THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION. By Dr. RUDOLPH

GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin. Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the whole spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme? On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and who has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin. Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, 'Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the whole spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme?' In such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no book-worm, and who has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Mac.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES on the PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, B.A., LL.B., Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-82."

"A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

The Law Journal says, in the course of an exhaustive review:—"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION. By Dr. RUDOLPH GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin. Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the whole spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme? On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and who has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

ADMINISTRATION.

1. — Debt owing to estate barred by Statute of Limitations.] A testator who had in his lifetime advanced to three of his sons various sums, taking acknowledgments therefor, gave to such sons certain specified freeholds and leaseholds, and also gave them certain shares in his residuary estate. The right of action (if any) in respect of the advances had become barred by the Statute of Limitations. Held, by Kekewich, J., that the three sons ought to bring into account, as against their respective shares of the residue, any sums due by them respectively to the testator at the day of his death, with interest at 4 per cent. from that date. Held, also, that the sons were entitled to the properties specifically given to them, without making good what (if anything) they owed to the testator's estate. In re AKERMAN. AKERMAN v. AKERMAN [1891] W. N. 132; [1891] 3 Ch. 213

2. — Jurisdiction.] There is no jurisdiction on a summons in an administration action to make a solicitor trustee account for profit costs received by him. In re THORPE. VIPONT v. RADCLIFFE - North, J. [1891] W. N. 93; [1891] 2 Ch. 360

3. — Scotch testator.] A Scotch testator left his whole estate, real and personal, on trust, after paying debts and certain legacies and annuities, &c., for divers charitable institutions, and directed that his affairs should be administered according to the law of Scotland. He left English and Scotch realty, and sufficient personality to satisfy all debts, legacies and annuities, &c. It was conceded that the charitable gifts, so far as payable out of English realty, were void. Held, that the annuities must be borne by the English and Scotch realty rateably. *In re HEWITT. ADULTERATION.

1. — Milk in course of delivery under Contract.] A. contracted to supply a workhouse with milk, samples being taken from each of the cans in which the daily supply was delivered:—Held, that A. was rightly convicted in a separate penalty in respect of each sample which was deficient in cream. Held, further, that the fact that A.'s contract with the workhouse provided for a reduction in price if the percentage of cream was below a certain amount, did not affect the question of his having offended under the Sale of Food and Drugs Act. FREYTT v. WALSH [Day and Lustrance, JJ. [1891] 2 Q. B. 304

2. — Servant's liability.] Held, that a servant was properly convicted of selling adulterated milk, although the milk was received by his employers under an agreement for supplying pure milk, which he claimed was a "written warranty" under s. 25 of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1875. *HOTCHIN v. APPRENTICE.

1. — Covenant—Action for Breach.] In an action for breach of covenant in an apprenticeship deed, to keep, teach and maintain the apprentice, it is a good defence that the apprentice, while in the master's service, was an habitual thief. LEAROYD v. BROOK

3. — Payment of Premium by Infant Apprentice.] A covenant entered into by an infant, with the consent of his guardian, that he would pay what was held to be a reasonable premium, if he were taught the business which he was apprenticed, can be enforced as "necessary" notwithstanding the infancy of the covenantor. *WALTER v. ARBITRATION.

1. — Award—Setting aside—Jurisdiction.] In an action an order by consent was made in the reference of all matters in difference to arbitration and not merely "the whole or some or matter."—Held, that the Court had jurisdiction to review the findings of the arbitrator. The jurisdiction to review given by s. 14 of the Arbitration Act, 1889, refers to differences which are or could be made under the statutory power and not to reference which from their extended scope can only be made by consent. DARLINGTON WAGON Co. v. LARDING AND TROUVILLE PIER AND STEAMBOAT Co. — C. A. affirming Div. Ct. [1891]

[1 Q. B. 245

2. — Award—Setting aside—Evidence.] Claim to have an award set aside on the grounds that the arbitrator had admitted before witnesses that he had acted improperly.—Held, that the Court could not set aside the award without hearing the evidence of the arbitrator himself. In re WHITELEY AND OTHERS — Kekewich, J.

3. — Costs—Jurisdiction of Arbitrator.] Here an arbitration, commenced after the commencement of the Arbitration Act, 1889, under a submission entered into before that Act, is silent as to costs, the arbitrators have power to award costs:—Held, in this case by A., that the arbitrators in awarding costs did not exceed their jurisdiction, for the

SANDERSON* — Kekewich, J. [1891] W. N. 71

5. — Stating Case—Building Society.] Per C. A.: The power given to the Court by the Arbitration Act, 1889, s. 19, to order an arbitrator to state in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Court, any question of law arising in the course of the reference, applies to arbitrations under the Building Societies Act, 1874. In re KNIGHT AND THE TABERNACLE BUILDING SOCIETY Div. 7. — Submission to Single Arbitrator—Refusal to concur in Appointing Arbitrator—Notice to Appoint—Discretion.] Held, by C. A. that the notice to appoint an arbitrator given by the contractor in this case was sufficient under s. 5 of the Arbitration Act, 1889, and that in a case such as this, where the parties agreed to refer matters, and it was admitted that there were some matters in dispute which ought to be referred, and the other conditions required by the section had been fulfilled, the word "may" in the section was equivalent to "must," and the Court was bound to appoint an arbitrator.

Note:—Kay, L.J., reserved the point whether under some circumstances the Court might not have a discretion under the section. In re EYRE AND CORPORATION OF LEICESTER [1891] W. N. 199

Effect of Annulment. A creditor obtained by consent a judgment for the amount of his debt. The debtor became bankrupt, and the trustee rejected the creditor's proof. The creditor did not appeal, but after the annulment of the bankruptcy sought to enforce his judgment:—Held, that the rejection of the proof was an act done by the trustee within the meaning of s. 81 of the Act of 1869: the rejection of the debt was, therefore, valid and final, and the creditor could not enforce his judgment. BRANDON v. Final Judgment—Judgment in Partnership Action. By the judgment in a partnership action dissolving the partnership, an account and inquiry were directed and an out-and-out order was made as to costs. Held by the C. There was nothing to be done but to tax the costs, and, when they were taxed, the judgment would become absolutely final, and execution could be issued upon it, and it would support a bankruptcy notice. In re ALEXANDER. Ex parte ALEXANDER — Costs. The costs of a trustee's application under s. 55 of the Bankruptcy Act 1883, to disclaim leaseholds, are costs of a "proceeding under the Act" which, as a general rule, are payable out of the estate. Where, therefore, the assets are under £200, such costs are taxable on the lower scale.

Borrowing Powers.

1. — In this case Stirling, J., held that a company formed with the object of selling and managing estates, &c., and making advances and loans, was a trading company, and as such had an implied power to borrow money to a reasonable extent, and that therefore an equitable mortgage of certain real estate, given by the directors to secure an advance to the company for the purpose of repaying a depositor, was valid. GENERAL AUCTION ESTATE AND MONETARY Co. v. SMITH [1891] W. N. 138; 3 Ch. 432

2. — Mortgage of Uncalled Capital—Winding-up "Assets." A mortgage given to two directors to indemnify them against promissory notes given by them to the company's bankers to secure overdrafts, and also against guarantees given by them to railway companies, held valid as to the overdrafts, but semble, not as to the guarantees:—Held also, in the construction of the memorandum, that "assets" included uncalled capital. In re PYLE WORKS (No. 2)

1. — Bill of Sale, Registration as—Priority over Execution Creditors.] Per C. A. On the true construction of the Bills of Sale Act, 1878, the mortgages or charges of any incorporated company, for the registration of which statutory provision has already been made by the Companies Clauses Act, 1845, or by the Companies Act, 1862, are not bills of sale within the scope of the Bills of Sale Act, 1878. Directors.

1. — Appointment—Subscribers of Memorandum.] A subscriber of the memorandum of a company incorporated without articles and therefore, under Table A of the Companies Act, 1862, convened a meeting of the subscribers to elect directors. No director had been appointed at two general meetings held previously, although certain persons had been acting as de facto directors. A majority of the subscribers elected six persons as directors:—Held, that their appointment was valid. Position of de facto directors, of the articles relating to the appointment of directors in Table A, considered. MORLEY BUILDING Co. v. BARRAS Stirling, J. [1891] W. N. 69; [1891] 3 Ch. 261

2. — Contract of Service.] A motion to restrain a person who, it was alleged, had accepted the office of chairman and director of the plaintiff company from acting as director of the defendant company refused, there being no contract, express or implied, that it would give his services to the plaintiff company. 3. — Liability.] In 1887, A. as a consideration for becoming a director took an undertaking from S. one of the promoters, that if it should at any time desire to part with its qualifying shares, S. would buy them at the price A. paid for them. In 1888 A. resigned his directorship, and S. accepted a transfer of his shares, and paid A. the original price of them. On the winding-up of the co. the C. Memorandum and Articles.

Sanction of Court to alteration of Memorandum under s. 1 of the Companies (Memorandum) Act, 1890.

1. — Difficulty in registration owing to the vacation—Penalty.] The company were unable owing to the Vacation to obtain an office copy of the order sanctioning the alteration within the fifteen days prescribed by the Act for delivery to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies. The Registrar refused to register:—Held, that the Registrar should register, although the Court could not compel him to do so; otherwise the company would be always "in default," and for ever liable to a daily penalty of £10.—In re CRICCIETH PIER AND HARBOUR Co. North, J. [1891] W. N. 15

2. — Boiler Insurance.] In this case the company sought to make extensive alterations in the memorandum, enabling them to combine other businesses of an independent though not of an unconnected character. Kekewich, J., required amongst other amendments (1) an alteration in the name of the company; (2) an undertaking that the extended powers should not be exercised until either the present policy holders had assented or their policies had expired. In re NATIONAL BOILER INSURANCE Co. - - - [1891] W. 3. — "Government" Securities.] Proposal to give a company, formed to invest in "Government" securities only, power to invest in securities generally. 4. — "Government" Securities.] A company formed for the purposes of investing moneys in Foreign, Colonial, or British Government or municipal securities was allowed to alter its business so as to be able to invest its funds in the securities of any company or corporation incorporated under Foreign, Colonial, or British law. The Court imposed a condition that the company should alter its name so as not to mislead creditors into the belief that it only invested in Government securities. In re FOREIGN AND COLONIAL GOVERNMENT TRUST Co. - - Stirling, J. [1891] W. N. 77; [1891] 2 Ch. 395

5. — Operations limited to India.] On confirming an alteration in the memorandum of association of a co., the effect of which was to enlarge the area of a co.'s operations, the Court imposed the condition that the name of the co. which indicated that its operations were limited to one country, must be altered so as no longer to contain such a suggestion. In re INDIAN MECHANICAL GOLD EXTRACTING Co. - - Romer, J. 7. — Company under Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856.] Where a company has been registered under the Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856, and not under any other Act, the Court has no jurisdiction to alter the memorandum. Romer, J., ordered the petition to stand over, with liberty to amend, so as to enable the company to register under the Act of 1862. In re GENERAL CREDIT Co. [1891] W. N. 153

Misrepresentation.

1. — Action of Deceit—Absence of Fraud.] Per C. A.:—The effect of Derry v. Peek (14 App. Cas. 337) is to settle once for all that an action against directors for negligent, as distinguished from fraudulent misrepresentation in a prospectus, cannot be maintained. Consequently, in this case, there being no fraud proved, but only gross carelessness, the appeal must be allowed, but without costs. In the absence of evidence that the engineers' reports were incorrect, quære whether the falsity of the statement that they were prepared for the directors was material. *ANGUS v. Reduction of Capital.

