Dedication . . .

Behind the scenes of our daily lives are vitally essential people who are often overlooked. It is to such persons that the 1958 PINE NEEDLES is dedicated. In appreciation for the consolations and the reprimands — for the ever present unobserved guidance — the care and the interest — the willingness to give and the determination to instill in us a feeling of responsibility — for the essential they play in our lives at Woman's College, we acknowledge our House Counselors.

In Memoriam . . .

In grateful appreciation for those lasting qualities she unconsciously imparted to all who knew her, we honor the memory of Nancy Lee Kiser, Class of 1958. Observing her quiet actions and words, we were ever influenced and inspired by Nancy's wholehearted love for our college . . . her loyal service through class activities as Jacket Chairman and as a vital member of many other committees . . . her leadership in the dorm, showing a profound understanding and interest in each individual . . . Nancy's unassuming devotion and leadership in the "Y," Interfaith Activities, Baptist Student Union and in her reorganization of the Chapel Committee . . . her numerous activities and friendships, to each of which she gave a real part of herself.

Perhaps above all else, Nancy's many friends were influenced by her honesty, sincerity and depth of character. A living memory exists of her fresh insights, her ever-present curiosity and honestly-asked "Why?" her desire to find the answers combined with the courage to seek them, Nancy's strength in defending and fighting for those things she believed to be right, and her faith and trust in those things eternal.

For these reasons, and for many, many more which words are powerless to express fully, we will always be grateful for the rich opportunities we shared in knowing, respecting and loving Nancy Lee Kiser.

*Quotations for "What Is Woman's College" by Anna Buff Praygo

What Is Woman's College?

The hall I live in
A plot of earth, a street,

Dean Taylor,
Chancellor Blackwell
And the people that I meet;

The students crossing campus,
The faces that I see;

All races, all religions . . .
That's Woman's College to me.

The place I study,
The classmate by my side,

The classroom or the ballroom
Where my friends have laughed and cried

The "howdy" and the handshake,
The air of feeling free;

The right to speak my mind out . . .
That's Woman's College to me.

The things I see about me,
The big things and the small . . .

The "Yum-Yum" on the corner
And our spacious Elliott Hall;

The gym class and exam time,
Phones ringing in your ears;

The dream that's been a-growing
For sixty-four long years.

The rush to breakfast,
The eight-ten bell too soon;

The street lights in a rainstorm,
Or the Soda Shop at noon,

The mobiles and the abstracts,
The million tasks I see,

But especially the people . . .
That's Woman's College to me.

The room I live in,
The folks across the track

The people who just came here
And for generations back;

The men who bring the laundry
The others that I see,

The men who built this college . . .
That's Woman's College to me.

A maze of one way streets,
A faculty-student tea;

The TV tower,
The statue of Charles D.,

A week-end midnight curfew . . .
That's what Woman's College means.

Peabody Park in springtime,
An empty Coke machine;

The words of Charles McIver
Of Elliott and of Show;

Miss Grogan in house meeting
Speaks of Democratic Law;

The choir sings in Aycack,
There's a holiday at hand;

We evacuate the campus
In one exultant band.

Raincoats on Tuesday,
Bermudas on back streets;

With this school of health and beauty
No others can compete,

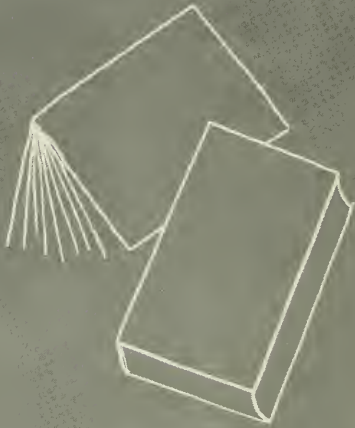

Our source of education
A school of fancy free,

And a promise for tomorrow . . .
That's Woman's College to me.

A.M.

Nothing's like a cold shower
to wake the sleepy.

