

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2007 with funding from Microsoft Corporation

MEMOIRS

OF THE

LIFE and WRITINGS

OF

WILLIAM WHISTON, M.A.

PART III. and Last.

To which are added, his

LECTURES

On the late remarkable

METEORS and EARTHQUAKES,

And on the Future Restoration of the Jews.

ALSO

The LITURGY of the CHURCH of England Reduced nearer to the primitive Standard.

THE SECOND EDITION.

LONDON:

Printed for J. Whiston and B. White in Fleet-Street, D. Browne without Temple-Bar, and A. MILLAR in the Strand. - M DCC LHI. PR 3763 W57

LIFE MAW STINGS

7 0

WILLELY WWW. MARKED W. M. A.

Ant in a 21 4=12

Continue of the Party of

LECTURES

: 11 5 lam : 4. 4 = 1

Mariadas and Pageragorery

delon do

Penns Relication of the Fire.

0214

THE PROPERTION

LONDON.

The state of the s

ME MOIRS

, de (O Fe TiH É II) en pallica in la libert de la libert

LIFE and WRITINGS

gg. And value of the state of the state of the state of

Mr. William Whiston.

-d rudiral out of the call A. A. I.

The Signals of terrible Judgments foretold to come before the Restoration of the Jews; produced and explained.

MATT. xvi. 1, 2, 3, 4.

H.E. Pharisees with the Sadducees, came, and tempting Jesus, defired he would give them a Sign from Heaven.

2. He answered, and said unto them, When it is Evening ye say, it will be fair Weather, for the Sky is red:

To-day; for the Sky is red and lowring. O ye

B Hypocrites!

2

Hypocrites! Ye can discern the Face of the Sky. but can ye not discern the SIGNS OF THE TIMES?

4. A wicked and adulterous Generation feeketh after a Sign; and there shall no Sign be given to it, but the Sign of the Prophet Jonas. Jonab i. 17 .-

LUKE xii. 54, 55, 56.

54. And he faid also to the People, When ye see a Cloud rise out of the West, straightway ye say, there cometh a Shower, and so it is:

55. And when ye see the South Wind blow, ye say, there will be Heat, and it cometh to pass:

56. Ye Hypocrites! ye can discern the Face of the Sky, and of the Earth: But how is it that ye do not discern this Time?

N. B. Although these Words of our Saviour belonged only to his first Coming, and to Jonas the Prophet, as having been three Days in the Fish's Belly, for a divine Signal, that the Son of Man should be so long in Hades, or the Heart of the Earth. between his Death and Resurrection; yet may they be very fitly applied to any other divine Signals, or Signs of the Times; especially to those relating to his second Coming to restore the Jews, and set up the Millennium, which has been already fully proved to be very foon approaching. See before, Page 602-610. I come now to the Predictions of these Signals themselves.

Ifa. xxiv. xxv. xxvi. and xxvii. being the most remarkable Chapters as to these Signals, but differing fering more than ordinary in our three feveralCopies; the present Hebrew, in our English Version, the Septuagint, and the Old Vulgar Latin Versions, I fometime fince defired my Son-in-law, Mr. Barker, one very skilful and accurate in such Matters, to affift me in comparing the Copies, and thence shall give the feveral Chapters (with a few parallel Texts) as exactly as I can, from that Comparison.

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 3

IS AIAH xxiv.

- 1. Behold the Lord will make the Earth empty. and will make it waste, and will deface it, and will scatter Abroad the Inhabitants thereof.
- 2. And it shall be as with the People, so with the Priest; as with the Servant, so with his Master; as with the Maid, so with her Mistress; as withthe Buyer, fo with the Seller; as with the Lender, fo with the Borrower; as with the Taker of Usurv. fo with the Giver of Usury to him:
- 3. The Earth shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled; for the Lord hath spoken this Word:
- 4. The Earth shall mourn and fade away; the World shall languish and fade away; the haughty People of the Earth shall languish.
- 5. The Earth also is polluted by the Inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinances, broken the everlasting Covenant:
- 6. Therefore a Curse shall devour the Earth, because its Inhabitants have sinned; therefore the Inhabitants of the Earth shall be impoverished, and few Men shall be left....

B 2 habitants

7. The new Wine shall mourn; the Vine shall.

languish; all the merry-hearted shall sigh:

8. The Mirth of Drums shall cease; the Sound of those that rejoice shall cease; the Noise of the Harp shall cease:

9. They shall be put to Shame; they shall not drink Wine; ftrong Drink shall be bitter to them that drink ir.

10. Every City of Vanity shall be made desolate, every. House shall be shut up, that no one may come in.

There shall be a Lamentation for Wine in the Streets; all Joy shall cease; the Mirth of the Earth shall be gone.

12. The Cities also shall be left desolate, and the Houses shall be relinquished, and shall perish.

13. All these Things shall be in the Earth, in the Midst of the People. As if one glean an Olive-Tree, fo shall they glean them.

14. As when the Gleanings are over, fo shall they cry aloud with their Voice: Those that are left shall rejoice with the Glory of the Lord; they shall cry aloud from the Sea.

Wherefore the Glory of the Lord shall be in the Isles of the Sea: The Name of the Lord shall be glorious. Lateral account. O such

16. O Lord God of Israel, we have heard Signs, (or Songs): Hope to the righteous. And he shall fay, * My Mystery is to myself, my Mystery is to my-

^{*} Cited thus by Christ himself in Clem, Alex. See Sac. Hift. of the N. T. p. 132.

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 5

Self and to mine: Woe unto the Disobedient that disobey the Law.

17. Fear, and the Pit, and the Snare are upon thee, O Inhabitant of the Earth.

18. And it shall come to pass, that he who sleeth from the Noise of the Fear, shall fall into the Pit: And he that cometh out of the Midst of the Pit, shall be taken in the Snare: For the Windows from Heaven shall be open, and the Foundation of the Earth shall be shaken.

Earth shall be greatly disturbed, and the Earth shall be in great Distress, and the Earth shall be moved exceedingly.

20. The Earth shall reel to and fro, like a Drunkard. (See a Parallel in Isaiah ii)

If. ii. 19, 21, 19. They shall go into the Hôles of the Rocks, and into the Cayes of the Earth; for fear of the Lord, and for the Glory of his Majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the Earth.

Larth.

21. To go into the Clefts of the Rocks, and into the Tops of the ragged Rocks; for Fear of the Lord, and for the Glory of his Majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the Earth.

If. xxiv. 20. For Transgression has been heavy upon it, and it shall fall, and not be able to rise again.

21. And it shall come to pass in that Day, that the Lord shall visit the Host of Heaven, and the Kings of the Earth upon the Earth. (See a Parallel at large.)

14:

B 3

Isa. ii. 10-17. Enter into the Rock, and hide thee in the Dust, for fear of the Lord, and for the Glory of his Majesty.

11. The lofty Looks of Man shall be humbled, and the Haughtiness of Men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that Day.

12. For the Day of the Lord of Hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low.

13. And upon all the Cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the Oaks of Balban:

14. And upon all the high Mountains, and upon all the Hills that are lifted up:

15. And upon every high Tower, and upon every fenced Wall.

16. And upon all the Ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant Pictures:

17. And the Loftiness of Man shall be bowed down, and the Haughtiness of Men shall be made low, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that Day.

If. xxiv. 22. And they shall be gathered together, and they shall be shut up in Prison; and after many Days shall they be visited.

23. Then the Moon shall be confounded, and the Sun asham'd, because the Lord of Hosts shall reign in Mount Sion, and in Ferusalem, and shall be glorified before the Elders. (See a Parallel in Ifa.)

If. xxx. 26. Moreover the Light of the Moon shall be as the Light of the Sun; and the Light of the Sun Sun shall be sevenfold, as the Light of seven Days; in the Day that the Lord bindeth up the Breach of his People, and healeth the Stroke of their Wound.

If. xxv. 1. [An Ode.] O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy Name; for thou hast done wonderful Things; thy Counfels of old are faithful and true. Amen.

- 2. For thou hast made of Cities an Heap; of defenced Cities a Ruin; that their Foundation may fall. The City of the Wicked shall not be built for ever.
- 3. Therefore the poor People shall bless thee; and the Cities of Men injured shall bless thee.
- 4. For thou hast been an Helper to every City that was humbled, and a Covering to those that were distressed through Want: Thou wilt deliver them from the Wicked, and be a Covering of the Thirsty; and the Spirit of those that have been injured shall bless thee.
- 5. As Men dispirited, who thirst in a dry Place; from wicked Men, to whom thou hadst delivered us. He will bring down the Heat, with the Shadow of a Cloud; thou wilt bring down the Branch of the strong Ones.
- 6. And the Lord of Hosts shall make a Feast to all the Heathens, [Proselytes.] Upon this Mountain they shall drink Gladness, they shall drink Wine:
- 7. They shall anoint themselves with the Ointment of the Vine-Branches, well refined, in this Mountain. Deliver all these Things to the Hea-

B'4 then 5

then; for this Counsel is upon all the Heathen? [lxxii.]

7. He will destroy in this Mountain the Face of the Covering cast over all People, and the Veil that is spread over all Nations. [Heb.]

7. And he will fuddenly, in this Mountain, bring on the Face of the Bond that is gathered over all People; and the Covering he hath begun upon all Nations. [Vulg.] [I prefer the Hebrew.]

8. He will fuddenly swallow up Death in Victory. And again the Lord will take away all Tears from all Faces: The Reproach of his People will he take away from the whole Earth: For the Lord hath spoken it-

9. And they shall say in that Day, This is our God, in whom we have hoped, and he will fave us: This is the Lord, we have waited for him; we have been glad, and rejoiced in his Salvation.

10. For God will give rest upon this Mountain; and Moab. some great Enemy of God's People the fews] shall be trodden down in her Place, as they tread down the Floor with a Cart.

ii. And he will spread his Hands in the same Manner as he hath brought it down to destroy it: And he will bring down his Pride upon that which he laid his Hands upon.

12. And he shall bring down the Height of the Retreat of thy Wall; and it shall come down even to the Dust.

14/13/11/13 3/11/1 IJ. xxvi. 1. [An Ode.] In that Day they shall fing this Song in the Land of Judah, Saying, We have a strong City. [the New Jerusalem, Apoc.

xxi. 10.] He will fet for us a Wall of Salvation, and a Bulwark. . . . Trio i bit at fi

- . 2. Open ye the Gates, that the People who keep Righteousness, and keep the Truth, may enter in.
- 3. Who takes hold on Truth, and keeps Peace.
- 4. For upon thee, O God, have they hoped, O Lord, for ever, O Great and Eternal God. from
- 5. Who hast humbled and brought down those that dwelt on High: They wilt cast down the strong Cities, and wilt bring them unto the Dust.

6. And the Feet of the Meek and Humble shall tread upon them:

7. The Path of the Just is right, and the Way of the Just is prepared

8. For the Way of the Lord is Judgment: We have hoped in thy Name, and in its Remembrance.

9. Wherein our Souls desire thee in the Night.

[An Ode:] My Spirit comes early to thee, O God, because thy Commands are light upon the Earth. Ye Inhabitants of the Earth-learn Righteoutnets.

10. For the wicked one ceases, he will not learn Righteousness upon Earth. Let the wicked one [therefore] be taken away, that he may not fee the Glory of the Lord.

11. O Lord, thy Hand is on High, and they have not known it: When they have known they shall be ashamed. Fury shall take hold upon an unteachable People; and now a Fire shall devourthe Enemies.

12. O Lord, our God, give us Reace; for thou hast repay'd all our Works.

O Lord, our God, take Possession of us: O Lord, besides thee we have known no other, we have named no other.

nor the Giants arise. Wherefore hast thou visited them, and destroyed them, and made all their Memorial to perish.

15. Add Miseries to them, O Lord, add Miseries to all that are in Glory upon the Earth.

16. O Lord, in Affliction I have remembred thee. Thy Chastifement has been upon us in a small Affliction.

17. Like as a Woman with Child, that draweth near the Time of her Delivery, is in Pain, and crieth out in her Pangs, so have we been in thy Sight, O Lord:

18. For thy Fear, O Lord, have we been with Child; we have been in Pain; we have not brought forth the Spirit of Salvation; nor have the Inhabitants of the Earth fallen.

19. The Dead [Martyrs] shall arise again, and those that are in the Graves shall be raised up: Those on the Earth shall rejoice, for the Dew that is from thee shall be healing to them; but the Land of the Wicked shall fall. [Constitut. v. 7. Ezekiel xxxvii.]

20. Go my People, enter into thy Chambers, and shut thy Door upon thee: Hide thyself for a very little while, till the Lord's Indignation be over past.

21. For

Place, will bring Indignations upon the Inhabiatants of the Earth, for their Iniquity. The Earth also shall disclose her Blood, and shall no longer cover her Slain.

Isa. xxvii. 1. In that Day God shall bring out his holy and great Sword upon Leviathan, the Serpent that sled away; upon Leviathan; the crooked Serpent; and will slay the Dragon that is in the Sea. [I suppose Leviathan to mean the old Serpent the Devil, and the Dragon, some Antichristian Power.]

2. In that Day sing ye, A choice Vineyard.

3. I the Lord will keep it: I will water it every Moment left any hurt it: I will keep it Night and Day.

4. Fury is [not] in me. Who would fet the Briars and Thorns against me in Battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

5. Or let him take hold of my Strength, that he may make Peace with me; and he shall make Peace with me.

6. He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take Root; Israel shall blossom, and bud, and fill the Face of the World with Fruit.

7. Shall not he [Antichrist] be smitten as he smote; and shall not he be slain as he slew; [the Lex Talionis.]

8. In that Measure that he measured, he shall be judged. Art thou not he that meditates in thy severe Spirit to slay them, in the Spirit of thine Anger?

9. For this shall the Iniquity of Jacob be taken away; and this is all his Fruit, when I shall take away his Sin. When I shall make all the Stones of the [Idolatrous] Altars to be broken to Pieces, as small as Dust; and their Groves shall not remain; and their Idols shall be cut down as a Forest. [See Isaiab ii. 18.]

Habitation forfaken, and left like a Wilderness; there shall the Calf feed, and there shall he lie down and consume the Branches thereof.

the Women shall come and set them on Fire: For it is a People of no Understanding: Therefore he that made them will not have Mercy on them; and he that formed them will not pity them.

the Lord shall beat off from the Channel of the River [Euphrates,] 1 unto the Stream of Egypt; [Rhinocolura] and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye Children of Israel.

the Great Trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come who were ready to perish in the Land of Affyria, and the Outcasts in the Land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the Holy Mount of Jerusalem.

the second second second

Enndon, April 10th. 3 of Stat world Stat Eafter-Day, 17.48.

W. W.

Live to Covern to me prine in N. B. That these four Chapters belong to these last Times, and to the Restoration of the Jews, and their Resettlement in Jerusalem, and on Mount Sion, upon which Mountain they are to build their last and most glorious Temple, is evident by Chap. xxvii. 6.—9. and by the Conclusion of the xxiv. and xxvii Chapters; which I defire the Reader to peruse distinctly. Nor is there any Reason to doubt as to the Parallels here added. But the Principal Events foretold, as generally prior to that Restoration, are these twelve following. Ha: xxiv. v. 1, 2, 3, 6, 12, 13, 17, 18.

(1.) That in general a Curse shall then come upon the Earth, with an universal Dissolution of its former State; with the utmost Impartiality, and without all Respect of Persons; but that as the Great are generally the most wicked, and the grand Occasion of the Wickedness of others, they shall be particularly brought down. And as the meaner Sort of People are usually the best, but greatly oppress'd and tyranniz'd over by the Great, these meaner but better People shall be advanced, and delivered from the Oppression and Tyranny of the other, for the Time to come.

(2.) That the Cause of this Curse, v. 5. xxvi. 21. and of the terrible Judgments included in it, is no other than the horrible Pollutions of Mankind, in not only transgressing other Laws and Ordinancies, but the Everlasting Covenant, the Ten Commandments themselves; and particularly in the shedding of Men's Blood, which will now be directly exposed

posed without any Covering to the Divine Venge-

3. That these amazing Judgments shall destroy the greatest Part of sinful Men; so that but a few shall be left to survive these Judgments. v. 6.

4. That in a particular Manner, the Mirth and follity of the Age shall be utterly dissolved, and turned into Mourning and Lamentation. v. 7, 8.

- 5. That a very few good Men, both Jews and Christians, like the gleaning of Grapes when the Vintage is done, shall be providentially preserved from these terrible Calamities; and the good Jews in particular, shall sing Hymns of Praise to God for their Deliverance and Salvation. v. 14, 15. xxv. 1—12. xxvi. 1. 18. xxvii 2. Who are also advised to lie still and quiet, during this Indignation of God toward the Wicked. v. 20. 21.
- 6. That some of the eminent Signals of these Judgments themselves, shall be frightful Meteors in the Heavens, to come upon Mankind from the Air. v. 18.
- 7. That many and terrible Earthquakes are to come now upon Mankind, either from the Air above, or the Ground below, or both together. v. 18, 19, 20. 4E/d. ix. 3.
- 8. That the Isles of the Sea shall be especially concerned in the Thanksgivings to God for the Deliverance and Salvation of the Righteous; who now at last are made sensible of these grand Mysteries of Divine Providence, in the Restoration of good fews, and the Salvation of good Christians; which Mysteries yet are concealed from the Disobedient. xxiv. 15.

9. That the principal Parts of the Divine Vengeance will now fall upon the principal Authors of the World's Wickedness, the ungodly Kings, and Princes, with their ungodly Ministers of State; who will be first imprisoned in Hades, and long afterwards punished there, or in Gebenna. xxiv. 4, 21, 22. See No. 1. and Ezek. xxvi. 20.

10. That Death shall be so far conquered at this Restoration of the Jews, that there shall be then a first Resurrection for the Martyrs, both Jews and Christians; and that in the literal Sense also: xxv. 8. xxvi. 19. Constitut. v. 7. And all Tears and Reproach shall be taken away from them. Ezek. xxxvii.

N. B. I interpret the first Resurrection both of the Jewish and Christian Martyrs, Dan. xii. 2. and them only; because for the Christian's first Resurrection, it is expressly so in the Revelation. Apoc. xx. 4, 5. And for the Jewish Resurrection of dry Bones, it belongs to those that had been flain only: Ezek. xxxvii. 9. Which feems to me to imply Martyrdom also; when, as the Psalmist speaks, Psal. lxxix. 2, 3, 4. The Heathen had given the dead Bodies of God's Servants to be Meat unto the Fowls of the Heaven, and the Flesh of his Saints unto the Beasts of the Earth; and when they had shed their Blood like Water round about Jerusalem, and there were none to bury them: When also the Jews were become a Reproach to their Neighbours, a Scorn and Derision to them that were round about them.

- it. That the Sun and Moon shall be particularly concerned at this Time, upon the Exaltation of the Kingdom of the Jews on Mount Sion; where the new Temple is to be built; and in ferusalem the City of God, which is to be built close by it. If. xxiv. 23. xxx. 26.
- 12: That the Veil of that gross Ignorance, which God had winked at hitherto, shall now be taken away from all Nations; Is. xxv. 7. Atts xvii. 30. and they shall perceive the direct Interposition of Providence in these eminent Events, and own them to be derived from a Divine Power.

"I proceed to other Predictions, continuing the former Numbers.

- 13. If. lx. 9. Surely the Isles shall wait for me, and the Ships of Tarshish first; to bring thy Sons from far, their Silver and their Gold with them, unto the Name of the Lord thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel; because he hath glorified thee.
- 14. If. lxvi. 7, 8. Before the travailed the brought forth; before her Pain came, the was delivered of a Man-child. Who hath heard fuch a Thing? Who hath feen fuch Things? Shall the Earth be made to bring forth in one Day? Or shall a Nation be born at once? For as foon as Sion travailed, the brought forth her Children to be a see in sec. in 14 3 }
- N. B. This Prediction quite takes away that Objection against what I affert of the sudden Restoration of the Jews, from the small Appearances hitherto of any visible Preparation making in the World for so vast and important an Event, and demonstrates

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 17 monstrates that it will be executed in some very sudden, unexpected and providential, or miraculous. Way; to the great Surprize of all Mankind.

I proceed to other Prophecies of Joel, and

Daniel, and Haggai, Joel ii. 30, 31.

30. I will shew Wonders in the Heavens, and on Earth; Blood, and Fire, and Pillars of Smoke.

31. The Sun shall be turned into Darkness, and the Moon into Blood, before the great and terrible Day of the Lord come.

N. B. By this great and terrible Day of the Lord, I understand that Time of Trouble in Daniel, fuch as never was since there was a Nation, even to that same Time, Dan. xii. I. By those Pillars of Smoke, in foel I understand the Tails of those numerous Comets which have been seen of late: of which this is no improper Description; and by turning the Sun into Darkness, and the Moon into Blood, I understand such total Eclipses of the Sun and Moon as we have had of late. And by that Blood, and Fire, which are here set down at first, as distinct from those Eclipses, I understand those bloody, or siery Meteors which have been of late so remarkable, and of which more hereafter. (See my Astronom, Year, per tot.)

Dan. xi. 40.—45. At the Time of the End [of the Roman Empire] shall the King of the South, [the Saracens] push at him; [at that Empire:] And the King of the North, [the Turk] shall come against him, like a Whirlwind, with Chariots, and with Horsemen, and with many Ships; and he shall enter into the Countries [belonging to that Empire,] and shall overflow, and pass over. He shall also enter into the glorious Land [of Judea,] and many Countries shall be over thrown. But these shall escape out of his Hand: Edom and Moab, and the Chief of the Children of Ammon, [the wild Arabs:] He shall stretch forth his Hand also upon the [other] Countries; and the Land of Egypt shall not escape: But he shall have Power over the Treasures of Gold and Silver, and over all the precious Things of Egypt: And the Libyans and the Cushites, [Algerines, or Moors, in the North of Africa; and the Arabians, about Mecca and Medina I shall be at his Steps. But Tidings out of the East, [from the Persians,] and from the North, [from the Muscovites, I shall trouble him. Therefore he shall go forth with great Fury, to destroy, and utterly to make away many. And he shall plant the Tabernacles of his Palace, [or the Tents of his Pavilion,] between the Seas, in the glorious holy Mountain, [of Judea;] Yet he shall come to his End, and none shall help him.

into

Hag. ii. 6.—9. Thus faith the Lord of Host, yet once and I will shake the Heavens, and the Earth, and the Sea, and the dry Land; and I will shake all Nations, and the Elect of all the Nations, shall come: and I will sill this House with Glory, saith the Lord of Hosts. The Silver is mine, and the Gold is mine, saith the Lord of Hosts. The Glory of this last House shall be greater than of the first, saith the Lord of Hosts. And in this Place will I give Peace, saith the Lord of Hosts; and to obtain obtain Peace of Soul to every one that builds, in order to raife up this Temple. Behold, they that destroyed this Temple, they themselves shall build it. - And it shall come to pass in the last Days, the Lord will deliver the Sheep of his Pasture, and the Sheepfold, and their Tower to Destruction. And it shall come to pass, that, when a Week is fully come, the Temple of God shall be built gloriously in the Name of the Lord. [See Lit. Accomp. of Proph. Pag, 24. 25.]

Now the principal Events foretold here by Joel, and Daniel, and Haggai, as generally prior to the Restoration of the Jews, are these twenty-nine that follow, going on with the former Numbers.

(15.) That there should be seen bloody, and fiery

Meteors in the Heavens.

(16.) That there should be seen Pillars of Smoke, or the Tails of feveral Comets there.

- (17.) That there should be great Eclipses of the Sun.
- (18.) That there should be great Eclipses of the Moon.
- (19.) That, long before these Times, the Saracens should fall upon the Roman Empire with great Success.
- (20.) That after them the Turks should do the fame.
- (21.) That these Turks should conquer many Countries:
- (22.) Particularly, that they should conquer Judea, and the neighbouring Countries.

(23.) Yet were they not to conquer the wild Arabs.

(24.) They were to conquer other Countries also.

(25.) They were particularly to conquer Egypt.

(26.) They were to possess all the Treasures of Egypt.

(27.) The Algerines and Arabians were also to be at their Devotion.

- (28.) They should, after all, hear disagreeable News from the East.
 - (29.) As also from the North.

(30.) They were at length to go out with great Fury, to destroy many, before they were driven from Constantinople.

- (31.) They were, however, at last, to be driven from Constantinopie into Judea, and there to plant their Royal Pavilion on a glorious Holy Mountain.
- (32.) Where they were to perish, without Help from any.

(33.) There were to be now great Concussions and Changes in the Supreme Rulers of the World.

(34.) There were to be the like Concussions and Changes in the Subordinate Rulers of the World.

- (35.) There were to be great Concussions or Storms at Sea.
- (36.) There were to be great Concustions, or Earthquakes at Land.

(37.) There were to be Concussions of all Nations.

(38.) The Jews are to rebuild their Temple of Jerusalem.

(39.) This Temple is to be a very glorious one.

(40.) Even more glorious than Solomon's Temple.

(41.) God will give Peace, by the Meffiah, this Temple.

(42.) Those that formerly destroyed this Temple shall rebuild it again.

(43.) The Rebuilding of this Temple is to be when the feventh Millinery is beginning.

I now proceed to the Prophecies of Esdras, taken out of what our English Bible calls the Second Book of Apocryphal Esdras; but by the vulgar Latin, which I follow, the fourth Book of that Esdras; which Book has been but lately discovered to be a genuine Prophetick Book of the Old Testament. Nor ought the inquisitive Reader to be moved with the fictitious Title given this, and other excellent and genuine Books of the Old Testament of Apocryphal. All the oldest Copies of every one of those Books, I mean the Vulgar Latin Copies, the Vatican, and the Alexandrian MSS. knowing nothing of that groundless Appellation; but placing these Books among the other Canonical Books, without any fuch Distinction; that Appellation being only deriv'd from Jerom's foolish Rashness near 400 Years after the Days of our Saviour.

4 Esdras v. 1-13.

Vulgar Latin Copy. Arabick Copy.

1. Nevertheless, as con-11. Now, as concerning the Tokens of the cerning the Tokens, Behold the Days come, Times, Behold I shall that they which dwell' make thee to know, that upon the Earth shall be, taken in great Number, or found with great Wealth, and the Way of Truth shall be hidden; and the Land shall be barren of Faith.

C 3 upon

Vulgar Latin Copy. All (1 1 1 1 2)

Arabick Copy.

2. But Iniquity shall be increased, above that which thou now feeft, or that thou haft heard long ago.

. . : = 4] 1

3. And the Land, that thou feeft or that thou now treadest upon, and feest, now to have Root, shalt thou see wasted suddenly.

4. But if the the most High grant thee to live, thou shalt see, after the third Trumpet, that the there shall come Days in which they that understand shall be removed from the Earth, and the way of Righteousness shall be hid; and the Land shall be left barren of Faith.

- 2. But Iniquity shall be increased, above that which thou now feeft, or that thou hast heard long ago. And the Way shall be rough, not trodden; and there shall be no Guide; and there shall be great Disturbance in many Places, from those of these Kings which thou shalt see.
 - 3. And the Land shall be desolate.

4. And if the most High forbeareth the Land to this Term, thou shalt see, after these Sun

Arabick Copy.

Sun shall suddenly shine again in the Night; and the Moon thrice in the Day.

m field with all man

- 5. And Blood shall drop out of the Wood, and the [Stone or Rock] shall give its Voice; and the People shall be troubled.
- 6. And even he shall rule, whom they look not for that dwell upon the Earth: And the Fowls shall take their flight away together.
- 7. And the Sodomitish Sea shall cast out Fish, and make a Noise in the Night, which many have not known; but they shall all hear the Voice thereof.

· wai in line II.

h degree to the

ه الديال

three Signs, the Earth troubled, and the Sun shall appear on a sudden, and the Night and the Moon in one Day.

- 5. And Blood shall drop out of the Wood, and the Light shall give its Voice; and the People shall be troubled.
- 6. And a People shall rule, whom they that dwell on the Earth looked not for: And the Fowls shall remove from their Lands, and their Borders.

And the Sea of the Sodomites shall cast forth living Fish, and they shall lift up their Voice in the Night, and there shall not be one of all the People that shall know what they are, when they hear their Voices. 8. There

المراد المالية المالية المالية

- 8. There shall be a Confusion also in many Places; and Fire shall be often sent out again; [or flaked] and the wild Beafts shall change their Places; and menstrous Women shall bring forth Monsters.
- 9. And falt Waters shall be found in the sweet, and all Friends shall destroy one another. Then shall Wit hide itself, and Understanding withdraw itself into its fecret Chambers.
- on And shall be fought of many, and yet not be found. Then shall unrighteousness and incontinency be multiplied upon Earth.
- Ti. One Land also shall ask another, and fay, is Righteousness. which maketh a Man

- 8. And Sluggishness and Astonishment shall be in many Places; and furrounding Fire shall be fent upon the Earth: And the wild Beafts of the Princes shall remove from their Places: And there shall be Signs in the Women.
- o. And changing of the fweet Waters into falt; and Friends shall destroy one another. And in this Time, Knowledge shall be hid, and fhall not be found; and Wisdom shall go into its fecret Places.
- To. And many shall feek it, and shall not find it; and Unrighteoufness, and Viciousness shall be increased upon the Farth. ...
- 11. And one Land shall diligently inquire of another, faying, hath Righteousness passed righteous, righteous, gone through thee? And it shall say, No.

Arabick Copy.

12. At the fame Time shall Men hope, but nothing obtain; they shall labour, but their Ways shall not prosper [or be directed.]

13. To shew thee such Tokens I have leave.

through thee, or is Sincerity found in thee? And that Land shall deny it, saying, No.

12. And in this Time Men shall hope for one Man that doth Right-eousness, but he shall not be found; and they shall labour much, but their Ways shall not be directed.

13. These were the Signs which I was commanded to tell thee.

4 Esdras vi. 20-24.

20. And when the World that shall begin to vanish away shall be [sinished or sealed] then will I shew these Tokens. The Books shall be opened before the Firmament, and they shall see all together.

of a Year old shall speak.

20. And when the Age is finished, in which I have determined that these Signs shall be, which I shall do, I will open the Books above the Firmament of the Heavens, and they shall see this all together.

21. And the little Infants shall lift up their

with

with their Voice; the Women with child shall bring forth untimely Children, of three or four Months old; and they shall live, and be raifed up.

22. And fuddenly shall the fown Places appear unfown: The full Store - houses shall suddenly be found empty.

el ali lasta par i ali

17 5 7

23. And the Trumpet shall give a Sound, which when every Man heareth they shall be suddenly afraid. straight late on

24. At that Time shall Friends fight one against another, like Enemies; and the Earth shall stand in Fear, with those that dwell therein. The Springs of the Fountains shall stand still, and in three Hours they shall not run.

Arabick Copy.

Voices and talk; and Women shall conceive and bring forth in Haste; and Children thus born. after three Months shall live, and run about.

22. And in Places with-Fruit or Grass, and Places in which there was nothing fown, there shall growPlants, Grain, and full Ears, with which they shall fill the Magazines and Granaries.

23. And the Trumpet shall found, and the Sound shall be heard on a fudden by every one; all Persons and and Things shall be troubled.

24. At that Time Friends shall fight one against another like Enemies, and the Earth shall be aftonished, with all those that dwell therein; and the Springs of the Fountains shall stand still, and not run for the Space of three Hours.

Arabick Copy.

4 Esdras ix. 1-8.

- then and faid; Measure thou the Time diligently in itself. And when thou seest Part of the Signs past, which I have told thee before,
- 2. Then shalt thou understand, that it is the very same Time, wherein the Highest will begin to visit the World which he hath made.
- 3. Therefore when there shall be seen Earthquakes and Uproars of People in the World,

4. Then shalt thou well understand, that the most High spake of these Things from the Days

1. * * * * the Signs which I told thee before, first our in doct in

E Die Chie In a

- 2. Then shalt thou understand, that it is the Time which the most High hath fixed, in which he will visit the present World.
- 3. And when they fee in this World the Changes and Tumults, and Seditions of the Nations, and the Tyranny of the Heads and Governors of the People in feveral Places, and the Want of a Director for the Princes;
- 4. Then shalt thou understand, that the most High spake concerning these in the first that

Arabick Copy.

that were before thee, even from the Beginning.

5. For like us all that is made in the World hath a Beginning, and an End, and the End is manifest;

6. Even so the Times also of the Highest have plain Beginnings, in Wonders, and powerful Works; and Endings in Effects, and Signs.

sair astir inc.

- 7. And every one that shall be faved, and shall be able to escape by his Works, and by Faith whereby ye have believed.
- 8. He shall be preferved from the faid Perils, and shall see my Salvation in my Land, and within my Boders;

Days, as of a People that were.

5. For the Beginning of this World hath already appeared, and the End of it shall also appear.

- 6. And it shall be known that these are the Times which the Most High hath determined, that the Beginning, which had not appeared, should appear with Powers, and Wonders, and the End shall be with Deeds, and Works, and Signs.
- 7. And whofoever shall be faved, and efcape, and then fly from [by] good Works, and the true Faith that is in God.
- 8. He shall be left behind in these Troubles which I have mentioned before, defervedly, because he saw my Salvation

for

Arabick Copy.

for I have fanctified them for me from the Beginning.

upon the Farth, and upon the Mountain of my Holiness, which I have sanctified from the Creation of the World.

Now the principal Events here foretold by the Prophet Esdras, as prior to, or accompanying the Restoration of the Jews, to go on with the former Numbers, are these 33.

44. That Truth, Wisdom, and Understanding should greatly fail among Men at this Time. 4 Es.

v. 1.

45. That the Earth should be very barren of Faith, and that Infidelity should greatly prevail in the World. Ibid. Luke xviii. 8. Constit. vi. 18.

46. That, in Consequence of such Insidelity as is natural to suppose, Wickedness should be vastly encreas'd, beyond the Measure of former Ages; that the Conduct of Life should be very rough, and uneasy, and without Guides to direct them better.

4 Est. v. 2.

47. That Kings and Princes should be the Authors of great Disturbances to Mankind. Ibid.

48. That the Country of Persia in particular, under whose Government the Prophet Esdras lived, should at the Time here specified, be suddenly wasted by those Kings and Princes, as is naturally to be supposed, and be thereby made desolate. v. 3. 4 Esd. i. 3.

49. That very strange Signs should be then in the Sun, and the Moon; as to the Particulars whereof the two Copies differ. The Vulgar Latin says, The Sun shall suddenly shine again in the Night, and the Moon thrice in the Day. The Arabick says, The Earth shall be troubled; and the Sun shall appear on a sudden in the Night, and the Moon in one Day. Ibid.

50. Nay they differ also in the exact Determination of the Time for these Wonders. The Vulgar Latin puts it after a Third Trumpet, while no former Trumpets had been mentioned: And the Arabick, after Three foregoing Signs, without any nice Designation of the Times of such three Signs. These Differences cannot but leave these Matters doubtful: Since we have neither any parallel Texts, nor other Copies, than those two to consult upon this Occasion. Ibid.

fhall be, what is hence cited by Barnabas, in his Catholick Epistle, §. 12. that Blood should drop out of the Wood. Where also the Citation adds, what is here omitted in both our Copies, and so I do not make it a distinct Number, When the Wood shall bend down, and rise up again. Yet does so ancient and authentick a Citation highly deserve our Consideration in this Place. See Authentick Records, Pag. 62, 63. Ibid.

52. Another strange Signal here is, that the Stone or Rock, or, as the Arabick Copy has it, more strangely, that the Light should give its Voice. v. 5.

53. Another Signal here is that the People shall be troubled; probably at fuch furprizing Appearances. Which is no ways incredible; fince it perfectly agrees with our Saviours own Parallel Prediction, belonging, I suppose, to the same Times, Upon the Earth shall be Distress of Nations, with Perplexity: -Mens Hearts failing them for Fear, and for looking after those Things, which are coming on the Earth. Luke xxi. 25. 26.

54. Another Signal here specified is this, that a Person or a People, for the Copies differ, shall rule. whom the Inhabitants of the Earth looked not for: Perhaps the Jews, or their Messiab, or Subordinate Prince is thereby meant; who, after their Restoration, or however, after their Conversion to Christianity, shall certainly put down the wicked Rulers of the World, and fet up righteous Governors in their Stead. Ezek, xliv. 3.

55. Another Signal of these Times, but only in the Arabick, is this, that, the Air shall be changed. v. 5.

56. Another Signal of these Times is this, That the Fowls shall remove from their old Places, and take their flight away together, to some other Place or Places, v. 6.

57. Another strange Signal is this, that The Sea of Sodom, or Lake Asphaltites shall produce living Fish; and what, is still stranger, that these Fish which are naturally mute, shall lift up their Noise or Voice in the Night; without being able to make Men sensible whence that Voice or Noise comes. This is very like to what is fortold in Ezekiel, to. happen happen after the Jews are restored, and their Temple rebuilt. Ezek. xlvii. 9, 10. It shall come to pass, that every Thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the River [of Life] shall come, shall live; and there shall be a very great Multitude of Fish; because those Waters shall come thither; for they shall be healed; and every Thing shall live whither the River cometh. And it shall come to pass, that the Fishers shall stand upon it, from Engedi, unto Eneglaim; they shall be a Place to spread forth Nets; their Fish shall be according to their Kinds, as the Fish of the great Sea, exceeding many.

there shall be Confusion, or, as he Arabick has it, A Sluggishness, and Astonishment in many Places, which seems to imply the like Perplexity that we have already noted under the (37) Observation already. v. 8.

59. Another Signal of these Times is this, That frequent Fires, or what resembles them, shall be sent upon the Earth, and surround its Inhabitants. Ibid.

the wild Beasts shall change their Places, as the Vulgar Latin has it; or, as the Arabick explains it, The wild Beasts of the Princes shall remove from their Places. Which Designation of Tyrannical Emperors, Kings, and Princes, under the Names of wild Beasts is known to be the Language both of the Old and New Testament, and is exactly suited to their Barbarity and Oppressions of Mankind. Dan.

vii.

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 33.

vii. Apoc. xi. xiii. xv. xvii. xix. 2 Tim. iv. 17.

61: Another Signal of these Times is this, that There should be Signs in the Women, as the Arabick has it; or, as the Vulgar Latin, more distinctly, that Menstruous Women should bring forth Monsters, v. 8.

62. Another Signal of these Times is this, that Salt Waters shall be found in the sweet, as in the Vulgar Latin Copy; or, as in the Arabick Copy, Sweet Waters shall be changed into Salt, v. 9.

63. Another Signal of these Times is this, that All Friends shall destroy one another. Ibid. See vi. 24.

64. Another Signal of these Times is much the same with the 28th already set down, that Wit or Wisdom shall be concealed, or shall withdraw itself into secret Chambers; those perhaps which good Men are advised to retire into in such evil Times by the Prophet Isaiah, xxvi. 20, 21. and so shall not be found Abroad in the wicked World.

65. The next Signal is this, that Incontinency, Vileness, and Wickedness, shall be increased upon the Earth. This is much the same with the 46th Observation foregoing.

66. The last Sign in the vth of Esdras is this, That Men shall labour and hope, but nothing obtain that they labour and hope for: So, it is in the Vulgar Latin. As to the Arabick Reading here, that this Hope is for to find one righteous Man, which was not to be done, it contradicts all the other Prophecies belonging to this Matter; which always suppose a select Body of good Men to be then in Being, tho' but sew in Number; and promise them the divine Protection from the common Calamities, and fo that must be a false Reading, the Coherence also no Way requiring it. v. 12.

D

67. 4 Esd. vi. 20. The next Signal of these Times is this, That the Books shall be opened before the Firmament; perhaps those which are supposed in Daniel, xii. 1. when he speaks of the Delivery of the good Jews, in the amazing Time of the Trouble of that Nation there foretold, or of every one that shall be found written in the Book [of Life] or perhaps, in that Book in Malachi, iii. 16. when they that feared the Lord spake often one to another, and the Lord hearkened and heard, and a Book of Remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his Name. See v. 17, 18. and 4. 6. which feems all to belong to these very Times.

68. The next Signal is fomewhat a-kin to the 61st Observation foregoing, and informs us, that then little Infants in the Arabick, or in the vulgar Latin more distinctly, Children of a Year old shall speak, and that Women shall conceive and bring forth in Haste; and that such Children of three or four Months old shall be raised up, shall live, and shall run about, v. 21.

The next Clause is so very different in the two Copies, that I cannot pretend to give it a distinct Number, but shall leave it till some Events shall determine the genuine Reading, v. 22.

69. As for the next Signal, the Sounding of the Trumpet in the hearing of all, I suppose it the same Sounding of the great Trumpet, in Isaiab xxvii. 13: in Matthew xxiv. 31. and in the 10th of the xviii

Prayers

Prayers of the Jews, which is for their Restoration. See my Sacred History of the Old Testament, Page 479. and the fame with the Grand 7th Trumpet in the Apocalypse, for the Exit of Angels with the vii Vials, after the last Temple is finished: The very Preparation for which is faid to be the fulfilling the grand Purport of the Mystery of God, which had been shewn to his Servants the Prophets, [particularly to Isaiah, Esdras, and St. John | which is therfore to be esteemed the most solemn and important of all the Signals. As to which hear the Jewish Prayers themselves, as very material upon this Occasion. Apoc. x. 7. xi. 15. xv. 5, 6.

10. Convocate us together by the Sound of the great Trumpet, to the Enjoyment of our Liberty; and lift up thy Enfign to call together all of the · Captivity, and from the four Quarters of the Earth, into our own Land. Bleffed art thou, O

· Lord, our King, who gatherest together the Exiles of the People of Ifrael.

11. Restore unto us our Judges, as at the first, and our Counsellors, as at the Beginning;

and remove from us Affliction and Trouble:

And do thou only reign over us in Benignity,

"and in Mercy, and in Righteoufness, and in Justice. Blessed art thou, O Lord, our King, who lovest Righteousness and Justice.

14. Dwell thou in the Midst of Jerusalem, thy

City, as thou hast promised: Build it with a Building to last for ever. And do this speedily,

D 2 in in our Days. Blessed art thou, O Lord, who buildest ferusalem.'

70. vi. 24. The next Signal is this, that Friends shall fight one against another like Enemies.

71. Ibid. The next Signal, as before, tho' in the Arabick only, is this, that The Earth shall be associated, with all those that dwell therein; which seems to mean, that the Ground shall tremble, as if it were itself associated, as well as its Inhabitants, by Earthquakes; which Prediction is still in the Vulgar Latin elsewhere under the very Term Earthquakes, as we have had it at large in Esdr. ix. 3. Page 27. priùs.

72. The next Signal is this, that The Springs of the Fountains shall stand still for three Hours, vi. 24.

73. The next Signal is, Uproars of People with Changes, and Tumults, and Sedition of the Nations,

74. The next Signal is this, but only in the Arabick, The Tyranny of the Heads and Governors of the People. Ibid.

75. The next Signal, but only in the Arabick also, is, the Want of a Director for the Princes. Ibid.

76. The last Signal in Esdras, ix. 7, 8. if I may so call it, or rather comfortable Promise, is this, that every one of the truly good People shall not, as in former common Calamities, be involved in the Judgments now approaching; but shall escape them by their good Works, and by their Faith; and shall see God's Salvation in Judea; because God hath santified them for himself, and hath santisfied his Holy Mountain, [Mount Sion,] for his own People, the good Jews, from the Beginning of the World. The like to which we have had in Isaiah at large; with Hymns of Praise for God's wonderful Works, at this Conclusion of his providential Dispensations in the World. See Pag. 14. priùs.

I proceed to the Signals given us by our Saviour himself, in the New Testament.

Matt. xvii. 10. The Disciples asked Jesus, saying, Why then fay the Scribes, that Elias must first come?

11. And Jesus answered, and said unto them, Elias truly shall come first, and restore all Things, [as Malachi had foretold, iv. ult. Behold I will fend you Elijah the Prophet, [the Tishbite in the Septuagint] before the Coming of the great and dreadful Day of the Lord.] See Authentick Records, Page 447, 448.

Matt. xxiv. 29. Immediately after the Tribulation of those Days; [the long Miseries of the Jews and Antichrift. Luke xxi. 24.] shall the Sun be darkened, and the Moon shall not give her Light, and the Stars shall fall from Heaven, and the Powers of the Heavens shall be shaken. Matt. xxiv. 29.

20. And then shall appear the Sign of the Son of Man in Heaven; and then shall all the Tribes of the Land mourn. [Dan. xii. 1.] and they shall see the Son of Man coming in the Clouds of Heaven, with Power and great Glory.

31. And he shall send his Angels with a great Sound of a Trumpet, [perhaps such a Sound as was at the Delivery of the Law on Mount Sinai, Exod. xix. 16. 18.] and they shall gather together his Elect [People, the Jews] from the four Winds, from one End of Heaven to the other.

24. Mar. xiii. 24. But in those Days, after that Tribulation, the Sun shall be darkened, and the Moon shall not give her light.

25. And the Stars of Heaven shall fall, and the Powers that are in Heaven shall be shaken.

26. And then shall they see the Son of Man coming in the Clouds, with great Power and Glory.

27. And then shall he fend his Angels, and shall gather together his Elect, from the four Winds, from the uttermost Part of the Earth, to the uttermost Part of Heaven.

28. Luke xviii. 8. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man cometh, shall he find Faith on the Earth?

Constitut. vi. 18. Of whom faith the Lord, when the Son of Man comes, shall he find Faith on the Earth?

Luke xxi. 24. And the Jews shall fall by the Edge of the Sword; and shall be led away Captive into all Nations; and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the Times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25. And there shall be Signs in the Sun, and in the Moon, and in the Stars; and upon the Earth Distress of Nations, with Perplexity; the Sea and the Waves roring.

- 26. Mens Hearts failing them for Fear, and for looking after those Things that are coming on the Earth; for the Powers of Heaven shall be shaken.
- 27. And then shall they see the Son of Man coming in a Cloud, with Power and great Glory.

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 39

27. And when these Things begin to come to pass, then look up, and life up your Heads, for your Redemption draweth nigh.

Constitut. vii. 32. In the last Days false Prophets shall be multiplied, and such as corrupt the Word; and the Sheep shall be changed into Wolves, and Love into Hatred; for through the abounding of Iniquity, the Love of many shall wax cold; for many shall hate, and persecute, and betray one another, fas before, Pag. 24. 26.] And then shall appear the Deceiver of the World, the Enemy of the Truth, the Prince of Lies, [Antichrist;] whom the Lord Jesus shall destroy with the Spirit of his Mouth, who takes away the Wicked with his Lips: And many shall be offended at him: But they that endure to the End the same shall be saved. Then shall appear the Sign of the Son of Man in Heaven; and afterward shall be the Voice of a Trumpet, by the Archangel. And in that Interval shall be the Revival of those that were asleep, sat the first Refurrection perhaps.] And then shall the Lord come, and all his holy ones with him, with a great Concussion, above the Clouds, with the Angels of his Power, and the Throne of his Kingdom, [to the general Judgment perhaps,] &c.

N. B. But now give me Leave to add to these Signals out of the other Books of the New Testament, a most remarkable Prediction of St. John's in his Revelation.

D 4

Apoc. xi. 13. And the same Hour [viz. upon the Ascension of the two Witnesses] was there a great Earthquake, and the tenth Part of the City fell; and in the Earthquake were slain Names of Men seven Thousand; and the Remnant were affrighted, and gave Glory to the God of Heaven. Apoc. xi. 13.

14. The second Woe [or sixth Trumpet] is past; and the third Woe [or feventh Trumpet] cometh cuickly.

Now the principal Events here foretold by our Bleffed Saviour, as Prior to, or accompanying the Restoration of the Jews, are these following.

77. That the Prophet Elijah himself, Elijah the Tishtite shall come to restore all Things to their original Purity; or, in the Words of the Father of Sirach, to restore the Tribes of Israel. Ecclus. xlviii. 10. Perhaps to call Home the ten Tribes, and convert them to original Judaism, and conduct them to Judea, to join them to the two Tribes, already perhaps by that Time arrived there; nay, perhaps to direct them all in the rebuilding of their Temple, and fettling them according to their Disposition in Ezekiel, &c.

78. That the Jews were to fall by the Edge of the Sword:

- 79. That they were to be led away Captives to all Nations:
- 80. That Jerusalem should be trodden down of the Gentiles.
- 81. Till the Times of the Gentiles be fulfilled, or till after the 1260 Years of the Gentile Times See Essay on the Revelation, Pag. be over.

This

This is to end the long Tribulations of those Days; immediately after which were to be expected,

82. Signs in the Sun, which was to be darkened;

83. Signs in the Moon, which was not to give ber Light;

84. Signs in the Stars, which were to fall from Heaven.

85. The next Signal is this, that the Powers of Heaven shall be shaken.

86. The next Signal is this, Upon the Earth shall be Distress of Nations, with Perplexity:

87. It is foretold, that in these last Days many shall run too and fro, and Knowledge, or Learning, shall be increased. Dan. xii. 4.

88. It is foretold, that there should be great Storms at Sea: The Sea and the Waves roaring.

89. It is foretold, that, in Consequence of so many terrible Judgments already begun, or soon approaching, Mens Hearts should fail them for Fear, and for looking after those Things that are coming on the Earth.

90. The next Signal is, the Appearance of the Sign of the Son of Man in Heaven; or such a Cross, I suppose, tho' perhaps more awful and solemn, as appeared to Constantine the Great, and prefigured his Victories, and occasioned his Establishment of Christianity in the Roman Empire.

91. The next of these Signals, or rather grand Conclusion of all the foregoing Signals, is the visible Coming of the Son of Man in the Clouds of Heaven, with great Power and Glory; together with the Voice of a Trumpet, already mentioned; and with the first Resurrection, that of the Martyrs or Saints, both Jews and Christians. Pag. 26. priùs.

N. B. I have added here, from the Revelation of St. John xi. 13. in the 92d Place, an Account of a distinct Great Earthquake, in some very considerable City, wherein the tenth Part of the City is foon to fall, and wherein seven thousand Names of Men, Men of Name and Note, are to be flain; when, and the very first Time in the whole Book of the Revelation when God's terrible Judgments then denounc'd, and already accomplished, had their proper Effect: The remaining Citizens being affrighted, and giving Glory to the God of Heaven. What City I apprehend this to be, [London,] and the strong Reasons I go upon in that Apprehenfion, the Reader may find in the N. B. at the End of the Additional Sheet to the second Edition of my Essay on the Revelation, just published; which Sheet, which most important Sheet, will be given gratis to those that have already bought that Edition, and without which Sheet no more Copies will be fold of that Book hereafter.

And now, for a Conclusion, let us produce a few Signals out of those Parts of the Sibylline Oracles, written much earlier than the Days of Christ, which I have fully proved to be genuine, and to be Branches of divine Revelation for the Heathen World; and out of which I formerly selected these, as belonging to the Times now under Considera-

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON: 43 tion, in my Lit. Accompt. of Proph. Pag. 83—86.

The Beams of the Moon shall shine, and shall pleasantly come to the Earth with bloody Drops. I will tell you very clearly the Signs whereby you may know when the End of all these Things shall happen on the Earth: When Swords shall be seen in the Night, towards Sun-setting or Sun-rising, in the starry Heavens; and a Dust descends from Heaven suddenly upon all the Earth. Orac. Sibyll. III. v. 741, 742, v. 736—739.

The Sight of the Sun shall fail in the Midst of his Course in the Heavens, v. 739, 740.

The Sight of the Moon shall fail [perhaps.]

The Rocks shall give a Sign. And in a Cloud ye shall see the Fight of Horsemen and Footmen, like the Croud made in the Hunting of wild Beasts. This End God, who lives in Heaven, shall give to War, v. 740.

See 2 Maccabees v. 2, 3, 4.

