Of the 500,000 people in Los Angeles, probably not 5000 were here thirty years ago.

With the exception of Mexico, profound peace reigns throughout this western world. May the God of nations ordain that this pacific condition may prevail indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkinson, 221 Central avenue, had as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Will Gilliam and Mrs. Thos. Wharton of Los Angeles.

Miss Rae Davis of 515 Orange Grove avenue was one of a party of young people who enjoyed the concert given by John McCormick, the famous tenor, in Los Angeles one evening last week.

Mr. M. L. Weaver and daughter, Miss Elizabeth I. Weaver, of 301 South Kenwood street, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Weaver of 235 South Kenwood, spent the week-end on the top of Mount Wilson. A number of Glendale people were registered at the Mt. Wilson hotel, enjoying the snow and the restful quiet of nature.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Barnett of 502 West Ninth street, who are entertaining Mrs. Barnett's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Buck of State Center, Iowa, took their guests for a trip through Busch's gardens Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Buck have taken some trip almost every day since Mr. Buck arrived, and they are very much pleased with the hospitality and the beauty of Southern California.

SECTIONS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Alice Jackson, president of the C. W. B. M., entertained two sections of that society at the Christian church Thursday afternoon. All were rejoicing that Mrs. Jackson has fully recovered from her illness of several weeks' duration, and is able to be with the church, Sunday school and societies again, where her Christian faith and charming personality, coupled with so cultivated a mind, is much appreciated by her co-workers. During the morning meeting the missionary study was conducted by Mrs. Hutton in a very efficient manner. After a dainty luncheon, Dr. McCallan of Hollywood held the audience in close attention in her thorough research of the "White Slave Traffic." Mrs. Castle pleased the members also with her reading from a missionary convert. Mrs. Killborn had charge of the literary part and gave a splendid program.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cook of 1434 West Fifth street entertained on Saturday evening in honor of the fourth wedding anniversary of Mrs. Cook's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hagenbaugh of Los Angeles. Violets and Cecil Brunner roses were tastefully used in decoration and the evening was spent in playing cards and dancing. A buffet supper was served and a merry time enjoyed by all.

The following Los Angeles guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hagenbaugh, Dr. and Mrs. Mellen, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted McClellan, Mr. Claude Edwards and Miss Ruth Minter. From Glendale there were Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDanel, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Cave, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McKeever, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMullin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beyea, Mr. H. G. Henning and the host and hostess and little daughter, Miss Harriett.

The forest service is co-operating with fifty-four railroads, mining companies, pole companies and cities in making tests of wooden ties, timbers, poles, piling and paving blocks which have been given preservative treatments.

LIVESTOCK IN NATIONAL FORESTS

Authorization has been secured from the secretary of agriculture to graze on the national forests of California for the season of 1915, 212,280 cattle and horses, 505,750 sheep and goats, and 7950 swine. Compared with the grazing season of 1914, these numbers constitute a net increase of 3530 cattle and horses, 460 sheep and goats, and 325 swine. During the year approximately 835,000 acres, which supported 5700 cattle and horses, 18,300 sheep and goats, and 1000 swine under national forest permit, were eliminated from the forests. This, considered in connection with the above authorization for 1915, makes a favorable showing in carrying capacity, since it means an increase of 11,230 cattle and horses, 18,760 sheep and goats, and 1325 swine on the areas retained.

The national forests are accommodating more livestock each year as better methods of handling are brought about and new and unutilized areas are brought into use through trail construction, water development and other means.

THE REASON WHY

Do you know that practically every article of your wearing apparel was sewn on a SINGER Machine? Department Stores use SINGER Machines in their Factories and Fitting Rooms.

Ask your modiste, your corsetiere, your shoemaker, your furrier, what sewing machines they use. They will say "THE SINGER." "There's a reason"—superior excellence.

Possibly you have an old sewing machine or one that is not satisfactory. Do you know that a fair allowance will be made for it in exchange for an up-to-date SINGER at the Singer Store, 1029 West Broadway? E. J. Upham, Sunset phone 656W.

TWO STRONG SERVICES AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The varied experiences of Moses when leading the children of Israel through the wilderness were vividly described by Pastor Troy on Sunday morning. Moses was seen to be one of the greatest characters in history and his reputation is best established by a review of his trying times in leading the rebellious people over whom God had appointed him to the margin of the promised land.

Another large audience attended the evening service and listened thoughtfully to the message on "The Second Coming of Christ." The glorious appearing of Christ is the great fact of prophecy; it is the neglected doctrine of the pulpit; it is the essential fact of redemption.

There can be no kingdom of Heaven till Christ, the king of kings, comes to reign in visible majesty. The same word of God by which the worlds were framed will fulfil to the last detail the promise of the second coming of Christ.

FOREST NOTES

Lodgepole pine, one of the principal trees of the Rocky mountains, makes good, strong wrapping paper and pulp board.

News print paper has been made by the forest service laboratory from twenty-four different woods, and a number compare favorably with the standard spruce pulp paper.

