PREFACE

THIS book is intended to meet the needs of high school courses in English. It has been prepared after consultation with English departments in various secondary schools and with the coöperation of the Department of English in Phillips Academy.

In order to assist the teacher in eradicating the worst faults as soon as possible, the most important rules for spelling and a short list of words commonly misspelled have been presented first. This short list has been compiled from statistics gathered from many sources, by members of the faculty of Phillips Academy. The longer list, "Words Often Misspelled," which has been alphabetically arranged for purposes of reference, contains two thousand words which pupils actually misspell. The short compilations of words grouped by subjects have been prepared or corrected by specialists in these various departments. This is followed by a list of words often confused.

A HIGH SCHOOL SPELLING BOOK

RULES AND SUGGESTIONS FOR SPELLING

I. A monosyllable ending in a single consonant preceded by a single vowel doubles that final consonant before a suffix beginning with a vowel.

hopping	robbery	baggage	cutting
dragging	planned	plodding	putting

II. A polysyllable ending in a single consonant preceded by a single vowel usually doubles the final consonant before a suffix beginning with a vowel, if the accent falls on the syllable preceding the suffix.

beginner	controlling	omitting	intermittent
preferred	occurrence	compelled	acquittal

If the accent does not fall on the syllable preceding the suffix, the final consonant is not doubled.

traveler	benefited	inference	banqueting
traveling	summoning	profited	conquering

III. Words ending in silent e drop the e before a suffix beginning with a vowel, but retain it before a suffix beginning with a consonant.

amusing	lodging	movable	extremely
amusement	practicing	movement	rueful
persuading	excitable	enabling	sincerely

Exceptions:

A. Words ending in ge or ce retain the e before a suffix beginning with a or o to preserve the soft sound of the consonant.

noticeable	vengeance	courageous	advantageous
-------------------	------------------	-------------------	---------------------

B. The following words retain the final e before a suffix beginning with a vowel :

toeing	shoeing	mileage	dyeing
tingeing	agreeable	hoeing	singeing

C. The following words drop the final e before a suffix beginning with a consonant :

truly	awful	argument
duly	judgment	acknowledgment

IV. Words ending in ie drop the e and change the i to y before the suffix ing.

dying	lying	rying	tying
--------------	--------------	--------------	--------------

V. Words ending in y preceded by a consonant change the y to i before a suffix.

business	holiest	greedier
dutiful	ordinarily	accompaniment

Before the suffix ing the y is retained.

studying	hurrying	accompanying	carrying
-----------------	-----------------	---------------------	-----------------

VI. When the sound of the digraph is e, i comes before e, except after c.

relieve	chief	receipt	ceiling
siege	yield	conceit	deceive

Exceptions :

seize	weird	leisure	neither
--------------	--------------	----------------	----------------

When the sound of the digraph is not e, the digraph is usually spelled ei.

freight	sleight	forfeit
foreign	heir	sleigh

Exceptions:

friend	sieve
---------------	--------------

VII. The final letter of a word or prefix is usually retained before the same letter in the suffix or root.

meanness	unnecessary	misstatement
accidentally	innumerable	specially
dissatisfy	cruelly	finally
generally	formally	naturally

In cases of alternative adjective forms in ic and ical — e.g., satiric and satirical — the corresponding adverb is formed by adding ly to ical.

satirically historically tragically hysterically

VIII. The final s of mis and dis before a root is not doubled.

disagree misjudge mistake disappearance

IX. The plurals of nouns ending in s, sh, ch (soft), x, or z, and the third person singular indicative present of verbs with the same endings are formed by adding es to the root.

gases	fishes	buzzes	matches
foxes	speeches	boxes	classes

X. A noun ending in y preceded by a vowel forms its plural by adding s.

holidays	journeys	valleys	convoy's
-----------------	-----------------	----------------	-----------------

XI. A noun ending in y preceded by a consonant changes the y to i and adds es to form the plural.

cries	libraries	enemies
countries	territories	allies

Proper names ending in y preceded by a consonant form their plural by adding s.

