THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVEE, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French by M. Tarvee.... His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary and the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has selected and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns de phrase supernaturelles undreamt of by the forty—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, B.A., LL.B., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law,

Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Olerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-2"

. A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

"Mr. Brett's work is exactly the book which the Law Society require for the purpose (the Intermediate Examination). His style is clear, and often interesting; his work is particularly accurate, and, in some cases, minutely so. . . . The writer has turned from page to page expecting to find some recent decision . . . either omitted entirely or imperfectly stated; but Mr. Brett has, in all cases where principles are concerned, defeated him. . . . The book will be of use to practising lawyers as well as to the student. . . . It is a monument of industry and learning, and will rank as the best bird's-eye view of modern English law which has been written for many years."—The Speaker.

"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."—Law Journal.

"The book may be recommended as exceedingly useful for students preparing for examinations. . . . But its merits are far beyond that purpose merely, and we repeat that the book may be confidently expected to take a prominent place among the practising lawyer's most used and best appreciated works of practice."—Juridical Review.

NOTICE.—The following two Books have been transferred to, and will in future be published by, WM. CLOWES AND SONS, Limited:—

Sixth Edition, royal 8vo, cloth, price 38s.

ROBSON'S LAW OF BANKRUPTCY: containing a Full Exposition of the Principles and Practice of the Law. Including the Law under the Bankruptcy Act, 1883; the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882; and Section 10 of the Judicature Act, 1875; also the Law relating to Private Arrangements with Creditors. With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders, and Forms, including Forms of Compositions and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883. By GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

Opinions of the Press.

"Notwithstanding the many competitive volumes which have been recently published, Mr. Robson has maintained the position of his text-book on the Law of Bankruptcy to the sixth edition of which has just been published. All the new rules and modern decisions are incorporated, and the author gives us a useful chapter on 'Composition or Scheme of Arrangement with Creditors.' We know of no better treatise on this branch of our law, and looking to the number of editions through which it has passed, our opinion is apparently shared by the profession."—Law Times, July 16th, 1887.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, that a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes, July, 1887.

"The present edition of Mr. Robson's well-known work appears as a stately volume. As regards the decisions on the Bankruptcy Act and the Bills of Sale Acts since the last edition, we may say that the characteristic of former editions is preserved; the cases are digested—not merely strung together as foot-notes or the head-notes copied in the text. There are few books which have passed through so many editions and yet read so much like a new book written in view of the latest, as well as the earlier, cases. A new chapter on private arrangements with creditors has been added, in which the subject is very fully considered under the heads of compositions, assignments, and the effect of these on the remedies of creditors and on sureties and secured creditors; and forms relating to statutory arrangements with creditors have been added to the appendix."—The Solicitors' Journal, Aug. 13, 1887.

"This is a new edition of a valuable book, bringing it thoroughly down to date. Since the publication of the last edition the Rules under the Act of 1883 have come into force, and there have been numerous important decisions, both under the Bankruptcy Act of 1883 and the Bills of Sale Acts. These are all duly noticed and commented on in the new edition. The book has also been increased by the addition of a new chapter on Private Arrangements with Creditors, and also some Forms of Composition and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, which cannot fail to prove useful to the profession. The bulk of the book has been kept within the same limits by a slight increase in the size of the page. The new edition will be welcomed by all bankruptcy practitioners."—Law Journal, Aug. 19 1887.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR. Demy 8vo., cloth, 9s.

PRIVATE ARRANGEMENTS WITH CREDITORS (a Treatise on the Law of) with an Appendix containing the Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1887, the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882, and the Bankruptcy (Discharge and Closure) Act, 1887, with the Rules under the above Acts. Also Precedents of Deeds of Arrangement.

"The Legal Profession will hail with satisfaction Mr. Robson's treatise on the 'Law of Private Arrangements with Creditors.' . . . The precedents appear to us to be thorough and practical, and the book, while it forms a useful supplement to the author's treatise on 'Bankruptcy,' must take rank with that excellent work."—Law Times.

"Those of our readers who possess Robson's 'Bankruptcy' will no doubt invest in the same author's 'Private Arrangements,' for it is professedly, as well as by outward appearance, a supplement to that classical volume."—Law Notes.

"Mr. Robson's work, as will be gathered from its title, contains the whole of the law relating to private arrangements with creditors, and is intended as a supplement to his well-known treatise on the 'Law of Bankruptcy.' Like that work, it is much pleasanter reading than most law books. . . . Mr. Robson is an excellent authority on the subject."—Solicitors' Journal.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION,

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin.

Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

* * This Edition contains additional chapters on the Parliaments of the Nineteenth Century down to the Third Reform Bill (1884-85), with an important Note giving the Author's Views on the Irish Question, and a new and copious Index.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme? On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more cogent than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

"As a history of the English Constitution for English readers, Dr. Gneist's book has a great advantage over existing treatises. It is not too much to say that Dr. Gneist is indispensable to the student of English constitutional history. . . . The translation is, so far as we have been able to observe, generally correct and adequate, and English students have every reason to be grateful to Mr. Ashworth for introducing them to so valuable a work."—Athenaeum.

"This book is a monument of German patience and industry. . . . Dr. Gneist's book, we may say in conclusion, ought to be on the shelves of every student of our constitutional history."—Saturday Review.

"Something like a natural reproach is removed by this tardy recognition of the great services which Dr. Gneist has rendered to the history of English institutions."—Academy.

"The heavy task of translating the book has been executed by Mr. Ashworth with taste and judgment."—Scotsman.

Third Edition, Revised, with Portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT,

Its Growth and Development through a Thousand Years, 800-1887.

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenaeum.

"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great a portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY.

By THOMAS BRETT,

of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College,

Dublin; Exhibitor in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869;

Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;"

and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Especially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'—Lawyer's Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its selection. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity stated in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The cases to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, B.A., LL.B., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law,

Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-2."

"* A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

"Mr. Brett's work is exactly the book which the Law Society require for the purpose (the Intermediate Examination). His style is clear, and often interesting; his work is particularly accurate, and, in some cases, minutely so. . . . The writer has turned from page to page expecting to find some recent decision. . . . either omitted entirely or imperfectly stated; but Mr. Brett has, in all cases where principles are concerned, defeated him. . . . The book will be of use to practising lawyers as well as to the student. . . . It is a monument of industry and learning, and will rank as the best bird's-eye view of modern English law which has been written for many years."—The Speaker.

"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."—Law Journal.

"The book may be recommended as exceedingly useful for students preparing for examinations. . . . But its merits are far beyond that purpose merely, and we repeat that the book may be confidently expected to take a prominent place among the practising lawyer's most used and best appreciated works of practice."—Juridical Review.

NOTICE.—The following two Books have been transferred to, and will in future be published by,
WM. CLOWES AND SONS, Limited:—

Sixth Edition, royal 8vo., cloth, price 38s.

ROBSON'S LAW OF BANKRUPTCY: containing a Full Exposition of the Principles and Practice of the Law. Including the Law under the Bankruptcy Act, 1883; the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882; and Section 10 of the Judicature Act, 1875; also the Law relating to Private Arrangements with Creditors. With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders, and Forms, including Forms of Compositions and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883. By GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

Opinions of the Press.

"Notwithstanding the many competitive volumes which have been recently published, Mr. Robson has maintained the position of his text-book on the Law of Bankruptcy the sixth edition of which has just been published. All the new rules and modern decisions are incorporated, and the author gives us a useful chapter on 'Composition or Scheme of Arrangement with Creditors.' We know of no better treatise on this branch of our law, and looking to the number of editions through which it has passed, our opinion is apparently shared by the profession."—Law Times, July 16th, 1887.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, that a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and so long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes, July, 1887.

"The present edition of Mr. Robson's well-known work appears as a stately volume. As regards the decisions on the Bankruptcy Act and the Bills of Sale Acts since the last edition, we may say that the characteristic of former editions is preserved; the cases are digested—not merely strung together as foot-notes or the head-notes copied in the text. There are few books which have passed through so many editions and yet read so much like a new book written in view of the latest, as well as the earlier, cases. A new chapter on private arrangements with creditors has been added, in which the subject is very fully considered under the heads of compositions, assignments, and the effect of these on the remedies of creditors and on sureties and secured creditors; and forms relating to statutory arrangements with creditors have been added to the appendix."—The Solicitors' Journal, Aug. 13, 1887.

"This is a new edition of a valuable book, bringing it thoroughly down to date. Since the publication of the last edition the Rules under the Act of 1883 have come into force, and there have been numerous important decisions, both under the Bankruptcy Act of 1883 and the Bills of Sale Acts. These are all duly noticed and commented on in the new edition. The book has also been increased by the addition of a new chapter on Private Arrangements with Creditors, and also some Forms of Composition and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, which cannot fail to prove useful to the profession. The bulk of the book has been kept within the same limits by a slight increase in the size of the page. The new edition will be welcomed by all bankruptcy practitioners."—Law Journal, Aug. 19 1887.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR. Demy 8vo., cloth, 9s.

PRIVATE ARRANGEMENTS WITH CREDITORS (a Treatise on the Law of), with an Appendix containing the Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1887, the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882, and the Bankruptcy (Discharge and Closure) Act, 1887, with the Rules under the above Acts. Also Precedents of Deeds of Arrangement.

"The Legal Profession will hail with satisfaction Mr. Robson's treatise on the 'Law of Private Arrangements with Creditors.' . . . The precedents appear to us to be thorough and practical, and the book, while it forms a useful supplement to the author's treatise on 'Bankruptcy,' must take rank with that excellent work."—Law Times.

"Those of our readers who possess Robson's 'Bankruptcy' will no doubt invest in the same author's 'Private Arrangements,' for it is professionally, as well as by outward appearance, a supplement to that classical volume."—Law Notes.

