According to the Lumleian lecture of Dr. Quinn, an eminent English physician, enlargement of the heart is more than twice as frequent in men as in women, the precise proportion being eight to three. This, he thinks unquestionably due to the greater amount of work and anxiety which fall upon men.
The Sorosis may reflect whether, in claiming the rights of men, they may not at the same time incur a new and unexpected form of disability.

Sothern's advertising device in Boston was as follows: During the delivery of the tag in the "Hornet's Nest," he was interrupted by a man in a private box, who proceeded, amid the hisses and cries of "Put him out!" from the audience, to denounce the play as a piece without head or tail. Sothern rejoined that it was not a two-act piece to have a head or tail. The man grew more violent, and was hustled from the box by a policeman. He was an actor who had consented to perform in that way.

The author of "Wild Sports of the Highlands" remarks: "It is a great libel to accuse a goose of being a silly bird.
Even a tame goose shows much instinct and attachment, and were its habits more closely observed, the same goose would be found to be by no means wanting in general cleverness. Its watchfulness at night-times, and always has been proverbial; and it certainly is endowed with an organ of self-preservation.

FOR CONTROLLER OF STATE.

DANIEL M. KENFIELD, (of Tuolumne County.)

ELECTION, NOVEMBER 7, 1876.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The President has been compelled to issue the following Proclamation... The President has been compelled to issue the following Proclamation on account of the outrages committed, and threatened at the approaching election, in South Carolina, where the rebels are again in insurrection. They are determined to get control of the government of that State, if not by fair means. That prince of rebels, General Wade Hampton, is the Democratic candidate for Governor of that contemptible State, and he and his rebel backers are armed to the teeth and daily murdering the inoffensive negroes who dare support the Republican ticket. Wade Hampton was one of the first to "accept the situation" after the Rebellion, and now, after a lenient Government had again invested him with all the rights of an American citizen—instead of hanging him, as every other civilized nation would have done—he and his followers are overriding the laws of the State and threatening another collision with the Federal Government. Anticipating a violation of law at the coming election, and to prevent an avowed intimidation of colored voters, troops have been ordered to Columbia, to be held in readiness to protect loyal citizens at the polls. Any overt act on the part of the rebels will be promptly punished, and it will be best for the rebels of that State to weigh well the consequences that will attend another revolt against Federal authority. It is patent that the rebel element in the South is preparing for another rebellion, but if such a state of affairs should again transpire, the Government will not be as lenient as it has been in the past.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, It has been satisfactorily shown to me that insurrection and domestic violence exist in several counties of the State of South Carolina, and that certain combinations of men, and that law exist in many counties of said State, known as Rifle Clubs, who ride up and down by day and night in arms, murdering some peaceful citizens and intimidating others, which combinations, though forbidden by laws of the State, cannot be controlled or suppressed by the ordinary course of justice, and Whereas, It is provided in the Constitution of the United States that the United States protect every State in the United States upon the application of the Legislature, or Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened, against violence, and Whereas, In pursuance of the above it is provided in the laws of the United States that in all cases of insurrection in any State, or of obstruction to the laws thereof, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, on application of the Legislature of such State, or of the Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened, to call for the militia of any State or States, or employ such part of the land or naval forces as shall be judged necessary for the suppression of such insurrection or causing the laws to be duly executed; and Whereas, The Legislature of said State is not now in session and cannot be convened in time to meet the present emergency, and the Executive of said State, under section four of article four of the Constitution, and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, has thereupon made due application to me in the premises for such part of the military forces of the United States as may be necessary and adequate for the protection of such State and the citizens thereof against domestic violence, and Whereas, It is recognized that whenever it may be necessary, in the judgment of the President, to use military forces for the purpose aforesaid, he shall forthwith by proclamation command return peacefully to their respective homes within a limited time, Now, therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do hereby by make proclamation and command all persons engaged in said unlawful and insurrectionary proceedings to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within three days from this date and hereafter abandon said combination and submit themselves to the laws and constituted authorities of said State; and I invoke the aid and co-operation of all good citizens thereof to uphold the laws and preserve the public peace. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this 17th day of October, A. D. 1876.