1. — Lost Capital—Preliminary Expenses.] Application to reduce capital by an amount representing (1) deficiency on insurance fund; (2) preliminary expenses. Refused, because (1) that in estimating the deficiency, the value of the goodwill had not been calculated; and (2) that the effect would be that preliminary expenses might be paid out of capital, and then written off by reducing the capital. Moreover, preliminary expenses were not capital lost or unrepresented by available assets. In re ABSTAINERS AND GENERAL INSURANCE Co. - - North, J. [1891] W. N. 64; [1891] 2 Ch. 124

2. — Part of Capital only.] The Court sanctioned a resolution reducing the ordinary shares without reducing the preference shares: Quære, whether the Court will sanction a reduction of part only of one class of capital. In re AGRICULTURAL HOTEL Co.

[Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 19

4. — Preference Shares—Payment off.] In pursuance of the terms of the articles, a sinking fund of 20 per cent. of the profits was set aside to pay off the preference shares. Application was then made to reduce the capital by the amount so paid:—Held, that this was a contract binding on both the ordinary and preference shareholders, and that the reduction as proposed did not involve a "payment to any shareholder of any paid-up capital," and was therefore permissible. No inquiry as to creditors ordered. In re DICIDO PIER Co. - Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 68; [1891] 2 Ch. 354

Registration.

1. — Certificate of Incorporation.] The certificate given by the registrar under s. 18 of the Companies Act, 1862, is not conclusive that all the requisitions of the Act as to incorporation have been complied with. Thus, if the certificate shew that seven persons signed the memorandum, whereas only six really signed, one subscriber signing twice in different names, the company was not properly incorporated, and therefore the Court has no jurisdiction to make a winding-up order. In this case the C. A. being satisfied that in fact seven persons signed, the winding-up order was made. In re NATIONAL DEBENTURE AND ASSETS CORPORATION - Kekewich, J. [1891] W. N. 38; C. A. 2. — Private Partnership.] A partnership formed, not for carrying on a business, but simply for the purpose of being incorporated under the Companies Act, 1862, in order that it may be forthwith wound up, cannot be registered as a joint stock company under Part VII. of that Act. Whether a partnership which is constituted solely by contract between the members is a company "duly constituted by law" under s. 180 of the Companies Act, 1862, so as to be registered under Part VII., quere. *REG. v. Shares.

1. — Surrender of Shares. A company may by special resolution vary its articles so as to give itself power to accept surrenders of old shares in exchange for new shares, in a case where the surrenders are made bona fide, and not so as to enable shareholders to escape liability. A company which by its memorandum of association has power to issue new shares with preferential rights, both as regards payment of dividends and repayment of capital, can give itself power to issue new shares with preferential rights to some of its ordinary shareholders, in consideration of their surrendering an equitable amount of their ordinary shares. EICHBAUM v. CITY OF CHICAGO GRAIN ELEVATORS, LD. Stirling, J. [1891] W. N. 166; [1891] 3 Ch. 469

2. — Transfer of Shares subsequent to Winding-up Order. In the case of a sale and transfer of shares in a company after a compulsory winding-up order, the transferee is not entitled to be registered as owner of the shares without the sanction of the Court; the Court has power to order the rectification of the register of members by the insertion of such transferee's name; but the exercise of that power is discretionary, and such an order ought not to be made except on strong grounds. In re ONWARD BUILDING SOCIETY [Q. B. Div. [1891] W. N. 124; [affirmed by C. A. [1891] W. N. 147; [both Courts [1891] 2 Q. B. 463

3. — Transfer — Priority — Equitable Claim. As between himself and a prior equitable claimant a transferee cannot claim the transferred shares unless he has acquired the full status of shareholder before the company receive notice of the prior equitable claim. To be a full shareholder in this sense the transferee must be registered, or have an immediate right to be registered. It is not sufficient to claim under a valid transfer if the company have still a right under their articles to delay or refuse registration. MOORE v. NORTH WESTERN BANK [Bomer, J. [1891] W. N. 71; [1891] 2 Ch. 599

4. — Certificate—Estoppel—Damages. A share certificate, issued by a company under their corporate seal, stating that the person named in it is the owner of a specified number of shares in the company, estops the company from afterwards denying his title to the shares; and, if the company are unable to give him the shares, they are liable in damages by reason of their statement. Semble, that in such a case an action against the company

COMPANY—WINDING-UP.

The winding-up notices from the Lond. Gaz. of each Friday and Tuesday are republished in the Weekly Notes of the following Saturday.

1. — Dissolution of Company—Subsequent Claim against Directors. Held, that a claim by creditors against the late directors, founded on payment of dividends out of capital, was, in the absence of fraud, barred by the winding-up. COXON v. GORST [Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 76; [1891] 2 Ch. 73

Arrangement Schemes.

— Dissentient Debenture-holders — Sanction of Court. The power given by the Joint Stock Companies Arrangement Act, 1870, s. 2, to sanction a scheme of arrangement between a company in liquidation and its creditors extends to debenture-holders and other secured creditors, and enables the Court to sanction a scheme, although it deprive debenture-holders of their security wholly or in part. Considerations for the Court before sanctioning such a scheme. In re ALABAMA, NEW ORLEANS, TEXAS & PACIFIC JUNCTION RAILWAY CO. - C. A. affirming North, J. [1891] 1 Ch. 213

Assets.

1. — Distribution of Surplus—Shares issued at Discount. A company issued unallotted old shares and some new shares at a discount of 70 per cent. For some time all the shares were treated pari passu, but on a voluntary winding-up:—Held, that the two classes of shares could not be treated on the same footing, and the surplus must first be applied in paying the original shareholders 70 per cent. per share. *In re WYMOUTH & CHANNEL ISLANDS STEAM PACKET CO. Contributory.

1. — Application for Shares—Real or Fictitious. The directors of a company agreed, in order to make it appear that all the shares were allotted, that they should apply for the unallotted shares, it being understood that no liability should attach to them in respect of such shares. Accordingly, A. applied for certain shares in the name of his son. The son was registered as shareholder, but no allotment or call was made:—Held, that this case must be governed by the law of contract, and, there being no contract to take the shares, that A.'s executors were not contributories. In re BRITANNIA FIRE INSURANCE ASSOCIATION. COVENTRY'S CASE - C. A. reversing Kay, J. [1891] 1 Ch. 303

2. — Balance Order—Action to enforce. The company, being unable to serve a balance order on the Defendant because he was out of the jurisdiction, brought an action for debt in respect of the same amount as that stated in the balance order, plus interest, and obtained leave to serve the writ out of the jurisdiction:—Held, that the action was maintainable as an action for debt, although it could not have been brought to enforce the balance order.—Per C. A. A balance order is not in the nature of a judgment, but is a mere summary order for the better getting in of a portion of the assets. The original right of action of the company for the calls is not merged in it or destroyed by it. WESTMORELAND GREEN AND BLUE SLATE CO. v. FIDLER [Kekewich, J. [1891] W. N. 59; affirmed by [C. A. [1891] W. N. 117; [1891] 3 Ch. 13

3. — Director's Qualification. Forty unpaid shares, being the number necessary for a director's qualification, were allotted to the plaintiff without his knowledge. The plaintiff acted as a director, and subsequently acquired forty paid-up shares:—Held, that the plaintiff, when he acted as a director, knew what was the qualification of a director, and yet had allowed more than a reasonable time to elapse without acquiring it. He must, therefore, be considered to have had notice that the shares registered in his name were the shares he had agreed to take when he acted as director, and he was liable for them as a contributory. *In re PORTUGUESE CONSOLIDATED COPPER MINES, LD. 4. — Paid-up Shareholder—Payment in Cash. In order that a transaction between a company and an allottee of shares may be equivalent to a "payment in cash" of the amount payable on the shares, there must be debts on each side which could be extinguished by cross payments, e.g., the company must owe the allottee money, and the allottee must have contracted to take the shares. *In re JOHANNESBURG HOTEL CO. 3. — Debenture-holders—Receiver.] As a general rule the liquidator of a company winding-up should be appointed receiver for the debenture-holders. But if the debenture-holders have appointed a receiver under a special power given them by their security, the Court will not displace him by the liquidator. In certain cases the Court will appoint a liquidator to act as manager and receiver of the business. In re JOSHUA STUBBS, LD. BARNBY v. JOSHUA STUBBS, LD.

5. — Restrictions on—Voluntary Winding-up.] The Court, although holding it had no power to appoint a committee of inspection to control the liquidator, yet, in virtue of the powers conferred by sect. 151 of the Companies Act, 1862, ordered the liquidator to obtain the sanction of a majority of persons named before acting in any important matter. 4. — Verdict against weight of evidence.] Although an appeal to the High Court lies, under sect. 120 of the County Courts Act, 1888, against an order of a County Court judge granting a new trial, on the ground that his decision is wrong in point of law, no such appeal lies where the order is made solely on the ground that the verdict is against the weight of evidence. *How v. 6. — Interlocutory Injunction.] The defendant in a libel action after losing the case continued to repeat the libels complained of. The plaintiff claimed an interlocutory injunction. 3. — Wife's Costs—Jury discharged without Verdict.] At the trial of a petition by a husband for dissolution the jury disagreed, and were discharged without giving a verdict. HURLEY* — Collins, J.

4. — Wife's Costs—Solicitor's Lien.] The C. A. has jurisdiction to order the husband's costs of an unsuccessful appeal by the wife to be paid out of money paid by him into Court to defray the wife's costs at the hearing. Such an order will not be made to the prejudice of the lien of the wife's solicitor, unless he has so conducted himself as to justify so strong a measure. The Court refused such an order, though the wife had indulged in a frivolous appeal. HALL v. HALL — [1891] P. 302

Cruelty.

1. — Delay.] In this case, the Court, without giving an opinion as to whether a long course of neglect and immorality involving great mental trouble on the wife, but without actual violence, amounted to legal cruelty:—Held, that a delay of twenty years, not satisfactorily explained, prevented the petitioner obtaining redress. *BEAUCLERK v. Desertion.

A husband and wife were living apart under a separation deed, by which the husband covenanted to make weekly payments to the wife. The husband having ceased to make the payments, the wife offered to resume cohabitation, but the husband refused to do so. The wife then applied for an order for maintenance under the Married Women's (Maintenance in Case of Desertion) Act, 1886:—Held, that, in order to constitute desertion within the Act, the parties must be living together as man and wife when the desertion takes place; that the husband's refusal of the wife's offer to resume cohabitation did not constitute desertion; and that there was therefore no evidence of desertion. *REG. v. Coercion.] According to the petitioner, the respondent threatened that he would blow his brains out if she refused to marry him there and then. Wife—Equity to Settlement.

Amount to be Settled—Two Funds—Assignment. Husband and wife assigned two reversionary interests and received the purchase money, and also, in spite of the assignment, one of the reversionary funds when it fell in. The wife did not claim her equity in either case, but when the second reversionary interest fell in she claimed to have it all settled on her and her children:—Held, by Kekewich, J., that as the husband had received half the wife's fortune, and the amount, £500, was small, the whole must be settled:—Held, by C. A., that although the assignment was nugatory, the Court should take into consideration the conduct of the wife.—On appeal, the order was varied by consent, and only half the amount settled. ROBERTS v. COOPER [Kekewich, J. [1891] W. N. 16; varied by C. A. [1891] W. N. 55; [1891] 2 Ch. 335

Joint Contractors—Res Judicata. The rule that judgment recovered against one of two joint contractors is a bar to an action against the other applies equally when one of the joint contractors is a married woman contracting in respect of her separate property. HOARE v. NIBLETT - Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 781

Wife—Policy of Assurance.

Life Assurance policy under s. 10 of the Married Women's Property Act, 1870. In 1877, A. insured his own life, and the policy declared that the funds of the company should be liable to the payment of the sum insured to the wife and children of the assured, pursuant to the provisions of the Married Women's Property Act, 1870. A. died in 1891, leaving a widow and children:—Held, by Chitty, J., that the widow and children took as joint tenants. In re DAVIES' POLICY TRUSTS - [1891] W. N. 181

Wife—Restraint on Anticipation.