- 2. And then it happened, that through all the City [Jerusalem,] for the Space of almost forty Days, there were seen Horsmen running in the Air, in Cloth of Gold, and armed with Lances, like a Band of Soldiers.
- 3. And Troops of Horsemen in Array, encountring and running one against another, with shaking of Shields, and Multitude of Pikes, and drawing of Swords, and casting of Darts, and glittering of golden Ornaments, and Harness of all Sorts.

4. Wherefore every Man prayed that that Apparition might turn to Good.

See also Josephus's War of the Jews, as follows: A Star, in the Likeness of a Sword, stood over the City [Jerusalem,] as a Comet, that continued for a Year together. — Chariots of armed Troops were, before Sun-setting, seen in the Air, running all over the Country in the Clouds, and encompassing the Cities. Jos. War, v. 13.

All the Paths of the Sea, and rough Shores, and high Mountains, and the raging Waves of the Sea, shall be easily passed over, and sailed over in those Days: [Or after God has given an End to War.] Orac. Sibyll. III. 745, 746.

The particular Signals here are thefe, to go on with the former Numbers.

93. That the Beams of the Moon shall shine, and come pleasantly to the Earth with bloody Drops.

94. Swords shall be seen in the Night, towards Sun-setting, or Sun-rising; as if they were among the Stars; and a Dust shall descend upon the Earth, which seem to denote some Species of Northern Lights.

95, 96. That there shall be great Eclipses in the Sun and Moon.

97. That the Rocks shall give a Sign, parallel perhaps to that in Esdras, Number 52 before, where the Stone, or Rock, gave its Voice.

98. That the Conclusion of Wars should be signified by such eminent Northern Lights, as looked like aerial Battles, or Hunting of wild Beasts.

99. That Navigation, with the Direction by the Mariners Compaís, &c. should be greatly improved; and Mennow better guided in their Voyages, and Journeys over vast Seas and Deserts, and Mountainous Countries than formerly.

These are the several remarkable Tokens, Signs, or Signals, which the old Prophecies afford us, as belonging to the very last Times, and to the Restoration of the Yews; not fewer in Number than ninety-nine, vastly the greatest Part of which have been already fulfilled, and are fure Pledges that the rest will be fulfilled in due Time hereafter. Nor can fo great a Number, and generally fuch plain Signals, be other than abundantly fufficient Signs of these Times; and what ought to be attended to, in the most serious Manner, by all that believe the Scriptures, and divine Revelation; and a Difregard to which cannot but render Men open Scorners, and profane Contemners of God and Religion, to their deserved Condemnation, certainly at the last Day; and not improbably at a much nearer Day of Vengeance in this World.

LECTURE II. March 8, the Day of the fecond Earthquake at London.

An Account of the fulfilling of those Signals whose Times are already past.

Predictions.

- That a general Curfe should, in these very last Days, be on the Earth, and a Dissolution of its former State.
- 2. That the horrid Wickedness of Men should precede these fore Judgments.

3. That vast Numbers of Mankind will be destroyed in this Interval.

Completions.

- to be fulfilling, by all proper Symptoms of fuch a Curfe and Diffolution.
- 2. This horrid Wickedness of the present Age, is almost too evident to need any particular Proofs. However, such Proofs will be produc'd abundantly in my my IIId Lecture.
- 3. This is easily to be believed, if we consider what very great Numbers have been already destroyed by this last War, both at Sea and Land; by the late terrible losses of Seamen in

the

Completions.

the late violent Storms at Home and Abroad, in the East and West-Indies, by the very great Numbers that kill themfelves every Year by Gin, and Spirituous Liquors, esteemed 1000000, and very probably will be most remarkable in the perishing of the Body of the Jewish Nation, who are wicked, just before the Restoration of the rest. Dan. xii. 1.

4. This begins to be fulfilled already, in the fad Damp that is put to fuch Mirth, by the last Earthquakes at London: And will, without Question, be more throughly fulfilled by the other Earthquakes and Judgments now proceeding.

5. This cannot be fulfilled till the Principal of those Judgments come. Only the Preservation of

Noab

4. That Mens Mirth and Jollity shall be turned into Mourning.

5. That the few good, Men will be remarkably, preferved by Providence, from the approaching Calamities.

Completions.

Noah at the Deluge; of Lot in the Destruction of Sodom, and of the Christians at Pella, when Jerusalem was destroyed by Titus Vespasian, are comfortable Examples, to good Men to expect the like hereafter.

6. That terrible Meteors are to come upon Mankind from the Air.

6. It is to be obferved, that the first of our modern remarkable Meteors, or Northern Lights, came in the Year 1715, (as did the great Eclipse of the Sun come the fame Year,) the very Year when the Period of the outer Court of the Temple trodden down by the Gentiles first ended : immediately after which Christ foretold these Tokens should come, as we have Which Sort of feen. Meteors were so common after 1715, for about twenty-one Years, till the

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 49

Predictions.

to the manufacture

190 - 1 / 200 -

·T-----

the historica of the co

1-12 -04 1103 -14.

ter to the years

Carl was make

: Attitudence

SOMES IN THE PARTY IN

Log words type of hor !

1 18 met , mar &

- mu or n.i . mo-

الاست كاحير واحادا لد

-1.11

The second state of

ing gues, ur golusa -

د وروان د در الله

- MI - 1 m /ne to Time

m ye is somet ong

act to the transfer of the

Completions.

the fecond of those Years 1736 (the great Year for Eclipses also) as to be at length little regarded. Altho' they have fince been remarkably revived; especially by that red or bloody Canopy that encompass'd the Sky almost round every Way, Jan. 23, 1749-50, at Night, which I faw myself at Lyndon; and by that large and bright one, reaching almost from the Horizon on one Side, to the Horizon on the other, which I faw at London, February 16, following; and both to the no small Terror of many that faw them. To fay nothing of many other Meteors common in our News-Papers of the same Kind afterwards, excepting a very remarkable one in the General Evening Post, from Thursday, April 12, E to

Completions.

to Saturday, April 14, 1750; where, in an Extract of a Letter from Liverpool, concerning the smart Earthquake felt there, and at Manchester, April 2, about ten at Night, reaching pretty near forty Miles North and South, and about thirty Leagues East and West, we have this additional Clause: 4 I went out to observe the Air, and found a much ftranger Appearance than I ever before faw. Great Mists of Bloodred Rays converged, from all Parts of the "Heavens, to one dark Point; but no lumionous Body could be feen. This uncom-· mon Appearance dife persed in about fifteen Minutes.' I except also another Phœnomenon, in some Degree remarkable also, in the

() () () () () () () () ()

4-10 hours 10 - 35-10 -

- 4- 1- 1 to - 100

or a sound and famo

T- OTA - TO UNION

- poor for the next to term spirit in Assemble?

Of rather on the contract of

001 = 1 1 11 11 1000

-1(16 - 1 1)co

ومدعاج الأبر الأعام المتعادة

rather, on the confer men or many

ស្រាស់ មានក្រុម ប្រជាពិសេស ស្រាស់ មានក្រុម ខែង

· Name of the contract of the

221 V V V I THE

Trion We to

= ក្រោយ ក្រាប់

Completions.

the same General Evening Post, from Tuesday April 24, to Thursday April 26, 1750, where we are told, That ' the s last Letters from Genoa add, that on April the 13th, at feven o'Clock in the Morning, there appeared a very uns common Phoenomeon in the Clouds: viz. there were three Suns, very visible; and those on each Side brighter than that in the Middle. There was a Bow likewise very conspicuous, like a Rainbow; but it ' immediately vanished, and then the Sun ap-' peared again in its usual Lustre: Where this Note is added, That the Inhabitants, who are very superstitiously · inclined, imagine them to portend fome fatal · Difaster; because three E z ' Days

The real distriction

501 / / /Mot . 82,462.121 *

a to the state of a

-, V : (VEID =)

11 1 11 11 11 11 1

and the state of t

, to a colling to the

_. (pup=3)

ເມັງ ປະພາທີ່ສາໄພຢ້າ ກ່ອນໄປປະທານ

11/2

. . lil

e) Vince of the second of the

2 11 . - 4

4 4005 (885)

Completions.

· Days before the Defcent of the Germans

upon their Republick,

the Sun was darkened

in a furprizing Mane ner.' Yet was not there, that we know of, any remarkable Northern Light in near one hundred Years before 1715, as my printed Account of that Meteor demonstrates. Nor do all our Histories furnish us with any whit near fo many of them, in all the past Ages, as those twentyone Years afforded us; though the superstitious Regard to all fuch Meteors, as ominous, in ancient Times secures us, that those Appearances, had theybeen as common

It is also highly worthy our Observation, that as they have often been of late, would not have been omitted by the Hi-ftorians of those Ages.

the

I. CY 1 3 2 16 - 147. T

and the state of t

Marin Co. Mante Sale

equilibria entire : a control

00.01.01.01.013

Forest L. Componer

the property of the orice. Or you is, I

time the was andang

fich a Mil of Ping of not a lieu and which

-nlskh oven to state

ביות וני ביים אוני הוים اله فأس لـ (إدريتين ما فاح ماريد عام الأساس أن أنان ،

lect as executed by the

- with a major

Bread from the fire in ciudine taller de la coniudio out went in many but media oct or puncto-

a family large 1m3 (5 = 00 =)17 = 1

es once confident a tend de me a feeto

Wast - A Charles

THE PROMOTE SUITE

med wai and still a

- 3 2 1/17/4 11 1 2 2 2 1/6

Completions.

the first remarkable Meteor of the fecond Sort, יים שלו ביותו or the Ball of Fire, 1718-19, came but three Years after the other. This Ball, this amazing Ball of Fire, began to be vifible over Radnor in Wales, at the Top of our Atmosphere, or fiftyfive Miles high, and increafing, like a Snowball, threw itself almost directly South, about feven Miles East of Exeter, of the Brightness of the Sun, and of a Mile in Diameter: And, after it had passed in half a Quarter of a Minute's Time, as far as Guernsey. or the neighbouring Coast of Britain in France, or about two hundred and fifty Miles, descending a little all the Way; it burst at about the Height of thirty-fix Miles, with fuch a mighty Noise, as amazed the E 3 People

And 1 5

INST. Carrie

miranu di ,t

1 1 00.7

Completions.

People of Exeter to a prodigious Degree, and was heard back as far as Radnor ten Minutes afterwards; being perhaps greater than if 100,000 Barrels of Gunpowder had been fired fo high at once. Nor was it, I suppose, any other than fuch a Ball of Fire, or rather Fire and Brimstone, which was the Instrument of Providence in the Destruction of Sodom and Gomorrab. Now fuch an one, had it fallen upon the Cities of London and Westminster, including Southwark also; and which we know no mechanical or philofophical Reason why it may not do; all their Inhabitants would dead in much less than a Minute's Time. These terrible Meteors may well be here insisted on by me particularly; because

Completions.

(7.) That many, and some of them terrible Earthquakes, are to come upon Mankind, either from the Air above, or the Ground below, or from both together.

cause I had Lectures upon them both, at the feveral Times they happened, at London; as I had these upon occasion of the later Meteors and Earthquakes; which I then also printed and published, in the like Manner as I now print and publish these before me.

(7.) As to the Earthquakes, which, by the Prophecies, will not be few, they have been very lately at Rome in Italy, and particularly at Legborn, at Naples, but chiefly at Cerigo, an Island South of the Morea, where our News fays 2000 perished in it; at the South of France, and especially near Pau, under the Pirenees, which the News affures us it was prodigious also, as also another at Munich in Bavaria in the very

last E4

-d - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 2

on the second beauty

المرابع و الله على المرابع

1 9.3 (1)

Jan a II out fold

i daning

wind the wife in the second

oral (etj) ellar

ILY, IT, VI

Completions.

last News-Paper, besides the two at London. They have also been lately felt at Taunton, at Bath, at Portsmouth, and at Eastwell in Kent; and principally at Chester and Liverpool. The two Earthquakes at London I felt myself, as I had felt one at Norton in Leicesterfbire, when I was ten Years old, 1677, and another much more plainly at Clare-Hall, Cambridge, Sept. 8, 1692. These two at London have already greatly and justly alarmed the whole City. On which Occasion we had immediately published, by an unknown Author, A fober and ferious Address to the Inhabitants of that City; as also soon after, a somewhat larger Address to them by Bishop Sherlock; and both highly worthy the Perusal of all the Citizens. And may 115 i...i 1.

10.7419 - 10 W = in

the per mail of the

and permate a continue

· arrest setters from the

THOUSEN THE WAR.

May we will the · Congression of the

Ling of the force

- 4 :11: 5 , 1 - 1

The man

מוניד ב בין נים למסתון

2.1705.1

France Contraction

1. Co-196 . 1. 19 7 2 1 1 1 1

1 1 1 W 2 1 h - 1 2 2 h

376. .9 . 'A TO

mi si - Edens

Completions.

all fuch fober and ferious Applications, be accompanied with the divine Bleffing, and produce fuch a thorough Repentance and Amendment, as may avert the divine Wrath from that City, and the whole Nation. As to the Number of our British Earthquakes, we have, in the Gentleman's Magazine for February 1750, Page 56, a Catalogue of those the Author had met with in our Historians, being only twentyfour in feven Centuries, fince A. D. 1047, of which fourteen have happened in my Life-time, and of which, as has been faid already, I have now felt four, viz. that in 1677, and that Sept. 8, 1692, and these two last at London, Feb. 8, and March 8, 1749-50. The last of which greatly furprizes $ p 4

Predictions: .

1 = 10 , . . X

: 102 8 4 10

- i - i - i -

100 100

1 1 1

- ...

Completions.

prizes me to account for: It having been much greater than the first in the Room below me, and in the Room above me, but much less in my own Room, Another Earthquake was felt at Eastwell in Kent, Monday, March 12. Another at Portsmouth, and the neighbouring Parts, Sunday, March 18. Another, or the fame, at the Bath, at the same Time; all three 1749-50. Another at Hull, 31 Days after the great Storm, or December 28, 1703. Another Earthquake was felt at Taunton, in Devonshire, July 1, 1747, and reached about forty Miles fquare; and as Mr. Foster, who wrote the Letter wherein that Account is contained, (Philosophical Transactions, No. 488. Pag. 398, 399, 400.) adds, What increased arian's or .

William a like the

111

and the second

e ord , - Co and

AND THE PROPERTY.

The street of the

, (一) 美加工一个一个

a substitute of the first property the n or sing only to the

COLUMN THE TANK

Tolar - Linds

worthing a reason

Completions.

creased the Surprize here, was the Account then fresh in every Body's Mind, of the dreadful Earthquake at Lima in Peru: Of which it may justly be expected I should fay fomething. We have a very particular Account of it in a Book then published by Mr. Osborn. 1748, Pag. 102-199. The Circumstances most remarkable were thefe: That an Earthquake, June 17, 1678, ruined a great Part of the City Lima, and particularly the Churches dedicated to the Bleffed Virgin; as if, in the Words of one that wrote the Life of St. Toribio, God the Son had risen against bis Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary; who indeed is almost the only God or Goddess that is worshipped in that Country. That the Memory

MEMOIRS of the LIFE of

Predictions.

The sine American internal control

telles in the Pu Line

(- 1 1 . 5 m) 10 m

OWNER STATE OF THE STATE OF THE

- , V - hh-muly &

10 1/1 2 2 - 1

-11- 4 11:12

or mil , in

Completions.

mory of this dreadful Earthquake is yearly revived there, on the Nineteenth of October, by publick Prayers. That it was foretold by a religious Man, of the Order of St. Merced, who feveral Days before ran along the Streets, like another Jonah, crying, Repent. That on Monday, October 20, 1687, N. S. at Four of the Clock in the Morning, was another most horrible Earthquake at Lima, which was fo dreadful, that the very Cattle were in great Astonishment, and above 5000 dead Bodies were found. That in 1709, between April and January, were no fewer than 14 Earthquakes there. That the last great Earthquake, both at Lima and its Port Callao, happened October 28, 1746, Half an Hour after . . It is some have done and the sound of manufactured to the ball of

See to the second second and leaves which we will

100 (4-1)

man plant ale man a lori and the second of

4 1) (1 - 1 - 1 - 1

is will a some

e / J' le . J'an al-1

Non- all all and a

IN SINT CLAT BEALTHER

The Contract of the Land

- point 1, to 1, 18 - 13

Completions.

after Ten at Night: That about 1141 perished at Lima; but at Callao all the Inhabitants perished, but 400, in Number near 5000. That this Earthquake was foretold by Mother Teresa, a Nun of the Order of Jesus, in the Monastery of Barefoots of St. Joseph, in Lima, with repeated and most efficacious Affertions of what was to come to pass; to which she added, that her Life would not last long enough for her to experience the fad Event. And in Fact, she died at the Age of above an hundred Years, the Fifteenth of the same Month of October, a Year before the Earthquake happened: To demonstrate the Truth of this, Informations are actually now making, which will contain the whole Particulars

Completions.

culars of her Case; although at that Time, the extreme Earnestness with which the delivered her Prediction was looked upon as a Mark of the Failure of her Understanding, at that advanc'd Age. But that this great City of Lima was a Place of the utmost Luxury and Wickedness, especially among the Religious and Clergy, and fo did highly deferve fuch a terrible Judgment, is notorious, and is there at large set forth, Pag. 246-254. To conclude this Matter of Earthquakes: There was a most dreadful one a Quarter of a Year before that, which I best remember, which was Sept. 8, 1692, at Port-Royal in Jamaica. This happened upon June 7, the fame Year; and at the End of the beforemen-

Harry or all the first the

of hard made house

F=F 306 37 = 1 0 1 - 1

Below .

2016 10

the state of the

The state of the s

Completions.

mentioned Account of those at Lima and Callao, just now set down, we have a very authentick Account of it; being two Letters from an Eye-witnefs, who was Minister of the Place. though his Name is not fet down; the Reason of which I do not know. The most remarkable Circumstances of it were these: That the Place had in it a most ungodly and debauched People, at the Time when this Earthquake happened; nay, he fays, they were desperately wicked, there was not a more ungodly People on the Face of the Earth: That he was bimself very providentially faved: That when the Earthquake came, the People cried out to him to come and pray with them; which he did, when they had made a Ring

n. Year Lovie

7.1

and the second

1 20 1 21 4

VIE 1. 12. 1

Completions.

a Ring for him, for near an Hour together, with ferious Exhortations to Repentance for another Half Hour; while yet fome robb'd and plunder'd during the Earthquake itself; and those audacious Whores, who remained upon the Place, were as impudent and as drunken as ever. The Minister did not spare the Magistrates themselves, who had fuffered Wickedness to grow to so great an Height.--He preached feafonably and plainly to them. In the last Sermon he delivered in the Church, [before it was demolished he set before them what would be the Issue of their Impenitence and Wickedness, so clearly, that they acknowledged afterward, that it was more like a Prophecy than a Sermon. And he confesses he had mark form or costs

1 1 1 2 1 2 1

made control of the other perma turi to to padivi

the gent tradering

and the Contract of the Contra

I was not week

VEN I TO VALLE LOS

1 TE -- 1

Ballen parted

· (-1) La Carton

1 10 012

Avistance | - 1

) 4000 s_ 0 1 D.S.

Completions?

an Impulse upon himself to do it, and that he had many Times preached in that Pulpit Things that he had never premeditated at Home; and that he thought he could not do otherwise. That the Day when all this befel them was very clear, and afforded not the Suspicion of the least Evil; but in the Space of three Minutes, about Half an Hour after Eleven in the Morning, Port-Royal, the fairest Town of all the English Plantations, was shaken and shattered to Pieces; funk into and covered for the greatest Part by the Sea. That the People were over-joyed when they faw him among them, and wept bitterly, when he preached to them in a Tent. He hoped that by this terrible Judgment God would make F them them reform their Lives. He guessed that 1500 Persons were lost. Dr. Morley thought 2000 in the whole Island. To which must be added, that an Account, dated September 23 following, informs us, that the Mortality which enfued the great Earthquake made greater Havock than the Earthquake itfelf; and that almost half the People who efcaped at Port-Royal were fince dead of a malignant Fever. - It was thought to have fwept away in many Parts of the Island 3000 Souls, and most of them from Kingstown only.

Completions.

To all which Histories of Earthquakes at Land, give me leave to mention one upon the Sea, out of the Evening-Post already quoted, from Tuesday April 24,

the state of the state of

171 1 100 251 250

DEL 110-30 1/10

to long sometime

in the second of the second

-35 ha nisi 571 W. S.

= 1 ha - m3 3n 'n

the it wind to an a

William Tolking

int was it was

ince mechingson

· > 0 = 1 1 15 75 1 1/4

South the British of

THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE

Completions.

to Thursday April 26,

1750, in the Words following: 'Capt. Cowy, who lately arrived in the River from Carolina, as he was home-' ward bound, being in Latitude 45, on the 15th of March last was furprized with a fudden and unufual Swelling of the Waves of the Sea, without any apparent Cause; there being but little Wind stirring; which occafioned his Ship to be toffed about prodigioully, and did much Damage to the Rigging. Upon looking at the Sea Water, it appeared to him as thick and muddy as the Water of the Thames, after the heaviest Rains, when the Freshes are most violent, and therefore he concluded that this F 2 6 strange

N. W.

(a) (1) (b) (b) (c) (c) (c) (d) (d) (d)

-113 4 1 1 2 2 4 1 1 1 1

0.10" 17

Completions.

ftrange Phænomenon proceeded from fome fubterraneous Eruption.'

Give me leave also to add a Passage out of the General Evening -Post, from Thursday April 26, to Saturday April 28, 1750. Paris, April 27.

By the Way of Marseilles we have an Account, that on the tenth of this Month

the Archiepiscopal Pa-

e lace of Messina fell down in a very extraordinary Manner, and that one of the Archbi-fhop's Secretaries, the Master of his Household, and several Do.

mesticks were buried

under the Ruins o or accounted for in the Account from Paris, as the News fays; but fince they about Naples have

de marier

was the vite

117

Completions.

(8.) That the Isles of the Sea shall be especially concerned in the Thanksgiving to God, for the Delivery of good Men from the Calamities now approaching.

9. That these Calamities will chiesly fall upon wicked Kings and Princes, and their great wicked Ministers of State.

567 h 1 1 1 1 - 6

have lately had an Earthquake, as well as those at Rome, and in its Neighbourhood, 'tis no Way improbable the Palace fell down by an Earthquake also.

(8.) The Completion of this Prediction cannot be expected, till the Principal of them be come; which will I believe be in no long Time, and perhaps fooner than Mankind are willing to suppose.

(9.) The Completion of this Prediction cannot be expected, till the principal Calamities are come, which I believe will be fooner than fuch Princes and Statesmen will be persuaded to look for them; such Men generally being Scepticks or Infidels as to Religion and the Prophecies, are most likely to imitate the Liber-

F 3 tine,

NOON IN COLUMN BY A COMM

A 04 - 01

· Completions.

(10.) That there shall be a real Resurrection of the Martyrs, both Jews and Christians, at this Restoration of the Jews.

Ezek. XXXVII. 1-14.

tine, in the Tragedy called by that Name, and to believe no future Punishments till they actually fall into Hades or Gebenna themselves.

(10.) This amazing Event cannot yet be expected; but will certainly come in its proper Season. Hear Ezekiel, Daniel, and St. John's Accounts of this first Refurrection.

- 1. The Hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the Spirit of the Lord, and fet me down in the Midst of the Valley, which was full of Bones.

2. And he caused me to pass by them round about, and behold there were very many, and lo they were very dry.

3. And he faid unto me, Son of Man, can these dry Bones live?

And

or new special and

and in a

201 L , 11-

Completions:

And I answered, O Lord God, thou knowest.

- 4. And he faid unto me, Prophefy upon these Bones, and say unto them, O ye dry Bones, hear ye the Word of the Lord.
- 5. Thus faith the Lord God unto these Bones, behold I will cause Breath to enter enter into you, and ye shall live:
- 6. And I will lay Sinews upon you, and bring up Flesh upon you, and cover you with Skin, and put Breath in you, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.
- 7. So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied there was a Noise, and behold a Shaking, and the Bones came together, Bone to his Bone:
- 8. And when I beheld, lo the Sinews and F 4 the

The state of the s

113

1 Charles 1

1 = 1 - 1 100 1 1 1

Completions.

the Flesh came upon them, and the Skin covered them above, but there was no Breath in them.

9. Then faid he unto me, Prophefy unto the the Wind, Prophefy Son of Man, and fay to the Wind, Thus faith the Lord God, come from the four Winds, O Breath, and breathe upon these Slain that they may live.

10. So I prophefied as he commanded me, and the Breath came into them, and they lived and flood up upon their Feet, an exceeding great Army.

It. Then he faid unto me, Son of Man, these Bones are the whole House of Israel: Behold they say, our Bones are dried, and our Hope is lost; we are cut off for our Parts.

12.

1 5 5 5

White warmer A said.

Come to avoid to the क्षेत्र वर्षेत्र । । । वर्षेत्र वर्षे

promote profession

សាល់ ក្រុម ស្រួលប៉ុន្តេ ស្រួលប៉ុន្តេ

WALLES THE PARTY OF

ins , while he done

1000

SON AND SERVED -

A to Longithian

Angelei el el entre ul como esta el esta esta and the public

: 6 ELL F. 10 TO TO 10.2.?

your market in

May the Well of

Completions.

phefy, and fay unto them, thus faith the Lord God: Behold, O my People, I will open your Graves, and cause you to come up out of your Graves, and bring you into the Land of Israel.

know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your Graves, O my People, and brought you up out of your Graves.

14. And shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own Land. Then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it.

See also Daniel xii. 1,

People shall be delivered, every one that

and the second

ां लें के कि अतंद र ता व

12 months Init and

17.11 - 11.55

19-10-9 - 18-5-1 " TED |

ום בעוד - דיו וויד רב אוני מו

CONTROL OF THE OF

ing of the

the most pairment

War a wo say way

1. 7 1 - , 50 mail

11 11 11 11 11 1 2 3 1 1 1

Completions.

fhall be found written in the Book.

2. And many of them that sleep in the Dust of the Earth shall awake; some to everlasting Life, and some to Shame and everlasting Contempt.

See also Apoc. xx. 4, 5, 6.

4. And I faw Thrones, and they fat upon them, and Judgment was given unto them. And I faw the Souls of them that were beheaded for the Witness of Jesus, and for the Word of God, and which had not worshipped the Beast, neither his Image, neither had received his Mark upon their Foreheads, or in their Hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thoufand Years.

5. But the rest of the Dead lived not again until the thousand Years were قال ما هلا والدد . . .

- NO -

array array and the contract of

to the second

Completions.

were finished: This is the first Resurrection.

- 6. Bleffed and holy is he that hath Part in the first Resurrection: On such the second Death hath no Power. But they shall be Priests of God and of Christ; and shall reign with him a thousand Years.
- (11.) If these Predictions do mean no more than Eclipses of the Sun and Moon, such as are mentioned in my Astronomical Year, and other Calculations, such Eclipses may be esteem'd as partial Completions of these Predictions; but if they imply somewhat more wonderful, as I suspect, their Completion cannot be yet exhibited.
- (12.) This Prediction cannot be yet expected to be fulfilled; fince the Time of the Jews Reforation and Moon shall be greatly concerned at this Restoration of the Jews.

on the sile of the man out, sed Paris,

as all registers are selected

AN STORE THE STREET

y or surrough to Till I

man I mayor

(12.) That the Ignorance of Mankind in facred Matters, hitherto to very grofs, shall be taken taken away, upon the Restoration of the Jews to Mount Zion.

Completions.

G ind In it

Fig. Reform

it in in (13.) That the Isles and the Ships of Tarshish shall be first and principally concerned in the Restoration of the Jews.

A 1 101 (m.) (m. 1 1 007)

in religion of many property of

THE POST OF THE PARTY

- 1 60 - 2 15 - 2 15 - 2 15

trained in the

storation is not yet fully come. Nor do I depend on the intire Stoppage of our present over-bearing Infidelity till that Restoration.

(13.) I understand this Prediction chiefly of the British Isles, or perhaps as joining with the Dutch, or as including the two Maritime Powers, in the Transporting the Jews all along the Mediterranean into Judea. I name these two Maritime Powers only at prefent, because as to others, the Spaniards, and Portuguese, who lie conveniently enough for affilting in fuch a Transportation, they, instead of protecting the poor Jews, put them into the Inquifition, and burn them; nay, even our great Ally, the Queen of Hungary, as some of the latest on the ser boy a piece.

The gray live

رزاري

A Vin nove

A A Mile 1 St O T MAY

Time or the sale

(5) 1 1

of Local to

DE WOLLD

Completions.

latest News informs us, has permitted a Tewish Rabbi to be burnt in the City of Prague, under her Dominion. The Poles also, that might be affifting one Way or other, have bitterly declared their Barbarity against them, by banishing them all at a Day's Warning from Caminiek, as our News affures us also. I do not here note the French, who have Ports in the Mediterranean, among these Enemies of the Jews, tho' I cannot yet reckon them among their Friends; not only because they do not admit of the Inquisition, which would burn them, but because the Prophecies give me fome Hopes that they, as well as the King of Sardinia, the Sovereign of the Vaudois, will ere long leave off

a mineral in a

- In It's an a more all

Completions.

off their Attachment to the Papacy, and join with us and the Dutch in the Accomplishment of these Predictions. See Bishops Sherlock's Sermon at Salibury, October 6, 1745. with my Additions at the End of the Memoirs of my own Life, Pag 13. See also Lit. Accompl. of Proph. Pag.

(14.) This Prediction cannot admit of a Completion, till after the Prophet Elijab is come, and has called them into Judea; which is still future; tho' I think not very remote.

(15.) By this Blood and Fire, might possibly be understood the terrible Effusion of Blood in the late Wars every where, and the late Fires; I mean those at London, Constantinople, Munich, and other Places, of which (14.) That the Reftoration of the Jews shall be very sudden and unexpected.

(15.) That two of the Wonders in Joel, which are to precede the Restoration of the Jews, are Blood and Fire.

1000 6537 3 0000

the first or , as an into and was to ju

escino partires

morning of way

Pine Tree and Subject

minde all de in austri

The result of the state of the m 5 1) Il tolly

mass of a market market

winds I worten

egather in eggs to

Completions.

which our News frequently informs us; yet, because the Coherence inclines us to look upward to the Heavens, I interpret this Blood and Fire rather of those red bloody, or fiery Meteors, which have of late fometimes appeared in our Northern Lights; particularly in those of 1736, mentioned in my Astronomical Year, Page 23; in that frightful one Jan. 23, 1749-50, and in that of April 2, 1750, feen at Liverpool; of which read, Pag. 50. prius.

(17.) These seem to be plainly no other than the lower Parts of the Tails, or the Atmospheres of those many Comets which we have had of late. (See my Astronomical Principles of Religion, Pag. 129.) For, as at the introduction

(17.) That another Signal should be Pillars of Smoke.

tels to be contributed

The state of the s

م من در

1 - 8 - 1

သောင် ချင်းနှိုင် ရှိကျောင်းကြောင်း နေ့သည် ကျောင်းသို့ ကိုကြောင်း

T. HE-10

1300 ml r /1 10 -1

THE TOTAL OF THE

Etran ar' arabi

Completions.

tion of the Protestant Religion into Germany, and thence into other Parts of Europe, there appeared, in few Years, no fewer than fix Comets. (See the Astronomical Year, Pag. 25.) So have there in the last eleven Years appeared no fewer than feven; as my Grandson, Mr. Thomas Barker, who has computed the Orbits of all the Comets that are capable of Computation, assures me, besides that expected at the End of 1757, or the Beginning of 1758; and perhaps others that may appear before 1766, the Beginning of the Millennium.

(18.) These may be understood of those total Eclipses of the Sun and Moon, which have of late been so remarkable, and by which the Sun has (18.) The Sun is to be turned into Darkness, and the Moon into Blood.

Completions.

has been darkened, and the Moon has appeared of a bloody Hue, before this Restoration of the Fews. (See the Astronomical Year, per tot. and those eight Eclipses of the Sun drawn on my Map of Europe, A. D. 1733.) This I fay, unless somewhat perhaps more furprizing of this Nature may still be expected before 1766, which I no way deny to be not improbable.

(19.) This King of the South was plainly the Saracen Caliphs, who came, or fent vast Armies against that Empire, from Arabia in the Southern Parts of the World; being the fifth Trumpet, or first Woe, in the Revelation.

(20.) This King of the North is plainly the Turkish Sultan, or Ottoman Emperor, who came Or (20.) The King of the North was to come against the Roman Empire, with great Forces and Success.

(19.) The King of the South was to push at the Roman Empire.

AND MOON ON SERVICE

10 20(533)331 75

Completions.

(21.) The fame King of the North was to conquer many Countries belonging to the Roman Empire.

(22.) The same King of the North was to get Possession of Judea, and the neighbouring Countries.

- (23.) But the wild Arabs were to escape out of his Hands; i. e. those that inhabited the Countries where the Edomites, Moabites, and Part of the Ammonites, formerly inhabited.
- (24.) This King was to conquer other Countries also.

or fent vast Armies against the same Empire from Turcemania, in the Northern Parts of the World, being the fixth Trumpet, or second Woe, in the Revelation.

(21.) This was exactly true of the Turks.

- (22.) This was exactly true of the Turks.
- (23.) This was true of the Turks also.

(24.) So did the Turks, who raifed a prodigious Empire out of those Countries, which continues to this Day.

(25.)

(25:) The Land of Egypt, how remote foever, was not to escape at last.

(26.) This King was also to possess all the Treasures of Egypt.

(27.) The Algerines and Arabians were to be at his Devotion also.

(28.) Yet was this King to hear very difagreeable News from the East.

(29.) As also from the North.

Completions.

(26.) Egypt was at length taken from the Mammalukes by the Turks; but not till the Year 1517, the Year that Luther's Reformation began.

(26.) So does the Turk to this yery Day.

the Grand Turk at this Day.

(28.) So has the Grand Turk heard those ill Tidings many Years from the Persians on the East, and been often beaten by them, and is still greatly as a fraid of them.

hear very ill News from the Muscovites, whose Czar made War upon him for some Years, as Prince Cantemir, who left the Turk, and went over to the Czar, informs us, Page 399.

G 2 402.

Completions.

(30.) This King of the North was at length to go, out with great Fury to destroy many.

(31.) This King of the North is to plant his royal Pavillion between the Mediterranean and Dead Seas, in a glorious holy Mountain of Judea.

(32.) Yet is he there and then to come to bis End, without any Means of avoiding it.

(33.) There was to be a great Concussion of the Heavens, Hag. ii. 6-9, as in Isaiah, before the Restoration of the Jews. I suppose it here means greatChanges in the supreme Rulers of the World.' -

402. 417. 428. 429 448. 453.

(30.) This the Turk did, in a terrible Manner, at the Siege and taking of Belgrade, 1736.

(31.) This is justly and speedily to be expected of the Turk.

(32.) This is justly and speedily to be expected of the Turks: Till which Avoidance the Jews cannot peaceably fettle themselves in their own Country of Judea.

(33.) These Changes of supreme Rulers will, I believe, foon verify this Prediction.

(34.) There were to be great Concussions of the Earth, or great Changes of subordinate Rulers: Nor is there any Doubt but Changes in supreme Rulers will occasion Changes in those that are subordinate.

(35.) There were to be great Concussions on the Sea; or, in the Language of our Saviour, The Sea and the Waves roaring; of which hereafter.

Completions.

(34.) These Changes of fubordinate Rulers will, I believe, soon verify this Prediction.

(35.) Thefe great Concussions on the Sea, most obviously denote terrible Storms at Sea, which we have had of late Years; beginning with the prodigious Storm at Sea and Land, Nov. 27, 1703, and going on with that when Admiral Balchen was loft, with about twelve hundred of his Men; that in the East-Indies, April 13 and 14, 1749, that in the West-Indies, or North Carolina, Oct. 7 and 8, 1749, and those about Cape Breton and Annapolis in the Years and the contract

G 3 1747,

THE R. P. LEWIS CO., LANSING, MICH.

· Total and a series of the series

Completions.

(36.) There were to be great Concussions, or Earthquakes at Land.

(37.) There were to be Concussions of all Nations, till the Elect of all the Nations, God's ancient chosen People the Jews, return into Judea again.

(38.) These Jews are to rebuild their holy House, or Temple of God, upon their Return.

(39.) This holy House, or Temple, is to be a very glorious one, and adorned with Silver and Gold.

1747,1748,1749,besides many other the like Examples of late, well known in our News-Papers.

(36.) Of these Earthquakes, see already No. 7. prius, at large.

(37) These great Convulsions, or Concussions, have lasted already many Years, and have extended in a Manner, over the whole habitable Earth, and are likely to continue till the Restoration of the Jews.

(38.) This Return of all the Twelve Tribes is the great Hope of Israel, and this rebuilding of their Temple is exactly and largely described by Ezekiel, Chap. xl, &c.

(39.) This perfectly agrees to Ezekiel's Defcription of his Temple.

(40.) This

Completions.

(40.) This Temple is to be more glorious than Solomon's own Temple, and to be the last, as that was the first Temple at Jerusalem.

- (41.) Almighty God will give Peace in this Temple by the Messiah, who will himself reside in it for ever. Nor does this Circumstance of giving Peace by the Mefsiab in this Temple, permit us to apply these Predictions to Herod's Temple. When Christ came not to fend Peace, but a Sword, Matt. x: 34, and after which he fent his Roman Armies, and destroyed that Nation, and burnt up their City, Ferusalem, in such a Manner, as no other Nation or City were ever destroyed.
- (42.) Those that once destroyed this Temple

(40.) This also perfectly agrees with Eze-kiel's Description.

(41.) This perfectly agrees to Ezekiel's Defcription of his Temple, and the Messiah's solemn entring into it, and abiding in it for ever, Ezek, xliii.

(42.) As the Romans destroyed Herod's Tem-G 4 ples

at

Completions.

at Jerusalem, are to rebuild it again.

(43.) This rebuilding of the Jewish Temple is to be after a grand Week of Years, when the seventh Millenary is beginning.

(44.) 'Tis here foretold, that Truth, Wifdom, and Understanding, should greatly fail in these last Parts of the last Times, or a little before the Restoration of the Jews.

ple, under Titus Vespafian, so shall the Remains of the Ten Kings, into which the Roman Empire was parted in the fifth Century, contribute their Wealth to rebuild it again.

(43.) This feventh Millenary will begin 1766, as has been already demonstrated, Pag. 608, 609. But as to the Times of the Completion of these last six Predictions, it is evident that they are not fully come, although I believe they are very soon approaching.

(44.) The fulfilling of this is so evident already, that a sober considerate Person would think the Men of this Age were degenerated into absolute Folly and Madness; and had not the common Sense of former Ages.

The

Completions.

(45.) 'Tis here foretold, that at this Time Infidelity should greatly prevail in the World.

Day of the state of

The state of the s

(日本の一般的の) (日本)

· complete the second and the second of a

g= 1 1 101 / 1 = 1 = 114

Established weighting it &

TEAT SITE AND TO

of the place of the

In structure at the

Min of the party.

Jenny Kon

The Instances are too many and too gross to bear an Enumeration.

(45.) This Infidelity, which almost began with Hobbes and Spinoza, a little above a Century ago, is now come to fuch a prodigious Height as is aftonishing; especially when the Pretences for it have of late been fo thoroughly baffled, and the fulfilling of Scripture Prophecies, and Truth of the Scripture Miracles, with Sir Isaac Newton's utter Demolition of all atheistical and irreligious Philosophy, sto fay nothing of my clearing more than 39 Parts in 40 of the antient Scripture Difficulties,] are undeniable. Nay, the Cafe is now become fo amazing, that Persons, otherwife of good Learning and Parts, when they

Completions.

great Expence, have

6 been

/E 1 2070 2/4 2 ...

The state of the s

mile and the manage

Completions.

الممالي فأراجيه والأواط Plant of the barries Ames = 1. 0 1. 3 1 5 line Dond. as a (46.) It is here foretold, that at the same TimeWickedness should be enormously increased, beyond the Measure of former Ages. I have markly a ! ert for edition ent ivaiati in the first of the second ay agrilyin a muranji gajigan s

the second second

· (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1)

512 de 100 e

red unit de l'as

6 ° ' been conveyed; are Proofs of fuch Malice " against the Gospel, and ' the Holy Author of it, as would not be borne in a Mahometan Country. In this Branch of Trade this great City beats all the World; it is become ' even the Mart for Infidelity. (46.) Take the fad Accomplishment of this Prediction, first in the Words of the unknown Author of the small Serious Address, Page 14. The open Profaneness and Irreligion of the great, fays he, and the diabolical Licentious-

e ness of the little Vulgar: - The general · Profanation of the · Lord's Day : - The

Churches in many · Places almost deserted, whilft the publick

· Roads

المالية ال

Predictions.

Completions.

pens,

ons a finite of a · Roads and Places of Rewill be the training fort are crowded with can be the Company: - The open and avowed Per-10 101 - 11 -' juries, Lies, Subornof the same and ation, &c. in the poli-6.01101-2- - - - 11.0% tical World, encou-ม้อากบับ raged and protected by aw are thing all those who are bound in Duty and Honour to detect and punish them. - These, and e many other Enormiin our early and ties, which every Man fees, and every good Man laments, gives us too much Reason to and in the second fear, that fome national Judgment will quickly walling of the state of the sta overtake us.' Take the fame also in the Words of Bishop Sher-lock, first in his Sermon at Salisbury, Page 7. و يا در داند داند داند · The Joy, fays he, at the Restoration [of · Charles II.] was ex-(0) ceffive, and, as the Case too often hap-5 . 196

The contract of the

You'r Estal al

pd a coal and soo

march market be the wood make

SICILORD WAY

* * . . .

Completions.

e pens, left little Room for fober and ferious Reflections. The · Hearts of Men being fet open to the Impressions and Transports of Joy, foon grew fenfual, and the Prosperity of the Nation broke out into Luxury, and into all the Vices which naturally attend it. The Sense of Religion decayed, and the very Appearances of it were ' fuspected, as a Rem-' nant of that Hypocrify with which the late 'Times had been ' charged. [See Page ' 10, priùs. 7 And if we may judge by the · Performances of the Stage, which ' formed to the Taste of the People, there never was a Time when Lewdness, Irreligion, " and

of Robert Park

the table to be to the company of the

her of our neg

all Water

The second second

Lac . of the

1 II , 0 E O

261 0 . -- Denga

_ _ 10 1 (Int.)

(... H: 24 to 2)

and our last - dain =

கைய ஆடி சீணு. இதன் கதுமாக

i in the second

July 1 5 1 1 40 1 37 3

- 1 10 15 11 1-711 3

rorte. I are topical :

. 101

The property of

1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1

Completions.

and Profaneness were heard with more Patience.' And afterward, Page 9. Surely the Gospel of Jesus · Christ was never treated with greater Malice ' lice and Contempt by · Jews or Heathens, than it has been in this Christian Country. - Is not Sunday become a Day of Diversion to great ones, and a Day of Idleness to the little ones? And has not this been followed by a great Increase of great Wickedness and Violence among the · lower Sort of People? · Theft and Robbery, which used to be fecret ^c Crimes, now appear armed in our Streets, and are supported by Numbers strong eo nough to defy the Power of the Magistrate.2 Now

the state of the state of 10 pur la la ser once

To Line Line 2 to

น และที่นักให้เลา

· Throad Devis .

and a moint twice

To are to be two me a con-

LINE TO STATE OF THE PARTY OF T

WHAT CEN' YAVAY OF E

to probably and the other at - I formations on 3

الحق فيا الالألباء المنابع

, The training terms

All on one have allowed

TO MENT OF A PROPERTY OF

THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF TH

and the second

and the second

The state of the s

marcher and and man till til til

. 2 1 3

Completions.

Now hear the Letter. Page 7. Blasphemy, fays the Bishop, and horrid Imprecations domineer in our Streets. and poor Wretches are every Hour wantonly and wickedly calling for Damnation themselves and thers, which may be, (it is much to be feared) too near them already. Add to this, the Lewdness and Debauchery that prevail among the lowest Peofple; which keeps them ' idle, poor, and miserable, and renders them incapable of getting an honest Livelihood for themselves and Families. The Number of lewd Houses which trade in their Vices, and which must, at any Rate, be paid for mak' ing Sin convenient to 6 them,

THE RESERVE THE PERSON

1 m % - 1 - 1 m 2

CONTRACTOR STATE

and the same of th

the state of the state of

Hard Sau to 1 4 3

Marie Contractor

The second second

-

, , , , , ,

. (10. (1)

Completions.

- them, and it will ac-
- count for Villainies of
- other Kind, which are
- growing fo fast, as to
- be insupportable, and
- almost incurable. For
- where is the Wonder,
- that Persons so aban-
- doned should be ready
- doned moditi be ready
- to commit all Sorts of
 - Outrage and Violence.
 - ' A City without Reli-
- e gion can never be a
- fafe Place to dwell in.
- The unnatural Lewd-
- The dimeteral Dewa-
- ness, of which we have
- heard fo much of late,
- is fomething more than
- brutish, and can hardly
- be mentioned without
- offending chafte Ears;
- yet cannot be paffed
- over entirely in Silence,
- because of the particu-
- lar Mark: of divine
- · Vengeance set upon it,
- in the Destruction of
- Sodom by Fire from
 - · Hea-

Completions.

(47.) It is here foretold, that Kings and Princes shall, at this Time, be the Authors of great Disturbances among Mankind.

and the second s

mily will by some Gray

are an and the

71 - 14 71 -0

' Heaven. Dreadful Ex-' ample!'

(47.) This is always the fad Case of Mankind under vicious, proud, and tyrannical Kings and Princes; which is but too commonly their Character, and to which the Temptations in fuch high Stations naturally incline them: In Prospect of which Temptations I suppose it was, in good Part, that God was fo very averse to the Introduction of that Regal or Despotick Power among the Jews. While the People of God, the Israelites, were under the Judges, or under a Theocracy and Aristocracy, the Kind of Government that God himself chose for them, they were a great deal happier than when they were under absolute Kings, a Sort of Government

. = 1, 1, 1 = -01

Same to state of the

A STATE OF THE RESERVE

THE PART OF THE PARTY

A Landbloom State of State

n kan kan da wa

C.

Completions.

ment of their own Choice, but which God highly disapproved. Deut. xvii. 14-20. I Sam. viii. per tot. xii. per tot. and of which the Jews were themselves long afterwards throughly weary. Nor do I once imagine, that the Messiah will ever choose such absolute royal Authority under his own Kingdom, which he is now going to fet up in Judea, and under which State the 101st Psalm describes his Administration; for the coming of which Kingdom, not the Yews only, as we have feen, every Day pray to God, but the Christians alfo, every Time they use the Lord's Prayer, if they understand themfelves, do the fame, when they fay, Thy Kingdom come; there being no other Kingdom of God de-

the John will be seen

- A A - 1 - 1 A -

The state of the s

The thousand

and to be a second

All the street of

30 Sc 1275 - Mar 97

. 1 (b ... | N=1/3)

Completions.

described in the New Testament, but that which the Apostles expected at his Ascension, AEts i. 6. when they hoped he would even then restore it to Israel; and which was not to come till he should restore the Jews to their own Country, and God should govern them by their King Messiah. Indeed, if the Kings that call themselves Most Chri-Stian, or Catholick, or Defenders of the Faith, would imitate that wonderful Duke of Saxe-Gotha, Ernestus the Pious, the Great Grandfather of our present Princess of Wales, whose most excellent Life I have just now re-published, all good Men would undoubtedly be very eafy, and greatly fatisfied with that Form of Govern-H 2 ment.

Completions.

ment. But that is not ordinarily to be expected by us. So that while we retain that Form of Government, we may justly fuffer the terrible Inconveniencies of it. Nor need I enumerate the Miferies of late suffered from the present Kings and Princes here foretold; no observing Person being able to avoid seeing those Miseries.

(48.) The exact ful-

(48.) The exact fulfilling of this Prediction, for these last 39 Years, is known to all the World, ever since the deposing of the Sophi of Persia by Merowitz, A. D. 1711.

(49,) (50.) When these Signs come to be fulfilled, which cannot be now at any remote Distance, it will very probably appear which of the two Copies are the truest;

(48.) It is here foretold, that the Country of Persia was, at this Time, to be suddenly wasted, and made desolate.

(49,) (50.) As to the strange Signs in the Sun and the Moon, in which the Copies here so much differ, I can say little at present on that Account.

Completions.

(51.) It is here foretold, that about these Times Blood shall drop out of the Wood.

(52.) 'Tis here foretold, that some eminent Stone, or Rock, shall give its Voice about this Time. truest; but till then we must suspend our Judgament, both as to the Signs themselves, and as to the exact Times for their Completion.

(51.) This Sign has not yet been verified by any Event of that Nature that I know of. Yet do I not doubt of its Verification in due Seafon hereafter; especially when,

(52.) A remarkable Stone, or Rock, which is the next Signal, and not less strange in itself than the former, has very lately been verified in our own Country. Take this aftonishing History in the Words of the original Letter, dated at Cockermouth in Cumberland, Sept. 3, 1749. It is printed in the General Evening Post, from Thursday, Sept. 12, to Thursday, Sept. 14, the

H₃ fame

of the state of the state of יוטוויניים ביין נולפי

21...

o I hand

5 1 EM WIFE . 12

. yethya il a

.Completions.

fame Year, as follows: ' The Eruption of the · Mountain of Saint ' John's, near this Place, is Matter of great Speculation to all the Virtuofi in these Parts. "It happened in the · Night between the 6 22d and 23d, in the ' Midst of the (N. B.) most terrible Lightening and Thunder ' that ever was feen, or heard, by the oldest 6 Man living. A large Rock, near the Tops of the Mountain, being intirely rent afunder; out of which came fo great a De-· luge of Water, and that with fuch Violence and Rapidity as carried all before it, fuch as folid Stones of incredible Weight, Houses, Barns, Mills, &c. and even erafed their very Foundations, fo that you s cannot

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 103

Predictions.

services and the fire

Completions.

cannot now tell where they stood. The Millftones are carried fome hundred Yards from the Mill, and toffed upon the Rubbish and Sand; the Quantity of which is fo great, that it has laid waste a great deal of arable and Meadow Land, which will; for the future, be ever · fpoiled; being as deep in fome Places as the · Tops of Trees. It would furpass all Credit to give you every particular Circumftance of this fuprifing Cataract; which still continues to discharge a large Quantity of Water, of fuch a strange Nature as to tincture all the River Derwent quite down to the Sea; which 'must be near twenty Miles. The Damage done to the Hay, Corn, H4

11 / 10 - 15 3 - 2011

Completions.

(52) Tis here Fore

Corn, and the Proprietors of the neighbouring Fields andHouses, is computed

'at near 4000 l.'

(53.) 'Tis here foretold, that the People shall be troubled at such strange Appearances.

The state of

1, 113 10

(53.) This already begins to be fulfilled, and many are now fo affrighted at the London Earthquakes, as to be ready to leave the City; nay, not a few went beyond Sea very lately upon a frivolous Rumour of a Dæmoniacal Madman, that there would be a third Earthquake just four Weeks after the fecond; because the fecond had been just four Weeks after the first, a vast Multitude. supposed by some no fewer than 100,000 left their Houses the Evening before, and went into St. James's and Hyde-Park, &c: and many ftaid

(54.) 'Tis here foretold, that a Person, or People, shall rule whom the World looked not for; viz. as I suppose, the Messiah, and his formerly contemptible People the Jews.

(55.) 'Tis here foretold, that at this Time the Air shall be changed.

Completions:

staid there, or fat in their Coaches, for Fear of it.

(54.) This will foon be fulfilled, when in the Words of Ezekiel, The dry Bones, or whole House of Israel will live, and when God will make the two Bodies, of the Ten and of the Two Tribes one Nation, and one King shall be King to them all-when David, God's Servant, or the Messiah, shall be King over them, &c. Ezek.xxxvii. per tot.

