ACT No. I OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor-General on the 2nd February 1855.)

An Act for providing for the exercise of certain powers by the Governor General during his absence from the Council of India.

WHEREAS the Governor-General in Council has declared that it is expedient that the Governor-General should visit the Neilgherry Hills in the Presidency of Fort St. George, and other parts of India, unaccompanied by any Member of the Council of India; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. During the absence of the Governor-General from the Council of India, it shall be lawful for the Governor-General alone to exercise all the powers which might be exercised by the Governor-General in Council in every case in which the said Governor-General may think it expedient to exercise those powers.

Powers to be exercised by the Governor-General during his absence from the Council of India.

II. This Act shall commence from the day on which it shall be notified, by an order published in the Official Gazette, that the Governor-General has quitted Calcutta for the purpose of so proceeding as aforesaid, and shall not continue in force for a longer period than one year.

Commencement and duration of Act.

except under and subject to the rules prescribed in that behalf in Act XIX of 1853.

XX. A husband or wife shall in every civil proceeding be competent to give evidence for or against each other. Provided that any communication made by husband or wife to the other during their marriage shall be deemed a privileged communication and shall not be disclosed without the consent of the person making the same, unless such communication shall relate to a matter in dispute in a suit pending between such husband and wife.

Husband or wife giving evidence.

Proviso.

XXI. A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

Witness, &c., not bound to produce document relating to State affairs.

XXII. A witness being a party to the suit shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any confidential writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party, however, offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence in his custody, possession, or power, if relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

Party to suit not bound to produce certain documents.

Unless he offers himself as a witness.

XXIII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to bring it, or cause it to be brought into Court; although there be a valid objection to the right of the party calling for it to compel its production or to the reading or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof, the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court; and for the better determination thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence which the person producing the document may give respecting it, and it shall also be lawful for the Court, except in the case of any document relating relating to affairs of State, to inspect the document, and, if necessary, to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence.

XXIV. A Barrister, Attorney, or Vakeel shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he shall have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein, at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such Barrister, Attorney, or Vakeel, of any matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the Barrister, Attorney, or Vakeel would have been bound to disclose but for the privilege of his client; and the Barrister, Attorney, or Vakeel shall be bound upon examination to disclose any such matter.

XXV. Any person present in Court, whether a party or not, may be called upon and compelled by the Court to give evidence, and produce any document then and there in his actual possession, or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document, and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

XXVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document, shall be deemed to have complied with the summons, if he cause such document to be produced instead of attending personally to produce the same.

XXVII. The Rules of evidence in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts as to matters of Ecclesiastical or Admiralty Civil Jurisdiction, shall be the same as they are on the Plea side of the said Courts.

XXVIII. Except

ACT No. II OF 1855.

XXVIII. Except in cases of treason, the direct evidence of one witness, who is entitled to full credit, shall be sufficient for proof of any fact in any such Court or before any such person. But this provision shall not affect any rule or practice of any Court that requires corroborative evidence in support of the testimony of an accomplice or of a single witness in the case of perjury.

Evidence of one witness sufficient proof.

Proviso.

XXIX. Where dying declarations are evidence, they shall be received if it be proved that the deceased was at the time of making the declaration, and then thought himself to be in danger of approaching death, though he entertained at the time of making it hope of recovery.

Dying declarations when admissible.

XXX. The party at whose instance a witness is examined may, with the permission of such Court or person, cross-examine such witness to test his veracity, in the same manner as if he had not been called at his instance, and may be allowed to show that the witness has varied from a previous statement made by him.

Party allowed to cross-examine, and discredit his own witness.

XXXI. In order to corroborate the testimony of a witness, any former statement made by such witness, relating to the same fact, at or about the time when the fact took place, or before any authority legally competent to investigate the fact, shall be admissible, and for that purpose a copy of any deposition or statement taken before any Court, Judge, Justice of the Peace, Magistrate or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or before a Commissioner or Superintendent for the Suppression of Thuggee or Dacoity in the discharge of his duty, shall, if certified by such Court, Judge, or other Officer above-mentioned, under his hand or the Official Seal of the Court, or under the hand or Official Seal of such Judge, to be a true copy of such deposition or statement, without further proof, be received as prima facie evidence that such deposition or statement was made, and that it was made at the time and place, and under the circumstances, if any, which shall be stated in the certificate or on the face of the deposition or statement.

Former statement admissible to corroborate a witness.

XXXII. A witness shall not be excused from answering any question relevant to the matter in issue in any suit or in any Civil or Criminal proceeding, upon the ground that the answer to such question will criminate, or may tend, directly directly or indirectly, to criminate such witness, or that it will expose, or tend, directly or indirectly, to expose such witness to a penalty or forfeiture of any kind. Provided that no such answer, which a witness

Witness bound to answer criminating questions.

ACT No. II OF 1855.

Proviso. shall be compelled to give, shall, except for the purpose of punishing such person for wilfully giving false evidence upon such examination, subject him to any arrest or prosecution, or be used as evidence against such witness in any criminal proceeding.

XXXIII. A witness in any cause may be questioned as to whether he has been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor, and upon being so questioned, if he either denies the fact or refuses to answer, it shall be lawful for the opposite party to prove such conviction.

Witness may be examined as to conviction for felony.

XXXIV. A witness may be cross-examined as to previous statements made by him in writing, or reduced into writing, relative to the subject matter of the cause, without such writing being shown to him; but if it is intended to contradict such witness by the writing, his attention must, before such contradictory proof can be given, be called to those parts of the writing which are to be used for the purpose of so contradicting him. Provided always that it shall be com-

Cross-examination as to previous written statements. petent for the Judge, at any time during the trial, to require the production of the writing for his inspection, and he may thereupon make such use of it for the purposes of the trial as he shall think fit.

Proviso.

XXXV. An impression of a document made by a copying machine shall be taken without further proof to be a correct copy.

Copy of a document made by a copying machine to be deemed correct.

XXXVI. When an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Court, on application to it in any Civil suit or proceeding, and on notice to the opposite party at a reasonable time before the hearing, to make an order for the reception of secondary evidence of its execution and contents.

Admission of secondary evidence where original document is out of the reach of process.

When attested document may be proved as if unattested.

XXXVII. An attested document may be proved as if unattested, unless it be a document to the validity of which attestation is requisite.

XXXVIII. The

ACT No. II OF 1855.

XXXVIII. The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself shall be as against him sufficient prima facie proof of such execution of it, though it be an instrument which is required by law to be attested.

Admission prima facie proof of an attested document.

XXXIX. Any entry or statement, which would be admissible in evidence after the death of the person who made it, on the ground of its having been made against the interest of the person making it, or on the ground of its having been made in the ordinary course of business, shall be admissible, though the person who made it be not dead, if he is incapable of giving evidence by reason of his subsequent loss of understanding, or is at the time of the trial or hearing bona fide and permanently beyond the reach of the process of the Court, or cannot after diligent search be found.

Entry made against interest or in course of business when admissible in life-time of person making it.

XL. Any entry in any books proved to have been regularly kept in the course of business or in any public office, so far as such entry merely refers to and tends to identify by name, description, number, or otherwise any Bank Notes or other Securities for the payment of money, or other property, and the payer-in or receiver of them, shall, in any case where such identification is necessary to be proved, be admissible in evidence for that limited purpose if it shall appear to have been made at or about the time of the transaction to which it relates, though the person who made it, or he on whose information it was made, is alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

Entry in course of business when admissible for purpose of identification.

XLI. Any receipt in writing, acknowledging the receipt of any money, valuable securities, or goods, shall, on proof of the execution thereof, be admissible in evidence before such Court or person aforesaid, not only against the party giving it, but also against any person in whose favor such receipt would operate as a discharge, or to whom it would render the person giving it liable for the money, security, or goods acknowledged to have been received.

Receipt when evidence against person other than the giver.

XLII. Whenever a receipt would be admissible under the preceding Section if given by a principal, a receipt given by an agent or servant of such principal shall in like manner be evidence upon proof of the authority to give such receipt.

Receipt of agent.

XLIII. Books

ACT No. II OF 1855.

XLIII. Books proved to have been regularly kept in the course of business or in any public office, shall be admissible as corroborative, but not as independent proof of the facts stated therein.

Books kept in course of business or in a public office admissible as corroborative evidence.

XLIV. The following documents may be admitted as corroborative evidence:—Certificates of shares, and of registration thereof, bills of lading, invoices, account sales, receipts usually given on the payment, deposit, or delivery of money, goods, securities, or other things, provided they be proved to have been given in the ordinary course of business.

Documents admissible as corroborative evidence.

XLV. A witness shall be allowed before any such Court or person aforesaid to refresh his memory by any writing made by himself or by any other person at the time when the fact occurred, or immediately afterwards, or at any other time when the fact was fresh in his memory, and he knew that the same was correctly stated in the writing. In such case the writing shall be produced and may be seen by the adverse party, who may, if he choose, cross-examine the witness upon it.

Refreshing memory of witness.

XLVI. Whenever a witness may refresh his memory by reference to any document, he may, with the permission of the Court, refer to a copy of such document, provided the Court or person, under the circumstances, be satisfied that there is sufficient reason for the non-production of the original.

Court may permit a copy of document to be used to refresh memory.

XLVII. In cases of pedigree, the declarations of illegitimate members of the family, and also persons who, though not related by blood or marriage to the family, were intimately acquainted with its members and state, shall be admissible in evidence after the death of the declarant, in the same manner and to the same extent as those of deceased members of the family.

Declarations of illegitimate persons, &c., admissible in questions of pedigree.

XLVIII. On an inquiry whether a signature, writing, or seal is genuine, any undisputed signature, writing, or seal of the party, whose signature, writing, or seal is under dispute, may be compared with the disputed one, though such signature, writing, or seal be on an instrument which is not evidence in the cause.

Comparison of handwriting, &c.

XLIX. Any Power of Attorney, which has been executed at a place distant more than one hundred miles from the place wherein the action, suit, or proceeding is depending, may be proved by the Proof of Power of Attorney.

ACT No. II of 1855.

the production of it, without further proof, where it purports, on the face of it, to have been executed before, and authenticated by a Notary Public, or any Court, Judge, Consul, or Magistrate.

L. Whenever it is proved that a Letter Book is kept, and that, according to the usual course of business, letters are copied into such book and despatched, and the Letter Book is produced, and it is proved that the letter was despatched according to the usual practice, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the witness, having reasonable ground for forming that belief, the Court may presume the despatch of that letter according to the usual course of business.

LI. Any book proved to have been kept for marking the despatch and receipt of letters, containing an entry of the despatch of a letter, and an acknowledgment of the receipt of such letter, shall, on proof that such entry was made in the usual course of business, be prima facie evidence of the receipt of such letter.

LII. So much of Section VI of Act XV of 1852 as provides that every such application as therein mentioned shall be made before issue joined in any such action, or twenty-one days before the trial or hearing of any other legal proceeding as therein mentioned, is hereby repealed.

LIII. The provision contained in the 16th Section of Act VI of 1854, that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may, by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used in the hearing of any cause on the Equity side of the Supreme Courts, shall extend to all civil actions, suits, and proceedings on all sides of the Courts.

LIV. So much of the 17th Section of the same Act as provides that upon the hearing of any motion, petition, or other proceeding in any of the said Supreme Courts, the Court may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit, shall extend to all civil actions, suits, suits, and proceedings on all sides of the said Courts.

ACT No. II OF 1855.

LIV. The 33rd Section of the Act No. VI of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the said Supreme Courts, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Courts.

LVI. Whenever by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereafter in force, any certificate, certified copy, or other document, shall be receivable in evidence of any particular in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation, or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be prima facie evidence, where it is rendered admissible, without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character, or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

LVII. The improper admission or rejection of evidence shall not be ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that, independently of the evidence objected to and admitted, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that, if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

LVIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall be so construed as to render inadmissible in any Court any evidence which, but for the passing of this Act, would have been admissible in such Court.

ACT No. III OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor-General on the 2nd February 1855.)

AN ACT for the better prevention of desertion from the Indian Navy.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and extend the laws in force for apprehending and detaining deserters from the Indian Navy and for punishing persons who aid and encourage such desertion; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I. Article 4 of a Rule, Ordinance, and Regulation for the Port of Bombay, passed by the Governor in Council and registered in the Court of the Recorder on the 11th day of July 1820, is hereby repealed in so far as it relates to Seamen of the Indian Navy.

II. Whoever, directly or indirectly, instigates or procures any Officer, Seaman, or other person belonging to the Indian Navy to desert, or knowing that any Officer, Seaman, or other person belonging to the Indian Navy is about to desert, assists him in deserting; or knowing any Officer, Seaman, or other person belonging to the Indian Navy to be a deserter, harbours, conceals, or assists in concealing such deserter, shall, for every such offence, be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees.

III. If it shall appear that a deserter has been concealed on board any Merchant Vessel, and that the Master or person in charge of such Vessel for the time being, though ignorant of the fact of such concealment, might have known of the same but for some neglect of his duty as such Master or person, or for the want of proper discipline on board his Vessel, such Master or person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees. Provided always that no conviction for such minor offence as is lastly hereinbefore described, shall be lawful unless the same shall be stated in the charge which the party is called upon to answer; and in such charge it shall be lawful to state in the alternative that the party has either knowingly harboured or concealed a deserter on board his Vessel, or has, by neglect of duty, or by reason of the want of proper discipline on board the Vessel, allowed such deserter to be so concealed.

Charge may be in the alternative.
IV. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of an offence punishable under this Act, shall be punishable for the same by any Justice of the Peace for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, or for any of the Settlements of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate in any Port within the territories of the East India Company, within whose jurisdiction the offence may have been committed, or such person may have been apprehended or found, whether the offence shall have been committed within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such officer or not; and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace, shall be punishable on summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only; form of conviction, &c.
V. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Saving of proceedings under Act No. XIV of 1849.
VI. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, or other Officer having authority in that behalf, from committing for trial any person who shall be charged with an offence punishable under Act No. XIV of 1849, or any other Act hereafter to be in force, notwithstanding that such offence may be also punishable under this Act.
Provido.
Provided that no proceedings shall have been had against such person in respect of the same offence under this Act.

VII. Whenever,

ACT No. III OF 1855.

VII. Whenever, on information given on oath or solemn affirmation, where by law a solemn affirmation may be used instead of an oath, to the Commander-in-Chief of the Indian Navy, or other person who shall be in the performance of the duties of Superintendent of the Indian Navy, or his Deputy, or, in their absence, to the Senior Officer of the Indian Navy at any Port or place within the territories of the East India Company, which oath or affirmation the several persons above-named shall severally under this Act have power to administer, or whenever, on such information as aforesaid, given to any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, having jurisdiction within such Port or place, there shall appear reason to suspect that any Officer, Seaman, or other person belonging to the Indian Navy, who may have deserted or be absent without leave, is on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or is concealed on shore at any such Port or place within the territories of the East India Company, it shall be lawful for such Commander-in-Chief of the Indian Navy, or person performing the duties of Superintendent of the Indian Navy, or his Deputy, or such Senior Officer, or Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate as aforesaid, to issue a Warrant authorizing the person or persons to whom such Warrant may be addressed to enter into and search, at any time of the day or night, any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or any house or place on shore, and to apprehend any such Officer, Seaman, or person belonging to the Indian Navy, and to detain him in custody in order to his being dealt with according to Law.

VIII. The Warrant to be issued under the preceding Section may be addressed to any person in the Indian Navy, or to all Constables, Peace Officers, and other persons who may be bound to execute the Warrant of any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, and acting in the execution of this Act; and all such persons shall be bound to execute, perform, and obey such Warrant.

IX. ACT No. V OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 17th of February 1855.)

An Act to assimilate the process of Execution on all sides of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, and to extend and amend the provisions of Act XXV of 1841.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make the process of execution on all sides of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts as near as may be the same; and also to extend and amend the provisions for giving effect to the decrees and orders of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts in certain cases which are contained in Act No. XXV of 1841: It is enacted as follows:—

I. *No process of contempt shall issue to compel the performance of so much of any judgment, decree, sentence, or order, either decretal or interlocutory, made by any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, as directs any person to pay any money or costs, or to execute any conveyance or other deed or instrument, or to make any transfer or surrender, or to do any act which a constituted attorney of such person, if ordered by the Court to do the same for his principal, would have the means of performing.

Process of contempt not to issue to compel performance of decree, &c., to pay money or to execute a deed, &c.

II. Where any person is liable to pay any money or costs upon a judgment recovered against him in any of the said Courts, or has made default in the payment of any money or costs which by any order, decree, or sentence made in any proceeding by any of the said Courts on any side thereof, he has been ordered to pay, execution may be issued either against his person by a writ in the nature of the ordinary writ of Capias ad Satisfaciendum, or to levy such money or costs out of his property by a writ of Fieri Facias or Venditioni

IV. Whenever any person has been directed by any judgment, decree, sentence, or order of any of the said Courts to execute any conveyance, deed, or instrument, or to make any transfer or surrender, or to do any act which a constituted attorney of such person, if directed by the Court to do the same for his principal, would have the means of performing; and such person has refused or neglected to obey such direction or has evaded compliance therewith, either by absenting himself in order to avoid service of the judgment, decree, sentence, or order, wherein such direction is contained, or by any other means; it shall be lawful for the Court by which such direction has been given, whether the person disobeying or evading compliance with such direction is in custody or not, upon application made to the said Court for that purpose, and upon proof to its satisfaction of such default or evasion as aforesaid, to order or appoint the Registrar, Master, or other Officer of the said Court to execute such conveyance, deed, or instrument, or to make such transfer or surrender, or to do such other act as aforesaid, for and in the name of the person by whom the same ought to have been executed, made, or done: and every conveyance, deed, and instrument which shall have been executed, and every transfer and surrender which shall have been made, and every other act which shall have been done by an Officer of Court under the authority of this Act, shall in all respects have the same force and validity as it would have if it had been duly executed, made, or done by the persons for and in whose name it shall have been so executed, made, or done.

Power to the Court to appoint an Officer to execute instrument, or to do any act for the person who has been ordered but has failed to execute or do the same.

V. If

ACT No. V of 1855.

V. If it shall appear to any of the said Courts, upon an application made to it under this Act, that it can safely dispense with the formal execution of any conveyance, deed, or instrument which the person directed to execute the same has failed to execute, or with the signature of any writing required for the formal performance of any act required to be done but omitted to be done by the person directed to do the same, it shall be lawful for the said Court, in lieu of ordering its Officer to execute the said conveyance, deed, or instrument, or to sign the said writing, by its order to declare that such conveyance, deed, instrument, or writing, shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes without the execution or signature of the person directed to execute or sign the same, as it would have been if he had duly executed or signed the same.

Or in certain cases to dispense with the execution of an instrument or the signature of a writing.

VI. When any person has been directed, by any judgment, decree, sentence, or order of any of the said Courts, to deliver up possession of any immoveable property or of any specific chattel or security, or to deliver to any person or persons, or to deposit in Court or elsewhere any books, papers, writings, or other articles or things, and has refused or neglected to obey such direction, or has evaded compliance therewith, either by absenting himself to avoid service of the said judgment, decree, sentence, order, or by any other means, it shall be lawful for the Court by which such direction has been given, whether such person is in custody or not, on proof of such default or evasion as aforesaid, to issue a writ or writs to the Sheriff, directing him either to put the party therein named into possession, or to seize and take such chattel, security, books, papers, writings, or other articles or things, and to deal with the same according to the exigency of the writ, which in all cases shall be conformable to the order, to compel the performance whereof the same is issued. But nothing herein contained shall authorize the Sheriff to disturb the bonâ fide possession of any person other than the person against whom such order is made.

Proviso.

VII. The first and second Sections of Act No. XXV of 1841, except as to all proceedings which shall have been had or commenced thereunder before this Act comes into operation, are hereby repealed.

Repeal of 1st and 2nd Sections of Act XXV of 1841

VIII. Nothing

ACT No. V OF 1855.

VIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any of the said Courts from issuing process of contempt, according to its present course of practice, on its Equity side against the person of any party who has been ordered to do any act other than the payment of money or costs, or the execution of any conveyance, deed, or other instrument, if obedience to such order cannot otherwise be enforced, or against the person of any party who has committed a breach of any injunction; and the Court may issue such process of contempt on any of its sides, and in such cases shall have and may exercise all powers which it now has touching the commitment, detention, or discharge of any person taken under process of contempt issued on its Equity side.

