Orchard City Grange Hold Harvest Festival

Make Effort to Bring Western Pacific Railroad to Campbell

Tuesday evening of this week Orchard City Grange held a regular meeting at its hall here.

A resolution was adopted asking the San Jose Chamber of Commerce to cooperate and use its influence to get the Western Pacific Railroad Company to build its road to San Jose and Campbell. The very poor service rendered the fruit-growers in the Campbell district by the Southern Pacific Company was the leading cause for this action.

A class of four were initiated in the third and fourth degrees by the degree team, composed of 12 women members under the direction of Mrs. Black, in a beautiful and creditable manner.

Following the initiatory ceremonies a bountiful harvest feast was served in the banquet hall. The feast and decorations were planned by Mrs. L. F. Shaw. It was a real Thanksgiving entertainment, turkeys and pumpkin pie being prominent features. The extemporaneous remarks of those called on by Toastmaster A. C. Keesling were of a happy and hopeful character.

The increased interest in Grange work seeming to demand more time than two meetings a month can afford, a resolution looking to a change to weekly meetings was introduced and will be acted upon at the next regular meeting, which will occur Tuesday, December 13.

The annual election of officers will also be held at the next meeting.—Mercury.

High School Notes

School closed for the week on Wednesday, as usual, to allow Friday for digesting turkey.

The Juniors reported a delightful evening at the home of Miss Belle Burdick in Union District. Mr. Snow accompanied them as the guest of honor.

The debaters are working hard on their debate for the third. Choice has been made as to the principal speakers as follows: Affirmative, Miss Byrona Bennett, George Beaver; Negative—Miss Muriel Palmer, Howard Bean. The selection of alternates will take place later. The question is finally decided, now reads, "Resolved that the measures that have been taken by the white citizens of the South to retain their political supremacy are justifiable."

Wins $200 Prize

Mills Waterhouse, of the C. U. H. S. class '09, was recently awarded a $200 cash prize for the best short story offered in a contest by the Congregationalist last August. Mills was one of the bright and popular students in the school and the story that won the prize was one that he had written for the Oriole. The young man clearly showed considerable ability in the literary line and the fact that he won first place among 700 or more writers would indicate that there is a bright future before him. Mr. Waterhouse is now working at the Observatory on Mt. Hamilton and expects to enter college later.

For Sale—Choice young canary birds. MRS. A. W. ADAMS, Dillon Ave.

Campbell Prunes in the East

Campbell was represented at the Chicago Land Congress this week by 1000 cartons of prunes donated by the Farmers Union Packing Co. The cartons and expenses of shipping were paid for by the San Jose Chamber of Commerce. Wednesday, 23d, was California day, and there were many novel features advertising this state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lloyd and daughter Bernice spent Thanksgiving in San Francisco.

Rev. J. H. Wythe, D. D., occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Gilman on Wednesday, Nov. 30th, at 2:30 o'clock.

Don't miss the Woman's Club entertainment for Library benefit Monday night, Dec. 5th.

Miss A. F. Eaton, from Fabiola Hospital, Oakland, visited her mother, Mrs. P. G. Keith, Saturday to Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hanger are visiting with the Beacocks at Palo Alto. Fred Hanger spent Thanksgiving there also.

Mrs. Bartlett and daughter Virginia, of Paso Robles, are spending the Thanksgiving Holidays with Mrs. S. L. Hayes.

Make your plans so as to attend the debate at the High school Saturday night, Dec. 3. See High School Notes for particulars.

Campbell has a new real estate firm. W. J. White and Co. of San Francisco have fitted up office in the James Smith buildings.

Miss Zena Kennedy came home Wednesday night from Forestville, Sonoma Co., where she is teaching. She will be here until Sunday.

Don't send your magazine money out of town. Call at the Press office and get a catalogue. We can give you good service at the lowest price.

Our fellow townsman J. H. Neff has opened up a fine line of fresh fruits and vegetables on the corner opposite the cannery. He should be well patronized.

Mrs. G. E. Atkinson and Mrs. Hulda Parker returned last Friday from two weeks at Soquel. They were accompanied by Mr. Atkinson's mother, who will visit here a short time.

A Union Thanksgiving service was held at the Methodist church Thursday morning. Rev. Geo. E. Atkinson preached the sermon. Rev. Channing Richardson was present and offered prayer.

The Campbell Union High school trustees are trying to make arrangements with the United Gas & Electric Co. to have the light wires extended to the high school building. Private homes in that vicinity are also seeking the same advantages.

Mrs. Johnson, and her little son, of Pleasanton, spent the first part of the week with her aunt Mrs. Henry. She returned to Pleasanton Wednesday morning. Florence Brown, her sister, went with her to spend the Thanksgiving Holidays.

The Mizpah class of the Methodist Sunday school was entertained last Friday evening, at the home of the teacher, Henry Trezona, just southwest of town. The class is arranging for a banquet to be held at the Methodist church, on Saturday evening, Dec. 31st. It will probably be in the nature of a watch night social.

Two interesting games of baseball were played yesterday on the High school diamond, between the Obaks, of Campbell and the Santa Clara team, and the Obaks and the Campbell town team. The Campbell band turned out and by some lively music put enthusiasm into the games. The Obaks beat the Santa Clara boys 10 to 2 and the town team 8 to 5.

There is to be a concert at the Congregational church Dec. 5, under the auspices of the Country Woman's Club, for the benefit of the Free Library. Mrs. Mignon Judson McDonald will sing. She has appeared before Campbell audiences before and has always been greatly appreciated. Watch next week's paper for the program.

WANTED—Orders for engraved cards, wedding invitations, etc. The Press Office.

The Youth's Companion Calendar for 1911
The publishers of the Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($1.75) is paid for 1911 a beautiful calendar for the New Year. The picture panel reproduces a water-color painting of an old-time garden in a flood of summer sunshine, with a background of Lombardy poplars through which one catches a glimpse of distant hills. The picture being in 12 colors, the tones of the original are faithfully produced.

