

CLEVER GRANDMOTHER

MRS. SOPHIA PORTER HAS WONDERFUL FRUIT, VEGETABLE AND FLOWER GARDEN

In no line of human endeavor can a better index of the characters of the doers be found than in the gardens with which they surround their homes. If the front yard is given wholly to vegetables it is a proof that an utilitarian spirit dominates the aesthetic in their make-up. If it fails to conform to conventional lines it shows independence of spirit. A Glendale garden of great interest to many people which reflects its sweet-spirited owner, is one that is cultivated and cared for by Mrs. Sophia Porter who, although in her 82d year is just as enthusiastic a nature-lover as ever she was, and who has no thought of retiring from active life. Her home is at 405 East Harvard street and adjoins a lot owned by the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which she has the use for garden purposes. It should be a satisfaction to club members to know that their property is doing its bit to reduce the high cost of living.

It is a thoroughly democratic garden in which lettuce, Kentucky Wonder beans, Lima beans, carrots, onions, salsify and parsnips, cucumbers and sweet potatoes have honored places and faithful care and at the same time are within speaking distance of vegetable neighbors who rank higher in the social scale; for near them are dense bushes of Cecil Brunner roses, still blooming though long past their season, hardy dahlias taller than their mistress and of the good, old-fashioned sorts raised by Mrs. Porter from seed, gladioli—also seedlings, fuchsias, and the lavender-blue Australian daisy. Room has been found for a hedge of blackberries which has yielded an astonishing crop and on which a few luscious samples are still hanging to invite the visits of birds. The pleasant back yard is shaded by a thrifty French walnut and a black walnut.

MARVELOUS RECOVERY

Mrs. George W. Bancroft, mother of Mrs. Edgar H. Fry of 333 Cerritos avenue is now able to walk about everywhere, up-stairs and down without cane or crutch, which seems little short of a miracle to her friends. She is 77 years old and four months ago fell and broke her hip. There was no question about the nature of the injury for an X-ray was taken. Following the accident she was delirious for some time as a result of the nervous shock and few of those who know her had any expectation that she would ever walk again. But she is a woman of resolution and courage who refused to be helpless and her case is a beautiful example of the triumph of the mind over the body.

CHURCH NIGHT DOINGS, CENTRAL CHRISTIAN

More than forty partook of the appetizing church night supper at Central Christian last evening, though only 25 or 30 had been expected. A meeting of the Bible School cabinet followed, at which it was decided to challenge the University Church Bible School, Los Angeles, to a contest in membership, attendance and lesson study. Mrs. R. M. Jackson and Mrs. Kilborn led the prayer meeting which was on the "World Outlook for Africa." Many points of vital interest were brought out by leaders and audience. A letter from Mrs. Evelyn Uter Pearson, for five years a resident of Glendale, now a missionary in Bolengi, Africa, was read. It was a personal letter to the Glendale friends who had made her a parting gift before she left home for the long journey to Africa, expressing her gratitude and giving intimate details of her and her husband's work among the black people.

MOVE TO NEW HOME

MR. AND MRS. M. P. HARRISON TAKE POSSESSION TODAY OF HOUSE AT 505 N. LOUISE

M. P. Harrison and wife are moving today from the house they have been occupying at 201 North Kenwood which they recently sold, to the new home they purchased from Miss M. B. Creed at 505 North Louise street. After settling their effects there they expect to leave for quite an extended tour of the east. Mr. Harrison has been closely confined to the banking business for a number of years under the strenuous conditions of the war and during the influenza which for a few weeks seriously crippled the bank staff. He and Mrs. Harrison declare they are going to remain away and loaf long enough to get thoroughly rested.

GOES TO ASHEVILLE

MRS. J. W. M. BURTON TO VISIT HER OLD HOME IN MOUNTAINS OF NORTH CAROLINA

Mrs. J. W. M. Burton of Montrose is leaving Sept. 4th for Asheville, the great resort in the mountains of North Carolina, where she was born and where her mother and sisters still live. She has not been back for eleven years and is greatly anticipating the return. It is an all-the-year resort to which the northern people come in winter and the dwellers further south in Florida come in summer for a change from their low altitude. She will also visit the home of Mr. Burton further back in the mountains. For that trip she plans to take a scenic railroad which has been built since she last visited the state and which will carry her within seven miles of her destination leaving the rest of the journey to be made by stage. The railroad winds through picturesque scenery and the tour will take the best part of the day, although the distance from Asheville over the mountains by carriage is only about thirty miles, and she and Mr. Burton have often made the trip together. Mrs. Burton will be gone about sixty days and will visit a sister in Milwaukee and friends in Chicago. She will return via San Antonio, where she will also stop to see friends.