"Mr. Robson's work, as will be gathered from its title, contains the whole of the law relating to private arrangements with creditors, and is intended as a supplement to his well-known treatise on the 'Law of Bankruptcy.' Like that work, it is much pleasanter reading than most law books. . . . Mr. Robson is an excellent authority on the subject."—Solicitors' Journal.

STEPHEN'S COUNTY COURT ACTS, ORDERS, AND PRACTICE.

According to the scheme of the work, the Rules are printed immediately after the respective sections of the several enactments to which they particularly relate, thereby enabling the reader to see at a glance, Section, Rules, and Notes thereon.

By HENRY STEPHEN, of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law.

Editor of the Ninth Edition of "Stephen's Commentaries," and Joint Author of "The County Council Compendium;" and REGINALD ARTHUR STEPHEN, Registrar of the Lincoln County Court.

The peculiarity of the book is the novel scheme which has been adopted, and which we think will prove most acceptable to the busy practitioner and will save him much of his valuable time. . . . The idea is a happy one, and its undoubted labour and time saving efficacy should recommend the book to solicitors . . . in fact, everything is done to assist the practitioner."—Law Notes.

SECOND EDITION, Revised and Enlarged, 2 vols., demy 8vo., cloth, price 32s.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION,

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin.

Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

* This Edition contains additional chapters on the Parliaments of the Nineteenth Century down to the Third Reform Bill (1884-85), with an important Note giving the Author's Views on the Irish Question, and a new and copious Index.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme? On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Review.

"As a history of the English Constitution for English readers, Dr. Gneist's book has a great advantage over existing treatises. It is not too much to say that Dr. Gneist is indispensable to the student of English constitutional history. . . . The translation is, so far as we have been able to observe, generally correct and adequate, and English students have every reason to be grateful to Mr. Ashworth for introducing them to so valuable a work."—Athenaeum.

"This book is a monument of German patience and industry. . . . Dr. Gneist's book, we may say in conclusion, ought to be on the shelves of every student of our constitutional history."—Saturday Review.

"Something like a natural reproach is removed by this tardy recognition of the great services which Dr. Gneist has rendered to the history of English institutions."—London.

"The heavy task of translating the book has been executed by Mr. Ashworth with taste and judgment."—Scotsman.

Third Edition, Revised, with Portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT,

Its Growth and Development through a Thousand Years, 800-1887.

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenaeum.

"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great a portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College

Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869;

Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;"

and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

Anderson, Wm W., late 4, Clydesdale-rd, Notting Hill. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 819 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 28. That the executors of Walter J. Hood, deceased, and Jno. Russ, and Jno. Darley, and Frederic J. Tingle, and Jas J. Darley and Chas H. Cumberland, being respectively secured creditors of the debtor, shall release the sum of 3254. now invested in three 100l. Cape of Good Hope Bonds and four 20l. South Austrian Railway Obligations, held by the said Hy J. Hood and Hy G. A. Knor, and the sum of 8771. 3s. 4d. now invested in 27l. 18s. 11d. Bank of England Stock in the name of Jno. Russ, and such investments shall be realised by the respective holders thereof for the benefit of the creditors generally, and that with the concurrence of the said secured creditors the debtor shall raise a further sum of 500l. secured on the existing Policies of Assurance on the debtor's life, and otherwise in a manner similar to that of the existing claims of the said secured creditors, which said sum, together with the net proceeds of the realisation of the said investments, so to be realised after deducting the cost, charges, and expenses of realising the said investments and of raising the said sum, shall be paid to the Trustee hereinafter mentioned for administration under this scheme. That to further secure the said 500l., and in consideration of the release of the said sums of 3254. and 8771. 3s. 4d., and to secure and indemnify the said secured creditors, the debtor shall execute in favour of Messrs. Jas. J. Darley and Chas H. Cumberland, hereinafter referred to as the attorneys, a Power of Attorney in a form approved of by them, appointing them his attorneys to receive from the Secretary of State for India in Council, or his treasurer, or paymaster, or other person or persons authorized to pay the same, all and every sum or sums now due, or hereafter to become due and payable to the debtor on every account whatsoever. That out of the moneys so to be received by the attorneys a yearly sum of 840l. shall be set a side by the attorney, who shall apply the same, in addition to the life interest of the debtor in the legacy under the will of Dame Anne Grace Agnes Anderson, subject to the costs, charges, and expenses hereunder, and other payments named in the scheme, in investing for accumulation as a Reserve Fund a sum not exceeding 110l. a year for payment of the principal moneys due under such mortgages or charges, and shall pay the balance of such yearly sum of 840l. to the Trustee for administration under this scheme until the creditors shall have received 10s. in the pound. The debtor shall, if required by any of the said secured creditors and with the concurrence of the attorneys, consent to an Order for the receipt by the Trustee, to be applied as is provided in this scheme, of the aforesaid sum of 840l., portion of the pay to which the debtor is entitled as an officer on the Unemployed Superannuary List of Her Majesty's Indian Forces, or otherwise. That all debts to be paid in priority to other debts in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt shall be so paid, and all proper costs, charges, fees, percentages, and expenses. Mr. Geo. Wrold, the Official Receiver, is the Trustee hereunder to administer the debtor's property. The Receiving Order is rescinded.

Devey, W. H., Somerset House, Strand, Civil Service Clerk. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1225 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 26. The debtor consents to set aside for the benefit of his creditors the sum of 20l. on the first of each month out of his salary until his debts are paid in full, with interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, such monthly sums to be paid to the Senior Official Receiver in Bankruptcy, the first instalment payable on Feb 1, and to be applied by him:—1st. In payment of all proper costs, charges, and expenses. 2nd. In payment in priority and in full of all debts directed by the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and the preferential payments in Bankruptcy Act, 1883, to be so paid. 3rd. In payment from time to time of dividends upon all debts which may be proved under these proceedings, until the creditors entitled thereto shall have received payments of their debts in full, together with interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. The provisions of this scheme shall be accepted by the creditors in satisfaction and discharge of their debts. The Receiving Order is rescinded.

Mendon, Petrus, 1, 2, and 3, Falcon-sq, and Lyons, Franco, Silk Importer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1337 of 1891.) Ord. Feb 27. To pay in full forthwith, on the approval by the Court of this Composition arrangement, all preferential debts, and proper fees, costs, charges, and expenses. To pay to all his unsecured creditors in full discharge of all debts provable under the Receiving Order a Composition of 5s. 2d. in the pound, payable by three instalments, as follows:—1st. 1s. in the pound in cash within seven days after the date of the said approval by the Court. 2d. 1s. in the pound in one calendar month from the like date, and 3d. in the pound in two calendar months from the like date. Payment of the preferential debts, fees, costs, charges, and expenses, and the first instalment of the Composition secured by the deposit of a sufficient sum therewith with the Official Receiver. To secure the second instalment of the Composition by permitting Mr. Percy Mason, the special manager, to remain in possession of the stock-in-trade, book debts, machinery, trade fixtures, and fittings not realized at the date of the approval of this Composition by the Court, until payment from the proceeds thereof, or otherwise, of the second instalment of the Composition. To secure payment of the third instalment of the Composition by the guarantee of the Law Guarantee and Trust Company Limited. To secure the payment of the Composition generally, by obtaining the withdrawal of the claim of Mrs. Mendon against the estate, amounting to 1,200l. The Composition to be received and distributed by Mr. Percy Mason, of 29, King-st, Cheapside, E.C. The Receiving Order is rescinded.

Spencer, Sidney E., 17, St. Ann's-terrace, St. John's Wood, and 54, Belsize Park-gate, Hampstead, Merchant's Clerk. High Ct of Justice in Ekey. (No. 96 of 1889.) Ord. Jan 20. Discharge granted.

Spencer, Sidney E., 69, St. John's Wood-terrace, St. John's Wood, Merchant's Clerk. High Ct of Justice in Ekey. (No. 1296 of 1890.) Ord. Jan 29. Discharge granted subject to the bankrupt carrying out the terms of the Order of Court, made on Jan 19, that is to say, that the annual sum of 20*l.* portion of the bankrupt's salary of 250*l.* per annum, be paid during the bankruptcy, by the bankrupt, to the Official Receiver, as Trustee herein, by monthly payments of 2*l.* 10*s.*, until the sum of 125*l.* shall have been paid to the said Trustee, in order that the same may be applied in payment of the debts of the bankrupt, and that the first of such payments be made on Feb 10, and be continued monthly until the said sum of 125*l.* has been paid to the said Trustee. Bankrupt had been guilty of misconduct in relation to his property and affairs by contributing to his bankruptcy by unjustifiable extravagance in living; and had on a previous occasion been adjudged bankrupt, namely, in 1889.

Villar, Harry, Cheltenham, Auctioneer and Valuer. County Ct, Cheltenham. (No. 15 of 1891.) Ord. Feb 6. Suspended for four years. Sect. 28 (A.) (C.) (D.), Bankruptcy Act, 1883.

Ward, Thos., 12, Mervan-rd, Brixton, Builder. County Ct, Wandsworth. (No. 46 of 1889.) Ord. Jan 27. Order suspended for two years, from date of filing the application for Discharge. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Dec 16, 1892. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations.

White, Hy, Cheltenham, Market Gardener. County Ct, Cheltenham. (No. 14 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 6. Suspended for six months. Sect. 28 (A.) (C.), Bankruptcy Act, 1883.

Wimer, Wilmer B., Batley, Yorkshire, Timber Merchant, Roller Board, and Packing Case Maker. County Ct, Dewsbury. (No. 45 of 1889.) Ord. Dec 17, 1890. Discharge granted.

Wright, Fredk J., 44, Praed-st, Paddington, Carpenter and Joiner. High Ct of Justice in Ekey. (No. 130 of 1890.) Ord. Jan 26. Discharge suspended for twelve months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Jan 20, 1892. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had on a previous occasion made a Composition with his creditors, namely, in 1881.

* A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

London: Wm. Clowes & Sons, Limited, Law Publishers, 27, Fleet Street, E.C.

