POTERY.

Taken Away.

BY JENNY MARSH PARKER.

Holy Father, help us now!
Her sweet eyes have lost their beaming,
And upon her baby brow
Steals the damp, whose bitter meaning
Wrings our torn heart's sorest cords.
Through her pale lips not a breath
Comes feebly, nor a wail of pain—
Naught will hurt our lamb again;
It is over—it is death—
Blessed be the name of the lord.

Oh, this heavy, heavy cross!
Can our crushed hearts bear it up?
Can we drink the bitterness
God hath mingled in our cup?
Ah, we cannot help but yearn
For this little breast to throbb,
And her untried feet to turn
Back from Heaven's gate, where now
God himself bids her to enter—
Not a stain upon her brow;
Not a sign of sin's distemper—
To this little cradle bed,
Where she moaned in untold pain,
Till her infant span was sped.
Christ forgive us—He hath wept—
She hath gone to her reward;
If it over—it is death—
Blessed be the name of the Lord.

Close her eyelids—oh, the night
That blots out the sun to-day;
Those bright child-eyes were the light
Leading up a heavenly way.
They will never weep for us—
Never be o'erfilled with tears—
For the sorrows that the heart
Cannot feel until the years
Ope our vision to the sin,
And the misery and woe,
Baby's eyes have never seen.
Kiss them close—those angel eyes
That we loved, ay, worshipped so;
From the gates of paradise,
They will guide us as we go,
Toiling for our life's reward;
We've no treasure now below,
Blessed be the name of the Lord.

CASHMERE GOATS IN GEORGIA.—The Savannah Republican notices the second importation of the Cashmere Goat into that State. It says:

"An importation of these valuable animals has been made by the Hon. W. H. Stiles, and after a tedious voyage, he arrived safely at his place up the river, having been accompanied by a Greek, who is still with them as an attendant, all the way from Smyrna. This is the second importation of the pure breed of Cashmere goats ever made into this country; the first having been made by Mr. Davis, who sold them to Mr. Richard Peters, of Atlanta, from which importation all the crosses and half-breeds in this country have sprung. Mr. Stiles has eight of them, and they are no less curious than valuable, something of the size and shape of our native breed. They differ widely in their hair, which grows so luxuriously as to give them the appearance of a sheep with an immense fleece on it. The experiment having been thoroughly tried as to their thriving in our climate, and resulting satisfactorily, there can be no doubts of the value they will be to our country. The uses to which the hair is put are numerous. Camlet and worsted goods and ladies' fabrics, as challies, mousselines delaine, gentlemen's clothing for summer wear, hosiery, etc., promising a beauty, strength, durability, lustre and permanency of color far superior to the wool of the alpaca sheep.

These goats are found in the Himalaya Mountains, and have to be brought near a thousand miles before they reach a shipping port. They are not sheared like the sheep, but the fleece is pulled off twice every year. An ordinary fleece weighs between three and four pounds. The New York price is $8 50 per pound, making at least $51 a year for each goat. There is no cost in feeding them, for they are as frugal and hearty as the common goat.

Their great value in this country is the splendid cross with our common goat, the half-breed being nearly as valuable every way as the full breed, and their remarkable fecundity soon repays a heavy interest on the investment, while the expense of keeping them is a mere trifle, as they live on briars and foliage not touched by other animals. There is a great demand for them, and the prices they bring are fabulous—one buck sold as high as $1,500 and one of Mr. Peters' stock was sent to the Illinois State Fair for exhibition, and so pleased the president that he offered the weight of the animal in silver in exchange for him."

MISFORTUNES.—Misfortunes are like thunder and stormy clouds—in the distance they appear black, but when over our heads they are scarcely grey. As bad dreams denote an agreeable future, so will it be with the often painful dream of life when it is past. All our strong feelings, like ghosts, have their influence for a certain period only; and if a man were to say to himself this passion, this pain, this rupture, is sure after three days to lose its effect on the mind, then would he always be more composed and quiet.

