CHOICE MADEIRA WINES.—We would remind our subscribers of the great variety of choice wines in Bienville street this day, at 12 o'clock. The quality being highly recommended as pure and fine flavoured will no doubt attract the attention of amateurs; and as they are to be sold to close an estate no limits affixed, 'tis supposed they will sell extremely low.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

The latest news from Mexico are very interesting. a letter from that Capital of the 13th of October announces that the troops under Armijo had surrendered with arms and baggage to General Alvarez in the vicinity of Acapulco; that they had been allowed to withdraw to Chilpancingo where was Bravo. Arujjo having fled was pursued and killed by the Indians.—Guerrero had entered Acapulco; the troops under the command of Berdejo and Barbabosa had revolted and joined Guerrero who was master of the city—the two former Generals had fled—General Teran had been appointed by the government in the place of Bravo, and the government had ordered $800,000 that were on deposit to be disposed of for the establishment of manufactories and the protection of national industry.

The report that the Havre packet ship of the 10th Sept, was below at New York 24th ult. turns out to be incorrect. It proved to be the ship Charles Carroll, from Cherbourg, whence she sailed on the 9th Sept. She brought Paris papers of the 5th, which furnish nothing later than has been already received; and it is added that no intelligence of later date had been received at Cherbourg.

NEW-YORK, Oct. 26.

FROM RUSSIA.—Capt. Putnam, of the ship Black Warrior, from St. Petersburg, arrived at this port last night, reports that French vessels lying in the roadstead were allowed to display the tricolored flag as late as the 26th August, but the captains and crews were not permitted to have communication with the shore. Mr. Randolph had his first audience with the Emperor, who accepted and acknowledged his credentials.

GALE.—A gentleman, 76 years of age, writes us from Martha's Vineyard, under date of Oct. 17, as follows:

"Last night we had a terrible storm of thunder and lightning, & the hardest rain that I ever knew in all my life. For an hour there was a continual blaze of lightning sufficient to appal the stoutest heart. I found a cedar rail carried six paces up a steep hill, and several oak poles blown to a considerable distance."—Jour. of Com.

Latest from Nassau.—By the arrival at Savannah of the British sloop Sea Flower, we are in possession of our files of the Royal Gazette to the 24 ult. Their contents are unimportant.

The Sea Flower carried to Nassau the Proclamation of the President announcing the opening of the West India ports, and is the first vessel which has arrived in the United States for a cargo under the new arrangement. She will take out a freight of rice and flour. The Proclamation appears in the latest paper, with the subjoined remarks:

By the return of a vessel which went to Charleston to land several American mariners and others who had been wrecked among these islands, we have received files of the papers of that city, the latest of which contain President Jackson's Proclamation, opening the ports of the United States to British Colonial vessels, having the assurance after long negotiation on the subject with our government, that the like will be granted in these colonies to American vessels and their cargoes. It will no doubt, be satisfactory to have an intercourse with the United States, so as to be enabled occasionally to visit that country, and have a constant and regular interchange of intelligence with it, but how far the measure may benefit the colony in its trade, is what we will not at present attempt to prognosticate.

NASSAU, October 4.—The American brig Cherub, Baxter from Cuba bound to Boston, was wrecked at Heneagua on the 29th August. Capt. Baxter has arrived here.

October 18.—The American schr. Alert,——, from St. Thomas, has been wrecked at Eleuthera—had no cargo—the Master and crew have arrived here.

October 23—We have received a communication from Grand Bahama, stating that a boat had landed at the settlement of a free black man there from an American ship bound to the Gulf of Mexico, the crew of which had forcibly taken away 8 bushels of corn, some shallots and other things; but as no affidavit, taken before a Magistrate, of the circumstances detailed to us has been made, we cannot state the name of the ship, nor the master, who alike we know nothing of him, could scarcely under any circumstances, countenance, or permit his men to commit an act of such petty plunder as is mentioned.

Some acts of insubordination had taken place on some of the plantations of Trinidad and Tobago; but they were promptly suppressed on the Proclamation of the Governor.

Mr. Kirkman has been suspended by writs of supersedeas under the great seal of the Island, from the offices of Member of his Majesty's Council and Attorney General.

PENSACOLA, Nov. 9.

In our last we promised the publication of the opinion of the Judge of the Superior Court, relative to the claim of John Forbes & Co. for the land lately between the Choctehatchie and Appalachicola rivers. Having been disappointed in our hopes of procuring a copy of it until it was too late to publish the opinion entire, we can only say that the opinion of the court is unfavorable to the claim.