(55.) This has already been fulfilled in Part, if not in Mr. Childrey's ftrange Atmosphere about the Sun; which is either a new Phænomenon, or one newly discovered: Yet certainly, by the numerous and surprising Meteors, or Northern Lights, Balls of Fire, Storms of Thunder, Lightening, and Wind, is shewn, that this Change

tidaitīta amats

The second of the second

a - a property of

by the state of LAD!

TIME CONT

Completions.

Change is begun already, and probably will be more and more remarkable hereafter. Nor indeed can we have any astronomical Notion, how the Light of the Moon can ever be as the Light of the Sun; or the Light of the Sun be sevenfold, as the Light of feven Days, as it is If.xxx. 26, already quoted, Pag. 6,7, prius, unless our Air, or Atmosphere, be so throughly altered, and its noxious Vapours fo throughly purged away, that the Light of the Sun, Moon, and Stars, may appear fevenfold as bright as they do now, which it is no unreasonable Thing to expect at this great Renovation of Things, of which we now treat; though I will not deny, but fomewhat more mysterious may not improbably be implied in that Prophecy, told, that the Fowls shall remove from their old Places, and take their Flight together to fome other Place.

Completions.

2 - Land 1 2 2 2 2

(56.) 'Tis here fore-

(57.) 'Tis here foretold, that the Sea of Sodom will, about this Time, produce living Fish in Abundance.

(58.) 'Tis here foretold, that Confusion and Afto-

Prophecy, of which we have at present no Apprehensions.

(56.) This Migration of Birds, or Fowls, the Inhabitants of the Air, which is fo known a Thing in feveral Sorts of them already, is no Way incredible. And perhaps many of them will remove into Judea, for the Conveniency of its new Inhabitants the Jews: The like to which, in the Case of the Inhabitants of the Waters, will be fet down under the next Prediction.

(57.) Whether these Multitudes of Fishes will be anew created, or only removed from other Seas to the Sea of Sodom, I shall not pretend to determine. (However, see Page 31, 32, prius.)

(58.) This is much the same with the 52d

Predic-

Completions.

Astonishment will be in many Places.

(59.) 'Tis here foretold, that frequent Fires, or what refembles them, shall be fent upon the Earth, and surround Men upon it.

(60.) 'Tis here foretold, that the wild Beafts of the Earth, or oppreffive and tyrannical Princes shall change their Places in these Times.

The second in the following

(61.) 'Tis here foretold, that there should be Signs in the Women, or more particularly, that Prediction, and needs no farther Enlargement here.

(59.) Whether these Fires refer to such eminent Northern Lights as resemble Fires, and have been already mentioned, or to real Fires, they have both been in Part remarkably fulfilled already, as has been before observed, No. 14, 15.

(60.) If we look abroad into the World, we shall find, that both before, and in the late terrible Wars, both in Asia and Europe, there have been many such Changes already. Nor is it at all unlikely there may be a great many more such Changes before the Jews are thoroughly settled in Judea.

(61.) This Prediction has already been fulfilled in the Willingham Boy, a particular Account of whom

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 109

Predictions.

Completions.

menstruous Women should bring forth Monsters.

whom is given in the Philosophical Transactions, No. 475. In Dr. Handyfide's, a Man-midwive's double monstrous Child; which the Law has lately allotted to the Parents. In the late Hermaphrodite at Paris, a Print of which has been lately published there, with the royal License, as the Gentleman's Magazine for January 1750 informs us; and which Hermaphrodite itself is now publickly advertised to be feen in London. And before all thefe, in the famous Rabbet Woman of Surrey, in the Days of King George I. As to the former three, the Facts are wholly undeniable; but as to the last, the poor Woman, who had feventeen or eighteen Portions of Rabbets taken out of her Body: The Story

Completions.

Story has been fo long laughed out of Countenance, that I must distinctly give my Reasons for believing it to be true, and alledging it here, as the fulfilling of this ancient Prophecy before us. e il and the second is Accordingly, besides the Testimony of the Woman herfelf, who moved 7 great Compassion at first, and was relieved by charitable Persons, because of her Poverty, the Manmidwife, Mr. Howard of Godalmin in Surrey, a Person of very great Honefty, Skill, and Reputation in his Profession, attested it. It was then believed by King George to be real; it was also believed by my old Friends the Speaker, and Mr. Samuel Collet, as they told me themselves, and was generally believed by fober Persons in the Neighbourhood,

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. III

Predictions.

Completions.

till it was unjustly laughed out of Countenance at London. Nay, Mr. Molyneux, the Prince's Secretary, a very inquisitive Perfon, and my very worthy Friend, affured me, he had at first so great a Diffidence in the Truth of the Fact, and was fo little biaffed by the other Believers, even by the King himfelf, that he would not be fatisfied till he was permitted both to fee and feel the Rabbet in that very Passage whence we all come into this World out of our Mother's Womb. Accordingly he told me, he had more Evidence for it, than he had that I had a Nose: whilst he had known that by one of of his Senses only, that of feeing, but knew this by two of his Senses, both seeing and feeling. Hear the following Extracts tracts out of Mr. St. Andre's Narrative, where Mr. Molyneux's Attestation printed is at the End. This Narrative was printed for John Clarke, at the Bible under the Royal-Exchange, 1727.

Completions.

Extracts out of that Narrative.

Page 3, 4. A S Mr. Howard himself intends shortly to publish the whole Account, and prove every Circumstance of it, by such Evidences as will put this Matter out of all Possibility of Doubt, I must refer to him for several Particulars here omitted.

And as it will be impossible to judge impartially of this Fact, till the Evidences above-mentioned are produced, it cannot be doubted but all such Persons as are not governed by Prejudice, or some worse Motive, will suspend their Judgment till these Facts come to their Knowledge, by a more certain Way, than by flying Reports and Conjectures.

Page 7. On Nov. 15, I attended the Honourable Mr. Molyneux, Secretary to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, who was inclined to enquire into the Truth of this extraordinary Case; and desired me to go with him to Guilford. — We heard the Woman was actually in Labour of the 15th Rabbet.

Page 13. I delivered her of the Skin of the abovesaid Rab-

bet, [very like the Skin of an Hog's Bladder.]

Page 15. Between the Times of visiting the Woman, we examined the feveral Rabbets, which were all kept separate in distinct Pots, with Spirits of Wine, in the Order they were brought away. The first Animal did not appear to be a perfect Rabbet in all its Parts; three of the Feet being like the Paws of a Cat. The Stomach and Intestines like those Parts in the same Animal, &c.

Page

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 113

Page 19. From all these Considerations, I was fully convinced, that at the same Time that the external Appearance of these Animals was exactly like such Creatures, as must inevitably undergo the Changes that happen to adult Animals by Food and Air, they carried with them the strongest Marks of Fœtus's, even by such Parts as cannot exist in an Adult, and without which a Fœtus cannot possibly be supposed to live. This I think proves, in the strongest Terms possible, that these Animals were of a particular Kind, and not bred in a natural Way. Nor will there be any Doubt remaining, (even with the least knowing in these Matters) when those Parts which are subservient to the Circulation of the Blood and Nourishment, between an adult Creature, and its Fœtus, are brought away; which I am fully satisfied must shortly happen, or if retained, be the Cause of this Woman's Death.

Page 21. All these Facts were verified before his Majesty, on Saturday, Nov. 26, by the anatomical Demonstration of the first, the third, fifth, and ninth of these Animals; which were compared with the Parts of two natural Rabbets, the one of the Age of four Months, and the other of five Days. Dr.

Steigerthal and Dr. Teffier being present.

I shall with all convenient Speed publish the Anatomy of these præternatural Rabbets, with their Figures, taken from the Life, and compared with the Parts of Rabbets of the same Growth, that the Differences there mentioned may be fully understood.

In the mean while, I shall relate what appeared in the Dissection of two Rabbets, which I performed in the Presence of Mr. Molyneux, the very Day that we returned from Guilford. The one was of four Months Growth, and much of the Size of that which had been taken from the Woman; the other was 15 Days old. Page 22. The Lungs of the larger were, as nearly as I can judge, 20 Times bigger in Capacity than those of the præternatural ones; and the Lungs of the smaller were at least eight Times the Bigness of the before-mentioned; both these were exceedingly different in Colour and Consistence from those of the præternatural Rabbet.

The Foramen Owale of the smaller Rabbet was more than two Thirds open, and that in the larger was so far closed as but just to admit a very small Probe.

As to the Stomach and Intestines, the Difference was so notoriously great from those we had examined, that even in the Sucking Rabbet the Stomach and Cacum were at least three Times larger than those Parts in the præternatural oncs.

Page 23. The Account she gave of herself was, That on the Twenty-third of April last, as she was weeding in a Field, she saw a Rabbet spring up near her; after which she ran, with another Woman that was at Work just by her. This set her a longing for Rabbets, being then, as she thought five Weeks gone with Child. Page 24. The other Woman perceiving she was uneasy, charged her with longing for the Rabbet they could not catch; but she denied it. Soon after another Rabbet sprung up near the same Place, which she endeavoured likewise to catch. The same Night she dreamed that she was in a Field with those two Rabbets in her Lap, and awaked with a Sick Fit; which lasted till Morning. From that Time, for above three Months, she had a constant and strong Desire to eat Rabbets; but being very poor and indigent could not procure any.

with

Page 26. The Account Mr. Howard gave, was in every material Circumstance, the same with the Woman's Relation.

Page 27. Mr. Howard further related, that when she was delivered of one Rabbet, another was immediately felt in her Belly, struggling with such Violence, that the motion thereof could be sensibly felt, and seen; that this Motion had sometimes been so strong, as to move the Bed Cloaths, that it has lasted for 20 and above 30 Hours together. This particular Fact was unanimously agreed, and attested by most of the People ar Guilford, who have had the Curiosity to go to see her; and was confirmed to Mr. Molyneux and myself, by above to different Persons, who all seemed to be indifferent in this Matter.

Page 31. Mr. Ablers (the King's Surgeon, for his German Houshold) having been at Guilford, by his Majesty's Order, (as Mr. Howard told us) to inquire into the Truth of this Fact, was fully convinced of it, as he himself declared.

Page 33. John Howard of Guilford, in the County of Surry, maketh Oath, That on Sunday, the 20th Day of this Instant, Month of November, — Mr. Ablers (Surgeon to his Majesty's German Household) brought away the Loin's and inferior Parts of a Rabbet, of about three Months Growth.

Page 34. That after this Mr. Ablers told this Deponent, and all the Perfons present, that he was fully satisfied and convinced of the Truth, and that he could have no Doubts after such Proof That at the same Time he gave the Woman a Guinea; expressing great Satisfaction, and promising that he would procure her a Pension from his Majesty—Nov. 25, 1726.

Page 36. Mary Toft and her Nurse make Oath, that Mr. Ablir declared, it was wonderful People would not believe a Fact so true, as this appeared to him; and Mary Tost saith, that Mr. Ablers examined her Breasts, and sound Milk in one of them the same Day.

Page

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 115

Page 37. Elizabeth Helmes of Guilford, in the County of Surry, Widow, maketh Oath, that she asked Mr. Ablers whether he believed this Account, and that his Answer was, that he fully did believe it. To which she replied, then I hope Sir you will convince a great many Unbelievers when you return to London, as some Gentlemen have already done, to which he said he should; as she apprehended.

Page 38. The like was fworn by Olive Sands, the fame

Day.

Page 39. Thomas Howard, of Guilford, in the County of Surry, Surgeon, maketh Oath.—Mr. Ahlers shewed him the Loins and inferior Parts of a Rabbet; which he told him HE EXTRACTED HIMSELF OUT OF THE UTERUS.

Page 40. That he told him, HE WAS FULLY CONVINCED AND SATISFIED, THAT IT CAME OUT OF THE UTERUS. That he asked him, if it was possible it could be forced or thrust into the Uterus, he said No, Nov. 27.

Mr. Ablers Preface to his Observations— I do not deny but that at Guilford I behaved myself all along like one who was perfectly satisfied in that Matter.

Mr. MOLYNEUX's Attestation.

HAVE carefully [fays he] read the above Narrative; whether the Animals mentioned therein were præternaturally produced in this Woman [Mary Toft] or that a Fraud is practicable in this Case, I do not take upon me to say; Gentlemen who are sufficient Judges will determine that Matter upon proper Evidence. I can only certify that I did draw up a Relation as is above-mentioned, which, in the most material Circumstances of the Fact, agrees with the Narrative; and I can surther affirm, that I did not perceive the least Circumstance of Fraud in the Conduct of this Affair, while I was at Guilford, Nov. 29. 1726.

Predictions.

Completions.

N. B. Neither did Mr.
Ablers, the King's Surgeon, nor Sir Richard Manningham, oppose
Mr. Howard's, and Mr.
St. Andre's Evidence,
I 2 till

Completions.

till the Thing was impudently laughed out Countenance, not Surry where the Scene lay, but at London, 30 Miles off, and those that acted in this Matter, or believed their Accounts, were unjustly made Sport of by the Scepticks of the Town. Nor did the Woman ever confess a Fraud. till she was herself threatened with a painful Operation, and with Imprisonment; which Fraud was impossible, because, upon Dissection, it was most evident, that many, at least, of those creatures that were taken from her, were not true or natural Rabbets, but of præturnatural Production; which it was impossible for her to procure, had she been never so much disposed for it. Nor did the Sur-

4 10 1 10 11

Completions . -

Surgeons or Man-midwives pretend to any Grounds of Suspicion till they found they were like to fuffer greatly in their own Reputation and Practice, if they had supported that Story any longer; which they were not willing to do, as any one may fee in all their Retractations; of which fort of Confessions, like those made upon Torture, I have no Opinion at all. Nor does the ridiculous and abusive Pictures set before Sir Richard Manningham's Diary, in the Copy that I use: Nor a distinct Pamphlet called The Anatomist Dissetted, being, as is faid, written by Lemuel Gulliver, a pretended Surgeon and Anatomist to the King of Lilliput and Blefuscu, and Fellow of the Academy of Sciences in Balnibarbi,

Completions.

[otherwise Dean Swift,] nor the other Pamphlet called Sooterkin Dissetted. both written in the Way of the groffest Banter and Ridicule, which are contained in my Copy also, move me to alter Opinion at all as to the Truth of those monstrous Productions. which I fear not to affirm, furely believe to have been undeniably and no other indeed than one direct Completion of the eminent Signal before us, that towards the End of the World Menstruous Women should bring forth And I well Monsters. remember, that I then shewed Mr. Molyneux this Prophecy of E/dras, which foretold fuch Events about thefe Nay upon his Times. farther Inquiry and Conthe about tercern rible

Completions.

rible Judgments that the fame Esdras denounced in the same Prophecy, I comforted him with the joyful Prediction, in the fame Author, that good Men would be providentially preserved from them. $4 E \int d$. ix. 7, 8. The Way of bantering Matters of Fact, that are difagreeable to Scepticks and Unbelievers, as whatfoever looks Supernatural or Miraculous always are, feem, after the Lord Shaftsbury and Mr. Collins, to have almost begun here amongst us with the Banter of this wonderful and fupernatural Production in Mary Toft; though it be now become a standing Argument, fince the Writings of Dr. Middleton, against all fuch Facts as imply a Providence, and the Interpolition of good Angels, or wicked De-I 4 mons

W- 1

Completions.

mons in the Affairs of this World; which yet has been the constant Opinion, or rather Experience and Attestation of all Mankind, excepting the Sadducees, and Epicureans, in all the past Ages of the World, till the present Age. And truly if these merry Infidels could as well banter off Eclipses, and Comets, and Northern Lights, and Balls of Fire, and Earthquakes, and their Effects, with the like Facility as they now pretend to do ancient Histories, both Sacred and Profane, they would foon get clear of all Arguments for Divine Providence, and Divine Revelation, and would openly and univerfally throw off all the Obli-. gations of Religion. As for myself, I have very long

No more a un

Completions.

long and very faccessfully accustomed myself to be guided wholly by another Rule; by the real Evidence of Facts and Testimonies belonging to the feveral Ages, whereto fuch Facts do belong, and not otherwife, as do all wife and upright Judges in their Courts of Justice, without any Regard to the vain Amusement of our present merry or profane Scribblers. See Suppl. to the Literal Accomplishment of Prophecies, P. 5, 6. Accordingly. when I heard this Rabbet Woman, and her supposed Accomplices, were to be indicted of a Cheat, and were to be openly tried for the same, I waited for the Issue of such 2 Trial, in order to my more compleat Satisfaction. But finding no fuch Thing, was done, I eafily concluded no fuch Thing could be done. So I have all along gone by my original Evidence, and have ever fince believed the Fact to have been true, and an eminent Completion of the Prophecy before us.

Completions.

(62.) This Prediction, in this Sense, has not been fulfilled hitherto; nor is the Time for its fulfilling quite come.

(62.) 'Tis here foretold, that Salt Waters shall be found in the Sweet; or that Sweet Waters shall be changed into Salt. Ezek. xlvii. 9, 10, 11. Perhaps this refers to the Salt or dead Sea, and to the Introduction of the fresh or Sweet Waters of the River of Life, after the Jews Temple is rebuilt. to render it not too Salt for the Fish which are to live therein; excepting those miry Places, and Marsbes thereof which which are to be given to Salt, as Memorials, perhaps, of the like Saltness in old Time of the whole Sea, as it is at this Day.

Completions.

(63.) 'Tis here foretold, that all Friends shall fight against and destroy one another like Enemies.

(64.) 'Tis here foretold, that Wisdom and the Way of Truth shall be bidden, and withdraw itself

(63.) This may well refer to our late bloody Wars, where Papists fought against Papists, and Protestants against Protestants, and where Persian Mahometans fought against Turkish Mahometans, fo that this Prediction has been already too fadly fulfilled; but may perhaps be more remarkable fulfilled hereafter, which may be also true of many other of these Predictions, whose Completions I now Note.

(64.) This is much the fame with the Prediction v. 1. No. 44. prius, and has been too

no-

- Completions.

itself into its Secret Chambers.

(65) 'Tis here foretold, that Vileness or Incontinency shall be increased upon the Earth.

(66.) 'Tis here foretold, that at this Time Men shall Labour and Hope, but obtain nothing. notoriously fulfilled for many Years already.

(65.) This is much the fame with that v. 2. No 46. and has been too notoriously fulfilled for many Years already; and is not yet, in any considerable Degree, amended amongst us.

(66.) Besides other Instances of this, which I do not now reckon up, this Prediction has been eminently fulfill'd in these last Wars; where after all the immense Blood and Treasure. which we with our Allies and the French had caused to be shed and expended for many Years on both Sides, we both gave up our Conquests, and all was restored as before the War; to the great furprize of all the World.

It has also been remarkably fulfilled in the Affairs

Completions.

(67.) 'Tis here foretold, that the Books shall be opened before the Firmament, particularly the Book of Life.

(68.) 'Tis here foretold, That little Infants, or Children of a Year old should speak; that Women should conceive and bring forth in haste; and that such Children of three or four Months shall be raised up, and shall live, and run about. Affairs of Corfica; in the many Acts of Parliament, Meetings of Commissioners, and very great and troublesome Management about the horned Cattle for several Years, and all this without any Success in preventing or curing that Murrain.

(67.) The Time for the fulfilling this Prophecy is not yet fully come.

(68.) If the Reader peruse the Philosophical Transactions, No. 475, already cited, where a particular Account is given of the strange or hasty Ripeness of the Boy of Willingham, and by Consequence, probably of the same strange Haste in his Mother's Conception, and Labour of him; and he will find this Prediction not wholly unfulfilled at present: I have

Completions.

(69.) 'Tis here foretold, that the great Trumpet is to be founded, and every where heard, before the Jews are actually restored.

have also been informed of one or two Children that have lately been nearly in the same Circumstances here foretold; but have not preserved the distinct Accounts of them.

(70.) 'Tis here foretold, that Friends shall fight one against another like Enemies. (69.) The Time for this most solemn of all the Signals, is not yet fully come; but when it is come, there will not, I suppose, be any Doubt, but it is immediately to precede, or accompany this second Coming of Christ, for the Restoration of the Jews, and the first Resurrection.

(71.) It is here foretold, that fuch uncommon Things

(70.) This is much the fame with the former Prediction of the fame, Esdras v. 5. No. 63. prius, and needs not to have its Accomplishment repeated here.

(71.) This has been already confidered fully

at

Completions

Things as our late Earthquakes shall astonish the Inhabitants of the Earth.

(72.) It is here foretold, that the Springs of the Fountains shall stand still, and not run for three Hours; and this in both our Books of Esdras. at No. 6: and needs not to be here repeated.

(72.) The Accounts of three fuch Rivers in the South of Scotland, having their Streams lately stopped, and not running, the first for nine, the fecond for fix, and the third for fix Hours, has been formerly fet down at large, Pag. 454, 455, priùs. - But whether the Fountains themselves had not this Interruption for three Hours only, as in this Prediction, I do not know. But that Circumstance certainly is highly worth the Enquiry of the Curious in that Country, while the Stoppage itself is fresh in every-body's Memory.

(73.) It is here foretold, that there should be Uproars of People, with Changes, and Tumults, and Seditions of the Nations.

(73.) None of those who carefully attend to the State of the World for these twenty or thirty Years past, and even to

Completions.

(74.) 'Tis here foretold, that the Heads and Governors of the People should about this time tyrannize over them. to its present State, can doubt but this Prediction has been already abundantly fulfilled.

(74.) Nor can any fuch intelligent Persons doubt, but this Prediction has been long, and still is abundantly fulfilled; which Tyranny we have feen already, this Coming of the Messiah to restore the Jews, and fet up his Kingdom of Righteousness is intended to remedy, for the great Comfort and Ease of the Afflicted and Perfecuted, who have long groaned for Deliverance. Apoc. vi. 10. How long, O Lord, boly and true, dost thou not judge and revenge our Blood on them that dwell on the Earth? fay the Souls under the Altar, after the fifth Seal; which Lamentation, in a lesser Degree, may well fill the Mouths

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 129

Predictions.

(75.) 'Tis here foretold, that the Princes should want wife Directors.

(76.) 'Tis here foretold, that Providence will preferve the truly good Men from many of those Calamities, which are now approaching, or at least from Destruction by them; and that they shall live to see and rejoice with the good Tews upon their Restoration to their own Land.

Completions.

Mouths of the Oppressed in these Times also.

(75.) Nor will those that confider the Folly, as well as Wickedness in the late Administrations of Princes, which is generally owing to their principal Minister or Ministers, doubt, but this Prediction has been abundantly fulfilled already also.

(76.) This is still future; though I must confess, I have myself often put up that Petition, which relates to God's People, Psal.cvi. 4, 5, in the Course of the publick reading of that Pfalm: Remember me, O Lord, with the Favour that thou bearest unto thy People', O visit me with thy Salvation, that I may see the Felicity of thy Chosen; that I may rejoice in the Gladness of thy Nation, and may give Thanks with K thine

Mond Property

S OF THE TOPPED TO

المالة الناليجية ال

D. . 1 2 1/1 0 1 1. 3 1. 3

(77.) 'Tis foretold, that the Prophet Elijah, the Tilbbite, shall return, for the Restoration of the Tribes of Israel.

(78.) It was foretold, that the Jews were to fall by the Edge of the Sword.

CONTRACTOR SELECTION

(79.) It was foretold, that the Jews were to be led away Captives into all Nations.

(80.) It was foretold, that Jerusalem should be trodden down of the Gentiles.

(81.) It was foretold, that this Conculcation fhould thine Inheritance. And may God Almighty, if it be his gracious Will, grant that my Petition. Amen.

Completions.

(77.) This is not yet fulfilled; but is one of the next Things, after the Destruction of the Turks in Judea, which I think is foon to be expected.

(78.) This has been notoriously, fulfilled in the Days of Titus Vespasian and Adrian: Where, in the former Case, the Slain were 1100,000, and in the latter, at least 580,000.

(79.) The Captives in the former Case were 97,000, and in the latter plainly innumerable.

(80.) All know, that both Jerusalem and Judea have, fince the Days of Adrian, been in the Hands of the Gentiles.

(81.) These Times of the Gentiles, as parallel should last till the Times of the Gentiles were fulfilled: Immediately after which, in the Words of St. Matthew, the long Tribulation of those Days being fulfilled, the following Signs were to be expected :

(82.) It is foretold, that there shall be Signs in the Sun; which is to

An to Passage of the therefore and be darkened.

(83.) It is foretold, that there shall be Signs in the Moon; which is not to give her Light.

(84.) It is foretold, that there shall be Signs in the Stars, which are to fall from Heaven. Thefe naturally denote Comets, which are now known to be proper Stars that fall from immense Distances in the Heavens, as did that in 1680-1, in a very parCompletions.

to those, Apoc. xi. 2. were fulfilled at 1715 and 1736. [See Estay on the Revelation, Sec. Edit. Pag. 232, 233.]So the following Signs were then to begin.

- (82.) Of these extraordinary Eclipses of the Sun. See my Accounts of those total ones 1715 and 1724, and of those drawn upon a Map of Europe, 1733, and my Astronomical Year, per tot.
- (83.) Of these extraordinary Eclipses of the Moon, see my Astronomical Year also.
- (44.) Six Comets appeared in four Years at the Reformation by Luther, 1530, 1531, 1532, and 1533, as in my Astronomical Year, Page 25. And in the last eleven Years seven Comets have appeared, viz. 1737, 1739, 1743, 1744, particular Manner, which the Astronomers do very well know.

K 2 1746, .

(85.) It is foretold, that the Powers of Heaven shall be shaken.

Completions:

1746, 1747, 1748; befides that foretold by Dr. Halley, to return either at the End of 1757, or the Beginning of 1758. (See No. 7. priùs.) To fay nothing of any others, that may, not improbably, return by 1766.

(85.) The late Northern Lights, from March 1715-16, have been evidently remarkableConcussions in the Air. And the Passage of the wonderful Ball of Fire, which threw itself two hundred and fifty Miles in an half Quarter of a Minute, 1718-19, was one of the greatest Concussions of the visible Powers, and perhaps of the invisible Powers of Heaven also, that was ever heard of fince the Creation. (See my two small Tracts on those Meteors and Balls of Fire throughout.)

(86.)

(86.) It is foretold, that upon the Earth shall be Distress of Nations with Perplexity; Men's Hearts failing them for Fear, of what is coming upon the World.

(87.) It is foretold, that in these last Days, many shall run to and fro, and Knowledge or Learning shall be increased.

Completions.

(86.) This Fear is now coming upon the World, and begun upon Occasion of the late Meteors, and Storms, and especially the Earthquakes, and will naturally increase upon the Progress of those, and other the Signs of impending Judgments, many of those Signs being themselves Judgments also.

(87.) This has long been fulfilled, and is still evidently fulfilling, as to Improvementof Learning. in general, ever fince the Greeks retired from Constantinople, when it was taken by the Turks, A.D. 1453, and ever fince Printing was invented, which was about the fame Time, especially within this last Century: Nay indeed, fince the Lord Verulam put Men into the right Way of Enquiry, and fince the Institution of such Socie-

red data rear is the string upon the

ron, in the un-

on Oc ' in critic las

The contract of the contract of the ांक्टर हो। निवास

querker. The will stand of ומרדבב ל עון קורד וחלי ובין בי

the man len electric

ាយ ្នុស .វ = ការ៉េក ទៀបក្នេ

7 0 Eilis (5 1)

The same

Completions.

ties, and Courses of Experiments, as directly promote true and real Knowledge or Learning. And if, from the Coherence, we restrain this Increase of Learning, to that concerned with fuch mystical Prophecies, as Daniel and the Revela. tion, it has been evidently fulfilled ever fince the Days of Mr. Joseph Mede, the first truly great and judicious Expositor of Prophecies among us.

(88.) These terrible Storms and Tempests may be dated from that prodigious one in the South of England, and the adjoining Seas, Nov. 27, 1703, which I well remember, and may be carried on by that of Admiral Balchen, 1748; by that of the East-Indies, April 13 and 14, 1749; by that in North Carolina in the West-Indies, October 7 and 8, 1749; by those near Cape-Bre-ton,

(88.) It is foretold, that the Sea and the Waves will roar with terrible Storms and Tempests. Time I are the ທີ່ ທີ່ ຍແລະ

The state of the state of

1 1 1 1 1

10- - 21-6-6-

1 14

· JII TW

The state of the s

all or so other fibration

City is a larger to

Elmer & Johnson Land

al one roit sanda we

Completions.

(89.) It is foretold that, in consequence of so many terrible Judgments already begun, or soon approaching, Men's Hearts should fail them for Fear, and for looking after those Things that are coming on the Earth.

(90.) It is foretold, that there shall appear the Sign of the Son of Man, like that to Confrantine the Great.

(91.) It is foretold, that the Son of Man shall himself, at last, come in the Clouds of Heaven with great Power and Glory.

(92.) It is foretold, that there shall be a very terrible, but to good Men ton, and near Annapolis in the same Year; and several others at Bristol, and elsewhere; of which our News Papers still frequently make mention.

(89.) This is much the same with No. 53, to which I refer the Reader.

(90.) The Time for this eminent Signal is not yet fully come.

(91.) This grand Signal, or Upshot of all the rest, is not yet come: But it is not, I believe, very many Years suture.

(92.) This great Earthquake, on Account of London's enormous K 4 Wick-

Completions.

Men a very joyful great Earthquake, when a tenth Part of an eminent City will be destroyed.

والردود راء وال

Wickedness; and the two divine Warnings by these lesser Earthquakes, almost confined to that City (for I always take London, Westminster, and Southwark for one large City) I take to belong to no other City than London: Nor have I had the least Notion of any other City here meant, unless it were Rome, or Constantinople, or Paris, or Turin: But fince the two, of those other three, which have by far the greatest Probability, are Rome and Constantinople; and the Time of Rome's Downfall, is by other Prophecies not before 1866 (fee Pag. 607, 608, before, and Essay on the Revelation, Pag. 321. 322.) Since this City has not here that distinguishing Character of Great added to it, as elsewhere; and this no. less

A TOTAL CO

1355 60 80

(a)

with the former of 12 1 1 701 to no 2

ा १९९५ मिनिसी १९९५

, 1 = 10 15 + 5=5 1 1 (e.

with the same and

- Carrier Dispersed

on dia . O

1 1 1 1 1

Completions.

less than fifteen several Times in this Book. Apoc. xi. 8. xiv. 8. xvi. 19. bis, xvii. 1. 5. 18, 19, 21. xix. 2. I fay, xviii. 2. 13. bis, 16. 18. fince these Things are so, and fince the Turks are not to perish at Constantinople, but in Judea, as we have seen, No. 31. prius. The two foregoing Characters of enormous Wickedness, and of the two Earthquakes peculiar to London and its Neighbourhood, fully fatisfy me, that no other City is here meant than. London; and that accordingly there will foon be there a great Earthquake, and a tenth Part of London will fall; and that in this Earthquake shall. be flain seven thousand Names of Men, or Men of Name and Note, and that the rest of its Inhabitants, or that nine Parts which

Completions.

Large of the state Lines L. L. Pock, - we si. o 8. xvi. . 1 11. 2. 12. 12. 10. 10. ance thefollowing at the L'U FIRCE T SI'NS ... - The state of the state of the rehove tern, True tie in the month of the

(93.) It is foretold in the Sibylline Oracles, that the Beams of the Moon shall shine with bloody Drops. Whether there be any Allusion here to that Blood which is mentioned in Barnabas, as fet down, No. 51. prius, or to the Moon's being turned into Blood, in already mentioned also, No. 14. does not appear. It feems most likely to me to be a new Signal, or one not yet mentioned; and perhaps is not to be under-which are spared, will be fo happily affrighted at fo terrible a Judgment, as to give Glory to the God of Heaven. But of this Matter fee the important Addenda to the last Sheet of the second Edition of my Essay on the Revelation more largely, Page 330, 331, 332.

(93.) This Signal feems not hitherto to have been fulfilled, but cannot, I think, be long future.

Predictions.

Completions.

or - Thous I (a la) - (94.) It is foretold there, that Representations of Swords Thoud be feen in the Night towards Sun-setting, or Sun-rifing, in the flarry Heavens. ... on ei nois fel

(95, 96.) It is foretold there, that the Sight of the Sun, and perhaps of the Moon, shall fail in the Midst of their Course in the Heavens

(97.) It is there foretold, that the Rocks shall give a Sign.

Date asili de

The Mill are the stood till its Completion.

(94.) This Signal feems not hitherto to have been fulfilled to but cannot be long future.

(95, 96.) If these Signals belong only to great and total Eclipses of the Sun and Moon, they may have been already fulfilled, as we have noted feveral fuch Eclipses: [] [] []

(97.) We have had one remarkable Sign, or Voice of a Rock taken notice of already, No. 52. Whether this Sign be different from that, or whether the Plural Number Rocks do not imply other, or more Rocks than one, may well be questioned: So I can determine nothing farther about its Completion.

(98.)

Predictions.

Completions.

(98.) It is there foretold, that the End of Wars should be signified by eminent Northern Lights before-hand.

1 () ()

Total Comment

100.1

(98.) I incline to think, that the late providential End put to our late fatal Wars here, were partial Completions of this Prediction; and that the more compleat Completion is not far off. Several of such eminent Northern Lights we have had for these thirty-five Years, very well agreeing to the Prediction before us.

(99.) 'Tis there foretold, that Navigation, with the Direction by the Mariner's Compass, &c. should be greatly improved, and Men enabled much better thanbefore to guide themfelves in their Voyages and Journies by Sea and Land.

(99.) This Prediction has been, in Part, already fulfilled, and is now fulfilling among us, by the Discovery of the Mariner's Compass; of its Variation; of the Variation of that Variation; of the Inclinatory. or Dipping-Needle, and its Variation, according to its Distance from the Magnetick Poles and Equator, by the uncommon Attempts lately made, and still continued

Predictions.

Completions.

nued for the Discovery of the geographick Longitude of Places at Land, and of the Longitude and Latitude both at Land and Sea. Particularly by my own prefent Attempt for the Discovery of the Longitude at Sea, from the Eclipses of Jupiter's Planets, both by my Refracting and Reflecting Telescopes; and by Mr. Harrison's Attempt for discovering the same by his curious Clock: all which will, I hope, foon fucceed, for the common Benefit of Mankind.

LECTURE III. March 10.

Of the borrid Wickedness of the present Age, bighly deserving such terrible Judgments.

I. A S to the Jews, they generally follow all along their Talmud, full of absurd and groundless Traditions, and injudicious Notions; and this when they evidently contradict the Laws of God by Moses, which yet they all own to be divine. This our Saviour feverely condemn'd them for in his Days, and they are equally guilty of the same Crime in these latter Centuries. I say the Jews generally follow their Talmud, not univerfally, the remaining Samaritans and Carraites keeping close to the Law, without such a vast Regard to the Talmudical Doctors; but whose Numbers are inconsiderable in Comparison of the others. Hear our Saviour's Words to the Scribes and Pharifees, out of St. Matthew's Gospel. [See Sacred Hift. of the Old Test. Pag. 107, 108, 109.]

Matt. xv. 1. There came to Jesus Scribes and Pharifees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2. Why do thy Disciples transgress the Tradition of the Elders? For they wash not their Hands when they eat Bread.

3. But

3. But he answered and said unto them, Why do you also transgress the Commandments of God by your Tradition?

4. For God commanded, faying, Honour thy Father and Mother; and he that curfeth Father or Mother let him die the Death.

5. But ye fay, Whosoever shall say to his Father or Mother, It is Corban, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me,

6. And honour not his Father or his Mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the Commandments of God of none Effect by your Tradition.

7. Ye Hypocrites, well did Esaias prophely of you, faying,

- 8. This People draweth nigh unto me with their Mouth, and honoureth me by their Lips, but their Heart is far from me.
- 9. But in vain do they worship me, teaching the Commandments of Men.
- N. B. This is a terrible Denunciation to us also; while not the Jews only, but those that call themselves Christians, but in Reality are Papists or Protestants, Lutherans or Calvinists, Members of the Church of England, or of the Church of Scotland, &c. who generally agree in following human Traditions, or human Laws, instead of the Laws of God, and the Christian Constitutions and Canons. Even our best Judges, both in Law and Equity, Ecclesiastical and Temporal, having long laid aside the Laws of God by Moses; which, in my Horeb's Covenant Revived, I have fully proved oblige Christians

Christians, as well as Jews, excepting the Ceremonial; and that all, both Christ himself, his Apoftles, and old Christians, till Anti-Christianism and Popery came in, acknowledged the Obligation of those Laws. Nor could I ever find that God Almighty, or our Bleffed Saviour, gave any Power to Christians to make such Laws for themselves; but absolutely required of all that owned the one to be their Creator, and the other their Redeemer, to fubmit themselves to those divine Laws, even tho' it were in the directed Opposition to all the Contradictions of Civil or Canon Laws, or Acts of Parliament. So that they are not the Jews only, but those called Christians also have incurred the just Anger of God on this Account. I hinted at this fundamental Error in the former Part of this Work, Pag. 625, 626, when I faid, 'I had no Bufiness in the Lord Chancellor's Court; but added withall, That if the Lord Chancellor would determine Causes by the Laws of God, and not by the Laws of Men, I would come and hear him. Whether God Almighty will any longer bear this publick Rejection of his divine Authority, which is the very Essence of Anti-Christianism, and Foundation of the highest Impiety both in Jews and Christians, the Rabbins of the one, and the Kings and Judges of the other, ought well to confider; lest the Judgments of God, the avenging Judgments of God, foon overtake them; at whose Tribunal the Offenders must needs appear to be utterly inexcusable. He that hath Ears to bear let bim bear.

II. As to the Roman Catholicks, their greatest Crimes (besides the last, common to Jews, Papists, and Protestants, in general) seem to be.

Gross Infidelity; Gross Idolatry; Cruel Persecution.

As to the gross Infidelity in Italy, it has been long taken Notice of, that the weak Part of the People there are guided by the Pope and his Cardinals, and are in a deplorable Slavery to the groffest Superstition; but that the more fagacious and intelligent, comply indeed with the Superstition of their Country, but are in reality the groffest Infidels. Nay, it has been observed, that in Order to bring Protestants over to their Religion, they have aimed first to make them Scepticks or Infidels: A very melancholy Instance of which I remember many Years ago. As to the French Papists, who have much more Learning than the Italians, yet was I informed by a very intelligent Friend of mine, who was there many Years ago, that he was affured, the Belief of Christianity could not then hold out at Paris ten Years longer. As to the present Belief of Religion among the Virtuosi there, if we take it from that which the celebrated Monsieur De Fontenelle, and the Author of Considerations on History seem to have, we shall find Scepticism or Infidelity are come near to Perfection in that Kingdom also; as the Reader may find in their own Words, quoted before in my Observation on Dr. Middleton, Page 39, 40. L

As

As to the gross Idolatry, and some other Crimes of the Church of Rome, I shall give it in the Words of the Prophecy of St. John, at the End of the first fix Trumpets, or Judgments sent to awaken, and convert the Popish World; which affures us, Apoc. ix. 20, 21. that The rest of Men who were not killed by these Plagues, yet repented not of the Works of their Hands, that they should not worship Demons, and Idols of Gold, and Silver, and Brass, and Stone, and Wood; which neither can fee, nor hear, nor walk. Neither resented they of their Murders, nor of their Sorceries, nor of their Fornication, nor of their Thefts. See Essay on the Revelation, 2d Edition, Page 219.

As to the cruel Persecutions which the Papists have brought on good Men, they have been so many, and fo barbarous, as is almost incredible: The Parissan Massacre; the Irish Massacre; the Cruelties exercised on the poor Waldenses, and Albigenses, with those in our Queen Mary's Reign; and those the Inquisition has all along exercised, and still exercises upon both Jews and Protestants, whenever they have them in their Power, are Evidences of this barbarous Cruelty, truly undeniable. So that after this most inhuman of Crimes, it is hardly necessary to enumerate any other upon this Occasion.

III. As to the Protestants, especially in England, their greatest Crimes seem to be these following:

Following Human instead of Divine Laws. Refusal of Examination and Amendment these last 40 Years.

Refusal to tolerate Primitive Christianity, the same 40 Years.

Cursing the Eusebians, or Primitive Christians, 13 Times a Year, by publick Authority, in the Athanasian Creed.

Tolerating and Encouraging Masquerades, Ridotto's, Balls, and Plays; with Mr. Henley's vile abusing of the Primitive Liturgy, and all that is sacred, every Lord's-Day Evening, for 23, or 24 Years together.

Encouraging, by Act of Parliament, the Poor to Drunkenness and murdering themselves, in the Use of Gin, and other Spirituous Liquors.

Gross Infidelity:

The open Breach of God's Everlasting Cove-

Of all which in their Orders:

(1.) Protestants, as well as Papists, follow Human instead of Divine Laws. This has appeared already under the former Article, but deserves to be here particularly remembred, because the very Nature of the Protestant Religion supposes its Professors sensible of such gross Errors in Popery, as required an intire Resormation from them; which ought to have obliged them to leave not only those Laws made by Popes, or Popish Councils, but to change them for Divine Laws. Otherwise we only change one Scheme of evil Rules of Government for another; without returning, as we ought to do, to our Primitive Christianity; which owned no Laws, but the Laws of God, by his Messiah. And I greatly fear that God Almighty, our Great Creator and Legislator, will never be at Peace with those that own him in those Capacities by Words, till they own him by Facts and Actions also, and in earnest fubmit to his Authority, by governing themselves according to the Divine Laws in the Old Testament, excepting the Ceremonial; and according to the Laws of Jesus Christ in the Apostolical Constitutions and Canons, and the other Books of the New Testament; none of which any of our present Courts of Justice seem to have any Regard to. For Example, the Laws of God do not allow us to put any one to Death for Stealing: [See Mr. Overal, Page 415-420 priùs. Yet do we venture upon it by the Laws of the Land.] The Laws of God make Death the certain Punishment of Adultery: [Levit. xxi. 9. Deut. xxii. 21, 22.] But we excuse it, and only lay a Fine upon the Offender. How such great and good Men as the Lord Chief Justice Hale could go on all their Lives in fuch a Contradiction to Divine Laws, 'tis hard to imagine.

L 2 change

(2.) Protestants have refused to examine the Apostolical Constitutions, with the other most Primitive Books of Christianity, in order to the Amendment of their present Errors and Enormities, and this for the last 40 Years together. This I can myfelf fully testify, from the Refusal of the Church of England to examine all those Original Records which I have fo long laid before them. Nay fo resolute were the Heads of the University of Cambridge, and the Convocation against such Examination and Amendment, that my bare Proposals for fuch Examination and Amendment were deemed criminal, and were charged upon me as Instances of Heretical Pravity by both those Bodies; and made use of in order to my Expulsion and Excommunication. Yet hear the inoffensive and serious Manner in which I all along address'd myself to this Church, no fewer indeed than fix feveral Times before this; though all to no Manner of Purpose.

which

O that I might live to fee, (they are my very ' Words) that happy Day here in Great Britain, when publick Authority, Ecclefiastical and Secular, should depute a Committe of learned, impartial, and pious Men, with this Commission,

That they diligently, freely, and honestly examine her present Constitution in all its Parts, and bring in an unbiass'd and unprejudic'd Account of her Defects and Aberrations, whether in Doctrine, Worship, or Discipline, of all Sorts, from the Primitive Standard, in order to their effectual Correction and Reformation.

would our Sion be indeed a Praise in the Earth;

the Darling and Pattern of all the other Protestant Churches in the World; and by such an illustrious Precedent, would effectually recommend the like Reformation to all the other Churches, and 6 fo become the Foundation and Centre of their Unity,

Love, and Peace; and thereby most effectually.

hasten the coming of that glorious Day of God,

L 3

6 2 Pet. iii. 12. when, according to our Lord's omost sure Promise, and that of the Father also, we look for new Heavens and a new Earth; a e new and better State of the Church here on Earth;

wherein Righteousness will dwell, till it end in the glorious Millennium, the Kingdom of our Lord, advanced to its highest Perfection, and fpread over the Face of the whole World, till the Confummation of all Things.'

(3.) Our Protestant Church of England, together with the other Protestant Churches every where, have not only refused to examine and amend their present evil Constitutions, but they have withal constantly refused even to tolerate primitive Christianity, at least these last thirty-four Years. This appears by the humble and serious Address I made to the Princes and States of Europe in the Year 1716, if not for the Admission, yet at least for the open Toleration of the Christian Religion in their Dominions: Wherein I demonstrated, (1.) That none of them do, properly speaking, admit, or openly tolerate the Christian Religion in their Dominions at this Day. (2.) I give an Account what are the true Occasions why it is not admitted, or openly tolerated by them. (3.) I give some Reafons, why they ought to admit, or at least openly tolerate this Religion. I also (4.) make an earnest Address to the several European Princes and States, grounded on the Premises, for the Admission, or at least the open Toleration of the same Christian Religion in their Dominions. [See before, Page 250-281, 282.] But all was to no Manner of Purpose, and without the least publick Notice taken of it, that I know of, by any body till this very Day. However, I am willing to hope, that upon the Score of the late Murrain, Meteors, Earthquakes, Storms, and the Dread of more fuch Judgments, I may now be better hearkened to.

and

- (4.) The Protestants, as well as the Papists, curse the Eusebians, or Primitive Christians, in the continued Use of the horrible Athanasian Creed. This I mentioned in that remarkable Letter which I wrote to the present Archbishop of Canterbury, Jan. 23, 1747-8. [Page 407. priùs.] in the Words following: ' If our thirteen Times a Year curfing the Eusebians, or Primitive Christians, by
 - publick Authority, in the Athanasian Creed, were
- * once corrected; our Manners in Court and Coun-
- try throughly amended; and our Prayers, on
- all fuch Occasions, were more folemn and ferious
- than they now are, we might hope that God
- would pity us, and our dumb Creatures, and pro-
- cure both them a Release from this Distemper,
- and ourselves a Deliverance from the Effects of
- it, and from those other great and amazing Judg-
- ments which I fully and fuddenly expect, as a · Consequence of what is already begun, and this
- upon the most authentick Evidence [of Scripture

· Prophecies.'

To this Clause the Archbishop returned me no Answer. But whether the frightful Signs since that Time have procured his Injunction to his Chaplains never to use that Creed in his Chapel at Lambeth,

L4

152 MEMOIRS of the LIFE of

or elsewhere any longer, I do not yet know. This Creed is used but once a Year by the Lutherans, as I have been informed, I mean on Trinity Sunday only. How often it is used in the publick Service of the Church of Rome. I do not yet know; while in Scotland, and among our Diffenters, it is not used at all. Nor indeed, was its Use in the Church of England so horrid, while the Clergy thought they had some Pretence to believe the Athanasian Doctrine, especially by those who supposed it fundamental, and so had some Excuse for the Use of the main Parts of the Athanasian Creed: (Though the Use of the Damnatory Sentences was always inexcusable.) But since that Athanasian Doctrine has been of late found, for certain, to be no better than a monstrous Popish Heresy, and all the truly Learned have many Years deserted its Desence, the Belief of that monstrous Doctrine, and much more the Use of that horrible Creed, are become plainly intolerable. I may myself, at least, be allowed to write thus freely, fince I have not only long and throughly confuted that Doctrine itself, but because it was that Creed, which, a very few Years ago, forced me away from all Communion with the Church of England, as has been largely related before in these Memoirs, Page 458, 459, 460-492 - 509. And the Use of which at this Day I take to be an intire Degradation of all the Clergy that use it, and fuch a Degradation as the most sincere Repentance will only procure their Admission among the Laity ever afterwards. This will be thought by the Clergy very harsh Doctrine, an bard Saying, who who can bear it? But since it appears to me to be fully warranted, or rather absolutely required by the Laws of Christianity, already set down, Page 506, 507, 508. I know of no Power on Earth that can allow me to dispense with them. However, feeing this whole Head chiefly concerns the Clergy of the established Church, that, if possible. they may be at last moved to think of the doleful Case they are in, and into what a doleful State they have brought our Laity, who depend upon them also. Take my own and Bishop Burnet's most serious Admonitions to them, produced formerly by me, as follows: And may Almighty God make them at last effectual to their through Reformation. Yeare the Salt of the Earth, (Matt. v. 13.) fays our Saviour to his Apostles, and by them, in effect, to all their Successors in preaching his Gospel: But if the Salt have lost its Savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under Foot of Men, [See Christian Discipline, Page 77, 78.]

If the Reader will pardon a short, but not unfeasonable Digression, it is clearly my Opinion, that till our Defenders of Christianity do more than they have most of them hitherto done, as to affording the World this Conviction that they are really in Earnest themselves; particularly till our Bishops leave off procuring Commendams, and heaping up Riches and Preferments on themselves, their Relations, and Favourites; nay, till they correct their Non-residence; till they leave the Court, the Parliament, and their Politicks, and go down to their Dioceses,

Dioceses, and there labour in the Vineyard, instead of standing the most Part of the Day idle at the Metropolis; they may write what Vindications and Pastoral Letters they please, the observing Unbelievers will not be fatisfied they are in Earnest, and by Consequence will be little moved by all their Arguments and Exhortations. — What Opinion of the Clergy's Preaching is entertained by fome, we may learn from the known Story of the Conference between Dean Aldridge and Mr. Brotberton the famous Comedian: For when the Dean declared to Mr. Brotherton his Surprize, how Comedians should so deeply effect an Audience, while Preachers cannot do it, whose Subjects are yet so much more ferious and affecting than the other's Fictions; Mr. Brotherton, upon Leave obtained to speak his Mind with the utmost Freedom, made Answer, Mr. Dean, we are in Earnest, and you are not. To this let me add, by way of Conclusion of this Head, what is already at the End of my Paper of Christian Discipline, P. 79, 80. and the Conclusion of my Reflections on Mr. Collins's Book of Free-thinking; as follows:

I have lamented, fays Bishop Burnet, during my whole Life, that I faw fo little true Zeal among our Clergy, (Hift. of bis Own Time, Vol. I. Pag. 183.) I faw much of it in the Clergy of the Church of Rome, though it is both ill-directed and ill-conducted: I faw much Zeal likewife in the foreign Churches: The Diffenters have a great deal among them; but I must own, that the main Body of our Clergy has always appeared dead and lifelefs to me, and instead of animating

one another, they feem rather to lay one another afleep. Without a visible Alteration in this, you will fall under an universal Contempt, and lose both the Credit and the Fruits of your Ministry.

- I say it with great Regret, I have observed the Clergy in all Places through which I have travelled, Papists, Lutherans, Calvinists, and Diffenters: But of them all, our Clergy is much the most remiss in their Labours in private, and the least severe in their Lives. --- If the Clergy

· abandon themselves to Sloth and Idleness; if they

s neglect their proper Function, and follow a vain, a covetous, or a luxurious Course of Life; if they, not content with educating their Children

well, and with fuch a Competency as may fet them afloat in the World, think of building up their own Houses, and raising up great Estates, they will put the World upon many unacceptable

Enquiries: Wherefore is this Waste made? Why, are these Revenues continued to Men who make fuch an ill Use of them? And why is an Order kept up that does the Church so little good, and 4 gives it so much Scandal?

I conclude with the Words of the Prophet

* Ezekiel, as set down and applied to the Clergy of the Christian Church, in the Apostolical Constitutions, Lib. ii. Ch. 18. [Reflett. on Free Think.

· Pag. 54.] And I earnesty beseech God we may all take Warning from them, left they also rise up to our Condemnation hereafter: Whe unto the Shepherds

Shepherds of Israel; for they have fed themselves; the Shepherds feed not the Sheep but themselves: Ye eat the Milk, and are cloathed with the Wool; ye flay the Strong, ye do not feed the Sheep. The Weak have ye not strengthened; neither have ye healed that which was sick; neither have ye bound up that which was broken; neither have ye brought again that which was driven away; neither have ye fought that which was lost; but with Force and Insult have ye ruled over them; and they were scattered, because there was no Shepherd, and they became Meat to all the Beasts of the Forest.

