¿Who was Rodo Bulacio?

He was an artist, performer, marika (gay) from Tucumán (Northern Argentina).

He was born in 1970 in a town in the interior of the province.

He was assassinated when he was 27 years old, in 1997.

They not only killed him, they also set fire to his house, which was also his studio, burning much of his work, in an attempt to erase his history.

His story, despite having been transcendental in the art and culture of northern Argentina, was not on wikipedia until November 2022.

What are alliances for?

1

The Wikimedia community relies heavily on the voluntary contribution of users to create and maintain accurate and up-to-date content. Independent media outlets may provide additional information and sources to help improve the accuracy of Wikimedia content and create content that does not exist on the Internet.

What are alliances for?

Partnerships between the Wikimedia community and independent media can help strengthen the representation of content related to the LGBTIQ+ community, increasing visibility online, ensuring content is inclusive and accurate.

What are alliances for?

Partnerships between the Wikimedia community and independent media can help decentralize information production and broaden the representation of LGBTIQ+ history outside of capital cities, and help disseminate it to a global audience.

What are alliances for?

The alliances between the Wikimedia community and the independent media promote the generation of free knowledge, as well as photographic material, images and illustrations about the LGBTIQ+ community that can be used freely.
