

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

AN APPEAL FOR FAIR JUDGMENT
IN THE EUROPEAN WAR
MADE BY JUDGE

Judge Peter S. Grosscup of Chicago, who gives the following excellent analysis of the question of the responsibility of the war in Europe, needs no introduction to the American people. As a district court judge for the northern district of Illinois and later as judge both of the United States circuit court and circuit court of appeals, he established a reputation equalled by few of his contemporaries for clear-cut logic and fearless expression of views.

The application of sound judicial sense to the points involved in the present war has been avoided by England and by her ardent admirers in America for obvious reasons. In the following article Judge Grosscup's presentation and elucidation of these points will be welcomed by all open-minded Americans:

"The other day I saw a group of men in a lane some distance from the road who seemed to be in earnest conversation. Suddenly one of the men struck one of the others. Instinctively I felt that he was the aggressor, that he wished a fight. But the facts, had I been near enough to see and hear, might have been different. That first blow as I saw it may have been in self-defense. I was not near enough to see the other's clenched fist. It may have been deserved. I was not near enough to hear the provocation. What was the only thing visible to one at a distance may not have been the fact at all as seen by those upon the spot.

"American public opinion means to be fair. But we in America saw the beginnings of this war only from a distance. It looked to us as if Germany struck first. Was that the act of an aggressor wishing for a fight, or the act of one who believes he was justified in what he did? At first I thought Germany the aggressor wishing for war. The reading of the English White Paper—getting the facts from those near the scene—convincing me that the Kaiser and his councillors did not do what they have done out of desire of war. And while it does not convince me war was unavoidable, it reveals that responsibility for it, whether it was avoidable or not, is on Russia primarily, and as much at least on England and France secondarily as on the Kaiser and his councillors. Before going to that, however, a couple of collateral considerations must be noticed.

"The first of these is: How came it about that Germany was so ready for war at the moment she declared war, if she did not desire war? Is not 'readiness' an evidence of 'desire'? Yes and no. That depends on other facts—for instance, how long has that readiness existed? One ready and wishing for war would strike quickly—would not wait forty years.

"Germany has been 'ready' for forty-three years. Her situation, both on the west and east, has compelled her to be always ready. But while within the last sixteen years of that forty-three England has made war on the Transvaal, the United States on Spain, Japan on Russia, and Italy on Turkey, Germany, always ready, has remained at peace. Does that count for nothing in the inquiry of whether 'readiness' is evidence of 'desire'? The Kaiser came to the throne in his twenties; he is now in his fifties; during that period—usually the fighting period in a man's life—he has not sent a German soldier against an enemy; of the million soldiers in the field today, the German army alone is without a private soldier, who has ever before seen actual service in battle. Does that count for nothing? Who can believe, satisfactorily to himself, that readiness of that kind is evidence of desire?

"The second of these collateral matters is: How came it about that Germany invaded Belgium, if she did not desire war? The White Paper shows that Germany told England she would not mobilize against France if England would assure the neutrality of France in Germany's affair with Russia. That shows she was not seeking war even with France, her old enemy, much less with little Belgium that lay between them. The White Paper shows also that Germany asked England if she (England) would remain neutral if Germany, in the event of war with France, would stay out of Belgium. England professed to treat this as the offer of a bribe and declines to commit herself. The White Paper shows also that when Germany could get none of these assurances, she asked for peaceful transit across the Belgian territory, offering to compensate for any losses that might follow. This Belgium refused. One other

VERDUGO WASH MEETING

FINAL DECISION TO POSTPONE
FURTHER PROCEEDINGS IN THE MATTER

By request, the board of supervisors of Los Angeles county met a committee of citizens of Glendale and a committee of citizens of Tropic Wednesday forenoon at the court house to consider what action should be taken relative to the improvement of the Verdugo canyon wash under the 1409 act.

It was the final decision of the board that further proceedings be postponed until it is learned what action the legislature takes on points pertaining to such improvements.

If the legislature takes no action, it will then be the desire of the board and citizens in general to take up the improvement of both the Sycamore canyon and the Verdugo canyon washes as one district under the 1909 act.

FORCED TO FACE DEATH

The present war being waged in Europe presents a pitiful condition. The rank and file of the people of the countries engaged in war are not going into battle with love of country in their hearts, but cruel as it may seem, they participate in the great conflict because they are forced to do so. Fierce battles are raging.

PARIS, Oct. 21, 11 p. m.—The official statement issued by the French war office reports a violent battle on the left wing with the allies' forces holding their ground everywhere. The text follows:

"On our left wing from the North Warneton to La Bassee, a violent battle has been fought during the day.

"According to the last advices the allied forces were holding their ground everywhere.

"There is nothing to report regarding the center or the right wing.

"Russia: The German army which had advanced on Warsaw was forced yesterday to beat a precipitate retreat, the enemy abandoning the positions which he had established for defense. The Russians are in pursuit and have captured a number of prisoners."

The French official communication given out this afternoon says that the attacks yesterday of the enemy in Nieuport, Dixmude and La Bassee, all were repulsed by the allies.

The text of the communication follows:

"During the day of yesterday the attacks of the enemy were particularly violent at Nieuport, Dixmude and La Bassee. They all were repulsed by the allied armies with great loss. At all other points the situation is without any notable change."

MRS. BOYD ENTERTAINS BUENO AMEGAS CLUB

Red roses were used as table decorations by Mrs. Helen Woodruff Boyd, who acted as luncheon hostess to the Bueno Amegas club of Los Angeles in her home, 1463 Ivy street, Wednesday.