HUMAN WELFARE PLANT

The near completion of the recreational building of the Y. M. C. A. center at San Pedro, of which Edgar H. Fry of 333 Cerritos avenue, this city, is superintendent, is a matter of great satisfaction to him and others interested in the work. It is quite a wonderful human welfare plant which the Y. M. C. A. has established there including a large school and welding building. The one which is being finished is for the social life of the "Y" and elaborate dedicatory ceremonies are planned for Friday the 29th.

PARLIAMENTARY PICNIC

Members of the summer class in parliamentary law taught by Mrs. P. S. McNutt and made up of representatives of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the P. T. A. organizations, report a glorious time Wednesday at Hermosa Beach where they were guests of Mrs. John Robert White. The ladies entertained were Mesdames A. A. Barton, A. W. Tower, L. W. Sonntag, W. A. Kulp, and A. H. Brown. They were accompanied by their children and all had a good time in the surf, after which they had lunch on the beach followed by the lesson, that session also taking place on the beach.

GO TO BALBOA

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kent and sons, Wesley, Howard and Ethelwyn, of 522 North Central avenue are leaving today for Balboa for an outing of ten days or two weeks. They expect to be located on the island and to make a business of exploring all of the points of interest in that part of Orange county.

PRESIDENT REFUSES TO ACT PREMATURELY

SAYS HE HAS NOT POWER TO PROCLAIM PEACE UNTIL SENATE HAS RATIFIED TREATY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Replying to a series of questions written by Senator Fall of New Mexico, President Wilson today declared that in his judgment he has not the power to proclaim a state of peace before the ratification of the peace treaty by the Senate.

In addition the President clearly indicated that he would not consent to such a step if he did have the power. He declared that such a course "would put a stain upon our national honor which we could never efface." He also said the ratification of the treaty within the near future "will certainly reduce the cost of living in this country and elsewhere by restoring commercial production to normal strength and freedom."

Carranza, when asked for an opinion, said that Ambassador Bonillas at Washington has been instructed to make representations to the United States asking for the immediate withdrawal of cavalrymen, and airplanes. He declined to give expressions to his views of the case.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—A protest against the American cavalry expedition into Mexico will be made to the State Department today or tomorrow by the Mexican Ambassador.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

HONOLULU, Aug. 21.—Mrs. Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, pressed a button shortly after ten o'clock this morning opening the gates of the Pearl Harbor drydock.

Hundreds of whites, Japanese and native Hawaiians witnessed the ceremony which, according to Secretary Daniels, marked the opening of a new era in the history of the Hawaiian Islands. In his speech, which was the chief address, the Secretary declared that the dock will soon be open to merchant ships as well as ships of war. He said the government expects to make Pearl Harbor one of the world's greatest marine stations.

LETTER FROM FRANCE

AFTER MANY MONTHS GEO. PAGE GETS ANSWER TO LETTER SENT WITH RELIEF SUPPLIES

More than a year ago George Page of 126 Franklin Court, wishing to do his bit for suffering France, bought with his own money a 25-lb. sack of flour, and had it sent with the supplies gathered up in this vicinity, on one of the relief ships. He wrote a letter of sympathy and enclosed it in the sack. On Wednesday he received a letter from France which proved to be in answer to his. Although written July 4th it took all this time for it to get to Glendale. Here is the letter, just as it appears on the sheet, French idioms and all:

"Commercy, Department de la Meuse, on the Fourth of July, 1919. To Mr. George H. Page, 432 West Broadway, Glendale, California, U. S. A.:

"I am a motor car's driver and I was conveying the goods for the people of the French delivered lands, with two nurses of the French Red Cross, when I have found your letter in a sack of flour. I have done the translation to this poor people and they thank you very much for your wishes and fine flour. I have been demobilized since three months and I have done the war against the Huns during four years and half. I have been wounded three times; my three brothers have been killed, one in Argonne and the two others on the Yser, in the beginning of the war. My two little children have been killed in Paris by the bombardment. My poor land of France is very bruised. Now I am alone and very sad, but I can do my business and my heart is full of hope in spite of my poverty. I am glad to see a good boy like you with a so good heart and I will say that to you. Love France and its soldiers the same thing we love U. S. A. and its brave soldiers. The both lands are the home of the courage and loyalty.