1. — Costs—Suit without Next Friend. Where costs are ordered to be paid by a married woman, suing under the Married Women's Property Act, 1882, without a next friend, payment of them can be enforced against any separate property to which she is entitled, free from restraint on anticipation at the time when the order to pay costs is made. The restraint on anticipation ceases, as to any sums forming part of the income, so soon as they come into the trustees' hands:—Held, therefore, that the trustees could pay their costs out of arrears of income detained in their hands by an administration order. Cox v. BENNETT - C. A. [1891] 1 Ch. 617

2. — Widow. A. was sued after the death of her husband in respect of a liability incurred by her during coverture, and judgment was recovered against her limited to her separate property not subject to any restriction against anticipation:—Held, by the C. A., affirming Q. B. Div., that the removal by reason of her husband's death of the restraint on anticipation did not make property subject to such restriction liable. PELTON BROS. v. HARRISON - [1891] 2 Q. B. 492

3. — Widow. B., a married woman possessed of separate property not subject to any restraint on anticipation, entered into a covenant for payment of a sum of money. On an action on the covenant B., who had in the meantime become a widow, obtained leave to defend on payment of £500 into Court under O. xiv. Judgment having been given for the plaintiff, the C. A. held that he was entitled to have the £500 paid out to him forthwith. BIRD v. BARSTOW [1891] W. N. 175

Wife—Separate Property.

1. — Damages recovered—Tort to Wife. Held, that an amount awarded to a wife as damages for personal injuries was her separate property, and, consequently, a garnishee order attaching the money to answer a judgment debt of the husband, who had been a co-plaintiff in the action, was invalid. BEASLEY v. RONEY - Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 509

2. — Liability of Husband. A., by deed of gift, gave property to his wife for her "own proper use and benefit." The wife subsequently married the defendant, and after 1882, borrowed money of the plaintiff. She died intestate, and the plaintiff sued her husband, who had taken possession of the property: Held (1), that the property was separate property, and bound by the wife's contract; (2) that it passed to her husband jure mariti, and administration was unnecessary; (3) that the husband was liable to the extent of the property. SURMAN v. WHARTON [Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 491

3. — Validity of Charge. In order that a married woman may effectually charge her separate estate, she must have some separate estate at the date of the charge. If she have some separate estate at the time, the charge will affect after-acquired property, but not otherwise. Where in a will there are no words expressly giving a married woman income for her separate use, a subsequent restriction on alienation will not create a separate use by implication. A restraint on alienation or anticipation of income given to a woman is of no avail unless the income is given to her for her separate use. SROGDON v. LEE - C. A. [1891] W. N. 47; [1891] 1 Q. 1. — Effect of award of Partition under the Inclosure Acts, 1845–1878. Certain land had been by mistake included in the schedule to an application for partition, and an award made thereon in 1880. The defendants to an action brought by the representatives of the allottees for the recovery of this land had been in undisturbed possession thereof since 1851. Collins, J., held that the effect of a 105 of the Inclosure Act, 1845, was not to render awards of partition conclusive as to title, and that the award had been made without jurisdiction. JACOMB v. TURNER [1891] W. N. 177

2. — Right of way—Footway and bridle path.

Where an inclosure award had allotted a road fifteen feet wide as a footway and bridle path:—Held, that the public were entitled to use the whole width of the road, and not merely a part sufficient (i.e., 3½ feet) for the purposes of a footway and bridle path. *PULLIN v. 2. — "Necessaries"—Payment of Premium. A covenant entered into by an infant, with the consent of his guardian, that he would pay what was held to be a reasonable premium, if he were taught the business to which he was apprenticed, can be enforced as a "necessary" notwithstanding the infancy of the covenantor. *WALTER v. INFANT—Custody—continued.

1. — Guardianship—Religion.] Where an orphan, the child of a Protestant father and Roman Catholic mother, had been left without a guardian, the Court, considering only the welfare of the child, ordered her to be delivered to the mother's cousin, a Protestant, to be brought up as a Protestant, although the child had been, with the father's consent, baptized as a Roman Catholic. An antenuptial agreement as to the religion of the children is not binding on the father nor on the Court. In re VIOLET NEVIN (AN INFANT) [Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 19; affirmed by C. A. [1891] W. 2. — Illegitimate Child—Custody.] In determining who is entitled to have the custody and control over an illegitimate child, the Court, in exercising its jurisdiction with a view to the benefit of the child, will primarily consider the wishes of the mother. *REG. v. 2. — Maintenance.] A testator gave his residue, subject to certain annuities, to a class for life, contingently on their attaining twenty-one:—Held, that the surplus income could not be employed for the maintenance of infants, but belonged to such of the class as had attained twenty-one, and that sect. 43 of the Conveyancing Act, 1881, did not apply. In re JEFFEY. BURT v. ARNOLD [North, J. [1891] 1 Ch. 671

Settlement.

1. — After-acquired Property.] Held, that an infant, who had covenanted on her marriage to settle all after-acquired property of over £100, was bound to settle a legacy coming to her from her mother, the interest of the infant in her mother's will being at the time of her marriage "property in expectancy" within s. 1 of the Infants Settlement Act. *In re JOHNSON. 2. — Appointment—Death under 21.] In order to make a settlement on her marriage, an infant, with the sanction of the Court, exercised a general power of appointment. The infant died under age and without issue:—Held, that, not being tenant in tail, the appointment was good, notwithstanding death under age; that the infant by the appointment had, subject to the settlement, made the property her own, and that, on failure of the limitations in the settlement, it passed to her husband as her administrator.—*Infant Settlement Act, 1855, ss. 1, 2. No directions were given or applied for. After B. came of age she made a settlement of her property, giving a joint power of appointment to husband and wife in priority to the other trusts, and the marriage was arranged to take place without the consent of the Court:—Held, that A. would not be committing a contempt in marrying B., and that the Court had no jurisdiction to restrain the parties from marrying, or B. from disposing of her property as she pleased. *BOLTON v. INSURANCE (ACCIDENT).

Construction of Policy—"From."] "Claims for personal injury in respect of accidents caused by vehicles for twelve calendar months from Nov. 24, 1887" to the amount of £250 "in respect of any one accident." A tramcar was overturned, forty persons injured, and compensation to the amount of £833 claimed. The defendants said the overturning was one accident, and refused to pay more than £250:—Held, that "any one accident" meant "injury in respect of which a person claimed compensation," and the defendants were liable for the £833. "From" held to exclude Nov. 24, 1887, and to include Nov. 24, 1888, the day of the accident. *SOUTH STAFFORDSHIRE TRAMWAYS CO. v. SICKNESS AND ACCIDENT ASSURANCE ASSOCIATION C. A. & Div. Ct. INSURANCE (LIFE).

1. — Murder of Insured by Wife in whose favour Insurance had been effected.] Held, by C. A., that in such a case the policy was vested in the exors. of the insured, that the trust of the policy money created under the Married Women's Property Act, 1882, s. 11, in favour of the wife, became incapable of being performed, and neither the wife nor any one claiming through her could take any interest in the policy money; that there was thereupon a resulting trust in favour of the husband's estate; that no question of public policy arose as between the exors. of his wife and the insurance co.; and that the action was therefore maintainable by the exors. but not by the administrators of the wife's estate. CLEAVER v. MUTUAL RESERVE FIRE LIFE ASSOCIATION - [1891] W. N. 120

2. — Salvage Premiums—Reimbursement.] On an assignment of leaseholds, subject to a mortgage to an insurance company which was collaterally secured by a policy, it was agreed that the policy should belong to the vendor, who was to pay the premiums. This he failed to do, and the purchaser had to pay several premiums to prevent the mortgage being called in. The policy finally lapsed, but the insurance company ex gratia allowed the surrender value, which was less than the salvage premiums, and wrote the amount off the mortgage debt. The vendor claimed to have a lien on the leaseholds for the amount, and a declaration that he as surety stood in the place of the mortgagees of the policy. Claim dismissed. *TIPPETT v. The licence expired on Oct. 10, 1890, and on Jan. 3, 1891, the tenant made a second application under the same section for another licence to carry him on until Oct., 1891:—Held, that the justices had no jurisdiction to entertain a second application under the section. *REG. v. 2. — Breach of Covenant—Repairs—Measure of Damages. Per C. The fact that the incoming tenant has effected the repairs at his own cost will not deprive the lessor of his right to recover the full damages. JOYNER v. WEEKS Div. Ct. [1891] [W. The landlord claimed to re-enter:—Held, that the forgetfulness of the tenant's agent was not a "mistake" in respect of which the Court could grant equitable relief against forfeiture for breach of covenant. BARROW v. ISAACS & SONS [C. A. [1891] 1 Q. B. 417

3. — Relief against forfeiture—Under-lessee. Held, that the Court cannot relieve an underlessee of part of the demised premises from a forfeiture incurred for breach of covenant to repair contained in the head lease. BURT v. GRAY Mathew, J. [1891] 2 Q. B. 98

Compensation for Improvements—Charge on Holding. Under the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1883, the executors of a landlord, tenant for life, who have been compelled under the Act to pay compensation for improvements to an outgoing tenant, who had claimed compensation and whose tenancy had been determined before the death of the landlord, are entitled to a charge upon the holding in respect of the amount which they have so paid. *In re THE AGRICULTURAL HOLDINGS ACT, 1883. Mortgages.

Mortgage. A mortgagor let the mortgaged premises subsequently to the mortgage:—Held, by the C. A., affirming the Q. B. Div., that the mere fact of the tenant remaining in possession after notice to pay rent to the mortgagees was not evidence of an agreement that he should become tenant to the mortgagees. TOWERSON v. JACKSON [[1891] 2 Q. B. 484

Re-entry.

1. — Construction of Proviso. Proviso granting right of re-entry "if and whenever any one quarter's rent should be in arrear for twenty-one days and no sufficient distress could be found":—Held, that the landlord could enforce the proviso after levying a distress which was only sufficient to pay two out of the three quarters' rent owing. SHEPHERD v. BERGER - - - C. A. [1891] 1 Q. B. 597

2. — Forcible Entry—Landlord and Tenant. On a tenant refusing to quit after due notice, the justices issued a warrant ordering him to give up possession within twenty-one days. On the same day a builder began to remove the tiles of the house, preparatory to rebuilding, and in so doing damaged the tenant's furniture. The tenant sued for trespass and damage:—Held (1), that the landlord's common law right of entry was not suspended by the issuing of the possession warrant; (2) that the removal of the tiles did not amount to a forcible entry, and the tenant had no cause of action. JONES v. FOLEY - Div. Ct. [1891] W. N. 78; [[1891] 1 Q. B. 730

LANDS CLAUSES CONSOLIDATION ACTS.

