BIG BARRACKS IN TOKYO FOR FIRE VICTIMS

Great Building Being Erected to Shelter Thousands Who Lost Homes. Scenes To-day Like Those Which Followed Earthquake of 1923.

Tokio, March 19.—The hand of horror and devastation gripped Tokyo to-day as a result of the fire that swept over the north-eastern section of the city yesterday and left thousands of homeless persons in its wake.

Scenes similar to those of the great earthquake and fire here in 1923 were being repeated to-day when construction of a large barracks to house victims of the fire was begun.

The homeless number 10,000 and the injured 300 and twenty are missing. The houses destroyed numbered 2,000. Roughly, the property loss is estimated at 5,000,000 yen.

The burned area was made up of small homes, factories and temples. Most of the victims rendered homeless are poor.

Starting in a factory at Nippori Junction, the blaze burned its way like wildfire for a southerly direction, consuming wooden homes like so much tinder.

WORK STARTED ON CLUBHOUSE AT UPLANDS. Contract For $7,000 Building Awarded to George Calder of This City.

Work has been started on the new clubhouse which will replace the building destroyed by fire recently on the course of the Uplands Golf Club.

Architect K. B. Spurgin announces that the contract for the new building has been awarded to George Calder, well known local contractor.

The site has been cleared of debris and men are to-day engaged in preparing the foundations for a handsome club structure that will cost in the neighborhood of $7,000.

The main floor will contain a large dining room with kitchen and culinary appointments and other parts of the main section of the building will embrace ladies' locker room, secretary's quarters and imposing entrance hall.

The men's locker room will be located in the basement. The contractor expects to have the new clubhouse completed within two months.

The plumbing and electrical contracts have been let to local firms. The exterior of the building will be finished in sawn cedar.

BARGE BINGAMON HELPLESS IN GALE NARROWLY ESCAPES BEING WRECKED ON REEFS

Surrounded by Jagged Rocks But Managed to Get Clear on Pine Island; Still Driving Before Storm With Tug Standing by; Position is Serious.

Escaping destruction among the reefs of Pine Island, where she drifted when the tow-line between her and the tug Hopkins Bros. parted, the barge Bingamon, loaded with lumber, south-bound, is now drifting helplessly towards Fitzhugh Sound.

Such an accident seemed unavoidable. The towline was broken. The tug could get nothing aboard her that would hold. The Bingamon's cable had parted four times up to noon.

The Bingamon's wireless is keeping her in direct touch with coast stations, and Gonzales is keeping in contact with the barge.

At 5:10 o'clock this morning the first calls of distress were picked up by Bull Harbor and immediately broadcast from that wireless station.

It was the tug Hopkins Bros. which was towing the barge Bingamon when the hawser parted with the strain and the bigger ship, loaded with lumber according to report, immediately began drifting on a course of her own.

In the raging wind and the tumultuous water, the Bingamon now that she had broken from the tug, began drifting slowly in a southerly direction, at the rate of about two miles per hour.

It was at 10 o'clock this morning that the Gonzales wireless station here picked up another message broadcast from Bull Harbor.

The Bingamon is fourteen miles west of Pine Island, the report read. "She is surrounded by reefs. Tug unable to get line to her. Ship in precarious position."

There was another ship in Johnston Straits, but she was twelve hours hazy steaming away from the scene also in the helplessness of the Cape Scott, a powerful tug which might have been able to lend some aid had she been nearer the barge.

The Pacific Salvage Company here stated this morning that they would send no ship to the assistance of the Bingamon unless that vessel struck. But if the Bingamon goes upon one of the reefs a vessel will be dispatched to her aid to do what salvage work may be possible and possibly to bring the barge safely to port.

The Bingamon was in similar trouble early in January, when the tug Masset, which was towing her, also ran into difficulties and both ships came near disaster.

EARL OF YPRES IN LONDON HAD AN OPERATION

London, March 19.—The Earl of Ypres, who as Field Marshal Sir John French commanded the British army in France and Belgium during the Great War, underwent a severe and prolonged operation to-day.

The Earl of Ypres early in December underwent what was termed a minor operation for the removal of a small fleshy tumor. He was taken suddenly ill while passing through Paris and was removed to a hospital, where the operation was immediately performed.

There had been no recent reports of further illness.

KING GEORGE IS NOW ON WAY TO ITALIAN SHORES

Accompanied by Queen Mary, He Left Britain To-day For Cruise. Yacht Awaits Arrival of Party at Genoa; Voyage For King's Health.

London, March 19.—King George, accompanied by Queen Mary and the members of their suite, quietly left Buckingham Palace this morning en route to Genoa, Italy, where the Royal Yacht awaits to take His Majesty on the cruise prescribed by his physicians following his recent attack of bronchitis.

Although the morning was cold and misty, a big crowd had collected along the route to the Victoria Station and there were cheers for the sovereign, who responded by lifting his hat.

As the voyage is strictly private, only the usual military honors were paid and there was nothing in the way of a ceremonial as the train pulled out of the station. The crowds stood bareheaded, but there was no demonstration.

At Dover the King and Queen will embark on the steamer Biarritz and at Calais they will board their special train and proceed direct to Genoa.

Consolidation of the railway lines as a result of the formation of an ice dam some distance up the river. Much damage to the town is expected to result from the crash of ice in released quickly.

Next to Illinois, the worst sufferers were in Indiana and Missouri, with fatal echoes of the twister coming from Tennessee and Kentucky.

Remnants of Great Storm That Swept Part of United States Felt. Forty-mile Wind in Toronto Region; Wire Communication Interrupted.

Toronto, March 19.—Described by officials at the observatory here as "moderate or a little more than moderate," the area of extremely low depression that originated in Texas on Tuesday night and moved northward into Illinois and Indiana, accompanied by a tornado that caused heavy loss of life and untold property damage in those states, swept into Ontario early this morning and is now centered over Central Ontario.

Real March weather accompanied the moderate depression and during the early hours of the morning the wind reached a velocity of forty miles in this city. High winds are general throughout Central Ontario and in Northern Ontario heavy rains are reported.

Wire communication was interrupted to a more or less degree and the observatory officials stated this morning that many of their reports from various stations were missing.

Owen Sound, Ont., March 19.—With its power and light services temporarily tied up and the roads practically blocked with eight or ten inches of wet, clinging snow, Owen Sound is suffering under the most destructive storm of the season. The equinoctial gales from the north brought with them one of the year's worst blizzards. Trees in many cases were blown across roads and somewhere between Owen Sound and Eugene, the source of power for the city, all transmission wires were cut off by the storm.

Automobile traffic on the roads is at a standstill. Peterboro, Ont., March 19.—Last night's severe storm blew down the chimney on the Peterboro Canoe Company's factory, part of the city's fire alarm system out of commission and cut electric supply lines, and the heavy rainfall which accompanied the midnight storm caused flooding in several parts of the city.

STREETS OF ONTARIO TOWN ARE FLOODED

Brampton Suffers Loss Following Breaking of Ice in Etobicoke River. Business Suspended; Storekeepers Making Efforts to Save Stocks.

Brampton, Ont., March 19.—The worst flood during the past fifty years is being experienced here following the breaking up of the ice in the Etobicoke River here early to-day, and water three feet in depth is pouring down the main street, considerably above the level of the stores on the west side of the thoroughfare. Business in the town is suspended, storekeepers doing their utmost to save the water from destroying their stocks.

A rowboat is conveying persons whose business renders their presence in the inundated section necessary. Considerable apprehension is felt as a result of the formation of an ice dam some distance up the river. Much damage to the town is expected to result from the crash of ice in released quickly.

During the morning several pigs were swept down the street in the flood, the area of which extends about three-quarters of a mile through the main section of the town.

TORNADO CASUALTY LIST IN MIDDLE U.S. AREA VAGUE TILL DEBRIS CLEARED AWAY

Storm Tore its Way Through Portions of Five States South of Lake Michigan, Leaving Death and Destruction in its Wake; Fires Still Raging at Some Points This Afternoon; Many Special Trains Used in Relief Work.

Chicago, March 19 (Associated Press)—The toll of death and destruction as a result of the tornado which ripped its way through portions of five states of the Middle West in mid-afternoon yesterday, when children were in the schools and workers in stores and factories, were still indefinite this afternoon. The latest estimates were: Dead 500 to 1,000; injured 2,300 to 3,000; homeless 8,000 to 10,000.

Fires still raging or smouldering this afternoon and the scattered wreckage of millions of dollars worth of property made an accurate count of the victims impossible.

Evansville, Ind., March 19.—Griffin, Posey County, Indiana, a town of 750 people, was almost completely obliterated by last evening's storm, only four badly damaged houses standing. Forty bodies were found in the streets. The exact number of dead is not known, since there has been no search of the ruins made.

REPORTS STILL AWAITED. Chicago, March 19.—The tornado which struck five Mid-western states yesterday afternoon still held many victims buried and unreported this afternoon. Where it did the worst damage the tornado lasted less than five minutes. It flattened heavily-constructed school and business buildings with worse results than the casualties in lighter dwellings. Babies in homes especially suffered.

Fires still raging or smouldering and millions of dollars' worth of wreckage delayed counts of the larger death list. The harder hit places were the small cities in Southern Illinois, including West Frankfort and Murphysboro.

Nearly all the destruction was in the soft countryside. Next to Illinois, the worst sufferers were in Indiana and Missouri, with fatal echoes of the twister coming from Tennessee and Kentucky.

SPEEDY RELIEF WORK. Red Cross, State guardmen, army aviation forces, railroad resources piled into many special trains and private relief from two of the States, including Chicago and St. Louis, with a host of contributions from smaller cities, were concentrated to-day in Southern Illinois.