"Excuse my writing because since a long time I have forgetting to speak and write English. Friendly yours, very respectfully, 'REPETTO FERNAND, Conducteur T. M. 0118, Regions liberees, Secteur de Commercy, France."

The envelope was directed "Monsieur George H. Page, 432 West Broadway, Glendale, California, United States America."

"What are they doing to cause such a dearth?" she was asked.

"Oh, they took up a lot of different work when the soldiers went and some of them are not giving it up now that the boys are home.

"Then the cannors where they can earn $5 00 a day have caught a good many. Besides the good pay it is not so close and confining as millinery."

"From this it would seem that the days of the 'aristocracy of labor' when the dainty jobs were sought are no more. Now it is the dollar that counts.

OLD FRIENDS MEET AGAIN

F. O. McCauley, of Lordsburg, N. M., has been in Glendale this week, visiting two friends of his early days, Dr. D. R. Dungan and David Hartley. Dr. Dungan he knew in Nebraska pioneer days when he (Dungan) was a young Christian preacher, riding the wide prairies, 50 miles or more a day and shattering all modern union ideas by working from 12 to 18 hours a day. Mr. McCauley was then a young singing evangelist of the Christian Church and he made that his life work. Though around 80 years of age his voice has not yet lost its sweetness and power. Mr. Hartley, who is now in his 84th year, he knew in the State of Washington many years ago. Mr. McCauley will return to his home in Lordsburg tomorrow.

TOO BUSY TO HUNT

DEER GO UNSCARED WHILE LABOR TAKES ADVANTAGE OF INDUSTRIAL REVIVAL

No rise could be gotten out of D. J. Kelly when challenged for news of nimrods who had improved the opening hours of the deer season. Even when reminded that his store is supposed to be an emporium of sporting goods where such gossip should be abundant, he failed to come through except to retail the rumor that Edward Lopez of 107 South Central got a deer in the Santa Monica Mountains Saturday night. The News trail ended right there.

In defense and explanation he declared: "The men are all too busy. Why, you can't get a carpenter anywhere."

It was suggested that men who are not carpenters have been known to tote a gun but he wearily countered with the statement that they are merely examples of a general industrial condition.

When asked if this "plenty-of-work-prosperity" is favorably affecting the merchants he admitted it is and that the building of eight or nine houses on Jackson street and in its vicinity is bound to require the purchase of hardware and other materials which spell improvement over last year when the prostrating hand of war was laid heavily upon all enterprises not connected with the defeat of the Hun.

It seemed possible that this condition might apply only to labor in the building line, so to make sure a call was made upon Mrs. Grace Yarbrough to ascertain the status of the labor market in trimmers.

"None to be had," she announced briskly, and then proceeded to tell of the experience of a certain big wholesale house, that advertised for trimmers for two weeks and had but two responses.

"What are they doing to cause such a dearth?" she was asked.

"Oh, they took up a lot of different work when the soldiers went and some of them are not giving it up now that the boys are home.

"Then the cannors where they can earn $5 00 a day have caught a good many. Besides the good pay it is not so close and confining as millinery."

"From this it would seem that the days of the 'aristocracy of labor' when the dainty jobs were sought are no more. Now it is the dollar that counts.

ENTERTAIN OLD FRIENDS

Mrs. Edgar Fry of 333 Cerritos avenue has had the pleasure during the week of entertaining two old friends from Chicago, Mrs. Andrew Paulson and Miss Grace Wilson, who are now visiting an uncle in Hollywood. Wednesday Mrs. Fry welcomed to her home two more friends who were once her neighbors in Chicago, viz., Mr. and Mrs. William Hampton, who now reside in Honolulu, where Mr. Hampton is superintendent of the local gas works. They will leave for Chicago in the near future.