Those seated at the table with the gracious hostess, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Woodruff, were Mrs. W. Goodfellow, Mrs. John Auchenbach, Mrs. Ralph Radcliff, Mrs. R. Butts, Mrs. Maddison Marine, Mrs. Chas. McCully, Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. C. Hill, Miss Anna McMahon and Miss Rae Strong, club members, and Mrs. R. McMahon of Los Angeles and Mrs. Holland of Elmore, Ind., who were present as special guests.

During the afternoon a musical program and studies were enjoyed, Mozart being the composer about whom short biographies were read by Mesdames Goodfellow and Auchenbach.

THE 48 AMENDMENTS

The 48 amendments, which are to be voted on November 3, should be familiarized by men and women of California who have a right to vote at the November election.

The Inter-City Commission of the San Gabriel valley has prepared explanations and recommendations concerning these amendments. We take pleasure in giving space to these recommendations on the last page of this issue. These opinions are merely suggestive. Read them.

A new steel mill at Mansfield, O., it is said, will be owned and operated by eight brothers and two brothers-in-law. Naturally there is some doubt whether the organized concern should be called a corporation or a fraternity.

In compliment to Miss Katherine C. Wells and her betrothed, Dr. J. L. Flint, both of Glendale, Mrs. Anna L. Smith of 1427 Riverdale drive is entertaining at cards in her home this evening.

MEXICANS IN TROUBLE

MEXICAN IS SENTENCED AS THE
RESULT OF A DRUNKEN CUTTING SCRAPE

About 12:30 Wednesday night Police Officer Schroeder discovered three Mexicans wandering along Glendale avenue. One was badly cut on the shoulder and weak from the loss of blood.

The Mexicans were unable to understand English and the officer was unable to find how the man had been hurt.

After the Mexican had been taken to the police station and Chief of Police G. H. Herald, Dr. Chase and Joe Olivas, as interpreter, had been summoned it was found the wounded man had a gash about two inches long on his shoulder, as the result of three drunken Mexicans entering the tent of Joe Nevades on the Messner ranch on Verdugo road. The affair was a regular cutting scrape.

About 4 o'clock Officers Schroeder and Harrington were sent to the ranch and arrested Mariano Arteago, foreman of the ranch; Cirilo Cetrada and Pedro Gomez and brought them to the police station.

In Judge Whomes' court this morning Joe Nevades produced other witnesses and the evidence showed that Pedro Gomez had committed the assault with a knife.

Gomez was sentenced to three months in the county jail and the other two who were arrested were fined $15 each for being drunk and going into the tent and starting the fight.

This is the second drunken brawl and cutting scrape that has occurred at this ranch in the last two weeks.

About two weeks ago the police were called to quiet a similar disturbance and Tranquillo Pereda was arrested for assault with a deadly weapon on Mareano Arteago. Pereda stabbed Arteago a couple of times and after being found guilty was bound over to the superior court by Judge Whomes and now is in the county jail awaiting trial.

NORTH GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McDougall of 1305 Burchett street are the happy parents of a beautiful baby boy who came to them a fortnight ago and who has of course taken possession of the household. We are very glad to announce that the mother and little one are getting along exceedingly well.

Miss Rosalie England of La Ramada was the house guest of Miss Jeanie Mitchell at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell of Kenneth road, the early part of the week.

Mrs. Carrie Murphy of 1648 Ruth street was a Burbank visitor Wednesday, enjoying the day as the house guest of Mrs. Luther Colson of that place.

Mr. Fred W. Pigg and family, who for the past several months have been domiciled at 912 Randolph street, have moved to Glendale, Mr. Pigg having sold his property in Casa Verdugo to Mr. Webster of Burbank.

Mrs. Mary J. Oliver of 1314 North Central avenue is entertaining as her house guest her niece, Miss Pearl Wyvell of San Francisco, who will remain with her aunt during the winter.

Mrs. Kate England of La Ramada is planning the organization of a social club to be composed of those who are interested in the social welfare of the young people of the immediate vicinity. The club will be of a literary, musical and dramatic nature, excellent talent having been secured to instruct the members. The initial meeting will be announced soon and will be held at La Ramada.

HOBSON'S DATES

Hon. Richardson Hobson, of national military and temperance fame, will speak Sunday forenoon at 11 o'clock at university campus, corner Thirty-fifth and Hoover Streets, Los Angeles; Long Beach at 3 p. m., and at the Temple auditorium, Los Angeles, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

NEW BUSINESS BUILDING

Eugene Glane, the tailor, is making preparations to let the contract for the erection of a fine two-story brick building on his lot east of the Wilson block on Broadway between Louise and Kenwood streets. The depth of the building will be 60 feet. Mr. Glane will occupy the first floor with his tailoring establishment.

Secretary of the Treasury Wm. G. McAdoo is right, at all events, with regard to the uselessness of hoarded cash. The mills do not grind with the money in the vault.

TO HOLD OPEN SESSION

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB SECTION IS TO HOLD AN OPEN MEETING

The music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will hold the first open meeting of the season at the Masonic temple tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The program will be opened promptly at that time by the section chairman, Mrs. Freeman Kelley, and anyone, whether a member of the club or not, will be admitted upon payment of ten cents. All will be welcome.

The afternoon will be devoted to the Russian composer, Anton Arensky, and the American composer, Arthur Foote. Short papers will be given by Mrs. Clarence Newcomb and Mrs. Frank Grosvenor and will be followed by a delightful program of the following compositions by these composers:

"Consolations and Ostanato," by Arensky, Miss Gertrude Champlain. "Nocturne, Op. 5," by Arensky, Mrs. Webb.