A PIPE, like a quack medicine, is worth nothing unless it is puffed.

HOW MIKE GOT EVEN WITH THE MILLER.—"Old Squire M.," now dead, lived some few years since in one of the numerous pleasant villages of the "Land of Steady Habits," and had in his employ one of the most complete specimens of an Irishman ever produced by the "jim o' the say." At the same time one Deacon Tinker held the post of town miller, and the grist for miles around all came to his mill, the deacon taking his toll out of every bag of meal in payment for the grinding, as is the New England custom, but to which our "broth of a boy," Mike, was an entire stranger. One day the old squire sent Mike with a horse and wagon to the mill, to bring home some grain which had been sent to the deacon to grind. Mike performed his task with tolerable dispatch; but when he got back an air of mystery, not unmixed with satisfaction, hung around him, and he evidently had something on his mind.—Noticing his manner, the squire began to question him, whereupon, after some show of reluctance, Mike "propels" in "the manner following, that is to say:—

"Well, thin, squire, what sort av a man is that Daycon Tinker, at all, at all?" "Why, Mike, he's a most excellent, worthy man in every way; as honest a man as there is in the country. Why do you ask?" "Well, thin, it's the quare kind av an honest man he is entirely," said Mike. "So, here's how it was: I dhruv up, an I hicht the horse, an' I wint into the mill, an' I axed him which was the squire's male? an' shure he pinte it out wid de finger av him, and sez he to me, sez he, go out, Mickey, an' let doon the tail piece to the wagin, sez he, an' I'll be afther helpin' ye wid de bags, sez he. Many thanks, Mither Tinker, sez I to him; and wid dat, troth, I wint out as he bid, an' be gorrah! jist as I was afther lettin' doon the tail piece, I look't over my shoulder, an' bedad av I didn't mind the ould spalpeen goin' to all the bags, an' takin' three quarts of male out av my blessed wain av them, an' puttin' it in a bag av his own that stud furnist him in the corner. Ho, ho! is it there ye are, ye old thafe o' the world! sez I to meself; I'll be aven wid ye, sez I. An' wid that I wint back, sez I to him, don't be afther throublin' yourself fur the likes av me, sez I; shure it's not weighty they are at all, at all—more the! sez I. I'll pit 'em in mesel', an' ye'll be wantin' to mind the mill, sez I. Well, with that he jist turned round and wint up stairs agin to the chamber above, an' wid that I jist wint to his thavin' ould bag in the corner beyant, an' it's six quarts avace I put back agin for ivery three the ould villain truck out! Ho, ho, thin, it's aven wid ye, I am, now thin, sez I, an' that's how it was. Troth, it's the quare sort av an honest man is that Daycon Tinker, entirely!" The story was too good to keep, and Mike was the village lion for some time to come.

DEATH OF A BLIND MILLIONAIRE.—Joaquin Gomez, a noted character of Havana, died on the night of the 2d February, aged 84 years. He is understood to have died worth six million dollars.—He did not make any will, and his heirs, nephews and illegitimate children, who, however, were educated and acknowledged by him—have wisely agreed to enter into an arrangement for the division of the property, instead of going to law about it. Twelve or thirteen years since a Dr. Berdange; whom some say had been grossly wronged by a decision of the deceased, who at the time was the President of the Tribunal of Commerce, while others declared the doctor had been cheated in some slave trading transaction, entered the church of San Felipe in Havana, where Don Joaquin Gomez was, and poured a bottle of vitriol upon his (the deceased's) head, some of which, running into his eyes, instantly deprived him of sight, while the wound inflicted on the head never healed. The doctor, after perpetrating this deed, rushed into the gallery of the church, and there swallowed a dose of prussic acid, which instantly deprived him of life. The deceased lingered all of these years deprived of sight, a pitiable object.