Power reserved to issue process of contempt to compel obedience to orders which cannot be otherwise enforced.

IX. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Supreme Courts to frame such new or altered writs of execution as they shall deem necessary or expedient for giving effect to the provisions hereinbefore contained, and by the Rules or orders to be made under this Act, to regulate the mode of issuing and executing such writs of execution.

Court may frame writs of execution.

X. The words "person" and "party" as used in this Act shall be understood to include any body corporate, and though used so as to import the singular number or the masculine gender only, shall be understood to include several persons as well as one person, and females as well as males, unless there be something in the context repugnant to such construction; and the term "Her Majesty's Supreme Courts" shall be understood to include the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca.

ACT NO. VI OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 17th of February 1855).

An Act to extend the operation of, and regulate the mode of executing Writs of Execution in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is desirable to extend the operation of, and regulate the conduct of writs of execution out of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts in certain cases; It is enacted as follows :—

I. Clause 1. Under any writ of feri facias issued out of any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on any side of the Court, may be seized and sold any lands, houses, or other immoveable property of the party against whose effects such writ issues, whether his estate or interest therein be legal or equitable.

Sheriff empowered under any writ of feri facias issued on any side of Supreme Court to seize and sell immoveable property.

Clause 2. The Sheriff under any such writ may put the purchaser in possession of such of the lands, houses, or other immoveable property sold under such writ, of which the judgment debtor is in the actual possession, and of which an actual delivery can be made.

When property is in possession of judgment debtor, sheriff to put purchaser in possession.

Clause 3. If the lands, houses, or other immoveable property liable to be sold under such writ be in the possession of any person other than the judgment debtor, the Sheriff shall not seize such property, but shall sell and convey all the right, title, and interest of the debtor; and such conveyance shall pass the same interest to the purchaser as if the same had been executed by the debtor.

When property is not in possession of judgment debtor, sheriff not to seize but to sell debtor's interest.

Effect of conveyance.

Clause 4. In such last mentioned case if the property shall be situate beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, the Sheriff shall notify such sale to the Judge of the District, who shall cause notice of the same to be officially proclaimed,

Sale when to be notified to Judge of District.

ACT No. VI OF 1855.

Proclamation of same. proclaimed, in like manner as if the sale had been effected under a decree of his own Court.

Clause 5. In any case of intended sale of immoveable property beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Supreme Court, the Sheriff shall cause a notice, specifying the time and place of the intended sale, to be stuck up in some conspicuous place in the office of the Collector of the district within which such property is situate and also at the Mal Cutcherry of the estate, if any, otherwise on some conspicuous part of the property to be sold. The number of days between the publication of such notice and the sale shall not be less than fourteen days, if the property be not distant more than 100 miles from the Supreme Court; if the distance shall exceed 100 miles, the number of days shall be increased by an additional day for every 50 miles of such excess of distance. Provided that the want of such notice or any irregularity in respect thereof, shall not vitiate the sale in the hands of a bonâ fide purchaser.

Proviso. that nothing herein contained shall prevent the person against whom such order shall have been made or any other person affected thereby, from applying to the Court or Judge by whom such order has been made for its discharge on such grounds as may be just.

VII. If such debtor shall have any interest in any property which shall be standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court or of any other Officer of the Court, or in the dividends, interest, or annual produce thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to make an order that the interest of the defendant in such property shall be applied in payment of such debt, and the Court or Judge shall have power to make such order as may be necessary to give full effect to the above provision.

Property standing in name of any officer of Court.

VIII. A plaintiff or defendant arrested under any writ of capias ad satisfaciendum issued upon any judgment, order, decree, or sentence of any of the said Courts whereby money is ordered to be paid to any party, shall be entitled to his discharge from such arrest on payment or tender to such party or his attorney in the cause, or to the Sheriff or Gaoler in whose custody such person may be under such writ, of the amount directed to be levied by such writ.

Party arrested under a ca. sa. entitled to discharge on payment or tender of the amount of levy to opposite party or his attorney or to Sheriff or Gaoler.

IX. A written order under the hand of the attorney in the cause by whom any writ of capias ad satisfaciendum shall have been issued, shall justify the Sheriff, Gaoler, or person in whose custody the party may be under such writ in discharging such party, unless the party for whom such attorney professes to act shall have given written notice to the contrary to such Sheriff, Gaoler, or person in whose custody the opposite party may be; but such discharge shall not be a satisfaction of the debt, unless made by the authority of the creditor; and nothing herein contained shall justify any attorney in giving such order for discharge without the consent of his client.

Act 1855

ACT No. VII. OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 17th February 1855.)

An Act to amend the law of Arrest on mesne process in Civil Actions in Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature, and to provide for the subsistence of Prisoners confined under Civil process of any of the said Courts.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law of arrest in the Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay and in the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I. No person shall be arrested or held to bail upon mesne process in any action at law now pending or which shall be commenced in any of the said Courts, unless an order authorizing such arrest be made by the Court in which the action is pending or shall be commenced, or by one of the Judges thereof: and it shall be in the discretion of the Court or Judge in any case to grant or refuse an order.

Preamble.

No arrest upon Mesne Process without order of Court or Judge.

Granting of order to be discretionary.

II. Provided that no such order shall be made unless the Court or Judge shall be satisfied by Affidavit of the plaintiff or of some other person, that the plaintiff has a good cause of action against the defendant to the amount of two hundred Rupees or upwards either for debt or for damages, and in addition thereto, that there is probable cause for believing—

No order for arrest to be made without affidavit of debt or damage to the amount of 200 Rupees and probable cause for believing—

1,—That the defendant has absconded or is concealing himself for the purpose of avoiding service of the process of the Court, or that he is about so to do, or—

That defendant is concealing himself to avoid service of process, or is about to abscond, &c.

2,—That

2,—That he has withdrawn or is about to withdraw himself or his property or effects, or some part thereof, from the jurisdiction of the Court, for the purpose of avoiding the process of the Court, or under such other circumstances as to induce the Court or Judge to believe that the ends of justice are likely to be defeated unless a Capias or Warrant of Arrest be issued against him, or—

That he is removing his property to avoid process.

3,—That he has removed, concealed or disposed of his property or effects, or some part thereof, for the purpose of defrauding his creditors generally or the plaintiff in the action, or that he is about to do so.

That he has disposed or means to dispose of his property to defraud creditors.

III. An order for arrest may be made, and a Capias or Warrant may be issued thereon, in any stage of the cause before final judgment, and against one or more of several defendants.

Order for arrest in any stage of cause and against one of several defendants.

IV. Previously to making such order, the Court or Judge may require the personal attendance of the plaintiff, and of any person who shall make an Affidavit for the purpose of obtaining such order, and of any other person whom the Court or Judge shall think fit to examine, and may examine them orally upon oath.

Before making order Court may examine plaintiff for other person.

V. A copy of every Affidavit upon which such order shall be founded shall be delivered to the Sheriff with the Writ or Warrant to be issued in pursuance of the order, and shall be delivered to the defendant at the time of his arrest or detention under the Writ, otherwise the Court or Judge may order the defendant to be discharged.

Copy of affidavit to be delivered to Sheriff and to be given to defendant at the time of arrest.

VI. Any person arrested or detained upon any such Writ of Capias or Warrant of Arrest, may apply to the Court or to a Judge thereof for a rule or summons calling on the plaintiff to show cause why the person arrested should not be discharged out of custody, and the Court may make absolute or discharge such rule, and may direct the costs of the application to be paid by either party or may make such other order as to the Court shall seem fit; and in the case of a summons, a Judge shall make such

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 17th February 1855.)

An Act to amend the law relating to the office and duties of Administrator General.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the office and duties of Administrator General, It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. In each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, there shall be an Administrator General. The said Administrators General shall be called respectively the Administrator General of Bengal, the Administrator General of Madras, and the Administrator General of Bombay.

Designation of the Administrators General in the three Presidencies.

II. Such officers shall be appointed and may be suspended or removed by the authorities hereinafter mentioned respectively, that is to say,

Appointment, suspension and removal of Administrators General.

The Administrator General of Bengal, by the Governor General of India in Council.

The Administrator General of Madras, and the Administrator General of Bombay, by the Governments of those Presidencies respectively.

III. Any person now holding the office of Administrator General at any of the said Presidencies, shall continue to hold the same, subject to the provisions of this Act.

Continuance of existing incumbents.

IV. The Administrator General shall not be deemed in that capacity to be an officer of the Supreme Court.

Administrator General not to be deemed an officer of the Supreme Court.

ACT No. VIII. OF 1855.

V. All letters of administration, which, since the passing of Act No. II. of 1850, have been granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort St. George to the Ecclesiastical Registrar of that Court in virtue of his office, and all estates, effects and interests, books, papers and documents, now vested in, or belonging to the said Ecclesiastical Registrar, or under his control, by virtue of any such letters of administration, are by this Act transferred to and vested in him as Administrator General of that Presidency, and such letters of administration shall have the same effect in all respects as to any act hereafter to be done or required to be done under this Act as if they had been granted to him as Administrator General.

Letters of administration granted to the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Madras Supreme Court since Act II. of 1850, and Estates, &c. transferred to Administrator General.

The present Administrator General of Madras may hold the office of Ecclesiastical Registrar.

Otherwise no Administrator General to be Ecclesiastical Registrar.

Administrator General not to hold any other office without sanction of Government.

Proviso.

VI. The two offices of Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court and Administrator General may be held by the present Administrator General at the Presidency of Fort St. George. With that exception, no person now holding the office of Administrator General, or hereafter to be appointed to such office, in any of the said Presidencies, shall hold the office of Ecclesiastical Registrar, nor, without the express sanction of Government, any other office, together with that of Administrator General. Provided that nothing in this Act shall prevent the present Administrator General of Bengal from holding the office of Receiver of the Supreme Court of Judicature now held by him.

VII. Unless the Governor General of India in Council or the Government with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council shall otherwise order, every Administrator General hereafter to be appointed shall give security to the East India Company for the due execution of his office, for one lakh of Rupees by his own bond and for another lakh of Rupees, or for separate sums amounting together to one lakh of Rupees, by the deposit of Government Securities or by the joint and several bond or bonds of two or more sureties to be approved by Government, or partly by such deposit and partly by such bond or bonds; provided that every Administrator General may, with the consent of Government, substitute either of the said two last mentioned kinds of security for another another previously given for such last mentioned lakh or any part of it; and every Administrator General may, with the consent of Government, and shall from time to time when required by Government so to do, cause fresh sureties to be substituted for any of those previously bound so far as the security shall relate to the due execution of his office for the time then to come.

VIII. No Administrator General shall be required by the Supreme Court to enter into any administration bond, or to give other security to the Court, on the grant of any letters of administration to him in virtue of his office.

No Security to be required by Supreme Court on grant of letters to Administrator General.

IX. Any letters of administration, or letters ad colligenda bona, which shall hereafter be granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at any of the said Presidencies, shall be granted to the Administrator General of the Presidency, unless they shall be granted to the next of kin of the deceased; and it is hereby declared that the Administrator General of the Presidency shall be deemed to have a right to letters of administration in preference to that of any person merely on the ground of his being a creditor or friend of the deceased.

Administrator General entitled to letters of administration, unless granted to next of kin of deceased.

Administrator General entitled in preference to creditor or friend.

X. The words "next of kin" shall be deemed throughout this Act to include a widower or widow of the deceased, or any other person who, by law and according to the practice of the Courts, would be entitled to letters of administration in preference to a creditor of the deceased. Provided that no Ecclesiastical Registrar or other Officer of any of the said Courts, shall, by reason of his office, be deemed entitled to any letters of administration or ad colligenda bona, or have any grant thereof made to him.

Construction of words "next of kin."

Ecclesiastical Registrar not to be entitled to administration by reason of his office.

XI. If any person, not being a Mahomedan or Hindoo, shall have died, whether within any of the said Presidencies or not, and whether before or after the passing of this Act, and shall, if a British subject, have left assets exceeding the value of five hundred Rupees within any of the said Presidencies, or any of the Provinces or places subject thereto, thereto, or shall, if not a British subject, have left personal assets exceeding five hundred Rupees within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Judicature at any of the said Presidencies, and no person shall, within one month after his death, have applied for probate of a will, or for any letters of administration of his estate, the Administrator General of the Presidency in which such assets shall be is hereby required, within a reasonable time after he shall have had notice of the death of such person, and of his having left such assets as aforesaid, to take such proceedings as may be necessary to obtain from the Supreme Court of Judicature at such Presidency letters of administration to the effects of such person, either generally or with a will annexed, as the case may require. Provided that assets, which any person may be entitled to collect, receive, or dispose of, by virtue of a certificate granted under Act XX. of 1841, shall not be deemed assets within the meaning of this Section.

Proviso as to assets under Act XX. of 1841.

XII. Whenever any person, whether a Mahomedan or Hindoo or not, shall die leaving assets within the local limits of the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at any of the said Presidencies, it shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of any person interested in such assets or in the due administration thereof, either as a creditor, next of kin, or otherwise, or upon the application of a friend of any infant who may be so interested, or upon the application of the Administrator General, if the applicant shall satisfy the Court that danger is to be apprehended of the misappropriation of such assets, unless letters of administration of the effects of such person are granted, to make an order directing the Administrator General to apply for letters of administration of the effects of such person.

Upon death of any person leaving assets within local limits, the Court may, if assets are in danger, direct Administrator General to apply for administration.

XIII. Section XX. Act No. XIX. of 1841 is hereby repealed, except as to acts done and except as to any case in which an order shall have been made before the commencement of this Act.

Repeal of Section 20 Act XIX. of 1841.

XIV. Whenever

ACT No. VIII. OF 1855.

XIV. Whenever any person, whether a Mahomedan or Hindoo or not,

Upon death of any person leaving property within local limits, Court may, if property is in danger, enjoin Administrator General to collect and hold the same until right of succession or administration is ascertained.

shall have died leaving moveable or immoveable property within the local limits of the jurisdiction of any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature, and such Court shall be satisfied that danger is to be apprehended of the misappropriation or waste of such property, before it can be ascertained who may be legally entitled to the succession to such property, or whether the Administrator

General is entitled to letters of administration to such deceased person, it shall be lawful for the Court to authorize and enjoin the Administrator General to collect and take possession of such property and to hold or deposit or invest the same according to the orders and directions of the Court, and in default of any such orders or directions, according to the provisions of this Act so far as the same are applicable to such property ; and the Administrator General shall be entitled to a commission of one per cent. upon the amount of all personal assets collected or received by him in pursuance of such order ; and in case letters of administration of any such effects shall be afterwards granted to the Administrator General, the said commission of one per cent. shall be deemed a part payment of the commission payable to the Administrator General under the letters of administration. Any order of Court made under the provisions of this Section shall entitle the Administrator General to collect and to take possession of such property, and if necessary, to maintain an action for the recovery thereof.

Administrator General may be Official Trustee under Act XVII. of 1843.

XV. The Administrator General of the Presidency may be appointed an official Trustee under Act No. XVII. of 1843.

XVI. If in the course of proceedings to obtain letters of administration under the provisions of Sec. XI. or Sec. XII. of this Act, Probate to be granted to executor appearing in the course of proceedings taken by Administrator General to obtain administration.

any executor appointed by a will of the deceased shall appear according to the practice of the court and prove the will and accept the office of executor, or if any person shall appear according to such practice and make out his claim to letters of administration as next of kin of the deceased, and shall give such security as shall be required of him by law or by the practice of the Court, the Court shall grant letters of Administration to the Administrator General. Provided that, in the case of an application being made under Section XII. of this Act for letters of administration to the effects of a deceased Mahomedan or Hindoo, the Court may refuse to grant letters of administration to any person if it be satisfied that such grant is unnecessary for the protection of the assets, and in such case the said Court shall make such order as to the costs of the application as it shall think just.

Administration to effects of deceased Mahomedans or Hindoos not to be granted under Section XII. unless required to protect the assets.

Costs of unnecessary application.

Administrator General not precluded from applying for letters of administration in any case within one month after death of deceased.

XVIII. Nothing in this Act is intended to preclude the Administrator General from applying to the Court for letters of administration in any case within the period of one month from the death of the deceased.

XIX. If any letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General under the provisions of this Act, shall be revoked, or recalled, the same shall, so far as regards the Administrator General and all persons acting under his authority in pursuance thereof, be deemed to have been only voidable, except as to any act done by any such Administrator General or other person as aforesaid, after notice of a will or of any other fact which would render such letters of administration void. Provided that no notice of a will or of any other fact which would render any such letters of administration void, shall affect the Administrator

After revocation, letters of administration granted to Administrator General to be deemed as to him to have been voidable only.

Exception.

General or any person acting under his authority in pursuance of such letters of administration, unless, within the period of one month from the time of giving such notice, proceedings be commenced to prove the will or to cause the letters of administration to be revoked, nor unless such proceedings be prosecuted without unreasonable delay.

XX. If any letters of administration which shall be granted under this Act, shall be revoked upon the production and proof of a will, all payments made or acts done by or under the authority of the Administrator General in pursuance of such letters of administration prior to the revocation thereof, which would have been valid under any letters of administration lawfully granted to him with such will annexed, shall be deemed valid, notwithstanding such revocation.

What payments made or acts done by Administrator General prior to revocation of Administration upon production of a will, shall be deemed valid.

XXI. If an executor or next of kin of the deceased, who shall not have been personally served with a citation, or had notice thereof in time to appear in pursuance thereof, shall establish to the satisfaction of the Court a claim to probate of a will or to letters of administration in preference to the Administrator General, any letters of administration which shall be granted by virtue of this Act to the Administrator General, may be recalled and revoked, and probate may be granted to such executor, or letters of administration granted to such other person as aforesaid. Provided that no letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General, shall be revoked or recalled for the cause aforesaid, except in cases in which a will or codicil of the deceased shall be proved, unless the application for that purpose shall be made within one year after the grant to the Administrator General, and the Court shall be satisfied that there has been no unreasonable delay in making the application, or in transmitting the authority under which the application shall be made.

In what cases Court may recall Administrator General's administration and grant probate, &c., to executor or next of kin.

Unless a will is proved, application to revoke such administration must be made within one year and without needless delay.

XXII. If any letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General in pursuance of this Act, shall be revoked, the Court may order the costs of obtaining such letters of administration and the whole or any part of any commission which would otherwise have been payable under this Act, together with the costs of the Administrator trator General in any proceedings taken to obtain such revocation, to be paid to or retained by the Administrator General out of any assets belonging to the estate.

XXIII. Any payment or delivery of assets to any legatee, or to any person entitled in distribution, which shall be made by an Administrator General after the expiration of one year from the grant of the letters of administration under which such payment or delivery shall be made, shall be allowed to the Administrator General as against all creditors and other claimants against the estate, of whose debts or claims he shall not have had notice before making such payment or delivery. Provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt the person to whom such payment or delivery shall be made, from any liability to refund to which he would otherwise be liable, and provided also that no notice of any debt or claim shall affect the Administrator General unless proceedings to enforce the debt or claim be commenced within one month after the giving of such notice and be prosecuted without unreasonable delay.

After one year from grant of administration, distribution of assets by Administrator General to be allowed against all claims of which he had no notice.

Person receiving payments liable to refund.

What to be notice of debt or claim.

XXIV. All letters of administration, which shall be granted to any Administrator General in virtue of his office, shall be granted to him by his name of office, and all letters of administration heretofore granted to the Ecclesiastical Registrar or Administrator General officially, or which shall be granted to any Administrator General in virtue of his office, shall authorize the Administrator General for the time being of the same Presidency to act as administrator of the estate to which such letters of administration shall relate ; and all estates, effects and interests, which, at the time of the death, resignation or removal from office of any Administrator General, shall be vested in him by virtue of such letters of administration shall, upon such resignation or removal, cease to be vested in him, and shall vest in his successor in office immediately upon his appointment thereto ; and all books, papers and documents kept by such Administrator General by virtue of his office, shall be transferred to, and vested in his successor in office.

Letters of administration to be granted to Administrator General in virtue of his office.

Authority given by such letters.

On death, &c. of Administrator General, estate, &c., to vest in successor.

And office books to be transferred.

XXV. All

ACT No. VIII. OF 1855.