The towns in the wake of the tornado were reported to have been virtually erased from the map, while a large section of another was laid in ruins.

SCHOOLHOUSE STANDS. But one home and a schoolhouse were the remaining structures in the village of Parrish in Franklin County, Griffin, Posey County, Ind. A town of 750 persons, were damaged. One hundred city blocks in Murphysboro were practically flattened. Seventy blocks in the residential section were swept by flames.

LASTED ONLY MINUTES. In the stricken district in Southern Illinois the storm took its toll in several places in less than five minutes. A brakeman on an Illinois Central train who witnessed the tragedy at De Soto pictured it thus: "A crash of thunder, preceded by two blinding flashes of lightning, after which there was nothing left of the town."

MINERS' EXPERIENCE. In a mine near West Frankfort 500 men were underground. They left a concussion and, fearing disaster, flocked to the lifts. Some of the cages could be operated. When the men were able to reach the surface they found a tornado had passed over them.

One of the interesting features was reported from that same locality where a rescue worker, noticing a baby's shoe protruding from the debris of a miner's home, grasped it to find a baby girl under the debris. She was unhurt.

SCENE OF DESOLATION. West Frankfort, Ill., March 19.—Dawn to-day in West Frankfort presented a picture of desolation that rivaled the worst of the fiercest days of the struggle. Here a whole house had been moved completely from its foundations; at another place a side had been ripped off, while in still another what had once been homes was nothing but little piles of twisted wreckage.

Here and there could be heard the pitiful cries of injured persons still pinned beneath the wreckage. MOTHER KILLED. One of the most pitiful sights that greeted the rescue workers was that of a mother lying terribly mangled

NANAIMO COUNCIL ACCEPTS VICTORIA PUBLICITY SCHEME

Turns Down Vancouver Offer
in Favor of Capital City

Special to The Times
Nanaimo, B.C., March 19.—The City Council at their meeting Monday night received a communication from J. R. Davidson, secretary of the Vancouver Publicity Bureau, stating that the Vancouver Bureau was anxious to co-operate with Nanaimo in putting out publicity which would induce tourists to visit the up-island districts. He stated that last year 347,316 tourists had visited Vancouver and had spent approximately $20,000,000. The letter was received and referred to the parks and properties committee, who in turn will take up the question with the Nanaimo Board of Trade.

A letter was received from the secretary of Premier W. J. McKenzie King acknowledging receipt of a letter, in which the local council endorsed a resolution in connection with the Amputation Association, assisting them in their fight to have the bonus in war pensions included in basic pensions.

BOUGHT GRANT
The council recommended the report of the fire wardens committee asking for the purchase of four new tires for one of the fire automobiles. Engineer Sharp asked permission to remove trees from the boulevards which are at present interfering with the sewer, or which in future may do so. He stated that in one instance the pipes had been blocked for a distance of fifty feet by roots of a tree. Permission was granted.

A delegation of twelve members of the Board of Trade waited upon the council in support of a grant of $500 for publicity purposes. The views of the delegation were presented by J. H. Good, president of the local board, and Arthur Leighton.

Mr. Good stated that at the last meeting of the Board of Trade it had been decided to work in conjunction with the Victoria Chamber of Commerce this year. Nanaimo was to be advertised in a large booklet published by the Chamber for advertising the island and serving as a tourist guide. The local board also intended to have a large signboard erected on the south side of the boardwalk, so that tourists entering British Columbia would see the name Nanaimo and some of its attractions.

Arthur Leighton stated that during the past few years local conditions had changed greatly in the matter of taxation. Now, he maintained the city was not depending altogether on its industries for taxes. There was the automobile tax, the liquor profits, etc. Therefore the more people traveling the more the revenue. He stated that Mr. Leighton, by means of spending $500 fifty or 100 motor cars could be induced to come here, what they would spend in the local stores would more than make up the expenditure in extra profits that the city would receive. The money was not expenditure, he stated, but more in the nature of an investment.

ALWAYS GOOD
Mayor Harrison in reply to the delegation, reminded them that while advertising was always good, to counterbalance this the city had the question of increased taxation staring them in the face. This year it looked like a straight levy of forty-seven mills. The schools cost would be greater this year than last. The sum of $3,000 was involved in new buildings that would have to be erected for schools. This, too, was the result of the increase in taxes. The council, and if the latter had granted all the requests, this alone would have meant an increase of one mill in taxation.

The matter of a grant was finally left in the hands of the finance committee to deal with in making up their estimates.

RETAIL MERCHANTS
The annual meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association was held last evening, the following officers being elected for the ensuing year: President, R. T. Wilson (re-elected); first vice-president, J. B. Nicholson; second vice-president, J. Wallace; treasurer, J. C. Dakin; honorary secretary, P. Cowan; executive, J. F. Doyle, W. H. Anderson, F. Fielder, N. Corfield, A. Oliver, H. E. Dendoff, J. H. Mallpass, H. Murphy, R. H. Ormond, G. Gray, D. H. Beckley, E. Fletcher, F. Jepson, J. H. Ainsworth, J. H. Good and T. Mitchell.

SURPRISE PARTY
Some forty friends paid a surprise visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. Carruthers last night at their home, 612 Kennerly Street, who are in the near future leaving this city to take up their residence in Chase River. A most enjoyable evening was spent in various forms of entertainment, including music and dancing. After a delicious buffet supper had been partaken of, presentations were made to the hosts, Mrs. Carruthers receiving a cut-glass flower vase and a bouquet of flowers, while Mr. Carruthers was the recipient of a hand-painted cup and saucer.

After the presentations the guests indulged in further entertainment.

OUR CONSTITUTION

IN AN ARTICLE ON THE British North America Act today The Colonist observes that the B.N.A. Act is an interesting document and important withal, but it is an error to speak of it as the Canadian Constitution.

The term "constitution" when applied to a state or a collection of states has a rather elastic definition, but in view of the circumstances which led up to the passage of the B.N.A. Act, what the Act was designed to accomplish and has accomplished, what it actually calls itself, what those who were chiefly responsible for it called it, and how the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council regards it, we may quite properly refer to it as the Canadian constitution. It is that or nothing.

Before it was adopted there was no such thing as the Dominion of Canada. There were Upper and Lower Canada in a legislative union formed in 1841, known as the Provinces of Canada, and New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island without any connection with the others. The B.N.A. Act united the two groups into one Dominion, provided for the admission of other provinces later, established a Privy Council, constituted a Dominion Parliament, fixed the basis and nature of representation, laid down the powers of that Parliament and the provincial Legislatures respectively, and in other aspects set up the constitutional machinery under which Canada to-day is operating, as clearly, if not as rigidly, as the articles of 1787 prescribed the constitutional order of the United States.

There is no measure in Great Britain which corresponds to the B.N.A. Act. As far as the British Empire was concerned the adoption of the federal system in Canada was an altogether new departure, and the passage of the act constituting the new Dominion through the Imperial Parliament was the occasion of quite a lot of head-shaking and predictions of disaster. As the records show, the framers of Canada's constitution were guided largely by the experience of the neighboring republic, particularly in dividing powers between the Dominion and the Provinces and in this respect they reversed the order adopted by their neighbors. Subsequently when Australia, which with New Zealand and South Africa adopted the federal system of which Canada was the pioneer in the Empire, was framing her constitution she modelled it upon the B.N.A. Act and the constitution of the United States, combining what her statesmen considered to be the best features of both.

Only those familiar with the political annals of Canada prior to Confederation, the controversies in Upper and Lower Canada and in the Maritime Provinces, and particularly the proceedings of the Quebec Conference in which the Dominion was born, can realize how much of a compromise the B.N.A. Act is. It is well understood in the East. Time and again the whole project was on the verge of disaster and the wonder is that out of the welter of conflicting interests and policies there grew an instrument which has served its purpose so well. It took our neighbors more than ten years to agree upon their constitution.

AN ELECTRICAL MAP

AN ELECTRICAL MAP of Vancouver Island would be an interesting and useful addition to the interior of the Amusement Centre. It need not be a costly affair to begin with. Most of the salient facts could be dealt with in a manner similar to that found in the elaborate and detailed designs introduced in the C.N.R. and C.P.R. pavilions at the British Empire Exhibition.

No doubt the Publicity Bureau would find it worth while investigating the proposal and it should be a good investment as part of that organization's advertising programme. All that is required for the moment is a well-drawn map of the Island to large scale with lighting effects to show exactly where and what class of activity is going on, where the various commercial pursuits may be followed, and so on. At certain periods of the day, or when there is likely to be a crowd in the building, a lecture might be given to amplify the information to which the "lights" draw attention.

These means of education were extremely popular at Wembley and gave the visitor a comprehensive view of Canada and Canadian life, as related to rural and urban activity, as no other process could have given in the time.

THE GLOOMY MEMBER

BUILDING UNDER CONSTRUCTION in the city represented in the House of Commons by Mr. H. H. Stevens is valued at a figure not far from $10,000,000. The press of the same city is jubilant over the fact that the barometer of local progress should thus present such an encouraging prospect. Only a short time ago Mr. Stevens told the members of the House of Commons that things were so bad, taxation so high, in his own city that businessmen were contemplating moving over to Seattle to get away from it. He also gave it as his fixed and firm opinion that the policies of the King Government had sent the Province far on its way to complete economic disaster.

Some politicians will go to extraordinary lengths after what they believe to be party capital. But the trouble with Mr. Stevens and his leader is that they have journeyed into the darkness so far that they are now full-fledged members of the Party of Gloom.