PROFIT IN SWEET CORN

MORE THAN 600 DOZEN EARS RAISED ON 1.3 ACRES OF GROUND

Mention was made recently in the Evening News of a fine field of sweet corn raised by Dr. and Mrs. Colin Cable on eight city lots owned by them on the north side of Lomita Ave., west of Columbus. The corn is of the Oregon Evergreen variety and the crop is of such superior excellence and so free from worms that Mrs. Cable was asked what method of cultivation and irrigation was used to bring about such happy results. Her explanation may help some who have made failures in corn raising to change their methods. The ground was plowed deep and the corn planted in sections about two weeks apart. It was cultivated regularly and irrigated systematically. When the silk appeared water was used in greater abundance, the whole field being irrigated once, sometimes twice, a week. The result was that the growth of the ears was so stimulated that they matured before the worms had fairly begun their work. As it is, hardly an ear shows a worm. The corn is unusually sweet and tender, which is another result of heavy irrigation. The man who cultivated and looked after the field for the Cables is confident there will be a yield of 600 dozen first-class ears for selling, besides many dozens of smaller ones, and all the family is using. Mrs. Cable says she has been offered a fancy price for all in the field by Japanese peddlers, but she prefers supplying her neighbors at a reasonable price, thus hitting several good licks at H. C. L.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF MRS. A. J. DANFORD TO LIBRARY BOARD MAKES GOOD SHOWING

Librarian's Report To the Honorable Board of Directors of the Glendale Public Library:

It is my esteemed privilege to present the Twelfth Annual Report of the Glendale Public Library.

This year's work has been more or less curtailed because of a closer margin of help, but every effort was made to condense labor and intensify service. The closing of the Library for a month, while from an unfortunate cause, relieved the pressure of back work.

Book Reviews

Owing to the expense of repairing the cement work, less books were purchased and, as a means of allaying this demand, a Book Review was conceived of and proved most successful. Interesting briefs were given, which not only created an interest, but led to favorable comment and gave an opportunity to bring before the public valuable old books. Urgent requests were made to have the reviews resumed next fall, with suggestions that they be conducted in the main room where more could attend and with greater freedom. The completion of the basement room will meet

THE ARGONNE AN AMERICAN PARK

France has given historic Vimy Ridge to Canada, and that was a fine and fitting thing to do. Canadians there sealed in their blood the glory of the Maple Leaf, and so long as history shall last Americans will have a new pride in having Canada for a neighbor because of the way Canadians fought at Vimy Ridge.

This great battleground will be turned into a memorial for those who fought there and died—and for those who fought there and lived—and will be preserved for all time by the government in whose name those gallant Canadians fought there for the liberty of the world. The Canadian government is going to make a park of it—it is so peppered with metal from shells, so scarred by craters of mines and shells, that it can never be fit for human use again anyway—and plant there maples brought from Canada. Though no expense will be spared to make the place sightly, the battle scars will be preserved.

This proposal has been made that the United States buy the Argonne forest, where Americans fought as Americans never had fought before, and where they bought the victory of civilization and democracy over autocracy and organized brigandry with their blood and their bodies. There are other spots in France that will always be sacred to Americans—Cantigny, where Americans first showed their mettle; Chateau Thierry, where the fighting of Americans gave British and French the courage to finish the war; St. Mihiel, whose four-year-old salient Americans flattened out over night. But the greatest of these is the Argonne, where Americans cut through the four German lines to Sedan, and where Americans did what men said couldn't be done.

The Argonne forest is American soil forevermore, made so with American blood. Why not buy it, and make it a Mecca for Americans abroad for all time to come?—Hemet News.

SENATOR FERNALD DEFENDS PACKERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—A defense of the big packers was made by Senator Fernald of Maine in a speech before the Senate today. He urged that attempts to regulate the big industries be abandoned and that free play be given individual enterprises. Fernald, who is himself a large packer of vegetables, said the packers are efficient and economical and that there is no reason why they should be singled out for attack. All business, if licensed, should be treated similarly, he said.