THE CHRONICLE.

Saturday, Oct. 21, 1876.

County Official Press.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

REGISTER! REGISTER!—Let every Republican in Alpine see that his name is on the Great Register. Those who have come from other counties and taken up their residence here should at once send for their transfer. On the 7th of November we want Alpine to roll up a good Republican majority, as she always does at a Presidential election; but this time let us give Hayes and Wheeler an increased majority. And we will do it, too.

BARNES' MINE—Edward Barnes, of Petaluma, owner of the old Rogers claim in Hope Valley, lately arrived at the mine with supplies, with the intention of starting up work immediately. Several companies are being organized in San Francisco for the purpose of working mines in the vicinity of the Barnes claim, and we predict lively times in mining affairs in that district next summer.

JUMPING.—Jumping of mining claims and timber ranches is the order of the day in Alpine county. In some cases such practices are sanctioned by public opinion as right, but there are too many instances where parties are carrying on the business for the purpose of being bought off. A wholesome lesson in Court might check indiscriminate jumping.

HEAVY STORM.—A heavy rain storm set in on the morning of Tuesday last and continued, accompanied by a heavy gale, during the whole of Tuesday night and until about 3 A. M. on Wednesday. The storm, notwithstanding its severity, did no particular damage in this vicinity.

PLEASANT.—It is pleasant to see new families taking up their residence in our town. Within the past month our community has been increased to the extent of six families, and more are coming.

NATURALIZATION.—The County Court will meet on Monday, Oct. 29. Parties desiring to be naturalized must be on hand on that day or they will be too late to help save the country on the 7th of November.

THE LADY FRANKLIN.—This shaft is down fifty feet. Sinking has ceased for the present, in order to grade a site for a building to be erected immediately over the shaft. At the above depth the prospects are very flattering.

VAMONED.—The cattle and sheep herders have left the mountains in this vicinity and on the Big Tree road for their winter quarters in the valleys on the other side of the mountains.

TRANS.—William Pierson, of Carson City, will accept thanks for a couple of dozen of ginger-pop. Mr. Pierson has opened quite a trade in this county for the delightful beverage.

ASSESSMENT.—The Consolidated Occident Company have levied their first assessment—two cents per share; delinquent, November 18; sale, December 9.

COLD.—The past two nights have been cold, with heavy frosts. Yesterday was a cold, raw day, notwithstanding old Sol was out in all his glory.

HAY.—Large quantities of hay are being hauled to Silver Mountain at from $22 to $25 a ton.

COUNTY COURT.—The County Court stands adjourned till Monday, Oct. 30.

ANOTHER EUROPEAN WAR.—There is a splendid prospect just now for a general European war over Turkey, which bids fair to be well plucked, boned and cooked before it is ended. Russia will lead off, with Germany and Austria to assist, while England will try her best to keep the Russian Bear from gobbling up Turkey. France don't want any Turkey in her's and will not take a part in the proposed meal. Uncle Sam can profit by the war to be inaugurated on the other side of the Atlantic, as Europe profits by our little unpopulace.

OUR TURK.—Every dog has his day, and England had her day when we had our rebellion on hand. Now that she will attempt to prevent the Russian Bear gnawing Turkey, will it suit Victoria to have Uncle Sam's children send out a few Alabama's under the Prussian flag to prey on her commerce?

The Indiana Legislature stands as follows: House, Republicans 53; Democrats 45; Independents 2. Senate, Republicans 23, Democrats 25, Independents 2.

All the Paris evening papers declare that if the peace of Europe is disturbed France will vigorously observe a policy of abstention.

FROM WOODFORDS.

Woodfords, Oct. 19, 1876.