XXV. All actions, suits or other proceedings, which shall be commenced by or against any Administrator General in his representative character, may be brought by or against him by his name of office, and no suit, action or other proceedings already commenced, or which shall be commenced against any person as Administrator General, either alone or jointly with any other person, shall abate by reason of the death, resignation or removal from office of any such Administrator General, but the same may, by order of the Court, and upon such terms as to the service of notices or otherwise as the Court may direct, be continued against his successor immediately upon his appointment, in the same manner as if no such death, resignation, or removal had occurred. Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall render any such successor personally liable for any costs incurred prior to the order for continuing the action or suit against him.

Administrator General to sue or be sued in his representative capacity by his name of office.

Suit not to abate by death, &c.

Proviso.

XXVI. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies under any letters of administration which shall be granted to him in his official character, or under any probate which shall be granted to him of a will wherein he shall be named as executor by virtue of his office, and the Administrator General of Madras under any letters of administration which are vested in him by Section V. of this Act, shall be entitled to receive a commission, at the following rates respectively; viz.:

Commission to be received by Administrators General.

The Administrator General of Bengal at the rate of 3 per cent., and the Administrators General of Madras and Bombay respectively at the rate of 5 per cent., upon the amount or value of the assets which they shall respectively collect and distribute in due course of administration.

XXVII. The Commission to which the Administrator General of each of the said three Presidencies shall be entitled, is intended to cover not merely the expense and trouble of collecting the assets, but also his trouble and responsibility in distributing them in due course of administration. It is therefore enacted that one-half of such commission shall be payable to and retained by such Administrator General upon the collection of the assets, and the other half thereof shall be payable to the Administrator General.

General who shall distribute any assets in the due course of administration and may be retained by him upon such distribution. The amount of the commission lawfully retained by an Administrator General upon the distribution of assets shall be deemed a distribution in the due course of administration within the meaning of this Act.

Commission retained to be deemed a distribution.

XXVIII. The Governments of the said Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, may, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, from time to time, order the aforesaid rate of commission hereby authorized to be received by the Administrators General of those Presidencies respectively to be reduced and again to be raised. Provided that the commission so to be received shall not at any time exceed five per cent. of the assets collected, and that no person now holding the office of Administrator General of either of the said Presidencies of Fort St. George or Bombay shall, by any such order, be deprived of the right to receive and retain for his own use, a commission at the rate of three per cent. in respect of all assets collected and actually administered by him.

Commission of the Administrators General of Madras and Bombay may be reduced and again raised.

Proviso.

XXIX. The Administrator General shall defray all the expenses of the establishment necessary for his office, and all other charges to which the said office shall be subject, except those for which express provision is made by this Act.

Administrator General to defray expenses of establishment and all other charges not expressly provided for.

XXX. No person other than the Administrator General acting officially, shall receive or retain any commission or agency charges for anything done as executor or administrator under any probate or letters of administration, or letters ad colligenda bona, which have been granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal since the passing of Act No. VII. of 1849, or by either of the said other Supreme Courts of Judicature since the passing of Act No. II. of 1850, or which shall hereafter be granted by either of the said Courts; but this enactment shall not prevent any executor or other person from having the benefit of any legacy bequeathed to him in his character of executor, or by way of commission or otherwise.

Commission or agency not to be charged by executor or administrator other than the Administrator General.

Specific bequest in favor of executors not affected.

XXXI. The

ACT No. VIII. OF 1855.

XXXI. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies shall enter into books, to be kept by him for that purpose, separate and distinct accounts of each estate, and of all such sums of money, bonds and other securities for money, goods, effects and things, as shall come to his hands, or to the hands of any person employed by him, or in trust for him, under this Act, and likewise of all payments made by him on account of such estate, and of all debts due by or to the same, specifying the dates of such receipts and payments respectively, which said books shall be kept in the Administrator General's Office, and shall be open for the inspection of all such persons, practitioners in the said Courts and others, as may have occasion to inspect the same, at office hours, paying only such reasonable fee as hath been or shall be, from time to time, fixed by the Government and published in the official Gazette of the Presidency to which the same may relate.

Administrator General to keep a separate account-book for each estate, to be open to inspection, &c. on payment of fee, &c.

XXXII. The Government shall have power, from time to time, to make and alter any general rules and orders consistent with the provisions of this Act, for the safe custody of the assets and securities which shall come to the hands or possession of the Administrator General, and for the remittance to the East India Company at their House in England of all sums of money which shall be payable or belong to persons resident in Europe, or in other cases where such remittances shall be required, and generally for the guidance and government of the Administrator General in the discharge of his duties; and may, by such rules and orders, amongst other things, direct what books, accounts and statements, in addition to those mentioned in this Act, shall be kept by the Administrator General, and in what form the same shall be kept and what entries the same shall contain, and where the same shall be kept, and where and how the assets and securities belonging to the estates to be administered by such Administrator General shall be kept and invested or deposited, pending the administration thereof, and how and at what rate or rates of exchange any remittances thereof shall be made. Unless any such rules shall be made and published, the rules now in force in each of the said Presidencies so far as the same are not inconsistent with this Act, shall XXXIII. Such orders shall be published in the official Gazettes of the several Presidencies, and it shall be the duty of the Publication of or- ders, &c. several Administrators General to obey and fulfil the same, and the same shall be a full authority and indemnity for all persons acting in pursuance thereof.

XXXIV. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies shall, twice in every year—that is to say, on the first day of March, and on the tenth day of August, or on the Administrator Ge- neral to furnish half- yearly Schedules, &c. first day on which the Supreme Court of Judicature at the Presidency shall be sitting after those days, or on such other days as the Government shall, by any rules or orders to be published as aforesaid, direct—exhibit and deliver, in open Court, a true Schedule showing the gross amount of all sums of money received or paid by him on account of each estate in his charge, and the balances during the period of six months, ending severally on the thirty-first day of December and thirtieth day of June next before the day of delivering such Schedule, and a true list of all bonds or other securities received on account of each of the said estates during the same period; and also a true Schedule of all administrations, whereof the final balances shall have been paid over to the persons entitled to the same, during the same period, specifying the amount of such balances, and the persons to whom paid, which Schedules shall be filed of record in such Schedules to be filed and published. Supreme Court of Judicature, and shall, within fourteen days afterwards, be published in the official Gazette of the Presidency by the said Administrator General; and copies thereof in triplicate shall be delivered by such Administrator General to the Secretary of the said Presidency, and shall be sent by the Governor thereof to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, in order that the said Court of Directors may, if they think fit so to do, order the same to be deposited at the East India House, London, for public inspection, and may cause notices to be published in the London Gazette and other leading newspapers, that such Schedules are open to inspection there, or may make such other orders respecting the same as they may think fit.

XXXV. The

ACT No. VIII. OF 1855.

XXXV. The Government shall, from time to time, appoint an auditor or auditors to examine the accounts of the Administrator General at the times of the delivery of the said Schedules, and also at any other time when the Government shall think fit.

Government to appoint Auditors.

XXXVI. The auditor or auditors shall examine the Schedules and accounts, and report to the Government whether they contain a full and true account of every thing which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the books which, by this Act, are, or which, by any such general rules and orders as aforesaid, shall be directed to be kept by the Administrator General, have been duly and regularly kept, and whether the assets and securities have been duly kept and invested and deposited in the manner prescribed by this Act, or which shall be prescribed by any such rules and orders to be made as aforesaid.

Auditors to examine Schedule, and report to Government.

XXXVII. Every Auditor shall have power to summon as well the Administrator General as any other person or persons whose presence he may think necessary, to attend him from time to time; and to examine the Administrator General, or other party or parties, if he shall think fit, on oath or solemn affirmation, to be by him administered; and to call for all books, papers, vouchers and documents, which shall appear to him to be necessary for the purposes of the said reference; and if the Administrator General or other person or persons when summoned shall refuse, or, without reasonable cause, neglect to attend or to produce any book, paper, voucher or document required, or shall attend and refuse to be sworn or make a solemn affirmation, when by law an affirmation may be substituted for an oath, or shall refuse to be examined, the Auditor or Auditors shall certify such neglect or refusal in writing to the Supreme Court of Judicature at the Presidency; and every person so refusing or neglecting shall thereupon be punishable, in like manner as if such refusal or neglect had been in contempt of the said Supreme Court.

Auditors to have power to summon witnesses and to call for books, &c.

Penalty for non-attendance.

XXXVIII. The costs and expenses of preparing and publishing the said Schedules and copies thereof, and of every such reference and examination as aforesaid, shall be defrayed by all the estates to which such schedules or accounts shall relate, which costs and expenses, and the portion thereof to be contributed buted by each of the said estates, shall be ascertained and settled by the Auditor or Auditors, subject to the approval of the Government, and shall be paid out of the said estates accordingly by the Administrator General.

XXXIX. If upon any such reference and examination, the Auditor or Auditors shall see reason to believe that the said Schedules do not contain a true and correct account of the matters therein contained, or which ought to be therein contained, or that the assets have not been duly kept and invested or deposited in the manner directed by this Act, or which shall be directed by any such rules and orders as aforesaid, or that the Administrator General has failed to comply with the provisions and directions of this Act, or of any such rules and orders, he or they shall report accordingly to the Government.

Auditors to report specially to Government, if accounts appear not correct.

XL. The Government may refer every such report as last aforesaid to the consideration of the Advocate General for the Presidency, who shall thereupon, if he shall think fit, proceed summarily against the defaulter or his personal representative in the Supreme Court of Judicature in the Presidency, by petition for an account, or to compel obedience to this Act or to such rules and orders as aforesaid, or otherwise as he may think fit, in respect of all or any of the estates then or formerly under the administration of such defaulter; and the said Advocate General shall have power to exhibit interrogatories to the said Administrator General, or other person or persons, defendants, who shall be bound to answer the same as fully as if the same had been contained in a bill filed for the like purpose; and the Court shall have power upon any such petition, to compel the attendance in Court of the defendant or defendants, and any witnesses who may be thought necessary, and to examine them orally or otherwise as the said Court shall think fit, and to make and enforce such order or orders as the Court shall think just.

Proceedings upon such report.

XLI. The costs, including those of the Advocate General, and of the reference to him, if the same shall be directed by the Court to be paid, shall be defrayed either by the defendant or defendants, or out of the estates rateably as the said Court shall direct; and whenever any costs shall be recovered from the defendant or defendants, the same shall be repaid to the estates by which the same shall have been in the first instance contributed, and the Court shall have power power to order the Administrator General, or other person or persons, defendants, to receive his or her costs out of the said estates, if it shall think fit.

Orders of the Court to have same effect and to be executed in same manner as decretal orders.

XLII. Any orders which shall be made by any of the said Supreme Courts shall have the same effect, and be executed in the same manner as decretal orders.

XLIII. Whenever any person, not being a Mahomedan or Hindoo, shall have died, whether within any of the said Presidencies or not and whether before or after the passing of this Act, and shall, if a British subject, have left personal assets within any of the said Presidencies or any of the Provinces or places subject thereto, or shall, if not a British subject, have left personal assets within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Judicature at any of the said Presidencies, and letters of administration of his effects shall not be taken out for three months after his death, and the Administrator General of such Presidency shall be satisfied that such effects do not exceed in the whole five hundred Rupees, he may, if he shall think fit, at any time before administration of such effects shall be granted, grant to any person claiming to be entitled to a principal share of the effects of the deceased, certificates under his hand, entitling the claimant to receive the sums or securities for money therein severally mentioned, belonging to the effects of the deceased, to the value of any sum not exceeding in the whole five hundred rupees.

In what case Administrator General may grant certificate.

XLIV. The Administrator General shall not be bound to grant any such certificate, unless he shall be satisfied of the title of the claimant and of the value of the effects of the deceased, either by the oath, affidavit or solemn affirmation of the claimant (which oath, affidavit or affirmation the Administrator General is hereby authorized to administer or take) or by such other evidence as he shall require.

Administrator General not bound to grant certificate unless satisfied of claimant's title, &c.

XLV. Any such certificate, with a receipt annexed under the hand of the person to whom the certificate shall be granted, shall be a full discharge for payment or delivery to him or her of the money or security for money therein mentioned, to the person paying or delivering the same: but nothing in this Act shall pre-

Certificate with receipt annexed to be a sufficient discharge.

ACT No. VIII. OF 1855.

L. And whereas it appears from the books and accounts of the Administrator General of Bombay, that, on the thirtieth day of June 1851, there were in his charge Government Securities and cash, arising from accumulations of interest on estates heretofore administered by, or in the charge of the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court of Judicature at that Presidency, over and above the amount of interest heretofore allowed on the administration of such estates, it is further enacted as follows :—The Administrator General of Bombay shall forthwith transfer and pay the said Government Securities, and cash balance, and any other Government Securities and cash which, at the time of the passing of this Act, shall or may be in his charge, or under his control in respect of such accumulations of interest, or any additions thereto, to the Accountant General and Sub-Treasurer of Bombay, to be carried to the account and credit of the East India Company, for the general purposes of Government ; and the receipt of the Accountant and of the Sub-Treasurer of Bombay for any monies or securities so paid or transferred to them under the provisions of this Act, shall be a full indemnity and discharge to the Ecclesiastical Registrar and Administrator General for any such payment or transfer.

LI. The net proceeds of all estates in the official charge of the Administrator General of either of the Presidencies of Fort St. George or Bombay, and which now appear, or shall hereafter appear, from the official books and accounts of the Ecclesiastical Registrar and of the Administrator General of either of those Presidencies, or from the official books and accounts of either of those officers, to have been in official custody for a period of fifteen years or upwards, without any claim thereto having been made and allowed, shall be transferred and paid to the Sub-Treasurer of the East India Company at Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, and be carried to the account and credit of the East India Company, for the general purposes of Government ; and the receipt of the said Sub-Treasurer and Accountant General shall be a full indemnity and discharge to the said Administrator General for any such payment or transfer. Provided that this Act shall not authorize any transfer or payment of any such proceeds as aforesaid, pending any suit already instituted, or which shall be hereafter instituted, in respect thereof.

Accumulation of interest in the hands of the Administrator General at Bombay to be transferred to the E. I. Company.

In the Madras & Bombay Presidencies, the proceeds of Estates unclaimed for 15 years to be transferred to the E. I. Company.

ACT No. VIII. OF 1855.

LIII. If any claim shall be hereafter made to any part of the securities, monies, or proceeds which shall be carried to the account or credit of the East India Company under the provisions of this Act, and if such claim shall be established to the satisfaction of the Administrator General and Accountant General to the Government of Fort St. George and Bombay, for the time being, respectively, the said Accountant General shall direct the Sub-Treasurer of the Presidency to pay, and the said Sub-Treasurer shall thereupon pay, out of the monies of the East India Company in his custody, to the claimant, the amount of the principal so carried to the credit and account of the said East India Company, or so much thereof as shall appear to be due to the claimant. If the claim shall not be established to the satisfaction of the said Administrator General and Accountant General, the claimant may apply by petition to the Supreme Court at the Presidency against the East India Company and Administrator General of the Presidency for the time being, and after taking evidence, either orally or on affidavit, in a summary way, as the said Court shall think fit, the said Court shall make such order on the petition for the payment of such portion of the said principal sum as justice shall require, which order shall be binding on all parties to the suit.

Mode of proceeding by claimant to recover principal money so transferred.

LIIII. Section VI. Regulation XV. of 1806 of the Bengal Code and Section V. Regulation IV. of 1809 of the Madras Code are hereby repealed.

Regulations repealed.

LIV. Whenever any British subject shall die leaving personal assets within the limits of the jurisdiction of a Zillah Judge and no will shall be found among the effects of the deceased, it shall be the duty of the Zillah Judge to report the circumstance without delay to the Administrator General of the Presidency, retaining the property under his charge until letters of Administration shall have been obtained by the Administrator General or by some other person from the Supreme Court of Judicature, when the property shall be delivered over to the person obtaining such letters of Administration, or, in the event of a will being discovered, to the person who may obtain probate of the will.

Zillah Judge in certain cases to take charge of property of a British subject dying within the Zillah, and to report to Administrator General.

XLIII. Whenever any person, not being a Mahomedan or Hindoo, shall have died, whether within any of the said Presidencies or not and whether before or after the passing of this Act, and shall, if a British subject, have left personal assets within any of the said Presidencies or any of the Provinces or places subject thereto, or shall, if not a British subject, have left personal assets within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Judicature at any of the said Presidencies, and letters of administration of his effects shall not be taken out for three months after his death, and the Administrator General of such Presidency shall be satisfied that such effects do not exceed in the whole five hundred Rupees, he may, if he shall think fit, at any time before administration of such effects shall be granted, grant to any person claiming to be entitled to a principal share of the effects of the deceased, certificates under his hand, entitling the claimant to receive the sums or securities for money therein severally mentioned, belonging to the effects of the deceased, to the value of any sum not exceeding in the whole five hundred rupees.

In what case Administrator General may grant certificate.

XLIV. The Administrator General shall not be bound to grant any such certificate, unless he shall be satisfied of the title of the claimant and of the value of the effects of the deceased, either by the oath, affidavit or solemn affirmation of the claimant (which oath, affidavit or affirmation the Administrator General is hereby authorized to administer or take) or by such other evidence as he shall require.

Administrator General not bound to grant certificate unless satisfied of claimant's title, &c.

XLV. Any such certificate, with a receipt annexed under the hand of the person to whom the certificate shall be granted, shall be a full discharge for payment or delivery to him or her of the money or security for money therein mentioned, to the person paying or delivering the same: but nothing in this Act shall preclude

XLVI. The Administrator General shall not be bound to take out letters of administration to the estate of any deceased person on account of the effects in respect of which he shall grant any such certificate, but he may do so if he shall discover any fraud or misrepresentation made to him, or that the value of the estate exceeded five hundred rupees.

Administrator General not bound to take out administration on account of effects in respect of which he has granted certificate.

XLVII. For every such certificate the Administrator General shall be entitled to charge a fee calculated after the rate of three rupees in the hundred on the amount mentioned in the certificate.

Fee for Certificate.

XLVIII. Every person who, having been sworn, or having taken a solemn affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully give false testimony upon any examination authorized by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, if convicted, shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

Penalty for false swearing, &c.

XLIX. It is hereby declared to be a misdemeanour, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any Administrator General to trade or traffic for his own benefit, or for the benefit of any other person or persons whomsoever, unless so far as shall appear to him to be expedient for the due management of the estates of which letters of administration shall be granted to him, and for the sole benefit of the several persons entitled to the proceeds of such estates respectively ; but this exception is not to be construed to alter the civil liabilities of the Administrator General as trustee of such estates.

Penalty for Trading.

ACT No IX. of 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 21st March 1855.)

AN ACT for the amendment of Procedure in cases of regular appeal to the Sudder Court in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is desirable to simplify and shorten the procedure in regular appeals to the Court of Sudder Udalt in the Presidency of Fort St. George; It is enacted as follows :—

I. Clause 1st. In modification of Clause fifth, Section X. Regulation V. of 1802, every petition of regular appeal in a case appealable to the Sudder Court, shall be presented to the Court in which the decision was passed within six weeks from the day of the decision. Such petitions of appeal shall, except in cases of petitions under Section XII. of this Act, contain only notice that the party, being dissatisfied with the decision, is desirous of appealing from it.

Petition of regular appeal, when and to what Court to be presented, and what to contain.

Clause 2nd. The Sudder Court may extend the time for presenting such petition of appeal to the lower Court, upon being satisfied that there is sufficient cause for such extension of time. The application for such extension of time may be made directly to the Sudder Court, or through the intervention of the lower Court, at the option of the applicant.

Time for presenting petition of appeal may be extended. To what Court, and how application to be made.

II. On presentation of a petition of regular appeal to the Court in which the decision was passed, notice thereof to the respondent, as well as a proclamation to the same effect, shall immediately issue from that Court, and a copy of the proclamation shall be forthwith fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the said Court. If the notice cannot be personally served, the proclamation

Notice to be given to respondent — and proclamation to issue.

ACT No. IX. OF 1855.

Service of notice &c. tion shall at once be fixed upon the door of the respondent's dwelling-house, or in some conspicuous place in the village or place where he usually resides; or in cases in which the respondent shall not have a fixed residence within the jurisdiction of the Company's Courts, the proclamation may be fixed upon the door of his house of business or cutcherry, or the notice may be served on his known local agent. In case the proclamation cannot be fixed, or the notice served in the manner above-mentioned, the proclamation shall be fixed up in such other place, if any, as the said last-mentioned Court shall direct. The Nazir shall make a return to the Court stating when and where the notice and proclamation have been served or fixed up. The return of the Nazir shall be filed in Court, and shall form part of the record of the case, and such return shall be published by fixing up the same in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the lower Court.