MADAME TUSSAUD'S GONE

MADAME TUSSAUD'S was completely destroyed by fire yesterday. This is the brief message which will be read by thousands of Canadians with more than a little regret. All over the world this marvelous collection of life-like wax models has long been known by the name of its founder and regarded for years as one of London's rarest attractions. Its destruction will be a distinct loss to the nation and to the world. Unique relics of a century will have gone up in smoke and much that imparted daring originality to the exhibition will not be replaceable.

There is an interesting narrative behind the magic name of Madame Tussaud. She was the daughter of a Swiss army officer and the niece of a medical man in Berne. The pursuits of the latter created the germ of the idea which was to make the name of Tussaud famous throughout the world. This doctor attracted the attention of the Prince de Conti by his beautiful anatomical wax models and he was finally persuaded to give up medicine and devote himself to practise wax-modelling as a fine art. He went to Paris and made such a reputation for himself that his success in his new profession brought many distinguished pupils to his house. At the age of six his niece went to the French capital and became the pupil of the erstwhile doctor, finally developing into such an adept that she was sent for to go and stay at the Palace of Versailles to instruct the sister of Louis XVI. in what had rapidly become a popular craze. It was indeed from the collection of the uncle which the mob obtained the busts of Necker and the Duke of Orleans that were carried by the procession when on July 12, 1789, the first blood of the French revolution was shed. Then came terrible days for the niece, for she was called upon to model the heads and hands of many of the prominent leaders and victims of the revolution. She married a Frenchman by the name of Tussaud in 1794 and left him in 1800, afterwards, by the consent of Napoleon, not easy to get, going to London and taking with her the nucleus of her collection. She first showed these figures with conspicuous success in the Strand, where the old Lyceum Theatre stood, afterwards in Baker Street, and finally in the imposing quarters now destroyed, the business being handed down to her son and remaining in the hands of her grandson and great-grandson ever since.

In latter days it has been the policy of Madame Tussaud to add the wax effigy of any man in the public gaze, whether he be criminal or benefactor, as quickly as possible after he has become a sufficiently important newspaper topic to warrant it. For instance, the effigies of notorious criminals are often either ready for exhibition or in the process of modelling before they are punished, so intent is the institution on keeping abreast of the times in its own way, albeit often a gruesome way.

"Improve Your Work—Don't Change It"

SOMEBODY gave advice the other day to this effect; improve your work; don't change it. In other words, if you are dissatisfied with what you have done, do not look for another job.

This rule, of course, has many exceptions. There are times when we find ourselves to be a square peg in a round hole. We don't fit. We must get a place in accordance with our taste and capacities. But the thing to do is to see that what we have to do is what we are doing well. It is easier to do work better than to change it. Many a man has dissipated all his energies and come to old age a failure, trying because he has been constantly looking around for better conditions. The ideal conditions do not exist. The only job that is perfectly satisfactory is the one that somebody else has. When we get to it and get to doing it we find that there are limitations.

If we make up our minds to overcome difficulties and remain where we are, and to make our job a better one by doing it better, we shall as a rule be more content. The art of life after all is one of adjustment. There is no place where a man does not have to alter circumstances to suit himself. Those who are constantly looking about for some job that shall be ideal are disappointed.

The discipline called forth in adapting ourselves to our present situation is good for us. One reason there are so many unhappy marriages is that men, instead of trying to adapt themselves to the situation, are looking about for a new one. No matter how attractive a woman may be at first, to one who is constantly calling for all our resources of adjustment. No man is put in the ideal family. It is as rare to find an ideal marriage where everything seems to be made in accordance with our wishes, as it is to find a rose without thorns. Indeed, it is a poor stick whose ideal cannot out-poor his conditions.

Therefore, if we bend our energies toward making ourselves more adaptable to conditions instead of seeking conditions more adaptable to us, we shall get along better in this long run. Even those who have to contend with such a thing as chronic sickness or an incurable disease find that after all a man's spirit is tested by his power of adaptation. A girl who was born blind declared recently that she was perfectly happy. It is easy to inveigh against the limitations of blindness, but the road to happiness lies in adapting one's self to the inevitable. The inevitable encloses us on all sides in this life as a man is enclosed in the walls of his room. It is better to accommodate oneself to those walls than to batter one's head against them.

WORDS OF WISE MEN

Doing good is the only pleasure that never wears out. True valor lies in the mind, the never-yielding purpose. Nature blinds the blind toward of giddy fortune.—Thomson. A crowd in a company and faces are but a gallery of pictures and talk but a tinkling cymbal where there is no love.—Bacon. The over-curious are not over-wise.—Massinger. If there is anything that keeps the mind open to angelic visits and repels the ministry of ill, it is human love.

WHO'S WHO IN HISTORY TO-DAY

THURSDAY, MARCH 19
CHARLES IV
King of Spain for twenty years, abdicated the throne on March 19, 1909 in favor of his son, who became Ferdinand VII. A popular revolution forced the abdication.
DAVID LIVINGSTONE
Noted African explorer and missionary, was born near Glasgow, Scotland, March 19, 1813. After his death in Africa, appreciation of his services to the British Empire was shown by the burial of his body in Westminster Abbey.
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN
American statesman and journalist, three times an unsuccessful Democratic candidate for President of the United States, was born at Salem, Ill., March 19, 1860. His service in public office has been limited to two terms as a Congressman from Nebraska and for a brief period as Secretary of State in President Wilson's cabinet.
THOMAS BAILEY ALDRICH
American poet, novelist and editor died at Boston, March 19, 1907. His best known work was the "Story of a Bad Boy."

HEALTH & DISEASE
No. 38
Neuritis

The origin of the word "neuritis" indicates an inflammation of the nerves. As a matter of fact, true cases of neuritis are fairly rare. The many pains in various parts of the body, often called neuritis, have usually some other cause, and are merely symptoms of some other condition. Often valuable time is lost in the back, neuralgia, etc., if persistent should be investigated and not put down to neuritis.

There is a definite neuritis found in patients who have used alcohol in excessive amounts—called alcoholic neuritis. In this condition one gets chattering, tingling, numbness, areas of tenderness and also weakness of the muscles. But in this condition there are definite changes in the nerves giving an electrical feast, "reactions of degeneration."

But what is usually termed neuritis is often due to changes in the bones, ligaments of the joints or some other condition. For example, a persistent pain in arm or leg may be due to the changes in the joints, a beginning of arthritis. Again, a pain in the back may be due to arthritis or tuberculosis of the spine, or to a change in the position of a ligament. Neuritis is often due to an abscessed tooth where swelling and inflammation around the root socket are causing the referred pain.

In many cases, as in the case of the abscessed tooth, removal of the cause cleans up the so-called neuritis. Often valuable time is lost in applying liniment and other forms of treatment instead of seeking the cause and removing it.

A CORRECTION

To the Editor:—In my letter, "Superiority in Men—Russia or Germany" in your issue of March 13, where I give the strength of the Russian army just before the war as 1,500,000—after the "four" should come a dash, and then the total 2,320,000. And at the end of the letter, "Three Years' Military Law" should be "Three Years' Military Law"—i.e. Three years, instead of two years, military training for all French conscripts.

VICTORIA'S SEWERS

To the Editor:—Your editorial under the heading of Captain Strangman's case, in your issue of the 16th was most interesting and I sincerely hope that the Victoria taxpayers among your numerous readers will give it a cursory glance at the article because it contains a not yet recognized danger signal to the citizens of Victoria. It is regrettable that Captain Strangman finds himself in the present predicament, and under the circumstances it would appear that Victoria is unduly hasty in its dealing with this case. To save space, let us be brief, and be it understood that the remark is made as a reflection on Captain Strangman's part in the case. The facts, boiled down, simply resolve themselves into one of dollars and cents. The cost of a septic tank would be approximately $12, a curb and manhole for less than one-half of that amount, but for a real effective modern tank, as would fit the investment of $3,000, the sum as stated is a fair one. Well then, the figures: Cost of septic tank $200, as against the city's charge of $100 plus advanced rental of $12, a curb and manhole of $58, to say nothing of the difference in taxation. Good business for the investor, but better business for Saanich, the wedge in the driveway just a little farther into an asset that she hopes to get for practically nothing, playing her cards on the old horse.

It is argued that new residents in the adjoining municipalities are decided assets to Victoria. Granted, but are they not even greater assets if located within our city's boundaries? Mr. Editor, Victoria has modernized her home by installing up-to-date conveniences for which the taxpayers are paying the price. Because we have done that work, are we then expected to pay for the work of a dilatory neighbor at a fraction of the cost. The action of this city in stopping all sewer connections outside the boundaries is justified and the foolish arrangement of selling our sewers to individuals should be scrapped without delay. The deal should be with the Saanich authorities. The wedding cloth that little Miss Sanitation were many years ago suited the purpose because they filled a temporary need. In these days of modernization they become the dear child. She should have her skirts shortened, her hair bobbed and be most delightfully performed. There is urgent need for this measure as the safety of the health of all demands it. The Victoria taxpayers should see to it that Saanich pays for Saanich improvements.

WHAT TOMATO TRANSACTION

To the Editor:—Dear Mr. Editor will you kindly grant me space for the following letter in your valuable paper? "That Seattle Transaction in Tomatoes."

In Mr. Dunson's report or Blue Book, on page 58, will be found a reference to the Seattle transaction which is very misleading and is altogether a mis-report of the facts. If your readers will read the report in conjunction with my letter they will understand the issue more clearly. I did not at any time or place discuss with Mr. Snow the possibility of a market in Seattle for hothouse to-

The WEATHER Daily Bulletin Published by the Victoria Meteorological Department. Victoria, March 19—5 a.m.—The barometer is abnormally low over Northern and unsteady, rainy, with weather in general on the Coast. Moderately cold weather prevails in the prairies.