EDMUND CARROLL.—There are not many scenes in nature more picturesque and inviting to the eye and gladdening to the heart than Woodfords and its environs. Situated far up on the mountain side, nestled in among the pines and gigantic boulders, it forms a green and pleasant place in the barren waste of land. Lofly mountains encompass it on all sides. Here and there tall peaks whose summits are bathed in the dew of heaven stand around silently like so many grim sentinels of the dead and buried past. To-night, under the blue canopy of the star-wreathed heavens, they seem strangely silent. Our poor hearts are awed into silent reverence at the mystery which surrounds them. And their history, who can read it? Since the morning stars sang together thus have they stood, mute and changeless as death itself. Time, in its flight of untold and unnumbered centuries, has left no record here.

The life of man, compared with theirs, is but a link in the great chain of centuries. We turn from them with feelings of awe at the mystery which we cannot penetrate and which will remain unsolved through all coming time. A gentle slope extends from the town to the Carson river. A wide and beautifully shaded avenue extends to a point on the river, where it is spanned by a bridge. This avenue is a delightful promenade for the inhabitants. On pleasant evenings and moonlight nights, the avenue and bridge are thronged with gay groups of pleasure-seekers. The bridge, either from a true or supposed reality has been named the "Bridge of Sighs"—we leave the reader to draw his own conclusion. The inhabitants are certainly to be pardoned if they manifest a slight pride in the surroundings of their mountain home. This is merely a weakness found in all villages, both large and small. Apropos to this, I will state that a Philadelphian was in Markleville last week bragging about the greatness and wealth of his native city, when his ardor was suddenly cooled by one of the citizens informing him that there was enough gold and silver within a radius of three miles of Markleville to build a wall ten feet high and twenty feet in thickness around the entire city of Philadelphia. We had thought that the days of chivalry and knighterrantry had gone by; that there were no Don Quixotes in real life, now that the days of love and romance were ended forever, but it seems we were mistaken, as a tournament is seriously talked of here and is expected to come off soon. Parties from Markleville, Silver Mountain and Diamond Valley have donned their armor and signified their intention of entering the lists.—We have not been advised whether the tournament will be held public or private, but it being an affair of the heart, doubtless the last named would be more appropriate, but should it be public—to use a slang phrase—"you can bet your life" there will be seen the biggest crowd in Woodfords since it was a city. No matter how it is held your correspondent will be there to report for the columns of the CHRONICLE the contest between the knights and a description of the successful one, whoever he may be. We bid "good by" last Saturday to the Hon. Cyrus Coleman, of Markleville, who was en route to the Centennial and the old home of his boyhood in the Keystone State. The Honorable gentleman was in a very happy frame of mind, resulting from anticipations of the future glories in store for him. His passing strange that he should leave the glories of Alpine for those of the Centennial, but he has an objective point in view. The tender and fragile plant which he will bear away from the rough winds, the barren and unproductive soil of Pennsylvania to be transplanted into the aridiferous and more productive soil of the Golden State will be for all coming time an "open sesame" to him. So much it be!

We had the pleasure last week of meeting Doctor Billings, who was on his way to Carson after an extended visit in Alpine. The Doctor looks ten years younger than when we saw him last; evidently the trip agreed with him. He reports things extremely dull in the embryo cities of Alpine, but the inhabitants still cherish a faith in their undeveloped silver mines. The Doctor is a genial companion and from his unlimited stores of information can furnish at short notice a feast of reason and flow of soul. He is at home in all the walks of literature and well versed in Shakespeare as well as in the lighter fiction of Dickens. His analysis of certain characters in Shakespeare is said to be good. In metaphysics he can hold his own against anyone. May the fates deal gently with him and may all the gods and goddesses attend him usque ad astra.

The Land Commissioner has notified United States Surveyor-General Rollins that the deputy Surveyor has no authority by law to administer either the preliminary or final oath to his assistants.

The Philadelphia Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Balgoin for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world.

493 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

THE "HONOR" DEMOCRACY.—The official returns of the Indiana election exhibit great frauds on the part of the "reform" Democracy. In the four Congressional Districts carried by the Democracy they had a majority of 18,526—showing a Democratic gain of over 10,000. In the nine Districts carried by the Republicans the Republicans had 10,643 majority. Unless there was fraud practiced how could the Democracy show such a large gain in these four Districts, while the Republicans gained heavily in the other Districts? It is not to be presumed that the Democrats would be dishonest enough to import voters from Kentucky into those Districts; a "reform" party would not be guilty of the "loikes" of that.