Time to rise and shine

As the sun rises, the campus begins to wake up.

Too early in the morning to match colors.

Must still be dreaming!

A quick brush before and after breakfast.

Oh! Which ones are mine?

A good breakfast with coffee helps the weary.

A nice time to catch up on the latest news.

No activity in the post office yet.

A quick smoke before class.

Say goodbye to the roommate and rush off to class.

So, another day of classes begins.

For the late sleepers it's breakfast in the soda shop.

There's work to be done in the dorm like the weekly wash—

The weekly cleaning—

Or the monthly correspondence.

Mail is a nice way to start the day.

On Sunday morning we worship at the church of our choice.

He finally asked me for a date!

Saturday morning and home for the week-end.

The Administration

At the top of the Woman's College is a many faceted clockwork — the watchmakers who synchronize the timing and keep a constant vigil for possible repairs. But to us our Administration has become more than a smoothly functioning machine, more than offices and organization. It is the persons and friends who have helped us grow and who have actively been a part of our experiences in ways that we often took for granted.

Chancellor Blackwell, we came to know, was a freshman too, but we graduated him with honors. Dean Taylor we saw often in the library and occasionally heard speak to us in house meetings. Dean Mossman attended the engineering of our schedules and classes, the processes of our learning.

We took our frustrations to the class chairman, first in tears about the present and last in bewilderment about the future ahead of us. We took our sneezes and flu to the infirmary, to Dr. Collings and Dr. Curtis, and they patched us up with thermometers and orange juice. Miss Hawkins helped with our finances — that we might make the ends of our budgets meet. And Mr. Adams kept the library doors constantly open, reminding that it is in the library that education really begins.

From the auditors and dietitians down through the last typist and secretary, the Administration maintained academic and physical standards with diplomacy and tact, a watch that never ran down.

Your President

William Friday

President William Friday — the young man in Chapel Hill whose influence and leadership we felt here in Greensboro, binding us of the Woman's College as an integral part of the Consolidated University. He was graduated from the Textile School of State College and the Law School of Chapel Hill. He is a president combining integrity and understanding and active striving toward cooperation and coordination.

Your Governor

For his wisdom and guidance the students of Woman's College with thanks acknowledge Governor Luther H. Hodges. For three years he has been a great force in furthering educational advantages and is improving our college. He firmly believes that the character of our nation is shaped by the quality of education and he has worked throughout his career to form an educational system which will train students in leadership as well as intellectual proficiency. His strength, interest, and energetic leadership has been invaluable to our college.

LUTHER H. HODGES,
Governor of North Carolina

Board of Trustees

Executive Committee Board of Trustees of U.N.C.

FRONT ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT: Frank Taylor, Wade Barber, Mrs. Virginia Lathrap, Mrs. Rosa Parker.
SECOND ROW: John Umstead, Reid Moynard, Rudolph Mintz, John Clark, Watts Hill, Sr., Arch T. Allen.
Absent when taken, Governor Hodges.

Your Chancellor

We welcomed to our campus this year, Gordan W. Blackwell, who became our Chancellor July 1, 1957. Dr. Blackwell is a graduate of Furman University and received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard. He has been with the University of North Carolina since 1941 as Kenan Professor of Sociology and Director of the Institute of Research in Social Sciences. We are proud of our new Chancellor. His warm smile and friendly hello warms all of our hearts and his capable leadership and patient understanding have already become an inspirational guidance to us.

Katherine Taylor

Dean of Students

Katherine Taylor, Dean of Students, is the respected coordinator between the student body and administration on Woman's College campus. Once a member of the faculty, she has great insight into the problems of the individual student as well as the entire campus. With explicit knowledge of college affairs and interest in all activities she is a capable leader whose guidance is indispensable. With her friendly smile and understanding nature she has become a vital part in the effective management of the campus.