ABSOLUTELY PURE AND UNADULTERATED Sold by Grocers throughout Canada. The first I knew of this was one Saturday morning in August, 1923. I walked into the Mutual Brokers' warehouse on Wharf Street and saw some of our tomatoes marked up for shipment to Seattle, and in conversation with Mr. Dunworth learned they were going to try out Seattle market on the advice of Walter Bowen & Company. The tomatoes were an excellent No. 1 pack and it is a fact that we did get a return of twenty-five cents a crate for them and it is also a fact that I did write Mr. Snow voicing my dissatisfaction with such returns and pointing out that the current price at the time was $2.25 per crate.

As a member of the executive of our association and knowing that there were other growers whose tomatoes were sent to Seattle to the same party, I deemed it my duty to take up this matter with Mr. Snow. I believe this is the first knowledge Mr. Snow had of these returns and it is a fact that on his instruction we did get a further return of $2.13 per crate. As did also every other grower who had tomatoes shipped to Seattle. I believe that the amount so returned to growers as set out in the report at $222.07 is correct, but to say that "Mr. Pollock got all of the $222.07" is a most malicious falsehood. We have all our records for 1923 on file and these are open to anyone interested. We had thirteen crates in this deal, two crates along with the others $2.13 additional and I am sure the other growers who got the balance will be only too glad to give the public the facts and figures.

Many a time when I read the other fellow's letter I think of the old saying: "Cools rush in where angels fear to tread," so I will conclude my own by just saying this: Never at any time did I ever receive any preference or favoritism expressed or brooked against Saanich municipality or any other organization, but on the other hand have at all times worked hard for the interest of the growers. The organization was first considering a broker's commission, my preference to the Mutual for their had, I believed, the widest distribution and the unquestioned ability to get the growers' best price for their produce, don't you think, Mr. Editor?

SAANICH SEWERS

To the Editor:—The intensive propaganda emanating from the Victoria City Council Chamber connected with their claim for compensation for a portion of the cost of construction of the Saanich sewer, $1,000,000, within city limits, has been mischievous in inciting many Victoria people to believe drastic measures should be instituted against Saanich municipality for recovery of the amount. On the other hand voters of Saanich municipality resent the imputation of any liability arising out of the city sewerage system, and a feeling of deep resentment is being created in the inner wards and Saanich hinterland, which will surely not be conducive to close co-operation and goodwill. The latest hysterical propaganda coming from the City Council Chamber proposed (if the press reports are correct) is to set up the Supreme Court, and the Provincial Health Board would be expected to come to their rescue, take over municipality by the throat and hand over to the city of Victoria the amount of $8,000 by forcing Saanich to connect with the city sewerage, without giving the 12,000 inhabitants of Saanich any voice in the matter whatever. Aldermen Clearburn, Todd, Mara and Brown are to be commended for their humanitarian attitude for co-operation.

In the restoration of normal eyesight, glasses are, of course, the actual aid. But before they can be of help the eyes are carefully tested by the most delicately adjusted scientific appliances, which measure the power of vision. ratified by a three-fifth majority, giving any gentlemen the right to incur $25,000 for sewerage, the amount can be collected by Victoria. We challenge Victoria to submit their case to a Judge of the Supreme Court, and not to a majority of representatives of interested municipalities anxious for getting the amount above stipulated. Let the Saanich council agree with Victoria and Oak Bay councils through their solicitors to submit their differences to a Judge of the Supreme Court for a final decision on the so-called liability. That would satisfy the electorate of all the municipalities. Let it be final, and any further misunderstanding will be cleared up and friendly co-operation working the community destiny out in harmony and goodwill. A SAANICH ELECTOR.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place. Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness. You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store. (Adv.)

STAFF OF SOLDIERS' BOARD IS REDUCED

Ottawa, March 19.—Reduction in the staff of the Soldiers' Settlement Board was announced yesterday by A. K. Knorr, Progressive, Prince Albert, Sask. He was informed that during 1924, seventy-eight men were discharged from the staff, of whom fifty-one were married men. The principle recognized was one of efficiency, said the Minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment. Other things being equal, men with dependents were given preference. Transfers from one office to another were unavoidable and beneficial to the service. The present staff of the board consists of 355 married men and 71 unmarried men.

FRIDAY, MARCH 20

A rather unimportant day is forecast from the insignificant stellar mutations prevailing. There is a possibility of restlessness and nervousness, which may be felt largely in the domestic circle, in which may develop some annoyance or disappointment in affectional matters. These may also be anxiety.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a rather quiet year, with affairs moving along in routine.

This Lassie Has Her Colds "Rubbed Away"
The mother of this attractive little girl, Mrs. E. E. Simmons, of 214 Seventh Avenue, N.E., Portage la Prairie, Man., is one of the many Canadian mothers who are enthusiastic about the vaporizing salve, Vicks VapoRub, for treating children's colds. Mrs. Simmons writes: "My little girl had a cold at night, pretty badly and Vicks did her a lot of good. I have also used it with very satisfactory results for head and chest colds."

Vicks is just "rubbed on" for sore throat, tonsillitis, bronchitis, croup or deep chest colds. When so applied, Vicks has a double direct action: Internally medicated vapors are inhaled while, at the same time, externally, it is absorbed through and stimulates the skin. (Adv.)

COUGARS BRING FIRST HOCKEY TITLE TO VICTORIA IN TWELVE YEARS

Calgary Held Victoria Level Till Half-Way Then Yielded

Lester Patrick's Charges Prove Beyond Question That They Are Real Champions and Entitled to Western Canada Hockey League Title; Fredericksen Scored Goal in Second Period That Sealed Tigers' Hopes and Walker Made Victory Certain With a True Shot Into Empty Net Three Minutes Before Time; Calgary Proved Good Losers, Offered no Alibis and Congratulated Their Conquerors; Huge Crowd Delighted With Result

Victoria is to-day paying homage to the gallant and sturdy band of players which carried the colors of the Capital of British Columbia to the highest pinnacle of fame in the Western Canada Hockey Association last night. Immediately after the game finished 4,200 fans did everything from crushing hats to rasping their throats to let the Cougars know how they appreciated the victory, but to-day, with the din of battle over and the realization of what the win really means, those who saw the game and those who "sat in" on their radio-sets, as well as hundreds who were not fortunate enough to do either but were vitally interested in the outcome, are on the streets, in offices, in street cars, in clubs and around dining tables, are paying tribute to the unprecedented display of hockey put on by the Cougars. It was only through maintaining an unbeatable defence and waiting for openings to drive through the Calgary bulwarks and blazed shots at Hal Winkler, the bald-headed goalie of the visitors, that Victoria succeeded in subduing the courageous and aggressive Tigers in the final and deciding game of the play-off series. The score was 2-0, which gave Victoria the round by 3-1, the first game in Calgary having resulted in a 1-1 draw.

One does not have to search far for the reason for all the excitement over the victory. It is eleven years since the fans here gazed upon a championship organization that they could call their own. Way back in 1912-13 when Lester Patrick was one of the great stars of the games he led Victoria to a championship in the Pacific Coast Hockey Association and in the following year repeated. Since then Lester has been striving to build-up a hockey machine that would battle into submission the other clubs in the league. After such a long spell the fruits of victory are all the sweeter.

To Victoria goes credit for winning the first championship in the W.C.H.L. which this season was enlarged to six clubs to take in the two Patrick clubs, Vancouver and Victoria. The prairie teams went up to their necks in an effort to prevent one of the new-comers from annexing the championship, but they were counted out in the home stretch by the smartest hockey machine that has ever reeled in this part of the country. If not in the whole of Canada.

The Cougars are entitled to more credit than usually goes to a club which takes a championship. At the outset of the season they were picked to win the title in a walk as under ordinary conditions would have done so, but they had to take the rough end of the schedule and made three long, tiresome trips to the prairie, which caused a disastrous slump half way through the season. Tenaciously the Cougars held on to a place in the first division, seeing that in the lead with Calgary. Then when the Vancouver Maroons commenced their wild dash Lester had to pull his boys out of the slump.

Like a field of splendid thoroughbred the ten mighty Cougars spat upon their hands, snapped their teeth and made furrows in their brows as they made the play-off series. They got the championship. From that moment on the Cougars did not lose a game and they disposed of the toughest teams in the league which could be marshalled against them. They remodeled their defence and the result was that in the last week of the season they made the playoffs in a walk and got the championship. From that moment on the Cougars did not lose a game and they disposed of the toughest teams in the league which could be marshalled against them. That's a record that will weather the beating of many years.

They disposed of Vancouver, then at the top of its game in two straight games and ran through Saskatoon here in the final game of the regular playing season. The Cougars were forced to face the third place team in the final game of the elimination series with Neway Lalonde's fighting Shekels. On local ice the Cougars won by 3-1 and then moved into the Saskatoon "hat-box" and held the Shekels to a 3-3 tie. Lester moved his boys along to Calgary for the first game of the final series and to the surprise of the western hockey world, held the Tigers even. They came home to win by 2-0 in the last battle.

THEY HAVE THE HEART

Quite often the question has been raised here as to whether or not the Cougars had a fighting heart; that they would stick the pace when the going became rough. Never has a question been asked for any club that can go through four play-off games against clubs like Saskatoon and Calgary and suffer defeat and at the same time travel 4,000 miles and endure a change in climate at this time of the year, not only has a fighting heart but a spirit that will halt at nothing.