PEN SLIPS

Campbell needs a sewerage system. What's the matter with organizing a sanitary district?

"Do one thing at a time and do it well," is the future plan of the Improvement Club.

Chicagoans and other Easterners are having a taste of Campbell prunes this week.

Have you purchased your ticket for the Club banquet?

Campbell needs a laundry. If it pays four or five wagons to drive here one and two times a week from other towns would it not pay a local firm to handle the business?

If Campbell avenue was extended on through from the west of town it would bring an excellent territory in closer touch with the town and undoubtedly bring much added business to the local merchants.

In spite of the fact that a large number of people have gone into the poultry business the last year, chickens and turkeys are bringing top-notch prices in the market just now.

The obnoxious odors which have been in the air of late are causing some people to think that probably Campbell is not quite so healthy a place as some think. This town has certainly furnished her share of victims for the hospitals during the last year.

Improvement Club Annual Banquet

The Men of Campbell Will Eat, Elect Officers, and Plan Big Things

At 7 o'clock next Monday night all of the leading men of the Orchard City will gather at the festive board at the Home Diningroom and "lay in" a supply of good things that will last them till Christmas. After which they will hold a business meeting and elect officers for the next year. It will cost but 50c per plate and you will surely get your money's worth. All men of Campbell who are interested in the town's improvement are requested to be present. Tickets can be procured from the bank, J. D. Sawyer's Market, Judge Farley, the Press office and others. Get your ticket early so they will know how many to plan for.

News in a Nutshell.

Vallejo.—By the accidental discharge of a shotgun Alfred Spencer suffered the loss of his right arm while hunting ducks in the marshes near here.

Los Angeles.—Charles Amandon Moody, for several years editor of the Out West Magazine, is in so grave a condition from ptomaine poisoning that his death is hourly expected.

Sacramento.—Papers for the return of Earl Pender, under arrest in San Francisco and wanted in Ohio for murder, have been filed with Governor Gillett. Pender is accused of killing Clara Raynor.

San Diego.—William C. Mair, the man who lunked Mrs. Minerva Roe, a Los Angeles woman, out of jewels valued at $600, was sentenced to two years in prison. Mrs. Edith Mair, who confessed to aiding her husband in the theft, was released on a year's probation.

Stockton.—Charged with sending an obscene postal through the mails, Frank Newman of Lodi was arrested and taken before United States Commissioner J. B. Webster, who fixed his bail at $500. Being unable to furnish it Newman was taken to the Federal jail in Alameda county.

Point Richmond.—In the person of Walter Chaffee, arrested by Special Officer Wright in response to telegraphic advices from Monterey, the Southern Pacific Company's detectives believe they have the second of the three men who dynamited the Southern Pacific station at Santa Margarita, San Luis Obispo county, on November 2.

Hamilton City.—Mrs. W. J. Bulin, wife of W. J. Bulin, a dairyman on the McIntosh grant near here, committed suicide by plunging head first into a barrel of water. It is believed she was driven temporarily insane by the absence of her husband and worry over the health of her mother-in-law, at whose bedside her husband is in Nebraska.

Sacramento.—A record price was paid in New York this week for a carload of California pears, the fruit bringing $2383. The pears were from the Berkwick orchard, Monterey, and although not the best that have been sent east this year, sold for the second highest figure ever offered for any pears in the New York market. Six carloads from the same orchard brought $10,500.

Seattle.—Nearly 100,000 barrels of flour were shipped from Seattle and Tacoma to the Orient during October. A feature of the month's flour shipments from Puget Sound was the amount of breadstuffs sent to Japan, which has for months been a poor customer for American flour. Ten thousand barrels of flour were shipped to Yokohama and 3000 barrels to Moji.

Redding.—Mrs. Alice Vallier, mother of George Vallier, who was killed on the roof of a passenger coach here last July, has collapsed as a result of the strain experienced by her at the preliminary hearing of Daniel Fleming, the Southern Pacific policeman charged with the boy's death, and her condition is said to be critical. She has vowed to spend her small fortune in the prosecution of the case.

Stockton.—Two or three election contests may result from the mistake of the Board in the Woodbridge precinct, in the northern part of San Joaquin county, in closing the polls an hour before the correct time. The election supplies were old lists mixed in with the up-to-date tally lists and instructions, and, instead of taking the instructions of 1910, those of some years past calling for the close of the polls at 5 p. m. were followed.

San Bernardino.—The arrest of Hugh Stephenson and four Gamble brothers, and the recovery of much loot, cleared up the mystery of a long series of burglaries in this valley, the Highland bank robbery last winter. Arthur Howard, who is now serving time for burglary in Louisiana, made a confession that led to the arrest of five men here, none of whom is more than a boy. A large part of the loot was found beneath a barn. Howard admitted having taken his share when he went east.

WATERS OF FEATHER RIVER IMPOUNDED BY GREAT DAM

Millions of Gallons of Water Forced Through Tunnel in Mountain.

Oroville.—Water is running over the top of the big concrete dam of the Great Western Power Company at Intake, in the Feather river canyon, and has backed up in the canyon several miles, forming a great lake. The dam was completed last week and its gates were closed for the first time. The water reached its crest and poured over the spillway.

The dam is 68 feet high from the bed of the river and 285 feet long on top between the rocky walls of the canyon. It is 75 feet wide at its base. It is of solid rock and cement, 1000 carloads of the latter material being used in its construction. Millions of gallons of water are impounded behind it and forced through a great tunnel that delivers it to an immense electric plant at the other side of the mountain, three miles distant. Work was begun on the dam early last summer, when the water in the river got low. A special freight train was employed on the Western Pacific between Marysville, Oroville and Intake for months, hauling sand, cement, crushed rock and other materials and supplies.

Corpse Left By Roadside.