III. Clause 1st. The rule in Section XI. Regulation V. of 1802, which directs copies of all original papers transmitted to the Sudder Court with the record of an appealed case to be made out and deposited in the lower Court, in lieu of the originals, is hereby modified, and it shall be necessary to copy, authenticate, and deposit only the exhibits in the case, and also any other papers of importance, including the pleadings, or any parts of them, which either of the parties shall require to be copied, authenticated and deposited in the lower Court, previously to their being transmitted to the Sudder Court.

Of what original papers copies are to be deposited.

Clause 2nd. If either of the parties require any papers to be copied, authenticated and deposited, such party shall, either by himself, or his pleader or authorized agent, give notice in writing thereof to the lower Court, before the expiration of fourteen days from the time of the publication of the return of the Nazir, as aforesaid; such notice shall specify the papers which the party requires to be copied, authenticated and deposited.

Party requiring any papers to be copied to give notice thereof.

Clause 3rd. Either party may, by himself, or his pleader or authorized agent, before the presentation of an appeal, give notice in writing to the lower Court specifying any papers or documents which he requires to be copied, authenticated and deposited, in the event of an appeal being preferred.

Party may give notice of papers to be copied in anticipation of appeal.

IV. The

ACT No. IX. OF 1855.

IV. The petition of appeal together with the record of the lower Court shall be certified to the Sudder Court as soon as conveniently may be after the presentation of the petition of appeal, provided that the same shall not be certified within the time allowed to the parties for specifying the papers which they desire to be copied, authenticated and deposited.

Petition and record when to be certified to the Sudder Court.

Proviso.

V. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the said Court, requiring the appellant to file, within six weeks from the date thereof, his grounds of objection to the decision of the Court below. Within the said space of six weeks, the appellant shall file in the said Sudder Court his grounds of objection to the decision.

Notice to appellant to file objections.

VI. Clause 1st. On the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the Sudder Court, requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, if any, to the appeal, or to the decision of the lower Court, within four weeks from the date of such notice.

Notice to respondent to file objections.

Clause 2nd. Within the said space of four weeks, the respondent shall file any grounds of objection which he has to the appeal, or which relate to such parts of the decision as are involved in the appeal.

When respondent to file objections.

Clause 3rd. If the respondent shall desire to object to any part of the decision of the lower Court not involved in the appeal, he may present a separate petition of appeal to the Sudder Court, within the said space of four weeks, or within such further time as the said Sudder Court shall allow for that purpose.

In what case respondent may file a separate petition of appeal.

Clause 4th. The respondent shall, in such case, file with his petition of appeal, his grounds of objection to that part of the decision to which his appeal relates; otherwise his appeal shall not be received.

Grounds of objection to be filed therewith.

VII. Clause 1st. At the expiration of the time allowed to the respondent for filing his grounds of objection, and for filing a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called called up for decision on any day which the Sudder Court may notify, unless the respondent, within such time, file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court.

Record when to be deemed complete.

ACT No. IX. OF 1855.

Clause 2nd. If the respondent file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, notice shall be fixed up in the Court House of the Sudder Court, to the effect that the respondent has filed such separate appeal; and the notice shall require the appellant to file any grounds of objection which he may have thereto, within the space of four weeks from the date of the notice.

Notice of separate petition of appeal to be given.

Clause 3rd. Within such space of four weeks the appellant may file any grounds of objection which he has to such appeal, or which relate to that part of the decision which is involved in the respondent's appeal. At the expiration of the time allowed for filing such grounds of objection by the appellant, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision on any day which the Sudder Court shall notify for that purpose.

When appellant to file objections.

Record when to be deemed complete.

Clause 4th. If the appeal of either party be dismissed, or withdrawn, the appeal of the other may be heard alone; otherwise the two appeals, and the proceedings thereon, shall form one record, unless the Sudder Court shall otherwise order.

Hearing of appeals.

VIII. The respondent shall not be allowed to present a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, if he shall previously have presented a petition of appeal to the lower Court.

In what case respondent not to present a separate petition of appeal.

IX. Clause 1st. All grounds of objection, which shall be filed by either the appellant or the respondent, shall be stated distinctly and concisely, without any argument or narrative of facts, and shall be numbered consecutively, and, except in the cases hereinafter mentioned, shall be on paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIX. Regulation XIII. of 1816.

Objections to be distinctly stated, and to be numbered.

Also to be written on stamped paper.—
Exception.

Clause 2nd. The

ACT No. IX. OF 1855.

Clause 2nd. The Sudder Court may extend the time for filing grounds of objection, either by an appellant or respondent, upon special application for that purpose, and upon sufficient reasons being shown, to the satisfaction of the said Court, for such extension of time. In such case, the objections may be filed within such extended time.

Sudder Court may extend the time for filing objections.

By leave of the Sudder Court, grounds of objection may be amended or added. The parties, but not the Court, to be confined to the objections filed.

X. Either party may, by leave of the Sudder Court, or any Judge thereof, at any time before the hearing, amend his grounds of objection, or add grounds of objection to those filed, upon such terms and conditions, and within such time as the said Court or Judge may order. The said Court may also, upon the hearing of any appeal, allow either party to amend his grounds of objection, or to add further grounds, or to urge, and be heard by himself or his pleader, in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection, upon such terms and conditions as to postponement of the cause, and as to the payment of costs or otherwise, as the Court shall think just, to prevent the opposite party or his pleader from being taken by surprise, or otherwise. Without such leave of the Court, neither party shall be allowed to urge or to be heard in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection filed. But the Court shall not be confined to such grounds of objection in deciding the cause.

XI. Clause 1st. The Sudder Court may call up for hearing and decision on any day the Court shall notify, and without regard to the place in which the case stands in the general list of appeals, any grounds of objection filed by the respondent, or the appellant, to the appeal of the opposite party; and the Sudder Court may hear and decide upon such grounds of objection, before calling the case up for decision upon the grounds of objection to the decision of the lower Court.

Sudder Court may fix a day to hear and determine objections to the appeal before hearing the appeal.

Clause 2nd. If the grounds of objection filed by the appellant and respondent shall be upon points of law only, and shall not raise any question of fact, the Sudder Court may order the case to be called up for hearing and decision on any day which the said Court shall notify, without regard to the place in which it stands in the general list of appeals pending in the said Court.

Appeal involving objections of law only may be heard and decided at any fixed time without regard to its place in the list of appeals.

Clause 3rd. If

ACT No. IX. OF 1855.

Clause 3rd. If the grounds of objection filed shall raise questions of law and fact, and it shall appear to the Sudder Court that the decision of the law may render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact so raised, the Court may order the case to be called up for decision upon the law alone in the first instance, in the manner pointed out in the last preceding Section; and if the decision of the case upon the law shall render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact, the said Court shall pass a final decision in the case; otherwise the Court shall determine the law only, and the case shall be afterwards set down in the list of regular appeals for hearing upon the question or questions of fact, and shall be determined in the same manner as any other regular appeal.

Appeal involving objections of law and fact how to be heard.

XII. If any party to a regular suit be desirous of being admitted to appeal in formâ pauperis to the Sudder Court, the following procedure shall be adopted:—

Appeal in formâ pauperis.

Clause 1st. The appellant shall present his petition to the lower Court according to the rules prescribed by Section I. of this Act, provided that a petition to appeal in formâ pauperis against any decision passed before this Act shall come into operation may be presented within three months from the day of the decision.

Petition when to be presented.

Proviso.

Clause 2nd. Petitions of appeal by parties desirous to appeal in formâ pauperis shall contain a statement to that effect, and also a Schedule of the whole real and personal property belonging to the petitioner, and the estimated value of such property, and shall be written on paper bearing the stamp duty of two rupees per sheet.

Form of petition.

Clause 3rd. Upon the presentation of such petition, the notice to the respondent and the proclamation shall state that the appellant desires to appeal in formâ pauperis.

Notice thereof and proclamation.

Clause 4th. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, the same procedure shall be adopted in that Court as in other cases of regular appeal, except that, after the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, and before notice shall be given requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, the Sudder Court shall determine, according to Procedure on such appeal.

ACT No. IX. OF 1855.

to the rules now applicable to the determination of such cases, whether or not the appellant shall be allowed to appeal in formâ pauperis.

Clause 5th. If the Sudder Court allow the petitioner to appeal in formâ pauperis, notice shall be given to the respondent to file his grounds of objection in the manner provided by Section VI. of this Act, and the same procedure shall be adopted subsequently thereto as in other cases of regular appeal under this Act. The rules and conditions now applicable to persons admitted by the Sudder Court to appeal in formâ pauperis shall continue in force, except where the same are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act.

Notice to respondent to file objections to pauper appeals.

Rules of Sudder as to pauper appeals to continue in force, except where inconsistent with this Act.

Clause 6th. If the Sudder Court refuse to allow the petitioner to appeal in formâ pauperis, the said Court may make an order to the effect that the appellant, upon filing a petition of appeal in that Court upon paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIII., and Clause 2 Section XXIII., Regulation XIII. of 1816, and upon re-filing his grounds of objection on paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIX. and Clause 2, Section XXIII. of the same Regulation, may proceed with the appeal according to the rules prescribed by this Act in the case of persons not appealing as paupers.

What order may be made upon refusal to allow appeal in formâ pauperis.

Clause 7th. Upon such order being made, the appellant shall file his petition, and re-file his objections upon paper stamped with the stamp duty required by Clause 6th of this Section, within two weeks from the date of such order, or within such further time as the said Court may allow for that purpose; otherwise the appeal shall stand dismissed.

Appellant how to proceed upon such order.

Clause 8th. Upon the re-filing of the grounds of objection according to the provisions of the last preceding Clause, notice of the order and of the re-filing of such objections shall be given to the respondent in the manner prescribed by Section VI. of this Act, and the respondent shall be required to file his grounds of objection, if any, according to the provisions of that Section. The procedure subsequent to such notice shall be according to the general provisions of this Act.

Notice of order to be given to respondent. Subsequent procedure thereon.

Clause 9th. If

ACT No. IX. of 1855.

In pauper appeals, appellant's objections may be on unstamped paper.

Clause 9th. If an appellant shall petition to appeal in formâ pauperis, his grounds of objection may be written on plain paper.

XIII. If an appellant shall be admitted to appeal, or a respondent to defend in formâ pauperis, all grounds of objection subsequently filed by either party may be written on plain paper.

All subsequent objections may be on unstamped paper.

XIV. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to regular appeals preferred before the 1st day of May 1855.

Act not to be retrospective.

Act 10/11/55

ACT No. X. OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 21st March 1855.)

AN ACT to amend the Law relating to the attendance and examination of witnesses in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, and to amend the provisions of Section XL. Act XIX. of 1853.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law relating to the attendance and examination of witnesses in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay, and to amend the provisions of Section XL. Act XIX. of 1853 ; It is enacted as follows :—

I. Section XXII. Regulation VII. of 1809 and Section VIII. Regulation XII. of 1809 of the Madras Code, and Section XL. Act XIX. of 1853, are hereby repealed.

Repeal of former Regulations &c.

II. If any party to a suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall, by himself or his pleader, make a special application to the Court for an order for a summons to compel the attendance of the party, and shall show to the satisfaction of the Court sufficient grounds in support of such application ; otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the trial, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

Special application to compel attendance of party to a suit as a witness.

III. The Court, upon the application of the pleader of any party to a suit whose attendance as witness is required, or without such application, if the Court think fit so to do, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence, and may also, from time to time, if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

IV. Clause 1. In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive a declaration in writing of the party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Written declaration of party receivable.

Clause 2. If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against and upon conviction punished accordingly.

Penalty for false statement.

V. The Court need not compel the attendance of any party to a suit for the purpose of giving evidence therein, if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any material subject of enquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give material evidence therein.

Court not to compel attendance of party to a suit to give evidence, if satisfied that he has no personal knowledge and that he cannot give material evidence.

VI. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed, or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall cause a summons to be issued for compelling the party to attend and give evidence.

Summons to issue if no sufficient cause shown.

VII. No party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open Court, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under, and subject to the Rules prescribed by Section XII. or XIV. of this Act.

Mode of examining party to a suit who offers himself as a witness.

Proviso.

VIII. If any witness, being a party to a suit, to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been personally delivered, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons, or attending, or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe scribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession, the Court, instead of proceeding in the manner provided by the laws in force in the Presidency in respect of defaulting witnesses, may, if the witness be a plaintiff, appellant, or petitioner, dismiss the complaint, appeal or petition, with costs against such party, or if such party be a defendant or respondent, may hear and decide the case against such defendant or respondent ex parte. If any such complaint, appeal or petition shall be dismissed for such cause, the complainant or petitioner shall be debarred from preferring any other petition, appeal or complaint in respect of the same matter.

IX. A witness not a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned shall not be bound to produce his own title-deeds, unless he shall have agreed in writing with the party requiring the production thereof, or with some person through whom he claims to produce such deeds.

In what case a witness, not being a party to the suit in which he is summoned, is bound to produce his title-deeds.

X. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, to whom a summons to attend and give evidence or produce a document shall be personally delivered, and who shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to obey such summons, or who shall be proved to have absconded, or kept out of the way to avoid being served with such summons, and any person who, being in Court, and upon being required by the Court to give evidence or produce a document in his possession, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence or sign his deposition, or to produce a document in his possession, shall, in addition to any proceedings to which he would otherwise be subject, be liable to the party at whose request the summons shall have been issued, or at whose instance he shall be required to give evidence or produce the document, for all damages which he may sustain in consequence of such neglect or refusal, or of such absconding or keeping out of the way as aforesaid, to be recovered in a civil action.

Person not obeying summons, &c. liable for damages in a civil action.

XI. It shall not be necessary to postpone the hearing or decision of a case for the non-production of a document, or for the evidence of a witness who may neglect or refuse to attend, or who shall abscond or keep out of the way, or who cannot be served with a summons, beyond such period as shall appear proper to the

the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case: provided that,
Proviso. when a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a plaintiff or appellant in a suit to give evidence or produce a document, the Court shall, at the request of the defendant or respondent, unless there be good reason to the contrary, postpone the hearing or decision until the plaintiff or appellant can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence or produce the document required; and that, where a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a defendant or respondent to give evidence or produce a document, the hearing or decision shall, upon the application of the plaintiff or appellant, be postponed in like manner, unless there be good reason to the contrary, until the defendant or respondent can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required.

XII. In every regular or summary suit, appeal or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in every summary suit or other proceeding of a Civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, the evidence of the attending witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge. The evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, by or in the presence and under the superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily by question and answer, but in the form of a narrative, and when completed shall be read over to the witness, and signed by him in the presence of the Judge and of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, or such of them as may think fit to attend. In case the witness shall refuse to sign the deposition, the Judge shall sign the same, and record the reason, if any, given by the witness for such refusal, together with such remarks thereon as the Judge shall think fit to make. It shall be in the discretion of the Judge to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer, if there shall appear any special reason for doing so, or any party or his vakeel shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions,

AN ACT relating to mesne profits and to improvements made by holders under defective titles in cases to which the English Law is applicable.

WHEREAS it is expedient, in cases to which the English Law is applicable, to limit the liability for mesne profits, and to secure to bonâ fide holders under defective titles the value of improvements made by them ; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. No person shall be chargeable with any rents or profits of any immovable property which he has bonâ fide paid over to any person of whom he bonâ fide held the same, notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that the person to whom such payment was made had no right to receive such rents or profits.

No person to be chargeable with rent bonâ fide paid to a holder under defective title.

II. If any person shall erect any building or make an improvement upon any lands held by him bonâ fide in the belief that he had an estate in fee simple, or other absolute estate, and such person, his heirs or assigns, or his or their under-tenants, be evicted from such lands by any person having a better title, the person who erected the building or made the improvement, his heirs or assigns, shall be entitled either to have the value of the building or improvement so erected or made during such holding and in such belief, estimated and paid or secured to him or them, or, at the option of the person causing the eviction, to purchase the interest of such person in the lands at the value thereof, irrespective of the value of such building or improvement. Provided that the amount to be paid or secured in respect of such building or improvement shall be the estimated value of the same at the time of such eviction.

Value of improvements made by bonâ fide holders under defective titles secured to them.

Value how to be estimated.

Act to apply only to cases governed by English Law.

III. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

AN ACT to enable Executors, Administrators or Representatives to sue and be sued for certain wrongs.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Executors, Administrators or Representatives in certain cases to sue and be sued in respect of certain wrongs which, according to the present law, do not survive to or against such Executors, Administrators or Representatives; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. An action may be maintained by the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased, for any wrong committed in the life-time of such person, which has occasioned pecuniary loss to his estate, for which wrong an action might have been maintained by such person, so as such wrong shall have been committed within one year before his death, and provided such action shall be brought within one year after the death of such person; and the damages, when recovered, shall be part of the personal estate of such person: and further, an action may be maintained against the Executors or Administrators or Heirs or Representatives of any person deceased for any wrong committed by him in his life-time for which he would have been subject to an action, so as such wrong shall have been committed within one year before such person's death, and so as such action shall be commenced within two years after the committing of the wrong: and the damages to be recovered in such action shall, if recovered against an Executor or Administrator bound to administer according to the English Law, be payable in like order of administration as the simple contract debts of such person.

Executors may sue and be sued in certain cases for wrongs committed in the life-time of a deceased person.

II. No action commenced under the provisions of this Act shall abate by reason of the death of either party, but the same may be continued by or against the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of the party deceased. Provided that,

ACT No. XIII. OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 27th March 1855.)

AN ACT to provide compensation to families for loss occasioned by the death of a person caused by actionable wrong.

WHEREAS no action or suit is now maintainable in any Court against a person who, by his wrongful act, neglect, or default, may have caused the death of another person, and it is often-times right and expedient that the wrong-doer in such case should be answerable in damages for the injury so caused by him ; It is enacted as follows :—

I. Whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect or default, and the act, neglect or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, the party who would have been liable if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action or suit for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to felony or other crime. And it is enacted further, that every such action or suit shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent and child, if any, of the person whose death shall have been so caused, and shall be brought by and in the name of the Executor, Administrator or Representative of the person deceased ; and in every such action, the Court may give such damages as it may think proportioned to the loss resulting from such death to the parties respectively, for whom and for whose benefit such action shall be brought, and the amount so recovered, after deducting all costs and expenses, including the costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided amongst the before-mentioned parties, or any of them, in such shares as the Court by its judgment or decree shall direct.

Action for compensation to the family of a person for loss occasioned to it by his death by actionable wrong.

II. Provided

ACT No. XIII. OF 1855.

II. Provided always that not more than one action or suit shall be brought for, and in respect of the same subject matter of complaint, and that every such action shall be brought within twelve calendar months after the death of such deceased person ; provided that, in any such action or suit, the Executor, Administrator or Representative of the deceased may insert a claim for, and recover any pecuniary loss to the Estate of the deceased occasioned by such wrongful act, neglect or default, which sum, when recovered, shall be deemed part of the assets of the Estate of the deceased.

Not more than one action to be brought : to be commenced within 12 months.

Claim for loss to the Estate may be added.

III. The plaint in any such action or suit shall give a full particular of the person or persons for whom, or on whose behalf, such action or suit shall be brought, and of the nature of the claim in respect of which damages shall be sought to be recovered.

Plaintiff shall deliver particulars, &c.

IV. The following words and expressions are intended to have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, so far as such meanings are not excluded by the context or by the nature of the subject matter, that is to say, words denoting the singular number are to be understood to apply also to a plurality of persons or things, and words denoting the masculine gender are to be understood to apply also to persons of the feminine gender ; and the word " person " shall apply to bodies politic and corporate ; and the word " parent " shall include father and mother, and grand-father and grand-mother ; and the word " child " shall include son and daughter, and grand-son and grand-daughter, and step-son and step-daughter.

ACT No. XVII. OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 29th May 1855.)

An Act to improve the law relating to the Copper Currency in the Straits.