If the Republican party had conducted our financial affairs as recklessly from 1865 to 1875 as the Democratic party managed the affairs of New York city, the national debt would now be $8,690,450,895, or $4,464,166,514 more than it really is. In 1865 the national debt was $85 for each inhabitant; in 1875 it was $26; reduction, $29, or over 34 per cent. In 1865 the debt of New York city was $49; in 1875 it was $116 per head; increase, $67, or nearly 137 per cent. Had the city debt been managed as the national debt has been, it would now be less than $20,000,000, or about $30 per head, instead of $116. Do the people want the city Democratic system applied to the finances of the nation?—N. Y. Mail.

The first California Oaks, four miles and repeat, for mares and fillies exclusively, will be held on Saturday, November 19th. The entries close on November 1st. A purse of $1,000, gold coin, is offered, with an inside stake of $1,000 each, to insure only first class entries. Seven thousand dollars goes to the first horse, $4,000 to the second, $2,500 to the third and $1,500 to the fourth. William Shear, who went East for the purpose of securing mares to enter for the big purse, telegraphed from New York that he was to leave for San Francisco with three noted flyers—Inspiration, Josie G. and Mattie A. These mares will, upon their arrival, go into training for the race.—S. F. Post.

At San Francisco John Miller, alias Woodruff, was placed on trial in the Municipal Criminal Court, on a charge of embezzling $10,000 of the funds of the Western Development Company. After hearing the evidence, Judge Blake instructed the jury that there was no proof to convict, and without leaving their seats a verdict of acquittal was rendered. It was stated by Mr. Curtis, when the indictment was read, in which an alias was used, that the true name of the prisoner was John Miller, he having legally got rid of the name of Woodruff.

A Democratic speaker in South Carolina asked his colored hearers if they had enough to eat. Their answer was, "plenty, plenty." "Who gives it to you?" he enquired. "Nobody gives it; we worked for it," they replied. "What do you own that you did not before the war?" said he. "Our wives and children" was the stunning answer. The Democrat had no more to say.

New Patents.—Through dispatches O Dewey & Co., Patent Agents, United States Patents granted to Pacific inventors on this Coast, viz: Andrus Ryder, Oakland, electric couplings for train telegraphs; Ismael A. Head, S. F., cigar pipes; Edw. M. Hoagland, Watsonville, machine for operating switch angles; John J. Rohrbach, S. F., watch chains; Thomas Powell, Stockton, (reissue), hay and grain elevators.

Brick Pomeroy writes to the New York Times and says Tilden men several times lately have been trying to buy him and his influence for their candidate. He concludes his letter thus: "I am a Democrat, but do not believe in Tilden's honesty or his financial schemes, or the possibility of his election."

On Wednesday last ground was to have been broken at Yuma, A. T., on both sides of the Colorado river for Tom Scott's Texas-Pacific Railroad.

A rally of all the Republican clubs through the State is anticipated on Saturday night, November 4th.

DEATHS.—MERRILL.—In Oakland, October 8th Francis, youngest son of Willis P. and Rita Merrill, of Woodfords, aged 2 years and 8 months.

TO SHAKE OR NOT TO SHAKE?—Aye, that is the question. Is it better to quiver from head to foot in the paroxysms of fever and ague, or to banish the atrocious disease by a course of that standard anti-febrile remedy, Hostetter's Bitters. There cannot be more doubt as to the response of the malaria-stricken to this inquiry. From every locality on this continent whose inhabitants are tormented with the shivering plague comes an increasing demand for the only genuine preventive and eradicant of malarial fever provided by science. The demands of fever and ague districts well know how utterly inadequate do more than give a brief respite are the so-called remedies of the apothecary. Quinine, arsenic, biliousness—what are these but poisonous palliatives, which cease after a time to produce any beneficial effect, whatever, and if persisted in, break irreparably down the system? Everywhere they are being abandoned by intelligent persons, and that remains vegetable Hostetter's Bitters, substituted in their place.