Mereb Mossman

Dean of Instruction

The mechanics behind the teaching and learning — the time tables of classes — these are the responsibilities of Mereb Mossman, Dean of Instruction. A native of Kansas, she was educated at Morningside College in Iowa and at the University of Chicago. To her work as one of the campus administration she contributes extensive experience in the field of sociology plus personal wisdom and understanding.

The Student Body

Seniors

Unsigned permission slips — placement office — coordinating — Senior prom — practice teaching — class day — commencement — Senior University Sermon — plans for future.

Juniors

Majors at last — those precious black stoned rings — snappy red jackets — Big Sisters — the unforgettable Junior Show — and the dreamy Junior-Senior.

Sophomores

Class jackets — no lights out — realization of being an upperclassman — Black Cats (Watch out you Freshmen rats) — Sophomore dance.

Freshmen

Rat day — ordering jackets — first class meeting — that long registration line — orientation — ID cards — first week-end home — work, work, work — letters from home.

Commercials

White jackets — third finger, left hand — adding machines — accounting lab — upperclassman privileges — graduation.

Ready . . . willing . . . and able.

Serenity and capability are the two most deeply felt factors demonstrated by the leadership of the class of '58. Their presence on the Woman's College campus during the past four years has been one directed toward ably planned improvement — improvement of self and of the student body and the campus as a whole.

They have seen the foundations of a new McIver building rise — they have witnessed a growing student interest in plans for a campus chapel — and they can enjoy the part they have played in realizing these dreams.

The class of '58 has through the combination of individual and group effort, grown from many factional segments into a versatile, coordinated class — one of which W. C. can well be proud.

It took a lot of doing to do "nuthin'" but the Juniors did it well! This year's Junior Show was a first in many ways. It was a completely original musical comedy and had its own Junior orchestra — a fitting highlight for a year of fun and responsibility.

Finding themselves in the major field of interest at last, the Juniors managed to take time out from things academic and to cooperate in things extra-curricular. The newly acquired black rings — symbols of school spirit — were added to the red coats — symbols of class spirit.

This year the members of the class of '59 had the opportunity to demonstrate their abilities in places of leadership and to share with their sister class some of their experiences and enthusiasm. They met all their challenges with an eagerness that makes us look forward to next year — their year.

Pam, Anna and their little friends are ready to hit the sack.

Guess which one isn't an education major?

Mail isn't anything — only everything.

When the charcoal jackets were delivered that October day, the Sophomore class had finally arrived as upperclassmen. They celebrated with a Jacket Dinner, paraded through all the dining halls, and serenaded the Chancellor and his family.

One of the outstanding projects of the year was Penny Day in which the sister classes competed to raise money for the underprivileged children. As the year progressed, they accepted more responsibilities and grew closer to Woman's College.

Hey, dig that dirty snowman!

How's this for sipping soda through a straw?

Freshmen . . . with leisure time?

The class of '61 has quickly taken its place in Woman's College pattern and established itself as a group with individualism and a strong determination to work together. A combination of talents and ambitions with an interest in people and an effort to develop scholastically have helped to bring the many personalities together into a strong working body.

The future blue-coats are welcome — and have demonstrated a promise of leadership with which they will maintain the high standards of life in all facets of Woman's College Life.

Mildred, get your mind on the books.

Will I ever learn to add?

Active participation in all phases of campus life from representation in legislature to enjoyment of quadrangle sings has contributed toward making the Commercial class a well integrated part of the Woman's College campus.

Their ability to balance freshman regulations with upper-classman advantages, their desire to help out on any project, their interest in student government — these traits and many more have made the Commercials a respected and appreciated segment of Woman's College.

Though only here for one year the Commercials have done much toward strengthening that spirit of independence of mind combined with group cooperation which in reality makes Woman's College "one great unbroken band."

P.M.

After lunch is usually lab time.

Quiet afternoon study in the dorm.

Tap dancing later in the afternoon adds grace and charm.

Ready cash is a necessity for any afternoon.

Late afternoon gym classes. There's nothing like them!