Preamble. WHEREAS the Company's Rupee is by Act XVII. of 1835 a legal tender in satisfaction of all engagements in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, but no copper coin, except the half pice issued under Act XI. of 1854, is now by law legal tender for fractions of a Rupee in that Settlement; and it is expedient to remedy this defect in the law; and whereas besides the Rupee the Dollar is by custom current in the said Settlement; and it is therefore expedient to provide that the copper currency which will be legal tender in the said Settlement for fractions of a Rupee shall also be legal tender in the said Settlement for fractions of a Dollar; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Sections I. II. and V. of Act VI. of 1847 are hereby repealed, in so far as they relate to copper pice, double pice, and pies coined in accordance with Act XXII. of 1844, or Act XXI. of 1835: but in so far as they relate to all other copper coins, the said Sections shall remain in full force. And the provisions of Sections I. II. and IV. of Act XXII. of 1844, so far as they are now in force, are hereby extended to the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, where they shall have effect, any thing in Act VI. of 1847 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Acts repealed. II. From and after the first day of July 1855, within the said Settlement, a pice coined according to Act XXII. of 1844 shall be legal tender for one one hundred and fortieth part of a Dollar, and a double pice so coined shall be legal tender for one-seventieth part of a Dollar; and a pie so coined shall be legal tender for one four hundred ACT No. XX OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 24th July 1855,)

AN ACT for the establishment and maintenance of Boundary-marks in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

WHEREAS it is desirable, with a view to the better definition and security of landed property, the prevention of encroachments and disputes, and the identification of land assessed to, or exempted from the public revenue in the Presidency of Fort St. George, that provision should be made for the establishment and maintenance of permanent marks to distinguish the boundaries of fields, holdings, estates, and villages, It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful within the said Presidency for a Collector of Land Revenue, or person exercising the powers of Collector, or any Revenue Officer appointed by the Government for the purpose, to fix the boundaries of fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and to require that marks be formed and maintained by the owners or occupants on the boundaries, of such materials, and in such number and manner as may appear to such Officer sufficient for distinguishing the limits of such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, whenever he may be of opinion that such demarcation is necessary for the prevention or adjustment of disputes.

Collectors, &c. to fix boundaries of fields, &c. and to require owners or occupants to form and maintain boundary-marks.

II. Notices shall be served on the persons owning or occupying the conterminous fields, holdings, estates, or villages, requiring them to form or repair such boundary-marks within ten days from the date of the notice, and in the event of

of these persons not being found in their village, the said requisition shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the village, which shall be held to be a sufficient service, notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that the owners or occupants were not correctly named or designated in the said notice.

III. In default of the owners or occupants of the fields, holdings, estates, or villages complying with such requisition, the said Officer may give directions for the erection and repair of such boundary-marks, the cost of which shall be equitably apportioned on the fields, holdings, estates, or villages which they serve to distinguish, and shall be charged to the persons possessing a right of ownership or occupancy in such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and shall be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

In default of compliance Officer may order erection or repair of necessary marks at the expense of the owners or occupants.

In the case of unoccupied fields, cost to be charged to Government.

IV. In the case of unoccupied fields, the cost shall be charged to Government.

V. Any person convicted before a Magistrate of wilfully, and without lawful excuse, erasing, removing, or injuring such boundary-marks, or any survey-marks set up by an Officer of Government, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each mark so erased, removed, or injured, one-half of which fine may be awarded to the informer, and the other half shall be chargeable with the cost of restoring the mark. Whenever it may not be possible to detect the person who erased, removed, or injured such boundary or survey-marks, the Collector or other Revenue Officer aforesaid may give directions for the restoration or repair of such marks, and may order the cost thereof to be charged to the owners or occupants of the adjacent lands, or apportioned among the ryots of the village in proportion to their pottahs, as he may consider just and equitable, and to be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

Penalty for erasing, &c. marks—a moiety of which to be awarded to informer.

Party objecting may complain to Collector, &c.

VII. Any occupant or owner of land refusing or failing to attend, when summoned by the Collector or other Revenue Officer, at the measurement and demarcation of his field, holding, or estate, or of the village boundary, shall be liable, by order of the Collector or other such Officer, to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, to be levied by the same process as an arrear of land revenue.

Penalty for refusing or neglecting to attend when summoned.

VIII. The proceedings of Officers imposing charges under Sections III and V, or fines under Section VII of this Act, shall be recorded in writing, and shall be subject to appeal to the Revenue authorities to whom they are subordinate.

Proceedings under Sections III, V, and VII to be recorded in writing, and appealable to the superior Revenue authorities.

ACT No. XXI OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 9th August 1855.)

AN ACT for making better provision for the education of Male Minors and the marriage of Male and Female Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

WHEREAS the existing laws are found insufficient to insure the proper education of Male Minors subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, and it is expedient to make further and better provision for the education of such persons and their younger brothers, and for the exercise of a control over the marriages of all Minors under the superintendence of the Court of Wards: It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. The general superintendence and control of the education of every Male Minor, whose property has been, or shall be brought under the management of the Court of Wards, in, and for any part of the Presidency of Fort St. George, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is, or hereafter shall be, in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards, in the Zillah or District wherein such Minor's estate is situate ; or, if such Minor is possessed of immovable property in different districts, in such one of the Collectors of Revenue of such districts as the said Court of Wards shall select.

General control and superintendence of the education of Male Minor Wards vested in Collectors of Revenue.

II. It

ACT No. XXI OF 1855.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any Minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such Minor shall reside, either with or without his guardian, at the Sudder Station of the district, or at any other place within the said Presidency, and shall attend for the purposes of education, such School or College as to the said Collector may seem expedient; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said Minor whilst attending such School or College.

Collectors to have power to cause Male Minor Wards to be educated at any School or College.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such Minor at a School or College, he shall cause such Minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such Minor, or at the Sudder Station, or elsewhere within the said Presidency, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such Minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

Or in certain cases to cause such Wards to be educated by a private tutor.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any Male Minor Ward under the provisions of this Act, for College or School fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home, or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate, in the same manner as other expenses incurred under the authority, or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

Charges and expenses incurred under this Act to be paid out of the profits of the Ward's estate.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the Minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship, and every guardian, appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities, as persons originally appointed to be guardians of Minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards.

Continued liability of guardian removed: powers and responsibilities of new guardian.

VII. The right to the custody of the person of any Male Minor, whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, is hereby vested in the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such Minor, or, in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such Minor under the provisions of this Act.

The right to the custody of the person of a Male Minor to be vested in guardian appointed by the Court of Wards, or, failing him, in the Collector.

VIII. Whenever a Minor whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards has a younger brother or brothers entitled to maintenance at the charge of the estate, all the powers and provisions hereinbefore contained for promoting the education of such Minor, are hereby declared and made applicable to such younger brother or brothers.

The foregoing Sections applicable also to the younger brothers of Wards.

IX. Whoever knowingly aids or abets the marriage of any Minor, whose property is under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, or the marriage of a younger brother or sister of such Minor, without the leave of the Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards to such marriage first had and obtained, shall, on conviction before a Court of Session, upon the prosecution of or charges in such Ports, Rivers, and Channels, in order to defray the cost of such improvement, maintenance, and good government; and to punish the unlawful use of certain flags and colors in such Ports, Rivers, and Channels; and whereas it is expedient to abolish the Anchorage dues heretofore levied in the Presidency of Bombay: It is enacted as follows:—

Repeal of part of Act
I. of 1852.

I. Section XXI. of Act I. of 1852 and Schedule C. appended to that Act, are hereby repealed.

Operation of certain laws to cease in Ports,
&c., declared subject to this Act.

II. Regulation VII. 1801 of the Bengal Code; so much of Regulation
II. of 1810 of the Bombay Code as is still in force; Section XII. Regulation III. 1833 of the Bengal Code;
Act XIII. of 1839; Section XXXIX. of Act I. of 1852;
Sections XLII. and XLIII. of Act XIII. of 1852; and Act XI. of 1853, so far as it relates to the removal of any obstruction, impediment, or public nuisance affecting or likely to affect the navigation of

of the Port of Bombay—shall cease to be in force in any Port, River, or Channel in which the same respectively are now in force, from the time when such Port, River, or Channel shall be declared to be subject to this Act.

III. The Local Government of any part of the said Territories may, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, declare any Port within that part of the said Territories to be subject to this Act; and any navigable River or Channel leading to that Port to be subject to this Act. When any such Port or navigable River or Channel has been so declared to be subject to this Act, all the provisions of this Act, except such as are hereinafter made specially applicable to certain Ports by order of the Local Government, shall have effect in that Port or navigable River or Channel.

IV. Every declaration by which any Port, navigable River, or Channel shall be made subject to this Act, shall define the limits of such Port, navigable River, or Channel; and such limits shall extend always up to high-water mark, and may include any piers, jetties, landing-places, wharfs, quays, docks, and other works made for any of the purposes mentioned in the preamble of this Act, whether within or without the line of high-water mark, and (subject to any rights of private property therein) any portion of the shore or bank within fifty yards of high-water mark.

V. The Local Government may from time to time, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, alter the limits of such Port, River, or Channel.

VI. The Local Government shall appoint an Officer to be Conservator of every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act. In Ports where there is a Master Attendant, such Master Attendant shall be the Conservator. In Ports where there is no Master Attendant, but where there is a Harbour Master, the Harbour Master shall be the Conservator. In Ports where there are both a Master Attendant and a Harbour

ACT No. XXII. OF 1855.

Harbour Master, the Harbour Master and his Assistants shall be subordinate to, and subject to the control of the Master Attendant and his Assistants. The Conservator shall be subject to the control of the Local Government, or of any intermediate authority which that Government may appoint.

VII. The Local Government, with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, may from time to time make such Port-rules, not inconsistent with this Act, as it may think necessary for any of the following purposes, namely,—

Local Government empowered to make Port-rules.

1. For regulating the time at which, and the manner in which, vessels shall enter into or go out of any Port subject to this Act.

Entering or leaving Port.

Berths of vessels.

2. For regulating the berths and stations to be occupied by vessels in any such port.

Striking yards, &c.

3. For striking the yards and top-masts, and for rigging in the jib and driver booms, of vessels in any such Port, whenever it may be proper so to do.

Removal of anchors, &c.

4. For the removal or proper hanging or placing of anchors, spars, and other things, in or attached to vessels in any such Port.

Taking in or discharging ballast.

5. For regulating vessels whilst taking in or discharging ballast or cargo, or any particular kind of cargo, in any such Port, River, or Channel, and the stations to be occupied by vessels whilst so engaged.

Keeping free passage.

6. For keeping free passages of such width as may be deemed necessary within any such Port, River, or Channel, and along or near to the piers, jetties, landing-places, wharfs, quays, docks, moorings, and other works in or adjoining to the same; and for marking out the spaces so to be kept free.

7. For

ACT No. XXII. of 1855.

- Regulating the anchoring. 7. For regulating the anchoring, fastening, mooring, and unmooring of vessels in any such Port, River, or Channel.
- Moving and Warping. 8. For regulating the moving and warping of all vessels within any such Port and the use of warps therein.
- Use of mooring buoys. 9. For regulating the use of the mooring buoys, chain and other mooring, in any such Port, River, or Channel.
- Rates for use of mooring buoys. 10. For fixing from time to time, the rates to be paid for the use of such moorings, when belonging to the East India Company, or of any boat, hawser, or other thing belonging to the said Company.
- Cargo Boats, &c. 11. For regulating cargo and other boats, and catamarans plying for hire in any such Port. Provided that nothing in this Act shall authorize the Local Government to fix the price to be charged for the use of any such boat or catamaran.
- Fires and lights. 12. For regulating the use of fires and lights within any such Port.
- Signal light. 13. For enforcing and regulating the use of signal lights by vessels at night in any such Port, River, or Channel.

VIII. Every declaration and order of a Local Government, which shall be made in pursuance of this Act, shall be published in the Official Gazette of that Government, or, where there is no Official Gazette, in such other public manner as that Government may order; and a copy thereof shall be fixed up in some conspicuous place in the Office of the Conservator of every Port to which such order shall relate, and in the Custom House, if any, of every such Port.

IX. If

Penalty for disobedience to Rules.

X. The Conservator of any Port subject to this Act may, in respect of any vessel within such Port, River, or Channel, give directions for carrying into effect any Port-rule in force within such Port.

Conservator empowered to give directions for certain specified purposes.

XI. If any person shall wilfully, and without lawful excuse, refuse or neglect to obey any lawful direction of such Conservator, after notice thereof shall have been given to him, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, and a further sum not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every day on which he shall wilfully continue to disobey such direction; and, in case of such refusal or neglect, it shall be lawful for the said Conservator to do, or to cause to be done, all such acts as shall be reasonable or necessary for the purpose of carrying such direction into execution, and to hire and employ proper persons for that purpose; and all reasonable expenses which shall be incurred in doing such acts, shall be paid and borne by the person or person so offending. Any written notice of a direction given under this Act, which shall be left for the Master of any vessel with any person employed on board thereof, or which shall be affixed on a conspicuous place on board of such vessel, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been given to the Master thereof.

Penalties for disobedience to orders of Conservator.

Expenses caused thereby to be paid by the person offending.

Service of written notice.

XII. In every Port subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by any order of the Local Government, it shall be unlawful to move any vessel of the burthen of 200 tons or upwards, without having a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master on board; or to move a vessel of any burthen less than 200 tons and exceeding liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence, unless the Master of the vessel shall, upon application to the proper Officer, be unable to procure a Pilot, Harbour Master, or Assistant of the Master Attendant or Harbour Master to go on board the said vessel.

XIII. The Master of any vessel in any Port subject to this Act shall, when required so to do by the Conservator, permit warps to be made fast to such vessel for the purpose of warping any other vessel in the Port, and shall not allow any such warp to be let go, until required so to do; and any Master offending against the provisions of this Section shall be liable, for every such offence, to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Master to permit warps to be made fast to his vessel.

Penalty.

XIV. If the Master of any vessel shall cause or suffer any warp or lawser attached to his vessel, to be left out in any such Port, after sun-set, in such a manner as to endanger the safety of any boat or other vessel navigating in the said Port, he shall be liable to a penalty for every such offence not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty for leaving out lawser, &c., after sun-set.

XV. The Conservator of any such Port may, in case of urgent necessity, cut, or cause to be cut, any warp, rope, cable, or lawser, which shall endanger the safety of any vessel in such Port, or at or near to the entrance thereof.

Conservator may, in case of necessity, cut ropes, &c.

XVI. If any person shall, without lawful excuse, cause any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, or shall cause any public nuisance affecting or likely to affect such navigation, every such such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees, and also to pay all reasonable expenses which shall be incurred in abating or removing such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment; and the Conservator, or any Magistrate having jurisdiction over the offence, may cause such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment to be abated and removed.

XVII. The Conservator may remove, or cause to be removed, any timber or raft, floating or being in any part of any such Port, which shall impede the free navigation of such Port; or any thing which shall obstruct or impede the lawful use of any pier, jetty, landing-place, wharf, quay, dock, mooring, or other work, on any part of the shore or bank which has been declared to be within the limits of such Port, and is not private property; and the owner of any such timber or raft or other thing shall be liable to pay the reasonable expenses of such removal.

Any floating timber, &c., or any obstruction on shore within the limits of the Port, to be removed at the expense of owner.

XVIII. If the owner of any such timber or raft, or the person who has caused any such obstruction; impediment, or public nuisance as in either of the two last preceding Sections mentioned, shall neglect to pay the expense of the removal thereof, within one week after demand, or within fourteen days after such removal shall have been notified in the Official Gazette of the Presidency, or in such other manner as the Local Government by any general or special order may direct, such expenses may be recovered in the same manner as any penalty under this Act, and the Conservator may cause such timber, raft, or other thing, or the materials of any nuisance or obstruction so removed, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by Public Auction, and may retain all the expenses of such removal and sale out of the proceeds of such sale; and shall pay the surplus of such proceeds or deliver so much of the said timber or other materials as shall remain unsold, to the owner or other person entitled to receive the same; and, if no such person appear, shall cause the same to be kept and deposited in such manner as the Local Government shall direct; and may, if necessary, from time to time, realize the expenses of keeping the same, together with the expenses of such sale,

Expenses of removal may be recovered as a penalty.

Timber, &c., may be sold.

by a further sale of so much of the said timber or other materials as may remain unsold.

XIX. If any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, shall have been lawfully made, or shall have become lawful by reason of the long continuance of such obstruction or impediment, or otherwise, the Conservator shall report the same for the information of the Local Government and shall, with the sanction of such Government, cause the same to be removed or altered, making to the person or persons who suffer damage by such removal or alteration reasonable compensation for the same. If any dispute arise concerning such compensation, the matter in dispute shall be determined according to the laws now or hereafter to be in force in the Presidency or place within which such Port, River, or Channel is situate, relating to the determination of like disputes in the case of land required for public purposes.

XX. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse lift, injure, loosen, or set adrift any buoy, beacon, or mooring, fixed or laid down by or by the authority of the Local Government in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, he shall for every such offence be liable, in addition to the payment of the amount of damages done, to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for a period not exceeding six calendar months.

XXI. If any vessel shall hook or get foul of any of the buoys or mooring laid down by or by the authority of the Local Government in any such Port, River, or Channel, the Master of such vessel shall not, nor shall any other person, except in the case of emergency, lift such buoy or mooring for the purpose of unhooking or getting clear from the same without the assistance of the Conservator, and the Conservator, immediately on receiving notice of such accident, shall assist and superintend the clearing of such vessel ; and the Master of such vessel shall, upon demand, pay such reasonable expense as may be incurred in clearing the same. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty.

XXII. If any person shall wilfully and without lawful excuse loosen or remove from its moorings any vessel within any such Port, River, or Channel, without leave or authority from the owner or Master of such vessel, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees, or, at the discretion of the Magistrate, be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for a period not exceeding six calendar months.

Penalty for wilfully loosening a vessel from its moorings.

XXIII. If any vessel shall be wrecked, stranded, or sunk, in any such Port, River, or Channel, so as to impede or be likely to impede the navigation thereof, the Conservator may cause the same to be raised, removed, or destroyed; and, unless the expense of such work shall be re-paid within one month after the completion thereof, may recover the same on behalf of the Local Government in the manner provided by Section XXXIX. of this Act.

Conservator may raise any wreck, &c. impeding navigation within the Port.

Expense how recoverable.

XXIV. If any ballast or rubbish, or if any other thing likely to form a bank or shoal, or to be detrimental to navigation, shall, without lawful excuse, be cast or thrown into any such Port, River, or Channel, or into or upon any place on shore, from which the same shall be liable to be washed into any such Port, River, or Channel, either by ordinary or high tides, or by storms or land-floods, the person who shall so cast or throw the same, or cause the same to be so cast or thrown as aforesaid, and the Master of any vessel from which the same shall be cast or thrown, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees over and above any expenses which may be incurred in removing the same; but this provision shall not extend to any case in which such ballast or other thing shall be cast or thrown into any such Port, River, or Channel, with the consent in writing of any Conservator, or within any limits within which such act may be authorized by Government.

XXV. If any person shall grave, bream, or smoke any vessel in any such Port, contrary to the directions of the Conservator, or at any time or within any limits at or within which such act shall be prohibited by any order of the Local Government, every such person, and also the Master of such vessel, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty for graving,
&c., vessel within prohibited limits.

XXVI. If any person shall boil or heat any pitch, tar, resin, dammer, turpentine, oil, or other such combustible matter on board any vessel within any such Port, at any place where such act shall be prohibited by order of the Local Government or contrary to the order or directions of the Conservator, every such person, and also the Master of any vessel on board which such offence shall be committed, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Penalty for boiling pitch, &c., on board a vessel within prohibited limits.

XXVII. If any person shall, by candle-light, or other artificial light, draw off spirits on board any vessel within any such Port, every such person, and also the Master of every such vessel, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Penalty for drawing spirits by candle-light,
&c.

XXVIII. In every such Port to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, every vessel exceeding the burthen of 200 tons shall be provided with a proper force-pump, hose, and appurtenances, for the purpose of extinguishing any fire that may occur on board; and the Master of every such vessel who, after having been required by the Conservator to comply with such provision shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse so to do for the space of seven days after such requisition, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees.

Special Rule.
Vessels above 200 tons to be provided with a force-pump, &c.

Penalty,

ACT No. XXII. OF 1855.

XXIX. The Local Government may, by order, fix the limits within which vessels shall be prohibited from having on board, in any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, any quantity of gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, exceeding altogether fifty pounds in weight, whether manifested for delivery or not; and in such case the Local Government shall appoint a proper place of deposit for such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition in excess of the quantity above allowed, and an Officer to receive the same.

