles eastward over a magnificent mountain road is the famous Lick Observatory on Mt. Hamilton, 4,444 feet above sea level. There are numerous mountain retreats within two hours' drive for those who love the camp and sparkling brook. The sea beach to the southward 27 miles by rail or carriage drive, and through the most beautiful mountain scenery in the world.

A trip to the Big Trees, twenty feet in diameter and two thousand years old, will furnish a delightful day's outing.

FRUIT CENTER

Campbell's mammoth fruit dryer and packing house is the largest in the world. It has a capacity of over 10,000,000 lbs.

The Campbell Orchard District is noted for the quality of its fruits. For delicacy of flavor and beauty and perfection of color, its cherries, apricots, peaches, apples, plums, grapes and pears, have no equal in their fresh state, and command the highest market price. As cured or dried fruit the Campbell prune, apricot, and peach is shipped to every civilized country on the globe. Nearly one-half of all the prunes grown on the continent are from Campbell orchards. One and a half million cans of fresh fruits are packed in Campbell every season.

The demand for intelligent labor is increasing every year. Families desiring profitable employment in orchards, packing houses and canneries find this an ideal home.

LAND VALUES MODERATE

Land values are very moderate—bare land brings from $80 to $300 per acre and when set to trees sells from $200 to $1,000 per acre, according to location and age of orchard. Ten to fifteen per cent is an average net income, while many places yield a much higher rate.

In short a Campbell home is one surrounded with HEALTH, WEALTH AND PLEASURE.