Those lovely hours from 2 until 5
spent with microscope and frogs.

Practice makes perfect.

The ideal atmosphere for quiet study.

A new and interesting type of study.

The latest steps being learned by a group of afternoon loafers.

Please, Santa, don't forget!

This movie should be a nice place to kill the afternoon.

A gala afternoon party for the professors' children.

The downtown stores provide an excellent way to dream away the afternoon.

Sure would like to have this for the next formal.

Afternoon shopping for school supplies in the college bookstore.

Finishing up that new dress.

My, what a restful afternoon.

Saturday afternoon game at U.N.C. sounds exciting.

Knitting lessons always take the whole afternoon.

A quick snack at the soda shop.

An enjoyable afternoon spent at the opening of our new golf course.

Cooking supper in the dorm is fun when you have someone to help.

Then there's Saturday afternoon and the big game on TV.

Town

A college education plus all the comforts of home characterize the life of a Town Student. While continuing to enjoy home-cooked meals and freedom from signing in and out, a Town Student at the Woman's College realizes her goals for an education.

New members were welcomed this year into the Town Students' Organization by a get-acquainted Coke party held in the Town Students' comfortable lounge, thus beginning a social year which included a weiner roast and a song fest.

Here we find a budding quartet of Town Students.

JO ELLEN O'BRIANT, Elliott Hall Representative;
NANCY CARRIER, Social Chairman.

CATHERINE SEELMAN and LOUISE MATTHEWS,

Students

Other new plans for the organization this year included the making of a scrapbook and the writing of a special Town Students' song.

The Town Students are active in every phase of campus life. Their willing participation in campus activities is adequate evidence that they are proud of being a part of the Woman's College.

It must be a good hand — judging from her grin.

Girls making like mankies?

Will it be a strike?

The Recreation Association offers every girl at W.C. a chance to participate in a great variety of sports all through her years at school. With its many clubs and activities, R.A. gives the student a wide selection from which she may choose — swimming, hallball, volleyball, hockey, bowling, billiards, golf, tennis, and a multitude of others. Its clubs include the Dolphin-Seal, Modern Dance, Coaching and Officiating and several more which widen the opportunity of every girl to take part in any sport she may choose. The same opportunities are open to all so join the crowd. The R.A. crowd that is, and learn to be a sport or to join in one.

And will it make the basket or won't it?

ELEANOR CALLOWAY
President of Service League

Service League

The two-fold purpose of Service League includes serving the campus and aiding less fortunate groups outside of our own college.

The annual Purse Drive is the Service League's greatest contribution toward the well-being of others. The proceeds are apportioned to the various charity organizations soliciting financial aid. Other drives sponsored by the Service League are a clean-up campaign for the Soda Shop, the Book Exchange, the Blood-mobile and the Clothing Drive.

Service League is composed of a chairman appointed by the president of S.G.A., an advisory group elected by the chairman, an elected representative from each dorm, a town student and three faculty advisors.

GENELDA KEPLY
President of Interfaith Council

Interfaith Council

The Interfaith Council is more than a co-ordinator of the various religious creeds existent in our college community; it is the manifestation of the importance of religion in the life of each individual student.

The Council enthusiastically began its 1957-1958 session with a workshop at which plans including the annual Interfaith Forum, a monthly Bible study series, and improved programs for the denominational groups were made. The Council is composed of the president and one representative from each of the eleven organized religious groups, the Young Woman's Christian Association, the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, and the Dormitory Devotions chairmen. Assisted by its advisor, Mrs. Robert Morris, the Council effectively fulfilled its various plans for the year. Aided by the denominational groups, it constantly strives to promote an atmosphere of spiritual growth on our campus.

RABBI BALFOUR BRINKER
Member of Forum Panel

With the dual themes, "The Nature of Man" and "The Nature of God" and the purpose of better understanding the three faiths, representative speakers spoke on "What Is Man?" "What Is Man's Relationship to God?" and "What Has Man to Live For?"