Now Ready. Second Edition. Revised, with Cases to Date. Demy 8vo., cloth, 21s.; cash price, 17s.

STEPHEN'S COUNTY COURT ACTS, ORDERS, AND PRACTICE

According to the scheme of the work, the Rules are printed immediately after the respective sections of the several enactments to which they particularly relate, thereby enabling the reader to see at a glance, Section, Rules, and Notes thereon.

By HENRY STEPHEN, of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law.

Editor of the Ninth Edition of "Stephen's Commentaries," and Joint Author of "The County Council Compendium;" and REGINALD ARTHUR STEPHEN, Registrar of the Lincoln County Court.

"The peculiarity of the book is the novel scheme which has been adopted, and which we think will prove most acceptable to the practitioner and will save him much of his valuable time. . . . The idea is a happy one, and its undoubted labour and time-saving tendency should recommend the book to solicitors . . . in fact, everything is done to assist the practitioner."—Law Notes.

WILLIAM CLOWES & SONS, LIMITED, Law Publishers and Booksellers, 27, FLEET STREET, LONDON, E.C. (Six Doors East of Inner Temple Lane.)

SECOND EDITION, Revised and Enlarged, 2 vols., demy 8vo., cloth, price 32s.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION,

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin.

Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

* This Edition contains additional chapters on the Parliaments of the Nineteenth Century down to the Third Reform Bill (1884-85), an important Note giving the Author's Views on the Irish Question, and a new and copious Index.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such questions as, Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme? On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."

"As a history of the English Constitution for English readers, Dr. Gneist's book has a great advantage over existing treatises. It is not too much to say that Dr. Gneist's book is indispensable to the student of English constitutional history. . . . The translation is, so far as we have been able to observe, generally correct and accurate. English students have every reason to be grateful to Mr. Ashworth for introducing them to so valuable a work."—Athenaeum.

"This book is a monument of German patience and industry. . . . Dr. Gneist's book, we may say in conclusion, ought to be on the shelves of every student of constitutional history."—Saturday Review.

"Something like a natural approach is removed by this tardy recognition of the great services which Dr. Gneist has rendered to the history of English institutions."—Edinburgh Review.

"The heavy task of translating the book has been executed by Mr. Ashworth with taste and judgment."—Scotsman.

Third Edition, Revised, with Portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT, Its Growth and Development through a Thousand Years, 800-18 By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenaeum.

"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great a portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

TUESDAY, MAR 24, 1891.

Brownrig, Jas, Brixham, Devonshire, Master Mariner. County Ct. East Stonehouse. (No. 30 of 1888.) Ord. Feb 11. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Aug. 11, on his filing with the Official Receiver, within one calendar month from the date of the Order, a release signed by each creditor in respect of the amount now due to him. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position.

Benton, Reuben, the jr, Denton, nr Gravesend, Kent, Architect and Surveyor. County Ct. Rochester (No. 41 of 1890.) Ord. Feb. 21. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Aug. 26. Bankrupt had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations.

Domasalla, Amandus A., 11 Motley-st, Curtain-rd, Shoreditch, Cabinet Manufacturer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 844 of 1887.) Ord. Feb. 13. Discharge suspended for three weeks. Bankrupt discharged as from Mar 6 (the Public Examination was concluded on Aug 30, 1887). Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had on a previous occasion made a Composition or arrangement with his creditors, namely, in the year 1882.

Doncaster, Edm, Manchester, Carver and Gilder. County Ct. Manchester. (No. 78 of 1887.) Ord. Feb 25. Discharge suspended for one day. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had on a previous occasion made a Composition with his creditors, viz., in or about 1880 or 1881.

Ellis, D. Ossett, Yorkshire, Contractor. County Ct. Dewsbury. (No. 41 of 1888.) Ord. Feb 25. Discharge suspended for twelve months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Feb 25, 1892. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy, having kept no books of account at all; and had within three months preceding the date of the Receiving Order given an undue preference to some of his creditors; and that during the two months preceding the Receiving Order the bankrupt realised almost the whole of his assets in such a manner that it is doubtful whether the full value could have been obtained therefor.

Fyfe, Jas, St. Stephen's-chambers, Telegraph-st, and of 30, Winchester-rd, Bealze Park, Stockbroker. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1179 of 1889.) Ord. Feb 26. Discharge refused.

Levy, Maurice, Manchester, Wholesale Jeweller and Importer of Foreign and Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as sufficiently disclose his financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent, namely, from Mar 3, 1887; and had contracted the whole of the debts provable in his bankruptcy, amounting to the sum of 2,716*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.*, or thereabouts, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Michell, Jn, East Stonehouse, Devonshire, Travelling Draper. County Ct. East Stonehouse. (No. 36 of 1888.) Ord. Dec 10, 1891. Bankrupt discharged on consenting to Judgment being entered against him for 100*l.* and 1*l.* 10*s.* for costs. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as sufficiently disclose his financial position; and had by certain indentures of settlement and assignment, dated Aug 31, 1887, conveyed certain property to his wife and children, but by an Order of the Divisional Court sitting in Bankruptcy the settlements were declared void as against the Trustee, under Sect. 47, sub-s. 1; and a sum of 225*l.*, the proceeds of certain sale moneys, was directed to be paid to the Trustee by the bankrupt and his wife. No order was made that the trust money should be paid into Court pending the Trustee's appeal, and the result of this was that a considerable part of such trust moneys was used by the bankrupt and his wife in contesting the Trustee's appeal, and, eventually, a balance of only 81*l.* was, by direction of the Committee of Inspection, received by the trustee in discharge of such sum of 225*l.* directed to be paid to him and the costs incurred in the action.

Northbro', Augustus, 28 and 29, St. Paul's-churchyard, Lane and Sewed Millin, and General Warehouseman. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1338 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 27. Discharge granted.

Robinson, Jas, Forest Gate, and of St atford, Essex, Saw Mill Proprietor and Timber Merchant. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 448 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 10. Discharge suspended for twelve months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Feb 10, 1892. Bankrupt had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them; had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculation; and had on a previous occasion made an arrangement with his creditors, namely, in 1886.

Stringer, Emily, Manchester, Victualler. County Ct. Manchester. (No. 36 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 25. Discharge suspended for one day. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by her, and as sufficiently disclose her business transactions and financial position since May 29, 1889; had continued to trade after knowing herself to be insolvent, viz., from the month of January, 1890, and had contracted debts amounting to 36*l.* 15*s.* 3*d.* (out of gross liabilities amounting to 937*l.* 3*s.* 8*d.*) without having, at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Tatton, Chas, Norwich, Contractor. County Ct. Norwich. (No. 28 of 1885.) Ord. Feb. 25. Discharge refused. Bankrupt had omitted to keep proper books of account; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had contracted debts provable in his bankruptcy without having at the time any reasonable ground of expectation of being able to pay the same, and had brought on his bankruptcy by unjustifiable extravagance in living.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitor in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, B.A., LL.B., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law,

Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-2."

*. A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

"Mr. Brett's work is exactly the book which the Law Society require for the purpose (the Intermediate Examination). His style is clear, and often interesting; his work is particularly accurate, and, in some cases, minutely so. . . . The writer has turned from page to page expecting to find some recent decision . . . either omitted entirely or imperfectly stated; but Mr. Brett has, in all cases where principles are concerned, defeated him. . . . The book will be of use to practising lawyers as well as to the student. . . . It is a monument of industry and learning, and will rank as the best bird's-eye view of modern English law which has been written for many years."—The Speaker.

"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."—Law Journal.

"The book may be recommended as exceedingly useful for students preparing for examinations. . . . But its merits are far beyond that purpose merely, and we repeat that the book may be confidently expected to take a prominent place among the practising lawyer's most used and best appreciated works of practice."—Juridical Review.

NOTICE.—The following two Books have been transferred to, and will in future be published by,
WM. CLOWES AND SONS, Limited:—

Sixth Edition, royal 8vo, cloth, price 38s.

ROBSON'S LAW OF BANKRUPTCY: containing a Full Exposition of the Principles and Practice of the Law. Including the Law under the Bankruptcy Act, 1883; the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882; and Section 10 of the Judicature Act, 1875; also the Law relating to Private Arrangements with Creditors. With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders, and Forms, including Forms of Compositions and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883. By GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

Opinions of the Press.

"Notwithstanding the many competitive volumes which have been recently published, Mr. Robson has maintained the position of his text-book on the Law of Bankruptcy the sixth edition of which has just been published. All the new rules and modern decisions are incorporated, and the author gives us a useful chapter on 'Composition and Scheme of Arrangement with Creditors.' We know of no better treatise on this branch of our law, and looking to the number of editions through which it has passed, our opinion is apparently shared by the profession."—Law Times, July 16th, 1887.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, that a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes, July, 1887.

"The present edition of Mr. Robson's well-known work appears as a stately volume. As regards the decisions on the Bankruptcy Act and the Bills of Sale Acts since the last edition, we may say that the characteristic of former editions is preserved; the cases are digested—not merely strung together as foot-notes or the head-notes copied in the text. There are few books which have passed through so many editions and yet read so much like a new book written in view of the latest, as well as the earlier, cases. A new chapter on private arrangements with creditors has been added, in which the subject is very fully considered under the heads of compositions, assignments, and the effect of these on the remedies of creditors and on sureties and secured creditors; and forms relating to statutory arrangements with creditors have been added to the appendix."—The Solicitors' Journal, Aug. 13, 1887.

"This is a new edition of a valuable book, bringing it thoroughly down to date. Since the publication of the last edition the Rules under the Act of 1883 have come into force, and there have been numerous important decisions, both under the Bankruptcy Act of 1883 and the Bills of Sale Acts. These are all duly noticed and commented on in the new edition. The book has also been increased by the addition of a new chapter on Private Arrangements with Creditors, and also some Forms of Composition and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, which cannot fail to prove useful to the profession. The bulk of the book has been kept within the same limits by a slight increase in the size of the page. The new edition will be welcomed by all bankruptcy practitioners."—Law Journal, Aug. 19 1887.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR. Demy 8vo., cloth, 9s.