Minerals—Apportionment of Compensation Moneys between Capital and Income. Minerals were bought by a railway and the proceeds paid into Court. The tenant for life claimed the whole sum or at least an apportioned part, on the ground that, being unimpeachable for waste, he might have gotten all the minerals in his lifetime:—Held, that as the case was governed by s. 69 of the Lands Clauses Act, 1845, there could be no apportionment of capital, and he was only entitled to the income. In re ROBINSON'S SETTLEMENT TRUSTS - Chitty, J. 2. — Obstruction—Mandatory Injunction—Pulling Down.] After service of writ the defendant hurried on with his buildings in the hope that when once up the Court might decline to order them to be pulled down. The Court, without entering into the merits of the case, ordered the wall to be pulled down, being satisfied that the plaintiff would have been entitled to an injunction for the purpose of keeping matters in statu quo. CRUMBLE v. WALLSEND LOCAL BOARD - C. A. [1891] 1 Q. B. 508

2. — Cause of Action.] The plff. lent money to the deft. in 1880 under an agreement, which recited an agreement for a loan for five years, "subject to the power to call in the same at an earlier period in the events hereinafter mentioned." The deft. agreed to pay interest, and the plff. not to call in the money for five years if the deft. should regularly pay interest. It was provided that if deft. should make default in any quarterly payment of interest for twenty-one days the plff. might call in the principal. No interest was ever paid. The plff. commenced his action within six years from the end of 1885:—Held, by C. A., that the Statute of Limitations was a good defence, for that the time began to run from the earliest time at which the plff. could have brought his action—i.e., twenty-one days after the first instalment of interest became due. 4. — Time, when beginning to run.] A lease belonging to plaintiff was fraudulently deposited with B., and, when B. became bankrupt, it was assigned to the defendant. Both B. and the defendant were ignorant of the fraud:—Held, that the statute began to run when the plaintiff had a complete cause of action against the defendant, i.e. when he demanded the deeds and was refused them, and not from the receipt of the deeds by B.:—Quere, whether, in any case, B.'s receipt was sufficient evidence of conversion by him. 2. — Charges for Sewering, &c., Roads—Apportionment—Appeal.] If the local authority include in their "charge" legal and other expenses and costs of collection, as well as the actual cost of sewerage and paving, the only remedy for a complaint is by appeal to the Local Government Board under sect. 268 of the Public Health Act, 1875. WALTHAMSTOW LOCAL BOARD v. STAINES [C. A. [1891] W. N. 92; [1891] 2 Ch. 606

3. — Charge upon Premises for Paving.] The owner of land having neglected to comply with a levelling and paving notice, the sanitary authority did the work themselves, and claimed a charge on the land therefor, and that the land should be sold to defray such charge freed from a restrictive covenant to which it was subject, restraining the owners thereof from erecting buildings thereon so as to obstruct the view from adjoining houses:—Held, by the C. A. (reversing Stirling, J., 45 Ch. D. 583), that there was nothing in the Public Health Act, 1875, which enabled the land to be freed from the covenant. GUARDIANS OF TENDRING UNION v. 5. — Payment of Debts—Delay.] The plaintiff sought to obtain payment of a debt incurred in 1855 (costs in an action) by writ of elegit on property of defendants. Motion to discharge.—Writ refused until after the sheriff had made his return, the Court holding that although neither present nor future rates were available for the payment of a past debt, the defendants might have property which would be available for the purpose. LORD JERSEY v. UXBRIDGE UNION RURAL SANITARY AUTHORITY (No. 1) Stirling, J. [1891] W. N. [31

6. — Payment of Debts—General Expenses—Liability of Contributory Place—Elegit.] The plaintiff to recover costs obtained by him in an action against the defendants sued out a writ of elegit. The sheriff found that the only lands which the defendant possessed were some sewage works which had been bought for a contributory place:—Held, that all proceedings must be stayed, for the sewage works could only be taken for judgment debts exclusively chargeable against the contributory place, and not for "general expenses" of the sanitary district such as were the costs in question. LORD JERSEY v. UXBRIDGE UNION RURAL SANITARY AUTHORITY (No. 2) [Stirling, J. [1891] W. N. 113; [1891] 3 Ch. 183

7. — Sewers—Connection—No Notice.] Injunction granted to restrain local board from disconnecting the sewers of the plaintiffs from their main sewer on the ground of infringement of a bye-law, the Court holding that the bye-law, which required notice of intention to connect, was not binding on the plaintiffs, who had acted strictly in accordance with s. 21 of the Public Health Act, 1875. AINLEY, SONS & Co. v. KIRKHEATON LOCAL BOARD [Stirling, J. [1891] W. N. 50

8. — Streets.] An Order of the Local Government Board declaring a road to be a street is not conclusive that such road is a street. In this case, however, the road was held to be a street. FENWICK v. RURAL SANITARY AUTHORITY OF CROYDON UNION [Cave and Charles, JJ. [1891] 2 Q. B. 216

9. — Street.] In this case ways communicating with the backs of houses, and used for obtaining access to privies and ashpits, were held to be streets. An urban authority has, therefore, power to make bye-laws with respect to the width and construction of such ways. REG. v. LOCAL BOARD OF GOOLE [Day and Lawrence, JJ. [1891] 2 Q. B. 212

10. — Urban Authority, Powers of—Street—Area of User—Electric Lighting.] Injunction to restrain defendant, who claimed as owner of the sub-soil of half the road, from interfering with poles and electric wires:—Held, that assuming the defendant was owner of half the soil, yet the road being a "street" within s. 141 of the Public Health Act, 1875, the local board were entitled to more than the surface. They had further an "area of user" necessary for the exercise of their statutory powers, e.g., of lighting their district. 11. — Water Supply. The defendants were restrained from providing an independent water supply for their district (1) because of a statutory agreement; (2) because the plaintiffs, who had acquired the undertaking of the local water company, and who could use surplus profits in reduction of rates, were a "water company within the defendants' district desirous and able to afford the necessary supply" within s. 52 of the Public Health Act, 1875. On appeal, the Court affirmed North, J., on the agreement, but gave no opinion on the second point. WOLVERHAMPTON CORPORATION v. BILSTON COMMISSIONERS Metropolis Management.

By 54 & 55 Vict. c. 76, the laws as to public health were consolidated and amended.

2. — Line of Buildings—Special Act. Held, that the provisions of the appellants' special Act, relating to their powers for erecting stations, were inconsistent with those of s. 75 of the Management Act, 1862, and so far repealed that section. No appeal was brought against the totals of the lists, and no alteration in those totals was made by quarter sessions. Held, by the Div. MINES AND MINERALS.

1. — Compensation for not Working—Special remedy.] Where an Act consolidating the provisions of various Acts relative to canal navigation in Trent and Mersey districts, directs that questions relating to compensation for not working mines shall be tried before a justice of assize:—Held, that the Chancery Division has no jurisdiction to try the action. HANLEY AND BUCKNALL COAL CO. v. NORTH STAFFORDSHIRE RAILWAY CO. [Eckewich, J. [1891] W. N. 93

2. — Compensation for not Working—Prospective Injury.] Although mines are "lands" within s. 6, the relations of mine-owners and waterworks undertakers are specially governed by s. 18 and the following sections of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, so that a mine-owner cannot claim against a waterworks undertaking compensation for prospective injury, which may be caused by his not being able at some future date to work his mine to its utmost. He must wait for compensation until the injury arise. HOLLIDAY v. CORPORATION OF WAKEFIELD C. A. 20 Q. B. D. 699; [affirmed by H. L. (E.) 1891]; A. C. 81

3. — Construction of Deed—License to work Minerals. Lord Mountjoy's Case (Godb. 17; Anderson, 307) does not decide that a license to dig coal cannot be exclusive, and although there is a prima facie presumption against such a license being exclusive, the intention to exclude the grantor need not appear by express words. DUKE OF SUTHERLAND v. HEATHCOTE v. Williams, J. [1891] 3 Ch. 504

4. — Royal Mine—Gold Mine. The Crown has its prerogative right to gold mines, notwithstanding that the gold is mingled with other minerals. Per North, J.: The Crown cannot be called upon to exercise its right of pre-emption until the ore has been cleaned and ready for sale. ATTORNEY-GENERAL v. MORGAN - North, J. [1890] W. N. 175; [affirmed by C. A. 1891] W. N. 7; [1891] 1 Ch. 432

5. — Wages—Deductions. B. was employed in the defts.' collieries to cut large coal at wages which depended on the weight gotten. The coal was cut as large coal, but a considerable amount of small coal was produced in the conveyance of the coal to the pit's mouth and screening it. The coal raised was screened at the pit's mouth, and the defts. made deductions from the plff.'s wages in respect of the small coal found in it. The plffs. sued the defts. for the amounts so deducted:—Held, affirming the decision of the Divisional Court, that the small coal was part of "the mineral contracted to be gotten" within s. 12, sub-s. 1, of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1887, and that the deductions were illegal, and the plffs. were therefore entitled to recover:—Held, also, that the sums allowed for the small coal were to be at the same rate as that paid for the large coal. Nethersea Colliery Co. v. Bourne (14 App. Cas. 228) followed. BRACE v. ABERCARN COLLIERY CO. HUGGINS v. LONDON AND SOUTH WALES COLLIERY CO. - Div. Ct. [1891] W. N. 26; [1891] 1 Q. B. 496; affirmed by C. A. [1891] W. N. 136; [1891] 2 Q. B. 699

6. — "Working Shaft." Held, that a shaft is a "working shaft" within the meaning of the Metalliferous Mines Act, 1872, so as to require guides, when it is being used by workmen for the purposes of the mine, even though the minerals are not yet gotten. FOSTER v. NORTH HENDRE MINING CO., LD. [Div. Ct. 1891] 1 Q. B. 71

1. — Repayment—Supposed Owner—Intention to keep Mortgage alive. An owner in fee of a mortgaged estate paid off the mortgage, and took as to five-sixths thereof a reconveyance to himself in fee, and as to one-sixth a transfer of the mortgagee's security. A suit to set aside a sale to him of the transferred one-sixth was then pending, and ultimately succeeded:—Held, that an intention to keep the mortgage alive must be presumed. In re PRIDE. SHACKELL v. COLNETT [Stirling, J. 1891] W. N. 70; [1891] 2 Ch. 135

2. — Validity—Salary of Workhouse Chaplain. A chaplain of a workhouse mortgaged his salary and afterwards became bankrupt:—Held (1) that the mortgage was not void as against public policy, for a clergyman with a cure of souls is not a public officer unless his salary be paid out of national funds; and, in this case the salary was paid out of local rates: (2) That the salary, subject to the charge, vested in the trustee in bankruptcy. In re MIRAMS - Cave, J. [1891] W. Foreclosure Practice.

1. — Default of Appearance—Filing Order for Revivor. Order LXVII., r. 4, applies to an order of revivor, and therefore the filing of it in a case where the defendant has entered no appearance is sufficient. JACKSON v. KILHAM [Kekewich, J. 1891] W. N. 171

2. — Non-payment—Affidavit of. Foreclosure absolute granted on production to the registrar of affidavits by agent of one plaintiff and by the other plaintiff who was travelling abroad that no payment had been made in respect of the mortgage debt. The defendant did not appear. DOCKREY v. ELSE [North, J. 1891] W. N. 65

3. — Possession—Transfer of Consols—Charging Order on Stock. Acting by analogy to cases where delivery of possession of real estate had been ordered with the order for foreclosure absolute, though the order nisi did not provide for such delivery, and there had been no claim for delivery, the Court ordered a transfer of Consols, although the transfer had not been claimed or provided for by the order nisi. RICKETTS v. If the description be not in the order nisi, it should be added to the order absolute if it proceed to order delivery of possession. THYNE v. SABL - North J. [1891] W. N. 35; [1891] 2 Ch. 79

5. — Receipt of Rents after Day fixed for Redemption. When a mortgagee receives rents after default is made in payment of the principal and interest on the day fixed for redemption, but before the affidavit of such default is sworn, an order for final foreclosure will nevertheless be granted without any further account. NATIONAL PERMANENT MUTUAL BENEFIT BUILDING SOCIETY v. RAFFA [Chitty, J. 1891] W. N. 111

6. — Receiver and Manager—Mortgage of hotel by the hotel keeper. In a case where a building agreement was mortgaged, the Court in a foreclosure action appointed a receiver, but refused to appoint the receiver manager of the business carried on on the mortgaged premises. WHITLEY v. CHALLIS [C. A. 1891] W. N. 199

7. — Reopening Foreclosure. Where the value of the mortgaged property, a policy of insurance, had increased by the death of person insured after the last day appointed for payment, but before foreclosure absolute, the Court ordered the foreclosure to be reopened with subsequent accounts and a fresh period for redemption. BEATON v. BOULTON [Stirling, J. 1891] W. N. 99

8. — Representative of Deceased Insolvent. After order nisi and certificate, the mortgagee died insolvent and without representative. An order was obtained appointing the mortgagor's brother his representative for the action, and an application was made for foreclosure absolute:—Held, that the estate was not sufficiently before the Court, and order was refused. AYLWARD v. LEWIS North, J. [1891] W. N. 36; [1891] 2 Ch. 61

Interest.