It seems that the claimants relied upon a certified copy of the title papers, obtained from the archives in Havana. Gen Call, who went last winter under the authority of the General Government to the Havana, managed to get what we would call the original title papers. When these were produced in court, here, it was found that they had been anti dated. An inspection of the documents showed that their dates had originally been such, that the grant was annulled by the eighth article of the treaty, which excluded all grants not made before the 24th of January, 1818, and that these dates had been erased and other earlier dates substituted for them. The erasures however, were so ineffectually done, that in some instances there was no difficulty in decyphering the original figures and dates through those which had been written upon them.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 1—

CONTRIBUTIONS.—We have been requested to publish the following report of the collections made for the benefit of the sufferers at Paris, by the late Revolution. The amount, in the present impoverished condition of our community, is small. Two hundred and fifty dollars have been remitted to Gen. Lafayette, by Messrs. Roger, of the French Fusileers, the private subscription of that company. Three hundred and eighty-six dollars o—— subscribed in Charleston, and one hundred and forty in Beaufort, remitted to Mons. J. ——, of Paris, by Rene Godard, Esq. in all five hundred and seventy-six dollars.

MUNIFICENT DONATION.—A donation of twenty thousand dollars has lately been made by a Mr. Francis Lee of Boston, to the Lunatic Asylum of Massachusetts; together with a salary for four years to Dr. Wyman, its Superintendant. Mr. Lee lately died in Boston.

There are statements abroad that such is the destitute condition of the Treasury of the General Post Office Department, that drafts are protested for non payment, or, what is virtually the same thing, that they are refused payment. If this be true, what has become of the large sums of money which we have been told the present administration of that department have saved to the people?

[From the Chambersburg Repository.]

It is probable that after the 4th of March next, a majority of the Senate of United States will be opposed to the present administration. In that case, opine, General Jackson (who has as yet been silent on the subject) will not agree to stand a pole for reelection.

Nothing shews more conclusively, that the people are abandoning the government, than the eagerness with which the parasites of the Administration seize upon the smallest circumstance in its favor. An administration, based upon its own conscious rectitude, and borne long by the strong current of popular feeling, would want no adventitious aid to sustain it. But one founded in corruption, and raised out of the cob-web of demagogues and office seekers, can support itself only by intrigue, and by withdrawing the public scrutiny from the damning nature of its own conduct.

When General Jackson was elected President of the United States, he was thrust into office by the irritible voice of the nation. In addition to this, he possessed uncommon personal popularity, and was surrounded by the halo of military glory. Those who knew him best, hoped, that by availing himself of the services of competent ministers, he would be able, to discharge the duties of his high station with at least credit to himself, while the multitude, dazzled by the splendour of his victories, supposed them as capable of wielding the pen as the sword, and destined to restore the golden days of the Republic. Jefferson, in their estimation, was to be his prototype, and reform the retrenchment the standard of his administration. Superfluous offices were to be lopped off, and contingent expenses were to be no more. This would leave the treasury overflowing, and the department nothing to do but to lade out buckets full of gold to every famished office-seeker throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Under these favorable auspicies, the President took the helm, and nothing seemed wanting to secure him a prosperous voyage, but skill enough to steer the ship of state along the unruffled current. The most unskilful mariner ought to have been able to have accomplished this, but more especially one who had himself been tempest-tossed on the stormy ocean of party politics.

One year and a half only of the Presidential term has passed away, and the great body of the people has become not only disappointed, but sorely disgusted with his administration. This is evident, not merely from every day conversation, but from the result of elections in all parts of the country. In Maryland particularly, where the people have had the best means of taking a peep behind the curtain, and of judging for themselves, they have risen in their might, and hurled the minions of the government from power. No administration ever met a more signal overthrow at the polls, and probably none ever more richly deserved it.

It is also evident that the bulk of the people are dissatisfied with the measures of the government, from the fact that its sycophants are proclaiming trumpet-tongued in every corner of the streets, every trivial circumstance in its favor.—An administration moving along in the dignity of its own strength would disdain the petty larceny of filching public praise, but an Incubus would employ the frail aid of even straws to keep it upon the surface. If one defaulter is found among one thousand removals, it is proclaimed from Dan to Beersheba, and the descendants of Gerry and Chase are turned upon a tearless world, without a consoling circumstance, other than a dark and mysterious stab at departed excellence. If the President makes a treaty with Great Britain, which the immortal Jefferson would have rent into atoms rather than have set his hand to it, every Jackson man's mouth becomes an open sepulchre, shouting to the skies the diplomatic skill of our very excellent Chief Magistrate, and of his eagle-eyed cabinet. Such conduct speaks for itself, and it speaks a language which cannot be misconstrued. The days of the present administration are numbering, and the third of March 1833 will finish them. They have already signed their own death-warrant, and will become their own executioners, and all the people have to do is to respond, amen, and amen.

INDIAN RIGHTS!

Mr. Jefferson, in a letter to Gen. Knox, Secretary of War, dated Philadelphia, August 10th, 1791, declares—

"The Indians have a right to the occupation of their Lands, independent of the State within whose chartered lines they happen to be; that until they cede them by treaty or other transaction equivalent to a treaty, no act of a State can give a right to such lands; that neither under the present Constitution, nor the ancient confederation, had any State or person a right to treat with the Indians without the consent of the General Government; that the Government is determined to extend all its energy for the patronage and protection of the Rights of the Indians; and that if any settlements are made on lands not ceded by them, without the previous consent of the United States, the government will think itself bound, not only to declare to the Indians that such settlements are without the authority or protection of the United States, but to remove them also by the public force."