5. The Protestant, as well as the Popish Courts, freely tolerate, or rather greatly support and encourage, Masquerades, Ridotto's, Balls, and Plays, I had almost said even, Bawdy-houses, and Gaming-houses also; which, if any thing can be so esteemed, are the grossest Parts of those Pomps and Vanities of the present, wicked World, which all Christians solemnly renounce in their Admisfion into the Christian Church by Baptism. Nay, we here do more than, perhaps, any Popish Kingdom in the World would do, I mean tolerate Mr. Henley, in his weekly, impious, and profane Abuse of all that is facred, for twenty-three or twenty-four Years together, every Lord's-Day Evening, as I have already noted; which I reckon amongst the Plays also, only much worse than they; yet do I ever esteem of these Masquerades, Ridotto's, Balls, and Plays, Bawdy-houses, and Gaming-houses, as the Devil's Head-Quarters; where, under the Notion of Diversion, Men are taught to be enormously wicked wicked and profane, lewd and luxurious. Yet do I well remember, that when I once long ago cast my Eye on the Dedication of a Play to some Bishop, or eminent Churchman, I found the Author pleaded, that ' None were Enemies to the Stage, but they were Enemies to the Church, and to Episcopacy alfo,' A mighty Encomium upon the Church of England this! Nor do I perceive, that when our Princess of Wales's Great Grandfather, Ernest the Pious, (Life, Page 44.) brought a Play once to be acted before him, whose Subject was, The State of a Debauch'd Church, he did any thing else than truly represent, most, if not all our present Courts, where our modern Plays are acted, and as they have been here ever fince the Restoration of King Charles II. whose Character you have in Bishop Sherlock's Sermon at Salisbury, by me already inferted, after the second Part of the Memoirs of my Life, Page 7. where he fays, 'There never was a 'Time when Lewdness, Irreligion, and Profance ness were heard with more Patience:' Tho' perperhaps I may now add, that they are at prefent heard with more publick Approbation, than they were in that debauched Court itself; because Lewdness, Irreligion, and Profaneness, are greatly increased since that Time. Otherwise, such a contemptible Person as Mr. Colley Cibber would not have so long been our Poet-Laureat; at least he. would not, in this very Juncture, when every fober Christian is alarmed by the apparent Signs of the divine Displeasure, and thinking of a solemn Reformation from fuch courtly Fooleries; to adver-

tife perpetually a Vindication of his own foolish Life, with the History of the Stage in his Time, even when he is in Years himself, and must e'er long go out of this vain, and short, and wicked World, into another more ferious and more lasting, there to give up his Account to his Creator, how he has behaved himself in this. As if he would set himself at the Head of a profane Set of Men now among us, who feem to have a Mind directly to infult God Almighty and his Providence, under the present heavy Tokens of his Displeasure. Such Men should consider what the Prophet Isaiab said of old to the Jews, [If. v. 11-14.] on the like Occasion: Wee unto them that rise up early in the Morning, that they may follow strong Drink; that continue until Night till Wine inflame them. And the Harp, the Viol, and the Tabret and Pipe, and Wine are in their Feasts; but they regard not the Work of the Lord, nor consider the Operation of his Hands; therefore my People are gone into Captivity, because they have no Knowledge; and their honourable Men are famished, and their Multitude are dried up with Thirst: Therefore Hades bath enlarged berself, and opened her Mouth without Measure; and their Glory, and their Multitude, and their Pomp, and he that rejoiced shall descend into it.

Nor ought we to forget what Bishop Sherlockobserves in his excellent Letter, Page 10, and what I myself observed and complained of about the very same Time, 'That there were no less than 15 Advertisements for Plays, Operas, Musick, and Dancing;

for Meetings at Gardens; for Cock-fighting,

· Prize-

Prize fighting, &c. not only in the Time of Lent, but after these Divine Warnings by the two · Earthquakes, in one and the same News-paper: • When, as he truly adds, we have turned a Season • proper for ferious Reflections, both of Body and Spirit, into a Time of Mirth and Laughter, of Musick, Dancing, and riotous Living.' Let me conclude this Head with a Reflection of Mr. Horton's, Chaplain to the British Factory at Legborn, relating to the Earthquake which happened there, 1742, and of which he has given a very particular and affecting Account in Print: 'The Sense of so great a Deliverance, says he, (for God in the Midst of Judgment remembered ' Mercy) produced an unanimous Refolution of the Magistrates, Clergy, and People of Legborn, to observe a solemin Fast for ever on the Day it happened, prohibiting any publick or private Balls, Masquerades, or any other Diversions of the Carnival for that Day; with an humble Application to his Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Tuscany, that Masquerades at the Theatre there might be for ever abolished. Which Request was approved, and confirmed by an Order from the Council of Regency from Florence.'-This is a glorious Example indeed! and highly worthy of our Imitation! It is taken verbatim out of the General Evening-Post, from Thursday, April 19, to Saturday, April 21, 1750; in which Paper is very seasonably advertised, a Pamphlet, called, Jubilee Masquerade Balls at Ranelagh Gardens, a bad Return for the merciful Deliverance from the late Earthquakes. Containing,

tur12

(1.) The Presentment of the Grand Jury against Ridotto's, Masquerades, Balls, &c.

(2.) Extract from the late Bishop of London's (Dr. Gibson's) Sermon against Masquerades.

(3.) Extract from the present Bishop of London's Letter on Occasion of the late Earthquakes.

(4.) A Copy of a Paper posted up last Sunday on all the Churches and publick Places in London and Westminster; and Remarks upon it.

(5.) Reasons why Persons of Prudence should not venture to the Masquerade at Ranelagh Gardens, advertised for Wednesday, the 25th Instant.

VI. We here in England have done a Thing that, if it were not open and undeniable to all the World, would be thought absolutely incredible: I mean we have, by Act of Parliament, abrogated a very good Law, for the discouraging the Poor's drinking of Gin and Spirituous Liquors; nay, have in Reality encouraged them to Drunkenness, and to the Murder of themselves, by such drinking. A most proper Judge, Dr. Hale, who earnestly promoted the former Bill, and opposed its Abrogation, always judges, that about 1,000,000 Persons every Year kill themselves by these fatal Liquors; and always compares it to one of the terrible Woes in the Revelation. Nor could this former Bill be abolished, till that excellent Master of the Rolls, and my great Friend, Sir Joseph Jekyl, who most zealously promoted the former Act, was dead and gone. Now that the Ministry should be either fo wicked themselves as to propose the Repeal, or should be able to persuade the Parliament to consent to it, is almost incredible. I say persuade the Parliament, or a Majority of the two Houses in general only; for though the Majority of both Houses did confent, yet must I do the Lords Spiritual the Justice to say, that although a Majority of the whole Bench of Bishops were not present, yet did not one of them confent that were present, to so horrible a Bill; nay, fome made vehement Speeches against it, though all to no Purpose. The Ministry got fome Money to the Government by it, and that was all they cared for. But that any human Legislature can really give such an Act, so expresly against Morality and the Laws of God, the Force of a Law, or oblige either Judges or Subjects to fubmit to it, I am by no Means satisfied. Nor, as I think, can our Parliament hope for Almighty God's sparing the People whom they represent, or even themselves, till this abominable Act be disannull'd. Hear what an unknown Friend of mine fays of this Matter, in a late Letter to me: 'That had the whole Bench of Bishops been present, and ' joined to oppose this Bill, it had been cast out;

we and our Posterity might then have had Reafon to have bleffed them, and called them indeed the true Physicians both of the Souls and

6 Bodies of the People; Debauchery and Poverty

' would not have reigned in our Streets in the Manner they do at present, and increasing every Day, without Hopes of Cure, or Thoughts of ' Amendment.' Isaiab's melancholy Lamentation of the Jewish Nation of old, may be too justly and fadly taken up by good Men here at this

Day.

Isaiab i. 4-9. Ab sinful Nation; a People laden with Iniquity; a Seed of evil Doers; Children that are Corrupters; they have for saken the Lord; they have provoked the Holy One of Israel to Anger; they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? Ye will 'revolt more and more: The whole Head is fick, and the whole Heart faint; from the Sole of the Foot, even unto the Head, there is no Soundness in it, but Wounds, and Bruises, and putrifying Sores: They have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with Ointment. Your Country is desolate; your Cities are burnt with Fire; your Land Strangers devour it in your Presence; and it is desolate, as overthrown by Strangers. And the Daughter of Zion is left as a Cottage in a Vineyard; as a Lodge in a Garden of Cucumbers; as a besieged City. Except the Lord of Hosts had left unto us a very small Remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

I fay nothing here particularly of our unneceffary and impracticable Oaths; of our Impofitions in the Universities; of our obliging Men to take the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper for Civil Employments; of our taking away Men's Lives for Robbery or Theft; of our Luxury and Extravagance in Eating and Drinking, in Dress and Equipage, and Gaming; the general Neglect of Divine Worship in publick and private; the taking the Name of God in vain; Curfing and Swearing; the little Care there is in Parents, and Masters of Families, to train up their Children and Servants in Religion; the numerous Whoredoms and Adulteries; the frequent Murders and Robberies, &c. because my good Friend, Mr. Overal, has prevented me, in his excellent Paper, already fet down by me in these Memoirs, Pag. 410-422. And as to Adultery and Fornication, Dr. Cobden, has prevented me also, in his excellent Sermon at Court, Dec. 11, 1748; an Extract out of which has been already inferted also, Pag. 629, 630, 631. Only because none of these Writers, no, not the Bishop himself, has complained of the Excess and Nicety in the Apparel of Women of Quality; and because I had myself done no more formerly than give a gentle Reproof to it, Pag. 460, priùs, I shall here add the long and terrible Complaint of this Vice, and the Threatenings of God against it, by Isaiab the Prophet; where, though the particular Shape of many of the Ornaments be liable to great Difficulties, yet is not the general Meaning and Purport of the Text liable to any Difficulty at all. Which Text I shall therefore set down at large, and recommend the Consideration of it, and Amendment according to it, to the Ladies of this Generation, as highly necessary upon the present Judgments of God, and divine Warnings derived from him; of which good Men and Women ought to be greatly sensible.

Isa. iii. 16-26. 16. Moreover, the Lord faith, Because the Daughters of Zion are haughty.

M 2 and

and walk with ftretched forth Necks, and wanton Eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their Feet.

17. Therefore the Lord will smite with a Scab the Crown of the Head of the Daughters of Zion; and the Lord will discover their Secret Parts: [They shall hardly have Rags to cover their Nakedness.]

- 18. In that Day the Lord will take away the Bravery of their tinkling Ornaments about their Feet and their Cauls, and their round Tyres like the Moon:
- 19. The Chains, and the Bracelets, and the Mufflers:
- 20. The Bonnets, and Ornaments of the Legs, and the Head-bands, and the Tablets, and the Earrings:
 - 21. The Rings, and Nose-jewels:
- 22. The changeable Suits of Apparel, and the Mantles, and the Wimples, and the Crifping-pins:
- 23. The Glasses, and the fine Linnen, and the Hoods, and the Veils:
- 24. And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet Smell there shall be Stink, and instead of a Girdle a Rent, and instead of well-set Hair Baldness, and instead of a Stomacher a Girding of Sackcloth, and Burning instead of Beauty.
- 25. Thy Men [Husbands] shall fall by the Sword, and thy Mighty in the War.
- 26. And her Gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the Ground.
- VII. The Protestants, as well as the Papists, are become Scepticks and Infidels, and this to a prodigious Degree. This has been already carefully noted as the Completion of the Predictions hereto relating, Pag. 89, 90, 91, priùs, and so need not be here largely infifted on again; though it be, prob dolor! become fo general at Court, and among the Great, as to lay a fad Foundation for all the rest of our Immoralities. Other Crimes may be traced from fome Pretences or Occasions, which are here entirely wanting in our Age. The Evidence for Revealed Religion, I mean chiefly the literal fulfilling the most numerous Prophecies, and the Certainty of the most amazing Miracles, both of the Old and New Testament, which are known to be the grand Supports of Revelation, having never been fo throughly cleared as they have been of late, fince the Opposition of our modern Scepticks and Infidels has made learned Men more carefully to examine them. In which Examination I have long had no small Share myself; as those who have perused my Boyle's Lettures, Literal Accomplishment of Prophecies, my Astronomical Principles of Religion Natural and Revealed, with my Replies to Mr. Collins, Mr. Chubb, and Dr. Middleton, &c. do very well know: To none of which Treatifes have any Replies been made. And I must openly profess, that as I very early in Life entered into those most important Enquiries, and that with uncommon Impartiality, and Defire of discovering the Truth; and indeed with a Dread upon me, on Account of several great Difficulties as to the Bible, Chronology and History, which were not then cleared by any Commentators that I had met with.

God

God has been pleafed fo greatly to bless those my Studies and Enquiries, that I can honeftly profess, as I have already hinted, that more than 39 Parts in 40 of those Difficulties have been by me now throughly cleared, and the facred Books entirely vindicated from those Objections that had been urg'd against them; and all this, not upon precarious Hypotheses, but from real original Evidence, and genuine Testimonies of Antiquity; and commonly demonstrated from Mathematical and Astronomical Principles also, to my greatest Satisfaction. So that the present prodigious Run of Scepticism and Infidelity comes at a Time when there are lesser Pretences for it, than there ever were since the Jewish and Christian Religions came into the World. It looks like what Dr. Bentley acutely faid of Astrological Atheism, in one of his Sermons at Mr. Boyle's Lectures: 'It is not Reason and Evidence, but Saturn, in the ninth House, that makes these " Men Infidels.' It indeed looks like the groffest judicial Infatuation.

VIII. The Protestants, as well as the Papists, go on in the open Breach not only of the other Laws and Ordinances of Almighty God, which yet, excepting the Ceremonial, do still equally oblige the Christians now, as they did always oblige the Jews, as I have already noted, Pag. 143, 144, priùs, and elsewhere fully proved [Horeb Covenant Revived, per tot.] but of the everlasting Covenant itself, or the Ten Commandments of God themfelves; which, under the Christian Explication, most certainly oblige all the Christian World. Now in order to understand my Meaning under this Head, the Reader is to remember what I have elsewhere observed, [Prim. Christ. Reviv'd, Vol. III. Pag. 56.] that the Ten Commandments, as distinct from the other Laws of Moses, were peculiarly called the Covenant that God made with the Israelites by Moses; the Tables wherein they were written, and that by the Finger of God himself, were peculiarly called the Tables of the Covenant: the Ark, or Chest, wherein those Tables of the Covenant, and they only were contained, the Ark of the Covenant: So that when Isaiah, or rather God by Isaiab, gives the Reasons for the Severity of the divine Judgment at this Time upon the Inhabitants of the Earth, it is because they had broken not only the other Laws and Ordinances, but the everlasting Covenant itself also, or the Ten Commandments themselves, [Isaiab xxiv. 5.] as the highest Aggravation of that Defilement they had contracted, and which required the feverest Punishment. Now let us see how far the Papists. and Protestants have broken these Ten Command. ments, by going distinctly over most of them in Order; and observe what terrible Judgments these Papists and Protestants may justly expect for their notorious Breaches of them.

First Command. [Exod. xx. 3. Deut. v. 7.] Thou shalt have no other Gods before me. Now as to this Command, we of Cambridge have had a flagrant Example, beyond that of the vilest Heathen in the Days of Moses, or even till after the Days of Hobbes and Spinoza, a Century ago; for though the M4 Heathens Heathens were wholly Idolaters, and did not worship the true God, yet had they still some Gods or other whom they all worshipped: Till which Time, though there were feveral Fools [Pfalm xiv. 1.7 that faid in their Hearts, or wished and hoped there was no God to punish them; yet were they wifer than to affirm directly, that there was no God; whereas, it is not many Years ago, that a Member of that University had directly affirm'd, that there was no God. Nay, when they were to procure a Majority of Heads of Colleges to banish him, for his direct Atheism, and the Proof was undeniable, the Head of that College to which he belonged, who is still one of those Heads, and in a much higher Post in the same Place also, would not appear against him; but 'the other Heads were forced to adjourn to Trinity-College Lodge, for Dr. Bentley's Affistance, who, after discoursing with him, joined with them in his Banishment. This Atheism I esteem a greater Crime than the Idolatry of the first Commandment, or greater than Heathen Idolatry itself.

Second Command. [Exod. xx. 4, 5, 6. Deut. v. 8, 9, 10.] Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven Image, or any Likeness that is in Heaven above, or that is in the Earth beneath, or that is in the Water under the Earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them : For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the Iniquity of the Fathers upon the Children, unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me; and shewing Mercy unto Thousands of them that love me, and keep my Commandments. This Command is not broken by either Jews, or Protestants, or Mahometans; but chiefly, if not only, among us by the Papists, to their utter Disgrace and Condemnation. Accordingly, we have seen already that our Saviour, by St. John in the Revelation, complains, that this Anti-christian Church of Rome, even after the sore Judgments of the six former Trumpets, sent to bring them to Repentance, [Apoc. ix. 20.] did not repent of such their former gross Idolatry, of the Works of their Hands; that they should not worship Demons, and Idols of Gold, and Silver, and Brass, and Stone, and Wood, which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk.

Third and Ninth Commands. [Exod. xx. 7, 16. Deut. v. 11, 20.] Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain. Thou shalt not hear false Witness against thy Neighbour. How grosly the Protestants, no less than Papists, are guilty of these most horrid Crimes, of taking the tremendous Name of God in vain, and in hearing false Witness, see Mr. Overal's Paper, already produced, Pag. 411-414.

Fourth Command. [Exod. xx. 8, 9, 10, 11. Deut. v. 12, 13, 14, 15.] Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy, Six Days shalt thou labour, and do all thy Work: But the seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt not do any Work; thou, nor thy Son, nor thy Daughter; thy Man-servant, nor thy Maid-servant; nor thy Cattle, nor the Stranger that is within thy Gates. For in six Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea, and all that in them is, and rested the Seventh Day: Wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath Day, and ballowed it.

170 MEMOIRS of the LIFE of

This Command, tho' it belongs to no other Day of the Week than Saturday, and according to the Christian Interpretation, [Constitut. ii. 36.] is to afford us Christians so much Rest from our worldly Labours, as the Commemoration and Worship of God as our Creator requires; (though by no Means fo much Rest on the Sabbath as the Jews were obliged to by their Law, much less as the rigid Interpretation of the Yewish Rabbins required; nor indeed fo much as the longer and more folemn Duties of the Lord's Day, in Memory of the Refurrection of Christ, our Redeemer make necessary.) However, because the Ignorance, the gross Igno. rance of the modern Ages has almost obliterated the Sanctification of Saturday, or the Sabbath Day; nay, has introduced, without all good Authority, fuch an Interpretation of this Fourth Command, as if the Lord's Day was to be the Christian Sabbath; and as if the Command now belonged, by a Change of the Day, to the first Day of the Week instead of the last; I say, because of this gross Ignorance of the Moderns in this Matter, gone into by many good Christians through Inadvertency, rather than any Contempt of a known Law, I cannot charge the Body of Christian People with the gross Breach of this Command, as one of those great Crimes for which the Judgments of God are already upon us, and greater still are to be feared by us on that Account. Yet, as I have long known the Observation of the Sabbath, or Saturday, in Memory of the Creation, to be a Christian Duty, I have endeavoured, in some Measure, to observe it all along in my own Family. Accordingly, a Thankfgiving to God as our Creator is fet down in my own Common-Prayer Book, and has not been there omitted about 40 Years; as the same, or somewhat like it, ought to be introduced into all other Christian Congregations and Families also, as they consist of People that are all the Creatures of God, as well as the Fews, and ought all equally with them to acknowledge Almighty God to be our as well as their common Creator and Governor. What is here faid in Way of just Excuse for the Non-observation of the Sabbath, or Saturday, may equally be applied to the Stations, or Half-fasts, on Wednesday and Friday, excepting the feven or eight Weeks of Pentecost, and the Apostolical Holidays, with the old five Days of Lent, and the more strict and folemn Fasting and Abstinence of Passion-Week; all which, I believe, do oblige all Christians equally with that of the Lord's Day itself; and were accordingly observed by the Primitive Christians, and have in good Meafure been observed in my Family about 40 Years; fince this Obligation has been little known in these Western Countries, and in these later Anti-christian Ages. But then, as to the common Neglect of Divine Worship, and the horrible Profanation of the Lord's Day among us, which all own for a Day of Holiness, the Reader may look backward to Pag. 94, where Bishop Sherlock is mentioned as justly and greatly complaining of this, among the other Instances of the groffest Irreligion and Profaneness among us: To which I am obliged to add two other most publick .

lick Examples of fuch Irreligion and Profaneness: The one is, of those very bad Men that profane this holy Day in London, by frequenting, and encouraging, and supporting Mr. Henley's weekly Buffoonry, and Ridicule of all that is facred among Christians, on the Evening of that Day. The other belongs to one of the Royal Family itself, which ought to set us a better Pattern. The Example is this: One of the Daughters of the Earl of Huntingdon was recommended to be a Maid of Honour to one of our Princesses, and was accepted of; but only on this Condition, that she must comply with the Princess in playing at Cards on the Lord's Day: But her Mother, who did not approve of fuch a Profanation of that holy Day, having forbidden her Daughter to game upon it; and the Daughter having accordingly promifed not to game, she was rejected on that Account. This Story is fo well known, and I have fuch undoubted Authority for it, that though it concerns the Royal Family itself, which I have already, in great Measure, excepted from such Reflections, for particular Reasons, Pag. 632, prius, I could not persuade myself to omit it in this Place. over, fince I had the Honour many Years ago to join in the Instruction of the Duke of Cumberland; (one who, when very young, was made instrumental by Providence to put an End to that Rebellion in Scotland, which none of the old Commanders were able to do;) I shall venture to add two Clauses relating to him, which I wrote in two feveral Letters to my very valuable Friend, and his former + The late our tife of Moiza Governor, Governor, Mr. Poyntz, (who, as I once told Queen Carcline his Mother, was, in my Opinion, the fittest to be his Governor of all she could have chosen for that Purpose) hoping that the Duke might see and confider them. The former Clause was this: Keep Innocency, and take Heed to the Thing that is right; for that shall bring a Man Peace at the last. [Psalm xxxvii. 37.] The other was after the Victory at Culloden: 'I heartily congratulate you upon the Victory which our old Pupil the Duke of · Cumberland has gained: I wish he were as good a Christian as he is a great Commander; without which, in a little Time, all will be Vapour and ' Vanity!' But alas! alas! This Freedom of mine is no more than the Duty of every Clergyman or Watchman, as well as mine. See Ezekiel ii. 16, 17, 18. The Word of the Lord came unto me, faying, Son of Man, I have made thee a Watchman unto the House of Israel: Therefore bear the Word at my Mouth, and give them Warning from me. When I say unto the Wicked, Thou shalt surely die, and thou givest bim not Warning, nor speakest to warn the Wicked from his wicked Way, to fave his Life, the same wicked Man shall die in his Iniquity; but his Blood will I require at thine Hand.

Fifth Command. [Exod. xx. 12. Deut. v. 16.] Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy Days may be long in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Though this Duty of honouring our Parents be a Branch of natural, as well as of the Jewish and Christian Religions, yet the Reward promised to it being here peculiar to the Jews, and their peculiar long Continuance in the Country of Judea, it feems not directly to concern us upon the present Occasion.

174 MEMOIRS of the LIFE of

Sixth and Eighth Commands. [Exod. xx. 13, 15. Deut. v. 17, 19. Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steal. These are two of the principal Injunctions given by God Almighty, the original Donor and Proprietor of our Lives and Estates; while yet it is the Business, the main Business of most of our Wars to break them, by killing as many of our Enemies as we can; and by plundering those Enemies as much as we can; without any Regard to the Justice or Injustice of those Wars. I doubt the Guilt of fuch Murders and Plunderings in our late Wars has been very great, and lies very heavy upon all Sides at this Day. It is true, that God himself made the Israelites the Executioners of his Vengeance against the Amorites or Canaanites; but this not till their Iniquities were full; [Gen. xv. 16.] and when it appears their Idolatry had induced them to offer their own Children to be burnt to Moloch, &c. [Wifd. xii. 5, 6.] So that these Wars were certainly lawful, as designed by God to be for the Excision of Nations not fit to live upon God's Earth any longer. King Saul was also enjoined by God utterly to destroy the Amalekites; but it was only the Sinners the Amalekites; [1 Sam. xv. 18.] and because he had God's Warrant for their Destruction. King David also, and the other religious Kings of Judah, constantly fought with, and endeavoured to destroy the Philistines, and other their Enemies; but it was as directed directed by the Prophets of God, or by his Oracle the Urim; and only to conquer those who would not suffer God's People to enjoy what God had referved in a peculiar Manner for them; and what he had folemnly bequeathed to them, while they were obedient to his Laws, for all Generations; whom no other People had any Right to disposses; while yet he did not give those his own People Leave to hurt either the Moabites, or Ammonites, or Edomites, while they lived peaceably at Home; and whose Countries he had assigned to those Nations, as he had referved Palestine for the Children of Israel. Neither do I know whether the Christians were at first allowed to take the Sacramental Oath to any Parthian, or other Potentate, to fight against the Roman Empire, which God had chosen for his peculiar People, upon his Rejection of the Jews; and within whose Dominions his own Church was almost wholly confined for feveral Ages. But that our late terrible Wars, which have shed such a Quantity of Blood, and plundered so many People in almost all Quarters of the World, have had any Permission from God for all the Blood shed, and Goods plundered, I do not know; I rather think fuch publick Murders and Plunders, together with those many private Murders and Robberies, of late so very common among us, are fatal Additions to our other manifold and heinous Sins; for which the Hand of God is now stretched out against us; and whose Punishments, fore Punishments, I am persuaded, nothing but our most fincere Repentance and Amendment can pre-Seventh vent.

Seventh Command. [Ex. xx. 14. Deut. v. 18.] Thou shalt not commit Adultery. To say nothing here of Rapes, of Buggery, or Bestiality; which are the horridest of Crimes under this Head, and are too well known to have been practifed among us. I shall chiefly confine myself to another of the groffest of the Crimes, intended under this Prohibition, of which Bishop Sherlock speaks in a most affecting Manner, as already set down, Pag. 96, 97, priùs, Sodomy. And, fince we have lately had three eminent and publick Instances of this horrible Crime, the Reader must give me Leave by them to confirm what the Bishop says relating thereto. 'Tis not very many Years ago, that an Head of Wadbam College in Oxford was forced to leave his College and Nation, for this most infamous Nor is it very many Years ago, that our then first Minister, the Lord Sunderland, was, in Effect, tried at Kingston Assizes for the same Crime. And tho' our Courts of Justice are not able of late to convict first Ministers, in such Cases; yet do I well remember, that every Body that heard the Trial were privately fatisfied he was guilty. And when a Saying of the same first Minister at Court, which I had from an Ear-witness, comes hereafter to be related; the religious Reader will not greatly wonder that fuch a Scorner of Religion was also a Sodomite. However, a third Example shall be of one of the principal Surgeons in London, whom I once knew, and esteemed among the best Christians of that Profession, Mr. Shipton. Yet did the Suspicions of his Practice of Sodomy, and accompanying with a Club of Sodomites, grew at last so very strong, that he could not stand it in the City; but was forced to retire to an obscure Place in the Country. All which Instances do but too fully corroborate the strong Suspicion mentioned by Bishop Sherlock, of great Nests of Sodomites now in the City of London.

Tenth Command. [Ex. xx. 17. Deut. v. 21.] Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's Wife, nor bis Man Servant, nor his Maid Servant, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any Thing that is thy Neighbour's. Although the Crime here forbidden, Covetousness, be. of a very different Nature from the foregoing, and not easily chargeable on particular Persons, at least not easily proved against them; yet fince St. Paul to the Corinthians enumerates this Vice, among the other heinous Crimes, whose Authors shall not inberit the Kingdom of God: [1 Cor. vi. 9, 10.] Fornicators, Idolaters, Adulterers, Effeminate, Abufers of themselves with Mankind, (or Sodomites) Thieves, Covetous, Drunkards, Revilers, and Extortioners: Nay, fince the same Apostle assures us, in the same Epistle, that he had, in a former. Epistle, now lost, written to the same Corinthians, [v. 9, 10, 11.] Not to company with Fornicators of this World, nor with the Covetous, nor Extortioners, nor with Idolaters; which they miftaking, as if he would oblige Christians almost to leave off all Intercourse with their heathen Neighbours, to their greatest Inconvenience in common Life; he still affures them, they were obliged, not to keep Company,

pany, if any Man that is called a Brother, (or Fellow-Christian) be either a Fornicator, or Covetous, or an Idolater, or a Railer, or a Drunkard, not to eat with him. Now there is one flagrant Instance of this Vice however, in the Bishops and the superior Clergy, which is open and publick; I mean, when they waste those Ecclesiastical Revenues that are intrusted with them, for the Use of the Poor and the lower Orders, and raise their Families to great Riches and Dignities by this Abuse of them: This Practice is absolutely forbidden in the Canons of the Apostles, where this Christian Law is deliver'd in the following Words: [Can. xxxix.] Let the Bishop have the Care of Ecclesiastical Revenues, and administer them as in the Presence of God. But 'tis not lawful for him to appropriate any Part of them to himself, or to give the Things of God to his own Kindred. But if they be poor, let them support them as poor. But let him not, under such Pretences, alienate the Revenues of the Church .- [Can. xl.] Let the proper Goods of the Bishop, if he has any, and those belonging to the Lord, be openly distinguished, that he may have Power, when he dies, to leave his own Goods as he pleases, and to whom he pleases; that under Pretence of the Ecclefiastical Revenues the Bishop's own may not come short, &c. Now this being certainly the Case, and these Canons, at least the first fifty, of which these are two, being Part of the Ecclefiastical Laws of Christendom, and even of this Nation at this Day, I should think it a Duty plainly incumbent on our present Bishops, and superior Clergy, in this Time of Distress, stress, and under the present Admonitions of Providence, to separate what they have of their own paternal Inheritance, from what they have gotten unjustly by the Church, and to restore to the Church, or to the Poor, what they have fo long used as their own, contrary to the express Laws of Christianity. If the present Clergy of London, as Bishop Sherlock, like a Christian Bishop, charges upon them, Letter, Pag. 12, 13. are to awaken the People, to call them from the Lethargy, in which they have too long lived, and make them fee their own Danger, to speak to them to persuade ' them, as knowing the Terror of the Lord to fpeak to their Hearts and Consciences, with fuch Plainness, as becomes the Ministers of the Gospel, to tell them, in Season and out of Season, that unless they repent they must perish.' With what Advantage may all this be done, if once the Bishop himself, and the rest of his Brethren and fuperior Clergy, many of which reside in great Part in his Diocese, in the same City of London, will heartily comply with this well-meant Admonition? Which I earnestly beg they will not take amis at my Hands. And on the contrary, how flight and poor will all these Exhortations appear among the Laity, if it be rejected? And so much fhall fuffice for an Account of those heavy Enormities, which now lie upon us, as Breaches of the everlasting Covenant of God, or the Ten Commandanents.

But now, it may not be improper to enquire here, what are those particular Judgment, which the foregoing Signs suppose to be soon, very soon, coming upon the Jews and Christians at least, if not on the rest of the World also? And which the horrid Crimes already specified most justly deserve. And 'tis the more necessary for me to specify them, as far as I am able, because I have not observed, that among the terrible Threatnings or Denunciations in the Prophecies relating to these Times, and appearing above, even fuch as are to deftroy the Wicked, that is the greatest Part of Mankind, I have not taken Notice, that the particular Sorts of those Judgments are distinctly mention'd. And because in my Letter to the Archbishop of Canterbury, of Jan. 23d, 1747-8, already fet down, Pag. 405, 406, 407. I intimated my Knowledge, of at least some of them, in the Words following: 'If our thirteen Times in a Year curfing the Eusebians or Primitive Christians, by publick Authority in the Athanasian Creed, were once corrected, our Manners in Court and Country throughly amended, and our Prayers, on all fuch Occasions, were more soe lemn and ferious than they now are, we might hope that God Almighty would pity us, and our poor dumb Creatures, and procure both them a Release from this Distemper, and ourselves a Deliverance from the Effects of it, and from those other great and amazing Judgments, which I fully and fuddenly expect as a Confequence of what is already begun; and this upon the most authentick Evidence; [I meant of Scripture Pro-· phecies.']

Now as to that particular Judgment, I mean the Murrain, upon the horn'd Cattle, which this Letter was especially concern'd about; we know that all which has been done by the Publick of a religious Nature, has been the bare ordering a fingle Collect to be added within the Bills of Mortality, in the publick Worship, without any farther Attempt for a through Reformation in the other Instances there mention'd. And that this is in Reality, One of those Judgments intended by God Almighty, at this critical Time, appears by its large Spreading, and long Continuance, notwithstanding all the medical and political Means for its Stopage, made Use of till this very Day. Nay, by its still spreading farther and farther, in some Places, at this very Time. But that Almighty God has not been fatisfied with that poor and mean Thing, of the Addition of a fingle Collect, is evident, not only by this spreading of the Contagion ever since it has been used, but by the latest Storms and Earthquakes as Signals of the Divine Displeasure, continuing against us, particularly in or near Italy, and in England, and its Plantations, and the Borders of France and Spain; which Countries have been greatly subject of late to those terrible Judgments. And indeed, the Crimes above-mention'd are vastly too great to be aton'd after forrifling a Manner. Shall I not visit for these Things, saith the Lord? Shall not my Soul be avenged on such a Nation as this? [Jer. v. 29.] Nay, when these two latest Earthquakes had greatly alarm'd the Citizens of London, and requir'd the most importunate and .

N 3 folemn

folemn Prayers and Humiliations; I hear not that the Publick has done any Thing more, when fomewhat was to be done for Form's Sake, than the Appointment of that fingle, tho' very good Collect, to be used in Lent only, through that City and within the Bills of Mortality, but no farther; furely, this is affronting God Almighty, instead of propitiating him, and appeasing his Anger, which is for certain very great already, and if not regarded, will for certain be much greater against us. As I know the Diffenters in general have long had weekly an appointed Place and Time of publick Supplication at London, on Purpose to deprecate the Displeasure of Almighty God, as to the Murrain among the Cattle; and. in which, they do not now forget the Earthquakes and other Marks of God's Anger against us; fo I reckon this Murrain among the Cattle as the first of those terrible Judgments already come upon us, and upon Europe, for our heinous Offences. The Hand of the Lord has certainly been upon the horned Part of our Cattle, [Exod. ix. 3.] as it was upon the Horses, and upon the Asses, upon the Camels, upon the Oxen, and upon the Sheep, in the Days of Pharoab King of Egypt, even a very grievous Murrain. However, Pharoab's Heart, [v. 7.] like that of many of ours, especially of our Courtiers now, was barden'd, and did not let the People of Ifrael go. Whether, if we still harden our Hearts under our present partial Murrain, we may not thereby provoke God to make it universal as to the other Cattle; nay, as to a Plague on ourselves also, will deserve to be seriously consider'd by us. 'For if we do, in the Words of Bi· shop Sherlock, [Serm. Pag. 5.] ever fall into fuch a Condition as to call down fuch Judgments on our Heads, who can deliver us from the Hand of the living God?'

The fecond of those Judgments, I esteem the Locusts, twice mention'd as such a Judgment in Deuteronomy; [Deut. xxviii. 38, 42.] which Locusts, as they have more than once ravaged many Parts of Germany and Poland of late, so may they, it is to be fear'd, come over to us in England if not this Year, yet in some Year soon after it. Now, whereever they come, they will do still, in some Degree, as they did of old in Egypt, in a greater; I mean they will cover the Face of the Earth, that one cannot be able to see the Earth; and they will eat. the Residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth; and will eat every. Tree which groweth for us out of the Field [Exod. x. 5.] - And as the Locusts went up of old over all the Lands of Egypt, and rested on all the Coasts of Egypt, very grievous were they, [v. 14, 15.] as they cover'd the Face of the whole Earth; so that the Land was darken'd, and they did eat every Herb of the Land, and all the Fruit of the Trees, which was left, and there remain'd not any green Thing in the Trees, or in the Herb of the Field, thro' all the Land of Egypt; so will they be with us, if they come hither. Nor is it unworthy of our Notice, that when God was pleased to describe the four barbarous and tyrannical Monarchies, by the Prophet foel, under four small Animals, as he had done N 4 done it elsewhere by great ones; he introduces them under the Images of four Sorts of Locusts. [Joel i. 4, &c.] If we therefore would secure ourselves from these Locusts, one of the fore Judgments of God, we have no other Way of doing it, than God by Joel prescrib'd to the People of Israel, in the other Case; we must sansify a Fast, call a solemn Assembly, gather the Elders, and all the Inhabitants of the Land, into the Houses of the Lord our God, and cry unto the Lord, Alas! for the Day, for the Day of the Lord is at Hand! And as a Destruction from the Almighty shall it come. [v. 14, 15.]

The Third of those Judgments, in Case the Locusts should come upon us, or even by other Ways, which the Providence of God can make Use of for the same Purpose, may well be Famine; which is but a natural Consequence of the Locusts, and may be a Consequent of some other Method of Providence. This is intimated in the following Words of Joel: Is not the Meat cut off before our Eyes, yea, Joy and Gladness from the House of our God: [v. 16, 17, 18.] The Seed is rotten under their Clods; the Garners are laid desolate, the Barns are broken down, for the Corn is wither'd. How do the Beasts groan? The Herds of Cattle are perplex'd; because they have no Pasture; yea, the Flocks of Sheep are made desolate, &c. Nor can we any other Way secure ourselves from this Judgment of Famine, than by hearkening to the same Prophet, who from God delivers this as the only Remedy for fuch great Miseries: [ii. 12, 13, 14.] To blow the Trumpet in Zion, and sound an Alarm in God's Holy

Holy Mountain: To turn to the Lord with Fasting, and with Weeping, and with Mourning; to rent our Hearts and not our Garments, and turn unto the Lord our God:— [V. 15, 16, 17.] To blow the Trumpet in Zion, to sanctify a Fast, to call a solemn Assembly, to gather the People, to sanctify the Congregation, to assemble the Elders, to gather the Children, and those that suck the Breast; for the Bridegroom to go forth out of his Chamber, and the Bride out of her Closet: To let the Priests, the Ministers of the Lord, weep between the Porch and the Altar, and to let them say, Spare thy People, O Lord, and give not thine Heritage to reproach, lest the Heathen should rule over them; which last Words naturally lead me to,

The Fourth of those Judgments we have Reafon to fear, which is Captivity or Slavery to a neighbour Nation. This was the great Judgment, which was so often threaten'd to the Wicked Jews, and which came fo often upon them, for their frequent Idolatries, and other flagrant Enormities, as may be seen every where in the Books of the Old Testament; particularly in that terrible Chapter of Judgments threatned by Moses, and which afterwards came remarkably to pass accordingly, I mean the xxviiith Chapter of Deuteronomy. [v. 36, 37.] The Lord shall bring thee, and thy King, which thou shalt set over thee, unto a Nation, which neither thou nor thy Fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve Wood and Stone; and thou shalt become an Astonishment, a Proverb, and a bye Word, among all Nations whither the Lord shall lead thee, [v. 64.]-And

And the Lord shall scatter thee among all People. from the one End of the Earth to another. [v. 65.] And among these Nations shalt thou find no Ease, neither shall the Soles of thy-Feet have Rest; but the Lord Shall give thee there a trembling Heart, and Sorrow of Mind. Nor is that which Bishop Sherlock, in his former Sermon and present Letter, appears also afraid of very unlikely to cometo pass; [Serm. Pag. 8, 9, 10. Let. Pag. 13, 14.] I mean that Popery, which, as he observes, now gains fo much Ground, should at last prevail over us, and by a just Punishment from God be entail'd. on us, and our Posterity. This seemed very near about four or five Years ago; and the Successes of the Rebels in Scotland terrified the Protestants to a very great Degree. Nor, in a Kingdom and Metropolis for wicked as ours, is there any Security, from Popery, but by amending the Lives of Protestants, as well as their Doctrine and Discipline, and thereby fecuring ourselves of the Fayour, of God, and thereby inviting the religious Part of the Roman Catholicks to unite themselves with us, in any farther Reformation, which is for certain, greatly wanted in both Churches.

The Fifth of those Judgments, which we have Reason to fear, is what we call the Mortality or Restilence. This most frightful and destructive Malady fometimes follows Earthquakes, as was remarkable in that at Port-Royal in Jamaica, [as the History of that Earthquake informs us, See Pag. 66. prius.] and this was terrible in London, 1665, the Year before the Fire, and much more terrible

terrible at Marseiles much later, 1721. However, this Nation was then fo alarmed at the Dread of its coming hither, which was very much feared, and that folemn Fast then appointed, was so much more feriously observ'd than our common-Fasts have of late been, that it pleased God to prevent its coming over hither at that Time. Nav. it has pleafed; God of late; to preferve the City of London free from that fatal Diftemper, much longer than ordinary. But fince great Mercies greatly abused, do naturally call down the heavier Judgments at last, and fince the Iniquity of the Inhabitants of London seems to be entirely full; as we have too fadly found, already; and the News which we frequently meet with of the Plague, or the like contagious Distemper, in other Places, makes me somewhat afraid that we shall not escape this Distemper very much longer. I only mean this, unless I could fee Signs of much greater and more general Reformation among us, than at present appear. This Diftemper would indeed much more featter-Abroad the Inhabitants of London, than the late Panick about a third Earthquake did. Now this is one of those terrible Judgments threatned the Disobedient Jews in Deuteronomy. [xxviii. 21, 22.] The Lord (ball make the Pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the Land, whither thou goest to possess it. The Lord shall smite thee with a Consumption, and with a Fever, and with an Inflammation, and with an extreme, Burning, and with the Sword! That last Word puts me naturally in Mind of a fixth Judgment, the

the Sword of War, which as it has been upon a great Part of the World now for many Years, and has forely afflicted us, and the neighbouring Kingdoms, fo are there many Indications that it may be rekindled, and fo still more fully contribute to that prodigious Diminution of Mankind, which is foretold as the Consequence of the Judgments belonging to these Times. [1s. xxiv. 6.] Now if we look into the xivth Chapter of Ezekiel, we shall find, that three of these four Judgments already mentioned, which we have now to fear, I mean Famine, and Sword, and Pestilence, [Ezek. xiv. 12. -21.] are there fet down as such Punishments for heinous national Sins, that nothing of the Interceffion of the best Men, which used in many Cases, to appeale the Anger of God, would be hearken'd to: [v. 12, 13, 14.] The Word of the Lord came to me again, saying, Son of Man, when the Land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine Hand upon it, and will break the Staff of the Bread thereof, and will send Famine upon it, and will cut off Man and Beast from it. Tho' these three Men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver neither Son, nor Daughter, but their own Souls (or Lives) by their Righteousness, faith the Lord God. And the very fame is faid in the following Verses, as to the Noisome Beasts, the Sword, and the Pestilence. I shall add the 21st, 22d, and 23d Verses, as affording Comfort to good Men in such dismal Calamities; as well as the former ought to be very terrifying to the Wicked at the fame Time; fince these feem to be the very Circum-

Circumstances of those Judgments, upon London in particular, we are now speaking of. Thus faith the Lord God, bow much more when I fend my four fore Judgments upon Jerusalem; the Sword and the Famine, and the Noisome Beast, and the Pestilence, to cut off from it Man and Beast: Yet behold therein shall be left a Remnant, that shall be brought forth Sons and Daughters; behold they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their Way and their Doings; and ye shall be comforted concerning the Evil that I bave brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. And they shall comfort you when ye see their Ways and their Doings, and ye shall. know that I have not done without Cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord God. However, we may fee the State of Europe, how it appears at present after all the Judgments that God has lately brought upon its Inhabitants in vain, in the ixth and xth Chapters of Isaiab: [ix. 12-17-21. x.4.] I mean that, For all this his Anger is not turned away, but his Hand is stretch'd out still. And so, for certain, will it be still, unless Europe in earnest set about a through Reformation. In which last Case, which yet is rather to be wish'd for than expected, the Prophet Ezekiel affures us, [xviii. 21, 22.] If the Wicked will turn from all his Sins, that he hath committed, and keep all my Statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. All bis Transgressions that be bath committed, they shall not be mention'd unto bim: In bis Righteousness that be bath done he shall live.

The feventh and last Judgment, belonging to these Times, I reckon to be Storms of Thunder and Lightening, and Tempests, and their consequent Shipwrecks, which have been so frequent and dreadful of late; beginning, in my own Life-time, with that amazing Storm, Nov. 27, 1703. On Account of which that admirable Collect of Thanksgiving and Prayer, was appointed and used in the publick Service; which I have formerly fet down, Pag. 409, 410, and which is highly fit to be appointed and used again upon Occasion of the late Earthquakes and Storms, as it stands in the second Edition of my Common Prayer Book, herewith published. But I have already fo fully spoken of these Storms, and Earthquakes, as the fulfilling of facred Predictions, No. 35, and 52, prius, that I shall add no more upon them in this Place.

But before I proceed farther, I must add one Obfervation, that many of our minute Philosophers, (and very minute Philosophers they must be who reason thus) pretend, that all this is done by the Air, or Water, or Earth, or Fire; that all this is no more than the necessary Effects of natural Causes; and that there is therefore no Occasion to have Recourse to the Interposition of Providence, or of any invisible Beings, in Murrain or Locusts, in Meteors or Earthquakes, in Famines, in Storms at Sea or Land, or Pestilences, in Deluges or Conflagrations, &c. And fo-all fuch Addresses as are now made for Reformation and Amendment, in order to propitiate God Almighty, and avert his Indignation, are no better than the Effects of Enthusiasm, thusiasm, and Superstition; and still to no Manner of Purpose. Natural Causes, say these pretended Philosophers, will have their natural Effects: Nor are we to attempt to folve fuch Phænomena otherwife than by Philosophy. This Reasoning always puts me in Mind of what I met with fome Years ago in one of our News-Papers, which was written to comfort those Men, who began to be affrighted at the killing of some Persons by Thunder and Lightening; where the Writer gravely tells them, that Philosophers ought to take away the Causes of such Terror, by informing them of the mechanical or philosophical Solution of Thunder and Lightening; as if any such pretended, and but pretended Solutions could prevent the killing of any Men, or other Animals, by the like Storms afterwards. This is quite to mistake the State of the Case, and to confound the secondary Instruments with the original Agents. This is to folve the Slaughter of Men in a Battle, by observing that Gunpowder, and Guns, and Swords, and Spears, &c. are all natural Bodies, and by pretending that they can murder Men of themselves mechanically without any Recourse to the Commands of Princes, or Generals of Armies, or the fighting of Soldiers, or to the Reasons and Caufes of fuch Battles, which yet are certainly not bare mechanical Tools, but the Acts of rational Creatures, and capable of Rewards or Punishments, according as the Causes of such Wars are just or unjust; who are alone accountable for the Effects that are mechanical, and for the Slaughters there made. The Ark of Noah was a mechanical Building, Building, and when built would naturally swim upon Water, and fave the Creatures therein contain'd: Yet does not this hinder, but the Salvation of Noab and of his Family, and of the Animals in the Ark with him, is justly to be ascrib'd to the Divine Direction for building fuch an Ark, and to Noab's Obedience to that Direction. Brimstone and Fire are natural Bodies, and would naturally burn Sodom and Gomorrab, if they fell upon thefe Cities. Yet does this no Way lessen the Interposition of Providence, and Instrumentality of the Angels of God, who were fent to bring down that tremendous Judgment upon its most wicked Inhabitants. Nor did Lot's Sons-in-Law, who looked upon Lot as one that mock'd or banter'd, [Gen. xix. 13.] when he would have them believe what the Angels said, gain any Thing by their Scepticism; but immediately perished in the Iniquity of the City; [v. 14.] Mechanical Causes do not dispose and act of themselves, independently on those rational Agents that are employed, much less independently on the Author of all those natural Causes and rational Agents themselves, Almighty God, the common Creator and Governor of all Things. Our Business therefore, is not here with aerial Vapours, with Sulphur, or Nitre, which are the inanimate Instruments on these Occasions, &c. but with the rational Inftruments themselves employ'd by God, either for the Delivery of the Good, or the Punishment of the Bad; which, if we take our Notions from the Experience and Testimony of all Ages, facred and profane, are no other than the Angels gels of Peace, or good Angels, acting according to the Direction of God himself; or else the evil Angels or wicked Damons, acting according to their own evil Inclinations, by God's Permission; but still for ever under his omnipotent Controul, in all Cases whatfoever. Thus in the oldest Book in our Bible, the Book of Job, the fore Afflictions of that holy Man were, by the Permission of God, brought upon him by Satan, or the Devil himself. [70b. i. ii. with xxxviii. xlii.] And his Delivery from thence at last, and his long and great Prosperity afterwards, were owing to the Appearance of his Redeemer, the divine Person of the Messiah, or of God himself by him. Thus when Senacherib, that proud and blasphemous King of Assyria, was to be destroyed for his Pride and Blasphemy against the God of Ifrael, [2 Kings xix. If. xxxvii.] It was effected most probably by a fiery Blast, or Wind; but certainly by the Ministry of an Angel, who slew 185000 Men of his Army in one Night's Time. [2 Kings xix. 35. If. xxxvii. 36.] Nor, in my own Opinion, are the ordinary Phænomena of our Air, excepting those that are optical and not real, fuch as are our Pictures in a Glass, to be solved barely by Principles of natural Philosophy, without the Agency of some invisible and rational Powers. Nor indeed, where the Phænomena are optical, and not real, fuch as Halos, Rainbows, Mock Suns, &c. can we at all foretell their Appearance beforehand, as in Solutions of Phænomena properly mechanical, fuch as the Laws of Motion, both unelastick, perfectly and imperfectly elaftick elastick Bodies, we can readily do. [See my Difcourse upon the Northern Lights, A. D. 1715-6. Pag. 68.-72.] Nor is there, I think, the least Pretence to any fuch mechanical Power in our Air, as can collect a Mass of nitrosulphureous Vapours, more than equivalent to 100000 Barrels of Gunpowder, and throw them with fuch a prodigious Force, as a Ball of Fire, 250 Miles, in half a Quarter of a Minutes Time; which yet the Obfervations of that Ball of Fire, A. D. 1718-9, undeniably prove to have been certain Fact. this Instance is the more pertinent to the present Occasion, because in my Pamphlet published about that latter Meteor, I have shewed, that it seems to have been no other Fire and Brimstone, by which Sodom and Gomorrab were destroyed, than that Ball of Fire exhibited to us. And I venture to fay, in Consequence of what is there demonstrated, that if the like Crime of Sodomy, so frequent in London of late, be to be punished after the like Manner, as were Sodom and Gomorrab in the Days of Abraham, fuch a Ball of Fire can do it effectually, if it please God to send it; and if it be fent, we have no possible Security against it at this Day; but all the Inhabitants of London, Westminster, and Southwark, as I have said already, may be destroyed thereby in a small Part of a fingle Minute also; without any Means of Deliverance whatsoever. Our only Hope is in the Mercy of God, and that this large City, how wicked foever it be in the Generality of its Inhabitants, has many more than the Ten; nay, I hope

.pro-

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 195 proportionably more than the fifty righteous within the City; [Gen. xviii. 23—33.] which Numbers, upon the Intercession of Abraham, had they been found in Sodom, God would have spared the whole City for their Sakes.