THE LADIES AT WORK

It was the pleasure of the W. C. T. U. to hold the regular meeting Friday at the beautiful home of Mrs. Anna Jenkins, 1427 West Third street. There was an officers' meeting held in the forenoon. At noon a delightful luncheon was served by the hostess. Places were set for Mrs. P. A. C. Moore, Mrs. Greenwalt, Mrs. Louise Morton, Mrs. Mamie Palmers, Mrs. Patch, Mr. P. A. C. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins.

At 1:30 the session was called to order. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Smart, the vice-president, Mrs. P. A. C. Moore, filled the chair. The program was "For a National Constitutional Prohibition Amendment Day." Interesting devotionals were led by Mrs. Loveless and Mrs. Brooks. Mrs. Loveless used as a lesson, Isaiah 58:1-12. She gave many beautiful thoughts.

Mrs. Ada S. Burns read from James Russell Lowell's significant lines:

Once to every man and nation comes the moment to decide,
In the strife of truth with falsehood
for the good or evil side;
Some great cause God's new Messiah offering each the bloom or blight, Parts the goats upon the left side and the sheep upon the right;
And the choice goes on forever 'twixt that darkness and the light.

Mrs. Gaylord gave some quotations of Lillian Stevens, who was national W. C. T. U. president at one time.

The session was a very interesting one. Adjournment was taken to meet Jan. 29 at the home of Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, 148 South Kenwood. A reception will be given to new members and tourists.

If the Glendale Evening News owes anybody anything, present the bill and you will be paid. This request is reversible.

NORTH GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Marsh of 1641 Ruth street entertained as Sunday callers Mrs. Marsh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilbur of San Gabriel; Mrs. Kauffman of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. John Landers of Marshalltown, Iowa, who are spending the winter in Southern California.

Mrs. I. C. Rice of 1632 Ruth street spent Sunday in Los Angeles, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Loomis of West Fifty-ninth place.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eichelberger of North Maryland avenue entertained as their house guests Sunday Mr. Eichelberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eichelberger of Los Angeles, Mr. Eichelberger's father having recently returned to Los Angeles after having spent several months in Chicago on business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Herrington, former well-known Casa Verdugans, now of San Fernando road, have recently returned from an extensive eastern trip of three months' duration, most of the time being spent with relatives in Davenport, Iowa.

Mrs. Edward Spycholski of 103 West Second street was the guest of Mrs. E. A. Josselyn of 1641 Ruth street at a prettily appointed luncheon last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Kreeson Muller of 926 Fairview avenue entertained as their dinner guests Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bossee of Los Angeles. The evening was spent in playing cards and enjoying a pleasant social time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Payne of 702 North Louise street, with Mr. Payne's brother, Mr. Harley Payne of Los Angeles, Mr. Frank Fiercamp and a party of Los Angeles ladies, enjoyed a hunting trip in Riverside county on Sunday. As a result of the success of the trip, all of Mr. Payne's neighbors are having rabbit dinner this evening, for which they thank Mr. Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Reuter of 930 Fairview avenue entertained as their guests on Sunday Mr. Reuter's brother-in-law, Mr. Geo. A. Steele, of Eatontown, New Jersey, and Mr. Albert Santor of Detroit, Michigan. Mr. Steele is owner of the Shrewsbury nurseries, the largest in the United States, and Mr. Santor is one of the largest real estate dealers in Detroit. These gentlemen are now stopping at Hotel Alexandria in Los Angeles and are here looking for a permanent location, as they expect to bring their families here to live. On Sunday the party motored from the Alexandria as guests of Mr. Reuter to San Gabriel mission and returned by Oak Knoll, stopping at Hotel Huntington for dinner and returning home late in the evening.

Members of the Glendale-Tropico Poultry and Pet Stock association are more than pleased with the enthusiasm with which their first annual exhibit starts out.

At the time for closing of entries all of the available space in the garage building on San Fernando road, Tropico, in which the show is being held, was taken and when the birds and beasts began to arrive this morning that was the busiest place hereabouts, and the officials were turning down entry after entry. The officers of the association had not set their hopes overly high for the success of this first show, as they organized only a few weeks ago and preparations for the exhibit were naturally very hastily accomplished. There seemed to be good interest from the first, however, and the enthusiasm has grown.

There are hundreds of poultry breeders as well as lovers of pet stock in this vicinity who realize the value of such an association for Glendale and Tropico and will do all in their power to boost it.

Among the exhibitors at this show are many who might be termed "professionals," who are in the habit of exhibiting stock at shows.

There is no admission charged to view the exhibit and the coops of all kinds of poultry, pigeons, rabbits, hares, cats and dogs are well worth the time to inspect.

The opening of the first show is marked by an interest that is very gratifying to all concerned and is an indication that this association is going to be one of the big and important organizations of the valley. The association was formed on December 29, 1914, when a few poultry breeders met at the office of Dr. McArthur for that purpose. Officers chosen were:

Dr. G. Irwin Royce, president.
Dr. A. M. Duncan, vice-president.
Irving H. Oliver, treasurer.
Walter M. Ross, secretary.

Members enrolling at the opening meeting were: Mrs. Walter M. Ross, S. R. Dixon, Dr. G. Irwin Royce, Dr. A. M. Duncan, Walter M. Ross, Irving H. Oliver, R. W. Wood, Dr. McArthur, A. J. Van Wie, C. L.