THE POET BURNS.—I saw the following fugitive lines, in his own handwriting, (so reputed,) on a pane of glass in the "Globe" public-house, at Dumfries, where, in October, 1857, they were still to be seen:—

"Whate'er ye seek, be't ale or beer,
Or whate'er fits your nob,
At moderate fare y'll find it here,
The best that's in the Globe."
On another pane, equally religiously preserved, and certainly in the same hand, were these lines:—
"Gin a body meet a body
Coming through the grain,
Gin a body kiss a body,
The thing's a body's ain."

These two stanzas are looked upon as genuine relics of the bard.
He is happy whose circumstances suit his temper; but he is more excellent who can suit his temper to any circumstances.

CURIOUS CALCULATION.—A Frenchman—none but a Frenchman would have done it—has taken the trouble to calculate the portions of a long life really employed in work of any kind, and this is the result: He supposes his subject to be a hale, vigorous man, of 72 years of age.

Allowing eight hours on an average for sleep—that deducts at once 24 years. For dressing and undressing on rising and going to bed, washing, shaving, &c., half an hour daily, makes 1 1/2 years.

Then two hours daily for meals, (this is an excess of one half for Americans, who bolt food,) count up 6 years.

Love making! according to this calculation, will average one hour daily, or 3 years.

For society, idling, gossiping, theatres, balls, play—three hours more—up to 9 years.

Finally, the ordinary maladies of childhood—the accidents and diseases of mature age—like causes, will deduct two hours on an average, making 6 years.

So that in conclusion, one hale, hearty man, of 72 years, has, in fact, not been able to employ in the positive occupations of industry, more than 22 1/2 years.

VIRTUE WHEN HATED.—A man is loved for his virtue so long as his virtue gives no offense to the prejudices, vanities, or vices of others. The reformer must disturb the opinions of many; and he is a robber and breaks into men's habits, and robs them of the opinions which may have been their character, their wealth, child and idol.

GOOD sense is the father of Wit, Truth his grandfather, and Mirth and Good-humor his boon companions.

THE following notice may be seen on a blacksmith's shop in Essex: "No horses shod on Sunday except sickness and death."

WE run the risk of experiencing the greatest disgust if we observe too closely how government, justice, and cookery are managed.

THE following direction appeared on a letter recently delivered in Auckland, Durham; "For Elizabeth Jane Spencer, a tall woman, with two little boys."

A SHORT time ago the following notice was stuck up at a tailor's window, near Manchester: "Wanted, two apprentices; they will be treated as one of the family!"

VOLTAIRE, on one occasion, when his friends were conversing on the antiquity of the world, observed, "The world is like an old coquette—she disguises her age."

WE notice scores of poetical effusions directed to friends who are in heaven.—Better give poetry of the heart utterance in words and deeds of kindness to friends upon earth.

OUT of the whole grand army of the revolution which fought under Washington and his generals, there are now living throughout the whole United States only one hundred and sixty-five.

PURE truth, like pure gold, has been found unfit for circulation; because men have discovered that it is far more convenient to adulterate the truth than to refine themselves.

THE KNIGHT'S LANDING NEWS. OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER. SATURDAY, APRIL 14TH, 1860.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We would call special attention to the new Advertisements in to-day's NEWS.

Dr. E. Van Rensselaer gives another Concert this Evening at Capt. Updegraff's. We have heard him on several occasions, and have been uniformly highly entertained thereby; we would advise all lovers of music, humor, wit and fun to attend, for the talent of the Doctor is a combined personification of all four.

CALIFORNIA LAND CASES.—The Supreme Court have decided another batch of Land cases; Appeals from the District Court of the Northern District of California. Out of seventeen cases adjudicated, the Supreme Court reverse twelve of the Decrees of the District Court, and dismiss the petitions of claimants.

COUNTY SEAT.—An Act to provide for the permanent location of the County Seat of Yolo, passed the Senate on the 11th instant.

SOLD OUT.—F. S. Thomson who has long been connected with the Daily Bee, has sold out his interest to J. O'Leary.