Oakland.—Arthur A. Barber, an undertaker of Fruitvale and deputy coroner, suffered a broken arm; his employe, Taylor C. Drennan, was rendered unconscious, and a body they were bringing from San Francisco was pitched into the roadway when Barber's two horses took fright on the Oakland mole runway. The animals ran for several hundred yards, finally overturning the wagon and breaking their traces. Both the undertakers were rolled into the road and later taken to the receiving hospital in an automobile. The wagon being demolished, the body was left by the roadside in the temporary box until a new conveyance could be sent for it.

Upright in All Things.

Lexington, Ky.—When dying the Rev. E. O. Hanks, a prominent minister of Pulaski county, asked that he be buried in an upright position. He had been ill for six weeks of typhoid fever. His relatives attempted to persuade him to agree to the regular method of burial when it was realized that death was near. He insisted that his grave be dug after the fashion of a posthole and his request was complied with. He declared that on judgment day he desired to be standing upright, as he had "always stood for what was right and just."

Neck Broken and Hands Tied.

Antioch.—The body of an unidentified man about 48 years of age, the neck broken and the hands securely bound in front of the trunk, was found floating off Daisy Island, near Antioch. There were no papers or marks by which he could be identified. There is every evidence that the man was murdered and cast into the slough. He was evidently a laborer, wearing coarse clothing. The sum of $3.75 was found in his pocket and a watch which had stopped at 11:47 o'clock. The body had been in the water ten days.

Negro Corpse Mixes Messages.

Macon, Ga.—Telephone "trouble" men looking for wire trouble near Montesuma came upon the cause in an unexpected and gruesome form, when they found the body of a negro dangling from a pole and tangled up with the telephone wires. This was the negro lynched by a mob the morning before charged with the murder of Marshal Bush of Montesuma. The "trouble" was removed.

Lost in Woods in Storm.

Mendocino.—Mrs. A. Goomez, an elderly woman who arrived here recently from the south for a visit with friends, has been lost in the woods during a heavy storm for three days past. The aged woman is wandering helpless and alone in the thick timbers, and despite the efforts of searching parties, has not yet been recovered.

A Lesson in Gravitation.

Sullivan, Ind.—A bullet from the sky killed Ralph Lisman, eight years old, at Apexon, near here. His playmate, Lawrence Barcus, trying out a new rifle, shot into the air and both boys stared upward, hoping to see the bullet. Descending, it struck the Lisman boy in the right eye and he dropped dead.

Postmaster Fined $250.

Fresno.—Albert E. Gordon of Maricopa, Kern county, was fined the sum of $250 by Judge Olin Wellborn of the Federal Court for having failed to deposit Government funds while serving in the capacity of postmaster at Maricopa.

The Leaders of Ireland's Cause Say Home Rule is Near

London.—There is little doubt but that the whip hand is now held by Ireland in the Lords' crisis. Never has there been anything more striking than the situation today. The Irish party absolutely dominates the situation and John Redmond is described everywhere as the dictator from whom the Prime Minister, the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the House of Lords must take their orders.

"I am most confident that we shall win," said Redmond in a recent interview. "There has been a tremendous amount of talk in the English papers regarding the money collected in America. The trip was in every way gratifying, but the truth is that hardly a dollar of the large amount of money subscribed to the parliamentary fund came from capitalists.

"Nearly every penny was from the pockets of hardworking Irishmen of small means. God bless the Irish women, whose hearts are always directed to help the home people.

"I am sure the triumph of home rule is at hand."

T. P. Connor said: "I look upon the coming struggle with strong confidence. It was Ireland that produced this crisis and the fate of Ireland in the immediate future will depend on this struggle. I believe it most mean Ireland's early achievement of self-government.

"It is evident the Tories, especially the peers, are in a blue funk.

"It might have been hoped that men accustomed to breathe the air of democracy would not at the beginning of the twentieth century commit the criminal blunders of the nobles who ruined France in the eighteenth century. The English and Irish aristocrats are just as unteachable as the old French. The only way to reach them is to beat them.

"What the Tories fear is an immediate appeal to the people. They want delay for the purpose of mystification. We have got them at last and the more they squeal, the harder we should squeeze. Their doom has come; let us hasten it by every means in our power.

The terms offered to the Tories at the late conference were handsome, better than they will ever get again."

Red Cross Campaign Against "Great White Plague"

San Francisco.—The American National Red Cross, through its San Francisco chapter, of which Judge W. W. Morrow is chairman, will project this year the largest campaign for the sale of the Christmas seals yet undertaken. With San Francisco as headquarters, over 44 counties of this State will come under this city's jurisdiction in the sale of seals, these counties having been organized and put into working order already through their chambers of commerce, boards of trade and similar bodies.

The sale of seals has been authorized at Washington, D. C., to begin November 15th, and toward that end a Red Cross Seal Committee has been formed here, of which Mrs. John F. Merrill is chairman. One million seals have been received and measures have been taken to organize sub-committees to canvass all the various lines of business in the city.

The proceeds from the sale of seals will go toward the world-wide work of stamping out the disease of tuberculosis, this work for humanity having been adopted by the National Red Cross as its chief endeavor during times of peace.

Mrs. Merrill presided and Dr. R. G. Brodrick, executive secretary of the local association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis, explained the object of the sale and the lines to be followed in covering territory. Very hearty response was made and the campaign is under way.

The Jugglery of Prices of Meat Products a Riddle

Chicago.—The price of beef and pork is falling. Within the last week the price of beef has been reduced between 4 and 5 cents a pound by the meat packers. The price of pork has declined about 3 cents from the price of 18 and 20 cents a week ago, and wholesale meat dealers say that mutton, veal and other products of the packing houses will take a downward turn within the next few days.

San Francisco.—Although declines in prices are reported in the East and Middle West, the market quotations show that there is no change in the prices of meats and other foodstuffs in San Francisco.

Washington.—The so-called reduction in the price of meats is a deliberate manipulation of the market, according to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry, Department of Agriculture. "The interests which manipulated the prices upward," said Dr. Wiley, "temporarily have released their hold on our throats for the purpose of getting a fresh grip. The manipulation was deliberate, just as the increases in prices were unjust, unreasonable and uncalled for by conditions throughout the country. Developments will show that the interests are after someone, it may be some independent firm they hope to drive from cover."