MESSAGE FROM PASTOR
 Attendants on the Wednesday night prayer meeting at the First Methodist Church received the following pleasant message from their pastor, Rev. Charles H. Scott, written en route to the east:
 "Near Ash Fork, Arizona, Monday, 6:30 P. M.
 "My Dear People:
 "It has just occurred to me that a message sent to Brother Norton might reach you at prayer meeting My train is climbing the hills between Ash Fork and Williams, Arizona.
 The heat of the desert is past, and now the hillsides are covered with green, a profusion of wild flowers and beautiful trees.
 My mind is going forward to your meeting Wednesday night. I shall watch the changes of time as we travel, and spend the same hour that you do in devotion. I shall pray for Brother Norton as leader of the meeting, for you who are present, and for the people of our church.
 "Though Sundered, far, by faith we meet Around one common mercy seat."
 "My testimony is—
 'Heaven is nearer, and Christ is dearer,
 Than yesterday to me.
 His love and light fill all my soul to-night.'
 Cordially your pastor,
 CHAS. H. SCOTT."
 DON HAMILTON

Don Hamilton, son of Mrs. Clara Hamilton on East Acacia avenue, who did his bit in the great war overseas in a fine, manly way and who was in some of the major offensives, returned last week looking very fit and soldierly, to the great joy of his mother and sisters. A week of loafing seemed to be all he could stand and he has now returned to his old job, which he quit to enter the army, with the Standard Oil Company at Taft. It is noticeable that the men who have made the best records as soldiers seem most ready to return to civilian life and the everyday humdrum occupations they followed before the war.

UNSKILLED NEGRO LABOR COMES HIGH

As illustrating the universal demand for exceedingly high wages, Mr. McClare, who is superintending the job of erecting buildings and preparing grounds for his new oil station and refreshment stand at Brand and Colorado, relates that a darkey strolled up to him just when he was short a helper in concrete work and asked for a job. "How much a day do you want," was the inquiry. "Six dollars, boss," was the reply. As three dollars a day is the usual price for such work, the darkey was sent on in a hurry.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Temple of Orange street are expected home from the beach Saturday or Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin and family and the Blake Franklin family spent Wednesday at Long Beach.

Mrs. Crumley and little daughter Marian of 928 North Louise street have gone to Santa Barbara for a ten-days' outing.

Mrs. Peter Ferry and family have joined Mr. Ferry at his work camp and will enjoy a beach outing there until school opens.

Max Green and wife of 140 South Jackson and his wife's parents, who live in La Canada, arrived at home last Monday from a 10 days' outing in the Big Bear region.

Mrs. H. D. Cross and daughter Katherine of 329 Mira Loma avenue are spending a month at Long Beach. Mr. Cross is the International Boy Scout Commander of the Pacific Coast.

Harold Osborn, a jeweler of Banning, Calif., was a visitor over Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Marlenee. Mr. Osborn returned recently from service overseas and is very glad to be back again with his friends.

Henry M. Butts of the Monarch Co., his son Horatio and a boy comrade have returned from a very pleasant camping trip near Ventura where they had very good luck fishing, incidentally hauling in a 30-pound shark. They also caught a 3-pound corbina.

A. F. Webster of the Park Avenue Grocery, who lives at 208 West Elk Ave., is purchasing the Alison R. Hockett place at 205 East Acacia. Since Mr. Hockett's recent death the widow has decided to go back to her people in Illinois, so offered her place for sale.

Mrs. Grace Lillian Mayo of Walla Walla, Wash., and son, Clifford, who have been visiting Mrs. Mayo's mother, Mrs. G. W. Sanford, in Sycamore Canyon, started for home Wednesday. Mrs. Sanford accompanied them as far as Hanford, where she will visit a sister for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill W. Ludden are returning to their home on El Bonito avenue after an absence of about a year. They have given notice to their tenants and expect to resume possession about the first of September. They are greatly beloved in the neighborhood which will give them a warm welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hillman, daughter and son-in-law of Dr. A. M. Duncan, have sold their home at 329 W. Acacia and will give possession to the new owners about the first of September. They have several plans under consideration which may lead to their going north to live. After surrendering their home they will be guests of Dr. Duncan for a few weeks pending their decision as to their future.

Rev. C. R. Norton says one of the happy surprises of the meeting at Huntington Beach for him was meeting an old comrade, J. H. Northrup, of San Gabriel, who was a member of his company and regiment, Co. F, 148th Ohio Infantry. Comrade Northrup invited him to come and preach next Sunday in the Methodist Church at San Gabriel, in which he is very active. Rev. Norton gladly complies with this request and will be accompanied to San Gabriel by Mrs. Norton.