Vessels not to have powder, &c. exceeding 50 lbs. on board within certain limits to be fixed by Government.

Government to appoint place of deposit for powder.

XXX. The Local Government may, in such case, by order, fix the times at or within which, and the manner in which such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition shall be landed and deposited by any vessel inward-bound, and also the times at or within which, and the manner in which the same shall be taken on board any vessel from such place of deposit.

Government to fix the time and manner of landing and shipping powder, &c.

XXXI. The Master of such vessel shall, upon such gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition being deposited, make and sign a declaration in writing that there is not then, to his knowledge or belief, on board such vessel any gunpowder, rockets, or combustible ammunition exceeding the weight of fifty pounds; and in case such Master shall knowingly make any false declaration with respect to any of the matters aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees.

Master to make declaration.

Penalty.

XXXII. The Officer, with whom such gunpowder or other combustible ammunition shall be deposited, shall give a receipt for the same to the Master or other person making the deposit, and he shall be accountable to such Master or other person for the re-delivery of the same.

Officer to give receipt and to account for powder deposited.

XXXIII. If any vessel shall be prevented by stress of weather from landing or depositing such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, in excess of the quantity allowed as aforesaid, the master or owner of such vessel shall,

If, by stress of weather, powder is not landed, notice must be given thereof.

so soon as the weather may permit, land and deposit the same at the place so appointed as aforesaid, or shall forthwith give notice to the Conservator, or other Officer who shall be named for that purpose by any order of the Local Government, of his having such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition on board, and shall obey his directions relating to the same.

XXXIV. The Local Government may also, in respect to such Port, by order, fix the times and places at which, and the manner in which, vessels out-ward bound, requiring to take in any gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, exceeding the quantity above-mentioned, shall take in the same, whether such gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, shall have been previously landed from such vessel or not.

Time, &c., for vessels out-ward bound to take in powder, may be fixed by Government.

XXXV. The Master of any vessel which shall have on board any gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence; and all gunpowder, rockets, or other combustible ammunition which shall be on board any vessel, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be forfeited to Government, and may be seized by the Conservator, or by any Collector of Customs, or by any Custom House Officer, or other Officer authorized in that behalf by any general or special order of the Local Government, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any gunpowder, rockets, or other ammunition belonging to Government, or carried for the use of troops of Her Majesty or of the Honorable East India Company on board of any such vessel.

Penalties for having prohibited powder, &c. on board.

Exception.

XXXVI. If any person shall, without lawful excuse, discharge any gun, musket, or other fire-arm in any Port subject to this Act, or on or from the landing-places, piers, wharfs, or quays thereof, except a gun loaded only with gunpowder for the purpose of making a signal of distress, or for such other purpose as may be allowed by the Local Government, such person shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees.

Guns not to be discharged in Port.

Exception.

XXXVII. In

ACT No. XXII. of 1855.

XXXVII. In every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, no person, unless duly authorized by the Conservator, shall creep or sweep for anchors, cables, or other stores, lost or supposed to be lost, in such Port, River, or Channel. Every person offending against this provision shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees.

Special Rule.
Unauthorized person not to search for lost anchors or stores.

Penalty.

XXXVIII. If any anchors, wreck, stores, or other property shall be recovered by any Officer employed by the Local Government for that purpose, from the bed of any Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, the Local Government shall be entitled to receive a reasonable sum for salvage, having regard to the place of recovery ; a registry shall be kept of all anchors, wreck, or other property so recovered, in such manner, and at such place or places as the Local Government may direct; and such registry shall be open to public inspection at reasonable office hours, except on Sundays and such holidays as the Local Government may direct ; and such registry shall contain a description of such property, and of the times and places where the same shall have been recovered.

Salvage payable for wreck, &c.

Register to be kept.

XXXIX. If the property recovered under the last preceding Section, or by a Conservator acting under Section XXIII. of this Act, is unclaimed, or if the person claiming the same refuses to pay the amount due to the Local Government in respect thereof, such property, if of a perishable nature, may be sold forthwith ; and if not of a perishable nature, may be sold at any period not less than six months after the recovery thereof, by Public Auction ; and on the realization of the proceeds, the amount due to the Local Government for salvage, or for the expenses incurred under Section XXIII. as aforesaid, shall be deducted therefrom, and credited to the Local Government, and the balance shall be paid to the person entitled to the property recovered, or, if no such person shall appear and claim the same, shall be held in deposit for payment, without interest, to any person who may thereafter establish his right to the same.

Property recovered may, in certain cases, be sold.

Proceeds how to be applied.

ACT No. XXII. OF 1855.

Special Rule.
XL. In every Port, River, or Channel subject to this Act, to which the provisions of this Section shall be specially extended by an order of the Local Government, no person, without the permission of the Conservator, shall remove or carry away any rock, stones, shingle, gravel, or soil, or any artificial protection from any part of the Bank or Shore of such Port, River, or Channel; and no person shall sink or bury in any part of such Bank or Shore, whether the same be public or private property, any mooring-post, anchor, or any other thing which is likely to injure, or to be used so as to injure such Bank or Shore, except with the permission of the said Conservator, and with the aid or under the inspection of such person or persons (if any) as he may appoint to take part in or overlook the performance of such work. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence, and to pay the expenses of repairing the injury (if any) done to such Bank or Shore.

Penalty.

Levy of Port-dues.
XLI. The dues and fees now usually collected at the several Ports within the said Territories, may, during the period of one year from the time of the passing of this Act, be collected at such Ports respectively. No Port-dues or fees shall hereafter be levied in any such Port except under the authority of this Act or of an Act hereafter to be passed for fixing the amount thereof; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the levy, as heretofore, of light-dues under Regulation VI. of 1831 of the Bombay Code and Act XIII. of 1854, or of fines or duties payable under Act XXVII. of 1850.

Local Government may vary the Port-dues.
XLII. The Local Government may, from time to time, vary the rate at which Port-dues and fees shall be levied in any such Port, River, or Channel, in such manner as, having regard to the receipts and charges on account of that Port, it may deem expedient, by reducing or raising the dues and fees, or any of them; provided that the rates shall not in any case exceed the amount authorized to be taken by this or any subsequent Act.

an abstract thereof to be published.

XLIV. For every Port at which Port-dues shall be levied under this or any subsequent Act, a distinct account, to be called the Account of the Port Fund of the Port to which it relates, shall be kept by such Officer as the Local Government may appoint for that purpose. This account shall shew in complete detail the receipts and charges of the Port; and an abstract statement of every such account shall be published annually, as soon after the 1st of May of each year as may be practicable, in which statement the balance at the close of the year at the credit or debit of the Port shall be shewn. If, for any of the purposes of this Act, an advance of money shall have been or shall be made by Government on account of any Port subject to this Act, simple interest upon that advance, or upon so much of it as remains or shall remain unrepaid, at such rate as the Governor-General in Council may determine, shall be charged in the Port Fund Account thereof; all expenses, including the pay and allowances of all persons upon the establishment of the Port, the cost of buoys, beacons, lights, and all other works maintained chiefly for the benefit of vessels being in, or entering, or leaving the Port, or passing through the Rivers or Channels leading thereto, but excluding receipts and expenses on account of Pilotage, incurred for the sake of every such Port, shall be charged in the Port Fund Account of that Port. And all money, including salvage money, proceeds of waifs, and fines, received under this Act, at or on account of every such Port, shall be credited in the Port Fund Account of that Port.

Collection of Port-dues.

XLV. The Collector of Customs at every such Port, or such other Officer as the Local Government shall appoint, shall collect the Port-dues above-mentioned. The Officer, to whom any such Port-dues shall be paid, shall grant to the person paying the same a proper voucher in writing under his hand, describing the name of his Office, the port or place at which the same shall be paid, and the name, tonnage, and other proper description of the vessel in respect of which such payment shall have been made.

XLVI. Within twenty-four hours after the arrival, within the limits of any such Port, of any vessel liable to the payment of Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, the Master of such vessel shall report such arrival to the Conservator of such Port; and if any Master of a vessel shall, without lawful excuse, fail to make such report within the time aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for every such offence.

Master to report the arrival of vessel to Harbour Master.

Penalty.

XLVII. If any vessel liable to the payment of Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, shall be in any such Port without proper marks on the stem and stern posts thereof for denoting the draught of such vessel, the Conservator may, in any case in which it shall be necessary to ascertain the draught of such vessel, cause the same to be ascertained by means of the operation of hooking, and the Master of such vessel shall be liable to pay the expenses of such operation.

Conservator may in certain cases ascertain the draught, and charge the expense thereof to the Master.

XLVIII. In order to ascertain the tonnage of any vessel liable to pay Port-dues under this or any subsequent Act, the following rules shall be observed:—

Tonnage of vessel liable to Port-dues how to be ascertained.

Clause 1.—If such vessel be a British registered vessel, or a vessel registered under Act X. of 1841, or Act XI of 1850, or under the laws for the time being in force for the registration of vessels in India, the Conservator may require the owner or Master of such vessel, or any person having possession of the register of such vessel, to produce such register for inspection; and if any such Master or other person shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to produce such register as aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees. If any such owner, Master, or other person as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to produce such register, or otherwise to satisfy the Conservator also that nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of any person claiming under, or by virtue of any will, deed, or document already made, or to be made, before this Act shall have come into operation.

ACT No. XXIV OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 13th August 1855.)

AN ACT to substitute penal servitude for the punishment of Transportation in respect of European and American Convicts, and to amend the Law relating to the removal of such Convicts.

WHEREAS, by reason of the difficulty of providing a place to which Europeans or Americans can, with safety to their health, be sent for the purpose of undergoing sentences of transportation or of imprisonment for long terms, it has become expedient to substitute other punishment for that of transportation, and to amend the law relating to the removal of European and American Convicts for the purpose of imprisonment; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. After the commencement of this Act, no European or American shall be liable to be sentenced or ordered, by any Court within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, to be transported.

No European or American to be sentenced to transportation.

II. Any person who, but for the passing of this Act, would, by any Law now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, in any part of the said territories, be liable to be sentenced or ordered, by any such Court, to be transported, shall, if a European or American, be liable to be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude for such term as hereinafter mentioned.

Terms of penal servitude instead of the present terms of transportation.

The

ACT No. XXIV of 1855.

The terms of penal servitude to be awarded by any sentence or order, instead of the term of transportation to which any such offender would, but for the passing of this Act, be liable, shall be as follows: (that is to say)—

Instead of transportation for seven years, or for a term not exceeding seven years, penal servitude for the term of four years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding seven years, and not exceeding ten years, penal servitude for any term not less than four and not exceeding six years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding ten years and not exceeding fifteen years, penal servitude for any term not less than six and not exceeding eight years.

Instead of any term of transportation exceeding fifteen years, penal servitude for any term not less than six and not exceeding ten years.

Instead of transportation for the term of life, penal servitude for the term of life. And in every case where, at the discretion of the Court, one of any two or more of the terms of transportation hereinbefore mentioned might have been awarded, the Court shall have the like discretion to award one of the two or more terms of penal servitude hereinbefore mentioned, in relation to such terms of transportation.

III. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall interfere with or affect the authority or discretion of any Court in respect of any punishment which such Court may now award or pass on any offender other than transportation; but where such other punishment may be awarded at the discretion of the Court instead of transportation or in addition thereto, the same may be awarded instead of, or (as the case may be) in addition to, the punishment substituted for transportation by this Act.

Discretion of Courts as to alternative punishments not to be affected.

IV. If

ACT No. XXIV OF 1855.

IV. If any offender sentenced by any Court within the said territories to the punishment of death shall have mercy extended to him, upon condition of his being kept in penal servitude for life, or for any term of years, all the provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such offender in the same manner as if he had been lawfully sentenced under this Act to the term of penal servitude specified in the condition.

Effect of pardon granted upon condition of penal servitude.

V. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council or for the person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of any Presidency or place in which a European or American has been lawfully sentenced by any Court to be transported, to order such person to be kept in penal servitude for the shortest term of penal servitude substituted by this Act for a term of transportation of the same extent as that to which the offender was sentenced, or that portion thereof which he shall not have undergone, provided that no person shall be kept in penal servitude under the provisions of this Section after the expiration of the term of transportation to which he was sentenced.

The Executive Government may direct Europeans or Americans under sentence of transportation to be kept in penal servitude.

Term of penal servitude in such case.

VI. Every person who, under this Act, shall be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude, may, during the term of the sentence or order, be confined in any such prison or place of confinement within any part of the said territories as the Governor General of India in Council shall, by any General Order, from time to time direct; and may during such time, be kept to hard labour; and such person may, until he can conveniently be removed to such prison or place of confinement, be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, and dealt with in all other respects in the same manner as persons sentenced by the convicting Court to imprisonment with hard labour may, for the time being, by law be dealt with. Provided that the time of such intermediate imprisonment, and the time of removal from one prison to another, shall be taken and reckoned in discharge or part discharge of the term of the sentence.

Persons under sentence of penal servitude where to be sent and how to be dealt with.

Intermediate imprisonment.

Proviso.

VII. All

ACT No. XXIV OF 1855.

VII. All Acts and Regulations now in force within any part of the said territories, with respect to convicts under order or sentence of transportation, or under order or sentence of imprisonment with hard labour, shall, so far as may be consistent with the express provisions of this Act, be construed to extend and be applicable to persons under any order or sentence of penal servitude made or passed under this Act.

All Acts, &c., respecting convicts under sentence of transportation or imprisonment with hard labour made applicable for the purposes of this Act.

VIII. The person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of the Presidency or place in which any European or American convict is imprisoned, under a sentence or order of imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, whether with or without hard labour, may, with the consent of the Governor General of India in Council, order the removal of such prisoner from the prison or place in which he is confined to any other public prison or place of confinement within any part of the said territories; and such order shall be a sufficient authority for imprisoning the convict during the remainder of the term mentioned in the sentence, or any part of such term, in the Jail to which the prisoner is removed.

Removal of European or American convicts under sentence of imprisonment from one prison to another.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to grant to any convict who may hereafter be sentenced or ordered to be kept in penal servitude, a license to be at large within the said territories, or in such part thereof as in such license shall be expressed, during such portion of his term of servitude, and upon such conditions in all respects as to the Governor General of India in Council shall seem fit; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council at any time to revoke or alter such license by a like order.

Governor General in Council may grant a license to be at large to any convict under sentence of penal servitude.

X. So long as such license shall continue in force and unrevoked, such convict shall not be liable to imprisonment or penal servitude by reason of his sentence, but shall be allowed to go and remain at large according to the terms of such license.

Holder of such license not to be imprisoned, &c.

XI. In

ACT No. XXIV OF 1855.

XI. In case of the revocation of any such license as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for one of the Secretaries to the Government of India by order in writing, to signify to any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate that such license has been revoked, and to require such Justice or Magistrate to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the convict to whom such license was granted, and such Justice or Magistrate shall issue his warrant accordingly; and such warrant may be executed by any officer to whom it may be directed or delivered for that purpose in any part of the said Territories, and shall have the same force and effect in any place within such Territories as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a Justice or Magistrate, or other lawful authority having jurisdiction in the place where the same shall be executed; and such convict, when apprehended under such warrant, shall be brought, as soon as he conveniently may be, before the Justice or Magistrate by whom the said warrant shall have been issued, or some other Justice or Magistrate of the same place, or before a Magistrate or Justice having jurisdiction in the zillah or district in which such convict shall be apprehended, and such Justice or Magistrate shall thereupon make out his warrant, under his hand and seal for the re-commitment of such convict to the prison or place of confinement from which he was released by virtue of the said license, and such convict shall be re-committed accordingly, and shall thereupon be liable to be kept in penal servitude for such further period as, with the time during which he may have been imprisoned under the original sentence or order, and the time during which he may have been at large under an unrevoked license, shall be equal to the period mentioned in the original sentence or order.

XII. If a license be granted under Section IX of this Act upon any condition specified therein, and the convict to whom the license is granted violate any such condition, or shall go beyond the limits specified in the license, or, knowing of the revocation of such license, shall neglect forthwith to surrender himself, or shall conceal himself or endeavour to avoid being apprehended, he shall be liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to penal servitude for a term not exceeding the full term of penal servitude mentioned in the original sentence or order.

Penalty for breach of condition of the license.

ACT No. XXIV. of 1855.

XIII. Nothing in this Act is intended to alter or affect the provisions of the 12 and 13 Victoria Chapter 43, or any Act of Parliament passed in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland since the 28th of August 1833, or which may hereafter be passed.

Act not to affect the provisions of certain English Statutes.

XIV. Any sentence or order upon any person describing him as a European or American shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be conclusive of the fact that such person is a European or American within the meaning of this Act.

What to be deemed proof that a person is a European or an American.

XV. The word "European," as used in this Act, shall be understood to include any person usually designated a European British subject. Words in the singular number or the masculine gender shall be understood to include several persons as well as one person, and females as well as males, unless there be something in the context repugnant to such construction.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 23rd October 1855.)

AN ACT for amending Act No. VI of 1844.

WHEREAS it is prescribed, by Regulation II of 1803 of the Madras Code, that the Collectors of the public revenue, derived from duties on commodities by Sea or Land, as well as from other sources, shall be under the immediate control of the Board of Revenue, and shall obey all orders communicated to them by the authority of that Board ; and it is expedient to amend Act No. VI of 1844, in so far as it may be construed to exempt any orders or proceedings of officers employed in the collection of Customs from the revision and control of the said Board of Revenue, and in so far as it makes the proceedings of Collectors of Customs depend upon the orders of Government in certain cases : It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

Board of Revenue empowered to revise proceedings of officers employed in the collection of Sea Customs and Land Frontier Customs.

I. The Board of Revenue is empowered to revise the proceedings of all officers employed in the collection of Sea Customs and Land Frontier Customs, under Act No. VI of 1844, and to annul or modify the orders of such officers.

II. The Board of Revenue is empowered, instead of the Governor in Council, to pass orders in all cases in which, by the proviso in Section XVII Act No. VI of 1844 relating to baggage, and by Sections XXVI and LXI of the same Act, the proceedings of the Collectors of Customs are dependent on the orders of Government.

I. It is enacted that Section VII of Act No. XXVIII of 1839 be repealed.

ACT No. XXXI OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 14th November 1855.)

AN ACT relating to the Emigration of Native Laborers to the British Colonies of Saint Lucia and Grenada.

WHEREAS it is expedient to render lawful the emigration of laborers, being Native inhabitants of the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, to the British Colonies of Saint Lucia and Grenada, and to provide regulations for ships carrying Native Emigrants from the said Territories to either of the said Colonies: It is enacted as follows:—

I. Act No. XIV^a of 1839, in so far as it renders liable to penalties every person who shall make with any Native of India any contract for labor to be performed in the British Colonies of Saint Lucia and Grenada, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any Native of India in emigrating from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, respectively, to the said Colonies, is repealed.

II. After the passing of this Act, Native inhabitants of the said Territories shall be allowed to pass and to be conveyed as Emigrant laborers to Saint Lucia and Grenada, respectively, from the Ports of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, respectively, but not otherwise.

Natives may emigrate from Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay to Saint Lucia and Grenada.

III. At

ACT No. XXXI OF 1855.

III. At each of the three Ports aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Government of the Presidency or place within which the Port is situated, to authorize such person or persons as may be nominated by the Governments of Saint Lucia and Grenada, respectively, to act as Emigration Agents at the aforesaid Ports respectively, and to exercise the powers conferred on Emigration Agents by this Act; and every such Emigration Agent shall make monthly reports to the Government to which he is subordinate of all matters transacted by him in pursuance of this Act.

IV. The Protector of Emigrants at each of the three Ports aforesaid shall act as protector of laborers emigrating under the provisions of this Act from the aforesaid Ports respectively.

V. It shall not be lawful to convey any Emigrant, being a Native of India, who may embark for the purpose of laboring for hire in either of the said Colonies from any of the Ports aforesaid in any ship or vessel, unless a license be obtained for carrying Emigrants in any such ship or vessel from the Government of the Presidency or place in which the Port is situated. A fee, not exceeding one Rupee per Emigrant, as may be regulated from time to time by the Local Government, shall be demandable in respect of every such license, which fee shall be carried to the credit of the said Government, and the granting or withholding any such license shall be entirely discretionary with the Government; and in consideration of such license, the Master of every ship conveying, or destined to convey, Emigrants from India, shall execute a Bond, binding himself and his owners in a penal sum of 10,000 Rupees, to conform to the several conditions herein provided, and the said Bond shall be executed in duplicate, that it may be put in suit either at the place of execution or in the Colony to which the Emigrants are to be conveyed, and one copy shall be forwarded to the Government of such Colony, to be dealt with as the case may require. And every ship or vessel in which any such Emigrant shall be conveyed, without a license being obtained as aforesaid, shall be liable to be forfeited, and the Master thereof shall be liable, as for a misdemeanor, misdemeanor, to a fine of 1,000 Rupees for every such Emigrant so illegally conveyed.