The Forum, which was the cooperative effort of all the religious organizations, included seminars with the individual speakers, a group dinner, and panel and dorm discussions. Students met with the speakers and local ministers in informal sessions to widen their understanding of the Jewish, Catholic, and Protestant faiths.

SYLVIA McCOMMONS
President

Young Women's Christian Association

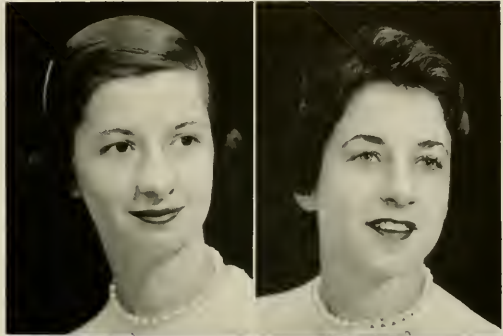

The Young Woman's Christian Association offers to every girl regardless of race, creed, or color, the same opportunity in spiritual development and social relations. Through its monthly programs it brings enrichment and better understanding into the lives of every girl. It gives her a binding spiritual tie with others as they gain increasing knowledge of God together. Under the leadership of capable and interested people, she is helped to come to a better and more satisfying understanding of her fellowman. She learns tolerance of others from the principles she sees practiced every day, and when she leaves, she takes with her an invaluable outlook on her life and its goals. The Y.W.C.A. is an institution worthy of the respect of every woman, not only on this campus, but all over the world.

WUNC TV

ALTON J. WARD, JR.
Production Manager

The familiar TV tower on the Woman's College campus is a landmark throughout the city, but particularly it is well known to the college student who views the massive steel girders on frequent walks to the corner or from any point on campus. For under its towering structure is located the WC television station which joins stations in Chapel Hill and Raleigh in telecasting programs for the surrounding areas.

The WUNC-TV station televises science and math programs through the Ford Educational Series for eighth and ninth grade junior high school students. Other programs include the new thirty minute series "Potpourri," televised on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays featuring Miss "Weather Report" in production.

Ramona Curtis. A Mental Hygiene and Darkroom series, and a "Do You Know" program are also telecasted by the WC station.

The station is headed by Bill Young who has a full time staff of five and also some students from WC.

WUNC-TV has also sponsored remote programs of campus activities of general interest to outsiders. Such on the spot telecasts include the Founder's Day program, the official inauguration of Chancellor Gordon Blackwell, and the Greensboro Symphony.

The four-year-old station has grown in popularity over such a short time until it is now an integral part of the state television network.

Harriet Elliott Social Science Forum

SOCIAL SCIENCE FORUM SPEAKERS
Dr. Bertram Wolfe, Mrs. Vera Dean, Dr. Frederick Schuman.

The Harriet Elliott Social Science Forum has been held every year since 1946 in honor of the late Harriet Elliott, a great promoter of the Social Science Field.

This year saw the convention of the 11th Forum which was on the subject "Powers in Profile: Russia and the United States." The speakers were Dr. Bertram Wolfe, Mrs. Vera Dean, and Dr. Frederick Schuman. Much to the liking of the students they gave spirited talks on their opinions on the subject. These speeches were followed by lively discussions giving the students a chance to air their views or ask questions. Thus proceeded the 11th Social Science Forum on W.C.'s campus. May we see many more of the same in the years to come.

NITE

Back to the dorm! A welcome sight after a long hard day.

The girls entertain their dates of open house.

It's nite practice for the band.

Just can't resist those nite time shows.

Nothing like a midnight snack to boost the morale.

Club meetings add to school fun.

Taking Coke bottles and laundry down can even be fun.

Bridge! What a way to study.

Hostess Duty! A nite time task and each student must take her turn.

Paster making is a nightly task for practice teachers.

Always sign out!

Can't seem to avoid the books.

A nice way to spend an evening.

A night to remember for always.

Informal atmosphere in Elliott Hall for girls and dates.