What fuch greatMen as Mr. Boyle, or Dr. Lister, or Dr. Hale, or even Mr. Flamsteed say, which last scems me to go upon greater Evidence than the rest, and to write with more Judgment, in his Letter concerning Earthquakes, lately published, comes to no more, I think, than some posfible, rather than probable Hypotheses, of a mechanical Solution of Earthquakes; nay, proposes rather to find the Materials than to ascertain the Agent or Manner of Action or Explosion; whether it be within the Earth or in the Air, which later Mr. Flamsteed supposes. Nor would these Hypotheses be much rely'd on I imagin, by fuch eminent Persons, but out of that Fear which induced Sir Isaac Newton himself, at Mr. Machin's Suggestion, to make his very weak, and indeed almost wholly groundless Hypotheses, for a mechanical Solution of Gravity, I mean that Royal Societies, and their Members ought to have a Care of proposing what will be thought unphilosopbical; as was the Case of Sir Isaac, even against the constant declar'd Sense of his own Mind for many Years together. However, Mr. Flamsteed is here so just and fair, as very nearly to come into my Opinion, that an higher Agent or Agents are concern'd in these aerial Explosions, as he shews most of the Earthquakes to be, Pag. 10, 11. [I fay only most Earthquakes, not all: For it evidently appears by that at Taunton, in the Transactions, No. 488. Pag. 400, and others, that the Motion comes fometimes from the Ground, and not from the Air.] 'You will ask, says he, how Explosions are made? I must answer, I know not whether it be by diffolving fome glutinous Matter, that holds the nitrous Particles close wrapt up, like Springs in Watches, and fo permitting them to explicate themselves, or otherwise. For all our Knowledge is but a Train of Comparisons, which are clear and diftinct when abstracted from Matter, as in geometrical Contemplations; but dark and obscure when involved with it, as in this Subject. All I can pretend to, is by comparing some of the beforementioned Circumstances of Earthquakes, with Accidents more common amongst us, and which we think we understand well enough, to shew you fuch Similitudes as may fatisfy you, that both proceed from like Causes. Which how they operate we must be content to be ignorant, till we rest in the Boof Providence, the first Cause, where they lie bid, and whither all the Considerations of Nature e lead us; enquire not therefore how Explosions are and e. And as for the vast Caverns and Passages for this nitrofulphureous Matter, to be supposed so very deep underground, as to move so vast a Bulk of Earth, as all the South Parts of England, all the Netherlands, with Part of Germany, all France, and perhaps Italy, which were shock'd at once, Sept. 8, 1692, or Part of Asia, and near all Europe, which trembled together the same Day 91 Years before, which Mr. Flamsteed cannot digest.

gest, I take the Hypothesis to be quite precarious and like that to which the Fear of owning too much the Influence of invisible Beings or Dæmons in the heathen Oracles, brought Sir Isaac Newton himself, I mean to suppose such Caverns and Passages for counterfeiting the heathen Oracles in their Temples, as was destitute of all Foundation in the World. No such Caverns or Passages having ever been discovered by the Christians, when under Constantine, they were demolished; [See Reflections on Free-thinking, Pag. 21.] the Discovery of which would yet have greatly consounded the Heathens and served the Christians of that Age. But of such fictitious Hypotheses I shall add no more here.

But now, to digress a little, it may deferve Consideration here, what I insisted on at one of these Lectures, and in my Observations on Dr.: Middleton, Pag. 6—12. as to those Demoniacal Powers, which the Devil set up in the 4th Century, instead of the truly genuine Divine or Angelical Powers before that Time; I mean to take distinct Notice how such Powers were foretold, as Punishments for that Antichristianism, which was then beginning to be established by Law. Take first the Texts that contain Predictions of these Dæmoniacal Powers in order as follows;

[2 Thess. ii. 8, 9.] Then shall that wicked [Man of Sin,] [the Son of Perdition, v. 3.] be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his Mouth, and shall destroy with the Brightness of his coming: whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all Power, and Signs, and Wonders of a Lie,

2 &c

&c. [Apoc. xiii. 14.] The Second Beast doth great Wonders; so that he maketh Fire to come down from Heaven upon the Earth, in the Sight of Men, and deceiveth them that dwell on the Earth by those Miracles which he had Power to do, in the Sight of the [other] Beaft.

[xvi. 14.7 The three unclean Spirits are the Spirits of Dæmons, working Miracles; which go forth unto the Kings of the Earth, and of the whole World, to gather them to the Battle of the great Day of God Almighty.

[Mat. xxiv. 24.] There shall arise false Christs, and false Prophets, and Shall Shew great Signs and Wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very Elect. Behold I have told you before.

[Constitut. vi. 18.] There shall come false Christs, and false Prophets, and shall shew Signs in the Heaven, so as if it were possible, to deceive the Elect.

Now the Reason for inserting these Testimonies here, is to caution Christians against the later Antichristian, Popish and Athanasian Pretences to supernatural Powers and miraculous Operations, as Testimonials to the Truth of their Doctrines. Not that they are all meer vain Pretences, and false Facts: For that cannot be supposed, unless the foregoing Predictions of our Saviour and his Apostles, which so strongly foretell them, be supposed vain, and never to have been fulfilled; but that all true Christians, should take particular Notice of our Saviour's Words here, Behold I have told you before, and therefore ought not to fuffer them-themselves to be imposed upon by such deceitful and dæmoniacal Signs and Wonders, to colour over the groffest Heresies, or Corruptions in Religion. The Case was the very same of Old in the Contest between the Magicians and Moses in Egypt; wherein the Magicians, by the Aid of their Dæmons, imitated three of Moses's Miracles, and turned their Rods into Serpents, [Ex. vii. 11, 12.] and turned Water into Blood, [v. 22.] and brought Frogs; [viii. 7.] while upon the next Miracle of Moses, the Plague of Lice, the Divine Power interposed, and restrain'd those Dæmons from any more Pretences to vie with Moses any longer. Nay those Magicians found, that as Moses's Rod turned into a Serpent, swallowed up their Rods, [vii. 12.] fo they confess'd, that this last Miracle was the Finger of God himself, [viii. 18, 19.] and was not to be contradicted by their Dæmoniacal Powers any longer; nay, they could not themselves, with all the Affistance of their Dæmons, avoid the terrible Pestilence of Boils and Blains as we read. Txi. 11.7 which Superiority of the Divine Power over all that the Dæmoniacal Powers can do, is justly and wifely infifted on by the great Mr. Lock, in his judicious Discourse of Miracles, as a certain Kerrnerov. of fuch Divine Powers in all fuch Contests, and an universal Distinction between Miracles derived from God himself, and those derived from Dæmons. We have also a direct and strong Caution which God gave the Israelites, in this very Case, which supposed the Power of the Heathen Gods, or Dæmons, in producing Signs and Wonders, which might might come to pass for their Deception into-Idolatry, and fully expects that this folemn Prediction or Caution, like that of our Saviours already mentioned, should prevent such their Deception.

Deut. xiii. 1-5.] If there arise among you a Prophet or a Dreamer of Dreams, and giveth thee a Sign or a Wonder;

2. And the Sign or the Wonder come to pass, whereof he spake to thee, saying, Let us go after other Gods, (which thou hast not known) and let us ferve them;

3. Thou shalt not hearken to the Words of that Prophet, or that Dreamer of Dreams: For the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your Heart, and with all your Soul.

4. Ye shall walk after the Lord your God, and fear bim, and keep his Commandments, and obey his Voice, and you shall serve bim, and cleave unto bim.

5. And that Prophet, or that Dreamer of Dreams shall be put to Death: (because he bath spoken to turn you away from the Lord your God, which brought you out of the Land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the House of Bondage: [by such miraculous Works, many more in Number, and entirely superior to the pretended Signs and Wonders of the Magicians, derived from your Idols or Dæmons, the Idols themselves being drowned also, with their Worshippers by the God of Ifrael in the Red Sea; [Ex. xii. 12.7 to thrust thee out of the Way which the Lord thy God commanded thes to walk in ;] so shalt thou put the Evil away from the Midst of thee.

Now I have here particularly inferted this Difcourse, because of the Delusions that have of late been occasioned from the Want of this most material Distinction, between magical or Damoniacal Operations, and truly Divine Miracles, by the Athanasians and Papists; and this very lately in two famous Inftances. A learned, and otherwise a very worthy Clergyman, Dr. Berriman by Name, has several Years infifted on a pretended Divine Attestation to the Athanasian Doctrine, by certain Athanasians of the fifth Century, speaking after their Tongues had been cut out by the Arians. The Evidences for the Facts are, I think, fully fatisfactory: But being done fo long after the Divine Power of Miracles had been taken away from the Church, and the Dæmoniacal come in their Place, they were rather Confutations than Confirmations of that Athanasian Heresy. The French Jansenists also, some Years ago, made a mighty Ado with the miraculous Cures done by the dead Body of the Abbee Paris, near the City of Paris; And the Proofs feem also to me very numerous, and very fatisfactory, or rather entirely undeniable. Yet, because they seem to have ceased upon the Silence imposed upon the Partizans of the Jansenists, by the Royal Authority; and because they were done so very long after the ceasing of the really true, miraculous, or Divine Miracles, and near the End of the Antichristian Times themselves, these Jansenists cannot hence infer the Truth of any of their Tenets. As to the Distinction of the Signs themselves. Divine or Damoniacal, moniacal, the Author of the Recognitions affures us. [Recognit. iii. 59, 60.] and this in the Name of St. Peter himself, that generally the Divine Signs tend to the Benefit of Mankind; while the other are useless and unprofitable. Only he adds, what comes up fully to the Cures of Abbee Paris, that At the Conclusion of the World only, 'tis allow'd the evil One to intermix fome of the profitable Signs, i. e. to drive away Dæmons, and to cure Diseases; and that he will on that Account be destroyed, as one that has gone beyond his Bounds, and is divided against himself. And therefore is it, that the Lord foretold, that in the · last Days there would be so great a Trial, that therein, if it were possible the Elect themselves e would be deceived: [Matt. xxiv. 24.7 that upon this confounding together the Characteristicks of the Signs; even those that seem'd well skilled in discerning of Spirits, and distinguishing Miracles,

" must be in Confusion also."

But now, after all, to leave this Digression, and to return to my main Design, it may properly be here asked, if Things are in this perillous State, and we have the justest Cause to believe that the Divine Vengeance is already begun, and that we are in the uttermost Jeopardy of being soon and suddenly destroyed by it, What shall we do to be saved? How shall we be able to escape these terrible Calamities? I answer, that the it has appeared all along that the few really good Christians, will be preferved from those Judgments, by a particular Providence, when [Matt. xxiv. 40, 41.] two shall be in the Field, the one shall be taken, and the other left: Two Women shall be grinding at the Mill, the one shall be taken and the other left: Yet, what Comfort is this for the Body of a wicked Nation and more wicked Metropolis? Who can by no Means lay Claim to fuch Comfort. I answer farther, in Bishop Sherlock's own Words, upon this Occasion, in his Letter, Pag. 12. Let us not despair, there is still one Remedy left; and whatever Reason we have to condemn ourselves; yet this we may be fure, that God bas not forgotten to be gracious. To him let us turn with hearty Repentance for our Sins, and with a Refolution to do, each of us in his proper Station, what lies' in our Power to stem the Torrent of Iniquity, which threatens our Ruin. But to be more explicite, I shall here add, what I twice proposed to my Auditors at my third Lecture, that I fee no other possible. Way of appealing the hot Anger of a just God (to fay nothing now of what I repeated a little above out of the Book of foel) than the fame that is proposed to us in the third Chapter of the Book of Jonab; which had its full and happy Effect at that Time, and faved the great City of Nineveh, after they had been folemnly doomed to Destruction by the Prophet in the Name of God himself; premising only this standing Rule of God in fuch Cases, by his Prophet Jeremiab, [xviii. 7-10.] At what Instant I shall speak concerning a People, and concerning a Kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; if that Nation against whom I have pronounced, turn from their Evil, I will repent of the Evilthat I thought to do unto them. And at what Instant I shall speak concerning a Nation, and concerning a Kingdom, to build and to plant it; if it do Evil in my Sight, that it obey not my Voice, then I will repent of the Good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

[Jon: iii. 1.] And the Word of the Lord came to Jonah the second Time, saying:

2. Arise, Go unto Niniveh, that great City, and preach unto it the Preaching that I bid thee.

3. So Jonah arose, and went unto Niniveh, according to the Word of the Lord: (Now Niniveh was an exceeding great City, of three Days Journey.)

4. And Jonah began to enter into the City a Days Journey: And he cried, and said, Yet three Days. [For fo was the true original Reading: See Sacred Hist. of the New Test. Vol. v. Pag. 291.] and Niniveh shall be overthrown.

5. So the People of Niniveh believed God, and proclaimed a Fast, and put on Sack-cloth, from the greatest of them, even to the least of them.

6. For Word came unto the King of Niniveh; and he arose from his Throne, and he laid his Robe from him, and cover'd him with Sack-cloth, and sat in Ashes.

7. And he caused to be proclaimed and published thro' Niniveh, (by the Decree of the King, and of his Nobles) faying, Let neither Man nor Beast, Herd, nor Flock taste any Thing; let them not feed, nor drink Water.

8. But let Man and Beast be cover'd with Sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: Yea let them turn every one from their evil Way, and from the Violence that is in their Hands.

9. Who can tell if God will turn and repent?

And turn away from his fierce Anger; that we perish not.

10. And God saw their Works, that they turned from their evil Way, and God repented of the Evil that he had said, he would do unto them, and he did it not.

N. B. This most serious Humiliation and Repentance of the King and People of Ninivel, with their most solemn Fast, and mighty Cries to God, which procured their Forgiveness and Deliverance, were, we fee here, accompanied with their turning from their evil Ways, and from the Violence that was in their Hands. Which is accordingly become now our indispensible Duty, by Way of Preparation for any folemn Fasts, and folemn Supplications, if we be really in earnest, and in earnest hope to obtain the Divine Compassion in our present Distresses. We know that God heareth not Sinners; but that if any Man be a Worshipper of God, and doth bis Will, bim be beareth: [Joh. ix. 31.] Nor certainly can the present established Church and publick Government, discharge their proper Duty, and have Reason to expect Deliverance at this Time upon any other Foundation. Such pretended Fasts as are proclaimed at the political Advice of Courtiers, and observed as usual, are rather a Provocation to God Almighty, and an additional Load of Guilt, than a Means of appealing his Displeafure, fure, fo fully manifested against us at this Time: I well remember that there was once such a Fast appointed; when the Lord Sunderland, call'd then King Sunderland, was first Minister. He was for advising the King or Queen that then reigned, to go in State to St. Paul's, for its more pompous Celebration. And when somebody that was prefent faid, that was a Jest indeed, to go in such a pompous Manner, upon a Day of Humiliation. The Lord Sunderland replied, the Fast itself is a Jest. This Account I had from a Friend of mine that heard him speak the Words; so that till the Publick is really in earnest, and the great Men will cast off their Harlots, or all but those who are known to be their lawful Wives, till they leave off Gaming on the Lord's Day, nay indeed upon any Day; till they lay aside their Masquerades, and Ridotto's, their Plays and merry Meetings at Ranelagh House, and the like Places of Riot and Revelling, with their other Court Fooleries, (which yet our News informs us, goe on at our Court at Hanover still) there is no Hope of their escaping the Hand of God, which is now so apparently stretch'd out against them. However, the trifling Conduct of these Men about Days of Fasting, ought to be no Discouragement to the ferious Fasting and Prayers and Hopes of other good Christians on such Occasion's. Forasthe Apostle fay in the Constitutions, ii. 22. 'Did not God, by Nathan, reproach David for his Offence? And yet as soon as he said he repented, he delivered him from Death, faying, be of good Chear, thou fhalt not die. [2 Sam. xii. 13.] So also when God had caused Jonah to be swallowed up by the Sea, and the Whale, upon his Resusal to preach to the Ninivites, when yet he prayed to. him out of the Belly of the Whale; he retriev'd his Life from Corruption. [Jon. i. 17, and ii.] And when Hezekiah had been puffed up for a while, yet as foon as he prayed, with Lamentation, he remitted his Offence. [2 Kings xx. 3.] And above all the Apostles there recommend the Case of the wickedest of all the Kings of Judah, Manasseb, with God's Forgiveness of him notwithstanding, upon his fincere Repentance and earnest Prayer to him in Prison; which Prayer is one of the fittest Forms of Prayer in all the Bible, for the present Occasion, especially for wicked Kings and Nobles, by whose Examples and Encouragement it frequently is, that Wickedness spreads over a whole Land. This Form, when those Constitutions were written, was contain'd both in the Book of Kings and Chronicles; as it is still mentioned, [2 Chr. xxxiii. 12, 13.] tho' it be now unwarrantably thrust down among the Books we call Apocrypha. It is also said in the same Book of Chronicles. and in the same Place, [v. 18. 19.] that When this Manasseh was in Affliction, he besought the Lord his God, and humbled himself greatly before the Lord God of bis Fathers, and prayed to him, and he was intreated of him, and heard his Supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into bis Kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord he was God. Or in the Words of the Constitutions, 'That tho' the Lord God for a while pu-· nished e nished him that was addicted to Idols, and had flain many innocent Persons, yet he received him when he repented, and forgave him his Offences, and restored him to his Kingdom. I add, for a Conclusion, the Words of God himfelf by Isaiab the Prophet, elsewhere cited in these Constitutions.' To this Man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite Spirit, and trembleth at my Word. [If. lxxvi. 2. Constitut. vii.

8.7

However, let the Great and the Proud, and the Vain People about the Court, act as impiously and impudently as they please, while Providence bears with them, and gives them Time and Space for their Repentance, which they at present seem no Way disposed for; this may and ought to be indeed Matter of great Lamentation to their pious and religious Friends, and Relations, and to oblige them to most ardent Prayers for, and most importunate Admonitions to them; as knowing that against obstinate Sinners God is a jealous God, and a confuming Fire; [Ex. xx. 5. Heb. xii. 29.] and remembring the ferious Interrogation the Prophet Ezekiel puts to fuch a Man, [Ezek. xxii. 14.7 Can thine Heart endure, or can thine Hands be frong, in the Day that I shall deal with thee? But then those pious and religious Men are to remember our Saviour's Exhortation to them, upon the very first Beginnings of these divine Judgments, from which they will be themselves providentially saved [Luk: xxi. 28.] When these Things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your Heads, because your your Redemption, or Delivery from the Oppressions and Persecutions of such great wicked Men, draweth nigh. And considering that such great wicked Men, who will not take Warning by such affecting Signals of the divine Displeasure as we have lately had, will generally grow worse and worse, the longer they are borne with in this World, and so will have greater Guilt and heavier Punishment hereaster; such a sudden Vengeance, as, I believe, Providence is going to take on them, is rather an Instance of God's Pity and Compassion to these misserable Creatures; and it is therefore not to hinder good Men from rejoicing in their own Deliverance from them.

I conclude the Whole in the very wife, serious, moving, and seasonable Words of an unknown Author, who subscribes himself Publicus, in his Letter to the Printer of the General Evening Post, inserted into that Paper, from Tuesday, April 17, to Thursday, April 19, 1750; which I desire the Citizens of London to accept as my own Address to them, upon this solemn Occasion.

SIR,

Have been informed, that the late Alarm of an Earthquake, not only diffuses its Terrors to Mankind, [which the vaft Multitude, perhaps 100,000, that retired, out of their Houses, into

' Hyde-Park, &c. on the 4th of this Month, upon a groundless Panick of a third Earthquake to happen that Night, does abundantly testify] but even to the Animals that were in our Streets, and our Fields: But as we transcend the Animals; as we are Creatures endowed with intellectual Powers, and capable of Religion, fo I would hope that we fhall give Proof of our Reason and Religion, by looking beyond fecond Causes, to the great God of all; who loudly demands from us, in the late

Shocks, our Veneration and Obedience.

Though the Author and Sovereign of Nature, may, in this awful Event, have employed fecond Causes, as the Instruments of his Displeasure against a finful City, yet I beseech the Inhabitants of it not to add this to all their other Iniquities, ' a Denial, or Difregard of an over-ruling Providence.

Without Doubt, the Great God, when he denounced Pestilence, Famine, War, and the like direful Calamities to the Israelites, intended to accomplish his Threatnings by second Causes: And ' yet, if we fearch the facred Books, where the divine Threatnings are recorded, we shall find that fuch tremendous Events were resolved, by the Prophets, into a divine Agency, or Permiffion.

We are taught from Scripture to conceive of God, as upholding all Things by the Word of his Power, Heb. i. 3. We are led to believe, that of Him, and to Him, and through Him, are all · Things, Rom. xi. 36. That in Him we live and move, and bave our Beings, Acts xvii. 28. and that.

that, by Him, all Things confift, Col. i. 17. And furely, fuch Representations of the Deity, direct

' us to conceive of Him, as by an immediate Ener- 'gy, fustaining the World He has made; and therefore we are not to suffer our Thoughts to stagnate,

- when all fuch awful Events as have lately alarmed
- our City arise, in any Instruments the great God
- ' may use, but through the Medium, we are to
- regard and reverence the almighty and constant
- ' Governor of all.
- Methinks the Voice of Reason joins with the - Declarations of Scripture. Reason tells us, that
- ' God is the Creator of all Things; and consequent-
- ' ly, that He furnishes His Creatures, whether ani-
- · mate, or inanimate, with all their Qualities and
- ' Powers. Will not Reason farther approve, when
- we fay, that God, who has made, preserves all - 'Things? For how can it be imagined, that the
- continual Harmonies, and Wonders of the Uni-
- ' verse, can be maintained, without the perpetual
- · Confervation of those Laws, by which the vast
- 'Structure of Nature is governed? And where
- fhall we find Wisdom and Power sufficient for
- ' this great Work, short of that Being, whose
- Wisdom and Power produced the amazing Sy-
- ftem ?
- 'The Heathens, when they were visited with any such dreadful Events as have lately awaken-
- ed our Terror, fled to their Gods for Refuge,
- as the Mariners in the Tempest recorded in Jo-
- as the Mariners in the Temper recorded in Jonab, Ch. i. 5. And shall we be worse than Pagans?

P₂ Or

5 Or shall we relapse into Epicureanism, and imae gine a Deity who takes no Cognizance of, and exerts no Powers in the World about us; and hereby, at one fatal Blow, cut off our Fear, Dependance, Hope, and Consolation, in that God, whose we are, and whom we ought to serve?

The Exclusion of the Deity from such alarming Events as have lately shocked us, will afford

but little Comfort, if the Ground should open under our Feet, and threaten to swallow us up.

And what greater Lenitive will the Person, who believes an Earthquake to be a meer Chance, find

4 above that Person who believes it is God that cleaves the Earth afunder, to answer some Pur-opole or another perfectly wife, and worthy of his fupreme Administration? Nay, will not a Confidence in the Deity, as the Governor of all 'Things, and a well-grounded Hope in his infinite

Mercy, support and cherish the Mind in the Pro-fpects of fuch a Danger, and in the very Season of its Attack? He that shuts out God from our World, does just as much Service, as he, who, was it in his Power, would pluck the Sun from its Sphere, or extinguish his universal Light, and 6 benign Influences.

Let the Inhabitants of this great City know, that ' if there is any Evil in the City, the great God has done it, Amos iii. 6. and with one Heart and Soul revere his Justice, tremble at his Power, forfake their Iniquities, and turn to God, with fin-cere Repentance, and a Faith in the Merits and Mediation

Mediation of his Son Jesus; lest, for a Neglect at the Beginning of the divine Judgments, and our Sorrows, God should be provoked, by another more dreadful Shock, to bury us in the Ruins of our own Houses, or send us alive into the Pit of Destruction. Such a Regard and Im-oprovement of the divine Judgments, is the fin-cere Wish of

Yours,

Publicus.

ADDENDA

المالية المالية المناسب المناسب المناسب Page 448, Line 11, add,

User Syla ?

7 11 17 4 4 4 4 4 6 7 7 17 17 17 7

AKE this Inscription, as it was drawn up by Mr. Killingworth, verbatim, as it occurs in a Letter he wrote to me dated at Norwich, May 11, 1749.

IN MEMORY OF

Mr. WILLIAM BARON, LATE MINISTER OF THE GOSPEL: BY WHOSE FAITH IN GOD. WITH FASTING, AND PRAYER, AND ANOINTING WITH OIL; IN THE NAME OF THE LORD MANY WERE HEALED OF THEIR DISEASES. HE WAS A FAITHFUL SERVANT OF CHRIST, CONTENDED EARNESTLY FOR THE FAITH ONCE DELIVERED TO THE SAINTS: AND DIED IN THE FIRM BELIEF OF A RESURRECTION TO AN HAPPY IMMORTALITY, THE GIFT OF THE ONE ONLY SUPREME GOD THE FATHER

BY THE MINISTRATION OF HIS SON JESUS CHRIST, VII FEBRUARY, MDCCXXX-I, IN THE LII YEAR OF HIS AGE.

N. B. That at the Time of the second London Earthquake, there was so current a Report spread over the Nation, that the great Sir Isacc Newton had himself foretold that Earthquake, and that it would be derived from the Approach of the Planet Jupiter, that I thought fit to contradict fuch an idle and groundless Report in an Advertisement, upon March 14, 1750, in the Daily Advertiser, in the Words following:

Mr. Wbiston gives notice, That though he expects many more Earthquakes in the World, within a Year, or two at the farthest, before the Restoration of the Jews, as Signals of its Approach, and of the horrible Miseries the wicked Part of the Jews and Christians will be subject to, while the really Pious and Good will be providentially delivered from them, yet does he not in the least believe that Sir Isaac Newton ever foretold any Earthquake; and is fure that Jupiter, at the Beginning of this Year 1750, was, and is above 400,000,000 Miles off the Earth, and fo could not possibly have any Influence on Earthquakes here below.

Page 652, Line 12, add, The same Circumstances about the Original Sin at the Fall of Man. feem to me to have occasion'd another Memorial of it in the Days of Abraham and Jacob, at least inthe Family whence the Messiah was to spring; I mean, when in Oaths, they put their Hand under the Thigh, Gen. xxiv. 2, 9. xlvii. 29. the Meaning of which is not unobvious, and feems to me to have had the like Meaning with Circumcision already fet down:

N.B. The two Notes at the End of my most important additional Sheet upon the Revelation, refering to the same as here inserted, are omitted, as unneceffary Repetitions. Page 45, Line 23, add, See also the two last very large and remarkable Chapters of 4 Eldras, which feem to belong to these Times also. Page 58, Line 26, add, besides the last Earthquake, on Thursday, Aug. 23, at Clumber, at Grantham, at Lyndon, at Lincoln, and Stamford. &c. Page 149, Line 12, for fix read feven .. Page 181, Line 7, dele within the Bills of Mortality.

Instructions and Advice to CATHO-LICKS, &c. [from their Bishop in London.

O serious Christian can doubt, but that Earthquakes, whensoever they happen, and whatfoever Causes may bring them about, are indeed the handy Work of God. All Nature is his Hand-maid; and the whole Creation is ready at his Beck to take Arms to revenge his Caufe upon his Enemies, Wifd. v. 18. And we find, upon Examination, that the most dreadful of his Judgments are usually executed by natural Causes, which he makes the Instruments of his Justice.

2. Earthquakes are justly looked upon as Indications of the Wrath of God, enkindled against his People by their Sins. So the Holy Fathers understood them. [St. Gregory, Homily 35.] So the Church understands them in her Collects appointed to be read on those Occasions. They are reckoned up by our Lord himself amongst the Beginnings of Sorrows, the Forerunners of the last and most dreadful Judgment of God upon impenitent Sinners, Matt. xxiv. 7, 8.

3. We have then too much Reason to apprehend that these late Earthquakes are Tokens that God is at present angry with us; and that the Sword of his Justice is actually hanging over our Heads, and threatning us with the worst of his Judgments. And what else indeed can any one expect, who ferioully reflects on the Multitude and Enormity of the Blasphemies, Perjuries, and other crying Sins, that are so common among all Sorts of People: Sins more heinous in the Sight of God, than the very Crimes that drew down his Wrath upon Sodom; and committed with so much Audaciousness and Impunity, as if it were in Defiance of Heaven: Besides that general Lewdnefs, Injustice, profane Swearing, and other Vices which every-where reign, together with an utter Contempt of all Religion, and Profanation of all that is facred. And though we flatter ourselves that those who are of the Houshold of Faith are much more free than their Neighbours, from the Generality of these crying Evils; yet, when we consider confider their Sins in another Light, as committed with greater Knowledge, and by them that have been more highly favoured, and as attended too often with a facrilegious Abuse of our most tremendous Mysteries, we cannot but apprehend an Aggravation in them, which is exceedingly provoking in the Sight of the Almighty, whole Judgment usually begins at his own House, 1 Pet. iv. 17. and the Execution of his. Justice at his own Sanctuary, Ezek. ix. 6.

- 4. But as we are convinced on the one Hand, that our Sins cry aloud for Justice; and that it is purely owing to the incomprehenfible Patience and Forbearance of our good God, that we have not long fince been utterly destroyed; as innumerable Cities have been, that in all Appearance were not half fo guilty; fo, on the other Hand, we cannot but look upon ourselves, as highly indebted to his infinite Goodness, that instead of commanding us to be fwallowed up on a fudden, under all our Guilt, he has fent us thefe late Shocks as merciful Warnings to withdraw us from our Sins, by the Apprehension of his impending Judgments, and fo bring us, like the Ninevites, to a ferious Conversion, and Change of Life.
- 5. We are then threatened indeed, as Nineveb was; but, through the Mercy of God, may escape as Nineveh did; if, like Nineveh, we take Warning from these Indications of the divine Wrath, and turn in like Manner from our evil Ways. It is what the Church of God invites all her Children to do at this penitential Time: To turn to the Lord with their their whole Heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning, Joel ii. 12. To seek the Lord whilst he may be found, to call upon him whilst he is near, Isai. lv. 6. To forsake their evil Ways, and to do Penance for their Sins, lest otherwise they be suddenly overtaken by Death, and seek Time for Penance, and not be able to find it. Our present Dangers ought now at least to awaken us to give Ear to these pressing Calls of our common Mother.

6. The first Thing then we are to do in Consequence of these Warnings of Heaven, is to turn to God with our whole Heart, by a serious, speedy, and effectual Repentance. This God calls for; this the Church of God calls for; without this (as she perpetually inculcates, and every Child amongst us knows) no Absolution given by Man can be to any other Effect, but to add the Guilt of Sacrilege to the rest of our Sins.

7. We think it our Duty then, at this Time, as Ambassadors for Christ, to address ourselves to all you whom God has committed to our Charge, earnestly to beseech you to be reconciled to God once for all; to turn from all your evil Ways; to come now to the Feet of Christ, and there bewail and confess your Sins, and there lay them down for ever; to join in a Body, to offer a holy Violence to Heaven, by Fasting, Alms, and Prayers; to lay aside the Pomp and Pride of your Ornaments, to retrench your worldly sensual Pleasures, and put on both the Habit and Spirit of true Penitents; lest, if you neglect these Calls and Warnings of Heaven, you be quickly overtaken in your Sins. Remember

Remember there is but a Hair's Breadth at any Time betwixt the Sinner and Hell; and that nothing fooner draws down Judgments, than the Abuse of Mercy, and the Contempt of the Threatnings of Heaven.

8. In the mean time, in order to avert the Wrath of God, and draw down his Mercy, we ordain that all Priefts, in the holy Sacrifice of the Altar (except upon Feasts of the first Class) after the Collect, or Collects of the Day, add the Collect against Earthquakes, and continue so to do till the End of May next; and that in the publick Chapels after Vespers, and Complin on Sundays and Holidays, and after the Complin or Benediction on the Week-days, a Miserere Psalm be sung for the same Intention, with the Versicles and Refponses used in the several Vespers of Lent, and the four first Prayers of the Litany. And we earnestly recommend to all the Faithful, to be diligent in affifting at these Devotions; and in their own Family Prayers, to add daily the same penitential Psalm, in order to implore the divine Mercy.

Ex Missali Romano.

Tempore terræ motûs.

O R, A T, I, O.

Mnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui respicis terram, & facis eam tremere: parce metuentibus, propitiare supplicibus: ut cujus iram terræ sundamenta concutientem expavimus, clementiam contritiones ejus sanantem jugiter sentiamus. Per Dominum nostrum, &c.

SECRETA.

DEUS, qui fundâsti terram super stabilitatem suam, suscipe oblationes & preces populi tui, & trementis terræ periculis penitus amotis, divinæ tuæ iracundiæ terrores, in humanæ salutis remedia converte: ut qui de terra sunt, & in terram revertentur, gaudeant se sieri sancta conversatione cælestes. Per Dominum nostrum, &c.

POST-COMMUNIO.

TUERE nos, Domine, quæsumus, tua sancta sumentes; & terram, quam vidimus nostris iniquitatibus trementem, superno munere firma, ut mortalium corda cognoscant, & te indignante talia slagella prodire, & te miserante cessare. Per Dominum nostrum, &c.

The same in English.

I. COLLECT.

Almighty and everlassing God, who lookest upon the Earth, and makest it tremble; spare them that fear thee, shew Mercy to them that cry to thee; that we who have apprehended thy Wrath, shaking the Foundations of the Earth, may experience thy Clemency in healing all its Breaches. Through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, &c.

SECRETA.

God, who hast founded the Earth upon its own Basis, receive the Oblations and Prayers of thy People; remove entirely from us Dangers of Earthquakes, and turn the Terrors of thy Wrath into Medicines for our Salvation: That we, who are of the Earth, and must return again to the Earth, may have the Happiness to become heavenly by a Saint-like Conversation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ.

POST-COMMUNION.

PRotect us, O Lord, we befeech thee, who partake of thy Holy Sacraments; and by thy heavenly Hand fix the Earth, which we have feen trembling for our Sins; that the Hearts of Mortals may be fensible that fuch Scourges as these proceed from thy Anger, and cease by thy Mercy. Through our Lord, &c.

Extract

Extract out of Clement XI. Orationes Confistoriales. Printed in Folio, after a most pompous Manner, at the Vatican, A.D. 1722.

In Consistorio secreto, kabito die 15 fanuarij, 1703.

ARGUMENTUM.

Concussa ingenti terræ motu proxima notte ac magnopore deterrità
urbe, D. D. Cardinales
admonet, recentem banc calamitatem perspicuum esse cælestis iræ argumentum; eosque ad illa edenda veræ pænitentiæ
Es christianæ pietatis exempla quibus divina
misericordia concilietur, accendit.

Venerabiles fratres,

PRæterità nocte, ut probè nostis, dedit Dominus metuentibus se signiIn the fecret Confistory, which was held the 15th Day of January, 1703.

The ARGUMENT.

When the City had been shaken by a great Earthquake the last Night, and the Inhabitants bad been very much affrighted, the Pope admonishes the Cardinals, that this fo late Calamity is an evident Sign of the Anger of God, and stirs them up to the Exhibition of such Specimens of true Repentance and Chri-Stian Piety, whereby the Divine Mercy may be recovered.

My venerable Brethren,

THE Lord has afforded to such as fear him the last Night,

as

fignificationem, ut fugiant à facie arcus. Commovit terram, & conturbavitleam: fanavit contritiones ejus, quia commota eft. Iratus eft, & misertus est nobis. Sunt hæc profecto miserentis Dei monita, qui ostendit populo fuo dura, ut potaret nos vino compunctionis. Sunt patris amantissimi voces, quas nos, uti filios obsequentissimos, auscultare convenit; ne alias inter tot, quibus circumdamur, obstrepentium malorum pericula, misere indormientes, exprobari nobis audiamus propheticum illud, percussisti eos, & non doluerunt, attrivisti eos, & renuerunt accipere disciplinam : fecerunt peccata nostra ut in ea propemodum luctuofa tempora incidisse videamur, de quibus Salvator noster prædixit, Surget gens contra gentem, & regnum adversus regnum, & erunt terræ motus per loca.

as you well know, an Intimation that they should flee from the Face of the Bow. [Ifa. xxi. 15.] He has mov'd the Earth, and disturb'd it; he has healed its Wounds, because it has been moved; he has been angry at us, and had Mercy upon us. Certainly these are the Admonitions of a compafsionate God, who shews his People hard Things, that he might make us drink the Wine of Compunction. They are the Voices of a most loving Father, which it becomes us, as his most obedient Children, to hearken to; lest otherwise, slumbering amidst so many Dangers and Miseries, with which we are furrounded, we may hear that of the Prophet, as a Reproach to us: Thou hast smitten them, but they have not grieved; thou hast forely afflicted them, and they have refused to receive Correction. Our Sins have loea. Quod tamen Christi Domini verbis utentes non fine lacrymis dicimus, Hac omnia initia sunt dolorum. Adeamus igitur, nulla interpofita morà, ad thronum gratiæ, & deposito, per veram pœnitentiam peccatorum pondere, obsecrationibus, jejuniis elecmosynis, aliisque pietatis operibus divinam nobis misericordiam conciliemus, & Domino, cujus dies prope est, corda nostra præparemus. Hæc autem, ut ferventiori charitate, uberiorique fructu fiant, coelestium munerum thefauros, quorum dispensationem nobis credidit altissimus, quanto citius proferre, & liberali manu erogare non omittemus. Interim iis omnibus, qui mox, Deo dante, ad gloriosum & nunquam desiturum beatorum apostolorum urbis nostræ patronorum sepulchrum nobiscum accedent, ac nostris opportunam been the Occasion, that we feem in a Manner to have fallen into those mournful Times, concerning which our Saviour foretold, Nation shall rife against Nation, and Kingdom against Kingdom; and there shall be Earthquakes in diverse Places. And we may use the Words of Christ our Lord, which yet we cannot do without Tears, All these Things are the Beginnings of Sorrows. Let us therefore, without any Delay, approach unto the Throne of Grace; and laying afide the Weight of our Sins, by true Repentance, let us recover the Mercy of God to us by Prayers, and Fasting, and Almsgiving, and other Works of Piety, and prepare our Hearts for the Lord, whose Day is near. But that these Things may be done with more fervent Charity, and more plentiful Fruit, we will tunam necessitatibus opem, quam nos privato nostro sacrificio ibidem hac ipsâ die humiliter invocavimus, conjunctis precibusimplorabunt,triginta annos, & totidem quadragenas, de injunctis eis aut alias quomodo libet debitis pœnitentiis, in formà ecclesiæ confuetà, relaxamus. Agite ergo, venerabiles fratres, 'quippe qui statuti estis custodes super muros Jerusalem; noctu atque interdiu clamate, ac iram Domini, flagitiis hominum provocatam, placare contendite. Exinanite calicem furoris & ruinæ, calicem doloris & tribulationis. Arripite thuribulum, hoc est preces fanctorum, & medij inter ignem & arsurum populum consistite. Ponite ab oculos institutum quod profitemini, perfonam quam sustinetis sacram, & Christi fanguine rubentem purpuram quam induistis. Sint pedes not omit immediately to produce, and with a liberal Hand to expend those Measures of heavenly Gifts, which the most High has committed to our Dispensa. tion. In the mean Time, to all those who will prefently, with God's Permission, accompany us to the glorious and neverfailing Sepulchre of those bleffed Apostles who are the Patrons of our City, and with united Voices will implore the Affistance which is wanting to our Necessities; (which we have ourselves already done in our private Sacrifice this very Day) we relax thirty Years, and as many forty Days from the Penances which have been enjoined them, or which they owe on any Account whatfoever, in the accustomed Form of the Church. Go to therefore, my venerable Brethren, because you are ordained to be Guards pedes vestri pedes evangelizantium pacem, ut ita conterantur arcus & sagittæ; atque imperet Deus ventis, & faciat tranquillitatem.

Q

Guards upon the Walls of Jerusalem. Cry aloud, both by Night and by Day, and strive earnestly to appeale the Anger of the Lord, which is provoked by the Wickedness of Men. Empty the Cup of Fury and Ruin, the Cup of Grief and Tribulation. Take up your Censer, that is, the Prayers of the Saints, and stand in the Midst between the Fire and the People ready to be burnt. Set before your Eyes the Institution which you profess, and the sacred Character which you fustain, and the purple Garment with which you are cloathed, and tinctured with the Blood of Christ. Let your Feet be the Feet of those that preach the Gospel of Peace, that fo the Bows and Arrows may be broken, and God may command the Winds, and produce Tranquillity.

Q 2 N. B.

N. B. There was another Secret Consistory the 19th of February, the same Year, 1703, for the like, or more vehement Earthquake at Rome, with the like Oration, for the Feast of Purification, when the Earthquake happened.

Extracts out of a Letter written to myself, by the Rev. Mr. Henry Heywood, a Baptist Eishop in South Carolina, dated at Charles-Town, April 2, 1750.

- Dear and Rev. Sir,
 - Last Christmas was Twelvemonth I received
- from the Rev. Mr. Matthew Randal, [a Baptist
- Bishop in London] your friendly Address to the
- Baptists, which was very acceptable. The
- Thoughts of your having fled from the horrible
- ' Atbanasian Creed, and left the establish'd Church,
- and feeming inclined to join with the baptized
- Churches, gave me, and the rest of my Bre- thren, a sensible Pleasure. We were likewise
- ' pleased to find you express an Approbation of
- ' feveral of our Principles and Practices; and were
- far from being diffatisfied with the Concern you
- ' shew for the Amendment of our Defects.
 - When I came to this Country, our small
- ' Church was in the Practice of reading the Scrip-
- tures every Lord's Day, and laying on of Hands after Baptism; and although, before my coming,
- I found finging of Psalms and the Lord's Prayer
- were disusted, I found no Difficulty in introducing the first; and about a Year and an Half fince, or fomething better, I have likewise begun to

' use the Constitution Liturgy, in the eighth Book, the Lord's Prayer, and the mixed Cup at the · Communion. I have also informed our People, that Trine Immersion was the antient and aposto-

' lical Practice, and doubt not it will be our con-frant Practice for the future. So that the Defects

' you complain of are in a fair Way of being amended among us .- I have, fince I wrote this Letter, received your Life, written by yourfelf;

' for which I thank you heartily, and should have fent you this sooner, but that I waited to send my · Catechism therewith; which you will find to be an Extract out of yours, only more fuited to our ' present Settlement and Constitution.'

N. B. I do not here fet down what is afterward added by Mr. Heywood, in a very zealous Manner, to persuade me to be re-baptized, because my Father, not in the least dreaming but Infant-Baptism, without Immersion, was allowed by our Saviour, baptized me in my Infancy, and without dipping; although I have been confirmed in my grown Years, have been in holy Orders 56 Years, have all that Time baptized, and given the Communion, as Occasion served; (only these last 35 Years, since I was fatisfied that Baptism ought to be performed by Trine Immersion, and in grown Years only, I have acted all accordingly.

This naturally puts me in Mind of a much longer and more zealous Letter, written to me last Q. 3

Mas

May was Twelvemonth, from Norwich, by my good Friend Mr. Killingworth, to the fame Purpose; but this upon Supposition that it was not certain that our Saviour or his Apostles appointed the Trine Immersion, contrary to Mr. Heywood's Declaration. This rigorous Procedure in many of our present Baptists, which I have shewn to be against the Old and New Testament, in my Argument, Pag. 485, 486, priùs, and appears to be against the Apostolical Constitutions, which are severe against Re-baptization. [See Pag. 486, priùs, sagainst the Determination of Cyprian, and Dionyfius Alexandrinus, Pag. 487, and 542, prius.] I now add, against the Rule of Christ himself, in the Constitutions, v. 15. For the Christian Gentiles complying with the Christian Jews, as to the Observation of Easter, for the Sake of Uniformity, even where they knew them to be erroneous; against the Opinion of Irenaus, and the fober Part of the Church in his Time, in condemning Victor for excommunicating the Afiaticks, though they owned Victor went by the true Rule, and the Afiaticks by the false one; and against the Practice of the Apostolical Polycarp himself, who, in the Case of Anicetus, the Bishop of Rome, and his Church. when they had entirely omitted the Ante-paschal Fast, (always observed by the Apostles, and by Polycarp with them,) for several Successions; yet would not Polycarp refuse to communicate with Anicetus, and his grosly erroneous Church, in the holy Eucharist itself, on that Account. Euseb. Hift. Escl. v. 24. Which is the same that I have done done in receiving the Communion with the Diffenting Congregations, who do not mix Wine and Water, according to the known Law of Christianity, both in the Constitutions, all the old Liturgies, and the known Books of the New Testament.

[See Pag. 483, 484, prius.] But above all, I appeal to what has not been diftinctly enough fet down before, I mean one of the most solemn Remains of Primitive Christianity, the Catholick Didascaly itself, in the Constitutions VI. 17. where the Body of the Apostles charge the Christians "To be contented with one Baptism alone, that which is into the Death of the Lord, " not that which is conferred by wicked Hereticks, 66 but that which is conferred by unblameable " Priests, unto the Name of the Father, and of " the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. And let not "that which comes from the Ungodly be received by you. Nor let that which is done by the Godly " be disannull'd by a Second. For as there is but " one God, one Christ, and one Comforter, and " one Death of the Lord in the Body; so let that 66 Baptism which is unto him be but one. But those " that receive polluted Baptism from the Ungodly, will become Partners in their Opinions; for they " are not Priests. For God fays to them. [Hos. " iv. 6.] Because thou hast rejetted Knowledge, I will also reject thee from the Office of a Priest to " me. Nor indeed are those that are baptized by them initiated, but are polluted; not receiving 65 Remission of Sins, but the Bond of Impiety. " And besides, they that attempt to baptize those " already

Q4

"already baptized, crucify the Lord afresh, slay him a second Time, laugh at divine, and ridicule holy Things, affront the Spirit, dishonour the facred Blood of Christ, as common Blood; are impious against him that sent, him that suffered, and him that witnessed." Or, as the same Law is abridged in the XLVIIth Canon of the Apostles, "If a Bishop or Presbyter re-baptizes him who has had true Baptism, or does not baptize him who is polluted by the Ungodly, let him be deprived, as ridiculing the Cross and the Death of Christ, as not distinguishing between real Priess and counterfeit ones."

For the Trine Immersion I appeal to the Lth Canon: "If any Bishop or Presbyter does not person the three Immersions of the one Admission, but one Immersion, which is given unto the Death of Christ, let him be deprived: For the Lord did not say, Baptize unto my Death; but, Go ye and make Disciples of all Nations, baptizing them unto the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Do ye therefore, O Bishops, baptize thrice, into one Father, and one Son, and one Holy Ghost, according to the Will of Christ, and our Constitution by the Spirit."

This rigorous Procedure of the Baptists seems to me so dishonourable to the Christian Religion, as if involuntary Mistakes about a ritual, should quite invalidate a sacred Ordinance of the Gospel; and so fatally pernicious to any Hopes of the general Recovery

Recovery of the true old Method of Baptism in future Generations, in the several good Men of different Parties among us; who feem to me not much indisposed to restore it hereafter, but will not eafily, I believe, be brought to renounce either their Baptisms or Ordinations on such Accounts, that it grieves me forely to observe the Obstinacy of the Baptists in this Matter; I hope Time, and farther Confideration, may bring them to a better Disposition. - However, if I can recover that Society for promoting Primitive Christianity, which I am endeavouring, [See Pag. 610-619, prius,] I shall faithfully lay before them Mr. Heywood's Arguments, and do what I can that these Matters may be throughly examined and fettled, for the Satisfaction of all good Christians hereafter.

Page 486, Line 11, of the second Part, read Liberty; or in the Words of the Constitutions vi. 20. Such as lays no Compulsion in Things po-Stive.

Page 52, Line 8, of the third Part, read Manners. I except also, that bloody Northern Light feen at London, by fuch as were early enough up on Tuesday, October 2d, at 4 in the Morning; which was very affecting and frightful.

Page 55. Line 14, add,

Nor must we forget that much later large Ball of Fire, with its long fiery Tail, that passed swiftly over a great Part of England, and probably, of Scotland also, July 22, 1750. It appeared at Solway Firth, near Carlisle, and almost perpendicularly over that City: It was also seen at Newcastle,

Coventry,

Coventry, and Bristol; as our News-Letters tell us. But it more particularly was feen at about 15 or 20 Degrees Elevation, at Normanton, and Weston, in Rutland; and was very frightful there, to those who faw it, and particularly to Sir John Heathcote himself. It also passed almost perpendicularly over Ramsey, in Huntingdonshire; as my Nephew Mr. Thomas Whiston, who is the Incumbent there, informs me; according to which Direction it must have passed over Cambridgeshire, Essex and Kent also; tho' the Time of Night it passed by, which was before Twylight was down, or the Stars vifible, with which its Course might have been compared, and the Suddenness and Swiftness of its Passage, have prevented I fear, such good Observations as are necessary to the Determination both of its Altitude and Magnitude. However, I doubt not, but it ought to be esteemed one of the remarkable Signals of those terrible Judgments of God, which are now begun, and more are approaching.

Page 58, Line 28, add,

We have also had two more Earthquakes in England very lately, both of considerable Extent; the sormer has been already mentioned, Pag. 216, of this 3d Part, from the Daily Advertiser of Aug. 29. It was about 6 o'Clock in the Morning, and reached to a Circle of about 40 Miles in Diameter. The other Earthquake was much more considerable; it happened on Sunday, Sept. 30, and extended also about a Circle of 40 Miles Diameter, from near Nottingham, and Lincoln, Northward, to Northampton, and near Huntingdon Southward. Whether it extended any Way farther, I have not yet heard. It was very remarkable at Bourn in Lincolnshire, as the News informs us. 'Tis however certain, that at Okeham in Rutland, while Dr. Newton, of Oxford, was in his Sermon there, the People in the Gallery were fo fearful of the Church's falling upon them in the Earthquake, that they ran out of the Church, and obliged the Preacher to come out of the Pulpit. I was at that Time at our Baptist Meeting, at Morcote, in the same County, when Mr. Pennay, the Baptist Minister at Lincoln, was in the Pulpit; but I cannot fay, that I either felt the Shake, or heard the Noife; which yet, I afterward heard some others of the Congregation did; tho' I was informed of it as a great Earthquake, by almost every Body else out of that Meeting immediately.

N. B. Altho' I have felt so little of the late Earthquakes myself, I shall take this Opportunity of describing that known one Sept. 8, 1692. which I selt most distinctly. I was then Fellow of Clare-Hall, in Cambridge, and in my own Chamber two Stories high, in the South-West Corner of that College, and at my Studies. It was about two o'Clock in the Asternoon; I do not remember to have heard any Noise, but selt the Shake so plainly, that I directly perceived it to be an Earthquake; whereupon I ran down one Pair of Stairs, into the combination or common Room, where the Master and some Fellows were sitting at a Table. I said hastily, "Master, there is an Earthquake;" quake;"

quake;" He faid, he thought that some Dog was under the Table; but he did not think of an Earthquake. However, I made no Stay there, but ran down the lower Stairs into the Court, and as I ran, I distinctly saw the College move backward, and forward, in the Way of Vibration. But by that Time I got into the Middle of the Court, which was not large, I perceived the Shake to be over. Yet could the whole Duration be hardly less than a Minute, and an half, which is the Time Mr. Ray allots for its Duration also.

N. B. Dr. Stukeley, in his late most excellent Paper of the Philosophy of Earthquakes, takes Notice of one Thing, as most highly remarkable, as it most certainly is, viz. that in the late London Earthquakes a proper Providence appeared diflinctly and directly miraculous. I shall give the Reader his own Words. Pag. 33, 34.

"But whether our Conjectures upon this important Subject be well founded or no, it certainly 66 becomes a Christian Philosopher, whilst he is investigating material Causes, to look up and re-" gard the moral Use of them. For in Reality, every Thing, the whole World, was ultimately of for that Purpose made. When we see such a kind of Spirituality impress'd on mere Matter, as this amazing Property of Electricity, it " should kindle in us a high Ambition of afferting, and exerting the infinitely fuperior Value, and Powers, and Excellency of the spiritual

Part of us, destin'd to an immortal Duration.