VI. It shall not be lawful for the Master of any vessel licensed as above-mentioned to receive on board any Emigrant laborer, as above provided, unless such laborer shall have in his possession and show a certificate or pass, to be given to him by the Emigration Agent of the Port, countersigned by the Protector of Emigrants, stating his name, and the name of his father, and his age, and certifying that, having appeared before such Agent, he has declared his willingness to proceed to work for hire in the Colony to which such vessel is bound, and has been engaged by him as an Emigrant to such Colony on the part of the Government thereof.

VII. Before any ship or vessel, so licensed to carry Emigrant laborers as above provided, shall be cleared out from any of the aforesaid Ports for either of the said Colonies, it shall be necessary for the Master of such ship or vessel, provided any Emigrant of the description aforesaid shall embark therein, to obtain from the Emigration Agent, so nominated and authorized at such Port as aforesaid, a certificate, under the hand of such Agent, to the effect following, that is to say—

First.—That such Agent has, by personal communication, done what is required on the part of such Agent by the third Article of the Schedule hereunto annexed; provided always, that every such Agent shall make the enquiries specified in such Schedule in an open Court or public Office, to which all persons shall have admission.

Second.—That all the directions contained in the fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh Articles of the said Schedule, for ensuring the health and safety of passengers, have been duly complied with.

Third.—That (in addition to the directions contained in the said Schedule) such Rules have been complied with as the Governor General in Council shall from time to time frame, touching

ACT No. XXXII OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 30th November 1855).

AN ACT relating to Embankments.

WHEREAS the Regulations now in force for the maintenance of embankments in the Territories under the Government of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal have been found ineffectual for the intended purposes thereof, and whereas it is desirable that provision should be made for the better supervision and protection of the same: It is enacted as follows :—

I. Regulation VI of 1806 and Regulation XI of 1829, so far as they relate to the said Territories, are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole or part of any other Regulation, and except as to acts done, offences committed, and liabilities incurred before the passing of this Act.

II. The word "embankment" in this Act means an embankment for the purpose of excluding or retaining water; and every embankment which is now kept up, or may hereafter be kept up, by the officers of Government, at the expense either of Government or of any private person, is a public embankment within the meaning hereof.

III. The superintendence of the public embankments shall be entrusted, subject to the general orders of Government, to an Officer who shall be called the Superintendent of Embankments.

IV. Clause 1.

PRICE THREE ANNAS.

ACT No. XXXII OF 1855.

IV. Clause 1.—The Superintendent of Embankments may cause any embankment which connects public embankments, or forms by junction with them part of a line of embankments, or is necessary for the protection of the neighbouring country, to be taken charge of and kept up by the officers of Government.

Superintendent may take charge of any embankment which connects public embankments, &c.

And remove private embankment endangering a public embankment.

And change the line of any public embankment or make a new embankment.

And enlarge embankment, &c.

Clause 2.—He may also cause any private embankment, which endangers the stability of a public embankment, or obstructs the beneficial drainage of the country, to be removed.

Clause 3.—He may also, when necessary, change the line of any public embankment, or make a new embankment.

Clause 4.—He may also enlarge any public embankment, and do all acts necessary and proper for the maintenance thereof.

V. Clause 1.—Before the Superintendent shall cause any of the works mentioned in the first three Clauses of the next preceding Section to be executed, he shall give notice in writing to the Collector of the district of his intention so to do. Upon the receipt of such notice, the Collector shall cause a proclamation to be issued, incorporating the substance of the notice, and calling upon all persons interested, who may be desirous of showing cause against the execution of such works, to appear before him on a certain day to be named therein.

Before taking charge of private embankments, &c., Superintendent to give notice to Collector, who shall issue a proclamation.

Clause 2.—The proclamation shall be published by affixing the same in the Cutcherry of the Collector, the Mal Cutcherry (if any) of the estate on which the works are intended to be executed, and on some conspicuous spot in the neighbourhood thereof. The proclamation shall be published not less than fifteen days before the day appointed for hearing the parties interested.

Publication of proclamation.

Clause 3.

ACT NO. XXXII OF 1855.

Clause 3.—The Collector shall hear the objections of any parties who may appear, and, after recording any evidence which they may adduce, shall communicate the objections that may be made, together with his opinion thereon, to the Superintendent of Embankments. If the Superintendent agree in opinion with the Collector, he shall pass an order accordingly. If he differ from the Collector, the case shall be referred to the Commissioner of Revenue, who shall pass such orders thereon as he may deem fit.

Clause 4.—Every such order passed by the Superintendent shall be appealable to the Commissioner of Revenue, and every order of the Commissioner shall be appealable to the Board of Revenue; but no appeal shall lie against any order passed under this Section, unless the same be presented within one month from the date of the order.

Clause 5.—Subject to the right of appeal above-mentioned, and to the orders and control of Government, every order passed under this Section shall be final, and shall not be open to revision by any Civil Court, and shall be conclusive as to the necessity of any works ordered to be executed.

VI. Whenever the Superintendent of Embankments shall hereafter cause an embankment, which any person is bound to keep up, to be taken charge of by the officers of Government, the expense of keeping up such embankment shall be charged to such person. Provided that the amount so charged shall not exceed the reasonable expense of keeping up an embankment of the size and description which such person was bound to keep up, notwithstanding the embankment shall have been enlarged or improved by the officers of Government.

VII. Clause 1.—When the Superintendent of Embankments shall enlarge or change the line of any embankment, or make a new embankment, or cause an embankment to be removed, any person sustaining damages thereby, who, but for the passing passing of this Act, would be entitled to compensation, may prefer his claim for such compensation to the Collector of the District, at any time within twelve months after the execution of the work by which he is endamaged, and the Collector thereupon shall report the case for the orders of the superior Revenue authorities. If the claim be rejected, the claimant shall not be deprived, by reason of this Act, of any right which he might otherwise have had, to recover such compensation by a civil action; but such action shall not lie, unless the claimant shall have first preferred his claim to the Collector within the period above-mentioned, nor unless the suit be brought within a period of one year after notice to the claimant of its rejection. If the claim for compensation be admitted by the Revenue authorities, and the amount of compensation cannot be agreed upon, the same shall be settled by arbitration, in the manner hereinafter provided, and in no other manner, unless by the consent of the claimant and of the superior Revenue authorities.

Clause 2.—Unless the Collector and the claimant concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, the Collector on the part of Appointment of arbitrators. Government, and the claimant, shall each appoint an arbitrator. The appointment shall be in writing, and neither of the said parties shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other.

Clause 3.—If there be several claimants for compensation in respect to the same injury, and they cannot agree in the appointment of an arbitrator on their behalf, in that case each of them Arbitrator how to be chosen when there are several claimants for compensation. may nominate one person; and the Collector shall choose by lot out of the persons so nominated by the parties, or any of them, a person to act as arbitrator on behalf of the claimants. If only one person shall be so nominated, he shall be the arbitrator on behalf of the claimants.

Clause 4.—When more than a single arbitrator shall be appointed, the arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to them, nominate and appoint by writing a third person to act with them as arbitrator; and in case the arbitrators shall neglect to appoint such third arbitrator for a period of seven days after Appointment of a third arbitrator. having having been required so to do, the Collector may appoint such third arbitrator. If the arbitrators differ in opinion, or if one of them, having received due notice of a meeting of arbitrators, neglect to attend, any two arbitrators may make an award.

Clause 5.—If any person, on being appointed an arbitrator, shall refuse to act, or after accepting the appointment shall die or become incapable of acting, another person shall be appointed in his stead, in the same manner in which the first person was appointed.

Arbitrator refusing or becoming incapable to act, &c.

Clause 6.—After the arbitrators have accepted the appointment, the Collector shall be competent to exercise towards them such powers and authority, for securing their attendance and the due completion of their award, as the said Collector may legally exercise towards witnesses summoned before him when acting judicially for the purposes of compelling them to attend and give evidence.

Collector empowered to enforce attendance of arbitrators.

Clause 7.—If no award be made within a period to be fixed for that purpose by the Collector, he may order that the matter shall be referred to another arbitrator or other arbitrators, to be chosen in the same manner and subject to the same rules as the first.

In default of award within a specified period, fresh arbitrators may be chosen.

Clause 8.—The Collector shall furnish to the arbitrators, or, so far as may be in his power, procure for them any information which his records or those of any public department may afford, connected with the subject of enquiry. He shall, on the application of the arbitrators, summon any witnesses whom the arbitrators may call for, and whom the parties may not be able to produce before them without such process, and require the persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds, writings, maps, and plans, as they shall require. He shall also cause the proper affirmation to be made and signed by any witness whom the arbitrators may desire to examine upon affirmation, or he may empower the arbitrators to cause such affirmation to be made and signed before them. Any witness who shall refuse or omit to appear when duly summoned by the Collector, or who shall appear but shall refuse to make such affirmation, or who shall refuse to give evidence, shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence before the Collector when acting judicially. Any person giving intentionally and deliberately a false deposition, under an affirmation, in any case referred to arbitration as above, shall be held to be guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for that offence by law.

Clause 9.—On the close of the enquiry, the arbitrators shall deliver a full and complete award, which shall specify the amount of compensation and the party or parties entitled thereto. Award of the arbitrators. The proceedings of the arbitration shall be deposited in the Collector's Office; and every party interested therein shall be entitled to a copy of the award on plain paper under the seal and signature of the Collector, which copy shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

Clause 10.—If the right to the compensation awarded shall in any case be doubtful, or if there exist any ground which, in the judgment of the arbitrators or of the Collector, render it improper to make immediate payment thereof to any of the claimants, the amount shall be invested in Government securities, and held in deposit until one of the claimants shall obtain an order of Court for the payment thereof. Payment of compensation may in certain cases be deferred.

Clause 11.—No award passed under this Section shall be liable to be reversed or altered, except by the decision of a Civil Court on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators, and no suit to set aside such an award shall be entertained, unless it be instituted within three months from the date of the award. In case the award shall be so reversed, the matter shall be referred to another arbitrator or other arbitrators, to be appointed in the same manner as the first. Reversal or alteration of award.

Clause 12.

ACT No. XXXII OF 1855.

Cl 12.—All suits and proceedings instituted against Government in any case in which compensation has been awarded, except suits instituted for the reversal of awards as aforesaid, shall be dismissed with costs. But nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any party to recover the amount awarded from any person who may have received the same without any just title thereto.

Suits against Government, except suits for reversal of awards, shall be dismissed with costs.

Proceedings against Government, except suits for reversal of awards, shall be dismissed with costs.

Proviso.

Clause 13.—In fixing the amount of compensation to which any person may be entitled by reason of any of the acts mentioned in Clause 1 of this Section, the Court or arbitrators, as the case may be, shall take into consideration whether any party to the suit or arbitration has derived or will derive benefit from the act in respect of which the compensation is claimed, and shall set off the estimated value of such benefit, if any, against the compensation which would otherwise be decreed or awarded to that party.

Estimated value of benefit to be set off against the compensation to be awarded.

Clause 14.—The provisions of this Section shall not be held applicable to cases in which the compensation to be made has reference only to huts, trees, or crops, which it may be necessary to remove or destroy in enlarging or changing the line of a public embankment. In all such cases the officer in charge of the public embankments of the district shall report to the Collector, and the Collector shall thereupon proceed to value and make compensation for such huts, trees, and crops, in the manner prescribed in Section XII of this Act.

The provisions of this Section not to apply to cases of compensation in respect to huts, trees, or crops.

VIII. Clause 1.—If any landholder, farmer, or cultivator be desirous of having a sluice made in any public embankment for the purpose of drainage or irrigation, he shall make an application in writing to the Collector of the district in which such embankment is situate. The application shall contain such particulars of the land to be drained or irrigated as may enable the officers of Government to judge of the advantage which may be derived from the work, and shall declare, as regards an embankment maintained at the expense of the State, whether the the applicant is willing to bear such part, not exceeding half of the ^{herec} as may be determined by Government—and, as regards any other part ^{nbank-} ment, whether the applicant is willing to defray the whole or such part of the cost incident to, and attendant on, the proposed work, as may ^{determined} be determined as aforesaid.

Clause 2.—The Collector shall transmit such application to the officer in charge of the embankments of the district, who shall report his opinion thereon to the Superintendent of Embankments, and, if he be of opinion that compliance with the application is unobjectionable, shall annex to his report a plan of the proposed work and an estimate of the expense of its construction. The Superintendent of Embankments shall pass such order thereon as he shall think fit, which order shall be final.

Clause 3.—If the construction of the proposed sluice receive the approval of the Superintendent of Embankments, the Collector shall require the applicant to enter into ^{after} agreement to defray the whole or half of the expense, or such portion thereof as may be determined under the provisions of Clause 1 of this Section, as the case may be; and upon such agreement being executed, shall issue a certificate to the officer in charge of the public embankments of the district to construct the sluice.

IX. Sluices constructed in any public embankment shall be opened only by, or with the permission of, the officer in the immediate charge of the embankment, under such orders, either general or special, as he may receive from the officer in charge of the public embankments of the district or from the Superintendent of Embankments.

X. Whenever any person is desirous that a temporary water-course should be made through, or that a temporary roadway should be made over, any public embankment, or that a temporary dam should be constructed in any embanked river, he shall apply to the nearest officer of the ^{Embankment}

ACT No. XXXII OF 1855.

Embankment Department, who shall communicate the application to the officer in charge of the public embankments of the district, and that officer shall pass such orders thereon as he shall think fit, subject to the control of the Superintendent of Embankments. If the proposed work is to be executed by an officer of Government, the applicant, before the commencement of the work, shall enter into a written agreement to defray the expenses of, and incident to, making such roadway, or of making and closing or removing such water-course or dam. In any case of emergency the officer in immediate charge of an embankment, subject to such general instructions as he may receive from the officer in charge of the embankments of the district, or from the Superintendent of Embankments, may cause a temporary water-course to be made through such embankment.

XI. Clause 1.—Specifications of the work and estimates of the expense which may be required for the maintenance or improvement of embankments kept up at the expense of Zemindars or others, shall be prepared as soon after the rains in each year as may be practicable. Copies of the specifications and estimates shall be transmitted to the Office of the Collector, and may be examined by any person interested in the embankments. Notice of the receipt of the specifications and estimates shall be posted up in the Collector's Office; and should any objection be preferred by any such person within a period of one month from the date of such notice, the Collector shall communicate the objection, with his own opinion thereupon, to the Superintendent of Embankments, who shall pass such orders as may appear to him reasonable and proper. Provided, however, that if the objection refer to the construction of sluices or other new works, any person dissatisfied with the order of the Superintendent may appeal to the Commissioner, who, subject to the orders of the Board of Revenue and of Government, may disallow the construction of the work.

Clause 2.—The accounts of the actual expense incurred in maintaining or improving embankments kept up at the expense of Zemindars or others, and in constructing and repairing sluices, and making temporary water-courses or roadways through or over any public embankment, or executing any other other work, the expense of which may be chargeable to individuals, shall be prepared as soon as possible after the completion of such works, and shall, as soon as such accounts shall have received the sanction of the Superintendent of Embankments, be forwarded to the Office of the Collector, and may be there examined by any person interested. Notice of the receipt of the accounts shall be posted up in the Collector's Office; and if, within one month from the date of such notice, any interested person shall object to the accounts, on the ground either that the work charged for has not been performed, or that the whole sum charged has not been expended, or that the rates of charge are higher than the estimate, the Collector shall enquire into such objection, and, if the objection appear to be well founded, shall communicate the same, with his opinion thereon, to the Superintendent of Embankments. If the Superintendent concur with the Collector, he shall pass orders accordingly; if he differ, the case shall be reported to the Commissioner, whose decision shall be final. When the objection shall have been finally disposed of, or, if no objection be preferred, when a full month shall have elapsed from the date of notice, the Collector shall proceed to levy the amount from the parties liable to pay the same, by the process which is or may be in force for the recovery of arrears of Government revenue.

XII. Clause 1.—Whenever the Superintendent of Embankments shall be of opinion, that the removal of any houses, huts, or other buildings, situated between a public embankment and the river, is necessary, he shall make a report to that effect, accompanied by a detailed statement of the houses, huts, or other buildings to be removed, to the Collector of the district in whose jurisdiction the land on which such houses, huts, or other buildings stand, is situated.

Clause 2.—When such report is received, the Collector shall cause a notice, containing a general description of the houses, huts, or other buildings proposed to be removed, to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon the land, and to be published by proclamation in the nearest bazar, calling on all persons claiming a right in such houses, huts, or other buildings, to appear in person or by authorized agent at a place to be specified in the notice, on or before a given date, not being less less than fifteen days from the date of such proclamation, in order to make known the amount and particulars of their claim to compensation to a Jury to be appointed in the following manner.

Clause 3.—The Collector shall direct a Deputy Collector or a principal officer of his establishment to proceed to the spot, and there to select three respectable inhabitants of the neighbourhood, to form with himself a Jury for determining the value of the houses, huts, or buildings, and, if any dispute should arise, the rights of the claimants.

Selection of Jury.

Clause 4.—The Jury shall assess the value of each house, hut, or building separately. If in any case they differ, the value shall be assessed according to the opinion of the majority; and if they be equally divided, the Deputy Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall have a casting vote.

Proceedings of Jury.

Clause 5.—Having completed their proceedings, the Jury shall make their award, which shall contain a schedule of the houses, huts, and buildings, the amount of value assessed on each, and the name of the person or persons entitled to receive the same. The award shall be final and conclusive, and not open to question in the Civil Court: Provided always, that any person who was not present at the enquiry, or whose claim may have been set aside by the Jury, may institute a suit for the value of the property claimed by him against the person to whom payment may have been made under the award.

Award of Jury.

XIII. The Collector, on receiving the award, shall cause a notice to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon the land, with a citation calling on the parties to appear before him or the Deputy Collector or other officer aforesaid, in person or by authorized agent, at a certain time and place, and receive the amount so awarded, and warning them to remove their houses, huts, or other buildings within thirty days from the date of such notice.

After award Collector to give notice of payment, and to remove buildings, &c., in thirty days.

XIV. If

ACT No. XXXII OF 1855.

XIV. If, on the expiration of the above stated period, the houses, huts, or other buildings shall have not been previously removed, the Collector may remove buildings, &c., at the cost of the owners, in case they neglect to do so themselves. the Collector shall cause the same to be removed or levelled; and if any expense be incurred in removing or levelling the same, the Collector may sell the materials at public auction in order to defray the charge, delivering any surplus that may remain to the owner.

XV. Whoever wilfully obstructs any duly authorized person in removing or levelling any embankment, house, hut, or other building, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any time not exceeding six months, with or without labor, at the discretion of the Magistrate, or to fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, commutable, if not paid, to a period of imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to both.

XVI. Whoever wilfully, and without due authority, cuts through, or attempts to cut through, any embankment, whether public or private, or destroys, or attempts to destroy, any such embankment, or opens any sluice or water-course in any such embankment, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year with or without labor, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, commutable, if not paid, to a period of imprisonment not exceeding one year, or to both; or, if the Magistrate be of opinion that such punishment is insufficient for the offence, he may commit the offender to the Sessions Court, in which case he shall be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years, with or without labor, or to fine, or to both.

XVII. Whoever damages any public embankment by making any dam or other obstruction for the purpose of diverting or opposing the current of an embanked river, without the permission of the officer in immediate charge of the embankments, or by refusing or neglecting to remove any such dam or obstruction at the proper season, or by cutting or otherwise altering the banks of any embanked river, or by removing the earth from such embankment, or by grazing or tethering any cattle or other animals on any such embankment, or by driving stakes into, or cutting or rooting out grass growing on such embankment, or by any other wilful act destroys or diminishes the efficiency of such embankment, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to simple imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to both.

XVIII. Any Deputy or Assistant Magistrate may take cognizance of offences under this Act, and may punish offenders to the extent of the power conferred upon him by the Regulations of the Bengal Code, and by the Acts of the Governor General of India in Council with respect to the punishment of misdemeanors.