The Grand Jury of Sutter County in the case of George Cramer for the killing of James B. Lowe, on the 6th of February last, dismissed the case.

It is reported that Gen. Castro, Governor of Lower California, was assassinated by Manuel Marquez on the 5th inst. near Santa Tomas.

THE HESPERIAN.—The Hesperian for April has been received and a beautiful representation of Veatch's Sumach, or Elephant Tree, by Dr. John A. Veatch; Notes on Napa Valley by John S. Hittell also several other articles very interesting.

ON Wednesday last the pacing Match between Pacific and Young America, came off on the Pioneer Course, at San Francisco, was won by Pacific in three straight heats. Time, 2:28—2:26—2:29.

SHOOTING AND STABBING.—A LEGISLATOR THE VICTIM.—John C Bell, member of the Assembly from El Dorado county, was shot at and stabbed, probably mortally, by Dr. W.H. Stone (not the Assemblyman of that name) in the room of the Sergeant-at-arms of the Assembly, about a quarter to one o'clock, on Wednesday afternoon. We understand that the parties were at variance on the matter of dividing El Dorado. Bell had been in conversation with Assemblyman Wilkins, of Sonoma, in this connection, left the room for a few moments, and during his absence Dr. Stone entered and spoke to Wilkins on the same subject. Bell, on returning, spoke about the division of the county and accused Stone of defeating the Democratic ticket in the county. Stone then said, "if you say that, you are a d—d liar," or called Bell a d—d liar without qualification. At this, Bell stepped back, and, having a paper in his hand, struck with it at Stone. The latter presented with his left hand a pistol and fired—whether the shot took effect or not is not determined. Immediately on the presentation of the pistol, Bell being cornered, advanced upon his adversary. Stone then deliberately cut him with a dirk knife, of about a four-inch blade. Bell was pressing him at the time and had he been armed would have given him his quietus, but some parties interfered and separated them, H. L. Robey taking from Stone the knife and pistol, the latter of which (a single barrel, self-cocking Allen's) was held in his left hand, and the knife in his right hand, as though he had deliberately intended to commit a murderous assault. Bell, who received several severe wounds, one in the pit of the stomach and one in the left side near the back being the most severe, was removed to the Oriental saloon by his friends, and thence to the residence of W. Mara, a door or two below, opposite the Capitol. Stone was arrested by officer McClory, and brought before Justice Barr, demanding an immediate investigation. The Justice, notwithstanding the testimony of attending physicians of the precarious condition of the wounded man and the fact that the grand Jury was in session, entered upon an examination of the case and admitted the defendant to bail in the sum of $5000, with Frank Hereford and R. A. Pearis as sureties. We visited Bell last evening, and found him suffering considerably, groaning almost constantly, and very restless. The probability is that he will not survive his injuries.—Sac Union.

The Topics of the Day.

The generally favorable indications of a rich harvest of Cereals, this year, buoy up the spirits of the most desponding farmers, with an, unusually, happy tendency, perhaps never before equaled in the history of California.

The weather is remarkably fine, the air is warm, balmy, fresh and exhilarating.—General Politics are fifty per cent. below par just now "in our little Paradise."

Since the rain ceased we hear no more said about paving the upper portion of Front street.

The tules on both sides of the Sacramento river are very full of water. The Merchants of "our place" are doing a good deal of business, the steamer Victor on her last trip, brought about 30 tons of freight. We apprehend that the people will soon be convinced unanimously that KNIGHT'S LANDING is the place.

There has been rather more sickness in and near our town during the last two weeks, than during the same length of time since last September.

Mr. O'Brien is progressing his work on the Railroad with considerable dispatch. We understand that Stoddard & Co. have commenced moulding brick, we believe it is their intention to try and supply the town; we hope they will succeed in their undertaking.

We understand that a large stable is about to be erected, also two more large stores.

Five Hundred Dollars Lost!

We were very credibly informed the other day, by a gentleman, that a certain man not many miles away from this place had said, that he had lost Five Hundred Dollars by not taking the Knight's Landing News!