Song, "The Eagle," by Arensky, Mrs. Frank Arnold.

Irish folk song, by Arthur Foote, Mrs. Greeley Kolls.

"There Sits a Bird" and "My Love Is Like the Red, Red Rose," by Arthur Foote, Mrs. Bertha Neff of Los Angeles.

This is an exceptional opportunity for local music lovers and it is hoped a large number will be present to enjoy the afternoon and carefully selected program, which is in charge of Mrs. John R. Barrows, herself a musician of no little talent.

COURAGE AND BRAVERY

To some people courage and bravery may mean the same thing, but there is a marked difference in the essential value of the two words. Bravery has more of show in it. It must be exhibited to be recognized. Courage, on the other hand, is inward, it is from the heart as its etymology tells us. Courage may never gain recognition because it often eschews bravery and is content with stillness—an attitude of patient waiting—that bravery would blindly characterize inaction or apathy.

Some have been thought brave, says the old proverb, because they were afraid to run away. Courage on the other hand knows when to withdraw, and does so coolly and deliberately, unhampered by the fear of the construction that may be put upon its action. The commander of a submarine in a recent naval engagement, finding all the odds against him on the surface, quietly sank his vessel to the bed of the ocean, and there, all unconcerned, played auction bridge with his subordinates until darkness gave him the desired passport to safety.

It was courage that prompted withdrawal from such unequal conditions where mere bravery might have courted disaster, but there is a touch of bravery about the card-playing episode—bravery, tempered with a remarkable coolness.

Hamlet's reflection that "conscience doth make cowards of us all" is true only to the extent that all will sooner or later learn the emptiness of mere bravery. The veiled irony conveyed in the word is manifest in the ancient prophet's scathing rebuke directed at "the bravery of their tinkling ornaments." But with courage there goes a certain conviction of the immortality of an unselfed purpose and action, and a conscience thus fortified will not make a coward.

We need not look only to the battlefield for examples of courage. They are there in plenty, but there is so much more of the glamour of bravery there that the quieter attribute goes often unremarked and unrecognized.

Courage will be found and noted by those with eyes that see—and found abundantly, we believe, in the mere humdrum of life in the midst of sordid environment and surrounded with all the pressure of a thousand petty, trifling and irritating circumstances. It is known by a certain attitude of patient resourcefulness in the very face of hurry and obstacle, of quiet joy dealing discomfort to gloom and pessimism, of sympathy and confidence, neutralizing the aloofness of mistrust, and its wisdom is of that kind which is "from above." Nevertheless a certain eminent student of humanity has written that few persons have the courage to appear as good as they really are.

A good resolution made today with fixed will-power behind it to put it into execution, is just as good as a resolution made on New Year's. It makes little difference when a good resolution is made. It makes all the difference how it is made and how strongly one is determined to live up to it.

THE LADIES AT WORK

LADIES OF W. C. T. U. MEET AND DISCUSS THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

The precinct study circle of the W. C. T. U. held their study class at the comfortable home of Mrs. Permelia Keim, 1430 West Second street, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 21.

Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, the president, gave information on many of the amendments. Mrs. Smart has made a thorough study of the amendments and it would be difficult to find anyone better informed on these proposed measures.

Propositions 2 and 4 are earnestly requested by the president to be voted "yes."

Propositions 39 and 47 vote "no." Mrs. Henderson, as a visitor, was present and was called upon to talk on proposition No. 20, "prize-fights."

Mrs. Henderson read the proposed amendment and most intelligently gave an impromptu discussion of it.

There is a law on our statute books prohibiting prize-fights. This law should be sustained by voting "yes." Mrs. Henderson also spoke of the ten dry states that are financially and morally a success and six more states will be voted on this year.

Mrs. P. A. C. Moore discussed No. 13, "qualification of voters at bond elections." The proposed law was read. No elector shall vote on the question of incurring bonded indebtedness unless a tax-payer. It would disqualify from voting upon such questions about 75% of women voters. Mrs. Moore urged all to vote "no."

Mrs. Louise Morton read No. 18, "non-sale of game." Mrs. Morton's instructions were to vote "yes" on this measure, as this act throws greater protection about the game of the state and will prevent the slaughter of game for sale upon the market. Mrs. Morton also read the proposed measure that will appear on the ballot, No. 10, abolition of poll-tax. This measure proposes that no poll-tax shall be collected. If adopted, a large class of our people, including unaturalized foreigners, will pay no taxes, although receiving the benefit of our government. Vote "no."

Mrs. Opal Greenwalt spoke in favor of the title law, No. 22. This proposed act, known as the "Torrens law," gives the owner of real estate the option of obtaining certificates of title through the present title company method, or of having his title registered by the county recorder and insured by the state. Similar laws to this proposed measure are in effect in Australia, the cities of London and Chicago, and Massachusetts and Nebraska.

Mrs. Greenwalt did not hesitate to say she was going to vote "yes" on this measure.

Mrs. Greenwalt also spoke on No. 44, "minimum wage." This authorizes the legislature to provide for the establishment of minimum wage for women and children in order that a fair and living wage shall be paid to them when required to work for wages. This amendment contemplates the fixing of the minimum wage for different occupations by the state welfare commission.

Mrs. Greenwalt is also in favor of this proposed act. Vote "yes" on No. 44.

The precinct study circle will meet on Friday of this week to continue the study of these important measures. Visitors are welcome.