The Cougars have suffered in comparison to the prairie teams when one discusses "fighting hearts". The boys from the other side of the Rockies have their fighting hearts on the surface. They are aggressive and to a certain degree rough. They make a display of their boxing in the Cougars on the other hand are more polished players and while they skated greedily and kept ploughing they do not jump and dive and throw themselves about. In the end, however, they win out because they have the "head" to carry them through it. It is simply a case of "brains" versus physical force. The whole thing was exemplified in last night's penalties. The Victoria forwards drew hard penalties between them while four of the Tiger attackers were chased. The Victoria defence heaped up penalties but that is because they lack the men hard. The light men on the line, however, are playing hockey every minute. The Tigers line, in their effort to fight to the last ditch, did too much hacking and tripping.

TYPICAL TITLE GAME

Last night's game was thrilling in the extreme. From the point of a spectacle it did not approach some

MADE IT AT LAST

LESTER PATRICK

When the Cougars strangled the Tigers last night Lester Patrick realized his long-cherished ambition of leading a team into the world's hockey series. Twelve years ago he had a championship club under his charge but since then he has been working at a new line-up. In many respects he resembled Connie Mack, of the Philadelphia Athletics. Both, recognized as brainy men in their different realms, have been nursing tail-enders for years, but Lester has come through this winter and Connie hopes to lead the way for the American Leaguers in the coming campaign.

Before the season opened this year Lester said that he would give Victoria the best team it had ever had. Not only is it the finest club Victoria has ever looked at but it ranks as one of the greatest the game has ever known. In a garrison finish the club has swept aside all opposition. Now the Cougars encounter the Canadiens. Whether or not the strenuous campaign has sapped their strength remains to be seen, but with games coming at intervals of two days the boys will be a tired lot when the series ends.

High Lights On The Game

Fredericksen showed not only his class but his ability to assimilate many dangerous shots when he had to stop him at all costs and twice against the Canadiens. Walker had his eye on the puck every second and, on the defence, time after time stole the puck off the sticks of the over-anxious Tigers.

With all the Cougars playing in such form it may not seem right to single out any man for special mention but one cannot overlook the effectiveness of Fredericksen. The Tigers concentrated on him and that is why the wings were open so often.

The coolest humans in the steaming mass were Walker and Holmes. The best of championships never disturb their calm. Holmes picked off a neighbor's garden. Walker had his eye on the puck every second and, on the defence, time after time stole the puck off the sticks of the over-anxious Tigers.

Walker is the only man who scored in all four games of the play-off. He got a goal in each game. He scored the third goal here against Saskatoon, the first in Saskatoon, the only one in Calgary and the second last night. Fredericksen scored in three games, missing the one in Calgary.

Wonder if Mickey Ion has changed his mind as to which club has the best defence in the league. Calgary could not cope with the Victoria forwards after the half-way mark. Calgary did most of its shooting from a distance and did not have one rebound. Halderon turned in his best display of the year. No one went past him, except by the aerial route. Loughlin and Fraser were as steady as ever and did some nice work on the offensive.

Foyston, the other veteran campaigner, also contributed his best game of the season. He was very effective both on the offence and defence and only Walker's fine work prevented him from scoring in the second period.

Hart was, as usual, a tireless individual. He made many fine openings and proved himself one of the stars of the club. He appeared in superb condition and went nearly the whole route.

The Victoria substitutes played an important part in the victory. Meeking, Anderson and Foyston kept the line at top speed. Calgary suffered when its subs. went on the ice and the reserve line is probably what has brought home the championship. Unless Victoria had good reserves the club could never have gone through the four play-off games without suffering defeat.

Lester Patrick really got excited last night. When the second goal was scored he leaped from his feet as if some one had stuck a batpin through his ticklish rib. "That's the championship," he hollered.

Calgary proved splendid losers. They admitted Victoria had the best team and had no alibi to offer. They went into the Cougars' dressing room and congratulated their conquerors and wished them luck in their quest of the Stanley Cup.

Winkler starred for the victors, and Gardiner and Dutton gave everything they had. Wilson, as pesky as ever, with Oliver did most of Calgary's shooting. Sparrow was not up to his usual form but Eddie Oatman plugged along as hard as ever.

Victoria was stirred to its roots last night. Hockey was the one and only topic and until the world's series is passed the national winter sport will have everyone on edge.

The eyes of the hockey world are now focussed on Victoria. The world's series will bring an invaluable amount of publicity to the city. Special telegraph wires are being installed to carry the thousands of words that will be sent out to various parts of the Dominion and northern towns of the United States.

It has often been said that there is no sentiment in professional sport. The way the Cougars behaved when they scored those goals shattered that idea. While the world's series pursues its course the players to greater efforts still have become so caloused to secondary advancement that they forget about the honor of winning. Gordie Fraser, whose body is covered with cuts and bruises from the strenuous campaign, said Calgary would not win the game except over the Cougars' limp bodies. No one questions Gordie's courage and knows that he would take any punishment to win. But Gordie's spirit was simply that of the entire team. The boys wanted the honor of being on a championship team. They gave their best and in doing so they brought honor to themselves but also to the beautiful city which they represent. The fans are grateful to them.

Hudson's Bay Score Second Victory In Hayward Cup Series

Defeated Services' Eleven at Work Point Yesterday Afternoon by Score of 2-1

Another victory was chalked up to the credit of the Hudson's Bay football eleven yesterday afternoon, when they defeated the United Services, at Work Point, by the score of 2 to 1. This gives the Bays a nice lead in the Hayward Cup series. As last week they sprang a big surprise by walloping the formidable Teamsters. In yesterday's game both teams played a good brand of soccer, although many chances to score were passed up.

With the slope in their favor, the Bays took the offensive and tested Scouter, the Service goalie. At this stage of the game the Services' defence and goalie did some fine work and saved their team from an early defeat. The Service forwards carried the ball to the other end of the field and Shrimpton, the goal, was kept busy for a few minutes. On several occasions the Services' forwards broke through, but they were unable to get past Shrimpton who made a number of fine saves. Five minutes before half-time Stewart put the Bays one up when he secured the ball in the centre field and, after worming his way through the whole Services' team, drew Scouter one of his goal and placed the pigskin in the net. The whistle sounded for half-time with no further scoring.

COMBINATION IMPROVES
After the rest period both teams showed better combination work and the ball was carried from one end of the field to the other with the Bays having the edge. Ten minutes after the start the Bays increased their lead when Denholme scored after taking a pass from Tooby. The Bays continued their attack on the Services' goal but Scouter saved everything that came his way. The Services' line counter came just before the start of the second half, but drive that baffled Shrimpton. The Services worked hard in an attempt to score the tying goal, but the Bays' back division was sound and broke up all dangerous attacks. Bryson passed up a fine opportunity to bring his team onto even terms when he slipped with the ball when he had only the goalie to beat.

Bridges refereed and the teams were as follows:
Hudson's Bay—Shrimpton, McKay, Gardiner, Hargan, Webber, Denholme, Addie, Woodley, Clark, Stewart and Tooby.
United Services—Scouter, Morrison, Kennedy, Mitchell, Obee, Bryson, Garrington, Kemp, Gleave, Leeds and Henry.

Alberta Champs Score Fine Win Over Port Arthur

Coleman Tigers Won First Game of Allan Cup Semi-finals by Score of 4-2

Winnipeg, March 19.—East and West, the two hockey powers, when the Coleman Tigers, former Winnipeg and Selkirk lads and champions of Alberta and British Columbia, marked up a 4 to 2 victory over Port Arthur, winners of the 1924-25 Saskatoon-Saskatchewan championship, here last night in the first of a two-game series to decide the team which will fight against the Montreal Canadiens for the premier amateur hockey honors of Canada—the Allan Cup. The final game will be played Friday night.

For the first two periods the Tigers outskated and outplayed the Ports. They had the margin in the opening play, but it was in the second period that the Coleman youngsters opened up to dominate the play which they did for the greater part of the period to score three goals and clinch victory. They fairly reeled in the fast going and had speed to burn. Port Arthur came back strong to score in the closing period but their attacks were too late and though they repeatedly penetrated the Coleman defence the best they could do was two tallies.

The Alberta champions made a remarkable showing and with a two-goal lead to go into the final game, they will be a hard team to beat out. Frank Sheppard was the star of last night's game, scoring three goals and assisting in the fourth.

Toronto, March 19.—Eugene Fraser, captain and manager of the Niagara Falls senior O.H.A. champions, who were eliminated by the Varsity in the Allan Cup eastern final, has been selected as referee for the eastern interests in the final games at Winnipeg next week between Varsity and the winner of the Port Arthur-Coleman series.

Duluth, Minn., March 19.—Calgary Canadians, provincial hockey champions of Alberta, demonstrated their superiority over the West End six, Duluth intermediate league title-holders and champions of the North-west Minnesota championship, 2-0, here last night.

French Featherweight Arrives in U.S. and Hopes to Meet Kaplan

New York, March 19.—Eoudard Mascari, French featherweight, arrived in the France yesterday for a boxing campaign in this country which probably will culminate in a championship match with Louis (Kid) Kaplan for the world's featherweight title.

Little Black Puck Had a Hustling Ride Last Night

That hard, black circle of rubber that serves as a puck had a merry time last night as the Cougars and Tigers battled to gain possession of it. Following is a brief story of how the poor little thing was juzzed about by twenty full-grown men!

FIRST PERIOD
Hart had first shot on goal, and Oliver rushed to the other end, but Holmes saved. Holmes turned aside another from Dutton. Walker stepped in a backhand, Holmes picked one off from Gardiner, and Walker and Hart replied at other end. Sparrow split defence and Holmes made a save. Fraser and Dutton both penalized. Teams worked with but one man on the offensive while a man short. Halderon bunched for cross-checking Oliver. Fredericksen was sent off for dumping Gardiner. The play was very rough. Oliver went off, and Dutton and Fraser no sooner got back on the ice than they were chased off again. The teams again were reduced to five men apiece. Both defences were hitting their men hard. Halderon was penalized again for tripping Oliver, and Sparrow went off for upsetting Fraser.