A surprise is coming to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ashton and family who motored to Laguna Beach last Sunday and are spending the week there. The house which they have been occupying as tenants at the corner of Gardena and Cerritos, was sold at auction Wednesday by a bank having an equity in the property, so they will have a new landlord when they get back, but he may not require possession. If he does, their friends say it will be almost a tragedy because houses to rent are so scarce now.

CRAMERS ARE HAPPY

A very happy family are the Crammers on Acacia avenue. One week ago word came to them that Wallace Cramer was in New York at Camp Dix. This morning a telegram has reached them that he is now at the Presidio in San Francisco which means that he will soon be here. On the way down he will probably stop to see his brothers, Paul, Horace and Earl, at Bakersfield and Maricopa. The rest of the family are here including his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Biddle, who are having an outing at Balboa this week.

YSHER FREMONT NEWLIN, JR.

Mrs. Ysher F. Newlin has returned to her home at 908 North Louise street from Thornycroft with her new baby, Ysher Fremont Newlin, Jr., born August 3, 1919, and a fine boy who is much admired in the neighborhood. Mrs. Newlin announces with satisfaction that her niece, Miss Mildred Harrison, is here and will be with her for the winter, entering school when the fall term enters. She is a daughter of D. F. Harrison, a prominent oil man in Wyoming. During Mrs. Newlin's absence the Newlin family including Miss Harrison, her cousins Frederick and Mary Lois, and Mr. Newlin enjoyed a pleasant outing at Terminal as guests of an aunt, Mrs. Gray.

 This demand as well as similar ones.

Civics Department

The nucleus of the Civics Department is well established and we hope to more extensively enter this field, which includes community service, a feature that other towns are realizing to be of vast importance in connection with their Libraries.

Improvements

The imperative demand for enlarged quarters has led to the consideration of finishing the basement room. It is impossible to add book racks until this pressure is relieved. Books of lesser importance were taken out of circulation during the current year, in order to have space for the new books. The completion of the basement room will also provide for an elegant juvenile room, a larger and better ventilated work room, which is badly needed, an auditorium, which would be supervised without extra expense and a public rest room, as an asset to the city.

The contract has been let for the repair of the cement work on the building, which will add greatly to its appearance as well as preserve the value of the property.

Great economy has been exercised that the balance left in the treasury July 1st, may be used for the repair of the cement work and the completion of the basement room.

Juvenile Department

The Juvenile Department is growing apace with other departments, one of the special features being the Story Hour, which is employed as an introduction to good literature and the teaching of systematic use of the Library. Very excellent results have been obtained and we expect to enlarge the scope of juvenile work when other quarters are provided.

Picture Collection

A most serviceable, though inexpensive, picture collection has been accumulated and recorded for reference. Its importance in connection with the schools cannot be overestimated.

Reference Department

The Reference Department includes not only literary research but other lines, and this department is vastly more appreciated and patronized as people grow into realization of its scope. Its object is not to assist the public only, but to educate them as to the true importance of real research. The Librarian has cause to regret that manifold duties prevent giving unlimited time to persons desiring assistance along special lines, but systematized effort is made and organized research is cheerfully performed by members of the staff.

Training Class

An enthusiastic training class has been established and some of the students, anticipating Library work as their chosen profession, have entered with zeal and a desire to learn,—this being the index to the good service which they are giving in return for their training and without added expense to the Library. These students made it possible to grant Mr. Cushing, the Branch Librarian, his request for two and one-half months leave of absence with salary suspended,—a portion of that sum being put into new books for the Branch. These students will also fill the vacancies which occur during the vacation period, without added expense for extra service.

A class in psychology and literature was conducted again this year for the regular staff and an unusual interest was stimulated in literature, psychology and higher ideals of service.

I wish to thank the Mayor, Mr. F. H. Muhleman, and the City Council for their hearty co-operation and excellent support.

Too much cannot be said of the Library Board for their understanding, never-failing interest and valuable advice and I wish to recognize the loyal help given me by the staff which has at all times manifested a magnificent spirit of service and untiring zeal.