California Metropolis Was Not Retarded by Calamity

Washington.—The census of San Francisco for 1910 places that city in the eleventh class. The report of the census bureau just issued gives the population 416,912, a gain in ten years of 74,130, or 21.6 per cent.

Oakland's population is 150,174. That city had 66,960 in 1900 and its increase is 83,214, or 124.3 per cent.

Berkeley, which had 13,214 in 1900, shows an increase of 27,220, or 206 per cent.

Alameda had 16,464 in 1900, and its increase is 6919.

Despite the setback of 1906, San Francisco makes a very encouraging showing. As the growth of Oakland and Berkeley is partly due to the enforced emigration from that city to the other side of the bay, which was caused by the big fire, San Francisco can share in the pride of those cities in the census records which they have made.

These four cities, with Richmond, 10,000, San Rafael, 6400, San Mateo, 5260, Colma, 4560, Sausalito, 3315, and other smaller towns about the bay, make a San Francisco metropolis of almost 700,000, which, if consolidated, as it is likely to be in no distant future, "The Miracle City" would rank fifth among the great urban settlements of America.

Proof Positive That We Are Entitled to Big Show

San Francisco.—By an almost unanimous vote the people of San Francisco voted upon themselves a bonded indebtedness of $5,000,000, as a bid for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, to be held in this city in 1915. A few weeks ago $7,500,000 was raised by public subscription in a few hours for the same purpose and by the same people. At the last election the people of the State asked to get in the boost by casting an overwhelming vote for increased taxation to the amount of $5,000,000, making a grand total of $17,500,000.

In marked contrast to this notable financial achievement is the condition in New Orleans revealed in the following dispatch from Chicago:

"In the failure of the city of New Orleans to dispose of $7,000,000 issue of 4 per cent bonds recently issued, enthusiastic boomers of the Panama-Pacific Exposition for San Francisco see an added reason why the exposition should go to the Golden Gate city. New Orleans, it is pointed out, is already burdened with a big floating debt. San Francisco, on the other hand, as well as California itself, is in splendid shape to meet the financial obligations that the fair will entail.

A SPORTIVE WHALE SCARES BASS INTO LAKE MERRITT

Many Anglers Have Secured Permits to Hook the Deep-Sea Denizens.

Oakland.—The discovery that Lake Merritt has suddenly become filled with sea bass has led a host of amateur fishermen to try their luck in its waters, and Secretary Henry Vogt, of the Park Commission, has been busy issuing permits. That the coming of the bass has resulted from the presence of a huge whale in the bay, is the belief of the local fishermen. The whale nosed his way through the Golden Gate a few days ago, forming a spectacle for ferryboat passengers as he gambolled in the waves, and then as suddenly disappeared. The great fish frightened the bass into the estuary, it is believed, and from there into Lake Merritt. Within three days 283 permits were issued for fishing expeditions on the lake. Several hundred bass have been taken from the lake since Henry Smith, of 1412 Echo avenue, the first to discover the school of fish, made his big catch. Lake Merritt has in the past been considered merely a pretty landscape asset, with special value for boating purposes. The coming of the whale has led to the discovery that it may become a fisherman's paradise.

Drain Reservoir to Get Body.

Jackson.—Because he selected the reservoir of the Argonaut Mining Company as a place to end his life, the mill and mine were forced to practically suspend operations for two days during the search for the body of O. Johnson. Incidentally the owners of the mine and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company clashed over the expense of emptying the reservoir, and it was only after the Pacific company had agreed to stand for the cost that the storage pond was emptied. Johnson committed suicide by jumping into the reservoir from a raft. During the search for the body the power ran low, and the machinery at the mine and mill could not be operated.

This Dream Came True.

San Francisco.—George Raymond dreamed the other night that he was soon to be lodged in a prison cell. Desirous of ascertaining the importance of this dream, he repaired to the home of Mrs. C. Harris, and asked for a dream book he placed in her possession for safekeeping six months ago. Mrs. Harris informed him she had lost the book. Ramond became so enraged at this and created such a disturbance that his dream came true, for in Judge Shortall's court, where he was charged with disturbing the peace, he was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail.

Very Bad Language.

Los Angeles.—The words "go to hell" are not profanity, according to a ruling made by Police Judge Rose in the case of Ernest Kimball, who was before the court on the charge of using that phrase in the presence and hearing of women and children. "Only when the name of the Almighty is used to curse is it, strictly speaking, profane language," said Judge Rose. He placed the term in the same category as "Gosh hang," "Gol darn," and other way-down-in-Missouri forms of expressing wrath.

Balancing Books for Last Accounting.

Washington.—Conscience stricken to the extent of one dime, a Fullerton City, Cal., man has written to the Postoffice Department. His letter follows: "Washington, D. C.—Dear Sirs: A few years ago I used a few stamps that had been used and had not been cancelled. Now I am trying to live right and wish to straighten up my back tracks. So will send ten cents to pay for them. Am sorry I did it."

Embezzled Postoffice Funds.

Fresno.—Fred McMullen, a local postoffice clerk, who was arrested about three months ago on a charge of having embezzled funds, was sentenced by Judge Olin Wellborn of the Federal Court to spend a total of twenty months in the United States prison at Leavenworth, Kas. McMullen entered a plea of guilty to the charge.

Dynamite in His Pocket.

Bassfield, Miss.—Marvin Hudson, a farmer living near here, put a stick of dynamite in his pocket with a view of taking it to employes in the field. Hudson stumbled and fell. That he was not blown to pieces when the dynamite exploded is considered marvelous. He has a slight chance to recover from his injuries.

Mining Town Burns.

Joplin, Mo.—Fire destroyed the entire business section of Duenweg, a mining town six miles east of here. Seventeen buildings were burned, doing a damage estimated at $75,000, before the flames were brought under control.