[Jefferson, 3d vol. p. 201.

What has this Jackson administration done? Do they claim to be Jeffersan Republicans and denounce others?

GEORGIA.—John Forsyth, Esq. was on Thursday, 29th ult. elected Senator in the Congress of the United States for six years, from and after 4th March, 1831. Votes stood for Forsyth 130, Dr. Fort 47, and 18 scattering.

COMMERCIAL.

From Wild's New Orleans Commercial Report. November 13.

GENERAL REMARKS.—The weather has been variable this week from warm to cold, with one shower and two good frosts, and altogether favorable for outdoor business. The city at present is considered generally healthy, and nearly free, if not entirely so, of epidemic. Annual visitors and strangers, now numerous, feel that they are safe. The shipping harbor presents, comparatively, an enlivening appearance of vessels discharging and loading; as also the commercial streets, where almost every establishment is busily engaged in receiving and opening packages of merchandise for vending, particularly in the Dry Goods, Hardware, and fancy wholesale and retail trade; still, owing to the extreme low stage of the western waters, and the absence of those who value on this market from that quarter, business may be justly considered dull, and more so than usual at this season of the year. Our market at present is difficult to describe, particularly for many articles of western produce lately arrived, and may alter materially whilst working off this sheet, for instance Flour and Lard, as also many articles from the North. The handsome and substantial improvements making by the Corporation on the levee for the landing of produce, &c. are progressing with a rapidity that does the authorities much credit.—The Mississippi remains at 12 feet below ordinary high water mark.

COTTON.—There has been a fair demand this week both for England and Coastwise, at, in the opinion of many, a small reduction on former operations. The sales are estimated at full 3500 bales Louisiana and Mississippi, the principal part of which were at, and about, 11 cents per lb. and but few at much over, or under.—We find there is something like fourteen hundred bales engaged for shipment which has not been in the market, and together with that sold, leaves but little in first hands, except the arrivals of Thursday not yet all warehoused. We have, as promised in a former number, ventured on quotations for specified qualities accor ling to the local and Liverpool classifications, the later we intend for Louisiana and Mississippi, viz:—

Ordinary		none.
Middling
Fair	10 ¼ a 10 ¾
Good Fair	11 a 11 ¼	fair demand
Good and fine	11 a 12

Arrived since our last from the Interior and Mississippi, 4064 bales, Lake 84. Cleared in the same time for Liverpool 2143 bales, New-York 4048, Philadelphia 162, in all 3853 bales, leaving a stock on hand, including all on ship-board not cleared yesterday morning, of 11653 bales.

SUGAR, on the plantation.—There has been a number of sales of small parcels at 6 cents per lb. but have not heard of any engagements for large crops. The article is considered by purchasers as dull at our quotations. Cleared, since the 30th September, Coastwise (Mobile and Pensacola excepted) 562 hhds and 864 bbls.

MOLASSES, on the plantation.—We are still unable to give a quotation, but have understood that a few engagements have been made, payable at the market price when ready for delivery. Cleared since the 30th September, Coastwise 317 hhds, and 40 bbls.

TOBACCO, has been neglected this week, which prevents us from reporting any sales; nevertheless, we find holders of that in first hands firm at our asking quotations, 2 ¾, 3 ¼, 4 ¼, for crossed, seconds, and firsts. Cleared for Richmond 114 hhds., New-York 186, Cadiz 61, Liverpool 34: together 392 hhds. No arrivals.

FLOUR.—The principal sales were at $6 50, up to Thursday, since when five flatboats have arrived, and makes it uncertain at what price the article may rule at next week. At present we do not hear of any export demand, which if continued with heavy arrivals, will no doubt cause a decline. Import since our last 5556 barrels.

LARD is becoming plenty, and has declined in price since our last. We consider it heavy at 9 cents, and doubtful whether that rate can be maintained. Purchasers anticipate lower rates.

BALE ROPE.—We were mistaken in our quotations and remarks respecting this article last week, and hasten to correct them, by remarking that it is considered fairly worth 7 cents per lb. for good merchantable quality, and scarce — some ask more.

HAY—Northern is plenty on the levee at seventy-five cents for good.

LIME from Thomaston has been disposed of by the quantity as low as $1 37½ per cask, and expect it will be obtained at lower rates.

PORK, BACON, & WHISKEY, together with many other articles of Western Produce, we continue to quote as in our last, referring to prices for particulars.

DOMESTIC COTTONS are plenty, and a moderate business doing at near our quotations.

FREIGHTS have been considered by ship owners as low for some time past, and are still declining, both for Europe and Coastwise. The number of vessels now in port are respectable & generally of the very first class.