It is strange to notice what will arouse a coveting people. Such a dry, hard subject as the income tax has become vastly interesting to every man, woman, and child in the country, with the exception of a man named Tilden.

Counterfeit half dollars of date of 1876 are in circulation in San Francisco, and in due time they will be in the interior. They are light, greasy, and leaden in color.

The Health Officers of San Francisco are fumigating the Chinese quarter in a thorough manner, and many cases of small pox have been discovered in their rookeries.

Sitting Bull is a "cheeky" individual. He has asked permission for his warriors to come to the Indian agency at Fort Peck, Montana, to trade for ammunition.

Fair promises from the organs of Democracy are like quotations of Scripture from the lips of an old sinner.—They are decidedly out of place.

Since the surrender of Tweed some informal action has been taken with a view to negotiate an extradition treaty between the United States and Spain.

Ladies who for years have depended on all manner of powders and cosmetics for giving them artificial complexions, now find that GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP supplies them with pearly skins and rosy cheeks, elicited by the gentle stimulation of nature. Sold everywhere.

Many Years of Careful Research has produced it.

ELECTION LAW.

SEC. 41. Every person charged with the performance of any duty under the provisions of this title II, part one of the political code, who willfully neglects or refuses to perform it, or who is guilty of any act in violation of or in disobedience of any provision thereof, is punishable by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or by both.

LEGAL.

SEC. 42. Every person who willfully causes, procures, or allows himself to be registered in the Great Register of the State, knowing himself not entitled to such registration, is punishable by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail or state prison not exceeding one year, or by both. In all cases where on the trial of a person charged with any offense under the provisions of this section, it appears in evidence that the accused stands registered in the Great Register, or that he is or was qualified for such registration, the court must order such registration to be cancelled.

SEC. 43. Every person who, after being required by the board of judges at any election, refuses to be sworn, or who, after being sworn, refuses to answer any pertinent question propounded by such board, knowing his right, or the right of any other person to vote, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 44. Every person summoned to appear and testify before any board of registration, who willfully disobeys such summons, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 45. Every person not entitled to vote, who fraudulently votes and every person who votes more than once at any one election, or who knowingly hands in two or more tickets folded together, or changes any ballot after the same has been deposited in the ballot-box, or adds, or attempts to add, any ballot to those legally polled at any election, either by fraudulently introducing the same into the ballot-box before or after the ballot therein have been counted; or adds to, or mixes with, or attempts to add to, or mixes with, the same any other time, with intent to change the result of such election, or carries away or destroys, or attempts to carry away or destroy, any poll list, or ballot, or ballot-box for the purpose of breaking up or invalidating such election, or willfully detains, mutilates or destroys any election returns, or in any manner so interferes with the officers holding such election, or exercising such canvass, or with the voters lawfully exercising their rights of voting at such election, as to prevent such election or canvass from being fairly held and lawfully conducted, is guilty of felony.

SEC. 46. Every person not entitled to vote, who fraudulently attempts to vote, or who, being entitled to vote, attempts to vote more than once at any election, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 47. Every person who procures, aids, assists, counsels or advises another to give or to receive his vote at any election, knowing that such person is not qualified to vote, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 48. Every officer or clerk of election who aids in changing, destroying any poll list, or in placing any ballots in the ballot-box, or taking any therefrom, or adds, or attempts to add, any ballots to those legally polled at any election, either by fraudulently introducing the same into the ballot-box before or after the ballots therein have been counted, or adds to, or mixes with, or attempts to add to, or mixes with, the ballots polled, any other ballots, while the same are being counted or canvassed, or at any other time, with intent to change the result of such election, or allows another to do so, when in his power to prevent it, or carries away or destroys, or knowingly allows another to carry away or destroy, any poll list, ballot-box, or ballots lawfully polled, he is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than two nor more than seven years.