PRIVATE ARRANGEMENTS WITH CREDITORS (a Treatise on the Law of), with an Appendix containing the Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1887, the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882, and the Bankruptcy (Discharge and Closure) Act, 1887, with the Rules under the above Acts. Also Precedents of Deeds of Arrangement.

"The Legal Profession will hail with satisfaction Mr. Robson's treatise on the 'Law of Private Arrangements with Creditors.' . . . The precedents appear to us to be thorough and practical, and the book, while it forms a useful supplement to the author's treatise on 'Bankruptcy,' must take rank with that excellent work."—Law Times.

"Those of our readers who possess Robson's 'Bankruptcy' will no doubt invest in the same author's 'Private Arrangements,' for it is professedly, as well as by actual appearance, a supplement to that classical volume."—Law Notes.

"Mr. Robson's work, as will be gathered from its title, contains the whole of the law relating to private arrangements with creditors, and is intended as a supplement to his well-known treatise on the 'Law of Bankruptcy.' Like that work, it is much pleasanter reading than most law books. . . . Mr. Robson is an excellent authority on the subject."—Solicitors' Journal.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitor in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

THIRD EDITION, WITH SUPPLEMENT. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 10s. 6d.; post-free, 11s.

"The Officers' guide secum; . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Youngster Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalions officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES on the PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, M.A., LL.B., Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-82."

"A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

The Law Journal says, in the course of an exhaustive review—"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION.—By DR. RUDOLPH

GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin. Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, 'Whither are we drifting?' 'How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution?' 'What is in store for us with democracy supreme?' On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT, its Growth and

Development through a Thousand Years, 800-1887. By Dr. RUDOLPH GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenaeum.

"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

"This is a book we can thoroughly recommend to any person, whether lawyer or artist, who is interested in the subject."—Athenaeum.

"Mr. Winslow . . . is clear, accurate, and practical, and has made a valuable contribution to the subject with which he deals."—Law Journal.

"The object of his book is to explain the rights of authors of artistic works of every description, and it is so satisfactorily attained, that the work is one that should be in the hands of every artist."—Magazine of Art.

THE OFFICE OF MAGISTRATE (a Handbook to). By HAROLD WRIGHT, of the Middle Temple and Midland Circuit, Barrister-at-Law, Author of "A Treatise on the Bankruptcy Act 1883," &c.

"This little book contains a capital epitome of the duties of a magistrate, written in popular language. It is full of practical hints and suggestions."—Law Times.

CHASTER'S POWERS OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS.

Third Edition. Demy 8vo., cloth, 15s.

THE POWERS, DUTIES, AND LIABILITIES OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS, as between these Officers and the Public. By A. W. CHASTER, of the University of London, LL.B., and of the Middle Temple and Western Circuit, Barrister-at-Law.

"A most useful book of reference to the Practitioner; and Mr. Chaster is to be congratulated, no less on the happy inspiration which induced him to collect the Statute and Case law on the subject, than on the result of his labours."—Pump Court.

"We attribute the success of this work to the simple, lucid, and practical way in which it limits and defines the powers of the several officers with whom it deals. It is equally intelligible to the lawyer and the layman."—Law Times.

WOLSTENHOLME'S CONVEYANCING ACTS.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES on the PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, M.A., LL.B., Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clarke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-82."

"A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

The Law Journal says, in the course of an exhaustive review:—"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."

Second Edition, 2 vols., demy 8vo., 32s.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION.—By DR. RUDOLPH

GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin. Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, 'Whither are we drifting?' 'How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution?' 'What is in store for us with democracy supreme?' On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

Third Edition, revised, with portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT, its Growth and

Development through a Thousand Years, 800-1887. By Dr. RUDOLPH GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenæum.
 "It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

Photographs, Engravings, Sculpture, and Designs. With an Appendix of Statutes and Collection of Precedents. By REGINALD WINSLOW, M.A., LL.B., of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law.

"This is a book we can thoroughly recommend to any person, whether lawyer or artist, who is interested in the subject."—Athenæum.

"Mr. Winslow . . . is clear, accurate, and practical, and has made a valuable contribution to the subject with which he deals."—Law Journal.

"The object of his book is to explain the rights of authors of artistic works of every description, and it is so satisfactorily attained, that the work is one that should be in the hands of every artist."—Magazine of Art.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College Dublin; Exhibitor in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES on the PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, M.A., LL.B., Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-82."

"A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

The Law Journal says, in the course of an exhaustive review:—"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION.—By DR. RUDOLPH

GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin. Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, 'Whither are we drifting?' 'How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution?' 'What is in store for us with democracy supreme?' On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

Third Edition, revised, with portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT, its Growth and

Development through a Thousand Years, 800-1887. By Dr. RUDOLPH GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenaeum.

"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

Photographs, Engravings, Sculpture, and Designs. With an Appendix of Statutes and Collection of Precedents. By REGINALD WINSLOW, M.A., LL.B., of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law.

"This is a book we can thoroughly recommend to any person, whether lawyer or artist, who is interested in the subject."—Athenaeum.

"Mr. Winslow . . . is clear, accurate, and practical, and has made a valuable contribution to the subject with which he deals."—Law Journal.

"The object of his book is to explain the rights of authors of artistic works of every description, and it is so satisfactorily attained, that the work is one that should be in the hands of every artist."—Magazine of Art.

Holmes, Minnie Beatrice, 401, Fulham-rd, Spinster. County Ct, Liverpool (by transfer from the High Ct of Justice in Bkcy.) (No. 74 of 1890.) Adj. Sp't 6, 1890. Annual. Apr. 10. Debts paid in full.

Orders made on Applications for Discharge.

WEDNESDAY, Apr. 10, 1891.

Addington, T. A. E., late 10, Bury-st, St. James's. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 397 of 1888.) Ord. Mar. 12. Discharge suspended for three weeks. Bankrupt discharged as from Apr. 8. Bankrupt had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculation.
 Arnott, Monkman, Scarborough, Joiner and Builder. County Ct, Scarborough. (No. 20 of 1889.) Ord. Mar. 17. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Sept 17. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy.
 D'Auguer, Emile C., Walmer, Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders and Schoolmaster. County Ct, Canterbury. (No. 48 of 1890.) Ord. Mar. 2. Bankrupt to be discharged subject to the following conditions, namely, that he do from time to time set aside and pay over to the Trustees in the bankruptcy all the earnings, income, and after-acquired property which, after the date of this Order, he may make or receive, or which may devolve upon him, or to which he may become entitled, in excess of the sum of 300*l.* a year, until his creditors have received a Dividend of 5*s.* in the pound on the debts proved under the bankruptcy. Bankrupt had brought on his bankruptcy by unjustifiable extravagance in living.

Dixon, Cecil B., and Sara Dixon, Southampton, Oil Cake and Artificial Manure Manufacturers. The Queen's Bench Division of the High Ct of Justice, on Appeal from the County Ct, Southampton. (No. 13 of 1888.) Ord. Jan. 21. Unconditional Order of Discharge granted.

Harber, Thos, Worcester, Victualler and Builder. County Ct, Worcester. (No. 45 of 1884.) Ord. Jan. 23. Discharge granted subject to bankrupt consenting to Judgment being entered against him for the sum of 40*l.* Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as sufficiently disclose his financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them, and had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculation. (This Amended Notice is substituted for that published in the London Gazette of Feb. 27.)

Hearn, Chas W., Becton, Suffolk, Corn Merchant and Farmer. County Ct, Bury St. Edmunds. (No. 1 of 1889.) Ord. Mar. 17. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep any books of account; had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without any reasonable ground of expectation of being able to pay them; had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculation; and had on a previous occasion filed a petition for liquidation under the Bankruptcy Act, 1849.

Higginson, Saml S., Liverpool, and Huxton, Lancashire, Meal and Bran Merchant. County Ct, Liverpool. (No. 50 of 1886.) Ord. Mar. 6. Discharge suspended for three calendar months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from June 6. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations.

Holmes, Robt F., Horncastle, Lincolnshire, Baker. County Ct, Lincoln. (No. 5 of 1889.) Ord. Mar. 16. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Sept 6. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy.

Korrell, Wm, 24, the Avenue, Acro-la, Brixton, formerly Restaurateur. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 281 of 1890.) Ord. Mar. 13. Discharged suspended for one year from the date of bankrupt passing his Public Examination, viz.: Apr. 28, 1890. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Apr. 28. Bankrupt had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

Reese, Evan, Llanwrin, Montgomeryshire, Slateworks Proprietor. County Ct, Aberystwith. (No. 1 of 1889.) Ord. Mar. 13. Discharge granted, subject to bankrupt consenting to Judgment being entered against him in the County Ct, at Aberystwith for the sum of 100*l.*, together with 1*l.* 10*s.* for costs of Judgment. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations.

Rolls, Jno A., Sandwich, formerly Brewer. County Ct, Canterbury. (No. 14 of 1890.) Ord. Mar. 2. Bankrupt to be discharged subject to the following conditions: namely, that he do from time to time set aside and pay over to the Official Receiver, the Trustee in the bankruptcy, all the earnings, income, and after-acquired property which, after the date of this Order, he may make or receive, or which may devolve upon him, or to which he may become entitled, in excess of the sum of 200*l.* a year, until his creditors have received a dividend of 1*s.* in the pound on the debts proved in the bankruptcy. Bankrupt had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had been guilty of misconduct in relation to his property and affairs.

Squire, Alf, 8, Wrotham-rd, Camden Town, Pianoforte Maker. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 403 of 1889.) Ord. Mar. 3. Discharge suspended for three weeks. Bankrupt discharged as from Mar. 21 (The Public Examination of the bankrupt was concluded on July 9, 1889.) Bankrupt had on a previous occasion made a Composition with his creditors, namely, in the year 1878.