ONLY DEATH COULD BRING FORGIVENESS

Frank L. Muhleman, candidate for the assembly in the sixty-first assembly district, tells the following story:

"Two old farmers who had lived on adjoining farms for many years had had trouble over a line fence, and as the result of the trouble were not on speaking terms. One of them, whose name was John, was taken very ill and was not expected to live. News of his illness reached his neighbor, Dave, through the mutual friend of John and Dave, and Dave was urged to call at the home of John for the purpose of effecting a reconciliation. Dave finally consented to do so, and called at John's house. John was lying in bed, looking very weak and emaciated. Dave explained his mission and stated that he hoped John would forgive him for all past wrongs, if any were committed by him. John finally agreed to let bygones be a thing of the past and the old neighbors' enmity was apparently forgiven in a hand-clasp. Dave had taken leave of his sick neighbor and had reached the door, when John called out: 'Dave, I just want to say that if I get better, this here forgiveness business don't go!'"

An information bureau for constitutional amendments has been established at 818 West Broadway, this city, where literature and information will be freely given to all.

WED AT 8:00 O'CLOCK

MISS GLADYS H. SHERMAN AND KELSEY F. FELLOWS CON-TRACTING PARTIES

Many wondered, perhaps, why the Rev. Tilroe of the Boyle Heights M. E. church, Los Angeles, was hovering about Glendale last evening. The fact is, he was summoned to officiate at the ceremony which joined in marriage Miss Gladys Harriett Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman of Glendale, and Mr. Kelsey F. Fellows of Los Angeles.

This wedding, which took place in the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Louis G. Sherman, 1416 West First street, was a pretty affair beautifully carried out in yellow and white.

Chrysanthemums both large and small were massed about in riotous profusion and here and there their golden heads peeped out from bankings of rich feathery fern and greens. Beneath a bower of golden bloom the young people plighted their troth and later received the hearty congratulations of the fifty relatives and friends present.

The bride, who was prettily gowned in shimmery white, offset by an exquisite shower of bride roses and fern, was attended by Miss D. Fellows, sister of the groom, and Miss Marjorie Wells, both of whom were dressed in pink and white and carried showers of pink buds and fern.

The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. Lee Fellows, and Mr. Reginald Wilson of Los Angeles.

A sumptuous buffet supper followed the ceremony, during which the bride cut the huge cake she called her own.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. Louis Sherman, who sang "I Love You Truly."

Mr. Wheatley also rendered appropriate selections during the supper and Mrs. Gibbs presided at the piano during the wedding procession.

Many beautiful and costly gifts were received by this happy couple, who at the end of a brief honeymoon will be at home to their friends at 2344 Boulder avenue, Los Angeles, where Mr. Fellows is connected with The Times.

G. T. CLUB

Another good time was enjoyed Wednesday afternoon by members of the G. T. club (translation, good time), who as guests of Mrs. Earl R. Naudain, 903 Lomita avenue, spent the early hours in needlework and social chatter.

During the course of the afternoon the gracious hostess entertained her guests with a number of delightful piano and vocal solos, after which a light collation was partaken of by all.

Chrysanthemums were used in embellishing the home, wherein the following club members were received: Mrs. J. W. Usilton, Mrs. J. C. Waite, Mrs. Phillip Englehorn, Mrs. John Roman, Mrs. Chester Kling, Mrs. Frank H. Vesper and Mrs. Leon W. Wilkinson.

Many delightful parties have been planned by the Good Time club, the first of which will be a Halloween party next week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kling, 868 Damasco court. The guests will be attracted in fancy costume and many joyful games and pranks suggestive of the occasion will be indulged in.

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. F. A. Field of 239 South Kenwood street entertained at luncheon on Monday, Oct. 19th. The flowers of the season—chrysanthemums—were used for decorations. The invited guests were Mrs. W. E. Edmonds, Mrs. N. C. Thomas, Mrs. R. E. Arbuthnot, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. J. Horsch, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Adamson, Miss R. Scherer, Mrs. E. Maxwell assisted Mrs. Field in entertaining.

ALMOST SERIOUS ACCIDENT
Two negro men were engaged in tearing down a three-story brick building. One was on top of the building, prying loose the bricks and sliding them down a narrow chute to the ground, where the other was picking them up and piling them. The negro on the ground was stooping over to pick up a brick when his companion on the building accidentally shoved one off the wall. It struck the lower worker squarely on the head. He scrambled to his feet, put his hand on his head, and said as he looked up:
'What de debil's de matter wit you, man? You made me bite my tongue.'

SUCH A THING, ALL RIGHT
'Remember, boys,' said the teacher, 'that in the bright lexicon of youth there's no such thing as fall.' After a few moments a boy raised his hand. 'Well, what is it, my lad?' asked the teacher.
'I was merely going to suggest,' replied the youngster, 'that if such is the case, it would be advisable to write to the publishers of that lexicon and call their attention to the omission.'

ABSOLUTELY UNAVOIDABLE
"Freddy, you shouldn't laugh out loud in the school-room," exclaimed the teacher.
"I didn't mean to do it," apologized Freddy. "I was smiling, when all of a sudden the smile busted."

ALTOGETHER TOO DISTINCT

Mr. Brown had just had a telephone put in connecting his office and house, and was very much pleased with it.
'I tell you,' he remarked to his friend, 'the telephone is a wonderful thing. I want you to dine with me this evening, and I will notify Mrs. Brown to expect you.' He called his wife and said: 'My friend Smith will dine with us this evening.' Then to his friend, 'Now listen and hear how plain her reply comes back.' Mrs. Brown's reply came back with startling distinctness.
'Ask your friend Smith if he thinks we keep a hotel.'