Henry's	Mary's
----------------	---------------

XII. A verb ending in y preceded by a consonant changes the y to i before the es of the third person singular indicative present and the ed of the third person indicative past.

tries	tried	cries	cried
--------------	--------------	--------------	--------------

XIII. Nouns ending in o preceded by a consonant add es, preceded by a vowel add s, to form the plural.

negroes echoes folios cameos

Some words of foreign origin, ending in o preceded by a consonant, add only s to form the plural.

solos banjos stilettos pianos

XIV. The following rules should be observed in forming possessives :

A. A noun regularly adds 's to form the possessive singular and ' to form the possessive plural.

boy's boys' lady's ladies'
a day's work three months' vacation

B. Nouns forming their plural in any way except by adding s or es add 's to form the possessive plural.

men's women's children's

WEBSTER'S SECONDARY SCHOOL DICTIONARY

$1.50

Full buckram, 8vo, 864 pages. Containing over 70,000 words, with 1000 illustrations.

THIS NEW DICTIONARY is based on Webster's New International Dictionary and therefore conforms to the best present usage. It presents the largest number of words and phrases ever included in a school dictionary—all those, however new, likely to be needed by any pupil. It is a reference book for the reader and a guide in the use of English, both oral and written. It fills every requirement that can be expected of a dictionary of moderate size.

¶ This new book gives the preference to forms of spelling now current in the United States. In the matter of pronunciation such alternatives are included as are in very common use. Each definition is in the form of a specific statement accompanied by one or more synonyms, between which careful discrimination is made.

¶ In addition, this dictionary includes an unusual amount of supplementary information of value to students: the etymology, syllabication and capitalization of words; many proper names from folklore, mythology, and the Bible; a list of prefixes and suffixes; all irregularly inflected forms; rules for spelling; 2329 lists of synonyms, in which 3518 words are carefully discriminated; answers to many questions on the use of correct English constantly asked by pupils; a guide to pronunciation; abbreviations used in writing and printing; a list of 1200 foreign words and phrases; a dictionary of 5400 proper names of persons and places, etc.

COMPOSITION-RHETORIC

By STRATTON D. BROOKS, Superintendent of Schools, Boston, Mass., and MARIETTA HUBBARD, formerly English Department, High School, La Salle, Ill. Price, $1.00

THE fundamental aim of this volume is to enable pupils to express their thoughts freely, clearly, and forcibly.

At the same time it is designed to cultivate literary appreciation, and to develop some knowledge of rhetorical theory. The work follows closely the requirements of the College Entrance Examination Board, and of the New York State Education Department.

¶ In Part One are given the elements of description, narration, exposition, and argument; also special chapters on letter-writing and poetry. A more complete and comprehensive treatment of the four forms of discourse already discussed is furnished in Part Two. In each part is presented a series of themes covering these subjects, the purpose being to give the pupil inspiration, and that confidence in himself which comes from the frequent repetition of an act. A single new principle is introduced into each theme, and this is developed in the text, and illustrated by carefully selected examples.

¶ The pupils are taught how to correct their own errors, and also how to get the main thought in preparing their lessons. Careful coördination with the study of literature and with other school studies is made throughout the book.

¶ The modern character of the illustrative extracts can not fail to interest every boy and girl. Concise summaries are given following the treatment of the various forms of discourse, and toward the end of the book there is a very comprehensive and compact summary of grammatical principles. More than usual attention is devoted to the treatment of argument.

HALLECK'S NEW ENGLISH LITERATURE

By REUBEN POST HALLECK, M. A., LL. D.
author of History of English Literature, and History of American Literature.

$1.30

THIS New English Literature preserves the qualities which have caused the author's former History of English Literature to be so widely used; namely, suggestiveness, clearness, organic unity, interest, and power to awaken thought and to stimulate the student to further reading.

¶ Here are presented the new facts which have recently been brought to light, and the new points of view which have been adopted. More attention is paid to recent writers. The present critical point of view concerning authors, which has been brought about by the new social spirit, is reflected. Many new and important facts concerning the Elizabethan theater and the drama of Shakespeare's time are incorporated.

¶ Other special features are the unusually detailed Suggested Readings that follow each chapter, suggestions and references for a literary trip to England, historical introductions to the chapters, careful treatment of the modern drama, and a new and up-to-date bibliography.

¶ Over 200 pictures selected for their pedagogical value and their unusual character appear in their appropriate places in connection with the text. The frontispiece, in colors, shows the performance of an Elizabethan play in the Fortune Theater.