This is the box! — But it's usually empty.

A sandwich and coffee after the movie makes the evening complete.

Then back to the dorm.

Some folks just like to linger.

Whew! What a dooy!

And so to sleep again.

Now to roll the hair.

Student Government

KATHERINE WHITE
President

The Student Government Association is the link between faculty and administration and the student body. It is through the Student Government that student opinion and cooperation are combined to promote common welfare and to create for the students a better way of life. The S.G.A. is based on Democratic ideals and equal opportunities for all students. Through the activities of the S.G.A. the student realizes her responsibility to educate herself and develop high standards of leadership that will strengthen her faith in democracy.

Judicial Board

MEETTA CARLTON
Judicial Board Chairman

Judicial Board works through Honor Board and Dormitory Hall Board in explaining and implementing the honor policy in a way that is both beneficial and educational to the campus as a whole as well as to each individual student.

The Student Government Association provides for the separate functioning of the legislative and executive and judicial branches. The Judicial branches are headed by the Judicial Chairman who is elected by the student body. The board is composed of the chairman and eight associate members, five of whom are seniors. Two juniors and one sophomore are also on the Board. The Secretary of the Student Government Association acts as secretary of Judicial Board.

Judicial Board strives to function in an understanding and constructive manner, that will create in the Woman's College student an understanding and an awareness of the significance of responsible freedom and democracy on our campus.

Honor Board

The function of the honor board is to perpetuate the honor policy, introducing it to the new students and reacquainting old students with its ideals.

National Student Association

The local division of N.S.A. meets with regional and national groups to share ideas that will improve educational opportunities, international affairs, student government, and student welfare on our own campus and other member campuses.

The Carolinian

The "Cary" — on any Thursday morning. Tucked away in a nest amid the uppermost branches of Elliott Hall — a chaotic room — filled with the smells of newsprint, typewriter ribbon, and yesterday's cigarettes; strewn with old ballot sheets, exchange papers, discarded copy; dimes under the glass tops of the desks, hurried notes on the blackboard, coffee cups on the filing cabinet — a room — the reminder of a thriving little factory.

Betty Sue — quietly reminding, "C head, 30-30!"; licking mustard from her finger as she rechecks page four. Rainey — a cigarette invariably in her hand, scurrying from office to office in search of the misplaced "Foofnink." Dot — phoning for more features, soundlessly laughing at the mass confusion going on around her — reminders of a deadline to meet.

The wheels begin to turn on any Thursday night — bustling people with seemingly no destination in mind; the constant peck-pecking of typewriters; the frantic search for a story lost, then found; a trip to the Soda Shop for enough food to feed the Cary's "army"; the telephone calls made all over campus for a news item to fill the hole on page three; the general mass of confusion that somehow always seem to settle down by deadline time — the reminder of another weekly CAROLINIAN.

"Corky" — the raven-haired editor who's always there to patiently explain; a newsprint smudge across her cheek as she laughs and slaps the ruler against the dummy sheet — the reminder of another "Cary" year.

Coraddi

From the looks of things, to work on the CORADDI can be a lot of fun.

The CORADDI offers to the campus, quarterly, some of the best submitted student work done in writing, art and sometimes music. It gives to the writer and the artist an opportunity to see her work in print.

Each year the CORADDI concentrates much of its efforts on the Arts Forum Issue, which includes the best material from student writers throughout the country. This gives the students on our campus a chance to compare their work with that of students from other schools. Through panels composed of faculty members, the CORADDI gives the student the benefit of critical opinion on all the material.

Pine Needles

To enclose between two covers what we mean when we say "Woman's College," to put into a picture book the growth in learning and understanding, the joys and disappointments of four college years — from such an attempt evolves your 1958 PINE NEEDLES. It began with a dummy — filled in by people searching for the right words, the striking layout — completed with the business angle, advertisements, identifications — impossible without the unrewarding tasks, typing, proofing. Tempus fugit, ideas become realities. Now we present it to you — part of your life, the best years.