Right to Six Months' Interest in lieu of Notice. It is a settled rule that after default in payment of the mortgage money in accordance with the terms of the deed, the mortgagee must give the mortgagee six calendar months' notice of his intention to pay him off, or must pay him six months' interest. If the mortgagee has demanded payment or taken steps to compel payment no notice is required, but there is no other exception to the above rule founded on the nature of the mortgaged property. SMITH v. SMITH - Romer, J. [1891] W. N. 161; [1891] 3 Ch. 569

Priorities.

Getting in Legal Estate—Negligence. A. having purchased an estate, granted two mortgages of the same—(1) to the plaintiff by forged deeds, and (2) to the defendants by true deeds. A. absconded, and the defendants discovered the forgery, and also that the legal estate was not in A., as A. believed, but was then and at the time when A. purchased, in the mortgagees of A.'s vendors. The defendants induced these mortgagees to convey the legal estate to the vendors on condition that they in turn conveyed it to the defendants:—Held, that the legal estate thus acquired gave the defendants priority over the plaintiff. Cases considered in which the acquisition of the legal estate will give a subsequent innocent equitable mortgagee priority over a prior equitable mortgagee. TAYLOR v. RUSSELL

Master and Servant.

1. — Common Employment. In an action to recover damages for injury caused by the negligence of the deft.'s servant, the defence of common employment is not applicable unless the injured person and the servant whose negligence caused the injury were not only engaged in a common employment, but were in the services of a common master. *JOHNSON v. 2. — Volenti non fit injuria. When a workman engaged in an employment not in itself dangerous is exposed to danger arising from an operation in another department over which he has no control—the danger being created or enhanced by the negligence of the employer—the mere fact that he undertakes or continues in such employment with full knowledge and understanding of the danger is not conclusive to show that he has undertaken the risk so as to make the maxim "Volenti non fit injuria" applicable in case of injury. The question whether or no he has so undertaken the risk is one of fact and not of law. And this is so both at Common Law and in cases arising under the Employer's Liability Act, 1880. *SMITH v. Infringement.

1. — County Court Jurisdiction. The right or privilege granted by letters patent for a new invention is a "franchise" within the meaning of sect. 56 of the County Courts Act, 1888, and, therefore, an action in which the validity of a patent comes in question is excluded from the jurisdiction of the County Court. REG. v. JUDGE OF THE HALIFAX COUNTY COURT Div. Ct. [1891] W. N. 87; [1891] 1 Q. B. 793; affirmed by C. A. [1891] W. N. 111; [1891] 2 Q. B. 263

3. — Threats of Legal Proceedings—Equitable Assignees. The registered owner of a patent commenced an action against the plaintiffs for infringement. Defendants, who had an agreement with the registered owner that he should assign the patent to them, threatened a customer of the plaintiffs with proceedings for an alleged infringement of the patent, but took no steps themselves against the plaintiffs:—Held, they must be restrained, because they had no legal rights in the patent, and, if they had, they themselves had not taken action to restrain the infringements. KEN-SINGTON AND KNIGHTSBRIDGE ELECTRIC LIGHTING CO. v. POWER OF APPOINTMENT.

1. — Condition precedent—Act of God.] A father appointed a fund to his daughter on condition that she married with his consent. [North, J. [1891] W. N. 76

2. — Exercise by Will—Revocation and New Appointment.] When a general power of appointment of real estate by deed or will has been completely exercised by deed, a power of revocation and new appointment being at the same time reserved, a general devise of real estate by the subsequent will of the donee of the power will not per se amount, by virtue of sect. 27 of the Wills Act, to an exercise of the power of revocation and new appointment. *In re BRACE. 3. — General or limited.] Held, in this case, by Kekewich, J., that a power to appoint to any persons "not being her said present husband or any friend or relative of his" was not a power "to appoint in any manner" the testatrix might "think proper" within s. 27 of the Wills Act; consequently a general devise was not an exercise of the power:—Held, further, that a reservation in a mortgage of the subject-matter of the power by the donee thereof of the equity of redemption to the donee, her heirs, &c., or as she or they should direct, instead of to the uses of the settlement conferring the power, did not get rid of the original power. Same, a power of appointment by deed or will in favour of any person "except A." may become a general power through A. being dead at the time the power is exercised, and thus be exercisable by a general devise under sect. 27 of the Wills Act. *In re BYRON'S SETTLEMENT. Appeals from County Courts.

1. — Extension of Time. No distinction or practice ought to be recognised as governing the exercise of the discretion vested in the Court between applications for extension of time made previous to the trial and applications made after judgment. CUSACK v. LONDON AND NORTH WESTERN RAILWAY CO.

[C. A. [1891] 1 Q. B. 347

2. — Point not raised at Trial. Under s. 120 and the following clauses of the County Courts Act, 1888, there is no right of appeal from a county court, except upon a question of law raised and submitted to the county court judge at the trial. SMITH v. BAKER & OSS - H. L. (E.) [1891] A. C. 325

3. — Service. The notice of motion referred to in Order LIX., r. 12, must be served on the respondent's solicitors within the twenty-one days prescribed; service on the London agents is not sufficient. POWELL v. THOMAS - Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 97

Appeals to Court of Appeal.

1. — Jurisdiction—Corrupt Practices—Municipal Election. There is no appeal from a decision of the High Court under the Corrupt Practices (Municipal Elections) Act, 1872, except by special leave of that Court. NWIN v. McMULLEN - Div. Ct. [1891] W. N. 62 [1891] 1 Q. B. 694

PRACTICE—APPEAL—Appeals to Court of Appeal—continued.

2. — Jurisdiction—County Council. The jurisdiction of the High Court, upon questions submitted to them under s. 23 of the Local Government Act, 1888, is consultative only, and is not judicial. Consequently no appeal lies from their decision. Ex parte COUNTY COUNCIL OF KENT AND THE COUNCILS OF THE BOBOUGHS OF DOVER AND SANDWICH (No. 1) [C. A. [1891] W. N. 84; [1891] 1 Q. B. 725

3. — Jurisdiction—Criminal Proceedings—Company. An application to a magistrate for a summons against a company, to recover penalties for default in forwarding a list of its members to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies as required by s. 26 of the Companies Act, 1862, is a criminal proceeding.

Therefore, the judgment of the Q. B. Div. on an application for a mandamus directing the magistrate to hear the summons is a judgment in a "criminal cause or matter" within s. 47 of the Judicature Act, 1873, and no appeal lies therefrom to the Court of Appeal. REG. v. TYLER AND INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL CO. - C. A. [1891] 2 Q. B. 588

4. — Jurisdiction—Criminal Proceedings—Libel. An order giving liberty to commence a criminal prosecution under the Law of Libel Amendment Act, 1888, s. 8, for a newspaper libel is an order made in a criminal proceeding. Therefore no appeal lies therefrom. Ex parte PULBROCK. G. A. [1891] W. N. 184

5. — Jurisdiction—Criminal Proceedings—Nuisance. The Q. B. Div. refused to grant an order nisi for a mandamus to compel a stipendiary magistrate who had made an order, under s. 96 of the Public Health Act, 1875, for the abatement of a nuisance, to state a case for the opinion of the Court:—Held, that the decision of the Q. B. Div. was given in a "criminal cause or matter" within s. 47 of the Judicature Act, 1873, and therefore that the C. A. had no jurisdiction to entertain the application for a mandamus. Ex parte SCHOFIELD - C. A. [1891] W. N. 127; [1891] 2 Q. B. 428

6. — Habeas Corpus—Infant. An appeal lies from an order of the Q. B. Div. directing an issue of a writ of habeas corpus to bring before the Court an infant in order to determine who is to have the custody and control of the infant. REG. v. BARNARDO. JONES' CASE - C. A. [1891] 1 Q. B. 194; affirmed [by H. L. (E.)] [1891] W. N. 156; [1891] A. C. 388

7. — New Trials—Entering Judgment. The Court of Appeal has jurisdiction, on a motion for a new trial under the Judicature Act, 1890, to direct judgment to be entered for either party instead of ordering a new trial. ALLCOCK v. HALL [C. A. [1891] 1 Q. B. 444

8. — Time for Appealing—Final or Interlocutory Order. On a point of law being raised that the statement of claim disclosed no cause of action, the Court dismissed the action with costs. The plaintiffs gave four days of appeal as from an interlocutory order:—Held, they were right, because this was a proceeding which if given in favour of the plaintiffs would have allowed the action to go on, whereas a final order is one that so long as it stands will decide the action whichever way it may be given. SALAMAN v. WARNER [C. A. [1891] W. N. 91; [1891] 1 Q. B. 734

9. — Time for Appealing—Interpleader Issue. An appeal from the decision of a judge on an interpleader issue tried by him without a jury must, under O. LVIII., r. 15, be brought within twenty-one days. McNAIR & CO. v. AUDENSHAW PAINT AND COLOUR CO. [C. A. [1891] W. N. 157; [1891] 2 Q. B. 503

10. — Under-sheriff and Jury, Trial before. Where there has been a trial before the under-sheriff and a jury in a cause which is a cause in the High Court, if fault be found with the verdict of the jury, the case must come on appeal to the C. A., and not go to a Div. Court. Per C. A. in WILLIAM RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER CO. v. LEATBEK [1891] W. N. 180

Appeals to House of Lords.

Time, Extension of. No appeal lies from a refusal of the Court of Appeal to give leave to appeal where the time limited by Order LVIII., r. 15, has expired. Such a refusal is not an order or judgment of the Court of Appeal within the meaning of s. 3 of the Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1876. ESDAILE v. PAYNE (40 Ch. D. 520) affirmed by H. L. sub nom. LANE v. ESDAILE [1891] W. N. 90; [1891] A. C. 210

Appeals from Justices.

1. — Case Stated—Jurisdiction—Notice. The Court has no jurisdiction to hear an appeal by way of case stated, under 20 & 21 Vict. c. 43, s. 2, unless the appellant has given the respondent a notice in writing of the appeal, together with a copy of the case, before transmitting the case to the Court. EDWARDS v. ROBERTS - Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 303

2. — Case stated—Service. It is necessary that all the justices who may have heard the case, be served with the written notice requiring them to state a special case. Service on those who signed the decision (in this case two out of the five justices), is not sufficient. If the statute be not strictly complied with, the Court has no jurisdiction to hear the appeal, notwithstanding that the respondent is willing to waive the informality. Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1879. WESTMORE v. PAINE - Div. Ct. [1891] W. N. 10; [1891] 1 Q. B. 483

Appeals from Official Referee.

New Trials. Appeals from an official referee must go to a Divisional Court. The Judicature Act, 1890, s. 1, only applies to motions for new trials in cases tried with a jury. GOWER v. TOBITT. C. A. [1891] W. N. 6

PRACTICE—ATTACHMENT AND COMMITTAL.

1. — Service of Motion to Commit. Notice of motion to commit a deft. must be served upon him personally if practicable, service upon his solicitor being insufficient; and the Court will not make an order for substituted service until it is satisfied that every endeavour has been made to effect personal service. Mere knowledge on the part of the deft. of the pliff's intention to move to commit does not dispense with the necessity of endeavouring to effect personal service; and the appearance of the deff. upon the motion is not a waiver of any objection on his part on the ground either of want of personal service or of any irregularity. *MANDER v. 2. — Validity—Priority.] The effect of a charging order made by a Judge in favour of a judgment creditor under 1 & 2 Vict. c. 110, does not depend upon the capacity of the judgment debtor to give a valid charge, but upon the validity of the judgment:—Held, therefore, that the judgment creditors of a lunatic, who had obtained charging orders on a fund in Court, had a valid charge on the fund in priority to the claims of the lunatic's administratrix. In re LEAVESLEY

[O. LXV. relates to costs.]