SOMETHING ELSE AGAIN

"And yet I understand that he had known his wife only two weeks before they were married."
"Yes, but remember, buying a motor car is a serious thing."

IN HONOR OF BABY LOUISE

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon E. Soper are the proud parents of a beautiful little girl, Kathryn Louise, who arrived September 27, 1914.

Give you a description of baby?
That I'll endeavor to do;
So patiently give your attention,
And I will be thankful to you.

Her dear little head is so cunning,
Covered with silky brown hair,
And her tiny nose is so funny,
Her soft chubby cheeks so fair.

Her small pink ears look like coral,
Her eyes are of heavenly blue;
They dance with delight, as they happily light,
On mother's face so fond and true.

Baby is as dainty as a summer flower
Fresh with the morning dew;
Her two little lips are rosy and sweet
As they shyly smile up at you.

No blossom that grows is as sweet
as that rose,
No form so delicately molded
As Baby Louise, as she sleeps on my knees,
Within my fond arms enfolded.

THE FISHING BOY

My life is like a stroll upon the beach,
As near the ocean's edge as I can go;
My tardy steps its waves sometimes o'erreach,
Sometimes I stay to let them overflow.

My sole employment is, and scrupulous care,
To place my gains beyond the reach of tides,
Each smoother pebble, and each shell more rare,
Which ocean kindly to my hand confides.

I have but few companions on the shore;
They scorn the strand who sail upon the sea;
Yet oft I think the ocean they've sailed o'er
Is deeper known upon the strand to me.

The middle sea contains no crimson dulse,
Its deeper waves cast up no pearls to view;
Along the shore my hand is on its pulse,
And I converse with many a shipwrecked crew.

And since in life I loved them well,
Let me in death lie down with them,
And let the pines and tempests swell
Around me their great requiem.

—Henry David Thoreau.

CAREFUL ABOUT RECOMMENDATIONS

We ask that contributors to the Evening News be cautious not to recommend any person through the columns of this paper unless it is a fact beyond a doubt that such person will bear out the recommendation. In the past few weeks articles have been handed to us for publication, giving a friend of the one writing the article a neat little introduction and recommendation to the public. These articles were worded to indicate they had been written by the editor. The editor is ready to stand for anything that is strictly all right, but never will we stand for recommending a rascal. We are particular about whom we recommend.

OUR SIXTEEN-STRIPED FLAG

How many stripes in the American flag? Thirteen, of course, yet there's an American flag flown legally today which has sixteen stripes. It is the flag of the revenue cutter service, and the stripes are vertical, not horizontal, as in the ordinary ensign.

The stripe nearest the staff is red; then come white and red alternately, so that the outermost stripe is white. The reason for the sixteen stripes is found in the fact that when the revenue flag was authorized, in 1799, there were sixteen states in the Union, three having joined the original thirteen.

DYEING CARPET ON THE FLOOR

To dye a carpet on the floor, says one housewife, have the desired color of dye boiling hot. Keep it on the stove and use a cup and a narrow paint brush in applying it. Paint one stripe, then skip one, then the next; never two side by side, else the colors will run and there will be no straight edge to the stripes. After these have dried, paint the remaining stripes. Weaken the dye for delicate shades.

You may make new colors. Blue and yellow make green; blue and red make purple, etc. Try a little and see what colors you obtain. As the dye in the cup cools, pour it back and take hot. Don't try to color dark light. It is impossible.

OLD-TIME PUNISHMENTS

Among the weird and horrible punishments inflicted in Quebec under both the French and English regimes were the burning of women at the stake for petty treason, burning of the hand, branding on the forehead and breaking on the wheel. No record is found in Canada, however, of such punishments as the "drunkard's cloak," a barrel with apertures for the head and hands, and the bridle and ducking stool for common scolds. In old houses in Britain there are still to be seen hooks by the fireplace to which a scolding wife was fastened after being bridled, the jailer performing this service at the request of the exasperated husband.

In France an instrument known as the carcan was used as a punishment for disregarding parental authority or non-attendance at church, and one was formerly attached to a post at the door of the Basilica at Quebec. The pillory was used in England for at least 700 years, and in 1769 a prisoner stood in the pillory at Montreal for three days. In 1765 two men and a woman were whipped through the streets of Montreal, thirty-nine lashes being given each.—Pearson's.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

fact in this connection—the geography of the country. A look at that will show that for Germany to swing her forces solely on the southerly bend through Alsace and Lorraine would leave her northern flank at the mercy of a nothern army from either England or France. To keep out of Belgium, therefore, with England a possible enemy, would have been military madness. Now with all these facts in mind, war was not the technical but the moral obligation of Germany to Belgium. By going across Belgium she was not forcing war on Belgium; for although Belgium was under no duty to Germany to grant her transit, she was under no duty to England or France to resist it by force. She could have remained neutral by remaining passive, as China is remaining passive while Japan, called out by England, is going across her territory toward Germany's Chinese port. China has not given permission; she protests, but no one believes, much less anyone in England, that as a neutral she is obliged to take up arms against the country whose army is crossing. Indeed, Belgium's right not to be molested, even by troops in transit, was not that of 'guaranteed neutrality' at all, resting on treaty, but of territorial inviolability, resting on the fact that she was an independent nation—the same right that I have to exclude you from my house, not because you have agreed with someone else, to let me alone, but because the law gives me the right, on my own account, to be let alone.