There was little good shooting. Fraser lifted in a long shot, but change, and Walker followed in with another. Victoria got the first break of the period, but Loughlin passed back to Fredericksen. Sparrow sent in a heavy shot, but Holmes saved. Both teams got back to full strength. The players were unable to keep their sticks under control, and Oliver went off for upsetting Hart. Winkler came out of his goal to save from Hart. Victoria went in on another hard attempt to score. Fraser lifted in a long shot. Winkler got ahead of play and the game was stopped. The play got ragged and Crawford tried to flip in a long one. Gardiner put in another from long range. Fredericksen tried to get through, but Gardiner pulled him off his feet. Meeking could not get hold of puck when in front of net. Holmes saved. Fraser and Walker, when he came in again was pulled immediately by Dutton, who was banished for two minutes. Halderon went off right afterwards for putting Oliver on his back. There was altogether too much tripping and hooking, and while there was lots of thrills there was no spectacular hockey in this period.

THIRD PERIOD
Fredericksen was back at centre at start of third period, and Oatman faced off against him. Loughlin laced one into Winkler's pads. Winkler tried a long shot, but it was easily stopped. Winkler fell to save a bouncing shot from centre ice from Walker. Hart and Fraser grazed the post with hard shots. Winkler saved. Fraser through, but Fredericksen on fast play with Loughlin. Holmes jumped into hard shot from Gardiner on pass from Wilson. Meeking made a save on plays in a row, and nearly scored on a bouncing shot from centre ice from Walker. Hart and Fraser grazed the post with hard shots. Winkler saved. Fraser through, but Fredericksen on fast play with Loughlin. Holmes jumped into hard shot from Gardiner on pass from Wilson. Meeking made a save on plays in a row, and nearly scored on a bouncing shot from centre ice from Walker. Holmes saved a beautiful shot from Crawford.

Calgary opened up, putting three men on the offensive in effort to score. Fraser lifted in a long shot, but both were cut down by heavy checking.

Calgary opened right up and threw four men on the attack. Several opening shots were blocked. Fraser capitalized one, Fredericksen and Walker breaking fast with only Gardiner to beat. Fredericksen passed the puck to Fraser and Fraser came out of his net to try and intercept pass, Walker regained puck and laid it to rest in open goal.

Lester Patrick ranked Fredericksen and put Halderon on so as to give him three real defence men on the back line. Calgary tried to hitting this time, but Fraser and Winkler had to come out to the blue line to clear a shot from Hart, and right afterwards Crawford drew his stick from the play for tripping Foyston. With only five men the Tigers finished the game. Sparrow had a dangerous shot, which Holmes just got to, and the game closed.

Canadiens Expect To Win Series In Three First Games

Frenchmen Think They Are Good Enough to Sweep Clean Through Victoria

Bassano, Alta., March 19 (En route with the Canadiens).—The Canadian hockey team remained up in their special Canadian Pacific Railway car until midnight last night to hear the results of the Calgary-Victoria game. The boys, with Manager Dandurand, were playing cards in the smoker and eagerly seeking some news of the game at every station after the train left Medicine Hat. Finally as the train pulled into Brooks at midnight, Inspector Hawkins, of the C.P.R., came into the car and handed them a telegram announcing Victoria's victory of 2-0.

The remarks which followed were impartial to either team. Manager Dandurand's only remark was, "Too bad for Calgary." Had Calgary won, their special car would have been set off at Calgary at 4 o'clock this morning. However, the boys have not yet tired of their trip across the continent, and they seem rather glad that they are to continue through to the coast.

They will arrive in Vancouver on Friday morning. They will work out at the arena at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and leave that night for Victoria. They will return to Vancouver immediately after the game Saturday night, play there Monday night and return to Victoria Tuesday night. Wednesday's game, which they believe will be the final one. The management and the team are very modestly confident that no extra games will have to be played, and that the championship will be won by the Canadians in the first three games. The players are especially determined that this will be so, since there will be no pay for them in the extra two games which would follow defeats.

Every one of the boys declare that the trip across the continent had stored up so much energy in them that they will perhaps go straight through the boards when they get an opportunity to let off their steam. Manager Dandurand has arranged with Mr. Holmes, owner of the Winnipeg Arena, for an exhibition game there on their return East. Mr. Dandurand also states that he would not be adverse to playing an exhibition game with Calgary either at Calgary or Vancouver.

AT THE THEATRES

SOMETHING NEW FOR POLA NEGRI IN "EAST OF SUEZ"

Something new for Pola: "East of Suez," a Paramount screen version of the Broadway stage play of the same name by Somerset Maugham, brings Pola Negri to the screen at the Dominion Theatre in a story with Oriental settings—a story laid in China, with the star in the role of a white girl, educated in England and living in Shanghai.

The plot is woven about the star, as Daisy Forbes, two white men, a sinister Chinese nobleman who sets a trap for the girl, and an old Chinese nurse who alone holds the secret of the mystery of Daisy's parentage.

entage. It is the general belief that the girl is half Chinese. Subsequent events, however, prove otherwise.

The big punch in the production comes when the star, who has married one of the white men to save herself from falling into the hands of the Chinese, invites the other man to dinner. Lee Tai, the nobleman, plans with the old nurse to get the girl—the audience—into the picture.

The husband, played by Rockwell Fallowes, returns unexpectedly. Three glasses of wine are brought in—one is poisoned. They drink. Who gets the poisoned glass?

Both Lowe and Fallowes are featured along with Noah Beery in support of Miss Negri in the production, which was adapted for the screen by Sada Cowan. Raoul Walsh directed. Others in the strong cast of the picture are Sojin Kazuyama, one of the foremost actors on the Japanese stage; Mrs. Wong Wing, E. H. Calvert, Florence Regina, and Charles Requa.

"THE MAN WHO PLAYED SQUARE," COLUMBIA SHOW

Western stories have always held their own from the standpoint of popularity with film fans and with the improved quality of this type of picture, the William Fox production starring Buck Jones have easily held their own. The cow-puncher star is not only a favorite in the West, but also in the East and in his latest picture, "The Man Who Played Square" he has been given an admirable vehicle. It is a Western production, replete with dramatic incidents written by William Wallace Cook and directed by Al Santell. The action is fast and furious and one of the big scenes is a mine explosion which represents the apex in film realism. It will be seen at the Columbia to-day.

"SULTAN OF MOCHA" AT THE COLISEUM IS AMUSING COMEDY

Every character this week adds his or her quota to the success of the programme this week at the Coliseum Theatre when Reginald Hincks and his company are staging Alfred Collier's great musical success "The Sultan of Mocha." You have only to imagine a couple of staid British workmen being suddenly left a legacy of an island kingdom with all the appurtenances to see what a lot of fun can be extracted from the theme.

THURSDAY ORCHESTRAL CONCERTS AT DOMINION WIN POPULARITY

More popular than ever the Dominion concert orchestra is proving to be, so that now they have become practically an institution at this popular playhouse. The concert for to-night promises a variety that should, it is believed, meet the approval of the most fastidious.

The orchestra, under the direction of Handley Wells, will present the following programme in conjunction with the screening of Pola Negri's latest romantic thriller, "East of Suez":

"Serenade," Granfeldt, "Cavatina," Bohm, "Extase," Ganne, "Lullaby," fox trot, "Marie, Marie, Marie," fox trot, "Hard Hearted Hannah," fox trot, "Peter Pan," fox trot, "My Best Girl," fox trot, "China Girl."

And latest not least will be the musical interlude entitled, "On the Road to Mandalay," sung by Handley Wells, with a special musical accompaniment.

"CLASSMATES" IS SHOW AT CAPITOL ON MONDAY NEXT

"Classmates," Richard Barthelmess' new First National picture, which comes to the Capitol Theatre on Monday, centres some of its picturesque action about that famous path of romance, "Filtration Walk," at West Point.

"Filtration Walk" has been painted many times in story and poetry. It is a little narrow, winding walk, leading through the trees, down the steep cliffs of West Point. At a distance of some three-quarters of a mile to the Hudson River below. The path leads past the site of the old battery built in 1778, at one end of the immense chain which was stretched across the Hudson to Constitution Island, then fortified. The chain was designed to prevent the passage of British war frigates along the river.

On "Filtration Walk," too, is the famous "Kissing Rock." Under this overhanging rock many a military romance has come into being, for the tradition of the Academy has it that if the girl isn't kissed and kissed promptly the rock will fall.

The romantic love story of "Classmates" moves along this famous "Filtration Walk" for it is here that Duncan Irving, played by Mr. Barthelmess, tells Sylvia Randolph, portrayed by pretty Madge Evans that he loves her.

"THE MERRY WIDOW" NEW ATTRACTION FOR PLAYHOUSE

The well known favorite, "The Merry Widow," has been selected as the attraction to be presented at the Playhouse next week. Gladys Vaughan, who has won many friends among local theatregoers, appears in the title role, a part that gives her ample opportunity for some excellent light comedy work.