He said, had he taken the NEWS; he would have been fully advised of the late sale of Oliver Skaggs? (which sale was duly published therein by the Public Administrator,) at which, had he known it, he could and would have made more than Five Hundred Dollars by buying property. Now, the fact of the matter is this, the above-mentioned individual's mishap, is a fair sample of the thousand and one mishaps—that continually befall those, that do not take or read the NEWS.—"Some people are penny wise and pound foolish," they are too parsimonious and stingy to pay Five Dollars a year for a paper, in which is advertised all the business of the County; and by which, they are informed of many things of which, a knowledge is often of the first importance.

Just think of the idea of a man losing Five Hundred Dollars by being too stingy to spend Five. It is the same with many others in regard to Advertising, rather than pay for Advertising, they will suffer themselves and their business to pine away and perish in obscurity. They evidently do not know the value and utility of Newspapers and Newspaper Advertising. They are ignorant of the histories of STEPHEN GERARD and JOHN JACOB ASTOR. "Sapientibus verbum est satis."

Later From Arizona.

By the Overland mail. The Arizonian of 29th March says:—THE WHITE CAPTIVES AMONG THE APACHES.—It has been already mentioned in the NEWS of last week that a white woman named Mrs. Page, and a girl about ten years of age, were carried off by the Apache Indians, and detained in captivity, notwithstanding the effort to recover them. The Arizonian thus relates the latest tidings of this sad affair:

Every possible effort has been made to secure the liberation of the two captives, held by the Apaches; but to this day, all has proved unavailing. The several parties that left in pursuit have returned, with the exception of the troops under command of Capt. Ewell, who are at the Canon del Oro; and the only information gathered thus far, is the certainty of their being far in the Apache country. Several final prisoners have been liberated, in hopes of their returning with the captives, as death has been threatened to those remaining in our hands, in case they were not brought in by a certain day. Since then they have visited the camp of Capt. Ewell, and asserts that the women are not in the hands of the Pinals, but are held in captivity by another tribe of Apaches, and that sixty of their warriors had started out in pursuit. Notwithstanding but little reliance can be placed in their statements, strong hopes are entertained of the early return of the unhappy women, in exchange for the larger number of prisoners held by our citizens. If not delivered up in a reasonable length of time, we learn it is the intention to make a campaign against them, which we hope and believe will result finally in their liberation.

The total length of railroads in Ohio is four thousand and eighty-four miles, of which three thousand and eighty miles are completed at a cost for roads and equipments one hundred and twenty-eight millions dollars.

Court of Sessions. APRIL TERM, 1860.

Present, Isaac Davis—Judge; and Justices Carpenter and Cole—Associates. John Hoase tried and convicted of an assault upon James Ashbury—sentenced to the States Prison for 7 years, to commence April 6th.

The People vs. John Blackwood, who plead guilty to a charge of grand larceny, sentenced to the States Prison for 2 years, to commence April 6th.

The People vs. Harry Peyton, resting under a commitment from Justice Cole, for an assault upon Mr. Harlem, with a deadly weapon, with intent to do great bodily harm, case submitted to the Grand Jury and by them ignored. The District Attorney then moved the Court that it be ordered that the same case be re-submitted to the next Grand Jury: Defendants Attorney objected. The Court made the order and Defendants Attorney excepted. The Defendants Attorney then insisted that in as much as the charge against Harry Peyton had been ignored by the Grand Jury and no further charge made against him, that he should be discharged, thereupon made another to that effect—motion over-ruled, Judge Davis dissenting. The Court then, upon motion of the District Attorney, Judge Davis dissenting—ordered that Harry Peyton be required to give bond in the sum of $3000 for his appearance before this Court at the next regular Term, or be committed until the bond be given.

The Grand Jury found five Presentments against as many persons yet at large, and one indictment: and concluded their labors by submitting the following Report:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF YOLO, Report of the Grand Jury of Yolo County, Empanelled April 2nd, A. D. 1860.