1. — Copyright Infringement.] Where an author claimed and recovered four penalties of 40s. each for four infringements of his dramatic copyright:—Held, that although he was not entitled to costs, having recovered less than £10 in an action of tort (s. 116 County Court Acts, 1888), yet he might have his costs taxed on the footing of obtaining a full indemnity under 5 & 6 Vict. c. 97, s. 2. Per C. A. The question of costs was governed by the special statute. The Judicature Act and Rules do not overrule the provisions of special statutes granting special costs in particular cases. *REEVE v. The plaintiffs gave B. an order which was remitted by him to Glasgow, and duly approved. In an action for breach of that contract, the plaintiffs obtained the issue of a writ for service within the jurisdiction which was served upon B. at his city office under Order XLVIII. A., r. 3. Claim by vendor for balance of purchase-money on the grounds that he had shewn, or was ready to shew, a good title, and was willing to convey.—Held, that, as there was no averment that the purchaser had accepted the title, the writ could not be specially indorsed under Order III, r. 6. *LEADER v. Devise in Trust—Failure of Beneficiaries.
Question which of two trustees under different wills was entitled to devised property on failure of the beneficiaries:—Held, that the acting trustee of the original will who had the legal estate was entitled to hold the property against the trustee of the will of a beneficiary, on the ground that the latter trustee was a bare trustee with no duties to perform, and accordingly had no right to call for the conveyance of the legal estate. In re LASH-

- RESTRAINT OF TRADE.
1. — Dealings with old Customers. Held, by C. A., that an agreement not to deal with the customers of the plaintiff was properly construed by Chitty, J., to mean a restriction on transacting business with such customers of a kind similar to that carried on by the plaintiff; that this was not a greater restraint than was necessary for the protection of the employers, and therefore that the agreement was valid. MILLS v. DUNHAM - Chitty, J.

2. — Reasonableness - Severing Covenant.
The principles on which the Court decides whether a covenant in restraint of trade be reasonable, considered. In this case the Court granted an injunction to restrain the defendant from infringing so much of the covenant

PERSONAL PROPERTY.
By a marriage settlement H. transferred personal property to trustees upon trusts, the ultimate trust being for such persons as she might appoint. The earlier trusts having failed, she by deed appointed the property to her niece:—Held, by Denman and Wills, J.J., that the property so appointed was property
"passing under" the marriage settlement, that the settlement and deed of appointment constituted a voluntary settlement whereby a life interest was reserved to the vendor within
s. 38 of 44 & 45 Vict. c. 12, as amended by 52 & 53 Vict. c. 7, s. 11, and that duty was therefore payable. ATTORNEY-GENERAL v.

REVENUE—INCOME TAX.

1. — Allowances—Charitable Purposes.] In a case where an allowance which ought to be granted is refused, mandamus lies to the Commissioners commanding them to grant the allowance and to give a certificate of the allowance with an order for the payment thereof:—Held by the H. L. (E.), Lord Halsbury, L. C., and Lord Bramwell dissenting, that the words "charitable purposes" in the Act were not restricted to the meaning of relief from poverty, but must be construed according to the legal and technical meaning given to them by English law and by legislation applicable to Scotland and Ireland as well as England. Therefore the allowance ought to be granted as to so much of a trust as applied to missionary establishments. *Income Tax Act, 1842, s. 61, Sch. A. r. No. 6. COMMRS. 3. — Deductions—Husband and Wife.] Where husband and wife were master and mistress of a National School at a joint salary:—Held, that the husband's income-tax was properly assessed on the whole salary. Held, also, that a deduction for the wages of a servant, who had been engaged to enable the wife to teach, could not be allowed. Costs in cases where Commissioners have allowed a deduction against which the Crown successfully appeals, considered. BOWERS v. HARDING - Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 560

4. — Deductions—Trade Purposes.] Claim by a corporation to deduct expenses of lighting their town from profits made by sale of surplus gas to private customers as being money expended for the purposes of a trade:—Held, that the two transactions were distinct, and that there was no "trade" expenses until they began to supply private customers. Claim disallowed. DILLON v. CORPORATION OF HAVERFORDWEST Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 575

Exemption—Charity—Self-supporting Hospital.] A lunatic asylum supported chiefly by charitable endowments and subscriptions was managed so that in one particular year the payments by private patients and the sale of farm produce paid all the expenditure:—Held, that the asylum was a hospital maintained by charity, and was not to be considered as wholly self-supporting because in one year it paid its way without having recourse to charity. *CAWSE v. SETTLED LAND.
1. — Costs of attempted Sale—Charge on Land.] A tenant for life of lands comprised in a settlement and of other lands devised and similarly settled by will, tried ineffectually to sell the whole property, and incurred costs:—Held, that these costs could be paid out of capital moneys in the hands of the trustees of the settlement, so far as there were funds available; and (2) that the balance being a "charge" on the settled lands could be paid by the trustees of the will under their power to discharge any charge affecting hereditaments devised by the will or any hereditaments similarly settled. In re SMITH'S SETTLED ESTATES [Kekewich, J. [1891] W. N. 96; [1891] 3 Ch. 65

2. — Dispensing with Concurrence of unborn Child.] Testator's widow was enceinte; should a male child be borne he would be one of testator's heirs in gavelkind, and as such would have an interest in freshhold property in Kent as to which it was doubtful whether or no testator had died intestate. It being desired to lease the property, Kekewich, J., dispensed with notice to the unborn child. In re RAYNER'S SETTLED ESTATES [1891] W. N. 152

3. — Improvements.] Held, that capital moneys, arising from a devise of real estate to the uses of a settlement, could be used for improvements on the settled land, without first investing the moneys in land and then selling it again; the will and the settlement forming one "settlement" within the meaning of the Settled Land Act, 1882. 4. — Insolvent Tenant for Life.] The C. A. reversing Stirling, J., sanctioned the sale of the principal mansion house in a case where the tenant for life was insolvent, the sale being opposed by one of the trustees, and the next remainderman being in a position to keep up the estate.

SETTLEMENT.
Construction.

1. — By an ante-nuptial agreement, followed by a covenant in a post-nuptial settlement, C. agreed to settle all after-acquired property coming to him under his mother's will. Under the trusts of the settlement the wife was to have the first life interest in the settled funds. His mother under a power appointed to him a life interest determinable on alienation in a certain fund. Held, by North, J., that the agreement did not extend to this life interest, and that there had therefore been no forfeiture. In re CRAWSHAY. WALKER v. CRAWSHAY - [1891] W. N. 128; [1891] 3 Ch. 176

2. — Hotchpot—Valuation of Life Interest.] Held, that life interests must be brought into hotchpot and valued. The value must be calculated, not by reference to the duration of the interests, but by an actuarial valuation of them at the time when they first took effect; i.e., at the death of the settlor. In re HEATHCOTE. TRENCH v. HEATHCOTE [Kekewich, J. [1891] W. N. 10

3. — Marriage Settlement—Rights of Volunteers.] A limitation in a marriage settlement in favour of an illegitimate child of the settlor may be defeated, as a limitation in favour of a volunteer, by a subsequent conveyance to a purchaser for value, unless such a result would defeat other limitations within the marriage settlement. DE MESTRE v. WEST [J. C. [1891] A. C. 264

4. — Portions—"Elders Son."] The question in this case was which of two sons, G. or C., was to be considered as an "eldest son," and as such excluded from a share in a portions fund under a marriage settlement. 5. — Separate Use—Annuity.] Covenant by husband in a separation deed to pay annuity for wife's separate use during joint lives. The annuity was in arrear on the death of husband:—Held, that the separate use came to an end on death of husband and did not bind the arrears. STROGDON v. LEE

[C. A. [1891] W. N. 47; [1891] 1 Q. B. 661

6. — Voluntary Statement, whether complete.] The settlor assigned certain debts secured on bills of sale (but not the bills of sale or the goods secured) to trustees, with power to sue, upon trust to sell and convert the trust property, &c., for the benefit of third parties. Afterwards the settlor received payment of the assigned debts:—Held, that the assignment of the debts was complete, and the trustees were entitled to prove against the estate of the settlor for the moneys received by him. In re PATRICK. BILLS v. Equity to Settlement.

— Amount to be Settled—Two Funds—Assignment.] Husband and wife assigned two reversionary interests and received the purchase money, and also, in spite of the assignment, one of the reversionary funds when it fell in. The wife did not claim her equity in either case, but when the second reversionary interest fell in she claimed to have it all settled on her and her children:—Held, by Kekewich, J., that as the husband had received half the wife's fortune, and the amount, £500, was small, the whole must be settled:—Held, by C. A., that although the assignment was nugatory the Court should take into consideration the conduct of the wife.—On appeal, the order was varied by consent, and only half the amount settled. ROBERTS v. COOPER - Kekewich, J. [1891] W. N. 16; [varied by C. A. [1891] W. N. 55; [1891] 2 Ch. 335

Restraint on Anticipation.

— Removal by Court of Restraint.] Restraint on anticipation of property settled on a married woman for life, with remainder to her husband for life, was, under the circumstances, removed till further order, to the extent of allowing the income to be applied in payment of premiums on policies on the husband's life, and towards keeping down interest on mortgages in which she had purported to join with her husband, on the mortgages undertaking to reduce the rate of interest, and not to enforce payment of the principal without leave of the Court. In re MILNER'S SETTLEMENT - Romer, J. 5. — Costs—County Court—Action in High Court.] An action was brought in the High Court for £180, damage for collision, and the plaintiff recovered £100 including £50 paid into Court. The Official Referee refused costs, considering that he was bound by the terms of s. 9 of 31 & 32 Vict. c. 71, the action being one which, according to that section, should have been brought in a County Court:—Held, by C. A., affirming the Div. Ct., that s. 9 was repealed by implication by Order LXXV. r. 1. ROCKETT v. CLIPPINGDALE

Bill of Lading.

1. — Construction.] The words "all other conditions as per charter" held not to incorporate into the bill of lading the negligence clause in the charterparty, so as to extend the excepted perils. Per C. A.: The words ought to be construed as meaning all those conditions of the charterparty as are to be performed by the consignees of the goods, and the perils of the sea are not such conditions. SERRAINO AND SONS v. Carriage of Goods.

Non-delivery of Goods—Sale at Port of Distress—Law of the Flag—Duty of Master by German Law.] Question whether English law or the law of the flag was to be applied to determine whether the master of a ship was justified in selling certain goods, and if the law of the flag was to be applied, what were by German law the duties of the master towards the cargo owner in a port of distress. THE "AUGUST" Sir J. Charterparty.