"Fifty Miles From Broadway" is the attraction now playing, the company giving a complete performance. The screen features Robert McKim, Alice Lake, Gaston Glass, Louise Fazenda and Edwin Stevens in "The Spider and the Rose." This remarkable cast makes the picture live up to its reputation as an all-star production. It is a tense, dramatic tale of action and romance in

SPECIAL MUSICAL ENGAGEMENT FOR THE DOMINION NEXT WEEK

An announcement that should prove a delight to music lovers of Victoria was given out by Manager Robertson of the Dominion Theatre last evening to the effect that this popular playhouse will present next week Tex Howard and his famous band, direct from their successful engagement at the Capitol Theatre, Vancouver. According to reports filtering in from the mainland city, this engagement bids fair to rival "Chuck" Whitehead and his band, which had such a phenomenal engagement at the Capitol Theatre here some years ago. This musical attraction will be presented every evening in addition to the feature presentation, "The Great Divide," starring Alice Terry and Conway Tearle. This great band has been drawing capacity houses at the Capitol Theatre for some weeks past in Vancouver, and music critics have acclaimed them great. Tex Howard will present musical melodies that are met with on occasions that are like angels' visits, "few and far between."

OLCOTT DIRECTS FOUR HUNDREDTH SCREEN FEATURE

Sidney Olcott, who directed Norma Talmadge in her most recent picture, "The Only Woman," a First National offering to be shown at the Capitol Theatre all this week, has had a varied career in the film industry. Here are a few highlights of his life:

Olcott has been making motion pictures since 1914. He has made more than 300 one and two-reel photoplays and about sixty feature productions of more than five reels.

He played for several years in repertoire on the road.

He has made motion pictures in Ireland, Palestine, England, Egypt, Japan, India and seventeen European countries as well as in twenty-nine of the United States.

Lord Kitchener complimented him on a picture he made in Egypt. He "stole" 500 feet of the German Kaiser under the nose of the Kaiser's officers and private cinematographers.

SWEDISH SETTLERS FOR CANADIAN FARMS

Winnipeg, March 18.—From now until 1927, although only 6,000 Swedes annually will be available for emigration to other countries than the United States, a large percentage of these will come to Canada, according to H. A. Hermanson, member for Canada in the Saskatchewan Legislature, in an interview here.

Mr. Hermanson, who is manager of the Swedish Information Bureau, said he had just returned from Ottawa, where he had received great encouragement from the Federal authorities.

"I know we shall get large numbers of Swedes after 1927," he said.

UNEMPLOYMENT AND FARM GRANTS STATED

Ottawa, March 18.—A comparison between the money spent by the Federal Government on agriculture and livestock during the last five fiscal years and the money spent on unemployment relief was made in the House yesterday by T. J. Church, Conservative, North Toronto, who asked a series of questions to be answered.

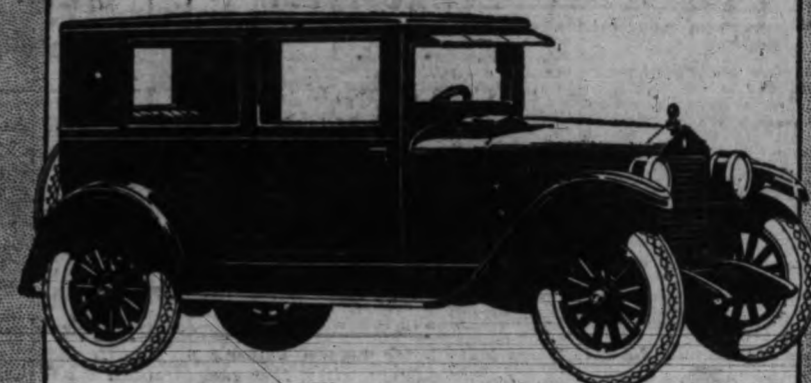

He was informed that during the five-year period a total of $2,500,000 had been spent on unemployment relief. Of this only $5,700 had been spent since 1923-24.

On the health of animals in the same period $1,166,416 had been spent; on livestock development $1,859,068 and for "other agricultural purposes" $16,131,221.

PRISON CHANGES DEBATED BY M.P.'S

House of Commons Adjourned Before Voting on A. MacPhail's Resolution

Ottawa, March 18.—Miss Agnes MacPhail, Canada's one woman member of Parliament, proposed in the House yesterday afternoon such changes in the administration of penitentiaries as would provide:

1. Sufficient productive work to keep the inmates employed.
2. That a share of the proceeds go to provide for dependents, and in case of no dependents, such share be left in trust until release.

The resolution received warm support from both sides of the House. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, Sir Henry Drayton, Conservative, and Robert Forke, Progressive leader, announced their intention of voting in favor of the proposition.

L. H. Martell, Liberal, Hants, had an amendment to eliminate the provision in regard to prisoners with no dependents.

A vote had not been reached when the House automatically adjourned at 6 p.m.

SECOND OFFICER OF QUADRA TESTIFIED

San Francisco, March 18.—J. A. Evelyn, second officer of the alleged Canadian run-ship Quadra, was the second defence witness called yesterday at the trial before Federal Judge John Fairbridge. He corroborated in every detail the testimony already given by George Harris, chief officer, declaring positively that at the time of the seizure of the vessel by a coastguard cutter the Quadra was thirteen and a half miles from the North Farallones Islands.

This would have placed the vessel definitely outside the jurisdiction of the United States.

Cross-examination by Assistant United States Attorney Kenneth Gillis failed to change Evelyn's statements.

SERIAL STORY

THE DARLING OF DESTINY

By MILDRED BARBOUR

Copyright 1924, Metropolitan Newspaper Service, New York

A LITTLE LUCK FOR SEVERAL PEOPLE

The day after the dinner party, Roger called Sue to the library.

"We are going to make a ceremony of this," he said. "We are going to write the last line on the play. I can't believe it's really finished and, at that, it wouldn't be except for you. How you ever kept me at it when I had so much on my mind I'll never be able to do up."

"Well, at least it made you forget your troubles."

"To some extent, while I wait for the act to fall, I can't understand why it hasn't happened yet."

"As a matter of fact, neither could Sue. She had heard nothing from Miss de Verne, and she was beginning to fear that her little game of bluff had failed."

"The ceremony of completing the play was at length accomplished in due form. Roger drew a deep sigh as he fastened the sheets of the manuscript together. He turned to Sue and laid the bulky parcel in her hands. "It's finished and it's yours, really, because you were my inspiration. If it ever amounts to anything, the credit will be all yours."

"Have you any idea where you are going to place it?" Sue asked.

"None," he shrugged. "But pretty soon, it will begin to go on its weary round from producer to producer."

"Then I'll keep it until you are ready to send it away," Sue told him.

When she went to town that afternoon she took the manuscript with her. Her first errand was at Haskin's office. There were a number of callers waiting in the anteroom who eyed the parcel in her hands and smiled knowingly and a little sadly. She did not have to wait long before she was ushered into Haskin's presence, and that same day she returned a significant smile from the others who waited.

When Haskin caught sight of the manuscript, he laughed outright.

"So you took me at my word! Well, all right, I'm game. I'll read your little play just as fairly as if you had a string of Broadway successes at your credit. Can you stop and have tea with me?"

Sue told him that she was going down to the East Side to meet Joan, and sent her there in his car on her promise to meet him later.

She was rather surprised to see Tony's car parked outside of the settlement-house, and her amazement had no limit when she discovered Tony himself, cool and rather dumpy, giving a chalk talk before a blackboard to a small and rather grimy class.

She was in the backroom, smiling encouragement; she looked very happy as she drew Sue to her side and whispered:

"Isn't this splendid? He comes here almost every day, and gives a couple of hours to these poor children. You know it's amazing how much technical information he has, and I think it's such a pity he has never done anything with it."

Sue thought so, too, but she could not bring herself to say anything against Tony, though she wondered anew at the blindness of Joan's love.

In the tea-room, she met Jerry MacDonald, having his usual coffee. He wasn't looking his careless, debonair self.

"I have lost my job, you see," he said with a gesture toward the other room. "Well, I guess he is a better man than I am. I dare say little Jerry is meant to go to the end of time painting collar-ads and soft drink posters. By the way, that head of yours is finished; it's so good I'm scared of it, and I'm trying to get the nerve to show it to some one."

"I know a man who would be awfully interested," Sue told him. "It's Haskin's producer. He is going to call for me here in the afternoon. May I bring him up to the studio?"

"Sure you can, if he has got money. We'll try to sell him the whole works or knock him for a job doing odd bits about the theatre. See, I believe you are going to bring me luck and goodness knows I need it. I was feeling awfully low when you came in."

When Haskin came for Sue later that afternoon, she asked him to go with her to MacDonald's studio. He protested violently, but nevertheless he went, grumbling as they climbed the dark stairs.

"First you try to sell me a play,

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily Winds the Clock

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper syndicate.

By HOWARD R. GARIS

"Don't forget, now, Uncle Wiggily! Don't forget!" said Nurse Jane Punsy Wuzzy in the hollow stump bungalow, as she put away her knitting and started upstairs to go to bed.

"I won't forget," promised Mr. Longears, twinkling his pink nose. Then he went on reading the paper, while Nurse Jane went to sleep.

Now you might wonder what it was that the bunny gentleman wasn't going to forget. It wasn't anything like going out to seek an adventure, for now it was dark night. And it wasn't anything like playing a trick on the Skillery Skilley Alligator, for the bad chap wasn't in the hollow stump bungalow—that is, not yet.

No—all that Uncle Wiggily promised not to forget was to wind the clock. Each night before he came up to bed, he had to wind the clock. Sometimes, on account of an exciting adventure during the day, the bunny would forget about the clock and Nurse Jane would need to remind him, as she did this evening.

After a while Uncle Wiggily laid aside the paper, yawned once or twice, gave a half-twinkle to his pink nose and said:

"Well, I guess I'll wind the clock and go to bed." If he and Nurse Jane had kept it that he would have put the cat out after winding the clock. But they didn't keep a cat, though often Tommie Jole or Kittle Kat, one of the pussies, children would come over to spend the day.