We cannot be too grateful to the newspapers of Glendale for the generous treatment given, and in closing, I wish to thank the patrons of the Library for their appreciation of the service given, which they have shown by their unceasing interest.

Respectfully submitted,

ALMA J. DANFORD,

GOVERNMENT WAR SAVINGS SOCIETIES ENLISTED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 21.—Six million members of Government War Savings Societies organized throughout the United States were asked by the Treasury Department today to aid federal food administrators war upon the high cost of living by helping "to establish and publish fair prices, to discover, check, and prosecute cases of profiteering." The appeal was signed by William Mather Lewis, Director of the Savings Division of the Treasury Department.

"The Savings Division of the Treasury Department," Director Lewis telegraphed to all Federal Reserve District Savings Directors, "appeals to the 6,000,000 members of the 160,000 War Savings Societies at present active throughout the country to enlist in this campaign. They can show the people of America where, when, and how to buy. They can teach how and when to save. They can assure a larger part of our national effort to production of necessities. They can aid to bring about increased employment and can prevent the lowering of the general standard of living in America, bound to ensue if prices of food, clothing, and other necessities continue to mount or maintain their present level. In so doing, they will perform a patriotic service to themselves, their industries, their communities, and the Nation."

Lewis said steps have been taken in New England already in this direction by War Savings workers who in many cases are acting as local representatives in cities, towns, and villages of the Federal Food Administration. "Active, not passive work, is demanded," Lewis pointed out. "Not only must each individual save rigorously and invest in conservative securities such as War Savings Stamps and Savings Certificates to provide capital for increased production of food and other necessities, but they must wage a campaign to check waste in their communities and by precept and example in buying help the country shake off its present spending intoxication."

He says, "firm hold must be kept on the savings accumulated during the war. Prices have been forced up by people who are spending, not from their earnings but from their savings, thus making money cheap."

Robert E. Smith, director of the War Loan Organization in the Twelfth Federal Reserve District with headquarters in San Francisco, commending Lewis' appeal, said that the 1100 War Savings Societies on the Pacific Coast would be asked to enlist in the campaign.

THE LIFE AGENT'S PORTRAIT

Life insurance agents owe a bouquet to the editor of the Dayton, Ohio, "News." He a man of appreciation and open speaking and he admires the life agent and says so. Best of all, he admires him for the right reasons. Recently the "News" spoke on insurance agents generally as men "having a mighty big part to play in the world's affairs." He recalls that it used to be the custom to joke about the agent, call him a nuisance and bar him out. But that has all changed. "We welcome him now," he declares, "because he is an essentiality in our human activities. He not only conducts an honorable business, but he has just that quality that makes for success—stick-to-itiveness—a very present characteristic and one to be commended."

Handsomely said, in general about all insurance agents. But see how he characterizes the life agent and his particular mission:

"There is the live, wide awake chap you meet frequently who wants to insure your life and give some guarantee to your family after you are gone, that a respectable income will be forthcoming to care for pressing needs. We used to think this man was a pest but we do not hold any grudge against him any more, because we have learned through his persistency to take a step we should have taken years before.

"Most of us live to thank the life insurance man for the favor he has bestowed upon us.

"In all America there is, perhaps, no class of men which stands higher in public esteem than those in this line of business. They have to be alert and active always. They are the monitors who warn us of duties we too often overlook."

Boquets to the editor of the Dayton "News," who seems to write from actual knowledge.—Insurance Field.

each carrying its load of nuts, while the chicken yards and goat pens are screened from the hot sun by eight peach trees of early and late varieties, with fig, lemon, orange, grapefruit, apricot and avocado trees near enough to nod a "howdy." This list by no means totals the "green things growing" in that back garden for there are a grape vine, an asparagus bed, and big, climbing rose bushes.

The thrifty, fresh appearance of all these assets of food and beauty show that they are thoroughly watered and have loving attention. Mrs. Porter stated that the potato crop which supplied her family table earlier in the season has now been exhausted, but that is the only vegetable they have been compelled to buy this season, and they have not been stinted on anything.

It is a beautiful demonstration of ambition and intelligent work on the part of a grandmother who refuses to be laid on the shelf. She represents the best type of the old-fashioned gentlewoman, so fast passing away, and there is an indescribable charm about her and her home.