" And,

"And, of all the great and publick Calamities, which affect us Mortals, Earthquakes claim the first Title to the Name of Warnings and Judgments. None so proper to threaten, or to execute Vengeance upon a guilty People. Nor has any other, those annexed Terrors, so much of the unusual, the unavoidable, the sudden and the horrible Apprehension of being crush'd to Death, or buried alive. And when in our own Sight, these rare and extraordinary Phanomena appear, it cannot but be a Lesson to us, to do our Duty towards that great Being,

" fo prodigious.
"That Earthquakes proclaim themselves to

" who, by a Drop of Water, can produce Effects

"Mankind in this Light, is further deducible from this Observation, the ninth in our Reca-

" pitulation of Circumstances; that they are pecu" liarly directed to great Cities, and Maritime " Towns, those Nurseries of Wealth, Luxury, and of all the Evils naturally flowing therefrom. It " would be childish to rehearse from old History,

" or modern, a Proof of it; we have no other

" Notices of them. Look upon these two Shocks

" we have here felt; we own that Hampsted-Heath,

" and Finchley-Forest, and Kennington-Common were " affected with it; yet it is notorious that London was the Center, the Place to which the Finger of "God was pointed.

"And this leads us, in the third Place, to con"fider the Use and Purpose of these magnalia.
"natura, and Prodigies of the Agency of material Causes. For nothing sure, but an electrical "Shock, and that from a divine Hand, could have been so well adjusted, as twice, nay four Times, to shake every House in London, and not throw one down."

ec ria

Pag. 41, 42, 43. " The greater the Terror [fays

" Dr. Stukeley] accompanying Earthquakes, the se greater a Bleffing is our Deliverance from the " Danger of it! What can equal God's Power

44 and Judgment, but his Mercy? Consider the " wonderful Confequence, that the whole City of London should so sensibly be shaken, and yet no

" one inhabited House to fall, nor one Person

" kill'd. Amazing Instance of Power and Good" ness in our Preservation! And this not only-once, but the fecond Time also, though evidently stronger was the Concussion; so strong, that almost every Person was thoroughly per-

" fuaded, that some Part, at least, of their Houses

" was falling down.

"Can we help admiring, that Judgment should be so tempered with Mercy! Do we look only at the fecond Caufes with our Unbelievers, and so sport away the Divine Presence, as if it was an ordinary Occurrence of every Day? They want " to see a Miracle. Nought can affect them but

" a direct supernatural Agency.

"I answer, behold a visible and notorious Miracle, plainly obvious, and before all their Senfes.

" For can there be a greater Miracle? Can any "Thing be more directly the Finger of God than

" this, which we ourselves saw with our Eyes, that

" befell the whole City of London?

" We know the Nature of the building of Lon" don Houses, which sometimes fall of themselves, " without shaking. Wonderful then is it to be " thought, and a Miracle indeed, that every House

" in this vaft City should be twice agitated, and " rocked to and fro, and not one fall, nor one Per-

" fon receive any Damage.

" In vain will the Philosophers seek for a Solu-" tion of this Problem in natural Causes only. By 66 their chymical Experiments they make some " little mimic Imitations of Tremors and Fumes,

" and Explosions; so by Gun-powder we ape the regal Voice of Thunder. But where is the dif-

" cretionary Act of Mercy and Benignity, that fe-

" parates between the vengeful and kind? These " fecond Causes act according to their material

" Nature, like the roaring Waves of the Ocean,

" that flow in, and overwhelm every Thing where

" a Breach is made. They can observe no Difc tinction between the Lands of a righteous Man " and of a Sinner; they cannot stop at the Breach,

" and gather themselves on a Heap, and not enter in at all; as the Waters of Jordan did.

"But in the Case before us, the Hand of the " Lord that stayed the flowing of the Waters, that

" quelled the raging of the Sea, and its proud

"Waves, fets Bounds to the trembling of the " Earth. Hither shall its Vibrations go, and no " further. When, alas! if it went but one Inch

" further (in Comparison) a total Ruin must una" voidably follow.

66 Confider this Particular, when applied to all the Buildings in this immense City, and wonder, " and adore that almighty Providence, which over-" looked us, and prescribed the Limits, so narrow, 66 fo precise, which saved us from universal Havock!" And again, Page 45. "We observed before a 66 plain and notorious Proof of God's Hand in these Judgments, that he could move a whole 66 City, without throwing down a House. And this is of most affuredly a second Proof that he visits only er great Cities with these Judgments. And we must conclude this to be as strong an Argument of a divine Interpolition in these Affairs, as any " mathematical Demonstration."

However, Itake Leave to add this myself, that tho' Earthquakes chiefly affect very great and very wicked Cities, as the Doctor observes, yet are not either those Earthquakes, or God's providential Interpolition, wholly confined to them; as it is plain in the 8 or 9 late Earthquakes in England, where the Concussions have extended fometimes as far as those in London. and yet hardly thrown down a fingle House, or killed a fingle Person all this Time. Bleffed be the Name of the Lord! May the Consideration of this his amazing Goodness to us lead us to a true Repentance!

I also very much suspect, that what Dr. Stukeley feverely intimates, Pages 37, 38, is too likely to prove true, with respect to the great ones and the careless Multitude. His remarkable Words are thefe:

" It is true, an Earthquake causes an universal " Dread among all Sorts of People; even the Phi-" losopher, immersed in Speculation of second " Causes, quakes, as well as the Pious, whose Fear " proceeds from folid Piety, a due Sense of the Anger of the Almighty Being. We faw the late Earthquakes affrighted every one; but as to the Generality, it was but for a Moment. When " they found themselves safe and alive, thoughtless " they went to their Business, or their Diversion; " and this not only the first, but the second Time. "And I am apprehensive, were another and another " to come, they would only be less regarded than "the preceding." So far Dr. Stukeley. To which I shall only add, that what he says, I doubt, will be true; but this only till that great Earthquake, which I expect ere long at London. See Pag. 42, 43, 135, 136, 137, which will quite alter the Scene; for after the Slaughter of the 7000 Men of Name or Note, we are affured there, the Remnant will be affrighted, and give Glory to the God of Heaven. Pag. 43, 138. Page 179, of the 3d Part, Line antepenult. add,

It may be necessary to take some Notice here of the notorious and barbarous Breach of another Law of God, given by Moses to the Jews, but obliging us Christians also, which soon follows the ten Commandments, Exod. xxi. 16. He that stealeth a Man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his Hand, he shall surely be put to Death. So is our Version from the Helrew. The Septuagint Version is thus: Whosever stealeth any one of the Children of Israel, and overcometh, and felleth bim, and he be found with him, he shall surely die. Deut. xxiv. 7. If a Man be found stealing any of his Brethren of the Children of Israel, and maketh Merchandize of him, or selleth bim, then that Thief shall die, and thou shalt put Evil away from among you. So is our Version from the Hebrew. The Septuagint Version is thus: If a Man be found stealing a Soul of his Brethren, the Children of Israel, and tyrannizeth over bim, and selleth bim, that Thief shall die, and thou shalt put the Evil away from among you. How near to this horrible Crime, to which Death is here peremptorily denounced, is the buying and felling our Black Slaves, or tyrannizing over them when they are fold, I shall not positively determine; but think it highly fit to be confidered by those Merchants that are therein concerned, left this also prove to be another of those heinous Crimes for which the Divine Vengeance is now justly to be feared. See Horeb Covenant Reviv'd throughout: Where more fuch Laws that oblige Christians, but broken by them, are fet down.

and

Page 190, of the 3d Part, Line 2, dele the Words and last: But after the Break in the Middle, add:

The eighth and ninth of those Judgments belonging to these Times, I reckon those Imitations of the two most universal of all the Changes that have been, or are to be made, upon our Earth; I mean, the general Deluge; and final Conflagration. These are both mentioned by the Apostle Peter, in his Second Epistle, Chapter iii. Verses 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 243 7, and at this Time of the groffest Scepticism and Infidelity, as to divine Predictions of Judgments, cannot but deferve our most attentive Consideration. Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last Days Scoffers, walking after their own Lusts, and faying, Where is the Promise of his coming? For since the Fathers fell asleep, all Things continue as they were from the Beginning of the Creation. For this they are willingly ignorant of, that by the Word of God the Heavens were of old, and the Earth standing out of the Water, and in the Water: Whereby the World that then was, being overflowed with WATER, perished. But the Heavens and the Earth which are now, by the same Word are kept in store, reserved unto FIRE, against the Day of Judgment, and Perdition of ungodly Men. Now these two Judgments of the Deluge, and Conflagration, naturally put me in mind of those frequent and terrible Inundations of Water and Fires, which have of late been fo very remarkable in our Magazines and News Papers. And to what farther Degrees of Frequency and Desolation they may proceed, unless a general Reformation prevent them, we none of us know, but all of us have just Cause to fear. [See Mr. Warner's most serious and excellent Sermon before the Lord-Mayor, upon the Fire of London, 1666, preached 1749;

N. B. July 19, 1750, I began at Tunbridge-Wells, my VI Lectures on the Restoration of the R 2 which I heartily recommend to every fober Person's.

Confideration, 1

Tews; which I had there two Years before: With the III additional Lectures, occasion'd by the late Meteors and Earthquakes, which I had at London, at the Time of those Earthquakes. And although at London I had 27 and 43 Auditors, on the 6th and 10th of March, and no fewer than 65 on the 8th, which was the Evening after the Second, or Great Earthquake; and I proposed to have the fame III Lectures in that Course at the Wells, yet did I find Matters quite otherwise there. For after my first Lecture, when I had 18 Auditors, and they perceived I intended to discourage the Gameing, and other Fooleries of that Place; and to call them to attend to the Warnings of Providence, by the late Meteors and Earthquakes, and to a Reformation of their Manners, not a fingle Person came to my fecond Lecture. So I came away, and was forced to leave the unthinking and pleasurable Part to their own Folly; and I fear, in no long Time, to their own Destruction also. I cannot better conclude this Paper than with Dr. Stukeley's own most proper and ferious Conclusion, Page 46, 47.

56 In the mean Time, let us not think on running away from the Danger, so much as on mending our Ways; perfecting the Christian Life; reforming the abominable Crimes, so justly chargeable on great and Maritime Cities, overflowing with Riches, Pride, and Luxury, with Vanity, Pleasure, and Profanenefs, with Gaming, Immorality, Infidelity, and especially, with the notorious Crime of Sabbathbreaking, [Profanation of the Lord's Day,] which is the

the Foundation of all, and comprehends all others; for it prevents People from amending of any. If they fail of their Duty towards God, in making their regular Approaches to his Temple, no Wonder they are guilty of all Crimes; regard neither God nor Man. If they fail of coming, where they may hope for the kindly Influences of God's Holy Spirit, we need not wonder at their egregious Wickedness: They become absolutely irreclaimable.

But of you, my beloved Brethren, here affembled, I hope better Things. You shun the degenerate Corruptions of this evil Age; you are not of the Number of those that frequent our publick Meetings of Folly, from the Morning Rendezvouses, to the Midnight Assemblies; and that protracted to the Morning Light again. As if we ought to banish all serious Thoughts of our immortal Interests; and that in the sacred Season of Lent; destin'd by the Church, for this very serious Purpose.

Let us think how this Warning happen'd to us in the Time of Lent, when they were revelling in their Places of Entertainment, both Morning and Evening, as if no such Thing had been; and this on the very Days; as if they confronted and dar'd Almighty Vengeance. Much of a parallel Case with that of the samous City of Herculanum, which is now the Entertainment of the Curious. First, it was miserably shatter'd by an Earthquake, whilst the People were at their Diversions in the Theatre; where all assembled perished. This was in the first Year of Titus the Emperor:

But such a partial Judgment not mending their Manners, 9 Years after the whole City was destroy'd by a Lake of liquid Fire and Brimstone, from Mount Vesuvius, just in the Manner we now find it, 50 Foot deep in Cinders, and Ashes."

N. B. Mr. Feuguelin, a Clergyman of Bern and Zurich, and a Man of Letters, came to see me in London, May 31, 1750, and went in the Coach with me as far as Rochefter, June 7, in his Way to Paris. He had been Chaplain to a Regiment of Switz, in the Service of the King of Sardinia, under whom the Remains of the two oldest Witnesses to genuine Christianity, the Waldenses and Albigenfes, now live, and whom that Prince has never perfecuted. He informed me, that the Vaudois, about 10,000 in Number, have 13 Ministers (of old they were called Barbs) whom he knew, and they told him, that out of those 10,000 they have not had one Bastard among them in 30 Years Time. Now this is to me a most remarkable Character of true Religion, and agrees well with my Expectation, that they will foon be farther advanced, or in Prophetick Language, ascend up to Heaven in a Cloud. At which Moment of Time, or Hour, I expect that great Earthquake which is to overthrow the tenth Part of London, and to flay 7000 Men of Note therein, when the Remnant will be affrighted, and give Glory to the God of Heaven. Of which see Pag. 42, 135,-138, priùs, and the additional Sheet of the 2d. Edition of my Essay on the Revelation, Pag. 329-332. N. B.

Mr. WILLIAM WHISTON. 247

N. B. Page 14, Line last but three, add, Which Brother of mine has been no more than a Curate these 43 Years at Somersham near Huntingdon, because the would neither sign Articles nor read the Athanassian Creed against his own Judgment and Conscience: Which puts me in Mind of what I formerly said to him, and repeated it to him the other Day:

"Brother, this World was made for the Rectors, the next for the Curates. You and I must stay for the next World." Which we were both willing to do.

Page 280, Line 11, add, Thus the famous modern Pamphlet, intitled Christianity not founded on Argument, urges a very ftrong Objection against that Religion, from the Admission by almost -all Parties of such Infants into it as are uncapable of all Religion. This grand Objection has been endeavoured to be answered by a Cambridge, as well as an Oxford Scholar; by Mr. Mole, by Dr. Doddridge; by Dr. Leland; and by Dr. Benson; but this only by giving up in effect, that Baptism as unscriptural. Nor is it possible to answer this Objection on any other Foundation, as my fagacious Friend Mr. Killingworth has unanswerably demonstrated, in his acute Remarks on those several Pamphlets. So that this Author, instead of hurting the Evidence for the Truth of the real Christian Religion, as he thought, has done great Service to it, by almost forcing our modern Parties to correct one of the most unhappy Corruptions that have long been a Reproach to them, and to our common Christianity.

N. B.

248 MEMOIRS of the LIFE of, &c.

N. B. Upon the going of these last Corrections of this 3d. Part of my Life to the Press, tho' I shall say nothing of an Earthquake at Northampton, before the first at London, but then not supposed to be so; nor of that in the Gentleman's Magazine for Ottober, Pag. 456, 457, in the Fens of Lincolnshire, Aug. 23 last; yet is there in the General Evening Post, from Ottober 6, to the 9th, such a dismal Account of another late Earthquake at Philippoli, or Philippopoli, in Romania, that I cannot forbear to transcribe it.

"From Confiantinople, by Yesterday's Mail, we have Confirmation of the dreadful Earthquake at Philippoli, mentioned in the former, with these additional Particulars, That almost the whole City, which is one of the best in Romania, has been swallowed up; and they reckon about 4000 Persons perished there. The Damage was not less in the Towns, Villages, and Hamlets near that unhappy Spot, most of them having been either demolished by the violent and repeated Shocks of this Earthquake, or laid under Water by the over-slowing of the River Mariza."

N. B. The Preface to the following Common-prayer-Book is here omitted, as having been already inserted, Part II. Page 422—427. Which Common-prayer-Book is however hereby heartily recommended to the Publick, in Consequence of the most serious and Christian Proposals in the Disquisitiones Modesta, lately published.

London, Nov. 5,

WILL. WHISTON.

THE

LITURGY

OF THE

CHURCH

O F

ENGLAND,

Reduc'd nearer to the

PRIMITIVE STANDARD.

Humbly propos'd to

PUBLICK CONSIDERATION.

By WILLIAM WHISTON, M. A.

The SECOND EDITION, Corrected.

LONDON:

Printed for the AUTHOR, and fold by Mr. WHISTON, in Fleet-Street; and Mr. BISHOP, in Little Turn-Stile, Holbern. M.DCC.L.

11 1 PAINTERNEE Popular Comme 161531 Jul. 815/17

0 T. . .

OBSERVATIONS.

THE whole Church in every Place ought to be distinguished into the Catechumen, the Penitent, and the Faithful.

The proper Perfors to Administer in all the solemn Parts of Publick Worship are the Bishops, and in their Absence, and by their Permission, the Prospectors; and both as ministred to by the Deacons.

The Possure in Prayer is kneeling, on all Days but the Lord's-Days, and between Euster and Pent oft; on which it is standing;

as a memorial of C rip's Resurrection.

The Hours for secret Prayer are the Third, Sixth, and Ninth; in Memory of Christ's Condemnation, Crucifixion, and Death at those Hours; and the Lord, Prayer is even to be then used.

Solemn Da, are Festivals, greater and leffer; and Fosts greater and leffer.

The greater Fest wals are Easter day, and the Eighth Day after it; the Afce fion, and Pentecoft; autholi Lina's Days.

The lifer F stiva's are the Subbath Dass, or Saturdays; with the 50 Dass from Easter to Penterst; besides the Feast of the National, and the Days of the Ap files. &c.

The great Fust is but one, that if Pussion Week; especially Friday, and Saturday till Day break; to be cell brated by abstaining from Flesh and Wine, and by extraordinary Devotion and Alms giving:

The lifter Fasts called also Days of A stinence, or Stations, are all Wednesdays and Fridays; excepting those between Easter and Pentecest; with Lent, or the five middle Days before Passion-Week; to be celebrated, by fasting till the Ninth Hour, or till E-wening, and by profer Devotions.

Publick Prayers are to be used Morning and Evening every Day: At noon on Wednesdays and Fridays the Penetential Office or Litany may be added; as on the Lord's Day is the solemn Communion Service to be used, about the same Time.

The Church is to meet together on Mondays, for the Exercise of Christian Discipline, according to the Laws of the Gospel.

Easter-day is now the next Lord's day after the 14th Day of the Jewish, or Lunar siest Month; which Month begins with the New-moon just before, or just after the wernal Equinox; that so the 14th Day or full Moon may ever fall into Passion Week.

The Lessons may be taken from the usual Tables and Calendars; with such Alterations as peculiar Circumstances shall require; the Prayer of Manasses, may be read instead of the History of Bell and the Dragon.

When any Lessons or Portions of the four Gospels are read, it is to be done by a Priest or Deacon; and the Congregation is to stand up.

Other Juitable Colletts or Prayers may be added at the Discretion of the Bishop or Presbyter that officiates, provided they be sacred Forms, or exactly agreeable thereto; or else used here in other Offices; at least in their Composition unexceptionable.

The Men and Women are to fit separate in the Publick Assemblies.

OBSERVATIO

The ORDER for

MORNING PRAYER,

Daily throughout the Year.

The Service may begin with some of these Sentences.

HEN the wicked man turneth away from his wicked edness that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawful and right, he shall fave his soul alive. Ezek. 18. 27.

I acknowledge my tranfgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Pfal. 51. 3.

Hide thy face from my fins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Pfal. 51. 9.

The facrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Pfal. 51. 17.

Rent your hearts, and not yourgarments, and turn unto the Lord your God; for he is gracious and merciful, flow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Foel 2. 13.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveneffes, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his Laws which he set before us. Dan. 9. 9, 10.

O Lord correct us, but with Judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring us to nothing. Jer. 10. 24. Pfal. 6. 1.

Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. S. Matth. 3. 2.

I will arise and go to my B

Father, and I will fay unto him; Father I have finned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. S. Luke 15. 18, 19.

Enter not into judgment with thy fervants, O Lord; for in thy fight shall no man living be justified. Pfal.

143. 2.

If we fay that we have no fin, we deceive our felves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our fins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our fins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousnels. I S. John I. 8, 9. D Early beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in fundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold fins and wickedness; and that we should not diffemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God, our heavenly Father; but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart; to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And as we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our fins before God, so ought we particularly so to do, when we affemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, and hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and befeech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

A general Confession to be said of the whole Congregation, after the Minister, all kneeling.

A Lmighty and most merciful Father; we have erred and strayed from thy ways like loft sheep. We have followed too much the devices and defires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults: Restore thou them that are penitent: According to thy promifes declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and fober life, To the glory of thy holy, Name. Amen.

The Absolution or Remission of sins, to be pronounced by the Bishop or Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

A Lmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jefus Christ, who desireth not the death of a finner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their fins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore we befeech him to grant us true repentance, and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord.

The People shall answer bere, and at the end of all Prayers, Amen.

On the Lord's day, instead of the ordinary Confession and Absolution, these following may be used.

Lmighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things,

Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold fins and wickedness, Which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. Grant that we may earnestly repent, and be heartily forry for all our fins, and provecations: that the remembrance of them may be grievous unto us; as the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father: For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's fake, forgive us all that is past : and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name, Thro' lesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Lmighty God our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promiled forgiveness of fins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your fins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B 2 Note: Note, That when none but the faithful are present, the Service may begin here.

OUR Father which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth, As it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And for-

* Debts, as give us our *trefwe forgive our passes, as we forDebtors. give them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from † evil:
† The evil One. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever.

Amen.

Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answ. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest. O God, make

speed to save us.

Answ. O Lord, make

haste to help us.

Here all standing up, the Priest shall say.

Glory be to the Father, * or, by] and thro' the Son, foevery where. * in the Holy Ghost,

Anfw. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Priest. Praise ye the Lord.

Anfw. The Lord's Name be praised.

Then on Saturdays shall the following Pfalm, or the 8th or 19th be used: but on Sundays, and between Eafter and Pentecost, the 103d Pfalm is to be used in their stead.

Pfalm 95.

O Come let us fing unto the Lord, let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our Salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and shew our selves glad in him with Psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

In his hands are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

The fea is his, and he made it, and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come let us worship, and fall down, and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Glory be to the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Ghoft.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Then shall follow the Psalms, inorder as they are appointed. And at the End of every Psalm and Hymn, excepting all Days of Fasting and Abstinence, may be repeated,

Glory be to the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Ghoft.

Anfw. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Thenshall be read the appointed Lessons: [before each of which may at all times be premised such an Argument, and after which such a short Exhortation may be added, as are used in the Church of Neuschatel.] And after the first Lesson may be said or Sung the following Hymn on Sundays and Holidays, and between Easter and Penticost.

Note, That before every Leffon the Minister shall say, Here beginneth such a Chapter of Verse of such a Chapter of such a Book; And after every Lesson, Here endeth the First, or the Second Lesson.

Te Deum.

W E praise thee, O God, weacknowledge thee to be the Lord.

Thy whole creation does glorify thee, the Father everlasting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud, the heavens, and all the power therein. To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord

God of Hosts.

Heaven and Earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of. the Prophets praise thee.

Thenoble Army of Martyrs praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the World doth acknowledge thee.

The Father of an infinite

Majesty;

Thine honourable, true,

and only Son;
Alfo the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.

Thou art the only begotten Son of the Father.

When thou tookedst upon thee todeliver man, thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.

When thou hadft overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

Thou fitteth at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou fhalt come to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy fervants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints, in glory everlasting.

O Lord fave thy people, and bless thine heritage.

Govern them, and lift up them for ever.

Day by day, we magni-fy thee;

And worship thy Name, ever world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without fin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy be shewed upon us, as our trust is in thee. A

O Lord, in thee have we trusted; let us never be confounded.

On Saturdays this Hymn, or the 148th Pfalm, may be used, instead of the former.

All ye works of the Lord, bless ye Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye heavens, bless ye the Lord; 2

Praise and exalt him above all for ever. O ye angels of the Lord, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever. O all ye waters, that be above the heavens, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O all ye powers of the bove all for ever.

Lord, bless ye the Lord, Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye fun and moon, blefs

ve the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye stars of heaven, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O every shower and dew, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O all ye winds, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye fire and heat, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye winter and fummer, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye dews and storms of fnow, blefs ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye nights and days, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye light and darkness, bless ye the Lord;

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye ice and cold, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

Oye frost and snow, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye lightnings and clouds, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O let the Earth bless the

Let it praise and exalt

him above all for ever.

O ye mountains and little hills, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O all ye things that grow on the earth, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O ye fountains, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O ye feas and rivers, blefs

ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O ye whales, and all that move in the waters, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O all ye fowls of the air, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O all ye beafts and cattle, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O ye children of men, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O Israel bless ye the Lord, Praise and exalt him above all for ever.

O ye priests of the Lord, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O ye fervants of the Lord, blefs, ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O ye spirits and souls of the righteous, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O ye holy and humble men of heart, bless ye the Lord,

Praise and exalt him a-

bove all for ever.

O give thanks unto the Lord,

Because he is gracious; for his mercy endureth for ever.

O all ye that worship the Lord, bless the God of gods,

Praise him, and give him thanks; for his mercy endureth for ever.

Then shall be read in like manner the second Lesson, taken out of the New Testament; and after that, on Sundays and Holidays, and from Easter to Pentecost, may be used the Hymn sollowing, or the 145th Psalm in its stead.

S. Luke

S. Luke r. 68.

BLeffed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath wisted and redeemed his people;

Mand hath raised up a mighty salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began;

That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hands of all that hate us;

To perform the mercy promifed to our forefathers, and to remember his holy covenant.

To perform the oath which he sware to our fore-father Abraham, that he would give us;

That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies might serve him without fear:

In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life;

And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest, for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his way;

To give knowledge of falvation unto his people, for the remission of their fins;

Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the Day spring from on high hath visited us;

To give light to them that fit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, &c.
As it was in the, &c.

On Saturdays this Pfalm shall be used; or else the 104th. Pfalm 100.

O Be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: ferve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a fong.

Be ye fure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we our felves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father; through the Son, in the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Then may be repeated this

Creed by the Minister, and the People standing. Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only begotten Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghoft, born of the Virgin Mary, Suffer'd under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried, [He descended into the invisible World;] The third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

Was

I believe in the Holy Ghoft; [I believe the holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints;] The Forgiveness of Sins; The Resurrection of the Body, and the Life everlasting. Amen.

Then the Priest shall say, Let us Pray.

O Lord shew thy mercy

upón us.

Answ. And grant us thy salvation.

Priest. O Lord fave the King.

Anfw. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Priest. Endue thy miniflers with righteousness.

Answ. And makethy chofen people joyful.

Priest. O Lord, save thy

People.

Answ. And bless thine inheritance.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answ. For we acknowledge no Author of Peace and Happiness, but only thee, O God.

Priest. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

Answ. And take not thy

Holy Spirit from us.

Then shall follow three Collests; The first of the Day, The second for Peace; The third for Grace to live well: And the two last Collects shall never alter, but daily be said, at Morning Prayer throughout all the year, as followeth; all kneeling.

The second Collett for Peace.

O God, who art the author of peace, and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom: Desend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in thy desence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, thro the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The third Collest for Grace.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always

ways that which is righteous in thy fight, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Here a Psalm or Hymn may be sung.

Then these sive prayers sollowing are to be read here, except when the Litany is read; and then only the two last are to be read, as they are there placed.

A Prayer for his Majesty
King GEORGE.

Lord our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only Ruler of princes, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we befeech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE, and so replenish. him with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that he may always incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: Endue him plenteoufly with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, ftrengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his and thy enemies; and finally after this life he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Royal Family.

A Lmighty God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly befeech thee to bless all the Royal Family: Endue them with thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace; profper them with all happines; and bring them to thine everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

A Lmighty and everlafting God, who art the giver of every good and perfect gift, Send down upon our Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Aconcluding Prayer. A Lmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and by thy beloved Son dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in his Name, thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the defires and petitions of thy fervants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world, knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come, life everlasting. Amen.

2 Gor.

Morning Prayer.

T He grace of our Lord fhip of the Holy Ghost, be With us all evermore. Amen.

Here endeth the Order of Morning Prayer, throughout the Year.

The ORDER for

EVENING PRAYER,

Daily throughout the Year.

The Service may begin with some of these Sentences.

H E N the wicked Man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawful and right, he shall fave his soul alive. Ezek. 18. 27.

I acknowledge my tranfgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Psal. 51. 3.

Hide thy face from my fins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Pfal. 51. 9.

The facrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Pfal. 51. 17.

Rent your hearts, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, flow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Foel 2. 13.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveneffes, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his Laws, which he set before us. Dan. 9. 9, 10.

O Lord, correct us, but with Judgment; not in thine anger, left thou bring us to nothing. Fer. 10. 24. Pfal. 6. 1.

Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. S. Matth. 3. 2.

I will arise and go to my father, and will fay unto him; Father, I have finned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy fon. S. Luke 15. 18, 19.

Enter not into judgment with thy fervants, O Lord; for in thy fight shall no man living be justified. Pfal.

143. 2.

If we fay that we have no fin, we deceive our felves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our Sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our fins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. I S. John I. 8, 9. Early beloved thren, the Scripture moveth us in fundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold fins and wickedness; and that we should not diffemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God, our heavenly Father; but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart; to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And as we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our fins before God, fo ought we particularly fo to do, when we affemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to let forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word, and to ask those things which are requifite and necessary, as well for the body as the foul. Wherefore I pray and befeech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, faying after me.

A general Confession to be said of the whole Congregation, after the Minister, all kneeling.

Lmighty and most mer-A ciful Father; we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. have followed too much the devices and defires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults: Restore thou them that are penitent: According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his fake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and fober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Absolution or Remission of sins, to be pronounced by the Bishop or Priest a-lone, standing; the People Still kneeling.

Lmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jefus Christ, who desireth not the death of a finner, but rather that he may turn from hiswickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his Miniiters, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their fins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore we befeech him to grant us true repentance, and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer; the People also kneeling, and repeating it with him.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth, As it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our*trefpasses, as we for- we forgive give them that our Debtors. tresspass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from +- + The evil. vil: For thine is One.

the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say., O Lord, open thou our lips.

Answ. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest. O God, make

speed to fave us.

Answ. O Lord, make

hafte to help us.

Here all standing up, the Priest shall say.

Glory be to the Father, through the Son, in the

Holy Ghoft;

Anfw. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Priest. Praise ye the Lord. Answ. The Lord's Name be praised.

Then shall be said or sung the Psalms in order as they are appointed. Then a Lesson of the Old Testament, as is appointed: And after that, on Sundays and Holidays, the Song of the blessed Virgin Mary, as followeth.

S. Luke 1. 46.

Y foul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit

rit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded the lowliness of his hand-maid-

For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him, throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts

He hath put down the mighty from their feat, and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath fent empty aaway.

He remembring his mercy, hath holpen his fervant Ifrael, as he promifed to cur forefathers, Abraham and his feed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

On Saturdays this Pfalm shall be used instead of the other. Psalm 98.

Osing unto the Lord a new fong, for he hath done marvellous things.

With his own right hand, and with his holy arm, hath he gotten himself the victo-

The Lord declared his falvation, his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the fight of the heathen.

He hath remembred his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

Shew yourselves joysul unto the Lord, all ye lands; fing, rejoice, and give thanks.

Praise the Lord upon the harp, fing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and shawms: O shew your selves joyful before the Lord the King.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is, the round world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the Lord, for he cometh to judge the earth.

With righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

Glory be to the Father, &c.
As it was in the, &c.
Then a Lesson of the new Testament, as it is appointed:
And after that, on Sundays and Holidays, the Song of Simeon, as followeth.

S. Luke

S. Luke 2. 29.

LOrd, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace according to thy word.

For mine eyes have feen

thy falvation,

Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be, the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, through the Son, in the

Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

On Sundays this Pfalm shall be used, instead of the other.

Psalm 68.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us:

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy faving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the

ple praise thee,

O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing:

God shall bless us; and all the ends of the world

shall fear him.

Glory be to the Father, through the Son, in the

Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Then may this Creed be repeated by the Minister and the People, standing.

I Believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried, He descended into the invifible world;] The third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And fitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; [I believe the holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints;] The Forgiveness of Sins; The Resurrection of the Body, and the Life everlasting. Amen.

Then

Then the Priest shall say, Let us pray.

O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.

Answ. And grant us thy falvation.

Priest. O Lord, fave the King.

Anjw. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Priest. Endue thy Miniflers with righteousness.

Answ. And make thy chosen people joyful.

Priest. O Lord, save thy

people.

Anfw. And bless thine inheritance.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answ. For we acknow-ledge no Author of Peace and Happiness, but only thee, O God.

Priest. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

Answ. And take not thy

Holy Spirit from us.

Then shall follow three Collects; The first of the Day; The second for Peace; The third for Aid against all Perils, as hereafter followeth: which two last Collects shall be daily said at Evening Prayer without Alteration. The second Collect at Evening Prayer.

O God, from whom all holy defires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be fet to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The third Collect, for Aid against all Perils.

Ighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Here may a Pallm or Hymn.

Here may a Psalm or Hymn be sung.

A Prayer for the King's Majesty.

O Lord, our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only Ruler of Princes, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we befeech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE, and so replenish him with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that he may always incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: Endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome enemies; and finally after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

211

A Prayer for the Royal Family.

A Lmighty God, the foun-tain of all goodness, we humbly befeech thee to bless all the Royal Family: Endue them with thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace; profper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting kingdom, thro' Tesus Christ our Lord. men.

A Prayer for the Glergy and People.

ALmighty and everlafting God, who art the giver of every good and perfect gift, Send down upon our Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful' Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continualdew of thy bleffing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

A concluding Prayer. A Lmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and by thy beloved Son dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in his Name, thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the defires and petitions of thy fervants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world, knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come, life everlasting. Amen. 2 Gor. 13. 14;

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with you all evermore. Amen.

Here endeth the Order of Evening Prayer, throughout the Year.

Here followeth the Litany or General Supplication, to be fung or said after Morning Prayer, every Lord's-day, and at other times when it shall be thought convenient.

and Preferver of all Through the Interceffion things, have mercy upon us of thy only begotten Son, miserable finners, ther, the Creator and Pre- ble finners.

God our Heavenly . server of all things, have mer-Father, the Creator cy upon us miserable sinners.

our Saviour Jesus Christ, O God our Heavenly Ea- have mercy upon us miserathy only begotten Son; our Saniour Jesus Christ, bave mercy upon us miserable singers.

Throu

By a the Direction and Guidance of thy Holy Spine ritter the pComforters have mercy upon us miferable finness, the Direction and Uni-

ABy the Direction and Guidance of thy! Holy Spirit the Comforter, have mercy upon us miserable sinners. O Lord ceRemember not, O Lord, our offences nor the offences nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thousengeance of our finst fare he, good Lord, fpare hethy, people whom thou haftordeemed with the Sons mole precious blood, and be not angry with us for every feet.

F. Spare us, gard Lord of formall evidand michief, from the crafts and affaults of, the devil from thy wrath, and from even affing damnation.

Good Lond, deliveras. of he From all blindness of heart, from pride, vainfulgry, and hypocrific infrom envy, hatred and malice, and all uncharitableness;

Good Lond, deliver us, all other heinous first and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh, and the devil;

Good Lord, deliverus no destrom lightning and temdest, from plague, pestilence, fire and famine, from war, and murder, and from an unprepared death;

Good Lord, deliver us, vy onfpieces and rebellion, from all false doctrine, her rese, and soften bardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word and Commandments, down

Son's holy Incarnation; by his holy Nativity and Circumcifion; by his Baptism, Fasting, and Temptation;

Good Lord, deliver used, By his Agony and bloody. Sweat; by his Cross and Passion 3. by this precious Death and Burial; and by his glorious Resurrection and Ascension;

Good Lord, deliver us. In all time of our tribulation, in all time of our wealth in in the hour, of death, and in the day of judgment:

Good Lord, deliver used. We sinners do befrech thee to hear us. O Lord God and that it may please thee to rule and govern thy holyr Church universal in the right way, he to hear us.

good Lord.

That it may please thee to keep and strengthen in the true worshipping of thee, in righteousness and holiness of life,

life, thy Servant GEORGE, That it may please thee our most gracious King and to bless and keep the Magi-Governor; ions King and thrates argiving them grace

That it may please thee to Me befeech thee to bear us, guide his heart in thy faith, good Lond ch thee to hear us; fear, and love wand that he good That it may please thee may evermore have affiance to blefs land keep fall thy in thee, and ever feek thy people and keep all thy honour andiglory feek they. Peo We befeech thee to hear us,

That it may please thee to give to all pations, unity, to be his defender and keep- peace, and concord unity,

We befeech thee to hear us, good That it may please thee good Light tiee to bear ue, to give us ambearn totlove to bles and preserve all the agently to live after thy com-

That it may please thee ctruth allisuch as charge great to endue the Bridge Council, rand are deceived ave erred

S. flanding som, antunder- good Thatit may please thee to

We bestech thee to hear us, to execute justice; randicto good Lorden the to corner, maintain truthe and to

We befeech thes to hear us, good Lordshire to hear us, good Lord's thea to hear us; good That it may please thee er, giving him the Victory posche befesch thee to hear us, over all his and thy enemies; gold Land; bice co hear us;

That it may please thee tand dead thee, it and dili-

Royal Family serve all il : gmandments after thy com-We befeech thee to hear us, wilke befeech thee to hear us, good Lord h thee to bear us, good Lord sh thee to bear us; Find That it may please thee good That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, to give to athrhy people in-Priests, and Deacons, with trease tofilgrage, each hear true knowledge and under- meeklof thy aWord; and to Randing of thy Word, and preceive by with purendifferthat both by their preaching r non; and to bring fouth the and living they may let git ifmits of the Spiritorth the forth, and thew it accortion We befeech thee to hear us, dingly; I thew it accor- good Lord b thee to hear us?

good Lorden these tileaurus; to bring into pinelwitherof and all the Nobility; newithand We befeech thee to hear us, grace, wildom, and under- gold Lordsh thee to hear ite;

that We befeech thee to hear us, Alemathem such as dastand, good Lordsh thee to hear us, hand to confide and belo the at weak-hearted, a lande to traile Dek-hearted, and to raifup

Da

We befeech thee to bear us, good That it may please thee up them that fall, and finally to beat down Satan under our feet;

We befeech thes to hear us,

good Lord.

That it may please thee to fuccour, help, and comfort all that are in danger, necessity, and tribulation;

We befeech thee to hear us,

good Lord.

That it may please thee to preserve all that travel upon their lawful occasions, by land or by water, with all women labouring of child.

We befeech thee to hear us,

good Lord.

That it may please thee to have mercy upon all fick persons, respecially those for whom our Prayers are defired : Ito shew thypity upon all prisoners and captives, and upon those that fuffer for righteoulnels fake;

We befeech thee to hear us,

good Lord.

That it may please thee to defend and provide for all young and fatherless children, for all widows; and those that are desolate and oppressed;

We befeech thee to hear us,

good Lord.

That it may please thee to have mercy upon all men;

We befeech thee to hear us,

good Lord.

That it may please thee to forgive our enemies, perfecutors, and flanderers, and to turn their hearts;

We befeech thee to hear us,

good Lord. . .

That it may please thee to give and preferve to our use the fruits of the earth, fo as in due time we may enjoy them;

We befeech thee to hear us,

good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us true repentance, to forgive us all our fins, negligences, and ignorances, and to endue us with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, to amend our lives according to thy holy Word;

We befeech thee to hear us,

good Lord.

Priest. O Lord, deal not with us after our fins.

Answ. Neither reward us after our iniquities.

Let us pray.

God, merciful Father, that despisest not the fighing of a contrite heart, nor the defire of fuch as be forrowful; Mercifully affift us in our Prayers that we make before thee in all our troubles and adversities, whenfoever they oppress us; and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and fubtilty of the devil or man worketh against us, be brought to nought, and by the providence of thy goodness they may be dispersed, that we thy fervants, being hurt

hurt by no perfecutions or adverfities, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord, arife, help us, and deliver us for thy Name's sake.

God we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us the noble works that thou didst in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thine Honour. Glory be to the Father, &c.

Anfw. As it was in the, &c. Let us pray.

W E humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities; and for the glory of thy Name, turn from us all those evils that we most righteoufly have deferved; and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore ferve thee in holiness and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory, through ouronly Mediatorand Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Note, Here the Lord's Prayer may be used, if it have not been used already.

A concluding Prayer.

A Lmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and by thy beloved Son dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in his Name, thou wilt grant their requests; fulfil now, O Lord, the defires and petitions of thy fervants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world, knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come, life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

THe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost, be with you all evermore. Amen.

Prayers and Thanksgivings, upon several Occasions, to be used before the two final Prayers of the Litany, or of Morning and Evening Prayer.

PRAYERS.

For Rain. God heavenly Father, who by thy Jesus Christ hast promised to all them that feek thy kingdom, and the righteousness thereof, all things necessary to their Bodily Sustenance; Send us we befeech thee, in this our neceffity, such moderate rain and showers, that we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to thy honour, honour, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For fair Weather. Almighty Lord God, who for the fin of man didft once drown all the world, except eight persons, and afterward, of thy great mercy, didst promise never to destroy it so again ; We humbly befeech thee, that altho' we for our iniquities have worthily deserved a plague of rain and waters, yet upon our true repentance thou wilt fend us fuch weather, that we may recieve the fruits of the earth in due feason; and learn both by thy punishment to amend mency to give thee praise and glory, through Jefus our Lord.

Famine ...

nour and glory, now and Son Jells Christ dhy Lord. for ever. Amen of the Son Jells Christ our Lord In

Or this.

O God, merciful Father, who in the time of Eliflia the prophet didft fuddenly in Samaria turn great fearcity and dearth into plenty and cheapnels ; Have mercy upon us: that we who are now for our fins punished with like adverfity; may likewise find a seasonable relief: Increase the fruits of the earth by thy heavenly benediction; and grant that we recieving thy bountiful liberality, may use the same to thy glory, the relief of those that are needy, and our own comfort, thro Tefus Christ bur Ivord. Amen. our lives; and for thy cle- In the time of War and Tu-

O Almight God, King of all kings, and Governor In the time of Dearth and of all things, whole power no creature is able to relift, God, heavenly Father, to whom it belongeth jufly whose gift it is, that the to punish sinners, and to be rain doth fall, the earth is merciful to them that truly fruitful, bealts increase, and repent; Save and deliver us, fishes do multiply; Behold, we humbly befeech thee, we befeech thee, the afflicti- from the hands of those ons of thy people, and grant that are unjultly our ethat the scarcity and dearth nemies; abate their pride, (which we do now most affwage their malice, and justly suffer for our iniqui- confound their devices ; that ty) may thro' thy goodness we, being armed with thy be mercifully turned into defence, may be preferved cheapness and plenty, for the ever more from all penis, to love of Jesus Christ our glotisse thee, who art the Lord; to whom with thee, only giver of all victory, in the Holy Ghost be all to thro the merits of thy only

In the time of any common Plague and Sickness.

Almighty God, who in thy wrath didft fend a plague upon thine own people in the wilderness, for their obstinate rebellion against Moles and Aaron; and also in the time of King David didft flay with the plague of pestilence threescore and ten thousand, and yet, remembring thy mercy, didft fave the rest; Have pity upon us, miserable sinners, who, now are vifited with great lickness and mortality; that like as thou didft then accept of an atonement, and didft command the destroying Angel to cease from punishing; so it may now please thee to withdraw from us this plague and grievous fickness, thro' Jeius Christ our Lord, Amen.

For those that are to be admited into boly Orders,

A Lmighty God, our heavenly Father, who hast purchased to thy self an universal Church, by the precious blood of thy dear Son; mercifully look, upon the same; and at this time so guide, and govern the minds of thy servants, the Bishops, and Pastors of thy slock, that they may lay hands suddenly on no man, but saithfully and wifely make choice of fit persons to serve in the sacred ministry of thy Church.

And to those which shall be ordained to any holy Function, give thy grace and heavenly benediction, that both by their life and doctrine, they may set forth thy glory, and set forward the salvation of all men, thro Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this. A Lmighty God, the giver of all good gifts, who of thy divine providence half appointed divers Orders in thy Church; give thy grace, we humbly befeech thee, to all those who are to be called to any office and administration in the same; and so replenish them with the truth of thy doctrine, and endue them with innocency of life, that they may faithfully ferve before thee, to the glory of thy great Name, and the benefit of thy holy Church, thro Tefus Christ our Lord. Amen. A Prayer for the King, and all that are in Authority

MOst gracious God, we humbly beseech thes, as for this kingdom in general, so especially for our Sovereign Lord the King, the Privy Council, sthe Parliament nowassembled, and all that are in authority. That thou woulds be pleased to direct and prosper all their consultations, to the advancement of thy slother than the second the ry, the good of thy Church, the fafety, honour, and welfare of our Sovereign and his kingdoms; that all things may be so ordered and fettled by their endeavours, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be established among us for all generations. These and all other necessaries for them, for us, and thy whole Church, we humbly beg in the Name and Mediation of Jesus Christ, our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Collect or Prayer for all conditions of men, to be used at such times when the Litary is not appointed to be faid.

O God, the Creator and Preferver of all mankind, we humbly befeech thee for all forts and conditions of men, that thou wouldst be pleased to make thy ways known unto them, thy faving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Catholick Church; that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of Spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteoufness We also commend to thy fatherly goodness all those who are any ways afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate, * This to be [* especially those said when for whom our pray-Prayers of the ers are desired | Congregation. that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their feveral necessities, giving them patience under their fufferings, and a happy iffue out of all their afflictions: And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

THANKSGIVINGS;

To be used all standing.

A Thanksgiving for every Sabbathday, commonly called Saturday; to be used next before the Blessing.

Almighty Lord, who didst create all the World, and didft appoint the Sabbath in memory thereof; because on that day thou didst rest from thy work of Creation; and that we might be put in mind of thee the Almighty Creator, and obliged to praife and celebrate thy divine Majesty for those thy wonderful Works. Thou, O Eternal God, didft bring all things into being by thy only begotten Son; thou madest them all by him, and by him thou vouchsafest a suitable providence over them all. Thou art he who didft frame the Heaven as an Arch, and firetch it out as the covering of a Tent, and didst found the Earth upon nothing; the day is thine, the night also is thine, thou preparedst the Light and the Sun; thou didft also adorn the Heavens with the Choir of Stars, to praise thy glorious Majesty; Thou didst separate the Sea from the dry land, and replenish them both with thy Creatures. Thou didst also make Man, as a Citizen of the Woold, and gavest him dominion over the rest of the works of thy hands: and didst justly expect that, for all thy wonderful Mercies to him, he should offer up continual Praises to thee. The innumerable hoftsof Angels, Archangels, Thrones, Dominions, Principalities, Powers, Cherubim and Seraphim, thine everlasting Armies, do adore thee. Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of Hosts. Heaven and Earth are full of thy Glory: Glory be to thee OLord, our great Creator and Governor, thro' Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen. Amen.

A general Thankfgiving.

A Lmighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy fervants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us and to all men:

[* particularly to those who define to return fire now to offer praise. * This to be faid when any desire to return their praise.

and thanksgivings for thy late merciesvouchsafed unto them.]
We bless thee for our creation, and protection; for our preservation, [that of this day, or, of this night past in particular;] and for all the blessings of this Life: but E above above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the World by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we befeech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our felves to thy fervice, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee, in the Holy Ghost, beall honour andglory, worldwithout end. Amen. For Rain.

God, our heavenly Father, who by thy gracious providence dost cause the former and the latter rain to descend upon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the use of man; We give the humble thanks that it hath pleafed thee in our great necessity to send at the last a joyful rain upon thine inheritance, and to refresh it when it was dry; to the great comfort of us thy unworthy fervants, and to the glory of thy holy Name, through thy mercies in Tefus Christ our Lord. Amen. For Fair Weather.

O Lord God, who haft justly humbled us by thy late plague of immoderate rain and waters, and in thy mercy hast relieved and comforted our souls by this seasonable and blessed change of weather; We praise and glorify thy Holy Name for this thy mercy, and will always declare thy loving kindness from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Plenty. O Most merciful Father, who by thy gracious goodness hast heard the devout prayers of thy Church, and turned our dearth and fcarcity into cheapness and plenty; We give thee humble thanks for this thy special bounty: befeeching thee to continue thy loving kindness unto us, that our land may yield us her fruits of increase, to thy glory, and our comfort, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Peace and Deliverance from our Enemies.

Almighty God, who art a strong tower of desence unto thy servants against the face of their enemies; We yield thee praise and thanksgiving for our deliverance from those great and apparent dangers wherewithwewere compassed. We acknowledge it thy goodness that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them. Beseeching thee still to continue

tinue fuch thy mercies towards us; that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For restoring publick Peace at Home.

O Eternal God, our heavenly Father, who alone makest men to be of one mind in a house, and stillest the outrage of a violent and unruly people; We bless thy holy Name, that it hath pleafed thee to appeafe the feditious tumults which have been lately raifed up amongst us; most humbly befeeching thee to grant to all of us grace, that we may henceforth obediently walk in thy holy commandments; and leading a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, may continually offer unto thee, our facrifice of praise and thanksgiving for these and all other thy mercies towards us, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Deliverance from the Plague or other common Sickness.

O Lord God, who hast wounded us for our fins, and confumed us for our transgressions by thy late heavy and dreadful visitation, and now in the midst of judgment remembring mercy, hast redeemed our souls from the jaws of death; We offer unto thy fatherly goodness our selves, our souls and bodies, which thou hast delivered, to be a living sacrifice unto thee; always praising and magnifying thy mercies in the midst of thy Church, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this:

W E humbly acknowledge before thee, O most merciful Father, that the severe punishments which are threatned in thy law, might justly have fallen upon us by reason of our manifold transgressions, and hardness of heart. Yet seeing it hath pleased thee of thy tender mercy, upon our weak and unworthy humiliation, to affwage the contagious fickness wherewith we lately have been fore afflicted, and to restore the voice of joy and health into our dwellings; We offer unto thy divine Majesty the sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving, lauding and magnifying thy glorious Name for fuch thy preservation and providence over us, thro' Jefus Christ our Lord. Amen. At the Return of one of the Faithful to the Church after Child-bearing, this Collest may be used on her account.

Almighty God, we give thee humble thanks that thou hast vouchsafed to E 2 delideliver this woman thy servant from the great pain and peril of Chid-birth; Grant, we beseech thee, most merciful Father, that she thro' thy help may both saithfully live; and walk according to thy will in this life present; and also may be partaker of everlasting glory in the life to come, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving Prayer, after the great Storm, Nov. 27, 1703. To be, used after any the like Storms or Earthquakes, with proper alterations.

Reat and glorious Lord God, just and terrible in thy Judgments, and unfearchable in all thy ways: At whose rebuke the Earth trembles, and the very foundations of the hills Shake; who also commandest the Winds and the Sea, and they obey. We vile Duft, and miserable Sinners, in a most awful fense of thy amazing judgments, our own great and manifold Provocations, and thy tender mercy to the penitent, do with all humility of foul, cast our selves down before thy Footstool; bewailing our unworthiness, and imploring thy pity, and the bowels of thy compassion. We beseech thee, O Lord, to awaken our consciences.

that we may fee and duly confider thy hand, which in so aftonishing a manner has been lifted up against us. Pardon our own crying firs, and those of the whole nation; which have drawn down this thy heavy difpleasure upon us; and grant us fuch a measure of thy Grace, that we may no more disobey thy laws, abuse thy goodness and forbearance; or despise this and other thy chastisements, lest a worse thing come unto us. It is of thy goodness, O Lord, that we were not all confumed by the late winds and storms, which fulfill'd thy commandment; and that in the midst of Judgment thou did'ft remember Mercy; shewing forth the care of thy providence, in fo many wonderful prefervations of thy people. Let the Remembrance of them work in us fuch a thankfulness of heart, and fuch a feriousness and watchfulness of Spirit, that no calamity may ever be a furprize to us, nor death itself come upon us unawares. That so we may at length arrive fafely at that bleffed Kingdom, which cannot be shaken, for the Sake of Jefus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate.

The Collects, Epiftles, and Gospels to be used throughout the Year.

The first Sunday in Advent.