We the Grand Jury of Yolo County would respectfully make the following Report, to the Hon. Court of Sessions, of Yolo County, now in Session.

After Reporting all subjects of Criminal offences to your Honorables heretofore, at this Session:—We would respectfully submit the following as regard to our duties required by Law to report on County Officers.

First—Board of Supervisors.—We find a general complaint as regards the manner in which the condition of the Public Roads of the County are kept, and believe there is a neglect on the part of the Supervisors or the Road Overseers, and would respectfully recommend that the Supervisors of the County do appoint good energetic Overseers that will open and work the County Roads as we deem that the Public convenience most absolutely require it and trust that the Board of Supervisors will not neglect a subject of this importance further.

Second—Matter of the Sheriff.—We have made an examination of the Sheriff's books and records, and find nothing but what is strictly in accordance with law and commendable, as an Officer.

Third—Matter of the County Treasurer.—As to this Officer of the County, we freely report to your Honorables as far as the correctness, coupled with ability and will of the County Treasurer we believe he is second to no officer in the State in performance of the duties imposed upon him by law.

Fourth—Matter of the County Clerk.—In examination of the Books and Records of the various departments under the control of the County Clerk, we find nothing inconsistent or unjust, and to the manner and style in which his papers, books and records are kept, we report as to style, neatness and ability he is a proficient Officer.

Respectful, &c., G. W. BROWN, Foreman Grand Jury. To the Hon. Court of Sessions, Yolo County.

JUSTICES' COURT AT KNIGHT'S LANDING, April 10th, 1860, before Justice D. L. PICKETT.

S. G. Simmonds vs. D. Zumault, this was a suit for damages in taking one sow and pigs by defendant belonging to plaintiff. The case tried by jury, verdict for Defendant for costs of suit, taxed at $57. 10. Judgment satisfied immediately.

April 11th—The People of the State of California vs. Oliver Spencer. Charge, an assault with a deadly weapon upon the person of L. M. Curtis, on examination, the prisoner was discharged by the Court, the testimony being insufficient to bind him over. It was also the judgment of the Court that L. M. Curtis, the complaining witness be taxed with the cost of the suit. The Court believing that the said L. M. Curtis instituted the action propiously, willfully, intentionally and maliciously to harass the said Oliver Spencer.

THE planet Venus, which is now the evening star, and the most brilliant of the stellar gems, will be twice eclipsed by the moon, this year; on the 24th of April, at 8:35, P. M., and on the 26th of April, an hour before sunset.

By the latest advices from Washington we learn that during the week of March 16th, the United States Supreme Court, decided seventeen Land Cases in California. We give the decision of the Court in one of the Cases in Yolo County: The United States, appellants, vs. James Noc.

Appeal from the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of California. Justice Campbell delivered the opinion of the Court, reversing the decree of the said District Court, and remanding the cause, with directions to dismiss the petition of the claimant.

RAILROAD LAW.—In the New York Court of Appeals has, at its present term in the case growing out of the strike upon the Erie railroad, in which the employees suddenly quit work and left a large quantity of freight upon the line of the road to be got forward as best it might, decided that "a railroad company is responsible for dangers resulting from a delay to transport freight in the usual time which was caused by a great number of its servants suddenly and wrongfully refusing to work." Of 193 engineers in the employment of a railroad company, 140 suddenly, and by concert, abandoned their engines for the purpose of compelling the company to consent to a reasonable regulation, held: "that although the superior officers were without the slightest fault, the corporation was responsible for the damages caused by a delay in transporting property which resulted from the strike."

DENTISTRY.—Those who have Bad Teeth will do well to call upon Dr. Van Rensselaer, at the Yolo Hotel, who is prepared to execute all kinds of Surgical and Mechanical Dentistry, on the most reasonable terms. *

Arrival of the Overland Mail!

From the Union's Telegraphic Report.

TELEGRAPH CAMP No. 17, Below Fresno, April 11th.