But suppose, in pursuit of one who has attacked you or is about to attack you, you go through my house, that being the only way you can effectively overtake him. However technically it may be a trespass, will the law look upon it as a moral wrong? Some abstract rights have to yield, on occasion, to greater concrete needs. Whether Germany was morally right in attacking France is one question; her military necessities, in case she was morally right in the attack, is another and a different question. And that public opinion lacks all sense of proportion which holds that however morally right the attack on France may have been, and whatever the necessity of going across Belgium, there is a moral wrong in trespassing on Belgium's abstract right of territorial inviolability—compensation being guaranteed. At least, except as an excuse, no nation yet has made it a cause for war. As for France, assuming again that Germany was right in striking her, her mouth is closed against complaining of the violation of the treaty by the fact that she provoked it. And England, in declining to say whether she would be a belligerent or not, is in the same posture. As pretended guardians of Belgium, they cannot provoke an attack and then fend it off by holding up their ward between them and the blows that follow; so that as a moral question, this occupation by Germany of Belgium soil for the purpose of transit is merged in the larger moral question, was Germany right in her attack on France—did she honestly believe that her security and honor required that that attack should be made?

OPEN UP BRIDGES

Now is a suitable time, since there will be no work done on the Verdugo canyon wash under the supervision of the county for a year or more, to ask the P. E. Railway company and the supervisors of Los Angeles county to remove the piles and timbers from beneath the bridges extending across the wash. With the obstructions at these bridges removed, the water passing down the wash will have a clear channel, and will not be apt to do any damage.

GIRLS WITH BOYS' NAMES

Girls with boys' names and boys with girls' names have received them in many instances, no doubt, by accident. It was so in the case of George Anne Bellamy, the famous eighteenth century actress, who played Juliet to Garrick's Romeo. Born on St. George day, she was to be called Georgiana, but somebody's blunder at the time of her christening split this into George Anne. The "corn law rhimer," Ebenezer Elliott, had a daughter named Noah, whose passport is said to have given her much trouble abroad. But here, as in the case of other girl Noahs, it was only other people's Biblical ignorance that was at fault, for turn to Numbers xxxvi, II, and you will find that Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah were the daughters of Zelophehad.—London Graphic.

INTER-CITY COMMISSION RECOMMENDATIONS

San Gabriel Valley Organization Issues Report on Intricate and Important Amendments and Legislative Measures to be Voted on at November 3 Election and Makes Recommendations

Many who are appalled at the complicated nature of the ballot to be presented to the voters of California in November will be pleased to read the following recommendations presented by a committee of which Seward C. Simons of South Pasadena is secretary.

The San Gabriel Valley Inter-City Commission was formed for the purpose of co-operation between the different communities wherever a number of communities were affected. In view of the fact that a number of the measures coming up at the November election vitally affect the interests of smaller communities, this commission met and made a careful and impartial study of the measures and submit their recommendations.

The commission represents Pasadena, South Pasadena, Alhambra, Monrovia, San Gabriel and Lamanda Park. The report is signed by William Hazlett, Elwood J. Thorne, C. P. Dorland and Seward C. Simons.

NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT. "CALLING CONVENTION FOR REVISION OF CONSTITUTION." There is need for a new constitution, but the provisions of our present state constitution relating to the selection of delegates to a constitutional convention, which provide for the selection by partisan choice, might result in a very unsatisfactory convention and a partisan report and proposed constitution. VOTE "NO."

PROPOSITION NO. 12. "CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTIONS," is a proposed amendment to the constitution providing that delegates to a constitutional convention shall be selected at a non-partisan primary election. This is designed to dispose of the objection to the method of selecting delegates to the constitutional convention which lie to the present method of selection, and therefore this provision should carry, and the vote should be "YES" upon proposition No. 12.

NO. 2. "PROHIBITION." This is a proposed amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture, sale or giving away or the transportation within or into the state of intoxicating liquors, except for medicinal, scientific, mechanical or sacramental purposes. It permits any citizen to make complaint of known violations. The committee makes no recommendation in regard to this proposed amendment, for the reason that the resolution of the Inter-City Commission appointing the committee, expressly instructed it to make no recommendations on this subject. In justice to themselves, however, the members of the committee state that they personally favor the adoption of the amendment.

PROPOSITION NO. 39. "SUSPENSION OF PROHIBITION AMENDMENT," provides that in the event proposition No. 2 for prohibition shall carry, that its provisions shall not take effect regarding the sale of liquor in the state until February 15th, 1915, and as to shipping liquor out of the state not until January 1st, 1916. This gives those who have money invested, or who are engaged in the liquor business, time to withdraw, if proposition No. 2 carries, and enables those who are engaged in grape culture to dispose of this year's crop. VOTE "YES."

PROPOSITION NO. 47. "PROHIBITION ELECTIONS." This amendment is unfair and misleading. It provides (amongst other things) that the vote of any city or county, or district, upon the question of state prohibition shall determine whether that city or county or district shall be "wet" or "dry," within its own limits. It repeals existing laws regulating the liquor traffic. It also provides that if any political subdivision shall vote "wet," either on the prohibition amendment, or at any other election, no subsequent election upon the subject shall be held within eight years, while if it votes "dry," it shall be considered "non-licensed" territory, but this provision does not state that liquors shall not be sold in such "non-licensed" territory. Also it does not prohibit the question again being voted upon, in the latter circumstances, at ANY election, without waiting eight years. The proposed amendment is full of other "jokers" and evidently was not framed in good faith. VOTE "NO."

NO. 3. "EIGHT-HOUR LAW." While founded on a correct theory, this law is too broad in its application, and in its present form would seriously hamper some important industries and the labor connected therewith. VOTE "NO."