Elliott Hall

Elliott Hall, the place of the TV sets, the dances, coffee hours, the publications offices, and just about everything else, is certainly not run by itself, but by a type of governing body known as the Elliott Hall Council. This council attempts to take care of the social and cultural needs of the students by presenting varied types of entertainment which have an appeal for almost everyone on campus.

The Elliott Hall Council is composed of one elected representative from each residence hall, one representative from the Town Student's Association, and the president of Elliott Hall.

C.U. Day! — a football game in Chapel Hill, a reception in Graham Memorial, and a dance in Woollen Gymnasium. This was the main event sponsored by the Consolidated University Council, composed of fifteen delegates from Woman's College, plus representatives from State and Carolina.

The aims of the council this year were to work in closer harmony with the Greater University, and to win the support of students and administration. A new idea tried out this year was to center efforts upon one main activity. C.U. Council met quarterly to combine the interests and viewpoints of the three schools in order to strengthen their association.

Theatre

Woman's College theatre headed by Herman Middleton plays an important role in the life of WC students.

The activities of the theatre this year have included a musical production of OKLAHOMA in November, the CHERRY ORCHARD in March, and BUS STOP in May.

The theatre has brought two outstanding plays to the campus; the RIVALRY with Raymond Massey, Agnes Moorhead, and Martin Gabel; and BACK TO METHUSELAH with Tyrone Power and Faye Emerson. Also two student directed plays were presented by the lab theatre.

Such an active theatre group has given the WC student an opportunity to participate in theatre productions as well as providing campus entertainment for the student body.

JOHNNY EATON

ZINKA MILANOV

The Woman's College Lecture-Entertainment Series has presented three outstanding programs this season.

On October 7, Aycock Auditorium rang with applause as Johnny Eaton's Quintet wove a magic web of contemporary jazz around an appreciative audience of WC students.

Classic and modern ballet transformed the stage on October 18 when Les Ballets Janine Charrat presented a varied, unusual, and thoroughly enjoyable dance program.

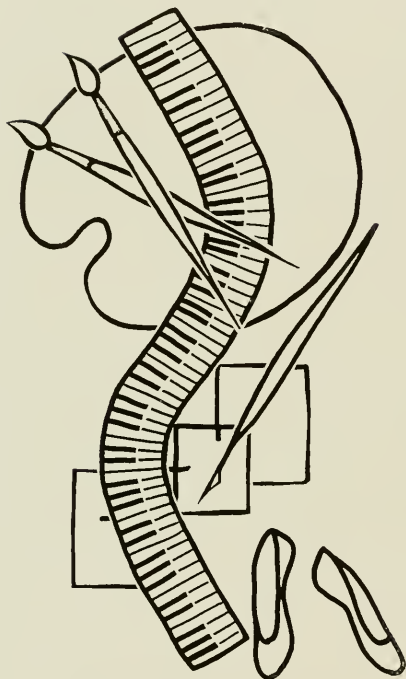

On February 3, Varel and Bailly, a talented French song-writing duo, appeared with the seven delightful "Chanteurs de Paris"; Philippe, Michel, Pierre, Richard, Maurice, Bernard, and Aubert. These members of the singing group are all graduates of the widely known "Little Singers of Paris."

On February 14, Willy Ley, authority on rockets, stratophenic flight, and interplanetary exploration study, presented a fascinating lecture on "The Conquest of Space."

The Festival of the Arts endeavors to link the creative expression of student writers, poets, actors, musicians with the flesh and blood artists of the professional level. The Festival this year, headed by Miss Susan Barksdale and Pat Carden, brought to us the criticism and encouragement of people like Carolina Gordon, Doris Betts, and Peter Taylor. We presented The Cherry Orchard, took our stories and poems and art work to the round tables for discussion, saw the recitals and lectures, participated in the classes. We listened for advice and did a lot of wishful thinking — that someday we . . .