Jurisdiction of Deputy or Assistant Magistrate under this Act.

XIX. The provision of Section XIII, Regulation XX of 1817, shall extend to any charge or information of the offences specified in Section XVI of this Act; and Darogahs and other Police Officers shall enquire into such offences in the mode and subject to the provisions therein prescribed.

Provision of Section XIII, Regulation XX, 1817, extended to this Act.

XX. All sentences and orders passed by a Magistrate, Deputy Magistrate, or Assistant, under this Act, shall be appealable, subject to the general provisions which regulate appeals.

Right of appeals.

XXI. In the construction of this Act, words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular; words importing the masculine gender only shall include females; the word "Collector" shall mean any Collector, Deputy Collector, or other Revenue Officer in independent charge of any district or portion of a district.

ACT No. XXXIII OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 7th December 1855.)

AN ACT to prohibit the exportation of Saltpetre, except in British vessels bound to the Ports of London or Liverpool.

WHEREAS it is expedient that, during the continuance of hostilities between the Allied Powers and the Emperor of Russia, the exportation of Saltpetre from India, except in British vessels bound to the Port of London or to the Port of Liverpool, should be prohibited: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Until the Governor General of India in Council shall otherwise order, it shall not be lawful for any person to export Saltpetre from any part of the Territories in the possession and under the Government of East India Company, except in a British vessel bound either to the Port of London or to the Port of Liverpool.

Export of Saltpetre from India, except in British vessels bound to London or Liverpool, prohibited.

Saltpetre to be confiscated, in case of attempt to export contrary to this Act.

II. If any person shall attempt to export Saltpetre contrary to the provisions of this Act, the same shall be seized and confiscated.

III. Every person who shall export or attempt to export Saltpetre contrary to the provisions of this Act, or who shall aid or assist in such exportation or attempt, shall, upon conviction before a Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace, be subject to a fine not exceeding the rate of 200 Rupees for every ton of Saltpetre so exported or attempted to be exported.

Penalty for exporting &c.

IV. No

ACT No. XXXIII OF 1855.

IV. No Collector or other Officer of Customs shall, on or after the 17th day of November 1855, grant a pass or permit for the exportation or shipment for exportation of Saltpetre from any part of the said Territories, except in a British vessel bound for the Port of London or for the Port of Liverpool; and every Collector and other Officer of Customs is hereby indemnified for any thing heretofore done or hereafter to be done according to the provisions of this Act.

Officer of Customs not to grant a pass or permit after the 17th November 1855, except according to this Act.

V. Nothing in this Act shall extend to any Saltpetre shipped prior to the 17th day of November 1855, nor to any Saltpetre for the exportation or shipment for exportation whereof, otherwise than according to this Act, a permit or pass was granted on or before that day.

Act not to extend to Saltpetre shipped, or for the shipment of which a pass was granted before the 17th November 1855.

VI. Any Custom House Officer may without warrant seize Saltpetre liable to confiscation under this Act.

Seizure of Saltpetre.

VII. If any Saltpetre shall be seized as liable to confiscation, the Collector of Customs shall investigate the case, and, according to his judgment, shall either release the same or adjudge it to confiscation; and whenever he shall declare the same to be confiscated, he shall report his proceeding for confirmation and final adjudication to the superior Revenue authorities.

Adjudication of confiscation.

VIII. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a fine, shall be punishable for such offence by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate; and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace, shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

ACT No. XXXIV OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 14th December 1855.)

AN ACT to explain and amend Act No. XXXIII of 1852.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether a Court to which application is made to enforce or execute a judgment under the provisions of Act No. XXXIII of 1852 has power to inquire into the validity of the judgment; and it is expedient to remove such doubts, and to prevent any such Court from inquiring into the validity of a judgment in respect of which it has no appellate jurisdiction, and to provide for a stay of execution when such Court thinks it reasonable that the validity of the judgment should be inquired into: It is enacted as follows:—

I. The Court to which application is made to enforce or execute a judgment under the provisions of Act No. XXXIII of 1852, shall not have power to inquire into the validity of such judgment, unless it appear, upon the face of such judgment, that the Court by which the judgment was given had no jurisdiction to pronounce the same.

Proviso.

II. The Court to which the application is made may, upon reasonable cause being shown, stay the execution of the judgment for a reasonable time, to enable the judgment-debtor to apply to the Court by which the judgment was given, or to any Court having appellate jurisdiction in respect of the judgment or execution thereof, for an order to stay the execution, or for any other order relating relating to the judgment or the execution thereof, which such Court of first instance or Court of Appeal might have made if execution had been issued by the Court of first instance, or if application for execution had been made to such Court; and in case the property or person of the judgment-debtor shall have been seized under an execution, the Court which issued the execution may order restitution of the property, or the discharge of the person of the debtor, in the mean time.

III. Before making an order to stay execution, or for the restitution of property, or the discharge of the judgment-debtor, under this Act, the Court may require such security from, or impose such conditions upon, the judgment-debtor, as it may deem reasonable.

Court may, in such cases, take security, &c. from judgment-debtor.

IV. Any order of the Court in which the judgment was given or of such Court of Appeal as aforesaid, shall be binding upon the Court to which the application for execution was made, and shall be a sufficient indemnity for all persons acting in execution of process issued by such last-mentioned Court.

Order of Court pronouncing judgment to be binding upon Court enforcing the same.

V. No discharge of a defendant under the provisions of this Act shall prevent him from being re-taken in execution of the judgment.

Defendant discharged under this Act liable to be re-taken in execution of the judgment.

VI. This Act shall be read with, and taken as part of, Act No. XXXIII of 1852.

Act to be taken as part of Act XXXIII of 1852.

ACT No. XXXV OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 14th December 1855.)

AN ACT to abolish the levy of Customs Duty on the import of Cotton into the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove all restrictions to the importation of Cotton into the North-Western Provinces in the Bengal Presidency : It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. So much of Section II Act No. XIV of 1843 as prescribes the levy of duties of Customs on the import of Cotton, uncleaned or cleaned, into the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal, is hereby repealed.

Portion of Act repealed.

Repeal of so much of Schedule of Act XIV 1836 as allows a drawback.

II. So much of Schedule B. Act No. XIV of 1836 as allows a drawback of the land-frontier duty paid upon Cotton-wool is hereby repealed from the first day of July 1856.

ACT No. XXXVI OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 21st December 1855.)

AN ACT to empower Officers of Customs and Land Revenue to search Houses and other enclosed places for contraband Salt in the North-Western Provinces.

WHEREAS the existing Laws do not empower Officers of Customs or Land Revenue in the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal to search houses and other enclosed places for Salt manufactured or stored contrary to the provisions of Act XIV of 1843, and it is expedient to give them power to do so; It is enacted as follows :—

I. Whenever any Collector or other Officer of Customs or Land Revenue, not being under the grade of Assistant Patrol in the Customs department, or of Naib Tehseeldar in the Revenue department, receives credible information that, within his jurisdiction, Salt is unlawfully manufactured, in any dwelling-house, ware-house, or other enclosed place, or that Salt is unlawfully stored in any such house or place within the limits of Customs jurisdiction as defined by the Government of the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Bengal under the provision of Section III of Act XIV of 1843, he shall first record in writing the name, residence, and calling of the informant, the locality and description of the house or place where he believes the Salt to be manufactured or stored, and the name of the owner or occupant of such house or place, or the name of the person for or by whom such such Salt is manufactured or stored, and with respect to Salt stored the supposed quantity and description of such Salt, with the grounds for believing the same to be contraband.

Officer thereupon may summon Police and proceed to search a house for contraband Salt.

II. The said Officer, after recording the particulars aforesaid, may summon from the nearest Police Station a Police Officer, not being under the grade of a Jemadar, to attend him, and with such Police Officer and informant proceed to the said house or place, and in their presence search the same for Salt unlawfully manufactured or stored; provided that such search be not made between sunset and sunrise.

Proviso.

III. The said Officer, in company with such Police Officer, may break open the door or force an entry within the said house or place, if, upon requisition duly made, the door be not opened, or admission be refused, by the owner or occupant thereof.

Officer may break open doors.

IV. A forcible entry under the last preceding Section shall only be made in accordance with the rules and precautions prescribed by Regulation XX of 1817, and by Section X, Regulation V of 1800 (for the Benares Province), and Section XIX, Regulation XXVIII of 1803 (for the Ceded and Conquered Provinces), for breaking into a house for execution of process of distraint. Provided, however, that the responsibility for the act, and the determination whether to force an entry or not, shall rest with the Officer of Customs or Land Revenue only.

Rules regarding forcible entry.

Proviso.

V. No. Salt found stored in any house or place within the limits of Customs jurisdiction mentioned in Section I of this Act, not being Salt unlawfully manufactured thereat, shall be deemed contraband, unless the quantity found shall exceed five seers in weight.

What to be deemed contraband Salt.

VI. Whoever, being a Police Officer summoned under Section II, fails to attend himself or to depute a subordinate Police Officer, not being below the grade of a Jemadar, to attend, and any Police Officer who, after attending, refuses to aid aid in the search for, or seizure of, contraband Salt, or in any way wilfully frustrates the object of the search or seizure, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable, besides being dismissed from office, to a fine equal to the amount of fine that would have been leviable on the owners or holders of the Salt, if it had been seized according to the information laid.

Penalty for vexatious search and for giving false information.
VII. Any Officer of Customs or Land Revenue, vested with power to carry into effect the provisions of this Act, who, under cover thereof, searches or causes to be searched any dwelling-house, ware-house, or other enclosed place, without reasonable grounds of suspicion that contraband Salt is there manufactured or stored, shall, upon conviction before the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence may have been committed, be punished with fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, which fine, or any portion thereof, may be paid over to the party aggrieved, and, in default of payment of such fine, with imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months; and any person wilfully and maliciously giving false information, and so causing a search to be made in any dwelling-house, ware-house, or other enclosed place, to the injury or vexation of the owners, occupants, or any other person or persons whatsoever, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to the same penalty and also to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, with or without hard labor.

Every case of search to be reported to superior Officers.
VIII. Every search under this Act, whether the result thereof be the seizure of contraband Salt or otherwise, shall be reported within forty-eight hours by the Officer of Customs or Land Revenue and by the Officer of Police present at the search to their respective official superiors.

What to be deemed a manufacture of Salt.
IX. The purification or refinement of impure Salt, obtained in the manufacture of Saltpetre, so as to produce alimentary Salt, shall be deemed a manufacture of Salt within the meaning of this Act and of Act XIV. 1843.

ACT No. XXXVII OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 22nd December 1855.)

AN ACT to remove from the operation of the general Laws and Regulations certain Districts inhabited by Sonthals and others, and to place the same under the superintendence of an Officer to be specially appointed for that purpose.

WHEREAS the general Regulations and Acts of Government now in force in the Presidency of Bengal are not adapted to the uncivilized race of people called Sonthals, and it is therefore expedient to remove from the operation of such Laws the District called the Damun-i-Koh, and other Districts which are inhabited principally by that tribe : It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. Clause 1.—The Districts described in the Schedule to this Act are hereby removed from the operation of the general Regulations of the Bengal Code and of the Laws passed by the Governor General of India in Council, except so far as is hereinafter provided ; and no Law which shall hereafter be passed by the Governor General of India in Council shall be deemed to extend to any part of the said Districts, unless the same shall be specially named therein. Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect any case now pending in any Court, nor remove any part of the said Districts from from the operation of Regulation X of 1804 of the Bengal Code; nor shall this Act affect any Revenue Settlement, nor any Law relating to the recovery of permanently settled Land Revenue due under the same, nor any Law relating to the sale of lands for arrears of Revenue, or relating to Putnee Talooks, or to the sale thereof for arrears of rent, nor any Law relating to Mutations or Butwara, or to any other matter to which the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall at any time notify in the Calcutta Gazette that the General Laws and Regulations shall extend.

Clause 2.—The said Districts shall be placed under the superintendence and jurisdiction of an Officer or Officers to be appointed in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and such Officer or Officers shall be subject to the directions and control of the said Lieutenant-Governor.

Districts to be under the superintendence of Officers subject to the control of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

II. The administration of Civil and Criminal justice, and the collection of the Revenue, not being permanently settled Land Revenue, within the said Districts, are hereby vested in the Officer or Officers to be so appointed. Provided that all Civil suits, in which the matter in dispute shall exceed the value of one thousand Rupees, shall be tried and determined according to the general Laws and Regulations in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed. Provided also, that all permanently settled Land Revenue shall be collected and paid at the same places and in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Administration of justice and collection of Revenue vested in such Officers.

Proviso as to suits exceeding the value of Rs. 1,000.

Collection of permanently settled Land Revenue.

III. In the administration of Civil and Criminal justice, the Officer or Officers appointed under this Act shall be guided by the spirit and principle of the Civil and Criminal Laws, administered in the Courts of the East India Company in the Presidency of Bengal, but shall not be bound to take the futwa of a Law Officer; and he or they may hold his or their Courts either within the said District or at any place or places that may be appointed for that purpose by the said Lieutenant-Governor; and any person liable to be imprisoned soned in any civil or criminal jail, may be imprisoned in any civil or criminal jail, as the case may be, which the said Lieutenant-Governor may order, whether the same be in or out of the said District.

IV. Clause 1.—All decisions in Civil suits and sentences in Criminal cases, which shall be passed by such Officer or Officers, to the extent of the powers which may be from time to time conferred upon them respectively by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, according to the provisions of this Act, shall be final. Provided that no sentence of death, passed by any such Officer, shall be carried into effect until it shall have been confirmed by the Sudder Court, and provided also that it shall be lawful for the said Lieutenant-Governor to direct that an appeal shall lie in any class of Civil suits or Criminal trials from any Officer appointed under this Act to any other Officer appointed under the same, and also to direct the Officer or Officers appointed under this Act to refer to the Sudder Court for sentence any class of Criminal trials.

Clause 2.—Upon the receipt of any Criminal trial referred to the Sudder Court under Clause 1 of this Section, the said Court shall, without submitting the proceedings for the futwa of their Law Officer, proceed to pass final judgment, or such other order as may seem to the Court requisite and proper, in the same manner as if the trial had been referred in ordinary course by a Sessions Judge; and in any case in which sentence of death passed by an Officer under this Act shall be transmitted to the Sudder Court for confirmation, the said Court may either confirm the same, or pass such other judgment warranted by Law, as may appear to the said Court to be just and proper.

V. Nothing in this Act shall alter the Laws now in force with respect to the amenability of European British subjects to any Court or Officer for any act of a criminal nature committed within the District.

VI. This Act shall take effect from such day as shall be fixed for that purpose by the said Lieutenant-Governor by notice to be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

ACT No. XXXVIII OF 1855.

PASSED BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF INDIA.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 22nd December 1855.)

AN ACT to provide for the trial and punishment of rebellion and other offences committed within certain Districts in which Martial Law has lately been proclaimed.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more speedy trial of persons charged with offences against the State and other heinous crimes committed within the District of Beerbhoom, and certain parts of the several Districts of Bhaugulpore and Moorshedabad respectively, and for the punishment of such crimes: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Clause 1.—It shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal from time to time as he may think fit to issue a special Commission for the trial of all persons owing allegiance to the British Government, either in consequence of their having been born within any part of the British Territories, or of their being resident therein and under the protection of the British Government, who shall be charged with having committed, either before or after the passing of this Act, within the District of Beerbhoom, or so much of the District of Bhaugulpore as lies on the right bank of the River Ganges, or so much of the District of Moorshedabad as lies on the right bank of the River Bhaugiruttee, the crime of treason or rebellion, or of opposing by force of arms the authority of the British Government, or any other crime against the State, or of the crime of murder, arson, robbery, or other heinous crime against person or property.

The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may issue a Commission for the trial of certain offences within the Districts named.

Clause 2.

ACT No. XXXVIII OF 1855.

Clause 2.—The Commissioner or Commissioners authorized by any such Commission may hold a Court in any part of the said District or parts of Districts mentioned in this Section, and may there try any person for any of the said crimes committed within any part thereof.

Commissioner may hold a Court in any part of the said Districts.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Lieutenant-Governor by the said Commission to direct that any Court held under the Commission shall have power, without the attendance or futwa of a law officer, or the assistance of assessors, to pass upon any person convicted before the Court of any of the aforesaid crimes, any sentence warranted by Law for such crime, and that the judgments of such Court shall be final and conclusive, and that the said Court shall not be subordinate or bound to report its proceedings to the Sudder Court.

Lieutenant-Governor may vest Court with certain powers.

No sentence of death to be carried into effect by the Court without the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor.

III. No sentence of death passed by such Court shall be carried into effect without the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

IV. If any such Commission be issued, a Magistrate or other Officer having power to commit for trial, may commit any person charged with any of the aforesaid crimes, within the District or parts of Districts described in Section I of this Act, to take his trial before a Court to be held under this Act.

Magistrate may commit persons for trial before a Court held under this Act.

V. And whereas it is necessary for the due maintenance of the just authority of Government, that persons convicted of the crime of treason or rebellion should be liable to capital punishment, it is further enacted as follows:—All persons who, after the promulgation of this Act, shall be guilty of treason or rebellion within the District or parts of Districts described in Section I of this Act, shall be liable, upon conviction either before the ordinary Criminal Courts of competent jurisdiction or before a Court held under the provisions of Act No. V of 1841 or of this Act, to the punishment of death or to the punishment of imprisonment with Persons convicted of treason or rebellion within the Districts named, after the passing of this Act, liable to capital punishment, or imprisonment, &c.

ACT No. XXXVIII OF 1855.

with labor and irons in transportation for life, or to imprisonment with hard labor, not commutable to fine, for any term not exceeding fourteen years, and shall forfeit all their property and effects of every description.

VI. All persons who, before the promulgation of this Act, shall have been guilty of the crime of treason or rebellion within the said District or parts of Districts shall, upon conviction before the ordinary Criminal Courts of competent jurisdiction, or before a Court held under the provisions of Act No. V of 1841 or of this Act, be liable to the punishment of imprisonment with labor and irons in transportation for life, or to imprisonment with hard labor, not commutable to fine, for any term not exceeding fourteen years.

VII. Any person liable to imprisonment with hard labor under this Act, may be imprisoned and kept to hard labor in any part of the territories under the Government of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal which the said Lieutenant-Governor may direct, or in any part of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, not being part of either of the Presidencies of Madras or Bombay, which the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, with the consent of the Governor General of India in Council, may direct.

VIII. Nothing in this Act shall extend to the trial or punishment of any of Her Majesty's natural born subjects born in Europe, or the children of such subjects.

IX. Whenever the Lieutenant-Governor shall deem it necessary for the public safety, it shall be lawful for him to declare, by proclamation, that, from and after a day to be named therein, it shall not be lawful for any person, or for any specified class of persons, to carry or have in their possession any arms or instrument used for warlike purposes, or any specified description of arms, or of such instruments as aforesaid, within the District or parts of Districts above mentioned, or any part thereof, to be specified in the proclamation.

X. After

ACT No. XXXVIII of 1855.

X. After the day named in the proclamation, whoever shall carry or have in his possession any arms or other such instrument as aforesaid contrary to the proclamation, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months; and the arms or other such instrument shall be confiscated.

Penalty for unlawful possession of arms, &c.

XI. It shall be lawful for a Magistrate by warrant to cause search to be made in any house or other place in which there may be reasonable grounds for suspecting that any arms, or other such instrument as aforesaid, kept contrary to the proclamation, may be found; and any such arms or instrument may be seized and confiscated.

Magistrate empowered to search houses, &c. and seize arms, &c.

XII. Nothing in Sections IX, X, and XI of this Act shall extend to any person who may be exempted by the authority of the Executive Government from the prohibition contained in such proclamation.

Executive Government may grant exemption to certain persons.

XIII. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, include any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate and a Justice of the Peace; and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Interpretation.

XIV. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may commute any sentence of death passed under the provisions of Regulation X of 1804 of the Bengal Code, or of this Act, in respect of any crime committed within the District or parts of Districts described in Section I of this Act, either for imprisonment with hard labor and irons in transportation for life, or for imprisonment with hard labor for any term not exceeding fourteen years.

Lieutenant-Governor may commute sentences of death in certain cases.

XV. The provisions of this Act shall continue in force until the 31st day of December 1858.

Duration of Act.