Washington.—The Supreme Court of the United States has adjourned for its Thanksgiving recess. It will reconvene November 28.

Huron, S. D.—An inch of snow covers the ground throughout the Jim River valley, the first of the season and 20 days later than last year.

San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua.—More than 75 persons were killed or wounded in a street battle between the Government troops and the Liberals at Leon a few days ago.

Washington.—Alphonse P. Sawyer cabled his resignation as auditor of Porto Rico to Secretary of War Dickinson, to become effective December 1. The resignation has been accepted.

London.—Scientists report the depths of the Pacific ocean are in a state of great upheaval. Heavy earth shocks have been recorded the last few days, apparently occurring in the regions north of New Zealand.

Chicago.—The settlement of the strike of the 40,000 garment workers does not appear in sight. The employers say they will not listen to any proposition for settlement of the strike on any basis except that of an open shop agreement.

St. Louis.—The St. Louis models of lover-like constancy have been found. They are Miss Victoria Fitzroy, 62 years old, and Oscar Severance, 68, who for 27 years have been engaged to wed, and who fulfilled their vows a few days ago before Justice Spies.

Baltimore.—At a meeting of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union here, Miss Elizabeth Greenwood of New York, superintendent of the evangelistic and almshouse departments, stated that 32,339 persons had been led to take the temperance pledge in the last year.

Hongkong.—Word has been received here that the missionaries connected with the American Presbyterian mission recently attacked by Chinese at Lienchow are safe. The mob that destroyed the girls' school, the church and the residence connected with the mission is said to have numbered thousands.

Pittsburg.—Andrew Carnegie has decided to resume the building of his great technical school at Pittsburg. The people of this city have been notified that he has contributed another $1,500,000 toward it, the money to be available at once. The contribution makes a total of $4,500,000 actually spent thus far by Mr. Carnegie in the erection and equipment of these buildings.

El Paso, Tex.—A fortune in contraband opium will be destroyed here soon. Exactly 323 cans, valued at $50 each, will be burned by order of the Federal Court. The aggregate value is $16,150. The opium was seized during the last few months in raids which resulted in sending six men to the penitentiary. The furnace of the city electric light plant will be used to burn the drug.

New York.—A woman in this city received an extremely dirty silver certificate. She promptly washed and ironed the bill. It came out of the process bright and clean and she took it to the bank. It looked so strange that the bank teller pronounced the note counterfeit and sent it to Washington for inspection. "The only thing the matter with that," smiled Chief Wilkie, "is that it is clean."

Cordova, Alaska.—Communication with the 83 survivors of the wrecked steamship Portland, who are stranded at Katalla, is still cut off. The last message received before the telephone line went down was an appeal for a revenue cutter, but before explanation of the urgency of the request could be made the line broke and the exact condition of the storm-bound refugees is unknown. It will be at least four days before relief can reach them.

Guthrie, Okla.—Oklahoma City lost in the State capital fight when the Supreme Court decided that the seat of the State government must remain in Guthrie. The court held that the election on the amendment to remove the capital to Oklahoma City was void, because of defects in the title of the ballot. Governor Haskell announced that he would call a special session of the Legislature to convene December 2 to authorize a referendum on the capital proposition.

REVELATION WAS TOO MUCH

Dark Secret of the Past Sundered Two Hearts That Might Have Beat as One.

"Is there anything in your past," she asked, "that you have not dared to tell me?"

"Please don't compel me to answer that question," he pleaded.

"Ah! I guessed it," she said, as she sadly turned away. "Oh, how could you deceive me so? And I thought you were so good, so noble."

"Don't say that you will not be mine, darling. I will not give you up. I could not live without you."

"No, no! It must not be. Ah, why did you not tell me before it was too late—before I had learned to care so much for you? It was cruel of you to keep me in ignorance of this terrible thing—whatever it may be. I can never forgive you—now."

"Sweetheart, don't say that! I will confess all—I will tell you everything."

"Yes, yes," she cried, turning to word him and then suddenly stepping back as he held out his arms to her; "but I must wait until I know the truth."

"Promise me that you will not let it part us forever."

"I cannot—I cannot. But I will try to overlook it, if it is not too terrible."

"Ah, my darling, I fear to begin. Why can't you take me for what I am and never mind what I was?"

"I must know the truth!"

"I was one of those young men who had spider phaetons and drove two horses tandem!"

With a wild cry of despair she flung herself on the davenport and buried her face in the soft pillows.

On the Potato.

"Among the many pranks of Mark Twain's journalistic days," said a Virginia City editor, "was the concoction of a speech that was put upon a famous senator."

"The senator had attended a Virginia City banquet, but had not spoken. He had a sore throat. A brother from a rival paper reached the banquet late."

"What did the senator speak about?" the newcomer whispered to Mark Twain.

"He made a very interesting speech on the potato," was the reply.

"The potato, eh? That's odd. Let's have the points, will you?"

"With pleasure," said Mark Twain, and he dictated a half column that the reporter duly printed the next morning as the distinguished senator's valuable contribution to agricultural science. The speech began like this:

"Ladies and gentlemen, had it been my lot to be born and reared in Ireland, where my food would have principally consisted of the potato—that most salubrious and nutritious root—I should now be, instead of the poor, infirm, stunted creature you see before you, a tall, stout, athletic man, able to carry an enormous weight."

A Perjured Pair.

Hire Sistem, the great furniture king, having made his pile, had settled down to the pursuit of a country gentleman. He invited his friend, Plane Figger, to make a stay with him.

One day, armed with the latest appliances for dealing out sudden death to anything in the game line, he and his friend trudged over the brown furrows; but at the end of three hours they were still looking for something to start a bag with.

Suddenly a hare got up. Bang! from Plane Figger, and over went the four-footed one.

"My hare!" shouted the ex-furniture king.

"My hare!" cried his friend.

They argued for ten minutes as to whose weapon had worked the mischief. Then the keeper was called up to adjudicate.