1. — Advance Freight—Loss of Ship.] A clause in a charterparty stipulating for advance freight, if required, can only be enforced if the requirement be made at a time when the charterers are in a position to insure the advance freight. If the ship be lost before the time of making the requirements, the requirement will be too late, as all insurable interest will be gone. Purposes of "advance freight" considered. SMITH, HILL & CO. v. PYMAN, BELL & CO. — Charles, J. [1891] 1 Q. B. 42; reversed by C. A. [1891] W. N. 64; [1891] 1 Q. B. 742

2. — Bill of Lading.] In this case the question was as to the liability of the owner in respect of certain goods under bills of lading some of which were signed by the captain and some by the charterers' agents. BAUMVOLL MANUFACTURER VON SCHEIBLER v. GILCHRIST [Charles, J. [1891] 2 Q. B. 310

3. — Construction.] Condition in case of break-down for payment of hire to cease "until the vessel was in an efficient state to resume service." The ship's machinery broke down on her homeward voyage, and she was towed to a port of discharge, the expense being treated as a general average:—Held, that while being towed the ship was not efficient, but she became efficient when able to discharge. HOGARTH v. MILLER BROTHER & CO. — H. L. (Sc.) [1891] A. C. 48

4. — Construction.] Evidence admitted to explain an ambiguity in charterparty with regard to expense of lighterage. The charterparty was conditioned to the effect that the ship should load in a certain dock "always afloat." The shipowners, finding, that owing to neap tides, the ship, although she could load afloat, would soon not be able to pass out of dock and so be delayed, removed her to another dock, causing the charterers extra expenses:—Held, that the shipowners were liable. THE "CURFEW" — Div. Ct. [1891] P. 131

5. — Construction—Cesser Clause.] Principles laid down for the construction of a clause providing for the cesser of the charterers' liability on the cargo being loaded, with a view of deciding their liability in damages for the detention of the ship at the port of loading, where such damages are not covered by the word "demurrage." CLINK v. RADFORD & CO. — C. A. [1891] 1 Q. B. 625

6. — Damage—Liability.] Damago to cargo coming from (1) leakage, (2) neglect of master to stop leak, held to be within excepted perils of sea and negligence of master. The charterparty was conditioned that there should be good dunnage, and that a surveyor should certify accordingly. A surveyor did certify that the ship was entitled to full confidence and a good risk for underwriters, but did not mention dunnage:—Held, that the certificate was not conclusive, and the shipowner was liable for damage caused by imperfect dunnage. THE "CRESSINGTON"

[Div. Ct. [1891] P. 152

7. — Demurrage—Strike.] Where the number of the laydays is fixed, the consignees are liable to pay demurrage notwithstanding the inability of the shipowners, owing to a strike, to do their part in the unloading. BUDGETT & CO. v. BINNINGTON & CO. — 25 Q. B. D. (affirmed by C. A.) [1891] 1 Q. B. 36

8. — Demurrage—Strike.] In this case the cargo owners were held liable to pay one day's demurrage, they not having provided sufficient barges, but demurrage paid by them under protest in respect of days on which delay was caused by the strike was ordered to be returned. DOBELL & CO. v. WATTS, WARD & CO. — C. A. affirming Wills, J. [1891] W. N. 131

9. — Demurrage—Strike.] Where no time for unloading is fixed by the contract, the merchant's obligation is to use all reasonable diligence under the circumstances which exist at the time of unloading, unless indeed those circumstances are attributable to his own conduct:—Held, in this case by the C. A. that the strike was beyond the control of the merchants, and the risk ought to be borne by the shipowner and not by the merchant. The authorities reviewed. HICK v. RODOCANACHI [1891] W. N. 156; [1891] 2 Q. B. 693

10. — Demurrage—Strike.] Where a charterparty provided that the cargo should "be discharged with all dispatch as customary," and the ship was detained owing to a strike of dock labourers, Wright, J., held that the charterers were liable. CASTLEGATE STEAMSHIP CO. v. DEMPSEY [1891] W. N. 193

11. — Demurrage—Termination of Voyage—Delivery at Safe Berth as ordered.] By a charterparty the vessel was to proceed to M. and deliver her cargo at any safe berth as ordered on arrival in the dock at G. On arrival a berth was ordered, but, owing to the crowded state of the dock, delay occurred which prevented the vessel being berthed for some time after arrival. On a claim by the shipowners for demurrage arising from the delay:—Held, by C. A., affirm. Charles, J., that the obligation of the charterers to unload did not commence till the vessel was berthed. THABBIN SULPHUR AND COPPER CO. v. MORSE BROTHERS & CO. — C. A. [1891] 2 Q. B. 647

12. — "Lawful Merchandize."] By usage "lawful merchandize" is confined to goods ordinarily shipped from the port of loading. Charles, J., held that as it appeared that ordnance stores were not usually shipped from Ceylon, loading such stores at a port in that Collision.

1. — Sailing Rules—Presumption of Blame.] By s. 17 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1873, a ship proved to have infringed the rules is to be deemed to be in fault. Per Lords Bramwell, Herschell, Macnaghten, and Hannen, the infringement must be one having some possible connection with the collision. EASTERN STEAMSHIP Co. v. SMITH. THE "DUKE OF BUCCLEUCH." C. A. 15 P. D. 86 affirm. by [H. L. (E.) (the votes for and against being [equal] 1891] A. C. 310

2. — Fog—Alteration of Helm.] There is no absolute rule that when a ship in a fog finds another ship approaching she is not to alter her course until the direction of approaching ship is discovered. Each case must depend on its own circumstances. THE "VINDOMORA." OWNERS OF THE "VINDOMORA" v. OWNERS OF THE "HASWELL" - C. A. [14 P. D. 173 (affirmed by H. L. (E.) [1891] A. C. 1

3. — Jettison of Cargo—Claim for General Average.] In a collision between a Dutch and an English steamer, the former was sunk, and the latter so injured that she had to jettison cargo to keep the part of the ship damaged out of the water whilst making for a port of refuge. In an action in rem for damage by collision brought by the owners of the Dutch steamer against the English steamer, to which the owners of the latter appeared and counter-claimed, the Dutch steamer was found alone to blame. On the reference as to damages, the owners of the English steamer claimed (inter alia) to recover against the owners of the Dutch steamer the balance due in general average contribution from ship to cargo in respect of the jettison, after deducting the amount due from cargo to ship in respect of the damage to the ship:—Held, that the claim must be disallowed, as the loss sustained by the ship in having to make the general average contribution was not directly due to the collision, but arose from the obligation to contribute, resulting from the relation between ship and cargo. THE "MARPESSA" - Jeune, J. [1891] P. 403

4. — Misleading Light.] Mersey river rules - Ship deemed at fault as having possibly misled the other and so contributed to the collision. THE "TALBOT" [1891] P. 184

5. — "Not under command."] "Not under command" in Art. 5, sub-ss. (a), (c), (d), of the Regs. means not able to get out of the way. A vessel which has not at all lost her power of turning by means of her helm, but is somewhat disabled from reversing, is therefore not "not under command;" for her to hoist the three red lights required by the article is misleading. THE "P. CALAND" [Jeune, J. [1891] P. 313

6. — Thames Navigation Rules Acts, 17, 18.] A ship turning round and also reversing her engines must give the four blasts of the steam whistle required by art. 18 for vessels turning round. It is not sufficient to give the three blasts ordered by art. 17 (c) for vessels reversing. THE "NEW PELTON"

[Jeune, J. [1891] P. 258

7. — Trawler—Pyrotechnic Light.] In this case the question was as to the time when a red pyrotechnic light shall be shewn by a trawler to an approaching vessel as required by the Regs. for preventing collisions as modified by O. in C. of June 24, 1885. THE "ORION" - Jeune, J. [1891] P. 307

Harbour Master.

Authority of Harbour Master to bind Owners—Permissive Use of Dock for grounding.] A ship entered a dock to load. While crossing the dock she was disabled, and there being no dry dock, with the assent of the harbour-master put into a lock to ground. On grounding she sustained damage owing to the existence of a sill at the lock's bottom, which the harbour-master had represented was level:—Held, by the H. L. (E.) (Lords Bramwell and Morris diss.) that the dock owners were liable. OWNERS OF APOLLO v. PORT TALBOT Co. THE "APOLLO" - [1891] A. C. 499

3. — Derelict Boiler.] The Court, under special circumstances, awarded £50 and costs on the High Court scale to salvors who had landed a derelict boiler, although the boiler when sold fetched under £59. BOILER ez "ELEPHANT" - Pres. [1891] W. N. 62

Seamen.

Statute, Construction of—Act not to apply to Seamen.] Sect. 16 of the Conspiracy and Protection of Property Act, 1875 (38 & 89 Vict. c. 86), means only that the punishments prescribed by the Act are not to fall on seamen. The case of an offence against a seaman by a person who is not a seaman is therefore not excluded from the Act by this section. KENNEDY v. COWIE - Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 771

Transmission of Share to Alien.] In this case Jeune, J., pronounced that a share which had become transmitted to an alien was forfeited to the Crown, and that such share should be sold by the marshal by private contract without appraisal, but not under a stated sum. Lien.

1. — Extent of Lien—Waiver—Taking Security.] Held, (1) that a solicitor's lien only extends to disbursements, such as taxable costs, charges, and expenses, which the Taxing Master can moderate, but does not include ordinary advances on account of income which the solicitor is receiving for the client; (2) that the question whether a solicitor waives his lien by taking a security depends on the intention of the parties to be gathered from the circumstances of the case. 1. — Investigation of Title—New Mortgage or Further Charge.] A tenant for life owed, inter alia, £192,000 to an insurance company. By a private Act the trustees were empowered to raise moneys to pay the debts of the tenant for life. They borrowed £232,000 of the company. The company retained enough to pay their debt, and handed the balance to the trustees:—Held, that the solicitors were entitled to regard the transaction as a new mortgage of £232,000 requiring a fresh investigation of title, and not as a further charge of £40,000 on an old mortgage, the title to which had already been investigated. EARL OF AYLESFORD v. TRADE-MARK.

Merchandise Marks.

By the Merchandise Marks Act, 1891 (54 & 55 Vict. c. 15), the Act of 1887 was amended as to customs entry, and as to official prosecutions.

1. — In an invoice delivered with beer the casks were described as "barrels." One cask contained less than a "barrel" of beer should contain, viz., 34 instead of 36 gallons. The justices dismissed the case on the ground that the mere delivery of an invoice was not an application of a false trade description to the mark:—Held, that the description of the cask in the invoice was not the less applied to the cask within the meaning of the Act of 1887, because the invoice was not physically attached to the cask. Case remitted. Budd v. Lucas - Div. Ct. [1891] 1 Q. B. 408

2. — Alteration—Proprietor's Name.] Firm becoming a limited company. Leave given to alter the register by adding the word "Limited" to the firm's trade marks. In re BURKE'S TRADE MARKS - North, J. [1891] W. N. 2

3. — Alteration—Terms.] The Court allowed a registered mark to be altered by expunging the words "trade mark" on condition that it was made quite clear, on registering the alteration, what part of the mark was essential. In re COLMAN'S TRADE-MARKS [Kekewich, J. [1891] W. N. 78; [1891] 2 Ch. 408

Note:—This case was distinguished by Chitty, J., in In re PHILLIP'S TRADE-MARKS [1891] 3 Ch. 139

No. 4 below.

4. — Alteration.] The Court in this case refused to allow a registered mark to be altered by striking out the words "trade mark," (1) because the marks being old marks ought to be registered just as they were used, prior to August, 1875, and (2) because in the old marks as registered there had been an indication of claiming only the device on the label rather than the label as a whole. In re PHILLIP'S TRADE-MARK - Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 158; [1891] 3 Ch. 139

5. — Amendment of Application—Old Mark—Disclaimer—User.] Held (1) that the Court cannot amend an application under s. 69 of the Act of 1883, by directing the controller to proceed with the registration of the essential part of a proposed trade-mark; (2) that an "old mark" to be registered must be the whole mark used prior to Aug. 13, 1875; (3) an originally defective application cannot be corrected by subsequent disclaimer; (4) semble, a title by user cannot be acquired in a mark used for transhipment only. In re MEES'S APPLICATION Chitty, J. [1891] 1 Ch. 41

6. — Class—Registration for entire Class—User for Part of Class.] Although a person has registered a trade-mark for an entire class, he cannot claim an exclusive right to use it for every article in that class if he has been in the habit of only using it for one article in the class. HABORAVE v. FREEMAN [Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 96; [1891] 3 Ch. 39

7. — Combination—Fancy Words—Brand—Rectification.] Application to remove from register "Pirie's Parchment Bank," which had been registered with a disclaimer of the right to use the two words "Parchment" and "Bank" separately:—Held (1) that words which simply were in common use in a trade would not become a trade-mark by being combined; (2) that the particular words were not fancy words whether used singly or in combination; nor (3) a distinctive brand:—Semble, that a "brand" was not confined to a mark impressed on goods by burning or stamping; water-mark was capable of being a brand.

