COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY PICAYUNE,
Wednesday Evening, October 15, 1867.

The offerings of cotton have been rather more active, and the market has ruled firm, with a slight improvement in prices. The sales amount to 1,000 bales, as follows:

On THURSDAY, middling declined 1/8c, and sales were limited to 200 bales.

On FRIDAY, middling declined 1/8c, and sales were limited to 200 bales.

On SATURDAY, middling declined 1/8c, and sales were limited to 200 bales.

On MONDAY, middling declined 1/8c, and sales were limited to 200 bales.

On TUESDAY, middling declined 1/8c, and sales were limited to 200 bales.

On WEDNESDAY, middling declined 1/8c, and sales were limited to 200 bales.