"You'd take your oath it's your 'are, would you?" he turned to Hire Sistem fiercely.

"If necessary, certainly."

"And you'd swear 'twas your 'are" truculently to Plane Figger.

"I would."

"Then, think yourself jolly lucky you're escapin' seven years' apiece for perjury, 'cos it 'appens ter be my dog!"—Spare Moments.

Charity and Business.

One of Sixth avenue's deaf, dumb, blind and legless beggars now presents a new appeal to the public. On the lapel of his coat is pinned a printed sign which says:

"In place of rain carry me into Tony Ferrari's place." Few or those who stop to read this know where Tony Ferrari's place is, but a few of the more curious take the trouble to find out. Tony, they learn, is an Americanized Italian who runs a boot-black stand on a side street.

"Did you give him permission to wear that sign?" some one asked.

"Sure," said Tony. "Why not? It ain't right to let the poor devil sit out there in a pelting rain and get soaked to the skin. Folks used to let him do that, but it ain't right. Nobody wants to give him shelter, but I don't mind. This is a good place for him. He can pick up a few extra nickels here, and, besides," added Tony, Shrewdly, "what's the matter with that sign as an advertisement for my own business!"—New York Sun.

Opulence.

"Does that calf belong to that cow?"

"Certainly."

"Gracious! With milk getting so expensive I don't see how she can afford to keep it."

Destroys Hair Germs

Recent discoveries have shown that falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair. Therefore, to stop falling hair, you must first completely destroy these germs. Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly do this. Then leave the rest to nature.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Recent discoveries have also proved that dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp. Therefore, to cure dandruff, the first thing to do is to completely destroy these dandruff germs. Here, the same Ayer's Hair Vigor will give the same splendid results.

WHO AM I?

(A Story for the Children.)

I came from Denmark. Santa Claus adopted me there from a big family of brothers and sisters, and said to me, "Every time you see a letter or a package going off to bring a Merry Christmas to somebody, you just call out to the sender, 'Let me go along. I'll make your gift more enjoyable; I'll bring more happiness than you can think of.' And then," said Santa Claus to me, "folks will stick you to their letters and parcels and send you all over the world." I was so glad when he told me that, but I was happier still, when a pretty lady with a bright red cross on her sleeve, just like the one on my face, said to a man who wanted me. "He costs only a penny, and every penny you give for him goes to cure and prevent that awful plague, consumption." The man listened intently and then he said, "I'll take ten dollars worth." Wasn't I glad? I was helping him to bring a Merry Christmas and I was helping the pretty lady to fight consumption. How happy I was to think that Santa Claus adopted me over in Denmark six years ago!

Must Advertise. Nothing is won without effort. If you wish to look trim and interesting, you must dress and act the part. Of course you can do it. You may have a head full of brains, but if you would succeed, you must advertise.

Charm in Beauty. Never lose an opportunity of seeing anything beautiful. Welcome in every fair face, every fair sky, every fair flower; it is a charmed draught, a cup of blessing.—Charles Kingsley.

The Difference. A fool is unable to see his own faults. A wise man, seeing his own faults, is able to keep other people from noticing them.

AUTO GOSSIP.

A ten-acre site was purchased on the Haggin grant, near Sacramento, for an automobile manufacturing concern soon to be established. The site is two miles from the center of the city. The company, which is headed by E. C. Collins, J. H. Graham, Chas. E. Gibbs and T. F. Cooke, promises to begin the manufacture of automobiles next May, and by that time $250,000 will be spent on buildings and machinery for the plant. The site is on the Western Pacific Railway, close to the site on which a $500,000 silica brick factory is being erected.

The Winton Motor Car Co.'s branch at 300 Van Ness avenue is the essence of great activity these days, as the new Winton cars for 1911 are arriving with great regularity. In the shipment which arrived Thursday were two toy tonneaus of the four-door type and one five passenger touring car. Dr. Benepe, of San Jose, received one of the toy tonneaus, which was finished in the popular golden brown, Mr. R. M. Van Dorn receiving the blue and cream toy tonneau, and Mr. C. G. Lathrop, of Palo Alto, getting the five passenger touring car.

Arthur Mohrig, of the Weinstock-Nichols Company, returned last week from an extended trip through the San Joaquin Valley, on which all supply houses as far south as Bakersfield were visited. He reports the supply business throughout that section unusually good, considering the season. The promises for 1911 are exceptionally good. A small rain recently indicated the coming winter, and consequently dealers are making large advance orders for Morgan & Wright Nobby Tread tires.

A. J. Smith, manager of the local agency for Elmore cars, will leave Friday morning for a trip through Modesto, Merced, Coalinga and over the mountains to San Luis Obispo, returning Monday. This is a very hard and severe test to a machine, for the roads to be traveled are about as bad as can be found. The local autoist has great faith in his machine and feels confident of returning on schedule time.

This fall season has brought numerous men high up in the Eastern automobile manufacturing circles to this coast and all have agreed in declaring the possibilities of this section practically unlimited so far as the motor car trade is concerned. The time spent in California by those same men and the thorough manner in which they investigated conditions here demonstrated with unmistakable emphasis the regard in which this territory is held by the big concerns in the automobile industry.

Among the more prominent automobile factory men, scheduled to visit San Francisco soon, is F. C. Chandler, vice-president and general manager of the Lozier Co. Chandler has made an enviable record in motor car circles and is particularly well known through his success in building up the big trade now enjoyed by the Lozier car throughout this country. Advances received by the Pioneer Automobile Co. state that Chandler, who is now in the middle west, should reach San Francisco by the first of November.

The first of the 1911 Chalmers 40s were received last week by the Pioneer Automobile Company and have attracted much attention in this city and across the bay. They embody all those refinements of detail noticed in the Chalmers 30s when they made their first appearance here a few weeks ago, and cover all the latest developments in motor car and finish.