NO. 4. "ABATEMENT OF NUISANCES." This "red light abatement act" is moulded upon statutes of other states which have worked successfully. This act makes owners of the buildings and promoters of vice therein amenable to the law and not alone those caught in police raids. It permits any citizen to bring an action of injunction prohibiting the use of the building for such purposes and enjoining the owner and occupant from engaging in such business. VOTE "YES."

NO. 5. "INVESTMENT COMPANIES ACT." This act is designed to fill a pressing need for the proper control of corporations. While cumbersome in form, the committee believes that it should be adopted, and if, in its workings it is found that changes should be made, it may be amended by the legislature. VOTE "YES."

NO. 6. "WATER COMMISSION ACT." This creates a water commission with powers similar to those of the railroad commission and is designed to better protect the people in the appropriation, use and control of the waters of the state, and is a meritorious act. VOTE "YES."

NO. 7. "LOCAL TAXATION EXEMPTION." This is known as the "home rule in taxation" amendment, and would give any county, city or town power to exempt from taxation for local purposes improvements on or over land and any personal property except franchises. This would be an experiment in taxation. The majority of the committee recommends a favorable vote.

NO. 8. "EXEMPTING VESSELS FROM TAXATION." This is designed to encourage shipping on the high seas to and from our California ports and is a meritorious act. VOTE "YES."

NO. 9. "REGULATING INVESTMENT COMPANIES." This is a measure proposed by certain corporations and conflicts with, and would make ineffective proposition No. 5, recommended by the committee. VOTE "NO."

NO. 10. "ABOLITION OF POLL TAX." This measure proposes that no poll tax shall be collected. If adopted a large class of our people, including unnaturalized foreigners, will pay no taxes although receiving the benefits of our government. VOTE "NO."

NO. 11. "UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA BUILDING BOND ACT." This provides for a state bond issue of $1,800,000 for the construction of buildings and adding to the beauty and efficiency of the state university plant at Berkeley. Our state university needs this money. VOTE "YES."

NO. 12. "CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTIONS." Has been discussed in connection with proposition No. 1. VOTE "YES."

NO. 13. "QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS AT BOND ELECTIONS." This initiative proposition provides that no elector shall vote on the question of incurring bonded indebtedness UNLESS A TAXPAYER, and in theory, instead of being advanced legislation, in returning to the rule of property, this is retrogression to a system of government long since abandoned, and would be class legislation. It would disqualify from voting upon such questions at least 75% of women voters. VOTE "NO."

NO. 14. "VOTING BY ABSENT ELECTORS." This provides a method whereby those away from home on election day may vote and send their ballot by mail. It is dangerous in that it is not sufficiently safeguarded by restrictions. It would complicate the election machinery. VOTE "NO."

NO. 15. "DEPOSIT OF PUBLIC MONEYS." This measure proposes that bonds of SURETY COMPANIES may be put up as security for deposit of public moneys and changes the present law to that extent. There is no necessity for such act and it is unsafe. VOTE "NO."

NO. 16. "CONDEMNATION FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES." This measure, sometimes called "the excess condemnation amendment," enlarges the powers of the state or any county or municipality in condemning property for public purposes for future use. This is meritorious. VOTE "YES."

NO. 17. "EXPOSITION CONTRIBUTION BY ALAMEDA COUNTY." This proposed amendment will PERMIT Alameda county to vote bonds, payable by taxes and assessed in that county only, in aid of the San Francisco exposition. The state at large has no direct financial interest in this. VOTE "YES."

NO. 18. "NON-SALE OF GAME." This act throws greater protection about the game of the state and will prevent the slaughter of game for sale upon the markets. VOTE "YES."

NO. 19. "CONSOLIDATION OF CITY AND COUNTY, AND LIMITED ANNEXATION OF CONTIGUOUS TERRITORY." This amendment carries a fundamental change in the existing law of the state, in providing for the assumption of bonded indebtedness, in cases of annexation, by a simple majority vote at any election instead of a two-thirds vote, as now required. The existing safeguards are proper, and conform to the general practice elsewhere. Moreover, in the formation of a consolidated city and county government, the smaller cities or unincorporated territory proposed to be annexed, do not have a chance to vote directly and separately on whether they shall join the larger city; they have no voice in framing the charter by which they would be governed, and practically no say as to what district shall be added. The measure is full of danger to the "outsider" communities. There are ample laws already covering annexation when both communities desire. The alleged economies which have been urged as the excuse for this measure can be and are being obtained under existing law without territorial change. There are a number of things which make this measure in the opinion of many unbiased business men undesirable for Los Angeles, as well as the smaller cities. VOTE "NO."

NO. 20. "PRIZE-FIGHTS." Prohibiting prize-fights, but permitting four-round amateur boxing exhibitions, unless prohibited by ordinance. This prohibits brutal prize-fights, but allows clean, fair sport. VOTE "YES."

NO. 21. "CITY AND COUNTY CONSOLIDATION AND ANNEXATION WITH CONSENT OF ANNEXED TERRITORY." This proposed amendment is almost identical with No. 19, and is equally vicious. VOTE "NO."

NO. 22. "LAND TITLE LAW." This proposed act, known as the "Torrens law," gives the owner of real estate the option of obtaining certificates of title through the present title company method, or of having his title registered by the county recorder and insured by the state. It is not compulsory. VOTE "YES."

NO. 23. "ELECTIONS BY PLURALITY, PREFERENTIAL VOTE, AND PRIMARY." The preferential ballot system has been tried out successfully in other places, and as this measure applies only to local non-partisan elections, and is permissive, not compulsory, it seems to be meritorious. VOTE "YES."