8. — Distinctive Words—"Stone Ale"—Rectification.] Injunction action by a brewer at Stone, Staff., to restrain the defendants, who had also built a brewery at Stone, from selling their beer as "Stone Ale," and from intruding their trade-mark. The Court of Appeal, holding that the words "Stone Ale" were not distinctive words, ordered the trade-mark to be removed from the register, but granted an injunction to restrain the defendant using the words "Stone Ale" so as to represent his ale to be that of the plaintiff. *In re JOULE'S TRADE-MARK. 9. — Fancy Word not in Common Use.] The word "Britannia" is not a "fancy word" within s. 64 of the Patents, &c., Act, 1883, and is therefore incapable of being registered as a new trade mark. HODGSON v. SINCLAIR. In re HODGSON & SIMPSON'S TRADE-MARK [Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 176

10. — Fraudulent User.] Where marks were used previously to 1887 with a fraudulent addition implying that the goods were made at H., when they were in fact made in M., the Court refused an application to register the devices minus the fraudulent addition. In re FUENTE'S TRADE MARKS - Bomer, J. [1891] W. N. 39; [1891] 2 Ch. 166

11. — "Old Mark"—User before Aug. 13, 1875—Rectification.] User as a trade-mark in s. 10 of the Trade Marks Registration Act, 1875, means user alone, not user in combination with other words. In the present case the words "Monopole" and "Dry Monopole" had only been used as part of a trade-mark, and therefore should not have been registered. The trade-marks were therefore ordered to be expunged from the register. RICHARDS v. BUTCHER - Kay, J., W. N. (1890) 194; [affirmed by C. A. [1891] W. N. 91; [1891] 2 Ch. 522

12. — Person aggrieved—Disclaimer—Geographical Words.] In this case the following points were considered: the meaning of "person aggrieved," "common to the trade," and "place of business." The necessity for disclaiming words forming part of label and the proper time for disclaimer. The right of a purchaser to register as his own the trade-mark of a foreign producer. The right to register geographical words like "Apollinaris." The right to have a trade-mark wrongfully registered struck off, although it may be immediately reinstated. The right to choose which Act to proceed under, where the proceedings cover both. In re APOLLINARIS CO. TRADE-MARKS (No. 2) C. A. [1891] 2 Ch. 186

On the same day a builder began to remove the tiles of the house preparatory to rebuilding, and in so doing damaged the tenant's furniture. The tenant sued for trespass and damage:—Held (1), that the landlord's common law right of entry was not suspended by the issuing of the possession warrant; (2) that the removal of the tiles did not amount to a forcible entry, and the tenant had no cause of action. *JONES v. TRUSTEE.

1. — Breach of Trust.] Trustees and executors instead of selling residuary personalty as directed by their testator, who died in 1872, allowed his widow and children to occupy the testator's farm, and carried such farm on for the benefit of the family until 1882, when X., one of testator's sons, attained twenty-one, and certain portions of the property became divisible among him and his brothers. In 1890 X. and one of his brothers sued T., the surviving executor and trustee, for not sooner selling the residuary personalty, and for carrying on the farm with the testator's assets:—Held, by Romer, J., that the action was brought not to recover a legacy, but against a trustee to recover money in respect of a breach of trust, and was "one to which no existing statute of limitations applied" when the Trustee Act, 1888, was passed. Therefore, under s. 8 of that Act, more than six years having elapsed, the action failed. In re SWAIN. SWAIN v. BRINGEMAN - [1891] W. N. 144; [1891] 3 Ch. 233

2. — Cestui que Trust—Share of Trust Estate—Consols—Information as to Incumbrances on the Fund.] A cestui que trust who is contingently entitled in remainder to a share of Consols standing in the name of a trustee, is entitled to obtain from such trustee an authority to the Bank of England, enabling him to ascertain whether there are any charging-orders, stop-orders, or distringages upon the trust fund. *In re TILLOTT. 3. — Duty to Persons not cestuis que trust—Misrepresentation.] A person proposing to lend money on a life interest inquired of the trustee whether there were any prior charges. The trustee, forgetting that several prior charges were recited in the deed appointing him, replied in the negative. The security proved worthless and the mortgagee claimed indemnity from the trustee:—Held, he was not liable. The mortgagees before advancing the money inquired of the trustees of the will as to the existence of incumbrances, but received no answer. S.

afterwards died, and a new trustee was appointed in his place:—Held, by C. A., that as S. was living at the time when the mortgagees took their security, and they took it without obtaining an answer from him as to the existence of prior incumbrances, they took subject to the settlement of which he had notice, and that the priority of the settlement to the mortgage could not be lost by the subsequent death of S. before the period of distribution. *In re WYATT. The co-heiresses did not receive the rents of the estate; but, on being called upon to do so, appointed new trustees:—Held, that the appointment was good, for they were trustees because they could have exercised the power of sale, and they were "acting trustees" because they had acted in making the appointment:—Held, also, following Christie v. Ovington (1 Ch. D. 279), that, although the intestate was a "bare trustee" and died after the Land Transfer Act, 1875, the trust estate did not vest in his personal representative. In re CUNNINGHAM AND FRAYLING—Stirling, J. [1891] W. 1. — Accumulations for Improving Lands—Thellusson's Act.] A trust to accumulate income in order to improve lands, so long as the improvements come under the words "maintain in good habitable repair houses and tenements on property," is outside the Thellusson's Act. Money laid out in building houses would be within the Act. Difference between trusts for improving and trusts for purchasing lands considered. VINE v. RALEIGH [C. A. [1891] W. VENDOR AND PURCHASER.

Conditions of Sale.

1. — "Holding Title."] A mortgagee selling under a power of sale furnished an abstract title which showed a defect in the mortgagor's title. The purchaser refused, although after the time limited by the conditions of sale, to conclude the sale, and claimed the return of the deposit. The mortgagee then showed that he was at the time of the mortgage ignorant of the defect, and had a good holding title:—Held, by Romer, J., that, as he had not disavowed his holding title until the plaintiff was in a position to rescind and claim the return of the deposit, he was too late. But, held by A., that there was no defect in the title, and so the purchaser could not rescind. REBY v. THOMAS Romer, J. [1891] W. N. 4; [reversed by C. A. [1891] W. N. 28

2. — A condition requiring the purchaser to assume a certain fact, e.g. the death of A., and estate and without heirs, is not misleading if the vendor really believes the fact, although the fact to be assumed is absolutely necessary to the vendor's title. Nor is it necessary to state in the condition the particular defect which the condition is intended to cover. In re SANDBACH AND EDMONTON'S CONTRACT [C. A. [1891] 1 Ch. 99

3. — Power for vendors to rescind without compensation:—Held, that the words, "notwithstanding any previous negotiation or litigation," could not be construed to include a final judgment given adverse to the title, and therefore the vendors on rescinding were bound to pay the intended purchaser the cost of investigating the title. In re ARBIB AND CLASS' CONTRACT North, J. [1890] W. N. 186; [affirmed by C. A. [1891] W. N. 22; [Both Courts [1891] 1 Ch. 601

1. — Offer and Acceptance.] The Court, without deciding whether there was a completed contract or not, held, that if there were a contract, as the vendor could not make a conveyance, the purchaser was entitled to rescind. Held, also, that the co-plaintiff was not entitled to damages, even if (as to which quære) he could have given a proper conveyance. Appeal dismissed. BELLAMY v. DEBENHAM North, J. 45 Ch. D. 481; varied by C. A. [1891] W. N. 7; [1891] 1 Ch. 412

2. — Rents and Profits in lieu of Interest.] A contract by one of two tenants in common of a stone quarry for the sale to the other of her interest, contained a provision that if the purchase were not completed by a certain day the vendor should receive the "rents and profits" of the premises until completion in lieu of interest. The quarry was subject to a lease, and the payments made by the lessees had been divided between the vendor and purchaser according to their respective interests, and such division was continued subsequently to the contract. Keke-wich, J., held that the vendor was entitled to the rents and royalties received since the date of the contract. LEPPINGTON v. FREEMAN [1891] W. N. 159; affirm. by C. A. [1891] W. N. 198

Purchaser in Possession.

— Specific Performance.] The Court declined to order the purchaser in possession, who had done nothing to interfere with the value of property, to pay the balance of the purchase-money, but ordered that he elect within a month to pay it or give up possession. In the later case he must pay interest at 4 per cent. from date for completion. GREENWOOD v. TURNER — [Keke-wich, J. [1891] W. N. 31; [1891] 2 Ch. 144

Rescission.

1. — Abstract—Reasonable Time for Delivery.] In a case where the vendor failed to deliver an abstract within a reasonable time, he was ordered to repay the deposit with interest at 4%, and by way of damages the purchaser's costs of investigating the title. In this case fourteen days was considered a reasonable time. COMPTON v. BAGLEY [Romer, J. [1891] W. N. 196 should not annul the sale, but that compensation should be allowed therefor, and (clause 8) that if there should be any objection as to title, the vendor should be entitled to rescind. Subsequently a right of way, of which neither party was aware, was discovered over a portion of the property:—Held, that the objection was one of title, and that the vendor was entitled to rescind. ASHBURNER v. SEWELL [Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 158; [1891] 8 Ch. 405

Reversion.

— Certain land was purchased compulsorily as freehold. On examination of title the land was discovered to be held on a long term of which a few years were still to run. The owner received compensation as leaseholder and the purchasers went into possession, paying into Court the value of the reversion. Twelve years after the term expired, the representative of the leaseholder, there being no other claimant, applied to have the reversion money paid out to him. The Court refused the application, holding that the leaseholder was not in possession when the term expired and never had any inchoate possession of or title to the reversion. GEDYE v. COMMISSIONERS OF WORKS — — — North, J. [1891] W. N. 37; affirmed by C. A. [1891] W. N. 92; [1891] 2 Ch. 630

Title, Objections to.

1. — Trustees for sale under a voluntary settlement contracted to sell and agreed that the settlor should concur. The purchasers objected to the title:—Held, that a sale by the trustees with the concurrence of the settlor would not avoid the dangers of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, s. 47, and the title was not good. The Court suggested that the settlor should avoid the settlement (27 Eliz. c. 4) by selling directly to the purchasers and resettling the proceeds by directing payment to the trustees. In re BARGOS & SPICKER [Stirling, J. [1891] W. N. 30; [1891] 2 Ch. 127

2. — Delay.] Conditions fixing commencement of title in 1852, and limiting time for requisitions—Discovery by purchaser before completion of a restrictive covenant created in 1847:—Held, that the existence of the restrictive covenant was fatal, because the purchaser, by taking less than a forty years' title, would have had constructive notice of it, and would have been bound by it:—Held, also, on the facts, that there was no delay in giving the vendor notice of the defect. In re COX AND NEVE'S CONTRACT — — — North, J. WAY, RIGHT OF.

1. — Abatement of Obstruction to Right of Way.] In this case, where a right of way was obstructed by an inhabited house, the Court granted leave to abate the obstruction, although a receiver had been appointed of certain property including the house in question. LANE v. CAPSEY - Chitty, J. [1891] W. N. 164; [1891] 3 Ch. 411

2. — Easement.] A. owned two houses, C and B, which were situated back to back and from one of which, C, there was a paved and walled passage along the side of and through the other, B, to B street. A. occupied the house C and let B. The passage was not a way of necessity, and was only used occasionally by A. In 1882 A. mortgaged the house B, without reserving any right over the passage, and in 1886 she died, having by her will of the same year devised the two houses to different persons, the will containing no words appropriate to any right of way. The ultimate devisee of C conveyed that house to the plaintiff, purporting to include in such conveyance the right of way. The defendant, who was the devisee of B, paid off the mortgage thereon, and that house was reconveyed to him:—Held, by the C. A., affirming the Div. Ct., that as the plaintiff and defendant were both volunteers, the plaintiff had no equity to deprive the defendant of the larger estate which she had obtained by virtue of the reconveyance. The action was therefore dismissed subject to the right (if any) of the plaintiff to redeem the mortgage. The C. A. did not decide whether or no any right of way passed under the will to the plaintiff's predecessor. TAWS v. KNOWLES - [1891] [W. N. 136; [1891] 2 Q. B. 564

Obstruction for a long period is no answer to public rights.—Defendant refused costs as between solicitor and client, the case not coming within s. 109 of the Highways Act, 1835. *PULLIN v. A. had previously contributed towards the endowment of the church at C., and the chief clerk found that one of the conditions of that gift was that the black gown should be worn in the pulpit.