Stevens, Sanders, Plymouth, Ship and Insurance Broker. County Ct, East Stonehouse. (No. 27 of 1890.) Ord. Mar. 11. Discharge refused. That had it not been for the use made by Hy J. Hayn a, bankrupt's partner, of the Powers of Attorney referred to in the Official Receiver's report, the firm of Sanders Stevens and Co. would not have been in a position to meet their engagements so long as they did, and consequently they traded after knowing themselves to be insolvent; and also that the bankrupts consequently contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting such debts any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay the same.

TUESDAY, Apr 14, 1891.

Barker, Valentines, Parham, Suffolk, late Farmer. County Ct, Ipswich. (No. 16 of 1889.) Ord. Mar. 19. Discharge suspended for three months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep any books of account; and, when unable to pay his debts, had given an undue preference to his landlord.

Coffey, Tho' R., 90, Cow Cross-st, Smithfield, and 4, Dorset-villas, Northumberland Park, Tottenham, Provision Merchant. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 639 of 1889.) Ord. Feb. 11. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Aug 11. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had on a previous occasion compounded with his creditors.

Day, Daniel, Ey, Suffolk, Builder and Carpenter. County Ct, Ipswich. (No. 43 of 1889.) Ord. Mar. 19. Discharge suspended three months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep proper books of account; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had on a previous occasion made an arrangement with his creditors.

Gill, Jonathan, Manchester, Woollen Merchant. County Ct, Manchester. (No. 92 of 1885.) Ord. Mar. 18. Discharge suspended for four years and eight months from Aug 6, 1886. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years

Immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent, viz.: from the month of January, 1885; had contracted debts provable in his bankruptcy, amounting to 200l., or thereabouts, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them; and had on a previous occasion been made bankrupt, and made a statutory arrangement with his creditors, viz.: in the years 1879 and 1883.

Geah, Geo, Hereford, Boot and Shoe Manufacturer. County Ct, Hereford. (No. 7 of 1885.) Ord. Mar 17. Discharge suspended for three months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in his business; had been bankrupt before; and had since paid a private Composition to his creditors.

John Wm. Kinver and Kingswinford, Staffordshire, Farmer. County Ct, Shrewsbury. (No. 7 of 1884.) Ord. Feb 19. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

John, Thom M., Llangoler, Carmarthenshire, Coal, Brick, and Lime Merchant, Gusty Ct, Carmarthen. (No. 1 of 1889.) Ord. Feb 17. The Order of Discharge granted on Dec 19, 1890, be and the same is hereby rescinded, with liberty to the bankrupt to apply at a future date for his Discharge. The conduct of the bankrupt does not justify the Order of Discharge.

John, Thom B., 2, Newman's-row, Lincoln's-inn-side, Law Stationer and Printer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 379 of 1890.) Ord Mar 6. Discharge suspended for one year. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Mar 6, 1892. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had on a previous occasion made an arrangement with his creditors, namely, under a Statute for Liquidation, in 1879.

John, Abraham, 44B, Hackney-rd, and 44, Leman-st, Whitechapel, Broker and House Agent. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 561 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 6. Discharge suspended for four years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Mar 6, 1891. Bankrupt had been guilty of misconduct in relation to his property and affairs in improperly applying to his own use moneys received on behalf of a firm as their agent.

Oxborrow, Arthur W., Woodbridge, Suffolk, Chimney Sweep. County Ct, Ipswich. (No. 42 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 19. Discharge suspended six months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep any books of account; and had omitted to disclose to the Official Receiver certain assets, part of his estate.

Parker, Wm G., 46A, High Holborn, Photographer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1359 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 6. Discharge suspended for three months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from June 6. Salomon, Simon, 114, Commercial-st, Spitalfields, Boot and Shoe Manufacturer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1195 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 3. Discharge suspended for two years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Mar 3, 1893. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had been guilty of misconduct in relation to his property and affairs by habitually selling his goods under cost price, to which misconduct his bankruptcy is mainly attributable.

Sugden, Cass, 141, Gloucester-rd, South Kensington, Comedian. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 329 of 1888.) Ord. Mar 3. Discharge suspended for three weeks. Bankrupt discharged as from Mar 24 (Pub. Exam. concluded on June 12, 1890). Bankrupt had brought on his bankruptcy by unjustifiable extravagance in living; and had on two former occasions made a statutory Composition with his creditors, viz. in the year 1880 and the year 1883.

Jenks, Wm, and Thos A. Wood, 66, Berners-st, and 8, and 8A, Wells-st, Upholsterers. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 25.) Ord. Apr. 9. To pay in full forthwith, on the approval by the Court of this Composition arrangement, all preferential debts, and preferential payments in priority to other debts, and all proper fees, costs, charges, and expenses. To pay to all unsecured creditors in full discharge of all debts provable under the Receiving Order a Composition of 7s. 6d. in the pound, payable in cash on approval by the Court. Payment of the preferential debts, fees, costs, charges, and expenses, and the Composition secured by depositing the amount required for the same with the Official Receiver. The Receiving Order herein is discharged as regards the joint estate only.

TUESDAY, Apr 21, 1891.

Armstrong, Wm A. F., 1 St. James-villas, New Hampton, Middlesex, and Medical Department, Admiralty, Civil Service Clerk. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 117.) Ord. Apr. 15. The debtor proposes to set aside for the benefit of his creditors the sum of 2l. 10s. on the first day of each month out of his salary of 25l. per annum, as a Clerk in the Medical Department of the Admiralty, such monthly sums to be paid to the senior Official Receiver in Bankruptcy, the first instalment to be paid on the first day of the month next following the date of the approval by the Court of this scheme of arrangement, or the debtor's reinstatement in his office, and to be applied by him as follows:—In payment of proper fees, costs, charges, and expenses; in payment in full of all preferential debts and preferential payments; and in payment from time to time of dividends upon all debts which may be proved under these proceedings until the creditors entitled thereto shall have received 10s. in the pound. The provisions of this scheme to be accepted by the creditors in satisfaction and discharge of their debts. The Receiving Order is discharged.

Williams, Herbert M., 37, Sutherland-place, Baywater, Major in the Middlesex Regiment of Her Majesty's army (retired). High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 174.) Ord. Mar 10. The debtor proposes (if the Secretary of State for War consents) to set aside 100l. per annum out of his retired pay of 300l. as from the 1st day of January, 1891, to be paid quarterly, upon the days upon which such retired pay is usually payable, to the Official Receiver for each period as may be required for effecting the trusts hereinafter mentioned:—That the said sum so set aside and received by the Official Receiver shall be held by him upon trust:—1st. To pay in full all preferential debts, preferential payments, and proper fees, costs, charges, and expenses. 2nd. To declare and pay dividends as in bankruptcy from time to time as and when the moneys in hand available for such dividends shall amount to the sum of 100s., until the whole of the unsecured creditors of the debtors shall have received 20s. in the pound, or until such commutation of a portion of his netted pay shall be effected by the debtor as hereinafter mentioned. The debtor further proposes that so soon as he shall attain the age entitling him according to the regulations to apply for a commutation of part of his said retired pay, that he shall apply for the commutation of 100s. a year, part of his said retired pay. That such commutation being effected (if the Secretary of State for War consents thereto), and the amount awarded as commutation allowance being paid to the Official Receiver, the Official Receiver out of such amount, together with any moneys remaining in his hands, shall declare and pay a final dividend as in bankruptcy, such final dividend, with any dividends that may have been paid previously, to be accepted in full satisfaction and discharge of all debts provable in the proceedings. Should such consent be withheld, the debtor agrees that his proposal is to be void and of no effect, and he undertakes to make application for such commutation as early as the regulations for the time being in force permit. This bankruptcy herein is annulled.

Orders made on Applications for Discharge.

FRIDAY, APR 17, 1891.

James T. Walkin, Lancashire, Joiner, and Builder, and Grocer. County Ct. (No. 24 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 6. Discharge suspended for three months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from June 6. Orders on Application to Approve Composition or Scheme.

FRIDAY, Apr 24, 1891.

Jones, J. N., Surrey House, Victoria Embankment, and 7, Colville-rd, Bayswater, Engineer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1401 of 1890.) Ord. Apr
 24. Provision for payment of Preferential debts, proper costs, charges, expenses, and percentages to be made by a deposit of the cash required for the same with the Official Receiver. The following Composition to be paid on all provable debts, viz:— 4s. in the pound at the end of three months from the date of approval of the Court of this arrangement, 5s. in the pound at the end of six months from the date of approval, and 10s. in the pound at the end of nine months from such date, together with interest on such instalments at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum from the date of such approval to the date of payment. Payment of the Composition secured by the joint and several promissory notes of the debtor and Mr.
 F. Finch, of 21, Ryler-st, payable at the dates hereinbefore mentioned, and also the assignment to Mr. William Tuke, of 2, Lombard-court, E.O., Accountant, Trustee herein, of all the estate of the debtor divisible among his creditor, and power to such Trustee to realize the same, or any part thereof, at any time at the consent of the debtor, and without such consent if and when any of the promissory notes shall be overdue and unpaid. The Receiver Order made in the above matter shall be annulled, and the debtor is discharged.

Orders made on Applications for Discharge.

FRIDAY, Apr 24, 1891.