NO. 24. "ASSEMBLY PAYROLL EXPENSES." There seems to be no pressing need for the spending of more money by the legislature or changing the present arrangements. VOTE "NO."

NO. 25. "ADOPTION AND AMENDMENT OF MUNICIPAL CHARTERS." This simplifies the procedure for the adoption of a freeholders' charter by a municipality. It permits the grant of general powers to any city of more than 3500 population. VOTE "YES."

NO. 26. "LEGISLATIVE CONTROL OF IRRIGATION, RECLAMATION AND DRAINAGE DISTRICTS." The legislature now has no right to supervise or control such districts. This would grant the legislature such right and would be an added protection to our citizens in such districts. VOTE "YES."

NO. 27. "COUNTY CHARTERS." This amendment facilitates the doing away with the duplication of certain city and county officials without territorial change. VOTE "YES."

NO. 28. "REGULATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES." This changes the present law so that cities having once voted lose control of their public utilities to the railroad commission and cannot regain this control. This might put the city at the mercy of a bad railroad commission without recourse. VOTE "NO."

NO. 29. "INCORPORATION OF MUNICIPALITIES." This proposed amendment is related to No. 27, affecting cities as that affects counties. It is in the interest of economy. VOTE "YES."

NO. 30. "IRRIGATION DISTRICTS CONTROLLING INTERNATIONAL WATER SYSTEMS." This amendment concerns Imperial valley and its gigantic irrigation system only. It seems to be a measure for protection and facilitates handling water and water rights in this valley. VOTE "YES."

NO. 31. "VALUATION OF CONDEMNED PUBLIC UTILITIES BY RAILROAD COMMISSION." This proposed amendment clarifies the existing law permitting cities to have their public utilities valued by the railroad commission in case of condemnation and when they so desire. VOTE "YES."

NO. 32. "ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS." If carried, makes possible the railroading of a good governor into another office, leaving a weak or bad lieutenant-governor in his place. VOTE "NO."

NO. 33. "PUBLIC UTILITIES IN MUNICIPALITIES." This act is designed to permit municipalities operating public utilities to extend their operations into other municipalities operating like utilities, and in competition with such other cities within their own boundaries. VOTE "NO."

NO. 34. "TAXATION OF PUBLIC PROPERTY." This provides for the taxation of lands held by municipalities outside of their boundaries. This is just. VOTE "YES."

NO. 35. "SACRAMENTO STATE BUILDING BONDS." This state needs adequate buildings in which to conduct its affairs. VOTE FOR THE BONDS.

NO. 36. "SAN FRANCISCO STATE BUILDING ACT." Our information is that the state does not need additional buildings in San Francisco. VOTE AGAINST THE BONDS.

NO. 37. "STATE FAIR GROUNDS BONDS." This is to provide for the issuance of state bonds, $750,000, for improvement of state fair grounds at Sacramento. Our information is that the amount of money asked for is excessive and the proposition should be voted down. VOTE AGAINST THE BONDS.

NO. 38. "LOS ANGELES STATE BUILDING BONDS." This act provides for the issuance of $1,250,000 of state bonds for erection and equipment of a state building in Los Angeles. This building is needed. VOTE FOR THE BONDS.

NO. 39. "SUSPENSION OF PROHIBITION AMENDMENT." This is discussed in connection with proposition No. 2. VOTE "YES."

NO. 40. "EXTRA SESSIONS OF DISTRICT COURTS OF APPEAL." This proposition is objectionable for the reason that anyone of five officials may call such extra sessions and there is no great need at this time therefor. VOTE "NO."

NO. 41. "MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE." This proposed amendment is designed to PREVENT reversals by the appellate courts in civil actions because of mere technicalities unless injustice has been done. This amendment is meritorious. VOTE "YES."

NO. 42. "PLACE OF PAYMENT OF BONDS AND INTEREST." This is designed to permit bonds to be made payable in foreign countries, thereby facilitating their sale. VOTE "YES."

NO. 43. "EXEMPTING EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS FROM TAXATION." California is the only state which does not already do this. VOTE "YES."

NO. 44. "MINIMUM WAGE." Authorizes the legislature to provide for the establishment of minimum wage for women and children in order that a fair and living wage shall be paid to them when required to work for wages. This amendment contemplates the fixing of the minimum wage for different occupations by the state welfare commission. The proposition is meritorious. VOTE "YES."

NO. 45. "ONE DAY OF REST IN SEVEN." This is known as the "Sunday rest law" and carries so many exemptions as to render the law almost a farce. This appears to be class legislation. VOTE "NO."

NO. 46. "DRUGLESS PRACTICE." This initiative measure creates a state board of examiners for drugless physicians and fixes the qualifications for practice as such. The committee recognizes that the existing law is not in all respects equitable, but this proposed law would lower the standards for admission to the practice of medicine and while admitting some worthy practitioners, would open the door to quacks. VOTE "NO."

NO. 47. "PROHIBITION ELECTIONS." This initiative measure is discussed in connection with proposition No. 2. VOTE "NO."

NO. 48. "BONDS FOR IMPROVEMENT OF SAN FRANCISCO HARBOR." This measure provides for issuance and sale of state bonds for payment of indebtedness to be incurred by the board of state harbor commissioners for improvement of the harbor at San Francisco, in an amount not to exceed $10,000,000, the bonds and interest to be paid from the revenue derived from the harbor, but the credit of the state is pledged as security. This bond issue was asked for by the state harbor commission. The measure was referred to popular vote or the legislature. The improvement is needed. VOTE FOR BONDS.