SEC. 49. Every inspector, judge or clerk of an election, who, previous to putting the ballot of an elector in the ballot-box, attempts to find out any name on such ballot, or who opens, or suffers the folded ballot of any elector which has been handed in to be opened or examined previous to putting the same into the ballot-box, or who makes or places any mark or device on any folded ballot with the view to ascertain the name of any person for whom the elector has voted, or who, without the consent of such elector, discloses the name of any person which such inspector, judge or clerk has fraudulently or illegally to have been voted for by such elector, is punishable by fine, not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 50. Every person who willfully forges or counterfeits returns of an election purporting to have been held at a precinct, town or ward where no election was in fact held, or willfully substitutes, forged or counterfeited returns of election in the place of the true returns, for a precinct, town or ward where an election was actually held, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than two nor more than ten years.

SEC. 51. Every person who willfully adds to or subtracts from the votes actually cast at an election, in any returns, or who alters such returns, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than five years.

SEC. 52. Every person who aids or abets in the commission of any of the offenses mentioned in the four preceding sections, or who being present at or cognizant of the commission of either such offense, does not give information thereof as soon as practicable to the district attorney or grand jury of the proper county, or to some justice of the peace of such county, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for the period of six months, or in the state prison not exceeding two years.

SEC. 53. Every person who by menaces, bribery or any corrupt means, either directly or indirectly, attempts to influence any elector in giving his vote, or to deter him from giving the same, or attempts by any means, whatever, to awe, restrain, hinder, or disturb any elector in the free exercise of the right of suffrage, or furnishes any elector wishing to vote, as follows, with a ticket, informing or giving such elector to understand that it contains a name written or printed thereon different from the name which is written or printed thereon, or detains any elector at any such election, by detaining and causing such elector to vote for a different person for whom he is intended or desired to vote, or if any inspector, judge or clerk of any election, while acting as such, induces, or attempts to induce, any elector, either by menace or reward, or promise thereof, to vote different from what such elector intended or desired to vote, he is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 54. Every person who, with intent to promote the election of either himself or any other person, either— 1. Furnishes entertainment at his expense to any meeting of electors previous to or during an election. 2. Pays for, procures or engages to pay for any such entertainment. 3. Furnishes or engages to pay or deliver any money or property for the purpose of procuring the attendance of voters at any election, or for the conveyance of voters who are sick or infirm. 4. Furnishes or engages to pay or deliver any money or property for any purpose intended to promote the election of any candidate, except for the expense of holding and conducting public meetings for the discussion of public questions and of printing and circulating ballots, handbills and other papers previous to such election.— Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 55. Every person who, being a candidate at an election, offers or agrees to appoint, or procure the appointment of any particular person to office, as an inducement or consideration to any person to vote for or procure aid in procuring the election of such candidate, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 56. Every person, not being a candidate, who communicates any such offer or agreement to induce him to vote for or to procure or aid in procuring the election of the candidate making the offer, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 57. Every person who gives or offers a bribe to any other or makes or offers any legislative caucus, political convention, committee, or any other gathering of any kind, held for the purpose of nominating candidates for offices of honor, profit or interest, to whom such bribe is given or offered to be more favorable to one candidate than another, and every person, member or officer of the body, who induces or attempts to induce any person to receive any such bribe, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

SEC. 58. Every person who by threats, intimidation or unlawful violence, willfully hinders or prevents electors from assembling in a public meeting for the consideration of public questions, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 59. Every person who willfully disturbs or breaks up any public meeting of electors for any purpose, lawfully being held for the purpose of nominating candidates for offices of honor, profit or interest, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 60. Every person who makes, offers or accepts any bet or wager upon the result of any election, or upon the success or failure of any person or candidate, or upon the number of votes to be cast either in the aggregate or for any particular candidate, or upon the vote to be cast by any person, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 61. Every person who willfully violates any of the provisions of the laws of this State relating to elections, is, unless a different punishment for such violation is prescribed by this Code, punishable by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the State Prison not exceeding five years, or by both.

SEC. 62. Every person who prints any ticket not in conformity with section one thousand one hundred and ninety-one of the Political Code, or who circulates or gives to another any ticket, knowing at the time that such ticket does not conform to the provisions of section one thousand one hundred and ninety-one of the Political Code, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