Fearnley, Geo E., Dewsbury, Yorkshire, Corn Miller. County Ct, Dewsbury. (No.
 49 of 1884.) Ord. Mar 18. Discharge suspended for four calendar months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from July 18. Bankrupt had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had previously effected an arrangement with his creditors in connection with which two bills were given by the bankrupt for payment of two creditors in full, it being alleged of these that one constituted a fraud upon the creditors generally, and that both were liabilities which the bankrupt could not reasonably have undertaken, having regard to his means of meeting them.
 Peacock, Lorenzo, Leeds, late Innkeeper. County Ct, Leeds. (No. 65 of 1886.) Ord.
 Mar 19. Discharge suspended for four months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted some portion of his debts without having at the time of contracting the same any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.
 Perring, Jas, Holbeton, nr Ivybridge, Devonshire, Baker and Grocer. County Ct, East Stonehouse. (No. 33 of 1887.) Ord. Feb 11. Discharge granted as and from Aug 11. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting such debts any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay the same.
 Portway, Cressell J., Egham, Surrey, Grocer, Wine and Spirit Merchant, &c. County
 Ct, Kingston, Surrey. (No. 21 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 13. Discharge suspended for twelve months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, within three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them; and had made a settlement before and in consideration of marriage not being able to pay all his debts without the aid of the property comprised in the settlement.
 Waldock, Ernest E., Moseley, nr Birmingham, Tailor. County Ct, Leeds. (No. 81 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 19. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt had contracted the debts provable in the bankruptcy, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.
 Walker, Saml, Leeds, Poulterer. County Ct, Leeds. (No. 61 of 1886.) Ord. Mar
 19. Discharge granted subject to the following, viz: bankrupt to pay to the Official Receiver out of the earnings which may afterwards become due to him, the sum of 1l. per month for a period of twelve months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting the same any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.
 Williams, Wm H., Birmingham, Baker and Confectioner. County Ct, Birmingham.
 (No. 51 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 18. Discharge granted subject to bankrupt consenting to Judgment being entered against him in the County Ct at Birmingham for the sum of 30l., together with 1l. 10s. for costs of Judgment. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding the bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable grounds of expectation of being able to pay them.
 Wilson, Geo E., Newcastle-on-Tyne, Solicitor. County Ct, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
 (No. 53 of 1888.) Ord. Jan 18. Discharge suspended for three months. Bankrupt had continued to trade after knowledge of insolvency. (This Amended Notice is substituted for that published in the London Gazette of Feb 10.)

Hobbs, Ebenezer, Tyldesley, and Eccles, Lancashire, Grocer and Provision Merchant.
 County Ct, Bolton. (No. 7 of 1890.) Ord. Apr 1. Discharge suspended for six months, to be granted as from Oct 1. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had put some of his creditors to unnecessary expense by frivolous defences to actions properly brought against him; and had on a previous occasion, namely in 1886, made a Composition with his creditors.
 Lookwood, Eliz, Kirkburton, nr Huddersfield, Dyer. County Ct, Huddersfield. (No.
 1 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 13. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Sept 13. Bankrupt had omitted to keep proper books of account; and had within three months preceding the date of the Receiving Order, when unable to pay her debts as they became due, given an undue preference to some of her creditors.
 Smith, Thos, 39, Cecil-pk, Crouch End, Builder. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No.
 1458 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 24. Discharge suspended for three years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Mar 24, 1894. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.
CHANCERY DIVISION.

TRANSFER OF CAUSES.

ORDER OF COURT.

Tuesday, the 12th day of May, 1891.

WHEREAS, upon the request of the Lord Chancellor, the Honorable Mr. Justice VAUGHAN WILLIAMS has, with the concurrence of the Lord Chief Justice of England, consented to sit and act as an additional Judge of the Chancery Division for the purpose of Hearing any Causes or Matters which may be assigned to him by the Lord Chancellor, or any application therein: I, the Right Honorable HARDINGE STANLEY, BARON HALSBURY, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, do, pursuant to the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1884, Sec. 5, hereby Order that in addition to the Causes assigned under the Order of Court, dated the 28th day of April, 1891, the several Causes and Matters set forth in the Schedule hereto be assigned to Mr. Justice VAUGHAN WILLIAMS for the purpose of Hearing the same, or any application therein, and be marked in the Cause Books accordingly; and if on the termination of such Sitting any of such Causes and Matters shall remain undisposed of, then I do also Order that such Causes and Matters be retransferred without further Order for the purpose only of Hearing or of Trial to the Hon. Mr. Justice ROMER. And this Order is to be drawn up by the Registrar and set up in the several Offices of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

certifying that Dalton T. Miller and Chas H. Norton have complied with the terms of the Scheme of Arrangement herein so far as they are concerned, and that the property of the bankrupt has in pursuance of such scheme been duly conveyed and assigned to the said Dalton T. Miller and Chas H. Norton.]

TUESDAY, May 13, 1891.

D'Albion, Wm W., otherwise Dal'blac, 43, Colville-gdn, Esq. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 294 of 1890.) Ord. May 7. Debtor to set a side for the benefit of his creditors, out of his pension of £531. 6s. 8d., per annum as a retired officer of the Island Revenue Department of Her Majesty's Civil Service, the sum of 250l. per annum, by equal monthly payments of 20l. 18s. 8d., the first of such monthly payments to be made on the first day of the month next after the date of the Order of the Court approving the scheme, and to be applied by the Official Receiver as follows:—1st, in payment of proper costs, charges, expenses, fees, and percentages. Next, in payment in priority and in full of all preferential debts. And next, in payment of dividends from time to time upon all debts due from the debtor and proved under these proceedings, until the creditors shall have received payment of their debts in full. The consent of the Trustee of the settlement made on the marriage of Arthur F. Waters with a daughter of the debtor has been obtained to prove against the estate for the sum of 2,500 l. only, instead of 5,000l. for dividend. Pending the said approval of this scheme, the debtor undertook to pay over to the Official Receiver 20l. 18s. 8d. per month out of his said pension as part of his estate. The Receiving Order is rescinded.
 Bay, Michael, Admiralty Office, Spring-gdn, Clerk in the Civil Service of Her Majesty's Government. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 62.) Ord. May 6. To set aside out of his salary of 451l. 10s. a year, a sum of 40l. a year for the benefit of his creditors, until they shall have received a dividend of 21s. in the pound, and to pay the same to the Official Receiver by monthly instalments, beginning on the 1st day of August next, or to consent to such orders as may be necessary to enable the Official Receiver to receive the said instalments from the Admiralty Office. The sum so received to be applied by the Official Receiver in payment of fees, costs, charges, and expenses; payment in full of all debts directed to be paid in priority of all other debts, if any; and in payment of dividends to the unsecured creditors until they shall have received payment, in full, of the debts provable by them against the estate. By way of security for the receipt by the creditor of such dividends, the debtor will take out and assign to the Official Receiver, within one week of the approval of this arrangement, a policy on his life, for 300l. in the North British and Mercantile Life Insurance Company.
 Stephenson, Geo, Beckenham, Kent, Builder. County Ct, Greenwich. (No. 45 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 25. To pay all preferential claims, costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the proceedings, and a Commission of 5s. in the pound on all debts proved under the bankruptcy within fourteen days of the approval by the Court. The due payment of the aforesaid costs, charges, expenses, and Commission to be guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Official Receiver, or a sufficient amount to be deposited with him before the Second Meeting.
 White, Robt H., Kyarah, Kent, Landowner. County Ct, Maidstone. (No. 12 of 1890.) Ord. May 7. That the debtor's wife, and his brothers Herbert White and Claude Hamilton White, and Frank Bradshaw, the executors of Thos White, deceased, and Messrs. Wigan, Mercer, and Co., withdraw all claims against the estate, and such of them as have proved withdraw their proofs, 300l. to be paid to the Official Receiver, to be distributed as follows:—1st, in payment in priority to all other debts of all debts directed to be so paid in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt. 2nd, in payment of all proper costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the proceedings, and all fees and percentages payable to the Official Receiver and the Board of Trade. 3rd, in payment, pro rata, of all the debtor's debts as in bankruptcy other than those which may be due to the persons who have undertaken to withdraw their proofs and claims as aforesaid, the balance, if any, to be paid to the debtor's solicitor. That the Receiving Order be rescinded on the approval by the Court of this scheme.

Orders made on Applications for Discharge.

FRIDAY, May 8, 1891. :

Adey, Wm H., Salisbury, Wiltshire, Builder. County Ct, Salisbury. (No. 13 of 1890.) Ord. Apr 10. Discharge suspended for three months. Sect. 28, sub-sect. 3 (A.), (B.), (C.), (G.), Bankruptcy Act, 1883.
 Aird, Jno, Liverpool, Fish Dealer. County Ct, Liverpool. (No. 55 of 1890.) Ord. Apr 8, by adjournment from Nov 7, 1890, and Mar 20. Bankrupt discharged subject to the following conditions, viz: that he pay or transfer to the Official Receiver, Trustee, the whole of his future earnings, income, and after-acquired property, after retaining the sum of 120l. per annum as an allowance for his maintenance until, with the dividend payable out of the estate, the total dividends paid to the creditors shall amount to 2s. 6d. in the pound. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1890.

THE Council desire to submit their Financial Statement and Balance Sheet for the year 1890, by which it will be seen that the Subscriptions for the Law Reports, 1890, received by the Council amounted to the sum of 22,343*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.*, showing an increase as compared with 1889 of 115*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*; that the amount received for the Law Reports published prior to 1890, together with the sums received on account of the Index to the London Gazettes, &c., amounted to 769*l.* 18*s.* 1*d.*; that the Council's proportion of advertisements amounted to the sum of 47*l.* 6*s.* 10*d.*, and that the interest for money on Deposit and Investments realised the sum of 1209*l.* 19*s.* 3*d.*, making the total receipts for the year 24,375*l.* 6*s.* as against 24,488*l.* 4*s.* 10*d.* received in 1889.