The following dispatch is two days later than the news transmitted by the mail which left St. Louis on the morning of March 22d;

The Gulf Affair.

ST. LOUIS, MARCH 23d—3 P.M.

To-day the New York Tribune's Washington correspondence Marin, who was connected with the Gulf affair, was formerly Commodore of the old Mexican Navy.

Our Government was possessed of the information of all that passed between him and Miramon, and McLane was instructed accordingly. Marin had credit at one bank for $80,000, which was subsequently increased for the purchase of the steamers.

His movements were watched after his leaving Havana.

The British Minister at Washington was informed of the intention of our Government to disregard the blockade and of the extent of McLane's instructions to that effect, and it was understood that he acquiesced in the policy, upon the ground that Mexican privateers might be fitted out to the serious injury of the commerce of the Gulf.

The Pacific Railroad.

The Special Committee of the Pacific Railroad met Tuesday night.

Those who voted for one road were French, Fenton, Aldrich, Farnsworth, Stout, Phelps, and Hinderman; for two roads Curtis, Black, Scott, Smith, Taylor, Kellogg.

The Committee met again next Friday, and perhaps it may reconsider its action, as, Winter Davis was absent.

No single route, no matter how or where located, can pass the Senate under the existing state of parties; hence, if such a bill be insisted on, the road may be considered as dead this session.

Later From Mexico.

The Mexican mails of March 11th, arrived at New Orleans March 21st.

It appears that Commodore Jarvis first proposed that if Juarez would place the Indianola and Wave at his disposal, he would intercept Marin's expedition.

Subsequently it was determined that strict neutrality should be observed, unless forced to do otherwise.

An intercepted letter to Miramon, says that the Capital was seriously threatened by the Liberals, and asked assistance.

Two Spanish men-of-war were seen several nights sending war materials ashore for Miramon.

Two flags of truce to the French and British Consul, from Miramon, were refused admittance in Vera Cruz.

The matter of the steamer Marquez and prisoners, was taken before the Federal Court in New Orleans.

Vera Cruz dates to March 14th are received. Miramon bombarded the city on March 13. Little damage was done.

A detachment of Miramon's troops from Alevierado were attacked and completely routed by the Liberals.

A flag of truce was sent to Juarez, March 14th, and resulted in a suspension of hostilities.

A Military Congress, composed of the chiefs of the two armies, representatives of foreign governments, met on the same evening. The result is unknown.

It is reported that Miramon has abandoned the siege of Vera Cruz, deserted his army and as taken refuge on board the French fleet.

Miramon's communication with the city of Mexico was cut off, and it was said that the Capital had pronounced against him, and the army was deserting him.

The United States marines at Tampico, March 11th, were all quiet.

Later From Europe.

The Canada, with Queenstown dates to March 11th, arrived March 23d.

Sardinia has consented to the inhabitants of Savoy voting on the subject of annexation to France.

Lord John Russell stated in the House of Commons that Austria and Prussia had concurred in the views of England, and Russia had not replied.

The Commons voted an address to the Crown, approving the French treaty. The opposition amendments were rejected by a large majority. It is reported since that Sardinia rejects Napoleon's programme.

French troops are ordered to hold themselves in readiness to march on the first notice.

Breadstuffs are very dull, and provisions steady.

The Hartford (Conn.) Courant states that the manufacture of odometers, for measuring the distance traveled by any vehicle, is now carried on somewhat extensively in that city.

Livery keepers use them considerably, and in many cases the individuals who go off for a drive of five or ten miles and take twenty, are up "with a round turn" by the contrivance, and often to their great astonishment.

Sundry instances are on record where these persons have agreed to pay the bill without grumbling, if the livery man would explain his means of information. They get the information sometimes, and sometimes they don't. The idea of attaching a watch to a wagon wheel to act as a watch on the driver, is altogether Yankee.

The net earnings of the Memphis & Charleston railroad for the month of December, 1859, were $97,515 94.