A thorough tryout given these cars over the hardest roads in the bay sections has proved them to possess at least 25 per cent more power than the Chalmers "40s" of last season. Speaking of them M. S. Harris of the Pioneer Company's sales force said: "I have given these cars much attention since their arrival here, having tested them on grades known as the hardest in this locality, and I must say that their abundance of power exceeded my expectations. The engine is the quietest that I have ever had the pleasure to handle, and all vibration seems to have been absolutely eliminated."

That preparations are being made for winter autoing is indicated by the number of limousines and coupes that are being delivered to local motorists. Prominent among these are the Hupmobile coupes, which have found an unusual demand since their recent arrival on the San Francisco market. Complete disposition of the first shipments of this small inside drive machine has been made and S. G. Chapman is now unloading some new arrivals of the same type which came in with a carload of Hupmobiles from the factory yesterday.

You clean the barrel from the breech—not forcing the dirt back into the working parts as in other .22's, insuring life-time usefulness and maintaining constant shooting condition.

There is perhaps a greater difference between the REMINGTON and other .22 Repeaters than is to be found between rifles of any other class.

California at the Chicago Land Show.

At the United States Land and Irrigation Exposition in Chicago, November 19th to December 4th, the Southern Pacific Company and related lines will maintain a very extensive exhibit of products from the Pacific coast. California will receive a very large part of the benefit of this publicity. The railroads have secured 4800 feet of floor space which, with the installation and care of their exhibit, will cost about $20,000. A large assortment of citrus fruits, processed and dried fruits, nuts, vegetables, grain and alfalfa will be on display and hundreds of thousands of pieces of literature will be given away to inquirers.

Such flowers as the Hydrangea, Calla Lily, Poinsettia and the brilliant and red flowering Eucalyptus will be used in quantities for decorative purposes and a small orange trees will be used to lend a California atmosphere to the whole display.

The wall space back of the booths, which are 70 feet in length, will be hung with fine enlargements of California industrial and scenic views.

One of the principal features will be a series of lectures on the agricultural resources and scenic features of the State. These will be of twenty minutes duration and will be profusely illustrated with colored slides and motion pictures. The Southern Pacific will have its regular lecturers, Mr. J. W. Erwin and Mr. W. B. Leffingwell, and in addition lectures will be delivered by Mr. L. E. Rankin of the California Development Board, Mr. A. E. Miot of the Tulare County Board of Trade and others. The lectures will be continued throughout each day and from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Marriage Causes Merriment. There was a novel episode at a marriage at Calais (writes a correspondent), the bridegroom arriving in a gayly decorated coster's barrow drawn by his best man, with his "second" pushing behind and a dog harnessed beneath. After the wedding the bride and bridegroom drove through the boulevards in this vehicle, the event creating a great deal of merriment.—London Daily Graphic.

Demand for Granite. Although Aberdeen is the home of Scotch granite, a shipment of 350 tons recently was exported to that city from South Carolina quarries to meet a demand for a variation in color from the native stone.

The Boy Scouts of America

What a Boy Must Do to Belong and the Nine Points of the Scout Law Which He Must Practice after Becoming a Scout

The Boy Scout movement started in England under the direction of General Sir Robert S. S. Baden-Powell. It was successfully launched from the platform of the Young Men's Christian Association at Birkenhead, England, about two and one-half years ago, and was the result of much thought on the part of the hero of the Boer War. Several things had been borne in upon General Baden-Powell with great force, the first being that the ordinary classes of industrial Englishmen were failing to "make good" in the colonies because of lack of industrial training and the ability to do things manually; the other being the fact that forty-six per cent of all the boys of England were growing up without any knowledge of useful occupations. With these two facts staring him in the face, and being tremendously interested in the development of boyhood, he decided to start a movement for the training of useful citizens. In starting the Boy Scout idea, General Baden-Powell emphatically stated that his intention was not the making of soldiers, but of citizens. In planning for the work he drew largely from all sources, and there has hardly been a book written on boyhood that has not been forced to contribute something to the movement. In his attempt to develop boyhood along the Scout idea General Baden-Powell has touched a large number of activities suitable to boyhood. Among these activities there is very little of the military, but much that is fundamentally and primarily educational. Everything that can enter into the development of boyhood and the building of character is good Scoutcraft, and the aim of the Scouts is to become proficient in the use of hand and eye, besides being loyal and patriotic, and obedient to employer, parents, country and God.

In England the movement has stretched to over 400,000 boys, and 20,000 of these have been in parade at one time in London.

Headquarters for the movement have been opened at 124 E. 28th St., New York City, and many prominent business and leading educators have gotten behind the movement.

The progressive and educational value of the Boy Scouts may be readily understood by a little thought of the scope of the badges of merit, which are achieved by passing certain definite tests in the various subjects. Thus, to gain the ambulance badge, he must be able to know the firemen's lift, how to drag an insensible man with ropes, how to improvise a stretcher, how to fling a life-line, the position of the main arteries, how to stop bleeding from vein, artery, whether internal or external, how to improvise splints and to bind a fractured limb. He must also know the Schaefer (latest) method of artificial respiration, how to deal with choking, burning, poison, grit in the eye, sprains and bruises, and the general laws of health, including the danger of smoking, incontinence, lack of ventilation and cleanliness. Besides the other thirty-four badges of merit and the other requirements, a boy must pass through three stages, or degrees, before he can become a First-class Scout, and so be able to pass his tests for the merit badges. To become a Tenderfoot he must pass a test in the following points before taking the oath:

What a Boy Must Do to Belong

1. Know the Scout's laws and signs and salute.
2. Know the composition of the national flag and the right way to fly it.
3. The four out of the following knots: Reef, sheet bend, clove hitch, bowline, middleman's, fisherman's, sheepshank.
4. He then takes the Scout's oath, and is enrolled as a Tenderfoot, and is entitled to wear the buttonhole badge.
5. Before being awarded the Second-class Scout's badge a Tenderfoot must pass the following tests:
 1. Have at least one month's service as a Tenderfoot.
 2. Elementary first aid and bandaging.
 3. Signaling, elementary knowledge of semaphore or Morse alphabet.
 4. Track half a mile in twenty-five minutes; or, if in a town, describe satisfactorily the contents of one shop window out of four, observed for one minute each.
 5. Go a mile in twelve minutes at "Scout's pace."
 6. Lay and light a fire, using not more than two matches.
 7. Cook a quarter of a pound of meat and two potatoes without cooking utensils other than the regulation billy.
 8. Have at least twenty-five cents in a savings bank.
 9. Know the sixteen principal points of the compass.