The expenditure for printing and delivery of the Reports, Weekly Notes, Indian Appeals, and other Publications of the Council amounted to the sum of 13,640*l.* 18*s.* 1*d.*, the Office Expenses to 186*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.*, and a charge for Income Tax of 5*l.* 15*s.* 11*d.* The amount expended in the payment of Salaries, including the usual Bonus to the Staff, amounted to 13,557*l.* 4*s.* 2*d.*, making the total expenditure for the year 27,390*l.* 14*s.* 10*d.*, as compared with 25,779*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.* expended the previous year. This increase of 1621*l.* in the year's expenditure was caused by the cost of the Government Index to the Statutes, which the Council presented gratis to their Subscribers, but for which the Council paid above 2000*l.*, including the cost of delivery in all parts of the Kingdom and abroad. The year's expenses also include the sum of 1500*l.* paid in advance on account of the New Consolidated Digest now in course of preparation by the Council.

The balance of Revenue brought forward at the commencement of the year 1890 amounted to the sum of 12,096*l.* 16*s.* 9*d.*, and deducting the sum of 3015*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.*, being the excess of expenditure above the total receipts for the year 1890, there remained a balance of Revenue amounting to the sum of 9081*l.* 7*s.* 11*d.* in addition to the Reserve Fund of 20,000*l.*, and the stock in hand at the same date valued at 3754*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.*

The Accounts have been duly audited and found correct.

The General Digest of the Law Reports, from 1865 to 1890, is rapidly progressing towards completion, the Council having engaged five gentlemen for the work of compilation, and an Editor for general supervision, and they hope shortly to be in a position to make an announcement as to the period when the work will be ready and the price to be charged; but as the undertaking is one of vast labour and extent, requiring special care and accuracy, the Council feel that it would not be wise to hurry its publication.

A New Series of the Law Reports was commenced with the current year, 1891, after great and repeated consideration, and the Council are in a position to state that it has been received with favour, and that a considerable number of the Profession have availed themselves of the opportunity to become subscribers for the first time.

The Council desire to express their acknowledgments to the Law Lords, Her Majesty's Judges, and the Profession generally, for the facilities they have given to the Staff during the year in reference to the preparation of the Law Reports.

By Order,

(Signed) JOSEPH BROWN,

Chairman.

Orders on Application to Approve Composition or Schemes.

FRIDAY, May 15, 1891.

Groth, Lorents A., 3, Tokenhouse-bldg, Moorgate-st, Civil Engineer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 749 of 1889.) Ord. Apr 30. To pay in full all present debts and also all pre-prot costs, charges, expenses, fees, percentages, and interest incurred or to be incurred by the Trustee in respect of the action of Lewis & Balé, 1890, L., No. 157. To pay or cause to be paid to the creditors the 20s. in the pound on their respective debts, including the bankrupt's share of the costs of the action, the British Tanning Company v. Groth, 1889, B., No. 455, the action Groth v. the British Tanning Company, 1889, G., No. 1904, with interest thereon, at the rate of 5 per centum per annum from the date of the Bank Order, the same to be paid as follows:—2s. in the pound within seven days of the date of the approval by the Court of this scheme of arrangement, and the balance thereof, with the said interest, within six months from the date of the said approval. Before the approval by the Court of this scheme to make provision to the satisfaction of the Official Receiver for the payment of all the preferential debts, charges, expenses, fees, percentages, and costs. As security for the due carrying out of the scheme, and the payment of all moneys payable hereunder, Mr. Frederick J. Solicitor, of 75, Mark-lane, in the city of London, shall hold as Trustee hereunder but subject to his own lien, the patent known as Groth's Patent, No. 743-57, process of tanning by electricity, and the bankrupt shall use all reasonable means with a view to the profitable development or disposal of the same. If all the moneys payable hereunder shall not be paid within six months from the date of the said approval, the said patent shall be sold and the proceeds subject to the said and after payment of all costs, charges, expenses, fees, and percentages remaining unpaid, shall be applied in payment of the respective debts of the creditors, and interest thereon at the rate aforesaid. The bankruptcy is annulled and the property of the debtor is reverted in him, subject to the trust and the said scheme mentioned.

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 1891.

Buckler, Jos R., Chapel End, nr Nuneston, Warwickshire, Cattle Dealer and Butcher's Assistant. County Ct, Coventry. (No. 4.) Ord. May 11. To pay in full all preferential debts and the costs of the bankruptcy proceedings, and a Composition of 7s. 6d. in the pound payable by two equal instalments, at three and six months respectively from the date of approval by the Court. The composition to be secured by the deposit with the Official Receiver by Josiah Buckler of a mortgage deed for 800l., and the guarantee of Robt Buckler and Josiah Buckler. The claim of Robt Buckler and Jas H. Buckler to stand in abeyance until the composition has been fully paid. The Receiving Order is rescinded, and the Order of Adjudication annulled.

Woods, Edwin, 17, Gracechurch-st., Timber Merchant. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 256.) Ord. May 12. All the real and personal property of or to which the debtor is beneficially possessed or entitled, whether in possession, reversion, remainder, expectancy, or otherwise, property having as wide a meaning as in the Bankruptcy Act, 1883 (except debtor's household furniture), shall vest in Algernon Osmond Miles, of 28, King-st., in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, as Trustee (or failing him in such person as may be appointed at a future meeting of creditors to be summoned by the Official Receiver) to realize and distribute the same amongst the debtor's creditors, in the manner as if his estate were being wound up in bankruptcy. A Committee of Inspection has been appointed with all the powers and duties as if they were specified in a Committee of Inspection in Bankruptcy. As a condition of this scheme being approved, certain creditors withdraw their claims and proofs against the debtor's estate, and Ernest Lafont Heatley has undertaken to pay to the Trustee the sum towards and in aid of debtor's assets, and for the benefit of debtor's creditors, one-half of his share in the capital of the debtor's late firm of Heatley, Jones, and Co., up to 10,000l., such sum to be in addition to debtor's share of the right in the capital of the said firm of Heatley, Wotton, and Co., to vest in the Trustee herein. And in addition, after deduction of maintenance at the rate of 10s. per annum, the debtor will convey to, or vest in, the Trustee all property (except any property having the same meaning as in the Bankruptcy Act, 1883), which he may acquire or become entitled to within one year from the date of the Receiving Order, and that, on the expiration of such period of one year, this scheme to be carried out and accepted in satisfaction of his debts. All proper costs, charges, expenses, fees, and percentages be paid in priority out of the moneys forming part of the debtor's estate in the hands of the Official Receiver. Preferential debts are to be paid by the Trustee out of the estate vested in him. The Receiving Order is rescinded and the debtor is discharged.

Orders made on Applications for Discharge.

LEADING CASES IN MODERN EQUITY.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College Dublin; Exhibitor in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same class subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirably being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no objection in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

THIRD EDITION, WITH SUPPLEMENT. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 10s. 6d.; post-free, 11s.

"The Officers' code secum; . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of the officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information as is given in this book. . . . The authors have shown themselves to have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful work."—Scotsman.

26th May, 1891.

COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION.

MICHAELMAS EXAMINATION, 1891.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR PASS CERTIFICATES.

The attention of Students is requested to the following Rules :-

No Student shall receive from the Council the Certificate of Fitness for call to the Bar required by the four Inns of Court unless he shall have passed a satisfactory Examination in the following Subjects—viz., (1) Roman Law ; (2) The Law of Real and Personal Property ; (3) Common Law ; and (4) Equity.

No Student (except such as come under the next stated Rule) shall be examined for call to the Bar until he shall have kept nine Terms ;

but Students shall have the option of passing the Examination in Roman Law at any time after having kept four Terms.

A Student who, previously to his admission at an Inn of Court, was a Solicitor in practice for not less than five years, may be examined for call to the Bar without keeping any terms.

An Examination will be held in October next, to which a Student of any of the Inns of Court, who is desirous of becoming a Candidate for a Certificate of Fitness for being called to the Bar, or of passing the Examination in Roman Law only, will be admissible.

Each Student proposing to submit himself for Examination will be required to enter his name, in full, personally or by letter, at the Treasurer's or Steward's Office of the Inn of Court to which he belongs, on or before Monday, the 5th day of October next; and he will further be required to state in writing whether his object in offering himself for Examination is to obtain a Certificate preliminary to a call to the Bar; or whether he is merely desirous of passing the Examination in Roman Law under the above-stated Rule.

The Examination will take place in the Hall of Lincoln's Inn; and the doors will be closed Ten Minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the Examination.

The Examination by Printed Questions will be conducted in the following order:—

Tuesday Morning, 13th October, at Ten, on the Law of Real and Personal Property.

Wednesday Morning, 14th October, at Ten, on Common Law.

Thursday Morning, 15th October, at Ten, on Equity.

Friday Morning, 16th October, at Ten, on Roman Law.

The Oral Examination will be conducted on the same days, and on the same Subjects, as above appointed for the Examination by Printed Questions.

The EXAMINER in the LAW OF REAL and PERSONAL PROPERTY will examine in the following Subjects:—

The Elementary Principles of the Law of Real and Personal Property, including the provisions of the Conveyancing and Settled Land Acts, with reference chiefly to the following Treatises on those subjects, viz.: Williams' Principles of the Law of Real Property; Williams' Principles of the Law of Personal Property; Goodeve's Modern Law of Real Property; Goodeve's Modern Law of Personal Property; Edwards' Compendium of the Law of Property in Land.

The EXAMINER in COMMON LAW will examine in the following Subjects:—

The Elementary Principles of (1) The Law of Contracts; (2) The Law of Torts; and (3) The Criminal Law,—with reference chiefly to Mr. Broom's Commentaries, eighth edition, 1888; (4) The Procedure in the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice,—with reference to Book I. of the same work; and (5) Foulke's Elementary View of the Proceedings in an Action at Law, third edition (founded on Smith's Action at Law).

The EXAMINER in EQUITY will examine in the following Subjects as discussed in White and Tudor's leading Cases, or as affected by later Statutes and Decisions:—

1. Implied Trusts, Conversion (Howe v. Lord Dartmouth).
2. Ademption and Satisfaction.
3. Injunctions in cases of Waste, Riparian Rights, and Nuisance.
4. Marshalling.
5. Defences to Action for specific performance on grounds of
 - (a) mistake, surprise, or unreasonableness in contract;
 - (b) want of mutuality in contract.
6. Married Woman's Property.