The bunny gentleman put the key in the hole of the clock and began

under a chair. "he told Uncle Butler, the goat, 'but what I may find an adventure hiding there.' So this time when Uncle Wiggily got down on his paws and knees to play at the game of finding the clock key he was wondering what would happen next. And what happened was that, all of a sudden, into the bungalow popped the Bob Cat. Uncle Wiggily hadn't yet locked the door for the night, so the Bob Cat easily got in the cat out after winding the clock. But they didn't keep a cat, though often Tommie Jole or Kittle Kat, one of the pussies, children would come over to spend the day. The bunny gentleman put the key in the hole of the clock and began

PAINS IN LEFT SIDE AND BACK

Other Troubles Women Often Have Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lachine, Quebec.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back, and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. I was this way about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the 'Montreal Standard' and I have taken four bottles of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel so much better I would not be without it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I recommend the medicine to my friends and I am willing for you to use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. H. W. Ross, 580 Notre Dame Street, Lachine, Quebec.

Doctor Said An Operation

Provost, Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books a year ago. I was in a bad condition and would suffer awful pains at times and could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I went under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and a friend recommended me to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better, and now have a bonny baby girl four months old. I do my housework and help a little with the chores. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter."—Mrs. A. A. Adams, Box 54, Provost, Alberta, C.

Rheumatism

First stop the pain

In rheumatism, the quickest thing to do is to stop the pain. A modern way does that so quickly that it seems like magic.

Nothing else applies such concentrated, such penetrating heat as red pepper. And heat that doesn't hurt. Every old method seems ridiculous in comparison.

Apply Red Pepper Rub and the tingling heat is apparent instantly. In three minutes it seems to reach the depths. Circulation is started, congestion is relieved. Pain and soreness depart.

The cause of rheumatism may lie deeper. But the pain can be relieved like magic in this way.

For pains of Rheumatism, Backache, Lumbago, Sprains, Soreness, Neuritis, Conspicuous Chest Colds.

DETROIT DAILY TO HAVE A NEW HOME

Detroit, March 19.—On a site that once was part of the old Fort Shelby military reservation, but now is in the heart of Detroit's downtown business district, is nearing completion a new fourteen-story building, the new home of The Detroit Free Press, Detroit's oldest daily newspaper.

When, some time in June the completed building is ready for occupancy by the editorial and mechanical staffs, just ninety-four years will have elapsed since The Detroit Free Press was founded as a weekly.

Covering a ground area of 27,858 square feet, the new structure occupies the entire block between Cass Avenue and Wayne Street. Above the main body of six floors rises an eight-story tower.

While structural work is in process mechanical equipment already has been set up in the two basements, which form virtually two additional floors as a sub-structure to the whole. Production of the daily issue is expected to get under way in the new building some time before the editorial and other staffs are housed there. Equipment looking forward to years of expansion is being installed.

The new building, to be known as "The Detroit Free Press Building," will be in marked contrast to the modest little plant in which Sheldon Macknight on May 5, 1831, founded the paper as a weekly. This was at the corner of Woodbridge and Bates streets, not far from the waterfront.

Ad-readers become home-owners as a matter of course—for they get interested in the property propositions in this city, and they learn things about real estate.

MONEY VOTED FOR LABOR DEPARTMENT

Ottawa, March 19.—Civil Government estimates of the Department of Labor, totaling $16,325, were passed by the House of Commons last evening.

An item of $25,000 for the Conciliation and Labor Act, including publication, printing and distribution of the Labor Gazette, caused some discussion. There was a reduction of $1,000 from the estimate for last year, which Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, explained was due to lowered costs of producing the Labor Gazette.

The subscription price was two dollars a year, which did not pay the cost of producing even a single copy. Approximately 12,000 copies a month were issued.

The Minister told Sir Henry Drayton and Wm. Irvine the Department had a correspondent at Sydney, N.S., who kept it informed on conditions, but Sir Henry said a most expert observer should be kept at such a point. The Minister declared, however, that the Federal Government had no jurisdiction and had recognized that, even before the Privy Council judgment invalidated the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act, yet had attempted to establish a board of conciliation.

The item, however, with the consent of the Minister, at the request of Sir Henry Drayton, was left in abeyance.

U.S. WORLD COURT VOTE IS AWAITED

Washington, March 19 (By Canadian Press)—The question is being agitated at the special session of the Senate, the belief here is that there will be no final disposition of the matter at this time. On the other hand, it is probable a vote will be reached at the next session of Congress. Furthermore, the indications are the United States will vote to join the court.

Much talk has been heard of final action at the present special session of the Senate. The leaders, however, do not expect final action and do not want final action. Most of the members of the Senate are anxious to leave Washington and have no stomach for a fight of weeks over the World Court at the present session.

Although the Senate will apparently vote for adherence to the World Court, it is expected to accompany its resolution with reservations of importance. It will make plain that in joining the court it has not changed the policy of holding aloof from the League of Nations. It is also expected to make it plain the United States will not be bound by advisory opinions given to the League of Nations.

OPINION EXPRESSED ON FREIGHT RATES

Winnipeg, March 19.—"Western Canada is suffering from too low and not from exorbitant freight rates," Alderman J. G. Sullivan asserted today on his return from Montreal, where he had spent several weeks investigating the Western railway situation in relation to the proposed Peace River extension.

Grain rates in Western Canada, Ald. Sullivan declared, were the lowest in the world, about seventy-five per cent lower than those in the United States for similar distances.

"When a rate gets so low there is no margin left with which to pay interest on investments and the company will consequently suffer from starvation, there will be no development, even in those parts where prospects of traffic would justify construction of railway lines," Ald. Sullivan said.

He declined to commit himself relative to the Peace River situation, stating it would be poor taste for him to discuss a report which had not been made public by the expert engineers of the two railway companies.

KING'S NAME ON GOLD MAT IN TOMB FOUND IN EGYPT

Cambridge, Mass., March 19.—The name of Seneferu or Seneferu, ancient Egyptian king, appears on a gold mat in the tomb recently discovered by the Harvard-Boston expedition at Gizeh, Dr. George A. Reisner, director of the expedition, has been informed by those in charge of the excavations.

In a statement issued to-day Dr. Reisner said:

"Before sealing the new tomb discovered at Gizeh by the Harvard-Boston expedition, the inscription on the gold mat was clearly read as follows:

LOW: Lord of the Two Crowns Seneferu

The name of the person buried in the coffin remains unknown. The presence of the name of Seneferu on the mat does not prove that king was buried in the tomb, but only that the burial was made in his reign. The conclusion that the tomb is not that of Seneferu or Cheops is not affected by the new evidence.

The tomb was closed and sealed by the Egyptian authorities at the request of Dr. Reisner until he can return to Egypt and take personal charge of the work.

PARLIAMENT

Canada's heavy debt makes members hesitate about naval plans. Fear Canada cannot afford naval programme until nation's system has digested last year's costs. Progressives milling around on subsidy. Senate may kill scheme and simultaneously give birth to chief Senate reform argument. Canada narrowly avoids election over private members' privileges on Wednesday afternoons.

By Times Staff Representative

Ottawa, March 19.—The average member of the present House of Commons does not seem to be able to work up much interest in naval defence, except as a good subject for debate, when Canada already is carrying the two-billion-dollar debt contracted by its contributions to the last war. The average member seems to feel that the Dominion will have all it can do for a few years to carry this enormous burden and get its business started on the proper line of development for the future without building a navy.

On every side the Government hears demands for economy. From every corner of the Dominion sound protests against taxation, and yet, in the face of these protests, the Government is expected to launch out on enormous expenditure programmes. That is the aspect of the situation which appeals to the average member. He is inclined to think that this is not the time to start a naval programme. . . .

"NATIONAL CRISIS" AVOIDED

The Commons enjoyed a hearty non-partisan laugh the other day when a national crisis suddenly loomed up over the question of whether Wednesdays should be devoted to private members' business in future or not. The Government, anxious to press the work of the session to an early conclusion as possible, proposed that the private members' business be held on Wednesdays. The Conservatives raised hands of holy horror against this invasion of private members' rights, and the Progressives, hardly knew what to think of it. The division bells rang, the members came hurrying down the corridors to see what had happened, and a solemn vote was taken, with the result that the Government's proposal was defeated. . . .

PROGRESSIVES MILLING

Progressive members of the Commons are milling around on the ship subsidy question like a herd of their own western steers. Robert Forke, Progressive leader, cleared the air somewhat with his recent statement to the writer that he was prepared to support the Petersen ship subsidy if the existence of an Atlantic shipping combine were proved—another way of saying that he would vote for the Government's shipping agreement because the existence of a shipping combine is just about as obvious to everyone as the existence of the Atlantic itself. . . .

ASSURED OF MAJORITY

The subsidy scheme thus seems assured of a satisfactory majority in the House of Commons. For a few days, though, it looked as if the Petersen agreement would have a rough time of it. It was this possibility which caused Premier Mackenzie King's blunt threat to take the whole question to the electors and stand or fall by the result. This showed the Progressives, as well as the Conservatives, that the Government was in earnest, and that the subsidy scheme was not to be quietly strangled to death in the night by its own parents, as had been rumored here for some days. Mr. Forke's announcement soon followed the Premier's declaration. . . .

AWAIT WOOD'S WORD

Turning again to the Progressives, it is evident that they are waiting and watching anxiously to see how the subsidy question unfolds before a special committee of Parliament. The Manitoba Progressives are understood to favor the scheme strongly. Already, the Saskatchewan