Before being awarded a First-class

Scout's badge a Scout must pass the following tests, in addition to the laid tests down for Second-class Scouts:

1. Swim fifty yards. (This may be omitted where the doctor certifies that bathing is dangerous to the boy's health, in which case he must run a mile in eight minutes, or perform some equivalent selected by the Scoutmaster.)
2. Must have fifty cents at least in the savings bank.
3. Signaling. Send and receive a message either in semaphore or Morse, sixteen letters per minute.
4. Go on foot, or row a boat, alone to a point seven miles away and return again; or if conveyed by any vehicle or animal, go to a distance of fifteen miles and back, and write a short report on it. It is preferable that he should take two days over it.
5. Describe or show the proper means for saving life in case of two of the following accidents (allotted by the examiners): Fire, drowning, runaway carriage, sewer gas, ice-breaking, or bandage an injured patient, or revive apparently drowned person.
6. Cook satisfactorily two out of the following dishes, as may be directed: Porridge, bacon, hunter's stew, or skin and cook a rabbit, or pluck and cook a bird. Also make a "damper" of half a pound of flour, or a "twist" baked on a thick stick.
7. Read a map correctly, and draw an intelligible rough sketch map. Point out a compass direction without the help of a compass.
8. Use an axe for felling or trimming light timber, or as alternative, produce an article of carpentry or joinery or metal work made by himself satisfactorily.
9. Judge distance, size, numbers, and height within twenty-five percent error.
10. Bring a Tenderfoot trained by himself in the points required for a Tenderfoot.

After He Becomes a Scout

The guide of the Boy Scout is laid down in the nine points of the Scout Law, which are as follows:

1. A Scout's honor is to be trusted. If a Scout were to break his honor by telling a lie, or by not carrying out an order exactly when trusted on his honor to do so, he may be directed to hand over his Scout badge, and never to wear it again. He may also be directed to cease to be a Scout.
2. A Scout is loyal to his country, his officers, his parents, and his employers. He must stick to them through thick and thin against any one who is their enemy or who even talks badly of them.
3. A Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others. He must be prepared at any time to save life or to help injured persons. And he must try his best to do a good turn to somebody every day.
4. A Scout is a friend to all, and a brother to every other scout, no matter to what social class the other belongs.
5. A Scout must never be a snob. A snob is one who looks down upon another because he is poorer, or who is poor and resents another because he is rich. A Scout accepts the other man as he finds him, and makes the best of him.
6. A Scout is courteous. That is, he is polite to all, but especially to women and children, and old people and invalids, cripples, etc. And he must not take any reward for being helpful or courteous.
7. A Scout is a friend to animals. He should save them as far as possible from pain, and should not kill any animal unnecessarily. Killing an animal for food is allowable.
8. A Scout obeys orders of his parents, patrol leader, or Scoutmaster without question. Even if he gets an order he does not like he must do as soldiers and sailors do, he must carry it out all the same because it is his duty; and after he has done it he can come and state any reasons against it; but he must carry out the order at once. That is discipline.
9. A Scout smiles and whistles under all circumstances. When he gets an order he should obey it cheerily and readily, not in a slow, hang-dog sort of way. Scouts never grumble at hardships, nor whine at each other, nor swear when put into the punishment for swearing or using bad language is for each offense a mug of cold water to be poured down the offender's sleeve by the other Scouts. It was the punishment invented by the old scout, Captain John Smith, three hundred years ago.
10. A Scout is thrifty; that is, he saves every penny he can and puts it in the bank, so that he may have money to keep himself when out of work, and thus not make himself a burden to others; or that he may have money to give away to others when they need it.

This law of the Scouts is a modern interpretation of the old word of knightly chivalry which is interpreted so beautifully in the Idylls of the King and the boys' orders of the Knights of King Arthur and the Knights of the Holy Grail, only instead of dealing with a language of a by-gone age, the law is couched in modern, up-to-date phraseology.

Program at Methodist Sunday School

Next Sunday morning at the Methodist Sunday school there will be a story of the early pioneer days of Missouri, illustrated, and should any of the forefathers that crossed the plains and Rocky mountains be there it will certainly cause their memories to wander back to the good old days of the cabin and the wild turkey. There will also be special music and some new features introduced that will please the young as well as the pioneers. Let the parents get up just a little earlier next Sunday morning and bring the baby and all the rest and hear this service. Following is the program:
Opening with song service.
Introduction of the new "Motto".
Invocation.
The Birthday Tramp, Laura Laine.
Special music by Miss Bernice Uiter.
Duet by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wilson.
The Pioneer Illustration.
Class Assembly by Music.
The Crayon Review.
Closing Exercise.

Primary Class Entertainment

The primary department of the Congregational Church Sunday School gave a Thanksgiving entertainment last Friday night. There was a pumpkin drill, a corn drill by the boys, and songs and marches. At the close there were several pretty tableaux in which the stereopticon was used. The department work is directed by Mrs. Geo. Parso, assisted by Ada Collins.

just the thing that is needed for a through-the-week work for pupils and teacher. It operates between the ages of twelve and eighteen, and supplies every impulse and activity of an all-round life, while it leaves to the direct influence of the Sunday-school the formation of the boy's religious life. The Sunday-school class is the normal size of a patrol of Scouts, which consists of seven or more boys, in England seven being the maximum number. Each patrol of seven boys may be manned by an older boy as a patrol leader, while the troop, which consists of three or more patrols, will be led and supervised by a Scoutmaster who is an adult.