The EXAMINERS in ROMAN LAW will examine in the Institutes of Justinian, Books I. and II.; Book III., Title 13, to the end of the Book; Book IV., Titles 1 to 5 inclusive.

HILARY EXAMINATION, 1892.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR STUDENTSHIPS AND PASS CERTIFICATES.

The attention of Students is requested to the following Rules:—

As an encouragement to Students to study Jurisprudence and Roman Civil Law, Twelve Studentships of One Hundred Guineas each shall be established, and divided equally into two classes; one class of such Studentships to continue for two years, and to be open for competition to any Student as to whom not more than four Terms shall have elapsed since he kept his first Term; and another class to continue for one year only, and to be open for competition to any Student, not then already entitled to a Studentship, as to whom not less than four and not more than eight Terms shall have elapsed since he kept his first Term; two of each class of such Studentships to be awarded by the Council, on the recommendation of the Committee, after every Examination before Hilary and Trinity Terms respectively, to the two Students of each set of competitors who shall have passed the best Examination in both Jurisprudence and Roman Civil Law. But the Committee shall not be obliged to recommend any Studentship to be awarded if the result of the Examination be such as in their opinion not to justify such recommendation. Where any Candidates appear to be equal or nearly equal in merit, the Council may, if they think fit, divide the Studentships between them equally, or in such proportions as they consider just. Where in any year a Studentship in either Class is not awarded by reason of the Candidates not appearing to deserve it, the Council may, if they think fit, appropriate it, or a portion of it for that year to the other Class, or may offer it for Competition in some other subject.

No Student shall receive from the Council the Certificate of Fitness for call to the Bar required by the four Inns of Court unless he shall have passed a satisfactory Examination in the following Subjects, viz. (1) Roman Law; (2) The Law of Real and Personal Property; (3) Common Law; and (4) Equity.

No Student (except such as come under the next-stated Rule) shall be examined for call to the Bar until he shall have kept nine Terms; but Students shall have the option of passing the Examination in Roman Law at any time after having kept four Terms.

A Student who, previously to his admission at an Inn of Court was a Solicitor in practice for not less than five years, may be examined for call to the Bar without keeping any Terms.

An Examination will be held in December next, to which a Student of any of the Inns of Court, who is desirous of becoming a Candidate for a Studentship, or of obtaining a Certificate of Fitness for being called to the Bar, or of passing the examination in Roman Law, will be admissible.

Each Student proposing to submit himself for Examination will be required to enter his name in full, personally or by letter, at the Treasurer's or Steward's Office of the Inn of Court to which he belongs, on or before Friday, the 4th day of December next; and he will further be required to state in writing whether his object in offering himself for Examination is to compete for a Studentship, or to obtain a Certificate preliminary to a call to the Bar, or whether he is merely desirous of passing the Examination in Roman Law under the above-stated Rule.

The Examination will take place in the Hall of Lincoln's Inn; and the doors will be closed Ten Minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the Examination.

The Examination by Printed Questions will be conducted in the following order:—

Monday and Tuesday, 14th and 15th December, at Ten until One, and from Two until Five on each day, the Examination of Candidates for Studentships in Jurisprudence and Roman Law.

The Examination of Candidates for Pass Certificates and for Pass Roman Law only, will take place as follows:—

Wednesday Morning, 16th December, at Ten, on the Law of Real and Personal Property.

Thursday Morning, 17th December, at Ten, on Common Law.

Friday Morning, 18th December, at Ten, on Equity.

Saturday Morning, 19th December, at Ten, on Roman Law.

The Oral Examination will be conducted on the same days, and on the same Subjects, as above appointed for the Examination by Printed Questions.

JURISPRUDENCE, INTERNATIONAL LAW, AND ROMAN LAW.

Candidates for the Studentships will be examined in all the following Subjects:—

- I. Institutes of Gaius and Institutes of Justinian.
- II. Digest: Book XVIII, Title 1, "De Contrahenda Emptione." Book XVII, Title 2, "Pro Socio."
- III. History of Roman Law.

The income or policy moneys to be applied in payment of—(a) The premium from time to time accruing due on the said policy. (b) The fees, costs, charge, & expenses of and incidental to the bankruptcy proceedings. (c) All debts (if any) directed to be paid in priority to other debts. (d) Dividends up to the amount of debts provable against B's estate until all his creditors shall have received 2*s.* in the pound. Provided that no creditor shall be paid to a certain creditor for 1884, who has in writing consented to this arrangement, until the other creditors shall have received 2*s.* in the pound.

Orders made on Applications for Discharge.

FRIDAY, June 19, 1891.

Mr. Jos. Slough, Bookbinder, Victualler. County Ct, Windsor. (No. 13 of 1890.) Ord. May 15. Discharge suspended for two years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Jan 15, 1893, being two years from the date of the Order concluding the bankrupt's Public Examination. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business formerly carried on by him, and had not sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had brought on his bankruptcy rash and hazardous speculations; and that on a previous occasion, i.e., Nov 28, 1889, an application for liquidation of the bankrupt's affairs was filed in the Brighton County Court.

Mr. Geo. Anerley, Surrey, Builder and Contractor. County Ct, Croydon. (No. 1 of 1890.) Ord. May 26. Discharge suspended for two years. Sect. 28, sub-sec. 3 (A.), (B.), (C.), and (D.), of Bankruptcy Act, 1883.

Mr. J. H. Poole, Dorsetshire, Builder. County Ct, Poole. (No. 5 of 1890.) Ord. May 25. Discharge suspended for three years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from May 25, 1894. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable grounds of expectation of being able to pay them.

TUESDAY, June 23, 1891.

Mr. Wm. Manchester, Engineer and Machinist. County Ct, Manchester. (No. 4 of 1890.) Ord. May 27. Discharge suspended for three months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had been guilty of neglect in relation to his property and affairs, namely, in divesting himself of the whole of his assets without the full concurrence of his creditors, and effecting the same in terms which tended to show that the business and property were sold at a price below their real and marketable value.

Mr. J. W. Milfield, Yorkshire, Hay and Straw Dealer. County Ct, Dewsbury. (No. 18 of 1890.) Ord. May 27. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Nov 27. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had previously effected an arrangement with his creditors.

Mr. Alf. Yeadon, Yorkshire, Cloth Manufacturer. County Ct, Leeds. (No. 58 of 1890.) Ord. May 21. Discharge suspended for five years. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Mr. Maxmillian, 17, Dawhurst-rd, West Kensington, late Stockbroker's Clerk.

High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1531 of 1890.) Ord. May 14. Discharge suspended for three years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from May 14, 1894. Bankrupt had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them; had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations; had on a previous occasion made an arrangement with his creditors; and that on Nov. 15, 1890, he executed an ante-nuptial settlement, and at the time of making such settlement was not able to pay all his debts without the aid of the property comprised in the settlement. It appeared to the Court that such settlement was unjustifiable, having regard to the state of the settlor's affairs at the time it was made.

Clarkson, Jas., 7, Bartholomew-rd, and 7, Newgate-st, Kentish Town, Upholsterer and Draper's Ware-houseman. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1528 of 1890.) Ord. May 28. Discharge suspended for three weeks. Bankrupt discharged as from 18 June. Bankrupt had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

Crawshaw, Wm J., Mirfield, Yorkshire, Engineer, Millwright, and Machine Maker. County Ct, Dewsbury. (No. 23 of 1890.) Ord. May 27. Discharge suspended for two months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from July 27. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy.

Elison, Meshach, Leeds, Yorkshire, Compositor. County Ct, Leeds. (No. 97 of 1890.) Ord. May 21. Discharge suspended for three years. Bankrupt had contracted liabilities provable in the bankruptcy, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Hillier, Elsie, Tottenham, Middlesex, formerly Victualler and Hatter. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1066 of 1890.) Ord. May 14. Bankrupt suspended for three years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from May 14, 1894. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had within three months preceding the date of the Receiving Order, when unable to pay his debts as they became due, given an undue preference to some of his creditors; and had on two previous occasions made an arrangement with his creditors.

Judge, Jno T., Leeds, Secretary to the Leeds Branch of the National Union of Operative Boot and Shoe Riveters and Finishers. County Ct, Leeds. No. 80 of 1890.) Ord. May 27. Order made by Divisional Ct of Appeal. Discharge suspended for three years, unless the bankrupt shall sooner pay a dividend of 2*s.* 4*d.* in the pound of his debts. Bankrupt had put one of his creditors to unnecessary expense by a frivolous and vexatious defence to an action.

Lund, Thos A., Manchester, Victualler. County Ct, Manchester. (No. 41 of 1890.) Ord. May 27. Discharge suspended for five years from the date when bankrupt's Public Exam. was concluded (Sept 28, 1889). Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent, viz., from the year 1886; and had contracted debts provable in his bankruptcy, amounting to the sum of 116*l.* 10*s.* 2*d.*, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them; had brought on his bankruptcy in part by rash and hazardous speculations; and had been guilty of misconduct in relation to his property and affairs.

Pellett, Fredk, 706, Old Kent-rd, Surrey, Hatter. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 622 of 1890.) Ord. May 15. Discharge suspended for two years from July 12, 1889. Bankrupt to be discharged as from July 12. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

Wharton, Chas H. M., Manchester, and Stockport, Cheeshe, Barri-r-at-L-w. County Ct, Manchester. (No. 9.) Ord. May 27. Discharge suspended for two years. Bankrupt's assets are not of a value equal to 10*s.* in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities; and he had contracted debts provable in his bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Young, Thos, Bristol, Watch Manufacturer. County Ct, Bristol. (No. 59 of 1887.) Ord. May 29. A absolute Order of Discharge granted.