The Collect.

Lmighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life; (in which thy Son Jefus Christ came to visit us in great humility;) that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty, to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to the life immortal, thro' him was liveth and reigneth with thee, now and ever. Amen.

This Collect is to be repeated with the other Collects in Advent, until the feast of the Nativity.

The Epistle.

Owe no man any thing. Rom. 13. ver. 8. to the end.

The Gospel.

When they drew. S. Matt. 21. ver. 1. to 14.

The second Sunday in Advent.

The Collett. .

BLeffed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Epiftle.

Whatsoever things were. Rom. 15. ver. 4. to v. 14.

The Gospel.

And there shall be. S. Luke 2. ver. 25. to v. 34. The third Sunday in Advent.

The Collect . .

O Lord Jesus Christ, who at thy first coming didst fend thy messenger to prepare thy way before thee; Grant that the ministers and stewards of thy mysteries, may likewise so prepare and make ready thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at thy second coming to judge the world. we may be found an acceptable people in thy fight, who livest and reignest with the Father, world without end. Amen.

The Epifle.

Leta man so account. 1 Cor. 4. ver. 1. to y. 6.

The Gospel.

Now when John had, S. Mat. 11. ver. 2. to v. 11. The fourth Sunday in Advent.

The Gollett.

OLord raise up (we pray thee) thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas through our fins and wickedness we are fore let and hindered in running the race that is fet before us, thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us, through the propitiation of thy Son our Lord; to whom with thee, in the Holy Ghost, be honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Epifle.

Rejoice in the Lord. Phil. 4. ver. 4. to v. 8.

The Gospel.

This is the record. St. John 1. ver. 19. to v. 29.

The Nativity of our Lord, or the Birth-day of CHRIST.

The Collett.

A Lmighty God, who haft given us thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and for our fakes to be born of a pure Virgin; Grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit, through the fame our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

God, who at fundry. Heb. 1.

ver. 1. to v. 13.

The Gospel.

In the beginning was. S. Jo.
I. ver. I. to v. 15.

St. Stephen's day.
The Collect.

GRant, O Lord, that in all our sufferings here upon earth, for the testimony of thy truth, we may fledfastly look up to heaven, and by faith behold the glory that shall be revealed; and being filled with the Holy Ghost, may learn to love and bless our Persecutors, by the example of thy first Martyr Saint Stephen, who prayed for his murderers to thee, O bleffed Jesus, who standeth at the right-hand of God, to succour all those that fuffer for thee, our only Mediator and Advocate. men.

Then shall follow the Collect of the Nativity, which shall be said continually unto the feast of the Circumcisson.

The Epiftle.
Stephen being full of. Acts 7.
ver. 55. to the end.

The .

The Gospel.

Behold, I fend unto. S. Mat. 23. ver. 34. to the end.

Juan the Evangelist's day. The Collect.

MErciful Lord, we befeech thee to cast thy bright beams of light upon thy Church, that it being enlightned by the doctrine of thy blessed Apostle and Evangelist John, may so walk in the light of thy truth, that it may at length attain to everlasting life,
thro' Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Epiftle.

That which was. I S. Jo. I. ver I. to the end.

The Gospel.

Jesus said unto Peter. S. Joh. 21. ver. 19. to the end.

The Innocents day.

The Collect.

Almighty God, who out of the mouths of babes and fucklings hast ordained strength, and madest Infants to glorify thee by their deaths; Mortify and kill all vices inus: and so strengthen us by thy grace, that by the innocency of our lives, and constancy of our faith even unto death, we may glorify thy holy Name, through Jefus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
I looked, and lo, Rev. 14.
ver 1. to v. 6.

The Gospel.

The Angel of the. S. Matt. 2. ver. 13. to v. 19.

The Sunday after Christmasday.

The Collect.

A Lmighty God, who hast given us thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and for our sakes to be born of a pure Virgin; Grant that we being regenerate, and made thy Children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit, through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth andreigneth with thee, world without end, Amen.

The Epiftle.

Now I say that the Gal. 4. ver. 1. to v. 8.

The Gospel.

The birth of Jesus. S. Mat., 1. ver. 18, to the end.

The Circumcission of Christ.

The Collect.

A Lmighty God, who madeft thy bleffed Son to be circumcifed and obedient to the Law for man; Grant us the true circumcifion of the Spirit; that our hearts, and all our members being mortified from all worldly and carnal lufts, we may in all things obey thy bleffed will, through the fame thy Son

Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle.

Bleffed is the man to. Rom. 4. ver. 8. to v. 21.

The Gospel.

And it came to pass. S. Lu. 2.

The same Collect, Epistle and Gospel, shall serve unto the Epiphany.

The Epiphany, or the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles.

The Collect.

O God, who by the leading of a star didst manifect thy only begotten Son to the Gentiles; Mercifully grant, that we which know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Majesty, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
For this cause, I Paul. Ephes.
3. ver. 1. to v. 13.
The Gospel.

When Jesus was. S. Matt. 2: ver. 1. to v. 13.

The first Sunday after the Epiphany.

The Collect.

O Lord, we befeech thee mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people which call upon thee, and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. A-men.

The Epistle.

I beseech you there. Rom. 12.

ver. 1. to v. 6. The Gospel.

Now his parents, S. Luke 2. ver. 41. to the end.

The fecond. The Collect.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth; Mercifully hear the supplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the days of our life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
Having then gifts. Rom. 12.

ver. 6. to v. 16.

The Gospel.

And the third day. S. John 2.

ver. 1. to v. 12.

The third.

The Collect.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities, stretch forth thy right-hand to help and defend us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Be not wife in your. Rom. 12. ver. 16. to the end.

The Gospel.

When he was come. S. Matt. 8. ver. 1. to v. 14.

The

The Fourth.
The Collect.

OGod, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; Grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Let every foul be. Rom. 13. ver. 1. to v. 8.

The Gospel.

And when hewas. S. Mat. 8. ver. 23. to the end.

The Fifth:
The Collect.

O Lord, we beseech thee to keep thy Church and houshold continually in thy true religion, that they who do lean only upon the hope of thy heavenly grace, may evermore be defended by thy mighty power, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
Put on therefore, as. Col. 31

ver. 12. to v. 18.
The Gospel.

The kingdom of S. Mat. 13. ver. 24. to v. 31.

The Sixth. The Collect,

O God, whose blessed Son was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil, and make us the fons of God, and heirs of eternal life; Grant us, we befeech thee, that having this hope, we may purify our felves, even as he is pure; that when he shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious kingdom, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

The Epiftle.

Beloved, what manner. I St. 70h. 3. ver. I. to v. 9.

The Gospel.

Then if any man. S. Matt. 24. ver. 23. to v. 32.

The Seventh.
The Colle &.

Lord, we befeech thee favourably to hear the prayers of thy people; that we who are juffly punished for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by thy goodness, for the gloryof thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.

Know ye not that. 1 Cor. 9. ver. 24. to the end.

The Gospel.

The kingdom of. St. Matt.

20. ver. 1. to v. 17.

The Eighth.

The Collect.

O Lord God, who feest that we put not our trust trust in any thing that we do, Mercifully grant that by thy power we may be defended against all adversity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

F

The Epistle.

Ye fuffer fools gladly. 2 Cor. 11. ver. 19. to v. 32. The Gospel.

When much People. S. Luke 8. ver. 4. to v. 16.

The Ninth.

The Collect.

Lord, who hast taught us, that all our doings without Charity are nothing worth; Sendthy Holy Ghost and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of Charity, the very bond of peace, and of all virtues, without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before thee. Grant this for thine only Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

The Epifle.
Though I speak with 1 Cor.
13. ver. 1. to the end.
Then Jesus tookunto S. Luk.
18. ver. 31. to the end.

The Tenth.
The Collect.

WE befeech thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon thy people; that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore both in body and Soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
Christ being come an. Heb.
9. ver. 11. to v. 16.

The Gospel.

Jesus said, Which of S. Joh. 8. ver. 46. to the end.

The Eleventh.
The Collect.

Lord, who for our fake didft submit to hunger, thirst and fasting; Give us grace to use such abstinence, that our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey thy godly motions in righteousness and true holiness, to thy honour and glory who livest and reignest with the Father, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.
We then as workers. 2 Cor.

6. ver. 1. to ver. 11.

The Gospel.
Then was Jesus led. S. Mat.

4. ver 1. to v. 12.

The Twelfth.

The Collect.

A Lmighty God, who feeft that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves; Keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the Soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
We beseech you. I Thes. 4
ver. 1. to v. 9.

The

The Gospel.

Jesus went thence. S. Mat.

15. ver. 21. to v. 29.

The Thirteenth.

The Collect.

WE befeech thee, Almighty God, look upon the hearty defires of thy humble fervants; and firetch forth the right hand of thy Majesty, to be our defence against all our enemies, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Be ye therefore. Ephes. 5.

ver. 1. to v. 15.

The Gospel.

Jefus was casting out S. Luk.
11. ver. 14. to v. 29.
The Fourteenth.

The Collect.

GRant we befeech thee, Almighty God, that we who for our evil deeds do worthily deferve to be punished, by the comfort of thy grace may mercifully be relieved, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.

The Epistle.
Tell me, yethat desire. Gal.
4. ver. 21. to the end.

The Gospel.

Jesus went over the. S. John.

6. ver. 1. to v. 15.

The Fifteenth.

The Collect.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the Sins of all them that are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our fins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Collect is to be used only the five days following. The Epistle.

Turn ye even to me. Joel
2. ver. 12. to v. 18.

The Gospel.

When ye fast, be. S. Mat. 6. ver. 16. to v. 22.

The Sunday next before Easter.
The Callett.

A Lmighty; and everlasting God, who of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to fuffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility and patience; Mercifully grant, that we may be humble and patient as he was, and also be made partakers of the benefits of his precious death, and passion, thro' the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epifle.

Let this mind be in Philip. 2.

ver. 5. to Ver 12.

F 2 The

Monday in Easter Week.

The same Collect.

For the Epistle.

Peter opened his. Acts 10. ver. 34. to v. 44.

The Gospel.

Behold two of his. S. Luke 24. ver. 13. to v. 36. Tuesday in Easter Week.

The same Collect.

For the Epistle.

Men and brethren. Acts 13.

ver. 26. to v. 42.

The Gospel.

Jesus himself stood. S. Luke
24. ver. 36. to v. 49.

The first Sunday after Easter.
The Collect.

A Lmighty Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our fins, and to rise again for our justification; Grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may alway serve thee in pureness of living and truth, thro' the merits of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Whatsoever is born of God. 18. John 5. ver. 4. to v. 13.

The Gospel.

The same day at evening. S. fo. 20. ver. 19. to v. 24. The second Sunday after Easter.

The Collect.

A Lmighty God, who haft given thine only Son to be unto us both a facrifice for fin, and also an ensample of godly life; Give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavour our selves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life, thro' the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

This is thank-worthy. 1 S. Pet. 2. ver. 19. to the end.

The Gospel.

Jesus said, I am the. S. John 10. v. 11. to ver. 17. The third Sunday after Easter. The Collect.

A Lmighty God, who shewest to them that be in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness; Grant unto all them that are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may eschew those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same, thro' our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Epistle.
Dearly beloved. 1 S. Pet. 2.

The Gospel.

Jesus said unto his. S. John 16. ver. 16. to v. 23.

The fourth Sunday after

Easter. The Collect.

O Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly

ruly wills and affections of finful men; Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be sound, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
Every good gift, S. Jam, 1.
ver. 17. to v. 22.
The Gospel.

Jesus said unto. S. John 16. ver. 5. to v. 15. The Sah Sunday after Fac-

The fifth Sunday after Easter.

The Collect.

O Lord, from whom all good things do come; Grant to us thy humble fervants, that by thy holy infipiration we may think those things that be good, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Epistle.

Be ye doers of the. S. Jam.

1. ver. 22. to the end.

The Gospel.

Verily verily I say. S. Joh.

16. ver. 23. to the end.

Ascension day. The Collect.

GRant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe thy only begotten Son our Lord Jefus Christ to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell, who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

For the Epistle.
The former Treatise. Acts
1. ver. 1. to v. 11.

The Collect.

Jesus appeared unto. S. Mar. 16. ver. 14. to the end. Sunday after Ascension-day.

The Collect.

O God the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven; we befeech thee leave us not comfortles; but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before, who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle.
The end of of all things. 1 S.
Pet. 4. ver. 7. to v. 12.

The Gospel.
When the comforter. S. Joh.
15. ver. 26. and part of the fixteenth Chapter to v. 4.

Whitfunday.

The Collect.

OGod, who as at this time didft teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the fendfending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; grant us by the fame spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort, through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

For the Epistle. When the day. Acts 2. ver.

i. to v. 12. The Gospel.

Jesus said unto his. S. John 14. ver. 15. to v. 31.

Monday in Whitsun Week.
The same Collect.
For the Epistle.

ThenPeter opened. Acts 10. ver. 34. to the end. The Gospel.

God fo loved the. S. John 3. ver. 16. to v. 22.

Tuesday in Whitsun-Week.
The same Collect.

For the Epistle.
When the Apostles. Acts. 8.

ver. 14. to v. 18.

The Gospel.

Verily, verily, I fay. S. John 10. ver. 1. to v. 11.

Trinity-Sunday.
The Collect.

O God, who by thy dear Son Jesus Christ, our Lord, and by thy blessed Spirit, the Comforter, hast united us unto thy holy Church; and who hast appointed Baptism unto the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; Grant that we may live agreeably to our Christian Profession; and that we may pay the highest praises, and humblest Adoration to thy divine Majesty, the most sincere Obedience to the sacred Laws of thy Son, and the most ready compliance with the holy motions of thy good Spirit; till we at length arrive fafely at the haven of eternal life: through our Lord and Saviour Tesus Christ. Amen.

For the Epifile.

After this I looked. Rev. 4.

ver. 1. to the end.

The Gospel.

There was a man. S. John
3. ver. 1. to v. 16.
The first Sunday after Trinity.
Of God, the strength of all them that put their trust in thee, Mercifully accept our Prayers: and because thro' the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy

our Lord. Amen.

The Epiftle.

Beloved, let us. 1 S. John
4. ver. 7. to the end.

grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may

please thee both in will and deed, through Jesus Christ

The Gospel.
There was a certain. S. Lu.

16, ver. 19. to the end.

The second Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O Lord who never failest to help and govern them whom thou dost preserve in thy stedsast fear and love; Keep us, we beseech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual sear and love of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Marvel not, my. 1 S. John 3. ver. 13. to the end.

The Gospel.

A certain man. S. Luke 14. ver. 16. to v. 25.

The third Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O Lord we befeech thee mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may by thy mighty aid be desended and comforted in all dangers and adversities, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

All of you be subject. 1. S. Pet. 5. ver. 5. to v. 12.

The Gospel.

Then drew near. S. Luke 15. ver. 1. to v. 11. The fourth Sunday after Tri> nity. The Collect.

O God the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; Increase and multiply upon us thy mercy: that thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal: Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

The Epiftle.

I reckon that the. Rom. 8.
ver. 8. to v. 24.

The Gospel.

Be ye therefore. S. Luke 6. ver. 36. to v. 43.

The fifth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

GRant, O Lord, we befeech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietnses, through Jesus Christ our Lord: Amen.

The Epistle.

Be ye all of one mind, I S. Pet. 3. ver. 8. to v. 15.

And be ready.

The Gospel.

It came to pass. S. Luke 5. ver. 1. to v. 12.

The fixth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

OGod, who hast prepared for them that love thee, such good things as pass

G man's man's understanding; Pour into our hearts such love to-ward thee, that we loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can defire, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Know ye not. Rom. 6. ver.

3. to v. 12. The Gospel.

Jesus said unto his. S. Mat.

5. ver. 20. to v. 27. The seventh Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

L Ord of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things; Grast in our hearts the love of thy Name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

I speak after the. Rom. 6. ver. 19. to the end.

The Gofpel.

In those days the. S. Mark 8. ver. 1. to v. 10.

The eighth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collett.

O God whose never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth; We humbly beseech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which be profitable for us, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Brethren, we are. Rom. 8. ver. 12. to v. 18.

The Gospel.

Beware of false. Matt. 7. ver. 15. to v. 22.

The ninth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collett.

GRant to us, Lord, we befeech thee, thy Spirit, to think and do always fuch things as be right; that we who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will, through Jefus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Brethren, I would. I Cor.

The Gospel.

Jesus said unto his. S. Luke 16. ver. 1. to v. 10.

The tenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

LET thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble fervants, and that they may obtain their petitions, direct them to afk fuch things as shall please thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epiftle.
Now concerning. 1 Cor. 12.

ver. 1. to v. 21.

The Gospel.

And when he was. S. Luke

19. ver. 41. to v. 47.

But the chief.

The eleventh Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

OGod, who declarest thy glorious perfection and goodness in shewing mercy and pity; Mercifully grant unto us such a measure of thy grace, that we running the way of thy commandments, may obtain thy gracious promises, and be made partakers of thy heavenly treasure, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
Brethren, I declare. 1 Cor.
15. ver. 1. to v. 12.

The Gospel.

Jesus spake this. S. Luke 18. ver. 9. to v. 15. The twelfth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear, than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve; Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy; forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but thro' the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Such trust have we. 2 Cor. 3. ver. 4. to v. 20.

The Gospel.

Jesus departing from. S. Mat. 7. ver. 31. to the end. The thirteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

A Lmighty and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh, that thy saithful people do unto thee true and laudable service; Grant, we beseech thee, that we may so faithfully serve thee in this life, that we fail not finally to attain thy heavenly promises, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epifle.
To Abraham and. Gal. 3.
ver. 16. to v. 23.

The Gospel.

Blessed are the Eyes. S.Lu. 10. ver. 23. to v. 38. The fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

G 2 The

The Epistle.
I say then, Walk in. Gal.

5. ver. 16. to v. 25. The Gospel.

And it came to pass. S. Lu. 17. ver. 11. to v. 20.

The fifteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

KEep, we befeech thee, O Lord, thy Church with thy perpetual mercy. And because the strailty of man without thee is ever liable to fall, keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epifile.
Ye see how large. Gal. 6.
ver. 11. to the end.
The Gospel.

No Man can serve. S. Mat. 6. ver. 24. to the end.

The sixteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collett.

OLord, we befeech thee, let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy Church; and because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

I defire that ye faint. Eph. 3. ver 13. to the end.

The Gospel.

And it came to pass. S. Lu. 7. ver. 11. to v. 18.

The seventeenth Sunday after

Trinity.
The Collect.

Lord, we pray thee that thy grace may always prevent and follow us; and make us continually to be given to all good works, thro' Jefus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

I therefore the. Eph. 4. ver. 1. to v. 7.

The Gospel.

It came to pass. S. Luke 14.

ver. 1. to v. 12. The eightteenth Sunday after

Trinity.
The Gospel.

Lord, we befeech thee, grant thy people grace to withftand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil; and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee, the only God, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
I thank my God. 1 Cor. 1.

ver. 4. to v. 9.
The Gospel.

When the Pharifees. S. Mat.

22. ver. 34. to the end.

The nineteenth Sunday after

Trinity.

OGod, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee; Mercifully

grant

grant that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

This I say therefore. Eph. 4. ver. 17. to the end.

The Gospel.

Jesus entered into a ship. S. Mat. 9. ver. 1. to v. 9. The twentieth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

Almighty and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we befeech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we being ready both in body and foul, may chearfully accomplish those things that thou wouldst have done, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

See then that ye walk. Eph. 5. ver. 15. to v. 22.

The Gospel.

Jesus said, the Kingdom. S. Mat. 22. ver. 1. to ver. 15. The one and twentieth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

GRant, we befeech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace; that they may be cleanfed from all their fins, and ferve thee with a quiet mind, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen,

The Epiftle.

My brethren, be. Eph. 6.

ver. 10. to v. 21.

The Gospel.

There was a certain. S. Job. 4. ver. 46. to the end. The two and twentieth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

Lord, we befeech thee to keep thy houshold the Church in continual godlines; that thro' thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy Name, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epifile.

I thank my God. Phil. 1.

ver. 3. to v. 12.
The Gospel.

Peter said unto his. S. Mat. 18. ver. 21. to the end. The three and twentieth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

God, our refuge and strength, who art the author of all godlines; Be ready, we befeech thee, to hear the devout prayers of thy Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully, we may obtain effectually, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
Brethren, be followers. Phil.
3. ver. 17. to the end.

The Gospel.

Then went the Pharisees. S. Mat. 22: ver. 15. to v. 23.

The twenty fourth Sunday after Trinity.

The Gollect.

Lord, we befeech thee absolve thy people from their offences; that thro'thy bountiful goodness we may all be delivered from the bands of those fins which by our frailty we have committed. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Epiftle.

We give thanks to God. Col. 1. ver. 3. to ver. 13.

The Gospel.

While Jesus spake. S. Mat. 9. ver. 18. to v. 27.

The twenty fifth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collett.

STir up, we befeech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people, that they plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of thee be plenteously rewarded, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epiftle.

Behold, the days. Fer. 23. ver. 5. to v. 9.

The Gofpel.

When Jesus then list. S. Joh. 6. ver. 5. to v. 15.

If there be any more Sundays before Advent-Sunday, the Service of some of those Sundays that were omitted after the Epiphany, shall be taken in to supply so many as are here wanting. And if there be fewer, the overplus may be omitted: Provided that this last Collect, Epistle and Gospel, shall always be used upon the Sunday next before Advent.

Saint Andrew's Day. The Collect.

A Lmighty God, who didst give such grace unto thy holy Apostle Andrew, that he readily obeyed the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him without delay; Grant unto us all, that we being called by thy holy word, may forthwith give up our selves obediently to fulfil thy holy commandments, thro' the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epiftle.

If thou shalt confess. Rom. 10. ver. 9. to the end.

The Gospel.

Jesus walking by the. S. Mat. 4. ver. 18. to v. 23. Saint Thomas the Apostle.

The Collect.

A Lmighty and everliving God, who for the greater confirmation of the Faith, didst suffer thy holy Apostle Thomas to be doubtful in thy Son's Resurrection; Grant us so persectly and without all doubt to believe in thy Son Jesus Christ, that our faith in thy sight may never be reproved. Hear us, O Lord, thro' the same Jesus Christ, to whom with thee, in the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, now and for evermore. Amen.

The Epistle.

Now therefore ye. Eph. 2. ver. 19. to the end.

The Gospel.
Thomas, one of the S. Joh.
20. ver. 24. to the end.
The Conversion of Saint

Paul. The Collect.

OGod, who through the preaching of the bleffed Apostle Paul, hast caused the light of the Gospel to shine throughout the world; Grant, we beseech thee, that we having his wonderful conversion in remembrance, may shew forth our thankfulness unto thee for the same, by following the holy doctrine which he taught, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle.
And Saul yet. Acts 9. ver.
1. to v. 23.

The Gospel.

Peter answered and. S. Mat. 19. ver. 27. to the end.

The Presentation of Christ in the Temple, commonly called, The Purification of Saint Mary the Virgin.

The Collett.

A Lmighty and everliving God, we humbly befeech thy Majesty, that as thy only begotten Son was presented in the temple in substance of our sless; so we may be presented unto thee with pure and clean hearts, by the same thy Son Jesus Christour Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle.
Behold, I will fend. Mal. 3.

ver. I. to v. 6.
The Gespel.

And when the days. S. Luke
2. ver. 22. to v. 24.

Saint Matthias's Day.
The Collect.

Almighty God, who into the place of the Traitor Judas, didft choose thy faithful servant Matthias, to be of the number of the twelve Apostles; Grant that thy Church being always preserved from salie Apostles, may be ordered and guided by faithful and true pastors, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epifle.

In those days Peter. Acts 1. ver. 15. to the end. The Gospel.

At that time Jesus. S. Mat. 11. ver. 25. to the end.

The Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary.

The Collett.

WEbefeech thee, OLord, pour thy grace into our hearts; that as we have known the Incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an Angel; so by his cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his Resurrection, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle.

Moreover the Lord. Isai. 7 ver. 10. to v. 16.

The Gospel.

And in the fixth Month.S. Luke 2. ver. 26. to v. 39.

Saint Mark's Day.

The Collect.

Almighty God, who hast instructed thy hely Church with the heavenly doctrine of thy holy Evangelist Mark; Give us grace, that being not like children carried away with every blast of vain doctrine, we may be established in the truth of thy holy Gospel, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

. The Epistle.

Unto every one of. Eph. 4. ver. 7. to v. 17.

The Gospel.
I am the true vine. S. John
15. ver. 1. to v. 12.
Saint Philip, and Saint
James's Day.

The Collect.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life; Grant us perfectly to know thy Son Jefus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life; that following the steps of thy holy Apostles, Philip and James, we may stedsaftly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life, thro' the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
James a servant of. S. Jam.

I. ver. 1. to v. 13.

The Gospel.

And Jesus said unto. S. Joh. 14. ver. 1. to v. 15.

Saint Barnabas the Apostle.
The Collect.

Lord God Almighty, who didst endue thy holy Apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the Holy Ghost; leave us not, we befeech thee, destitute of thy manifold gifts, nor yet of grace to use them alway to thy honour and glory, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle.
Tidings of these. Acts 11.

The Gospel. This is my. S. John 15. ver. 12. to v. 27.

Saint John Baptist's Day. The Collect.

A Lmighty God, by whose providence thy fervant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and fent to prepare the way of thy Son our Saviour, by preaching of repentance; Make us so to follow his doctrine, and his holy life that we may truly repent according to his preaching; and after his example constantly fpeak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently fuffer for the truth's fake, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord: men.

For the Epistle. Comfort ve, comfort. If. 40. ver. I. to v. 1'2.

The Gospel. Elizabeth's full time. S. Luke I. ver. 57. to the end. Saint Peter's Day.

The Collect.

O Almighty God, who by thy Son Jefus Chrift didft give to thy holy Apostle Peter many excellent gifts, and commanded thim earnestly to feed thy flock; Make, we befeech thee, all Bishops and Pastors diligently to preach thy holy word, and the people obediently to follow the same, that they may receive the crown of everlasting life, through

Jelus Christ our Lord. A-

For the Epifle. About that time. Acts 12. ver. I. to v. 12.

The Gospel. When Jesus came. S. Mat.

16. ver. 13. to v. 19. Saint Fames the Apostle. The Gospel.

GRant, O merchine holy Rant, O merciful God, Apostle James, leaving his Father and all that he had without delay, was obedient unto the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him; fo we forfaking all worldly and carnal affections, may be evermore ready to follow thy holy commandments, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epifle. . In those days came. Acts 11. ver. 27. to ch. 12. v. 3.

The Gospel. Then came to him. S. Mat. 20. ver. 20. to v. 28.

Saint Bartholomew the Apostle.

The Collett.

Almighty and everlafting God, who didft give Apostle Bartholothine mew grace truly to believe and to preach thy word; Grant, we befeech thee, unto thy Church to love that Wordwhich he believed, and both to preach and receive H

the

the same, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epifile.

By the hands of the. Ass 5.

ver. 12. to v. 17.

The Gospel.

And there was also. S. Luke
21. ver. 24. to v. 31.
Saint Matthew the Apostle.
The Collect.

Almighty God, who by thy bleffed Son didft call Matthew from the receit of custom, to be an Apostle and Evangelist; grant us grace to forsake all covetous desires, and inordinate love of riches, and to follow the same thy Son Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

The Epiftle.
Therefore feeing we. 2 Cor.

4. ver. 1. to v. 7.

The Gospel.

And as Jesus passed. S. Mat. 9. ver. 9. to v. 14.

S. Michael, and all Angels.
The Collect.

D Everlasting God, who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order; Mercifully grant, that as thy holy Angels always do thee service in heaven, so by thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle.

There was war in. Rev. 12. ver. 7. to v. 13.

The Gospel.

At the same time. S. Matt.

18. ver. 1. to v. 10.

Saint Luke the Evangelist.

The Collect.

A Lmighty God, who calledft Luke the Phyfician, whose praise is in the Gospel, to be an Evangelist, and Physician of the Soul; May it please thee, that by the holy doctrine, delivered by him, all the diseases of our souls may be healed, through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.
Watch thou in all. 2. Tim.

4. ver. 5. to v. 16.

The Gospel.

The Lord appointed. S.Lu. 10. ver. 1. to v. 7. Go not from.

Saint Simon and Saint Jude Apostles.

The Collett.

O Almighty God, who hast built the Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jefus Christ himself being the head corner stone; Grant us so to be joyned together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple, acceptable unto thee, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Jude the servant of. S. Jude
ver. 1. to v. S.

The Gospel.
These things I. S. John 15.
ver. 15. to the end.

All Saints Day.
The Collect.

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical Body of thy Son, Christ our Lord; Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for them that unseignedly love thee, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epiflle.
And I faw another. Rev. 7.
ver. 2. to v. 13.
The Gospel.
Jesus seeing the. S. Mat. 5.
ver. 1. to v. 13.

The Order for the Administration of the Lord's Supper, or Holy Communion.

The Altar at the Communion-time baving a fair white linen Cloth upon it, shall stand in the body of the Church, or in the Chancel, where Morning and Evening-Prayer are appointed to be said. And the Priest standing humbly before the same, shall say the Collest following, the People also standing.

Note, That no part of this Service is ever to be used, but when there is a Gommunion.

The Collect.

Lmighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known and from whom no fecrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy

Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthy magnify thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall follow one of these two Collects for the King, all standing as before, and saying,

A Lmighty God, whose kingdom is everlasting, H 2 and

and power infinite; Have mercy upon the whole Church; and fo rule the heart of thy chosen servant George, our King and Governor, that he (knowing whose Minister he is) may above all things feek thy honour and glory; and that vie and all his subjects, (duly confidering whose authority he hath,) may faithfully iserve, honour, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy bleffed word and ordinance, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this. A Lmighty and everlashing God, we are taught by thy holy Word, that the hearts of Kings, and Princes, are under thy rule and governance, and that thou dost dispose and turn them as it feemeth best to thy divine wildom; We humbly befeech thee so to dispose and govern the heart of George thy fervant, our King and Governor, that in all his thoughts, words, and works, he may ever feek thy honour and glory; and fludy to preferve thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace and godlinefs. Grant this-O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's fake Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall be faid the Collect of the day. And immediately. after the Collect, the Epistle shall be read, the Reader saying, The Epistie [or, The Portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle] is written in the -Chapter of — beginning at the - verse. And the Epistle ended, he that readeth shall say, Here endeth the Epistle. Then shall a Presbyter or a Deacon read the Gospel, saying, The holy Gospel is written in the - Chapter of - beginning at the - verse. And the Gospel ended, shall be repeated the Creed following, all standing.

I Believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And of all things visible and invisible.

invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, by whom all things were made: Who for us, and for our falvation, came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost, of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered fuffered and was buried, And the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right-hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Comforter, who proceedeth from the Father by the Son, Who after the Father and the Son is * * Or bonoured. worshipp'dand glorified; Who spake by the prophets. And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of fins, And I look for the refurrection of the dead, And the life of the world to come. Amen.

Then shall follow one or more ferious Exhortations or Sermons; the Bishop, if present, concluding with one of his own. And Note, That the Bishop may give leave to one of the Laity to preach, if he knows him well qualified for the same.

Then shall the Priest return to the Lord's Table, and begin the Offertory, saying one or more of these Sentences following, as he thinketh most convenient in his discretion.

Let your light fo shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. S. Matth. 5. 16.

Lay not up for your felves treasure upon earth, where the rust and moth doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for your selves treasures in heaven, where neither rust nor moth doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break throand steal. S. Matth. 6. 19. 20.

Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do unto them; for this is the law and the prophets. S. Matth. 7. 12.

Not every one that faith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven. S. Matth. 7. 21.

Zaccheus stood forth, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have done any wrong to any man, I restore sourfold. S. Luke 19. 18.

He that foweth little, shall reap little, and he that foweth plenteously, shall reap plenteously. Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a chearful giver. 2 Cor. 9. 6, 7.

ry

While we have time, let us do good unto all men, and specially unto them that are of the houshold of faith.

Gal. 6. 10.

Godlines is great riches, if a man be content, with that he hath: for we brought nothing into the world, neither may we carry any thing out. I Tim. 6. 6, 7.

Charge them who are rich in this world, that they be ready to give, and glad to distribute, laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may attain eternal life. I Tim. 6. 17, 18, 19.

God is not unrighteous, that he will forget your work, and labour that proceedeth of love; which love ye have shewed for his Names sake, who have ministred unto the Saints, and yet do minister. Heb. 6, 10.

To do good, and to diffribute, forget not; for with such facrifices God is well pleased. Heb. 13.

Whoso hath this world's good, and feeth his Brother have need, and shuteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 S. John 3. 17.

Give alms of thy goods, and never turn thy face from any poor man, and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee.

Tob. 4. 7.

Be merciful after thy power. If thou hast much, give plenteously. If thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little: for so gatherest thou thy self a good reward in the day of necessity. Tab. 4.8, 9.

He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord: and look what he layeth out it shall be paid him again. Prov. 19. 17.

Bleffed is the man that provideth for the fick and needy: the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble. Pfalm 41. 1.

Whilf these Sentences are in reading, a Deacon, or other sit person, shall receive the Bread, with the Wine, and Water, for the Communion; as also the alms for the poor, and other devotions of the People, and reverently bring them to the Priest; who shall humbly present them, and place them upon the holy Table.

The Priest shall then mix the Wine with the Water, in a dua

due proportion, in the sacred Vessels. After which done, he shall say;

DEarly beloved in the Lord, ye that mind to come to the holy Communion of the body and blood of our Saviour Christ, must confider how Saint Paul exhorteth the Corinthians diligently to try and examine themselves, before they prefume to eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith, we receive these holy mysteries; (for then we spiritually eat the flesh of Christ, and drink his blood; then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in us; we are one with Christ, and Christ with us:) so is the danger great if we receive the fame unworthily. I exhort you therefore Religiously and Devoutly to dispose your selves for this participation of the most comfortable Memorial of the Body and Blood of Christ; to be by you received in remembrance of his meritorious Cross and Passion; whereby we obtain remission of our Sins, and are made heirs of the Kingdom of Heaven. Judge your felves, brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord; repent you truly for your fins past; have a lively and stedfast faith in Christ our Saviour; amend. your lives, and be in perfeet charity with all men: fo shall ye be meet partakers of these holy mysteries. And above all things ye must give most humble and hearty thanks to God the Father, and to the Son, for the redemption of the, world, by the death and passion of our Saviour Christ; who did humble himself, even to the death upon the Cross, for us miserable finners; who lay in darknefs, and the shadow of death. that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life. And to the end that we should alway remember the exceeding great love of our Master, and only Saviour Tefus Christ, thus dying for us; and the innumerable benefits which by his precious bloodshedding he hath obtained to us; he hath instituted and ordained holy mysteries, as pledgesof his love, and for a continual remembrance of his death, to out great and endless comfort. To him therefore, with the Father, in the Holy Ghost, let us give (as we are most bounden) continual thanks, submitting our felves wholly to his holy will and pleafure, and ftudying. studying to serve him in true holiness and righteousness all the days of our life. A-men.

Then shall the Priest say to them that come to receive the holy Communion.

YE that do truly and earneftly repent you of your fins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take these holy mysteries to your confolation.

Then shall the Priest say.

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all that truly turn to him.

Come unto me, all that travel and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. S. Matth. 11. 28.

So God loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life. S. John 3. 16.

Hear also what the 'Apostle Paul saith.

This is a true faying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1. Tim. 1. 15. Hear, also what the Apostle

John faith.

If any manfin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the propitiation for our sins. 1. S. John 2. 1. Then this Prayer for the whole

Church of Christ shall be used.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make Prayers and Supplications, and to give thanks for all men: We humbly befeech thee most mercifully to accept our alms and oblations, and to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majesty; beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love. We befeech thee also to fave and defend all Christian Kings, Princes, and Governors; and especially thy servant George our King; that under him we may be godly and quietly governed; and grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and impartially minister Justice, to the punishment of wickednessand Vice, and to the maintenance of thy true Religion and virtue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops, Priests and Deacons: that they may both by their life and doctrine fet forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Mysteries: And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace, and especially to this Congregation here prefent; that with meek heart and due reverence they may ever hear and receive thy holy Word, truly ferving thee, in holiness and righteousness, all the days of their life. And we most humbly befeech thee of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and fuccour all them who in this transitory life are in trouble, forrow, need, fickness, or any other adversity. And especially we commend unto thy merciful goodness this congregation, which is here affembled in thy name, to celebrate the commemoration of the most precious death of thy Son. And we do here give unto thee our devout praises and hearty thanks for the wonderful graces and virtues bestowed on all thy Saints from the beginning of the world; on the Holy Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles, and Martyrs, whose examples, O Lord, and stedfastness in thy faith, and keeping thy holy commandments, grant us to follow. We commend them also unto thy favour, O Lord, with all other thy fervants which are departed hence from us in thy true faith and fear, and do now rest in the sleep of peace. Grant unto them all, we befeech thee, thy favour, and everlasting peace; and that at the day of the general Refurrection, we, and all they which are of the mystical body of thy Son, may altogether be fet on his righthand, and hear that his most joyful voice, Come ye bleffed Children of my Father, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we befeech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

and

After which the Priest shall proceed, saying,

Lift up your hearts.

Answ. We lift them up unto the Lord.

Priest. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

Answ. It is meet and right so to do.

Then shall the Priest turn to the Lord's Table, and say.

T is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we fhould at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Here shall follow the proper Preface, according to the time, if there be any specially appointed; or else immediately shall follow, Therefore with Angels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praifing thee, and faying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

Proper Prefaces.
Upon the Feast of the Nativity.

BEcause thou didst give Jesus Christ thine only Son to be born for us; who by the operation of the Holy Ghost, was made man of the substance of the Virgin Mary his mother, and that without spot of sin, to make us clean from all sin. Therefore with Angels, &c.

Upon Easter-Day.

BUT chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious Resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: For he is the very Paschal Lamb which was offered for us, and hath taken away the fin of the world; who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again, hath restored to us everlasting life. Therefore with Angels, &c.

Upon Ascension-Day.

Through thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who after his most glorious Resurrection manisestlyappeared to all his Apostles, and in their sight ascended up into heaven to prepare a place for us; that where he is, thither we might also ascend, and reign with him in glory. Therefore with Angels, &c.

Upon Whitsunday.

THrough Jesus Christour Lord; according to whose most true promise, the Holy Ghost came down, as at this time from heaven, with a fudden great found, as it had been a mighty wind, in the likeness of fiery tongues, lighting upon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth; giving them both the gift of divers languages, and also boldness with fervent zeal constantly to preach the Gospel unto all nations; whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error into the clear light light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ. Therefore with Angels, &c.

After each of which Prefaces, shall immediately be fung or faid.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praifing thee, and faying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hofts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say, in the name of all them that shall receive the Communion, this Prayer sollowing.

WE do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteoufness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy for much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our finful bodies may be made clean by his.

body, and our fouls washed thro' his most precious blood, and that we may ever more dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

When the Priest, standing before the Table, hath so ordered the Bread, Wine and Water, that he may with the more readiness and decency break the Bread before the People, and take the Cup into his hands, he shall say the Prayer of Consecration, as followeth.

Lmighty God, our hea-A venly Father, who of thy tender mercy didft give thine only Son Jesus Christ to fuffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there (by his one oblation of himfelf once offered) a full, perfect, and fufficient facrifice, oblation, and atonement for the fins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue a perpetual memory of that his precious death, until his coming again; Hear us, O most merciful Father, we most humbly befeech thee: And with thy holy Spirit and Word, vouchsafe to bless and sanctify these thy Gifts, that they may be unto us the body and blood of thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ: Who in the same night that he was betrayed(a) took bread, and

I 2

(b)he brake it,

and gave it to when given

he had

thanks;

(a) Here the Priest is to take the Bread into his bands:

(b) And bere so brake the Bread:

his disciples, saying, Take, eat, to lay bis band
upon all the
dy which is giBread.
ven for you, do this in remembrance of me. Likewise after

(d) Here be supper (d) he is to take the took the cup, and Gup into bis took the cup, and Hand, when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, faying, Drink ye all of this, for

(e) And bere to lay biz bands this (e) is my spon every Veffel in which shereix any Wine and Water to be conficrated.

(e) And bere yearl of this, for this (e) is my spon every Veffel in which is fixed for you and for

for you and for many for the remission of fins: Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me. Wherefore O Lord and Heavenly Father, according to the Institution of thy dearly, beloved Son. our Saviour Jesus Christ, we thy humble Servants do celebrate and make here before. thy divine Majesty, with these thy holy Gifts, the Memorial which thy Son hathcommanded us to make: Having in remembrance his bleffed Paffion, mighty Refurrection, glorious Afcenfion, and fecond coming to judge the world in rightcouf-ness; rendring unto thee most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the fame; and we entirely defire thy Fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our facrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly befeeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and prefent unto thee, OLord, thefe thy Gifts, as Memorials of the precious body and blood of thy dear Son; befeeching thy divine Majesty to have pity upon us, and hear all our fupplications which we put up unto thee in his name: and together with them, we also offer and present unto thee, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively facrifice unto thee; humbly befeeching thee, that all we who are partakers of this holy Communion, may be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And altho' we be unworthy thro' our manifold fins to offer unto thee any facrifice, yet we befeech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, thro' Jelus

Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Then let the Priest say, Holy things for Holy Perfons.

And let the People Answer,
There is one that is Holy;
there is one Lord; one Jesus Christ, blessed for ever, to the glory of God the Father. Amen. Hosanna to the Son of David! blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord, being the Lord
God who appeared to us,
Hosanna in the highest!
Then shall the Bishop or Pres-

Then shall the Bishop or Presbyter first receive the Communion in both kinds himself, and then proceed to deliver the same to the Bishops, Priests and Deacons in like manner (if any be present) and after that to the People also in order, into their hands, all standing, with great reverence. And when he delivered the bread to any one, he shall say,

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life.

And the Minister that delivereth the Cup to any one shall.

Say,

THE Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and foul unto everlaft-

ing life.

Here some proper Hymn or Psalm shall be sung, while the Congregation is partaking. If the consecrated Elements be all spent before all have communicated, the Priest is to consecrate more, according to the Form before prescribed: Beginning at these words, Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, &c.

[The most ancient form of Consecration, Oblation, and Delivery of the Elements.

BEing mindful of those things that Christ endured for our fakes, we give thee thanks, O God Almighty, not in fuch a manner as we ought, but as we are able; and fulfil his Constitution. For in the same night that he was betrayed, he took Bread in his holy and undefiled Hands; and looking up to thee, his God and Father, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, This is the mystery of the new Covenant; take of it, and eat; this is my Body which is broken for many, for the remission of fins. In like manner also he took the cup, and mixed it of Wine and Water, and fanctified it, and delivered it to them, faying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my blood which is shed for many, for the remission of sins. Do this in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this Bread, and drink

drink this Cup, ye do shew forth my death until I come. Being mindful therefore of his Passion, and Death, and Resurrection from the dead, and Ascension into the Heavens, and his future second appearing, wherein he is to come with Glory and Power to judge the Quick and the Dead, and to recompence to every one according to his works, we Offer to thee, our King and our God, according to his Constitution, this Bread, and this Cup; giving thee thanks thro' him, that thou hast thought us worthy to stand before thee, and to facrifice to thee. And we befeech thee that thou wilt mercifully look down upon these Gifts, which are here fet before thee, O thou God who standest in need of none of our Offerings : And do thou accept them to the honour of thy Christ; and fend down thine HolySpirit, the witness of the Lord Jefus's Sufferings, that he may shew this Bread to be the Body of thy Christ, and this " Oup to be the Blood of thy Christ; that those who are partakers thereof may be strengthened for Piety, may obtain the remission of their Sins, may be deliver'd from the Devil and his deceit, may be filled with the Holy Ghost, may be made worthy of thy Christ, and upon thy reconciliation to them, O Lord Almighty, may obtain eternal Life.

Then let the Bishop give the Oblation, saying, The Body of Christ. And let him that receiveth, say, Amen. And let the Deacon take the Cup; and when he gives it, let him say, The Blood of Christ; the Cup of Life. And let him that drinketh, say, Amen.]

When allhave communicated, the Minister shall return to the Lord's Table, and reverently place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated Elements, covering the same with a fair linen cloth.

Then may the Priest say the Lord's Prayer, the People repeating after him every Petition.

OUR Father which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive usour * Debts, as we forgive them that our Debtrespass against us. * Debts, as the forgive forgive

And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from † evil: For thine † The evil is the kingdom, One. the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then shall follow this Thanksgiving.

A Lmighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thank thee, for that thou dost vouchfafe to feed us, who have duly received these holy Mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost affure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the bleffed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, thro' hope, of thy everlasting Kingdom, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of thy dear Son: And we most humbly befeech thee, O heavenly Father, so to affist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou haft prepared for us to walk in ; thro' Jefus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee in the Holy Ghoft, be all honour and glory world without end. Amen.

Then shall be faid or fung,

Cary be to God on high,
and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God
the Father Almighty.

We also glorify thee, the only begotten Son Jesus Christ; Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, and sittest at the right-hand of God the Father.

For thou art holy, thou art the Lord, thou OChrist, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Then the Bishop or Presbyter shall let them depart with this Bleffing.

THE peace of God which passet all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Collects fit to be faid after the Communion before the Blessing; or at other times, at the discretion of the Minister.

A Shift us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that among all the changes and miseries of this mortal life, we may ever be desended by thy most gracious and ready help, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty Lord, and everlasting God, vouchfase, we beseech thee, to direct, sanctifyand govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of thy laws, and in the worksof thy commandment; that through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Rant, we befeech thee, Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may through thy grace be so grasted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honour and praise of thy Name, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Sfift us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favour; and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercyobtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Lmighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking; We beseech thee to have compassion upon our infirmities; and those things which for our unworthiness we other wisedare not, or for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchfafe to give us, for the worthiness of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Lmighty God, who haft promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thySon'sName; We befeech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us, that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee: and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the letting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Note, That the Communion is to be celebrated every Lord's Day; and all the faithful are to frequent it constantly, unless sickness, or other just and urgent occasions hinder them.

The Ministration of Baptism and Confirmation.

Hen any Children or grown Persons are to be baptized, timely notice shall be given to the Bishop, or Presbyter; that so due care may be taken for their Examination, whether they be sufficiently instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion, and willing to submit to the Laws of the Gospel; and that they may be exhorted to prepare themselves with prayers and fasting for the receiving of this holy Mystery; for which duties, the time before Easter is particularly proper.

Baptism and Confirmation.

And if they shall be found fit, they shall be baptized after this manner.

Early beloved; Forafmuch as all men are finners, and they that are in the flesh cannot please God, but commit many actual transgressions; and that ourSaviourChristfaith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of water and of the Holy Ghoft; I befeech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jefus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will grant to' these persons that which by nature they cannot have; that they may be baptized with water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ'sholy Church, and be made lively members of the 16 fame.

Then shall the Priest say, Let us pray.

(And here all the Congregation shall kneel:)

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who of thy great mercy didst by thy Son our Saviour Christ appoint Baptism, as the laver of regeneration, and the means of admission into thy holy Church, and as an ordinance for the mystical washing away of sin; We beseech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wist mercifully look upon thefe thy fervants; wash them, and fanctify-them with the Holy Ghost, that they being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the ark of Christ's Church; and being stedfast in faith, joyful thro' hope, and rooted in charity; may fo pass the waves of this troublesome world, that finally they may come to the land of everlasting life, there to reign with thee, world without end, through Tesus Christ our Lord. Amen. · A Emighty and immortal God, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succour, We call upon thee for these perfons; that they coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of their fins by spiritual regeneration. Receive them, O Lord, as thou haft promifed by thy well-beloved Son, faying, Ask, and ye shall receive; feek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: So give now unto us that ask; let us that feek, find; open the gate unto us that knock ; that these persons may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal K kingkingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then hall the People stand up, and the Priest Shall fay, Hear the words of the Gofpel written by the Apostle John, in the third Chapter, beginning at the first verse. THere was a man of the Pharifees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. The same came to Jesus by night, and faid unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do those miracles that thou doft, except God be with him. Jesus answered and faid unto him. Verily, verily I fay unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot fee the kingdom of God. Nicodemus faith unto him, How can a man beborn when he is old? Can he enter the fecond time into his mother's womb, and beborn? Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is Spirit.

Marvel not that I faid unto thee, Ye must be bornagain.

The wind bloweth where it lifteth, and thou hearest the found thereof; but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: fo is every one that is born of the Spirit.

After which he shall use this Exhortation following.

PEloved, ye hear in this DGospel the express words of our Saviour Christ, that except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Whereby ye may percieve the great neneffity of this holy ordinance where it may be had. Likewise immediately before his Ascension into heaven (as we read in the last Chapter of Mark's Gospel)he gave command to his disciples, saying, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized. shall be faved; but he that believeth not, shall be condemned. Which also sheweth unto us the great benefit we reapthereby. For which cause Peter the Apostle, upon his first preaching of the Gospel many were pricked at the heart and faid to him, and the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? reply'd and said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you for the remission of fins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lordour God shall call. And with many other wordsexhorted he them, faying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. For (as the same A postle testifieth in another place) even Batpifm doth also now save us, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God) by the Refurrection of Jesus Christ. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will favourably recieve thefe present perfons, if they truly repent and come unto him by faith; that he will grant them remiffion of their fins, and besto w upon them the Holy Ghost; that he will give them the bleffing of eternal life, and make them partakers of his everlasting kingdom.

Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good-will of our heavenly Father towards these persons, declared by his Son Jesus Christ; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks to him and say,

A Lmighty and everlasting Good, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee; Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore: Give thy Holy Spirit to these persons; that they may be born again, and be made heirs of everlasting salvation, thro' our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, now and for ever.

men.

Then the Priest shall speak to the persons to be baptized on this wise.

TX7ell-beloved, who are come hither defiring to receive holy Baptism, ye have heard how the Congregation hath prayed that AlmightyGodwould vouchfafe to receive you, and bless you, to release you of your fins, to give you the kingdom of heaven and everlasting life. Ye have heard also that he hath promised by Jesus Christ, in his holy Word, that those things that we duly pray for shall be granted; which promise God for his part will most furely keep and perform.

Wherefore after this promife made by Christ, ye must also faithfully, for your part, promise in the presence of this whole Congregation, that ye will renounce the devil and all his works, and faithfully believe God's holy Word, and obediently keep his commandments.

Then shall the Priest demand of each of the persons to be baptized, severally, these Questions following. Questions.

Doft thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous defites of the same, and the

K 2 carnal

carnal defires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them?

Answ. I renounce them all. Question.

Oft thou believe in one unbegotten Being, the only true God, Almighty, the Father of Christ; the Creator and Maker of all things; from whom are all

And dost thou believe in Tone | Lord Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, the first born of the whole creation. who was begotten by the good pleasure of the Father before the world began; by whom all things were made, both those in heaven, and those on earth, visible and invisible; who in the last days descended from heaven, and took flesh, and was born of the holy Virgin Mary, and did converse holily, according to the laws of his God and Father, and was crucified under Pontius Pilate, and died for us, and rose again from the dead after his passion on the third day. and ascended into the heavens, and fittethat the righthand of the Father, and again is to come at the end of the world to judge the quick and the dead; of whose kingdom there shall be no end?

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost, that is the Coinforter; who wrought in all the Saints from the beginning of the world; and was afterwards fent to the Apostles, by the Father, according to the promise of our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ: and after the Apostles to all believers in the holy Catholick Church?

And dost thou believe the Resurrection of the flesh; and the remission of fins; and the kingdom of Heaven; and the life of the world to come?

Answ. All this I stedfast-ly believe.

Question. WIlt thou be baptized .. in this faith? Answ. That is my desire.

- Question. Wilt thou then obedi-ently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Anfw. I will endeavour fo to do, God being my helper. Then shall the Priest say, Merciful God, grant that the old man in. these persons may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in them. Amen.

Grant that all carnal affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against gainst the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that they being here dedicated to thee by our Office and Ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O bleffed Lord God, who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

A Lmighty, everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of fins, did give commandment to his disciples, that they should go, teach all Nations, and baptize, them unto the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; Regard, we befeech thee, the supplications of this congregation; fanctify this water to the mystical washing away of fin: and grant that the persons now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Here should follow the Anointing with the Holy Oil. Then shall the Persons that are to be baptized, be decently put into Water by one or more Deacons, or Deaconnesses: After which the Priest shall come and dip each Person in the Water thrice, saying,

Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then shall the Priest go away and the Persons Baptized shall be decently taken out of the Water by one or more Deacons or Deaconnesses, and by their assistance shall put on their white Garments; and the Priest shall draw near and say to each of them.

TAke this white garment for a token of the innocence which by God's grace is given unto thee in the holy mystery of Baptism; and for a fign whereby thou art admonished, so long as thou livest, to give thyself to innocency of living; that after this transitory life thou mayst be partaker of the rewards of holiness and purity in the life everlasting. Amen. Then shall every one of the Persons Baptiz'd stand upright, and fay the Lord's Prayer; and then that which here follows.

God Almighty, the Father of thy Christ, thine only begotten Son; Give me a Body undefiled, an Heart pure, a mind watchful, with A knowledge the presence of the Holy will out erro Spirit, for the obtaining and affured enjoying of the truth; thro' thy Christ; by whom glory be to thee, in the Holy Spirit, for ever. Amen.

Then shall the Priest use this my hand upon thee; In to-Prayer. ken that thou art devoted to

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who hast vouchfafed to regenerate these thy dervants by water and the Holy Ghost, and hast given unto them the fign of the forgivness of their sins; strengthen them, we befeech thee, O Lord, with the Holy Ghost the Comforter; and daily increase in them thy manifold gifts of grace; the spirit of wifdom and understanding; the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength; the spirit of knowledge and true godliness; and fill them, OLord, with the spirit of thy holy fear, now and for ever. men.

Then shall the Priest add as follows,

Sign and feal these Persons, O Lord, for thine own self, that they may be thine for ever, by the holy cross and passion of thy Son. Confirm and strengthen them mercifully with the inward unction of the Holy Ghost; that they may daily increase in the graces of the same Spirit more and more, until they come to thine everlasting kingdom. Amen.

Then the Priest shall seal them severally with the seal of the Cross on their foreheads; and severally lay his hand upon their heads, saying,

I seal thee with the seal of the Cross, and lay my hand upon thee; In token that thou art devoted to the faith and obedience of Christ crucified, and that his holy Spirit will be ready to affish thee, and to enable thee manfully to fight under his banner against sin, the world, and the devil, and that thou must continue Christ's faithful Soldier and Servant, unto thy lives end. Amen. [Note, The feal of the Cross ought to be made with the holy Ointment.]

Then shall the Priest say,

TATE yield thee humble thanks, O heavenly Father, that thou half vouchfafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace and faith in thee; Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to these persons; that being now born again, and made heirs of everlasting falvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, they may continue thy fervants, and attain thy promises, thro' the same our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee now and for ever. Amen.

Then all standing up, the Priest shall use this Exhortation following.

Forafmuch as you have promised in the presence of this Congregation to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God,

and

and to ferve him; ye must remember that it is your part and duty to perform that solemn vow, promise and profession you have now made before this Congregation. And you are also to use all diligence to be farther rightly instructed in God's holy Word, that so you may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, and live godly, righteously and soberly in this present world.

A ND as you have now by Baptism put on Christ, it is your part and duty, being made the children of God, and of the light, by faith in Jesus Christ, to walk answerably to your Christian calling, and as becometh the children of light : remembring always that Baptism representeth unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him; that as he died, and role again for us, fo should we who are baptized, die from fin, and rife again unto righteousness, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living. And this Collett, all kneeling.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who workest in us both to will and to do those things that be good and acceptableunto thy divine Majesty; We make our humble fupplications unto thee for these thy servants, upon whom I have now laid my hand, to certify them (by this fign) of thy favour and gracious goodness towards them. Let thy Fatherly hand, we befeech thee, ever be over them; let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that in the end they may obtain everlasting life, through our Lord Jesus Christ; by whom be glory, honour, and adoration to thee for ever and ever. Amen.

Note also, from the Constitutions, that if there he neither Oil nor Qintment, Water is sufficient, both for the anointing, and for the feal, and for the confession of him that is dying together with Christ. And that the Persons who are to be baptized are to fast before their Baptism, the whole Church ufually fasting with them. Which Circum-Stances fitted best to the Eve before Easter: to which time the annual folemn celebration of this ordinance was at first usually appropriated. Then the Bishop shall bless

THE bleffing of God Almighty be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Note,

A Catechism.

Note, There ought none to be munion, until they be Bapadmitted to the holy Com- tized and Confirmed.

And if any have been Baptized, but not Confirmed, the Office may begin with the most solemn Confession and Absolution, and then go on with the Renunciation and Confession, and what follows here, excepting what immediately concerns Baptism itself; but with some such verbal Alterations as the case will make necessary.

Instead of the usual Church Catechism, let these following Instructions be learn'd by all the Catechumens, and explained on Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays by the Catechists.

The Ten Commandments, Exod. XX.

THESE Commandments
God spake in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee
out of the land of Egypt,
out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou fhalt have no other Gods but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thy felf any graven I mage, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them. For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God; and visit the fins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and thew mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. Thou fhalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou haft to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy fon, and thy daughter, thy man-fervant, and thy maid-fervant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in fix days the Lord made heaven and earth, the fea, and all that in them is, and rested the feventh day; wherefore the Lord bleffed the seventh day and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou

VI. Thou thalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal. IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neigbours house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his fervant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, or any thing that is his.

The Christian Explication and Improvement, Constitut.

Lib. II. c. 36.

HAVE before thine Eyes the Fear of God, and always remember the Ten Commandmentsof God. To love the one and only Lord God with all thy Strength: to give no heed to Idols, or any fuch other Beings, as lifeless Gods, or senseless Beings, or Dæmons: Confider the manifoldWorkmanship of God, which received its Beginning through Christ; Thou shalt observe the Sabbath, on account of him who ceased from his Work of Creation, but ceased not from his Work of Providence. "Tis a Rest for Meditation of the Law, not for Idleness of the Hands. Reject every unlawfulLust; everything destructive to Men: and all Anger: Honour thy Parents, as the Authors of thy Being: Love thy Neighbour as thy felf:

Communicate the Necessaries of Life to the Needy: Avoid swearing falsly, and fwearing often, and in vain; for thou shalt not be held guiltless. Do not appear before the Priests empty; and offer thy Free-will Offerings continually: Moreover, do not leave the Church of Christ; but go thither in the Morning, before all thy. work; and again meet there in the Evening to return Thanks to God that He has preserved thy Life: Be diligent, and constant, and laborious in thy Calling: Offer to the Lord thy Free-will Offerings; for fays he Honour the Lord with the Fruit of thy Labours: If thou art not able to cast any thing considerable into the Corban, yet at least bestow upon the Strangers one, or two, or five Mites. Lay up for thy self Heavenly Treasure, which neither the Moth nor Thieves can destroy.

The Beatitudes, Matth. v. PLessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. Bleffed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled. Blessed' are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall

shall see God. Blessed are the peace makers, for they shall be called the children of God. Bleffed are they which are persecuted for righteousness fake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Bleffed are ve when men shall revile you and persecute you, and shall sayall manner of evil against you falfly, for my fake: Rejoice, and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven: for fo persecuted they the prophets which were before you. [See also that whole Sermon at the Mount, Mat. v. vi, vii.] S. Paul's Heads of Catechetick Instructions. Heb. vi. 2.

THerefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God, Of [* Dippings' the doctrine of or Baptisms.] *immersions, and of laying on of hands, and of refurrection of the dead, and of eternal Judgment.

The Heads of Catechetick Instruction out of the Constitutions, Lib. vii. c. 39, 40, 41.

HE who is to be Catechized in the Word of Pietv, let him be instructed beforehisBaptism intheKnowledge of the Unbegotten God; in the Understanding of his only Begotten Son; in the affured Acknowledgment of the Holy Ghost. Let him learn the Order of the feveral Parts of the Creation, the Series of Providence, the different Dispensations of the Laws: Let him be instructed why the world was made, and why Man was appointed to be a Citizen therein; let him also know his own Nature, of what fort it is; let him be taught how God punished the Wicked with Water, and did glorify the Saints in every Generation; I mean Enoch and Neah, and Abraham, and his Posterity, and Melchisedech and Job, and Moses, and Foshua, and Caleb, and Phineas the Priest, and those that were holy in every Generation; and how God still took care of, and did not reject Mankind, but called them from their Error and Vanity to the Acknowledgment of the Truth at various Seasons, reducing them from Bondage and Impiety unto Liberty and Piety, from Injustice to Righteousness, from DeathEternal to Everlasting Life. Let him that offers himself to Baptism learn these and the like things in his Catechizing.

Let him also be instructed in the Doctrines concerning our Lord's Incarnation, and in those concerning his Passion, and Refurrection from the Dead, and Ascension.

And

The Visitation of the Sick.

And when it remains that the Catechumen is to be baptized, let him learn what concerns the Renunciation of the Devil, and the joining himself to Christ: For 'tis fit that he should first abstain from things contrary, and then be admitted to the Mysteries; he must before-hand purify his heart from all Wickedness of Disposition, from all Spot and Wrinkle, and then partake of the holy things: For as the skilfullest Husbandman does first purge his Ground of the Thorns which are grown up therein, and does then fow his Wheat, so ought you also to take away all Impiety from them, and then to fow the feeds of Piety in them, and vouchsafe them Baptism: For even ourLord did in this manner exhort us, faying, first make Disciples of all Nations, and then he adds this, And Baptize them unto the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoft.

Note, These Heads of Catechetick Instructions are more largely explained in the Apostolical Constitutions, Lib. VIII. whence the Catechumens may be more fully instructed in them.

Note, That Matrimony feems to be a thing of a civil Nature, and not directly belonging to religious Worship. Yet does the boly Bishop Ignatius assure us, 'That it becomes Epist. ad Polycarp. 'those that Marry, whether Men or Wose.'5. 'men, to be joined together with the Approbation of the Bishop; that so their Marriage may be according to the Lord; and not out of Lust.' Which direction therefore it will be fit for every Christian to follow. Nor will the ordinary Form be wholly improper, when corrected, while that matter is intrusted with the Clergy, as it is at present.

The Order for the Visitation of the SICK.

When any Person is sick notice shall be given thereof to the Bishop or some one of the Presbyters; who coming into the sick Persons house shall say,

PEace be to this house, and 'R Emember not, Lord, our to all that dwell in it. R iniquities, nor the ini-

When he cometh into the fick man's presence, he shall say, kneeling down, R Emember not, Lord, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our fore-fathers.

Spare us, good Lord, spare L 2

thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy Son's most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Answ. Spare us, good Lord. Here may the Lord's Prayer be used; and after it these Colletts.

Lord, look down from heaven, behold, visit and relieve this thy fervant. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy, give him comfort and fure confidence inthee, defend him from the danger of the enemy, and keep him in perpetual peace and safety, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HEar us, Almighty and most merciful God and Saviour; extend thy accuflomed goodness to this thy fervant, who is grieved with fickness. Sanctify, we befeech thee, this thy fatherly correction to him; that the sense of weakness may add strength to bis faith, and seriousness to his repentance. That if it shall be thy good pleasure to restore him to his former health (which we earnestly beg of thy divine majesty) he may lead the residue of his life in thy fear, and to thy glory: or else give him grace so to take thy visitation, that after this painful life ended, he may dwell with thee in life everlasting; thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. A Lmightyeverlasting God maker of mankind, who

dost correct those whom thou dost love, and chastife every one whom thou dost receive; We befeech thee to have mercy upon this thy fervant visited with thine hand, and to grant that he may take his sickness patiently, and recover his bodily health(if it be thy gracious will;) and that whenfoever his foul shall depart from the body, it may be without fpot presented unto thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. men.

Note, One or more of these Collects may be used in the daily service, before the Prayer for all States and Conditions of Men, when any that are fick defire to be prayed for.

Then shall the Bishop or a Presbyter exhort the fick person after this form, or other like.

Early beloved, know this, that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and of all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weakness, and sickness. Wherefore whatfoever your fickness is, know you certainly, that it is God's visitation. And for what cause soever this sickness is fent unto you, whether it be to try your patience for the example of others, and that your faith may be found in the day of the Lord, laudable-

able, glorious and honourable, to the increase of glory andendless selicity; or else it be sent unto you to correct and amend in you whatfoever doth offend the eyes of your heavenly Father; know you certainly, that if you truly repent you of your fins, and bear your fickness patiently, trufting in God's mercy, for his dear Son Jefus Christ's sake, and render unto him humble thanks for his fatherly visitation, submitting your felf wholly unto his will, it shall turn to your profit, and help you forward in the right way that leadeth unto everlasting life.

TAKE therefore in good part the chastisement of the Lord: for (as the Apostle saith in the twelfth Chapter to the Hebrews) whom the Lord loveth he chastneth, and scourgeth every Son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastning, God dealeth with you as with fons; for what fon is he whom the father chastneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards and not fons. Furthermore. we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? for they verily for a few days chaftned us after their own pleafure, but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. These words. good brother, arewriten in holy Scripture for our comfort and instruction, that we should patiently, and with thanksgiving bear our heavenly Father's correction, whenfoever by any manner of adverfity it shall please his gracious goodness to visit us. And there should be no greater comfort to christian persons then to be made like unto Christ, by suffering patiently adversities, troubles, and ficknesses. For he himself went not up to joy, but first he suffered pain; he entred not into his glory before he was crucified. So truly our way to eternal joy is to fuffer here with Christ; and our door to enter into eternal life is gladly to die with Christ; that we may rife again from death, and dwellwith him in everlasting life. Now therefore taking your fickness, which is thus profitable for you, patiently I exhort you in the name of God, to remember the profession which you made unto God in your Baptism. And forasmuch as after this life there is an account to be given unto the righteous Judge, by whom all must be judged without respect of persons; I require you to examine your self and your estate, both toward God and Man; so that accusing and condemning yourself for your own faults, you may find mercy at our heavenly Father's hand for Christ's sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearful judgment.

Thenmay the Bishop or a Presbyter examine whether he repent him truly of his fins, and be in charity with all the world; exhorting him to forgive from the bottom of bis heart, all persons that have offended him, and if he hatb offended any other, to ask them for giveness; and where he bath done injury or wrong to any man, that be make amends to the uttermost of his power. And if he hath not before disposed of his Goods, let him then be admonished to make his Will, and to declare his Debts, what be oweth, and what is owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience, and the quietness of his Executors. But men Should often be put in remembrance to take order for the fettling of their temporal eftates, whilft they are in health.

The Bishop or Priest should not omit earnestly to move such sick Persons as are of ability, to be liberal to the poor.

And then the Bishop or a Presbyter shall say the Gollect following.

Let us pray. Most merciful God. who according to the multitude of thy mercies dost so put away the fins of those who truly repent, that thou remembrest them no more; Open thine eye of mercy upon this thy fervant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgiveness. Renew in him (most loving Father) whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devil, or by his own carnal will and frailness; increase his contrition and repentance, afswage his pains as shall feem to thee most expedient for him. And impute not unto him his former fins; but strengthen him with thy bleffed Spirit; and when thou art pleased to take him hence, take him unto thy favour, thro' the merits of thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

men. Then this Psalm may be repeated.

Psalm 71.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to consusion: but rid me, and deliver me in thy righteousness; incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

Be

The Visitation of the Sick.

Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway refort: thou hast promised to help me, for thou art my house of desence, and my castle.

For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, even from my youth.

Thro' thee have I been holden up ever fince I was born: Thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb; my praise shall alway be of thee.

I am under thy fevere hand of correction: but my fure trust is in thee.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may fing of thy glory and honour all the day long.

Cast me not away in the time of sickness: for sake me not when my strength faileth me.

Go not far from me, O God: my God, haste thee to help me.

Let those wicked Spirits be consounded and perish, that are against my soul: let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seek to do me evil.

As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.

My mouth shall daily speak of thy righteousness and salvation: for I know no end thereof.

I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness only.

Thou, OGod, hast taught me from my youth up until now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.

Forfake me not, O God, in mine elder age, or when I am greyheaded: until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to them that are yet for to come.

O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength, before I go hence and be no more seen!

Adding this.

O Great Creator and Governor of the world, who by thy Son's Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us, fave us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

Then shall the Bishop or a Presbyter say to the sick Person.

THEAlmighty Lord, who is a most strong tower to all them that put their trust in him, to whom all things in heaven, on earth, and under the earth do bow and obey, be now and evermore thy defence, and make thee know and feel, that there is none other Name under heaven given to man, in whom and thro' whom thou mayst receive health and salvation, but only the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

And after that he shall say, UNTO God's gracious mercy and protection
we commit thee. The Lord bless thee and keep thee.
The Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace, both now and evermore.

Amen.

·Note, That S. James gives this direction concerning visiting the fick: * Is*C.v. 14, any fick among you? 15, 16. Let bim call for the Presbyters of the Church; and let them pray over him; anointing him with Oil, in the name of the Lord. And the Prayer of faith shall fave the Sick; and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed fins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed; the effectual fervent Prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

If therefore the Sick Person defire to be anointed, then shall one of the Priests anoint him with the holy Oil upon his forehead, making the sign of the Cross, and saying thus,

A Swith this visible Oil thy hody outwardly is anointed, so our heavenly Father, Almighty God, grant of his infinite goodness that thy Soul inwardly may be anointed with the Holy Ghost, who is the Spirit of all strength, comfort, relief, and gladness. And vouchfafe for his great mercy, if it be his bleffed will, to restore unto thee thy bodily health and strength to serve him; and fend thee release of all thy pains, troubles, and diseases, both in body and mind; and howfoever his goodness, (by his divine and unsearchable providence) shall dispose of thee, we his unworthy Ministersand servants humbly befeech the eternal Majesty to do with thee according to the multitude of his innumerable mercies, and to pardon thee all thy Sins and Offences committed in all thy bodily fenfes, paffions, and carnal affections; who also vouchsafe mercifully togrant unto thee ghostly strength, by his holy Spirit, to withstand and overcome all temptations and affaults of thine adversary; that in no wife he prevail against thee; but that thou mayest have perfect victory and triumph against the Devil, fin, and death; through Christ our Lord; who by his his death hath overcome the Prince of death, and with the Father evermore liveth and reigneth, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer for a fick Child. Almighty God and merciful Father, to whom alone belong the iffues of life and death; Look down from heaven, we humbly befeech thee, with the eyes of thy mercy upon this child, now lying upon the bed of fickness: Visit him, O Lord, with thy falvation; deliver bim in thy good appointed time from his bodily pain, and fave his foul for thy mercies sake. That if it shall be thy pleafure to prolong his days here on earth, (which we earnestly beg of thy divine Majesty,) he may live to thee, and be an instrument of thy glory, by ferving thee faithfully, and doing good in his generation; or else mercifully receive his foul into thine hands, whereinto we commit it, as into the hands of a faithful Creator. Grant this, O Lord, for thy mercies sake, in the same thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer for a fick Person, when there appeareth small hope of recovery.

O Father of mercies, and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; We fly unto thee for fuccour in behalf of this thy fervant, here lying under thy hand in great weakness of body. Look graciously upon him, O Lord; and the more the outward man decayeth, strengthen him, we befeech thee, so much the more continually with thy grace and Holy Spirit in the inner man. Give him unfeigned repentance for all the fins and errors of his life past, and stedfast faith in thy Son Jesus: that his fins may be done away by thy mercy, and his pardon fealed in heaven, before he go hence, and be no more feen. We know, O Lord, that there is nothing impossible with thee; and that if thou wilt, thou canst even yet raise him up, and grant him a longer continuance amongst us; (which grant if it be thy bleffed will.) Yet forasmuch as in all appearance the time of his dissolution draweth near, so fit and prepare him, we befeech thee, against the hour of death, that after his departure hence in peace, and in thy favour, his foul may be received into the bosom of Abraham; thro' the merits and mediation of Tesus Christ, thine only Son, our Lord and Saviour. men.

M

A commendatory Proyer for a fick Person at or after the point of departure.

Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of just men made perfect, after they are delivered from their earthly prisons; We humbly commend the foul of this thy servant, our dear brother, into thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creator, and most merciful Saviour; most humbly befeeching thee that it may be precious in thy fight. Wash it, we pray thee, in the blood of that immacalate Lamb that was flain to take away the fins of the World; that what soever defilements it may have contracted in this miserable and naughty world, through the lusts of the flesh, or the wiles of Satan, being purged and done away, it may be prefented pure and without spot before thee. And teach us, who furvive, in this and other like daily spectacles of mortality, to see howfrail and uncertain our own condition is, and so to number our days, that we may ferioufly apply our hearts to that holy and heavenly wisdom, whilst we live here, which may in the end bring us to life everlasting, thro' the merits of Jesus Christ thine only Son our Lord, Amen.

APrayer for Perfons troubled in Mind and Conscience.

Bleffed Lord, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, we befeech thee look down in pity and compassion upon this thy afflicted fervant. Thou writest bitter things against him, and makest him to possess his former iniquities; thy wrath lieth hard upon him, and his foul is full of trouble: But, O merciful God, who haft written thy holy Word for our learning, that we thro' patience and comfort of thy holy Scriptures might have hope; give him a right understanding of himself, and of thy threats and promises; that he may neither cast away his confidence in thee, nor place it any where but in thee. Give him ftrengthagainstall bis temptations, and heal all his diftempers. Break not the bruised reed, nor quench the fmoaking flax. Shut not up thy tender mercies in displeafure; but make him to hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou haft broken may rejoice. Deliver him from fear of the enemy, and lift up the light of thy countenance upon him, and give him peace, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Note, That part of the remaining confecrated Elements at the Lord's Supper, are to be carried from the publick Congregation to the Sick by a Priest, or sent by a Deacon, for their private and devout participation at home.

Note also, That the Priest may add any other proper Colletts, Exhortations, or Prayers, as he judges best, according to the various circumstances of the sick Person.

The Order for the Burial of the DEAD.

Here is to be noted, That the Office ensuing is not to beused for any that are openly wicked, or excommunicated, or have laid violent hands upon themselves.

The Priests and People meeting the Corps at the entrance of the Church-yard, and going before it, either into the Church, or towards the Grave, Shall say or sing.

Am the refurrection and the life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die. S. John 11. 25, 26.

I Know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And tho' after my skin, worms destroy this body; yet out of my slesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Fob 19. 25, 26, 27.

W E brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; bleffed be the Name of the Lord. 2 Tim. 6. 7. Job 1. 21.

After they are come into the Church, shull be read one or both of these Psalms following.

Psalm 39.

I Said, I will take heed to my ways that I offend not with my tongue.

I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle, while the ungodly is in my fight.

I held my tongue and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, even from good words; but it was pain and grief to me.

M₂ M_y

My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled; and at the last I spake with my tongue.

Lord, let me know my end, and the number of my days: that I may be certified how long I have to live.

Behold, thou hast mademy days as it, were a span long; and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee; and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

For man walketh in a vainshadow, and disquieteth himself in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

And now, Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is even in thee.

Deliver me from all mine offences, and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.

I became dumb, and opened not my mouth, for it was thy doing.

Take thy plague away from me: I am even confumed by means of thy heavy hand.

When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.

Hearmy prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears confider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.

For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength, before I go hence and be no more seen.

Glory be to the Father,

छ c.

As it was in the, &c.

Psalm 90.

LORD, thou hast been our refuge from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made, thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

Thou turnest man to deftruction: again thou sayst, Come again, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy fight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

As foon as thou fcatterest them, they are even as a sleep, and sade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

For we consume away in thy displeasure, and areastraid at thy wrathful indignation.

Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee, and our fecret

fecret fins in the light of thy countenance.

For when thou art angry, all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

The days of our age are threefcore years and ten: and tho' men be so strong that they come to sourscore years, yet is their strength then but labour and forrow: so soon passeth it away and we are gone.

But who regardeth the power of thy wrath? For even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeafure.

So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Turn thee again, OLord, at the last, and be gracious unto thy fervants.

O satisfy us with thy mercy, and that soon: so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

Comfort us again now after the time that thou hast plagued us; and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.

Shew thy fervants thy work, and their children thy glory.

And the glorious Majefty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper thou our handy work.

Glory be to the Father,

As it was in the, &c.
Then shall follow the Lesson,
taken out of the sisteenth
Chapter of the former Episse of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

1 Cor. 15. 20.

NOW is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that flept. For fince by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterwards they that are Christ's, at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power. For he must reign till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he faith all things are put under him, it is manisest that he is excepted which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him; that God may be all in all. Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead. If the dead rife not at all, why are they then baptized for the dead? And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoycing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beafts at Ephefus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die. Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame. But some man will fay, How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou fowest is not quickened, except it die: and that which thou fowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain; it may chance of wheat, or of fome other grain. But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every feed his own body. All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestial; but the glory of the celeftial is one, and the glory of the terrestial is another. There is one glory of the fun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars : for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead: it is fown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: it is fown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: It is fown in weakness: it is raised in power: It is sown a natural body; it is raised a fpiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living foul, the last Adam was made a quickning spirit. Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual; but that which is natural, and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the fecond man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, fuch are they that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have born the image of the earthy, we also shall bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery. We thall not all fleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, ment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; (for the trumpet shall found) and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the faying that is written, Death is fwallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is fin, and the strength of fin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, thro' our Lord Jefus Christ. Therefore my beloved brethren, be ve stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

fhail

When they come to the Grave, while the Corps is made ready to be laid into the earth, the Priest shall say, or the Priest and People shall sing.

MAN that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is fall of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a slower; he sleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death: of whom may we seek for succour, but of thee, O Lord, who for our Sins art justly displeas'd?

Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Creator, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts; shut not thy merciful ears to our prayers; but spare us, Lord, most holy, O God, most mighty, O holy and merciful Father, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from

Then while the earth shall be cast upon the body by some standing by, the Priest

Shall Say.

our hope in thee.

ROrasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his great mercy to take unto himself the soul of our dear brother here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; in sure and certain expectation of a resurrection to another life, through our Lord Jefus Christ, who shall change the vile body of the faithful, that it may be like unto his glorious body, according to the mighty working whereby he is able to subdue all things to himself.

Then shall be faid or fung.

Heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me,
Write, From hencesorth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord: even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labours. Rev.
14. 13.

OUR Father which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive usour * Debts, as

* trespasses, as we roe forgive forgive them that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from † evil. Amen. † The evil One.

Priest.

Lmighty God, with whom do live the fpirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the fouls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity; grant unto this this fervant, that the fins which he committed in this world, be not imputed unto him; but that he may ever dwell in the region of light, with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; in the place where is no weeping, forrow, nor heaviness: and when the day of the general refurrection shall come, make him and us to rife also with the just and righteous, and receive our bodies again to glory, then made pure and incorruptable. Set us then all on the right hand of thy Son Tefus Chrift, among thy holy and elect; that then we may hear with them, those most sweet and comfortable words: Come ye bleffed of myFather, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world.

Note, That this last Prayer is to be omitted if the PerSonwas only a Catechumen.
Then shall be added.

TX/Edo alfo humbly refign up to thee our dear brother [or fifter] whom thou hast been pleased to deliver out of the miseries of this finfulworld; befeeching thee that it may please thee of thy gracious goodness, shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdom: that we, with all those that are departed in the true faith of thy holy Name, may have our perfect confummation and blifs, both in body and foul, in thy eternal and everlasting glory, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect.

Merciful God, the Father of our Lord Jefus
Chrift

Christ, who art the refurrection and the life; in whom whosoever believeth, shall live, tho' he die; and whofoever liveth and believeth in him, shall not die eternally; who hath alfo taught us (by his holy Apoftle Saint Paul) not to be forry as men without hope, for them that sleep in him; We meekly befeech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of fin unto the life of righteoulnels; that when we shall depart this life, we may rest. in him; and that at the general resurrection in the last day, we may be found acceptable in thy fight, and obtain a joyful resurrection to everlasting life. Grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the sellowship of the Holy Ghost, he with youall ever more. Amen.

The Holy Communion, as well as Baptism, and other sacred Offices of Religion, appear at first to have been sometimes performed over the Graves of the faithful departed, and of the Martyrs, in token of the Christians full expectation of their resurrection to Glory at the last day.

The Penitential Office; which may be added, in Times of Distress, or of solemn Fasting, before the concluding Prayer, at Noon, on Wednesdays and Fridays, excepting the Fifty Days between Faster and Pentecost.

B Eloved brethren, Seeing that all they are accurfed (as the prophet David beareth witness) who do err and go aftray from the Commandments of God, let us remember the dreadful judgmentshanging over our heads, and always ready to fall upon us, and let us return unto our Lord God with all contrition and meekness of heart; bewailing and lamenting our finful life, acknowledging and confession our offences, and seeking to bring forth fruits worthy of repentance. For the ax will be put unto the root of the tree, so that every tree that bringeth not forthgood sruit, will be hewn down, and cast into the fire. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God: he shall pour down rain upon the sinners, snares, fire and brimstone, storm and tempest; this shall be their portion to drink. For lo, the Lord will come out of his place to visit the wickedness of fuch as dwell upon the earth. But who may abide the day of his coming? Who shall be able to endure when he appeareth? His fan is in his hand, and he will purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the barn, but he will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire. The day of the Lord cometh as a thief in the night: and when men shall say, Peace, and all things are fafe, then shall sudden destruction come upon them, as forrow cometh upon a woman travelling with child, and they shall not escape. Then shall appear the wrath of God in the day of vengeance, which obstinate finners, through the stubbornness of their heart, have heaped unto themselves, which despised the goodness, patience and long-fuffering of God, when he called them continually to repentance. Then shall they call upon me (faith the Lord) but I I will not hear; they shall feek me early, but they shall not find me; and that because they hated knowledge, and received not the fear of the Lord; but abhorred my counfel, and despised my corcorrection. Then shall it be too late to knock when the door shall be shut; and too late to cry for mercy when it is the time of justice. O terrible voice of most just judgment, which shall be pronounced upon them, when it shall be said unto them, Go ye curfed into the fire everlasting, which is prepared for the devil and his angels. Therefore, brethren, take we heed betime, while the day of falvation lasteth; for the night cometh when none can work: but let us. while we have the light, believe in the light, and walk as children of the light, that we be not cast into utter darkness, where is weeping and gnashing of teeth. Let us not abuse the goodness of God, who calleth us mercifully to amendment, and of his endless pity promiseth us forgiveness of that which is past, if with a perfect and true heart we return unto him. For though our fins be red as scarlet, they shall be madewhite as wool. Turn ye (faith the Lord) from all your wickedness, and your fin shall not be your destruction. Cast away from you all your ungodliness that ye have done, make you new hearts, and a new spirit: wherefore will ye die, O ye house of Israel; seeing that I have no pleafure in the death of him that dieth, faith the Lord God; Turn ye then, and ye shall live. Although we have finned, yet have we an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the propitiation for our fins. For he was wounded for our offences, and fmitten for our wickedness. Let us therefore return unto him, who is the merciful receiver of all true penitent finners; affuring our felves that he is ready to receive us, if we come unto him with faithful repentance; if we submit our felves unto him, and from henceforth walk in his ways; if we will take his eafy yoke, and light burden upon us, to follow him in lowliness, patience and charity, and be ordered by the governance of his Holy Spirit; seeking alwayshis glory, and ferving him duly in our vocation with thankfgiving. This if we do Christ will deliver us from the extreme curse which shall light upon them that shall be set on the left-hand; and he will fet us on his righthand, and give us his gracius bleffing of his Father, ocommanding us to take possession of his glorious kingdom: unto which may He vouchsafe to bring usall, for his infinite mercy. Amen. Then shall they all kneel upon their knees, and the Priest and the People (in the place where they are accustomed to say the Litany) shall say this Pfalm,

N place

Pfalm 51.

H Ave mercy upon me, O
God, after thy great goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies,
do away mine offences.

Wash me throughly from my Wickedness, and cleanse me from my fin.

For I acknowledge my faults, and my fin is ever before me.

Against thee only have I finned, and done this evil in thy fight; that thou mightst be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou judgest.

Behold, I was shapen in wickedness, and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

But lo, thou requireth truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge me with hy stop, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Turn thy face from my fins, and put out all my misdeeds.

Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

O give me the comfort of N 2 thy

The Penitential Office.

thy help again: and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked: and finners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, OGod, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteoufness.

Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord: and my mouth shall shew thy praise.

For thou defireft no facrifice, else would I give it thee, but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

The facrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then shalt thou be pleased with the facrifice of righteousness, with the burntofferings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy, and to forgive all that are truly penitent; Receive our humble petitions; and seeing we are tied and bound with the chain of our fins, let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loofe us, for the honour of Jesus Christ our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

O Lord, fave thy fervants:

- That put their trust in

Send unto them help from above :

And evermore mightily defend them.

Help us, O God our Saviour.

And for the glory of thy Name deliver us; be merciful to us finners, for thy Name's fake.

O Lord, hear our prayers.

And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray. A Lmighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold fins and wickednefs, which we from time to time most grievously have. committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy Divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. Grant that we may earnestly repent, and be heartily forry for all our fins, and provocations: that the remembrance of them may be grievous unto us; as the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's fake,

fake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter ferve and please thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, we befeech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their fins unto thee; that they whose confciences by fin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Most mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldst not the death of a finner, but that he should rather turn from his fin, and be faved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our fins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive fins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgment with thy fervants, ferable finners; but fo turn thine anger from us, who. meekly acknowledge our vileness, and defire truly to repent us of our faults; and fo make hafte to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the People fay this that followeth, after the Priest.

TURN thou us, O good Lord, and fo fnall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee by contrition, fasting and prayer. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, Long-suffering, and of great pity, Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, And in thy wrath thinkest of mercy: spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confufion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us. Thro' the merits and mediation of thy bleffed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Priest alone shall say, THE Lord bless us, and keep us; the Lord lift who are vile earth and mi- up the light of his countenance upon us, and give us peace, now and for ever> more. Amen.

TABLE

Of the Psalms before the Collect for the Day, in King Edward VI. first Liturgy.

Advent		Pfalm		Sundays	after	Trin	ity	1 Parts	s of the Sunday	I	T		Dullonjo			1		19thPfalm
,	2	120	-				2	2
	3	4					3
	4	5					3 4 5 6 7 8	3 4 5 6 7 8
Christmas-day		98 and	2	9			5	5
St. Stephen's di	v	52					6	6
St. John's day	1	11					7	7
Innocent's day		75					Ś	8
Sunday after		13					9	9
Christmas-da	y	121					10	10
Circumcifion	1	122					11	11
Epiphany		96		1			12	12
Sundays after	1	13					13	13
•	2	14					14	14
		15					15	15
	3	2					16	16
	5	20			- 1		17	17
Septuagesima		23					18	18
Sexagefima		24					19	,Ig
Quinquagefima		26					20	20
Ash-Wednesday	, !	6.					21	21
Lent-Sundays	1	32					22	2.2
	2	130					23	124
	3	43					24	125
	3 4 5 6	46					25	127
	5	54	St.	Andrew				129
	6	61	St.	Thomas				128
Good-Friday		22	Cor	nversion o	f St. 1	Paul		138
Saturday	-	88	Pur	ification				124
Easter-day		r6and3	St.	Maithias			- 1	140
Monday		62	An	nunciation				131
Tuelday		223		Mark				141
Sundays after	1	112	St.	Philip and	St. Ja	mes		133
Eafter	2	70		Barnahas	-			142
	3	75	St.	John Bap	tift			143
	4	82	St.	Peter				144
	5	84	St.	James the	: Apost	le	- 1	148
Ascention-day				Bartholor				115
Sunday after				Matthew			i	117
Whitfunday				Michael				113
Monday				Luke				137
Tueiday				Simon and	d St.]	ude		150
Trinity Sunday		67	All	Saints				149
								1
		,				à.			Forms

Forms of Prayers to be used at SEA.

The Morning and Evening Service to be used daily at Sea, shall be in general the same which is appointed above.

These two following Prayers are to be also used in His Majesty's Navy every day.

Eternal Lord God, who alone spreadest out the heavens, and rulest the raging of the sea; who hast compassed the Waters with bounds, until day and night come to an end; Be pleased to receive into thy Almighty and most gracious protection the perfons of us thy fervants, and the Fleet in which we ferve. Preserve us from the dangers of the fea, and from the violence of the enemy, that we may be a safeguard unto our most gracious Sovereign Lord King George, and his kingdoms, and a fecurity for fuch as pass on the feas upon their lawful occasions: that the Inhabitants of our Island may in peace and quietness serve thee our God; and that we may return in fafety to enjoy the blessings of the land, with the fruits of our labours; and with a thankful remembrance of thy mercies to praise and glorify thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ASSIST us, OLord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayers to be used in Storms at Sea.

O Most powerful and glorious Lord God, at whose command the winds blow, and lift up the waves of the sea, and who stillest the rage thereof; We thy creatures, but miserable sinners, do in this our great di-Ares cry unto thee for help: Save, Lord, or elfe we perish. We confess, when we have been safe, and seen all things quiet about "us, we have often forgot thee our God, and refused to hearken to the still voice of thy word, and to obey thy commandments: But now we see how terrible thou art in all thy works of wonder; the great God to be feared above all; And therefore we adore thy divine Majesty, acknowledging thy power, and imploring thy goodness. Help; Lord, and fave us for thy mercy's fake, in Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

Or this.

O Most glorious and gracious Lord; God, who dwellest in heaven, but beholdest all things below; Look down, we befeech thee, and hear us, calling out of the depth of misery, and out of the jaws of this Death, which is ready now to fwallow us up: Save, Lord, or elfe we perish. The living, the living shall praise thee. O fend thy word of command to rebuke the raging winds, and the roaring fea, that we being delivered from this distress, may live to serve thee, and to glorify thy Name all the days of our life. Hear, Lord, and fave us, for the merits of our bleffed Saviour thy Son, our Lord Jefus Christ. Amen.

The Prayer to be faid before a Fight at Sea, against any unjust Enemy.

Most powerful and glorious Lord God, the Lord of hosts, that rulest and commandest all things; Thou litteth in the throne judging right; and therefore we make our address to thy divine Majesty in this our necessity; that thou wouldst take the cause into thine own hand, and judge between us and our enemies. Stir up thy strength, OLord, and come and help us; for thou givest not alway the battle to the strong, but canst save by many or by few. Olet not our fins now cry against us for vengeance, but hear us thy poor fervants begging mercy, and imploring thy help; and that thou wouldst be a defence unto us against the face of the enemy. Make it appear that thou art ourSaviour and mighty deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Short Prayers for sick Persons, that cannot meet to join in Prayer with others,

Forms of Prayer to be used at Sea.

by reason of the Fight or Storm.

General Prayers.

I Ord, be merciful to us finners, and fave us, for thy mercy's fake.

Thou art the great God that hast made and rulest all things: O deliver us for thy Name's fake.

Thou art the great God to be feared above all: O fave us that we may praise thee.

Special Prayers with respect to the Enemy.

THou, O Lord, art just and powerful; O defend our cause against the face of the Enemy.

O God, thou art a strong tower of defence to all that flee unto thee: O fave us from the violence of the Enemy.

O Lord of hosts, fight for us, that we may glorify thee.

O fuffer us not to fink under the weight of our fins, or the violence of the Enemy.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for Name's fake.

Short Prayers in respect of a Storm.

THou, O Lord, that stillest the raging of the fea, hear, hear us, and fave us that we perish not.

O bleffed Saviour, that didst fave thy disciples ready to perish in a Storm, hear us, and fave us, we befeech thee.

When there shall be imminent danger, as many as can be Spared from necessary service in the Ship shall be called together, and make an humble Confession of their fins to God: In which every one ought seriously to reflect upon those particular sins of which his conscience shall accuse him, saying as followeth:

The Confession.

△ Lmighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold fins and wickedness. which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine Majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. Grant that we may carnestly repent, and be heartily forry for all our fins and provocations. That the remembrance of them may be grievous unto us; as the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past, and grant I that we may ever hereafter ferve

and

and please thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Priest, if there be any in the Ship, pronounce this Absolution.

A Lmighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promifed forgiveness of fins to all them which with hearty repentance, and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your fins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thanksgiving after a Storm. Psalm 66.

OBe joyful in God, all ye lands; fing praises unto the honour of his Name; make his praise to be glorious.

Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works: through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies be found liars unto thee.

For all the world shall worship thee, sing of thee, and praise thy Name.

Ocome hither, and behold the works of God, how wonderful he is in his doing towards the children of men.

He turned the sea into dry Land, so that they went through the Water on soot: there did we rejoice thereof.

He ruleth with his power for ever, his eyes behold the people: and fuch as will not believe, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

O praiseour God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard;

Who holdeth our foul in life, and suffereth not our feet to flip.

For thou, O God, hast proved us, thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.

Thou broughtest us into the snare, and laidst trouble upon our loins.

Thou suffereds men to ride over our heads; we went thro' Fire and Water; and thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

I will go into thy house with burnt-offerings, and will pay thee my vows, which I promised with my lips, and spake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.

I will offer unto thee fat burnt-facrifices, with the incense of rams: I will offer Bullocks and Goats.

O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my foul.

I

Forms of Prayer to be used at Sea.

I called unto him with my mouth, and gave him praises with my tongue.

If I incline unto wickedness with mine heart, the Lord will not hear me.

But God hath heard me, and confidered the voice of my prayer.

Praised be God who hath not cast out my prayer, nor turned his mercy from me.

Glory be to the Father, thro' the Son, in the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

. Pfalm 107.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious, and his mercy endureth for ever.

Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed, and delivered from the hand of the enemy;

And gathered them out of the lands, from the East, and from the West, from the North, and from the South.

They went aftray in the wilderness out of the way, and found no city to dwell in;

Hungry and thirsty, their foul fainted in them.

So they cried unto thee Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their diffres.

He led them forth by the right way, that they might go to the city where they dwelt.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men!

For he satisfieth the empty soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Such as fit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, being fast bound in misery and iron;

Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord, and lightly regarded the counsel of the most high;

He also brought down their heart through heaviness: they fell down, and there was none to help them up.

So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, he delivered them out of their diffress.

For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death, and brake their bonds in sunder.

O that men would therefore praife the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men!

For he hath broken the gates of brass, and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.

Foolish men are plagued -

Forms of Prayer to be used at Sea.

for their offence, and because of their wickedness.

Their foul abhorred all manner of meat, and they were even hard at death's door.

So, when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, he delivered them out of their diffres.

He fent his word, and healed them, and they were faved from their destruction.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men!

That they would offer unto him the facrifice of thankfgiving, and tell out his works with gladness!

They that go down to the fea in ships, and occupy their business in great waters.

These men see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

For at his word the stormy wind ariseth, which listeth up the waves thereof.

They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep: their foul melteth away because of the trouble.

They reel to and fro, and flagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits end.

So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, he de-is livereth them out of their diffress.

For he maketh the storm to cease, so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad, because they are at rest: and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men!

That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the seat of the elders!

Who turneth the floods into a Wilderness, and drieth up the water springs.

A fruitful land maketh he barren, for the Wickedness of them that dwell therein.

Again, he maketh the wilderness a standing Water, and Water-springs of a dry ground.

And there he setteth the hungry, that they may build them a city to dwell in.

That they may fow their land, and plant vineyards, to yield them fruits of increase.

He bleffeth them, so that; they multiply exceedingly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

And again, when they are minished and brought low, thro' oppression, thro' any plague, or trouble.

Though he suffer them to be evil-intreated through tyrants, and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness.

Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery, and maketh him housholds like a slock of sheep.

The righteous will confider this, and rejoice; and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.

Whoso is wise, will ponder these things; and they shall understand the loving kindness of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father,

σc.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Collects of Thanksgiving. Most blessed and glorious Lord God, who art of infinite goodnessand mercy; We thy poor creatures, whom thou hast made and preserved, holding our souls in life, and now rescuing us out of the jaws of death, humbly present our selves again before thy divine Majesty, to offer a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, for that thou heardst us, when we called in our trouble, and didst not cast out our prayer, which we made before thee in our great distress. Even, when we almost gave all for loft, our thip, our goods, our lives, then didft thou mercifully look upon us, and graciously command a deliverance; for which we now being in safety, do give all' praise and glory to thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this.

Most mighty and gracious God, thy mercy is over all thy works, but in special manner hath been extended towards us, whom thou hast so powerfully and wonderfully defended. Thou hast shew'd us terrible things, and wonders in the deep, that we might fee how powerful and gracious a God thou art; how able and ready to help them that trust in thee. Thou hast shewed us how both winds and feas obey thy command; that we may learn even from them hereafter to obey thy voice, and to do thy will. We therefore bless and glorify thy Name for this thy mercy in faving us, when we were ready to perish. And we befeech thee, make us as truly fenfible now of thy mercy as we were then of the danger: And give us hearts always ready to express our thankfulness, not only by words, but also by our lives, in being more obedient to thy holy commandments. Continue, we beseech thee, this thy goodness to us, that we, whom thou hast faved, may ferve thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of our life, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Forms of Prayer to be used at Sea.

An Hymn of Praise and Thanksgiving after a dangerous Tempest.

OCome, let us give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious, and his mercy endureth for ever.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; let the redeemed of the Lord fay fo, whom he hath delivered from the merciless rage of the Sea.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.

He hath not dealt with us according to our fins, neither rewarded us according to our iniquities.

But as the heaven is high above the earth, so great hath been his mercy towards us.

We found trouble and heaviness, we were even at death's door.

The waters of the sea had well nigh covered us, the proud Waters had well nigh gone over our foul.

The sea roared, and the stormy wind lifted up the Waves thereof.

We were carried up as it were to heaven, and then down again into the deep, our foul melted within us. because of trouble.

Then cried we unto thee, O Lord, and thou didst deliver us out of our distress.

Bleffed be thy name, who didst not despise the prayer of thy fervants, but didft hear our cry, and hast saved

Thou didst send forth thy commandment, and the windy ftorm ceased, and was turned into a calm.

O let us therefore praise the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he hath done, and still doth for the children of men.

Praised be the Lorddaily, even the Lord that helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

He is our God, even the God of whom cometh falvation: God is the Lord, by whom we have escaped death.

Thou, Lord, hast made us glad thro' the operation of thy hands, and we will triumph in thy praise.

Bleffed be the Lord God. even the Lord God who only doth wondrous things.

And bleffed be the Name of his Majesty for ever, and let every one of us fay, Amen, Amen.

Glory be to the Father, thro' the Son, in the Holy Ghoft.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

2 Cor. 13, 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jefus Christ, and the Tefus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all. Amen.

After

Forms of Prayer to be used at Sea.

After Victory or Deliverance from an Enemy.

A P salm or Hymn of Praise and Thanksgiving after Victory.

If the Lord had not been on our fide, now may we fay, if the Lord himself had not been on our fide, when men rose up against us,

They had swallowed us up quick, when they were so wrathfully displeased at us.

Yea, the Waters had drowned us, and the stream had gone over our foul; the deep Waters of the proud had gone over our foul.

But praised be the Lord, who hath not given us over as a prey unto them.

The Lord hath wrought a mighty falvation for us.

We gat not this by our own fword, neither was it our own arm that faved us; but thy right-hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto us.

The Lord hath appeared for us, the Lord hath covered our heads, and made us to stand in the day of battle.

The Lord hath appeared for us, the Lord hath overthrown our enemies, and dashed in pieces those that rose up against us.

Therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name be given the glory.

TheLord hath done great things for us, the Lord hath done great things for us, for which we rejoice.

Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth.

Bleffed be the Name of the Lord, from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be to the Father, thro' the Son, in the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. After this Hymn may be fung the Te Deum. Then this Collect.

Almighty God, the Sovereign Commander of all the world, in whose hand is power and might, which none is able to withstand; we bless and magnify thy great and glorious Name for this happy victory, the whole glory whereof we do afcribe to thee, who art the only giver of victory. And, we beseech thee, give us grace to improve this great mercy to thy glory, the advancement of thy Gospel, the honour of our Sovereign, and as much as in us lieth to the good of all mankind. we befeech thee, give us fuch a sense of this great mercy, as may engage us to a true thankfulness, such as may appear in our lives, by an humble, holy, and obedient walking before thee all our days, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord: to whom, with thee, in the Holy Spirit, as for all thy mercies, so in particular for this victory and deliverance, be all glory and honour, world without end. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the Fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore.

Amen.

At the Burial of their Dead at S E A. The Office in the CommonPrayer Book may be used; only instead of these words, [We therefore commit his Body to the ground, Earth to Earth, &c.]

l lay WE therefore commit his Body to the Deep. to be turned into Corruption, looking for the Refurrection of the Body, (when the Sea shall give up her dead) and the life of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ; who at his coming shall change our vile Body, that it may be like his glorious Body, according to the mighty working, whereby he is able to fubdue all things to himfelf.

A TABLE of the Psalms for every Day of the Month.

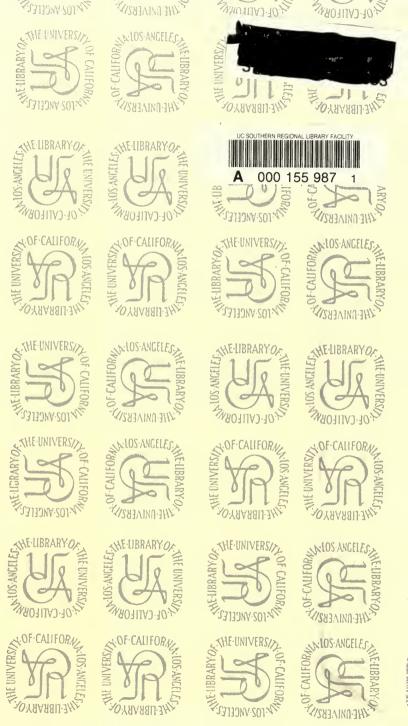

PSALMS.

Days.	Morn.	Even.	Days.	Morn.	Even.
Days.	I to 5	6to8	17	86 to 88	89
2	9 11	12 14	18	90 92	93 94
- 3	15 17	18	19	95 97	98 101
. 4	19 21	22 23	20	102 103	104
5	24 26	27, 29	21	105	106
6	30 31	32 34	22	107	108 109
357	35 36	37	23	110 113	114 115
7 8	38 40	41 43	. "3		CXIX.
. 9	44 46	47 49	-1-	in	Part
10	50 52	53 55	24	116 118	I 4
11	56 58	59 61	25	5 9	10 13
12	62 64	65 67	26	14 18	19 22
13	.68	69 70	, 27	120 125	126 131
14	71 72	73 74	28	132 135	136 138
	75 77	78	29	139 141	142 143
15	79 81	82 85	30	144 146	-147 150
10	19 01 1	02 03 1	30	11 -1-	1

13:211

140RAL JAIIOS-ANCELES. CHETONIVERSITY 4.0F-CALIFORN 4.0F-CALIF CALIFORA N-LOS-ANGELER. 4-OF-CALIFORA 1.0F.C/ University of California
SOUTHERN REGIONAL LIBRARY FACILITY 405 Hilgard Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90024-1388 Return this material to the library 184.0x from which it was borrowed. A:105 S-ANGELZ (EBS/V) F:105 ERSIL ERSIT, STIDS-ANCELES. SHERRIVE OF-CALIFORA OF CALIFORA STIDS-ANCELES. EBS/1/ HE-LIBRARYON

ST